Chapter 261

Chapter 261 Fall in his chest

Elvis came forward, tall and long-legged, standing in the hallway in front of her, one hand in his pocket, the champagne-colored lights of the hallway illuminating his handsome face from every angle. He wore a black shirt and black pants, delicate, luxurious and seductive. "Meow-

Phoebe cried out twice.

Olive didn't expect to meet him in the Imperial bar, she froze on the spot. Elvis came here to find Phoebe. Normally Phoebe is very clingy and never leaves him. Every time a girl appeared around him, Phoebe would meow violently, as if asserting her own sovereignty. He didn't know what the cat was trying to assert.

Today Phoebe suddenly disappeared, when he found it, he saw the scene in front of him in the hallway, his little Phoebe being hugged by a delicate girl. He didn't know how to describe it, but her expression was so sweet.

Phoebe, who maintained an inexplicable hostility towards all the girls, unexpectedly fell obediently in the girl's arms. As the girl's small hand slipped through its soft white fur and kneaded, Phoebe felt very comfortable.

"Meow-

Phoebe called Elvis two more times. "Boss, look, your wife's[] here. Stop finding anyone else," it wanted to say that.

Elvis stepped forward with his long legs, stopping in front of Olive. He'd seen her in the car after school in the afternoon, but now that looking at her closely, he could see her beauty shining. Her bright, clear pupils, which were already beautiful, were now more like stars, sparkling when looking at him.

Unfortunately, her face was covered with a veil, so he couldn't see her face.

"This is my cat." Elvis said with his deep voice.

"Oh," Olive's eyelids fluttered slightly as she spoke. She suppressed her pounding heart, handing Phoebe to him, "Just now it followed me, so I hugged it. Here you are."

He looked at her, reaching out to pick up the cat.

Phoebe didn't want to go with Elvis, her little legs struggled wildly, grabbed Olive's long hair and pulled her hard. "Ah."

Olive let out a low groan, her slender body fell forward, and the next second it was against Elvis's warm, vital chest.

Their bodies were glued together in an instant, and the pleasant, clear man's scent quickly invaded her senses.

Olive raised her bright eyes and looked at him in surprise.

Elvis didn't expect such a thing to happen, either. Now her slender soft body touched his lap, her small face looked up, her clear eyes looked at him, like those of a bewildered deer.

Elvis felt his heart being gently scratched by the kitten, both painful and itchy. This girl is very similar to little Phoebe.

"Are you okay?" Elvis asked in a low voice.

Olive shook her head, I'm fine, I'm sorry"

"Then let go first."

Only then did Olive realize in her panic, her small hands clutching his black shirt, now her fingertips had pierced the delicate expensive fabric to touch the strong muscles on his waist. They were tough, full of masculine strength. Her fingertips suddenly felt like they were on fire, and even her snow-white earlobes turned red. She let go of her small hands and hurriedly took two steps back.

Today Olive tied her hair in a low ponytail with a butterfly headband. Phoebe took off her headband, she stepped back, her long black hair flowing like a waterfall, drawing arcs that sparkled in the air.

At this moment, a soft, seductive voice suddenly came from behind: "Olive."

Olive turned around, and North Paulo came.

North Paulo wore a wide knee-length black elastic dress today, her enchanting curves and soft lazy aura exudes elegance in the dress. Her hair is flowing gently, her face is small, her red lips are bright and her teeth are white. She's so attractive as a red rose that has just bloomed. "Olive, come here."

Olive walked quickly over, "North, you're here."

North pulled Olive to her side, then raised her willow eyebrows at Elvis in front. "Mr. Augustine, this is my best friend. She didn't offend you, did she?"

Elvis glanced at Olive, "No."

"Well then, Olive, this is Mr. Augustin, the business magnate of Imperial. If you offend him, we won't be able to survive in the Imperial." She said and smiled.

Olive nodded, "I get it."

"So Mr. Augustine, we 'll go first." North Paulo took Olive's small hand and led her away.

The two stopped looking at him and chatted: "Olive, you broke off your engagement with Noah White?"

"Yes."

"It's better to cancel it early, there are many good men in the family, you can choose at will.”

Elvis didn't hear their conversation anymore. They went to the bar and ordered two cocktails. One of them is as pure as crystal, the other is as bright as a summer rose. Soon they caught everyone's attention.

At this time, a waiter brought two cocktails: “Miss, these cocktails were given to you by the gentleman over there.”

Someone was enthusiastic about giving them drinks.

Elvis didn't leave but stood there watching, at this time, Raven's low voice sounded in his ear, “What? Do you like them?”

Elvis glanced, Raven had gone out, and now he was lazily leaning against the corner of the wall and looking at him.

Elvis frowned, “What's wrong with you and North Paulo? Her sharp words are aimed at me, won't she blame me?”

“Come on, I won't blame you for this. North Paulo just has a problem with you. She hasn't talked to me lately, she said that because I was your friend and I would be like you.” Raven looked at Elvis. He meant Elvis was the one who got him involved.

Elvis didn't know when he offended North Paulo. She is a rose with thorns. His deep narrow eyes fell on Olive's delicate figure. “She and North Paulo are best friends.”

Raven glanced at Olive with cold black eyes. Even though they were strangers, Elvis's gaze was still drawn to her in an instant.

“Yup, I heard she's the youngest daughter of the Hart family. That must be true. She was lost at a young age and grew up in a village in Los Angeles.”

Raven said nonchalantly. Elvis didn't answer, his handsome face was covered by the dim darkness and couldn't be seen clearly. “Relax. I'll go first,” said Elvis.

Then he left with Phoebe in his arms.

Chapter 262 Secretly Hiding Her Butterfly Headband

Elvis took Phoebe back to the Red Villa, went to the study room to process documents, returned to the bedroom to take a shower, and then went to sleep.

This time he didn't fall asleep as fast as usual. He opened his palm, and in his palm was something, which was Olive Hart's butterfly hair band.

In the bar, when her pure black hair fell down, this butterfly hairband was grabbed by Phoebe, and was taken home by him.

Elvis brought the butterfly headband to his nose and took a breath, the sweet scent of the girl entering his nostrils.

Exactly the same scent he smelled on her.

In the bar, she had touched him, so close that he could smell her scent. This scent is not like the artificial perfume on other women, but her natural body odor. Very sweet and pleasant.

"Meow-"

At this moment, the sound of the cat meowed in his ears.

Elvis looked up and saw Phoebe lying in her cave, looking at him with disgust as he smelled the butterfly hairband. "Hey, master, are you a p rvert?" It wanted to say so.

Elvis even forgot that there was such a small cat in his bedroom. Now despised by it, he immediately pursed his lips, not knowing what had happened to him. Stealth bringing back a girl's headband is really a p erv ert. Elvis turned over, hid the headband under his pillow and closed his eyes. He fell asleep, for three months he slept until dawn, never dreaming anything, but today he had a dream again.

