

My Seven Sisters are all Stunningly Beautiful

chapter 1 come back!

In July, the sun is blazing in Jiang city.

In the midst of the bustling crowd, a slim young man silently gazes at the familiar and unfamiliar city.

"Fifteen years, I finally came back, my seven sisters, are you all right?"

The young man murmured.

His name is Lewis Lu. He is an orphan. He was raised in an orphanage. He has seven unrelated older sisters, who regard him as their closest relative.

When they were young, their favorite game was playing house with Lewis Lu, and they promised to marry Lewis Lu together when they grew up.

At that time, Lewis Lu was only five years old, he said in a childish voice, "we are no longer children of three or four years old, we must keep our promises."

So the sisters hooked up with him, whoever repented is a puppy. In this way, little Lewis Lu was looking forward to growing up every day, until a disastrous fire completely destroyed his life. In that bag fire, the sisters could have run out, but in order to go back to find him, they were eventually trapped in the fire.

Little Lewis Lu was frightened and cried loudly.

But even in that case, the eldest sister still held him in her arms to comfort him not to be afraid.

The fire was blazing.

The eight children hugged each other and were soon choked to death by the smoke.

When little Lewis Lu opened his eyes again, it was still the sea of fire, but the difference was that at some point, an old Pendeta Tao appeared in front of him.

The old Pendeta Tao stood in the blazing flames, and his clothes were in good condition.

Little Lewis Lu was stunned, thinking he was hallucinating, until the old Pendeta Tao said: "I can save your sisters, but only if you take me as your teacher."

This sentence was like a life-saving straw. Little Lewis Lu agreed without thinking about it.

At that time, he did not realize that his life would be completely rewritten.

After leaving the orphanage, the old Pendeta Tao took Lewis Lu to a Kuil Tao, taught him medical skills, martial arts, Spiritual Technique, and even made him practice an unknown Magic Power.

Then ten years passed.

Lewis Lu was fifteen years old and thought he could finally return to Kota Jiang, but the old Pendeta Tao sent him to the border battlefield.

Then five years passed.

After five years of fighting, an organization named "Tiansha" rose strongly.

The 36 Gang in Tiansha are all General Dewa, and they are in charge of the four regions. From then on, no one in the Long Country dares to invade.

And their king, Emperor Dewa Lewis, has already quietly returned to the place of childhood memories- Kota Jiang.

Lewis Lu looks back on the past, just like a dream.

It' s real.

If it didn't really happen to him, he would find it extremely ridiculous to tell such an experience from anyone.

Sunshine Institute still exists.

But Lewis Lu's mood was extremely complicated.

The fire 15 years ago caused widespread concern in the orphanage, and caring people from all walks of life actively donated money to rebuild the orphanage.

The former gray brick and tile house had become the current small high-rise building. The conditions and facilities in all aspects were much better than before, but after all, it was no longer the place that Lewis Lu was familiar with.

However, when Lewis Lu saw the innocent smiling faces of the children, the strangeness in his heart disappeared instantly.

He seemed to see himself and his sisters when they were children.

It turned out that nothing had changed, and the orphanage was still a beautiful place.

Lewis Lu approached the staff of the orphanage and explained his purpose.

Soon, a woman wearing presbyopic glasses came to Lewis Lu and looked at him suspiciously.

"I am the director of the Sunshine Institute, who are you looking for?"

"Are you the dean?"

Lewis Lu was taken aback for a moment.

In his memory, the dean's surname was Wu, he was a kind man, definitely not the woman in front of him.

The old woman nodded and said, "I have been the dean for more than ten years, didn't you come to see me?"

"I'm looking for the old dean Wu."

"So you was looking for the old dean, he has retired for a long time!"

Hearing that Lewis Lu came to look for the old dean, the woman dispelled her doubts about him, and her attitude became cordial.

But Lewis Lu frowned.

To his surprise, Wu actually retired.

And according to the woman, it seems that Wu resigned from the post of dean more than ten years ago.

Was it because of the fire?

Lewis Lu hurriedly asked: "Excuse me, do you have Wu's address?"

"Yes, yes, please wait, I will write down the address for you."

The woman turned around and entered the room, and after a while, she came out with a note with the address written on it, and handed it to Lewis Lu.

"Thanks!"

Taking the address given by the woman, Lewis Lu came to a common house.

Only seeing a white-haired old man hunched over and cleaning the courtyard. Lewis Lu immediately recognized it was Wu.

He hadn't seen Wu for fifteen years, but Wu has aged so much?

Feeling sad for a while, Lewis Lu quickened his pace, but what happened next made the anger in his heart burst out instantly.

While Wu was cleaning, suddenly a young man in a floral shirt pushed him hard, cursing and saying:

"Old man, I know those women will send you money every month. Where's the money? Where's the money?"

Daylight robbery!

Furious, Lewis Lu rushed over, grabbed the young man in the flowered shirt by the collar and yelled, "You even rob the old man of his money, are you still a human? You bastard!"

"Ahem..."

The young man in the floral shirt obviously didn't expect that someone would rush over suddenly, panic flashed across his face, but he quickly pretended to be calm.

"You...you let me go, this is my family business...what does it have to do with you?"

"Family?"

This time it was Lewis Lu turn to be puzzled, and he turned to look at Wu.

Grandpa Wu looked sad, and sighed: "Young man, he is indeed not a robber. His name is Garry Wang, and he is my adopted child."

Garry Wang?

Garry Wang!

Lewis Lu stared at the young man in the flower shirt in front of him for a while, and finally recognized him.

No wonder there was such a hint of familiarity, it turned out to be Wang Gang who often bullied himself as a child and then was knocked around by his sisters.

Why was he adopted by Grandpa Wu?

Lewis Lu lost his mind for a moment.

Garry Wang took the opportunity to break free from his hands, coughing violently, and took a long time to recover.

"Bastard, I want you to meddle? You know it's my family business, why don't you hurry up and go away!"

Garry Wang glared at Lewis Lu viciously, then roared loudly at Wade Wu:

"Old man, when you adopted me, you should give me good food, good clothes, and good entertainment. If you can't give me the best, why did you adopt me?"

"Where are the money that those women sent you? Take it out! Why are you hiding it? Do you want to take it into the coffin and spend it?"

"I don't think you can live for a few more years, and you will have to rely on me in the future. If you don't give me the money, where will you cost it? What an old fool!"

The more Garry Wang talked, the more and more excessive.

Wade Wu's tall body trembled violently, but he just lowered his head silently, enduring Garry Wang's abuse.

Seeing this scene, Lewis Lu finally couldn't bear it anymore, raised his hand and slapped him.

Snapped!

"This slap is because you shoot from lip and show no respect to elders!"

Snapped!

"This slap is because you bite the hand that feeds you and act recklessly.

Snapped!

"This slap is because you lack discerning power and arrogant and conceited.
