The Substitute Bride Doted by My Billionaire Husband Chapter 841

Chapter 841 Tonight

At this moment, there was a familiar and warm voice, "Marvin. Marvin wake up!" the voice yelled.

Marvin's eyelids twitched, then he opened his eyes.

However, it wasn't Olive that was before him, but Gael.

Gael looked nervous and anxious. "Master, you're finally awake, What's wrong with you? I saw you collapsed here when I came in!"

Marvin slowly diverted his gaze away from Gael's face, as he looked around. He seemed to be looking for someone.

"Master, are you looking for Miss Hart? By the way, Miss Hart is a doctor. I'll invite Miss Hart over now!" Gael got up and wanted to leave.

Marvin immediately said, "Stop!"

Gael stopped. Marvin sat up. He looked at Gael, "Olive must not know about this, understood?" he asked.

Gael wanted to ask why his condition should be kept a secret from Olive, but when he saw his master's stern expression, he did not dare to ask.

Marvin stood up and returned to his room.

In the room.

Marvin went into the bathroom to take a shower. Today, he injected half of the reagent. Although he fainted, he had successfully merged it.

He already had half of the blood of a child. As long as the remaining half of the reagent was successfully infused, he would truly have the blood of a child.

After taking a shower, Marvin put on a white bathrobe and walked out. He picked up the phone on the bed table and dialed a number.

Soon, the call was connected, and a familiar voice came over, "Hello."

It was Logan.

Olive said goodbye to Marvin, "Marvin, thank you so much for all your care, but I'm leaving, I'm going to deal with my personal issues."

Marvin looked at her and asked, "What's the matter?"

First, she had deal with the Mermen, and second, she had to pull her sword, and revive their country.

Olive smiled, "Marvin, you don't need to worry know about me."

"Do you need my help?"

Olive knew Marvin's worries. All the people of Visionary had been evacuated from Greenland. She was still a wanted criminal and everyone was looking for her. How could she accomplish these two things alone?

Olive's clear eyes shone brightly. She gently shook her head, "No need, I'll be fine by myself."

With that, she turned around and left.

Olive came to a small cabin in the suburbs. She pushed open the door of the cabin and walked in. Inside was Molly.

When Molly saw Olive, she immediately laughed out loud, "Princess Olive, I heard that you have had a very miserable life recently. Several of your close relatives have died, and you have become a wanted criminal. Did I not warn you before? I already said that you are by no means an opponent for our Mermen princess. Many years ago, your ancestors could not defeat the Mermen."

There was a faint smile on Olive's beautiful face. She raised her delicate eyebrows and said, "Really? We'll see who loses and win tonight."

"What do you mean?" Molly looked at Olive suspiciously. "Princess Olive, do you have any other conspiracies?"

"Why don't you take a guess?"

"You're making a fool of yourself! Princess Olive, I advise you to see the reality clearly. Now that you can't do anything on your own, how can you fight us?"

Olive did not answer the question. She just walked forward and untied the rope from the wall, then, she dragged Molly out.

Molly had been locked up here for more than a month. Now that she suddenly walked out of the dark room, she was able to breathe the fresh air. The corner of her lips immediately formed a strange smile.

However, Molly soon realized that something was wrong, because Olive led her into the forest in front of her.

The forest before them was endless, like a dark abyss that could swallow people in one bite. This mysterious and dangerous force from nature was especially infiltrating at such time of the night. Molly felt horrified, but Olive walked in front, pulling her rope in her hands. Every step she took was firm and calm.

Molly became more and more puzzled, "Princess Olive, where are you taking me?"

Olive did not look back. She just said, "Let's take a walk."

Her response made Molly uneasy. How could anyone casually take a walk in the forest at night?

At this moment, Olive's footsteps slowly stopped. She turned around and looked at Molly, "Didn't you already inform the people of the Mermen?"

Molly's weird smile quickly disappeared. She looked at Olive in shock, "How did you know?"

The Mermen had a secret contact number. Once this code was sent, the Mermen would quickly come over.

