

Revenge Of The Rogue Heiress

Rogue 61

Chapter 61

Evangeline kicked toward him directly.

"Ahl" screamed Black Panther.

Black Panther, who weighed more than 200 pounds, was kicked away by her and flew directly off the ring.

Everyone present was stunned and they looked at Evangeline in disbelief.

"What the hell... I'm not seeing things, am I? How could her thin legs exert so much strength!"

"She actually kicked Black Panther away. It was so terrifying!"

"Black Panther was the champion of six consecutive titles. How can he be knocked out by a single move? This woman is so terrifying."

"My money! 1 bet 2 million dollars?".

There were gasps of shock and wails coming from the audience one after another.

Black Panther was even more shocked as he stammered, "H-How is this possible? You look so weak. How can you be a worthy opponent! No... This can't be considered a win. I was not ready for your sneak attack! You sneaked up on me while I wasn't paying attention. That doesn't count. Let's fight again!"

His eyes were full of fear.

many people had invested and bet on him.

If he lost, he would end up in a terrible situation.

He had to win!

Evangeline smiled and said generously, "Okay. Let's fight again"

She added, "However, with your normal strength, you can't beat me. You should take drugs to save time

She was originally there to practice, so naturally, she liked it when her opponent could hold on for a longer time.

Black Panther's face twisted with anger for a moment as he thought, "That woman is humiliating me!"

But he called his assistant over to give him a shot.

As soon as the needle went in, his face instantly flushed, and his heartbeat suddenly accelerated.

He felt a surge of power and an unlimited amount of energy gushed like a fountain through his body,

"Ah... Go to hell!" Black Panther shouted angrily and immediately attacked Evangeline.

'He is definitely stronger after the shot thought Evangeline. She could feel that even his fist carried wind when he swung it She dodged while looking for a chance to fight back.

Five minutes later...

Smack!

The drugged version of Black Panther was kicked off the ring again.

"Ah! No! You can't count this as a win. I wasn't paying attention. Give me three more shots of drugs! I didn't loser"

The referee looked at Evangeline in embarrassment and asked, "Monkey King, are you still willing to give him a chance?"

Evangeline said, "If he dies, whose responsibility is it?"

The referee said, "It won't be you anyway," thought Evangeline.

She didn't mind him using drugs.

On the contrary, the stronger he was, the more excited she became.

But only if she didn't have to be responsible for his life.

Black Panther's assistant immediately went to give him another shot.

After the injection, his assistant persuaded him. "Black Panther, two doses are already considered an overdose. If you continue to inject, your life will be in danger!" Black Panther grabbed the syringe and injected himself.

"Ahr

After the third injection, Black Panther roared loudly. No one knew whether it was in excitement or pain.

His was flushed all over and looked as if he had been boiled.

Every blood vessel on his body bulged so much that one could even see blood flow through them!

He looked as if he would explode at any time.

It made people feel terrified when they saw him.

The audience in the stands was excited and they shouted loudly.

Black Panther rushed onto the stage.

This time, Evangeline clearly felt that his speed and strength had increased more than ten times. Evangeline was more cautious this time

But she didn't keep dodging blindly. She kept fighting back.

Crack!

Evangeline broke Black Panther's left hand.

But Black Panther felt no pain and continued to swing his fists at her fiercely.

Smacki

Evangeline kicked him in the chest.

This time, he managed to keep standing and was not kicked out.

But his chest had sunken,

He had broken several rib bones.

But it seemed like he could no longer feel any pain and kept rushing forward.

Until...

Half an hour later, as Evangeline broke Black Panther's last remaining limb, Black Panther fell to the ground with a loud sound.

Both of Black Panther's hands were twisted, and his left leg was broken in several parts. His chest was deeply sunken, and his body was covered with blood. The whole stage was almost dyed red with blood

Chapter 6

However, Evangeline was not stained with even a drop of blood except for the soles of her feet!

She had knocked out the drugged up Black Panther.

Evangeline looked at Black Panther, who could no longer move. Then, she reached out to tuck a strand of hair behind her ear

Elegant!

She looked so elegant!

The audience was silent for more than ten seconds before bursting into loud cheers and applause.

"Monkey King

"Monkey King"

"Monkey King

Everyone shouted her name excitedly.

It was an amazing fight

The audience's blood was boiling in excitement.

Even if they had lost money, they thought it was worth it!

"Monkey King, one more fight!"

"One more fight!"

"Goddess! You are my goddess

"Holy shit! Goddess, please become my master. I want to become your pet. I can give you 1 million dollars a month!"

According to the rules of the competition, since Evangeline had won, she had to accept the challenge from other players.

Although it was a little unfair for her to continue the fight just after she finished, she had to defend her win. One needed to have an extraordinary ability to be able to defend their win

However, after seeing Evangeline defeat Black Panther, who had injected four doses of drugs in a row, no one dared to go into the ring again.

They dared not go into the ring, especially after they saw how pathetic Black Panther looked Black Panther was dead.

And his body was contorted in a strange angle.

He looked terrible.

Just looking at him terrified everyone.

She shouldn't be called Monkey King. She should be called King of Hell.

Even the King of Hell was not as cruel as her!

When Evangeline saw that no one dared to challenge her, she hesitated for a moment and said, "Bring in the white tiger."

Everyone was shocked.

"That white tiger had eaten many people! She wanted to challenge that white tiger they thought.

Arthur was slightly worried.

That white tiger was considered an old-time fighter. It was already present in the underground street fight when he was there.

The white tiger was still there, and its strength should not be underestimated.

Plus, the organizers would secretly inject drugs into the white tiger, making it irritable and irrational, greatly increasing its strength.

He wanted to go over and persuade Evangeline.

But in order to make more money, the boss behind the scenes had agreed to the challenge and sent someone to bring the white tiger over. A huge iron cage was also lowered above the arena to enclose it and prevent the white tiger from hurting the audience.

The white tiger was soon brought onto the ring.

When Evangeline looked at the white tiger closely, she found that the white tiger was astonishingly large.

It was nearly 17 feet long, more than 5 feet tall, and weighed 1,100 pounds.

It was definitely not a normal white tiger!

It was definitely a man-made variety after genetic modification by human beings!

A normal white tiger couldn't possibly grow this big!

A beast of that size could crush humans.

It was no wonder no one could beat it.

Evangeline looked at the white tiger with solemnity and unprecedented vigilance.

"Alas, such an amazing figure is going to be eaten by Tiger Typhoon."

"Although she is very strong, she is nothing compared to Tiger Typhoon. Tiger Typhoon can do away with her with just a pounce"

"It would be better if one is more self-aware. She is too arrogant. As soon as she won against Black Panther, she wanted to challenge Tiger Typhoon. She knows nothing about the power of Tiger Typhoon!"

Evangeline ignored everyone's comments

She looked at the referee and asked, "If I win against it, can I take it with me?"

The referee looked at the boss behind the underground street fights.

When he saw the boss nod, he said, "Deal. If you win, there will be a big bonus, too, but it is on the premise that you win."

The boss agreed to her request because he must think she couldn't win!

Evangeline smiled and said, "Let's begin."

After Evangeline finished speaking, the cage door of the white tigers enclosure was opened.

The white tiger roared fiercely and immediately rushed toward Evangeline.

Evangeline ducked and rolled onto her side.

After the white tiger missed its target, it immediately readjusted its direction and continued to attack. Evangeline crawled on all fours.

She climbed very fast, almost like a monkey, around the iron cage that enclosed the ring.

She jumped between the ring and iron cage enclosure flexibly.

Everyone was stunned,

"Damn it! The Monkey King deserves to be called the Monkey King. She is as agile as a monkey!"

"She is so strong. I thought Tiger Typhoon would eat her up in seconds. I didn't think that she would be able to escape from Tiger Typhoon for so long!"

"She is the longest-surviving contestant so far!"

Chapter of

"She is too strong.

"Don't you think the Monkey King looks familiar? Especially when she crawls on the ground with her hands and feet, she kinda looks like Evangeline..."

"I also thought of Evangeline when I saw her crawl, but I don't think Monkey King is Evangeline. As a celebrity, there is no way that Evangeline is that strong, let alone joining in street fights."

neto

"Yeah, celebrities make money so easily. Why would they come to such a place and work their ass off?"

"She is awesome. I was attracted by Evangeline before, and now I want to switch and give my admiration to someone else. The Monkey King will be my goddess in the future! I like a woman who can knock me out with one punch!"

"Beautiful and powerful. Who wouldn't love such a woman!"

"Monkey King, you must survive!"

"Monkey King, come on

"Monkey King, I love you!"

When Arthur saw those people's attitude toward Evangeline changing, he couldn't help but laugh and shake his head.

Evangeline was really charming. No matter where she went, she could make others like her with her super strength and charismatic personality.

Arthur didn't dare to imagine something beyond with someone like that

In the ring, while the white tiger was not paying attention, Evangeline jumped down from the iron bar and fell directly on its back.

She

put her hands around the tiger's neck and choked it before clamping its huge body with her legs.

The white tiger roared and rolled on the floor,

Evangeline clenched and tightened her grip. She wasn't letting go of her hold.

The white tiger rolled all over the ring with Evangeline on its back.

