Chapter 311

Chapter 311 Olive fell ill!

In the corner of Elvis's eye, he always noticed the slim figure in the corner. Hearing the news that he was engaged, she didn't respond, standing there quietly.

Elvis twisted his thin lips into a shallow curve. When the elevator arrived, the door opened, he put his arm around Crystal and went out: "Crystal, I'll take you home."

"Thank you, Elvis." Crystal happily laughed.

Olive returned to Hart's house, and fell on the bed as soon as she entered the room, unconscious.

Tom and Mia were scared to death, and rushed to call the doctor. Olive had a high fever of 42 degrees, her beautiful hand-sized face was completely red. "Doctor, why isn't Olive awake yet? She has a high fever, but she shouldn't be in a coma!" Mia nervously grabbed the doctor.

The doctor frantically wiped the cold sweat, "Mrs. Hart, this time she has a very strong fever. The illness is rushing like a mountain, so she faints. This high fever has a process, it must be slowly lowered. She'll wake up soon."

Despite the doctor's reassurance, Tom and Mia were still worried. Olive has precious blood to protect her body, and she has never been sick since she was a child. This time, she had a high fever of 42 degrees, and she was as hot as an oven. Her little head was on fire.

The maid brought cold water over and over again. Mia stayed up all night and used cold towels to help Olive's body cool down, but Olive never woke up and kept falling asleep.

This was the first time Tom had seen such a pale Olive. In their impression, Olive had always been smart, calm and confident, like a shining star, but now she was lying lifeless in bed, having a little fragility of a 20 year old girl.

Tom sighed, "What's wrong with this kid? Why is it that when she's healthy, she suddenly gets sick?"

"Right, today Watson entered the top five, our Olive is even more famous in Imperial. Three days later, the science academy will enter the top five universities to recruit students. Olive's purpose when coming to Imperial is to get the second treasure box left by the lady. Why is Olive suddenly sick now?"

"We have to trust Olive. Olive will definitely recover on the day of selection to the Science Academy!"

In the night, at Paulo's house.

The maid opened the door of the mansion, "Miss, you're back?"

“Yes,” Charlotte hurried in, “Where’s my grandpa? I want to see my grandpa!”

“Miss, the old master is in the study room.” The maid respectfully replied.

Charlotte quickly went upstairs and pushed open the door of the study:

“Grandpa.”

As president of

Mr. Paulo was looking for books on the bookshelf. This office is very large, inside there are many bookshelves, on the bookshelves are thick books of medical classics, including many rare editions.

The entire Emperor doesn’t know that the Paulo family is obsessed with medicine. the Academy of Sciences, Paulo’s pursuit of medicine has reached a frenzy.

“Grandpa, stop reading. I have something to tell you, it’s very important!”

Charlotte took Mr. Paul’s arm.

Mr. Paulo headed up from the page and looked at Charlotte. His cloudy eyes shone with a sharp light, but he was very fond of his granddaughter.

“Charlotte, what do you want to tell grandpa?” He asked.

“Grandpa, did you know there’s been a famous girl in Imperial lately? She’s Olive!”

Mr. Paulo laughed twice, “Is that Olive, who got a perfect score of 750 in the entrance exam? I heard that she’s had a bit of a reputation Intelly.”

Charlotte snorted twice in displeasure. Even Grandpa had heard of Olive. Wouldn’t the champion with a score of 750 in the national entrance exam be hard to know?

“Grandpa, I heard that in three days the science academy will go to the top five universities to conduct talent selection?”

Mr. Paulo nodded, “Yes, then I’ll see Olive in person.”

“Grandpa, let me tell you one thing, I don’t like Olive!”

“So what?”

“So, grandpa, you know, if you don’t help me, I’ll go find my big brother.

Brother loves me the most, he will definitely help me...”

Before Charlotte finished speaking, Mr. Paulo’s face suddenly changed color.

He heavily threw the book in his hand down on the table, reprimanded and said, “Blabbing! Your brother is currently practicing in seclusion and has reached the most critical breakthrough point. Charlotte, I warn you, don’t bother your brother!”

Charlotte is the apple in the eyes of the Paulo family and is loved so much, but she is still very afraid of Mr. Paulo. She knows that her brother is the future and hope of the entire Paulo family, and that Mr. Paulo values this eldest grandson the most.

Paulo’s son, Jean Paulo, was gifted from an early age, and he was the best at... potions.

Jean's use of poison has reached perfection.

Now once he breaks through, he will be invincible.

"I know, grandpa."

Seeing Charlotte restrained, Mr. Paulo's face softened a little, "Charlotte, grandpa told you before, the Paulo family almost had a disaster more than 20 years ago. There was a powerful woman from nowhere. Her medical skills were unstoppable, and she almost wiped out the entire family of Paulo. Later, I heard that she died, but her descendants are still not found. I put all my hopes in your brother, and he has never let me down."

"Charlotte, you are the apple in the eyes of our Paulo family. Grandpa and your brother love you and cherish you, but you must know that the Paulo family has a bottom line that cannot be touched. About Olive, grandpa will remember it well. She's nothing to worry about. If you don't like her, I won't let her appear in the Science Academy selection in three days, okay?"

About the mysterious woman who ruled the Imperial Empire in the past, Charlotte had heard her grandpa tell about her, and she still felt moved when she heard it again. Charlotte really didn't know what kind of woman could overthrow the entire Paulo family alone.

Three days later, the day of selection to the Academy of Sciences, her grandpa had promised not to let Olive appear, and Charlotte quickly flashed a bright smile.

She knows that grandpa has agreed to make a move!

Charlotte quickly grabbed Mr. Paulo, coning, "Grandpa, you still love me."

The luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom was parked on the lawn of The Red Villa, Elvis got out of the car, took his coat and entered the villa.

Mrs. Augustine was already asleep. Elvis saw a handsome figure on the living room sofa, it was Alpha.

His father, Alpha, has arrived!

Elvis threw his coat on the sofa, asking, "Why are you here?"

"I went to visit your grandma, she was already asleep." With that, Alpha's gloomy gaze fell on Elvis' handsome injured face, "What's wrong with your face?"

At this time, Betty exclaimed: "Oh my god, young master, why are you so bruised and swollen? Who did you fight with?"

Chapter 312 It's All About Her

Betty couldn't believe it. Her young master was a good boy, the kind who could only move his mouth but not his hands. Who dares to beat her young master like that?

"Young master, quickly sit down, I will go get the medicine box for you to handle." Betty said and hurried to find the medicine box.

Elvis sat on the sofa, Alpha looked at her son, asking. "Since when did you learn to fight with others? For what? A woman?"

Elvis lowered his eyelids, lazily leaned back against the mattress, and replied, "Yes."

He admitted that he got into fights just because of a woman.

He's wanted to beat Derrick for a long time and he's been patient until now.

Thinking of Derrick putting his hand on Olive's shoulder in the bar, he wished he could break Derrick's arm.

Alpha stacked his long legs on top of each other elegantly. The old lady was asleep, he was waiting for Elvis. He had a business newspaper in his hand now, and he was wearing a gray coat and turtleneck sweater at home. He elegantly asked, "Did you win? Did you get the beauty?"