Now, Greenland and the Mermen were looking for Olive, wanting to surround and suppress her, especially the Mermen.

Olive raised her red lips, and said, "Molly, why do you think I took you out for a walk? Are you my pet? No, it's so boring walking with you."

"There's a big show to watch tonight. I'll be waiting for you to summon the Mermen. The Mermen have been wandering for years and have been lurking for opportunities. Now, you guys don't have to look for me anymore. Isn't this perfect?"

Molly stiffened. It turned out that Olive used her to summon the Mermen.

In recent years, the mercenary's influence had spread all over the country, and it was quite secretive, but this time, Olive used her to expose the entire Mermen people.

The Sald

Molly had a very bad hunch, but she quickly denied this hunch, because it was impossible.

"Princess Olive, don't be so mysterious anymore. You don't even have the strength to resist alone, and you will definitely die miserably!"

The moment she finished speaking, there was a commotion in the silent forest. A large number of people rushed over.

The Mermen princess laughed loudly. "Princess Olive, I didn't expect to meet you so soon. Run away, run away, it's hard for you to fly tonight!"

Olive looked up. She was already surrounded by the Mermen.

Molly was overjoyed, her waist quickly straightened, "Princess Olive, tonight is your death!"

Chapter 842 The Secret Technique.

At this time, another group of people had already arrived. Logan and Liam rushed over.

Liam was startled when he saw Olive and the Mermen. "Father, how did you find out that Olive and the Mermen were here?"

Logan's men had always had the fastest information. Two days ago, Olive had taken the Visionary people away from State Line Gate.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Olive showed up. Logan rushed over with his people. Liam couldn't help but wonder where Logan got his first hand information from.

Logan waved his hand and said mysteriously. "Liam, you don't have to worry about this. Now, we can just sit on the mountain and watch the tigers light"

Liam stared at his father, and then he inquired, "Father, what are your plans? When the battle between Visionary and the Mermen is over, we will take the opportunity to wipe them out, right?"

Logan nodded, his eyes lit up, "Yes, this opportunity is once in a lifetime."

Liam's gaze fell on Olive's pretty figure in front of him, "I've dealt with this Princess Olive a few alone times, but now. I look at her as if she's in a losing situation, but since she dares to come a tonight. It's obvious that she's here to meet the Mermen army, she must have a trick." Liam informed Logan of his observation.

Logan responded, "That's why I said that you shouldn't act rashly. Let's wait and see first."

Liam felt that his father had suddenly become smarter, and he did not know which expert was hiding behind his back.

In front, the Mermen princess looked at Olive, her eyes lit up, as if Olive was already in her net..

"Princess Olive, what are you waiting for, hurry up and let Molly go."

Olive's clear eyes shone brightly, "Okay, I'll let her go if you want me to."

Olive let go of the rope.

Molly quickly walked behind the Mermen Princess and whispered, "Princess, there's something weird about princess Olive, I'm afraid she's up to something."

The Mermen princess disagreed, "Molly, why have you become so less courageous? Now that Princess Olive is alone, can she still resist our Mermaid army?"

"Well..."

The Mermen princess ignored Molly. She looked at Olive and said, "Princess Olive, hurry up and surrender now, so that I won't make your life more miserable."

Olive's bright gaze slowly passed over the princess and Molly's face, and landed on the army. She slowly raised her red lips and smiled, "It seems that everyone has arrived."

The Mermen Princess paused. "What do you mean?" She asked.

Olive took a step back. She suddenly winked playfully, and then whistled.

Olive was actually whistling.

The whistle was light and sweet, as if it had penetrated the entire forest.

In the next second, a deep voice sounded.

Chapter 342 The Secret Technique.

Molly's eardrums were filled with the deep sound, "What is this sound?" she asked anxiously.

The merman princess also froze. The voice seemed to be... that of a wolf!

It was the low cry of a wolf.

"Wolf! The wolf is here!"

The Merman Princess and Molly quickly raised their heads and saw a wolf suddenly running from the depths of the dark forest. A wolf as tall as a human, with golden hair all over his body, his eyes emitted a fierce beast light.

