Chapter 301

Chapter 301 Get Out, Don't Touch Mel

Olive left the private winery, seeing Tom and Mia outside. Two people were sitting in a luxury car. They obediently didn't get off the car, but they waited anxiously, obviously worried about her.

"Dad, Mom." Olive rushed over.

Tom and Mia immediately opened the car door and got off, they worriedly held her hand: "Olive, are you okay? Have you been to this private winery? This isn't a good place. You are a good girl. How did that girl get in? If you hadn't told us not to get off the car, we would have rushed in." Olive knew they would be worried, so she gave a clear order over the phone not to let them get off the car, and the two of them were on a knife edge.

"Dad, mom. I'm fine. Where's North? Have you picked her up?"

"I got word a long time ago. North was picked up by Raven. North refused to leave, so Raven forced her to go."

Olive is completely assured, North is safest with Raven.

"Olive, did anyone bully you? Tell us quickly, we'll vent on your behalf. Tom asked.

Olive shook her head, "Dad, even if someone bullies me, I don't need you to come out on my behalf. I can handle it myself. I'm the daughter of the Hart family."

These words have just been said by her, and both Tom and Mia feel very proud. They all understand that today's youth need freedom and space, and they should respect Olive.

"Olive, you have to tell us about the things you can't handle. We will always be your strongest support."

"Alright!"

"Olive, let's go home."

"Dad, mom," Olive suddenly stopped the two of them. "I'll be home later, you guys take me somewhere first."

"Where?"

"Augustine's house!"

In Augustine's house.

Alpha was processing documents in the office, his personal butler Aiden was also in there, normally no one should disturb him at this time.

Lily made a cup of coffee herself, went to the office door, raised her hand and knocked on the door.

After a while, Alpha's deep and seductive voice came from within, "Come in."

Lily pushed open the door and entered.

Alpha wears a black shirt and black trousers, sitting on an office chair. Aiden held a document in his hand and respectfully passed it over, and replied with two sentences.

Seeing Lily enter, Aiden immediately stopped talking, put away the document, politely nodded to Lily and left.

The master and the secretary were talking about very private matters, but when she arrived, they stopped talking.

Just now, Lily heard Aiden speaking about Madam. Although Aiden's voice was very small, Lily insisted that she heard correctly.

That's the madam.

Aiden had never called her "Madam", and Lily knew that Anabelle was the only "Madam" in Aiden's eyes.

Lily stepped forward, and only in front of Alpha did she let go of her egotistical and domineering aura and show a shy side, "Alpha, I made you a cup of coffee."

Alpha looked at the document in his hand, and instead of looking up at Lily, he quirked his thin lips nonchalantly, "Just put it down."

Lily put down the coffee cup, her face gradually became a little stiff, because Alpha had no intention of answering her at all, treating her like air, making her embarrassed.

But Lily didn't leave. She went to Alpha's side, saying. "Alpha, you must be very tired, I will give you a massage."

Lily's hand rested on Alpha's thick, straight shoulder, and she began to gently squeeze it. Just then, her hand slid down Alpha's shoulder...

Alpha reached out and pressed her hand that was about to move, "I have work to do, don't mess around, go back early."

"Alpha, you still have to work tomorrow. Tonight... let's go to bed early together." Lily wrapped her arms around his neck.

Alpha avoided her for a while. Because he didn't want to let her touch him, he got up and stood by the French style window, looking at the light outside.

Lily walked over, hugged him from behind, and wrapped him tightly, "Alpha, are you still looking for... Anabelle?"

At that time, Anabelle jumped off the high platform and jumped into the vast ocean, but her body hasn't been found so far.

Alpha said nothing. There seemed to be something boiling in the depths of his eyes, but upon closer inspection there was nothing. He said, "I don't want to hear her name. Don't mention it later."

Alpha wanted to push her away.

But Lily hugged him tightly and refused to let go: "Alpha, I've had enough with this life. We've slept in the same room for so many years, but you've never touched me. It's been almost twenty years. now. You have made me a widow for so many years!”

you been

“Alpha, have you had no desire for so many years? I don’t believe it. How long have abstaining from Anabelle? Let’s end this kind of life. Don’t live in her shadow anymore!

Alpha was only 30 years old when Anabelle left, the most handsome and strong age for a man, but he didn’t have a single woman by his side. He didn’t touch her, and he didn’t have any outside women, unlike other CEOs. With a little secretary, his private life was quite clean.

So many years passed in the blink of an eye, and Lily didn’t know how this man survived. Every day she lived with the “monk”, he was always unpredictable, as if he was born a kind of normal person, calm and self-sufficient, not interested in the love between men and women.

However, these are all fake!

Back then he built a really tall Red Velvet room and hid Anabelle in it. When Anabelle became pregnant with her son Elvis, she was still very young, only 20 years old.

That night she went to Red Velvet’s room, at that time Anabelle was five months pregnant, she went to see Anabelle. Alpha was there that night too, they were in the room.

Lily will always remember that scene. The door didn’t close tightly, she stood outside the door and peered through a gap. Alpha pressed against Anabelle, his large hand threaded through her dark hair, and kissed her passionately.

He seems to be obsessed with kissing Anabelle, and quickly kisses Anabelle until his face turns red and he can’t breathe.

Anabelle bit his lip hard, refusing to let go, wanting to bite off a piece of his flesh, but he groaned in pain above her.

He actually hummed over her, that low, provocative hum that made one blush. Anabelle desperately beat him, tried to push him away, and scolded him: “Get out, you beast, I’m pregnant right now. If you want to vent, go find another woman. Don’t touch me!”

Alpha refused, one hand on her side, avoiding her protruding belly, one hand caressing her beautiful small face, "Didn't you just have a prenatal check-up today? I asked, the doctor said everything is fine. I can touch you, as long as it's gentle."

With a chuckle, Anabelle raised her hand and slapped him, "You really asked the doctor this question, Alpha, do you have no shame?"

When she heard it outside, she was extremely scared. Who is this man? He's Alpha!

Who dares to slap him? Anabelle is probably the only one in this world!

Alpha's handsome face was beaten. He turned away, his black eyes tinged with a layer of scarlet. He pinched her small face with his big hand, sneered and said: "Dare to hit me? Try hitting me again! Try it. Do you want me to tie you up?"

This statement was so scary, Anabelle quickly stopped struggling, obviously frightened by him. Seeing her obey, Alpha's face also improved. He reached out to pull the blanket to cover their bodies, and began to kiss her again.

Anabelle was pinned down, she stood outside not seeing her little face, but very quickly, she heard crying.

Anabelle cried.

Lily had never seen Anabelle cry before. Anabelle's personality is very calm.

An accomplished and elegant talent legend, she has been creating Fly Jewelry since the age of 18, and her aura is like a fairy on the ground. This was the first time she had heard Anabelle cry.

Her cry was very sad.

That kind of little sob, like a fist clenched into an unbearable cry of despair, echoed in one's ears, causing one's heartache.

Alpha's tall body suddenly stiffened, he stopped moving. Looking down at the woman below, he stretched out his big hands to hug her small face, his hoarse voice revealed a little panic, worry, confusion: "Baby, are you crying?"

This call "Baby" is soft and gentle, causing people's eardrums to ache.

Anabelle pushed and slapped his big palm, crying and ignoring him.

"Why are you crying?" Alpha bit by bit kissed away the tears. He looked at her face, hoarsely asked: "Is it so unfair for you to marry me and follow me?"

