

The Substitute Bride Doted by My Billionaire Husband

Chapter 481

Chapter 481 Olive Disappeared.

Elvis was a very wise man. The more critical things were, the more alert and sober his mind became, so he had long suspected Olive.

Instead of doubting, he actually already had the answer in his heart, but he had been deceiving himself and was unwilling to believe it.

He did not believe that Olive would personally kill their child.

He really did not believe it.

However, the surveillance footage had confirmed all of his suspicions.

Everything was in Olive's plan. She first got rid of Charlotte to deliberately lure Crystal out, and then she framed Crystal for what she did.

Now that the child was gone, she had indeed killed her child by herself.

Peterson stared carefully at Elvis "Young Master, are you alright?" He asked concernedly.

Peterson was very worried about Elvis. The woman he loved killed his child. No one could accept that.

Elvis finally lit the lighter. The red flames illuminated his obscure handsome face. He said in a low voice, "Have you checked Crystal's phone?"

"I checked it. Miss Hart really borrowed Crystal phone to make a call, but the call was to the front desk of the resort hotel, and then transferred to the worker number 309. Originally, this was all recorded, but the call record has inexplicably disappeared."

Elvis gritted his teeth. "Where's staff number 309?"

He's gone too, boss."

Elvis quickly pursed his thin lips into a cold arc. Who was staff 309?

Recently, he always felt that Olive was waiting for someone. Was she waiting for staff number 309?

What was she planning to do?

Elvis suddenly thought of something. He stood up and said, "Go back to the hospital! Quickly go back to the hospital!"

He walked straight out of the room and headed straight to the hospital.

Elvis seemed to be in a hurry to the hospital. In the past, Olive had brought him some panic and anxiety.

Peterson quickly realized what had happened. It was early in the morning, and his boss had left the hospital. And hence, Olive had the opportunity to escape.

Olive took advantage of the miscarriage to return to the hospital. Everyone's attention was on the child in her womb. Even Elvis forgot that she was a doctor, and the hospital was her territory.

Peterson felt that something must have happened at the hospital.

He wondered if Olive really wanted escaping. But if she left the hospital, Damien Robert, Alpha Augustine and even Logan Theodore were all waiting for her. How could she escape from Imperial?

Elvis quickly rushed back to the hospital. He pushed open the door of the VIP ward, and it was empty. Olive had already disappeared.

His hunch came true and Olive escaped. Her real intention was to leave.

Elvis narrowed his handsome eyes. His sturdy chest began pounding heavily. Did she just leave? Did she not have an iota of love for him anymore?

Elvis quickly took out his phone from his trousers pocket and dialed a number. The call on the other end was quickly connected, and a deep and magnetic voice sounded, "Hello."

"Tather-in-law, Olive has disappeared. She's gone." Elvis said calmly.

Damien was silent for some seconds "I see. Once Olive goes out, she will definitely fall into Logan's hands. She is now with Logan."

and

"Logan will definitely take Olive back to Greenland, right?" Elvis asked.

"Yes, but I'm very curious about how Logan will leave Imperial."

Elvis frowned his heroic eyebrows. "I'll try and go after them." Elvis replied and immediately hung up.

Hearing the call got disconnected, Damien put down his phone. He looked at Alpha beside him. "Do you think Logan can take Olive out of Canada?"

Imperial was under the control of the Robert and Augustine families. Now, all the roads had strict police guarding them. It was almost impossible for Logan to exit Imperial with Olive.

Alpha stuck a cigarette into his mouth, and the smoke blurred his deep eyebrows. He nodded. "I believe he can."

Damien furrowed his eyebrows

"Damien, you don't know much about Joyce. Back then, when Joyce suddenly came to Imperial City, no one knew how she got into this country. Logan who is her fiancée....

Damien quickly interrupted him and corrected him, "Ex-fiancée."

Logan must know something as her ex-fiancée. Otherwise, your daughter Olive, would not have allowed herself to fall into Logan's hands."

Damien agreed to Alpha's analysis.

Olive was very smart. She knew that once she left the hospital, she would definitely fall into Logan's hands, but she still left. There was only one possibility. Olive wanted Logan to take her out of Imperial!

"Damien, when Joyce chose you, it was because you had the most perfect gene in the world. Your daughter, Olive, is smart, courageous, and strategic.” In this battle. Olive was the protagonist. She had too many opponents, but for a 20-year-old girl to play with Damien. Alpha and Logan, it implied that was extremely smart,

In all honesty, Damien was a little depressed at first. At that time, Crystal was his daughter. He once reflected on how his family businesses would be passed down to Crystal.

Now that he realized that Olive was his daughter, Damien felt relieved, and could comfortably have a rest. He felt that Olive really deserved to be his daughter.

Damien looked at Alpha, and asked, “The person you’re looking for, is he here already?”

Alpha nodded, “He’s already here. Olive found him. The seventh god. He was Joyce’s student. He knows too many secrets. He’s finally here.”

Over the years, Alpha had been waiting for the seventh god. Now that all the players had arrived, the legendary past that had been buried all these years was about to be revealed.

Olive was indeed in Logan’s hands now. When she left the hospital, Logan waited outside with his staff.

Olive got into Logan’s luxury car. Her face was calm. She looked at the speeding scenery through the brightly lit car window. She knew that Imperial was getting farther and farther away from her.

Chapter 482 Olive, don’t make me angry!

Logan sat beside Olive. Seeing that Olive was so calm, Logan smiled and said curiously, “Olive, do you know where I’m taking you?”

Olive nodded. “Of course I do. You’re taking me away from Canada to your territory, Greenland.”

“Since you know, why are you so calm now?”

Olive’s bright eyes landed on Logan’s face, and she replied. “I’m so calm because I know someone will come to save me soon. Logan, this is Imperial, if I guessed correctly, the Imperial City has been locked down, how will you take me out?”

Olive acted aggressively. She knew that Logan was a very radical person.

“We will leave here smoothly. There’s a secret passage that no one knows of.”

Secret passage?

Olive’s eyes lit up. Her guess was right about Logan.

“Back then when my mother came from Greenland to Canada, she used this secret road, right?”

“Olive, you really are as smart as your mother. Yes, that’s the route your mother used.”

Olive had a feeling that she was getting closer to her mother.

Half an hour later, the bulletproof black luxury car slowly stopped. Logan personally opened the door for Olive. “Olive, we’re here.” He announced.

Olive got out of the car. Her pupils shrank slightly. She was very familiar with this place. She had been here before. This was the backyard of the Academy of Sciences.

Now, in front of her was the dark red door with a lock on it. Inside was the forbidden area.

She once stole the key from Nora and sneaked in. Inside, she had met two wolves.

Olive did not expect that she would revisit this place.

At this moment, Logan had a key in his hand. He stepped forward to open the door. With a click, the lock opened. With a creak, the dark red door was pushed open.