Elvis pursed his thin lips in a white arc, "No, I didn't win. I got kicked. I got teased. I'm lovesick, okay?"

In the Imperial bar, he should admit that what Derrick said was true. He was kicked by Olive. It's the first time he's been joked like that.

He wasn't willing. He was angry, hateful, and jealous, feelings that almost drove him crazy and out of control.

Let's admit that he beat Derrick because Derrick took his woman, so he was lovesick.

Now how does she treat him? She really doesn't want to seduce him.

Alpha looked at Elvis with deep eyes. "Then quickly deal with this failed relationship and make it a thing of the past. You will meet better people in the future."

"Oh," Elvis let out a low, mocking laugh, then raised an eyebrow at Alpha, "You've deceived yourself enough. After all these years, have you met a better one?"

Alpha was stunned. The brief conversation between father and son had reached a dead end, unable to continue. After a while, he got up and left. He said some words before leaving: "We are different, you are luckier than me".

His son was much luckier than him, because Elvis met Olive, and that girl loved him like her life.

But when Alpha met Anabelle, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't get her love.

He has loved her all his life.

This may be why Alpha showed mercy on Olive. The moment Olive arrived at Imperial as the daughter of the Hart family, his personal butler Aiden gave him the information.

However, he didn't make a move.

He had dealt with Olive before, and the first time he saw Olive, he knew that this girl was a shining star, and that she would attract everyone's attention anywhere.

Alpha knows all that happens today. He once said in Los Angeles that he didn't want Olive to appear in Elvis' life again, because she could easily ruin his life.

Chapter 312 It's All About Her

Sure enough, Elvis met Olive again and fell in love a second time.

Elvis fell in love with Olive twice.

Alpha had lived half his life calmly, clearly and decisively, like a noble emperor, but when it came to the matter of Elvis and Olive, he hesitated many times.

He didn't know what was wrong with him, maybe, he was... jealous.

After Alpha left, Betty took the medicine with her and carefully treated Elvis' wounds. Elvis was very cooperative, he didn't want to scare Grandma anyway.

Back in his room, Elvis didn't shower. His tall frame stood by the French window, on his long slender fingers lit a cigarette. He kept swallowing smoke, wanted to numb himself, wanted to push the image of that beautiful little face out of his mind.

The cigarette pack was quickly emptied, Elvis went to the bathroom to take a cold shower and then. went to bed.

He quickly fell asleep. After returning to Imperial, his sleep was very good.

However, he was dreaming.

A long dream.

In his dream, he seemed to be lost in a fairyland, lying on the bed but waking up in a very happy heart. When he opened his eyes, it was early morning, the golden sunlight shining through the window curtains. The warmth in the room lingered, and slowly he saw that someone was sitting on top of him.

It was a girl with a slim and graceful figure, she wore a nightgown with suspenders, it looked like nude pink. Her milky white skin made her stand out even more.

Her jet black hair fell over her shoulders like silk, one side tucked behind her ear, revealing small snow white carlobes. Elvis saw a hand-sized face, beautiful pure features, and a pair of bright, clear eyes. Her dark pupils looked at him and darken.

That picture was simple, the colors and fragrances were alive to a limited extent.

In the dream, his eyes were red, his throat was like burning coals. He used his big hands to hug the soft waist of the girl, his voice was extremely hoarse, "Olive, what are you doing?"

.....

The little girl stretched out her small hand, pushed him back, bit her red lips, and snarled each word: "What do you think I'm doing? What am I doing... to you?"

Elvis suddenly opened his eyes and woke up.

In his eyes was darkness. It was still early. He woke up after a wild dream.

Throat protruding carelessly rolling, Elvis lazily closed his handsome eyes, raised his hand to cover the corners of his bright red eyes which filled with lust. His other hand slid under. Even his pants.

were soaked.

F uck!

No matter how well-bred he was, he couldn't help but swear. What was wrong with him? Was he stunned? In reality, hasn't he been f ucked with by her enough? Even in his dreams, he was... f ucked by her...

Elvis didn't sleep well. In the morning, he left The Red Villa to go to work without breakfast.

"Madam, what happened to the young master recently? Why is he so capricious?" Betty couldn't help but mutter to the old lady.

Chapter 312 H's All About Her

The old lady clearly saw through everything, saying, "I think he's been a little angry lately."

Be angry?

Betty was about to adjust the recent meals and focus on bland foods, so she went upstairs to Elvis' bedroom to clean up.

After entering, she found the large bed cluttered. On the soft carpet were piles of paper and dirty clothes that Elvis had changed.

Betty was the one who used to come here, the old face instantly turned red, "Old lady, you are right, young master has been really angry lately!"

Elvis went to the company. The whole Augustine family knows that the CEO's mood isn't good today, so everyone takes turns caring, afraid of becoming a target for anger.

Chapter 313 I Don't Like You

In the afternoon, Elvis received a text from Crystal, "Elvis, are you busy today? Can you come to school to pick me up?"

Elvis threw his phone on the table, seconds later he picked it up again and replied.

Elvis took his car keys and drove straight to Bright Star.

The luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom was parked on the side of the road. Elvis didn't get out of the car. He slowly slid the driver's window down a little, his narrow, deep eyes casually glancing in Watson's direction.

Now that it was time to end school, the students of Watson were leaving one by one.

Elvis saw Alicia, but Olive wasn't with her.

Alicia and some girls came, chatting as they walked,

"Alicia, why don't I see Olive today?"

"Olive got sick and took a leave of absence."

"What, Olive is sick?"

"Yes, Olive has a high fever of 42 degrees. I heard that she is still in a coma. I'm going to Hart's house to visit Olive, do you want to come with me?"

"Yes, of course! Why is Olive sick at this time? The Academy of Sciences will come to recruit talent in two days. Didn't Olive always want to get into the Academy of Sciences? After working hard for a long time, Olive suddenly fell ill."

"Do you think Olive was scared in the bar last night? Last night, Mr. Augustine and Mr. Rodriguez fought, I still get scared thinking about it now. At that time, Mr. Augustine even pushed Olive!"

The group of girls left one by one. Elvis squeezed the steering wheel with his large hand. Was she sick, and had a fever of 42 degrees?

Last night at the Imperial bar, he accidentally pushed her. He was so angry that he couldn't control himself.

At this time, the passenger door opened, Crystal got in: "Elvis, how long have you been waiting?"

"Not long, I'll take you home."

"Elvis, shall we go to dinner together?"

"I have a meeting later. I don't have time today."

Crystal looked at the man beside her. His handsome face is cold, his whole body is covered with a layer of ice, it can be seen that his mood is not good.

"Elvis, is the engagement thing you told me about yesterday true? Or did you just tease me?"

Elvis pursed his thin lips and said in a deep, magnetic voice: "Currently Imperial rumors say that the Augustine family and Robert family are engaged. Crystal, the engagement is real. I can marry you. However, I don't like you."

"We are just getting married. I just need a Mrs. Augustine."

What was he saying?

Crystal was stunned. He said he didn't like her...

Crystal already knew that this man was cruel, but she still turned pale. The sweetness of engagement turned into shame and humiliation.

"Crystal, you are the daughter of the richest family. You have many choices. You don't need to suffer because of me. You should think carefully."