Anabelle kept pushing and shoving him, crying, "You're forcing me too hard... Get out..."

Alpha didn't move. His posture is always condescending. Although he locked her down, he was careful to avoid her stomach.

She cried out that it hurt, but she was just making excuses and didn't like him touching her.

Anabelle buried her little face in the pillow and cried non-stop,

Alpha's handsome face also cooled down bit by bit. Annoyed by her crying impatiently, he pulled away.

Then he went to the bathroom and took a cold shower.

Soon he came out, dressed in a black silk pajamas with a baggy belt, revealing a hint of adult male appeal.

Anabelle was sleeping on the bed, he turned her over and let her lie on his strong chest.

His big hands cupped the nape of her neck, pressing her lips to his handsome face, "Kiss me."

Anabelle refused.

"I'll let you go, but if you don't listen to me anymore, don't blame me for being rude. I've waited long enough. Tonight, if you don't give me comfort, I'll pin it in my mind!"

Anabelle's thin, wet eyelashes trembled, and she kissed him on the lips.

Alpha hugged her, delighted by her kiss. He curled the corner of his lips, sweetly coaxing her: "Okay, don't cry. Just tell me what you want. Whatever you want, I can satisfy you, even find a way to get the stars in the sky."

Anabelle lay on his chest, tears streaming down her face, her voice choking.

"Can you let go of me?! don't like you, I don't want to be with you... Sooner or later, I'll run away, and you won't be able to find me."

Alpha's Adam's apple slid slightly, he closed his eyes, "It's okay if you don't like me. I like you. As long as you accept it. Don't always think about escaping. If you escape, I will give your son to your sister, Lily, to raise. Let your son call her mom. You can't stand this, can you?"

Anabelle's teary pupils suddenly constricted, and she placed her small hand on her protruding belly, nostalgic and reluctant to say, "Alpha, you're not allowed to touch my son."

"Then don't make me angry either. Your son's status depends entirely on your attitude towards me!"

Lily closed her eyes and escaped from the distant memory, she broke into a cold sweat.

In her impression, as well as in everyone's impression. Alpha, the monarch Augustine, from childhood was an arrogant son of heaven, the most orthodox education, with aristocratic blood flowing in his bones. After all these years, he was getting deeper and deeper. There was absolutely no smoke on his body, let alone... lust.

He is also very indifferent to her, never mentioning love.

But only Lily knows that all this is an illusion, and Alpha likes women too.

He looked at Anabelle with naked eyes. During those years, he stayed in the Red Velvet room every night. Whether Anabelle was pregnant, ailing, or had a child, he poured out his lust on Anabelle like a normal man.

Anabelle often scolds him for being a beast.

If she hadn't witnessed it with her own eyes, she would have been deceived by this man's peerless noble and elegant identity. But when he took off all his clothes, he was no different from other men, also fierce in bed

Alpha only kás Anabelle. He slept with only one woman for a long time tirelessly. He never took a second look at the many women outside, and he couldn't leave the Red Velvet room. For many years, the company and the Red Velvet room were the two places he went to, other than just some necessary business trips.

All of this made Lily extremely jealous, jealous to the point of madness.

Although these years she has been the owner of the Augustine house, and outsiders envy her good life, claiming that she has everything they dream of, who knows that she is alone in an empty room every night, and has been a widow for twenty years?

"Alpha, I know you won't be happy if I say this, but Anabelle really doesn't like you. On your wedding night, she was the one who let me into your wedding room, and she was the one who wanted to run away. She let me replace. It was her who became Mrs. Augustine!"

Alpha kept his expression unchanged. He had reached the age of fifty, his emotions had long since flared up, but when it came to that year's wedding, he narrowed his beautiful eyes.

He knew that Anabelle didn't like him.

It was he who forced her to marry.

At that time, the Midas family had a business transaction with the Augustine Corporation. That business had problems, the Midas family needed to compensate the Augustine Corporation with billions of dollars.

It was snowing heavily that day. A 19-year-old girl in a white short fur coat knelt in front of Augustine's house. She knelt for a long time, hands red from the cold and stiffened. But she kept kneeling, her slender back always straight.

Chapter 303 Marry Me, and Become the Lady of Augustine Family

At that moment, he was standing at the carved balustrade on the second floor, watching her kneel in the snow.

She doesn't know him.

He has known her for a long time.

All the memories go back to many years ago when Alpha was twenty and Anabelle was twelve.

The first time he saw her was in the hospital.

She wasn't told that he had met her when she was twelve years old.

Her mother was in the hospital that day and needed an operation, which cost a lot of money.

Lily's mother arrived, threw a bundle of money over her immature body, and called her a whore.

Money was scattered on the ground. She bent down to pick them up.

Many onlookers in the hallway pointed to her, but she remained expressionless, nonchalantly picking up money scattered on the ground.

In the crowd, she is very special.

He looked again. That day she was wearing a white dress, when she bent down to pick up the money, her black hair fell down. He saw a half of her profile, young but heartbreakingly beautiful.

At that time, Alpha was 20 years old. A 20-year-old boy was already an adult.

His friends all started dating. They secretly shared movies with him, but he had no interest.

Until he met her, a girl named Anabelle.

His gaze landed on half of her face. She is young, but her immature senses are already beautiful. Although he was used to looking at beauties, there was a flash of surprise in his eyes.

At that time, a coin fell at his feet, and he stepped on it. She was in a half-squat position to go to pick up the money, raising her small face to look at him with cold eyes, "Sir, you stepped on my money."

This was the first thing she said to him.

He lifted his foot. She picked up the money and left. As she passed him, her eyes didn't test on him at all.

Alpha, the lord of the Augustine family, was the center of attention wherever he stood, the girls looking at him with pink bubble eyes. But she took the money in her hand, didn't raise her head, and left.

The first time they met, she didn't even look at him, just a pitiful little stack of money in her hand.

However, she seemed to have taken root in his heart, so when he returned, he asked the housekeeper to inquire about her. They said her name was Anabelle.

Anabelle,

That's not Lily.

At that time, Alpha learned that the Midas family had two daughters and that they had a changed life.

Anabelle's biological mother was a singer who didn't sell herself but was raped by Mr. Midas after she drank alcohol. She became pregnant and gave birth to Anabelle.

Anabelle's biological mother suffered from heart disease and was hospitalized all year round

Chapter 303 Marry Me, And Become the Lady of Augustine Family

Because of her mother, she entered the Midas family, becoming the shadow and blood of Lily. The Midas family gave her money and treated her mother. Anabelle.

What a beautiful name.

Just like her.

Then, at the age of 26, he created the legend of the Augustine Empire. He is in Los Angeles all year round. One day, his movie mate invited him to a fancy room in a bar.

"Alpha, you haven't returned for many years. Let me tell you, the Imperial has been extremely bustling these past few years. A peerless beauty has appeared in Imperial. This beauty is a talented girl, and is also the founder of Fly Jewelry."

"This talented girl is the daughter of the Midas family. Lily."

Lily?

After six years, he heard her name again.

He knows that Lily is Anabelle.

He knew of her existence earlier than anyone else.

"I'll show you a picture of Midas' daughter. She's now the dream woman of all men."

The buddy gave him the photo. He glanced. The girl in the photo is holding a book in her hands, wearing a white dress, and has a delicate face.

"Alpha, Lily is very popular now. Many women have undergone plastic surgery to look like her and become the darling of those with much money. Look at this."

