Chapter 5

Evangeline just smirked, hoisted her backpack, and took the lead to enter the forest. The others followed suit

Once Evangeline entered the forest, she noticed the weeds had been cleared.

The production team showed them some mercy, after all

As Evangeline walked ahead, she spotted a rabbit hopping ahead. Without hesitation, she sprinted after it

However, rabbits were known for their speed when running from danger. In the blink of an eye, it hopped off into the distance.

Evangeline bent down to pick up a stone from the ground and flicked it. The stone flew out and accurately hit the rabbit on the head.

The rabbit dropped dead instantly.

"Wow! Amazing exclaimed the cameraman in shock..

Evangeline raised an eyebrow. "How lucky."

The rabbit was enough for her.

Evangeline walked over, picked up the rabbit, and retraced her steps.

Approaching the riverbank, she took a folding knife from her prepared gear and started processing the rabbit.

At that moment, Meghan happened to pass by and witnessed the bloody scene. She couldn't help screaming, "Ah! Evangeline, you are so ruthless. You seem good at this. Do you often kill animals?" Evangeline hurled the rabbit's intestines at Meghan.

"Piss off" she snapped

"Ah!" Meghan let out a shrill cry, nearly fainting.

'I can't believe she threw such a disgusting thing on me' she exclaimed inwardly

"Evangeline, you've gone too far" Teary-eyed, Meghan stomped her feet and ran off to find a change of clothes

The netizens erupted into a commotion. [Holy crap! Evangeline is vicious! She actually threw intestines at Meghan. "That's disgusting!]

[Meghan is so good-tempered. If someone dared to do that to me, I'd break their hands!]

[Am I the only one who thinks Meghan is bringing this upon herself? Evangeline has been picking on her from the start, but she kept approaching Evangeline. Isn't she asking for trouble?]

I think Meghan just ate her own bitter fruit. She was trying to make the audience misunderstand Evangeline for having a tendency to kill animals. She deserves to be bullied"]

[I support Meghan. Evangeline was so good at killing rabbits. She must be used to it!]]

[Evangeline is mean and unfriendly. She may enjoy abusing animals, too!]]

[Let's criticize this malicious woman and drive her out of the entertainment industry!]

Evangeline processed swiftly, quickly gutting and skinning the rabbit

Then, she collected some dry branches, started a fire by the riverbank, and, once charcoal was produced, she began grilling the rabbit

The meat would blacken and get tainted with the stench of smoke if it was roasted directly on fire, making it taste bad.

The team in charge of looking for food returned.

The three looked disheveled but were empty-handed.

Jolene held a bunch of wild vegetables, unsure if they were edible.

"It smells so good." Jolene inhaled deeply, savoring the rich aroma.

When she saw Evangeline roasting meat, she was shocked. "Evangeline, you found food? What have you got? Did you catch it by yourself? How did you manage to catch something so quickly!"

Chapter 5

However, Travis snorted, "She must've gotten lucky and stumbled upon a barely alive creature!"

Jolene thought Travis' words were reasonable

"We didn't catch anything. What are we going to eat tonight? These wild vegetables might not even be edible..." she said weakly.

Kendrick gulped, enticed by the mouthwatering aroma

He glanced at the darkening sky and suggested, "Before it's completely dark, let's search again"

So, the three of them ventured back into the forest.

They indeed found the poultry released by the production team

In just ten minutes, they spotted at least ten chickens.

Some of the chickens legs were even broken by the production team, making them run slower.

However, they will couldn't catch any.

After half an hour, with the sky darkening and lower visibility in th in the forest, they came out empty-handed.

Meanwhile, Evangeline's rabbit was done, and she started eating.

Crispy and golden brown, the hare meat looked incredibly delicious.

The three of them swallowed subconsciously, and their stomachs growled as they watched Evangeline

Another discussion erupted among the netizens in the chat room. I didn't expect Evangeline to have such culinary skills. The rabbit she grilled looks crispy outside and tender inside. It looks appetizing I [This hare meat is well roasted. It looks much more tasty than the dishes cooked by food bloggers I have seen.

[I'm getting hungry. I'm going to order some food]

[It's decided. I'm having hare meat tonight, too]

Jolene retracted her gaze and asked Dallas, "Mr. Fowler, what are you guys eating?"

She planned to ask Dallas and the crew for some food when it was time for them to cat

Dallas smiled and took out a fis-sized red fruit from his pocket. "We also sent people to look for food and found a fruit tree, but it was not enough, We don't have enough for all the staff. Sorry, you guys have to figure it out yourselves

Jolene was disappointed

Meanwhile, Dallas and the crew began enjoying the strange fruits.

However, not even ten minutes later, those who had eaten the red fruit suddenly convulsed and collapsed, vomiting blood profusely.

"Oh no, the fruits are poisonous someone exclaimed.

Five or six crew members who hadn't eaten the fruits rushed to check on the affected ones

However, they felt helpless as none of them had medical skills.

Those people vomited blood for a few minutes, and then they lost consciousness and lay on the ground motionlessly.

Someone checked and shouted in panic, "They... they seem to have stopped breathing! Quick, get them to a doctor"

The surviving staff members hastily carried the unconscious individuals onto the cruise ship.

Subsequently, the cruise ship started up and quickly moved away from the island.

The guests were dumbfounded.

In only a few minutes, the entire production team had disappeared, leaving them, the helpless celebrities, in the wilderness.

"Mr. Fowler, come back and take us with you! How could you leave us here? What are we supposed to do? Jolene ran to the riverside and shouted at the departing cruise ship

However, the situation on the cruise ship was chaotic, so no one paid her any attention.

They could only watch helplessly as the cruise ship sailed away.

Jolene was on the verge of tears. "We've been abandoned here. What do we do now!"

Kendrick, who was older and more mature, said calmly, "Don't worry. They must've panicked and forgot about us because many crew members passed out. Once they calm down, they'll remember us. Right now, all we need to do is wait patiently"

Jolene found his words reasonable and calmed down.

Just then, Meghan and Samson walked out of the forest

Meghan walked ahead empty-handed while Samson followed behind with a pile of hay.

She said apologetically. "Sorry, guys. We didn't find a suitable place to sleep for the night. This open space seems decent. We'll make beds here for tonight. Sam and I gathered some hay for everyone." "Huh? Where's Mr. Fowler? Where's the camera crew? What about the staff? Why are they all gone! Where did they go? Meghan suddenly noticed that only the guests were present, and the production team had vanished. Confusion painted her face.

Distressed, Jolene explained, "Just now. Mr. Fowler and most of the production team are some wild fruit, and they all fell unconscious due to poisoning. Those who didn't eat the fruit brought them onto the cruise ship to seek medical help.

She added, "See those bloodstains on the ground? That's what they vomited just now. The blood hasn't even dried yet."

00000 000 000 00

Meghan glanced at the large crimson stains on the ground, startled. The place resembled a crime scene

She frowned, "All the staff left? Not a single person stayed? Does that mean we're not filming anymore?"

Travis said, "Before they left, someone checked the breathing of those who fainted and said they had stopped breathing- Filming naturally can't continue since even Mr. Fowler has collapsed. We'll have to wait until the start contacts the investors and sends a new production team?"

Now that filming had discontinued, Meghan's tender, amicable demeanor disappeared. She started showing signs of annoyance.

From the moment she got off the cruise ship, she was disgusted with this place, especially upon stepping into the forest. She wore a dress and had grass brushing against her legs while walking, causing pain and itching. Insects kept flying onto her and biting her, adding to her annoyance.

However, since filming was ongoing, she had to pretend to not care, putting on a resilient and tough facade.