"Oh my God!" Logan's eyes widened and he couldn't help but take a step back.

Liam narrowed his eyes, and after a few seconds, he said in shock, "Secret Art of Wolf Training!"

Logan looked at Liam, and then, he looked at Olive. A violent storm had already erupted in his heart.

Years back, Logan had not yet been born, but he heard from an old man that the ancestors of Visionary were amazing, and could train wolves.

Later, the secret technique of training wolf was lost.

He never thought that Olive would be the girl who would train the wolf a hundred years later.

Everyone backed away in fear, afraid that the wolf would attack them. In the next second, they were all stunned.

Because the wolf came to Olive's side, as he slowly crouched down,

The ferocious wolf was obedient in front of Olive like a pet.

Olive rolled over and rode on the wolf's back. Tonight, the moonlight was as white as water. She was dressed in a long white dress.

The Merman Princess opened her mouth in shock. "Princess Olive, you..you actually..."

Molly's heart sank. Her initial hunch was finally confirmed. Olive had come prepared.

Olive rode on the wolf's back and looked down at the Mermen. Her voice was like a big pearl falling from the sky,

"I, Olive, as the eighth queen of the ancient Visionary country, inherited my ancestor's last wish and once again led the wolf's iron cavalry to expedition to drive away the humiliation and restore the mountains and rivers!"

At this moment, the moonlight was as clear as water, making Olive's lustrous face more thrilling

The Merman princess forgot how to speak. She didn't know what to say.

At this moment, Olive took out a flute. She placed it beside her red lips and began to play. Soon, the melodious sound of the flute reverberated throughout the forest.

One wolf came out of the darkness, then the second one came out. Three wolves, four wolves.... hundreds of wolves came out.

These wolves walked behind Olive with graceful and ferocious steps. They proudly seized the mountain and let out a long cry. Chapter 843 Are you ready?

When the Mermen saw this scene, they were already scared to the core. "Escape! Hurry up and escape!"

Everyone threw their helmets and armor away, as they turned and ran.

The Merman princess was horrified. Now that she saw her men retreating without a fight, she panicked. She shouted, "Stop! Don't run away, not a single one of you, you can't be deserters!"

However, no one listened to her words, and the scene had become chaotic.

Olive rode on the wolf's back. The sound of the flute went from slow to urgent, and then it became violent. All the wolves were humming, their eyes emitting, a green light.

Soon, the sound of the flute stopped, and Olive's bright eyes suddenly became fierce. 'Kill them all!" she ordered.

As soon as her words were uttered, the wolves instantly chased after the Mermen. The Mermen princess only felt a strong wind attacking her. She looked back and her pupils suddenly shrank. Now, there was a voice roaring in her ear! The voice was telling her to run! The mermaid princess ran away.

However, a human's leg was destined to not outrun a wolf's leg. The wolf king under Olive flew over and directly pounced on the Mermen princess. The wolf king's sharp claws stabbed at the Mermen princess's heart....

Logan and Liam had been dormant in the depths of the forest. They watched the scene in shock. They had never seen a more spectacular or thrilling scene in their lifetime.

Tonight, Olive rode the wolf to the north and took the legendary wolf cavalry to conquer the city of the Mermen.

On this day, in the Imperial City, Elvis and Iris were in the imperial garden. They soon heard a few powerful people discussing.

"Do you know what the hottest news in the past two days is?"

"Of course, it's about Visionary!"

The few dignitaries were excited to gossip, "Olive, the daughter of Visionary, rode the wolf away at the dawn of the morning and became famous all over the world."

"She's

a woman from Visionary who has been living amongst us for a long time. She had hidden so well that we didn't know about her until now."

"I just don't know what she looks like," one of the men said aggrievedly.

A powerful individual immediately took out a painting and slowly opened the scroll. It was a pair of carefully sketched artwork.

"All of you, come and see, this is Visionary's daughter, Olive!"

Elvis raised his narrow eyes and looked at the blue ink in the hands of the powerful man. That night, he was not there,

However, in the past two days, he had heard news about her. He heard that on that day, she had led the wolf away. The galloping wolf pack resounded through the sky. The same way, countless famous people came to imitate her stunning appearance at that moment.

