Chapter 731

Chapter 731 Calling Olive

Anabelle quickly recalled her dream, uncomfortably reaching out to brush a lock of hair from her cheek. She replied. "There's nothing between me and your brother."

"Really?" Bounty asked, didn't believe it. Not because she didn't trust Anabelle but because she didn't trust her brother. She knew well what kind of man he was. This little white rabbit fell into his trap. how could that ferocious beast miss the chance to eat well?

"Anabelle, I don't care what happened to you and my brother, Hurry up and get my brother's divorce papers, then break up. I don't want him and our Augustine family to die because of you. Whatever happens, stay away from us as much as possible!"

Anabelle said nothing. This time she didn't come back to reunite with Alpha. She can't go back to him. His body was really good, calm and upright, full of energy. It seemed that his heart disease was really cured, so she was at ease, Anabelle looked up at Bounty, saying, "Bounty, I'll deal with your brother, but I still want to explain what happened back then. Kory and I weren't what you thought. I can't explain the scene in the surveillance camera that year. I can't remember what I did at that time, as if I was being controlled."

If she changed to the former, Bounty would probably lose control of her emotions again and become hysterical but this time she was very calm.

When she invited Anabelle to come, she actually wanted to hear what Anabelle had to say. Now that she thinks about it, everything was just like what Olive had told her a few days ago, that there were so many absurd and questionable things in those years....

Bounty frowned, "Being controlled? What do you mean? You mean... the Augustine family was unclear at that time, and maybe someone had a hand in it?"

Anabelle thought about that. In fact, she had searched for valuable news in her meager memories. over the years. She said, "I was really unwell that night. I remember that the last person I saw was... a little girl..."

A little girl?

Could it be... Naomi Scott?

Bounty started supporting poor children in the mountains very early on and Naomi was her favorite among them.

Naomi is very smart and studious. It was summer vacation, so she dragged Naomi to her side and took her to visit the bustling Imperial.

On her birthday that night, everyone in the Augustine family reunited in the Augustine family mansion, and she took Naomi there too.

At that time, Naomi was still very young, a child only a few years old, and had no sense of existence. After that, many things happened and the war was chaotic, and she really forgot about Naomi.

Now that Anabelle mentioned this, many Images suddenly popped into Bounty's head. At that time, Anabelle and Rory were in the room. Someone first noticed, and let out a shout, attracting everyone. She remembered... that person was Naomi.

Then, bewilderedly, she ran out of the room, holding her nine-month pregnant belly, standing on the stairs, stepping on the air. At that time... she seemed to have seen Naomi.

Naomi

Naomi!

Chapter 731 Calling Olive

Could this whole incident have something to do with Naomi?

Bounty felt startled. She quickly denied herself. It was just a little girl who was only a few years old. Maybe it was just a coincidence.

But this coincidence is extraordinary. In the anomaly, there are monsters.

"Bounty! Bounty, what's wrong with you?" At this moment, Anabelle's voice came.

Bounty quickly regained her sanity. She wanted to talk, but at this moment, the bell rang again in her ear, and she immediately felt a pounding headache.

"Bounty, you look awful. I'll call the doctor for you."

"No need." Bounty paused. "Anabelle, you go first. I just thought of something, so I need to verify it myself. If there's any progress, I'll call you."

Seeing that Bounty didn't want to say more, Anabelle could only nod, "Okay, I'll go first. I'll wait for your call."

Anabelle left.

Bounty was the only one left in the room. She put her hands on her head, trying to keep herself awake.

There must be something wrong with Naomi!

A few days ago, she saw Naomi reappear with her own eyes. Elvis was holding her back then....

Bounty's pupils shrank, her heart constantly sinking. She thought of a possibility. Naomi had intentionally approached her. She was still hiding in the Augustine house, now reappearing beside Elvis. Was it her purpose...

Anabelle and Elvis?

And she's just the victim.

Oh, God!

Bounty seems to have discovered some horrifying secret. She felt that the Augustine family had lived in a shocking conspiracy for years.

What should she do?

Bounty quickly took out her cell phone. She wanted to call Olive.

Right now, the only person she can think of is Olive. Olive is the person she feels most secure and trusts in. With Wanwan's intelligence, she can definitely help her break the curse that happened to the Augustine family all these years.

But just found Olive's phone number, before she dialed, a voice suddenly rang in her ear: "My lady. who do you want to call?"

Bounty jumped, dropping her phone on the carpet. She immediately raised her head, and Betty's old. face constantly zoomed in her field of vision.

"Betty, why did you come in without knocking? You scared the hell out of me!"

Betty glanced at her cell phone on the carpet. The name "Olive" on the mobile phone screen jumped into her line of sight. She bent down, picked up the phone, turned it off, and pulled out two pills and a glass of water, saying, "Lady, do you have a headache again? It's time to take the medicine. Take these two pills obediently and you won't hurt anymore. You'll be more relieved."

Bounty immediately noticed Betty's anomaly. She burst in without knocking, this time she took out her cell phone and gave her medicine.

Bounty stepped back cautiously. Now she sees a red bell tied around Betty's waist. The bell that she had heard several times before, which gave her a headache like a hammer, came from here.

"You're not Betty, Who are you? How coldly reprimanded.

Betty smiled, a smile that made one feel a little creepy, "It doesn't matter who I am, my lady. You just need to know that Olive can't save you!"

At this point, Bounty was almost certain of all the speculations in her heart.

She just hated herself for being so stupid when she found out so late.

She used her long fingernails to tear off the tips of her fingers, then quietly put her hands behind her, and wrote "Naomi" on the back of the sofa with blood stains on her fingertips. She left it to Olive!

She believes that when Olive comes back, she will find out!

As Bounty wrote, she glared warily at Betty: "You know Olive? Who are you?" There was a glint of hatred in Bounty's eyes. She asked, "I should ask, Naomi, who are you? Did you calculate what happened that year? Right. You killed my son and ruined the Augustine family. What did you do that for?"

"Now that you appear again, what do you want to do? You get close to Elvis and approach Olive for what?"

Betty looked a little surprised, but she took the pills and approached Bounty step by step. She said. "Absolutely the daughter of the Augustine family. You saw through me. Unfortunately, the mouth of the dead can't speak. No one will know this secret."

"Do you think you can succeed? Olive will return soon. She will save me. She will expose all this with her own hands and expose your wicked schemes!" Bounty said angrily.

Betty moved, the bell on her waist instantly making a mesmerizing sound. Bounty's face was pale and her head was about to explode. She lay in pain on the sofa.