She wondered when the cameraman following her and Samson disappeared.

They were probably too tired and didn't hear the commotion outside while the two cameramen rushed out of the forest since they did

Suddenly. Meghan smelled a delightful aroma and looked in the direction of Evangeline, who was enjoying her roasted rabbit. Her stomach betrayed her with an involuntary growl. Unable to control the saliva in her mouth, she was desperately hungry,

She often skipped meals, even dinner, as part of her slicting routine.

Usually, she could endure it, but today, perhaps due to exhaustion or the tempting smell of Evangeline's roasted rabbit, her hunger became unbearable.

She was starving and wanted something to eat

Withdrawing her gaze from Evangeline, she turned to look at Jolene. "What did you find for food?"

Jolene lifted the wild vegetables. Just these...

Meghan's face darkened. "Sam and I worked hard to ensure everyone could sleep well tonight. Yet, you three only managed to find a bunch of wild vegetables? Pigs wouldn't even eat this stuff?" She continued, "While Sam and I gathered hay, we saw several limping chickens. You three couldn't even catch those. Pathetic"

Jolene was displeased. "We tried our best. Those chickens and rabbits ran so fast. We just couldn't catch them!"

She added, "How should you reprimand us? You guys only found some hay! That bit of hay isn't even enough for one person to sleep on. There are so many of us. How will we sleep tonight?" Meghan looked at her. "Are you blaming me?"

Chapter 5

Jolene was intimidated by her gaze. She took a step back and shook her head. "I'm not blaming you. I'm just saying."

She knew Meghan's brother's status in the entertainment industry, so she dared not offend Meghan. Otherwise, she wouldn't survive in the industry.

Therefore, despite her dissatisfaction, she could only bear with it.

"Humph!" Meghan scoffed contemptuously.

Samson said, "Since you don't appreciate the hay we found, solve your sleeping problems yourselves!"

Jolene bit her lip, not daring to speak.

Meghan looked into the distance and, seeing Evangeline enjoying the roasted rabbit, couldn't help but swallow hard.

She turned to Samson and acted pitifully. "Sam, I've been walking in the forest all afternoon, and I'm so hungry....."

Samson glanced at Evangeline, who was enjoying her meal in the distance. Displeasure flashed in his eyes as he sternly said, "Wait here. I'll go get some food for you"

He walked toward Evangeline with determination, followed by Meghan and the rest. They all hoped to get a share of the food

"You, split the hare meat in half for Meghan, Samson ordered, standing before Evangeline with arrogance.

Evangeline replied, "Get lost?"

Meghan criticized, "Evangeline, how can you treat Sam like this!"

Evangeline snapped, "You too piss off"

Meghan bit her lip in frustration. "Evangeline, don't cross the line. We

We came to reconcile with you out of concern for you. How can you be so mean?"

She continued, "With the production team gone, we're left alone in this wilderness: How do you plan to spend the night without our care?" Evangeline remarked sarcastically. I'm well-equipped. I'll spend the night as I want. The ones who should worry about tonight are you guys, not Meghan was livid, her face flushed red with anger.

Samson's expression became even more unpleasant as he said grimly. "Evangeline, you're being unreasonable. Meghan cares for you, yet you don't appreciate it fine, but why did you have to be so sarcastic? When have you become so mean? Can't you learn from Meghan! We would've liked you. more if you were as sensible as her?"

Evangeline sneered, "I don't care whether you like me or not?"

Samson took a deep breath to suppress his anger. "I'll take it as you're being stubborn. Apologize to Meghan right now and promise to turn over a new leaf. When we return, I'll plead with Dad and Mom to let you return to the Gallagher residence."

  32* 282 25 1 **

Evangeline raised her gaze, looking at him as if he were an liol

Wondering if Samson was slow, she snorted, "Heh, return to the Gallagher residence I don't care. There's not a single mentally-sound person in the family. I'm afraid I'd become stupid too if I were to hang around you guys every day I won't go back even if you beg me"

Samson and Meghan glared at Evangeline, enraged.

Angry and starving, Meghan no longer bothered to put on a facade without the camera recording. Through gritted teeth, she said, "Sam, cut the crap and teach her a lesson! She picks on me and even sells our family shares privately. On top of that, she's mean and violent to us. We should have taught her a lesson long ago!"

Evangeline sneered, "You're good at distorting the truth. The stocks I sold belonged to me. Otherwise, how could I have sold them? Use that underdeveloped brain of yours before falsely accusing me."

Meghan was so angry that she was on the verge of pissing out.

She ignored Evangeline's words and turned to the other three people. "Evangeline insulted me and targeted me. If you take my side and teach her at lesson, I'll have Edward provide you with resources when we return. You guys will get a part in at least one high budget film and be recommended for luxury brand endorsements!"

All three were tempted by the offer.

In today's competitive entertainment industry, even a famous actor as acclaimed as Kendrick struggled to secure good roles.

Luxury brand endorsements were even rarer

This offer was indeed enticing to them.

However, they had reservations

Jolene said. "If things get exposed, won't it be bad for our image"

Meghan sneered. "The production team is gone, and no one will see it. As long as we don't tell, who would know!"

She added, "If she dares to spread rumors, as long as we deny it and accuse her of bullying us instead, do you think the netizens would believe us reputable celebrities, or her, a scandalous person?"

Upon hearing her words, the three relaxed.

In unison, they said, "All right, we'll follow your plan. Tell us what to do"

They were not surprised by the stark contrast between Meghan's on-screen and off-screen personas.

They had heard that Meghan was not as kind and gentle in private since long ago.

In the entertainment industry, many celebrities presented a kind image in public while being a completely different person behind the scenes. Hence, they were accustomed to it.

Even their on-screen personas were carefully crafted by their agencies.

Meghan smirked and pointed at Evangeline with malicious intent. "Go snatch the grilled meat and her backpack from her. I saw she brought a tent and an inflatable bed. We'll have a place to sleep tonight!"

Hearing Meghan's order, the three approached Evangeline with hostile, tense looks on their faces.

Unbeknownst to them, however, many state-of-the-art miniature hidden cameras were planted in the forest.

These cameras were not only as clear as professional ones but also equipped with excellent audio capabilities.

They were extremely tiny and didn't emit any light. Even if the cameras were right in front of the participants, they wouldn't necessarily notice them.

After the production team left, these miniature cameras had been activated.

Meanwhile, the livestream on the internet had never stopped.

Chapter 6

The audience commented: Holy moly Can someone tell me what's going on right now?)

[Did the production team really faint from getting poisoned? What's with the live room! Why is the livestream still going on!]

[This is shocking news. I didn't expect Meghan to be this arrogant in private, even asking others to bully Evangeline. The production team has just left for less than ten minutes, and she immediately stops pretending. I can't believe it!]

Someone asked: [Why are the others not surprised at all? Is everyone from the industry aware of her true nature?]

[Jolene, Travis, and Kendrick, what's with you guys! You all team up to bully Evangeline to get benefits from Meghan? Throwing away your morality for them?

[Poor Evangeline]

Someone criticized: [Serves Evangeline right Have you all forgotten what she has done in the past!]

That's right. Evangeline used to bully Meghan and had been repeating it recently. Even if Meghan teams up with others to bully Evangeline, she's only giving her a taste of her own medicine. Evangeline deserves it. We don't need to sympathize with her!]

Just as the discussion in the live room was heated up, the livestream suddenly switched to connection mode.

Then, a small video call window appeared on the interface, with Dallas showing in it, with several familiar figures standing behind him.

The audience immediately commented: [Hey! Isn't that Mr. Fowler? Didn't he die from poison? Why is he still alive? Did he come back to life!]