In his dream, he saw Olive, the fragile girl he pushed into the corner. He ducked under her veil and kissed her red lips, Soon, she let out a small cry. In the dream, her transparent eyes looked at him both enticed and angry. She resentfully said: "It hurts. Why did you bite me?"

He buried his handsome face in her hair, covering his red eye sockets, and said with a hoarse, nostalgic voice to her, "Sorry."

Elvis suddenly opened his eyes and woke up from his dream.

The room was quiet now, the moonlight shining through the curtains outside. His hard chest rose and fell, his throat was dry, his whole body was hot. He raised his hand to cover his red eyes, they were exactly the same as in the dream just now.

What was wrong with him?

He really had a dream.

He didn't know if he had pressed her butterfly hairband under the pillow, his nostrils and the room seemed to be filled with the scent of her sweet girly body.

Elvis lifted the blanket, quickly got out of bed, went to the bathroom, and took a cold shower.

Cold drops of water fell from the top of his head, and he closed his eyes.

Olive's small veiled face

Chapter 212 Secretly Hiding Her Bulletly Headband and her glittering pupils both stuck in his mind.

Elvis is 28 years old this year, he has reached the very e age of men. He never believed in lightning love. For people like him, love is a luxury. But today he saw Olive in the crowd. The first sight of that girl made him feel very unusual.

He really had a desire for her.

He once suspected that there was something wrong with his body, because he was incompetent, so he found a psychologist for this, but when he met her, he recovered without treatment.

What Raven said was still ringing in his ears. "There's nothing wrong with your body, try another woman."

Elvis narrowed his beautiful eyes, Raven was right, he really needed to change another woman. His handsome eyes were filled with lust, he reached his hand down.

Gosh

Crystal received a message from Noah and rushed over, she pushed open the door of the luxury room. Inside was a series of famous and wealthy second generation young ladies. Noah was drunk. There were empty bottles of wine on the table.

Everyone teased him. "Young master White, how are you today? I heard you broke off the marriage and were single again. This is worth celebrating, why do you still seem so unhappy?"

"I think young master White is regretting it. He originally thought that the daughter of the Hart family was a clown, so he wanted to refuse, but he didn't expect her to be as pretty as a fairy."

"You have never seen Olive of the Hart family, have you? Let me tell you, if you see her, understand how sorry Noah is right now."

you'll

Everyone was talking excitedly, at this time someone saw Crystal coming, quickly gave up the middle seat, "Crystal, you're here, quickly sit here."

Crystal sat next to Noah, she snatched the wine bottle from Noah, "Cousin, stop it], do you really like Olive?"

Noah mumbled, "L.."

At this time, someone took out a mobile phone and opened the Watson forum.
"Crystal, look here, everyone look at this. Today Olive just entered Watson and has been praised as the new beauty queen."

Crystal looked up, a photo of Olive was posted on the Watson forum. The sun was setting, and the girl in school uniform was holding several books in her hands.

Unfortunately Olive wore a veil, so they couldn't see her face.

Everyone was very curious about this.

Crystal withdrew her gaze. Olive didn't interfere in their circle, but now that she is famous, she is almost the center of attention.

Crystal pursed her lips, "That's right, why is Olive Hart wearing a veil? There must be no flaws on her face, right?"

Olive has a beautiful aura, everyone thinks she is a beauty. But listening to what Crystal said, everyone seemed to be enlightened.

BELEEEUS

Why was Olive wearing a veil for no reason? How can a girl hide her beauty? Is her face really that pretty?

"I think it's most likely because she's actually an ugly monster."

Crystal thought this way. If Olive Hart is such a great beauty, why is she covering her face? Unless she's so ugly she can't show it.

Noah quickly came back to life after being reminded like that, he was still sad about the loss of the little fairy, but if Olive really was an ugly monster, things would be different.

Noah immediately cursed: "Damn, Olive is definitely an ugly monster. I was almost deceived by her lies. She made fun of me twice in front of everyone. I have to find a way to deal with her."

"Noah, how do you want to deal with her?"

Noah thought for a moment, then excitedly said: "She wants to cover her face, doesn't she? Tomorrow I will go to Watson to stop her, then tear off the veil, so you guys can see her ugly face."

The whole luxurious room was bustling, everyone excitedly exclaimed: "That's great! Young master White, tomorrow we will join the fun."

Chapter 263 Stopping Olive at Watson's Door

Noah is a person who likes to joke, he doesn't consider it a big deal either. He decided: "Then all of you have to come tomorrow, not only you but call all your friends. I'll let you see her true face."

"Okay, that's a deal."

Crystal took a sip of the juice. She didn't participate, in fact just said one sentence, nothing else.

Noah made such a fuss, lest the vast majority of the elite would be shocked. There's bound to be a good show tomorrow.

Crystal recalled Elvis sitting in the luxury car staring at Olive. Elvis certainly won't be absent from the big show tomorrow, right?

The next morning.

Olive arrived at Watson, when a luxury private car accelerated and stopped, the driver respectfully opened the door, and Crystal got out.

Olive looked at Crystal, and Crystal was looking at her, too. Today Crystal is wearing a princess dress, staring at Olive with condescending eyes.

As the jewel of the Robert family, the daughter of the richest man, she has the right to be arrogant in front of everyone.

Olive saw the hostility in Crystal's eyes, and there seemed to be a bit of gloating in her eyes.

"Crystal, you're here, let's go to school together." At this time, the girls ran over, enthusiastically surrounding Crystal Crystal quickly showed an innocent smile. She is very popular, whether in the celebrity world or in school. She has the shy personality of a girl, but she has no temperament, everyone loves her.

"Okay, let's go in." Crystal followed the other girls into Bright Star.

Olive gently withdrew her gaze and also entered Watson.

Medical class 2.

Olive entered the classroom, and Alicia angrily said, "Olive, I'm going to die of anger."

"What's going on?"

Alicia pushed the phone over, "Olive, look it up yourself, the Watson forum has been hacked since last night. People are talking about you, saying you're a fairy if you wear a veil, and you're a clown if you take it off."

Olive glanced, a large forum yesterday posted her photo, saying that she was a little fairy of Watson. But since last night, a lot of people have rushed in, one after another posting malicious comments.

"What kind of fairy is she wearing a veil? Is she capable of taking off her veil?"

"Watson's reputation is rotten, can they have beauties?"

"The real beauty of Bright Star is Crystal, and the beauty of Watson is a joke."

These people not only humiliated Olive, but also tied her to Watson and humiliated Watson.

Many students surrounded her, angry saying:

"Olive, don't be sad. These are the guys typing in the dark corners, their mouths rotten to death."

"Olive, in our eyes, you are the beauty queen of Watson. No matter how you look when you take off your veil, we support you."

Every school has a cohesive force. Although Watson's students don't study well, they are very good at working together to fight in groups.

Of course, there are practical reasons for this. In the Royal College of Medicine, Watson is at the bottom, and they are mocked everywhere. As time passed, they had no friends outside, and they got along very well together.