His best buddy opened the movie. He glanced slightly, then reached out his clean palm to grab the cell phone and throw it into the glass of water.

Over the next three days, all the plastic surgery stores removed all the plastic models of her from their shelves, and those films were also blocked and gone. Then he received a call, the old lady asked him to return home.

That day he was in the most luxurious presidential suite in England, leaning lazily against the floor-to-ceiling windows looking at the blue sky and white clouds thousands of feet above, his mind filled with that beautiful face.

He felt dizzy.

He wanted to see her.

Once this thought appeared, it grew madly in his heart. He wanted to see her grow up, so he returned to Imperial.

Sometimes fate always has unexpected encounters. In the heavy rain that day, his luxury car drove past, and he glimpsed eighteen-year-old Anabelle at the roadside bus stop through the polished glass window

She stood there, nervously catching a taxi.

Six years later, her beautiful and graceful figure once again entered his field of vision. She's grown up, so beautiful.

He accidentally asked the driver to drive over and give her a ride.

At that time he sat in the back, and she sat in the passenger seat. She couldn't see him, but he saw her from behind. She kept thanking the driver.

She was going to the hospital. It was raining that day, her school uniform was covered by the rain. It was wet, clinging to her maiden's body. The slender legs below are white and long. He looked at them for a long time, but why did he think of... letting her legs wrap around his waist?

He was taken aback at his own thought, this was the first time he desired someone in so many years. The desire that a man should have.

At school, she went down, the driver suddenly said: "Master, that girl just dirtied the seat."

He lifted the fender and saw a small red patch on the saddle.

She was on her period.

Arriving at Augustine's house, he went to the bathroom to take a shower. This was the first time he used his hands to appease physical desires. His mind was filled with the plum blossoms she had left behind, and her smooth legs.

He didn't know what was wrong with him. She attracted him like a magnet.

She is very intelligent, and not ashamed to be a talented woman. Men always gather to talk to girls. When he returned to Imperial, it was said that the focus of men was all around her. They said it was better to have a boy than a girl because this girl named Lily was famous throughout Imperial.

Everyone will fall in love with such a beautiful and talented girl.

So when he saw her kneeling in front of Augustine's house, he didn't know how long before he stepped on his heavy black boots, each foot crunching in the snow, step by step walking to her. He looked down and said to her, "I can let the Midas live, but you must marry me and be the Augustine lady."

Chapter 304 Olive broke into Augustine's house at night!

He felt this was a good opportunity to marry her. She was 18 years old, an adult. For so many years, he has waited for her to grow up.

If he doesn't pick this flower, sooner or later someone else will.

He, Alpha, doesn't need a rich marriage. What he needs is a girl he likes, who holds his hand for the rest of his life, and ages slowly together.

The year he married her, he was 27 years old, and she was 19 years old, both at the happiest age in their lives. He built a Red Velvet house for her, hiding her in the golden room. This became an interesting story in the Imperial once upon a time.

But he knew that she didn't want to marry him..

He still remembers clearly what happened on the wedding night, as if it all happened yesterday.

She was taken to a new house, and while he was receiving guests outside, suddenly a girl entered the room. This girl who touched his heart became his wife, waiting for him at his new home, he was dumbfounded when entertaining guests.

Damien Robert laughed at him. "Alpha, are you thinking about your little bride? There's going to be a show tonight, you'll be so excited."

He glanced at Damien, "Leave it to you, I'll go."

Amid Damien's jokes, he headed straight for his new home.

Pushing open the door to the room, he saw Lily, who had dropped her bag.

Lily appeared in his new home.

Sisters Anabelle and Lily look like twins. Their faces were identical, but at a glance, he realized, it wasn't Anabelle!

In his rage, Lily tearfully told him that Anabelle didn't want to marry him because Anabelle already had someone she liked, and she ran away with her first love.

He and his friend immediately ran to the pier, meeting Anabelle at the pier. At that time she was in the arms of a man, two people hugging.

His eyes instantly turned red, and he punched the man with his fist, and he forced her back.

That night, she refused. He tied her up and asked for her directly.

Later, he broke her wings and imprisoned her in Red Velvet's room.

During those years, she disobeyed, but he always had a way of making her obey, and gradually she became afraid of his methods.

But she always cried in his bed. There were crystal tears on her bright, clear face, making him angry and pitiful.

Alpha narrowed his beautiful eyes, recalling all his memories. At this time, there was a knock on the door outside, the door of the study room was pushed open hastily, "Sir, Madam

LIL

The maid standing by the door was stunned. She didn't expect to see this scene. A man in his fifties was standing by the French-style window. He was wearing a black shirt, handsome and decent. Well-maintained Lily hugged him from behind like a water snake. The dim light filled with elements of ambiguity, especially for a man of this age, made one blush.

The maid quickly lowered her head, not daring to look any longer.

Chapter 304 Olive brake into Augustine's house at night!

Someone interrupted, Lily reluctantly let go of Alpha. She glared at the maid in displeasure, "What's in such a hurry? Don't you understand the rules at all?"

At this moment, a sweet, soft voice came from outside the door, "Mrs.

Augustine, It's me. Don't make it hard for them, I will definitely rush in!"

The study door was completely pushed open, and Olive's beautiful slender figure came into view.

Olive is here!

Why is she here?

Lily's eyes flashed.

The maids stopped Olive, "Madam, we're sorry. We tried to stop her but we couldn't..."

Alpha looked at Olive, there was no emotion in his dark eyes. He pursed his thin lips and said, "It's okay, you guys can go."

"Yes sir."

The servants all went down.

Lily looked coldly at Olive at the door, "Miss Hart, you're so brave, breaking into Augustine's house at night!"

Olive is really brave. After coming out of the private party, she went straight to Augustine's house alone. No one in Imperial dared to do that.

Olive's clear eyes sparkled like stars, intelligent and calm. She walked in and gave Lily a faint look, then her gaze fell on Alpha, "It's so late, I dare break in, but I don't make trouble for you, but for Mr. Augustine."

Lily hesitated for a moment, then looked at Alpha, "Alpha, do you know Olive?"

Alpha didn't answer this question, his expression was very calm. Seeing his calm and majestic appearance, she stretched out her finger and pointed at the sofa, saying. "Miss Hart, please have a seal"

"No need, I came to look for Mr. Augustine today because I went to a private winery and I saw a rare painting, so I brought it here for Mr. Augustine to see." Lily's heart skipped a beat because Olive had mentioned the two words "private winery calmly.

Sure enough, Alpha's handsome eyebrows rose slightly, he said straight to the point: "Miss Hart, why did you go to the private winery?"

"I don't know either, Mr. Augustine can ask your wife! Olive smiled sweetly, but there was a cold glint in her eyes.

Lily was completely stunned, not expecting Olive to react so quickly. Her counterattack was so quick and merciless that she aimed straight at Alpha! At this moment, Lily felt a gaze fall on her face. She raised her head, meeting Alpha's narrow eyes as deep as ice cold water.

Alpha slowly narrowed his eyes, his composure making Lily feel her scalp tingling.

Lily's face was pale, and her hands and feet were cold.

"Mr. Augustine, we had a great time working together before, and you always kept your promises, and never crossed the line. I hope you will take care of Mrs. Augustine this time. Don't let her mess with me, either... Mr. Augustine should be clear. As someone like me, if anyone dares to attack my family and friends, I will do my best!" Olive said eloquently.