"My lady, okay. Don't talk anymore. I know you're tired. Take your medicine."

Bounty has lost the ability to resist. She was in too much pain. Betty's voice never ceased to tempt her. Right now she just wants to be free.

Bounty opened her mouth and Betty stuffed two pills in.

Before long, Bounty's pupils became dizzy and she fell down.

Having done all this, Betty raised her hand to tear off the human skin mask from her face, revealing her true face.

She is... Concubine Molly, the long lost one.

Molly in the final battle was defeated by Olive and Elvis. Fortunately, she had a very strong sense of smell so she escaped.

Now Elvis is overwhelmingly hunting her. The most dangerous place is the safest place. She disguised herself as Betty and was always hiding beside Bounty, a key character.

Olive!

Molly really hates Olive. In Olive's hands, she sacrificed her two children.

Before Bounty died, she only thought of Olive, and Molly was too unwilling.

Molly took out her cell phone and dialed a number.

Soon, the other end of the phone was connected, and a voice as soft as a golden warbler came: "Hello, Molly," Molly's eyebrows and eyes immediately showed respect: "Princess, I've settled this matter.”

That person was Naomi, the princess of the mermaids.

The mermaids had infiltrated Greenland, so they knew about Anabelle’s background before anyone else. All these years, the mermaids had been planning everything that happened to the Augustine family behind the scenes.

“Okay, well done. I’ll give you the next job. You must do it safely.” Naumi said.

“Yes, princess.” Molly respectfully hung up the phone.

Anabelle came out. She was about to return, but she suddenly stopped on the way, because she had a kind of bad premonition.

Bounty was in a bad state just now, did something happen to her?

Anabelle was worried about Bounty so she came back

Walking to the lawn of the villa, she heard the shrill sound of an ambulance in the distance, and two ambulances in front stopped.

Now that the mansion’s lights are on, someone is carrying Bounty out.

The bag in Anabelle’s hand instantly fell to the grass, her pupils suddenly constricting, as if she couldn’t breathe for a moment. She immediately ran over as fast as she could.

She pushed the crowd aside and quickly saw Bounty, who was now lying lifeless on a white stretcher.

“Bounty!” Anabelle ran over, reached out, and shook Bounty, “Bounty, what’s wrong? Please wake up!”

“Ms Augustine committed suicide by taking drugs,” said a doctor.

Suicide by taking drugs?

These words entered Anabelle’s ears. She shook her head in disbelief. How could it be? Just now she was alive, sit across from her and talk to her!

Anabelle slowly raised her hand, touching Bounty’s hand. It was cold, cold as ice.

Anabelle recalls years ago when she stood in the hospital corridor. Doctors in white robes carried the baby out of Bounty’s belly. The child was covered in dark blue, the whole body was rigid, and there was no temperature.

“Bounty!” Anabelle called, her eyes quickly turning red, “Bounty, wake up quickly! Wake up quickly! Don’t you hate me? Wake up to hate me! I’m not dead yet, but why are you...?”

At this time, Betty rushed forward, directly pushing Anabelle. She yelled, “Enough, stop being hypocritical! You are the person my lady doesn’t want to see the most!”

Unprepared, Anabelle was pushed and fell to the ground. Her hand was scratched and the blood flowed out very quickly.

But she ignored her wound, her eyes always fixed on Bounty's body. Bounty was carried by the doctor to the car, the ambulance roared away.

Betty looked at Anabelle proudly, saying, "Anabelle, you're a portent of death. Years ago, you made the Augustine family uneasy. Now you're back, my lady took pills to commit suicide. Why don't you stay away from the Augustine family?"

"Oh, I remember. Just now, you and the lady in the room talked for so long, did you provoke her? I you did it on purpose. I will report it to the police now. You are very suspicious!"

doubt

Betty immediately took out her cell phone to call the police, and soon Anabelle was taken away.

Anabelle was locked in a small room, and she sat in the corner, curled up by herself.

She felt very cold, there was no warmth in her body. She stretched out her arms and hugged her tightly, but found herself shivering from the cold.

What flashed through her mind was Bounty being loaded into the ambulance, the baby being carried out, Mrs. Samantha secretly wiping her tears, Alpha had heart disease...

An accident in her life

What Betty said is correct. She was a portent of death, and she brought disaster to the Augustine family.

She knew her fate well from an early age. She was bound all her life and couldn't be free.

Her every step was like walking on thin ice. She has never dared to dream or have extravagant expectations, so her temperament is cold and indifferent.

Alpha was an accident in her life.

For the first time, she began to want someone, for the first time daydreaming, for the first time having distant hopes.

All these years, she had never forgotten that as she stood in the endless crowd, looking up at him, he was the number one businessman in Imperial standing on the podium.

Chapter 733 He's here!

After that, the Midas family fell into an economic crisis. She knelt in front of the Augustine family. It was snowing heavily that day, he walked steadily in his black boots, looked at her solemnly, and said to her: "I can save the Midas family, but you must marry me, and be my Mrs. Augustine."

Then she married him.

On the wedding day, she wore a beautiful wedding dress. Mrs. Samantha liked her so much that she stuffed her with a big red envelope, like a mother giving her daughter red envelopes. She also wore the Augustine ancestral bracelet on her wrist.

His sister at that time, Bounty, was very cheerful and lively and was also very fond of her. When he came, she immediately took her hand and called her sister-in-law sweetly.

She couldn't stand and almost fell. He went to reprimand Boutty, and Bounty stuck out her tongue, hid behind her back, and said, "My brother is biased. After getting married, he forgot his sister. From now on. I can only hang out with my sister-in-law. Sister in law, now you have to protect me."

That day was like a dream. The wind wasn't dry, the sun was moderate. He stepped forward. clutching her small hand in his palm, a faint smile on his lips. She didn't expect that God began to treat her favorably. giving her happiness within reach.

She thought it was just the beginning.

She likes him, Mrs. Samantha, and his sister, Bounty. She used to think that in the future she would be a good wife, give birth to him, and live up to her title. She will be a good wife, and a good daughter-in-law who will accompany Mrs. Augustine, sharing family ties, and will also together with him protect his sister.

However, how would she know that everything was over before it began?

Falling from heaven to hell was just a blink of an eye. She didn't do anything good. She didn't do well as his wife, didn't show filial piety, and didn't protect Bounty, the only sister, causing her to lose her original cheerful and lively personality.

Her existence was the biggest mistake.

Nothing would have happened without her.

Now that Bounty had taken the drug to kill herself, Anabelle felt her heart being squeezed by a large hand, very painful.

