

My Seven Sisters are all Stunningly Beautiful

chapter 8 Southern Jiang King, pay homage to Emperor Dewa Lewis!

"King, what are your orders?"

When the phone was dialed, a very respectful voice came.

"Help me hack into a private network, I want all the files and photos in his computer, give it to me as soon as possible."

"Obey!"

Lewis Lu was concise and to the point. After hanging up the phone, he sent a resume to the other party.

The Master of the resume is none other than Jacob Liu.

When Hailee Ye fired Jacob Liu yesterday, Lewis Lu was at the scene. Through observation, he found that Jacob Liu was not an easy person.

First of all, facing Hailee Ye's questioning, he didn't even bother to defend himself, and directly admitted that he had colluded with the Beauty Corp.

Secondly, when he left, a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth, as if he was planning something.

Combined with Hailee Corp recent trends, Lewis Lu thought that the most likely problem was the new product launch.

So he copied Jacob Liu's resume from the company's information database.

As long as someone hacked Jacob Liu's computer, he would be able to catch some clues and prevent him from messing around at the press conference.

This was Lewis Lu's insurance strategy.

finish breakfast.

Lewis Lu was about to go downstairs for a walk, and when he came to the garden of the villa, he saw a figure standing upright outside the courtyard gate.

It was a man in his forties, with a square face and a short beard.

His face looked dignified.

His name is Leo.

People in Kota Jiang were more used to calling him Southern Jiang King.

"Leo , Southern Jiang King , pay homage to Emperor Dewa Lewis!"

Leo voice was loud, and the moment he saw Lewis Lu, his body suddenly bent to ninety degrees.

He had been waiting here for nearly an hour.

He kept his waist straight throughout the whole process, and it seemed that even a moment of slack would not be enough to express his respect.

It wasn't until Lewis Lu appeared that he bowed ninety degrees.

"Your news is quite well-informed."

Lewis Lu glanced at Leo and said lightly.

He didn't know Southern Jiang King, but he could feel that the other had some skills.

"I have an elder brother who is a subordinate of General Tianji, and he specifically asked me to take good care of His Majesty Emperor Dewa."

"Take care of? I'm afraid he asked you please me!" Lewis Lu snorted coldly.

"Leo dare not!"

The cold sweat on Leo's body fell like a waterfall in an instant, and his heart seemed to be tightly suppressed by a mountain, and he couldn't breathe.

The aura of Emperor Dewa Lewis is too terrifying.

Ordinary people may think that his temperament is ordinary, but anyone who knows him a little will know that the more ordinary, the more terrifying.

That's what Leo is.

If he didn't know Lewis Lu's identity in advance, he would think that Lewis Lu was an ordinary young man, but after knowing Lewis Lu's identity, his words and deeds could bring him a huge sense of oppression.

"Don't be nervous, whether it's taking care of me or pleasing me, you came at the right time."

Just when Leo felt as if he was about to suffocate, Lewis Lu's words brought him back to life instantly.

"I would like to listen to My Majesty Dewa Emperor' orders!"

"good."

Lewis Lu nodded:

"There are a few things I need you to help me do."

"First, I suspect that the fire in the Sunshine Institute Fifteen years ago was related to Striking Real Estate. You should focus on checking their person in charge."

"Second, tomorrow my sister's company, Hailee Corp, will have a new product launch event. I hope you can set an example."

"third....."

After Lewis Lu explained one by one, Leo left respectfully, feeling extremely excited.

Being able to do things for Emperor Dewa Lewis was something that countless people dream of. He, Leo, was lucky to receive this honor, and he don't know how many people will envy him.

Not long after Leo left, Lewis Lu received an email notification.

Back in the room, Lewis logged into the mailbox with Hailee's computer, and downloaded the compressed file inside.

Unzip and open it, full of exciting content.

A sneer appeared at the corner of Lewis Lu mouth: "You're good at playing!"

It's good that Jacob Liu doesn't make trouble tomorrow, but if he does something, these documents are enough to ruin his reputation.

the next day.

The conference hall on the 13th floor of Hailee Building.

The media came in one after another.

Hailee Ye repeatedly emphasized: "Be sure to check their work permits carefully, and don't let idlers wait in."

Security Minister Flynn Guo patted his chest and assured: "Boss

Ye, don't worry about my work."

But when preparing backstage, Hailee Ye still felt uneasy.

Lewis Lu squeezed her palm and asked, "What's wrong, sister?"

"I don't know, my right eyelid has been twitching since the morning, and I always feel that something bad is about to happen."

"It's okay, with me here, even if the sky falls, I will help you support it."

"You would comfort me."

Hailee Ye glared at Lewis Lu. Although she knew that something had happened and Lewis Lu couldn't help him, but with his words, she felt more at ease for some reason.

At ten o'clock sharp, the press conference was held on time.

Hailee Ye tidied up her makeup and walked to the stage, immediately amazed countless media.

They had heard of Hailee Ye's name to some extent before, and knew that there was such a beautiful CEO in Kota Jiang, but most of them felt that the exaggeration was exaggerated.

These days, as long as she was a woman with good facial features, she could be called a beauty if she dresses up carefully. Especially with the blessing of beauty and filters, anyone can also become a fairy.

But at the moment when they saw Hailee Ye appear on the stage, they realized that they were wrong.

Hailee Ye was tall and tall, with outstanding temperament. Hailee possessed great beauty. It was not like those Internet celebrities who wear heavy makeup. Just a little light makeup was enough to kill 99% of women in an instant.

As the name suggests, her beauty was such as to overthrow cities and ruin states.

The reporters instantly cheered up.

Hailee Ye's performance did not disappoint them either. She was generous and decent, and introduced the company's new products in an orderly manner. She could not see her nervousness in the audience at all.

The first half of the conference went very smoothly.

Hailee Ye secretly breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that she might really be worrying for nothing.

But not long after, a sudden change occurred.

A female reporter suddenly stood up and asked, "There is news that President Ye did not hesitate to kick out the old employees of the company in order to make a toy boy joined in. Is the news true?"

Swish!

The expressions of everyone in Hailee Corp changed instantly.

"What's the matter with this reporter? Who made you ask such ignorant questions?"

Several group security guards were about to drive the female reporter out of the venue, but Flynn Guo, the head of security, stopped them.

"President Ye, please answer my question." The female reporter insisted.

Other media also focused on Hailee Ye face. Compared with Hailee Corp's new products, they were more interested in digging into the private life of the beautiful president.

Hailee Ye said with a pretty face: "This question has nothing to do with the content of today's press conference, and I refuse to answer it."

"How can it be irrelevant?"

At this time, the door of the conference room was suddenly pushed open, and Jacob Liu walked in with a sneer on his face. Harvey also came in with him.

Harvey sat in a wheelchair, his legs were covered with plaster casts, and one arm was also wrapped in a bandage, hanging in front of his chest.

Seeing this scene, Flynn Guo, Minister of Security, instead of stopping him, stepped forward to help Harvey push the wheelchair.

Immediately, a reporter handed the microphone to Jacob Liu mouth: "Excuse me, sir, do you have any grievances with Hailee Corp?"

"Of course, I am the old employee who was laid off by Hailee Ye."