Chapter 304 Olive broke into Augustine's house at night!

Lily was stunned. She didn't know what Olive was talking about. But she, a 20-year-old girl, dared to talk to Alpha like that?

Alpha's response was very subtle, too. He wasn't angry, just nodded gently, "Miss Hart, there won't be a next time."

"That's fine. By the way, I still want to show this picture to Mr. Augustine."

Olive handed the scroll in her hand to Alpha.

Alpha stretched out his hand to open it, his finger faltering slightly.

Of course, Lily saw it too, her eyes widening in horror at Olive. It wasn't enough for her to break into Augustine's house at night. She also sent Anabelle's photo roll. This girl is so daring!

"Back then, Mr. Augustine built Red Velvet's tall house, hiding her in gold. I didn't expect this time I would have the good fortune to see this gorgeous and charming number-one beauty in Imperial for more than 20 years. The scroll has been treasured by the owner of the private winery. He's definitely a fan of this number one beauty."

Chapter 305 Be careful next time!

Speaking of which, Olive's clear eyes fell on Lily. Her small hands clasped behind her back, she looked at Lily from top to bottom, then clicked twice, "This is the number one beauty in Imperial that year. But, why do I feel like Mrs. Augustine has lost your charm? You're far from the number one beauty in Imperial. You two are two different people, aren't you?"

Lily gasped, looking at Olive in disbelief. How did she know this?

"Mrs. Augustine, your name is Lily, Imperial's number one beauty is called Anabelle, right?" Olive continued to speak.

Lily's pupils suddenly constricted, and she looked at Olive with horror.

In fact, Olive knows a lot, some of which Elvis said, some of her own guesses. She looked at Lily's suddenly pale face and smiled, "Mr. Augustine is definitely married to Anabelle. This marriage certificate should be Mr. Augustine and Anabelle's names, but I don't know if the name on the marriage certificate can be changed to Lily after Mrs. Augustine gets married!"

Lily felt like a knife was thrust deep into her heart, causing her heart to ache. This was always a thorn in her throat, even though she was Mrs. Augustine, she and Alpha didn't do marriage registration!

Now the marriage certificate still bears Alpha and Anabelle's names!

Olive had already guessed this, and she was just asking for proof. But now seeing Lily's tearful expression, she knew she was right.

Olive stepped forward step by step in front of Lily. "The two daughters of the Midas family have had. a transmigration life. You think that Anabelle is your shadow, but in reality, the real shadow is you. All these years, you are just her substitute. You don't even have a title. If one day Anabelle comes back, everything you own now will be returned to its original owner!"

"Mrs. Augustine, I say it again, don't mess with me. I'm not someone you can mess with. Be careful next time!"

With that, Olive turned and walked away, leaving Augustine's house.

Lily seemed to have been pushed into the abyss. Olive's last words poked at her sore spot, making her scared, panicky, and insecure.

At first, she thought Olive was just a little girl to play tricks on, so she confidently declared war on her.

But unexpectedly, she acted fiercely, she wasn't an easy person to bully. She knows a lot. She sees right through Lily and understands what she's afraid of. She just moved her lips to make Lily feel like she was standing in front of an abyss.

She is horrible!

Lily looked at Alpha, she moved her lips, "Alpha, let me explain this. I..."

Alpha wasn't looking at her, but at the picture in his hand, at Anabelle in the picture, "Did you do it for Marvin?"

"Yes, I found out that Marvin was with Olive. They hugged in the street, and Marvin drove to Watson to find Olive. Our Marvin is a proud child of heaven. He has his high standards but he is very easily fooled. As a mother, I have to take good care of him. I don't like Olive. She can't be my daughter-in-law. I just want Joyce Brown's daughter!"

Lily doesn't even like Charlotte Paulo, who flatters her all the time. She just wants Joyce Brown's daughter to be her daughter-in-law.

More than 20 years ago, the Imperial flourished, and Anabelle's crown was famous throughout the Imperial. Joyce came from a mysterious place, leveled up to fight monsters, and roamed around Imperial. These two are strange women.

Alpha reached out and gently stroked Anabelle's cold pretty face with her fingers, "Joyce Brown's daughter hasn't been found yet."

"That's because the old lady took the betrothal that Joyce left behind, so there's no way we can find out! Alpha, you're biased. You only love Anabelle's son, but you don't care about our son Marvin at all." Lily expressed her displeasure.

Alpha raised his head, his dark eyes falling on Lily's face, "If I don't love Marvin, the first thing I should do is remove you from Mrs. Augustine's place, so you don't raise Marvin to waste. Use your brain before doing anything. You used this kind of despicable tactic against Olive, let alone you're not Olive's opponent. Even if you win, where would you put Marvin at?"

I..." Lily stammered. She knew Alpha wasn't happy. As a person who has held the business for so many years, if he gets angry, it is like lightning. She was so scared that she couldn't even utter a complete sentence.

Alpha stood up and gave Lily one last look, "If you don't want to be Mrs. Augustine anymore, just tell me. I don't need Mrs. Augustine. Give me some peace of mind."

After saying that, he took the picture and left the office.

Lily clenched her fists, her eyes red. Olive broke into Augustine's house tonight, causing her to be disfigured by Alpha's scolding.

This attack is really cruel!

That's right, she's been Anabelle's shadow all these years!

As the daughter of an older brother, if not for her childhood illness, Anabelle wouldn't have entered the Midas house at all. Originally, Anabelle was just her blood and her shadow.

But who knew that Anabelle grew to be more beautiful? Until her Fly Jewelry hit sales records, every season, her jewelry was swept away as soon as it hit the market, surprising the jewelry industry and covering Imperial.

She was no longer Lily's shadow, Lily had become her shadow.

This is really the biggest thrill and joke.

However, these years Lily is still happy because she loves Alpha.

She couldn't forget the first time she saw Alpha. That day, Alpha stepped out of his luxury business car, wearing a handmade black suit, followed by numerous corporate executives with blue badges. He walked slowly among thousands of people, so bright that people couldn't take their eyes off him.

Thirty years ago, Alpha, the son of Imperial, made many people smitten with him.

No one can escape his light and charm, and neither can she.

She fell in love with Alpha at first sight, too.

The charming beauty who grew up in the depths of the Midas family lost her heart to this man at that time.

After all these years, Lily's heart still fluttered when she saw Alpha.

However, he was still cruel to her.

Chapter 305 Be careful next time

Lily suddenly felt a pain in her heart, she cried out loudly: "Go, go!"

In the bar.

Raven went to the luxurious room, and glanced at Elvis, who was now leaning lazily against the back of the sofa, casually pouring himself a glass of wine, "I heard last night Olive broke into your Augustine's house and made Lily angry. My heart ached, and the private doctors came one after another."

"Just now that private winery was also flattened by an excavator. The lavish paradise on earth suddenly turned into a cup of loess. Elvis, your father is indeed your father. He made one move and the whole world knows."

Chapter 306 Watson in the top five

Elvis was sitting drinking on the dark red sofa. He was drinking a bottle, there was an empty bottle on the table.

When he heard that Olive had broken into Augustine's house at night and that the private winery had been razed, he said nothing. The dim light glinted on his handsome face.

Raven kicked him, "What's wrong, are you drunk?"

Elvis took the last sip of wine from the bottle, put on his coat, and stood up, "I'm not drunk, I'm going first."

