

Superman Delta's Life Diary

Chapter 20:

After a second or two, a torrent of energy suddenly erupted from the triangle in the sky. In addition to the golden energy belonging to Ultraman Delta, this torrent was mixed with red electric current and fiery flames.

These mixed energies all bombarded the body of the natural control machine, Yan Shan, and directly penetrated Yan Shan's body, leaving a large hole.

Ultraman Delta used his last strength to contain Yan Shan in the laboratory space, and then slowly fell down.

Today, I don't have the strength to fly out of a triangular trajectory again.

In the process of falling, his body turned into a light spot and dissipated.

In the woods in the park, as soon as Xingguang lay on the ground, gasping for breath, he didn't even have the strength to move his fingers.

The injuries on his body were very serious, with varying degrees of burns all over his body, the most serious one should be his left hand.

Xingguang Yi is a human body mimicked by Ultraman Delta, and the injuries suffered by Ultraman Delta will truly reflect on Xingguang Yi.

For a while, he didn't have any thoughts like "I'm so embarrassed", "I need to reflect on it", "Wow, I almost died".

At this time, he was too tired to think, his mind was blank, and sleepiness kept coming up.

Xingguangyi's consciousness gradually blurred, but his sensory abilities that were different from ordinary people were still there. He had already heard someone walking into the park! In a hurry, and there are still many people.

These movements made him a little bit out of the blank state of his head and began to think about things.

He wanted to try harder in the end, at least hide in the laboratory space, so as not to be found.

But before he could take out the transforming device, his eyes darkened and he passed out completely.

I don't know how long it took, Xingguang Yi's consciousness began to wake up.

But he was too tired to keep his eyelids open.

But he could feel that he was no longer on the grass in that park at this time.

“Buzzing buzzing...”

“Di Di!”

“Di Di!”

Listening to the surrounding sounds, coupled with the seat-like touch and the slight shaking feeling under the body, I should be in a car.

And the car was moving at this time.

“I was taken away by someone? Could it be the relevant department?”

Starlight thought so.

Chapter 32 Are there any ordinary people around me?

Dilumon was dreaming again, dreaming of those lingering painful days.

She opened her eyes in panic, but when she looked up, it was the ceiling of the bedroom.

By the way, she has left that kind of life, the vampire monsters have been eliminated, and she has found the person she is looking for.

Dilumon crawled out of the quilt, and such a comfortable life made her uncomfortable for a while.

This morning, Koichi and the rest of the humans seemed to be taking some exams, and now she was the only one left in the dormitory.

It's not right to say that, besides her, there is a knife in the dormitory.

Dilumon was lying beside the bed, looking down, there was a knife on the chair named Xia Luzhen, and this knife was watching anime.

Can you watch anime with knives too?

Dilumon doesn't know, strange people, strange knives.

Dilumon jumped off the bed lightly and landed on Xingguang Yi's chair.

Xingguangyi helped Dilumon prepare breakfast before going to the exam.

Breakfast is very simple, a cup of milk porridge, a meat floss bread roll.

Before eating breakfast, Dilumon glanced at the strange knife, hesitated, and asked, “Hello, do you want to eat?”

“ ... ”

The strange knife did not respond to Dilumon.

Dilumon shook his head, and it seemed that he had become strange too.

Holding the cup in both hands, Dilumon took a sip and narrowed his eyes.

Mmmm, sweet taste.

After finishing breakfast, the bored Dilumon returned to the bed after cleaning up.

Speaking of which, the level of technology in this world is much higher than the human world in her.

Going back can let Koichi teach himself how to use the smart phone tablet computer.

After Guangyi left, without the power of light in him, even the bed was not warm.

Dilumon lay dozing on the pillow to pass the time.

Her tail was wagging under the quilt, and she couldn't find a comfortable position for her tail.

Suddenly, Dilumon felt restless for no reason, as if something bad was about to happen.

The wagging of her tail increased again.

This continued for a while, and footsteps and voices came from outside the dormitory.

Dilumon's ears perked up immediately.

When he heard the sound of the door opening, Dilumon immediately sat up and looked in the direction of the door.

It turned out that Xia Luzhen, Malco and that * Jin Can were back.

Bastard Gold Cans....

It seems that when we first met, Hou Xianxing frightened Dilumon quite a bit.

Dilumon waited and didn't see Xing Guangyi's figure, and asked, "Didn't Guangyi come back with you?"

"No, he has something to leave, and it is estimated that he will be back later."

Even though it had been almost a week, Xia Luzhen was still not used to the sudden appearance of a female voice in the dormitory.

“By the way, you probably still don’t know the true face of Lao Xing, do you want to see it?” Xia Luzhen asked.

“true colors?”

To be honest, Dilumon is really interested.

So, she jumped off the bed and waited for Xia Luzhen’s next move.

Seeing Dilumon jumping onto Xingguangyi’s chair, Xia Luzhen also turned on Xingguangyi’s computer nearby.

Computers are not too private in the 609. Anyone’s computer can be used if they need it. Xingguang Yi often uses other people’s computers to hang up for activities.

So it’s not too much for Xia Luzhen to use Xingguangyi’s computer privately now.

Anyway, I used Xingguangyi’s computer to show Xingguangyi’s cat a video of Xingguangyi’s dozen monsters, and it was also used on Xingguangyi’s body.

