The Substitute Bride Doted by My Billionaire Husband Chapter 846

Chapter 846 I Hate You!

Olive had never doubted Marvin until this moment, when Elvis collapsed in front of her. Olive raised her hand and slapped Marvin's handsome face.

"Olive." Elvis's weak voice sounded.

Olive quickly squatted down and pressed her hand against Elvis's heart. "Mister Augustine, don't say anything. I'll stop the bleeding for you..."

Elvis slowly shook his head. He opened his mouth and wanted to speak, but he only spat out a large mouthful of blood.

Olive felt her palms become wet and hot. The blood in his heart was gurgling out. Her fair eyes slowly turned red, and her lashes shivered, as her tears fell like broken beads,

She burst into tears.

Elvis raised his hand with difficulty, wanting to caress her face, and help her wipe the tears from her face, and tell her not to cry.

However, his hand was still frozen in the air, and in the end, it fell down weakly.

Elvis's heart stopped and he lost his breath.

"Mr. Augustine! No, Mr. Augustine, don't leave me behind, wake up!" Olive felt her heart tear in two, and it felt so painful.

Marvin slowly turned his handsome face over. He looked at Olive, who was squatting on the ground, with tears in her eyes.

Logan was the happiest. Elvis was so disobedient. The sooner he disappeared, the better.

"Olive, you have to admit defeat this time, because the only one with the blood of the child in the world is gone. No one can pull out the sword anymore. Your plan to revive Visionary has completely failed." Logan mocked, as he laughed loudly.

Olive's tears blurred. She hugged Elvis tightly in her arms, then raised her red eyes to look at Marvin.

"Marvin, Elvis is your elder brother, you killed your brother. I will never forgive you! I hate you!"

She said that she hated him..

Marvin didn't mind her hating him. If hating him was a way he would be remembered, then he would rather she hate him.

Marvin stepped forward and came to Olive's side. He looked down at her and said, "Olive, I can give you time to grieve, but quickly adjust your emotions and prepare to marry me!"

Olive could already smell the blood on his finger. It was Elvis's blood, and his hand was stained with Elvis's blood.

Olive's bright eyes became even brighter. She looked at him coldly and said sharply, "Wedding? Marvin, you want to marry me?"

"That's right, I've already agreed on this with the lord. The revival of Visionary is already impossible. As the girl with the secret wolf training technique, you can stay in Greenland forever!"

Logan nodded and persuaded her kindly, "Yes, Olive, that's true. Now that my Elvis is dead, and my nephew, Marvin, likes you so much, you can be rest assured that with my nephew, you'll be the queen once he inherits my throne."

Olive looked at Marvin, "Do you want to sit on the throne? She asked.

"Why not?" Marvin asked with a smile.

Olive shook her head. She looked at Marvin with an unfamiliar expression. "Marvin, I realize that I don't know you anymore. You're no longer the Marvin I remembered."

In her memory, Marvin was cold and clean. No matter how chaotic the world was, he could come out of the mud and not be stained.

But now, he was so different, he coveted the throne, and wanted to forcefully marry her. Marvin was completely the opposite of the person she has known!

"Olive, you can get to know me again now." Marvin muttered, as he reached out to touch her face.

Olive turned her face away and did not want him to touch her. Now, his touch would only make her feel disgusted

"Marvin, I rather die than marry you! I'm your sister-in-law!"

"You're not my sister in law. If I remember vividly, you divorced Elvis, and you two never remarried. So, I can marry you."

Olive couldn't believe her ears, at this moment, she felt that she could no longer continue with the conversation.

Olive lowered her eyes to look at Elvis in her arms. She still did not believe that her Mr. Augustine had died.

Olive reached out to check Elvis's pulse.

But at this moment, Marvin said, "Somebody, take His Royal Highness away.

A few guards walked over and quickly snatched Elvis from Olive's embrace.

"Olive, you can stay at ease in the Imperial City these few days to adjust to the environment. The wedding is already being prepared. We will get married as soon as possible. You'd better not struggle anymore. After all, Ivy and Levi are still in Greenland. I'm sure you don't want the kids to get hurt." Marvin said in a low voice.

