Chapter 291

Chapter 291 Do you dare to accept my challenge?

She left.

Betty stood there looking at Olive's slender figure, her eyes filled with reluctance, "Olive left too soon. I thought she would stay a few more days, but she left so suddenly. I feel so empty.

Betty's eyes were red as she spoke.

The old lady was most reluctant to let Olive go, but she didn't keep her. She knew that as long as she kept her, Olive would definitely stay.

However, she didn't have the face to say something like that anymore.

Olive once died for Elvis, how can she make the Augustine family a burden to her now?

She was no longer Mrs. Augustine. The Augustine family didn't give her the same protection and honor as before, so why should she continue to devote herself here?

No one can stop this girl's footsteps, she should go further and become a better version of herself. The old woman looked at Elvis from the other side, "Elvis, you can go see Olive. I'm in good health right now, you still haven't paid Olive, right? Olive is not our family member, she doesn't have to work for us for free."

Elvis was silent for two seconds, then got up and walked out.

Olive was walking on the grass. As steady footsteps came from behind, a large hand reached out and grabbed her slender wrist.

Olive stopped and turned around. Elvis's exquisitely handsome face was magnified endlessly in her view, he was staring at her with deep and displeased eyes.

"If you have something to say, say it. Release me!" Olive forcefully pulled her wrist back.

But it couldn't be, because Elvis held her tight, "Are you really going?"

"Grandma's health has almost recovered, and I don't need to stay."

Elvis looked at her beautiful hand-sized face. Is it possible that besides Grandma, she no longer has any regrets?

Elvis took out a gilded black card and put it in her soft white palm, "Here's your reward, you deserve it, take it."

Olive looked down at this gilded black card. Previously her Mr. Augustine gave her a gilded black card, too.

"I don't want this card, and it's not convenient to use it to withdraw money. I'm here. In a few days you can just give me 100 dollars in cash," said Olive.

Olive returned the black card to him and turned to leave.

Elvis froze in place, watching the girl's slender figure gradually disappear from his sight. Sooner or later she would leave, because she was neither his nor anyone else's. She didn't want to be with him, but he didn't want her to go.

The thought of her going so fast caught him off guard.

As Elvis, a generation mogul who's been through all the hard times and can play in the business world in his teens, he should've thought about it. He should have moved on with his life, but...

The Substitute

Chapter 291 Do you die to accepting challenge?

But why did his heart suddenly feel empty, painful, and uncomfortable?

Elvis kicked the trash can with his foot, and the trash can made a loud noise. He narrowed his handsome eyes and gasped. Only in this way did he feel he could breathe.

Olive headed straight for the school, and when she reached the Watson gate, she saw a lot of students gathered there as if they were waiting for someone.

"Olive, you're here, we're waiting for you!" At this point, Alicia was the first to see Olive, she quickly led everyone over, Olive looked at Alicia, Alicia, what happened? Are you waiting for me?

"Yes, Olive, I have bad news for you. The Academy of Sciences released an announcement today, saying that schools that didn't make the top five in this year's joint entrance exam will be disqualified by the Academy of Sciences!"

What?

Olive's bright pupils constricted slightly. Over the years, the Academy of Sciences would conduct interviews and evaluate students at the major medical universities in Imperial. She wanted to enter the Academy of Sciences, so she went to Watson University.

But she didn't expect that the Academy of Sciences would suddenly change the previous rules this year. This was beyond her expectations.

"Alicia, how many years ago did we rank in the general entrance exam?" Olive asked.

Alicia shyly stuck out her tongue, "We're all down there, maybe a dozen or so..."

"Over the years, very few people from Watson have been accepted by the Academy of Sciences, but there are opportunities. Now that the Academy of Sciences has done that, it feels like Watson will be expelled directly." One student said.

"Why is this announcement so sudden? We just won the basketball championship yesterday. I suspect that someone deliberately messed with us!" Another Watson student deduced.

Olive raised an eyebrow. This speculation was reasonable, but if the other party could interfere with the Science Academy, it would definitely not be an ordinary person.

Olive suddenly thought of someone, Crystal!

At this time, a group of people came from the front. They were students from Bright Star University. including Crystal walking in front. Crystal led Bright Star's students to meet Olive here.

Crystal looked at Olive, with a sweet smile on her beautiful face, "Olive, what are you doing here? Did something important happen?"

Bright Star students quickly responded,

"Oh, Crystal, you still don't know? The Academy of Sciences early in the morning issued a notice, saying that colleges and universities that didn't make the top 5 in the joint entrance exam would be expelled."

"In the rankings every year, Watson is outside the top 10, which means they have been eliminated."

"Someone last night won the basketball championship, what a joy. Why were they beaten back to their original form today? If they can take the national entrance exam this time, they can probably break into the top five."

Chapter 291 Do you dare to accept my challenge?

"You guys appreciate Watson so much! If they can make it to the top 5, I will write my name upside down!"

Bright Star lost the match yesterday, and there was a scandal about Jason hitting people. This almost caused Bright Star's reputation to fall from Heaven. Now they quickly regained their advantage and confidence, and they despised Watson so much.

The Watson students all blushed and angrily said, "Who are you talking about? Believe me to hit you?"

The two sides confronted each other, the smoke was thick, and the situation was about to get out of control.

Olive quickly stepped up, and her bright eyes fell on Crystal, "Crystal, I heard that you are not only the beauty queen of Bright Star but also the top student of Bright Star in the entrance exam last year."

Crystal showed a smug look. "Yeah, it seems you care about me. Girls still have to study, don't get distracted by dressing up all day. Now it's the entrance exam, someone will be exposed, and if it's a stupid girl, it'll be embarrassing."

Olive laughs, who dresses up all day?

"Crystal, I am officially challenging you in the entrance exam this time, do you dare to accept my challenge?"

Chapter 292 Driving a luxury car to her school gate

As soon as Olive said this, everyone gasped. What? Did she openly challenge Crystal, the Bright Star's queen?

Not only is Crystal famous, but she also works very hard in her studies. Every time she submits the answer, it is very good. She is Vice Principal Baker's favorite and has high expectations. No one has dared to challenge her yet. Now Olive has just arrived, not to mention rejected by Bright Star, even entered Watson in last place, but now she is openly shouting at Crystal. This scene was truly terrifying. Everyone looked at her in surprise. Where did she get her confidence?

Crystal smiled, "Olive, seriously, do you really want to challenge me? Why don't you go back and think about it? I feel like I would really bully you if I fight you in the arena."

Crystal is full of confidence. She actually looked down on Olive in the college entrance exam, not because she was more beautiful, but because she was smarter, and accumulated more knowledge.

Now the bright morning sun covered the ground with a splendid layer of gold, Olive bathed in the sun, eyes as clear as water calmly looked at Crystal. She said, "Crystal, if you can't hear me, let me say it again. I want to challenge you in the upcoming entrance exam. Do you dare to take the challenge?"

Crystal is taken aback by Olive's current courage, she snorts, "Okay, Olive, I accept the challenge. Let's take the entrance exam!"

"Okay!" Olive nodded.

