Chapter 251

Chapter 251 Are You Sick?

Crystal seemed to be happy as Elvis caressed her hair. It was a little gesture that was often done by a man in a bid to dote on a girl.

Crystal had thought that Elvis would hug or kiss, but he had only stroked her hair.

Elvis withdrew his hand and muttered.

“Crystal. I have an appointment to catch up with. I’ll see you later.”

Elvis was leaving.

“Elvis, you just arrived, why are you leaving so soon?” Crystal was a little unhappy and disappointed.

However, Elvis was not moved by her noticeable displeasure. He didn’t even spare her another glance. Instead, he looked down at Phoebe at his feet.

“Phoebe, let’s go.” Elvis ordered gently. Phoebe raised her claws and followed Elvis.

Crystal stared at Elvis. Sometimes she felt like she didn’t understand him at all. Elvis was always indifferent and cold, and barely showed any affection towards her.

Elvis bent over and picked Phoebe into his arms and walked away.

Noah let out an awkward cough. He quickly said,

“Since everyone is happy today, why don’t we play a trick on that clown from the Hart family.” “Okay? Noah, what do you intend on doing?” Everyone asked curiously.

Noah took out his phone from his pocket, held tighter to Rosella’s waist, then he declared,

“I’ll call that clown on the phone now. Don’t you all know that she’ll be humiliated if we make fun of her?”

“Goodness lord, Noah, that’s too extreme. You really don’t have to humiliate her. You’re so bad.” One of the celebrities suggested.

Rosella twisted her waist coquettishly.

“Noah, you’re so annoying. Why do you want to call her?”

Noah kissed Rosella’s face.

“It’s you I like, okay? Don’t worry about that clown.”

The Hart family has never been recognized by the upper class nobles in Imperial. However, no one still dared to provoke the Hart family.

Noah placed his finger on his lips and made a shush gesture. Everyone cooperated and everywhere was silent.

Noah dialed the number and turned on the speaker of the phone. The ringing sound quickly echoed throughout the hall.

Everyone awaited the call to be answered with bated breath.

The call was soon picked up, and a beautiful voice passed over,

“Hello, who is this?”

Everyone who held their breathe quickly turned to look at each other. They wondered why the voice of the clown from the Hart family was so beautiful.

Elvis had taken Phoebe to the door and was about to leave, but when he heard the voice passed over, he suddenly halted.

Elvis turned around and his deep eyes swept over Noah, and he looked at the phone in his hands.

Elvis couldn't explain the power that was willed by the voice that he had just heard, but he found himself wanting to pay attention to the conversation between Noah and the girl.

Noah held the phone and said disrespectfully,

“Hello, you're the youngest daughter of the Hart family who was found, right? I'm Noah, your fiance. But don't think about marrying me. I won't marry you. I already have a girlfriend, and as we speak, we're are currently coaxing each other.”

Noah glanced at Rosella in his arms. Rosella nodded understandingly, and quickly let out a moan.

Noah also cooperated. He buried his head in Rosella's neck and muttered with heavy breathe,

“Baby, you're so sweet.”

Any fiance who heard such was bound to feel jealous and even angry.

Everyone in the hall was patiently awaiting the response from the other end.

But they waited, and still, the individual on the other end remained silent.

The atmosphere was a little weird. The girl on the other end didn't respond.

Noah and Rosella were still moaning over here.

Noah suddenly kept quiet. At this moment, the beautiful and soft voice slowly passed over with a chuckle,

“Are you done?”

The three simple words made Noah stiffened, and he immediately asked angrily,

“What do you mean?”

“What do you mean by asking me what I mean? Since you two are busy performing. I can only be a quiet audience. Are you angry? Oh, I commend you two for working so hard.” The girl’s calm voice mocked. Noah was about to lose his cool. The youngest daughter of the Hart family seemed to be completely different from what he had imagined. “And, Mr. White, I heard your voice, and it sounded like you were weak and out of breathe. Are you having a kidney deficiency? Do you experience that every time you make out?” The voice questioned. mockingly. The onlookers couldn’t help but cover their mouths and laugh. Noah’s face was covered in embarrassment. He realized that something wasn’t right. He was being mocked by a clown. “Well, if you’re indeed suffering from a kidney deficiency, don’t worry too much about it, I know a doctor who specializes in treating such. Do you need me to introduce him to you? The girl added. Noah hissed and hastily replied, “No! I don’t need you to introduce me to anyone!” “No? Okay. I’ll hang up now.” The girl muttered and the call was swiftly disconnected.

Chapter 251 Are You Sick?

A few seconds later, everyone in the hall had bursted into an uncontrollable laughter.

“Noah, your fiance is so funny. How could she be so cute?”

“Noah, you wanted teasing your fiance, but she ended teasing you.”

“Noah, you really don’t have a kidney deficiency, do you?”

Noah was laughed out by everyone in the hall. And Rosella stared at him suspiciously, she wanted knowing if he really had a kidney deficiency.

Noah felt lumiliated. He had made the call to humiliate his fiance, but he ended up being humbled.

“Clowns! I’ll get back at her!” Noah muttered as he couldn’t conceed defcat.

Elvis didn’t leave. In fact, he was quite surprised that he had stayed to watch the show. He was not someone who liked to mingle and play with people, but that beautiful and soft voice had a magical power that made him unable to move away.

Chapter 252: Are you arguing because of me?

It seemed like the individual on the other end of the phone was interesting.

Elvis held onto Phoebe and left with her.

In the hallway. Ray and Peterson had been awaiting their master, Elvis. When they saw Elvis stepping out of the hall, they had hastily and respectfully followed him.

Ray pushed Peterson and whispered excitedly,
“I think I had just seen young master smile.”

“Really?” Peterson muttered expressionlessly.

“We can’t be caught gossiping about young master.” Peterson whispered back.

Ray pondered for a while, then he said,

“Do you think it’s because of the daughter of the Hart family who had just returned?”

“Young Master, the White and Hart families have a marriage contract. The Hart family had a daughter whom they lost when she was just a child. They just found her, and she’s Noah’s fiancée.” Ray spoke courageously to Elvis’s hearing.

Elvis’s face was devoid of emotions. He stared at Ray indifferently and asked,
“Did I ask you this?”

“No, you didn’t.” Ray shook his head.

“But if young master likes, I’ll have Peterson visit the Hart family at night and kidnap the daughter of the Hart family. And have her sleep on your bed tonight.”

Ray glanced at Peterson, he winked repeatedly at him, as he urged him to show his support to his words.

Elvis turned around and faced Ray. His cold eyes swept across his body.

“Get out!” Elvis ordered irritably.

Ray suddenly disappeared from Elvis’s sight. Peterson froze, as he couldn’t utter a word.

The Augustine family Villa.

Elvis returned home. He stood in the living room and unbuttoned the black suit that he wore and handed it to the maid.

“Young Master, ma’am Samantha is in the room upstairs.” The maid informed respectfully.

“How’s her appetite lately? Elvis inquired.

“Young Master, Mrs. Samantha only ate some spoon of rice. Her appetite is still very bad.

Elvis’s face suddenly clouded in sadness. Everyone knew that if Mrs. Samantha continued like this, then she was most likely to die sooner.