"No need to think. I've made up my mind. Elvis, let's get engaged, the sooner the better!" Crystal said.

Elvis thought for a moment. Ever since Olive appeared in his life, his life has been turned upside down. She directly affected his emotions, making him go crazy and out of control. He hates himself like this.

He wants to calm himself down, get back to his normal path, and live the life he should be. Before her arrival, the wedding of Augustine and Robert was also planned.

That's it, forget about her.

Elvis nodded, "Okay."

At the Hart house.

Olive regained consciousness the next day. Tom and Mia frantically thanked God, quickly helping Olive up, "Olive, you're awake at last. You scared the hell out of us! If you don't wake up, we'll throw those damned doctors away!" Olive was leaning against the mattress, her face pale and bloodless. She was very sick, curling her lips weakly. "Dad, Mom, I'm fine, I'm fine now."

"Olive, your health is so good, why did you suddenly have a fever? 42 degrees!"

Why did she suddenly have a fever?

She doesn't know either.

She just felt that something she had held close to her heart had suddenly disappeared and been taken from her life, this sense of total loss that made her dull and dizzy.

"I must have caught a cold. Anyway, I'm okay. By the way, Mom, and Dad, when is the selection for the Academy of Sciences held?"

"Olive, tomorrow is the science academy selection. If you don't wake up, you'll miss it!"

What? Tomorrow?

Olive scolded herself inside. It's useless for her to want to die for a man. She died for Elvis once and left her mission behind. This time she almost repeated the same old mistake. No, she has to cheer up quickly!

Olive's clear pupils quickly revealed a ray of light, and the whole body seemed to come to life. She beamed, "Mom, the day we've all been waiting for has finally come. Academy of Sciences, I'm coming. Morp, I'm coming!"

Both Tom And Mia burst into laughter, and they saw Olive as brilliant as ever. She really recovered!

Today is the selection date of the Academy of Sciences. This time, the top five universities in the entrance exam all gathered in one place, then entered the office according to their number of students to receive the selection test.

Alicia and the others surrounded Olive, saying.

"Olive, I heard that the number for this selection is quite small, only three."

"By the way, Olive, you got a perfect score of 750 on the entrance exam and are now famous throughout Imperial. I believe you are definitely one of the three."

"Yes, Olive, we all believe in you."

It's fall. Today, Olive wears a pale yellow cardigan, her jet-black hair loose, and a pearl brooch in her hair. She is a young, beautiful, soft, and warm 20-year-old girl.

Olive smiled, "Alicia, thank you for your kind words."

At this point, Alicia pulled Olive, "Olive, take a look. Mr. Paulo, the president of the Academy of Sciences is here. I heard that he is the main judge this time!"

Olive raised her eyes. In front of her were many people, all of them were students. At this point, everyone quickly dispersed, a few people in black suits came over, and one person surrounded in front was Mr. Paulo, a healthy and enthusiastic man in a black outfit.

At this moment, as if sensing something, Mr. Paulo turned his head, glanced with his pair of cloudy but sharp eyes, then looked straight at Olive.

The two looked at each other, Olive felt the coldness in Mr. Paulo.

At this time, Mr. Paulo just looked away, leading the group of people to disappear at the end of the corridor.

"Olive, Mr. Paulo is currently the king of medicine in the country, and his status is unclear."

"I heard privately that the pursuit of medical skills by Mr. Paulo has reached the point of fervor, and I have also heard that Mr. Paulo is researching... immortality."

Chapter 314 Doubting again.

Immortality?

Olive raised her eyebrows slightly, there is no such thing as immortality in this world. For the sake of immortality, those ancient kings believed in some elixir and even sailed to fairyland. They not only fail but also end up in a bad situation.

Why is Mr. Paulo obsessed with this?

Olive recalled the look on Mr. Paulo's. There was a glint of madness in his eyes, which made her very uncomfortable. She is very sensitive to his cold and unkindness to her, perhaps because of his niece, Charlotte.

Olive's heart was wary. Today's auditions may not go smoothly, including the trip to the Science Academy she wants, which could be fraught with difficulties.

However, her second treason box is in the Academy of Sciences. She has to enter the Academy of Sciences to get it, and no one can stop her.

At this time, a few acquaintances walked up to the front, they were Crystal and some of the Bright Star girls.

Those girls surrounded Crystal like a princess,

"Wow, Crystal, are you really going to be engaged to Mr. Augustine?"

"Mr. Augustine looks so cold, but Crystal, you have a way of winning his heart. We are so jealous of you!"

Alicia and the others heard the chirping voices of those girls, too. Alicia casually muttered: "Is Crystal going to be engaged to Mr. Augustine?"

"Probably so. Recently there have been rumors in Imperial about the marriage of the Augustine family and the Robert family."

"President Augustine is not easily shaken, abstained, I didn't expect his taste to be like this. He likes a girl who is innocent on the outside and fake inside like Crystal."

At this point, Crystal saw Olive, and she quickly stepped forward with a proud and excited expression on her face, "Olive, what are you talking about? Are you talking about my engagement day with Elvis? Our engagement date has been chosen, and it will be in three days."

Three days later?

Olive had recovered from a serious illness, but her heart was still pounding when she heard the news of their engagement. She didn't expect their engagement date to be so rushed.

“Elvis said he wanted to get engaged to me quickly, and that’s a good day in three days. Olive, I’ll send you an invitation. Welcome to my engagement party with Elvis.”

Seeing Olive’s slightly pale face, Crystal’s heart rejoiced. Olive suddenly appeared in Imperial, robbing her of all her brilliance, making her dim. Now that she’s engaged to Elvis, another aim is to bring Olive back to her original position. Is a weed growing out of nowhere worthy to compete with her, the proud daughter of heaven?

Olive didn’t show anything. She looked at Crystal with shining eyes, “Congratulations. I personally said congratulations, so don’t need to send me the invitation.”

After saying that, Olive left.

Looking at Olive’s slender figure disappeared from view, Crystal gritted her teeth. Olive’s neither cold nor indifferent attitude made her feel like punching a cotton bag.

脂肪

Chapter 314 Doubting again

But then she lifted her red lips. Olive was preparing for the Academy of Science selection, but unfortunately, she would fail.

Olive forced herself to forget about Elvis and Crystal’s engagement. She already knew that Elvis hated her to the extreme. That day at the bar is the most obvious proof. Her Mr. Augustine is gone, and now there is only Elvis. She still has a lot of work to do, this time she came to Imperial just because of the Academy of Sciences. Now that the selection was about to happen, she couldn’t be distracted.

At this time, a staff member suddenly came over, “Hello, are you Miss Hart?”

Olive nodded, “Yes, I am.”

“Miss Hart, our director is inviting you to the next room to talk.”

When the employee showed up. Olive guessed that Mr. Paulo, the principal of the Academy of Sciences, wanted to speak with her privately before the selection.

Olive nodded frankly, “Okay, please lead the way.”

Olive went to the office next door. Mr. Paulo was waiting for her inside.

“Mr. Paulo, are you looking for me?”

Mr. Paulo looked at the calm and generous girl before him. In front of him, she didn’t feel nervous or embarrassed, a smile on her lips. She looked at him quietly, straight to the point, and waited for him. to speak first.