The Subsilume

Chapter 343 Are you ready?

Elvis looked at the painting. The sky had just dawned, and the sky in the distance opened a gap. The rising sun was emitting a golden light. Olive rode on the wolf magically.

She led the wolf's iron cavalry, and the iron cavalry ran wildly behind her.

This scene was engraved in the artist's colorful pictures. In the future, no matter how time passed, this would not be dimmed.

From that night, Visionary's daughter, Olive, has been included in the legend.

Elvis looked at the painting, his cold and narrow eyes were calm, but he stared at it for a long time.

On her birthday, he kissed her goodbye in the taxi. In fact, there were too many things that he didn't say.

He knew that he was already Elvis Theodore.

And she was already Visionary's daughter, Olive.

Iris also looked at the picture. Even though she was also a woman, her eyes flashed in surprise.

It turned out that this was Olive.

This was the lady whose Marvin's heart belonged to,

In fact, Iris had thought for a long time about what it would take to make such a cold and handsome Marvin fall in love with a girl. Now that she saw Olive, she really understood.

Iris also deeply understood that in the future, no one would be able to enter Marvin's heart again, because the person he met in the green and beautiful times was Olive, and it was difficult for anyone to make his heart move again.

At this moment, there was a coughing sound behind them. It was Logan.

Iris looked back, "Master."

Logan walked over, "Elvis, Iris, you Two must have heard about what happened in the past two days. This Visionary girl, Olive, is really extraordinary. She alone can defeat thousands of troops. She directly leveled the merpeople, and the merpeople were wiped out.

Elvis slowly narrowed his narrow eyes, "So?"

"So, we'll just wait for Olive to come to us. She will definitely enter our ancestral temple in Greenland to take out the sword!" Logan laughed.

Elvis looked at Logan. He felt that in the past two days, Logan was radiant and confident. He was completely different from before.

Logan took two steps forward and came to Elvis. He smiled mysteriously, "Elvis, do you know who can pull out the sword?"

"Who?"

"You!"

Elvis raised his eyebrows, as he urged him to continue.

In front of Elvis, Logan often had the illusion that he was being ordered.

"Elvis, no matter how famous Olive is in the world, she can't pull out the sword, only the person with the blood of a child can pull it out."

Elvis was silent for a few seconds, "Then are you not afraid?"

"Afraid? Elvis, are you saying that I should be afraid that you would help Olive pull out the sword?"

"Whosoever pulls out the sword, his entire body will be ruined, and his muscles will be broken, and his life will not be long.

This was the price for pulling out the sword!

There was no emotion on Elvis's handsome face, and he did not say anything.

"Elvis, Olive will be here soon. Think about it for yourself." With that, Logan left.

Logan returned to his study. He pushed open the door. There was already a cold and glowing figure waiting for him in the study

Logan walked in and said, "Hello, Doctor Augustine."

In front of him was Marvin!

Marvin suddenly appeared in Logan's study.

Today, Marvin wore a black suit, which made him more handsome. He quietly stood in front of the window.

"Are you ready?" he asked.

000Chapter 844 He belongs to me alone!

Two days ago, when Logan received a call from Marvin, it was quite a surprise. He never thought that Marvin would actually cooperate with him.

As a result, he had first hand information and could always find Olive as soon as possible.

“Doctor Augustine, Olive must have come for the sword. In order to prevent an accident, we should catch her now.

Marvin looked at Logan, “I know Olive’s whereabouts like the back of my hand, but the timing is not right. Isn’t Olive going to enter the ancestral temple to pull out the sword? We’ll let her in.”

“Could it be that doctor Augustine has some kind of plan?”

“Master, do you really want Elvis to inherit your throne? We all know that Elvis regards you as an enemy. If you allow a pure blood to inherit the throne, I’m afraid that you will not be able to sleep at night, am I wrong?”

Logan brought Elvis back to the Imperial City and made Elvis the master. This was already suspicious. Now that his thoughts were exposed, Logan snorted. As for the throne, he was only using Elvis to restrain Olive, and he wanted the blood of a child to be used by him.

