

Revenge Of The Rogue Heiress

Rogue 91

Chapter 91

Evangeline frowned, "What is it running for? Am I that terrifying Come back here!"

The white tiger quickened its speed. It would never go back! Last time, she cracked its balls. She even kicked its ass so hard that it couldn't produce perfect shit anymore. She hit its head too, which made it not as smart as before. It didn't dare to be near her again, afraid that she might deprive him of something else again.

Its bitter experiences taught it one lesson: stay away from Evangeline or it would end up more miserable,

Evangeline was furious when she saw the white tiger run away without looking back

She lay on her chest and crawled toward the white tiger in a weird way, stretching her limbs quickly. With a wicked smile, she stared at the back of the white tiger with maliciousness and laughed excitedly.

She laughed. "You have aroused my desire to win the game. I'll play with you and let's see who is faster!"

The white tiger was so frightened that it stumbled and fell again. It screamed anxiously like it was about to cry. It no longer had the demeanor of the brutal king of the beasts.

Seeing this. Evangeline laughed more and more creepily, "Run! Or. I'll beat you up when I catch you

The tiger howled and thought, I love peace, No more fights. Stop chasing after met Behind him, Marian and Riley looked at Evangeline's back in shock while she crawled. Her creepy and magical laughter lingered in her ears. It was ridiculous! They wondered why such a huge tiger was more scared to see Evangeline than a mouse that had seen a cat. Tiger was the king of the beasts after all!

No, for his size, he was the king of the world! But it was frightened by Evangeline and escaped! A tiger weighing nearly 1100 pounds was chased by a human being who probably weighed less than 110 pounds. It was so ridiculous)

Jeffrey and the other contestants were also stunned. They all stood still like they had been immobilized. They just looked at everything in shock.

They wondered why this was happening. They thought the white tiger was supposed to kill Evangeline with one slap. But it was escaping. It weighed 1100 pounds but was still afraid of a tiny human being. What a coward

Jeffrey was so angry that his chest heaved violently. He clenched his fists and his face turned red

He thought that when the white tiger came out, he could prove himself at first. He wanted Evangeline to kneel before him and beg for his protection. But what was happening now was not what he had been expecting. He was going to explode with anger. He wondered what exactly the bosses had done.

The bosses were also dumbfounded. Inside the room, there was a dead silence

Everyone looked sullen. They looked at the big white tiger, which they pinned all their hopes on being chased after by Evangeline through the forest. Their faces turned red with anger, especially John, whose face was the most pale.

For this secret weapon, he kept begging someone. He even spent 10 million dollars on it.

But in the end, the big white tiger who could have scared people to death with just a roar, was frightened by Evangeline's glare.

He felt like it was a waste of money. It not only failed to save Atharia's face but also embarrassed them in front of the whole world.

What was worse, it gave Evangeline a chance to impress the whole world

Evangeline didn't expect that his 10 million dollars would help Evangeline in the end

He racked his brains but couldn't figure out what had gone wrong.

"Fuck! Why is this happening? Why would a white tiger be afraid of Evangeline? Evangeline is even chasing after her? It's wrong! It should be afraid of Jeffrey!"

He was so angry that he stood up and walked back and forth in the room, constantly smashing things to the ground to vent his anger.

Kenji said in a trembling voice, "Mr. Wade, calm down. Don't be angry."

John roared, "Fuck! I spent so much money on this destructive weapon but it turned out like this. How could I not be angry? Not only did I lose money but also lost face. Wouldn't you be angry if you were me?"

Kenji stopped talking. Even though it was not his money, he was angry to see that Evangeline was at the advantage instead of being scared.

Chapter 91

Presley said, "Dirty Clusians! Evangeline must have hypnotized the white tiger

"She once participated in Jungle Survival. All the monkeys and yellow-throated martens listened to her. She must have used some kind of hypnosis method!

"After all, it is impossible for humans to communicate with animals!*

Others began to find excuses to denigrate Evangeline as a way of comforting John.

But John was still angry. It cost him 50 million dollars. It was totally a waste of money. He wouldn't be so angry if it was only a waste of money. His money not only didn't help him but also helped Evangeline! The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. He couldn't calm himself down

In the livestream in Clusia. The Classic version of Evangeline is back!

[Hahaha! Fuck the classic version of Evangeline. But I haven't seen a more perverted thing than watching Evangeline crawling on the ground. Her posture and expression were the same as when she was chasing the monkeys. This was so memorable.)

[Damn! This is fucking shocking! What's going on? Why would the white tiger be afraid of Evangeline?]

[I'm shocked! The monkeys in Jungle Survival were beaten up by Evangeline several times before they surrendered to Evangeline. But Evangeline didn't beat the tiger. Why is this tiger so afraid of Evangeline? It is even more afraid of Evangeline than monkeys who have been beaten up by her several times?)

[So, is Evangeline's reputation spreading among the animals?]

[Don't be so outrageous. They are so far away from each other and they are different species. How can it be spreading among them?]

[I don't know what happened. I want to tell everyone that Evangeline is so cool!

[Evangeline is powerful. It's like slapping Atharians in the face]

I'm laughing so hard. Just now, Jeffrey tried to force Evangeline to ask for his protection. She doesn't need his protection at all. What is he thinking about?']

[Hahaha! I'm so happy to see their sullen faces]

Everyone that was watching the live streams in other countries was quiet. They were shocked. They didn't want to praise Evangeline at all. But this amazing scene made them unable to swear at her. They could only watch the show in silence.

In the forest, the white tiger was running. It didn't hear the grim laughter behind her. It thought that Evangeline did not catch up with it and wanted to look back to see how far it was from her,

However, as soon as it turned around, it was scared to death and felt its asshole suddenly tightened.

It found that Evangeline gave up walking on both legs and was crawling toward it. Besides, her expression was so terrifying

At this moment, it was very close to her. She could almost touch its butt!

The white tiger howled and quickly looked away. It continued to try its best to run.

However, Evangeline suddenly jumped up 20 feet above the ground. She grabbed a vine with both hands and jumped directly onto the back of the white tiger.

The white tiger bared its teeth and screamed. It shook its body to throw Evangeline off its back.

Bang! Evangeline slapped hard across its face.

Evangeline shouted, "Behave yourself! If you dare to move again, I'll hit your head with a hammer. Once I swing the hammer, you will die"

The white tiger shivered with fear and let out a low but strong howl

It didn't sound domineering at all but it sounded aggrieved.

-It felt very aggrieved. It pawed the ground with its two front paws and then crept down on the ground. It pressed its asshole tightly against the ground and put its tail on its asshole to prevent it from being hurt by Evangeline again.

Chapter 92

Evangeline asked, "Why did you run right after you saw me? Am I that terrible?"

The white liger roared and nodded.

Evangeline rubbed her chin and said with a puzzled look, "I think I'm quite friendly. I didn't shout at you. What are you afraid of me?" The white tiger was speechless. I thought, "You ruined my balls and kicked my ass. I can't make a perfect excrement anymore. Evangeline said, "Forget it. Don't scream anymore. Stop your bullshit Carry me back home! You will follow behind me for a few days"

The white tiger howled, stood up, dejected, turned around, and walked back. His dream of being a king was a lost cause. While walking, it kept its tail down and stuck it between its two legs.