Her eye sockets were hot and moist, and she quickly lifted her eyelids to look up. In fact, no one was born without crying, but she had found a way not to cry. When she wanted to cry, she looked up at the sky, so that the tears would flow back.

But this time in vain, she tried her best to open her eyes to look up, hot tears still pouring out more and more.

Anabelle hugged herself tightly, buried her tearful face in her knees, and burst into sobbing.

She was wrong.

She shouldn't have expected that in the first place.

She shouldn't have fallen in love with Alpha.

She shouldn't have come back.

Don't watch, don't listen, don't read, there will be no sorrow.

At this moment, a stream of cold air invaded, and someone came over.

The Subaru Bride Dared by My Bellary Husband

Alpha lunged forward, his deep handsome face devoid of emotion, but the cold wind outside blew the hem of his thin black wool coat, his deep and steady footsteps on the floor reflected cold and ferocious, making people wary.

As soon as Alpha entered, he immediately saw the woman curled up in the corner, hugging her knees, burying her small face inside, her slender body hidden in the dim light, lonely.

Her shoulders were still shaking, as if she was crying.

"I haven't seen you for a couple of hours and you've been brought in here?"

Anabelle was taken aback. This deep, mocking voice sounded so familiar.

She slowly raised her head, and Alpha's handsome face magnified in her field of vision.

Why is he here?

Because she suddenly raised her head and didn't have time to wipe her face, her face was filled with tears, and she looked even more dirty. Alpha frowned, then stepped forward, kneeling on one knee, stretching out his fingers. His large palm cupped her dirty little face into the palm of his hand.

His thin lips pursed into a cold, unhappy curve, his perfectly stern face sharp.

He asked, "Just this little promise, hiding here crying silently, how much are your tears worth?"

H

Anabelle didn't feel guilty at first, but now she feels very guilty about being scolded like this by him. If he didn't actively provoke her, it was fine.

She wouldn't be moved by him, obsessed with him, or start daydreaming about him.

In her life, Alpha is the only man she wants.

Anabelle tears up: "Alpha, you scold me..."

Alpha's determined heart suddenly softened, a hint of sympathy and helplessness slowly spilling out of his long dark narrow eyes. That's all, his whole life is for her.

He took out a square handkerchief from his pocket, lifted her face, and bit by bit wiped away the tears from her face. He said, "Anabelle, I'm a little worried. How will you live after you leave me?"

Anabelle was so surprised that she forgot to cry. She looked at him blankly and asked, "What do you mean?"

Alpha threw the square towel in his hand into the trash, then picked her up like a chicken, replying, "I mean you are an idiot."

Anabelle stood up and slid to the ground.

Alpha frowned, impatiently looking at her: "What's wrong?"

"My legs are... numb..."

Alpha looked at her thoughtfully, then reached out to take off his thin wool coat and put it on her body, then bent down to pick her up.

Anabelle smelled a familiar masculine scent on him, very comfortable and reassuring. She slowly reached out her small hands to hug his neck, choking and saying, "Alpha, Bounty... Hounty

"I see. You don't have to worry about her. There's a lawyer here to do the paperwork. I'll take you home first." Alpha said, hugging her outside.

Anabelle looked up at him. He pursed his thin lips, revealing a mysterious expression. Obviously, he didn't want to talk to her about Bounty. Bounty was in between them, causing them to grow further and further apart.

Beside the luxury car, Anabelle jumped out of Alpha's arms, she looked at him, "Alpha, I want to go to the hospital."

"What will you do at the hospital?" Alpha scoffed, "Go back."

"Bounty and I..."

Alpha directly interrupted her. It seems the subject of Bounty had exhausted his last bit of patience, and he opened the passenger door, "Get in."

Anabelle initially wanted to tell him a lot about Bounty's anomaly, but now she knows, she doesn't need to say anything, because everything she says is wrong.

Anabelle curled her finger, "Alpha, you're going to the hospital. I'm coming back on my own. Last time I said I never loved you, so don't ever show up in front of me again. You're so annoying!"

Alpha quickly pursed his thin lips, "Anabelle, you only told me this when I rushed over? There are. times when I really want to take your heart out to see if you really have it!"

Anabelle hardened her heart. She thought. "Alpha, stop it. Leave me alone. I will only bring you disaster."

She said. "Alpha, don't you understand everyone's words? I don't want you to come here. Even if you don't come. Marcus will come. You're just faking affection by pestering me like this. It will just make me feel more disgusted. You're haunting me."

A storm of danger quickly built up in Alpha's deep narrow eyes. He looked at Anabelle mercilessly, then managed to let out a deep laugh from his throat, the tip of his tongue pressed against his right cheek. "Oh. Anabelle, you are evil!"

He was very angry. If anyone dared to anger him like this, he would make this person disappear from the world.

But this person is Anabelle.

She infuriated him like that, but in a fit of rage, he could only say through his teeth, "F uck!"

Alpha grabbed her wrist and forced her into the passenger seat.

Anabelle hastily struggled, "Alpha, let me go. I don't want to get in your car!"

"Shut up. I don't want to listen to you right now!"

"Alpha!" Anabelle pushed him away.

Alpha's large hand hanging by his side quickly clenched into a fist, his handsome face was so dark. that it could bleed. He hissed, "Anabelle, my stamina is limited. Do you want to anger me?"

Anabelle glanced at him and turned to leave.

She stood at the side of the road, stretched out her hand to call a taxi, urging the driver, "Drive fast." Alpha stood in place, watching the taxi taking Anabelle away, a storm appeared in his eyes. This woman! How dare she? How dare she?

A few seconds later, Alpha returned to the driver's seat and stepped on the accelerator, the luxury car immediately sped on the road.

In the silent carriage, there was a "ding", his cell phone rang, and a message came in.

It was from Lil' Nathan.

Alpha clicked on the message. Lil' Nathan sent him a few words, plain and simple.

Alpha turned the text, then threw the phone on the passenger seat, and slid down the letting the cold wind in. Only then would he be able to breathe.

In the taxi ahead, the driver said: "Hey, why is that luxury car following us?"

Anabelle was looking at her cell phone, but she also received a text from Levi.

At this point, she heard the driver, quickly turned her head, looked through the rear windshield, and saw Alpha driving a luxury car chasing her all the way.

What was he doing?

Didn't he go to the hospital to see Bounty?

She said that, but why did he still follow?

Chapter 7345he vomited

Anabelle looked at his luxury car. In the bright neon lights at night, his luxurious black luxury car was emitting a restrained and dazzling light, just like him.

"Should we stop the car?" asked the driver.

