

The Substitute Bride Doted by My Billionaire Husband

Chapter 391 -

Chapter 391 She is as cunning as a small fox

Olive felt Marvin's pulse, and a sharp cold light emanated from her clear eyes. At this point, Marvin jerked his arm away, shouting "Don't touch me." Marvin shoved Olive away.

Now Marvin has no love for Olive at all, only apathy and considers her as a stranger, so he swings his arms in disgust. Olive is completely unable to stand, repeatedly backing up several steps, and about to fall.

But at this moment, a strong hand reached out at the right time, directly grabbing Olive's slim waist. Olive fell into a strong warm chest.

Elvis has arrived.

Elvis guarded Olive, narrow eyes as deep as cold water. He looked at Marvin and Charlotte, and said in a nonchalant voice, "Congrats. If we have time, we'll come to your wedding reception."

Charlotte is a barbaric daughter, rarely afraid of people, but she is very afraid of Elvis. Now that Elvis is holding Olive in his arms, looking at her with cold and sharp eyes, Charlotte immediately shivered.

"Marvin, let's go," Charlotte pulled Marvin.

Olive was still standing there watching Marvin and Charlotte disappear from view, her face a little pale.

Elvis felt the unusual expression on her face, lowered his eyes and asked, "What? Do you feel uncomfortable seeing Marvin marry another woman?"

Olive lowered her slender eyelashes and said nothing.

At this time, she sensitively felt that a look like the eyes of a venomous snake was staring at her. Olive raised her eyes, and soon saw Jean in the dark corner in front of her.

Jean stood there, wearing a black coat, calmly absorbing everything just now. It was all under his control.

Olive met Jean's blue eyes. Jean was looking at her with a slight sickening look, much like a cat admiring the little mouse he'd caught.

Olive pointed at him, asking Elvis, "Who is that?"

Elvis looked up, only to see Jean's back. Jean had turned to leave, but Elvis still recognized him. "It's Jean, the prince of the Paulo family. He rarely appears at Imperial. I heard that he is obsessed with medicine and research."

This is the first time Olive has seen Jean. Her heart was pounding, and her intuition told her that this man was quite dangerous, and that he would come for her.

Olive quickly thought about recent events. Recent events have been a series of instability, she is very passive in the vortex of public opinion..

This clearly means that the fighting power of the Paulo family is constantly increasing

Thinking about how many times they had fought before, Nora and Crystal were very steady and content, as if holding back some big move. Could this big move be... Jean?

Olive looked at Elvis, and continued to ask, "Is Jean very good at medicine?"

Elvis shook his head, "Jean is the lowest of the four giants. Many have never even seen his face. I have never seen Jean act, but Mr. Paulo takes this grandson very seriously. All of the Paulo family's hopes are placed on Jean."

Olive knows that Jean is the big move!

It seems that Jean is setting the stage for everything that has happened recently, and the Paulo family has focused all of their firepower on her.

Currently, Jean is in the dark, she is in the light, the situation is very unfavorable for her.

"I see. Mr. Augustine, thank you." Having said that, Olive prepared to leave.

Elvis held onto her again: "Are you going to leave like that?"

Olive paused. "President Augustine, did you really break off your engagement with Crystal?"

"Yes" Elvis nodded, but his face was very arrogant, thinking that he was not for her, so she shouldn't be so arrogant!

This time Olive slightly pursed her red lips and smiled.

Elvis found her a bit odd. Now that her clear eyes had turned black, the light emitted from them was captivating. whenever she was plotting something.

"Olive, what are you up to?" Elvis frowned and asked.

Olive blinked her slender eyelashes, and looked at him innocently, "H o ss Augustine, what tricks can I do? I'm just waiting to be beaten."

"Who will beat you?"

"Of course... the Paulo family. Do you think your marriage to Crystal will end like that? Wait. They're trying to play big, trying to drown me in saliva." Then she quickly withdrew her slender wrist and walked away.

Did she just leave in such a luxurious manner?

The whole Paulo family was thinking about how to deal with her, but she walked away so arrogantly. Elvis really wanted to smack her little head to see what she was thinking.

Olive returned to the Hart house. She did nothing, but opened the first volume of the medical book left by her mother.

This medical book chronicles the profound relationship between medicine and poison, and Olive paused on that page and read it for a long time.

At this point, Mia pushed open the door, putting a plate of fruit in Olive's hand. "Olive, you've been reading medical books since you came back, are you having a very difficult problem?"

Olive closed the medical book, but she still didn't say anything, just looked at Mia and smiled, "Mom, mom and dad haven't gone on a trip yet, why don't you take one tomorrow?"