[The people behind look familiar... Oh, I remember them. They're the poisoned staff. Were they not poisoned too?]

[What in the world is going on? Mr. Fowler, say something!!]

Dallas finally responded with a big smile. "Hello everyone. The staff who are the wild fruits and I are all fine. We're not poisoned nor dead. Sorry for making everyone worried"

The audience responded: [Cut to the chase and explain.]

[That's right! Explain now. Why did you pretend to get poisoned and leave the filming site? Why is the livestream still going on when you've left]

Dallas looked at the comments and replied happily, "We're doing a new filming mode. By putting hidden cameras to film secretly, we'll show you the most real side of the celebrities, capturing their unknown moment."

He added. "We pretended to get poisoned from eating wild fruits to deceive the celebrities on purpose, making them believe that we left due to unfortunate accidents. This would lower their suspicion and let their true selves be seen without reservations"

The audience immediately commented: [Neat Mr. Fowler sure knows how to entertain us!]

I can't think of another word aside from amazing]

[Who would have thought the guests showed their true colors at once.]

[Other than Evangeline acting arrogant throughout the livestream, everyone else's images have collapsed. This is utterly shocking.]

Such filming is unacceptable, but I love it.] added someone.

But this is a one-time show, right"]

Dallas replied with a smile, "Why would it be unacceptable! I've reminded them about the hidden cameras during the filming, and they have to keep up their images at any time. I even mentioned this rule in the contract. See, it's written here.

He took out a contract and pointed at a part, showing it to the audience.

The audience commented: (I'm speechless. Mr. Fowler sure is well prepared to avoid the guests from suing him afterward.)

[Such secret camera filming has never been used in the entertainment industry. I bet the guests never expected hidden cameras and their true nature exposed]

It would say the production team's acting skills are too realistic. The poisoning and blood vomiting scene had scared me. It made me think the staff were dead. I'm a coroner, but I didn't see any flaws in it.]

Someone laughed and typed: [That's great! This is much more interesting than usual shows!]

Dallas said, "All right, everyone. Please keep watching! You can also purchase the recommended merchandise!"

After promoting the advertisement, he cut off the connection and restored the filming scene in the live room.

Back at the scene, no one was aware of the hidden cameras

Jolene, Travis, and Kendrick had gathered around Evangeline under Meghan's instigation, ready to snatch the half-eaten rabbit, along with her hiking bag. Evangeline looked calm and looked up coldly at the three.

She

entered. "I have no grudge against you. Stop now, and I won't hurt you"

Kendrick said. "If you hand over the hiking bag and meat, neither will we hurt you."

Travis uttered, "Don't be so selfish. We're all hungry, and you are the only one who has food for yourself. Don't you feel bad!"

Jolene said, "You have to consider the others."

Evangeline sneered, "It seems you're no different from Meghan and Samson. You're hypocritical and selfish without morality-a disgrace to humanity." Hearing her criticism, the others instantly changed faces Meghan ordered the others angrily, "Since Evangeline wants us to do it the hard way, let's just grab all her things and beat her up again. We should teach her a lesson!" "Thinking of beating me? How?" Evangeline asked as she stared at Meghan.

She suddenly stood up and came to Meghan in the blink of an eye.

She slapped Meghan hard in the face,

"Like this" Evangeline asked with a half-smile.

She then kicked Samson i swiftly and asked, "Or like this?"

After that, she punched Travis in the eye, and the latter's eye instantly became bruised,

"Or like this?" Evangeline asked again as she punched Kendrick in the chest, sending him fly flying away several feet.

She also kicked the back of Jolene's knee, causing Jolene to kneel on her knees with a plop. "How do you want to bear me? Evangeline asked with a smirk.

Everyone was stunned.

Meghan returned to her senses first and shouted. "Evangeline! How dare you hit me! I'll end you!"

She screamed and pounced on Evangeline.

Evangeline dodged to the side.

With a plop, Meghan missed her target and fell to the ground, falling flat on her face and losing half a tooth.

She cried and screamed with anger, complaining furiously to Samson, Sam, look at Evangeline! She keeps bullying me. You have to avenge me!

With a darkened face, Samson said, "Evangeline, why have you become like this! Why are you always targeting Meghan?"

Evangeline tilted her head and asked confusedly. I just did what you asked for. Why would it be me targeting her?"

Samson said, "Although you've signed a contract to bully Meghan and highlight her on the show, we're not filming right now, so stop bullying her. Besides, you don't have to get too invested. You're out of line for kicking Meghan and injuring her"

Evangeline shrugged and replied, "Pardon. To avoid loopholes, I gotta follow the contract's rules before Mr. Fowler signals to end the filming so that you won't blame me for not doing my part and accuse me for it"

Samson was rendered speechless by Evangeline's words.

Evangeline ignored them and walked back to the fire. She se down and lazily told them, "All of you are no match for me. Get lost if you don't want to get beaten up again."

Samson gritted his teeth and helped Meghan up, leaving the area.

"Sam, are we just leaving like this? She hit me and broke half of a tooth of mine, I can't just leave Meghan shouted, her face full of resentment.

Samson replied, "What che can we do? We can't beat hert"

Meghan clenched her teeth tightly, thinking Samson was a useless man who couldn't even beat a woman

The other three were also furious but didn't dare to provoke Evangeline. They could only leave with Samson and Meghan

The audience in the live room commented: [My goodness! Evangeline is so good at fighting. She could even fight all of them alone. How amazing!! [Why're you feeling impressed? Only Meghan fought Evangeline. Everyone else was intentionally letting Evangeline win. Stop giving her a new image!] [Judging by Evangeline's speed and gesture, she must have learned to fight before. Even if the others fight against her in one go, they may not be able to win.]

Someone asked. What did Samson mean? A contract? Why does it sound like they made Evangeline sign a contract and wanted her to bully Meghan on purpose during the filming and make Meghan gain more attention"]

[Sounds like it to me. I can't believe such a thing is happening. The entertainment industry sure has a dark side!

[Why would Evangeline sign such a contract! If Mr. Fowler hadn't arranged secret filming. Evangeline would have had her career completely ruined once the show revealed her bullying Meghan. Doesn't she care about her fame?)

An audience explained [She may not have signed it voluntarily Have you forgotten who's the boss of her management company? It's Meghan's brother. Edward Gallagher! It's not surprising that he would force Evangeline to sign one to highlight Meghan's image and promote her.]

[But he's abo Evangeline's brother, isn't he?]

[Judging from Samson's attitude toward Evangeline. I'm sure that the Gallagher family doesn't like Evangeline at

Someone exclaimed I'm so sick of Meghan. She formed a gang to isolate Evangeline and tried to steal her stuff. Why is she so shameless? I can't believe she's so good at pretending!

[I hope Evangeline can teach Meghan a lesson. I can't stand this pretentious woman!]

Evangeline sat by the fire and finished the rest of the rabbit meal.

The sky turned completely dark.

Evangeline took out a tent and set it up by the fire

A folding tent was easy to set up, which only required opening and securing the poles.

Evangeline took out an air bed and inflated it, stuffing it into the tent.

After that, she took out some toiletries from her bag and threw the bag into the tent. She then walked to the river with a flashlight.

She took off her windbreaker and cargos, with sportswear and shorts underneath, and it would be no issue with just them on

Dallas initially wanted to cut off the camera on Evangeline's side and zoom in on Meghan's. However, he immediately halted after seeing Evangeline wearing a sports vest and shorts

He would cut the screen off once Evangeline intended to keep undressing.

If the guests needed to relieve themselves but couldn't find a hidden place, the staff would also cut it off for privacy reasons. Without taking off the remaining clothes, Evangeline sat on the shore and dampened a towel, using it to wipe her sweat.