He drank a lot, but the more he drank, the more sober he became..

Soon the day of the general entrance exam will come. All students at Watson are waiting for this day. They have been preparing for battle for a long time.

Today they officially entered the battlefield. They couldn't contain the excitement and suspense in their hearts.

Olive pursed her red lips and said with a smile, "You don't have to be nervous, just perform normally. We come from the bottom, so there's nothing to be afraid of."

"Okay!" Everyone replied in unison.

At this time, Crystal arrives with a group of Bright Star students. Crystal looked at Olive and mocked mercilessly, "I heard that you are all studying hard these days. You guys, it's useless no matter how hard you try. Learning is not something that can be achieved overnight."

Olive looked at Crystal and replied, "It's true that learning isn't something that can be achieved overnight, but it's not too late to get books now. Hard work will bring luck to everyone, and we'll see you after the entrance exam."

Seeing Olive filled with confidence, Crystal despised, "Then you really have to work hard. Don't lose too much face!"

"You have to work hard, so as not to make a big joke!"

Olive and Crystal were looking at each other, sparks shooting out of their eyes and gunpowder filling the air.

At this time, there is a "ding", the admission bell rings, and the entrance exam is about to begin.

Crystal coldly waved her sleeve, "Let's go!"

She left with the group of Bright Stars.

Olive also arrogantly brought the Watson students into the exam room.

The entrance exam is officially over. All the students who were nervously preparing for the exam after the exam were lying on their desks, saying that they were as tired as dogs, and could finally breathe a sigh of relief.

The next step is to correct the test, count the scores for each school, and conduct the total assessment. In the blink of an eye, another week has passed, and all grades have been released and sent to the principals of each school.

Now the principals of all the schools gathered in one office, and this was their battlefield.

Mr. Harris is besieged again,

Chapter 306 Watson in the top live

“Mr. Harris, I heard this year Olive from your Watson challenged Crystal, the head of Bright Star. Why is she so brave? Isn’t she afraid of being embarrassed?”

“Not only that, I also heard at the gates of Watson, she announced that this year Watson will be in the top 5 and be eligible to enroll in the Academy of Sciences.”

“Mr. Harris, it’s not that we want to criticize you, it’s that your Watson has been too arrogant lately. That’s right, you won the championship in the basketball game, but this is an exam. Your Watson is always at the bottom hahaha.”

Principal Harris wasn’t angry. Recently, his bald head has slowly grown new hair, so he looks radiant. He waved his hand: “I trust our Watson students. This time they really try, and I will believe whatever they say. Today I will bet with you this old face. If I lose the bet, I am willing to be laughed at by you. If I win the bet, you all have to invite me to drink.”

“It’s okay, we all will bet!”

Someone pulled the Vice Principal Baker, “Mr. Baker, do you want to bet?”

Vice Principal Baker has been in a bad mood lately, but looking at the entrance exam scores that have been sent in his hand, he got his spirit back, and looked at Principal Harris with contempt, “Mr. Harris, the exam is really not your specialty, I don’t want to show off, but if you’ve given me your face to challenge, then I’ll bet.”

“Okay!” Principal Harris’s eyes lit up. “If you win, in the future, every time I see you, I’ll call you master and bring you tea. If I win, haha, every time you meet me, you will call me master and bring me tea!”

Vice Principal Baker felt that Watson couldn’t win because to win, two conditions had to be met simultaneously. First, Olive must defeat Crystal. And second, Watson made the top 5. Apparently, they were daydreaming.

“Okay, go ahead!” Vice Principal Baker happily agreed.

Everyone was a little eager to try. This year’s general exam is really exciting, everyone participates in betting, playing a bit big. “First look at the total ranking score, see if Watson University is in the top 5.”

“Okay.”

The principals of each school gathered around a table. Vice Principal Baker took the total score ranking from the sealed folder, then revealed the school with first place.

Number one is Bright Star!

This result isn’t surprising. Bright Star has been leading the universities in Imperial for several years now. There are many talents among them. This time they won the first prize, too.

“Wow, Mr. Baker, congratulations.”

“We are here to celebrate you every year, and this year was no exception!” Vice Principal Baker’s face was rosy, glanced at Principal Harris, “Mr. Harris, how is it? Our Bright Star is number one.”

H

Principal Harris laughed and said, “Mr. Baker, whether Bright Star is number one or not isn’t what we’re betting on. I can only congratulate you.”

Vice Principal Baker choked and said with some discomfort: “Wait a minute, I will reveal the top five now, Watson must not be in it!”

Vice Principal Baker revealed the second, not Watson.

Third, it’s not Watson.

The Sul

Fourth, neither.

Now only fifth place remains.

Vice Principal Baker’s face was filled with joy, “Mr. Baker, are you in a hurry? Look at the sweat on your head, wipe it off with paper.”

A well-meaning person hurriedly handed a piece of paper to Principal Harris to wipe his sweat, “Mr. Harris, don’t be in a hurry. Didn’t you just tell Mr. Baker to bring tea? We’ve already made you tea.”

Principal Harris was really nervous. All his hopes were placed in fifth place which carried the expectations of all of Watson

Principal Harris reached out to push all the “good guys” away, “I’ll reveal the fifth!”

Principal Harris opened the fifth and he was shocked on the spot.

Vice Principal Baker laughed and said, “Mr. Harris, isn’t this the fifth place? I knew you were going to lose, hurry up and call me master.”

At this time, someone silently pushed Vice Principal Baker, “Mr. Baker, look, this fifth place is really... Watson!”

“What?”

Vice Principal Baker was taken aback, and quickly lowered his head to look, the hold red “Watson” entered his line of sight.

The fifth, Watson!

Principal Harris regained his composure after the shock, “It’s our Watson, it’s our Watson. These kids really did it. What Olive says is true. Hard workers won’t have bad luck. It’s just we come from the bottom. Don’t be afraid!”

Chapter 307 Olive took first place

Vice Principal Baker and the principals of other schools were struck by lightning, and they didn’t expect that Watson would make it into the top five.” From the bottom of the table to the top 5, this is a quick rise. These principals in their school days have never encountered such a situation, have they witnessed history?

Those who work hard won’t be so unlucky!

They come from the bottom. Don’t be afraid!

Vice Principal Baker looked at Principal Harris’s rosy face, so excited that he almost jumped up. Did Olive say these two sentences? Two sentences that changed everything from dream to reality? Olive’s small fresh and delicate face and clear and calm pupils flashed into the mind of Vice Principal Baker. For such a young girl, in her body there was always an unparalleled strength, along with a steadfast strength, she was like a ray of light. She shines and shines a light on others. Vice Principal Baker looked at another sealed document, which contained the grades of all Bright Star and Watson students. At this time, his hand was shaking a little, and he was afraid to open it. Because of this opening, Olive and Crystal’s individual competition has come to an end. Vice Principal Baker now has a bad premonition that Crystal has... lost.

The school principals are a little embarrassed,

“Mr. Harris, congratulations, this time you really made us...admire you!”

“But Mr. Harris, don’t get too excited. We still have to see Olive’s individual results.”

“That’s right, this time the final result of the first-place entrance exam is still Bright Star’s anyway. We all believe the personal first place is also from Bright Star. Crystal will definitely win!” Principal Harris felt these people were jealous, blatantly jealous. But the elite is always envied by others, he can understand this. Principal Harris looked at Vice Principal Baker and said, “Mr. Baker, let’s open up our personal records for a bit. Although this time Bright Star is number one, if the number one individual is not Bright Star, and it’s our Watson, then your face will really swell.”