Elvis strode upstairs and went to see Mrs. Samantha. However, when he reached the door of the study, he noticed that the door was not properly closed, and he overheard the conversations that were ongoing. It was Marvin’s voice.

Marvin was home today.

“Dad, I’ll ask you again. Where did you keep her? Why can’t I find her anyway? Can you give her to me? I can I save her. Don’t tell me that you killed her. I refuse to believe that you’re cruel and cold-blooded!”

Enough!” Lily’s voice rebuked. ” Marvin, are you crazy? How could you talk to your father like this? What’s so good about that woman? Did she give you a love potion to drink?”

The study door was quickly pulled over, and Marvin stormed out.

Marvin saw Elvis outside the door, and their eyes met.

Elvis looked at Marvin, his deep eyes were unsteady. Elvis knew his brother too well. As the youngest academician, Marvin was proud, cold and arrogant. But now, Marvin seemed restless and his two hands were clenched into a fist. He was like an angry lion, looking for whom to devour.

Elvis had never seen Marvin like this before. With their eyes still focused at each other, Elvis asked indifferently,

“What’s the matter with you?”

Elvis diverted his gaze to the study room and then back at Marvin.

“You quarreled with dad about a girl. You have a girl you like. Is that it?”

Marvin stared coldly at Elvis.

“Are you happy now?” Marvin’s voice questioned.

Elvis pursed his lips and didn’t utter a word in response.

The two men were equally handsome and breathtaking. They were capable of getting any girl that they wanted, hence Elvis didn’t understand why Marvin would quarrel with their father over a girl.

Marvin scoffed and continued,

“Elvis, you must be very happy that you inherited the buisness empire, and you also have the most beautiful woman as your fiance. That’s great, Elvis. You must continue to be happy.”

With that, Marvin turned around and headed downstairs.

Marvin couldn’t help but turn to look at Elvis again. He found it ridiculous to believe that Olive gave up her life for Elvis. She had loved him more than she loved her life.

Marvin would not mention the name ‘Olive’ to Elvis. He would never. He would never let Elvis know what he had lost. This was his punishment.

Lily angrily ran out of the study and went after Marvin.

“Marvin, I’m talking to you!”

The mother and son soon disappeared from Elvis’s sight. At this moment, the door of the study opened and Alpha walked out.

Elvis looked at Alpha and inquired,

“Are you two arguing about me?”

Alpha shook his head.

“No, this has nothing to do with you. Today’s Crystal’s birthday. How are you celebrating the day with her?” Alpha hastily changed the topic.

“Quite fine.” Elvis didn’t intend on saying more. He muttered swiftly,

“I’ll go see grandma.”

In the bedroom, Mrs. Samantha was sitting on a sofa, and held Phoebe in her arms. In the past three months, Mrs. Samantha had lost a lot of weight, and her hair was already gray. Mrs. Samantha’s head had turned white overnight. Phoebe snuggled in the old lady’s arms and meowed.

“Grandma.” Elvis called out and squatted down on one knee beside the sofa and held Mrs.

Mrs. Samantha looked up at Elvis,

“Elvis, you’re back.” She muttered expressionlessly.

“Grandma, I was told that you barely ate again today. What’s wrong with you? If you have anything on your mind, you can tell me.” Elvis persuaded gently.

Mrs. Samantha shook her head.

Elvis knew that his grandma was unwilling to tell what was bothering her.

“Grandma, I’ll pick you up in two days to come live with me. Your appetite isn’t so good right now. I’ll find someone who can prepare delicious meals for you.

After spending some time with his grandmother, Elvis left the Augustine’s villa.

He and Marvin had alot of properties and they had their own villa.

In the Rolls-Royce buisness car, Elvis leaned his back into the seat and raised his eyes to look at the beautiful city.

Peterson who sat in the driver’s seat informed politely,

“Young Master, secretary Andrew just called. He called to remind you that your appointment with the psychologist, Dr. Brown, still holds. And Andrew assures that he can find a cure to your frigidity.

The Substitute H

Chapter 253 His heart was empty

Hearing the last three words, Elvis lowered his hand, gently raised his beautiful eyes, and glanced at Peterson.

Peterson felt a chill on his neck, but he pinched it, smiled flatly and said,

“Young master, I didn’t say this, it’s Secretary Andrew.”

Andrew sneezed into the air. Who was the little bastard who shifted the blame on him?

However, Peterson didn't make up stories. Since Elvis returned to Canada, he hadn't had any woman by his side.

Elvis indifferently retracted his gaze, "Drive."

"Yes, Young Master."

Elvis returned to The Red Villa. He's living here alone now. Dr. Kellerman, his 21st psychologist, had been waiting for him for a long time.

Doctor Kellerman is a young man with white skin. He was wearing a white coat. He looked at Elvis gently and politely. "Hello, sir. Please sit down."

Elvis sat on the sofa, his long legs elegantly superimposed on each other, looking indifferent.

Dr. Kellerman sat across from him. "Mr. Augustine, relax. We can chat now. Have you ever dated a girlfriend before?"

Elvis shook his head, "No."

"Since you've never dated a girlfriend, how do you know that you're frigid? It's a simple problem. You can try dating a girl." Dr. Kellerman suggested.

Elvis pursed his lips and said in a low voice, "I was injured before."

Dr. Kellerman's gaze fell on his trousers. "What's the reason?"

Elvis shook his head. "I don't know. I can't remember how I got hurt. Anyway, I have no sexual interest in women, and I don't like women's approach.

Recently, there was a girl by my side. She's pure and smart. She should be my favorite. But after that, I have no desire for her either."

Only after Elvis returned to the Imperial did he realize that there was a wound in his lower body.

Having the wound in this place is very serious. There's no reason why he couldn't remember it. This was unusual.

Moreover, he was 28 years old. Although he wasn't lustful, he was still young. However, he had absolutely no desire for sex and his body didn't respond.

He knew that something was wrong with his body. Either he was frigid or impotent.

He should like Crystal. Sometimes, her long black hair and the mischievous look in her eyebrows would make his heart flutter.

Dr. Kellerman nodded, indicating that he understood, "Mr. Augustine, if there is a girl next to you, you should try going out with her as a boyfriend and girlfriend. See if you like her more and more and if you crave her. Intimate hugs between lovers are all sexually appealing. Open up and try to let her in."

The Sub

Chapter 251 His lieart was empty

Elvis probably knew that Robert and Augustine family was married. Alpha regarded Crystal as his prospective daughter-in-law. In fact, he didn't care who he would live with all his life. After marriage, he would respect his wife, grant her title, wealth, power, including children, and can guarantee fidelity. Moreover, Crystal was the only girl who had been able to be with him so far, so it wasn't a bad idea to marry her,

But now he has no interest in doing anything intimate with Crystal. Today, everyone was coaxing him to kiss her but he didn't want to.

Elvis looked at Dr. Kellerman, his voice low and a little hoarse: "I don't know why I feel empty inside. My life is neither good nor bad. I don't like anything. Opening my eyes, I stood up, and when the sun went down, I closed my eyes. My everyday life is boring like a machine. Today Marvin asked me if I am happy. No, I am not happy at all. I don't even know what happiness is. I don't know what I'm yearning for, but I always feel like I've lost the most important thing in my life."

Dr. Kellerman looked at his handsome face in the dim light. He had a hunch that this man had suffered a great deal of trauma, but now he was living a very peaceful life.