The white tiger's huge body crushed Evangeline until she was flushed all over, and her face twisted in pain.

The blood on the stage also dyed her and the white tiger red all over their bodies

The scene looked terrifying

Everyone had their hearts in their throats.

The entire arena was silent, with everyone holding their breath. They looked at the stage unblinkingly.

They were all worried about Monkey King

Although Monkey King was holding on tight to the back of the white tiger, and it couldn't bite her, the white tiger was still rolling on the ground.

Monkey King would be crushed to death by the weight of the white tiger if this went on.

"Alas! Although Monkey King is powerful she is still a human. How can she beat such a big white tiger with her bare hands!"

"It's not easy for Monkey King to hold on until now. She has already surpassed 90 percent of human beings"

"Even if Monkey King dies, she will still be my hero!"

"It's a pity that the white tiger is going to kill off such a powerful human"

Just as everyone was sighing and shaking their heads, Evangeline executed her next daring action

Rogue 62

Chapter 62

Evangeline raised her head and banged the tiger's skull with her head.

Smack!

Smack!

Smack!

Smack! Smack! Smack!

She banged her head on the white tiger's head in quick succession.

Roar!

The white tiger let out a roar and shook its body hard, trying to throw the human on its back off.

But no matter how hard it shook its body. Evangeline still held onto it tightly and showed no sign of letting it go. She even tightened her grip more and more, making it difficult for the white tiger to breathe. There was a place on top of the head, which should never be hit by hard blows because it could easily endanger one's life.

Animals also have the same deadly spot on top of their heads but in a different position than humans.

Evangeline banged against the white tiger's head's weak spot time and again

At first, the white tiger could still struggle, but gradually, it became dizzy and lost its balance.

I fell to the ground with a loud thud.

The whole arena reverberated in the shock of the body hitting the floor.

The moment the white tiger fell to the ground, Evangeline let go of it and rolled to the ground. Then she moved behind the white tiger and kicked at its buttohole until her shoe tip sunk in. After kicking a dozen times, the white tiger's buttohole was injured terribly, and blood gushed out.

Then she reached out to grab its private parts and squeezed it hard

Koar!

The blinding pain woke the unconscious white tiger. It let out a roar in pain and stood up with its body still trembling, trying to escape.

But its head was concussed, and it couldn't keep its balance

Its private part had also been crushed. The pain caused its two hind legs to tremble wildly, making it unsteady on its feet,

But it still dragged its wobbly body away from the terrifying human being.

The damage caused by the banging of heads was equal parts. Evangeline's head was swollen and bleeding.

Blood flowed down between her eyebrows, all the way to her chin, and then drop by drop, some dripped on her chest and some on the ground.

At that moment, she looked like a bloodied demon.

There was an aura of death surrounding the air around her.

She looked dangerous and terrifying!

The white tiger was shell-shocked. It shrank to the side of the iron cage, trembling all over and roaring anxiously at the breeder outside.

Although no one understood the white tiger's roars, they all understood its meaning at that moment

It wanted to get out of the ring!

175

Chapter 69

It didn't dare to fight against the Monkey King!

Everyone on the scene was also completely stunned. They were dumbstruck by what had happened in the arena and subconsciously tightened their buttocks and clamped their legs together. The audience thought, 'She is so cruel!'

The white tiger's buttock was still bleeding.

Its private parts

had also swollen to twice its size.

Just looking at it made the audience feel phantasmal pain in that region.

"Monkey King is so cruel! She picked on the weak spots of the males. Just looking at it is causing me pain in my buttock...."

"My testicles are hurting from looking at this..."

"She is quite vicious even to herself. I can't believe she would be crazy enough to bang her head against the white tiger's head! Surely, she didn't know who had the hardest skull before smacking against it. Wasn't she afraid that she would end up injuring her head by doing that?"

"I've never seen such a vicious woma woman. I will never dare to look down on a woman again...

"I suppose the white tiger can be considered useless now. It can't even walk steadily. It probably hurt its brain."

"Monkey King is amazing! I want to be her per even more!"

"Monkey King!"

"Monkey King!"

There were loud cheers again in the stands

The sound was deafening.

The white tiger was already frightened. When it heard the sounds coming from the stands, it became even more scared and clawed at the iron cage with its claws continuously.

The winner and the loser had been decided, and the boss behind the scenes could only stamp his feet, feeling embittered.

He had spent a fortune to buy the white tiger.

Without the white tiger, his source of income would dwindle slightly.

Moreover, this white tiger had been genetically modified. He couldn't get another one like it anymore.

Monkey King was definitely a force to be reckoned with.

He wondered, 'How could she beat the white tiger?'

He was even starting to have doubts about whether that woman was also genetically modified.

'Did normal humans have that level of strength?' he mused.

Although she had used some skills, the fact she could dodge for so long at the beginning proved that her speed and agility were far beyond that of the white tiger.

And she had held onto the white tiger's back for so long without being thrown away, which proved that her strength was also quite formidable!

The boss gritted his teeth and could only grudgingly ask someone to bring the white tiger down from the ring. Then he announced that Monkey King was the champion tonight, awarded her a bonus, and settled the bets with the audience.

After Evangeline got off the stage, she went to the shower and washed her body thoroughly to get rid of the sweat and blood,

When she returned backstage, Arthur was already waiting for her.

When Arthur saw her, he smiled and said, "Thanks to you, I have earned 200 million dollars in a night."

Chapter 62

Evangeline smacked her forehead in exasperation and asked regretfully, "Why didn't you remind me to place a bet! I would have bet on myself."

Arthur was startled and rushed up to grab her hand.

"Stop smacking your forehead. Your forehead is almost swollen like a melon. If you aggravate it more, you will look like you have grown two heads."

Evangeline rubbed her swollen forehead and said, "Stop exaggerating. It will go down in a few days."

She shook off Arthur's hand and smiled. "Thank you: I learned a lot tonight. I think my combat ability and adaptability have improved a lot. In addition, I won prize money of more than 30 million dollars. It definitely feels like it's easy to make money."

Arthur smiled and said, "It's not as if making money is easy. It is only that it is simple for capable people to make money. In any industry, it's easy for people who can be at the top of their field to make money." Evangeline agreed with Arthur.

People must be proficient in a particular skill set. They should not try to be a jack of all trades but masters of none as they would find it hard to make big bucks like that.

"By the way, that white tiger is mine. Please help me find some people to take it away," reminded Evangeline.

"It's against the law to keep a tiger," Arthur cautioned.

Лез

Evangeline replied, "I don't want to raise it myself. I want to give it to someone. You don't need to bother about who it is. I will give you an address, and you can help me deliver it Arthur could only nod in agreement.

With Arthur coming forward on Evangeline's behalf, the combat arts academy's boss dared not detain the white tiger or prevent them from taking it away.

Evangeline and Arthur left the academy and went outside for midnight snacks.

After fighting the whole night, she was exhausted. She felt like she could eat a cow now.

They found a roadside barbecue joint and ordered some skewers and beer.

Evangeline's face was covered with injuries. Even if she didn't conceal her identity, no one would recognize her at first sight..

So she was at ease having a midnight snack outside.

The barbecue joint boss looked at the swelling on her forehead and felt that he was making money off some poor soul, so he kindly advised her, "Miss, do you have to drink this beer! You've got such a serious injury on your face. You should eat something mild in taste and avoid drinking beer.

Evangeline replied, "This is nothing. It's just special effect makeup.

The boss didn't dissuade her anymore when he heard that

After the skewers and beers were served, Evangeline and Arthur chanted while drinking.

After a few bottles of beer, Evangeline looked as if she was fine, whereas Arthur's whole face was flushed.

Even the tips of his ears had turned red.

Evangeline looked at him in surprise and asked, "Is your alcohol tolerance that terrible? You are drunk after only a few bottles?"

Arthur frowned and said earnestly, "I'm not drunk. I remember everything. I'm six feet three inches tall. I weigh 155 pounds, and my measurements are 48, 30, and 42. The length and width of my penis are... Evangeline spat out the beer and hurriedly stopped him. "I don't need to know all that"

But she couldn't stop him.

He blurted it out anyway.

Evangeline subconsciously glanced at his crotch with surprise in her eyes.

Chapter 62

If he wasn't deceiving himself or her with the numbers, it could be said that he was quite gifted in that region.

"My bank card password is... I built a secret base in the mountains and buried many gold bars. The address is... Arthur continued to mumble on.

He basically told Evangeline everything about himself and revealed all his secrets.

Evangeline listened to him while eating

After eating and drinking to her fill, she paid the bill and dragged Arthur away.

He did nothing but chatter all the time and behaved even better than when he was sober.

However, while on their way back, Arthur saw a stone in the flower bed by the roadside. He insisted that it was gold, and his eyes shone brightly when he picked it up.

Evangeline's mouth twitched as she thought, "Why didn't I realize that he was so greedy for money before?"

It wasn't a peaceful night at the Gallagher residence tonight.

Jasper is still in hospital due to the amputation

Edward had been injured gravely by Evangeline the day before and hadn't been discharged yet.