Alicia was encouraged by Olive. She felt that Olive dared to challenge Crystal, she wasn't afraid anymore, and hastily stepped up. "Olive, how can I let you fight alone? Yesterday, we said we would share the joy together. Although I can't challenge Crystal, this time in the entrance exam, I'll do my best to make our Watson University in the top 5!

Soon, the others stepped up, too. Regardless of male or female, they took turns standing beside Olive, "I participated too. I think I also passed Watson with 12th. I've lost all my books in the past two years, but now I'll pick them up. It's a bit weird!"

"Count me in. My grades weren't good, I just took the exam for Watson. I didn't study hard before. I don't know if studying hard is scary or not!"

"I'll join, too, and work hard for Watson's honor. One more point is good!"

Everyone stepped forward, voices resounding and powerful. They wanted to fight together with Olive. Would they laugh at themselves for being so naive if they knew Olive was a double doctor at the age of 15? And the person who broke the history of the entire medical profession is now up against Bright Star.

The faces of the students from Bright Star across the street changed constantly. The sight reminded them of Watson, who had come together at yesterday's basketball match. They were bursting with incredible potential then, and now they've really done it again.

The students of Bright Star were suddenly a little scared, they were afraid that history would repeat itself.

Crystal jerked her fist, she had to admit that Olive could easily infect others. When she entered Watson, she wasn't changed by Watson, but she changed Watson as a whole.

Chapter 2 (Baving a lasury car to het school gate

The students around her used to be slow people, but now the students standing next to her were full of life and aura.

Crystal's eyes turned cold, "Okay, then I'll see you at the entrance exam!"

Crystal left with the Bright Star students.

Principal Harris arrived very early. He stood to one side and naturally saw all the scenes that had just happened, and now looked at the students around Olive. Their faces were radiant and full of fighting spirit as if they had lived to the fullest. Yes, this is youth.

Principal Harris had the most comfortable day ever. He clasped his hands behind his back and inspected the entire Watson School. The students who couldn't be awakened before were now sitting upright and listening to the lecturer's lecture. Although many students don't understand the lesson, after silently cursing, they will pick up the pen to borrow the work of their deskmates to make up for

They couldn't jump to the sky, but they themselves said that each extra point was an extra point, and the students who had previously submitted blank papers had to score ten more points anyway. Principal Harris took a walk and then returned to his office. Looking in the mirror, he was surprised to see a hair growing out of his bald spot

Oh, G od.

He just grew a hair!

In a flash, it was afternoon, and it was time to end school, but the students of Medical Class 2 still didn't move.

"Olive, lend me your notebook. I'll ask the ser vants in the house to copy a few more books, and distribute them to many students tomorrow."

“Damn it, you’re going to school with your servants.”

“My parents abandoned me a long time ago, tonight I will bring home the test, I guess my parents will touch my head and ask if I’m okay hahaha.”

The class was filled with laughter and cheerful talk. Olive also raised her red lips and took a pen to take notes in easy-to-understand details. For a genius student, this is very simple.

The questions of the general exam over the years were all in her head, and she had roughly guessed the process of the exam. She would rewrite the test for everyone to do.

At this moment, her cell phone rang, and a call came in, it was from Marvin.

Olive pressed the button to connect, “Hello, Marvin.”

“Olive, I’m at your school gate right now. Go out.”

Marvin is here!

Now he is waiting for her at the school gate!

Olive quickly grabbed her cell phone and ran out. Soon she saw Marvin’s tall and cold figure outside the school gate. He was leaning against the silver Maybach, waiting quietly for her.

The Maybach has always been a luxury car of the world, especially the higher-end silver color. This luxury car is a great fit for Marvin’s talents, and the car is just like him.

Now that class is over, the students of Bright Star School are out, all screaming,

“God, look! Who is that?”

“That is Marvin Augustine, our senior, and our greatest pride!”

“Senior Marvin is one of two Bright Star legends!”

“Another Bright Star legend seems to be a student with two doctoral degrees at the age of 15. But I heard that this person’s profile has been sealed, which is quite a mystery!”

“At the time, all the colleges and universities in Imperial were flourishing and thriving, and they were all vying for first place. Because of senior Marvin and a talented 15-year-old Ph.D. student, Bright Star has caused a sensation in the entire medical world. That peak has never been crossed.” “Senior Marvin is really handsome, he really deserves to be the most prestigious prince in Imperial.” “Who is senior Marvin looking for? I wonder if he’s looking for some girl, then this girl will die of happiness!”

At this moment Crystal came out, too, and she saw Marvin for a moment.

chapter 293 Seems my son had a game for nothing

Seeing Marvin, Crystal froze for a moment. She didn't expect him to appear here.

Marvin is the second youngest son of the Augustine family, but he rarely stands in the Augustine aura. He himself is an arrogant son of God, cold and distant. From childhood to adulthood he has never been with the people surrounding her, so Crystal isn't very familiar with him.

Crystal quickly took out her cell phone and sent a text to Charlotte Paulo, daughter of the Paulo family, "Your lover is coming."

With a 'ding', Charlotte texted back after a few seconds. "Marvin is back? Crystal, quickly make a video for me to see."

Crystal opened Messenger, shot a short video, and sent it to Charlotte, as a delicate and beautiful figure stepped forward, "Marvin."

Crystal's hand stiffened, she quickly raised her head and saw Olive walking up to Marvin's side.

Marvin quickly straightened up, and a small smile appeared on his handsome and cold face: "Olive, you're here."

Whispers sounded.

The audience was hooked, watching this scene in disbelief,

"Oh my god, senior Marvin drove his luxury car to Watson, and he came looking for Olive!"

"What is the relationship between Olive and Senior Marvin?"

"Look, senior Marvin is smiling. It turns out that such a famously cold young man can also smile so tenderly. Why did he smile at Olive?"

"I want to put my soul on Olive's body!"

Crystal thought that Marvin drove the luxury car to Bright Star, Bright Star is his alma mater But how could she expect that he would drive to Watson and that he was looking for Olive?

anyway

Crystal looked at Marvin's cold and arrogant body. He is very indifferent to people, especially to girls who like him. Everyone knows that he has a very high vision, and so far no one has caught his eye.

But now he smiles warmly at Olive.

She has Elvis in the front, and Marvin in the back. Crystal really didn't expect that Olive would involve the two proud sons of the Augustine family.

Crystal scoffed, then took a video of Marvin and Olive standing together, and sent it directly to Charlotte.

Charlotte has liked Marvin since she was a child, and every year at her birthday party, she declares that her greatest wish is to marry Marvin. This would be a great show.

Olive didn't know all this had happened, her bright eyes fell on Marvin's handsome face. She asked him, "Marvin, why did you come to the school gate looking for me, did something happen?"

Marvin looked at her hand-sized beautiful face, and shook his head: "Don't worry. It's okay. I just came to say goodbye to you. I'll leave Imperial for Los Angeles for a few days.

"Going to Los Angeles?"

That was right. He was going to Los Angeles to get the betrothal back from her mother that year. He

10.11

Chapter 201 Seems my sister had a game for nothing wanted to find out all these things.

But Marvin didn't tell her about that. He just said, "Yup, I have to go to Los Angeles to take care of some things, and I'll be back in a few days."

Olive smiled and said. "Okay, then go."

Marvin glanced at Watson University behind her, "How did you get into Watson? But to you, Bright Star and Watson are nothing different. Olive, so I'm going. Bye."