Although Olive only entered Watson school yesterday, her slender and beautiful aura convinced everyone. Watson has a beauty queen and they all protect her like a treasure.

Olive was very touched, the students who sleep in this class have a lot of bright spots. Regarding the had comments on the forum, she didn't take it seriously. Apparently someone hired people to blackmail her and Watson.

"Olive, it's not okay. There is one more important thing I want to tell you, Noah has mobilized half of the upper class people to stop you at Watson gate in the afternoon. He will tear off your veil and let everyone see you as a joke."

Olive blinked her slender eyelids, suddenly thinking of Crystal's gloating eyes. Is she happy about this?

Noah brought many people to tear off her veil.

It's okay.

In fact, she could take it off too.

Alicia and the other students' expressions changed, as if they were facing a formidable enemy. Apparently they were all brainwashed by bad comments online, thinking that Olive's face actually had some flaws.

"It's not good, Olive, or you should take a day off today to avoid Noah's group."

"Yes, Olive, you should avoid it first. Whether you got burned as a child, had a large scar on your face, or a birthmark, it doesn't matter. I know a very good plastic surgeon who can help you fix it."

"Don't talk nonsense. Olive must have felt very uncomfortable because of her face."

Olive wanted to laugh, she also curled her red lips. She looked at everyone with shining eyes, her voice was clear and calm: "Thank you for your kindness. I willn't hide it. Noah and the others can come if they want. It's not a big deal. Just relax, go back to your seat and study harder, the entrance exam will come soon."

Olive's eyes were filled with wisdom and calm, and she quickly reassured those who were restless, her eyes extremely steady and reassuring.

Everyone returned to their seats, but instead of studying, they just stared at her slim body. Why does such a beautiful fairy have a defect on her face?

Unfortunately,

In a flash, it was time to end school. Crystal knew the great moment was coming so she took out her cell phone and called Elvis.

The cell phone rang for a while, then Elvis' deep voice came: "Hello," Crystal quickly put on a sweet smile, "Elvis, where are you now? Can you pick me up from school?"

"I'm busy today, so I can't go." Elvis refused.

Crystal was stunned. Elvis can't come?

"Elvis, I think Watson seems to be very noisy. My cousin Noah and a bunch of people blocked Watson's gate, as if trying to block Olive. Noah wanted to take off her veil. But my cousin and the others say that when Olive takes off her veil, she must be very ugly, even though she has a good temperament. Otherwise why is she wearing a veil? Elvis, are you really not coming? Elvis was silent for a few seconds and then said, "No." He immediately hung up the phone.

Chapter 264 Take care of your wife!

Crystal put the phone away, she couldn't tell what Elvis was thinking. Is he interested in Olive or not?

If so, why didn't he come?

Crystal thought over and over. What kind of woman has never seen a man of status and power like Elvis? He's attractive. There was never a shortage of temptation around him, he wasn't a man who would be easily attracted to a girl's beauty. Maybe he doesn't know anything about Olive.

Crystal herself had never let a girl like Olive in her eyes, and she wasn't worthy to be her opponent.

Thinking of this, Crystal felt relieved.

But she still wants to go see this wonderful performance in person, she is very curious about how ugly Olive's face is under the veil

Elvis was currently in the hospital, as Mrs Samantha suddenly lost consciousness and was taken to the hospital.

Elvis stood in the corridor, tall, long legs. His handsome face was filled with bitterness. He glanced at Lily, "Why did my grandma faint?"

These years. Lily maintained her body very well. She looked like a graceful maiden in her thirties, vaguely able to see the great beauty of youth.

Now she sadly looked at Elvis's face and said: "Elvis, this can't be my fault. You know her taste. She can't eat anything, I take care of her every day with all my heart, but she'll be old later on. All you have to do now is prepare yourself if she dies."

Elvis grabbed Lily's arm and said in a cold voice, "You'd better tell me the truth."

After saying that, he pushed Lily away.

Lily was unsteady, embarrassed, and took two steps back, almost falling down. But at this moment, a strong arm reached out, grabbed her waist, holding her steady.

She raised her head, her eyes quickly showing love and joy, "Alpha, you're back."

After so many years, Lily's passionate admiration for Alpha hasn't faded, and was still as fresh as when he was young.

Alpha had just returned from abroad, wearing a thick black wool coat. His personal butler, Aiden, was standing behind him, reverently holding a black handbag.

Alpha's body was filled with backpacking fatigue, but for a middle-aged man in his fifties who already had high status, it only added a little depth and majesty. He stabilized Lily and then let go. Looking at Elvis, "Elvis, she's your stepmom after all."

Elvis looked at Alpha, sarcastically, "You don't think it's disgusting for sisters to serve the same husband, but I hate the word stepmom."

When this topic was brought up, Lily froze.

Alpha was indifferent, without any ripples in his eyes, he glanced at Lily, "Go ahead."

Lily never dared to disobey this man, and she also knew that this emperor-like man liked obedient women, and that her younger sister Yingluo was too fierce at the time.

"Okay, Alpha, then I'll go back first."

Chapter 2 Take care of your wiki

Lily turned to leave, and before leaving, he glanced at Elvis.

No matter how much she investigated, she didn't know how much his mental illness had been cured. Years ago she used words to stimulate him, he should have fallen ill long ago. But this time when he returned from Los Angeles, he recovered and became a normal person.

Lily really didn't want that. She took such a long time to turn him into a psychopath, but now he has recovered and he still inherits the Augustine Empire.

Lily looked at Alpha hauntingly again. Elvis, the son Annabellae left for Alpha, still holds the most important place in his heart.

Now there are only two men standing in the hospital room, the atmosphere between father and son seems to be frozen. Elvis said in a low voice, "I'll take my grandma to my mansion. Take care of your wife, don't let her run around. If not, I wouldn't mind helping you teach her."

Alpha looked at the old woman who was still comatose on the hospital bed, indifferently said: "What are you suspecting? Doubt that Lily harms your grandma? You have overestimated Lily and underestimated your grandma. Your grandma never valued Lily all her life."

Elvis took Grandma's cold old hand, "Does Grandma have something to hide from me?"

“Why are you asking that?”

“Rely on my intuition.”

“Your grandmother’s taste is very bad right now. No matter how much you try to cure it, it will be useless. Grandma’s greatest wish is that you can get married and have children. If you want your grandma to be cured, then go for it. Get along with the Robert family. Hurry up so that grandma can hug her grandson. That’s something you should be thinking about right now.” Alpha said.

Elvis said no more, he just stood quietly by his grandmother’s bed.

Alpha looked at him for a moment, then turned to leave.

It was time to end school, Olive was packing up her books when someone burst in, “Olive, Noah and his gang have arrived, are currently blocking the school gate, shouting for you to come out.”

Olive holds the book in her hands and carries a small bag on her back, “Tsk tsk These people are so impatient. I get it, I’m coming immediately.”