"Mr. Augustine, let's try hypnosis next time. I'll go into your world and see if I can find the answer for you, and what you've lost."

After Kellerman left, Elvis returned to his bedroom. He took a cold shower and went to bed.

His current routine was very normal. He could sleep every night. In fact, he didn't know when his sleep disorder was cured. In short, he would never have that condition again. No more nightmares, he could sleep until dawn.

Everything had changed for the better. He was fine now.

At this moment, there was a "ding". It was a text message from his phone, from Crystal.

"Elvis, can you drive me to school tomorrow?"

Elvis remembered Dr. Kellerman's suggestion and didn't refuse.

The word "Yes" was enough to make Crystal burst with joy.

"Elvis, thank you. I'm so happy. Go to bed early. See you tomorrow."

Elvis put his phone on the bed table and calmly closed his eyes.

At this moment, in the Hart Family in Imperial City.

Tom Hart, the head of the Hart Family, pushed open the door of the room, his temper already rising. He angrily cursed: "Olive, did that bastard Noah call you just now? Do you want me to call someone? Now let's put him in a sack and beat him up."

Olive stood on the carved balcony. She was wearing a loose white dress, which made her figure more delicate and graceful. Her pure black hair fell on her shoulders, and half of her face was splendidly beautiful.

After three months, she seemed to be completely revived, standing there exuding a jade-like beauty. When Tom Hart shouted, Olive quickly put her slender finger to her lips and shushed, "Dad, be quiet, you're scaring my bird." Olive was feeding it, and there was a bird cage by her hand with three fluffy birds inside. "Olive, what time is this? Why are you still feeding the birds? You have raised this bird for three months, it has never left you. Isn't this just an ordinary flock of birds? If you like, I'll catch forest.

Tom Hart is very strong. He has bushy eyebrows and big eyes. He is a martial artist, straightforward. and daring.

three Olive quickly declined. "Dad, thank you, although the birds in the forest are not as good as my children, and Noah was not pleased with him just now, he is probably angry to death now. I will make peace with him. The marriage has ended, Dad, I just came to Imperial, please don't make a fuss. Let's keep it quiet for me."

Chapter 254 Glory World's Husband Selection

There were three brothers in the Hart Family. Old Mr. Hart was the eldest. Back then, he followed Joyce Brown to Los Angeles. This was the second child in Imperial City. Tom Hart was the son of the second child.

Hearing that Olive had to keep it quiet, Tom Hart raised his hand and touched his head. He smiled obediently. "Okay, Olive. I will listen to everything you say."

This scene surprised the ser vants of the Hart Family. Tom is a b adass, everyone is afraid of him, even Noah, too. But he really obeyed Olive.

Tom Hart has a strict wife. After this "tigress", Olive is the second person that he is afraid of.

The ser vants respected Olive even more. She was like a fairy. When Olive first came to the Hart Family, they were shocked.

Of course this is also related to the Hart Family's overall appearance. The men of the Hart Family are all tall and strong, and the women are like men. Before Olive came, there was no beauty here.

"Olive!" At this moment, a flamboyant figure ran into the room. Speaking of the tigress, here she came. This is Tom Hart's wife, Mia

Mia ran in front of Olive, slammed a bunch of pictures on the table, grabbed Olive's small hand and pulled her over, excitedly saying, "Olive, look, do you like these people?"

Olive glanced at it. There were all kinds of men in the photo. She blinked at and looked at Mia, "Mom, who are they?"

“Olive, these are the rich and unmarried sons of the Imperial City. Choose whoever you like. We kicked that son of a b itch Noah long ago. Olive, which one do you like? I’ll go kidnap him. We will directly confess our marriage, and let him be the son-in-law of our Hart Family.”

Kidnap?

Kidnap again?

Olive raised her head and stroked her forehead. This couple behaves very similarly.

At this time, Tom Hart walked over and happily praised, “Good idea. That bastard Noah dared to look down on my Olive, he must be crazy. Olive, find someone who is thousands times better than him. Look. This is the son of the Baker family. He’s young and talented. He’s very famous, but he’s skinny and effeminate. Next.”

“This.” Mia picked up a photo and began a lively discussion with Tom Hart, “This is the young master of the Qian family, the son of the general, and he is now the captain of the rescue team. Looking at the muscles in this body, he will definitely protect our family. Olive, it’s just that he’s not very good. looking, so I’ll switch to someone else.”

Olive looked at the couple. There were three black lines on her forehead. She wanted to ask Noah, their nephew, what he thought.

“Mom,” Olive held Mia’s put all these photos away, I don’t like any of them.” arm,

“You don’t like any of them?” Mia thought for a while, “Basically all the princes of the capital are here, except for the princes of Robert, Augustine and Wilson and Miller family, the four largest families in the capital, they are not married. Except for Elvis, the eldest son of the Augustin Family, Elvis, and the daughter of the Augustine family, Crystal, are a couple, and they may be engaged soon.”

Maybe there’s no one in the capital who doesn’t know about their marriage.

“Olive, apart from Elvis, who else do you like? Our Hart Family and these four always have good relations. They don’t look down on us, we even despise them, but if you like, we can talk to them. We will grab our dear son-in-law.”

Tom Hart finally added, “Grab him if we have to.”

When Olive heard Elvis’s name again, her heart clenched violently. The two of them have been apart for three months. It’s been a long time since they’ve been apart, these three months seem like a lifetime.

Now he really has a beautiful family by his side, the richest daughter Alpha said that day was Crystal, the jewel of the Robert family in Imperial.

Olive showed no expression although her heart was filled with pain. She hugged Mia affectionately, put her head on her knee, and said. "Mom, I don't like anyone. I'm still young. I just want to quickly enter the Academy of Sciences and get the box that my mom left behind."

Tom Hart's expression quickly turned serious, "Sure enough. The lady left the treasure chest in the Science Academy, now the Science Academy is dominated by those old men, it is difficult to enter. Fortunately, Bright Star University Science Academy enrolls students every year. Olive, tomorrow we will enter Bright Star University."

Olive looked at Tom Hart, "Dad, can we go in?"

Olive looked at Tom Hart, "Dad, can we enter Bright Star University?"

Tom quickly straightened up, "I'm an old acquaintance of the president of Bright Star University, I'll take you there tomorrow."

"Then I can rest assured." Olive was relieved. She didn't notice the strange look on Tom Hart's face.

At this time, Mia touched Olive's small head, "Olive, you can now live in peace in the Hart Family. We don't have a daughter, and you are our daughter. No one will dare to bully you on Imperial's territory.

Olive was very touched. She has been without parental love since growing up, Tom Hart and Mia really love her like their own daughter, "Well, thank you mom."

"Silly girl. These are what we should do. Back then, Miss founded the Hart Family in Imperial, joined the Thirty-Six Gangs, and became the leader of the arena. We were all born for Miss. And you are our little daughter."

It was only after Olive came to the Hart Family in the imperial capital that she realized that her mother had once been a gangster, and single-handedly pushed the Hart Family here to the throne of the gangsters.

She was surprised. Mummy had set up a school, which was Holy Nile Academy. After it was completed, she gave it to Bounty.

Mummy had established a traditional medicine hospital, which was The Ivory Council, and then gave it to Director Sebastian.