Bethany allowed Samson, the only one who was still in one piece, to stay in the hospital to care for her two injured sons

She especially reminded Samson to guard Edward and not let strangers approach Edward's ward.

George had decided to kill Edward, and he would send someone to finish the job.

She had to ensure that someone was guarding Edward all the time so that George didn't have any chance to kill him.

However, being constantly vigilant and on guard was not a permanent solution to the problem.

She had to make the first move and kill

As long as George was dead, her sour's safety would be completely guaranteed.

In the evening, Bethany returned to the Gallagher residence alone.

Only George and Meghan were in the mansion.

Ever since Meghan had returned from the show, she didn't dare to meet outsiders for fear of being laughed at All the housekeepers were sent off on vacation.

"Why are you back so late?" asked George immediately when he saw Beihany. There is one left to cook at home. Why are you back so late? Don't you think you are getting more and more out of line?" he scolded Bethany unhappily

Since the housekeepers were on vacation, Bethany was responsible for cooking.

Bethany had always believed that the way to a man's heart was through his stomach.

That was why she had developed a good cooking skill.

Even when the housekeepers were present, she would cook for her husband and children.

Bethany lifted her gaze and looked toward the living room. She was furious when she saw the two sitting so close to each other.

This shameless couple! They are not even bothered about pretending anymore! They are now blatantly acting lovey-dovey at home, furred Bethany inwardly.

Meghan noticed Bethany's gaze and moved slightly to the side.

George immediately put his arm around her and pulled her back into his arms.

"Dad, don't do this Morn will be unhappy mumbled Meghan, twisting her body gently as if she wanted to break free from George's embrace. When, in fact, she kept rubbing against him.

475

Chapter 62

George sneered, "Why would she be unhappy? If she is not happy, that is her problem. You don't have to restrain yourself for her!"

Bethany clenched her fists as her body trembled in anger.

She stared at Meghan and asked in a shaky voice, "Meghan, are you with George of your own free will!"

She still didn't want to believe that her daughter, whom she had loved for twenty years, would do such a morally corrupt thing.

At first, she had hated Meghan so much.

But after calming down, Bethany started doubting that Meghan, a twenty-year-old girl, could fall in love with an old man in his fifties.

Even if George had maintained himself well and still looked handsome, he was no match for a young man.

She started thinking whether it could be that George was forcing Meghan...

If Meghan was forced into this, I might spare her and let George die alone... thought Bethany

Rogue 63

Chapter 63

Meghan bit her lip, shot a shy glance at George, and then answered Bethany's question in a low voice, "Dad is wonderful and kind to me. I hope to take better care of him and stay with him forever."

George was very satisfied, and a happy smile appeared on his face.

Conquering young women gave a middle-aged man like him satisfaction.

The light in Bethany's eyes completely dimmed.

Although Meghan didn't give her a direct answer, her reply already implied her willingness

Bethany realized that she had spent 20 years raising an unscrupulous wench.

She clutched her heart, the intense pain causing her to suffocate.

33

"Stop talking nonsense, and go make my dinner. Meghan and I have been starving since afternoon, and we'll be going to the hospital to see Eddie and Jas after that, so don't waste our time, George urged in annoyance.

Bethany's heart clenched.

She thought in horror, 'Are they planning to harm Eddie!

Meghan said sweetly, "I'm sorry, Mom. I don't know how to do chores, so I can't help you with the housework, but I'll put more effort into caring for Dad. I'll take good care of Dad and this family with you in the future. From now on, you can focus on the work around the house while I work hard in the bedroom. This family can only be stable when all aspects are balanced."

Bethany took a deep breath, suppressing her anger and disgust.

"Please wait while I go and make something for you now. After saying that, she went to the kitchen

Disdain flashed across Meghan's eyes at Bethany's cowardice.

She thought, 'She's incompetent and unassertive. She has no capabilities other than her looks. Now that she's older, her beauty is no match for a young woman like me, so it's expected for her to be abandoned

"Even if I don't make a move on George, other women will still lure him away.

Instead of letting other women take advantage. I might as well seize it.

"The Gallagher family's assets are all mine. No one can take them away from me

I don't care even if I have to give myself to a middle-aged man of fifty to get the family asset.

At least he loves me and supports me.

'If I look for other men, I might not find one with assets comparable to the Gallagher family's

'Even if I find one that does, he probably won't spoil me like my own family does.

After careful consideration, she chose to seduce George because the Gallagher family was her best choice, and she could get everything easily without having to suffer.

It took Bethany an hour to make dinner.

The three of them sat at the table..

even instructed her to serve food on his and Meghan's plates.

George even

Bethany didn't refuse and did as asked.

During the meal, George and Meghan didn't stop feeding each other.

They had completely disregarded Bethany's feelings.

Chapter 63

It was as if they were constantly testing Bethany's bottom line, domesticating her, and deliberately demeaning her so that she would willingly enslave herself to serve and treat them as her masters. Bethany kept eating with her head down, trying to keep a leash on her temper

Halfway through the meal, Meghan suddenly frowned and rubbed her temples.

"Meghan, what's wrong?" George asked worriedly.

Meghan answered weakly, I feel dizzy, and I don't know why."

As soon as she finished speaking, she fainted in George's arms.

"Meghan!" A worried expression crossed George's face as he immediately carried Meghan into his arms, ready to take her to the hospital. However, a wa a wave of dizziness struck him just as he rose to his feet

He slumped to the ground before he could even speak. Bethany glanced coldly at the two and continued to eat.

After a long while, Meghan and George finally woke up.

As soon as they opened their eyes, they found that they had been tied up.

They were each tied to an iron shelf, facing each other.

The place was dark. Only a kerosene lamp was lit in the corner, barely illuminating the surroundings.

They looked around and saw that it looked like a basement.

It was dark, damp, suffocating, and stuffy.

"Dad, w-what's going on? Why are we tied up here? What happened?" Meghan was trembling all over and looked at George with a pale face.

George's Face was also pale from fear, Yet, he said in a deep voice, "I don't know either. I just woke up and have no idea what happened"

Meghan said with tears in her eyes. "I remember having dinner at home before passing out. Only Mom and we were at home at that time. Yet, we're tied up here now. Could it be Mom's doing?" George's features twisted into a mask of anger at the thought of Bethany behind it. "That bitch! How dare she do this to me! She has been eating and using my money for thirty years, and she dares to kidnap me? That bastard! Bethany, show yourself! You ungrateful bitch! I've allowed you to enjoy so many years of happiness, and I just want to have another woman now, yet you dare to treat me like this? You ingrate, crazy bitch! That little bitch Evangeline must have taken after you since she's crazy as well. You're made

George had already made up his mind that Bethany was behind it.

The three of them had dinner together, and then he and Meghan fainted at the table. When they came about, they were both tied there, but Bethany was nowhere to be seen,

He thought. Who else can it be other than Bethany?

George was about to explode from rage.

How could he not be angry when Bethany had always depended on and was obsequious to his every word? How dared she kidnap him!

He cursed as he struggled with his binds. The iron chains around him shook from the force, but still, he couldn't break free.

While crying sadly, Meghan choked out, "Dad, what is Mom planning to do? Why would she do this to us? These metal chains are chafing my skin Dad, call Mom to come over quickly. I can't stand this anymore."

George's anger burned brighter when he saw his sweetheart suffering

He yelled, "Bethany, show yourself, you bitch! I have spoiled you for thirty years. I didn't abuse you, nor did I cheat on you. I was so good to you, but you treated me like this. Do you even have a conscience? Meghan is your daughter. You even tied up your own daughter! Even animals wouldn't do that! Come and untie us now! If you let us go now, I can forgive you and you're still the lady of the Gallagher family. If you keep being stubborn, I won't care about you anymore. You don't have any abilities nor have a job. You can't even socialize. You'll be nothing but trash after leaving my side. I'll see how you're going to survive!"

90x

No matter how much George yelled, there was no movement.

The iron door of the basement finally opened after George was tired, and his voice turned hoarse from shouting.

Bethany came in with a flashlight.

"Bethany, you bitch" George yelled.

Slap

Bethany slapped George in the face and glared at him with a dark look

She said, "George, face reality. You're my captive now. The harsher you cuss, the more miserable death you'll suffer."

George looked at Bethany in disbelief and said. "You... Are you thinking of killing me?"

A

Meghan also asked, "Mom, we are a family! How can you do this! Let Dad and me go, and I promise I'll listen to you in the future. If you don't want me to be with Dad, I'll stay away from him in the future. Please let me go. Mom, you love me the most. Don't kill me. I'll listen to everything you say."

Slap!

Bethany turned around and slapped Meghan

She shrieked. "Shut up! I don't have an ungrateful and disgusting daughter like you!"

Anger coursed through George and Meghan

Since they were captives, they didn't dare to aggravate Bethany further and gritted their teeth, enduring their indignity.

George persuaded softly, I know I've made a mistake, and I promise I won't be with Meghan anymore from now on. I'll still treat her as our daughter. I promise that I'll only love you and spoil you in the future. Let me go, and let's have a good life in the future, okay?"

Meghan chimed in. "Yes, Mom. We can do whatever you ask, so don't do anything stupid. If you let me and Dad go now, we won't blame you."

Hearing what they said, Bethany burst into laughter.