The girl who can make Crystal and his niece Charlotte uncomfortable at the same time is truly an extraordinary person.

Mr. Paulo looked closely at Olive and suddenly felt that the girl looked familiar. In fact, when he first saw Olive at the door just now, he had a very familiar feeling.

This feeling made him disgusted and disliked.

“Are you Olive?” Mr. Paul asked.

Olive nodded, “Yes, I’m Olive.”

“I don’t like you, so no matter how hard you try, I won’t let you into the Science Academy. Give up.” Mr. Paulo directly announced.

Olive knew things weren’t going to go well, but what she didn’t expect was that this director had rejected her putright, cutting off all avenues for her to enter the Academy of Sciences.

“Why?”

“I heard you only came to the Imperial a month ago and became famous, your fame has reached my ears. Each place has its own world, just like the scope of fame among the celebrities in Imperial. But you, an outsider, suddenly intruded and disrupted the balance. If you were allowed into the Academy of Sciences, I have a hunch that you would disrupt the existing balance of the Academy of Sciences. As the leader of the Academy of Sciences, I certainly won’t allow this to happen.”

Olive understood. She straightened her back, and a sharp glint of light came from her bright eyes, “Mr. Paulo, you’re being a bit unruly. What is the Academy of Sciences? The Academy of Science was born for medicine, not your personal territory. You want to control it with your own hands, not allowing anyone to challenge your authority. You are very egotistical, no forward will be backward.”

Mr. Paulo’s face changed dramatically, he suddenly stood up and looked at Olive in surprise, “You..... who are you?”

Someone said these words to him over twenty years ago!

Olive saw the sudden change in Mr. Paulo, her eyes lit up, but she calmly said, “What? Who do you think I am?”

Mr. Paulo fell into his own recollection, “Over 20 years ago, someone said these words to me, that person was... my master!”

What?

and

Olive had guessed that Mr. Paulo must have something to do with her mother, but what she didn’t expect was... Mom was Mr. Paulo’s master?

Oh, G od.

Unbelievable!

“About twenty years ago, a mysterious girl came to Imperial. She took in a few secret disciples, and the biggest disciple was me. She taught me medical skills, and taught me to set up the Academy of Science, and single handedly created the order of the medical field in today's Imperial. We have ushered in a prosperous world."

Chapter 315 Olive's biological father

Olive was shocked. She learned that the mysterious girl was her mother, Joyce Brown!

But isn't her mother from Imperial? Mr. Paulo says her mother suddenly came to Imperial, so where is her mother from?

Mr. Paulo turns out to be her mother's secret disciple. So is Sebastian Robert. Judging by the timing. Derrick Domino must have been the youngest and last disciple that her mother accepted.

Olive now feels suspicious, maybe Derrick Domino knows something. But since she arrived at the Imperial, Derrick Domino hasn't appeared.

She asked Tom and Mia. They were gangsters, had a very wide network, and it was easy to find people, but they had never heard of Derrick Domino.

Derrick Domino said that she would wait for her at Imperial and bring Aunt Rebecca, her mother's servant, but he disappeared in Imperial without any news.

Things got more confusing.

The face of Mr. Paulo became extremely complicated. He muttered. "I have great respect and love for my master. Her medicine and wonderful ideas made me consider her a goddess, but we soon had differences. She said that I was feisty and stubborn, that I was power addicted, lost, and obsessed. She warned me many times but I didn't listen. Then she said... that she would clean up everything on her own, so we were up against each other."

It turns out that Mom and Mr. Paulo have such a tortuous story. Although Mr. Paulo is very brief, Olive still feels thrilled.

The Paulo family in Imperial has practiced medicine for generations. Each generation of heirs has a unique medical talent, which is why Joyce Brown recruited Mr. Paulo as a secret disciple.

But Joyce Brown didn't expect that Mr. Paulo would eventually go astray, and was one of the four great families with deep roots and great power in Imperial.

The Paulo family also strongly resisted, maybe at that time, there were other forces involved. But now she had no way of knowing. In short, Joyce Brown and the Paulo family fought, Joyce Brown withdrew from the Imperial, and the Paulo family was nearly annihilated. They took the last twenty years to slowly recover. And they even raised Jean Paulo, who is good at poison.

At this time, Mr. Paulo turned his head to look at Olive, "I know, I know why you look familiar, because you seem to have her shadow on you!"

Olive felt Mr. Paulo was talking nonsense. She is her mom's daughter, so she definitely has her mom's shadow on her.

But now she can't reveal her identity. Olive doesn't want to put herself in these vortexes. Her primary goal is to retrieve the second treasure box left by her mother as soon as possible.

There is one more thing, one very important thing. Who is her biological father?

Aunt Rebecca and Mr. Hart are all close to her mother, but they don't even know who her father is, only preliminarily concluding that she was born from her mother's genetic stealing. Perhaps her father was unaware of her presence either.

Now Mr. Paulo was in front of her. As a close disciple of her mom, Mr. Paulo has been with her mom. All these years, does he know her life experience? Olive became agitated inside, but her expression was very calm, not seeing any ripples. She said, "Mr. Paulo, I don't know if the woman you mentioned has descendants. You can find them."

11:39

The Substate Bride Dard by My Billionaire Uimaha

Chapter 315 Olive's biological father

Speaking of descendants, Mr. Paulo looked away. "Yes, that year my master gave birth to a daughter. I've been looking for that girl's whereabouts for years, but I can't find out."

"Then you can change the clue, from her biological father!"

"Nonsense, young master, he doesn't even know..." Mr. Paulo suddenly stopped. He raised his head and stared at Olive with an extremely sharp pair of hazel eyes.

He almost said it out loud. Mr. Paulo looked warily at the girl in front of him, he felt a thin layer of sweat on his palm.

Olive felt so sorry. Young master? Which young master? Who is the young master that Mr. Paulo talking about?

Olive is sure that this young master is her biological father!

Sure enough, she guessed right. This time Mr. Paulo knew the story. He knew her background!

Now Mr. Paulo was staring at her warily and fiercely as if he wanted to drill two holes in her face. Olive smiled faintly, and looked at him with innocent bright eyes, "Mr. Paulo, what's wrong?"

In some minutes, Mr. Paulo suspected she cheated on him. She gradually broke through his psychological defenses, almost making him reveal the secret.

The girl's background wasn't disclosed.

But now Olive looked at him innocently and calmly, with a hint of surprise, as if she didn't understand anything, and Mr. Paul hesitated.

Whatever the case, Mr. Paulo won't let Olive into the Academy of Sciences. He even had to ask her to leave Imperial!

"Olive, as I told you, you can't get into the science academy."

"Mr. Paulo, I want to tell you, too. I must enter the science academy. You won't be able to stop me. If there's nothing else, I'll go out first."

Olive turned and left.

Mr. Paulo watched Olive leave mockingly, feeling overwhelmed.

Mr. Paulo went out, too, and ordered his subordinates, "Call Alicia, the girl next to Olive, and tell her I'm looking for her."

Olive really wasn't as optimistic as she looked. She and Mr. Paulo talked about giving up. Mr. Paulo was currently the president of the Academy of Sciences, he wouldn't let her in, so it's been really difficult for her.

