

My Seven Sisters are all Stunningly Beautiful

chapter 5 Birthmark, purple lightning!

Hailee Ye panicked, unprecedentedly panicked, and amidst the panic, was mixed with extremely strong shame and anger.

Just now, when Lewis Lu offered his help, Hailee Ye had already changed her opinion of him, and spoke to him in the idea that even if he wasn't his younger brother, they could still make friends.

But who knows, such a scene actually happened.

Hailee Ye had the feeling that she had just escaped from the wolves, but had entered a tiger's den again.

Angrily struggling to get up, but what she saw next made Hailee Ye stunned.

Lewis Lu has a little secret, that is, on the outside of his thigh, there is a birthmark, a birthmark like a purple lightning.

The children in the orphanage basically knew about this birthmark.

Of course his seven older sisters also knew.

So when Hailee Ye saw the purple lightning, she knew that the young man in front of her was her younger brother Lewis Lu who had been away for fifteen years.

"Little Lewis Lu, it's really you, it's really you, I thought I'd never see you again."

Hailee Ye got up and hugged Lewis Lu in her arms, the tears couldn't stop rushing down, like a river breaking its embankment.

Lewis Lu also had a sore nose.

Nothing had changed, nothing had changed, the eldest Sister was still the same, the fifteen years had not made the relationship between the two of them alienated at all, on the contrary, they had become closer.

Lewis Lu was very moved, and secretly swore that he would do his best to protect his sister for the rest of his life.

But, why do he always feel that something is wrong?

Lewis Lu realized something was wrong, and said with a wry smile, "Sister, let me put on my pants first."

"..."

Hailee Ye's pretty face flushed, but she quickly glared at Lewis Lu again: "Why are you ashamed, it's not like I haven't seen it before!"

"No sister, there are outsiders."

"ah!"

Hailee Ye exclaimed, and suddenly realized that there were more than the two of them in this place.

He hurried over to check on Harvey, and found that he was still fainting, Hailee Ye was relieved.

Harvey would never have imagined in his dreams that he missed a priceless scene in this short period of time.

The Porsche 911 starts again.

Hailee Ye was driving, and Lewis Lu was sitting in the co-pilot.

The siblings haven't seen each other for so many years, so naturally there are endless topics to talk about.

Among them, Hailee Ye was most concerned about how Lewis Lu survived the fire fifteen years ago.

And in the past fifteen years, what has he experienced.

Lewis Lu answered them one by one, but he didn't talk about his five years of fighting, only that he spent the past fifteen years practicing with an old Pendeta Tao priest on the mountain.

After Hailee Ye listened to it, she gave him a faint look: "Are you here to tell your sister the story of the fairy tale?"

Of course she wouldn't believe such an outrageous thing.

To be honest, Hailee doesn't believe it, and Lewis Lu is also very helpless!

Fortunately, Hailee Ye did not continue to pursue it, and said excitedly:

"If your other sisters know that you are still alive and have grown into a handsome boy, I don't know how they will feel."

"Hey, keep it secret for now, I'm going to surprise them one by one."

"You're such a badass."

Hailee Ye showed a tacit smile.

The two chatted all the way, time passed quickly, and when they came to their senses, Hailee Corp had already arrived.

When the two entered Hailee Building talking and laughing, everyone showed expressions of disbelief.

When had their iceberg goddess been so intimate with a man?

It's over, heartbroken.

Countless people are destined to lose sleep tonight.

And the first thing Hailee Ye did when she returned to the company was to tell Jacob Liu, the Personnel Department manager, to leave.

Never sloppy.

Hailee Ye was such a vigorous and resolute woman.

There was a vacancy for the position of Personnel Department manager, Hailee Ye blinked at Lewis Lu and said, "Little Lewis Lu, are you interested in being a manager?"

Lewis Lu smiled wryly and shook his head: "No, I don't know anything about management companies."

Although he is the King Tiansha, and his 36 Gang were all famous General Dewa, but this was still different from managing a company.

To manage Tiansha, all you need is strong force, but to manage a company, you need various rules and regulations.

Lewis Lu is not good at these.

But Hailee Ye said: "It's okay, I just let you get a job. If there is anything you don't understand, Titan Gu will teach you."

Titan Gu was Hailee Ye's secretary, and the two have a very good relationship. They were superiors and subordinates in the company, but they are best friends in private.

Now that Hailee said so, Lewis Lu had no choice but to agree first, and if he felt inappropriate, he could quit at any time.

While the two were talking, Titan Gu knocked on the door and walked in.

She is a sexy woman, about twenty-five years old, wearing an office uniform, a pair of slender legs tightly wrapped in black stockings, twisting and twisting when walking.

Pink square glasses, covering a tear mole in the corner of her eye.

Overall, Titan Gu's appearance is quite good, second only to the cold goddess Hailee Ye in the company.

But Lewis Lu only took one look, and then looked away. In his heart, no woman can compare to his seven sisters.

"Titan Gu, you came just in time. Let me introduce someone to you."

Hailee Ye smiled and said: "He is my younger brother Lewis Lu, I am going to give him the vacant manager position, what do you think?"

Following Hailee Ye's gaze, Titan Gu glanced at Lewis Lu, but her expression was somewhat thought-provoking.

When she was outside just now, she heard her colleagues comment that the president came back with a pretty face.

Of course Titan Gu didn't believe it, because she knew that the CEO had a very high vision, and not everyone could fall into her eyes.

But now it seemed that the president had really fallen.

"Boss Ye, I don't know if I should say something or not."

Although the relationship between the two was good, in the company, Titan Gu still called Hailee Ye Boss Ye very appropriately.

Hailee Ye said with a smile: "These are all my own people, so just say what you have to say!"

So Titan Gu pushed the square-frame glasses on the bridge of her nose and said:

"I think the company's listing is imminent, and it's better not to change the management easily, especially, the position of Personnel Department manager. I would rather leave it empty than let this Mr. Lu take up the position."

"Oh? Tell me the reason."

Titan Gu thought for a while, and finally said two words: "public opinion."

"Do you also think that Lewis Lu is my toy boy?" Hailee Ye was so smart that she immediately understood what she meant.

Titan Gu said, "It's not that I think so, but everyone thinks so."

The company was about to go public, if there was news that Hailee Ye kicked out the old employees in order to help a toy boy, it will definitely hurt the company's reputation.

How could Hailee Ye not understand this truth, but she didn't explain too much, and waved her hand,

"I've decided. From now on, Lewis Lu will be the Personnel Department manager of our company. Titan, take him to familiarize himself with the environment."