Olive waved her slender hand, saying. "Goodbye."

Marvin got into the silver Maybach, and as the luxury car sped away, he watched Olive's slim figure through the rearview mirror. He knew that from the moment he returned from Los Angeles, his relationship with her would be different.

After watching Marvin leave, Olive turned her back and walked back into the school. She heard the discussion of the crowd behind her.

"Senior Marvin wouldn't like Olive, would he? How can she be worthy of him?"

"Olive is a real temptress, using her pretty face to flirt with men everywhere. She really seduced Senior Marvin."

These students at Bright Star didn't like Olive from the start, now that they're irritated by Marvin, they've become even more hostile towards her.

Olive paid no attention to this. She was just about to enter the school, but at this moment, a car horn sounded "ding", and a luxury car stopped.

The driver's door opened, and the driver came up and said, "Excuse me, are you Miss Hart?"

Olive didn't know this person, she nodded, "Yes, I'm."

"Miss Hart, don't worry. My Madam invites you to the cafe to talk about you and the second young master."

Madam?

Olive almost immediately thought of Lily Midas, the mistress of Alpha Augustine, Marvin's biological mother.

Marvin's just left and Lily Midas's already came, this coffee wouldn't be good. Olive curls her red lips. saying, "Lead the way, I'll go."

In the coffee shop.

Olive sat down in a chair by the window, looking at Lily Midas opposite her with shining eyes.

Lily Midas and Anabelle Midas come from very similar backgrounds. They are twin sisters. Anabelle. was the most beautiful woman in Imperial that year. Wearing her crown, Lily in front of her was pretty and heartwarming. The traces of time on her body are indeed very faint, and so light that one may not notice her age.

r-class

Today, Lily wore a long floral dress, her gesture was filled with the lavish elegance of an upper- aristocrat, and her hair was pulled up in a delicate bun. She took a sip of her coffee and said, "Miss Hart, I heard that you are the lost daughter of the Hart family. You lived abroad, and you were recently found, right?"

Chapter 201 Seems my son had a game for nothing

Lily was telling her that she had sent someone to investigate her in detail.

Olive smiled neither modestly nor overbearingly, replying. "Mrs. Augustine, you invited me for coffee, you certainly don't want to hear about my life experience. If you have something to say, just say it clearly."

Lily put down her coffee, then pulled out a check from her bag, and gently pushed it in front of Olive, "Then I'll interrupt. I don't know what happened between you and Marvin. I'm not interested, either. You can fill in as much as you want, just leave my son."

Olive looked at the check in her hand, she didn't expect to find herself in the kind of situation where a woman holding a check asked her to leave her son.

"Mrs. Augustine, you're worrying too much. Marvin and I are just friends, not the relationship you think."

"Oh, is that so?" Lily took another sip of coffee and calmly said, "I see a lot of girls like you, thinking that they can play carefully, thinking that as long as they can control the Son of Heaven, they can be in a high position and marry into a rich family as a lady. Miss Hart, I'll be clear. You can't enter Augustine's door. Want to be my daughter-in-law? Maybe you have to wait for the afterlife."

Saying this, Lily casually glanced at the check, "Miss Hart, you have to be smarter and know that you should accept it when you see it. Of course, if you really don't want this check, then I'll take it back and treat it as if you let it go. My son had a game for nothing."

Chapter 294 The top beauty was auctioned

Hearing these harsh words, Olive's beautiful little face showed no wavering emotions. On the contrary, she raised her eyebrows slightly.

Lily is very pretty indeed, but her overall aura is sublime, and domineering, even showing a bit of cynicism, which makes people very uncomfortable, Olive had always felt that such an aura was unworthy of this face, unlike Anabelle.

At that time, Anabelle was not only the most beautiful woman in Imperial but also a cold and talented woman with a high IQ. She wore a white dress and walked around the campus with several books in her hand, having been famous for an era.

Olive reached out and returned the check to Lily. She said, "Mrs. Augustine, how much do you think your son Marvin is worth? And what price is appropriate?"

Lily stopped drinking coffee.

you might

Olive smiled. "Did I misunderstand what you mean? If I fill in seven hundred thousand, feel that it's cheap, and your son is worth it. But If I fill in seven million dollars, you would think it's too expensive and don't want to spend the money. Mrs. Augustine, when you take out this check, you've sold your son for a good price, you're not humiliating me but your son."

Lily put down her coffee, then she looked closely at Olive, "I know my son very well, he has very high standards. You can seduce him then you have to have extraordinary skills. Your speaking skills are amazing. So now tell me, what exactly do you want to leave my son?"

"Mrs. Augustine, I told you, Marvin and I are just friends. You wanted to talk to me, but you didn't believe what I said. Our conversation made no sense.

Thank you for the coffee, Mrs. Augustine. I'll leave first. Goodbye." Olive said then got up and left.

At this moment, Lily whispered, "Is North Paulo your best friend?"

North?

Olive's heart missed a beat, and she was immediately wary of Lily, asking, "What have North?

you done t

Lily pouted and replied, "I didn't do anything. North Paulo recently collaborated with Fly Jewelry, so we have a chance to interact. Why is Miss Hart so nervous? Because you don't want to talk to me now, then I'll wait for you. Anyway, I have plenty of time."

Lily took two brand new dollar bills from her pocket and placed them on the table, then put on her sunglasses and left in her high heels.

Olive had a bad feeling so she quickly took out her cell phone and called North's manager, Miss Jones. The phone on the other side rang, connected, Miss Jones's voice bellowed came: "Hello, Olive."

"Miss Jones, where is North? Where is North now?" Olive suddenly asked.

"We'll be selling things at Fly Jewelry today. North just went in to change.

Olive, what's wrong? What happened?"

"How many minutes has it been since North went in to change clothes? Miss Jones, go in to find North. Now!"

Miss Jones's ability to improvise is quite fast. Hearing Olive's voice so strange, Miss Jones immediately realized something, turned, and ran into the changing room, "Olive, no... I don't see her. North is gone!"

North has suddenly disappeared in the dressing room!

Olive's watery eyes suddenly turned cold, she knew this was Lily's warning to her. Lily started touching the people around her.

"Olive, she left a note in the dressing room!" Miss Jones said. She persisted in her search and soon found something of value in the dressing room.

"What does the note say?"

There's nothing, just an address line written on it."

"Send me the address."

"Okay, Olive, what should we do now? Should we call the police? Boss Dominos has flown to Europe for a business trip and hasn't come back yet. You know, North can't fall into the hands of anyone. Too many greedy men want her."

Olive's slender fingers gripped the phone, forcing herself to calm down. She quickly analyzed that this was just a warning from Lily Midas. At least now she wouldn't actually touch North.

However, North's pride is always protected by Raven, so she won't easily become a toy for those people to touch.

"Miss Jones, now I'm going to find North at this address. The most urgent thing is to find her as soon as possible. Now don't call the police. North is in the entertainment industry, and a little disturbance can cause a mess. And since they left the address, it shouldn't be a problem. You should contact Raven immediately. It will be more effective than calling the police!"

Miss Jones trusts Olive so much. At this critical time, Olive was like her spine, she said, "Olive, I will do as you say. Be careful of yourself. I will act when the opportunity arises."