He actually threatened her with her children. Olive couldn't understand how Marvin could swiftly become so despicable and shameless!

"Someone, take princess Olive away."

Two guards quickly walked over. "Princess Olive, please."

They led Olive away.

Logan came to Marvin's side and said, "Marvin, you really did not disappoint me. I know you like Olive. I ordered someone to prepare a beautiful wedding for you. After the wedding, I will also pass the throne to you

Marvin pursed his lips and did not say anything.

Everyone left, but Iris remained where she was. At this moment, the maid beside her whispered. "Miss, we all misunderstood Doctor Augustine. We didn't expect Doctor Augustine to be such a terrible person.

Iris looked at Marvin's cold figure and said softly, "You think he's scary, but I don't think he's scary at all."

Olive was locked up in the imperial city. The wedding ceremony was being prepared.

Fashion designers came to her, as they took her measurements for the dress, and crown.

The things that had happened in the past two days had disrupted everything. What was more shocking was the new Marvin that emerged.

Elvis was dead. No one would be able to pull out the sword anymore. The revival of Visionary would be impossible, and she was about to marry Marvin.

Com

Chapter 847 Don't touch me!

Soon, it was the night before the big wedding.

Aria came to take Olive's measurement. Olive impatiently chased her out. "I don't want to wear these clothes. Let Marvin come over and see me. I want to see him!"

"Miss, you're making it difficult for us..." Everyone stared at each other in fright.

At this moment, a cold and glowing figure walked out, and Marvin appeared. "You all can go out."

"Okay, sir." Everyone went out.

Only Olive and Marvin were left in the room. Marvin looked at her, "Olive, I'm here, are you looking for me?"

Olive glared at Marvin coldly, "Where's Elvis, I want to see Elvis!"

"He's already dead."

___ "He's alive! I want to see him whether he's alive or dead. I want to take him away!"

Marvin stepped forward and walked in front of Olive. He looked at her red eyes and nodded, "Okay, I can let you see him."

Olive did not say anything else. She did not believe that he would be so kind, yet she agreed.

"However," Marvin said calmly. "Let's get married first. After the wedding. I'll let you see him. Olive. don't be self-willed, okay?"

Olive suddenly stood up, "Marvin, why did you suddenly become like this? Are you acting? Do you have any plans? Hurry up and tell me that this is not true. The person in front of me is not real either!"

Marvin stared out through the window.

"Master..."

Logan waved his hand and made a gesture of silence, not allowing anyone to speak. In fact, Logan had always had suspicions about Marvin. Now that Marvin and Olive were talking in the room, he happened to be eavesdropping.

Marvin knew that Logan was coming. His cold black eyes fell on Olive's palm-sized face. Now, her clear eyes were full of anticipation.

Marvin hooked his thin lips, "Olive, what do you want to hear? It's not that you don't know how much I like you."

The light in Olive's eyes instantly extinguished, and she took a step back.

Marvin raised his legs and approached her step by step, "Olive, do you want me to bless you and Elvis's relationship? Do you want me to watch you two happy? I'm sorry, I can't!"

"Elvis has had more than me since he was a child. Everything is his. Later, when I meet you, you are his too. How can I be happy, Olive? I can't be happy without you!"

Olive looked at Marvin who was so unfamiliar in front of her, and she shook her head.

Soon, her delicate back touched the cold wall, and she had no choice but to retreat.

Marvin blocked her against the wall with his chest.

His two hands grabbed her shiny shoulders, "Olive, Elvis is already dead. Stay with me, I will treat you wellr

With that, Marvin lowered his head and kissed her red lips.

Olive shivered and quickly dodged. From such a close distance, she could smell Marvin's clean scent. He had changed beyond recognition.

Olive no longer had any expectations for him. Her two small hands pressed against his chest and pushed him away, "Marvin, let me go, don't touch me!"

As she dodged, Marvin's thin lips brushed against her soft hair.

After so many years, Marvin had grown from a handsome young man to a man of twenty seven years old. It was not that he had no desires.

Now that he had kissed her hair, his handsome body stiffened slightly.