In such an open wilderness, she wouldn't get naked, even if there was no one around.

It was mainly because she didn't feel secure without shelter to hide her presence

Chapter 6

In the live room, the audience got excited watching Evangene by the river, making the livestream's popularity reach a new peak.

They commented [Holy potatoes! Am I seeing what I'm seeing! Evangeline has abs! Her body's muscle lines are so clear to the eyes yet not exaggerated. I want to touch them so bad!]

(Oh wow! Evangeline has such a nice body. She usually dresses conservatively with loose outfits, so we can't see how good her body is]

[From now on, I'm Evangeline's body... Oops, a big fan!]

[What a fit-looking body! I love it]

Someone agreed: [Yeah! Evangeline's body looks much better than those unit celebrities]

[Her Eigure is remarkable by the standard in the international entertainment industry.

Someone exclaimed: [My goodness Everyone, look at the small screen. Someone's stealing Evangeline's stuff?]

[Evangeline, stop! Your tent and backpack are getting stolen. Come back to catch the thief]

[Meghan has gone too far. She stole all the things while Evangeline went to the river. How immoral!]

[Where's her morally and manners? How disgusting!

The audience in the live room was amazed by Evangeline's body, and many of them became her fans.

During the discussion, someone glanced at another small filming window and suddenly noticed Meghan and the others secretly stealing Evangeline's tent and backpack..

The fans in the live room instantly became anxious and frantically sent comments to remind Evangeline.

Unfortunately, Evangeline had no idea of i

Someone commented: [Meghan and the others are loo outrageous. How could they steal Evangeline's stuff?]

When Mr. Fowler asked them to prepare their belongings, all they cared about was dressing up beautifully. They only took some clothes and cosmetics with them without any practical things. Now that they have nothing useful, they stral Evangeline's stuff. Why are they so shamelesst)

[Shame on them! Shame on their! Shame on them! I

[Good grief. I'm so mad that I feel like swearing at them!]

The fans and the audience had gotten furious

The incident soon became a trending tople on Twitter.

The top 50 Twitter trends tonight were all about the variety show.

The trends were mainly caused by the outrageous operation of the production team.

Some of the trending topics were shown online with hashtags. These include "Wilderness Survival Program's Hidden Cameras," "Evangeline Castillo," "How Strong is Evangeline Castillo," "Guests of Wilderness Survival Program Stealing Tent," and "Evangeline Getting Robbed

With the trending topics spread, more audience swarmed into the live room.

The number of people watching the livestream had exceeded 100 million, and the numbers kept on rising.

Rogue 8

Chapter 8

"What did you say?" Evangeline looked at Meghan with amusement.

With a condescending expression, Meghan said in a gentle voice again, I said I would like to share my tent with you. You can sleep with me tonight. Evangeline said with a half-smile, "Say it again. Whose tent is it?"

The smile on Meghan's face froze, and her face turned red.

Samson said unhappily, "Meghan has extended her generosity toward you. Don't be so petty!"

Evangeline said, "You robbed me of my things and then displayed your generosity by sharing half of them with me? Are you out of your mind?"

"Does it matter whose tent this is! Whether it belongs to Meghan or not, she's willing to share it with you. This shows she has a good heart. Why are you so petty? Can't you be as generous as Meghan? Samson yelled with anger.

Evangeline rolled her eyes.

She didn't want to waste her time with an imbecile like Samson

She looked at Meghais coldly and said in a frigid voice, "I count to three. Pack up my things and return them to me immediately. Don't make me do it myself. You can't bear my anger."

Then, she started counting "One!"

Meghan bit her lips and retorted, "Even if you brought these things here, they are with me and are mine now. You can't take them away from me!"

She wouldn't last a night in that forest without those things.

I will never give them back to Evangeline! They are mine! Meghan exclaimed inwardly

"Two! Evangeline said again.

Meghan looked at the other three and said angrily, "What are you waiting for! Get ready to stop her!"

Travis, Kendrick, and Jolene immediately moved into action. They quickly got up and each picked up an arm-thick stick.

They picked up the sticks for self defense, and right then, they were proving useful.

Travis said. "Evangeline, we're not enemies. Apologize to Meghan and join our team. Otherwise, it will be dangerous for you to stay in the forest alone at night."

Kendrick said, "Although I dislike you, I'd hate to see you die in the forest. As long as you apologize. I will welcome you to our team."

Jolene stated, "You defeated us before because we were caught off guard. But now, we're prepared. You can't defeat all of us alone. Please stop the fuss and bow your head"

22* F 22

Even though Evangeline had defeated them all before, they didn't believe that they were weaker than her.

They were convinced that they were caught off guard back then.

They

Evangeline's ambush had caught them by surprise that was why she had managed to overpower them.

As long as they were careful, Evangeline would be no match for them

"Three!" Evangeline finished the counting.

After saying that, she moved forward

Travis and Kendrick stood in front of her with sticks

"Evangeline, stop your tantrum already. We don't want to bully women. Don't make us hurt your Kendrick said in a low voice.

Travis continued to persuade her, "It's not shameful to admit your mistake. Apologize

Evangeline sneered, "Mistake? What did I do wrong? It's you blind, shameless people who are at fault How dare you take my things and make me apologize? Is this the morals and ethics you possessed? What a bunch of idiots!"

Travis and Kendrick stuttered, "Y-You."

Evangeline quickly kicked Travis and Kendrick away. They fell to the ground and let out to screams, Jolene shuddered, and the stick in her hand fell to the ground.

Looking at Evangeline's solemn expression, Jolene dared not come forward and hurriedly dodged in fear.

No one stopped Evangeline. She went straight to Meghan.

"Sam" Meghan screamed.

Samson immediately spread his arms and stood in front of Meghan

"Eva... Ah!" Samson was kicked away by Evangeline before he could finish his words.

Meghan trembled with fear and said. 'I... I'll give them back to you. Don't hit me

Evangeline sneered. Too late!"

In the silent environment, nothing was heard but the loud slaps

Evangeline slapped Meghan in the face repeatedly.

Meghan was silenced by the hard slaps on her cheeks. Her head jerked from side to side from the impact.

She felt as if her brain was about to be slapped off.

By the time Evangeline stopped, Meghan's face was swollen.

Evangeline's hand was covered with power.

"Tsk." Evangeline wiped the powder on Meghan's clothes in disgust

Then, she threw Meghan aside as though she was throwing garbage.

Meghan was struck dumb. She stayed in a daze even after being thrown to the ground.

Evangeline ignored her and started packing up her things.

She packed everything on the ground into a hiking bag.

The tent and air bed were folded up.

She was furious when she saw that half a bottle of her mosquito repellent had been used.

She thought, "Does Meghan have no common sense! We only need to apply a little at a time, but she used half a bottle all at once. Is her head full of nonsense!" She was furious.

After packing up, she couldn't resist giving Meghan another kick before leaving

"Ugh. If killing people wasn't illegal, I'd open your brain to check if it's filled with nonsense! You're so stupid and selfish, you loser!" Evangeline cursed. Samson was furious. "Enough Evangeline! Meghan has been beaten to a pulp by you, but you still refuse to spare her. Why are you so vicious!" *Shut up! You 100, rubbish!" Evangeline also kicked him angrily.

"Ahr Samson rolled on the ground and bumped his head against a stone. He was also stunned.

Evangeline snorted coldly and went back to her base with her things

She set up the tent and air bed again, and then lay down comfortably in the tent

[Evangeline is awesome! She won in a one-to-five battle!] an audience cheered.