Marvin calmly watched the scheme in Logan’s eyes, “Lord Logan, why don’t we take advantage of the ancestral temple’s opportunity to capture Elvis and Olive in one go?”

“Doctor Augustine, Elvis and Olive are not ordinary people. Are you really sure?”

Marvin curved his thin lips into a shallow arc. “I will personally take care of Elvis.”

Logan stared suspiciously at him. “Doctor Augustine, Elvis is your eldest brother, Doctor Augustine, you’re not a double agent, are you?”

Marvin looked at the scenery outside the window. “I want to get Olive.”

Marvin turned and looked at Logan, and then he said, “Lord Logan. I’m not here to help you unconditionally. I’ll help you achieve your goal. But, you have to give me your throne.”

Marvin wanted to replace Elvis as the lord of Greenland,

Moreover, he still wanted to get Olive.

He wanted both power and beauty.

Logan could see the unwillingness and ambition in Marvin’s cold black eyes, but these dispelled his doubts. He laughed loudly, “Marvin, you also have the blood of the Royal family.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll handle Elvis. As for Olive, you can’t touch her. Olive has the secret art of training wolves through the ages. Lord Logan, don’t you want it?”

When it came to the secret technique of training a wolf, Logan remembered that night. It was also that night that made him change his mind.

He originally wanted Olive to simply disappear, but it was clear that keeping Olive alive was more better.

“Alright, Marvin, I’ll do as you say.” Logan said firmly.

Marvin secretly lived in the Imperial City, and Gael kept following him.

“Master, it seems that Logan trusts you for the time being, but what about the Ancestral Temple and his people?”

The Subsidiary

Gael didn’t know what his master’s plan was. Could it be that he would really kill Elvis, and then marry Olive?

Marvin was expressionless.

With uttering a word, Marvin returned to his room.

In the room, Marvin looked at the little red dot on the satellite tracker. That little red dot was Olive’s current position.

Olive was already approaching the ancestral temple.

Here she was.

Marvin took out the other half of the red reagent, then rolled up his shirt sleeves and slowly pushed the red reagent into his blood.

Olive was here. This was her second visit to the ancestral temple in Greenland.

The last time she had come, she had attempted to draw out the sword, but she had failed.

This time, she came again.

The surroundings were quiet and there was no sound at all. Olive's clear eyes were unusually sensitive and alert because she had already smelled an abnormal breath.

Olive pushed open the door of the inner room and walked in. With her previous experience, she easily avoided the office and came inside.

She saw the ambasador's sword.

The sword was now inserted into the foundation of the ancestral temple.

Olive looked at the sword.

Olive slowly raised her small hand, wanting to draw the sword.

At this moment, there was the sound of approaching footsteps, "Olive, you're finally here. I've been waiting for you for a long time!"

Olive turned around. Logan came with a large number of people. The entire ancestral temple was surrounded by guards.

Beside Logan was Elvis and Iris. Everyone was here.

Olive's eyes moved slightly, and her clear eyes fell on Logan's face. "Lord Logan, it seems that you had prepared an invitation to your entire household, but how did you know my whereabouts?"

This was suspicious, How did Logan know exactly where she was?

ㅁ

1135Chapter 845 Elvis fell down

Logan laughed, "Olive, don't you know that you have a tracker installed on your body?"

Olive shuddered, she wasn't aware.

She raised her hand and touched the back of her ear, it was as if something had been implanted in it.

Olive pulled the contents out. It was indeed a very small tracker.

How could she have a tracker on her body?

Olive frowned. Recently, she had not been in contact with anyone except Marvin. And for the tracker to be implanted, then she must have been close to the person who implanted it. And it was only Marvin that she had been close to.

However, how could it be?

Olive quickly ruled out the idea. She believed that Marvin would definitely not harm her.

"Master Logan, it's okay if you're here. Today, I'm definitely going to pull out the sword." Olive said confidently.