Damn! I can't even describe my feelings now. How could Evangeline slap the tiger And she is riding on it! How could a tiger understand Evangeline's words!]

[Evangeline, be honest with us, are you actually an animal? This is too incredible! What happened to the monkeys and the yellow-throated martens might be a coincidence but now even the tiger can understand her. I can't believe in!]

[Why is this tiger walking so strangely? Why is its tail so tightly between its legs?

[Evangeline, please teach us. I like animals a lot and want to communicate with them, especially my cat. I want to know if it is wearing at me when it surks at me.]

When Evangeline rode the white tiger back to her original position, everyone was shocked and horrified, especially people who supported Jeffrey.

In a very short time, they were shocked by what Evangeline did several times. She caught up with a huge beast running across the forest. She even rode on it! They never even dared to dream about such an outrageous thing.

But Evangeline, a woman from Clusia who they despised, actually tamed a tiger and rode on it. Now, they didn't dare to look down upon Evangeline anymore. To them, what Evangeline had done was ridiculous.

Evangeline looked at Jeffrey coldly, took down the bow and arrow behind her, and pointed it at Jeffrey. She wanted to kill him. This thought never changed.

When she touched the bow and arrow, Jeffrey realized what she wanted to do and ran away quickly.

As he ran, he hid behind the trees to protect himself from Evangeline. Evangeline couldn't shoot him.

The rest of them fled in a panic while Evangeline aimed the arrow at Jeffrey, Evangeline lowered the arrow, not intending to chase after them anymore. It was time for dinner. She had to eat on time.

Evangeline put the arrow back to the quiver and looked at Marian and Riley. They both stepped back in fear to distance themselves from her. To be more precise, they were distancing themselves from the white tiger.

Seeing that someone was afraid of it, the white tiger felt that he had saved his face. So it bared its teeth at them. Marian and Riley stepped back in horror.

When the white tiger was gloating, Evangeline slapped on its head. The white tiger suddenly felt dizzy.

Evangeline threatened them unhappily, "Behave yourself! If you dare to scare them again, I'll pull out all of your hair!"

The white tiger howled and lowered its head again.

Evangeline looked at Marian and Riley and said, "Don't be afraid of it. It dares not hurt you when in present."

Marian still didn't dare to approach it. She swallowed hard nervously and asked in a trembling voice, 'Evangeline, how did you tame it? It looks so terrifying. Why is it afraid of you and even willingly let you ride on it? It's so unbelievable!'

Evangeline thought about it for a while and smiled, "Maybe I look kind. Animals like to be close to kind people."

Marian and Riley were speechless.

Evangeline said, "It's getting late. Let's find a place to spend the night and make dinner."

Riley said, "Okay, let's find a good spot and then I'll go hunting."

Evangeline smiled, "Why do you do it on your own when you can get help?"

Chapter 92

As she spoke, she rolled over from the back of the white tiger and landed on the ground. Then he patted the white tiger's head and said, "Go catch a deer. I suddenly wanted to eat venison." The white tiger howled twice and ran away.

Riley and Marian were dumbfounded it took them a long time to come to their senses.

Marian asked. "Does... does it understand what you said? It has run away: Will it come back?"

Evangeline said, "I'm not sure. But I don't think it will escape. If it does. I'll catch it and teach it a lesson"

Marian was speechless. She looked at Evangeline and didn't know what to say.

Evangeline then started to look for a camping spot to spend the night with them. They walked for half an hour and found a river. They trimmed the grasses and trees and finally got a flat area to rest at night. Riley collected firewood. Evangeline and Marian washed themselves clean by the river. When they finished everything, about one hour had passed. But the white tiger had not come back yet. Marian said, "Did the white tiger escape?"

She thought there was a high probability of it. It was the king of the beasts after all, How could he be willing to be ridden by a human being? Once it found a chance to escape, it would definitely seier in. Before Evangeline could answer her question, she heard a rustling sound from the forest. A white tiger jumped out of it. Then, one after another. tigers kept jumping out from behind it.

Evangeline counted and found out there were six tigers. She said, "What are you doing? Are you going to rebel?"

The white tiger screamed.

Evangeline said, "Don't scream. I don't understand it"

The white tiger shut up and looked at her with a grave look.

Evangeline asked tentatively, "Did you bring them to me to carry out my orders?"

The white tiger nodded.

Evangeline smiled. "You are pretty nice."

She said, "Okay, but we don't need so many of them. Just keep two of them and the two people over there will ride on them tomorrow."

"The rest can also help us though. Ask them to track the group of people who you met today and report the locations to me tomorrow,"

The tigers began to communicate with each other. After a while, two tigers of the same color as the white tiger but much smaller than it were left. The rest ran back into the woods.

Evangeline looked at their back and smiled. She thought, None of them will escape!

Evangeline came to her senses and looked at the white tiger. "Where is the deer? I asked you to hunt deers."

The white tiger looked at the two tigers and they immediately ran into the forest. Soon, they returned with a deer that had been killed.

Evangeline asked Riley to cook the venison. Riley was shocked again. He reached out and slapped his face, "Am I dreaming? Am I still alive? I can't believe I just watched a human communicate with a group of tigers.

Amazed, he went to the river, carrying the dead deer.

Marian was also shocked. She felt dizzy

Evangeline sat on the grass and looked at the three tigers with great interest,

They were a tiger and a tigress. It seemed to be the tigress's rutting season. It loved the white tiger a lot. It rubbed itself against the white tiger completely ignoring the difference between their sizes and nudged its butt to the white tiger.

The white tiger was so angry that it bared its teeth. But the tigress didn't want to give up the chance to have a baby tiger with a tiger with such good genes so it continued to flirt with the white tiger. The white tiger hit the tigress's head angrily and lay on the grass in depression. It was no longer a complete tiger anymore and couldn't give the tigress what it wanted. The white tiger was so sad about it

Evangeline couldn't help laughing when she saw this

Chapter 93

Hearing Evangeline's laughter, the white tiger wanted to bare its teeth fiercely at her. But it remembered how she slapped it and didn't dare to do it anymore. Then it closed its mouth silently, turned around, and kicked the ground twice with its hind feet to show how angry it was.

Evangeline picked up a tree branch as thick as her arm and threw it to the white tiger,

The white tiger subconsciously jumped up to catch it.

After catching the branch, it jumped happily with the branch in its mouth.

Because it was huge, it made a lot of pits in the grass.

After jumping for a while, he suddenly realized that he had been teased by Evangeline with the branch, which was a disgrace to its kingly demeanor.

The white tiger chewed the branch to pieces in anger. It turned around to face Evangeline with its butt furiously

At this moment, the tigress who failed to seduce the white tiger and ended up being kicked to the ground by the white tiger picked up a branch that was half thinner than the previous one. It put it down in front of Evangeline, stepped back, and looked at her eagerly Evangeline picked up the branch and threw it away.

The tigress immediately ran to catch the branch

Then, the other white tiger, which was small, found a branch and put it in front of Evangeline.

Evangeline was speechless. She just wanted to lease the white tiger out of curiosity. She wondered why these two little ones liked this boring game

She smiled, picked up the branch, and threw it away.