[Haven't Travis, Kendrick, and Jolene figured out the situation yet! Why are they getting involved in this mess someone commented

[Samson and Meghan are idiots. Their morals are questionable. How could they be so righteous after robbing others things I have never seen such shameless people) another added

(Evangeline was too

was too lenient with them. She should send them straight to hell] one of the audience fumed.

[She'd better not. If she killed them, she would go to jail. It's not worth going to prison for those people! another chimed in [Evangeline is going to bed. I can't see her anymore. I miss her beauty already!] someone cried.

[Damn it! They're scheming something again. It seems they haven't learned their lessons yet someone remarked.

[Meghan is so disgusting. She stole Evangeline's identity as the daughter of the Gallagher family, and now she even targeted Evangeline. She's as mean as her mother. What exactly does the Gallagher family see in her?] someone asked.

(Evangeline is right. The whole Gallagher family are brainless idiots. They don't deserve to be her family. Evangeline can live a fantastic life, even by herself another audience said.

I'm looking forward to the end of the show when they know the truth someone gloated.

[Me, too. I can't wait to see how Meghan reacts when she knows that her true color has been exposed. Hahaha!) another agreed.

On the other side, not long after Evangeline had left, Meghan finally gathered herself

"Boo-hoo! Sam She threw herself into Samson's arms and cried herself out.

"Sam, it hurts... Why was Evangeline so mean? I was so kind to her, but she beat me so brutally. I was disfigured by her! Boo-hoo! I've never been humiliated and wronged like this in my life. Sam, you have to avenge me... Meghan let out a heart-wrenching sob

Samson was distressed to hear that.

He hugged Meghan tightly and said seriously, "Meghan, don't worry. I won't let you suffer in vain.

Meghan cried and said, "Then, avenge me!

Samson's face stiffened. "I can't seek revenge now, Evangeline's like a madwoman. A few words will trigger her to lash out immediately!"

Besides, Samson knew he was no match for Evangeline

If he went to confront Evangeline then, he would probably get beaten up.

Meghan cried even louder.

Samson said, "I promise you that I will avenge you when we get back! You are the apple of our eyes, Meghan. We won't let you be wronged!"

Meghan was still crying

Samson hugged Meghan, patted her on the back, and comforted her gently, "Don't cry. Your tears are breaking my heart"

Meghan's cries gradually quieted down as Samon comforted her.

[Meghan is a habitual thief. She stole Evangeline's identity, tent, and luggage. We don't know how many things she has taken from Evangeline behind the scenes! A round of beatings is too lenient as her punishment. She should be beaten to death!] someone commented.

[What a joke! Meghan used to be portrayed as kind and weak, but now, she's urging Samson to take revenge on Evangeline for her. Is this a kind and weak girl? I've learned a lot!] someone said. [She's not innocent but a vile woman!] someone remarked.

These siblings are outrageous. I don't want to see them on TV after this variety show!) another added.

[If they can still appear on the screen in the future, it means we haven't expressed our opinions strongly enough!] someone typed.

[I'm leaving I want to puke when I see their faces. See you tomorrow! someone said.

[I'm leaving, too. I'll come to see Evangeline tomorrow!] another said.

As Evangeline vanished from the camera, the number of viewers in the live room dropped significantly.

Less than half an hour after Evangeline went to sleep in the tent, the number of online viewers, which had reached 120 million, dropped by nearly

And the number was still going down.

In the end, there were only a few hundred thousands of audience members left

That was not a small number.

But the figure was small compared to the number during peak time.

Dallas looked at the number of viewers in the live room and pondered quietly.

After thinking hard for half an hour, he suddenly slapped his thigh and said. "Arrange for someone to steal Evangeline's tent tomorrow!"

To ensure the safety of the participants, special troops were stationed in the forest, lurking quietly to prevent wild animals from approaching and ensuring the participants' safety.

If participants encountered other dangers, special troops would also come to the rescue

So, if they wanted to steal Evangeline's tent, they just needed to issue an order to the troop.

The staff was dumbfounded

Someone asked, "Why should we steal Evangeline's tent?"

Dallas explained. "If Evangeline stays in the tent, we won't capture her on camera. There's a significant drop in the live room audience. Let her appear morc

The staff said, "Well.. Is it possible that the number drops because people are going to sleep! Even if Evangeline keeps appearing, the audience still has to sleep when it's time,"

Dallas glanced at the staff and said, "Look what time it is. Are you going to bed now!"

The staff took a look at the phone and exclaimed, "Huh? How come it's only half past eight? Evangeline went to bed so early?"

Dallas said, "She doesn't have a mobile phone or any entertainment. It's normal for her to sleep when the sky turns dark. It's only half past eight, and this should be the time when netizens are most active. But the audience number in the live room dropped significantly. It must have something to do with Evangeline going offline, so we need to take countermeasures"

The staff said, "I see I'll contact the people over there now and ask them to find a chance to take action tomorrow!"

The production crew decided to take a less ethical approach to boost the show's ratings.

The next day, Evangeline woke up when the dawn just broke.

As she emerged from the tent, she closed her eyes and took a deep breath of the fresh air outside. Instantly, she felt rejuvenated

"The air is so fresh," she commented.

She took the toiletry and went to the riverside to wash up.

Then, she practiced one round of Eight Brocades in front of the tent

An old man had taught her that exercise back when she was still on the streets.

It was said that practicing that exercise regularly could cure any disease

Evangeline didn't know if it was true.

That was because for so many years, she had never been sick or even caught a cold.

She didn't know if it was due to her good physical fitness or because she had been practicing that set of techniques, resulting in a strong body that resisted diseases.

[What a coincidence! The moment I entered the live room, Evangeline was online!] a fan commented excitedly.

(It's only half past five, and Evangeline already woke up. She's up so early!) someone exclaimed,

Chapter 8

[Evangeline went to bed at half past eight last night, so it's normal for her to get up at this time, someone explained

[That's right. Without mobile phones and clocks, it's challenging to tell the time, so she can only sleep when the sky turns dark and wake up when dawn breaks, someone chimed in.

[What exercise is Evangeline practicing? Look at her movements. How many years did she practice!] a netizen wondered.

[I know the answer. This is called Eight Brocades. My grandpa practiced it every day for more than ten years. Now, my grandpa is 99 years old, and he is still strong. This technique can strengthen the body. I didn't expect Evangeline to practice this set of techniques at such a young age someone said

[Ahhh! Evangeline is so beautiful. Even her casual movements are graceful and pleasing to the eyes!] someone complimented.

Soon, a trending hashtag titled "Evangeline in Jungle Survival" appeared on Twitter.

With the rising popularity of that trending topic, the number of people in the live room also began to rise rapidly.

At six o'clock, the number of viewers in the live room had surged to over 30 million from just over 200 thousand!

The data analyst was stunned. "Damn it! Is Evangeline the key to the audience numbers! It's only six o'clock, and there are so many people coming to watch the livestream. This is shocking! If this weren't our show, I would have suspected that someone was faking the audience numbers. Evangeline's face must be stolen! Anything that can hide her face must be taken away!"

Chapter 9

After the exercise, Evangeline took her folding knife and climbing stick before walking into the forest

She was going to hunt for her breakfast.

Her equipment was left where they were.

She was confident Meghan and her gang wouldn't dare to steal them again.

If they dared to steal again, she would have no problem beating them up again.

When the production crew saw Evangeline enter the forest, they immediately ordered the crew hidden in the forest, "Evangeline has left the base. Get ready to steal the tent now! Be careful Don't leave any traces for her to find out"

The Jungle Team replied, "Roger that. We'll arrange it right away!"