Many people gathered around saying. “Olive, you really don’t want to hide.”

“The school gate is the battlefield, the sports cars driven by those people have taken over the road here, all are waiting for you.”

Olive smiled, “It’s very exciting, I’ll go see it.”

At Watson’s Gate, Noah brought a crowd of people here. He laughed: “Why hasn’t the Hart clown come out yet? Did she know we were going to intercept and tear her veil? Because she was luding her face, she was scared and hid like a turtle.’

Watson is also full of rich second-generation guys, and now everyone is guarding the door, stopping Noah and his gang, and the two are facing each other.

In front was the student union president and basketball team captain Jimmy. He was tall and handsome. He looked at Noah and the others, saying “If you want to find female students in Watson University, you have to ask us to see if we agree Crystal, watching the excitement, was a bit surprised. Jimmy and these boys used to be her fans.

Of course Noah was also surprised. But in his opinion, the people at Watson were completely deceived by Olive's slender and beautiful temperament, and he was also deceived yesterday.

"Jimmy, it seems that you are determined to protect Olive today. I remind you, Olive is a clown. If you are still confused, waiting for me to tear off her veil, you will have to slap yourself in the face." Noah said arrogantly.

Jimmy and the others didn't budge, 'Noah, Olive are Watson's fairy. I think you're only here to cause trouble because you feel humiliated by her annulment."

Noah's blackheart was hit. He exclaimed, "What?"

People on both sides were furious, and it looked like a fight would begin in the next second.

At this time, a clear and soft voice sounded: "Noah, aren't we already annulled? Why are you looking for me again?"

Jimmy and the others quickly got out of the way, and Olive's slender figure appeared in front of everyone.

Olive is here.

Noah met Olive yesterday, but when he sees her now, he will still be attracted to her. Especially now that she was calmly standing in front of him like a lotus in a lake, without any dodging.

He is restless. Her shining black eyes looked at him. The name "Noah" that just came out of her mouth sounded very pleasant. He staggered.

But Noah quickly recovered, looking at Olive, "The Hart family clown, that's right. It's me, Young. master White came looking for you."

"What did you come to see me for? Olive curled her red lips, "Didn't I tell you not to come looking for me again? Do you like me?"

"Phew!"

Jimmy and the others standing beside Olive couldn't help but laugh.

Noah's face darkened, he angrily said: "Who likes you? Don't be fooled.

Today I will remove your veil. These people here are all deceived by you. I will show them your face to see how ugly you really are."

Jimmy quickly said: "Olive, don't be afraid. No one can force you to do something you don't like, we will protect you."

"Olive, we're all on your side."

Olive felt warm, said in a sweet voice: "Thank you everyone, I understand your feelings, but Young Master White brought so many people here, I can't let them go back with nothing. I can lift this veil."

Noah and the others didn't expect Olive to be so straightforward, isn't her clown face embarrassing?

"You clown, what are you doing?" Noah asked suspiciously.

Olive beamed, "Noah, you're so weird. You wanted to expose me, I agreed. But now you suspect me of cheating, or you should go back and think twice. Come see me after you've thought clearly about it."

Noah was stunned and speechless. This Hart clown was too sharp, he couldn't argue with her.

But in his heart he always had a bad premonition, thinking that he would lose miserably. Is this clown a real beauty?

Noah hastily denied this. Why could it be? How could she be a beauty?

"Clown, if you want to find death, then I must help you lift your veil." Noah rolled up his sleeves and wanted to move on.

"Wait a minute," Olive suddenly exclaimed.

At this time, the rich guys brought by Noah joked one by one,

"Olive, you finally got scared."

"You dared to pretend just now? You act very well."

"Why don't you admit your mistake to Young Master White and see if he can help you?"

Olive glanced at those people, then looked directly into Noah's face, "I mean, if you ask me to take off the veil, I'll take off the veil, isn't it boring? Let's bet. If my veil were lifted and I wasn't ugly, you would provide breakfast to all the students at Watson, and you would treat us to breakfast for a year"

This suggestion was quickly accepted by all of Watson's students.

"Okay. Noah, do you dare to bet?"

"It covers our breakfast for a year and it has to be five-star standards."

"Doy

you dare?"

Noah met the eyes of those people, also irritated by Olive's arrogant attitude.

A clown who dares to bet with them, she really wants to die fast.

Noah nodded, "Okay, I agree. Olive, stop playing mind games with us. I'll take off your veil and see what the outcome is."

Noah came in front of Olive, raised his hand to lift the veil from her face.

Olive didn't move, but said, "Wait a minute."

"What's wrong? Are you scared?"

Olive smiled and said, "You just have to remember our bet, I'll take off the veil myself. Take hand back."

Noah: "..."

Olive raised her slender white hand and slowly lifted her veil.

Everyone held their breath waiting for this moment, countless eyes fell on her small hand. They all wanted to see her true face.

Crystal was standing in a hidden spot in the crowd. She didn't want to participate, she just wanted to be an outsider, but now her heartbeat suddenly became intense, and she stared at Olive.

Olive gently removed her veil, revealing a small, beautiful face with the size of a hand.

The audience gasped, everyone was surprised to see Olive's small face, temporarily forgetting to breathe.

Her skin was as white and silky as a newborn baby's. Because she's so pretty, there's a sense of purity, making people feel that just looking at her is like insulting her.

Olive originally had a delicate temperament, but now with this beautiful little face, she irritated. Pupils of all present suddenly shrank.

She is too beautiful. She is absolutely a little fairy.

Jimmy was stunned, he was the first to react.

"Olive, is it really you? I've never seen a girl as beautiful as you."

Chapter 266 Top 1 of school beauty

Watson's students were overjoyed, and Noah couldn't help but be surprised. They almost had their hearts and souls stolen by Olive's delicate and beautiful demeanor.

The most important thing these boys and brothers lack is a girlfriend, but they have never seen a girl as beautiful as Olive, and even Crystal, the beauty queen of Bright Star, is not as beautiful as her.

The moment Crystal saw Olive's real face, her whole heart "banged" and then she fell into the abyss. She couldn't believe it when she saw Olive's pretty little face. What was covered by a veil was not ugly, but an outstanding beauty. Olive's clear eyes looked at Noah, "Noah, you lost this bet, so from tomorrow on, you'll try to prepare breakfast for all of us at Watson. I have work to do, I'll go first."

Olive lifted her legs to leave, and her figure gradually disappeared from view. Noah was still staring at the direction in which Olive disappeared, his mind filled with her beautiful face. Turns out she was actually a fairy, and he lost. But how can she be so beautiful?

The friends around pushed him.

"My G aod, Young Master White, Olive is so pretty!"

"Noah, that's my fiancée. No, she's not your fiance anymore."

Jimmy looked at Noah and said, "Noah, you have nothing to do with Olive now. She is the beauty queen of Watson school. You better not have any wrong thoughts about her. We will protect her."

"Noah, you should arrange breakfast for us soon."