Anabelle slowly turned her head, not looking at Alpha anymore. She casually said: "No, we can go our own way. If he likes it, let him follow."

"Okay."

Anabelle lowered her eyelids, thinking, "Alpha, come back, please... Stop trying to convince me."

Anabelle returned to the apartment. Levi waited a long time, exclaiming:

"Grandma, you're back!"

Anabelle quickly hugged Levi lovingly: "Levi, what's wrong with the text you just sent me? Why did you say your Aunt Bounty was okay?"

Levi laughed, his voice was clear: "Because my mom left a golden pill when she left. Aunt Bounty is protected by the golden pill. so it's okay for the time being. But this pill can only protect her for three nights, which means my mom has to come back within these three days. Otherwise, Aunt Bounty will hardly be saved."

Anabelle's heart tightened. Could Olive really come back in these three days? What should she do if Olive can't come back in time?

"Grandma, you are very tired. Go to the bathroom and get some sleep. You don't need to go anywhere for the next three days, just stay here."

"But I want to go to the hospital. I want to see Bounty."

"No need, Grandma. My big brother is already at the hospital."

His big brother?

Nathan?

Levi nodded: "Grandma, before my mom left, she told us to guard this place and everyone. Don't worry. My brother will catch the ghosts."

The big rock in Anabelle's heart was gradually removed. It looks like Olive had everything ready before she left. Currently, there are t Levi, here, and Olive only needs three days to return.

geniuses, Nathan and Anabelle returned to her room. She went to the window and wanted to close the curtains, but soon her movements were halted by the sight of Alpha's luxury car downstairs.

Not only did he follow her all the way, but he also parked his luxury car downstairs.

Alpha got out of the car. He took out a cigar, lit it with a lighter, then put one hand in his pocket, and began to smoke the cigar between his fingers, his tall and straight body lazily leaning against the luxurious car. There was a silent smoke on him.

Anabelle couldn't see the expression on his face, but behind the haze, she could vaguely see his frowning brows.

At this moment, Anabelle really seemed to be very tired.

Anabelle's heart suddenly ached, her eyes kept looking at him. Only then did she realize that when he went out, he hadn't changed his shoes, and under his feet was a pair of dark green slippers. He went out in his slippers.

He must have heard of her arrest and rushed over, not even having time to change his slippers.

Anabelle's eyes suddenly turned red, and her dreamy eyes were immediately covered with a layer of crystal clear tears.

Very quickly, a stream of sour water rose from her chest. Anabelle put her hand on her chest, rushed to the bathroom, and bent over to vomit.

This vomiting was bad. She didn't eat anything and vomited all the bitter bile in her stomach. Finally no more vomiting. Anabelle collapsed on the carpet, her face pale.

What was wrong with her?

Why did she vomit?

Was she sick?

Alpha quietly smoked a cigar downstairs for a while. Very quickly, a layer of cigarette butts fell at his feet.

He looked upstairs. The light in her room was still on, but it wasn't for him anymore. It must be said that she never left a light for him.

Alpha turned around and got back into the luxury car, stepped on the gas pedal, and sped off to the hospital.

Chapter 735 What Little Monster Did Olive Give Birth To?

In the hospital.

Alpha arrived at the hallway, immediately, he heard Lily's cry. Lily was crying sadly, she was crying like Bounty was her own sister. "Bounty, wake up quickly. Wake up, wake up, open your eyes, why did you swallow the medicine and commit suicide? Your sister-in-law is here to see you! Please wake!"

Alpha reached out and pushed open the door of the VIP ward and walked in. At this moment, Bounty laid on the hospital bed, her face extremely pale.

*Alpha!" Lily quickly ran over, her face was filled with tears. "Alpha, Bounty, she... she swallowed the medicine and committed suicide, the doctor has already announced that she's dead. She's dead. Alpha. You have to avenge Bounty!"

Alpha stood calmly beside the hospital bed. He stretched out his big palm and slowly held Bounty's hand.

Alpha did not let go, but he held tighter, wanting to transfer the temperature in his palm to Bounty's. Lily knew how much Alpha loved his sister. If something happened to his sister, Alpha was definitely the one who felt the most distressed.

Lily grabbed onto Alpha's sleeve, "Alpha, it's all Annabelle's fault! Annabelle went to find Bounty. and she provoked Bounty again. It was Annabelle who triggered Bounty!"

"How could Annabelle's heart be so cruel? Could it be that she did not harm Bounty enough back then? Why did she do this? Alpha, Bounty is your sister, you must be avenge your sister!"

At this moment, Lily felt like handing a knife to Alpha, and make him stab Annabelle. Alpha was expressionless. He raised his narrow eyes and stared at Lily indifferently. "Bounty is my sister, then is Annabelle not your sister? You are encouraging me to take revenge on your sister. No matter how you look at it, you're even more ruthless than Annabelle."

Lily stiffened, and was suddenly dumbfounded.

"Also, how did you know these things?" Alpha probed, "You seem to know more than I do." Lily had prepared a story and waited for. Alpha to arrive, but he had completely ignored her. Alpha was not a man who came to listen to the show. He was quite alert and always walked gracefully through the forest.

"....." Lily stuttered anxiously, she quickly composed herself and came up with a response, "I heard it from Bounty. And, even though Annabelle is my sister, but now, she is the prime suspect. Also, Bounty was like a sister to me. If Annabelle really killed Bounty, then she needs to be prosecuted." Alpha casually hooked his thin lips, he calmly lowered his eyes and stared at Bounty again.

Alpha stood silently, and Lily was unsure of Alpha's thoughts.

"Alpha, Bounty is already...dead. Let's hurry up and arrange a funeral for her. We can't let Bounty be here."

Lily wanted to bury Bounty as soon as possible.

At this moment, the door of the ward was pushed open again, and a cold voice sounded, "We can't arrange a funeral yet!"

Lily turned around, at a glance, she saw little Nathan

17:1

Chapter 135 What Little Monster Did Olive Gave Birth To

Lily did not really like Nathan. Nathan had an excellent 10 since he was born, and he had perfectly inherited all the good genes of the Augustine family. Lily had an intuition that when Nathan grew up, he would probably be even more powerful and terrifying than his father and grandfather.

Lily really did not understand what little monster Olive had birthed for Elvis.

"Nathan, why are you here? Look at your aunt. Your aunt is...she's dead!"

Nathan had been loved by the entire Augustine family since he was born, and Bounty wasn't an exception. Although Bounty did not like Elvis, she probably liked Nathan because he was also Olives's son. Bounty particularly loved Nathan very much.

Before the Augustine family, Lily's dislike of Nathan became insignificant.