Logan gestured to Olive to move in.

Olive raised her legs and walked in.

It was still the dark forest inside. There was no end in sight. Logan led the way. He was very familiar with this place.

“Olive, walk carefully, follow me, don’t go too far, there’s something left by your mother here. The formation, once you enter the formation, you will fall to the ground.”

Olive immediately guessed that Logan was talking about was the cliff she had seen the last time. She was standing on the edge of a cliff and almost fell.

It turned out that it was her mother’s formation.

However, the last time she escaped, she was saved by Elvis.

The formation did not seem to respond to Elvis.

Could it be that Elvis was hiding some secret that she didn’t know of?

What exactly was that?

Olive did not expect that she would be involved in things like this.

She felt that Elvis should be independent of things like this. But it seemed that he had always been involved in it.

At this moment, Olive felt that she had stepped on a patch of soft soil. In the next second, a large hand was buckled on her wrist.

Logan pulled her out. “Olive, Did you listen to me? You can’t run around here. Just now, you already stepped into the formation with one foot. If I hadn’t pulled you out in time, you would have died within a snap of a finger!”

Did she step on the formation just now?

Chapter 4:2 Olive, don't make me

Olive's clear eyes quickly flashed with intelligence. Her little brain was spinning quickly. Just now, she stepped into the formation and did not see anything.

The last time she stepped into the formation, the second treasure chest was visible to her. But now, she saw nothing.

Why?

Olive's heart was filled with a lot of thoughts, but her face was devoid of any emotions.

She replied indifferently. "Let's go. This time, I'll follow you closely."

Logan continued to lead the way. He avoided the formation and walked out of a secret path

Olive followed behind, she secretly memorized the secret way in her mind.

At this moment, when she reached the end of the secret passage, the light of dawn lit up in front of her. Olive looked up. She knew that Greenland was just ahead.

Once she entered Greenland, it was Logan's territory, and it would be difficult for her to escape.

"Olive, Greenland is right in front of us. How about it? I said that I would take you out of Canada, and no one could stop me."

Olive replied calmly "Mr. Logan, I'm afraid you miscalculated. Look up and see who's in front of you!"

Logan looked up and saw a group of people slowly walking out of the dusk in front of them. At the forefront were Damien and Alpha.

Damien smiled and said, "Logan, where do you want to take my daughter to? I've already said that you can't escape from here with her."

Logan shook his head in disbelief. No one was to know about the secret passage. How could he have thought that Damien had actually played a trick on him?

"Damien, how did you know I'm here?" Logan asked.

Olive smiled. "Logan, I can answer this question for you. There's always someone watching me 24/7. Didn't you notice?"

Logan really did not notice that anyone was following him. This person was able to follow him quietly without him realizing.

Who was this person?

Suddenly, another group of people walked over from behind. At the forefront was a tall body.

It was Elvis!

Olive's bright eyes fell on Elvis's handsome face. She knew that Elvis already knew everything, that she had deliberately killed their child, and that she wanted to escape.

Olive looked at Elvis, and Elvis also stared at her. His deep and narrow eyes seemed to display disappointment.

Elvis slowly extended his hand, "Olive, come here, come to me."

Olive's clear eyes slowly turned red. She shook her head. "Elvis, let me go, we're done."

"Olive, don't make me angry." He warned.

As soon as he said that, Ray appeared. Ray grabbed Olive's arm and pulled her to Elvis's side with speed.

Logan looked at Ray and Peterson behind Elvis.

Chapter 4 83 Your Love Is Nothing More Than A Lie!

Logan looked at Peterson and Ray in shock, then his eyes fell on Elvis's handsome face.

"Elvis, what's your relationship with the Red Mafia? Are you the leader of the Red Mafin?"

The Red Mafia was amongst the three major mafia group in the world. In the past few years, it had developed rapidly. Its influence has spread all over America.

It was rumoured that the leader of the Red Mafia was quite mysterious. No one had ever seen his face. Could it be that Elvis was the leader of the Red Mafia?

The Red Mafia was a mafia group that couldn't be dared. There were highly feared and respected.

Olive was brought to Elvis's side. Because of how she was pulled by Ray, she suddenly lost her balance and fell into Elvis's arms.

Elvis stretched out his strong arms and wrapped his arms around her slender waist, firmly protecting her in his embrace.

Olive raised her eyes to look at Elvis. Of course, she had heard of the Red Mafia. The Red Mafia was the most powerful amongst other mafia group.

Olive also wondered if their leader was Elvis.

Back in Los Angeles, Ray and Peterson weren't with Elvis.

It turned out that Elvis's identity was not only the number one noble man in the business world, but he was actually the leader of the Red Mafia.

Also, why could he not be trapped by the formation? What other secrets did he hide?

Elvis wasn't ready to reply to Logan's question. His eyes glanced at Logan, and then he said. "Logan I should have told you a long time ago that you mustn't think about Elvis's woman."

Elvis looked at Damein and Alpha. "I'll leave him to you both. I'll take Olive home."

Elvis wrapped his arms around Olive's waist and made to leave with her. However, Olive stood still and did not want to leave with Elvis.

Elvis halted and frowned slightly. "Olive, you just had a miscarriage and you're still in confinement. You need to get some rest. It's windy here. Quickly follow me back."

Olive looked at him, and replied, "Elvis, you already know, right? I rolled down the stairs myself. I didn't want this child!"

When it came to this topic, Elvis found it difficult to discuss about it. His expression did not change, but a cold and severe haze had already covered his eyebrows.

"Olive, I don't want to mention this, it was Crystal who pushed you down the stairs. So please don't spew trash again in the future."

Olive knew that he was very concerned. He was deceiving himself. He didn't even dare to ask her why she did it.

"Enough Elvis, accept the reality. I knew for a long time that I was pregnant, but I kept it a secret from you, because I wanted to use this child as a means to leave you!"

Elvis's fingers tightened on her wrist, and his narrow eyes fell on her face.

"Olive, I know that your body isn't well enough to carry this child. I would also chose for you to abort him, but we still love him deeply, right? The child is gone, don't you still feel any love for him? I can pretend that nothing happened. But, Olive, can we be the same as before? Or will you continue to stab me in the back? I've already forgiven you. But this was my first child. Losing him makes me sad!"

In Elvis's heart, he loved her more than the child, and she was more important than the child.

Now that the child was gone, his heart was bleeding. Her indifferent attitude was even more painful to him than the loss of the child. The child was just a tool she used. She wanted to escape from him.

"Elvis, we can't go back to how we were. From the moment you and Crystal slept together, we had no future together anymore." Olive replied indifferently.

"Did Crystal say something to you? Do you think I've slept with Crystal?"

"Haven't you? You guys sex tape that Crystal sent is still in my phone. I've watched it several times. Elvis, I don't need you to save me. Sleeping with Crystal will only make me hate you more. To me you're dirty and disgusting. I don't want you anymore!"

