

THE CEO'S RUN AWAY WIFE

Chapter 13 She is not my Sara

"You cannot go anywhere," Jackson said to Mia as Jacob also said the same thing to Lisa.

"But why?" They both asked and Daniel looked at both of them.

"Because you are going to tell me everything about Sara. You have to tell me why Sara is so scared. Why do people talk bad about her? What are the rumors that are spreading in the office? Why did she write in her letter that if she stayed around me then she would destroy my career? Why was she scared of marriage?" Daniel said to both of them, trying to sound normal so that they both would not get scared of him.

"Lisa, please tell us everything," Jacob said to her and made her sit beside him.

"Come here," Jackson said and asked for Mia's hand. She gave him her hand and sat beside him.

"Please tell us. Trust us. We know you are not telling us because you are loyal to Sara, but we need to know about it," Jackson said to Mia, and she nodded her head.

"Everything was fine until 2 months ago. We all used to work like the other employees in the office, but everything changed the day Sara went to the wedding. When she returned from the wedding, the very next day Sara's sex video was being played on the computers of all the office workers. We don't know how this happened, but this video was playing on everyone's computer. Every employee of the office came to know about this.

According to this video, Sara was described as a sex worker. Even the name of the website was given below the video, which had other accompanying videos. In every video she was with another man. From that day onwards everyone started taunting her, and the male employees were trying to take advantage of her. One day a man tried to force her into the parking lot. After this accident, she did not come to office for about 1 week. She tried to convince everyone that the girl in the video was someone else.

But no one believed her. Everyone made it difficult for her to stay in office. But due to the financial situation, she had to work in this depressive environment. Olivia never let the case cool down. She hated her at first, but after this accident she found a new way of harassing her. Whenever a new project came into Sara's hand, she had to do all the work, but would take the credit in her hand as soon as the work was over. She was so maligned in the office that even the shareholders and directors would try to take advantage of her, because of her beauty.

Sara understood that this would happen to her as long as the video was on the internet. Every day a new video would appear on that website. Our college guy friend who used to love Sara, offered her money for sex in front of everyone. She was humiliated. Everyone laughed at her. One day, Olivia had pushed her in the men's bathroom. The men in the bathroom did not let her go out. When Lisa and I opened the bathroom we found her naked sitting on the bathroom floor.

They had undressed her and her torn clothes were lying on the floor. I brought clothes for her, and when we brought her out of the bathroom Olivia spread the rumors in the office that Sara is whore, that she had sex with every random man, so maybe she had aids. They all knew it was not true but they all treated her even worse. From that day she decided that she would never marry. She would not spoil anyone's life because that person would get insulted and abuse her because of her video that was on porn websites, and this aids rumor. She knew no one would believe her, and the person who would marry her wouldn't either. Her life was destroyed but we still don't know who did it. She decided to leave the company, but the contract was not going to end for another four months. She was trapped by the males of the company. At the same time her father was also not supporting her. She needed money because Lucy was continuously asking her for money. This office, and her family, they all destroyed her whole life," Mia said, and Lisa showed the video to everyone.

In this video Sara was having sex with so many men. In every video she was with a different man.

"Sara never wanted anyone to know about it. One day I asked Sara about you," Mia said and Daniel looked at her.

“What did you ask?” Daniel asked her.

“Lisa and I had seen Sara and you kissing on the road that day. When I asked Sara if she loved you, she replied that she wants to love you, but when you see this video and learn about her being in the male bathroom and the aids rumors that you will leave her, and hate her. She said you are the only one whose love is true for her, but she said the day you will see these videos she would leave. She never wanted you to see these videos. She did not want to be humiliated in front of you,” Mia told them, and everyone was silent. Daniel was thinking about what Sara said. She said she wants to love. It gave a little hope in Daniel’s heart.

All the men were shocked to hear all of this. All the males and females of the office harassed her. If it was another girl, she would choose to die, but Sara was surviving through all of this.

"She is not my Sara," Daniel said and threw the phone, making a disgusted face.

"She is that bitch who came to play with me!" Daniel said, and his bodyguards dragged that girl, Lucy, in front of Daniel. Daniel got up from his place and walked over to her, who was crying in fear. Lisa and Mia saw that she was bleeding from everywhere. Not only her, but Lucy was also injured. They had beaten both of them very badly. Daniel had ordered his men to show them what mistake they made.

"Why are you crying? Did you not say you want to fuck me? You want to become my wife. Don't you want to take my Sara's place?" Daniel said to the girl, touching her cheeks softly.

"I am sorry. I am really sorry, please don't kill me," she begged him.

"Are you the girl who is in this video?" Daniel asked, and she nodded her head immediately.