Logan looked at the ambasador sword. The sword was a symbol of power in Greenland. It had been there since the ancestors of Greenland founded the country.

"Olive, there's one thing you don't know yet. You can't pull out the sword. Only the descendants of the pure blood can pull out the sword."

Olive's bright eyes fell on Elvis's handsome face. In fact, she knew about this. Only Elvis could pull out the sword.

Elvis's narrow and deep eyes fell on Olive's delicate face.

"Olive," he stretched out his big palm and held her hand in his. "As long as it's what you want to do, I'll help you achieve it. Today, I'll help you pull out the sword!" he declared.

Olive raised her face as big as her eyes stared at him.

“Olive,” he held her small hand tightly, “I have never been Elvis Theodore, but Elvis Augustine. I don’t want to be your Highness, I just want to be your Mr. Augustine forever.”

Olive’s fair eyes suddenly turned red. For her sake, he could leave everything behind and be her Mr. Augustine forever.

Logan watched the scene and his face turned cold. In fact, he had already guessed Elvis’s choice.

He would always be Elvis Augustine, not Elvis Theodore.

For the sake of Olive, he had given up on this splendid road to imperial power and his surname. Since the blood of a child could not be used by him, he must destroy it.

“Olive, there is one more thing that you must know. Although my nephew, Elvis, can help you to pull out the sword, he will pay the price with his life, because when he pulls out the sword, the muscles and veins in the entire body will slowly rupture, and he will suffer from pain and then die.”

What?

Olive’s clear pupils shrank, and she looked at Logan in shock.

Logan laughed, “This is also the price of betraying his mission!TM

How could this be?

Olive really didn’t know about this. Her hands and feet instantly became cold.

13-14

The Substitute Bride: Doted by My Billionaire

Elvis looked at her with his handsome eyes. His deep and magnetic voice said softly, “Olive, let’s pull out the sword first. I believe in your medical skills. You can cure me.”

Olive shook her head. She was a doctor, so she naturally knew that if his heart was damaged, there was no cure.

“Olive, I’ve already told Elvis about this, but it’s clear that Elvis has already made a choice.

Between his life and you, he chose you without hesitation”

“Olive, it’s time for you to make a choice. Between Visionary and him, what do you choose?”

Olive’s face turned pale. Between Visionary and her Mr. Augustine, what should she choose?

“Olive.” Elvis crached out and hugged her. He sighed lovingly, “When you can’t choose, let me choose for you.”

Olive’s heart sk ipped a beat. She suddenly raised her head and saw that Elvis had already stretched out his palm and grasped the sword.

“No!” Olive yelled.

Elvis looked at her. “Olive, you’ve always been protecting me. Let me protect you this time!”

With that, Elvis pulled the sword with all his might Soon, the sword was pulled out a little, and the entire ancestral temple began to shake.

However, Elvis’s mouth suddenly licked of blood.

Olive rushed over and tightly hugged his waist. “Mr. Augustine, please stop.”

Elvis slowly but firmly shook his head, “Olive, don’t be afraid, I won’t die.”

The ancestral temple began to tremble.

Logan was also a little uneasy. The sword must not be drawn out.

But, why didn’t Marvin appear?

At this moment, a piercing sound suddenly sounded.

Logan looked up and was instantly overjoyed.

Olive also heard the sound, withal, the sound seemed to be close to her ear.

When she heard the sound, she looked up and saw a sharp blade coming through Elvis’s back, directly piercing Elvis's heart.

Olive's eyes narrowed. At this moment, the entire world seemed to have disappeared. She turned around in a daze and saw a familiar figure, Marvin Marvin came.

Marvin was still cold and handsome, but he was holding a knife in his hand. It was this knife that pierced Elvis's heart.

Olive looked at Marvin in shock. She started to shake her head. She couldn't find her voice for a long time. "Marvin, you... do you know what you are doing?"

At this moment, Elvis let go of the sword. His tall and straight body fell to the ground with a bang.

Marvin's fair and slender fingers were stained with blood. He casually wiped the blood stain with a handkerchief, then looked at Olive and laughed softly, "Olive, I just want him to disappear."