Mia looked at Olive suspiciously, "Olive, are you sending us on purpose?"

Olive hugged Mia and cooed, "Mom, can't you be so smart? I just want you to go on a trip for a while, I'll call you back when I'm done."

"Olive, when we're gone, what are you going to do? Me and your dad are both worried about you, now it's chaotic outside Imperial, how do you plan to deal with it?"

Olive slyly curled her lips, smiling like a little fox, "Mom, to be honest, I don't know how to deal with it. I always feel like I'm in the dark right now. Many people know things that I don't. Being so confused makes me very passive and bewildered."

"However, I feel like I've reached the threshold. Once I break through, I can wipe out those people. So Mom, you and Dad can go on a trip, I'll take care of the matter here. Don't worry, I'm the daughter of the Hart family, I can do big things

Olive proudly patted her chest and said.

Mia lovingly patted her daughter's head and hugged her: "Okay, we won't ask any more questions, we will listen to you

Chapter 392 Crystal cut her wrist to commit suicide

In Paulo's house.

Mr. Paulo, Jean, and Charlotte were all in the living room. Charlotte flipped through the yearbook and said.

pa, brother, I think five days from now will be a good day to get married. I'll choose this date. I want to marry Marvin as soon as possible. The sooner it's finished, the better. Now Marvin is listening to me." Mr. Paulo took a sip of his tea and looked up at Charlotte, "Charlotte, you can't wait to marry Marvin, you're really useless."

"So what? I just like Marvin!" Charlotte's face revealed a happy smile, like a beautiful woman about to get married. Mr. Paulo thought for a moment, then said, "Although Marvin now listens to you, this marriage between the Augustines and Paulos still needs approval from the Augustine family. Lily has nothing to worry about, but Alpha is unpredictable. If we don't make a move, we won't be able to face him."

Referring to Alpha, the king in the business world. Charlotte was a little scared. She asked, "So Grandpa, what should we do?"

"Tomorrow, I will personally go to the Augustine family home to discuss your marriage to Alpha. Marvin is my chosen grandson, too, Grandpa is very hopeful that you can marry Marvin on a favorable profit. Mr. Paul said. Only then did Charlotte breathe a sigh of relief. She looked at Jean who had been silent for a while, asking "Bro, that packet of powder won't be a problem right? Can I control Marvin for the rest of my life?"

Charlotte is really happy now. She has fulfilled her many year wish, and she will marry Marvin. All of this is like a dream. She is very afraid that this dream will be shattered in the blink of an eye.

Now external reviews are also very beneficial for her. Now, the focus of public opinion is the love triangle between Elvis, Olive, and Crystal. Everyone said that Marvin had returned from a lost journey and that Charlotte was the real destined girl who saved him and made a good story. And everyone outside is blessing their well-matched and beautiful marriage.

Of course, Charlotte didn't want to lose everything in front of her eyes. She is a little worried that the powder pack will lose its effect, then she will lose control of Marvin.

Jean was expressionless, his handsome face still morbidly pale. He answered. "It's okay, I hypnotized Marvin." Although Charlotte didn't study medicine, she had also heard of this mystical enchantment technique. She heard rumors that people who were cursed with witchcraft would be controlled for life.

"Bro, I really admire you."

Mr. Paulo was very pleased with his grandson, too, and he freely took another sip of tea.

At this moment, Jean looked at Mr. Paulo, and said, "Grandpa, I read Olive's information. Even though she couldn't get into Bright Star, she once got a perfect score of 750 on the entrance exam. Does she know medical skills?"

Mr. Paulo put down his tea, replying, "I used to send people to investigate Olive. Although Olive is Joyce Brown's daughter. Joyce left Olive very early. Olive has been in the countryside for so many years, and I have never seen Olive use a needle."

"So it's strange that she was able to get a perfect score of 750," Jean said, pointing to the general exam at the time, "Even if it were me, I wouldn't be able to get a perfect 750."

Mr. Paulo felt strange, too. Anyway, Olive's mother is Joyce Brown, and Joyce has unconventional medicine. Olive's genetics are so strong that people have to take precautions.

However, because Olive has never done anything before, no one knows how good her medical skills are.

As the living room fell silent, the door to Paula's mansion was suddenly pushed open, and Nora took Crystal back to her mother's home.

Crystal sat down on the sofa, her eyes red as if she was about to cry, and said miserably, "Grandpa, Jean, you must help me this time. Dvis has announced we canceled the engagement, yet he's still being held by Olive. He was tricked into bed by Olive, I'm really angry!"