Elvis suddenly wanted to laugh. In fact, he curved his thin lips into a sarcastic smile and laughed.

"Olive, you'd rather watch that sex tape over and over again than come and ask me directly, right? Did you ever trust me? We've been together for so long, and the final outcome is that you think I'm dirty and disgusting, and you don't want me anymore, right?"

Olive's heart clenched in pain. She knew that her words had pushed him to a desperate situation, and they would not have a chance in the future.

Olive tried to break free from his grip, wanting to withdraw her hand.

"Elvis, we can break up with dignity instead of embarrassing ourselves."

Elvis firmly held onto her wrist, and he said in a low and obscure voice. If you apologize now, I can forgive you and take you back."

"But Elvis. I don't want to be with you anymore. If you still don't understand. I can say it a hundred times, I don't want you anymore!" Olive yelled.

Elvis's Adam apple rolled up and down, and his eyes became gloomy.

"Olive, you are so fucking cruel. You want to abandon me, right? Is this the love you promised me?"

Elvis gazed at her intently, as if he had exhausted all of his strength. "Olive, it turns out that your love is nothing but a lie."

Olive felt like she was about to lose her breath. Her hand tugged tightly into a fist. She knew that he had always been insecure. What he was most afraid of being abandoned.

Now she stepped on his sore spot and reminded him of all that he went through.

Damien and Alpha watched them.

"Olive, return home, you can't leave Imperial City." Damien finally spoke.

Olive carefully concealed her emotions. Then, she looked up and said loudly.

"Derrick Domino, you should have seen enough of the drama. It's time to show up!"

Derrick Domino?

Hearing this name, everyone's eyes wandered.

Chapter 484 The two men fought for her

Alpha's eyes suddenly lit up. He knew that the person he was waiting for was here!

At this moment, someone slowly walked out of the darkness. It was Derrick Domino.

Every other people came in groups, but Derrick came alone. He slowly walked into everyone's sight from the darkness.

Elvis's narrow scarlet eyes quickly landed on Derrick Domino. He quickly recognized that he was Olive's ex-fiancee, Derrick Domino.

Back then, when Joyce took Olive away from Canada to Los Angeles, she had personally handed Olive into Derrick Domino's hands.

Olive and Derrick Domino grew up together as childhood sweethearts. Although it was Elvis who broke Olive's virginity, he was insecure and hostile towards Derrick Domino.

Because the son-in-law that Joyce had chosen was Derrick.

Elvis looked at Olive. He forcefully asked. 'Did you call him over? When did you get in touch with him? Do you want him to take you away or do you want to leave with him?'

Elvis pulled her wrist fiercely. Olive felt the pain and frowned.

Derrick Domino was dressed in a black outfit, and his body displayed a powerful and mysterious aura.

He glanced at Elvis's hand and said in a warm voice, "Elvis let go, you're hurting her."

Elvis was out of control. He never wanted to hurt her, especially since she had just miscarried and was still in confinement.

Elvis released his fingers almost instantly. But in the next second, he curled up with his fingers and pulled her tightly. He did not dare to let go. He was afraid that if he let go, she would follow Derrick Domino away.

It was as if a sharp knife had been inserted into Elvis's heart, but he could not and did not dare to let go of her hand. He was afraid that she would really leave him behind.

Olive trembled as stared at Elvis. "I've been looking for Derrick. I borrowed Crystal's phone to contact Derrick. I want him to take me away. I'll go with him"

The moment she finished speaking. the veins on Elvis's forehead had already started to throb violently.

Olive looked at him and said softly, "You know. Derrick was my fiancee. Hark then, my mother entrusted my lifelong happiness to Derrick, so I will be with Derrick in the future. I will marry him and have children with him."

Elvis's expression was gloomy. He gritted his teeth tightly, as his chest pounded heavily.

Olive could not bear to look at him anymore. She turned to Derrick, and said. "Derrick, take me away."

Derrick Domino's gaze fell on Elvis. He said indifferently. "Elvis, control your emotions. Although Olive used an ancient method to regenerate you, your paranola is very likely to return, and it will get worse."

He really knew everything.

Derrick Domino was like an invisible man, nothing could escape his eyes. Elvis and Derrick Domino looked at each other. The two equally handsome and powerful men stared at each other fiercely.

Derrick Domino said again, "Now, Elvis, let go of her and allow Olive came with me."

Elvis sneered. "What if I don't let her go?"

Suddenly, Derrick's figure flashed before Elvis in an instant. No one saw how he did it. His figure was like a ghost.

Derrick wrapped his arm around Olive's waist and attacked Elvis with one hand.

Derrick's palm seemed to contain the most unfathomable power in the world.

Elvis lost his balance, and Derrick's palm had already hit his chest.

Elvis took a step back, and Peterson quickly supported him. "Young master, are you okay?"

As the protector of Elvis, Ray was very skilled. He immediately wanted to step forward, but Derrick hugged Olive

The Subwuute bride Rated for My Mind and warned indifferently. "Retreat, your master is not my opponent."

At this moment, many men who were clothed in black descended from the sky, and they slowly settled down with incomparable strength, quickly surrounding all of them.

This was Derrick's men.

Derrick's handsome face was calm, but he had already controlled the situation.

Elvis felt like he had received a slap in the face. He lowered his head and spat out blood.

"Young Master!" Peterson called out and his expression changed drastically.

Seeing that Elvis was vomiting blood, Olive quickly reached out and grabbed Derrick's sleeve, and whispered, "Derrick, you are not allowed to hurt him!"

When Elvis looked up, he saw this scene. Olive was in Derrick Domino's embrace. She raised her face and whispered something to Derrick.

Elvis felt deeply hurt by the scene.

Derrick hugged Olive, and said, "Olive, let's go."

He took Xia Xiwan and left.

Did she just leave?

Elvis raised his hand and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth.

Derrick Domino did not look back at all.

Elvis swiftly ran to him, but Derrick turned and hit Elvis's on the chest again. Elvis was shocked and he spat out another mouthful of blood.

"Young master!" Ray called out and ran towards him.

Olive bit her lips as she stared at him. She knew that Elvis must be seriously injured.

Elvis was definitely amongst the richest men in Canada, And he was also leader of the Red Mafia. But when it came to fighting, he would definitely not defeat Derrick Domina, Olive's face was pale. "Derrick, I told you before, you are not allowed to hurt him!" she whispered to him again.

Derrick replied indifferently. "It's not that I want to hurt him, but should I just watch him attack me?"

Elvis shook his body from Ray's grip and ran towards Derrick again. This time, Derrick's palm hit Elvis's chest again.

Elvis was injured by the force of Derrick's palm, and with a thud, he immediately knelt on the ground,

The blood from his mouth spurted onto the ground.