Olive was very resistant to this kind of intimacy. She never thought that Marvin's feelings for her would develop to this level. She and Elvis were recognized as couples.

No matter what, she was his sister-in-law!

"Marvin, don't be like this... If you touch me, I'll really hate you!"

Marvin gently swallowed hard.

His hand landed on the back of her head, as he gently but firmly grabbed the back of her head, then he kissed her face.

He kissed her eyes. He could already feel the panic of the girl in his arms. He closed his eyes and kissed her eyes back and forth.

Olive knew that Marvin liked her, but he had changed, but she did not understand why he had become so despicable, yet he kissed her so gently and carefully.

At this moment. Marvin's kiss slid down from her eyes, avoiding her red lips, and landing on her pink neck.

His other hand clasped her slender waist and pulled her into his arms.

"Marvin, don't!" Olive struggled.

Outside the window, Logan watched the scene with satisfaction. It seemed that his suspicion of Marvin was unnecessary. Marvin had really turned evil

Logan turned around and left.

Marvin saw Logan leave from the corner of his eyes, so he rationally should have. However, he could not let go her.

His hands and body were no longer under his control.
stopped

The body in his embrace particularly fascinated him, especially when she struggled.

At this moment, he didn't want to let go of Olive in his arms. Chapter 848

Marvin clasped her slender wrist and pressed it against the wall. His hoarse voice covered her ear, with a hint of urgency, "Olive, don't move."

He told her not to move, but Olive moved even more fiercely.

"Marvin, you are really despicable and shameless. Quickly let me go! Don't touch me with your hand!"

Marvin's cold black eyes exuded a bit of lust. Nothing in this world could make him lose his self control, but the girl in his arms made him lose his willpower.

He breathed slowly, but it still didn't work. His blood was surging, and every cell was clamoring for her!

Marvin wrapped his arms around her slender waist and held her tightly in his embrace.

His thin lips moved up as he kissed her little face.

Soon, he tasted the wetness on her face, it was tears.

Marvin's cold body froze. He looked up and saw a tear rolled down Olive's face. Her bright eyes were blurred.

Marvin's lost brain was instantly awoken, and his senses returned. He didn't know what he was doing.

Just now, he had allowed his greed overwhelm him, and he had actually bullied her and made her cry.

Realizing what he did, Marvin felt ashamed.

Olive's eyes were red, and her nose was red as well.

"I hate you!" she yelled at him.

Marvin panicked. This was the girl he loved the most. He raised his clean fingers and wanted to wipe her tears. "Olive, I'm sorry, I..."

The two of them were still leaning against each other. At this moment, Olive felt something hot and moist touch her. Her pupils shrank and she raised her watery eyes to look at him in shock and anger,

She was no longer a naive girl who didn't understand anything. She had already given birth to three children. Of course, she knew what it was.

He actually ejaculated.

Marvin quickly noticed this. His fair and handsome face immediately flushed in embarrassment. He tucked his right hand into his trousers pocket and turned to leave.

Olive looked at his back. The man before her was a professor, who was highly respected. But before her, he looked childish.

"Marvin, I promise. I'll marry you tomorrow, but you have to return Mr. Augustine to me."

Olive said loudly.

Marvin paused. After a few seconds, he said, "Okay."

Then he turned and left.

Marvin walked out of the room. The cold wind from outside brushed against his handsome face, blowing away the heat from his entire body.

Chapter 44

At this moment, someone walked over, it was Iris.

Iris looked at Marvin and greeted, "Hello, doctor Augustine."

Marvin didn't express any emotions, he nodded lightly, and then left.

The maid whispered. "Miss, doctor Augustine just walked out of princess Olive's room.

As soon as his brother died, doctor Augustine couldn't wait to have his brother's woman. I think he's just a beast. Miss, you should away from this kind of person!"

Iris looked at Marvin's disappearing figure. "What should I be afraid of?" she asked.

"Miss, I'm afraid that Doctof Augustine will bully you!"

Iris curved her red lips into a faint but sarcastic arc, "Don't worry, Doctor Augustine has no interest in me. He's not our problem."

The wedding day had arrived, and Olive wore a wedding dress, and a crown on her head.