What method should she use to enter the Academy of Science?

At this point, Olive realized that Alicia was missing. She asked a classmate:

"Excuse me, have you seen Alicia?"

"Olive, Mr. Paulo just called Alicia."

What?

Olive's slender eyelids suddenly trembled, she turned and went to look for Mr. Paulo.

But just as she turned to a corner, she ran into Alicia from Mr. Paulo's room and came out, "Olive, who are you looking for?"

"Alicia, I'm looking for you. Mr. Paulo isn't making trouble for you, is he?"

"No, Mr. Paulo just gave me our Watson student rankings and the order of admission later."/Alicia held up the list in her hand.

Was that all?

Olive had a strange feeling inside. She said, "Alicia, let's go back first and then talk."

"Okay."

The two girls lifted their feet to leave, and Olive had only taken two steps when she suddenly felt a pain in the back of her neck.

Her vision quickly darkened, and her whole body became weak. As soon as Olive fell, she saw Alicia standing behind her, holding a silver needle in her hand.

Olive fainted on the ground.

The selection of the Academy of Sciences has officially begun, but Watson's students discover that Olive has suddenly disappeared,

“What about Olive? Have you seen Olive?”

“I haven’t. What should we do? Olive will have to show up soon. If she misses this selection to the Academy of Sciences, she will have to wait until next year.”

Chapter 316 Olive fell into the hands of many men

“First tell Mr. Paulo. This is a special situation. Let’s buy time for Olive.”

“Okay.”

Watson’s students found Mr. Paulo, One person asked, “Mr. Paulo, Olive from our school went somewhere. She must be in a hurry. She’ll be right back.

Olive, who got a perfect 750 in all subjects, is the first in the entrance exam this year. Can you move her number down and wait for her?” Mr. Paulo looked at those students, coldly reprimanded: “What are you messing around?

Today is the big day of selection for the Academy of Sciences, you know that and you want to do something else? Now, I don’t think that Olive will be here right now. She doesn’t pay attention to this entrance exam and has no respect for us!”

Bright Star and Watson have become enemies, now seeing Olive suddenly disappear, they immediately get into trouble. Anyway, this year’s selection only had three slots, and without Olive, a strong opponent, their chances of winning would be higher.

“You guys from Watson are really stupid this time. This is the annual selection of the Academy of Sciences. We’ve been waiting for this day for a long time. Did you break the rules because of Olive?”

“We...” The Watson students wanted to argue.

At this time, Mr. Paulo interrupted everyone’s voices, “Enough. Don’t be loud! It’s time for Olive to appear on stage, she’s not on time, she’ll be eliminated immediately!”

Mr. Paulo made the final decision and excluded Olive from the selection.

Crystal beside her didn’t say a word. All of this was in her mind, so she wasn’t surprised.

Olive always wanted to get into the Academy of Sciences, but now, she can’t!

Crystal tried to suppress the smile on her lips, then walked forward, her face a little solemn, “But where did Olive go? Did anything happen to her?”

As soon as she said this, everyone thought of something bad, and someone quickly whispered:

“Some time ago, a female student disappeared. This girl studied dance and was very beautiful. When the police finally found her, she was raped and killed.”

“Oh my gosh, nothing will happen to Olive, will it? Olive is so beautiful, it’s easy to make people have bad thoughts. Let’s call the police and get surveillance video.”

All of Watson panicked. Some people took their cell phones to call the police. Some went to the security department to get surveillance video.

The surveillance video was turned on, and Olive was found. The unconscious Olive was carried by several sturdy black men, and one of the men in black couldn’t bear and touched Olive’s wonderfully beautiful little face.

Another man urged: “Okay, put her in the car first. We’ll get in the car later and have fun.”

Students who saw this surveillance video changed their faces color dramatically. A student from Bright Star said in a low voice, “Olive was really taken away by men, probably she has been raped in the car now...”

Jimmy and the others from a senior heard this and got very angry, “What the hell are you saying? Keep your mouth clean. Try saying it again!”

“Are we wrong? Who has made Olive so famous lately? She’s already been targeted. Even though we’ve reported it to the police, even if she’s saved, she was raped by those men!”

16 the has any men

Jimmy punched the man in the face. The students of Watson and Bright Star rushed into each other, and they started fighting in groups.

The scene became chaotic.

Crystal didn’t participate. She was always an outsider, her hands clean. In fact, she did nothing. There was nothing to do with her.

The Science Academy selection was a big day and the fact that Watson and Bright Star fought quickly spread throughout the entire imperial. Of course, the news of Olive’s disappearance was the first to spread.

Everyone is guessing about the end of Olive, a young girl in her youth who was taken away by the big men. Her purity must be definitely gone.

Olive’s enemies spread the story vividly, and all the attention was on Olive, with a lot of malice.

Elvis was driving, the luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom was speeding on the road. His hands on the steering wheel, he answered the phone, it belonged to the old lady.

Elvis hit the connect button, “Hi, grandma.”

“Elvis, it’s not okay, something bad happened to Olive!” The old lady’s worried voice immediately rang out.

Elvis frowned. He hasn't seen her for the past two days, but she should have entered the Science Academy selection competition today.

"Elvis, Olive was taken away by some men in black during the Academy Science selection. This incident caused uproar in the city. I think this is very strange. Surely someone used today to push Olive away. They want to take the opportunity of the peak of the storm to ruin Olive's reputation." The old woman quickly made a correct judgment and concluded: "Those people in black won't let Olive go. They will definitely harm her] in the car!"

Elvis big hand holding the steering wheel suddenly tightened, the tendons on his palm jumped violently, his whole body covered in a layer of ice.

"Elvis, you must find Olive as soon as possible. I have sent all the clues to your phone."

The message arrived, and Elvis clicked. The old lady has been in charge of the Augustine family for so many years, her action is very quick, and all the clues have been sent.

Elvis saw the black van, and the men in black put Olive in the van and left.

"Elvis, I asked someone to find this black van, currently on the West Ring Road."

West Ring Road?

Elvis looked up through the polished glass window, now on the West Ring Road. At this moment, a black van appeared on the opposite side, passing his luxury Rolls-Royce Phantom.

Elvis immediately recognized this black van.

"Elvis..." The old woman was still saying something on the other end of the line.

Elvis reached out to remove the headphones from his ears, slamming the steering wheel. The Rolls-Royce Phantom turned around. He stepped on the gas pedal, the luxury car shot up like a rocket.

As the car stopped, the driver lost his voice,

"Look at that Rolls-Royce. It's so crazy!"

Olive gradually regained consciousness, but she was still not fully awake. Her whole body was soft and weak, she knew she had been fooled.

Alicia is not what she normally looks like. Her acupuncture is ruthless and precise, directly stabbing her acupuncture points, and paralyzing her nerves.

Who is Alicia?

Surely she was always lurking beside her.

At this point, the yellow goose-down sweater on her body was stripped. A man touched her face with his hand, "Tsk tsk, this face is so beautiful. Compared to her, the women I've fucked are vulgar haha."