The Jungle Team had a total of 100 members. They hid in all the secluded spots in the forest to prevent wild animals from coming close. Some of them quietly followed the participants from afar to ensure their safety.

There were three members stationed near Evangeline

After receiving instruction from the production crew, they gathered around and discussed how to steal the tent without being noticed by Evangeline.

One of the members of the Jungle Team, Alpha said, "If the tent suddenly disappears, Evangeline will surely search for it. If she confronts the other participants, she'll realize they didn't take the tent. She'll get suspicious."

"That makes sense, so we can't steal the tent ourselves, said another member, Bravo,

The third member, Charlie was confused. "If we don't steal it ourselves, how can we make the tent disappear?"

Alpha and Bravo exchanged glances, each wearing a mischievous smile.

Charlie asked, "Why are you smiling! What plan do you have? Tell me"

Alpha looked at Charlie and said with a smile. "Do you remember the group of monkeys we met when we first came to the forest?"

Charlie's eyes widened. "Are you suggesting to lure the monkeys here to steal the tent?"

Alpha and Bravo raised their eyebrows. "Exactly!"

Charlie gave them a thumbs-up. "You guys are brilliant"

Alpha immediately contacted the group stationed at the bottom of the mountain to the southwest and briefed them on their plans.

Then he said, "Find a way to lure the monkeys here to steal the tent away before Evangeline returns from hunting"

The other side replied, "Copied that!"

Evangeline had no idea what the production team was scheming-

She had gone into the forest to search for her prey.

After a night, the poultry released by the production team were roaming freely in the forest. Unlike yesterday, where prey was easily found just a few steps into the forest, now she would need to exert more effort

Evangeline walked for half an hour before she saw a hen lying on a haystack ahead.

When Evangeline walked over, the hen flapped its wings in fear and fled,

Evangeline looked down and saw an egg on the haystack.

She bent over to pick up the egg

It was freshly laid and felt warm to the touch.

Evangeline i took the egg and walked further into the forest.

An egg was definitely not enough for her, and she needed to find more food.

She had planned to catch a chicken, but on her way, she spotted mushrooms on the ground.

"It's not easy to digest chicken in the morning. Let's make egg and mushroom soup for lunch. I'll catch some chicken for lunch later, she muttered to herself.

Then, Evangeline squatted down and started collecting the mushrooms.

She had done some research beforehand and had relevant experience, so she could distinguish between edible and non edible mushrooms.

In the end, she gathered two pounds of mushrooms.

She cut a few tiny vines with her knife, made a simple basket, put mushrooms and eggs in it, and began walking back.

On her way back, she found three more eggs

'I found quite a lot of food today: she mused

Evangeline returned to her station happily with the basket..

However, when she walked out of the forest, she was stunned by the sight before her.

group of monkeys showed up from nowhere

There were at least twenty of them

Right then, the monkeys were at her campsite, rummaging through her tent and hiking bag

The tent and air bed had been torn to pieces.

The things in the bag were also poured out and scattered on the ground, most of which had been damaged by the monkeys

Evangéline froze. Her joyful mood instantly plummeted. Her blood pressure rose rapidly. Anger soared in her heart. Where did these monkeys come from! How dare they destroy my tent and luggage" she hissed inwardly

Those monkeys bared their teeth and screeched at Evangeline upon spotting her

A monkey noticed the basket in her hand and immediately ran over and grabbed it

The monkeys searched through the basket, discovered the food wasn't tasty, and tossed it on the ground in disgust.

The eggs in the basket were all broken.

Evangeline saw red.

She was soon blinded by her anger

"You monkeys, I'm going to kill you all!" Evangeline roared and charged toward the monkeys in a fit of anger.

The monkeys showed no sign of fear and bared their teeth fiercely at her, trying to scare her off

Nevertheless, Evangeline had lost her mind.

The fiercer these monkey's were, the more she wanted to beat them to a pulp: She wasn't threatened in the least.

"Go to hell!" She caught one monkey. Then, she gave the monkey a few smacks in the face.

The monkey was dumbfounded.

Evangeline forcefully threw it to the ground and went to grab another monkey.

Seeing this, the other monkeys also began to attack Evangeline and tried to seek revenge for their friend.

Evangeline slapped one and kicked two monkeys away,

The monkey king came up to Evangeline but was also beaten by her.

All the monkeys were were shocked.

They communicated with each other, "She's so powerful! She's far more fierce than those awful humans who drove us out of the forest and up the mountain a few days ago!"

The monkey king made a prompt decision and signaled the monkeys to retreat.

They received the signal and immediately fled to the forest.

"Don't run! You ruined my stuff! Don't even think about leaving like this! I will strip your monkey hair! Evangeline was furious.

or this! I will s

She chased them.

Her speed was fast, even faster than the monkeys.

Seeing Evangeline getting closer, the monkeys swung the vine to escape while screeching fearfully

"Oh, what a terrifying human! Run! Don't fall into her hands or she will eat us a monkey communicated with its mates.

"Help, she's running so fast! She's going to get me! Help me! I'm about to fall into her hands! Help!" another monkey cried for help. They were terrified.

Evangeline was close to seizing one monkey that fell behind.

However, she accidentally fell.

The monkeys barked as if they were laughing at her.

Evangeline's fury grew.

Instead of standing up, she crawled on the ground with her hands and feet,

She moved so swiftly, even faster than she was running

While crawling, she roared.

As she crawled, she stared at the monkeys murderously

Damn these monkeys! I won't spare any of them!! she cursed in her mind.

Tired of crawling, she copied the monkeys and swung from one vine to another.

She swung even more skillfully than the monkeys, moving from one tree to another as if she could By

The monkeys were stunned.

"What Is she a monkey! Holy shit! How did we cross something so terrifying? She's a monster! Run! the monkeys cried.

The audience in the live room was also stunned.

[Damnm the production team is so shameless. They purposely lured the monkeys there to wreck Evangeline's tent and luggage!]

[Oh, my goodness. Evangeline has gone berserk. She looks so scary when she gets mad. Looks like she had been merciful to Meghan and the others before. If Evangeline were this crazy when dealing with them, they would have been in big trouble!]

[Evangeline looks so dark crawling on the ground, but I still love her!]

[Wow! Evangeline has such a strong physique. Regular people can't swing between trees using vines. Yet, she performed the stunt with case. wonder if she underwent special forces training. Her survival skills are so impressive!]

[I'm shocked. I've never seen a human chase after a group of monkeys. It's always the other way around.]

[Just last week, I went to Mount Elshire, and a monkey snatched my phone. I refused to let go and got scratched but couldn't find an outlet to vent my resentment. I seriously hate these monkeys. Evangeline, please give them a good beating I

Even though these monkeys aren't the ones from Mount Elshire, I still have bad memories when I see them. I hate all monkeys. Evangeline, give them a good heating]

[She'd better stop chasing after the monkeys. There are so many of them. She can't defeat them alone. Evangeline will suffer!)

Evangeline has gone 100 far. Even if the monkey damaged her tent and luggage, she shouldn't have beaten the monkeys. Monkeys are animak. They don't know any better. She can't blame them, but she keeps chasing them and searing them to death.]

You're such a saint. I'm going to smoke now. Stay away from me. I'm worried you will accuse me

[Am I the only one worried about Evangeline's mental state?]

A heated discussion erupted in the live room.

Someone tweeted a video of Evangeline crawling on the ground, swinging vines to chase monkeys.

The hashtag "Evangeline vs. Monkeys instantly became the top trending topic.

Every netizen who saw the video was stunned and impressed by Evangeline

Someone even shared the video to other websites.

This video went viral instantly, and countless foreign netizens flocked to the live room to watch the livestream.