Vice Principal Baker had made a bet, and at this time could only continue, he snorted coldly. “Then now look at the individual results.”

Vice Principal Baker opened the sealed file.

The principals of all the major colleges and universities widened their eyes and held their breaths. They are both waiting for Olive and Crystal’s individual results.

The most exciting moment has come.

The sealed file was opened, and Vice Principal Baker presented the results of the two schools. Not surprisingly, Crystal came first in the Bright Star school entrance exam, and Olive came first in the Watson school entrance exam!

Olive is number one in Watson!

Unexpectedly, this girl is really powerful!

Vice Principal Baker heard the discussion around, and his heart began to sink. Principal Harris put away Watson’s report card, glanced at it silently, and then said “Huh”, his expression became very strange.

Chapter 30) Dine took first place

Vice

ncipal Baker wiped his eyes, his eyes lit up as if seeing a desperate situation in hope. He leaned forward to Principal Harris, “Mr. Harris, what do you mean by your expression? Is Olive not passing the exam?”

Judging from the expression of Mr. Harris, it has to be.

“Mr. Baker, how much did Crystal score?”

Vice Principal Baker looked at Crystal’s score and quickly smiled. Crystal has always been the beauty queen of Bright Star, but this time Crystal’s performance is extraordinary. She did very well. in the exam.

“149, 148, 147, two more 146, the total score is 736.” Vice Principal Baker stated.

“Wow.”

“My G od, did Crystal really score 736 on the exam this time?”

“736 points, this is a new high in the last few years, right?”

“Mr. Baker, you guys are awesome! This Crystal is even more amazing!”

Vice Principal Baker smiled and waved, “Crystal has always been excellent, but this time perhaps she was provoked and stimulated some energy in her body, so her performance was extraordinary.”

At this point. Vice Principal Baker turned his attention to Principal Harris and said, “Mr. Harris, you’ve been watching for a long time. Let’s see how many points Olive gets.”

“Mr. Harris, Olive must have failed the exam. We all know. It’s okay, nothing to be ashamed of. We won’t laugh at you either, just let us have a look.”

Crystal got 736 points on the test. This can be considered a lesson for Watson and Olive. People can't be arrogant and throw a straw against the wind anymore. Isn't that looking for death?

"Mr. Harris, stop hanging around and give us your report card!"

A principal reached out and snatched the report card from Principal Harris.

The other principals gathered, "Show us quickly."

"Everyone don't push, I'll read to you. Olive's score is, 150...150? 150?? 150! 150!! Total score 750,..

The entire office fell silent in an instant. The principals seemed to have been electrocuted, all of them showing disbelief and horror.

"Oh my God!"

"Olive's each subject has a perfect score of 150, the total score is 750!"

"What level is this?"

All

Vice Principal Baker was stunned, his head exploded. What did he just hear? How was that possible?

Vice Principal Baker rushed over and snatched Watson's school report. At the top is the result of Olive, 150 each, 750 points in total!

The two black and white letters directly pierced Vice Principal Baker's pupils.

Vice Principal Baker was stunned on the spot. No. He couldn't believe it. For so many years, no one has achieved perfect scores in all subjects. As for their Bright Star, the absolute score from the brightest university was the perfect score given by the legendary Bright Star's Marvin Augustine.

The Vice Principal Baker suddenly remembered, there was another one. That year at Bright Star. there was another legend, a 15-year-old student with two doctoral degrees, who got perfect marks in every subject. That student with two doctoral degrees is apparently called... Olive Hart!

Chapter 307 Olive took first place

The report card slipped from the hands of Vice Principal Baker and fell to the ground. He was terrified. Turns out she's Olive!

All major universities have begun publishing their rankings. Watson made it into the top 5, shocking the entire Imperial universities. What is more surprising is that this year's individual first place also came from Watson, with a perfect score. In all subjects, a total score of 750, a new record in the entire record of entrance exam results. She is Olive Hart!

The name Olive immediately became the brightest star and was mentioned by everyone.

Alicia and the others have completely sealed off around Olive.

"Olive, how did you do that? Did you really... get a perfect score?"

“Olive, are you still human?”

“Olive, I have good news for you, our Watson has also made it to the top 5. How could you do that? You don’t bother, do you?”

All of Watson’s faces were cheerful, but at Bright Star, Crystal clenched her fists with resentment.

00

Chapter 308 Love Enemies Met

Watson and Bright Star were originally neighbors, but now the rankings are displayed in the window outside the school, and everyone is standing on the same street.

Seeing Olive’s absolute score, Crystal was really shocked, stunned, and couldn’t believe it. This time she is very confident in herself, and the total score of 736 points is within her prediction. Who could think Olive would get a perfect score?

Damn, Olive from the college next door got a perfect score of 750. How did she get it?

Olive is so powerful. She really heated Crystal.

Now who hasn’t heard of the name Olive? Look at the crowd at Watson’s gate, and a lot of them come from other universities just to see Olive!

Crystal dug her nails deep into her hand without feeling any pain. Previously, other university seniors came to see her, but now Olive has made her name at Imperial, and she has taken all her glory.

She lost the bet this time!

What a heavy loss!

At this time, someone shouted: “Look, Vice Principal Baker is here.”

Vice Principal Baker really came, a rather unsightly face, next to Principal Harris, who was now a man of style.

“Mr. Harris, this time our Watson really made it into the top five. Moreover, the first place in the entrance exam is also ours. It’s Olive. She got a perfect score!” People surrounded Mr. Harris, saying.

Principal Harris laughed and said: “You guys have worked hard this time. Our Watson made miracles, our superiors praised us, our Watson will soon be decorated with flower lanterns. Banners and screens will be hung outside, taking turns celebrating our victory, and the broadcasters will do interviews with us!”

“Wow, that’s great!” Everyone cheered.

Principal Harris looked at Olive in the middle of the crowd, and sincerely complimented, “Olive, you’re amazing.”

“Yes, she is absolutely amazing.”

Olive’s clear eyes filled with a bright smile, “Mr. Harris, as I said, our Watson is the best!”

“That’s right, our Watson is the best!”

All the people at Watson uttered these words eloquently and forcefully, with a burst of vigor.

At this time, Principal Harris looked at Vice Principal Baker and coughed: “Oh, Mr. Baker, I’m a little thirsty right now.”

What does it mean?

Vice Principal Baker reluctantly gritted his teeth, then personally brought a cup of tea, handed it to Principal Harris, and obediently called, “Master, please drink tea.”

“Okay, good” Principal Harris said, taking a sip of tea.

The students at Bright Star were all stunned, wide-eyed, and looked at the used to be confident Vice Principal Baker. Is this Vice Principal Baker willing to bring tea and pour water for others, and call them master?

Chapter 328 Love Enemies Met

Principal Harris took a sip of tea and handed the tea cup to Mr. Baker, declaring: “Guys, today is Friday. Tonight, I, the principal, will treat you. Let’s have a party!”

“Whoo h oo!”

The whole Watson school rushed over, carrying Mr. Harris up and threw him in the air.

Principal Harris exclaimed: “Ah, you little devils! I’m afraid of heights! Drop me!”

Olive was influenced by everyone’s good mood. She quietly stepped aside, her lips curling into a gentle smile.

