

No Escape From My Ruthless Alpha

Chapter 61

Chapter 61: Dirty Sound

Those words were more than enough to calm my tattered nerves. I loved this little creature's talk

She craved for me

"So tell me that you want me." She pulled me up and pressed my face to her. She gave me a long languorous kiss

I didn't say much but I let her open my mouth and she delved her tongue inside. From the corner of my vision I saw her phone's screen flashing a message. It was from Kimberley. But I didn't care. I wouldn't let her read the message in the midst of it all. I flipped the phone down and turned it to silent as I let her work her way through my mouth

She explored me slowly. Her tongue sucked mine as her hand slowly went down to my shaft

She stroked me gently and I groaned in her mouth. My penis surged for her. My eyes closed to a half mast as I reveled in the kiss, as I reveled in her scent and as her hand worked up and down my shaft

"You want me as much as I do, right?" she pressed it

I knew she was playing my game on me. But I didn't care. I couldn't answer, my mind was on her hand in which she had my shaft

"L always wondered how it was inside me," she moaned

I think I lost all my senses. All I could think of was to fuck her senseless and fuck her so much that she only screamed my name again and again. She nudged me to lie on my back. And then she started her ministrations. She pressed a kiss to my chin and went lower to my pulse point. She sucked me out there and when I groaned, I groaned her name

Penelope was like a siren who knew what she was doing. She went further down to my chest and bit my nipple. My hip rocked into hers. This was the first time she had taken a lead and it was mind-blowing. She went down further and peppered kisses all over my belly, and then she went lower

My balls were so tight that they ached. She licked my balls and then worked her tongue right up to the tip of my penis. She opened her mouth and wrapped her pouty, rosy lips around the crown of my shaft

I hissed as soon as she sucked me. She took one hand to my balls and started to caress them as she sucked me more and more. "I don't think I can last much." Did I just say that?

She left my shaft and began to suck my balls

She wrapped her hand around my penis and fisted it while sucking my shaft. Stars burst in my vision already. I wanted so hard to come in her mouth but I wanted to feel her mouth on me more. It was so hot. My hips thrust towards her

She groaned over my cock and it vibrated all the way to my stomach and thighs. Never had a woman's groan had that kind of effect on me

What was Penelope doing? Why was she taking a lead? Not that I mind it, but there was a speck of doubt in a secluded corner of my brain which I shoved down

She removed her lips from my length and I jerked my eyes open when cool air brushed against it. She crawled up to me and said, "Come over me."

That was all the invitation I needed

Immediately, I slid over her, making her feel my erection that had become wet with her saliva. I positioned it above her core, wanting to come all over her pussy. I wanted to get inside her so badly that I was aching, but I knew that I shouldn't. She was too fragile for me. So I crushed my lips one hers, as I pounded her outside her core

She spread her legs and wrapped them around my hips and then suddenly she bucked her hips so hard towards me that my crown was in her entrance. "Ah!" she said, her eyes going wide with pain

"Penelope!" I rasped, not expecting it all. What was she doing?

"I want you inside me," she said as a tear rolled out of her eye

Only the goddess knew how much I wanted this. "But this will sting," I warned her

"Better," she whispered

I raised myself on my elbows to look at her flushed face. I knew she wanted it as badly as I wanted her. I nudged her core a little and slid my shaft inside a little. Then I waited

"Ah!" her body arched

Gods above. She was so tight. I took my hand to her clit and started to rub it slowly. Her body relaxed as her juices poured more. I moved inside her a little more. Inch by inch, I settled inside her. This was what I had been craving for. She was so hot and welcoming and wet

Only for me. This was... home. "Are you alright?" I asked, still unable to believe that she wanted me inside her and that it was happening

tonight

"Lam," she said in a soft voice as her fingers caressed my back

Then I moved. I withdrew it back slightly and then went back in. She closed her eyes, feeling it. I stretched her virgin sheath. It was made for me. I pulled out a little again and pounded back right inside. Fuck. Now it was difficult to stop

She wretched under me. I pulled it out completely and then thrust inside her in one go

"Oh gods!" she said as her eyes flew wide open

"Say my name, Penelope!" I demanded. But the girl was in a different zone

I started to pound inside her like a piston. She matched my speed by thrusting her hips towards me. Flesh slapped against flesh and that sound was so dirty that I loved it
