Chapter 11 Kiss

Max went to his room after talking with Emily.

'Let's first get a nice bath until Lilly comes.' His body was exhausted and he had sweated a lot by all the running around and watching those terrifying beasts up close. Thus, He decided to take a bath to clean himself and to relax his body.

Following this, he had a nice, long hot bath. His body was relaxed by the hot water.

'After a day of hard work, a hot bath is a must. I feel very relaxed and refreshed.' He mused. Although he didn't do any hard work but he was still spent.

He donned a robe and laid on the bed, waiting for Lilly to come.

After a while, Lilly came with a plate of food. She was wearing her usual maid dress. But with Her attractive face, her pink lips, her ample breasts and curvaceous figure she looked very beautiful and sexy.

Max just stared at her for a few moments. He snapped out of his daze when he heard her sweet voice "Young master, I've brought you your meal."

"Oh! Good, come put it on the bed. Today I'll eat here and go close the doors." He ordered her calmly while controlling his surging lust.

Lilly brought the meal to his bed after closing the door behind her.

"Come sit! Let's eat together!" Max took her hand and made her sit beside him. She was startled by his sudden action but didn't resist and sat down.

Lilly didn't hesitate and started eating with him. She knew he would insist. She also liked her young master and didn't want to make him upset due to these small things. Moreover, she too wanted to spend time with him, as he was the one who cared about her and he indirectly accepted her as his woman.

"Lilly, Tell me something! Were you not scared by the beasts today? I'm curious as to why you didn't show any sign of fear?" Max asked her while eating. On their journey to the forest and hunt, he was paying attention to every one of their expression and how they reacted in different situations.

When that Red hawk attacked them. Everyone was anxious and afraid due to encountering a dangerous beast but Emily and Lilly weren't. In the case of Emily, you can say she, as a top star mage, was confident in her strength but Lilly? She was just his maid, right? Who didn't have any experience of fighting beasts and most likely was as weak as him.

"Y-Young master, I..." Caught unawares by the sudden question, Lilly didn't know how to respond. She had a strange expression, mixed with sadness, guilt, and a little excitement.

"It's okay if you are not comfortable sharing it with me. I understand." Max said while looking into her beautiful eyes.

Lilly averted her gaze and looked down. She then said with a complicated expression "Young master, I think I'm also a mage like Miss Emily."

"Ohh! That's good then. Why are you hiding it? it's something you should be proud of right!" Max said. At the same time, he was cursing himself 'Why I'm the only one who is not a mage?'

"It's because no one knows in the family and if they were to find out, they would be suspicious of my identity as to why a commoner like me can use magic and I heard that nobles don't like their servants to be strong." Lilly explained in a weak voice.

"Ehh? That was why you were hesitating. I told you before that you belong to me, not anyone else. I won't let anyone say or do anything to you no matter what..." Max tried to console when she interrupted him.

"Young master, That's... That's not all why I was hesitating." Emily said.

"Ohh? What is it?" Max asked curiously.

"I... I used to read your books when you were sleeping or busy with something else. From them, I learned how to use magic and some basic spells. I thought you would be angry at me for touching your books as you told me not to touch them."

"I see! So you secretly used my books to learn magic when I forbade you from touching them." Max said in a strange tone while deep in thought.

Lilly was frightened by his change of tone. She thought he was angry at her. Max on other hand was thinking something entirely different.

'From what Emily told me. Among commoners rarely any can use magic and even if they are capable of using it there is a very slim chance for them to become a powerful mage.

And From what Lilly said, she can use magic and she thinks she is strong enough to compare herself with Emily.

But that's not important. According to what she said, she only learned magic from my books. For Real? How much talent does a person need to do the same thing?'

Max collected his thoughts and smiled "You don't need to worry about these things. As for noble families not liking their servants being strong? You don't worry about it. As I said before You are my woman from now on and only belong to me. No one can order you or expel you from family."

Hearing that she was his woman, Lilly was relieved and felt warmth in her heart. He was now accepting her as his woman. Although she knew he only meant it as a mistress but she was satisfied by it as long as she could be with him.

"Thank you, young master! I'll serve you to the best of my abilities." Lilly thanked him emotionally.

After eating their meal they were sitting in the bed, talking.

Max who has been curbing his lust till now, was unable to do so anymore after inhaling her womanly scent and seeing a girl more beautiful than his previous life crush.

He suddenly held her hand which was as smooth as delicate jade. Then he brought his other hand to her face and started caressing her supple cheek.

He then put his index finger on her lower lip. Feeling the smoothness of it, his breathing quickened in excitement as this was his first time touching a girl like that.

Unable to control himself, he put his lips on her soft and juicy lips and started to kiss her lips slowly. He would kiss one lip at a time, sometimes he would lick her lips.