Mother really conquered the gangster world, then gave power to Tom Hart and the others.

Olive didn't know what other amazing things her mother had done. In short, she had become a mystery in her heart. She didn't know what kind of person she was.

"Olive, go to bed early. Dad will do important things. As for your marriage, leave it to Mom. I promise to make it beautiful for you."

Olive said that she just got divorced and hadn't had any plans for a second marriage yet.

Tom Hart and Mia walked out, and Mia blinked her eyes mysteriously, “Honey, I find only photo dating useless. I came up with a good idea. Let’s call these people here for Olive to choose.”

“You mean...”

“How about spreading the word to the heroes and inviting all the young unmarried men from famous families to hold for Olive a sensational husband selection in the Imperial?”

Tom Hart’s eyes lit up and he quickly gave her a thumbs up. “Let Queen Olive choose a husband. Honey, your idea is the best!”

Chapter 255 The next morning.

In front of the gate of Bright Star University, a luxurious Rolls-Royce Phantom stopped slowly. In the back seat, Crystal shyly but sweetly looked at the man sitting in the driver’s seat, “Elvis, here we are. Thank you for taking me to school.” Elvis today wears a handmade white shirt and black trousers, which were classic masculine attire. He was exceptionally handsome and refined, his large hand. wearing an expensive watch casually resting on the steering wheel. He looked at Crystal gently, “Study well.”

“Well, then I’m getting off.” Crystal opened the car door.

It’s peak time for school right now. Crystal is the beauty queen of Bright Star University, she is the center of attention of the whole school. When she got off the car, many female college students surrounded her.

“Crystal, you’re at school.”

“Crystal, who took you to school today?”

Crystal usually goes to school in the exclusive private car of the Robert family, but today she suddenly changed to a luxury Rolls-Royce Phantom. This world’s leading luxury car has a shockingly expensive price, and the number plate is also extremely high-class. Those female college students peeked inside the car and immediately saw the handsome and delicate face of the man.

“Crystal, it was President Augustine who sent you to school today.”

“Crystal, you and Mr. Augustine are too sweet. Are you going to make it public?”

Recently, there had been rumors of Augustine and Robert family getting married in Imperial, but Elvis hadn’t made a public statement. He was busy at the company and didn’t have time to hang out with Crystal.

Today, he was willing to send her to school, which made Crystal pleasantly surprised. He drove her in a world-class luxury car to the gate of Bright Star University, letting the whole world know of each other's existence. This was already a public statement.

Crystal looked at Elvis sweetly, then suddenly bent over, crawled in and kissed Elvis's handsome cheek.

"Wow wow."

The surrounding female students all exploded.

Crystal's beautiful and dazzling little face was red. Just now, she wanted to give him a goodbye kiss. "Elvis, then I'm leaving."

There was no emotion on Elvis's handsome face. He nodded, "Okay."

"Then, can you come pick me up this afternoon?" Crystal looked at him expectantly and anxiously.

Elvis thought for a while, "Yes."

Crystal was overjoyed. "Elvis, see you in the afternoon. Bye."

Crystal closed the car door and walked into Bright Star University surrounded by a group of female classmates.

Elvis retracted his gaze and the Rolls-Royce Phantom luxury car sped away.

At this time, the luxury car of the Hart Family galloped towards him, the two cars passing each other.

Olive sitting in the back seat immediately saw the familiar car through the glossy glass, Elvis's car has never been changed, still a Rolls-Royce Phantom.

Her heart suddenly shrank, and at this moment, the driver's window of the Rolls-Royce Phantom slowly slid down, and the man's familiar handsome face broke into her eyes.

But in just an instant, the Rolls-Royce Phantom galloped away.

Olive quickly said, "Dad, stop, stop!"

Tom Hart immediately stepped on the brakes and stopped on the side of the road.

"Olive, what's the matter with you?" Mia asked with concern.

Before Olive could speak, she quickly opened the rear door and ran out, chasing after the Rolls-Royce Phantom.

Tom immediately stepped on the brake and stopped at the side of the road.

"Olive, what are you doing? What happened?" Mia asked with concern.

Olive didn't have time to talk, she quickly opened the back door, ran out, and chased after the Rolls-Royce Phantom.

She chased on the road, her legs couldn't keep up with the four wheels, the Rolls-Royce Phantom at the intersection ahead turned on the turn signal, preparing to turn left.

“Mr. Augustine!”

“Ah.”

Olive exclaimed in shock and smashed her foot to the ground.

“Olive,” Mia chased after her and said nervously, “Why did you fall? Your palms are broken. Does it hurt?”

Olive’s little hands rubbed on the ground, and now her soft white palms had two red marks, and the skin was scratched.

“Mom, I’m fine. It’s just skin injuries. Don’t worry.

“Who said that the skin injuries? Hurry up and get in the car, there is a medicine box in the trunk, I will treat you. Mia was heartbroken and blew Olive’s wound.

In the Rolls-Royce Phantom, Elvis’s car suddenly sounded a beautiful and soft exclamation. His heart suddenly ached, and he quickly stepped on the brakes to slow down.

What was wrong with him?

He reached out to touch his heart. He felt like his heart was being gripped by a big hand, every time he inhaled, it hurt.

Elvis glanced back through the rearview mirror, and quickly saw two people on the opposite side of the road, the figure of Olive was blocked by Mia and couldn’t be seen.

Elvis’s gaze stopped for a moment and then moved away again. He didn’t know what had happened, it was probably just a fleeting illusion.

He stepped on the brake and turned away.

Olive raised her head, not seeing the Rolls-Royce Phantom anymore. He drove away. The slender eyelids hung down, covering a lonely silhouette. She said softly, “Mom, let’s get in the car.”

“Okay, let’s go.

The two returned to the car, Mia carefully helped Olive to treat her injury, “Olive, what happened. just now? Why did you suddenly get off? Did you meet someone you know?”

Olive shook her head, “I was just delusional.”

At this time, the luxury car stopped at the gate of Bright Star school, Tom said: “Wan Loan, this is Bright Star University, here we come.”

“Olive, look. The girl in front of you who is cherished like a little princess is Crystal, the precious. jewel of the Robert family.” Mia pointed.

Olive raised her eyes and saw Crystal on the campus of Bright Star University. Today, Crystal is wearing a pink dress. She is beautiful and slim, now she is surrounded by crowds, and she's so eye-catching that Olive can see her at a glance.

"Is Crystal a student of Bright Star University, too?" Olive asked.

Mia nodded, "That's right, Crystal has chosen dietitian as her specialty.

Actually, to put it bluntly, she has a golden spoon. Crystal is the real noble jewel. Damien Robert, her father, is the richest man in the world. You can see that the buildings at Bright Star University are all donated by Damien Robert.

Li's family is a centuries old family and committed to medical philanthropy. Damien Robert is almost the director of all the medical colleges in Imperial and even the Young Master's academy.

Damien Robert.

This guy was so awesome.

At this moment, Mia blinked her eyes and said proudly, "Olive, don't envy Crystal for having such a powerful father, because you have a legendary mother. Thirty years ago, your mom played with Emperor Fengyun, and turned the Academy of Sciences upside down. And together with Lily, they were called the imperial capital, and their crown covers Imperial."

When she mentioned her mother, Olive's bright eyes were filled with admiration.