Chapter 485 Unless I Die

"Young master, let Miss Hart go. Even if you can keep her, you can't keep her heart. Her heart already belongs to someone else!" Seeing fresh blood gushing out of Elvis' mouth. Peterson and Ray tried to persuade. They all knew that their young master couldn't let go.

There was a layer of cold sweat on Elvis' forehead, his eyes were red, and he looked terrible, like an e beast. But he still took a deep breath, not wanting to give up because of the woman in his heart. "Stay away!" Elvis reached out and pushed Peterson and Ray away, then stood up.

exhausted

But after getting three blows, he was seriously injured inside and tried many times but couldn't get up. This was definitely the worst and most embarrassing moment of Elvis's life.

Finally, he gritted his teeth, stood up with difficulty, raised his hand to wipe the blood from the corner of his lips, and then walked over to Derrick Domino again, slowly but steadily.

Olive heard footsteps behind her, and he... came again.

Olive suddenly stopped. She stood in front of Derrick Domino, and said in a clear and nonchalant voice, "Elvis, what do you want? Do you know that you're so annoying following me like that?!"

Elvis walked in front of her. The slender girl stretched out her arm to shield

Derrick, her bright eyes glittered at him, no longer soft and cheerful, for him was complete indifference and boredom.

Elvis's large hands dangling down from his body quickly clenched into fists. He looked at Olive, saying, "Get out of the way! This is man's war, I won't let him take you away."

He knew he was no match for Derrick, but he persisted because he couldn't let Derrick take her away.

"Elvis, what can I do to make you let go?"

"Unless I die!" Elvis spat three words from his thin lips.

Olive's heart pounded, a crystal mist quickly filled her eyes, and she lowered her slender eyelashes.

"Olive." Elvis now called her name in a deep voice, "And what can I do to make you stay by my side?"

Olive tried to hold back the tears in her eyes, replying. "Unless... you and Crystal have never slept together. Can you?"

The fact that he slept with Crystal, and Olive only used this to force him to give up.

Something flashed in Elvis' narrow blood-red eyes, and he nodded, "Okay."

Okay?

What does he mean?

At this point, Derrick said softly. "Olive, it's time for us to leave."

Olive glanced at Elvis, then turned to leave.

"Olive!" Elvis quickly stopped her, "I can let you go with Derrick Domino today, but nothing should happen. Don't challenge my limits, or else... I don't know what I'll do. Furthermore, about what you just said, you better not fool me!"

She just said that as long as he and Crystal haven't slept together, she will be by his side.

She better not deceive him.

She better not even betray him!

If not...

Elvis' blood-red eyes were filled with terrifying seriousness, with a little bloodlust inside that made people shiver.

Olive didn't turn around and went to Derrick Domino's side.

At this point, Logan looked at Derrick in surprise, "Seventh Young Master? So you are the Seventh Young Master, Joyce Brown's last true disciple!*

Derrick glanced at Logan, saying, "Mr. Theodore, my master was previously engaged to you, but the engagement was annulled. My master once said that you fell in love with her as soon as you saw her, and it's just the first love because of her appearance. It's a pity that you can't meet my master's criteria for choosing a husband. My master's standard has always been clear and never changed. That's handsome."

At this point, Derrick's gaze fell on Damien's handsome face, meaning "Look, Mr. Theodore, this is the man chosen. by my master!"

Logan, ". " F uck!

Damien's forehead twitched, ""

At this moment. Alpha took a step forward, looked at Derrick Domino, and said, "Seventh Young Master, I finally met you."

Derrick looked at Alpha and smiled slightly, saying. "Mr. Augustine, my master once said that you were the most amorous man she had ever seen, but also... the dumbest man."

Alpha. ""

"Mr. Augustine. I know what you want to ask. My master once told me that one day if you find me, I should report the truli. Anabelle was taken away by my master and she won't give her back to you Forget Anabelle. Anyway, you'd got a homewrecker. Lily Midas and you are a perfect match."

Alpha. ". "

Damien frowned, looked at Olive, and said. "Olive, go home with Dad."

Derrick smiled, replying. "Mr. Robert, how lucky you were to be chosen by my master that year, but Olive is my master's daughter, and you only contributed one sperm. Please retract your claws away from Olive. My master also said that she know you had a fortune of lundreds of millions waiting for Olive to inherit, but unfortunately, Olive was born to inherit the throne."

The three mer, Alpha, Damien, and Logan were speechless, their faces looking not okay. They've been searching for Joyce Brown all these years, but who would have thought that she would drop a message for them before she disappeared? Thus incredible attack made the current scene awkward for a while.

Derrick put his arm around Olive's shoulder, saying, "Olive, we should go."

Olive nodded.

At this time, Damien, Alpha, and Logan stepped forward. "Seventh Young Master. I'm afraid you won't be able to leave easily."

"I'm afraid I'll have to tell you this. This forbidden land is my master's territory. Please leave quickly." With that said, Derrick Domino leaped into the air with Olive in his arms, and the two figures instantly disappeared into the endless night.

Derrick took Olive away, simply as that.

"Sir, do you want to follow them?" At this time, their subordinates asked Damien and Alpha for instructions. Before the two spoke, Logan hurriedly said: "Don't chase. Let's leave quickly. The darkness is getting closer and closer to us."

Logan quickly left here with his men and returned to Greenland.

Damien and Alpha looked up, and as expected, the night before them seemed to draw closer and closer. The night was like a giant abyss, with mysterious and strange powers, able to swallow them all in one gulp.

Olive came back with Derrick Domino, who lived in a magnificent palace. After the maid cleaned the room, Olive stood in front of the window, looking at Derrick Domino behind her through the shiny glass window. She said, "Derrick, it's really you, you hid so well."

Chapter 486 Olive was pregnant with twins

Derrick looked at Olive, replying. "Olive, no matter how well I hide, I will be caught by you. You performed well today. People from all walks of life gathered, and they were all from the stand to see you clearly on stage." Olive doesn't deny that these guys always loinw more than she does. She is in the light, but they are all in the dark. They all have their own plans for her and want to take advantage of her and push her forward.

Olive doesn't like this. She likes to take the initiative, and after the penalty aren today, she regained the initiative.

"Derrick, do you know how to find my mom? Do you know the way home?"

Derrick shook his head, "I don't know."

Disappointment quickly flashed into Olive's bright eyes, she asked, "You're my mom's close disciple, and didn't she tell you the way home?"

"Master said that only you knew the way home. Olive, in this world, only you can find your way home."

Olive frowned, looked out the window at night, and didn't speak for a while.

She was sure the way home was still within that restricted area.

She must first undergo the technique of centering the glass flower and the moon.

Olive gently closed her eyes. All the paths she had memorized today were spinning in her head. She felt very confused but also felt that she was about to break through.

Unfortunately, she hasn't made it yet.