As soon as one of them left, the other ran back happily with a branch between its teeth.

She was bored so she played with them.

Evangeline was

The white tiger heard the movement behind him, looked back, and found that the two disappointing younger ones were playing with Evangeline.

It was too damaging to their reputation as the king of the forest

The white tiger stood up and ran into the forest.

Soon, it came back with a thigh thick tree branch between its teeth.

It thought only dogs played with such thin branches. They were the kings of the forest. They thought they would play with more dangerous things even if they wanted to play!

He put a branch in front of Evangeline. Then he pulled the branches away from the other two tigers and crushed them with his big claws on purpose.

Evangeline's mouth twitched. She picked up the tree branch, which was about 8 feet long and thicker than her thigh. She knocked it on the white tiger's head. "Are you stupid? Are you trying to tire me out by giving me such a huge one?"

The white tiger cried in depression. It thought she was very strong so she should show her power by throwing away a larger one.

Evangeline stood up and threw the branch away.

The white tiger was no longer depressed. It immediately rushed to the branch. It jumped up beautifully, opened its mouth wide, and bit the branch. Its tooth hurt a little and it found that this one was indeed a little too large.

At this moment, everyone around the world who was watching the show was stunned.

Because Evangeline could ride on the white tiger, it aroused everyone's curiosity. The other players were too boring so the audience from all over the world requested to watch what was happening to Evangeline.

The organizers of the game weren't willing to do it at first. But the viewers tried to watch the livestream in Clusia through VPN because they couldn't see Evangeline and the white tiger.

Seeing that they had lost a large number of viewers, they had to rebroadcast the content of Clusia's livestream through the official account to keep them.

Even the Atharia's account started to broadcast the content of the Clusia's.

Chapter 93

What happened to Jeffrey was simply boring. He kept running. Looking at his cowardly face, people were furious. They preferred to watch Evangeline and the white tiger.

People from all over the world were stunned when they saw Evangeline throw the branches away to play with the white tiger like it was her pet dog

(Oh my God, am I dreaming! I am actually watching a big tiger playing with a human and the tree branches like a cat? It shocked me more than when I saw an old lady eat her boogers!]

[If this wasn't a livestream, I would think it was special effects. I wouldn't believe that a strong huge white tiger couldn't do such a thing!

[This big white

tiger is not possessed by the soul of an Alaskan malamute, is it

[Why do I feel like it is a little cute!]

[It's only cute in front of Evangeline. It's still scary in front of other contestants.]

[This is disillusion. When the white tiger first appeared in the camera, I thought it was majestic and domineering. Now, I think it is just a large cat]

[Evangeline has the attribute of restraining small animals, right? All the animals became strange after they met her.]

[I'm impressed by Evangeline. She is awesome!]

In the room for the rich, the atmosphere was still thick with tension. At this moment, the table in front of them was empty. Everything on it was smashed by John

John shouted, "That damn Clusian! When he sold me the white tiger, he said it was very fierce and would eat people alive! Do you think that thing will eat people! Even a woman can scare the shit out of it. A wig can turn it into a dog! It's not fierce at all

"Even a husky can do better than it! Fraud. This is absolutely a fraud That Clusian cheated me out of 50 million dollars with a useless white tiger!"

Back then, the Clusian didn't want to sell it to him. So he begged the Clusian for a long time. Then the Clusian said that since John wanted it so much, he would sell it to him and 50 million dollars was totally worth it. John thought it was a bargain. But now, he thought he had been fooled!

Kenji said angrily, "Bastard! How dare he deceive Mr. Wade He's gone too far!

"Mr. Wade, do you remember his face or name! I'll send someone to catch him so you can vent your anger on him!"

Presley nodded and said, "How dare he deceive John with this weak tiger? He made John suffer a lot and become a laughingstock. We must make him pay for it!"

John turned pale and said angrily. "I met him in an underground arena. He was wearing a mask. I didn't see his face. He didn't tell me his name. The money was paid in rash. I can't find out anything about him. I only know he is a Clusian. He's about twenty years old. He's tall and has a beautiful voice."

Everyone looked at each other in confusion. With so little information, it was hard to find this man. So, John had no choice but to shut up.

At this moment, in a luxurious mansion in Clusia.

A young rich man watched the livestream while eating. Looking at the familiar white tiger in the livestream, he was so shocked that his forks fell to the ground.

He said, "What the hell? Isn't it Tiger Typhoon, the old contestant in the underground fight club? Wasn't it won by the Monkey King? Why is it in a forest in Nardor? Besides, it was so fierce and brutal in the underground fight club back then. It could kill a person with one slap and could shock the audience with a roar. How did it end up like this? Why is it so afraid of Evangeline? Why is it so obedient to Evangeline?"

Suddenly, he thought of something and jumped up. "Oh, I see! Evangeline is the Monkey King! When I saw her fight with Tiger Typhoon, I thought she looked like Evangeline. I didn't expect that she was really Evangeline. It must be her. Otherwise, Tiger Typhoon wouldn't be so afraid of her."

He didn't keep watching the livestream because of his work during the day. So, he had no idea what happened before. He started to find the recordings of the previous livestream on the Internet.

When the white tiger saw Evangeline, it immediately ran away and carefully protected its ass. He was so sure that Evangeline was the Monkey King of the underground fight club.

The man said, "Evangeline is definitely the Monkey King! So Tiger Typhoon saw Evangeline who kicked its chrysanthemum and crushed its lychee, so it had a psychological shadow to run away. Otherwise, I can't explain Tiger Typhoon's reaction! Ahhh! Is Evangeline poisonous? She is a dream destroyer!

"When she joined Jungle Survival, I was attracted by her beauty and personality at first. I searched all the materials about her and changed the wallpaper of my phone to her beautiful photo. She became my idol. I also wanted to meet her after the show. But the next day, she suddenly crawled through the forest to chase after the monkeys running on the vines, which was a disillusion to me.

"That's fine. After all, I just fell in love with her not a long time ago, I didn't feel too bad I was also attracted to a beautiful racer named Jade, I changed the wallpaper of my phone back to Queen Jade's photo immediately. A few days later, people found out that Jade was Evangeline! I was disillusioned with my dream again.

"I was so depressed that I wanted to go to the underground fight club to watch the competition to feel better. When I saw Monkey King. I was instantly attracted by her kingly demeanor and she became my idol. Recently, I have been going to the underground fight club every day just to see her. But it turned out that Monkey King was also Evangeline! Evangeline is everywhere!"

He was not alone. Tonight, hundreds of luxury houses were filled with roars of exclamation.

The white tiger could be easily recognized. The white tiger's attitude toward Evangeline was strange. Evangeline's figure and behavior were similar to those of Monkey King, for example, the way she crawled. Therefore, those who had watched the previous game quickly realized that Evangeline was Monkey King, who shocked everyone that night."

"Evangeline, tell me how many identities that people don't know about you. Tell me I'll avoid them so I won't have disillusion again"

"Evangeline, you ruined Queen Jade. Now you destroyed Monkey King. You are too vicious!