Jimmy and a group of people swaggered away, before leaving excitedly said: "Did you take a picture of Olive and put her picture on the Watson forum to hide your stain?"

"I feel like I'm dreaming. Watson has such a beautiful fairy. Schoolgirls from other medical colleges can't compare to Olive."

"Even though we don't have high grades, the school's beauty is number one." Everyone arrogantly left, leaving only Noah and the others.

Noah slowly regained his composure. His emotions were like a wave rushing towards him. Mixed with surprise is shock and regret.

How did he know that Olive had such good looks?

However, it was too late and could not be saved anymore.

He lost his chance.

Noah got into the car without saying a word, ignored these people, got in the sports car and drove off to the bar drinking.

Crystal froze in place, her pretty little face turned ugly. She is not only the beauty queen of Bright Star, but also the number one beauty. But her title was shaken by Olive.

Watson's recent students were clearly inferior people. She doesn't even take them seriously, and they don't even look at her when they leave.

No, it's disgusting!

Crystal returned to Robert's house, entered her room, took out her phone and entered the Watson forum. Sure enough, a photo of Olive was posted.

People left messages,

“Oh my g od, I didn’t expect Watson to have such a beautiful fairy.”

“I heard that Noah brought a bunch of people today to remove the veil of the school’s beautiful fairy, but was hit in the face. Noah is currently drunk in the bar, according to eyewitnesses, Noah was very drunk but still called Olive’s name.”

“Olive was originally Noah’s fiancée, but his engagement was annulled. We express our deep sympathy.”

“Olive suddenly appeared, the list of beauty queens of Imperial schools is about to be brutally wiped out.

“With Olive’s beauty, the beauty queen of other universities cannot compete, only Crystal, the beauty queen of Bright Star, remains. Do you think Olive can beat the number one beauty in Imperial?”

Crystal quickly opened the list of beauty queens of the schools. The Miss list was shuffled and Olive, as Watson’s Miss, jumped directly to second place on the list.

Sometimes a pretty face is really a strength that others can’t compete with. However, Crystal is still in 1st place.

However, the netizens below argued,

“Comparing the looks and auras of these two, I vote for Olive.”

“The school’s beauty list was to test the overall strength, Olive was rejected by Bright Star so she entered Watson. Miss Watson beat all the universities in Imperial, isn’t this the biggest joke of the year?”

“In terms of looks, I also vote for Crystal.”

Currently, people online still tend to support Crystal. Crystal comes from a noble family, has a good. background and has accumulated many years of relationships. Olive just arrived at Imperial, and she was unable to take Crystal’s place in everyone’s mind again, so her number 1 position is very stable.

Crystal turned off the phone, but she still didn’t pay attention to Olive. A wild girl who appeared out of nowhere is not worthy to be her opponent.

The next morning.

Olive went to Watson and entered Medical Class 2. Alicia quickly handed her a bottle of fresh milk, “Olive, someone came to deliver early breakfast this morning, all thanks to you. We all have to thank you. many friends, we have never received such courtesy, and now we are all famous.”

Olive took it, plugged it in a straw and took a sip, she smiled, “Alicia, we all grew up in Watson, we’re both happy and miserable together.”

Olive didn’t wear a veil today, Alicia was a little crazy looking at her pretty little face. Olive is really beautiful.

“Olive, you’ve placed 2nd on the school’s beauty list, but you still haven’t beat Crystal, the head of Bright Star. Actually, you have to crush her in terms of looks. It because we’re in Watson, everyone doesn’t like us.” Alicia said angrily.

Olive has no interest in these things, she pulls Alicia’s hand, “Alicia, let’s learn.”

“Okay.”

The two were about to go to class when suddenly a person came over, it was Noah.

Noah was still wearing yesterday’s clothes, he had spent the night in the bar, his body reeked of alcohol, looked worn out and gloomy.

Now he looked directly at Olive, his eyes hardened.

Alicia quickly stood in front of Olive. “Noah, what are you doing? You’d better not mess around, or I’ll call security,”

“Alicia, it’s okay, rest assured.” Olive pulled Alicia behind her, looked at Noah with clear eyes. “Young master White, what’s wrong?”

Noah strode over, took out something and gave it to Olive. “This is the dumpling I bought for you. I kept it in my chest all this time, it’s still hot, hurry up and eat it.”

Chapter 267 Starting today, he officially pursues Olive Alicia suddenly opened his mouth wide, surprised to see the play boy in front of him. Is his brain broken?

He even bought buns for Olive and hid them in his chest the whole way. This is not his style.

Olive’s eyelashes trembled slightly. Her shining eyes looked at Noah: “Noah, thank you for the dumplings. I appreciate your kindness, but I can’t accept it.”

Noah has dated many girlfriends, but he has never flirted with a girl like this, and now he has been rejected.

“Olive, why don’t you accept my dumplings? I was wrong before, from now on, I will officially pursue you!” Noah confessed.

Olive:” ...”

“Young

At this moment, there was a dry cough, and Principal Harris came over. He looked at Noah, Master White, we’re almost at school. If you have something to say, tell Olive after class.” Noah steadfastly looked at Olive, “Olive, I’m not joking. Remember my words, I’ll definitely chase you!TM

Noah left after that.

After leaving the gates of Watson School, Noah is surrounded by several rich boys, “Young Master White, what’s your plan? Why did you come to Watson School so early in the morning?”

Young Master White, who are you going to give the dumplings in your hand to? Da mn it, you can’t... You brought Olive’s breakfast yourself, right?”

Noah stuffed a steamed bun in his hand to a friend. He spent the night in the bar, and all he couldn’t get out of his mind was Olive’s small and pretty face. He was sure he had to get her.

In fact, before she took off her veil, he was tempted, but because of his own dignity, he didn’t want to admit it, so he made it difficult for her.

Now Noah has made up his mind. He wants to pursue Olive and take such a beautiful fairy as his wife.

She was his fiance. When he thought of this engagement, he wanted to vomit blood.

“You guessed it right, I brought Olive’s breakfast. Da mn it, I’ll go after Olive from now on. She’s the one I like, you better not bully her or play tricks on her!” Noah swore an oath of sovereignty.

These rich sons immediately became overwhelmed,

“Noah, are you serious?”

“I think pursuing Olive is very difficult. When you were arguing like that before, she definitely won’t agree with you.”

Noah got into his sports car and confidently said, “Just wait and see!”

Olive and Alicia returned to the classroom. Alicia said in surprise, “Oh my god, Olive, I thought Young Master White was joking, but he really wants to pursue you.”

The other students in the class gathered around the window and saw what just happened, and everyone said, “Olive, Noah is a pla yboy. Don’t be fooled by him!

“But it’s funny to see Noah all the way holding a steamed bun, he also has today.”

“Olive, you are the beauty queen of Watson. Watson is full of handsome guys. If you want to find a boyfriend, you also have to find him at our school.”