At this time, nausea suddenly rose in her stomach, Olive rushed in the bathroom, bent over the toilet, and threw up.

Because she didn't eat, all she vomited was acidic water. This unpleasant feeling seemed to want to swallow her. Olive sat on the soft woolen carpet, then slowly reached out her small hand, resting it on her still flat stomach. Although uncomfortable, her beautiful eyebrows and eyes had the tenderness of a mother.

Derrick came to the door, asking “Olive, you didn’t kill your baby, did you? You just staged a play in front of Elvis, made him think you had an abortion, and made him think you didn’t want the baby anymore..”

Right, she didn’t harm the baby, and now the baby is safe in her womb.

She is a dorter. Before rolling down the stairs, she gave herself pregnancy medicine and moved the needle, leaving the baby completely unharmed.

The hospital was packed with her people, and the treating doctor who performed the surgery told Elvis in her words that the baby was gone.

All of this was a play for Elvis to see.

“Olive, you love Elvis so much, don’t you? Derrick Domino asked.

Olive’s small hand gently stroked her belly, the dim light shining on her body, imparting warmth. “As he said, if he knew I was pregnant, he’d take care of my body too. I don’t want him to make such a painful choice to kill this child.”

“This is our first child. I really want to bring it to this world safe and healthy. If this child is a boy, I hope he will be more like him.”

“If I stay by his side, Crystal and Logan will always hold this weakness. This is a knot that can’t be undone. I can only cut the knot directly. They will continue to attack, and I don’t know what to do. I don’t have much time left, I can’t be with him anymore. I hope he will forget the, move forward, never look back, and be happy.”

Even if she didn’t say it, Derrick knew what she was thinking. He took a step forward, squatted down, touched Olive’s head, and said, “But your body will be pierced by One Snap, you may not be able to deliver this child safely.”

Olive looked up at Derrick, her pupils shining brightly, as beautiful as the stars in the sky. She said, “Therefore, I’ll do my best. Based on my current body, I shouldn’t conceive, but a baby’s still coming. I can feel him healthy and strong,”

Derrick heartbrokenly rubbed Olive’s long hair, “Okay, I’m here to protect you. As long as it’s what you want, I’ll support it,

“Derrick, thank you.”

The Schistiture lide. Doted by My Hiliaire Hmhand

Olive is in this palace, but it’s been a long time since she last took Crystal’s blood, and Olive’s rosy face paled as expected

Derrick ordered his men to put away all the mirrors in the palace so that Olive couldn’t see herself now.

Women love beauty, and no one can accept that they are old before their time.

But Olive felt that that was a bit unnecessary because she could see the skin on her body. Her skin had become loose and wrinkled over the years. The only good thing was that the baby was fine, and Derrick arranged an ultrasound for Olive.

In the morning. Olive opened her eyes very early. She was a little excited because it was her first ultrasound and she could meet the tiny baby in the video.

At this time, there was a knock on the door. “Clack” sounded, the maid pushed the door in, saying. “Miss Hart, you’re awake. Here’s the stewed bird’s nest for you. When it’s still hot...”

With a “hang”, the bowl in the maid’s hand fell directly onto the carpet, and the maid looked at Olive in horror.

Olive had never met any guests. She knew that she would frighten people to death. The maids who took care of her food and her daily life were arranged by Derrick himself and were very stable. This is the first time Olive has seen this maid.

At this moment. Derrick heard the sound and entered. He glanced at Olive, a few seconds later turned away and reprimanded, “Go out!”

“Yes sir.” The maidservant lowered her head in fear, cleaned up the mess on the carpet, and hurriedly retreated out. Derrick stepped forward and approached the bed.

Olive stretched out her small hand to cover her face, she knew there were wrinkles on her face, “Derrick, I’m older today. It must be scary.”

Derrick grabbed a hair tie and tied Olive’s long hair up. Now she has lost a lot of hair, but she is determined not to cut her long hair.

“Olive, can I help you cut your hair today?”

Olive shook her head, saying, “No. I don’t want to cut my hair.”

“Why not?”

“Because...” Olive curled her red lips into a sweet smile, replying. “He likes me with long hair the most.”

Derrick knew. Because Elvis liked her long hair, she kept it and didn’t want to cut it

“Okay, let’s pack up and go to ultrasound room B.”

In ultrasound room H, Olive lay down and the doctor performed an ultrasound on her.

Immediately the doctor was amazed and said: “Miss Hart, you have two babies in your belly. You are pregnant with twins!”

Chapter 487 I miss you

What?

Is she pregnant with twins?

Olive helped her stomach sit up. "Really? Let me see

She often feels her own pulse. Her happy pulse was strong from the start, but she didn't think it was twins.

"Miss Hart, look, these are two placentas. You can hear the babies heartbeats, both are fine. They are healthy."

Olive saw two placentas. It's true, she's actually carrying twins.

Inside wasn't a baby, but two babies.

Olive feels very surprised. She never dared to think about it and both children are growing very well, very healthy.

Olive lay down, and her eyes looked ahead, twinkling with joy, "Derrick, did you hear? I'm pregnant with twins?"

Olive can't wait to share this good news with Derrick Domino beside her, her joy is about to overflow now, and she must share it with others.

This is absolutely Olive's happiest time of all this time. Derrick looked at her. The light in her eyes burned, becoming extremely animated.

He said. "Olive, congratulations."

At this point, the doctor smiled and said: "Miss Hart, it's very difficult to have twins. Your current body is very difficult to have a baby, now two babies are competing with you for nutrition, so you must eat more. It's your motivation. You and the babies will try together, okay?"

Olive nodded vigorously, "I will."

She will definitely work hard.

In fact, Olive's recent morning sickness reaction has been severe. She has no appetite, and can't eat anything, so now she has lost a bit of weight.

But she decided from now on, even if she couldn't eat, she had to force herself to eat, and she had to bring these two children safely into this world.

After a successful ultrasound examination, Olive got up from the bed and prepared to go down.

At this point the ultrasound was off, and the screen was black. Olive raised her head, seeing herself in the glassy black screen above.

This was the first time she had seen herself during this time.

Olive's clear pupils suddenly contracted and froze in place.

She used to be a beautiful 20-year-old girl with delicate features, but now she is old, with many wrinkles on her face, at first glance like a 60 year old old woman.

The problem was, she saw a white patch on her head,

She finally knew why the maidservant looked at her so frightened in the early morning. She finally knew why Derrick tied her hair with a headband. It's because... her hair was all white!

Her silky black hair turned white overnight.

Olive knew she was getting old, but she was determined not to cut her hair. This long black hair was the only thing she had left, and that was her last insistence.

This is something Elvis likes, and she always keeps it for him.

But now the little thing she had was gone.

“Crack”, Olive heard her heartbreak, her last straw was completely crushed by this white hair.