Of course, Crystal was angry. Ovis once had sex with Olive which means he is in good health, but that day he took her to the hospital's orthopedic department to scare her. She really felt that she had been deeply humiliated!

Chapter 392 Crystal ut her wrd to come salcide

Elvis told her about annulling the engagement, but she never agreed. How could be unilaterally annul the engagement?

Now that the entire Imperial knew she was abandoned, Elvis didn't want her anymore. She is the daughter of the richest man, a true little princess, but now becomes an abandoned wife.

How can she still hang out in Imperial in the future?

Crystal held the arm of Mr. Paulo and cooed, "Grandpa, I don't care. Now you have to find a way for me. You can't be biased. Charlotte got what she wanted, she's going to marry Marvin. You also have to take care of your granddaughter's lifelong happiness. I like Elvis, I will marry Elvis. Charlotte and I have to win those two sons of heaven and at the same time marry into the Augustine family as noble young ladies."

Mr. Paulo looked at Jean, and told him, "Jean, you should think of a way for Crystal."

Everyone's expectant gazes turned to Jean. Now that Jean is the mainstay of the Paulo family, he has many ways.

Jean glanced at Crystal, Thave this method

"Really?" Crystal's eyes lit up.

"However, you may not agree with this approach."

"Why not? As long as I can keep Elvis and marry him, I'll do anything," Crystal expressed determination.

"Alright." Jean took out a sharp knife, threw it on the coffee table in front of her, and "clinked" with a sound. "Kill yourself."

What?

Nora jumped forward, protesting. "Jean, what method? How can you make Crystal commit suicide?"

Crystal nodded rapidly, hiding behind Nora's back in fear. Since childhood, she has been pampered, most afraid of pain, how can she commit suicide? Jean curled his thin lips, seeming to think of something interesting, smiled sullenly, and said: "Don't worry, you won't die. I'll just let you take the knife to cut your wrist, then we will take you to the hospital. Now the entertainment news is about to explode. Olive has stolen your fiancé and almost forces you to death. She will bring a reputation for murder, Olive will become miserable. Even though Imperial is big, there won't be room for her anymore."

As long as Crystal cuts her wrist to commit suicide, she will get the highest score in public opinion, and it only takes a few minutes to beat Olive to death. Mr. Paulo strongly agreed with this opinion. He nodded, "Crystal, Jean's idea is a great idea. You just have to take a little pain and do it."

Although Nora didn't want her daughter to get hurt, she had to say that Jean's ideas were so cruel and clever that people couldn't help but praise him.

Chapter 396 The mysterious X appeared

X?

Of course, Nora knew about the mysterious medical genius X that shocked the Imperial that year, but X never revealed his identity, and no one knew who he was.

"Crystal, why are you asking me to find X?" Nora asked.

Crystal asked about X for a reason, of course.

In the morning, the two nurses who changed her medicine went out, but they standing outside the door whispered:

"Crystal is a beautiful lady and the first beauty in Imperial, but now she has a scar on her wrist. What a pity."

"Yes, this scar will always follow her, like a flaw suddenly added to a perfect work of art."

"Do you know any famous doctor who can remove scars without leaving a trace?"

"I think of X. Yeah, he's X!"

"X? Is that the mysterious X you're talking about?"

"Yes, X is a student of Academic Dickson. My house and Academic Dickson are old neighbors. That year I was hit by a car, leaving a big scar on my leg. My mum went to ask Academic Dickson, it turned out that Academic Dickson had a prescription from X and after I used it, the scars disappeared completely and my skin looked like new again."

"No wonder your skin is so beautiful now. X is really amazing."

"Of course, let's tell Miss Crystal about X."

"No."

"Why not?"

"Don't you see Crystal here alone? She and Charlotte are both granddaughters of the Paulo family, but Charlotte is the biological granddaughter, and Miss Crystal is the daughter of Nora, Mr.

Paulo's daughter, which means outsider. I heard that the Augustine family has agreed to the marriage, and now the whole Paulo family is busy preparing for Marvin and Charlotte's wedding of the century. Crystal has been completely forgotten. Jean and Mr. Paulo didn't come to the hospital. They are all preparing for Charlotte's marriage."

"Right. Seeing Crystal like this is really pitiful."

"Hey, stop talking nonsense. Don't cause more trouble. Let's go."

The two nurses walked away, but Crystal had heard their conversation, and she remembered that too.

"Mom, I don't care, I just want to see X!" Crystal said cooly.

Nora lowered her voice: "Crystal, don't get cocky, where can I find mysterious X for you?"

