Chapter 40

Chapter 40: Escaped

Penelope POV

It was Drexel standing over there and stopping Freya from hitting me. Shocked, my throat went dry. In all my life this was what I could never imagine. Hunter saving me? Freya whipped her head to look at him. She snarled at the interruption and he snarled back. He shoved her hand down, growling his Alpha way. Freya winced and backed off

Seeing him, her eyes were full of tears. She covered her face and then ran out of the kitchen to their bedroom, sniffing. Drexel glared at me

Through his clenched teeth, he said, "You and I have a lot to talk about." After that he too turned to go after Freya

I watched him going after her and felt tears in the back of my eyes. I didn't feel so bad about Freya calling me a whore as I felt about him going after her. I grabbed the edge of the marble counter and exhaled roughly, trying to control my tears. I couldn't stay in the same apartment as Freya was with him. I needed to distance myself and I wanted to go to find Kimberley

Maybe, I should even go to Alpha Steven and escape. This was my chance

Wiping my tears, I hurried out of the kitchen

When I opened the door, I found the gamma warriors still standing over there

"You are not allowed to leave!" said one of them. They formed a human wall in front of me

I was so angry that I dashed into them. It took them by surprise and they parted. I stormed out of that place shouting, "Don't you fucking come after me!" But the moment I was in the elevator, I found them surrounding me. They gave me odd glances but I didn't care because I was too busy trying to stop crying

If Alpha Drexel was here, I was sure that his Beta was also there. I thought of going there, but I darted downstairs. There was so much activity with everyone buzzing about Alpha Steven that I was on the edge of my nerves. I wanted to go to the log cabin but with the four gammas on my tail, how could I? It frustrated me all the more

I hurried to Leo's office hoping that he was there. As soon as I opened the door, I found that he was with Eric

Eric was the best gamma warrior of the Crescent Moon pack and he was also in charge of training the other warriors

They both had a worried expression on their faces, and as soon as they saw me, they stopped their conversation

I wanted to ask where Kimberley was, but I asked, "What was all the commotion about? And what enemy are we talking about?" I needed information to calm myself, because I was getting jittery about Kimberley and Steven

Did she run away with him? Or was she still here? What happened to Steven? Was he still in the log cabin or not? Have they already captured him? I felt as if I couldn't breathe

Leo motioned the four gammas behind me to go and wait outside the door. Once they closed the door behind them, Leo grabbed my arm and made me sit. "Why did you leave the apartment?" he asked angrily

"Because Freya is there with Alpha Drexel, and I felt like a third wheel." The truth was that I couldn't stand it anymore. I wanted to leave. My mind was making plans on how to reach Steven, undetected

Leo raked his fingers in his hair. "Alpha Steven managed to infiltrate our pack. He is somewhere inside our territory and we are afraid that he has come for you."

"Then shouldn't you just let me go?" I said in a mocking tone. "I am not so important according to your future Luna." I couldn't help but remember the recent conversation with Freya

She was such a bitch. She was being so nasty with me and in front of Drexel she suddenly got those tears. Like wow!

"Penelope, you know—" he clenched his teeth

"I am not interested in your politics, Leo. I think I am capable of taking care of myself. Just ask these gammas to stop following me everywhere

I am going to my attic because I am done with every one of you!" That was a lie. I was going to go to the cabin at the first opportunity I got

"Penelope!" Leo growled when I got up to walk out of his office

"No!" I retorted stubbornly. The memory of how Drexel went after Freya was still fresh in my mind and I was furious. The only thing that was topmost in my head was, escaping. Going away from Drexel as far as possible

Leo shouted, "Alpha Steven is out there. We don't know where he is and until the pack is free of his threat, you will not go out of this packhouse. Those are Alpha's orders and no one dares to defy him! So you will go back to the apartment and stay there."

"And watch Drexel making love to Freya?" I yelled at him. Suddenly, I realized what I just said. I must be sounding so desperate and stupid. I covered my mouth with my hands, stopping a sob, to come up my throat

Leo and Eric went stiff. They became absolutely quiet. Thick silence hung in the air

After some time, Leo said with concern, "Then go to your attic. It is safer. I just got the information that Steven is no longer in the territory, but still, you be careful, okay?" He got the latest news via mind linking his warriors

Relief washed over me, but it warred with helplessness. My only chance to leave was gone

I strode out of his office and rushed to my attic

The gammas followed me

I crashed into my mattress and stopped myself from crying, but could I?

My thoughts went to Drexel and Freya. What they must be doing right now? I had my chance to escape with Steven, and I lost it. He said that he would come back for me. I will away with him. Where was Kimberley? I wanted to talk to her, desperately. Suddenly I heard—