Derrick brought her shoes. Seeing Olive staring at the screen, he quickly walked over and blocked the screen with his body, “Olive, put on your shoes. Let’s go back to rest. You are now carrying two babies in your belly. You have to take care of your health for them.”

Referring to the two children, Olive lowered her thin eyelashes to hide all the emotions in her eyes, and the corners of her lips curled up slightly. She said, “Okay.”

Chapter 487 | miss you

Olive still didn’t want to eat, and even more so, but for the sake of the two children, she forced herself to start eating.

Derrick handed her a sweet and sour chop: “Olive, eat the meat.”

“Okay.” Olive obediently ate the meat.

Derrick Domino handed her a bowl of fish soup, “Olive, drink fish soup. It’s said that children who like to eat fish are very smart”

“Okay,” Olive said, then drank the bowl of fish soup.

During this time, Olive couldn’t touch greasy food, but today she ate everything, even a bowl of rice. When she put down the bowl and fork, her belly was round.

The chef smiled and said: “Master, Miss Hart has a good appetite today, start eating. This is a good sign, a lot of nutrition will be good for mother and child.”

Derrick nodded, looked at Olive, and said, “Olive, from now on, you have to eat well like this.”

“Okay. I’m full. I’ll go upstairs first.” Olive got up from the restaurant and went upstairs.

Pushing open the door, Olive quickly ran into the bathroom. She couldn’t hold it any longer, she lowered her head to hold the toilet and vomited furiously.

She vomited up all the food she ate.

When Derrick got to the door and was about to go in, he heard vomiting inside, stopped in his tracks, and didn’t go in.

He knows she is had now. All her resilience and bravery vanished as soon as she saw her white hair.

She had revealed her inner softness and fragility, but he couldn’t comfort her.

She didn't need his comfort.

Because he's not who she wants.

He will never be able to replace the person in her heart.

After Olive threw up, she lazily walked out. It was an hour later. Her face was as pale as a sheet of paper, without a drop of blood.

She entered the room and started rummaging through the boxes and drawers, looking for something

"Olive, what are you looking for?" Derrick asked softly.

Olive didn't raise her head, she was so focused on finding. "I'm looking for my phone. I haven't used it since I got here. I remember I put it here, but it's lost."

"Thuis?"

Olive looked up, and in Derrick's palm was a cell phone, which was her cell phone.

"Thanks. I want to make a phone call." Olive said, took the phone, and sat on the fleece rug beside the bed, dialing a number.

Derrick didn't leave, but silently watched her curled up with her small body, holding her knee in one hand, lowering her head, resting her chin on her knee, the other hand holding the phone to her ear.

He heard her voice, talking to the phone on the other end, her voice very low, "Hey, Elvis. It's ine."

"Elvis, I want to tell you some good news. Today I went for an ultrasound, the doctor said that I am pregnant with twins. It's a surprise, isn't it? We will have two babies at the same time. Elvis, you're a father now."

"Elvis, how are you these days? Our babies... are very good, obediently eat and sleep. I also ate a bowl of rice today. drank a bowl of soup, and stuffed myself into a ball."

"Elvis, don't worry about me. I'm a genius doctor, One Snap can't do anything to me. Everything here with the babies is fine. It's just, Elvis. I think I... miss you."

Chapter 488 Find him!

Derrick looked at Olive. She was sitting on the rug leaning against the bed.

The hustle and bustle of the whole world at the moment had nothing to do with her. All she cares about is a phone call.

She buried her small head, like an abandoned stray kitten, looking pitiful.

Derrick looked up. He knew that the cell phone in her hand had long since run out of battery, now it was turned off. and can't make calls at all.

She just stupidly held her phone and mumbled to a switched-off cell phone.

She was talking to Elvis.

She told Elvis that she was pregnant with twins. She told Elvis that he was a father. She told Elvis that everything was fine, and she also told Elvis that she missed him.

Tonight is quiet, the sadness in Olive's heart is like a river.

Olive's morning sickness became more and more severe because she was pregnant with twins and she lost weight rapidly.

Sometimes when she stood in front of the window, a strong wind could blow her down.

That day, Olive went downstairs to prepare dinner, the LCD TV in the living room was turned on, and there was breaking news on IL

The presenter excitedly said:

"As we all know, Crystal is the eldest daughter of the Robert family in Imperial, but not long ago, Crystal's identity was revealed that she is the biological daughter of Logan Theodore, king of Greenland!"

"A few months ago, the Augustine and Robert families were married, and Elvis, the number one businessman in Imperial, married Crystal in a grand ceremony. Now that Crystal is the eldest princess of the Royal Family. Elvis is naturally the prince of Greenland."

"Logan loves Crystal so much. Yesterday he announced to the world that he would hold Elvis and Crystal's wedding in Greenland. Then the red carpet will stretch for ten miles, and the floats will parade through the streets, attracting the attention of the whole world."

"There are reports that Elvis and Crystal's married life is as sweet as honey. At the big wedding in Greenland this time, all eyes are once again on this couple."

Olive's expression changed dramatically as she watched the news. What? Didn't Elvis cut ties with Crystal?

Not only did he not cut ties, but he was going to get married in Greenland. What was he thinking?

She left him by all means, just because she didn't want to drag him down, didn't want him to be controlled by Crystal anymore, but now it's fine, he's still entangled with Crystal?

When Olive left him, she thought he would meet a better girl later on, but this girl was definitely not Crystal.

Is he crazy?

Olive hadn't even had dinner yet and returned to her room.

At this moment, there was a lock on the door. Derrick pushed open the door, and brought in deliciously delicate food: "Olive, it's time for dinner,"

Olive sat on the bed, eyes fixed, "I don't want to eat."

Derrick walked over to her, asking. "Do you want to eat this?"

In Derrick's hand was another sour plum.

Olive's slender eyelashes trembled. She slowly reached out her hand to take the sour plum and put it in her mouth. The sweet and sour taste quickly spread to the taste buds, and she was no stranger to this taste. Elvis had also fed her this. It had the same taste.

The Schaltute ili : Dated by My Billionaire Husband

Chapter 459 Tind hom!

At the time she thought it was delicious, but now, she doesn't think it's delicious at all.

Olive's eyes gradually reddened, actually that day she lay on the phone. She's not good. She's not good at all.

She really wants to hear his voice.

She just has to listen to it

Olive looked up at Derrick, saying. "Derrick, I'm going to Greenland."

Derrick quickly frowned and directly refused: "No, Logan doesn't love his daughter, Crystal, at all. This wedding is just for you to see. Logan wants to wait for you to be trapped in Greenland. Why did Elvis agree to this big wedding? He is waiting for you, too. Everyone is there waiting for you. This trip is quite dangerous."

"Derrick, I admit that I want to go to Greenland to find Elvis. I want to know what he wants to do. However, there is still a mystery in my heart. This mystery involves Elvis and even the forbidden zone."

