Chapter 17

Chapter 17: Use the Human Girl for Breeding Purposes

Freya POV

"If you don't go now, Walker, they will rip you apart!" I looked back at the shop's exit, full of panic. I had to go back before Leo and Eric came here. They were deadly hunters and if they caught Walker, they would kill him. Worse, they would report Drexel

"How long am I going to wait?" Walker said. "I can't wait! I feel like rejecting you. You are so incompetent! Every time I call you, you come with these bastards!"

My heart squeezed as if someone had wrenched my soul when he said he wanted to reject me

"Give me a little more time, Walker. I cupped his beautiful face and removed a strand of chocolate brown hair from his forehead

"Please." I kissed him on his lips. "Trust me. It's a matter of not more than two months. My plans are all falling in place. All I need is Steven's pack. After that we are going to be invincible

We are going to be so wealthy that you don't have to run ever."

Walker stabbed his finger in his hair and let out a rough exhale. I went on to tuck his raging erection in his pants and button him up as he kissed me. However, by that time, Leo and Eric had entered the alley. "Fuck!" I gritted. "Run!" Walker saw them and with a growl, he made a dash. Both Eric and Leo chased him and my heart raced wildly. I knew they wouldn't stop. I came back praying to all the deities that Walker was safe. Only when Leo and Eric said that they lost him, did I stop shivering. But the damage was done. They had seen Walker and now knew his smell. They were going to chase and hunt him because he tried to force the future Luna of the Moonstone Pack

I knew that if I said that it was nothing, they wouldn't believe me. So I said, "That wolf forced me to enter the alley on a gun point with a silver bullet and tried to grope me." After that Drexel had gone wild. That night when he saved Penelope, he had actually come to kill Walker. Had I not given Walker a warning, Drexel and his men would have killed him already. Kiev had taken Walker, hid him in the lodge and had asked him to stay there for the next two months

But Walker was getting restless. He sent me a letter and I had to go and satisfy my wolf. So the moment Kiev showed me his letter, I dashed out of my room and went to pack with my mother, Megan following me. No one in the pack knew that Megan was my mother. We had kept it a secret because of our plans on murdering Drexel. Mummy had asked me that I should let Drexel mark me and once he marked me, she would just poison him. It wasn't a bad plan, but I was sure Walker was going to go mad about it

However, that was plan B

When Drexel had sent Penelope to work in the kitchen, I couldn't help smirking. He had sent the human to a place where her life would be made a living hell. My mother was going to ensure that Right now, as I was packing, the loud shattering of wood below made me jump. The big bad Alpha of the pack had started throwing his tantrums. As if I cared. He must have had a fallout in an argument. All I had to do was focus on packing and going to Walker

"How long will you be gone, Freya?" asked my mother. She was sounding worried as she folded my dress and placed it in my suitcase. "I don't like that human girl."

I chuckled. "You are here to keep a tab on her, mother. Just make her life a living hell. When I come back, I will soothe her."

My mother growled. "I am going to make her miserable!"

When I had told her about Penelope as to how Drexel saved, she was mad. If I hadn't stopped her, she would have killed the human. "Yes, do that," I giggled. "But don't let her go out of your sight."

My mother let out a frustrated sigh. "And tell Walker to be patient. It's a matter of two months and we are going to get everything. Our endgame is nearing. Can't he just stay low?"

"Yes mother!" I shook my head

My mother was my father's mate, and she wanted to take revenge from Drexel for killing him. She was full of anger. She became the head cook of the Moonstone Pack on my recommendation. With my brother and mother around me, I felt confident. Nobody dared to mess with Kiev. But I was shocked that Drexel had stabbed him in the kitchen because of Penelope. My suspicions that Penelope was his mate went a notch higher that day

"Why are you going for a month? Don't you think that Drexel would come closer to Penelope? That human is an eyesore!"

"What?" I jerked my head back. "Are you comparing me with Penelope?"

My mother stood up, akimbo. "You are far more beautiful and intelligent than that seventeen-year-old, Freya. But I don't like her. She is far too innocent and fragile. I have seen the way

Drexel looks at her, as if he wants to protect her

She is—"

"Mother!" I stopped her. "Do you think I care whether he fucks her or not? As far as I am concerned, he can fuck her all he wants to Drexel is all set to marry me. He sees me as a strong Luna, one who would rule with him in the future. And Penelope—" I scoffed. "She is a liability. She is fragile. She doesn't even know that we are werewolves. The moment she comes to know that, she is going to run away from here!" Looking at my mother's worried expressions, I went to her and draped my arm around her shoulders. "I have Drexel wrapped around my little finger mother. He loves me, not that human. So don't worry and make her life as pathetic as you can." I knew that Penelope had the potential to be a big trouble, but I had my plans ready for her Mother giggled. "That I will."

Kiev entered the room. "Hurry up!" he grunted

"Walker just called me. He is saying that if you don't reach him by midnight, he will come here."

I shook my head. My mate was a bundle of nerves without me. I couldn't blame him. My wolf also wanted to be with him. With a smile on my lips, I said, "Is the car ready?"

"It is! But how are you going to shake that jerk, Joey? He insists on going with you."

I checked the time in my watch. It was 1PM. "T will ask him to visit Steven."

"What?" Kiev hissed. "Are you fucking mad? Alpha Steven is not going to entertain him at all. Didn't you see how he behaved in the

"L saw," I said calmly as I zipped my suitcase

"He said he wants Penelope. Why don't you suggest that to Drexel? Penelope for Steven's pack?" Kiev said

"And do you think that Penelope is so important that Steven would trade her for his pack? Moreover, I wonder why your brain is so thick?

Drexel bought Penelope for two million dollars, outbidding Steven. Doesn't his gesture suggest that you can't piss Drexel as far as Penelope is concerned? At least for now."

Kiev pursed his lips and looked away. "Bitch!" he muttered

"Do not even suggest that to Drexel. Not now

The more you will say it, the more he wouldn't let Penelope go. He is that kind of stubborn. Do you understand me?"

Kiev stabbed his hair with his fingers. He gritted his teeth. "Yes!"

I took a deep breath in. There was no way I was going to jeopardize my plans now. I picked up my luggage and walked downstairs to the dining hall

"Drexel, can I have a word with you?" I said sweetly. Drexel got up and came to me immediately. I cupped his cheek and said, "You know that I don't want to have babies. But I have an idea that will cater to our problem."

He frowned at him but I could feel his anticipation building

"You can use the human girl for breeding purposes." His eyes jerked wide open. "Don't be surprised. You have paid two million dollars for her. That is the best way for her to repay her debts." He was too stunned after that. I patted his cheeks lightly, knowing fully well that he was mulling over it. I turned with victory in my eyes. He would be so busy with Penelope that he wouldn't bother with my plans

When I walked to the car, my thoughts were full of Walker. I intended to have tons of wild sex with him. I had concealed his scent skillfully when I was with Drexel, but now I wanted to bathe in his scent. For a month