"Evangeline, please, can you please walk on two legs from now on As long as you care more about your image, you still still be "Why is a female star so good at fighting? I don't understand it. I don't understand it"

Evangeline didn't know how many boys that loved her had disillusion today.

The white tiger did not know how many people who once feared it felt speechless about it

Jy idol

The white tiger rested for a while and felt that its teeth didn't hurt that much. It quickly found a branch and threw it in front of Evangeline.

This time, it was smarter. It found a tree branch that was only slightly thicker than Evangeline's arm so that it wouldn't get a toothache. The other two tigers also wanted to play with Evangeline but it mercilessly kicked them away.

The tigress's love and worship toward it gradually disappeared.

The tigress didn't think it had good genes anymore.

While Evangeline was playing with the white tiger, Riley and Marian roasted the venison.

Soon, Riley shouted. "Evangeline, it's time for dinner."

He was no longer shocked by what was happening between Evangeline and the white tiger. He was already numb

Evangeline threw the branch away and said to the white tiger, "Play with yourself."

The white tiger lay on the ground, bored. When Evangeline finished eating, it immediately ran to her with a stick between its teeth.

Evangeline slapped it and said, "I've just had dinner. I want to exercise. Do you want me to have a stomachache? Sit behind me and let me lean against you."

The white tiger purred and sat down reluctantly.

Evangeline used it as a chair. She leaned against it and reached out to rub its head.

The white tiger subconsciously pushed her hand away.

How could a tiger allow a human being to touch its head? It didn't feel a little bit comfortable until it pushed her hand away. It was not sure about it so it decided to try it again.

But Evangeline just touched it casually. After being pushed away, she had no intention of touching its head again.

The white tiger glanced at her hand and then put its head above her hand.

Chapter 94

He was the king. He would fight for what he wanted. Only in this way could it demonstrate its kingly demeanor

Evangeline froze and then turned to the white tiger.

Evangeline smiled and scratched its head when she saw it looked at her both expectantly and fiercely.

The white tiger turned its head around so that she could touch its head from every angle

The tigress beside them was already looking at the white tiger indifferently. But when it looked at Evangeline, it only admired her.

It was amazed that she could tame such a terrible white tiger and treat it like her pet dog, which proved that she was stronger than the white tiger and had much more excellent genes.

Evangeline looked at the starry sky while rubbing the white tiger's head.

When her stomach had almost digested everything that she had just eaten, she planned to lean back on the white tiger and sleep.

The white tiger was soft, which made it more comfortable than lying on the ground.

But suddenly, the tigress ran up to her with a baby boar in its mouth. He put the boar in front of Evangeline, turned around, and sat down facing its rear end at her.

Evangeline was speechless. She wondered if it was wooing her.

She knew some beasts would send prey to the one that they were courting. Generally, if she accepted the prey, it meant that she agreed to be its Jover. But usually, the males gave prey to the females. Only a few females would court the males. Besides, it only happened among animals.

But Evangeline was a human being a woman. She thought it was ridiculous. They were of different species and the same sex.

[Halaha! LOL. The tigress is actually wooing Evangeline. Evangeline is speechless and confused. I can laugh about this for the rest of my life!]

[Hahaha! How can I fall asleep after seeing such a funny thing at midnight? It makes me so energetic!

This is ridiculous. How did this luule tigress give up the white tiger and start to woo Evangeline? What is it up to Suddenly, it went to flirt with Evangeline. I can't understand it)

I think the tigress doesn't look very smart. I thought nothing could be more stupid than the white tiger. Now, I found this tigress was much more stupid. It even forgot the species and gender. Hahaha! [Maybe it thought Evangeline was stronger than n

white tiger because she made the white tiger behave like a kitten, So it changed its mind]

[Hahaha! Is Evangeline able to make the animals more stupid? When an animal gets near her, it will suddenly become stupid?]

[I don't think so. The monkeys were very clever. Evangeline taught them to find herbs and they remembered everything They even sent gifts to Evangeline. I think tigers are naturally stupid. Evangeline hit its head a lot of times and made it more stupid.]

[Hahaha! Evangeline, come on! Don't hurt the tigress!]

Chapter 95

Evangeline kept silent for a long time, staring at the little tigress's ass.

She couldn't figure out why the little tigress was interested in her.

Because she was motionless, the tigress became a little bit impatient and constantly retreated toward her

The big white tiger roared angrily.

The female tiger was so frightened that she shivered and reluctantly walked away.

Evangeline slapped the white tiger on the forehead.

She said. "Why are you shouting so loud? You're making the deaf.

"Stay on your stomach. If you dare to howl again, I'll kill you."

The white tiger snorted and didn't dare to shout anymore. It kept its tail over its ass to protect it

Evangeline looked at Riley and said. "Fetch that small first aid kit in the supply bag"

Riley rummaged through the bag and found the small first aid kit and threw it to Evangeline.

The small kit from the organizer contained a few things. It was the most basic kind. Basically, it can only be used to treat a simple wound for once.

Evangeline took the kit, rummaged through it, and found three cotton swabs. Then she waved at the tigress. "Come here. The tigress's eyes instantly lit up and it immediately ran to Evangeline. Evangeline said, Turn around"

The ugress was more happy. It immediately turned around and held its but up. She wondered if Evangeline was going to have sex with it Evangeline held up a cotton swab. Rutting season could be very painful to animals so she decided to help it.

semon wouldn't bother it anymore.

She even deliberately pricked an acupuncture point so that the rutting season

A minute later, the tigress lay on the ground and began to roll.

After mating, eats liked to roll on the ground to increase their chances of getting pregnant.

[Oh my god! Evangeline is helping it!]

[Evangeline, be honest with us, why are you so skilled?]

[She is so good at it. It's a pity if she doesn't use her skills on me"]

[Evangeline, I need it! I need your help, too!]

[Be careful. Evangeline is my wife. Stop your nonsense. If I become jealous, she will have to comfort me.]

[Nonsense! Evangeling is mine. Last night, I got married with her in my dream!]

[What is going on with h your silly p people!

On the third day, after Evangeline woke up, she asked the white tiger to hunt with the other two. After washing up, she practiced Eight Brocades by the riverside.

In the morning, it was a little cold in the forest. But after practicing Eight Brocades, she felt warm and comfortable.

After the white tiger returned with some prey, Riley and Marian cleaned and cooked them. After they finished eating, they set off again.

Evangeline sat on the back of the white tiger. Marian and Kaley walked on their feet. When they got tired, the two little white tigers would carry them so they managed to cover a lot of miles in a day. The two little white tigers were actually also very large but Marian and Kiley were not small among human beings.

The tigers couldn't carry them all day long.

During their journey, the white tiger followed the trail on the ground.

The tigers that it sent out last night had left their smell along the way, which would lead them to Jeffrey and the others.

At this moment, Jeffrey was also walking with a tired face,

The group of people who followed behind him were also tired.

They didn't rest last night. They walked all night.

Because it was dark at night, although there were lights on the drones, they couldn't see the road ahead of them very clearly, which seriously affected their speed.

After more than ten hours, they had only covered about 18 miles.

Even so, Jeffrey didn't dare to stop,

His feet were sore but he clenched his jaw and kept walking forward.