She laughed for a long time until tears flowed from her eyes.

She questioned, "Do you think I'm stupid and gullible? If I let you go now, my son and I will be the ones that die!"

George hurriedly denied, "No, I promise I won't blame or hurt your Tears continued to stream down Bethany's face as a satirical smile played on her lips. "I gave you a chance, George. After I found out that you had slept with Meghan, I thought about keeping your affair a secret for the sake of your sons I can turn a blind eye to whatever you and her do at home as long as my three sons are safe. I can and am willing to do that for them. But you tried to kill Eddie...

George shook his head hurriedly and denied, "I never thought about harming Eddie. He is my son. How can I kill him? Don't go imagining things. I will never hurt our children!"

Slap!

Bethany slapped George again and barked, "Don't even try to deny it! I heard everything! I heard with my own ears that you want to silence Eddie to keep your affair with Meghan under wraps! You're such a bastard, George! Eddie is your son, and yet you want to kill him! You didn't even blink when you decided to sacrifice Eddie. Do you even have a conscience?"

George and Meghan were flustered.

They didn't expect Bethany to overhear their conversation.

He tried to explain. "Hear me out. I was just joking. Eddie is my favorite son. How could I kill him? It was just a joke."

Bethany laughed maliciously. "Do you think I'll believe you! You want to kill my son, so I have no choice but to kill you before you do. I'm useless and can't do anything, but I can risk everything to protect my son!"

Chapter 63

Bethany took out a dagger from her pocket and sneered at George.

Dread filled George. "D-Don't kill me..."

Bethany ignored his plea and slashed his underpants.

"No! What are you doing? Don't! I know my mistake now! Please, I truly do! I promise not to make the same mistakes again. I'll do whatever you ask me to do. Please let me go!" he continued to plead.

Bethany sneered.

She raised her hand and thrust the dagger downwards.

Blood spattered.

George let out a cry of pain. His whole body trembled violently, and his face crumpled into a mask of agony

He would rather die than suffer the horrible pain,

"No! Ah! Please have mercy!" George's shrill screams filled the basement.

After a long time, his screaming gradually softened, but his face was still twisted, and his body trembled.

His eyes were bloodshot as he glared at Bethany with fury and fear.

He didn't expect that Bethany, who had always been pliant and cowardly, not only kidnapped him but also hurt him.

"You... How could you do this to me? I'm your husband! We've been married for 30 years, yet you do this to me!" George's whole body shook violently, and so did his voice.

Bethany shouted angrily, "Now you remember we've been married for 30 years?"

"Why didn't you think of that when you betrayed me!"

"When you asked me to serve you two bastards, why didn't you remember that we've been married for 30 years!"

"When you were going to kill our son, why didn't you think of our 30 years of marriage and that he was the first fruit of our love?"

"George, it's too late for you to pull the relationship card with me!"

She raised her foot with frustration and kicked him hard, where he was still bleeding.

George let out a scream.

Bethany sneered, "You couldn't control your lower half, right?"

"Since you can't control it, then you don't need it."

After lambasting George, Bethany turned to look at Meghan.

Meghan bit her lip. Her face turned pale and her body shook like a leaf.

She was too frightened to make a sound when Bethany was dealing with George for fear that she would suffer as well.

Bethany had turned her attention to her, and she was terrified. Tears streamed down her cheeks as she pleaded, "M-Mom, I was wrong. P-Please don't hurt me. I'll obey your every word from now on and serve you like a servant. Please don't hurt me. I beg you, please don't hurt me."

Bethany was unmoved and merely looked at her with a dark face.

She had given Meghan many chances.

She still gave Meghan a chance that night before making her move.

However, Meghan was an innate bad seed and a bitch. She had no remorse for her past actions.

If Meghan had a conscience or a sense of shame, she wouldn't have kept to her old ways after getting caught.

Bethany thought, "Such a shameless wench doesn't deserve sympathy"

Meghan tried to curry favor with Bethany. "See, Mom. I'm a good girl and listened to every word you said, so please let me go.

"I promise I'll never disobey you in the future!

Chapter 64

If I break my word, I'll die a tragic death

Bethany shook her head. Too late. It's too late.

I've given you many chances, but you didn't appreciate them.

"You tried to kill Sam in the show and didn't repent even after returning. Now you want to hurt my Eddie to save yourself. "You both deserve to o die

Meghan cried, "I didn't mean to hurt Eddie. It was Dad's idea.

"Mom, blame dad. Don't blame me.

"Dad is the one calling the shots in this family. What else can I do if he wants to kill Eddie?

"Mom, please let me go."

George looked at Meghan in disbelief.

He thought, 'How can the always-considerate Meghan blame him!

'She's asking Bethany to take revenge on me?

'Doesn't she care if I die!'

At that time, Meghan couldn't care less about George. She just wanted to prove her sincerity to Bethany so that Bethany could let her go. However, Bethany did not waver a single bit.

No matter how sadly Meghan cried or how sincerely she promised, Bethany was unmoved.

Bethany raised the dagger again.

"Aah!" Meghan's scream echoed across the room a second later.

Bethany glanced at their wounds and didn't patch them up. Instead, she walked out of the basement.

She thought, 'I can't bear to kill anyone after

'In that case, I'll just make them bleed to death.

Then, I'll come and collect their bodies the day after tomorrow!

"Don't go. I'm still bleeding. Hurry and help me stop the bleeding, or I'll die! George shouted in horror.

Although he had been castrated, he still wanted to live.

Meghan also shouted, "Mom, please don't leave me! Please take me with you! It hurts so much"

However, no matter how much they shouted, Bethany didn't look back.

She walked out of the basement and shut the heavy iron door.

The kerosene lamp in the basement coincidentally burned out, and the whole basement fell into darkness.

"Ah!" Meghan couldn't bear the grievance and burst into tears. "Daci, this is all your fault! You did this to me! George shouted angrily, "I did this to you?"

"You did this to me!"

Meghan argued, "My hints and implications wouldn't have an effect if you didn't have any malicious thoughts."

George was speechless against her argument and didn't speak for a long time.

While crying, Meghan continued, "Mom brought us here to kill us, and it's not because of our affair but because of your intention to kill Eddie!"

Chapter 65

"It's all because you wanted to kill Eddie. Mom did this to protect him. I got into trouble because of you" Meghan cried louder and louder, her voice full of blame and regret.

If she had persuaded George not to kill Edward, maybe Bethany wouldn't have tied her up.

A sudden wave of deep regret washed over her.

Unfortunately, it was too late for regrets.

George shouted angrily, "Evangeline said that one of us and Edward must die. If we don't sacrifice him, what do you think we should do? Should we both die?"

He continued. "I want to kill Edward not just for myself, but also for you. How dare you push all the blame onto me! You really have no conscience at all!"

Meghan roared, "You can go and kill Evangeline. Once she's dead, she won't pose a threat to us anymore!"

George said, "She sent our video to Arthur. If anything happens to her, Arthur will still expose the video, and we'll be ruined anyway!"

Besides, he couldn't kill Evangeline.

Evangeline herself was already so powerful. With Arthur's men protecting her, George would never succeed.

Meghan cried and said. "Then kill Arthur as well. If he also dies, we won't be in trouble

George roared, "If you're so capable, go and kill him yourself! Do you think it'll be like killing a chicken? You say it so easily!"

He was injured, and being locked up in such a place annoyed him.

Meghan kept on accusing him, so he snapped and couldn't help but yell at her.

Meghan also broke down. Due to the physical and mental torture she went through, she was no longer able to maintain her gentle facade.

When George shouted at her, she yelled back.

Because they were tied up. George couldn't hit her

"You're useless. Don't make so many excuses for yourself! Meghan scolded.

"Who are you talking about?" George asked in furious.

Meghan said, "You! You're just a loser. When Grandpa was in control of Gallagher Group, the Gallagher family was still the richest in Hofcaster. But, since Gallagher Group was handed over to you, it has been declining. It's even being suppressed by Ferdinand Group, which has no backing and has only been established for a few years. We lost our position as the richest family! If it wasn't for the Gallagher family's diverse business, you would've made us go bankrupt a long time ago. Our whole family would've ended up in the streets! Why do you think Eddie started his own entertainment company? He was afraid that you'd ruin Gallagher Group, and we'd have no money in the future. That's why he went out to start his own business! If you say you're not a loser, then who is?"

"You... You..." George was gasping for air, but he couldn't say a word to contradict Meghan

Because Gallagher Group was indeed faced

The board of directors had also criticized him many times,

But Meghan had no right to say those things to him.

He gave her a luxurious lifestyle. What right did she have to look down on him!

Meghan suppressed so much resentment in her heart - perhaps because she had been pretending for too long.

Once she started letting out her frustrations, she couldn't stop.

She continued, "You're not just bad at business, you're even worse in bed! Every time lasts less than three minutes, and I have to pretend so hard for your sake! You have no idea how hard I have to actr You..... You.... You... You bitch!" George swore

Meghan retorted, "Loser!"

"Bitch!" George shouted.

"Loser!" Meghan yelled back.

"Bitch! Bitch!" George roared.

in anger.