Nathan walked over to the hospital bed. He reached out and covered Bounty with the quilt, as if Bounty was just asleep. "My aunt is not dead," he declared. What?

Lily looked at Nathan in shock, "Nathan, what nonsense are you talking about? Your aunt is not breathing anymore. The doctor has already confirmed her dead."

Nathan frowned, "I said, my aunt is not dead. My aunt is just too tired. Let her rest first," he added.

Lily felt that there was no need to communicate with such little child.

Bounty was already dead, and she wasn't breathing anymore.

"Alpha, Nathan's feelings for Bounty are too deep. He will find this difficult to accept for a while. Moreover, children may not understand the world as we adults. Make up your mind quickly. Bounty's body can't be left here for a long time. Let's hurry up and organize the funeral," Lily urged Alpha.

Alpha slowly let go of Bounty's hand and tucked Bounty's hand into the blanket.

"Alpha, you're crazy too!" Lily exclaimed in shock.

"I've decided on this matter. From now on, I will block all news, and won't let any rumors get out. As for you, watch your mouth," after that, Alpha walked out.

Lily had completely froze. She never expected that Bounty's death would be suppressed by Alpha.

Lily had a very bad feeling-

She looked at Bounty on the hospital bed, and then slowly put her finger under Bounty's nose. It was cold and no breathe was forth coming.

Lily retracted her finger in fright. She couldn't understand what Alpha was doing, because Bounty was already dead.

What exactly was Alpha and Nathan up to?

What?

Alpha actually gave an order not to allow her into the ward again?

"Why? I'm not going out, I want to stay!"

The bodyguards stood quietly, as they didn't utter another word.

In the room. Alpha and Nathan sat opposite each other, as if they were negotiating.

Aiden made a cup of coffee and sent it over to them. The two male figures were his new boss and his old boss. No one could offend them. He could only serve them carefully.

"Sir, everything has been blocked according to your order. Old Madam's place..."

"Don't worry about grandma's place. I've already asked grandma to go on a few days rést. No one can disturb grandma." Nathan said.

Alpha picked up the teacup and sipped the coffee elegantly. Then he raised his eyes and looked at the cold little boy before him. "Nathan, it seems like you have already made arrangements. You sent me a message and told me that your aunt Bounty is not dead, what does that mean?"

Nathan replied, "Literally, Aunty is not dead. Grandfather, I need you to give me three days. I have to wait for my mummy to return!"

"Could it be that all of this was arranged in advance by your mother?"

"Yes."

"Where's your mommy?"

Nathan looked at Alpha, then he said, "My mommy went to look for Rory Louie. My mommy wants to bring him back..."

As soon as he said this, Alpha threw the teacup in his hand on the coffee table in front of him.

The tea cup and the coffee table collided with a harsh sound. All the coffee inside the cup was spilled, and the atmosphere in the entire room became tensed.

Aiden raised his hands, and wiped away the sweat on his forehead, then he went forward to clean up the mess on the coffee table. He even secretly glanced at Nathan.

The name "Rory Loule" had been the biggest taboo in Alpha's heart for a long time. It was a thorn in his heart.

Back then, Rory did not disappear from Imperial City by himself, and Alpha wasn't willing to allow him exist anymore. He did not want to see Rory again in his life, hence he made Rory disappear.

However, Olive wanted to bring Rory back.

She knew she could not do it, yet she wanted to go against the controllers of the world. This was really Olive's usual style.

Nathan quickly sighed when he saw Alpha's gloomy expression, "Grandfather, I knew you would be angry, but you can be angry with me, but you are not allowed to be angry with my mummy!"

Nathan was afraid that upon his mother's arrival, she would be embarrassed by his grandfather, so he vindicated her in advance.

Alpha's handsome face was devoid of emotions, but he looked very cold.

Chapter 735: Trapped by Leve

"Nathan, women can't be spoiled like this, they will spoil you."

Nathan glanced at Alpha's footwear, and he slowly pulled it with his right foot.

"There's nothing I can do. I'm the seed of the Augustine family. Our men are known to spoil their women. So, I'm only following in the footsteps of my predecessors."

Alpha silently took back his slippers from Nathan. He snorted coldly, and said, "I know Rory too well. Rory has a weak personality and lacks a sense of responsibility. What happened back then, he didn't think about how to make up for it. Instead, he ran away. He didn't dare to face the mistakes he had made, so no matter what your mother will say to him, even if she is clever, she might not be able to bring back Rory."

Alpha's eyes were vicious. He had already seen through Rory, so he was sure that this time, Olive would definitely return without success.

Nathan was not worried at all. "Grandfather, this is my mummy's business.

You don't have to worry about it. Let's think about how to catch a ghost first."

"Catch a ghost?" Alpha suddenly narrowed his gloomy narrow eyes as he pondered on what Nathan implied.

“Little master, do you mean that there’s a ghost in the Augustine family?” Aiden asked.

Nathan nodded, “Grandfather, you’ve been smart all your life, but you lost when it came to love. Actually, have you ever thought that you’ve been deceived by others?”

Alpha looked at Nathan and was silent for a few seconds, then he said, “You mean Lily?”

“Yes, Lily teamed up with outsiders a long time ago to create a huge conspiracy that changed the fate of the entire Augustine family. There was a mysterious and powerful force in the the entire Augustine family.”

Aiden was shocked. The Augustine family was the family of the imperial. They stood on the pinnacle of power. Where did this evil power come from, and what was its purpose?

In fact, with Alpha’s vigilance, it was easy to perceive all of this. However, over the years, he could not love and was trapped by love. He was played by someone else.

Alpha’s gloomy and narrow eyes quickly flashed, as a thought appeared in his mind. He pursed his lips and said, “Nathan, what do you want to do?”

Nathan sat upright on the sofa, “We don’t have to do anything. If we don’t do anything now, they’ll be anxious and someone reveal themselves.”

Alpha’s expression improved a little. He leaned his stiff back on the sofa and nodded softly.

When Aiden saw that the two bigwigs had ended their negotiations, he heaved a sigh of relief. He did not know what this dark force was. He only knew that they had to be careful. The Augustine family wasn’t how it use to be. The Augustine family now had Olive, and her children!

Lily was really anxious. She watched as two days passed, but there was no movement from Alpha.

Because she was restricted, she did not know what happened to Bounty’s body. This was completely different from the original plan.

In the plan, Bounty’s death was meant to be spread across the entire world, thereby causing an uproar. But now, the entire world was quiet, so silent that there was no sound at all.

Bounty was already dead, so this opportunity could not be missed.