They were all curious about this celebrity with strange behavior.

They had never seen a woman chasing after monkeys, nor had they ever seen a woman crawling on the ground like a savage, swinging vine between trees, stirring up all the animals in the forest.

Most importantly, the woman in question was beautiful.

Evangeline instantly became famous all over the world.

At Hofcaster, in Ferdinand Group, Arthur walked out of the elevator on the top floor in a finely tailored suit and strode to his office, exuding an air of superiority

As he passed by the secretary's desk at the entrance, he noticed his assistant Gerald Grint, giggling at his phone

Arthur stopped, his cold gaze falling on Gerald, "What are you laughing at during working hours?"

"M-Mr. Ferdinand, the discussion's over so soon? Startled. Gerald quickly placed his phone on the desk and rose, looking guilty-

I'm not looking at anything, just getting ready for work, he stuttered.

Arthur looked at Gerald's phone coldly and ordered, "Give me your phone."

Gerald didn't dare to refuse

He had no choice but to unlock his phone and show Arthur the screen.

Gerald awkwardly explained, "Mr. Ferdinand, I'm watching the livestream of Evangeline's variety show. You have no idea, this variety show is interesting. The production team intentionally left the participants alone in the forest and set up tiny cameras for a secret livestream"

He continued, "Right after the production team left yesterday, everyone revealed their true colors. Those celebrities who seem kind are selfish and hypocritical behind the cameras. Oh, except for Evangeline- she is still carefree and despises anyone. By the way, Evangeline was chasing a group of monkeys in the forest just now. I was watching the video. Mr. Ferdinand, check it out!"

Gerald knew that Arthur and Evangeline had met privately and that Evangeline lived in Arthur's mansion, hence he deliberately mentioned Evangeline

Gerald played the video and showed it to Arthur.

Arthur lowered his gaze and looked at the screen coldly.

When he saw Evangeline's astonishing demeanor in the video, his expression instantly froze and there was shock in his eyes

Immediately, he frowned and looked worried.

'Evangeline doesn't seem to be in a normal state of mind. he mused.

After thinking for a moment, he instructed, "Get in touch with some specialists in mental disorders and ask them to come to Hofcaster in seven days."

Gerald asked worriedly, "Mr. Ferdinand, are you okay?"

Gerald thought Arthur wanted to consult the doctors himself.

Anhur glanced at him coldly. Just do as I say. Why are you asking so many questions?"

Chapter 9

Gerald lowered his head "Understood."

Arthur turned and walked to the office.

After taking two steps, he stopped and turned back to Gerald. "What's the name of that variety show!"

Gerald was dumbfounded. What"

Arthur asked impatiently, "What's the name of Evangeline's variety show where she was swinging on vines?"

Gerald said, "Jungle Survival."

Arthur entered his office.

Seated at his desk, he didn't immediately turn on the computer and start working as usual. Instead, he took out his mobile phone and searched for Jungle Survival

He first learned about the content of yesterday's livestream.

When he saw Evangeline confronting Meghan and Samson, and how the netizens changed their opinions about her, he smiled and felt happy for her.

Then, he found the live room.

Meanwhile, the number of viewers in the live mom had exceeded 300 million.

Arthur was quite surprised.

There were fewer than 2 billion Clusians in total, and yet, 300 million viewers were watching the livestream at the moment

He wasn't aware that Evangeline had even gained popularity abroad. At this time, many of the audience in the livestream were foreign netizens.

In the forest. Evangeline focused on teaching the monkeys a lesson

After a three-hour chase, the monkeys were exhausted.

They all slowed down, panting and looking bopeless.

On the other hand, Evangeline reinained agile and vigorous. She was still breathing evenly as if her stamina hadn't depleted at all.

Evangeline grabbed the exhausted mankry king and slapped it in the face.

"Are you the one who led these monkeys to destroy my things! How dare you rob my belongings? Don't think I will go easy on you just because you're not humant"
Evangeline roared.

Evangeline punched and kicked the monkey king

Its face was all black and blue from the beating

When Evangeline finally let go of it it lay on the ground and couldn't

Evangeline looked at the other monkeys viciously.

She searched among the monkeys.

Then, she swung on the vines and went to catch other monkeys.

The monkeys screamed and fled.

Abs, they were not as fast and agile as Evangeline,

Evangeline caught and beat all the monkeys one by one.

In the end, the monkeys were strewn all over the ground.

They were all covered in bruises.

Looking at Evangeline with fear in their eyes, they trembled

da 153 1

"You should be thankful you're protected animals. Otherwise, I would have severed your limbs! You're as annoying as those monkeys on Mount Elshire! Why did you have to go around ruining other people's things! If you dare touch my stuff again, even being endangered animals won't save you! You messed up my tent and luggage, and even my breakfast was ruined! What a bunch of jerks Evangeline spat, then headed back to her campsite by swinging on vines.

On the way, she caught a hen that was laying eggs and took both the hen and eggs back with her.

The netizens began discussing again. [Hahaha! Evangeline is fair and square. She beat every monkey involved in the destruction and didn't spare any of them!]

[She's awesome! I can't believe she managed to catch those monkeys in the forest. I wouldn't be able to do it I

[My admiration for Evangeline is beyond words]

[Evangeline, you're my goddess!]

[Perhaps Evangeline can consider switching her acting career to teaching combat arts. I'll be the first one to sign up for her class!

[I'm not boasting. While Evangeline is impressive, if she were to face me in a fight, she'd end up kneeling and begging after I make one move.]

[Shell probably beg you not to die.]

[I feel sorry for those monkeys. They don't understand human rules. They see something new, get curious, and want to check it out. It's in their nature to mess with things, but they end up getting beaten up so badly.

[Yes, Evangeline has gone too far. Animals are stupid, but she's not. Why fight with animals! I pity those monkeys]

[Why blame Evangeline? It was the production team that should be blamed. They deliberately lured the monkeys over to destroy Evangeline's

[In the wild, if your equipment is damaged, your life will be endangered. Isn't it normal for Evangeline to be angry! If she were really in the wilderness with no one driving the beasts away and her equipment was wrecked, she could only survive for a few days. She can't be blamed even if she kills those monkeys]

[Yes, Evangeline is just trying to survive!]

[Evangeline spared their lives since they were endangered animals. She's already merciful enough) When Evangeline returned to her campsite and saw the wreckage on the ground, her anger flared up again.

She closed her eyes and took a deep breath, trying to suppress her rage

When she opened them again, she had already gathered her

She tied the chicken to one side with a vine and started cleaning up the site.

The tent was completely wrecked

The air bed was flat

Everything else was more or less damaged.

The first-aid kit was smashed. The disinfectant alcohol, iodine, and other medicines inside were ruined, even the gauze was torn

A bag of toilet paper was torn, and the contents were scattered everywhere.

Fortunately, her clothes were packed in vacuum bags and didn't become the monkeys' targets.

Even though disposable toiletries had been touched by the monkeys, they were still usable.

The toiletries fell on the ground, and the toothbrush was snapped in half. It was barely usable after being washed clean.

She also brought a set of outdoor cooking tools, including a triangular stove and a small iron pan

They were durable and still intact after the rampage

Some of the seasonings spilled out,

Evangeline sorted out the things that could be used and discarded the rest.

She picked up some sticks, made a fire, and then took the chicken to the riverside, butchering it.

By the time she finished handling the chicken, the charcoal was ready. She threaded the chicken onto a stick and roasted it over the fire

Then she checked the mushrooms she had left behind

They had not gone bad yet.

She washed them by the river.