Mia reached out and touched Olive's small head again, "Now Crystal is the beauty queen of Bright Star University just because they haven't seen my Olive. When my Olive appears, that girl will have to move to the side. Olive will be the beauty queen of Bright Star University."

Looking at Olive, Tom Hart felt the pride of his family. He praised, "It's because our Olive is at thousand times more beautiful than Crystal."

Seeing them lose focus again, Olive quickly coughed, "Dad, mom, let's hurry to Bright Star University."

"Okay let's go."

The three of them got out of the car together, swaggering towards Bright Star University. The security guard of Bright Star University saw them coming and shouted: "This is bad. That bastard's here. Close the gate and don't let them in.”

The security guard immediately closed the gate, grabbed the phone with trembling fingers, and called directly to the principal’s office, “Vice Principal Baker, something is serious. That little devil is here.”

The principal of Bright Star University hadn’t come here for several years, all work was handled by Vice Principal Baker.

The gate slammed shut. The three of them were blocked by the gate of Bright Star University. All the guards were sent, standing inside watching them warily.

Olive blinked her slender eyelids, and looked at Tom Hart, “Dad, didn’t you say that you and the vice-chancellor of Bright Star University are old acquaintances? Isn’t this welcome ceremony a bit weird?”

Tom smiled shyly and explained, “Vice-principal Baker and I are old acquaintances. Last time there was a go d dam n s cu m from Bright Star University. He drugged the daughter of one of my subordinates. Her family was ruined. I sent my men to Bright Star to make a fuss. Vice Principal Baker came to dissuade us but I punched him to the ground, and he was hospitalized for half a month”

Gosh, there’s also this. “Dad,” Olive nodded affirmatively, “Good job.” Last night, Tom didn’t sleep, afraid that his impulse would ruin Olive’s business. Now, because she praised him, he immediately grinned, “Yes, Olive, I know I didn’t do anything wrong. It’s okay. Vice Principal Baker must be a little afraid of me this time, so he closed the gate. I shouldn’t be petty, I’ll apologize to him when he arrives.”

As soon as he finished speaking, there was the sound of hurried footsteps inside, Vice Principal Baker and his men came over.

When Vice Principal Baker saw Tom Hart, he immediately felt a sharp pain in his nose. At that time he almost broke the bridge of his nose. The vice principal Baker is an educated person who doesn’t like Tom’s gangster style.

“Tom, what are you here for? We have our own discipline. We didn’t offend you, why did you come here?” Vice Principal Baker asked.

Tom took two steps forward, one door away, and said loudly: “Vice principal Baker, I’m here to apologize. Last time I accidentally punched you, I’ll invite you to dinner next time. Now please open the door, the daughter I lost as a child has returned, and now I want her to come to your university to Chapter 256 Olive enten school study.”

Now all in the Imperial know that Tom has found his daughter. Moreover, this daughter was also hated by her fiance Noah, and he even broke off the engagement.

Vice Principal Baker suddenly straightened his back and looked at Olive next to Mia.

Olive wore a veil today, so her face couldn't be clearly seen, but her eyes that were exposed outside were shining brightly.

Vice Principal Baker saw those clear eyes and was immediately surprised. He seemed to have seen such beautiful eyes before.

However, he couldn't remember.

He only knew that she was Tom's daughter. Women of the Hart family are used to holding knives and guns, but reading books is sleepy to them. Vice Principal Baker didn't like such a background, so he was prejudiced against Olive.

"Do you think our Bright Star University is a marketplace where anyone can enter? Our Bright Star University students are selected based on their grades. I won't make an exception for you. Stop joking and bring your daughter home."

Vice Principal Baker said coldly.

Tom's face turned cold, too. He reached out his big hand to grab the gate, glared at Vice Principal Baker, "Da mn old man, I respect you but you dare to look down on us? Open the door. My daughter is going to study here today. If you don't open it, I'll break it down."

While speaking, Tom grabbed the gate and shook it twice. He was very strong, of course. When he shook, the iron door creaked, the alarm on the other side also rang.

Vice Principal Baker took a few steps back in fear, hiding behind the guards, "Tom, what are you doing? Don't mess around."

At this time, Mia stepped forward, she raised her thin eyebrows to look at Vice Principal Baker, "Honey, don't waste time on this old man. This da mn door can't stop me, I'll fly in to catch him right now."

Vice Principal Baker's face was pale, his fingers trembling, he pointed at Tom, then looked at Mia, and finally looked at the security guard, "Protect me. Don't let them mess around."

Olive didn't expect to meet such a joke, she quickly said: "Dad, Mom, forget it. I think Vice Principal Baker is determined not to let me enter the school. Let's go home."

Tom turned around, "Olive, if we want, no one can stop us. Dad will take you in. What major or class do you want, we just need to bring a stool in. We can sit wherever we want. Whoever dares to cause trouble, I will kick him out of Bright Star University."

Vice Principal Baker's whole body trembled. In all his years of running this school, this was the first time he met someone like Tom, who brought his own chair to class.

Vice Principal Baker also disliked Olive more and more. Like father, like daughter.

Olive smiled bitterly at Tom Hart's divine logic. She stepped forward and pulled Mia's arm, gracefully saying, "Mom, let's not bother them anymore. If this place doesn't welcome us, there will be another."

At this time, Mia took a step back, "Darling, I listen to you."

Tom glared at Vice Principal Baker, wanting him to regret it. He turned to Olive, "Olive, let's change the medical university. Let's go to Watson University. Principal Harris is a kind person."

Mia quickly denied, "No, among the medical universities in Imperial, Bright Star University is ranked first and University A is last. In University A, there are some rich second generations who are cheating. The atmosphere there isn't good, and its reputation is bad. If Olive falls into that lowly place, she will be laughed at." Olive smiled, "Okay, I will take the entrance exam to Watson University,"

Tom Hart and Mia brought Olive to Watson University, and President Harris of University A warmly welcomed them, "Mr. Hart, welcome to A school. The main principal of Bright Star University hasn't been there for many years, and vice-principal Baker is becoming more and more arrogant. I think your daughter is very smart and talented."

Chapter 257 The young lady just arrived at school

Mr. Harris is a person with a good temperament. He is one of the few intellectuals who likes Tom Hart.

In the previous rape case, Vice Principal Baker only handled it in a timely manner for the sake of the school's reputation. Tom made a fuss on the National People's Congress Day, and Harris Harto felt very satisfied because of it.

In the past few years, University A has been in decline, and the learning atmosphere was getting worse and worse. It was placed at the bottom of the list by the Royal Medical College. Mr. Harris and vice principal Baker were classmates in the past, but now every time they meet, vice principal Baker acts arrogant as if he wants to crush him. So Harris Harto was only in his forties but his head was almost bald.

Tom happily smiled and said: "Mr. Harris, you get good vision. If you accept my daughter Olive, I guarantee you will be happy in the future."

"Master Hart, I respect you very much. Of course, I like your daughter, too. However, the school has its own rules. I still need to know your daughter's school records."

When Alpha took Elvis away three months ago, he erased all of Olive's memories of Los Angeles. The power of capital is too strong.

And Olive, 13 years old at that time, was sent to Bright Star University, a first-class medical school, which rejected the three of them. This refreshed the entire history of Bright Star University and set the latest record in the medical field.