Crystal immediately pouted condescendingly, "Mom, you don't love me anymore! If you told me to cut my wrists, then I would do it right away, but now Olive is gone, I have such a bad scar. Later, how can I wear a skirt? Everyone will point and laugh at me!"

"But..." Nora mumbled. After all, she is her biological daughter. Seeing Crystal being so unjustly, Nora's heart softened.

"Mom, isn't X a student of Academic Dickson? You can call Academic Dickson. He will definitely let X

11:51

The Substitute Bride: Bored by My Billionaire Husband help me."

Nora hesitated a bit. "Academic Dickson and your grandpa are rivals. If I went to Academic Dickson and let your grandpa know about it, your grandpa would definitely be angry."

Referring to her grandpa, Crystal quickly clenched her fists, her nails digging into her palms but she didn't feel hurt.

Although she and Charlotte are sisters, the two have silently compared each other since childhood. Crystal has crushed Charlotte all these years. She was the number one beauty in Imperial and the daughter of the richest man. Glory was focused on her.

But now she isn't living as she would like, and Charlotte is as proud as the spring breeze, shining brightly. Of course, she feels unbalanced.

The thing is, Grandpa and Jean are biased.

They helped Charlotte, and Charlotte married Marvin.

They helped Crystal and asked her to cut her wrist to commit suicide, but now Olive is gone.

Crystal was really full of resentment, asking: "Mom, why don't Grandpa and Jean come to the hospital to visit me?"

The Augustine family has agreed to the marriage. Because the wedding is urgent, your grandpa is busy preparing so that Charlotte can get married..."

Before Nora could finish speaking, Crystal threw the pillow directly on the ground. Indeed, what the two nurses said was true! Grandpa and brother are biased!

"Crystal, what's wrong with you?"

"Mom, if Grandpa is going to be angry, then don't tell him. Mom, don't you think that Grandpa and Jean's hearts are both for Charlotte? They don't care about me anymore!" Crystal bit her lip, her eyes became red.

Nora felt sorry for her daughter, and quickly hugged Crystal, comforting. "Stupid girl, why do you think that? We all love you, don't cry."

Crystal lamented: "Mom, then help me find X. I'll ask X to help me remove the scar!"

"Okay, okay, I agree." Nora could only agree.

Crystal ate something and then took a nap. The door to the room was pushed open, and the nightingale happily entered: "Crystal, I have good news for you, Academic Dickson has agreed. X is here, now outside!"

What?

The news was so shocking, Crystal quickly sat up. Did X come so early?

Crystal couldn't help but be pleased. X is very mysterious, but when her mother went to invite her, X immediately came, which really satisfied her egotism.

"Mom, let X come in quickly, I can't wait to see her!" Crystal urged.

"Professor X, please come in."

At this moment, a figure came in from the door, and the mysterious X finally appeared. X is a... man!

X has neat short hair. He's not handsome, very ordinary but has a very clean aura.

This is the first time Crystal has seen X. She thought X was female, but unexpectedly he was male!

"Professor, hello. Now my daughter has a scar on her wrist, are you sure it is possible to remove it without leaving a mark?" Nora directly asked.

Professor X stepped forward, looked down at the wound on Crystal's wrist, and said, "The wound isn't deep. Yes, I'm sure."

Crystal's eyes sparkled. As long as that scar disappears, she will be the first Imperial beauty again. How could Charlotte compare to her? How could she compete with her?

"Professor, how? How long will it take you to remove the scar?" Crystal asked.

Professor X looked up at Crystal and replied, "Five days is enough."

Five days?

Does this mean that before Marvin and Charlotte get married, the scar on her wrist can be removed? Great!

Nora couldn't help but marvel at X's medical skills. He was able to remove scars without leaving marks in just five days, something that perhaps not even the Paulo family could do.

"Prof.X, may I know your last name?" Nora asked.

Because they don't know what X's last name is, they call him Professor X.

Chapter 400 I am your child's mother

Nora froze in place.

Damien walked over to the bright French window. Without looking at Nora, he threw a document on the nightstand, saying, "Look at this. If there's no problem, sign it."

Nora looked at the document, the big words of the divorce agreement caught her eye.

Damien was really going to divorce her!

Nora's hands and feet were cold. She used the scent of roses to wash and clean, wanting to reconcile with Damien. He hasn't had a woman in years. She didn't believe he really didn't have any desires. She wanted to establish a deep relationship with Damien in bed.

But Damien didn't let her come near at all. At this time, Nora raised her eyes to look at his handsome and noble face. Every movement he made had a feeling of alienation and taboo, unstained by the dust of the outside world.