The sun just came out at this time. She looked up at these liberal young students. She is still neither arrogant nor hot-tempered. Her beautiful, slender and calm eyebrows are as elegantly blooming as nightingale pearls.

Vice Principal Baker then looked at Olive and asked in a low voice, “Olive Hart, is that you?”

Olive turned her head, her bright eyes fell on Vice Principal Baker’s face. She nodded and said, “Principal Baker, it’s me.”

She didn’t call him Vice Principal Baker, but Principal Baker, because seven or eight years ago he was still the principal.

The only ones who call him Principal Baker now are probably the people of Bright Star.

Vice Principal Baker had an embarrassed expression on his face. Indeed, she, 15 years old but already has two doctorates, is as famous as Marvin, who has also been named as one of the two legends of Bright Star, the proud daughter of an entire generation.

He rejected her a month ago!

Vice Principal Baker knew what he missed. He had personally pushed such a bright star to Watson's side, letting Watson receive such a legend for no reason!

Vice Principal Baker with trembling hands, turned and walked into Bright Star, without saying a word.

The students from Bright Star School followed after him, "Vice Principal Baker, what happened? Did you call Principal Harris master and serve tea to him?"

Principal Baker bellowed, "I'm stupid, okay? Get out! Don't disturb me!"

In the night.

Mr. Harris hosted the party, so everyone from Watson came here to celebrate, taking up almost the entire hall. The scene is quite spectacular.

Olive also came to sit with Alicia and the other girls, halfway through they went to the bathroom. together..

Walking down the corridor, Olive stumbled upon an acquaintance, who was Crystal.

There was also a girl next to Crystal. That girl was tall and beautiful, wearing a red dress. She looks like a delicate young girl. She is the daughter of the Paulo family, Charlotte.

Crystal looked at Olive, introducing, "Charlotte, she's Olive Hart!"

Charlotte's gaze fell on Olive. She looked her up and down, showing some contempt and hostility, "Are you Olive?"

Alicia quickly pulled Olive behind her,

"Crystal, last time Olive bet with you, you lost. You lost completely. You are Olive's defeated

"What do you want now? You failed the exam, so bring an assistant to fight?

low."

"Charlotte, we are not afraid of you, you better not mess around!"

Charlotte?

Olive still didn't know Charlotte, but looking at Alicia and the others, who looked like they were facing a formidable enemy, Olive guessed that this person was difficult to deal with. She asked, "Alicia, who is she?"

Alicia hastily said in a low voice: "Olive, she is Charlotte, the unruly daughter of Imperial. She is the only daughter of the Paulo family of the four great families of Imperial, and the precious granddaughter of Mr. Paulo, the president of the Academy of Sciences!"

"She knows martial arts and has a whip wrapped around her waist. Once someone confronted her, she pulled out the whip and directly ripped the person's skin. Now everyone who sees her is scared just because of the whip on her belt."

"That's right, Charlotte likes Marvin, the second young master of the Augustine family. The entire Imperial knows that."

Alicia and the others quickly and carefully introduced Olive, and Olive nodded to show that she understood.

Before entering the Academy of Sciences, she heard the name of the granddaughter of the Science Academy's president. Charlotte came looking for her because of Marvin.

Olive patted Alicia on the arm to comfort her, then she took two steps forward, looked at Crystal, then looked at Charlotte, asking, "I'm Olive, what do you need from me?"

00

Chapter 309 Two men fighting for her

Charlotte looked at Olive distantly, like an ant at her feet. "So you're Olive. I heard you made a fuss after going to Imperial, I thought you had superhuman strength. Now, as soon as I see you, you are a temptress!"

"Charlotte, why are you scolding her?" Alicia and the others were outraged. Olive quickly stopped them, and she looked at Charlotte with a slight smile, "It takes skill to look like a temptress. Miss Paulo, I'll take that as a compliment." Charlotte's eyes turned cold, "You turned out to be a woman with a sharp tongue. Did you use this mouth to deceive Marvin and hook him up? Has anyone ever told you that Marvin belongs to me, Charlotte?"

"Miss Paulo, Marvin doesn't belong to me, nor does he belong to you. He belongs only to himself." "You! Olive, I give you a chance, immediately pack up and leave the Imperial!" said Charlotte fiercely.

Olive looked at her calmly, and gave her two words, "Forgive me!"

Charlotte's beautiful face immediately darkened, revealing a hint of cruelty. No one had ever dared to talk to her like that, who the hell is Olive?

Charlotte reached out, pulled the whip from her hip, and swung it straight at Olive's face.

When Charlotte saw Olive for the first time, she found her face to be an eyesore. Olive's face is very delicate and beautiful, so beautiful to make men fall in love and make women jealous. Let's see how she will seduce Marvin in the future!

"Olive, be careful!" Alicia and the others exclaimed.

Olive didn't move, and didn't dodge at all. As the whip was whipped towards her, her transparent pupils flared with a cold and sharp light.

At this moment, a large hand suddenly reached out, mid-air caught Charlotte's whip, "Charlotte, what are you doing?"

Olive looked up, and it turned out to be... Derrick!

Derrick is here!

Derrick is the brave prince of the Imperial, and Charlotte is the fierce daughter of the Imperial. The confrontation between these two is quite interesting.

Charlotte didn't expect Derrick to get involved. The four great families in Imperial have always been indifferent to each other.

She yelled, "Derrick, what does it have to do with you if I teach a bitch a lesson?"

"Bitch, who are you scolding?"

"I'm scolding..." Charlotte's voice suddenly stopped. She suddenly realized that she had been pranked, Derrick had just scolded her for being a bitch!

At this moment, Derrick let go of his hand, threw the whip directly, and walked in front of Olive, his arm wrapped around Olive's shoulders, "Charlotte, it has nothing to do with me if you teach someone a lesson. But you can't touch this woman, because she's mine. You can't even touch a strand of her hair!"

What?

Chapter 301 Theo men fighting for her

Charlotte rolled her eyes. Olive is Derrick's woman?

Crystal, who was watching the show, also had a glint in her eye. She had no idea how Olive was related to Derrick.

Olive didn't need Derrick's help, now he stepped forward and put his arm around her as if the two of them understood each other very well. He was still talking nonsense here, and she was speechless.

Olive immediately wanted to push him away, but at this moment, she felt a cold, dark gaze fall on her. Someone was always staring at her.

Who?

Olive raised her head, her slender eyelids rapidly trembling. Elvis has arrived!

She didn't know when Elvis came here. Right now he was standing in a corner. The dim lights cast on his handsome face so it was hard to see his face, but his narrow, deep eyes staring at her body were both sinister and cold, and a little repulsive.

He looked at her with an extremely cold, disgusted look as if she were some kind of filth.

Olive felt a stab of pain in her heart.

She knew he hated her, but somehow he seemed to hate her even more. He already really hated her.

At this moment, Crystal also saw Elvis. She quickly ran over, smiled sweetly and said: "Elvis, why are you here?"

Elvis looked away from Olive's face, looked at Crystal in front of him, and said in a deep voice, "There was a social event, so I came here. I just saw you guys gathered together. Did you get hurt?"

"No, I didn't." Crystal, who was concerned, smiled brightly, and explained, "Elvis, there was a little misunderstanding just now. Charlotte thought Olive was with Marvin, and now Derrick suddenly appeared, saying Olive is his woman... Well, this relationship is messy. What guy is Olive dating?"

Olive naturally heard Crystal's words. Crystal was deliberately discrediting her, and she almost said that she was a woman who had messy relationships with men.