However, Olive, who became a double doctor at the age of 15, was selected to participate in a secret study, so all her academic degrees were sealed as confidential records by Bright Star University and couldn't be disclosed.

When Olive was at Bright Star University, vice-chancellor Baker hadn't yet been promoted, and he was still the dean of science. She had no impression of him.

There is a gap between the class of gifted youth and the average student of Bright Star University. And five years later, vice president Baker might have made an impression on her, but he couldn't remember it anymore.

Every year, the Academy of Sciences recruits students from these medical universities. She didn't want the Hart family to be stuck between her and Bright Star University. Since she couldn't enter Bright Star University, going to University A was also a good choice.

Olive only hopes that she can retrieve the second treasure box her mother left behind when she arrives at Imperial this time.

"Mr. Harris, for some reason, I can't tell you my past academic results, but here I have a letter of introduction from Director Sebastian of The Ivory Council of Los Angeles." Olive took out the introduction letter.

Principal Harris and Director Sebastian Robert were both in the same circle, so naturally they were acquaintances. He opened the letter of recommendation, looked at it, and said in amazement, "I know Director Sebastian very well."

Olive looked at Principal Harris with a bright expression, "Principal Harris, you can accept me first. Isn't there an entrance exam coming up? You can see my exam results and decide if I'm a student here or not. I believe that if you are willing to invest in me, you will definitely not lose."

Chapter 251 the young lady jud amived at school

Mr. Harris looked at the light in the girl's eyes. Her calm and radiantness made people feel comfortable and convinced. Harris Harto's depressed heart suddenly pounded, he had a hunch, this girl will rewrite the history of this lowly place.

He found the treasure.

"Okay, I accept you."

Olive chose to major in domestic medicine. The school bell rang, medical class 2 was a class where all the students just liked to have fun, there was no serious learning atmosphere.

At this point, Principal Harris came in, patted the table, "Be quiet."

After all, he was the principal, the students showed a little respect and all quieted down, but all fell asleep on the table.

Principal Harris felt that sooner or later he would lose all his hair. These kids didn't obey the discipline and he was under great psychological pressure.

Swallowing his anger, he said: "Guys, today we have a new classmate in our 2nd grade Medicine class. Her name is Olive Hart. Let's welcome new friends."

Olive entered from outside the door.

"Don't sleep, wake up quickly, our new classmates are so beautiful."

"Don't disturb me. The most beautiful girl in Bright Star University is Crystal Robert, who is the beauty queen. Can this girl be prettier than Crystal?"

"That's right, I'm going to sleep for a while. After school, I will go to Gate Bright Star to meet Crystal Today there must be a lot of people looking at Crystal."

"Shut up. Look at this new classmate, she's actually prettier than Crystal"

"This new girl is prettier than Crystal, the beauty queen of Bright Star University."

The students who were lying on their desks preparing to sleep raised their heads one by one and saw Olive standing next to Principal Harris.

Olive changed into Watson University's uniform. It was a white shirt with a navy blue collar, underneath was a navy blue pleated skirt, which fitted around the knees. Her legs were slim, white and straight. She wore a pair of white shoes. Her figure was extremely well-proportioned and exquisite, her skin was as smooth as a flower, making people unable to take their eyes off.

She had tied her black hair into a low ponytail, several strands of hair wrapped around her snow-white neck. Although she wore a veil and her face couldn't be seen clearly, her eyes could be seen as clear and captivating when they looked into them.

After Olive was reincarnated, her demeanor became more refined, and her beauty shone much

Inore.

“Wow.”

Class 2 was exploding. Everyone’s eyes were glued to Olive like a magnet, they wondered if she was a fairy.

Wearing the veil didn’t affect her beauty at all, on the contrary, it added a mysterious look, making people just want to take it off.

Olive obediently stood up. She said in a clear and soft voice, “Hello everyone, I’m new. I’m Olive. Hope you can help me in the future.”

Wow.

the voices of the little fairies were so cool, weren’t they?

Some classmates were drooling.

The second medical class, which was normally noisy and bustling, was now silent, surprising Principal Harris. This beauty really worked.

In fact, Principal Harris was also surprised that a family like the Hart family could give birth to such a beautiful daughter. In terms of looks alone, Crystal, the beauty queen of Bright Star University, was about to be defeated.

Headmaster Harris had almost tasted the sweetness of victory, and couldn’t help but laugh out loud a few times.

“Olive, sit next to Alicia.” Principal Harris arranged.

“Okay.”

Olive sat next to a girl named Alicia. Alicia had never seen such a little fairy before, actively helping Olive pull the chair.

Olive smiled friendly. Thank you.”

Alicia, a girl, felt her heart heat like she was about to die.

Olive was currently attracting attention in Imperial’s elite, especially the phone call during Crystal’s birthday party that made her famous in the first battle. So the news that she passed getting into a ranked lasBright Star University quickly went viral, and it also reached Noah White’s ears.

Chapter 258 Elvis saw her in the crowd

When Noah heard the news, he was racing with some rich guys, and everyone mocked him.

“Young Master White, I heard this morning your father-in-law took your fiancée to Bright Star, and your fiancée wanted to get in Bright Star.”

“Unfortunately, vice-principal Baker personally shut down the gate, completely refusing to let them in.”

Then your fiancée went to Watson, and I heard that she was accepted. Watson is the worst medical university, but your fiancée was very difficult to get into. What a shame. I thought she would inherit the Hart family.”

Noah took off his car cap, exclaimed, “What? That clown went to medical university?”

Bright Star didn’t let her in, she was in Watson, the worst school.

Noah felt that he lost all face just because he and that clown were engaged.

Last time she humiliated him over the phone, he hadn’t dealt with her yet, now it’s time to work things out together.

“Let’s go, I’m going to Watson to stop that clown. Today I have to cancel the marriage anyway, or I’ll be ridiculed for the rest of my life.” Noah said, heading to Watson.

Everyone saw that something funny was about to happen, immediately got excited, followed along and said: “Young master White, wait for us, we will go with you to see the true face of your fiancée.”

At Bright Star University.

Crystal had also heard about Olive, and the students around her talked to her excitedly.

“Crystal, your cousin Noah’s fiancée has entered Watson. I heard that the Harts came to Watson this morning to make a fuss, scaring the vice-principal.” I also heard that Young Master White led people here to stop Olive at the school gate, it will be a good show.”

“Crystal, after school, let’s go to the school next door to see.”

Bright Star and Watson are neighbors, very close, just a few steps away.

Seeing the excitement of the people around, Crystal was a little unhappy. She didn’t know how Olive became famous, now she’s getting a lot of attention.

She used to be the center of attention, but now everyone will see Olive in Watson. She felt a bit lost. Even though people would go there just to see the joke, she was still not happy.

Furthermore, what was so interesting about Olive? It wasn’t worth her time at all.

Crystal looked at her watch, gave a sweet smile, got up and left, “Sorry, I don’t have time, you can see for yourself. Elvis said he came to pick me up after school, it’s time. I have to find him.”

“Crystal, you are so happy, now you are a little girlfriend in love.” Everyone was jealous.

Crystal is happier now. This was her life, she grew up in envy and praise. She waved her little hand and left.

Medical Class 2.

When the school bell rang, the students couldn't stand it anymore, quickly ran to Olive's side, surrounding her.