Everyone knows that he has no interest in women, just like no woman in the world can match him, the desire of women is considered unclean by him.

"Damien, I won't sign. I don't want a divorce." Nora said firmly.

Damien's gaze fell on her face, "I didn't think I needed more words. You should know that the divorce is just a notice to you, not a negotiation with you."

Damien pointed his eyes at the divorce agreement, "Hurry up and sign it, or... the things given to you here will be gone. Are you sure?"

Nora looked Damien in the eye. His eyes were cold and indifferent, without much emotion, but he saw right through her.

Maybe he didn't want to mock her, because it was unnecessary, but Nora just felt that she was being satirized nakedly.

The place she wanted to marry in that year was the Robert family that she and Mr. Paulo intentionally married into. This family also became one of the four great families in Imperial as they wanted.

Nora clenched her fists. She felt Damien was like an iceberg. Between him and her was a long river. No matter how hard she tried, she couldn't get close to him.

"Damien, why have you treated me like this all these years? If you knew this, why did you marry me that year? Was it because of that night? Will you never forget that night?" Nora asked.

Referring to that night, Damien was silent for a moment. He didn't forget that night, until now the image of that night can still be clearly displayed in his mind.

That night, he drank alcohol, there were drugs in it. He quickly discovered that there was something strange in his body. He didn't return to the reserved room but went to another room. It was a six-star hotel belonging to the Robert family. As the monarch of the Robert family, he can choose the room at will.

At that time, he went to another room and hurriedly called his personal secretary. The secretary immediately gave the antidote, he just needed to rest for a while.

He drank the antidote and lay on the bed to rest. He felt the temperature in his body gradually disappear, regaining his composure. That night he drank so much that he fell asleep.

Chapter 4001 am your child's mother-

He was in a deep sleep when he suddenly woke up because someone was in the room.

Someone broke into his room!

Damien suddenly opened his eyes. In the dark room with no lights on, that night the moon was very dim, and a daring girl sat on his strong waist.

He couldn't see the girl's face clearly, but he could vaguely see her silhouette. She has a very beautiful body, and a very slender frame, under the polished shoulders is a beautiful curve of a young woman, then it bends in, like a fragile porcelain vase. She just sat on top of him.

He immediately woke up and moved a little, but his pupils suddenly shrank, because he found that he couldn't move, his hands and feet were tied.

He, Damien, was tied to the bed by a daring girl!

He coldly looked up at the girl, and asked, "Who are you?"

The girl on him has a charming voice, and a sweet smile like a silver bell, "I am... the mother of your child-"

He pursed his thin lips. "What do you want to do anyway?"

The girl on top of him crouched down. The two faces were getting closer and closer. He could clearly see the girl's clear eyes filled with sparkling water looking around. She was on top of him like a cunning little fox, blinking at him, replying, "I told you. I'm the mother of your child. So... I want to have a baby for you-"

Damien was from birth the rightful heir of a wealthy, educated family. Countless girls like him, but he has no interest in women by nature.

Even so, those girls are also children of the family, everyone is a lady. Since when did he meet a girl.. so bold and shameless?

Damien stared at her coldly, but the girl on him didn't move. She leaned close to his ear and gasped: "Tell me, do you like boys or girls? Forget it, don't say anything, because it's no use what you say. I'm not going to listen to your opinion. I want a baby girl-"

She told him that she wanted to give him a baby girl.

This was Damien's first time seeing such a girl, and he hated it, but her body was fragrant and soft. He couldn't see her face, but her eyes were stunning, plus her voice was as clear as silver bells. Damien somehow felt that he had taken a fake antidote just now because, in his body, the dryness returned.

It was even more intense than the previous dose.

Damien became worried, gritted his teeth, and cursed, "Witch!"

"Tsk, why are you swearing? You're so hot, so there's a reaction? I know you like witches. I didn't expect a man with the most perfect genes in the world to have such a special taste, and like to be tied up.

The girl reached out and unfastened the belt around his waist.

At this moment, Damien saw in her hand something else, like a high-tech needle, and didn't know what it was used for.

At this point, with a twist of his hand, he broke free of the ropes and grabbed the girl's slender wrist.

"You!" The girl exclaimed in surprise.

Damien pulled her forcefully, pulling her directly into his chest. She accidentally fell over, the needle in her hand fell on the soft carpet, and her red lips directly covered his thin lips.

Two people kissed.

Damien froze. He had never kissed a woman, this was the first time.

Because of his serious personal cleanliness, he always feels that kissing is unhygienic.