"Loser! Loser! Loser! You're really a loser now, unable to even last three mi in the future! Meghan laughed

"You're the same. You're also ruined George retorted.

"I'm different from you. I'm still good in bed! But you're not. You lose it. You'll be nothing more than a cuuch!" Meghan morked "Ahhhh!" George roared.

The next day, Edward was discharged from th

the hospital and went home.

His body hadn't fully recovered, and his face was still bruised.

When Bethany saw him coming home, she hurried to help him and asked worriedly.

"Eddie, why did you come home! Didn't the doctor advise you to stay in the hospital for a week!" Edward walked to the couch and sat down with Bethany's help.

"Tomorrow's the third day of the deadline given by Evangeline, but we still haven't fulfilled her request, I can't stay in the hospital any longer. I need to come back and find a way to solve this, Edward said. "By the way, is Dad at home! Please call him down, Mom. I'd to discuss things with him and see what we can do," he added.

He thought George was in the study.

Bethany looked down to hide the panic in her eyes and said, "Your father and Meghan went out. They're not at home."

Edward frowned and asked, "They went out? Where did they go!"

Bethany shook her head and said, "I don't know. I can't be bothered to care about them now, I feel like seeing them brings bad luck. I do hope they leave my sight"

Edward replied, "Take it easy, Mom. It's already happened. Overthinking will only be bad for your health."

Bethany nodded and said, "I know. Don't worry about me. I'll send you back to the hospital first. You should take good care of your injuries and don't leave any sequelae. The Gallagher family will need you in the future."

Edward said, "I'm not going back. Tomorrow is the last day, and I must wait for Dad to come back to discuss a solution with him. Otherwise, we won't come up with anything by tomorrow. The moment Evangeline releases the video, the Gallagher family will be completely ruined."

Bethany said, "Don't worry about it. When your father comes back, I will discuss it with him and contact you afterwards."

Edward frowned and looked at his mother in confusion.

His mother had always been a person who had no opinions of her own

In the past, when something happened to them, Bethany would panic like a headless fly. She would only get anxious and ask others what to do and let them find a way to solve it,

But today, he didn't know why his mother seemed to be a different person

Despite facing

g such a big unresolved problem, she showed no signs of worry at all.

She didn't look flustered too.

It was as if she wasn't worried about the issue at all.

Chapter 6.5

That was strange.

It did not align with her character and style.

There must be something wrong.

Edward gathered his thoughts and nodded lightly. "Okay, I go back to the hospital. When Dad comes back, remember to ask him to contact me so we can discuss how to handle this. If things really go south, I'll reveal the truth about Pamela's act of ending her own life

"Stop imagining ridiculous things! Bethany snapped. She hurriedly added, "And don't talk nonsense to other people. Pamela chose to end her life- it has nothing to do with you!"

Edward pursed his lips and said nothing.

Bethany touched Edward's head and said with tears in her eyes. "Eddie, you must take care of yourself. You and your two younger brothers must live well. If anything happens in the future, the Gallagher family will depend on you. And your two younger brothers, they'll depend on you too, They're too naive. You must protect them as the eldest."

Edward hugged Bethany and said seriously, "Don't worry, Mom. I'll protect each one of you at any time.

Bethany forced a bitter smile through her tears.

She wouldn't have a chance to be protected by him.

Her sons had a future, but she didn't.

Bethany gently patted Edward on the back and said, "Well, I'll take you to the hospital.

Edward let go of Bethany and said, "You don't look well. Did you sleep well last night? Have a good rest at home. I'll go to the hospital by myself"

Bethany thought for a while then nodded.

Indeed, she didn't sleep well last night.

She hasn't been able to sleep since returning from the basement last night.

As soon as she closed her eyes, a horrible picture kept popping into her mind.

Edward left the mansion.

Bethany sat on the couch in a daze, crying

A death certificate was required when people died. As long as George's and Meghan's bodies were sent to the hospital for a death certificate, it would expose the truth that they had been killed.

She couldn't escape.

She would go to jail and may even be sentenced to death.

But she had no regrets.

If she were granted another chance, she would still make the same decision.

Bethany went back to her room.

She took some sleeping pills and lay down on the bed to rest.

When she woke up, it was already evening.

She went to the kitchen and cooked a lot of delicious dishes, then packed them in three separate thermal food containers.

The dishes she cooked were her three sons favorite.

After packing the food, she put on a mask and went out with the thermal food containers. Then she drove to the hospital.

Edward and Jasper were placed in the same ward, and Samson was there to take care of them.

Bethany opened the ward door and entered, all three of them were inside.

"1, why are you here? Why didn't you call me before coming so that I could pick you up?" As Samson spoke, he walked to the door and took the iners of food from Bethany.

Rogue 66

Chapter 66

Bethany locked George and Meghan in a room in the mansion's second basement.

The Gallagher residence had two basement floors and three above ground floors,

The housekeepers lived on the first basement floor.

The rooms on the second basement floor were mainly used for storage

Bethany locked them up in the second basement because the housekeepers were all on vacation. No one would know.

When Bethany got home, she immediately took the flashlight and went to the second basement floor.

The room where George and Meghan were locked up was in a corner with a thick door. As long as the door was closed, even if they screamed inside, they couldn't be heard on the floor above. Moreover, there was also a door in the middle of the second basement floor leading to the first basement floor. Once that door was closed, the sound would be even less audible.

That was why she kept George and Meghan at home with no worries

Bethany opened the door to that room and shone a flashlight inside. The room instantly lit up.

The air was filled with a strong, unpleasant smell of blood.

George and Meghan hung their heads from the stake, looking as if they were dead.

Bethany was a little scared, and her heart began to pound

She had been obedient all her life. It was the first time she had done such a crazy thing, and she couldn't stay calm.

She could not control her nervousness and fear, even if she was determined to kill them.

Bethany took a deep breath, swallowed her fear, and went inside,

She approached George and put her right forefinger under his nose to feel if he was breathing.

However, the next second, George suddenly moved and bit her finger.

"Ah!" Bethany screamed. She was startled, and the flashlight in her hand fell to the ground.

She raised her foot and angrily kicked George between his legs.

George screamed in pain and let go of the bite.

George

He had just managed to stop the bleeding from his wound, but it started bleeding again because of Bethany's kick. George was furious.

"Bitch! You vicious bitch! Let me go! I'll come back and haunt you as a ghost!" he cursed.

George was already very weak, and even though he was furious, his curses lacked the strength to deter Bethany in any way.

Meghan raised her head weakly, awakened by George's scream.

When she saw Bethany, she immediately pleaded weakly, as if she had found her last hope, "Mom, please let me go. I know I was wrong. As long as you release me, I'll do whatever you want. Please don't let me die. Boohoo..."

Bethany frowned.

She thought, "How can they have such a resilient life! They've lost so much blood and suffered severe injuries, and yet they're still alive!

Bethany made up her mind, took the flashlight, and shone it on the ground for a while. Then she found the dagger she had left there yesterday.

-She then picked up the dagger.

TA

Chapter 66

George stopped cursing abruptly.

When he saw Bethany looking at him with a dagger, his body began to tremble again. He said in horror, "Calm down, honey. Don't do anything stupid, Killing people is illegal. If you kill me, you can't escape yourself. Please! As long as you let me go, I promise not to call the police or hold you accountable Meghan said hastily. "And me... Mom, please let me go! I promise I won't call the police or tell anyone! I'll tell the others that we did the wounds.

ourselves!"

George nodded vigorously and added, "Yes, yes. Our injuries have nothing to do with you. If you let us go now, it's as if nothing happened! Honey, don't get yourself into jail just because of your impulse! You're only 50, and you still have 50 years to live. Please don't do anything foolish!"

Meghan said. "Mom, it's not worth sacrificing yourself for us. Please stop now!"

Bethany asked coldly, "How am I supposed to explain to Evangeline if I let you go? I let you go to kill Eddie?"

George hurriedly reassured, "No, no, no. I won't hurt Eddie, not even a hair on his head!"

Bethany sneered as she said, "Then, what should we do?"

George replied, "Just let Evangeline make the video public. I don't care about my reputation!"

Meghan nodded and chimed in, "I don't care either?"

It was better for her reputation to be ruined than dead.

They were so rich that even if their reputation was tarnished, they could still live a comfortable life.

Bethany said in a gloomy voice, "No way. If the video of your cheating is exposed, it won't just ruin your reputation. The entire family will become the target of public scorn. Meghan, you've been throwing yourself at 5am all over the livestream. If the video of you and George is exposed, others will maliciously speculate about your relationship with Sam. Not only Sam, but also Eddie and Jas. They may be suspected of having an affair with you! That video must not be exposed!"

Meghan shook her head vigorously and cried.

"Mom, please let me go. You only need to kill Dad. Evangeline said that as long as there was news of death in the family, it would be enough. I was forced by him. I didn't do it voluntarily. Mom, please let me go! Mom, you watched me grow up. I believe you couldn't bear to kill me, she pleaded.

George was enraged and said. "You wicked woman! I was truly blind before, deceived by you, spoiled you for so long, and now, you're slandering me to excuse yourself! It's you who seduced me! Honey, don't listen to her nonsense. She seduced me. Honey, we've been married for 30 years, Do you really want to kill me? Although I made a mistake, I used to be nice to you. Have you forgotten our wonderful moments together? Please, honey. Just kill Meghan and let me take care of you. You've never suffered. If I die, who will take care of you in the future?"