Chapter 317 Don't Be Afraid, I'm Here

A man in black was driving, and three other men in black surrounded Olive. They were very satisfied with the item this time, really top quality.

The man in black driving the car couldn't wait any longer, he urged: "Hurry up. Fuck her quickly, and take my place when you're done."

"Don't worry. How can it be so fast in the face of such an excellent product? You guys go first, I'll film. The boss told me to take more photos and videos."

A man in black took out his cell phone, pinched Olive's face, took a close-up, "Let's see, how beautiful this face is. Quickly take off her clothes. Let's watch her body!"

"I'll come." Another man in black brought his hands to Olive's t-shirt collar and tore them open. Following the sound of fabric being torn, Olive's shiny shoulder was exposed in the air.

The eyes of these black clad men looked straight at her, "Wow, this skin is as white as milk, it feels soft like silk. Wow, I feel as euphoric as taking drugs. I couldn't bear it. I'll come first!"

Olive's long eyelids trembled, but she couldn't open them. Her skin was cold, and the obscene and hysterical laughter of those men could be heard in her ears, making her sick.

These men work very neatly and certainly must be hired with a high salary. They didn't want her life but put her in the car to film.

For a girl, this is the greatest shame, more than death. The mastermind behind them wants to torture her and destroy her reputation.

Olive moved, trying to struggle, but she couldn't use her strength.

At this moment, a man dressed in black couldn't wait to rush over, press on top of her, and reach out to pull her trousers, "I have never fucked such a delicate little beauty. People line up. Get behind me! Let me have a good time first haha."

Olive closed her eyes. Her senses were extremely clear at this moment. She had felt the attack of these people, but she had no strength to resist.

This feeling of helplessness was like she fell into a puddle of standing water, then slowly sank, about to sink deep.

It had been a long time since she had experienced this feeling of helplessness. The most recent time was when she was nine years old, her grandparents passed away one by one, and she became alone.

It is said that the Imperial is a scary place for power, but it turns out that danger is always lurking beside her. She mistakenly believed Alicia, and this is the result she has to endure.

Olive's eyes heated up like something hot and moist was about to come out. At such a desperate time, a handsome face appeared in her mind, it was Elvis.

That is her Mr. Augustine.

At this moment, she really misses him a lot.

The man in black behind was pulling on Olive's trousers, when the man in black driving the car in front suddenly shouted, "No, there's a car coming from behind!"

"What?"

The people in black were quite alert, immediately leaning over the rear windshield to look over, only to see the luxury car Rolls-Royce Phantom rushing towards them like an arrow.

The pupils of the man in black shrank, filled with terror. They watched in horror at the man-driving.

the car. Elvis put his big hands on the steering wheel and looked straight ahead. His deep narrow eyes peered through the windshield like X-rays shot into the faces of these men in black. His face was expressionless, he looked extremely bloodthirsty, making people's scalp numb.

"Damn it, get out!" The man in black shouted in panic.

But it was too late. The next second, the Rolls-Royce Phantom directly rushed forward, carrying a huge destructive force.

"Boom", a deafening sound resounded.

Passers-

by saw this scene in horror. Just now, they witnessed with their own eyes the Rolls-Royce Phantom desperately chasing, then colliding with the van.

The black van hit the wall in a splatter, then stopped. The van was directly smashed.

After the loud noise was complete silence. After waiting for a few seconds, passersby saw the driver's door of the Rolls-Royce Phantom open, and a tall and handsome figure came into view.

Elvis went down.

Elvis wore a handmade black shirt and black trousers today, the cool autumn wind making his shirt puffy. The corners of his long, narrow eyes were already etched with a terrifying crimson look. With every step he took, a sinister aura emanated from him. His whole body was like Satan from hell, ferocious and terrifying.

Elvis walked to the side of the smoking black van, reached out, and directly opened the back door. A few men in black lay lying inside, their faces covered with blood, only their weak breaths remaining.

They looked at Elvis in horror, as if they were looking at a terrifying demon, and continued to move inside.

This man stepped on the gas to the end and rushed at them like an arrow, he was simply not afraid. to die.

This man is so scary.

Elvis glanced at Olive's slender figure. She was comatose. She was also thrown out by the strong impact, and a stream of blood flowed down from her beautiful, white forehead.

Elvis reached out a large hand, pulled a man in black outside, kicked him a few feet away, then stooped in, carrying Olive out.

Her clothes were in disarray, her glossy shoulders were exposed, and a large patch of white skin made people's eyes hurt. The pants underneath were still intact. He rushed over so she wasn't abused.

Elvis wrapped her in a black coat completely, he hugged her, and walked towards the Rolls-Royce Phantom. But after two steps, he suddenly knelt down on one knee.

With a "Phew" sound, he couldn't hold back the hostile fire that was rolling in his chest, spitting out a mouthful of fresh blood.

Elvis looked at the girl in his lap with his beautiful eyes lowered, his thin lips slowly curling up into an arc, "Don't be so ostentatious, you will be remembered by others. If I come one step late, what will you do?"

His right hand gradually became covered with blood, he couldn't feel it when the car hit him, now he feels that his entire right arm is numb, as if it is useless.

Elvis panted, his handsome face pale, now he saw two clear tears slide silently from the corner of the girl's eyes. She is crying.

Elvis lowered his head, his thin lips falling into her eyes, kissing back and forth. Then, swallowing her tears into his mouth, he closed his eyes and whispered hoarsely, "Are you afraid? Don't be afraid, I'm here."

Elvis' tall and handsome body fell to the ground. And when he passed out, he still held Olive tightly in his arms.

Chapter 318 Kissing her eyes.

Elvis actually planned to get engaged to Crystal. He wanted to forget about Olive completely, but his grandma called. After all, he thought, he still couldn't ignore her, and he couldn't let anyone bully her. When the car crash happened just now, he was thinking, if he can't save her, then let's die together. Many passersby ran over, "Oh my god, there's a traffic accident here. Hurry up and call an ambulance!TM

Many people gathered at the scene. At this time, a handsome man appeared not far away. He wore a black windbreaker, tall and handsome. He was Derrick Domino, who had never been seen.

Derrick Domino showed up.

A subordinate in black respectfully held a black umbrella to Derrick Domino, "Master, if Elvis is done with this, we should leave. Robert, Augustine, Rodriguez, Paulo, the four great families in Imperial are all involved, so we shouldn't show up."

Derrick Domino watched the two lying on the ground. Someone tried to separate Elvis and Olive, but the unconscious Elvis clutched the girl tightly. His five bony and sharp fingers gripped Olive's body, unable to be separated. Olive was in a coma, too. Except for the wound on her forehead, she looked fine. Her slender and beautiful body was tightly wrapped in Elvis's black coat. She lay on Elvis's firm chest with her eyes closed, protected by his wings, not hurt by anything. And her gorgeous little hand-shaped face looked soft and reassuring.

Derrick gently withdrew his gaze, "Let's go."

"Yes, master."

"By the way, send Alicia's personal information to Tom Hart and have him pass it on to Olive. After this battle, the whole Imperial will be in an uproar."

Derrick Domino's whispering voice rang out. The tall and mysterious figure disappeared as if he had never appeared before.

Very quickly, a few luxury cars sped up, and the sound of brakes suddenly sounded in the ear. Tom and Mia opened the door and ran over, calling.