Evangeline had a bow and arrows so it was difficult to deal with her. Now, she had the white tiger, which made it even harder to deal with her.

He had no chance of winning if Evangeline found him

So he had to keep running away from her even at night to avoid it

He was so scared of it that he didn't even dare to stop for meals.

Jeffrey was furious. He thought Evangeline had humiliated him!

Suddenly, he heard the director's voice in his headphones.

The director said, Jeffrey, I'll send helicopters to deliver supplies earlier today. Find a wider open space and we'll drop you the supplies directly above your head. "Evangeline is about 18 miles away from you. She can't take them from you.

"I have prepared some food for you as well as a crossbow and arrows.

TI stop giving Evangeline more arrows. As long as she used all of the arrows, she cannot defeat you.

"Even if she reuses the arrows, her bow is not as powerful as a crossbow!

"Although she has tamed the white tiger, it doesn't dare to get near you. It won't be a threat to you. You can easily defeat her with the crossbow

Jeffrey, who was irritable felt like the director's voice was coming from heaven.

He thought, 'Great. The production team finally decided to give me some useful weapons! With a crossbow, I won't have to hide from Evangeline like a coward.' Jeffrey immediately went to find a suitable place to receive the supplies in high spirits.

Kent followed behind him exhaustedly, Jeffrey, aren't we supposed to keep advancing? Where are you going?"

They had been walking in a straight line but Jeffrey was suddenly going in the opposite direction. So Kent thought it was strange.

to looked at Jeffrey tiredly.

The others also

There was a trace of bitterness in their eyes. They originally thought if they became Jeffrey's allies, they could be fearless and get a higher ranking. But the results were completely different from what they had expected. Instead of being protected by him, they walked through the forest like stray dogs. It was so depressing

Although Jeffrey couldn't defeat Evangeline, he was more than capable of beating them up. So they dared not complain about him.

Jeffrey smiled confidently and snorted, "We don't have to run away. I'm sure we can defeat that damn Evangeline this time! I ran away last night on purpose to underestimate us. She is no match for me at all! I can't be scared by a Clusian woman!"

If people had heard his words and seen how confident he was, they would have complimented him and felt confident.

But after running away from Evangeline all night, they were disappointed with Jeffrey. They thought he was just too proud to admit that he was weaker than Evangeline. He was so confident when he went to find Evangeline yesterday. But what happened next? Evangeline freaked him out.

With an ineratiarina umile Kent asked. "Teffres de son have a mimo card? Could you please tell us so that we can feel relieved?"

Chapter 97

Suddenly, he shot three arrows in a row quickly. They were all directly aimed at Evangeline.

Jeffrey smiled excitedly. These three arrows were not aimed at Evangeline's vital point. But as long as the arrow hit Evangeline, she would be weak and he could do whatever he wanted to humiliate her.

Kent who was behind them was also excited. Evangeline forced them to run away from her all night and suffered so much humiliation. This time, he could finally make her pay for it.

However, just when he felt that the victory was around the corner, the white tiger jumped aside quickly carrying Evangeline on its back.

The three arrows brushed past Evangeline and shot into the tree behind her.

Jeffrey was so angry. He wanted to continue to shoot at her.

But suddenly, several tigers rushed out from different directions and roared at Jeffrey and the other men.

If Jeffrey continued to attack Evangeline, he couldn't escape these tigers' attack. He could only quickly retreat. As he retreated, he inevitably exposed himself from behind the tree. Evangeline took this opportunity and shot an arrow at him.

Jeffrey reacted quickly. He pulled Kent to stand in front of him to protect him without hesitation

Kent was shot in the shoulder and let out a scream in pain

Jeffrey pushed him away, taking this opportunity to retreat and escape.

These tigers were very fast, In the blink of an eye, they bit Kent's legs and dragged him to the ground.

Kent shouted in horror, Jeffrey, help me!

But Jeffrey himself was also in danger.

Seeing that a tiger was about to pounce on him, he immediately aimed the crossbow at it

Two arrows were shot into the tiger.

Because he was

was very close to the tiger, the arrows penetrated half of the tiger

The tiger howled in pain and collapsed on the ground.

While Jeffrey was shooting arrows at the tiger, Evangeline drew his bow again and shot another arrow at him.

The arrow shot Jeffrey. But it did not penetrate Jeffrey. The arrow hit Jeffrey and fell to the ground

Evangeline narrowed her eyes and decided not to waste more arrows.

Jeffrey and the others ran away. Only Kent was shot with an arrow. The tigers bit his leg so he couldn't escape.

Evangeline patted the white tiger and signaled it to move forward.

Instead of answering Kent at once, she went to check on the tiger that had been hit by an arrow,

The tiger lay on its side, gasping for air. The two arrows were inserted into it from its right shoulder.

Evangeline reached out and touched it. Luckily, they didn't hurt its internal organs. But this kind of arrow has a barb at the end of it so it was not easy to take it out

If it was pulled hard, the skin would be seriously damaged and blood vessels might be broken, resulting in massive hemorrhage and even death.

Anesthetics, a sterile environment, or scalpels were not available in the wild.

However, if the two arrows were hot rows were not taken out, as the tiger moved, they would sink deeper and deeper into it and finally hurt its internal organs. In the end, it would still die

Evangeline looked up at Kent. Now, Kent had the sword that Norbert gave to Jeffrey.

Jeffrey gave the sword to Kent after he had the crossbow. He had to carry all the arrows with him so there was no place to put the sword,

Evangeline went over to him and took the sword.

Chapter 97

After a moment's reflection, she made up her mind. If she didn't take out the arrow, the tiger would definitely die. If she took it out, it might die. After all, she had no scalpel, the wound caused by using the tools available would be huge so it was very risky,

But she had no choice but to take the risk.

Evangeline went to the forest to bid some herbs and mashed them.

Then she asked Riley to give her the ropes they had collected and tied up the wounded tiger.

Then she asked the white tiger to come to her to hold down the little tiger still so that it couldn't struggle.

The white tiger sat on the ground. It put one of its front paws on the little tiger's head and another on its buttocks,

Evangeline used her sword to shave the hair off around the arrows,

Then she took out the first aid kit from the bags that she picked up yesterday.

She took out a small bottle of Iodophor and disinfected the wound and sword with it.

There was so little iodophor. It was only enough to disinfect the tip of the sword.

Evangeline cut the wound and checked the arrow inside the tiger to make sure it was close to any blood vessels,

The little tiger screamed in pain and kept struggling. But it was firmly held down by the white tiger so it couldn't move at all. Evangeline checked it carefully and then found that no blood vessel would be damaged so she quickly pulled out the arrow. When the arrow was pulled out, there were some scraps of the tiger's flesh hanging on it.

The suture needle and thread had been used on Norbert yesterday so she couldn't stitch up the tiger's wound.

Evangeline pressed on the wound for a while and then applied some herbs to it

After all this. Evangeline said to the white tiger. "Tell it that it needs to lie still for three days and it must rest for seven days. Otherwise, its wound will be torn up. If no one helps it treat the wound, it will die. "Leave two of the tigers to feed and protect it."

The white tiger howled at its minions.