Following that, she made another fire and cooked the mushrooms in a small iron pot

After the water boiled, she added seasonings and the aroma became stronger.

The aroma of roast chicken and mushrooms wafted far away.

Meghan, Samson, Travis, Kendrick, and Jolene all caught a whiff.

Jolene sniffed the tantalizing aroma. It smells so good. Has Evangeline already started eating? It smells like roast chicken and mushrooms. Evangeline is amazing. I can't believe she found mushrooms! The roast chicken smells so tempting. My stomach is growling again

Jolene grew hungrier as she spoke, almost drooling.

Others couldn't help swallowing and turning to look in Evangeline's direction.

They couldn't see Evangeline from that angle, but they still looked over in her direction.

Travis frowned. "Why hasn't the production team sent someone here?"

Kendrick said. "It's been so long. They should have found out that we were left in the forest and sent someone else to continue filming or pick us up. Why hasn't anyone come yet?"

Samson was annoyed. "What the heck is going on with the production team? I will give them a piece of my mind when I see them!"

Leaving the participants in the forest for so long was considered dereliction of duty on their part.

Everyone looked unhappy.

They had already decided to claim compensation from the production team for emotional damage when they got back.

Meghan said, "I'm so hungry. Go find something to eat. Who knows when the production team will come! I don't want to wait like this!" They had been waiting by the river since dawn.

Naively, they had thought that the production team would come to them today.

Chapter 10

However, no one showed up, and they were getting impatient

They had assumed that the production team would bring food, so they didn't bother looking for food.

They hadn't eaten since yesterday, and now they were starving

It was faith that kept them going

However, when the tasty aroma wafted from Evangeline's direction, they couldn't stand it.

Their faith collapsed in an instant.

They thought, "It's not fair that Evangeline is having a good time while we suffer! That's not fair at all!"

Samson said, "Okay. Let's get something to eat first. We can continue waiting after our stomachs are full. Travis, Kendrick, let's go find food. Let the two girls wait here."

Travis and Kendrick stood up. "Okay"

The three men entered the forest confidently

They all felt that since Evangeline could catch prey effortlessly, they could too!

After they walked into the forest, Jolene said to Meghan, "Meghan, let's go and gather some firewood first. When they come back from hunting, we can make a fire and roast meat straight away!"

Jolene couldn't help swallowing again at the mention of roasted meat.

She was starving.

"We should gather firewood in advance to save up up time. That way, we could wait way, we could start cooking immediately once the boys are back, she mused.

Meghan frowned unhappily. "How dare you order me around and even ask me to do demeaning work that only a peasant would do?"

Jolene said hurriedly, "I... I don't mean to order you around I was merely suggesting "

Meghan sneered. "I'm not going to pick up firewood. This task is way beneath me. Since you suggested it, go by yourself. Gather more. The five of us have a lot of meat to roast, and it won't do if there is not enough firewood."

Jolene's face flushed with anger.

In the end, she said nothing and went to collect firewood alone,

Unlike Evangeline, she didn't have the guts to go against Meghan

Meghan scoffed, "I heard that you were born in the countryside. Such menial work is just right for you. I'm letting you relive the experience and reminisce about your past. Don't be ungrateful and think I'm targeting you Jolene clenched her fists hard and forced a smile. "Thank you for your kindness, Meghan. I appreciate it

She had no choice but to put up with Meghan's behavior.

Jolene thought

When I make enough money, I will quit the entertainment industry and no longer need to face the freaks in this industry? Jalent

Meghan sat by the river. Her mouth watered as she took in the aroma and continued to stare across the river into the distance.

"Why hasn't the production team come yet? They might as well all die!" she cursed.

[Meghan is so disgusting. How dare she mock the farmers? What's wrong with being a farmer! Being a farmer is better than being a thief like her who steals someone else's identity!]

[You'd better not use the things produced by farmers for your whole life if you look down on them so much!]

[Does she think she's noble? Isn't she a housekeeper's daughter? Does she think she's superior to others after stealing Evangeline's identity? Disgusting!!]

[After so many years of advanced education, she's still so ignorant. It seems that genetic theory is real. Some people's negativity and stupidity are engraved in genes, and they cannot be changed no matter what!]

It took nearly an hour for Samson, Travis, and Kendrick to emerge from the forest

Chapter 10

Meghan looked at them excitedly.

But when she saw that they came back empty-handed, her face instantly darkened.

"Why did you come back empty-handed? What about the prey?" she asked.

Travis said. "The prey ran deep into the forest. We walked for a long time before sporting a few chickens. But they're more agile today. They ran too fast and with so much vegetation in the forest, they disappeared in the blink of an eye. We couldn't catch them. We only got a few eggs.

With that. Travis took out four eggs from his pocket.

Kendrick took out

three.

Samson took out four, too.

There were a total of 11 eggs

Samson said, "There are eleven eggs for t can ask them for food.

Meghan couldn't hold back her frustration anymore and lashed out, "I don't like eggs, and you know it Why is it that Evangeline can catch prey every time, but you can't? Are you even men! Three of you can't compare to one woman! Don't you feel ashamed of yourselves?

She was exhausted, hungry, and her body ached and itched everywhere; she broke down.

Travis said furiously, "Evangeline and you are both women. Why can't you do what the can? Go and catch the prey yourself! You're only qualified to criticize us if you can catch prey like Evangeline did. Otherwise, someone like you who has contributed nothing doesn't have the right to complain here

Meghan glared at him angrily. "How dare you scold me!"

Travis took a deep breath and said in a low voice, "I don't want to team up with you anymore. I found all the eggs by myself. I can cook them on my

Then, he ran to pick up his backpack and went somewhere else

Kendrick thought for a while and said, T'll go with Travis It's not safe for him to be alone"

He left with his things and the eggs he found, too

Jolene wanted to go with them, too,

However, Meghan glared at her and asked viciously, "Are you leaving with them too?"

Jolene smiled awkwardly and shook her head. "No,"

Her status in the industry was not as high as Travis' and Kendrick's, so she didn't dare to confront Meghan like they did.

Travis was an A-list actor and had signed up with an overseas entertainment company. Even if the Gallagher family suppressed him, he could still survive in the industry, albeit with fewer resources. Kendrick was an award-winning actor with great talent and his own connections. Without the support of the Gallagher family, he would only develop slower with fewer resources and opportunities.

However, Jolene was different.

She was a newcomer in the entertainment industry who had no background, no fame, and average skills.

If she offended the Gallagher family, her agency would not go against them for a nobody like her

The agency would even blacklist her to please the Gallagher family.

Hence, she could only curry favor with Meghan.

"Hmph! That's what I thought Meghan snorted coldly.

Samson put the eggs down silently

Only then did Meghan realize that she had accidentally insulted Samson, too.

She softened her voice, hugged Samson's arm, and pressed up against him, saying sweetly, "Sam, I didn't mean to scold you just now. You've always been a powerful superhero in my heart. You are my idol, are you're the best You've never hunted prey before, so, it's no surprise that you failed to catch anything."

Only then did Samson's expression case up a little.

However, he was rather uncomfortable with how intimately Meghan was pressing up against him.

He withdrew his arm. "Let's cook the eggs first."

Jolene had gathered enough firewood and snapped them into lengths suitable for burning

Samson lit the fire with a cigarette lighter

When the fire was lit, he put four eggs in

They didn't have pans, so they couldn't cook or fry and could only roast the eggs. Five minutes later, with loud sounds, all the four eggs exploded.

"Ah they exclaimed in surprise.

The eggs exploded, blowing up the fire and splattering the shells around.

Meghan, Samson, and Jolene were huddled around the bonfire when the explosion happened

The eggshells landed on them