"Olive!"

Olive had a very long dream. She dreamed of her mother.

In the dream, she was lying on the bed and fell asleep. Mom sat next to her, constantly touching her small face, both caring and loving, "Olive, Mom can only stay with you here, you still have to go. The road ahead is yours. For you alone, I believe you can go a long way until... you reach me..."

She woke up dreamily. The dream was as black as ink, so she couldn't see her fingers. She panicked. and looked around for her mother, "Mom, where are you?... Mom, come here quickly! I'm so scared..."

Soon she fell and sat on the ground.

It hurt.

She didn't know where she was in pain as if her whole body was in pain. Big tears fell, and she cried.

Suddenly, a man came, tall and handsome. He slowly knelt down on one knee and reached out to hold her in his arms, his thin lips fell on her red eyes. He kissed her again and again, and even wiped the tears from the corner of her eyes with his mouth, "Olive, don't be afraid. I'm here."

It was... Elvis.

He hugged her and whispered in her ear, "Olive, don't be afraid, I'm here."

Olive's slender eyelids trembled, and suddenly opening, she awoke.

Now she is in the hospital room, reeking of disinfectant, Tom and Mia are always with her. Seeing her regain consciousness, the two quickly jumped up, "Olive, you're finally awake!"

Olive moved. Mia quickly helped her up, placing a soft pillow behind her back, "Olive, how are you? Does it hurt?"

Olive reached out and touched her little head, "Dad, Mom, I'm fine, but my head hurts."

Tom angrily banged on the table, "Olive, don't worry, those black people are done. If they dare to touch you, I want them dead!"

All the memories rushed through her head, and Olive thought about those hideous black men too, her face quickly turning pale.

Has she been raped?

Mia knew her thoughts, and quickly grabbed her cold little hand, "Olive, don't be afraid, those black guys didn't touch you. You're still very clean!"

How?

Olive remembers that a man in black got on top of her and roughly pulled at her trousers, but then it looks like a car hit the van.

"Mom, I remember a car hit them from behind, then I passed out. Did that car save me? Who saved me?"

"Well..."

Tom and Mia looked at each other. When they arrived, Olive was still hugged by Elvis, and Elvis' luxury Rolls-Royce Phantom was also smashed. He rushed to save Olive.

But they couldn't tell her, because Olive had been in a coma for the past two days, and Elvis woke up first. He went to Olive and told the two of them not to reveal anything about his saving her.

Elvis is Olive's life-saving benefactor. Tom and Mia are very loyal people, so they naturally can't go against this benefactor's wish.

"Olive, it's me. I drove in there. I was so impatient at the time that I stepped on the gas and hit them."

Tom lied.

Turns out it's Dad, she thinks... it's the man of her dreams.

Olive doesn't know what she did wrong. That dream was too real. At a time when she was helpless. and desperate, he hugged her to his strong and warm chest. She still vividly remembers the dream he kissed her eyes so lovingly.

But, it's not him.

Not her Mr. Augustine.

It was just a dream.

Olive looked at Tom, "Thanks, Dad."

Mia is a woman, and she immediately saw the disappointment in Olive's eyes, "Olive, what's wrong with you? Who do you think saved you?"

Olive took Min's arm, and her slender eyelids bent down to hide all her emotions. She said, "I just don't know who saved me, so I asked. Mom, Dad, you are the best to me."

Mia touched Olive's small head in pain, Tom laughed, he deserved it.

Chapter 319 Elvis's Useless Right Hand

What?

Olive shivered. She wanted Alicia's information, so her information appeared on her nightstand. "Dad, who sent this?" Olive asked.

When Olive got into trouble, both Tom and Mia were on high alert, outside the hospital room there was always a 24-hour guard. During this time, he went to the bathroom for a while, when he went out the door was closed. But this document was already on Olive's bed.

This is strange.

"Olive, there are only a few people who can do things under my nose without anyone noticing. I checked the hospital's surveillance cameras but found nothing. I don't know who either. In short, this person is very powerful." Tom said seriously.

Olive suddenly thought of someone, Derrick Domino!

When she was in Los Angeles, she felt that Derrick Domino wasn't the one she knew before. He became very mysterious as if there was a powerful force hiding behind him.

Is it Derrick Domino?

"Dad, you can rest assured about this. After all, this person isn't our enemy, but our friend. He came to help us."

"Okay, Olive, you just woke up, get some rest. I'll let the doctor do a thorough check on you." Tom said, go call the doctor.

Olive herself is a doctor. She knows that her body is okay. She opened the folder in her hand and took out Alicia's information.

In fact, Alicia's background is very clean, with nothing to see. Olive turned to the last page now, her bright pupils constricting slightly.

At this time, footsteps could be heard outside, and it was Principal Harris leading the Watson students to visit her.

Mia went outside and started chatting with Principal Harris. Jimmy led everyone in and surrounded Olive.

"Olive, the day you disappeared really scared us to death, but fortunately you are unharmed."

"Olive, you have to rest more, I think you've lost weight."

Everyone cheered and sent their condolences. Olive felt warm inside. She learns that Watson fought the Bright Star when she disappeared. Although she hasn't been at Watson for a long time, Watson is like a warm family.

Olive looked around but didn't see Alicia, so she asked, "Where's Alicia? Why didn't she come?"

When Alicia was mentioned, everyone's faces became very strange, Jimmy said: "Olive, so you still don't know. The selection for the Academy of Sciences ended that day, one of the three positions is Alicia. Alicia has officially entered the Academy of Sciences."

Everyone was very angry,

"Olive, we had a big argument with Bright Star that day, but Allein didn't participate in the whole process. She came to the selection like a normal person.”

“We don’t blame her for this. Everyone has their own choice. But after you were kidnapped, we asked her to come see you, but she said she had no time. She packed up and left Watson and blocked all of us.”

“Alicia is really a wolf in sheep’s clothing. She often follows you, Olive, pretending to be your good friend, but in reality, we’ve all been cheated on by her!”

“Olive, you failed the selection of the Academy of Sciences this year, and you will have to wait for the next chance until next year. The rumors outside are very bad, saying that you have been taken away by those black-dressed men...”

This sentence isn’t finished, because the students hurried to stop that person, not to let him talk nonsense.

Jimmy said, “Olive, don’t listen to the rumors outside. They are all jealous of you, so they want to smear your reputation. Clean people know themselves as clean. Don’t care about them.”

Olive knows that this time is a failure for her. She failed this year’s Academy of Sciences selection, and with the strained relationship between her and Mr. Paulo, and what he said. She will never be allowed into the gates of the Academy of Sciences. Her chances are very tiny.

She could guess the rumors outside. Recently, she was under the spotlight when suddenly those men kidnapped her. Although she was saved, no one knew what happened in the car.

Those villains told erotic stories vividly, telling how she was raped. Everyone loves gossip and they are particularly sensitive to such dirty stories, which are estimated to have gone viral among the people.

Olive never thought that one day she would become the heroine of an erotic story.

However, Olive felt even more lashing out. Although she was smart, independent, and brave, she was still a 20-year-old girl. This is a devastating blow to any girl, and she may be out one day, but the wound in her heart will never heal.