Olive sat on a chair and took out a book, she didn’t expect that Noah would have a crush on her. Of course she wouldn’t agree.

“Cough cough.”

At this point, Principal Harris coughed and came in and said, “Didn’t you hear the bell for class? What's wrong with your ears? Go back to your seat! Everyone hurried back to their seats, and then Principal Harris said, "The annual basketball game will be held in a week. Years ago, our Watson basketball team might have finished second, but when it came to the tournament, if the game gets too big, it will be more difficult. For years people have laughed at us as losers, not doing well in school, nor doing well in entertainment. If I were you, I would be ashamed to death. Every time Bright Star's vice principal Baker sees me, he rushes at me. I'm bald because I'm angry!"

Speaking of basketball games, Mr. Harris was very angry. Watson was completely crushed by Bright Star.

Jimmy is the captain and main player of the basketball team. He immediately said: "Principal Harris, our strength isn't bad, but do you know why we lose every year? It's because we have no cheerleaders!"

This topic was quickly recognized by the whole class. Everyone cheered up: "Principal Harris, look at the Bright Star cheerleaders years ago. Their captain is Crystal, the school's beauty queen. Their uniforms are all custom made. All in miniskirts, led by Crystal, they twisted their waists and legs to shout cheers, come on, of course they're motivated."

"People say that when men and women work together, they will win. Look at our cheerleaders at Watson, they're not good looking, their clothes are plain and loose."

"Well..."

"Come to think of it, Principal Harris, there is a problem, Bright Star cheerleaders are so cool. Every year Crystal takes the cheerleading team to a game, it's the best view in the entire basketball court. But Watson's students could only envy, they all even surrounded Crystal. How can we win?"

At this time, Jimmy stood up and said: "But Mr. Harris, this year is not like previous years. Watson has a queen beauty, this time we will let Olive be the cheerleader for the basketball game. Come on!" All eyes were on Olive, "Okay, let Olive be the cheerleader, we promise to go first!"

Principal Harris also looked at Olive, and he was momentarily stunned when he saw the girl's beautiful face. He couldn't understand how Tom Hart could give birth to such a beautiful daughter. Is it because of a genetic mutation? But Principal Harris's eyes were shining, because he was also very happy inside. The students of Watson are also very good-looking, not less than Bright Star.

Chapter 267 Starting today, he officially pursues Olive

Principal Harris ordered, "Olive, everyone wants you to lead the cheerleading squad, will you agree?"

Everyone looked at Olive expectantly.

Olive thought for a moment, nodded and said: "Yes, I agree.

She is of course willing, she is a part of Watson now, and she will do her best to fight for the honor of the team.

"Great!" Principal Harris and all the students were excited, but they were quickly faced with a real problem, "Olive, since you're leading the cheerleading squad, you're bound to have to fight Bright Star's cheerleading squad. We mustn't lose a single round of this battle, otherwise it will definitely affect our morale, but we are very hard to win. The uniform, the dance, even the hairstyle, the makeup of the Bright Star team are all arranged by Crystal, she is very experienced. She invited Imperial experts to make them and kept the whole process secret. They are all high end products."

"That's right, Olive," Alicia also said, "Don't think that cheerleading is a simple thing. The annual Imperial school basketball games are when cheerleaders earn more money than in the US. Everyone has shown their best form, but Crystal always wins championships. She cares about the cheerleaders and has a strong desire to win."

"Olive," said Principal Harris, "Do you have any experience in cheerleading?" Everyone looked at her expectantly, but Olive shook her head, "I have no experience, this is the first time."

"Huh?"

"However," Olive hastily laughed, "I could find someone to help, but the one I'm looking for can't be compared to those gold medal teams."

Everyone asked curiously: "Olive, who are you going to ask for help?"

"For the time being, I will keep it a secret. After school, I will invite the cheerleaders to gather at the gate. There will be a basketball game in a week. Time is tight, we have to hurry to practice." Olive said seriously.

Looking at Olive's bright and steadfast eyes, everyone's hearts calmed down. There is a persuasive force in her. They all believed that Watson cheerleaders appearing on the basketball court a week later would surprise everyone.

At Bright Star.

Crystal was practicing when team member Audrey ran over and said, "Crystal, I just heard that Olive is the cheerleader of Watson this year."

Crystal didn't show any surprise. Olive is the beauty queen of the Watson, currently she is ranked 2nd in the list of the beauty queens of the university, she is definitely the captain.

"Crystal, Olive is very popular right now. Because we are already familiar with the beauties of those universities, and now a new face has suddenly appeared, they are praising her on the forum. And now a lot of college students are looking for her. They are looking forward to the basketball game that will feature Olive."

Crystal curled red lips. This couldn't be better. The more people pay attention, the more people will see how she beat Olive in the basketball arena. Let's see who will be the embarrassed one.

"But Crystal, no matter how hard Olive tries, she will be defeated by you." This was the perception of nearly everyone.

"Okay, Audrey, let's not talk about Olive anymore. I told you to contact North Paulo, the Red Rose in the entertainment industry, have you contacted her yet?" Crystal asked.

When it came to North Paulo, Audrey quickly became excited. In the world of celebrities, whether in Los Angeles or Imperial, there is no one who doesn't know North.

In the last two years, North has grown to the highest level. She was the most popular female star. Just that the international luxury brands she represents, whatever clothes or travel bags related to her, are bought by young ladies. North is currently a fashion star of the entertainment industry.

North was born with a pure and charming small face, lazy and arrogant personality, she is definitely the most beautiful rose.

These women were very jealous of her. Although their background is much higher than North who is in the entertainment industry, they also want to live like North, who turns all beings upside down. The so-called love and hate is probably like this.

"Crystal, I contacted North's manager, but they gave a reply, saying that North has been working with Fly recently and can't spend more time teaching us dancing. Audrey said disappointedly.

This is also the first time Crystal has been rejected. She is the daughter of the richest man, no one dares to despise her like that. North is just an actress, that's why she's crazy.

But everyone knows that North has a backer, and this backer is very strong. Recently, she obtained Fly Jewelry thanks to cooperation with the Augustine family.

Crystal temporarily didn't want to approach North to avoid causing trouble. Her hands are always very clean.

"Crystal, North did the fire dance last year and this dance became popular on the Internet, so our cheerleaders also did this North dance last year, and it really made the audience excited. North's team are all masters. I heard that other female stars have spent tens of millions poaching her royal makeup artist, but North herself has a taste. Her fashion style is very unique. If we invite her to cooperate, we will definitely win this time, but who knows that North is so arrogant? What a pity!"

Crystal pulled her fist, "Forget it, if North doesn't want to cooperate, then we can't waste time with her. Now time is running out, let's cooperate with Lucy Moore."

Lucy Moore is also a hot female star in the entertainment industry. She and North have always been rivals, they compete with each other very fiercely. Moreover, Lucy Moore comes from a French dance troupe, so her choreography is very professional. Before North entered the entertainment industry, she was always the best. Her strength can't be underestimated. Crystal has always been very stable at work, Lucy Moore is willing to cooperate with her. But inside, Crystal still wanted to invite North, anyway, North has a natural sense of fashion.

