

Rebirth of the Best Businesswoman at School

Chapter 5: The Female Tyrant in Class

Jian Ai couldn't help but stop in front of the classroom for Year One, Class Three. The students were talking and laughing in the classroom. Everything made Jian Ai feel unreal yet real at the same time.

She pushed the door open and entered. When the students saw Jian Ai standing at the door, they all stopped talking. It was the kind of reaction that instantly isolated one. Some of them didn't even have time to retract their expressions.

Jian Ai could not help but smile bitterly in her heart. She was too familiar with this scene. In the entire three years of high school, she was like an outsider who had never really integrated into it.

After a while, the students went back to their own business. No one asked Jian Ai about her condition.

For Jian Ai, there was no need for unimportant people to show false concern.

"If you're not entering, move aside! Are you standing at the door to be a door god?"

At this moment, an impatient female voice sounded behind her. Jian Ai turned around and saw a pair of disdainful and mocking eyes.

Although they hadn't seen each other for more than ten years, Jian Ai recognized the person in front of her at a glance. It was Li Yunmei, the culprit who had pushed her into the pond.

Li Yunmei was tall and thin. She had a small face and big eyes. She was as delicate as a doll. However, those who knew her knew that Li Yunmei was a violent soul under her princess-like appearance.

Moreover, she liked to take the initiative to provoke others. Jian Ai still remembered that there was once a girl from another class, who Li Yunmei and her companion taunted just because the girl glanced at her in the corridor.

When she was in high school, she tried her best to avoid this person. At that time, she was a nobody and only knew how to immerse herself in her studies. It significantly reduced her presence, so she did not have any conflicts with Li Yunmei.

However, after her rebirth, she did not expect that the first person she would meet was the famous 'female tyrant' in this class!

Jian Ai looked away and walked straight to her seat without any expression.

Li Yunmei's expression froze. She could not accept that Jian Ai ignored her. If it were in the past, Jian Ai would bury her head in her collar and walk. Why did she not react just now?

Jian Ai had just put down her bag and sat in her seat when Li Yunmei caught up to her. She stopped beside Jian Ai's seat and deliberately raised her voice. "Jian Ai, don't be smug just because Lin Yi wrote you a love letter. You probably don't know that the reason why Lin Yi wrote you a love letter was because he made a bet with Yan Tian and the rest. They were betting on whether a nerd like you likes Lin Yi."

"That's right. Did you really think you could be with Lin Yi? You even went to confess to Lin Yi. What a joke," another girl chimed in coldly.

Jian Ai stopped tidying the desk. Hearing this, everything she couldn't remember became clear.

Lin Yi. Jian Ai would probably never forget this name because Lin Yi was the only person she had ever had a crush on in her entire youth. However, Jian Ai had never told anyone, including Lin Yi.

Of course, Lin Yi was handsome, played basketball well, studied well, and had a cheerful personality. Many girls liked him, including Li Yunmei.

However, this was all in the past for Jian Ai. She couldn't deny that she once had a crush on Lin Yi for three whole years in high school. But now, her heart was completely unmoved, and she even felt like laughing.

The fact that Li Yunmei pushed her into the pond probably had something to do with the love letter Lin Yi gave her.