[I'm dumbfounded How dare Evangeline operate on a tiger under such harsh conditions? She's so bold]

[Wild animals are so pitiful. If they are injured, they will have to have an operation without anesthesia. Last time, the little monkey was hurt, and this time, the tiger... But to be honest. Evangeline is so tough. She didn't even frown when the tiger howled in pain.]

[Is anyone wondering why Jeffrey has a crossbow? Before the show, the production team said that except for those who got weapons at the very beginning. The rest could only enter the forest empty-handed. But there were no crossbows in the first batch of weapons.]

There must be a dirty inside story!

[This is disgusting! How could they secretly give Jeffrey a weapon? And it's a crossbow, more powerful than most weapons!]

I guess that the production team doesn't want Evangeline to win so they secretly gave Jeffrey that weapon!]

[Just now, Evangeline shot Jeffrey but the arrow couldn't enter his body. He was obviously wearing a bulletproof vest. There must be a shady deal behind it!!

[Don't spread your conspiracies. The production team is not full of laad people. I studied in Athuria. They are nice people. The air there is even sweet. So the people there are also very nice and sweet I don't believe Jeffrey will accept a shady deal. Maybe he found the crossbow in the forest?

[I'm speechless. Evangeline found a group of animals to help her, which hurt the tiger. If the tiger dies, it is all her fault.]

[That's right. She has to rely on her talent for communicating with animals to cheat in the game. She needs the animals to help her but she hurt them so badly! If she's not strong enough, she shouldn't have participated in this game. She is really a jinal)

In the forest, after dealing with the tiger's wound, Evangeline walked to Kent. Kent stepped back in horror. "You don't come near me. I give up the competition!"

Bang! Evangeline kicked him in the face and interrupted his words.

Kent spat out a mouthful of blood and several teeth

Evangeline smiled. "What did you say? I didn't hear you"

Rogue 98

Kent was in so much pain that he glared at Evangeline with red eyes. "I..

Bang! Evangeline kicked him in the face again.

"Shut the fuck up! Why are you so rude? Keep your mouth shut if you dare to make another sound, I'll put something into your asshole"

Kent spat out some blood with a dozen teeth. He was so angry that he almost fainted. He wanted to say he would give up the game! He knew Evangeline must have done this on purpose! The director's voice came from the drone. "Evangeline, don't go too far! Don't bully other contestants!"

Evangeline looked up at the drone and said with a wicked smile, "Shut down the cameras."

The director said angrily. "This is a livestream. We can't stop it now! I've already made an exception for you. I can't do it again. Otherwise, too unfair to the other contestants! Evangeline said, "Then explain why you turned off the cameras when Jeffrey and the others did something bad.

- It will be

"I wonder whether the production team is ganged up with that idiot Jeffrey. You have been helping him cheat in this game. It's reasonable doubt."

The director said angrily, Jeffrey's cameras broke down. We didn't turn it off on purpose!

"The show is always fair. Don't try to slander us

Evangeline sneered, "Really Since you refused to turn it off, I will have to take care of it myself"

Evangeline pulled out a hammer and tried to smash the cameras. But within a second, the lights of the cameras on the drone dimmed.

The cameras were turned off. The drone, including the battery and the cameras on it, cost thousands of dollars. To reduce losses, he had no choice but to turn the cameras off. Evangeline put down the hammer. He looked down at Kent, who was lying on the ground.

Kent looked hopeless. Enduring the great pain, he struggled to stand up and knelt down on the ground in front of Evangeline.

Kent said, "Evangeline, please spare me. I didn't mean to kill Leigh. I just kicked him by accident. I can compensate his family, I can give you money too. Please don't kill me!"

He watched Evangeline attack Norbert and knew she dared to kill people so he was scared when the cameras were turned off.

Marian said angrily. "He did it on purpose. Back then, he said Leigh was too weak. If Leigh was more powerful, the one who would be bitten to death would be the lion, not Leigh Evangeline nodded and said, "I agree with you. So, now your life depends on me, you can only blame it on yourself. You're too weak. If you are stronger than me, I will die. So, it's not my fault. Blame it on yourself

Kent burst into tears and kept pleading. I was wrong. Please spare me. I can do whatever you want as long as you don't kill me

Evangeline said. "Really? Will you do anything for me?"

Kent nodded wildly. "I will, as long as you don't kill me"

Evangeline began to consider it carefully. She looked at Marian and Riley and asked, "Do you have any proposals?"

Marian said, "He kicked Leigh out with his right foot. Why not break his right foot?"

Evangeline nodded and said. "Okay, You should do it"

Marian picked up the sword and walked to Kent, looking at him with hatred in her eyes.

When Norbert humiliated her, Kent helped him and even beat her. She never forgot to take revenge!

Kent screamed in the forest, "Ah!"

Kent passed out. But Evangeline kindly stabbed him to wake him up. She made sure that he wouldn't faint no matter how painful it was.

But Kent was ungrateful. He even called her an evil.

Marian said angrily, "I wanted to let him go. But since you cursed Evangeline, I'll make you suffer a bit more!"

Chapter 98

"Who are you to call Evangeline an evil? She is much kinder than you!"

Marian turned to Evangeline and asked, "Can I borrow your hammer?"

Evangeline gave the hammer to her generously.

Kent looked at her in horror, trembling all over.

He shouted, "Your What do you want to do? Ahhh! It hurts! My leg!"

Kent's cry was very loud and shrill, which frightened the little tigers and they ran away. Only the white tiger remained, waiting for its food.

Evangeline kicked him and said in disgust, "You eat everything! No wonder you're so stupid."

The white tiger snorted unhappily and went aside to paw the earth.

In the room for the rich guys, Presley watched the contestant from his country being tortured so miserably. His face and neck turned red with anger. His whole body was trembling.

Presley said, "They've gone too far. They tortured Kent so cruelly. They disrespect Keprarial."

"Marian and Riley! They are so arrogant only because Evangeline is their ally."

"John, you must find another way to handle Evangeline. We can't let her continue to be so arrogant!"

"It's the third day. Evangeline has been stealing everyone's thunder. The contestants from all the other countries have been humiliated, especially Kepraria. Atharia, and Japrium. Evangeline treats them as her biggies enemies, making the whole world laugh at us!"

Kenji said seriously, "That's right. We must handle Evangeline as soon as possible!"

"None of those bounty tasks is completed."

"If we can't finish the tasks, we will have to pay the people who distributed the tasks. We will lose a lot!"

John banged his hand on the table with a sullen look, "Fuck! Evangeline is so annoying. I can't even sleep because of her! What's going on with Jeffrey! Why is he so weak now? I have secretly equipped him with a crossbow, arrows, and a bulletproof vest. But he still couldn't hurt Evangeline and he ran away like a dog. He's a disgrace to Atharia!"

Because he thought Jeffrey would definitely have the upper hand with a stronger weapon so he asked someone to turn on Jeffrey's cameras and broadcast it in Atharia's livestream. He wanted the Atharian people to be proud of him. But in the end, Jeffrey embarrassed them once again.

At this moment, people were crazily sending abusive words on Atharia's livestream. They kept scolding Jeffrey and the director and said the director was crazy. He didn't turn on Jeffrey's cameras last night but as soon as Jeffrey was bullied, they turned on the livestream deliberately to annoy the Atharian people. It had been suggested that Jeffrey's cameras should not be turned on ever again to avoid further embarrassment.