"Okay."

Olive took a taxi and drove straight to the address.

On the way, the driver curiously asked: "Girl, are you a wine stewardess?"

“Wine stewardess?”

“Yes, this address is a famous private winery in the Imperial, and luxurious private parties will be held here regularly. But girl, I think you are a good girl from a good family, so I would advise you that the wine business is relatively expensive. It is a place for a group of rich people to hang out. It is said that the owner of the private winery will collect some pretty girls for auction at the parties, and whoever bids the highest will win.”

Olive’s clear eyes flashed a cold and sharp glint, it turned out that Lily had thrown North into such an auction!

Lily is now Alpha Augustine’s mistress, and she also fought Alpha in Los Angeles for three months. Alpha is deep and scary. His tricks are scary, but he’s very straightforward. Whose life he wants, he will definitely let that person know. He will kill that person with a knife. Although Olive doesn’t like him, she has to admit that this type of man has infiltrated the marketplace and is the real ruler. But Lily is cunning and evil. Olive really didn’t understand why Mrs. Augustine would use such despicable and cruel tricks.

The men of the Augustine family, Alpha, Elvis, and Marvin, were the true pride of heaven. Olive felt that Lily immediately lowered the Augustine family’s score!

North Paulo is always the most beautiful red rose in the entertainment industry. If she falls into the circle of men, the consequences will be dire.

“Uncle, I’m not a wine stewardess. I’m a friend of a girl who was tricked into being sold. I’m looking for her to bring her home.”

“Miss, be careful. During the private parties, everyone wears masks, their strange tastes will be revealed, and there are many perverts. By the way, I also heard that today’s private party had a top beauty, so today’s auction will be very exciting. Everyone is in a hurry to bid on that top beauty.”

Top beauty?

Olive was almost immediately certain that the top beauty to be auctioned had to be North!

Chapter 295 Olive became a wine stewardess

Olive didn't expect Lily Midas to be so ferocious in her first confrontation. She was caught off guard.

However, when she finds North and calms down, she will definitely reckon with Lily!

After ending the call with Olive, Miss Jones quickly dialed Raven's number. She has Raven's private cell phone number so she can be contacted unimpeded.

The cell phone rang for a while, and the other end connected, Raven's pleasant low voice said slowly,

"Hello."

"Boss Dominos, it's not okay, North has a problem!" Miss Jones said hastily. Now, at 30,000 feet out of the water, in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows of the six-star presidential suite, Raven, coming home from a business meeting, phone in one hand and tie in the other, heard Miss Jones say something happened to North.

The personal secretary in the presidential suite immediately felt the temperature in the room drop to freezing, and he held his breath in fear.

Raven's tug of the tie stopped, his thin lips moving. "What happened?"

Miss Jones told Raven about the incident, then sent the address. Raven's handsome face showed no emotion but looked very gloomy. He said nonchalantly, "I get it."

After leaving this statement, Raven hung up the phone.

He turned around, looked at the private secretary behind him with cold black eyes, and gave the address, 'Now go look up this address, and cancel all business trips. Prepare the plane, I want to fly back to Imperial.'

"Yes, sir."

The private secretary did all this as quickly as possible, then reported the news he found, "President, this address is a lavish private party."

Raven's handsome brows furrowed, and his cold, ink-black eyes fluttered open, thick and bottomless. He took out his cell phone and dialed a number.

Soon, the other end of the line was connected, and Elvis's deep, masculine voice rang out: "Hello."

Raven pinched the phone and said, "Your stepmother, widowed for years, has lost her mind and dares to touch my woman?"

"What happened to North?" Elvis asked.

"North was taken to a private party."

Elvis and Raven were both princes from aristocratic families, they had never participated in this kind of private parties, but they knew what they should know.

"...seems like she's been quite free lately and wants to find something to do,"

Elvis said.

“Don’t just sit there. I have two hours to go back. You should go to the private party first.”

“Raven, is this your attitude when you ask me for help?”

“Oh, I forgot to tell you, Olive went there already.”

Elvis on the other end of the line was silent for two seconds, then “beep”, he hung up the phone.

Olive has arrived. This is a suburb of Imperial. There’s a luxury private winery of several thousand square meters. Now the outside of the winery is parked full of luxury cars, and the inside of the winery is brightly lit.

North was inside.

Olive stepped forward, a waiter was handing out masks, and everyone in and out was wearing a mask “Pretty, what kind of mask do you want? The waiter asked.

Olive took a look and discovered that there are many types of masks, such as small foxes, little rabbits, flames, goblins, and demons, of all kinds.

“Is any mask fine?”

“Yes, but the male mask and the female mask are the same. If you choose the same mask as the man, then you are in a master-ser vant relationship. The male is the master and the female is the ser vant. A master can ask a s ervant to do anything, you can’t refuse.”

Olive already knew that it couldn’t be arbitrarily taken, but ever since she came in here, she’s heen in the game.

Olive looked at the waiter with shining eyes, “Why don’t women manage and men serve as ser vants? Are you engaging in sexism here?”

The waiter was flabbergasted. This place is so welcoming, and no woman dares to say that the female is the master and the male is the ser vant.

The men who come to this party are all rich, and they are not short of money.

The girls who come to serve drinks are all dressed up, and they follow the rules of the game. To put it bluntly, they use their youthful beauty to seduce the moguls and become their toys.

“Pretty, this is the law of the jungle, strong and weak. If you don’t want to play, you can leave immediately.” The waiter said.

Olive’s slender eyelids lowered, she stretched out her slender hands and began to select the mask, “I’ll join I chose this mask.”

The waiter looked at it, and Olive picked out a... kitten mask, a very uncommon mask.

Olive felt this kitten was quite similar to Phoebe, although it was not as lovable as Phoebe. So she put the kitten mask on her face.

Olive went to the front desk entrance. She wanted to go in but was stopped by someone.

"Miss, I'm sorry. Please send the invitation letter first."

"Invitation letter? I don't have one."

"Miss, then you can't enter, unless someone is willing to accept."

"How?"

The waiter pointed, and Olive glanced. A girl without an invitation, wearing a tulle off-the-shoulder dress. A luxury car stopped, and a masked chubby boss came out. The young girl quickly stepped forward and directly bumped into the big-bellied boss.

Chapter 295 (live become a urine stewardess

"Oh, it hurts." The beautiful girl exclaimed.

"Little beauty, let me see where it hurts." The boss laughed lewdly.

"You're obnoxious, there are a lot of people here. Come in and I'll show you."

"Okay, let's go, I'll take you in."

The big-bellied boss lugged the girl in his lap and dishonestly brought her in. So that was okay?

This was the first time Olive had seen such a scene. It's extravagant, but to save North, she must go in as soon as possible.

At this time, another fat-bellied boss with a mask came over. He came alone.

At this kind of drinking party, no man brought a female companion..

Olive quickly stepped forward, but instead of bumping into him, she pretended to have sprained her leg and made an "Oops"..

That boss's gaze was immediately drawn. Although Olive was wearing a mask, she had a slim figure, a pure and beautiful aura. The classic beauty of a college girl is also the most loved by these business bosses.