Meghan cried, "Mom, don't believe him. He's lying to you. If you let him go, he'll take revenge and kill you in the future! But I'm different. I won't do anything cruel, like killing people. Mom, please let me go Slap!

Bethany slapped Meghan's face with hatred in her eyes.

She said with a laugh, "You can't do such a cruel thing as killing people Meghan, how dare you say that? You pushed Evangeline off the cliff and prevented others from saving Sam. Do you think I've forgotten? I would have kicked you out of the house if George hadn't spoken for you and claimed you were frightened! You're the cruelest one!"

Meghan shook her head and started to cry.

After Bethany left the hospital, Edward got up from the bed and walked alone to sit in the yard behind the inpatient department,

He sat on a bench, looking up at the faint moon in the sky, feeling a little depressed.

He must have guessed what Bethany was up to.

He thought. Is Mom planning to take action against George and Meghan? Maybe she already has

When he guessed what Bethany was going to do, he didn't think of stopping her. He deliberately pretended not to know anything. 12:27 PM d

Chapter 66

In fact, he had always looked down on Bethany

She was hopelessly romantic.

All she had in mind were the trivial household affairs. She only revolved around household affairs without having a career.

She didn't have to do much around the house in a family like theirs, just idle away her days without much social engagement.

Thanks to the Gallagher family, who had always been the richest in Hofcaster and enjoyed a high status in the circle, she didn't need to socialize with others or contribute to the family business. Moreover, she was unassertive at all. She would be in a panic even when something trivial happened.

She could only cry and rely on others to help her clean up her messes.

She was so naive that she fell for many old tricks and ended up losing her money

She had no merits except that she was born and married well.

Now, she was going to kill George and Meghan to protect the reputation of the Gallagher family, the only meaningful thing she had ever done in her life.

However, Edward was still a little depressed.

He was still too emotional.

Edward's mind was in turmoil, and he didn't want to return to the ward and rest.

He sat on the bench and took out his phone to kill time.

He logged on to Twitter and wanted to see what was happening online.

But when he logged on to Twitter, he found his private messages flooded.

His Twitter post about treating Pamela's mother and caring for her in her old age had received millions of comments.

Edward scrolled through the comments.

They were all insults and curses directed at him.

Even the private messages in his inbox were filled with curses, and some people even made his black and white photos to curse him.

All of the celebrities and partners who used to follow him on Twitter had also unfollowed him.

He used to have over ten million followers, but now he only had over three million.

He

Edward looked terribly gloomy.

He had no idea what was happening

He mused, 'I proved that Evangeline didn't kill anyone, and I helped with Pamela's funeral. These are good deeds, so the Netizens shouldn't have scolded me.'

He already knew about the video proving Evangeline's innocence while he was in the hospital.

Edward pursed his lips and immediately checked the trending topic.

[Pamela's mother.]

[Pamela was forced to die by Edward]

[Edward framed Evangeline for Pamela's death.]

[The video Pamela left before her death.]

[Pamela's mother accused Edward of being heartless and malicious.]

12:27 PM

Chapter 66

[Pamela's mother made the letter left by Pamela public.]

[Pamela's mother w

was upset that she ended up in the ICU

[Evangeline is really miserable]

Edward clenched his phone tightly with a gloomy face when he saw those trending topics.

He tapped on one of the trending topics: [The video Pamela left before she died.]

There was a video in it.

The beginning of the video was a quick shake and a shot of his face.

Then the video went completely black, but he could hear his voice when he spoke to Pamela.

That was the night before Pamela jumped off the building. The video captured their conversation during their face-to-face meeting.

Edward clenched his fist tightly.

He thought in anger, Pamela is so scheming She actually recorded it

Rogue 67

Chapter 67

Edward listened for a few minutes and then quit the video.

It recorded the whole conversation.

That night, he discussed with Pamela for nearly an hour, and he didn't want to revisit the conversation anymore.

Someone else summarized the conversation in the comments for those who were too lazy to watch it.

Edward took a glance at it and knew that the video was a recording of the entire conversation.

Edward suppressed his anger and clicked on another trending topic: [Pamela's mother made public the letter left by Pamela).

Inside was a photo of a handwritten letter.

The letter read:

[Mom, it's me, Pam.

[By the

the time you read this, I'm dead.

[It must be all over the news right now that I was killed by Evangeline.

[I wasn't killed by Evangeline. I was asked to die by Edward!

[He knew that I had a grudge against Evangeline, so he found me and asked me to use my own death to tarnish Evangeline's reputation, falsely accusing her of being a murderer. Then, he'll step forward to apologize on behalf of Evangeline and promise to help me handle my funeral and support you to save his reputation

[When Edward offered to make a deal with me, asking me to use my death to help him deal with Evangeline and restore his reputation, while he promised to take care of you for the rest of your life and promised to send you abroad for treatment immediately after my death, I knew that I had no other choice.

[Although I knew Edward was a shrewd businessman and he might not necessarily keep his promises, as he even set up his own sister, I had no choice.

[Mom, you've sacrificed so much for me, endured hardships throughout your life, and never enjoyed a day of happiness. Now you're suffering from illness, I also hope to do something for you

[But I'm so useless. In the entertainment industry, where making money is supposed to be easy, I can't even earn enough for your medical expenses. That's why I had to accept Edward's collaboration invitation

[Even though I'm not sure if he'll keep his promises, I must take a chance.

[What if?

[What if he keeps his promise! You can enjoy happiness for the rest of your life, and I would have repaid your kindness for bringing me into this world

[I'm like a gambler, using my life to bet on the conscience of a cold-hearted person.

[If you receive this letter, it means I lost the bet

[Edward promised me that if I died, he would arrange for someone to transfer you to another hospital for better treatment,

[I entrusted someone to send this letter two days later, and it will be sent to your original ward. If you receive this letter, it means that after my death, Edward didn't take care of you at all. Not only did he not send you abroad, but he also didn't even transfer you to a better ward.

The letter contains a memory card with the recorded conversation between me and Edward. Mons, when you receive this letter, expose what Edward has done to the media.

[I'm no longer alive, and since Edward didn't keep his promises, if you don't expose him, you have no chance to survive.

Chapter 67

[Mom, I have failed to give you a day of happiness. I'm going to be reborn now. In my next life, I'll be your mother, and I'll be the one to care for and cherish you

[By the way, I would like to apologize to Evangeline. In the past, I always caused trouble for her, criticizing her on Twitter, all because I took money from Meghan.

[The grudge between Evangeline and I was all because I took Meghan's money and deliberately took the initiative to trouble Evangeline. But Evangeline was too strong, and I couldn't take advantage of her, so she always beat me up. Then Meghan hired ghostwriters to defame Evangeline.

[Although I was paid to do this, I also brought trouble to Evangeline. I feel sorry for her.

[Pamela Lynch)

There were also millions of comments at the bottom of this letter.

Looking at the news and public opinion on the internet, Edward felt a chill running down his spine, and his eyes dimmed. His phone slipped from his hand and fell to the ground.

It was over...

It was all over...

His reputation was ruined.

Superb Entertainment had no way out.

Gallagher Group would also be hit hard.

This time, he had no hope of turning things around.

He wasn't unwilling to take care of Pamela's mother.

But that night, Evangeline beat him up, and he didn't have time to care about it.

When he woke up the next day, he only cared about Evangeline's request and forgot his promise.

"Damn it! Edward cursed inwardly.

He didn't understand why Evangeline was

When she participated in the variety show, all the other celebrities' reputations were ruined. Only she managed to reverse her reputation, garnering praise and becoming famous worldwide.

In this setup, he had someone destroy the surveillance cameras in advance, Surprisingly, someone captured the video to prove her innocence. She only stayed at the police station for a while and then left.

Why did all the good luck come to her!

It was so unfair.

He worked so hard. Why didn't he get the luck!

Edward closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

After taking a moment to compose himself, he bent down to pick up his phone.

He returned to the ward, changed his clothes, and left the hospital quietly.

In a room on the second basement floor of the Gallagher residence, George and Meghan were still shirking responsibility, trying to convince Bethany to kill the other and free themselves. Bethany's face remained expressionless, and her hand holding the dagger kept shaking.

She didn't want to listen to their nagging, but it was the first time she had made up her mind to kill someone. She didn't have that courage.

She was so useless.

Not even dare to

They not only betrayed her but also wanted to kill her son.

"No! I must do it! Tonight is the deadline. I can't delay any longer. I've to do it no matter what Bethany thought in determination,

Bethany gritted her teeth, tightly clenched the dagger, and slowly raised her hand. The tip of the dagger was aimed at George.

She wanted to kill George first.

"Mom, stop" someone shouted.

The door of the room was suddenly pushed open, and Edward appeared.

Bethany was flustered and asked hurriedly. "Eddie, why... why are you back? And... And how did you find me here?"

George was ecstatic when he saw Edward. He began to struggle intensely and shouted excitedly, "Eddie, let me go quickly! Hurry, take me to the hospital! Your mother is crazy. She wants to kill me! Call the police and arrest her!"