Kenji said, "Mr. Wade, please calm down. It's not that Mr. Jeffrey is useless but Evangeline is what we are expecting. We didn't expect that she could tame the white tiger and make it find so many tigers to help her. No one else can defeat her now,"

"Now, Evangeline held a distinct advantage. We must help Jeffrey more. Or, he will have no chance of winning and the bounty tasks can't be finished"

"Besides, all of us here have spent a lot of money betting on Jeffrey to win the first place. He can't lose!"

John clenched his fists and said through gritted teeth. "I'll ask someone to see to it right away!"

"Since Jeffrey can't even hunt Evangeline with a weapon, let's use the medicine!"

He couldn't give Jeffrey guns because he needed to keep Evangeline alive to complete those bounty tasks.

Kenji smiled, "Well, no matter how skillful Evangeline is, she can't withstand the attack of drugs!

"After she is controlled by the drugs, Jeffrey can do anything so her?"

"Her sister back then was also very powerful. After being drugged, she could only beg our mercy cy and be humiliated by us like a dog.

Everyone in the room burst into laughter.

John said, "I'll send the medicine into the forest tomorrow. I'm too tired now, I need to take a rest first. We'll enjoy how Evangeline is abused by him

Presley said, "I can't wait to see her humiliated."

Kenja sneered, 'She has been arrogant for so many days. It's time to make her pay!"

Chapter 08

In the forest, Kent stared at Evangeline in despair. "You said... you wouldn't kill me. You must keep your word."

Evangeline smiled, "I didn't kill you. Do you think I will do it? Aren't you alive now?"

Kent said in a trembling voice, "You didn't kill me. But Marian wanted it. You didn't stop her! Besides, do you think I will live long?"

Evangeline shrugged. "I promised I wouldn't kill you. I didn't promise that I would stop other people from killing you. You always wanted to humiliate me or kill me. You're lucky that I don't kill you. You want me to stop others from killing you? Are you insane! Besides, if you die, it is your own fault. You should blame yourself on it, not anyone else

Chapter 99

Kent was so angry that he rolled his eyes and couldn't say anything. He wanted to pass out but remained in high spirits. He could clearly feel the pain and that he was dying.

Evangeline was brutal. She deliberately kept him awake to make him suffer.

Evangeline looked around and then walked to a short tree, which was as thick as her arm, with her sword.

She swung her sword at the tree and it was cut into two halves from about 3 feet above the ground.

She cut off all the branches from the tree.

Then she looked at Marian and Riley and smiled, "Young people should be tough. He is not old enough to give up. Help him pull himself together. Make him sit on it and he'll be able to do it Marian and Riley thought about her words for a few seconds before realizing what she meant. They looked at Evangeline with mixed feelings.

Marian thought she was already a pervert but compared with Evangeline, her strangeness was nothing.

Marian and Riley went to carry Kent up. Riley quickly stripped Kent off.

Kent knew what they were up to so he cried out in horror, "No! Stop! No!"

But Marian and Riley ignored his yelling

Kent wanted to struggle but he had no strength. Soon, he was put on it. Riley pressed him down hard to stop him from moving

Kent's scream sounded even more miserable because of the heartbreaking pain.

Marian and Riley mercilessly removed Rear arms. Kent completely gave up struggling. He just sat on the stake in despair.

He could feel his body sinking down little by little. The indescribable pain kept attacking him. He wanted to die immediately. But now, he couldn't do anything! He could only sit on the stake and feel his body sinking slowly until it pierced through his whole body.

Now, he finally regretted it. He thought he shouldn't have asked Evangeline for mercy. Evangeline had made him realize that death was not the most terrible thing because she could make life a living hell Death, on the contrary, could be a relief. He had a chance to get rid of his suffering but he made the wrong choice.

After watching him for a while, Evangeline was sure that he couldn't break free from in Then she jumped on the back of the white tiger and set out

In the room, which was for the rich man to watch the show, Presley was trembling with anger. He said, I thought they had had the most horrible torture. I didn't expect Evangeline to come up with such a cruel way to torture Kent! She is more terrifying than the devill Kenji said in a creepy voice, "Presley, don't be angry. You can punish her tomorrow, Evangeline was so cruel. She used even more cruel means on Norbert from Japrium. I must take revenge! Tomorrow, we will be able to vent our anger on her!

The hatred in their eyes gradually turned into excitement

In a livestream in Clusia. People kept talking about it. [What's going on? Didn't you say it was a livestream? Why do you often cut it off?]

[Evangeline asked for it. Based on her attitude, she wanted to torture Kent and didn't want the camera to record it. So she asked the director to suspend the livestream, right?]

[Evangeline is so brutal. She shot him with an arrow and didn't raise her brows. Then she turned off the camera and started to torture him. She would definitely do something more ruthless so she dared not be seen by us. She is terrible. I suggest the police directly arrest her and put her in jail after she returns to this country. Otherwise, she will certainly be a danger to society.]

[When I watched Jungle Survival, I felt that she was prone to violence, She often hit people. Now she is in Nardor, where everything is chaotic and free of law. She is more violent. She will be convicted for what she did on the show.

It also support the police to arrest Evangeline. Violence is addictive. Even if it's not illegal to use se violence in Nardor, it will stimulate her desire for violence and be a greater threat to ordinary citizens here!]

[Don't be ridiculous. When they were ganged up against Evangeline, why didn't you help hert Evangeline is just fighting back!)

(I'm really pissed off by these retards. It's the existence of these stupid people that will be a danger to society. You're spreading had information and influencing the next generation in a bad way. If you care about society so much, you should kill yourself"

Look! A group of foolish people have been brainwashed by Evangeline. They are more likely to commit crimes than ordinary people. I suggest the police keep a close eye on them"] Chapter 99

When the netizens were quarreling with each other, the live stream resumed.

Evangeline was already on her way toward her destination again. Kent was no longer around her but the netizens were still arguing about her.

Some people speculated that Evangeline had killed Kent and she might also kill Norbert. They wanted the police in Hafcaster to arrest Evangeline as soon as she returned home because she was a criminal. Another group of netizens scolded them, saying that no one saw Evangeline kill them so they should not slander her.

Moreover, even if Evangeline had killed someone, it happened in Nardor. They had signed the contracts. Everything Evangeline did was legal. She couldn't be sued using Clusia's law for what happened in another country. She just needed to abide by the law of the country where she was.

Besides, Norbert and Kent hurt Evangeline. If Evangeline didn't defend herself, it would be Evangeline who was in trouble.

In the midst of the fierce fight, the fourth day of the show came.

In the forest. Evangeline, Marian, and Riley continued their journey after breakfast.

At the same time, John and the others rested for a night and woke up. Then they returned to the rich guy's room.

They were all in a very good mood today, all looking very excited.

John immediately ordered the director to tell Jeffrey about their arrangement.

He also asked the director to arrange for someone to send medicine into the forest.

At this moment. Jeffrey was about 48 miles away from Evangeline.

After the sneak attack failed yesterday, he kept running after an injection of adrenaline for fear of being caught up with by Evangeline.