On the third day, Lily could not sit still. She had to contact the mysterious person.

Chapter 737: The Truth

Lily took out her phone and sent a text message.

In the other room, Nathan was sitting on an office chair. There was a laptop in front of him. Right now, the computer screen was rapidly displaying a series of numbers, making it dazzling.

Alpha stood calmly beside Nathan. Aide now.”

respectfully whispered. “Sir. Lily sent a text message just

In the past few days, Lily had been restricted from traveling, and her every move was being monitored.

“Sir, I checked it just now, but I couldn’t find anything. It seems that the number that Lily sent a message to doesn’t exist. This is strange.”

Alpha pursed his thin lips. His narrow and gloomy eyes fell on Nathan. At this moment, Nathan had already broken through the protective wall of the phone number. The printer quickly spat out a piece of information. Nathan handed the information to Alpha.

“Grandfather, take a look. This is the times that Lily contacted this mysterious number over the years.”

Aiden glanced at it and secretly said in shock, “Sir, Lily actually contacted this mysterious number more than thirty years ago! My G od, if I remember correctly, this seem to be the time of the incident in the Augustine family!”

A lot of things had happened to the Augustine family over the years. Aiden, Alpha’s private secretary could remember them clearly. Before and after the incident, Lily had been in contact with this mysterious number. This was highly suspicious.

Alpha quickly glanced at the information. His eyebrows had already sunk. Aiden could see the problem at a glance.

Alpha threw the information on the desk, “Nathan, can you locate this number? Who is it that has been communicating with Lily for so long? I want to know the person!”

Nathan shook his head, “This number has been specially processed. If I forcefully locate it, it’s very. likely that I’ll be shocked.”

With that, Nathan turned to look at Alpha, “These people should all know that I’m good at tracking. so they’ve been prepared. Now that Aunty is the biggest bait, we can completely use this opportunity to catch them.”

Alpha looked at his eldest grandson, and slowly said, “Is this what your mother taught you before she left?”

“No, my mom only told me that if something happens to Aunty Bounty during the few days she is gone, that I shouldn’t panic. The accident was a turning point. We can take advantage of this turning point to find out the people behind the scenes.”

Alpha nodded approvingly. The first time he went to Los Angeles to see Olive more than four years ago, he knew that Olive was too dazzling.

“However, my mommy didn’t tell me how to seize this opportunity. My mommy just said that Aunty Bounty loves me the most, so let me protect the people who love me. She left Aunt Bounty all to me and told me to wait for her to return.”

Alpha furrowed his eyebrows. No matter how intelligent Nathan was, after all, he was still a three-year-old child. Olive really dared to give such responsibility to a little boy.

Chapter 737: The Truth

However, a satisfied smile appeared on Alpha’s gloomy eyes. This was the eldest grandson of the Augustine family. He knew what else would happen.

This way, Alpha was rest assured that Elvis was a lucky man than him.

“Nathan, what are you going to do now?” Alpha asked.

Nathan pondered for a while, “I’ll still insist that we don’t have to do anything. It’s them who are anxious at the moment.”

Aiden’s eyes lit up. He looked at his little boss with admiration.

Alpha sat on the sofa and picked up the teacup. He sipped the coffee elegantly, then looked at the precious steel watch on his wrist. “It’s already eight o’clock, and it’s still four hours before twelve o’clock. Nathan, so far, we haven’t heard from your mummy yet. Once it’s twelve o’clock, if your mum doesn’t come back, then Bounty will be helpless.”

Aiden also looked at the time. The previously agreed time was already near. The golden pill that Olive left behind would expire at twelve o’clock tonight. In the past three days, there was no news from Olive. Alpha had already said that she would not bring Rory back.

It was obvious that the trip to bring Rory back was not going well, and it was unknown when Olive would return.

Nathan also raised his head and looked at the wall clock in the room. Now that the time was ticking, Nathan said, “My mother’s trip is to put Aunt Bounty’s life on the line. My mother is not afraid of time. Grandfather, what are we afraid of?”

“Something happened,” Lily edited the message and sent again, but for some reason, the message failed to be sent.

What was going on?

Could it be that the signal was not good here?

Or...the mysterious person already knew something and just abandoned her?

Lily’s heart suddenly became turbulent, and she became frightened and uneasy. She did not dare to make too much noise, she was afraid that Alpha would notice.

The night was getting darker. The bell in the hospital rang. It was already eleven o'clock in the night. The entire hospital was so quiet that there was no sound at all

Lily did not dare to go back, so she stayed in the hospital, but she couldn't sleep, and the bad premonition in her heart was getting stronger.

At this moment, with a creak, the door of the room was suddenly pushed open, and a dark figure walked in silently.

Lily instantly sat up in shock. She reached out and turned on the lamp. In front of her was Scarlett.

"Mother Scarlet, why are you here?" Lily asked in surprise.

Scarlett placed her finger on her lips and made a shush. Then she whispered, "What happened? Why is there no news about Bounty's death? And why is the Augustine family being secretive about this?"

Lily was startled. She gazed at Scarlett severally, then she asked, "Mother Scarlett, who are you? Are you the...mysterious person?"

Chapter 738 Olive Returns!

Lily had never seen her mysterious accomplice before. Now that she saw Scarlett, she was shocked.

Scarlett mother did not answer this question. In the dim light, her old wrinkled face looked sinister and terrifying. She had lurked by Bounty's side for so long, and personally planned Bounty's death. Who would have known that she would wait so long?

Three days was very long, it was as if a century had passed. Now that the night was quiet, she could only take the risk and surface.

"I...I don't know what's going on. Alpha suppressed all rumors and didn't allow me to get close to Bounty. Nathan, that little rat had accompanied him. The little boy claimed that Bounty wasn't dead." Scarlett was shocked and her expression changed. She immediately reached out and grabbed Lily's collar, "What did you say? Nathan said that Bounty is not dead?"

"Yeah, that little boy said so. But, Bounty is obviously dead..."

"Damn it! I've fallen for it!" Scarlett quickly let go of Lily's collar and turned around to leave. She wanted to get out of here as soon as possible.

But as soon as she opened the door, the outside was brightly lit. A group of bodyguards had already surrounded the entire place. She couldn't escape. Scarlett's heart sank in an instant. At this moment, there was the sound of steady approaching footsteps, and Alpha appeared.

Beside Alpha was little Nathan.

"Miss Scarlett, since you're here, where else do you want to go?" Nathan asked.

Lily was also frightened by such scene. She quickly explained, "Alpha, don't get me wrong, I'm not familiar with her. She suddenly came to me. I thought she cared about Bounty, so I spoke to her for a while."