"Little beauty, what's wrong with you, is your toe broken?" The boss quickly stepped forward.

Olive raised her head. This wasn't hard. She looked at the boss with her bright eyes and said in a seductive voice, "My leg hurts."

As she finished her words, a luxury commercial Rolls-Royce stretched out at a gallop, stopped, and the back door creaked open.

Chapter 296 Her docility softens his heart

Olive had sensed movement in front of her, and perhaps she understood, as she raised her head, her bright pupils constricted violently.

She saw Elvis.

Elvis is here!

Tonight, Elvis wore a fitted black suit, classic authoritarian presidential style.

His every gesture exudes elegance and majesty, his five senses are as handsome as a sculpture. Once he appeared on stage, he was sure to attract everyone's attention like a magnet.

"Wow!"

Olive could already hear screams of excitement from the girls around her.

They stared at Elvis passionately and almost jumped at him.

Most of the people who come to this private party are big-bellied bosses, or second-generation rich kids who love to have fun. Elvis is a warrior in the elite, his appearance here, of course, immediately becomes the center of attention. And he becomes the dream of girls.

Olive hesitated for a moment. Why is he here?

Did he really come to this kind of private party?

If it was in the past, she would never have believed that Mr. Augustine was going to a private party like this, but now Elvis confused her. He was infected with many bad habits, like a thief. She barely knew him anymore.

Now that their eyes met, Elvis' narrow, deep eyes fell on her, looking at her with a bit of coldness and sarcasm, a condescending attitude, as if toying with her.

Olive's beautiful face immediately turned red. She remembered that she was talking to the boss next to her, he must have seen that scene in the car just now.

This was her first time doing this kind of thing but got caught by him. Olive's heart beat so fast, she wanted to swear.

"Pretty, what are you looking at?" The boss asked. He was confused because Olive focused too much on Elvis.

Olive hastily turned away, a little embarrassed and angry. He came here to entertain himself, did he have to look at her like this?

why

Forget it. She no longer has any relationship with him, now she's just a stranger at best, she doesn't need to let him affect her.

Saving North is the most important thing.

Olive looked at the boss and said softly, "I'm not looking at anything. My leg hurts, can you take me inside for a bit?"

The boss was mesmerized by Olive, replying, "Of course, I'll take you in now!" Olive's eyes light up. She was successful!

She immediately retracted her flattering gaze, turning to leave Elvis, her slender straight back like a small rooster.

Chapter 294 Her decided softens his heart.

Suddenly, a beautiful woman came over and asked, "Daddy, I just left for a while, who seduced you?"

Olive was taken aback. Who is this woman?

Didn't the guest here agree not to bring any female partners?

The charming woman walked over and stared at Olive, then reached out and grabbed her boss's ear, "Daddy, who do you want to bring in?"

The boss quickly apologized: "Baby, let go, I don't bring anyone. I don't know who she is. Let's go in."

The boss swaggered with the enchanted woman in his arms.

Olive froze on the spot. God, what happened?

Why is it so easy for others to start a conversation, but it's not her turn as usual?

Elvis was still there, and now she's made a big joke!

Olive had never been so embarrassed before, she wished she could find a hole in the ground and crawl in.

"Phew~"

Hearing someone laughing at her, Olive quickly turned around and saw Peterson behind Elvis covering his mouth and smiling.

Olive stared at Peterson with wet black eyes and said cruelly, "What are you laughing at?"

Peterson replied, "I'm sorry, I can't help it, heh-

Olive: "..."

At this moment, Elvis stepped forward on his long legs, and asked in a deep voice, "Find another one?"

What?

Olive immediately understood what he meant, her slender fingers tugged at the hem of her shirt, saying, "What does that have to do with you?"

Seeing her reply, Elvis directly pursed his thin lips into a white arc, "Are you dirty?"

Was she dirty?

This sentence made Olive's head buzzing. He never wanted to say serious words to her. It was like a knife stabbing her heart and stirring constantly, now she felt so much pain.

Olive turned and left.

Elvis regretted it. He regretted saying those words, but he felt angry when he saw her flirting with other people with girly talk.

Anger rose in his chest. When she seduced him, she never was naughty like that to him.

Comparing before and after, he felt that she was very heartless. When she seduced him, she didn't use all her skills, and it was too perfunctory for him. She defied him in a rebellious way, that's why he said such evil things. Seeing her turn around to leave, Elvis immediately reached out and grabbed her slender wrist, "What do you mean by being unhappy? Are you still showing your face to me now?"

Olive was forced to stop. She looked back at him. The man's handsome face was filled with displeasure. She managed to pull her wrists away, exclaiming, "Mr. Augustine, let me go, lest I dirty you!"

Chapter 296 Her docility softens his heart

Elvis choked, his hand suddenly pulling the slender girl into his lap. "I'll take you in,

Olive's slender eyelids trembled. What did he just say? Did he want to take her in?

But for the last second, he still insulted her.

Olive finds his temperament fickle. Who said a woman can turn her face faster than a book? She wanted to introduce Elvis to that guy.

"Are you that kind?" Olive looked at him suspiciously.

Elvis let of his hands: "You can come in or not depending on your ability. Didn't you just have a way?

What did he mean? Did he want her to hook him up? Like she did with that boss just now?

Olive wondered if he meant anything shady, but if he had offered her an opportunity, she would have to take it. She mustn't delay any longer. She must go in and find North!

Olive reached out her small hand, took the initiative to grab his arm, and tilted her small head to bring her beautiful face in front of him. "President Augustine, it was all my fault before. Master, don't notice my mistake. Please forgive me, please."

Elvis looked at her. Her clear eyes seemed to hold a pool of spring water inside, making him flutter. It was completely different from the way she'd just been when she'd said sarcastic words to him. Now she was smiling at him with her lovely, arched eyebrows that softened his heart.

Chapter 297 Pick someone here to kiss

Elvis knew all this was fake, and she just wanted to please him, but his heart still softened.

“President Augustine, why didn’t you say anything? President Augustine, please take me in. President Augustine -”

She repeatedly called him President Augustine. Her voice was soft and sweet, a little seductive. Elvis just felt his waist go numb, she was about to summon his soul.

“Besides calling President Augustine, don’t you know anything else?” thing else?

Olive thought for a moment, tiptoed to his ear, and whispered, “Mr. Augustine →”

“Mr. Augustine~”

Elvis’s he was pounded by these words, and many images like sparks danced in his head. However, the images were so fast and fleeting that he caught nothing.

“Mr. Augustine Olive called again.

Elvis pursed his thin lips, his throat rising and falling. Apparently, he was now giving her a chance to seduce him, but he was the one to give in. If she kept shouting like that, he might not be able to control her. She couldn’t help herself anymore. If she didn’t even want to sign the agreement, he would naturally have a way to imprison her.

“Shut up. I’ll take you in!” He suddenly roared loudly.

...” Come again, his temperament is like a tornado, Olive jerked her fist.

Forget it. Now for North, she has to suffer!

Olive followed Elvis to the front desk. And just as Olive walked in, she pulled out her little hand and turned to leave.

She had grasped his strong arm as she entered, so when Elvis felt his arm empty, he turned his head to look at the girl’s slender back, pursing his thin lips. She kicked him as soon as she finished using him!

