Your brother? Isn't there only three sons and one daughter in the Gallagher family?
Dallas asked in confusion.

Now that the three men in the Gallagher family were all dead, why was there another younger brother?

Evangeline said. "He doesn't belong to the Gallagher family. Although we are not related by blood, we are a family. I was a wanderer when I was young. Thanks to my life I feel so hard." And Naomi... She didn't want to expose Naomi in public, so she didn't mention

Dexter and Arthur both looked at Evangelife. Evangeline raised her eyebrows and said, "Only children make choices..."

Dallas' eyes lit up, and he replied quickly. "So adults will have ally"

"You can stay and eat together if you want

Dallas immediately said, "OK then."

It was dinner time. Arthur and the others began to barbecue together. The yard suddenly became lively.

Hugo and Steven went to fetch a case of wine, one for each.

Evangeline looked around the four of them and asked, "Are you sure?"

"The live stream is still on. If you get drunk and make a fool of yourself, it's none of my business."

Steven said, "Evangeline, don't underestimate me. I can drink a lot now. You will never beat me." Hugo said, "I can drink too."

Finnegan pushed up his glasses and said confidently, "I can drink the best among the four. I won't get drunk.

"But Arthur can't drink. We should leave him alone."

Arthur's face darkened immediately. He gritted his teeth and said, "I can drink too. "Let's compete later. If you fall before me, you lie down and bark like a dog" Finnegan was very confident. "Okay. You can do whatever you like. Anyway, you won't win."

Dallas asked again, "I'm still curious. So many people hurt you in the show, and there must be more in reality. Aren't you afraid?" Evangeline smiled and said, "It doesn't matter. I will go crazy. Madness is the most powerful weapon against the world."

Dallas was stunned for a while, then he thought of her performance in the show and smiled. "Yes, I believe you are right." Hugo and Steven came to their senses. They staggered over and said with a smile, "Evangeline, we're here to bring you a gift. Evangeline asked curiously, "What gift?"

Steven smiled and said, "You are not short of money. You certainly don't like ordinary things. We have prepared a fireworks show for you to wish you happiness in the future."

When they came over, they handed the fireworks to the bodyguard. They had moved them to a proper place so that they could see them by sitting in this yard. Steven and Hugo ran to inform the bodyguards and told them to start setting off fireworks. Fireworks exploded in the sky. Everyone looked up at the sky.

A smile appeared on Evangeline's face. The light of the firework explosion shone in her eyes, which was dazzling.

Arthur, who was picking up stones, and Finnegan, who was chewing grass, were attracted by the sound of fireworks. They looked up at the sky. It was beautiful. There were smiles on their faces unconsciously.

The fireworks exploded in the sky, spelling out a series of cheerful messages: May those who see this become rich, beautiful, and handsome. May all your wishes come true, and may you enjoy good fortune, health, peace, joy, and happiness forever.