At this moment, Scarlett looked at Lily and interrupted her, "Idiot! Stop explaining, they already know everything. Can't you see that they are using you as a bait to lure me out? They already know that you are an insider!" What?

Lily's legs suddenly weakened and she quickly collapsed on the ground. She slowly lifted her head and stared at Alpha in shock and fear.

Alpha gently lifted his handsome eyelids and looked at her lightly.

Lily was completely dumbfounded, and she couldn't think of what next to do. She never thought that the day she would be exposed would come so quickly. She was done!

Alpha's gloomy and narrow eyes fell on Scarlett's face, and he asked, "Who are you?"

Scarlett knew that she couldn't run away, and her face became hideous and contorted.

"Is it Olive again? What kind of pill did Olive give to Bounty that protected her heart?"

"Yes, it's my mother, Olive, Nathan replied.

"Olive, Olive, why is it you again? I really hate you!" Scarlett clenched her fists and her eyes displayed anger. The huge hatred and unwillingness made her look very scary.

"I won't tell you anything." Scarlett began to laugh frantically. She pointed to the wall clock in the room.

"The medicine could only last for seventy two hours. It was almost 12 o'clock. What about Olive? She hadn't returned yet? Damn it, if you want to hate someone for killing your sister, then hate Olive! Haha."

At this time, Aiden silently stepped forward and whispered, "Sir, it will be 12 o'clock soon.

Alpha pursed his lips, his face gloomy.

It was almost twelve o'clock. Where was Olive now?

Could she really not be back in time?

At this moment, with a bang, the back door was suddenly pushed open.

Everyone quickly looked up and saw a slender and beautiful figure fiercely intruding into their line of sight. Olive returned.

It was very dark outside. Olive was wearing a black cloak and hat. She walked in from the darkness to the brightly lit place. Then, she lifted her two small hands and took off the hat, instantly revealing her alluring face. Her red lips hooked up, and her clear eyes slowly scrutinized the people before her.

“Just now, I felt that someone was talking about me, who was that?” Olive’s sonorous and powerful voice asked.

Olive was back, she was back before twelve o’clock!

Alpha’s cold eyebrows relaxed at this moment, and Aiden let out a long sigh, as if he had found his savior.

Scarlett immediately froze. She looked at Olive in shock. Olive stood prettily, with a convincing and reassuring smile.

Nathan immediately rushed over, “Mummy, I missed you...”

The little boss, Nathan, instantly turned into a little pet in front of his mother.

Olive hugged Nathan and kissed Nathan’s beautiful pink cheeks a few times, “Nathan, mummy misses you too!”

“Olive, it’s you! Why is it you again?” Scarlett asked, as she tried to get rid of the bodyguard’s control and rushed towards Olive.

Olive took off her black coat and handed it to Sadie beside her. Her aura was calm, and one could see that the queen had arrived.

When she walked up to Scarlett, Olive pursed her lips, and asked, “Are you...Molly?”

Scarlett stiffened. She did not expect that Olive would recognize her so quickly.

At this moment, Olive reached out and clenched Scarlett’s face.

Scarlett wanted to dodge, but Olive was extremely swift. She immediately ripped the human skin mask off her face.

Scarlett’s true face was revealed, she was Molly!

“I didn’t expect that after we’ve been searching for you for so long, you were actually lurking by Aunt Bounty’s side. Molly, it’s been a long time.”

Alpha stepped forward and stood beside Olive. “Is she from the Mermen?” he asked.

Chapter 738 Olive Returns!

Olive nodded, “Yes, she’s from the Mermen. It seems that the evil hand behind the Augustine family came from the Mermen. Back then, Aunty Bounty was living in Imperial City. They also infiltrated the Augustine family. They created all this and forcibly rewrote the history of the entire Augustine family.”

Chapter 739: Sing My Love To You

Molly looked at Olive in horror. She suddenly realized that with her exposure, the fact that the Mermen had been infiltrating the Augustine family had also been exposed.

"No, it's not like that Olive, I just want to retaliate against you, don't think too much!" Molly quickly denied it.

Olive looked at Molly and winked playfully at her, "What, are you afraid?" she asked.

"Afraid? What am I afraid of?" Molly questioned unbelievably.

"Because of you alone, the power of the entire merman race has been exposed. All of your hardwork and careful planning over the years have been ruined at this moment. Without Lily, you guys are useless. What are you guys afraid of?" Olive asked with a clever smile.

Molly sucked in a breath of cold air, as she stared at Olive in horror.

Since Olive had more important things to do, she decided not to pay Molly anymore attention

She looked at Alpha beside her, "Uncle Augustine, have people keep a close look on Molly and Lily. Things are far from simple. I want to investigate carefully, but I have to see Aunt Bounty as a priority."

Alpha nodded and looked at Aiden beside him. "Handle it," he instructed.

Aiden nodded, as he looked at Olive with more respect

Olive and Alpha walked towards the ward together. Alpha hooked his thin lips with interest, "What about Rory, did you not bring him back?"

Olive smiled and did not say anything.

Alpha's gaze was a little far-reaching, "Rory is like a tortoise with a shrinking head. He did not dare to come back. He's trying to protect himself, I'm sure you can't bring him back."

When they arrived at the door of the ward, Olive slowly stopped. Her bright eyes were filled with a bright smile. "Uncle Alpha, I'm afraid I'll disappoint you, because I've already brought Rory back."

This time, Alpha was stunned.

Olive stretched out her slender hand and pushed open the door of the ward, then walked in. Nathan raised his face and looked at his grandfather,

"Grandfather, you lost this time.

Alpha raised his big palm and fondly touched Nathan's head, "Okay, your mummy is amazing, your mummy is the best."

In the ward, Alplia walked in. Olive had already put away the gold needle. The heartbeat monitor beside her showed that everything was normal. Bounty had recovered her breathing and heartbeat, but her face was very pale. She laid motionlessly, still not awakened.

"When will Bounty wake up?" Alpha asked in a low voice.

Olive covered Bounty with the blanket and shook her head, "Aunty Bounty's health is fine now. I've cured her of the poison of the mermen, but Aunty Bounty is tired. When she will wake up depends on when she wants to wake up."

At this moment, the door of the ward was pushed open again, and someone appeared beside the door. It was Rory, whom Alpha had not seen for many years.

Back then, Rory and Bounty were a match made in heaven.

Chapter 739. Sing My Love To You

Rory stood by the door and his eyes fell on Bounty.