“I’ll do a search, don’t panic. When I saw him in such a hurry during the exam, he should be going to fight monsters. There should be a video of him on the Internet.”

Xia Luzhen opened the largest * dating barrage website in China and searched for “Ultraman Delta”.

The results are all related videos of “Ultraman Delta Zeta”.

After thinking about it, he deleted “Ultraman Delta”, re-entered “Ultraman Triangle”, and clicked search.

Sure enough, it appeared, and the first in the comprehensive ranking was a new video that was just released – “Dying to Shoot, Triangle Ultraman vs. Natural Control Machine Yanshan”.

Xia Luzhen clicked on the video to turn off the dense barrage, and then showed it to Dilumon in full screen.

This video was shot from when Ultraman Delta used “Pseudo-Swallow Kick”.

Although the picture is shaking like Parkinson’s, the main shooting equipment for this up is really good, and it looks very clear.

Xia Luzhen pointed to the giant in the picture, “This is Xingguang Yi, and his real name is Ultraman Delta.”

“Hey!?! Isn’t Koichi a human?” Cat Mao was shocked.

“No, he is the Ultraman of the Land of Light.” Xia Luzhen continued to explain, “You can wait for him to come back and let him explain to you about too detailed questions.”

Although Xingguangyi was not a human being, Dilumon was a little surprised, but she recovered quickly.

Koichi’s real face is also very handsome!

The cat has added ten points to Xingguang in his heart.

“Speaking of which, in fact, the four people in our dormitory should not be considered human in a pure sense. Xingguang One is Ultraman, I am Death, Malco is Yanyan who ate Yanyan fruit, Hou Xianxing is Saint Fighter.” Xia Luzhen continued.

“Oh.” Dilumon just looked at Xingguangyi’s figure in the computer and responded perfunctorily.

“What is your perfunctory attitude, shouldn’t you be shocked?”

Just as one person and one cat were talking, Ultraman Delta was controlled by the red current of the natural control machine Yanshan in the video, and Ultraman Delta suddenly became the disadvantaged party.

Dilumon couldn’t help but get nervous.

Fortunately, in the end, Ultraman Delta defeated the enemy.

“It’s just that he’s fine.”

Although Dilumon breathed a sigh of relief temporarily, he was a little worried. In the end, as soon as Xingguang fell down slowly, his figure dissipated, and it didn’t seem like he was okay.

“It shouldn’t be a big deal.”

Even with the assurance of others, Dilumon is still worried.

...

As soon as Xingguang was a little awake, some negative feelings such as fatigue, pain, weakness, etc. came up again.

“you’re awake?”

Xingguangyi's breathing was chaotic, immediately attracting the attention of others, and a voice that made Xingguangyi feel a little familiar asked softly.

"What is this voice?"

Xingguang opened his eyes reluctantly, as he had guessed before, he was in a car, but this was not an ambulance, but an ordinary family car.

At this point he was lying on the back seat of the car, the only other driver in the car besides him.

At this time, Xingguang noticed that he had been drugged and bandaged all over his body, especially his left arm, which was heavily bandaged.

He leaned to his side and slowly straightened himself up with his right arm, trying to see who was in the driver's seat.

It just so happened that the vehicle came to an intersection, and it was a red light at this time, and the vehicle stopped.

The man in the driver's seat also turned his head, "Don't get up first, don't move too hard and the wound will collapse."

Compared with this person's concern, Xing Guangyi was even more surprised by this person's identity, "Ling...Ling Shuangqi classmate? Why are you here."

The person driving was Ling Shuangqi, a girl committee member of the second class.

Xingguangyi is a little incredible. You must know that this is a coastal area, and Zhongzhou College is about 1,500 kilometers away from here.

Although Xingguangyi couldn't guess the specific identity of Ling Shuangqi, Ling Shuangqi should be a transmigrator just like himself.

Ling Shuangqi pushed her glasses, but did not answer Xingguangyi for the time being.

She continued to drive the car, and when she reached her destination, she parked the car in a safe place before turning around and continuing the topic just now.

"Hello, Mr. Ultraman Triangle." Ling Shuangqi said.

"It's Delta!" Xingguang was excited one by one, and the wound on his body hurt, "Student Ling Shuangqi, who are you?"

Ling Shuangqi stared at Xingguang for a while, her eyes were straight, and Xingguang was a little hairy.

Xingguang said wholeheartedly, Ling Shuangqi must be a mad scientist.

“Your Ultraman’s body is really amazing. When I was holding you, your weight was much lighter than I thought. Aren’t you Ultramans all measured in 10,000 tons? Why? Your human experience is so light, where did the weight go?”
Ling Shuangqi didn’t answer, instead she threw a few questions.

But soon, she also realized that now is not the time to ask.

So, she introduced herself, “Since I already know your true identity, you should know mine too, that’s fair. I’m the cloned Lilith’s spare container number seventy-seven, or I’m Seventy-seventh spare Ayanami.”

“Ayanami?”

Many people may not have seen Eva, but they have heard of Ayanami Rei.

The same is true for Xingguangyi, he has not seen eva, but he knows all the characters in it.

“It’s not very accurate to say that I am Ayanami, I don’t have Lilith’s soul, I’m just a body, but for some reason, I gave birth to a new soul, a soul that does not belong to Lilith, and then I suddenly came into this world.”