Olive wanted to speak, but at this moment, Elvis's deep, nonchalant voice reached her ears, "Don't waste time thinking about this kind of person, it's not worth it."

Olive's slender fingers suddenly curled up. He said she was "this kind of person", what kind of person is she?

Derrick narrowed his cherry blossom eyes and asked dangerously, "Young master Augustine, long time no see. Who were you talking about just now?"

Elvis lifted his handsome eyelids, his gaze falling on Derrick's devilish handsome face. The two looked at each other, sparks flying.

"Young master Rodriguez, why are you asking this on purpose? Let me tell you, and honestly warn you. If your body is too dirty, it's best to get tested for AIDS." Elvis pursed his thin lips and uttered the most sarcastic and cruel words.

AIDS...

These words caused Olive's innocent pupils to constrict violently. She stared in disbelief at the tall handsome Elvis, at his thin lips that opened and closed. She couldn't understand what he was saying.

How could he... say that about her?

Derrick's handsome face instantly turned cold, revealing a hint of evil, "Elvis, you've eaten gunpowder, Just say if you want to fight with me. I'm itching too."

Elvis narrowed his deep eyes, his handsome bushy eyebrows raised. He casually smiled: "Okay, I

Chapter 309 Two men fighting for her heard that Young master Rodriguez has defeated everyone at Imperial, but on the premise that I'm not here. Now of course I am willing to practice the exercises with Young master Rodriguez!”

Everyone was stunned, including Crystal and Charlotte. This was originally a women’s battlefield, but when these two men arrived, they provoked each other and began to fight head-to-head. These two men seem to have nothing to do with each other, why are they fighting?

Chapter 310 Let’s get engaged first!

Derrick was already annoyed, now provoked by Elvis, he let go of Olive, took two steps forward, and slammed a fist into Elvis’ handsome face.

Elvis didn’t even try to dodge. As his fists flew, he also hit Derrick’s handsome face with a fist.

The two immediately wrestled with each other.

“Ah!”

It was unknown who shouted, the scene instantly lost control. Prince Augustine and Prince Rodriguez fought in the Imperial bar, everyone was scared and ran away. These two were great figures that the people of Imperial couldn’t mess with, fearing getting into trouble.

Crystal’s smile faded, her face pale. She stood frozen in place, having never seen Elvis fight before. In her impression, Elvis perfectly inherited talent from the Augustine family. He started playing in the business world when he was a teenager. While their friends were still having fun, he already had some success. He is more mature than his peers, steadfast and unfathomable. She never thought he would fight.

Crystal remembers that he seems to have gotten into a fight, but that was years ago. And now that the traces of that war have been washed away and almost no one remembers it. It seems that he fought for his mother.

So who is he fighting for this time?

Crystal looked at Elvis at this moment. Derrick has been fighting since he was a child, and he is truly the champion in Imperial, but this time he is in big trouble. Elvis isn’t inferior to him at all. He struck fast and mercilessly, each fist hitting Derrick with unparalleled ferocity. Derrick was quickly bruised, but Elvis wasn’t much better. Both of them were injured.

“Stop fighting!” Crystal yelled and rushed forward, wanting to stop them.

“Elvis, stop!”

At this point, Charlotte walked over, pulled Crystal back, “Crystal, don’t go forward. It’ll be dangerous. if they touch you.

The scene gradually lost control, the two men smashed many things. Olive ran forward, reaching out her little hand and grabbing Elvis’s shirt, exclaiming.

“Elvis, that’s enough. Stop hitting!”

Elvis’s eyes were red, and he turned his head to look at Olive. Now her advice to him was like a solid hammer to protect Derrick. He directly pushed her away, “Get out!”

Olive was knocked to the ground by his power.

“Ugly girl!” Derrick’s pupils shrank, he said angrily: “Elvis, are you a f ucking man? Why are you treating women like that?”

Seeing Olive, fall to the ground, Elvis’ tall body suddenly stiffened, his heart seemed to be grabbed by a big hand, very painful.

“Elvis! Derrick lunged forward, grabbed Elvis by the collar, and punched him.

“Olive, are you okay?” Alicia and the others quickly ran over, urgently examining Olive’s wound.

Olive’s slender eyelids quivered, “Yes, I’m okay.”

After saying that, she got up and left, not looking at the two men fighting.

Elvis watched her go, her slender figure slowly disappearing from his sight. He looked away, suddenly a little disinterested in fighting. He felt that he was too boring to come here to fight.

me Bride Dord

Derrick punched him twice. Seeing him not moving, he stopped, breathing.

“Elvis, I mean, how to stimulate your confusing nerves?”

Elvis’s face was dark and uncertain, his thin lips pursed, he took his coat and walked away.

When Derrick saw him leave, he couldn’t wait to continue to fight, but his face hurt too much. Elvis really risked his life, punching him to pieces, punching him in the face, probably trying to hurt him. Derrick felt that Elvis was jealous of him because of his handsome and outstanding face!

Olive went to the bathroom to wash her face with cold water, then said goodbye to Alicia and the others, and told them to tell Principal Harris she would go first.

Olive wasn’t feeling well, her head was dizzy and she had signs of fever.

She has very rarely been sick since she was a child let alone a fever.

But this time the effects of the illness were so intense that she couldn’t resist.

The elevator arrived, Olive entered. She reached out and touched her very hot forehead. This time she went out without a needle, so she had to go back and get herself a needle.

In her mind was such a chaotic thought, the elevator door was about to close, but Crystal's voice suddenly came from outside, full of pain: "Elvis, you're injured. Why did Derrick hit that hard?"

The elevator door that was about to close opened, Elvis and Crystal appeared outside.

Olive raised her head, didn't expect it to be such a coincidence that she could meet them in the elevator.

Elvis also caught a glimpse of Olive inside. The girl stood inside like a water flower, her sparkling eyes looking at him for a moment, then gently turned away, not looking at him anymore.

Elvis grabbed his coat with his fingers, and forcibly snatched his own coat. Seeing Olive at this moment, Crystal was quite happy, because she was sensitive to the delicate things between the two, and they seemed to be falling apart.

"Elvis, let's go in." Crystal reached out and pulled Elvis into the elevator.

The elevator doors closed, and there were only three people inside. Olive stood silently in a corner, Elvis and Crystal on the opposite side.

"Elvis, let me wipe your face." Crystal took out a disinfecting tissue from her bag, tiptoed to help Elvis wipe his face, "Elvis, it must be painful here. Let me blow it for you. It won't hurt anymore."

Crystal held Elvis' handsome face and blew gently on it.

The two were so close that they were almost stuck together.

Olive closed her slender eyelids to look at her toes, and tried her best to ignore the two intimates on opposite sides. Her head grew heavier and heavier, and she became dizzy.

At this moment, Elvis wrapped his arms around Crystal's slim waist, pulling her into his lap: "Crystal, let's get engaged first."

Olive's ears buzzed. She didn't hear anything, just repeated his sweet words inside. Let's get engaged first.

Crystal took a deep breath, her eyes shining as she looked at him: "Elvis, are you serious?"

Elvis nodded: "Yes, you're still in university. So let's get engaged first. After you graduate, we will get married. Crystal, do you want to be Mrs. Augustine?"

"Yes, of course, Elvis. I'm waiting for this day. I'm so happy!" Crystal went on tiptoe to kiss Elvis' handsome cheek.