Olive didn’t want to waste any more time. She was already in, so she would naturally go looking for North.

Was North upstairs?

Olive was about to go upstairs, but at this point, someone stopped her, “Kitten Masked Beauty, please stop.”

Olive stopped walking, and it was a man who stopped her, who was also wearing a kitten mask over his face.

...Her master has arrived.

“I am your master now, you are my servant. I want you to do one thing. Choose a person here and passionately kiss, or let these people kiss you here, ha ha ha.”

The bustle here quickly attracted the attention of many people. Derrick Rodriguez leaned lazily against a corner. He wore a fox mask, and when his eyes fell on Olive, he quickly recognized the ugly girl.

Derrick didn't expect this ugly girl to quietly come to Imperial without dying. Elvis wore a mask, too, and when he saw Olive being followed by a young man, his handsome eyebrows lowered and he turned cold.

"Young master, do you want to help?" Peterson inquired.

Elvis looked at Olive's slim figure, "Let's see first."

Olive was surrounded by a group of curious people, and everyone kept urging:

"Pretty, he is your master, you must obey your master."

"Anyone who entered this party] would be able to afford it. Little Beauty, you wouldn't be able to afford it, would you?"

A mocking smile appeared on Olive's red lips, "Okay, I'll choose."

"So who will you choose?" Everyone was looking forward to it.

Olive's glittering eyes scanned the faces of those around her one by one, then stopped at Elvis.

"I choose..." Olive said as she walked over to Elvis.

Elvis watched her through the crowd, approaching him step by step. She wasn't constrained in the slightest, her soft slender figure carried a light aura, like a queen choosing what she wanted tonight.

Elvis didn't move, just stared at her with his black eyes.

Peterson next to him let out a "tsk" sound. This was the first time in history that he saw his young master standing in place waiting for a favor.

Olive stepped forward slowly, and as she was about to get close to Elvis, she suddenly stopped and rushed toward a girl's face with lightning speed.

The girl was startled, screamed, and ran away.

Olive turned her head to look at the young man wearing the kitten mask, smiling brightly, "I have fulfilled your request, can I go now?"

The guy froze. What... What? Was that the promised kiss?

"No, you didn't do it at all..." He mumbled.

Olive directly interrupted him, "You made a request just now, did you say that I can only choose.

men?"

"No..."

"Then it's okay if I choose a girl, I just need to lean in for a passionate kiss like you asked for."

"But... but she escaped..."

"She avoided. It's none of my business. I'm just doing what I should."

The young man's fingers trembled with anger. Anyone could see that Olive was cheating. He said, "No, I want to change the request."

Olive looked at that guy with clear eyes, "Okay, next time."

Olive said that without looking back and went upstairs.

Chapter 297 Pick someone bear to kiss

"You . . . you" The young man stammered angrily.

People around quickly patted the young man's shoulder, "The little beauty is right. Everyone go out and pla don't ruin your fun."

"Just now, the little beauty is really amazing. She's really playful."

Elvis watched Olive's slender figure disappear from view. She was teasing him just now, and she had no intention of choosing him.

However, she didn't want to choose any of these men, and she had no interest.

She really is as cunning as a little fox. Elvis curled his thin lips into a light arc.

Derrick on the side also saw this amazing play. Interesting! This ugly girl never let him down. He had a feeling that when this ugly girl came, the whole Imperial would be in an uproar.

Olive went upstairs, only to see two maids come out of the room.

"This beauty is so beautiful. I have never seen such a beautiful woman."

"Shut up. The auction is coming. That beauty will also be auctioned, hurry up or you'll be scolded."

The two maids walked and discussed.

Olive quickly opened the door to her room, and she found North.

North is currently lying in bed, still in a coma. The maid had just replaced her with a tulle dress, her seaweed-curly hair flowing loose. North Paulo had red lips and white teeth, looking like a beauty sleeping in the forest.

Olive quickly took out the silver needle and stabbed North.

Her fan-like eyelashes trembled and she woke up.

"Olive, why are you here? Where are we now?" North asked, feeling her head aching, her whole body weak.

Chapter 298 Her Beautiful Soul

Olive held out her hand to help North up, saying, "North, we're at a private party right now and someone brought you here to auction.”

“What?” North asked suspiciously. “Who did that? What is the purpose?”

“North, it’s a long story, let’s talk later. Go now.” Olive said and pushed North away.

North took her little hand, “Olive, won’t you come with me?”

“I won’t leave now, I’ll go to the auction for you.”

“No!” North immediately rebuffed, “I’ll go with you!”

“North, this is aimed at me. Don’t you understand what I mean? You should sneak out first. Once the auction starts after that, everyone’s eyes will be attracted. This is the best way for you to sneak out in time. I informed my dad and my mom before I arrived, and they will meet you at the private reception. North, I have plans of my own. Don’t stay here to hold me. Hurry!”

Olive informed Tom and Mia, but she didn’t tell them the whole story. The Hart family is a member of the gangster family and has a very violent temper. Once she tells them, they will kill the entire Augustine family and handle the party organizer with a knife.

The rich and powerful gathered in Imperial. Whether it’s the Augustine family home or a private party where the rich gather, it affects the whole. Olive doesn’t want to get involved with the Hart family. They were under no obligation to work hard for her.

Now she just needs obedient teammates!

North had known Olive for so many years, of course she knew her best. She nodded resolutely, “Okay, Olive, I’ll go. Be careful!”

North took off her tulle skirt, changed into a maid uniform, put on a hat, and quickly left the room.

North knew that the only thing she had to do now was ensure her own safety. As soon as North left, Olive’s nervous nerves completely relaxed. She reached out to take off her clothes, put on the nude tulle skirt, untied her hair tie, her black hair loose.

She started looking around the room, then opened the drawer.

Soon, she found a painting in the drawer.

What picture is this?

Olive slowly opened the scroll, and a cold and beautiful fairy suddenly entered her line of sight.

In the picture is a peerless beauty!

This isn’t surprising. This private winery wasn’t a serious place to begin with, and the owners here have a penchant for finding beautiful women. What amazes Olive is that she actually knows this stunning beauty, who is Lily Midas.

No, that must have been the real number one beauty in Imperial over 20 years ago, Elvis’ biological mother, Anabelle Midas!

This is the first time Olive has seen Anabelle's portrait. At first glance she could almost recognize it as Anabelle. Anabelle in the picture is a young girl. She wears a white dress, holding two books in her hands. When the wind came, she raised her head slightly to look at the sky, her facial expression was beautifully reproduced by the painter, her demeanor was cold, and she had a talent for poetry and books.

This is Anabelle, who was crowned all over the country back then, and also the founder of Fly Jewelry. She's a legend.

Olive was amazed. She reached out, using her slender fingers to gently stroke Anabelle's eyebrows. It turned out that she was such a cold and beautiful woman.

Thaps, this is also the biggest difference between Anabelle and Lily. Lily will never be Anabelle in this life.

At this time, footsteps came from outside. "Hurry up. Quickly carry the girl into the glass coffin. The auction is about to start!"

Olive quickly put the painting away, then lay down on the bed and closed her eyes.

In the reception hall.