Derrick looked at her, asking. "Olive, what do you mean?"

Olive nodded slightly, "Derrick, I seem to... have found my way home. We can... go home."

Derrick Domino was silent for a few seconds and asked, "How can you meet Elvis in your current state?"

"The first of Mom's medical books has a rejuvenating needle. This needle can quickly restore a young girl's appearance, but it can only last eight hours. Eight hours later, I'll be back to the old look. So, Derrick, this is my last right hours. I want to say goodbye to Elvis, to all the past, and after that, let's go home."

"Okay, we're going to the big wedding tomorrow."

Greenland.

Today is Elvis and Crystal's big wedding. The entire Greenland cover is decorated with flower lights, the red carpet stretches for ten miles, the two sides of the road are flowers and romantic curtains, and people are crowded on both sides, waiting for the wedding cars.

Olive came, and she used the rejuvenation needle, and her whole body was restored to the slim and beautiful face of a young girl, with her long flowing black hair, and she had a 100% recovery rate.

Now she was crammed into the dark crowd, waiting for the wedding cars to arrive.

At this moment, there was a commotion in the ears, someone excitedly shouted: "Quickly look, the head princess and the groom are coming!"

Olive raised her head and saw a flower-covered carriage slowly approaching, sitting on the carriage there were two familiar figures. They were actually Elvis and Crystal.

Olive hadn't seen Elvis in a long time, and now her pupils were filled with his handsome face. It was hard to leave.

Today's Elvis wears a handcrafted black suit. He is handsome and dignified. She hadn't seen him for a long time, and he looked more and more quiet. At this time, he pursed his thin lips, and his arrogant posture revealed indifference and unstained by the world dust.

Crystal is proud of today's spring breeze, ushering in a remarkable moment in her life. She wore a princess dress and tiara, and sat beside Elvis, waving her arms non-stop, as if to announce her happiest moment to the world.

The wedding car came and went

Olive quickly moved forward, but was quickly stopped by the guards on the inside and outside, "Who are you? Back off, this is the fence,"

"I want to find the great princess and the groom, I am their friend," said Olive.

"Ha ha ha ha, if you're their friend, then I'm their brother. No need to brag.

Can mortals like you see the Grand Princess and the groom?"

Chapter 489 Crystal was pregnant

The guard in black laughed at Olive mercilessly and even pushed her with his hand.

Olive took a step back. At this moment, strong arms wrapped around her slim waist, and Derrick held her in his arms.

Derrick raised his head, and those cold black eyes fell on the face of the black-clad guard.

Just a glance, but the black robed guard shivered for some reason. His gaze began to avert, not daring to look at

Derrick

Derrick gently withdrew his gaze, looking down at Olive in his chest, "Olive, let's get out of here. I'll take you to the palace to meet Elvis and Crystal."

Royal Palace.

Olive has no idea what method Derrick used to get her into this heavily guarded palace. Derrick has been hiding here all these years, and his influence has spread to every nook and cranny. This was beyond her imagination. "Olive, come inside and change into this maid uniform, then go upstairs with the maid. Elvis and Crystal are upstairs. There's half an hour to the wedding reception." Derrick said.

Clothes were given to Olive,

"Okay." Olive took her maid uniform and went into the changing room.

There were some maids in the dressing room, and those maids were quietly gossiping.

"Have you seen the groom? I saw from afar. The groom is very handsome. I have never seen such a handsome man!"

"I heard the most beautiful thing about the groom is not his face but his purse. He's super rich."

"Just now, I saw the eyes of the second and third princesses surrounding the groom. I guess they all fell in love with this brother-in-law."

"Shut up. Keep your voice low. Don't talk nonsense. Be careful of what you say. Today is the wedding of the Grand Princess and her prince, we must wish them a hundred years of happiness!"

After Olive changed into a maid outfit, she could already hear the sour smell from the voices of these maids. She feared that not only the so-called second and third princesses loved Elvis, but also these maids.

As the years went by, Logan had many women. These women bore him several children, both sons, and daughters. but they were all concubines. The position of the main wife is always vacant.

Olive had always known that Elvis was attractive, the great boss at the heart of the global economy, and his status was extraordinary. No woman could refuse such a man.

Looks like he became a favorite after entering Greenland. The peach blossoms on his body have bloomed one by one. Lately, he must have been living like he was in his element

Thinking of this, Olive's bright eyes flashed in the dark.

At this time, someone shouted: "Everyone goes out! The wedding party is about to start. First, bring the food upstairs, and bring it to the room of the Grand Princess."

Olive went out. Someone brought her a bowl of medicine, saying, "Bring this bowl of pregnancy medicine! The princess must drink it while it's still hot."

What?

Pregnancy medicine?

These two words exploded in Olive's head. Why does Crystal take pregnancy medicine?

Olive bowed her head to smell the bowl of pregnancy medicine, which contained very expensive medicinal herbs, indeed used to nourish the pregnancy.

What happened?

Olive made a bold prediction in her mind, but she quickly denied it. No, it shouldn't be.

Chapter 489 Crystal was pregnant

Even though Elvis slept with Crystal, he probably wouldn't let Crystal get pregnant with his child.

But why should they use this bowl of pregnancy medicine?

Olive carried the bowl of medicine upstairs, pushing out of Crystal's room.

As soon as she entered, Olive heard vomiting coming from the bathroom.

"Princess, the early pregnancy will more or less feel morning sickness, please bear with it for the time being. The cook has prepared delicious dishes of all kinds, you can eat them later. Right now your body is extremely tired, you can't be careless." The maid said.

Olive came over, and she saw Crystal in the bathroom, and now Crystal is holding the toilet.

Olive was also pregnant and had morning sickness, so she could catch a glimpse that Crystal was really pregnant!

Crystal was pregnant!

At this point, Crystal almost stopped vomiting. She rinsed her mouth and walked out, her steps quickly halting because Crystal suddenly saw Olive.

Even if Olive now turned to ashes, Crystal would probably recognize her.

"Put the pregnancy medicine there and go out." At this time, the maid beside Crystal instructs Olive.

Crystal quickly pursed her red lips, revealing a smug smile, and glanced at the maid beside her: "You go first"

The maid was taken aback for a moment but quickly backed out.

Now only Olive and Crystal are left in the room.

Crystal smiled and said: "Olive, you have finally come. I know you will definitely come."

Saying this, Crystal put her hand on her still flat belly, provocatively saying:

"Olive, I happen to have some good news to share with you. I am pregnant, and I am pregnant with Elvis's child!"

Crystal was actually pregnant.

This child belongs to Elvis.

So Crystal was also waiting for her, waiting to scold her.

Faced with Crystal's provocation, Olive's pretty face turned cold, and then she let out a cold laugh. "So what?"

So what?