"Bride, the auspicious time has arrived. the Aria announced.

Olive did not resist, and the lady lifted her dress, and led her out.

"Wait a minile, the bride's dress needs to be sorted out." At this moment, a little maid ran over and adjusted Olive's dress.

Soon, a note was secretly shoved into Olive's hand.

Olive shivered. She knew that her people were here. The people from Visionary had come to pick her up. Olive did not move for the past few days. Because she was in the imperial city, her freedom was limited. If she acted hastily, innocent people would definitely die.. She pretended to consent to the wedding, because the information would definitely reach her people. Moreover, there were many guests at the wedding, so she could leave without being caught. Tonight was a good opportunity to leave, She wanted to take Mr. Augustine away and go back to Visionary. Hence, Olive had been waiting.

Olive quietly put the note in her sleeve and followed the lady out. Outside, the sound of rhythmic sounds were heard. Marvin was already waiting at the alter.

At this moment, his fidant Gael walked over and whispered, "Master, the Visionary people are here. They just handed Miss Hart a note. It seems that Miss Hart will be leaving tonight."

Marvin heard Gael's words, but his handsome face was calm. He had already guessed it.

She did not want to stay by his side and would definitely leave.

To her, the wedding was fake.

"Groom, the bride is here!"

Marvin looked up and saw Olive, who was walking up to him.

She was dressed in a white dress, which swayed beautifully.

Marvin's cold black eyes slowly overflowed with warm tenderness. To her, the wedding was fake, but to him, it was real.

Marvin and Olive stood together as the priest asked, "Is there anyone who's against the marriage of this two?"

The entire hall was quiet.

Logan watched, as no one objected.

"Since there's no objections, I declare you both husband and wife!"

Marvin and Olive faced each other.

"You may kiss your bride."

Marvin moved forward, and kissed Olive on the check

"Send her to the bridal chamber!" Marvin ordered the guards, the moment he was done with the kiss.

Olive was led out and sent to the wedding room.

In the wedding room, Olive sat beside the bed.

She quietly opened the note. Her people informed her of their location.

They were on the bank of the river

At this moment, the door was pushed open.

"Why is the groom here so soon? I'm afraid the groom can't wait to lift the bride's veil, right?" Aria, the lady who dressed Olive teased.

Marvin came.

Amidst the teasing. Marvin walked up to Olive. Chapter 849 Visionary Is Here!
Marvin lowered his handsome eyelids as he looked at Olive. He knew in his heart that she had made up her mind to leave.

Aria said happily, "Groom, you can take off her veil. I wish you two hundred years of love and happiness."

Marvin stretched out his beautiful white finger and took off her veil.

Olive raised her head and looked at him.

Her beautiful face suddenly broke into Marvin's sight. She was wearing a bright red crown, and her hair was tied.

Olive's bright eyes looked at him, but there was no warmth in her eyes. "Marvin, are you happy now?"

Marvin raised his hand and waved at Aria, "You can go down first."

"Okay, sir." Aria withdrew.

It was only Olive and Marvin in the room. Olive sarcastically said, "Marvin, I've already done what I promised. You shouldn't still be thinking about the wedding night, right?"

Marvin looked down at her, "If I say yes, what will you do?"

A cold wind flashed across Olive's eyes, then she whistled.

"OMG! Someone screamed from outside, "Wolf! It's a wolf!"

In the next second, the window of the wedding room was smashed open.

Olive looked at Marvin, "Marvin, you'd better not get close to me tonight, otherwise the wolf's claws are ruthless, and you wouldn't like what they'll do to you!"

Tonight, Olive beckoned the wolf king to sit close and not allow Marvin get close to her.

Marvin didn't say anything else, he turned around and left.

Did he just leave like that?

Olive was a little suspicious. She didn't know what conspiracies were in his heart.

"Marvin, you promised to give me back Mr. Augustine!" she reminded

Marvin did not look back. "I promised you, but not tonight."

With that, he left.

Olive tugged her fist. He was actually playing word games with her. He was shameless!

However, her people had already gone to search for Elvis's whereabouts and would bring him out. Now, she had to get to the Pride River as soon as possible. Her people were all there. She was afraid that it would be dangerous to go a little late.