Meghan also cried excitedly. "Help me! I was hurt by Mom. My body hurts so much. Eddie, you always care about me. Let go of me quickly!"

Bethany's eyes darkened

She immediately squatted down, picked up the dagger that had fallen to the ground, and turned back to stab George.

Edward walked quickly over, grabbed Bethany's wrist, and snatched the dagger from her hand.

Edward said in a deep voice. "Mom, go back upstairs first. The matter with Evangeline has been concluded. You don't need to bear the blame for being a murderer"

"Concluded: What conclusion?" Bethany was confused

Edward said, "You go upstairs first. I'll talk to you later. Or you can check it on the Internet yourself."

Bethany was reluctant, but seeing Edward's calm face, she had to trust him.

Bethany left the room.

George Immediately said. "Eddie, let me go. Your mother is crazy. She hurt me, and I'm bleeding a lot. I need to go to the hospital for treatment.

Meghan also cried, "Eddie, help me too. My body hurts. Please untie me. I feel so bad, I've never been treated like this before. Mom is too cruel"

Chapter 69

The number of comments on that video had already exceeded 1 million.

Almost all of the comments were insults and criticisms.

One of the comments read: [That's evil. How can such a cruel person exist? Evangeline is his sister! How can he frame her in such a vicious way and even force an innocent person to die for this?]

Another person wrote: [He is still shirking his responsibility and saying that he didn't force Pamela. He knew that Pamela needed money and that she treasured her family a lot, So, he took advantage of her weakness and asked her to choose. Isn't this the same as forcing her?]

Someone else typed: [He's such a terrifying man. He admitted to his crimes, but he was still so calm about it, and he didn't show any guilt at all!]

A short comment read: [Someone like him should be shot to death!]

Someone analyzed: [He probably won't be sentenced to death, and the sentence may not even be long. After all, it was true that he did not use force to push Pamela to end her life. He just gave her a choice, and that is inductive at best. As an adult, Pamela should have proper judgment. This guy will most probably be convicted for his act of framing Evangeline, as he falsely accused an innocent person of being a murderer. He's too cruel.]

A comment read: [He's too cunning. He had asked Pamela to end her own life, but he painted an innocent image of himself as he spoke. He is even more cunning than a fox!]

As Bethany read those comments, she squeezed her phone tightly. She was heartbroken.

Soon, the police searched the whole villa, but they didn't find any trace of Edward.

The police said to Bethany. "If you have information about Edward, please contact us as soon as possible. If he turns himself in, he may even get a lighter sentence. Bethany nodded, dazed.

The police left.

Shortly after the police left, Samson ran home anxiously

"Mom, I saw the news on the internet. Where is Eddie Is he okay Samson asked, running into the roomL

Bethany burst into tears when she saw Samson.

She shook her head and said, "Eddie is missing. He put a sleeping pill in my drink last night. By the time I woke up, he had already disappeared. The police came just now, and they were also looking for him."

Samson paced back and forth in the living room as he said, "Eddie couldn't have done such a thing. Why did he run away? He didn't kill anyone with his own hands, so his sentence wouldn't be too heavy. If he runs away, he's only adding to his charges"

Bethany bit her lip. Covering her face, she sobbed bitterly, "He turned out like this because of me..."

Edward must have escaped so that he could deal with George and Meghan.

"Mom, what are you talking about! Eddie's crimes are his own to bear. It has nothing to do with you!" Samson said,

Bethany simply sobbed and shook her head, but she didn't voice her thoughts.

She didn't know whether Edward had killed George and Meghan or not, so she dared not say anything.

If Edward had killed those two people, he would get the death penalty. She couldn't let anyone know about that.

After Evangeline woke up, she worked out for three hours before showering.

It was only nine o'clock in the morning when she came downstairs after the shower.

She picked up the food delivered at the door and returned to the dining room. As she ate breakfast, she checked her phone.

Evangeline also saw the news where Edward had admitted to the fact that he had encouraged Pamela to end her life and then framed Evangeline for it.

By the looks of it, when Edward realized that he was exposed, he chose to sacrifice himself so that the other two could be saved.

However, Edward probably didn't have a good memory.

Back then, Evangeline had asked Edward to admit to the fact that he had set her up and then turn himself in.

But so far, he didn't seem to have turned himself in.

Still, the day was not over yet, so Evangeline decided to wait for a while longer.

By the end of that day, if she still hadn't seen any news of Edward turning himself in at the police station, she would have no choice the intimate video of George and Meghan.

After breakfast, she rested for a while before going out to train again.

Evangeline didn't return until eight o'clock in the evening.

She went straight to bed after taking a shower.

When she woke up the next day, she checked the internet to see if Edward had turned himself in.

e but to expose expose

She saw a tweet from the Hofcaster Police Station, which was posted in response to the netizens' comments on Twitter. The police said that they had issued an arrest warrant to capture Edward, but Edward escaped. They were searching for him, and they promised that they would issue a response immediately after catching him. So, they asked the netizens to calm down for the moment.

Without hesitation, Evangeline posted the video of George and Meghan on her Twitter account

She had no choice.

She didn't have an alternate account, after all,

She didn't know the online marketing accounts in her social circle, nor did she bother to contact them.

So, she could only post it on her own account.

Then, she was banned.

Fortunately, she was only banned ten minutes after posting the video.

Many people had watched that video, and many of them had saved it as well.

Although Evangeline was banned, the news about the affair between George and Meghan spread like wildfire. The trending page on Twitter was instantly dominated by the news, and even Edward's case had disappeared without a trace.

Taboo topics were always popular. Even incidents concerning ordinary people could cause a huge public commotion, let alone incidents revolving around celebrities.

Hashtags of the incident instantly appeared, including "Meghan's incest," "Meghan and her father," "Short video of Meghan and her father," "The Gallagher family is a mess," "Evangeline exposes the scandal of the Gallagher family," and "Evangeline was banned."

Someone posted: [When I watched Jungle Survival, I thought something was going on between Meghan and Samson. I thought that they had an affair, but unexpectedly, it was Meghan's father who had an affair with Meghan]

Someone else wrote: [Heavens! I need bleach for my eyes. This is so disgusting!]

A post read: [Meghan is so shameless. How dare she have an affair with her father? I pity her mother! Her daughter stole her husband from her.] Someone wrote: This entire family is a mess. What a sight!] Another person typed: [I'm glad that Evangeline has left the Gallagher family. Otherwise, she may be in danger.]

Someone wrote: Juan someone SUERTERY

Someone else replied: [Humans won't, but animals will]

A person echoed: That's right. The Gallagher family are all beasts, so it is not surprising that they did such a thing!)

Someone responded: [Don't insult animals, Sometimes, even animals don't do that!]

A person wrote: [Haha. Am I the only one who feels like laughing at Evangeline? She was so honest that she posted the video on her account. Now, she ended up getting banned. Poor thing.] Someone else responded- (Evangeline is just so... I hope she'll get unbanned from Twitter soon. She just wants to expose the two jerks. She's not spreading obscene videos on purpose!) Anetizen posted: [Ah. I'm late to the party. I didn't see the video. Can someone give me the link?III

Someone replied. (Don't ask for the link. It's not a decent sight. All you have to know is that Meghan had sex with her father.)

A person even wrote: [Add me on WhatsApp. I'll send you the complete video for one dollar only.)

Seeing that her actions had caused the effect she had hoped for, Evangeline didn't mind being banned anymore.

After breakfast, she went out for training as usual.

However, she had just left the house when she received a call from the police station.

The police said. "Ms. Evangeline Castillo, you are suspected of spreading an obscene video. Please come to the police station for a quick lesson.

Evangeline was speechless.

The police said lightly, "Don't worry. You're not profiting from the video, so you won't be found guilty. Still, it's illegal to post obscene videos on public platforms. And as a celebrity with great influence, you should strictly discipline yourself. You have to receive corrective education so that you won't repeat your mistakes."

Evangeline didn't say anything

In the end, she could only go to the police station.

When the police saw her, they all smiled and greeted her.

Evangeline suspected that they were laughing at her.

However, she didn't have proof of that.

A police officer said, "Don't worry, We're not laughing at you. We are just approachable people, and we love to smile"

Another police officer said, "Haha, yeah. We're the happy-go-lucky sort!"

Another police officer passing by laughed so hard that he couldn't even keep his mouth closed. He added, "Haha, our bureau just happens to be holding a smiling contest. Haha, it's so funny!" Evangeline was speechless,

She was placed in a small room and then forced to watch educational videos.

After watching two hours of boring educational videos, the police even gave her a test paper to answer.

The police officer said, "You can leave if you pass the exam. This is your first offense, so you'll only receive education for now. Next time, you will not be so lucky. Don't do it again."

Evangeline answered the questions seriously.

Meanwhile, the official account of the Hofcaster Police Station posted a video of Evangeline receiving corrective education and answering the test questions earnestly. They also reminded the netizens not to make similar mistakes.

The netizens began laughing at Evangeline.

Chapter 69

Someone typed: [Haha, I'm dying from laughter! The Hofeaster Police Station is so serious about their work! They even managed to educate Evangeline.]