"Olive, this is chocolate my mom brought back from Germany, now I give it to you, let's make friends."

"Olive, where is your home? I'll drive you home."

"Olive, here is a note I wrote for you you must read it."

Surrounded by enthusiasm. Olive smiled politely. "Thank you for your love. We're classmates, we've been friends from the beginning, I can't accept anything you give me. I'll go home first, see you tomorrow." Olive left the classroom with her bag on her back.

Everyone stuffed all the presents into her desk drawer. It was so full that the gifts fell out. Then they ran after Olive.

This has become a wonderful sight, a most beautiful sight. People surrounded her in the middle, and the group was vibrant.

Alicia laughed and said: "Olive, don't be afraid, we haven't been to Watson for a long time. They all crossed the wall to Bright Star to see Crystal, the school's beauty queen. Now you're here, they'll all look at you. You're the new baby doll they're fighting for."

Olive curled her lips to show that she understood.

At this time, many people took out their cell phones to take pictures and posted Olive's photos on the forum, with the title "Warmly welcome the new beauty of Watson."

At this time, a luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom slowly stopped in front of the gate of Bright Star. Elvis Augustine came to pick up Crystal.

He didn't get out of the car, but slowly slid down the driver's window to let fresh air in, waiting quietly.

At this time, there was a sudden uproar in front, a group of people appeared at the gate of Watson, it was the rush hour for students to leave school.

He glanced there with his deep narrow eyes, then moved away gently, but after two seconds, he looked back again.

Elvis saw Olive surrounded by the crowd at a glance.

The girl's slender figure immediately caught his eyes. She was wearing a school uniform, no different from what the girls around her wore, but still completely stood out among them.

She has the most beautiful figure in the same clothes, her body is like a weak willow, her curves are delicate and attractive to the extreme. Her snow-white skin makes people feel like touching. She carried a small black backpack. Overall beautiful, elegant and spotless.

Elvis's pupils shrank fiercely. He didn't know what was stabbing his heart. He just stared at the slim figure, his eyes burning hot.

It hurt. It hurt. Crystal saw him and happily ran out. Handsome Elvis sat in the driver's seat of a Rolls-Royce, holding the steering wheel in one hand. But he was looking at a girl, staring. Because he was so focused that he didn't notice his surroundings, didn't even blink.

Crystal had never seen him look at a girl with such eyes.

He was always indifferent, even when he was with her. Even when she kissed him, he didn't reciprocate. She assumed that he had no interest in girls.

But now, he was looking at a girl with passionate eyes.

Chapter 258 vism her

Today Crystal also discovered something unusual. Normally when she finished school, there would be a lot of people gathered in front of the gate of Bright Star, especially the rich young masters of Watson who would rush to peek at her. Although she didn't like those guys, this was already a habit.

Today, those people didn't come.

Nobody came.

Crystal raised her head to look at the entrance of Watson. It was crowded with people, people who usually looked at her surrounded the other girl.

Crystal looked at Olive Hart.

At this time, a dazzling red sports car stopped in front of the Watson gate.

Noah led a few young masters to come, arrogantly said: "The clown of the Hart family is really weird. Hurry up and get her out."

Chapter 259 A love that couldn't be hidden

When Noah shouted, everyone's eyes were on him, someone said: "Isn't this Young master White? Why did you come here? Who is the clown of the Hart family?"

Some rich boys from Watson know Noah, and sometimes they hang out together. Noah laughed, "Didn't the clown of the Hart family take your entrance exam to Watson today? Call her out. Tell her Young master White is looking for her, her name seems to be Olive Hart."

Olive Hart?

Everyone gasped in disbelief. Noah was looking for the new fairy at their school!

“Young Master White, are you looking for Olive Hart? You must have a problem with your eyes to tell that she is ugly. She is a little fairy.”

A little fairy?

“Phew!”

Noah laughed. Could the Hart family give birth to a fairy?

“You’ve never seen a little fairy? If you haven’t, I suggest you go next door to see my cousin Crystal. Well, wash your eyes well.” Noah sneered.

At this time, a clear and soft voice sounded: “Noah White, are you looking for me?”

Noah looked up and saw a slim figure from the crowd slowly walking in front of him, and Olive stepped out.

Noah’s pupils shrank, he froze in place, looking at the exquisite and beautiful girl in front of him in amazement. What a fairy.

He actually saw a little fairy.

She was that clown.

Some of the rich boys Noah brought along were also dumbfounded. They came here to watch a joke, but Olive caught their eye with a pretty face. And now she looked at them with shining black eyes. Those eyes looked at them calmly, almost sucking their souls in.

They had never seen a girl with such a magical aura.

“Damn it, Noah, why didn’t you tell us the daughter of the Hart family was a little fairy?” “Young master White, you are so lucky. Your fiancée is so beautiful!”

“Even if Crystal stands here, she will lose.”

Noah felt the crowd behind him was too noisy, shouting, “Shut up.”

Then he looked at Olive. His fiancée had turned from a clown to a little fairy, like a dream. He wanted to laugh, but he tried his best to hold back, loudly saying: “Yes, I came to find you. You are my fiancée.”

“Once, not now.” Olive replied.

Noah hesitated, “What do you mean?”

Olive was holding a jade bracelet in her slender hand, she returned it to Noah, “You came just in time, I was going to look for you, too. This is the engagement item of the White family and the Hart family. Now I return it to you, we break the engagement, don’t look for me in the future.”

Chapter 259 A love that could not be hidden

Noah was happy inside. Olive was so beautiful, how could he cancel the marriage? But he didn’t expect Olive to splash cold water on his face, and cancel the engagement first.

So he was rejected.

So that

Noah stared at Olive with wide eyes. "What do you mean? Dare to break my engagement? I don't agree, your words have no value."

Olive looked at Noah. Didn't he want to cancel the engagement?

Olive pursed her red lips, her beautiful eyes blinked, "Are you angry because the marriage was canceled? Or do you not want to cancel the engagement?"

"You break the engagement, of course I'm angry, if you want to cancel the marriage with me, I have to cancel the marriage."

"Oh," Olive nodded. "I agree."

Only then did Noah realize that he had been trapped by her, and he voluntarily admitted that he was the one who broke the marriage.

"Noah, let's be fair to each other. You deny me once, I deny you once, we're free again. Everyone here can testify." Olive said with a smile.

At this time, the students of Watson all nodded in agreement. "Yes, we are all witnesses, our little beauty from Watson has returned to being single. Long live single! After this we will all have a chance."

"Young Master White, have fun, I'll go first." Olive didn't even look at Noah, calmly leaving. Seeing the slender figure of the girl leaving. Noah was so angry that he vomited blood. This was the second confrontation between him and Olive, and he was knocked out again.

On the other side, Crystal looked at Olive's beautiful figure, and then she realized that their temperaments were quite similar, but Olive's temperament was amazingly quick. Regardless of her delicate figure or milky white skin, she was one step ahead. Compared to Olive, Crystal was like a low-end version.

An alarm bell rang in Crystal's head. Her hostility and insecurity came quickly and accurately. She doesn't like Olive.

"Elvis." Crystal called him.

Elvis was staring at Olive, and of course watched the whole scene just now. She turns out to be the daughter of the Hart family and Noah's fiancée.