"Okay Crystal, Lucy Moore is enough for us. Olive will rent a flock of chickens. She probably doesn't even know who North is. We're just waiting to see a good show. Let's wait and see. At the basketball game that day, she was going to get slapped in the face."

Crystal nodded. Yes, she couldn't invite North, but Olive couldn't meet North, either. So this didn't affect the overall situation.

Olive probably didn't know that basketball games over the years were all held in Summer Square, and that Summer Square was the territory of the Augustine Group, Elvis, the president of the Augustine Group, would appear to attend the student basketball game at Imperial schools that day, and she wanted to defeat Olive in front of Elvis.

She wanted to let Elvis know that she was the brightest star and always would be.

After school, Alicia brought all the cheerleaders to see Olive. They are all the prettiest girls in Watson, although their looks are still inferior to those of Bright Star.

Alicia curiously asked, "Olive, where are you taking us? Are you going to practice dancing? What kind of dance are we going to do this time?"

Olive blinked her slender eyelashes, and said secretly, "Just go and you'll find out."

Olive took everyone to a building, took the elevator to the 18th floor, and was greeted by Miss Jones, "Miss Hart, hello, North still has a few photos to take. Let me take you there first."

"Okay." Olive nodded.

At this time, Alicia whispered: "Olive, why do I think this girl looks familiar, I think I've seen her somewhere before."

"Yes, she's very strong and capable, she seems to be the manager of... a big star, isn't she?"

There was a whisper.

A girl took a deep breath, then exclaimed: "I remember. She seems to be Miss Jones, Red Rose's manager in the entertainment industry... North Paulo's manager!"

"North Paulo?" Everyone gasped in surprise, "No way! You remember wrong! Olive brought us to find North Paulo?"

"Last year, Crystal danced with North's big cheer squad. It was amazing for the audience."

Everyone didn't believe it.

At this time, Miss Jones brought Olive and the others into the studio, and they quickly saw a graceful figure shining in the spotlight.

It turned out to be North Paulo.

The whispers resounded.

"Oh my God!"

Alicia and the others rubbed their eyes, afraid that they would be dazzled, but it was really North. They weren't wrong.

In addition to her pure and attractive small face, North's figure is also extremely difficult to imitate. Her figure is flexible and soft like a water snake, which is the gold point that has been appreciated by foreign media the most. With one "click", the photographer finished the final photo, "Pretty, it's perfect."

Photographer said it was perfect and he really meant it. North is very sharp in front of the camera, her every frown and smile attracts everyone's attention. No matter how she is photographed, she is beautiful.

Now North is the most famous woman in the industry. The most complimented on the collaboration. with North is that, firstly, she coordinates very well, secondly, she is naturally beautiful. They don't need to spend a lot of time editing photos in the later stages. She's simply a pose queen, and will never be exposed in front of the crowd.

Two small assistants stepped forward and put a beige coat on North's shoulders, Olive affectionately hugged her slender arm: "North, you've worked hard."

North lifted a hand to brush a strand of hair from her cheek to behind her shoulder, then tapped Olive's forehead with her fingers, "Are you using such a sweet voice to ask me to help you?"

"Yes, of course. I don't know anything. Cheering is completely your specialty."

"Where are your girls? Did you lead them all here?"

Olive quickly turned her head, and gestured to Alicia and the others who were standing at the door in fear, "Alicia, come quickly, what are you doing?"

Alicia and the others stared blankly at North over there, not daring to move.

Someone surreptitiously. pushed, Alicia passively took a step forward, then she decisively pulled everyone away in front of North and Olive.

"North, everyone is here. These are cheerleaders."

North looked at the faces of these people one by one with her charting eyes.

Alicia and the others nervously tugged at the corner of their shirt. They have all seen North Paulo, the Red Rose, on TV. Now seeing her in real life, they feel that North is more delicate and prettier than On TV. With her fashion sense and flair, she makes it very easy for girls to feel self-conscious.

Alicia and others felt like they were ugly ducklings.

At this time, North withdrew her gaze and said softly: "The base is a bit weak, but I will prepare for you I have beautiful women under my hand."

Olive happily curled her red lips, she knew that giving it to North wouldn't be a problem, North was very good at this.

"North, what kind of dance are we doing this time? I'll tell you first, they all don't know... the basic choreography," Olive said, a little embarrassed.

Alicia and the others blushed even more.

At this point, Miss Jones came over and said. "North, last year the cheer team at Bright Star did your fire dance. The cheerleaders there all have dance skills. After we refused to cooperate with Crystal Robert, she immediately cooperated with Lucy Moore.”

Miss Jones deserves to be the gold agent, since North decided to intervene, she gathered the first news immediately.

“What? North, Crystal wants to cooperate with you?” Olive asked in surprise. She’s just heard about it.

North nodded, “Yes, she tried to convince me for a long time, but I refused.”

Olive affectionately looked at North, “North, that’s the daughter of the richest man. If you don’t keep her face, aren’t you afraid she’ll be mad at you?”

North glanced at Olive, “What are you afraid of? If she dares to bother me, I will go to Elvis Augustine and tell him to deal with her.”

“This is called using someone else’s hand to kill. Men are the best weapons to attract women. Olive, you have to learn more.”

Olive and Alicia nodded as if they were digesting it.

North returned to the main topic, “Lucy Moore is a professional, everyone on Crystal’s team is also very good at dancing. Those two have a good chemistry and both want to win. This week they will definitely practice intensely. They’re all hard and complicated dances because they want to prove themselves. We won’t fight them. We’ll dance a simple dance, the kind that’s easy to learn.”

North’s decision was very precise, and it seemed that she was right.

Olive didn’t have any opinions, they listened to what North said.

North looked at Miss Jones again, “Sis, I will measure their height and measurements, then make them custom clothes. As for the hairstylist and make-up artist, the royal team is ready. These days I will teach you dance in person. As long as you study hard, I guarantee that you can beat Crystal’s Bright Star cheer team on the day of the basketball match. Are you confident?”

Alicia and the others were filled with enthusiasm. They would be personally taught to dance by North, and enjoyed the treatment of the top royal team, all of which was like a dream.

Was there any reason not to work hard?

Was there any reason not to be confident?

Alicia and these little girls shined brightly, became extremely beautiful, and said in unison, “Yes, we are!”

Olive nodded, in fact, they were half successful.

Five days quickly passed, and all the colleges and universities in Imperial were urgently training. The boys played basketball, the girls practiced dance to prepare for the competition.

That day, North hugged Olive and said. "Olive, there's something I hesitated for a while but still wanted to tell you."

"What's wrong, North?"

"Olive, Mrs. Samantha is sick."

What?

Olive's heart tightened, she asked, "Why is Grandma sick? Isn't Grandma's body always healthy? Why is she sick? What can I do now..."