The owner of this private winery stood up and said into the microphone: "Dear guests, you are invited to the party tonight. Now is the most exciting time. I have found great beauty. It's absolutely beautiful, and now I'm going to put it up for auction. As always, the highest bid wins."

Someone shouted quickly below,

"Great beauty? I want to see how great it is today!"

"You can't lie. Right now, the first beauty in Imperial is Crystal, the lady of the Robert family. That's all I can see!"

"Speaking of sheer beauty, the daughter of the famous Midas Imperial family more than 20 years ago is truly a beauty!"

"Speaking of Midas' daughter, I've met her once. She really is a cold fairy that came down from the sky."

"Unfortunately, the number one beauty Imperial was taken in by Alpha, the Augustine monarch very early on."

This place was originally a place for men to play, who had all experienced ups and downs, and Crystal's appearance was nothing short of amazing in their eyes.

Most of them have seen the Imperial for more than 20 years, and met the Imperial's number one beauty, Anabelle. No, it's Lily.

There is no one like Anabelle in this world.

Although the owners of this private winery are always recruiting some of the top beauties, they are not really satisfied. Although satisfying their greed is fine, the real beauty in their hearts must be like Anabelle back then.

It is a pity that such beauty is estimated to appear only once in a century.

Seeing that these people were talking about the young master's biological mother, Peterson said in a low voice, "Young master, do you want these guys to shut up?"

Elvis' handsome face hidden behind the mask didn't show any disturbing emotions, but his whole body was covered with a layer of cold mist. He didn't like people talking about his mother, after a while he calmly said: "Let's see first."

The Sulatinic brick Bird by My Hillier Husband

"Okay." Peterson quietly stepped aside.

At this time, the owner of the private wine company waved his hand and confidently said: "Everyone, please calm down. Don't be hasty, Like you, I was lucky to meet the Midas family daughter that year, and I even drew a self-portrait of her. I've always cherished it. Today's beauty is gorgeous or not, you'll know after seeing it."

The host mysteriously clapped his hands, all the reception lights 'Di cked' were extinguished, countless crystal lights lit up in the middle of the stage, then a crystal coffin slowly flew up, falling into the sky before everyone's eyes. Everyone held their breath in anticipation, countless eyes fixed on the crystal coffin.

At this moment, the crystal coffin opened, and the girl inside came into view. Whispers sounded.

Everyone gasped in turn, almost being captivated by this girl at first sight, forgetting to breathe.

Olive lay quietly on it, her jet-black hair swaying, eyebrows arched like willow leaves, her eyelashes as slender as a small fan, straight nose, scarlet red lips, these delicate features combined in her face. Her hand-sized face is even more delicate. Like a masterpiece created by the craftsmanship of nature, she makes people's souls flutter.

Chapter 299 He spent two hundred million dollars to buy her

She was wearing a nude tulle dress, her skin was as white as milk, her slim body was soft, her aura was like jade emitting a pure light. When she appeared on stage, everything in the world seemed to be overshadowed. Everyone was stunned and infatuated. So beautiful.

Elvis' deep narrow eyes fell on Olive. There was a glint of surprise in his eyes. He suddenly understood why he felt a little weird and was seduced by her. He was also an ordinary man who liked beautiful women, the more beautiful the better.

Derrick exited the crowd and stepped forward. He looked at Olive now in amazement. Damn, is this his ugly girl?

While in Los Angeles, Olive wore a veil, but now that she lifted the veil to reveal her true face, her appearance after reincarnation became even more delicate. Derrick didn't recognize her for a moment.

The owner of the private winery was stunned when he saw Olive, too. No, this isn't the beauty from before!

The beauty that used to be pure and alluring, like a delicate red rose, attracted people to pick, but now this beauty is as delicate as a little fairy, seducing people's souls.

Two different beauties, both beautiful to the extreme.

The owner of the private winery didn't understand what had happened, but he was pleased to see everyone's surprised faces, so he simply made the mistake. He said. "Dear customer, you have seen. this beauty, too. Is she beautiful?"

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, and immediately frantically shouted, "Yes, this beauty is stunning!"

"This beauty is absolutely beautiful, no less than the daughter of the Midas family more than 20 years ago."

"Since that's the case, let's start the auction. It's not a waste of life to bring such a beautiful woman back to a golden castle, imitating Alpha, the Augustine family king."

When the owner of the private winery said this, everyone got excited and they wished they could bring Olive home and hide her privately.

"I pay three million!"

"Six million!"

"Seven million!"

This private reception has been held many times and many beauties have been auctioned, but Olive's starting point was directly three million dollars, amazingly lavish.

Soon someone shouted the price of 13 million. The owner of the private winery waved his hand and smiled: "Everyone, our price is about to pass 14 million. I would like to cordially remind you, be careful of the next price. Watch your wallet."

No one expected this auction to be so fierce, easily surpassing the $14 million mark.

"Do you want to continue bidding? Spending tens of millions of dollars to buy a beautiful woman, 1299 He spent tree hundred indien dollars to buy her this deal seems a bit impulsive."

"How about this? Let this stunning beauty help us open our eyes first. Her price is so high, let's see if she's worth it."

Most people agreed to let Olive wake up first. The owner of the private tavern nodded in agreement, opened a small vial, and placed it under Olive's nose.

Olive wasn't unconscious, when she smelled the strong smell of medicine in the dropper, she opened her eyes.

Olive slowly rose to her feet, her shining black eyes looking down a little sleepily. When she saw so many men staring at her, she jumped, her slender eyelids trembling in panic. She was scared and weak like a threatened deer.

"You... Who are you? Where is this place?" Her voice was soft and terrifying.

This scene made the men below extremely happy, the most primitive desire to conquer in their bones was aroused. They didn't expect such a beautiful beauty to be a pure and weak little white rabbit. Bringing her home and training her must have been fun.

"You won't bid, but I will. Let me tell you, this little beauty is really attractive.

Looking at her figure, soft as if she had no bones, it was easy to fall.

"Not only that, you can see that she doesn't understand anything at all. She can be bullied anyway hahaha."

Listening to the various discussions of the surrounding men, Elvis suddenly narrowed his deep eyes. He had no idea what Olive was up to. She isn't a pure and weak little white rabbit. She can bite.

Now there was still a small tooth mark on his finger from her bite.

Derrick was amused, too. Just now, the ugly girl wearing a kitten mask easily passed the test when that young man wanted to play tricks on her. Now she is disguised as a fragile white flower. Who does she want to fool here?

Derrick found a place to sit down, leisurely drink tea and watch the play.

"I'll pay 14 million!"

"40 million!"

"70 million!"

Olive looked at the men with red faces below at the auction. They wanted to buy her home. But she didn't expect that her price would be that high].

She involuntarily curled her red lips, suddenly seeing Elvis below. Her eyes met his narrow, hawk-like eyes.

Now he was staring at her, calm, with a somewhat playful look in his eyes, as if he had seen through the little tricks of her heart like X-rays.

The corner of Olive's mouth twitched, and she quickly turned away, not looking at him anymore.

A second later, Elvis' deep, masculine voice rang in her car, "I'll give you 180 million!"

Elvis bid, directly offered 180 million.

Olive shivered, and her bright eyes fell on him again. What is he doing? Is he bidding? Why does he want to intervene?