Fortunately, her father ran in time. If he was one step behind, she wondered what she would do now.

Olive was even more determined, she would take care of her parents in the future!

Olive gave her classmates a few words of comfort, then they talked about another topic. Everyone chatted happily, and they all said that they would come to pick her up from the hospital in a few days.

Principal Harris left with all of Watson's students. Olive felt that she had been in bed for two days, so she lifted the blankets out of bed and went for a walk. After exiting the hospital room, Olive went to the hallway, and right after that, she saw a tall and handsome figure in front of her. It was Elvis!

Olive froze for a moment. She didn't expect to see him in the hospital.

How did he get there?

Beside Elvis was a doctor in a white coat. The doctor whispered something to him and reached out to touch his right arm.

What happened to his right arm?

He was standing on his side, and Olive could see half of his handsome face from this angle, but now his right arm hung limply and weakly.

Olive is a doctor, and she can see the abnormality in his right arm. His right arm appears to have suffered a major injury, and now it hangs there helplessly.

Olive's bright pupils constricted violently. Was his right arm... useless?

630.7%

What had happened to him?

Olive felt her heart ache, and she quickly stepped forward.

But at this moment, a delicate figure ran over, it was Crystal. She ran to Elvis's side, lovingly embracing his healthy left arm.

Olive's footsteps stopped. Her legs seemed to weigh a thousand pounds, and she could no longer walk.

The doctor in charge left. Crystal hugged Elvis, turned around, smiled sweetly, and said: "Elvis, let's go back."

As soon as he turned around, Elvis saw Olive in the front hallway.

Their eyes met.

Chapter 320 She Has Lost Her Love!

Their eyes met, Olive looked at Elvis, and he looked at her, too.

Olive was wearing a hospital gown, a blue and white striped dress that made her slim body look very petite, and jet-black hair hanging loosely over her shoulders, revealing a small, beautiful hand-sized face. Because her forehead was injured, so now with the bandaid, she's a little more fragile than usual, and she looks adorable.

At this moment, her clear black eyes fell on his handsome face. Her pupils seemed to be filled with spring water, making people drown at a glance. Elvis paused and then stopped.

Crystal noticed Elvis's anomaly, followed Elvis's gaze, and saw Olive. Crystal frowned, glaring distastefully at Olive. Olive was taken away by men, and Crystal was just watching a play, how could she know Elvis really saved Olive?

Elvis stepped on the accelerator and drove straight his Rolls-Royce Phantom into the van, his right arm was so badly injured that it was almost useless. Elvis crippled one of his arms to save Olive!

Crystal has never let Olive in her eyes before. She thought Elvis was simply mesmerized by Olive's beauty, but it was only at this moment that she felt a deep sense of crisis, a much deeper obsession than she had imagined.

Crystal quickly raised her red lips, looked at Olive, smiled, and said: "Miss Hart, are you okay? Your disappearance that day really scared us."

Olive took her eyes off Elvis' handsome face, then looked at Crystal, who said nonchalantly. She replied, "I'm okay. Thanks for your concern."

"That's fine, but there's been a rumor lately that you've been taken to a car by men in black and something that... couldn't be said..." Crystal purposely brought up this topic.

"Miss Robert!" Now Mia is back. She walked quickly to Olive's side, sheltering Olive behind, "Miss Robert, we are all women, why are you deliberately bringing up this unpleasant topic in front of Olive? I heard that the daughter of the Robert family is kind, but why do I feel that your manner is cheap? Is this the upbringing of the Robert family?"

Mia was a woman in the gangster world, and she never lost an argument, now she is like a lioness protecting her baby, scratching Crystal mercilessly.

Crystal has never been scolded, let alone in front of Elvis. Her beautiful face immediately flushed red from embarrassment and anger, "You!"

"How about us? The Harts aren't afraid of Roberts!" Mia said with her hands on her hips. Crystal was so angry that all of her complaints were fuming. The four great families in Imperial and the Hart family are not infringing on each other, and Mia is very stubborn. Crystal didn't scold her back because of her status as a rich and famous lady, so she looked up at Elvis beside her for help, "Elvis, they're all bullying me!"

Mia looked at Elvis. She actually didn't care about Elvis until he saved Olive and hugged her tightly. Mia still remembers that scene. Everyone was taking his fingers off Olive, trying to separate him from her, but he held Olive tightly as if he'd dipped her in his own flesh and blood.

Mia never thought that the eldest son of the Augustine family, now the number one businessman in Imperial, would have such a story with her Olive.

GJAN

But this story hasn't yet begun, it seems to have ended. Seeing Crystal and Elvis being close, Mia inwardly scolded "sc umbag"!

Elvis glanced briefly at Mia with deep, narrow eyes, then said in a deep, seductive voice, "Let's go back."

Crystal's heart sank because Elvis didn't protect her.

But

But Crystal wasn't angry anymore, she smiled sweetly and said: "Okay, let's go back. Today we will go back early to have dinner together. Tomorrow is our engagement party, there are many things to do. Elvis, let's go."

Is tomorrow the engagement party?

Olive, who had been silent, raised her eyes to look at Elvis. Is he really going to be engaged to Crystal?

At this moment, Elvis' gaze also fell on Olive's beautiful face. But he only glanced at her, then indifferently turned his back, leaving with Crystal.

He left.

Olive's slender fingers contracted, and her heart ached.

Mia looked at Olive's pale face, and probed: "Olive, do you know Elvis, the eldest son of the Augustine family?"

Olive lowered her eyelids, and looked at her toes, "No, I don't."

She knows Mr. Augustine.

Seeing that Olive didn't want to say anything, Mia didn't force her either, "It's okay not to know each other. Elvis and Crystal's engagement is tomorrow, Invitations have been sent out, and it's a big event in Imperial. Olive, we're not like them, Mom and Dad will find you someone better than Elvis!"

Olive was going to bed. She knows there's no one better, and Mr. Augustine is the best.

"Mom, I see. I'm a little tired. Let's rest first."

Olive closed her eyes. She really wanted to rest. After resting, she has a lot of work to do, such as dealing with Alicia, finding out who is behind the men in black, and finding a way into the Academy of Sciences to get her mother's second treasure box. And if all goes well, she will find her biological father and mother.

dan.

She had so much to do that she didn't have time to be sad.

But why did her heart hurt so much?

Olive turned and buried her pale face deep in the pillow. She was very sad, maybe because... she lost her love!

She lost Mr. Augustine!

Tom hurried in. Mia glared sharply at him, making a silent gesture.

Silence.

Tom quickly slowed down, abruptly changing his walking pattern to walking on the catwalk. The majestic big brother walking on the catwalk was a bit funny, he whispered: "Is Olive asleep?"

"Yeah, she just fell asleep." Mia reached out and covered Olive with a blanket. Olive's face was very pale, and her long and slender eyelashes were like a small fan that quietly hung down. She was like a little milk cat, so cute and pitiful.

"Ma'am, what should I do with this black coat? It was Elvis's." Tom held a black coat in his hand asking for instructions.

At that time, Olive's clothes were messed up, so Elvis wrapped her in his jacket. When they got to the hospital, Tom had put his coat away.