At Crystal's birthday party yesterday, she was also the woman who talked on the phone with Noah, leaving him speechless and helpless.

Hearing Crystal's voice, Elvis averted his gaze and looked at her faintly, "Get in the car."

His demeanor was very indifferent, his handsome face devoid of any emotion. Crystal was very jealous inside. He had never looked at her with such eyes.

But she didn't dare to be petty in front of this man, so she obediently sat down in the passenger seat: "Elvis, let's go."

"Okay." Elvis stepped on the accelerator.

Olive took two steps and saw the luxury Rolls-Royce Phantom in front, the luxury car driving towards her, passing her face.

Olive stopped, and through the front windshield, she clearly saw Elvis sitting in the driver's seat.

Today he wears a black shirt, his handsome face is like a sculpture. It's been three months without seeing him, her heart couldn't stop pounding.

In the morning she chased his car and lost him. Now that she saw him again, her bright eyes fell on his handsome face, and she couldn't take her eyes off.

The luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom didn't stop but passed her.

Olive didn't move for a long time, her eyes following his figure in the car. She knew next to him was a beautiful little family, the co-driver's seat was no longer hers.

There was no room for her beside him.

Olive felt pain in her heart, and her beautiful eye sockets gradually turned red.

Elvis was driving, but he calmly looked at the girl behind him through the rearview mirror. There was never a shortage of women around him, just looking at the eyes of the women who admired him could tell what they meant.

So why was she looking at him like that?

It was a love that couldn't be hidden.

When her figure disappeared, Elvis withdrew his gaze, his throat rolled up and down twice.

Chapter 260 Meeting at the Imperial Bar

Crystal sat in the passenger seat, of course seeing Elvis still watching Olive disappear after the luxury car left. She hit her lip angrily and said, "Elvis, today I want to visit Mrs. Samantha, the nutritionist that I studied has just made a very good recipe for Ms. Samantha's body.

Crystal knew that Elvis loved his grandma the most, so she planned to start with Mrs. Samantha and win her affection first.

Crystal still believed in her profession as a nutritionist. She could definitely adjust the taste and body of Mrs. Samantha, and then she could take a step closer to Elvis. Elvis could no longer see Olive behind, he looked away and nodded, "My grandma's appetite is getting worse. I plan to hire a professional dietitian to take care of her. I'll call her first, and if she doesn't refuse, I'll take you there." "Okay." Crystal meekly smiled.

Olive made a phone call. It rang for a while, and then Mrs. Samantha's old voice said, "Hi Elvis."

"Grandma, how's your taste today? Crystal wants to visit you and make a new dish for you, can we go there now?"

Mrs. Samantha on the other end of the line stopped and suddenly asked, "Elvis, are you with Crystal?"

Crystal hurriedly said: "Yes, Mrs. Samantha, today Elvis came to pick me up from school, and we're going to see you now."

Mrs. Samantha on the other end of the line was silent for a moment, then refused: "No need to come here. I ate very well today, but I'm so sleepy. I'm going to bed first. So I'll hang up."

Mrs. Samantha then hung up the phone.

Crystal's enthusiasm was extinguished in an instant. No matter how stupid she was, she could tell that the old lady didn't want to be close to her. She pouted her red lips in displeasure: "Elvis, did I do something wrong? I always felt that after Mrs. Samantha went to Los Angeles for seven years, she didn't like me anymore."

Something flashed in Elvis' deep narrow eyes. His grandmother was really unusual, she hung up the phone just because he was with Crystal.

If he remembers correctly, his grandmother's biggest wish is that he can get married and have a beautiful child. It was only natural for Crystal to appear next to him, but his grandma was not only unhappy but also cold and refused. Elvis looked at the road ahead and said in a low voice, "Don't think too much, I'll take you to see her another day."

Was he going to take her home? Didn't he have any plans for the evening?

"Elvis, let's go to dinner together." Crystal suggested, looking at him expectantly. Her favorite is at romantic candlelit dinner.

"I don't have time tonight, I already have an appointment." Elvis refused.

She was extremely disappointed, "Okay, let's make another date."

Elvis took Crystal to her house, then he took Phoebe to the Imperial Bar. He actually had an appointment. Raven came to Imperial from Los Angeles. In the luxury bar, Elvis was sitting on a dark red sofa, he glanced at Raven next to him, "Why did you come to Imperial?"

It's been a while, Raven was still very handsome, the gold-rimmed glasses on his face reflected his cold black eyes. "I'm here for a meeting, I'll be back in two days. How are you?" He said.

Elvis picked up the wine glass and took a graceful sip of the red wine: "I'm good."

"There are rumors that the Augustine and the Robert family are getting engaged. You've been very close with Crystal lately, do you really intend to marry her?"

Elvis shook the red wine in the glass, then looked at Raven, ‘I was stabbed down there, did you know that?’

He couldn’t remember that memory, it could have happened in Los Angeles. Since Raven was the one who grew up with him from a young age, he was able to know about it.

Course Raven knew about this, but he couldn’t say that it had anything to do with the woman named Olive Hart, he glanced down at Elvis’s black pants, “What? Can’t you do it with Crystal?”

Elvis kicked him.

Raven ignored the footprints on his pants, curled his thin lips and said, “So it’s true. Don’t doubt your body. There’s nothing wrong with your body. Try another woman.”

Elvis glanced at him, half-smiling. “With such experience, it seems that you aren’t working for Jane, but to deal with physiological needs.”

Raven kicked him back, “Better than you. You have no desire now.

Elvis teased, “Why so angry? North Paulo is currently collaborating with Fly Jewelry, and she hasn’t talked to you in a long time. Look at your angry face.”

The two swam back and forth, intending to fight.

This surprised Peterson on the side, but he was even more shocked when he heard his young master was stabbed by a knife and now impotent.

Peterson quickly went out and found Ray to chat, “Ray, let me tell you a secret. The young master was injured, and now he is impotent.”

Ray glanced at Peterson with a numb face, “So you already know young master’s secret. Dead people won’t reveal secrets, I’m considering whether to silence you or not.” Peterson:

..

At this moment, the door to the deluxe room opened, and Elvis came out and asked, “Where’s Phoebe?”

Peterson looked around, too bad he didn’t know when Phoebe was lost.

Elvis’ handsome face darkened, “Go and find it.”

At that time, Olive was also here for a date.

As she was walking towards the luxurious rooms, the sound of a cat meowing suddenly rang in her ears.

This meow was so familiar, Olive hastily turned her head. Phoebe spread her legs wide, excitedly ran to her feet, stretched out her toenails to grab her shoes, looked up at her with wide eyes, and let out a series of meows.

Phoebe recognized her and followed her all the way.

Olive’s bright eyes quickly filled with astonishment, she knelt down and hugged Phoebe to her chest, “Phoebe, it’s me, I miss you so much.”

Olive happily stroked Phoebe's snow-white fur.
"Meow-"

Phoebe wanted to say "Madam, I miss you so much, you are here, I can't take it anymore. As long as you're not with your man, he'll be taken by other girls." Olive was so happy she was about to cry. She didn't think Phoebe would go to Imperial either. Did Master Augustine bring her here?
At this moment, in her ear came a deep, masculine voice: "Phoebe."
Olive and Phoebe raised their heads at the same time, and saw a tall and handsome figure walking in the front corridor, Elvis had arrived.