She didn't know what was wrong. Tonight, she felt uneasy. She felt that something was about to happen.

Marvin walked out of the wedding room, and Gnel whispered, "Master, Logan has already been delayed. Now, we can go to the ancestral temple."

"Okay." Marvin nodded, "What's going to happen to Olive?"

Chapter 849 Visionary Is Here!

"It's already arranged. Miss Hart's journey out of the Imperial City tonight will be smooth. Master, Miss Hart is so smart, you shouldn't have to worry."

Yes, she was so smart, even without him, she could have successfully left the Imperial City.

However, he was still worried, afraid that she was in danger.

"Leave Elvis over to the people of Visionary and let Olive take him with her." Marvin ordered.

"Okay, sir." Gael nodded.

"Let's go."

"Master, I don't understand... What are we going to do in the ancestral temple? There is only the ambasador sword there." Gael really did not know why his master wanted going to the ancestral temple.

Marvin raised his cold black eyes and stared into the distance.

Gael's eyes widened. Was his master going to pull out the sword?

However, only a person with the blood of a child could pull out the sword.

"Master!" Gael followed closely with a horrified expression.

The Ancestral Temple.

Marvin entered the inner room, where the sword was.

Marvin stepped forward and stretched out his hand.

"Master, you can't!" Gael quickly stopped him, "Master, I don't know how you had the blood of a child, but you must not pull this sword out, once you pull it out, your heart will be damaged."

Marvin said quietly, "I know."

He knew that Elvis could not die, because if he died, Olive would be in pain.

Therefore, he could only replace Elvis.

"Gael, retire," he warned..

"Master, you really can't!" Gael knelt down.

Marvin had already made up his mind. No one could stop him. He reached out and grabbed the sword.

The sword was slowly pulled out from the crack in the ground, and the entire ancestral temple began to tremble again.

Marvin quickly spat out a mouthful of blood.

Gael's eyes were red, "Master!" he called out.

Marvin wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth with the back of his hand, then used all of his strength to slowly but firmly pull out the Sword.

The ancestral temple caused a little earthquake, and soon, half of the sky in Greenland was dyed red. Such a spectacle sight attracted everyone's gaze.

Everyone walked out of the room and looked up at the red sky.

"Look, what happened there?"

Chapter 3 Visionary Is Here!

Logan had been drinking a lot of alcohol and was already a little drunk. At this moment, someone hurriedly ran over and said to him, "Master, this is not good, something has happened, and the ambasador's sword has been pulled out!"

What?

Logan bounced off his chair and stood up. The tipsiness he earlier felt quickly disappeared.

Logan hurriedly ran out. Because he ran so fast, he almost fell.

He pushed aside the crowd and looked up. He saw that the red sky was getting more red, as if the earth was stained with blood.

Logan's heart sank. He knew that the sword, which had been sealed in the ancestral temple for a hundred years had been pulled out.

The sword was pulled out, and Visionary appeared.

Back then, Visionary had vanished into the sea.

Logan's heart had already set off a storm. Who had pulled out the sword?

Elvis was already dead. There was no one who had the blood of the child. Who the hell had pulled out his sword?

"Someone! Come quickly!" Logan shouted.

"Yes. Master." His subordinates rushed over.

"Hurry up to the ancestral temple and block the city gate. I want to investigate. I want to find this person!"

At this moment, the people around them shouted, "Look, there's a mirage! My God!"

Logan raised his eyes and saw that on the Pride river in front of him, the flowing water was rolling to the east.

At this moment, the moon was shining brightly, and the water on the river bank was crystal clear and sparkling.

OBChapter 850

At the end of the river, a mirage slowly appeared. It seemed to be a country, a country as beautiful as a fairyland on earth.

The guest, who also came to attend the wedding, looked at the mirage at sea and murmured in shock, "Visionary, the ancient Country!"

As soon as the words were heard, a thousand layers of waves were instantly aroused.

Logan froze. It was too late. It was too late for anything

Olive changed her face and then disguised herself as a servant girl to escape from the Imperial City.

She was suspicious because the way out of the Imperial City was too smooth and there was no danger at all.