After a while, he walked over to Bounty's bed. His trembling fingertips touched Bounty's cold hand. He lowered his head and choked with pain.

Alpha looked at Rory eyes with cold eyes.

However, a slender hand reached out and directly blocked his path.

Alpha lowered his eyes and looked at Olive.

Olive faced him and slowly shook her head.

Alpha looked up at Bounty on the hospital bed again. Bounty was still asleep, but two tears quickly fell from the corner of her eyes and disappeared instantly.

Alpha's tightly clenched fist suddenly loosened.

Olive looked at Rory and said. "Mr. Louie, you have taught and educated people over the years, and you have raised many outstanding children. I just don't know if you have been redeemed by yourself. This time I brought you back. I want you to save someone who you should have saved many years ago, but you have been unwilling to save her. Maybe only after you save her, can you save yourself."

The dim yellow light shone on Olive's delicate and beautiful face, exuding her seriousness. Hearing her words, Rory's heavy and vicissitudes shoulder collapsed in such an instant. He calmly sobbed.

Alpha left the hospital. He stood on the street, and the cold wind blew the hem of his black coat.

At this moment, he heard a calm approaching footsteps. It was Olive. light Alpha did not look back. He whispered, "How did you bring Rory back?"

Olive stood beside Alpha, "It's very simple. The longer a person is in the tortoise shell, the less he wants to come out. The only way is to break his tortoise shell so that he has nowhere to hide."

Alpha turned his head and looked at Olive. "You really have the guts."

"Thank you, Uncle Alpha, for your compliment."

At this moment, a few bodyguards led Molly out. Olive said, "Uncle Alpha, I'll take Molly with me." Alpha pursed his thin lips, and then he said, "You can hand her to me. After all, this is an old story of the Augustine family. You may not know the details."

Olive tilted her head and said, "Uncle Augustine, you are invulnerable in front of others, but in front of Auntie Bounty, you threw away your armor. Back then, the Mermen played you an exquisite game in the name of love."

Alpha's gaze fell on Olive's face.

Alpha calmly looked back and did not say anything.

In the next second, a deep and magnetic voice said, "It's already so late. People who don't know you two may think that you guys are talking about love."

Olive swiftly turned around. She saw a familiar tall figure under the dim street light. It was Elvis.

Chapter 740 Marvin Returns

Tonight, Elvis was wearing a thin black wool coat. He was handsome and noble. He held a black umbrella in his hand and stood quietly under the dim yellow street light.

Now, Elvis's narrow and deep eyes fell on Olive's and Alpha's body.

He actually came, but what did he say just now?

Olive shuddered for a moment and then called out obediently, "Mr. Augustine."

Elvis walked over and stretched out his strong arms to directly bug her slender waist. He forcefully pulled her into his arms, "I'm I still your Mr. Augustine?

You seen to have found another Mr. Augustine."

Olive concluded that he was actually jealous.

"Mr. Augustine," Alpha called out, as he looked at Elvis indifferently, then he turned around and left.

Alpha got into the luxurious car and drove away.

Elvis was even more unhappy, because he could feel the disdain and malice in his father's tone.

"Mr. Augustine, what do you mean? Please explain clearly." he quickly chased after him.

Olive quickly reached out and grabbed Elvis. "Mr. Augustine, what are you doing? Are you crazy? That's your father!"

Elvis turned and looked at Olive's beautiful little face. He hadn't seen her for a few days. He realized that she was even more beautiful. This made him suddenly feel that he was in danger.

"Olive," his voice was lower, and filled with displeasure, "Are you protecting him now? Are you protecting me, or are you protecting him?"

"I'll always protect you," Olive assured, and even raised her hand and patted his stiff back.

Elvis snorted, "Then why didn't you come to see me right away?"

With that, he reached out and held her tender face, "Olive, did you not miss me the past few days?"

Olive's skin was delicate, and his grip immediately left a red mark on her face. Why did she feel that the man in front of her was acting like a spoilt child?

"Mr. Augustine, I missed you very much, Olive quickly jumped forward and rushed into his embrace.

Elvis immediately opened his arms and held her firmly in his embrace. Olive's small hands hugged his sturdy waist, and her little head was buried in his chest.

"Mr. Augustine, I've been thinking about you all night, I couldn't even sleep. Did you me?"

The feeling of dissatisfaction and jealousy in Elvis's chest instantly vanished. There was one thing he couldn't stand the most in this world, and that was Olives's coquetry.

He lowered his head, and his thin lips rested on Olive's hair, and he kissed her hard. His hoarse voice said, "Me too, thinking about you at night makes my entire body hard, If you don't believe me...feel it."

Olive quickly covered his mouth with her small hand. He was not allowed to say nonsense, especially on the street.

Elvis looked at her clear eyes, he could see the shyness on her face. He reached out and wrapped his arms around her waist. "Let's go, let's go home."

"Which home?"

Chapter 740 Marvin Returns

"You decide whether I'll sleep with you tonight or you'll sleep with me."

It took Olive a few seconds to understand what he meant. She immediately broke free from his strong arm and turned around and ran. "No, I just got back. I want to accompany the children tonight."

Elvis chased after her. The duo ran around on the street, as they laughed heartily.

Unknown to them, a silver Maybach slowly stopped across the road. The rear window slowly slid down, revealing a cold and handsome face.

Marvin had not seen them in over three years.

Tonight, Marvin was wearing a white shirt. His face was unparalleled, and his black eyes were extremely bright. He had not seen Elvis in recent years.

With the passage of time, Marvin had also reached the age of twenty eight, the golden stage of a man's maturity. Now, his car was parked quietly by the roadside, he raised his black eyes and looked at Elvis and Olive.

His eyes were particularly focused on Olive, the girl he loved the most in his life.

From the driver's seat, Phil secretly looked at his young master. The young master had left a medical summit and had headed here because there was news about Olive.

Phil looked at the two flirtatious people in front of him. He really didn't understand what his master came there for.

"Young Master, if you want to see Miss Hart, why don't you go up and say hello? Miss Hart and Eldest Young Master are already far away." Phil said.

Marvin looked at Olive in front of him, and slowly shook his head.

He knew that she loved Elvis deeply in her heart. Her three cute babies were also growing up. In terms of seniority, she was his sister-in-law.

Soon, Elvis and Olive disappeared from sight.

Marvin looked at the direction where Olive disappeared, and gently said, "It's useless for me to go."

Phil pondered for a while. He knew that Marvin was Lily's support. With Marvin around, Lily would not regret her actions. It was better for him to ignore her.

"Young Master, I heard that Mrs. Annabelle is back. Shall we go and visit her?"