Chapter 211 He spent two hundred million dollars to buy her

At this time, another voice sounded, "I'll pay 200 million!"

Olive searches for the voice, and immediately sees... Derrick.

Although Derrick wore a mask on his face, Olive recognized him at a glance.

The prince of the Imperial.

Did he even come?

Olive didn't expect that she would meet Derrick here, and he also bid, openly competing with Elvis!

Elvis' deep narrow eyes fell on Derrick. Peterson reported in a low voice, "Young master, that's Derrick, the young master of the Rodriguez family."

Derrick Rodriguez?

Elvis' eyes darkened, and inside was as cold as an abyss. Derrick suddenly offered to buy Olive, what is his relationship with Olive?

Elvis pursed his thin lips, a surge of anger rapidly rising in his chest. He really didn't know how many men she knew and how many surprises she had to give him.

From Marvin to Derrick, there were countless men around her.

Thinking of the scene where Raven called him, saying she had come to this lavish, lustful private reception, and he had rushed here, Elvis felt like a fool.

The owner of the winery privately picked up a small hammer and shouted, "Is it 200 million? 200 million for the first time, 200 million for the second time.

Sold for 200 million!"

The owner of the private winery made the final decision, and Olive was sold to Derrick for a high price of 200 million!

Chapter 300 He will never be deceived by her again!

Olive was quite displeased with this result. She didn't want to be sold to Derrick!

Olive looked at Elvis. He literally shouted 180 million and stopped shouting, which doesn't suit his overbearing style at all. He should be the type to come and hit. Isn't it just money? He isn't short of money.

But Olive only saw Elvis' tall, cold back, because he had no interest in what to do next and got up to leave.

Olive was taken to the winery's luxury suites. She waited a moment, the door was pushed open, and Derrick entered.

Derrick narrowed his peachy eyes and looked at her from top to bottom, the corners of his lips curled into a lazy evil smile, "Ugly girl, that's why you turn out like this."

Now that Olive has been recognized, she also generously admits, smiling cheerfully to Derrick: "Young Master Rodriguez, thank you for your help this time. I will invite you to dinner the next day. I still have work to do, let's go first."

Olive swaggered and prepared to leave.

But Derrick blocked her way: "Ugly girl, don't play with me like that. I spent 200 million dollars to buy you, but I don't want to hear you say thank you. Your thanks isn't that nice."

Olive looked at him confused. "Young Master Rodriguez, what do you mean?" Seeing her pretending to be stupid, Derrick suddenly took two steps forward and bullied her: "Go to bed. You don't understand? Have you never slept with your husband?"

Olive backed away, banging her knees against the side of the bed, and fell onto the large soft bed. When she was in Los Angeles, she told Mrs. Robert that she was married, but they didn't know who her husband was. After that, Alpha erased all traces.

Olive's shining eyes looked at Derrick's handsome face approaching, and hurriedly raised her hand. to push him, "Young Master Rodriguez, if you know I'm married, you shouldn't be interested in married women, right?"

"I'm a little curious, who is your husband? He didn't have money, so he sent you here to auction?"

No!

Mr. Augustine was rich before, richer now!

But Olive wouldn't tell him about her brief marriage to Elvis.

"Young Master Rodriguez, I came to rescue my friend today, so I'm in trouble. I really thank you for your help, but I love my husband so much. I have no plans to cheat in the marriage," she said.

Derrick knelt on the bed and hugged the delicate woman to his chest. Then divorce first, and sleep with me after the divorce."

H

"Olive was speechless. Young Master Rodriguez must be crazy. Olive really wanted to run away, and didn't want to get involved with someone as difficult as Derrick, so she just lay down on the bed, closed her eyes, "Young Master Rodriguez, I'll tell you the truth. I'm divorced, that's my ex-husband. That's why I came to Imperial alone. I don't want to owe you anything, come now!"

"Ugly girl, don't play aggressive with me, it's useless." Derrick reached out and stroked her beautiful hand-sized face with his fingers. "To tell you the truth, I have never forgotten you since then. I came back from Los Angeles, you divorced. Then, from now on, follow me."

He reached out and tore Olive's tulle skirt...

In another luxurious room, Elvis' tall figure was standing in front of a floor-to-ceiling window. He was holding a cigarette between his slender fingers, and was taking a light puff.

The deluxe room was very quiet, quiet to the point of stuffiness, Peterson became cautious, afraid his young master would treat himself like a punching bag. He said, "Young master, aren't you really going to take a look in the next room? Young Master Rodriguez has already come in, it's been half an hour, in case they really..."

At this moment, Elvis suddenly turned to the side, and his narrow, dangerously sharp eyes glanced at Peterson, "You've been talking a lot lately."

Peterson quickly shut up. No, I'm stu pid!

Elvis took another puff of his cigarette, then exhaled a faint puff of smoke. The smell of nicotine was unable to numb the gloom and discomfort in his heart. In his head was only Olive's beautiful little face. What is she doing with Derrick in that room right now?

After rubbing the end of his cigarette in the ashtray, Elvis turned to leave. Peterson hurriedly followed, and said in a low voice: "Young master, leave this trifle to Ray. I will let Ray steal Miss Hart over, then wash her and put her on your bed."

Elvis's footsteps stopped, his thin lips released two cold words: "Get out!"

Peterson was speechless. Young Master, just hold it, one day you will let Ray do this!

Elvis approached the wall separating the room from next door.

She was in the next room, separated by a wall. As long as she made any movement, or struggled, he would immediately rush in to save her.

But he waited, and there was no movement from her.

He may know that she and Derrick are old acquaintances, but he doesn't know what relationship. between her and Derrick.

Elvis went to the next room, stood at the door, and quickly heard unusual sounds coming from inside. The large bed inside creaked, and Olive's clear voice had become seductive and soft, "Master Rodriguez, slow down... you hurt me..."

Soon, Derrick's heavy breathing came, "Ugly girl, don't move... Olive..."

Elvis tall body suddenly stiffened, and the corners of his long narrow eyes were immediately covered with a terrifying scarlet layer. He clenched his fists, knuckles creaking

She and Derrick were in the room and...

Chapter 300 He will never be deceived by her again!

How dare she?

Elvis immediately twisted the doorknob, wanting to kick the door open, but his handsome eyelashes quickly closed. He forced his chest to gasp, trying not to let out any sound.

Didn't he know what kind of person she was? Why did he still have fantasies about her?

The tendon on Elvis' forehead twitched violently. He hated her. He hated her unruly and despicable nature, and she could go to bed with any man.

But he hated himself even more, because he brought himself to her front door, to be humiliated and trampled on by her. Now that he stood here listening to her screams and the sound of her bed. He was really helpless!

Elvis didn't want to turn himself into a "shrew". Leaving quietly now is the greatest pride and dignity he leaves for himself.

From now on, he will never be deceived by her again!

Elvis turned to leave.

In the sumptuous room, Derrick lay alone on the bed, cheeks flushed, enchanted by the enchanting scent Olive prepared.

Olive sat by the bed, stepping on the bed, making the bed creak. To make the scene more realistic, she pretended to scream several times.

Just then Derrick on the bed snorted and fell asleep.

Finally finished dealing with this man, Olive quickly got up and left the place.