However, everyone had gone for a drink, so their precautions must have been lax, which was understandable.

Olive rushed to the river as quickly as possible. Sadie and the people of Visionary had been waiting here for a long time.

Sadie quickly greeted her, "Your Highness, you're finally here."

"Sadie, did you find Mr. Augustine?" This was the topic that Olive was most concerned about.

"Princess, he'll be here soon. We sent someone to bring him over."

Great!

Olive definitely wanted to take Elvis away.

At this moment, someone rushed over. "Princess, this is not good."

"What's the matter? Where's Mr. Augustine?"

"Princess, we already found Mr. Augustine's hiding place, but when we went in, we found that Mr. Augustine was gone!"

What?

Olive quickly furrowed her eyebrows. Why did Mr. Augustine suddenly disappear?

This was rather strange.

"Princess," Sadie said quickly, "Princess, it's too late, let's hurry back to Visionary!"

However, Mr. Augustine was gone. She wanted to bring Mr. Augustine back. Now that Mr. Augustine wasn't with her, how could she still leave?

Olive's mind was in chaos, as she didn't know what to do.

"Princess!" Someone shouted, "Look!"

Olive raised her bright eyes and saw that the sky was filled with red clouds.

Olive's lashes trembled as her pupils contracted.

"Princess, what's the matter? How did the sky in Greenland become like this? When grandma Constance was still here, she once said that when our ancestor died, the sky was red." Sadie said in confusion.

Olive looked at the sky and mumbled, 'The sword...was pulled out!'"

Sadie was shocked. "But Princess, Mr. Augustine is the only pure blood in the world. Only Mr. Augustine can pull out sword. Mr. Augustine is already dead. Who pulled out the sword?"

Olive shook her head. She didn't know either.

What the hell was going on?

"Princess!" At this moment, Sadie shouted in surprise, "Look, Princess, Visionary has appeared! Congratulations, Princess, you have finally fulfilled your ancestor's last wish to revive Visionary!"

Olive looked ahead and saw that the smoke on the river had all cleared away.

Everything that happened tonight was completely out of control. Olive could not guess what happened.

At this moment, there were many footsteps in the distance, and Olive's eyes lit up.

"Logan has brought people here!" someone quickly informed.

"Princess, let's go home! We can go home now!"

Olive looked back at Greenland's direction. She knew that Mr. Augustine had been left here forever, but she had to go home.

She would be back again!

Logan hurriedly rushed to the pride River. There were two boats on the riverbank. Olive wore a white dress, and stood at the bow, obviously waiting for him.

"Master Logan, you're late." Olive pursed her lips. At this moment, her stunning figure and the Pride River almost merged into one.

Logan angrily stomped his feet, and shouted, "Olive, come back here!"

Olive looked at Logan, "Lord Logan, I will definitely be back."

After she finished speaking, she turned around and stood with her hands behind her back. Her stunning figure slowly disappeared from sight.

Olive left

Logan was uneasy, and restless.

"Master, what should we do now?"

Logan's eyes displayed a ferocious ruthlessness, "Olive is gone, but the person who pulled out the sword is still in imperial city, hurry up to the ancestral temple, I want to catch this person and cut them into pieces!"

In the ancestral temple, Marvin used all of his strength to pull out the sword, but his heart was damaged./

Blood sparted out of his mouth.

"Master!" Gael's eyes were red and he ran over to support his master. Just now, he had watched his master use his life to pull out the sword.

Marvin's face was extremely pale, and his forehead was covered with thick with sweat. He gently raised his hand to stop Gael from helping him.

Gael could only stand still...

Marvin closed his handsome eyelids and forcibly suppressed the bloody churning in his throat. It tried a few times and finally stood up front the ground with difficulty,

Marvin walked out, as he each step he took was slow and firm. He left the ancestral temple and came to the grass outside.

He raised his head and looked at the red glow of the sky.

Gael followed behind and nodded, "Yes, Master, Visionary is here."

Marvin felt something lightly scrape his handsome cheek. It turned out to be a golden maple leaf falling down. He slowly raised his thin lips, and said softly, "Olive, goodbye."