Crystal's smug expression froze. She looked at Olive in surprise. She imagined Olive's different reactions after learning she was pregnant: anger, grief, sadness, jealousy. So she just didn't think Olive would react by speaking softly.

"Olive, don't you understand? I said I'm pregnant!"

"Your pregnancy is your business, what does that have to do with me?"
I'm pregnant with Elvis's child."

"It's about you and Elvis, nothing to do with me."

.. Crystal felt herself punch the cotton. Olive really doesn't feel hurt.

"Olive, I know you were also pregnant with Elvis's child not too long ago, but you aborted his baby. We all know that Elvis takes his child very seriously. Now Elvis has seen your true face, he considers me and my child as his treasures. His treasure is our child, the eldest grandson of the Augustine family. I really want to thank your son for making a way for inc!

Speaking of which, Crystal took out a B ultrasound from the hospital and gave it to Olive, "Olive, take a good look at it. My baby is very healthy, and he will come into this world soon. He will have parents who love him. The three of us will live happily together. As for you, you are in the past, and will definitely be forgotten!"

Chapter 490 Feeding her pregnancy medicine

Olive admits this time Crystal successfully stabbed the pain in her heart.

During this time, she endured everything alone. Every time she went to the obstetrician, she was very lonely. When she opens her eyes in the morning she will out of habit turn to her side. She seemed to hope that one day when she opened her eyes, she would be able to servis beside her.

However, at that time, Elvis was by Crystal's side. Not only did he sleep with Crystal, but he also made Crystal pregnant with his child.

She knows he values his bloodline. Does he also like the baby in Crystal's belly?

It is said that a mother is more precious than a child. Because Crystal was pregnant with his child, he decided to stay with Crystal from now on, and he held this wedding.

Olive's hear, was overwhelmed, and her head was a mess.

At this time, the door to the room was pushed open and someone walked in. Crystal's surprised voice quickly resounded: "Tivis, you're here."

Olive quickly raised her head, and her bright eyes quickly met the tall and handsome figure standing at the door. Elvis really has arrived!

Elvis in a neat black suit stood at the door, his narrow, deep eyes scanning Crystal's face, quickly shifting to Olive's preny line face.

At the moment, Clive is wearing a maid outfit. She is slim, pure, and beautiful, with a special charm.

Elvis looked at Olive, and Olive was locking at him too. Their eyes met as if they had a thousand words to say.

“Elvis,” at which point Crystal quickly stepped forward, deliberately stopping Olive, even reaching out to grab Elvis’s sleeve to coax, “Elvis, I have severe morning sickness, I don’t want to eat anything. I am very worried about the baby. Will the baby be okay?”

Crystal took Elvis’s large hand, placing his large hand on her flat stomach. He turned his head to look back, he didn’t deny Crystal’s action, saying, “The baby will be fine. Don’t think too much”

“That’s great, Elvis. The pregnancy medicine is so bitter, can you feed it to me? If you feed it to me, the bitter medicine will become sweet”

The pregnancy medicine was still in Olive’s hands, Crystal did it on purpose. Elvis raised his head and looked at Olive again. He pursed his thin lips and said in a deep and seductive voice with a sense of indifference and aloofness, “Bring the pregnancy medicine.”

Olive’s heart pounded. Although this is the result she wanted.....

Women are such a contradiction.

Olive stepped forward, she walked mechanically. When she got to Elvis, she gave the pregnancy medicine.

Elvis glanced at her, reaching out to take the pregnancy medicine.

He picked up a small spoon and started feeding Crystal: “Drink it, the party has already started. Everyone is waiting for you.”

Crystal was so happy, smiling like a flower because she could be given medicine by Elvis in front of Olive. The VIPs below were waiting for her. She was the much-awaited bride. She felt very excited.

Crystal finished her pregnancy medicine, then sweetly said, “Elvis, let’s go down. Don’t keep the guests waiting long.”

Crystal affectionately took Elvis’s arm and went downstairs.

Olive stood there with an empty howl. She watched Elvis take Crystal downstairs. She had a lot to say to Elvis. She wanted to stop the big wedding, but now the situation is getting worse and worse, beyond her expectations.

Crystal is pregnant.

Just now, he personally gave Crystal medicine, which was enough to prove his love for his child.

Olive got stuck in her throat, unable to speak. She gently placed her small hand on her stomach, saying “Sorry, baby..

Terding

Olive was about to turn around and leave.

At this moment, Elvis in front of her suddenly stopped, turned his head, and looked at Olive, stopping her, "You!"

Olive's footsteps halted, and her bright eyes looked at him.

Crystal's heart was irritated. She is most afraid of Elvis and Olive's old relationship rekindling. She asked. "Elvis, what do you call a little maid? Let's hurry down."

Elvis looked at Olive, and quirked his thin lips nonchalantly. "Go to the banquet hall downstairs to help. There are many distinguished guests today and there are not enough people."

The light in Olive's eyes quickly went out. She even thought Elvis had something to tell her, but he just told her to go downstairs and lend a hand. Crystal immediately smiled brightly. That's right. Little maid, come downstairs to help with the chores. Elvis is so attentive."

Elvis withdrew his gaze and said to Crystal "Let's go downstairs."

"Okay." Crystal followed Elvis downstairs like a proud and happy canary.

Downstairs, the VIPs gathered.

Elvis and Crystal immediately caught everyone's attention when they appeared on stage.

One person complimented, "The Grand Princess is so beautiful, elegant, and luxurious. You and the prince are truly a match."

"May the Grand Princess and the prince have a happy wedding and have a son soon," another wished.

Elvis looked calm, he was used to this kind of respectful surrounding situation, so he didn't say anything.

Crystal took her most graceful pose and said "Thank you". She knew that she had finally reached the pinnacle of her life.

At this time, the host said: "Dear guests, we're very happy to welcome you. Now I would like to announce, the wedding officially begins."

The beautiful symphony of the wedding resounded. Crystal walked onto the red carpet, holding Logan's arm.

She wanted to go to the red carpet party with her father, Logan Theodore, and then Logan would give her hand to Elvis.

This is the most precious gift.

Crystal looked at Elvis on the other side of the red carpet. She knew that her sisters were all looking at Elvis with eyes as bright as stars, but what should she do? This was her man, and no one could take him away.

"Crystal, are you happy today?" Logan asked smiling

"Dad, thank you." Crystal rested her head on Logan's shoulder, coaxing.

Olive was looking at this scene from below. She didn't expect that she was here today to see Elvis and Crystal walk the red carpet with her own eyes.

"Okay, let's watch the first romance between the Princess and the prince," the presenter introduced, opening the big screen at the scene.

“Whoosh,” everyone looked over, wanting to envy the most prestigious couple on earth

Crystal settled down and looked up at the big screen.

On the large screen was a room, a man with a muscular body resembling Elvis stepped out of the bathroom.