Olive asked many questions in quick succession, North interrupted her, "Olive, calm down, I know you'll be nervous when you hear the news. Although I don't like Elvis, but I care about Mrs. Samantha. If something bad happened to Mrs. Samantha and I didn't tell you, you'd be unhappy for the rest of your life."

"Since three months before Mrs. Samantha returned to Imperial from Los Angeles, she has had no appetite, her mind is dizzy. It is said that a few days ago she fainted at home and was taken to the hospital. She had just woken up there for a few days. Now Elvis has taken her to his villa to take care of her, but the situation is still were bad. Mrs. Samantha has stopped eating. The doctor told Elvis and the others to prepare themselves."

Chapter 270 She's so nice.

Olive's face turned pale. She didn't expect her to be so sick after only three months of leaving Los Angeles.

At that time, she didn't say goodbye to Mrs. Samantha because she was afraid she would be sad. Second, she felt that as long as Elvis got better, grandma would be fine, and she would live a long life. Who knew that things would turn out this bad?

Grandma was already old. Once she didn't eat, there wouldn't be many days left.

"Olive, I think the old lady is very heartbroken. Although Elvis is her grandson, the old lady still loves you like her own blood. You disappeared because of saving Elvis, she was too sad and was sick, that's why." North said.

Olive's eyes were red, "North, now I have to go see grandma, I'll find a way to make grandma recover! But now grandma is in the Red Villa of Elvis, how can I get in to visit grandma?"

"I heard that Elvis is hiring a chef who is a nutritionist. Olive, you can go for an interview so you can have a reason to take good care of her."

Olive's eyes lit up, "Okay."

In the Red Villa.

Ms. Betty has served Mrs. Samantha for decades. Mrs. Samantha's health isn't good at the moment, Mrs. Betty has followed her every step closely. At this moment, the villa doorbell rang

"Who is that?"

Betty ran out of the kitchen, quickly opened the villa door, outside was... Crystal Robert.

"Miss Robert, why are you here?" Betty asked in surprise.

Crystal gave a sweet smile, she lifted the bag in her hand, "Mrs. Betty, I know Mrs. Samantha hasn't been eating well lately. I'm a nutritionist, I recently created a recipe for Mrs. Samantha and just added another dish. My people bought the ingredients, and I come here to visit Mrs. Samantha."

Betty stepped back and said, "Miss Robert, you are so kind, come in."

Crystal came in and asked, "Where's Mrs. Samantha?"

"Upstairs room. I just gave her nourishment, she's sleeping right now."

"Then let's prepare a nutritious meal first, so that when Mrs. Samantha wakes up she can eat."

"Okay."

Two people came into the kitchen. Crystal gave the recipe and ingredients to Mrs. Betty. She is the lady of a noble family, of course she can't cook. She explained to Mrs. Betty how to do it.

Mrs. Betty began to prepare a nutritious dinner according to her words. Now as long as they benefit the old lady, she is ready to do it.

An hour later, the door opened, Betty hurriedly said, "Young Master must have returned."

"Let me go and see." Crystal happily ran out, soon she saw a tall handsome figure at the door, it was indeed Elvis who had returned.

Chapter 270 She's so nice,

Today's Elvis wears a handmade black suit, expensive fabric that has been ironed carefully, his straight shoulders tinged with the coldness of the outside world.

"Elvis, you're back," Crystal exclaimed happily.

Elvis lifted his long legs to enter, his deep narrow eyes fell on Crystal's beautiful face, "Crystal, why are you here?"

Crystal quickly ran into the kitchen and brought out the nutritious meal that Betty had just prepared, showing him like showing off a treasure.

"Elvis, this is a nutritious meal I prepared for Mrs. Samantha. How's that? I'm good, aren't I?"

This nutritious meal was made by Mrs. Betty, now Crystal spoke as if she cooked her own food for credit in front of Elvis.

Betty said nothing. She could see the girl's carelessness, moreover Crystal was very concerned about Mrs. Samantha. Of course Betty couldn't compare to her.

Mrs. Betty thought of Olive again, if the young mistress were still here...

Elvis's gaze softened. Crystal is a very smart girl, she has never flaunted that she is the daughter of Robert's family, even she will actively lower her pride in front of him to please him. Although he didn't like this, he was still a little more sympathetic.

"Then let's go upstairs to visit Grandma."

"Okay." Crystal said excitedly.

In the room, Mrs. Samantha was awake. In the past few days, except for drinking water, she relies on parenteral nutrition, now she is thin and weak, and her spirit isn't good.

"Grandma, are you awake?" Elvis asked, hastily helping the old woman up, placing a cushion behind her, "Crystal came to visit you, grandma."

"Mrs Samantha," Crystal said, meekly approaching her, "I have wanted to visit you for a long time. Long time no see, I miss you so much. I heard that you are anorexic, so I have prepared a nutritious meal for you. Please eat some."

Mrs Samantha looked at Crystal and said softly, "So it's Crystal, I'm fine, don't worry."

"Mrs Samantha, please don't be too polite with me. I'll feed you the soup."

Sitting by the bed, Crystal scooped up a tablespoon and blew it, then brought it to Mrs Samantha's mouth.

Mrs Samantha opened her mouth and drank the soup.

Crystal immediately rejoiced. But just as she was about to take a second spoon, the old lady bent down and spat out the soup.

"Old lady!" Betty hurried forward and patted Mrs Samantha's back.

Crystal didn't expect the old lady's reaction to food to be so severe right now. Her heart was still full of ambition to use her nutritious meals to treat the old lady's illness in order to please Elvis..

Elvis took a warm towel to wipe the old woman's mouth. The old woman no longer coughed, she was extremely tired, and waved her hand: 'Elvis, take Crystal home. I don't want to eat anything. I just want to rest."

Chapter 250 She's so nice.

Elvis didn't dare to disobey, softly said: "Grandma, then I will take Crystal home first."

The two left the room, and Crystal looked at Elvis with disappointment and pain, "Elvis, I'm sorry."

Elvis pursed his lips and calmly said, "It's not your fault. These days the chef cooks nutritious food, and Grandma throws up after eating one mouthful. I'll take you home first."

In the room. Mrs. Betty wiped the old lady's hand, "Old lady, you must be happy. Look, the young master is always at the bedside, worried about your health, and wants to feed you by himself. How can you abandon the young master?"

The old woman sighed, "Betty, I've been dreaming these last few nights. I dreamed of... Olive..."

Mrs. Betty was stunned.

"I've lived most of my life, never doing anything I regret, but now I regret it day by day. I shouldn't have let Olive marry Elvis... If it weren't for saving Elvis, Olive is still living in front of me... I'm too selfish..."

Mrs. Betty knew that the old lady was mentally ill. Betty's eyes turned red, she could only hold the old woman's hand tightly, "Old lady, if the lady is still alive, seeing you like this, she will be the first to feel heartache... The lady is a good child. She is really nice...."