Last night, the director had told him what happened to Norbert and Kent through his headphones

He felt his hair stand on end just as he listened

Evangeline was too cruel. He couldn't allow himself to be caught by her so he tried his best to run away from Evangeline.

After hearing what happened to Norbert and Kent, he didn't dare to stop for a rest although his feet were covered with blisters now. He thought it better to be dead after all

Because of this high-intensity journey, he crossed the whole forest in four days, which would normally be at least a week, and arrived at a wide river.

There were only five men with him by the river. He gave them injections of adrenaline to keep them running with him.

As for the others, he left them on their own.

There were no boats by the river so the players needed to make rafts to cross the river.

But even with a raft, it was still very dangerous. Because there were crocodiles in the river. If not careful enough, they would be swallowed by crocodiles

Ten years ago, he crossed the river with several competitors. During it a crocodile swam toward them so he pushed some of them into the river to feed the crocodile. The crocodile had no time for him so he crossed the river safely.

So this time, he brought these five men with him to deal with the crocodiles in the river,

"Jeffrey, let's take a rest. Even if we have had injections of adrenaline, I am so tired after running a day and a night. The blisters on the bottom of my feet are broken."

"Yeah, I'm tired too. My knees are going to be ruined"

"We've run so far. Evangeline can't catch up with us. Let's take a rest"

The other men all sat down on the ground looking exhausted.

Jeffrey said, "We can't rest yet. We have to cut some bamboo trees to make a raft first. We can rest only after we cross the river.

"Evangeline has a white tiger. If she rides on the white tiger, it will only take her several hours to catch up with us."

'Do

you want Evangeline to torture you like how she did to Norbert?"

They didn't know what had happened to Norbert but they all watched Evangeline shoot an arrow at Norbert.

They instantly pulled themselves together and stood up

They were all armed.

They had boomerangs, axes, double-edged axes with long handles, swords, and whips.

Axes and swords were perfect for cutting the trees.

The bamboo forest was not far from the river. Jeffrey led them there and asked them to cut the bamboo trees and then he sat down to rest. After they collected enough bamboo trees, some of them cut the trees while others searched for vines in the forest to bind the bamboo trees. They were all all experienced so it only took them two hours to make a bamboo raft that could carry the six of them at once.

Just as Jeffrey was about to ask them to push the raft into the river, he heard the director's voice in his headphones.

The director said, Jeffrey, don't leave. Go back to the forest. The bounty task hasn't been finished yet. Don't cross the river."

Jeffrey frowned and looked upset.

The director had been watching the live stream. So Jeffrey wondered if he really didn't know he was no match for Evangeline. How could the director ask him to complete the bounty task! If he went back to find Evangeline now, he would undoubtedly end up dead.

The director seemed to have seen through him so he said hurriedly. This is the boss's idea. They want you to go back because they will naturally arrange everything for you. You are still far away from Evangeline. She can't catch up with you in one day. You can have some rest. Later, I'll send a helicopter to give you supplies and medicine. The medicine can make her faint. When she wakes up, she will feel weak and can't attack you. The tiger will also be unconscious. You can kill them then Jeffrey was ecstatic. After such a long time, the bosses finally decided to use drugs. But he couldn't get close to her. Evangeline let alone hurt her.

Even if he had the medicine, he could not use it on her.

The director said, "The medicine we prepared for you this time can be put into the fire. As long as she smells the smoke, she will pass out. Fan the flames. She won't be able to avoid it. I'll send the antidote to you too. As long as you take it in advance, you will not be affected."

Jeffrey was excited. He didn't expect the director to be so thoughtful. He thought Evangeline would be his plaything and he could finally avenge himself. Finally, he had a chance to finish the bounty tasks and make a lot of money.

Jeffrey laughed excitedly. "Evangeline, you can't defeat me!"

The men who were carrying the raft heard him burst into laughter and thought he had a mental disorder.

Someone asked with concern, "Jeffrey, are you okay?"

Jeffrey stopped laughing and turned to them. "Stop moving the raft. Let's not cross the river. We'll have some rest and wait for supplies. Then we'll go back to the forest to find Evangeline." Everyone looked at each other and frowned.

They were doubtful "Jeffrey, have you forgotten what happened to us after we found Evangeline yesterday?"

"Yeah. We're no match for Evangeline at all. If she finds us again, we will be dead. Let's cross the river now? Chapter 100

Jeffrey said fiercely, "I ask you to go back to find her because I'm sure we can defeat her!"

Someone said, "That's what you said yesterday"

Jeffrey's face darkened. He looked at the man with a gloomy face. "Are you looking down on me?"

The man shook his head quickly. "No. It's not. That's not what I mean. You are the most powerful man. But Evangeline is a sly bitch!"

"Evangeline is scheming. Even if you are stronger than her, you can't defeat her! You're too upright"

Jeffrey snorted coldly. "I have a secret weapon this time. No matter how sly she is, she can't defeat me!"

The other men didn't believe him. Jeffrey was confident yesterday. But in the end, he was scared by Evangeline and ran away. He didn't even dare to stop after running a day and a night. They all thought he was a loser.

Jeffrey said, "Either you obey me or I will kill you right now. It's your choice!"

So they had to agree with Jeffrey and lie down to rest

Three hours later, a helicopter took a detour and delivered some supplies to them.

In addition to ordinary food, there were self-heating hot pots and rice in the packages.

Jeffrey first ran to rummage through the packages, found the drugs and antidote given to him by the director, and put them into his pocket

There was also a lighter, which was used to make a fire. He put it into his pocket, too. After putting everything into his pocket, he asked the five men to take out the food.

They went back to sleep after they were full. They didn't wake up until the next morning.

They had breakfast and then walked into the forest. After walking for a while, Jeffrey heard a voice in his headphones again.

The director said, "Jeffrey, Evangeline is less than 1.5 miles away from you now. You can start a fire now. Remember to put the drugs in the fire so that the smoke will spread through the forest. When she gets close to it, she will faint!"

Jeffrey stopped and asked the five men to pick up some branches. Then they started a fire. He threw the pills into the fire while the others weren't paying attention to him and secretly took the antidote.

He picked up some fresh leaves and twigs and deliberately threw them to the fire to make more smoke. Then he asked the other men to fan the flames with the branches to make the smoke spread faster. Evangeline and the others were getting closer and closer to them

Soon, they smelled and saw the smoke.

Marian frowned in confusion, "Why is there so much smoke?"

Riley said, "How about we stop here! With such a large amount of smoke, we can't see the road ahead of us clearly. If someone is waiting to ambush us, it will be hard for us to escape."

Before Evangeline could say anything. Marian and Riley shook their heads hard. She shook for a while and then fell to the ground.

Marian said, "What's going on? I'm so dizzy. I am so weak."

As soon as she said these things, Marian and Riley fainted and collapsed on the ground.

The white tiger roared anxiously and moved its front paws uneasily.

The other two tigers behind them also fainted.

The white tiger turned around and left, trying to stay away from the smoke. The smoke made it very uncomfortable. But it fell to the ground too before it went far from the smoke, Evangeline rolled off the back of the white tiger and closed her eyes. She was lying motionless on the ground now.