Another comment read: [Heavens! I didn't know people could be summoned to the police station for posting videos. And you even have to take a test? Goodness! I won't ever post weird pies again.] Someone replied: [It's a good thing I don't post on Twitter. I only post in the group chat.]

A person responded: [Hey, it's also illegal to post in the group chat. You'd better stop now, or you will be the next one to get caught and educated.]

A random comment read: (Haha, Evangeline is watching the videos so seriously. I'm laughing my head off]

Someone asked: [Evangeline is probably the first celebrity ever to get arrested and educated for spreading obscene videos, right?]

Someone responded: [Haha, it's so embarrassing!]

A person wrote: I have to admit that they've done quite well in this education stint. In the future, those perverts will think twice before sending weird videos and pictures. If they are not careful, they will go to jail] Someone commented: [Thank you, Evangeline, for helping us realize that it is illegal to post indecent videos!]

Meanwhile, in an abandoned storehouse. Edward was holding a phone in his hand. He couldn't help laughing when he saw the news on the internet.

His phone was newly purchased, and he had also gotten a new SIM card registered under someone else's ID. So, he wasn't afraid of being traced.

Behind him, George and Meghan were bound to separate pillars.

were covered in blood and looked terrible, but they were still conscious.

Edward walked up to them with his phone and showed them the news online.

He said. The video of your affair has been exposed, and now, everyone is talking about you two on the internet. You are trending in the whole entertainment industry, and even Evangeline can't compare to you. Why don't you read the netizens' comments about you?"

Edward clicked on the comments section and forced them to read the insults and humiliation filling up the screen.

Meghan's eyes widened, and she burst into tears.

Meghan thought. Not This can't be happening! I can't believe that bitch Evangeline exposed the video!

Meghan felt that Evangeline should be the one being criticized for exposing others' privacy

George's face turned pale as tears streamed down his face

He had lived to such an age, but now, he had ended up in ruins.

The reputation of the Gallagher family was also completely ruined by him

He was the reason the Gallagher family fell from grace.

He had wronged his ancestors.

At that moment, he truly began to regret his actions.

Sadly, it was too late for regrets.

Chapter 70

Edward admired the despairing expressions on Meghan's and George's faces for a moment.

Then, he put away his phone

After that, he picked up the dagger he had put aside.

He said. "You two haven't eaten anything for two days. You must be hungry, right?"

They had been starving ages ago,

But they felt fear and despair more than anything. So, even if they were hungry, they dared not make a sound.

Now that Edward was taking the initiative to mention it, Meghan and George subconsciously swallowed.

"Would you like to eat something?" Edward asked with a half-smile.

Meghan said hurriedly, "I'm starving, Eddie. Please give me something to eat. I'm already injured, so if I don't eat anything now, I won't be able to hold out much longer."

She even pitifully shed some tears, hoping to arouse his sympathy.

Edward nodded agreeably, saying, "Alright. Since you asked first, you get to eat first."

Meghan cried in joy. "Thank you, Eddie. I swear I won't forget your kindness to me!"

She thought that Edward wouldn't want to kill them.

If he wanted to do it, he would have done it already. He wouldn't have gone through the trouble of getting them out.

Also, he wouldn't care whether they were hungry or not.

He must be worried that if he let them go, they would call the police to retaliate against him and Bethany.

Edward hadn't calmed down enough for now, so even if they assured him, he wouldn't believe them.

After they had assured him a few more times, Edward would believe that they wouldn't call the police. Then, he would let them go.

They just needed to stay alive and wait!

Meghan was full of hope as her eyes lit up.

However, she fell into despair in the next second.....

George's scream was so loud that it almost shattered Meghan's eardrums.

Meghan's eyes widened in horror, and her body trembled violently.

She couldn't believe what Edward was doing.

Her mind couldn't even form a complete thought. 'He..... He'.....`

After a while, Edward stood up a and walked over to her.

"Ah... How could you do this to me! I'm your father..." George was still screaming.

Edward ignored George's screams and questions.

He carefully cut the flesh into small pieces. Then, he held a piece to Meghan's mouth.

He said gently, "I know you like to eat in small bites. I've already helped you cut the meat into your preferred size, so go ahead and dig in" Meghan's whole body was trembling, and her face turned pale as paper. She fearfully looked at Edward, who had a calm expression on his face. She thought, "No.. I don't want to eat anymore!*

Edward's eyes turned cold as he said, "I wasted so much time cutting it for you, but you're not going to eat it?"

"Boo-hoo." Meghan's mouth was closed as she let out a pained cry. She looked at him pleadingly, hoping that he could

He didn't mention the consequences of his wrath, but his cold eyes were enough to shock Meghan. Meghan's intuition told her that if she didn't listen to Edward, the consequences would be even worse. Under Edward's cold gaze, Meghan trembled as she opened her mouth.

"Don't spit it out," Edward said.

Edward's simple words frightened Meghan so much that she bit her lip firmly, not daring to spit it out. When Meghan recovered her senses, Edward said again, "Now, it's time to feed Dad

Meghan's eyes widened.

Before she could beg for mercy, she felt severe pain...

"Ah. Help... Just end me... I'm begging you, just end my life... she pleaded.

However, no matter how desperate their pleas were, Edward still went ahead with his plan

Ten days later, George and Meghan were still alive.

But their bodies were injured, and they were on the brink of death,

Edward had removed the ropes binding them a long time ago, but even if they weren't bound anymore, they couldn't move

They were delirious, and their thoughts became muddled.

"End me... Please just end me... Please free me from this hell I'm in so much pain. It hurts everywhere... I don't want to live anymore. Please... End ΠE they kept muttering. Edward walked up to them and then crouched down in front of them. Opening a bottle of water, he poured it over their faces Sobering up, they saw Edward's face. Both of them had fearful expressions on their faces as they trembled.

"I know a secret about you two. Do you want to know what it is!" Edward said slowly.

The only thing George and Meghan felt was fear toward Edward. They had no other desires.

Chuckling, Edward said, "You won't be alive for long. I guess I'll tell you in person while you're still alive"

The two w

Two were still filled with fear

Edward looked at George and asked, "Do you know why a housekeeper was capable of secretly switching out the real daughter of the Gallagher family?*

George kept trembling and didn't answer.

Edward didn't need an answer, anyway. He continued, "Because it was an operation instructed by Grandpa Grandpa covered for her so that she could deceive everyone and secretly swapped Evangeline with Meghan."

George's eyes suddenly widened,

He thought, 'How is that possible? Why would he do that?'

Edward asked, "Are you curious about why Grandpa did that! It's not that hard to guess. It's because Meghan is Grandpa's daughter, which means that she's also your biological half-sister."

Chapter 70

George widened his eyes, which were full of shock and disbelief.

"What... How is that possible?" George painstakingly asked.

He thought, How could Meghan be my sister? If Meghan is my sister, then we would've....

George panted heavily as his face turned pale.

He thought. No... I shouldn't be like this... How can I die an honorable death after this?"

"It can't be true... You're lying. It's not true... Meghan also said with difficulty.

She couldn't accept the truth either.

Edward said, "Now that things have come to this point, why would I even lie to you? Do you know why Grandpa gave so many shares to Evangeline? That's because Evangeline knows about this secret. On top of that, she discovered an even bigger secret. If that secret is exposed, the entire Gallagher family will be done for. That's why Grandpa willingly gave up his money and life to beg Evangeline not to expose that secret."

Edward's grandfather didn't die of natural causes

He had ended his own life.

Only he and Evangeline knew the secret

Six months after Evangeline returned home, Edward's grandfather suddenly ended his own life by carbon monoxide poisoning. Everyone in the family thought that it was an accident.

But Edward knew that his grandfather had ended his own life to silence Evangeline.

After all, he accidentally overheard the conversation between Evangeline and his grandfather.

Back then, his grandfather got down on his knees and pleaded with Evangeline. Evangeline had requested that the shares in his hand be transferred to her and that he should be dead within three days. Otherwise, she would expose the secret to the public.

Edward had been faking ignorance, and he never thought of saving his grandfather.

But now,

he felt that George and Meghan should know about their relationship before they died.

"That's not true. It can't be true..."

"Ah. Edward, please just end me. I don't want to live anymore.

They were miserable and in despair. They couldn't accept the truth at all.

Edward was silent for a moment. Then, he suddenly said, "I originally wanted to end you guys, but now, I suddenly feel like death is only a form of release for you."

George and Meghan were both frightened and desperate,

In their current condition, they couldn't walk, turn over, eat, or even relieve themselves.

There was no point for them to stay alive.

At first, they kept hoping to survive, but at that moment, they were desperate for death,

Edward said, "This is your retribution, Dad, you should be aware of all the bad things you've done. And Meghan, have you forgotten the two girls you killed in high school because of jealousy? The parents of those girls refused to accept the compensation, and they suddenly disappeared. Dad, you must have arranged for someone to deal with them, right?"

Meghan and George widened their eyes in horror.

They couldn't believe that Edward knew about this.

Edward continued, "I know almost all the secrets of everyone in the Gallagher family. As long as they aren't involved in the financial aspect of the „,family, I'll choose to ignore them."