[Lust...

Meanwhile, Lust points keep adding.

"Lilly, do you like it when I do this?" He whispered while blowing hot breath in her ear.

Lilly was also breathing heavily. She said softly "Ye-Yes! I like it, Young master."

Hearing her ragged voice. Max was aroused even more. He moved her body and made her sit in his lap while facing him.

He gently supported her head with his right hand while he grabbed her slim waist with his left hand and went for a deep French kiss.

Chapter 12 So Soft And Fluffy (R-18)

He put his lips on hers and started to kiss and suck on them. Lilly was no longer acting passively. She also clumsily started to respond to his kisses.

[Lust point +5]

[Lust point...

As they kept kissing, he occasionally kept getting more lust points.

This was their first time to do this and both were inexperienced but soon they lost themselves to the heavenly pleasure.

After savouring the taste and sensation of her soft and fragrant lips, Max gently pushed open her little mouth using his tongue and put it in her mouth.

His tongue snaked its way in to find hers and intertwined with it and started to suck on it. Lilly was shocked by his move. As it was something she didn't expect.

She tried to resist as it was something she didn't know he would do. After a few moments, she stopped resisting and surrendered herself to the pleasure that she started to feel for the first time in her life and let him do what he wanted.

As Max didn't have any experience in kissing, his movements were awkward at the start but Lilly didn't seem to hate it, so he was a little more confident and focused on enjoying himself.

Unlike on Earth, In this world population of women is many times more than men. This is because women are more gifted in sensing Mana and Many powerful mages are women.

Although Men also become great mages but their chances are still less than women. Due to this situation, Everyone wants to give birth to daughters entirely different to the situation on earth.

Many kingdoms and noble families have women at their helm. But not every woman is a strong mage and men to show their superiority over women marry many wives. But only strong mages are able to do that if you are not strong enough to 'subdue' a woman, you can't hope to build a harem.

This was the reason why Max wanted to be skilled in the way of pleasing women. This is the reason why he didn't rush like a starving wolf but kissed and caressed her gently to not let her feel uncomfortable.

After kissing for many minutes continuously, he broke the kiss to let her breathe. They both were breathing heavily.

Lilly's face, ears and neck were all rosy. From her face, he could easily tell that she also enjoyed herself.

"Lilly! How does it feel doing this? You like it?" Max asked while hugging her.

"Mmm, I think I like it young master. I've never felt...something like this." Lilly said and burrowed her face in his chest embarrassingly.

"Ohh! It means you have never done this before but you knew what is it?." Max teased her upon seeing her expression. He knew she had not done it but after seeing her adorable expression, he couldn't help but tease her.

"Hmm, I've never done it but I heard other maids saying that it was something pleasurable. They tried to introduce me to some knights but I didn't want to let anyone touch my body." She replied weakly.

"Then why did you allow me to?" Max put his hands on her cheeks and held her face in front of him then gave her a peck on the lips and asked while looking into her doll-like clear eyes.

"This... This is because young master always treated me very well and it was young master who got me out of the slavery and I...I think I also I-like young master. If it is for the young master, I can do anything." Lilly said while trying to the side but as Max was holding her face in his hands she had looked into his Sapphire eyes and his handsome face.

Although Max has already guessed that she liked him. But when she confessed to him, he felt very elated in his heart. It was the first time someone confessed to him.

"I too like you, my sweet Lilly. I'm happy that you also like me." He smilingly said.

"Is it... is it true young master? You also like me?" Lilly asked stunned. Her eyes turned moist hearing that and tears started flowing down her cheeks.

"Yes, I also like you. How can I not like you when my Lilly is so sweet and beautiful, but why are crying now? Do you not want me to like you?" He wiped her tears and showed a beautiful smile.

Lilly nodded heavily and said "Yes I want young master to like me. It's just that I'm so happy that young master also likes me."

"Good! Here, let me give you one more kiss." Max said as he embraced her in a tight hug and started kissing her again. He passionately kissed her while Lilly also started responding.

In a few minutes, they were panting again. Max's little brother who was now hard as a rock was trying to pierce through her gown.

He laid her on the bed and came onto her. He then started kissing her nape, biting her earlobes while he put his hands on her breasts. He started fondling them while kissing her now and then.

"Mmmh!...Ahh!..."

Lilly who was feeling herself getting lost to his touch let out a few moans of pleasure.

Hearing her moans he started pinching her erect nipples.

"Ahh...ohh...hmm!..."

Lilly closed her eyes and kept moaning.

Max then grabbed her top and tried to take it off but wasn't able to as she was still laying on the bed.

Seeing this Lilly blushed red. She then sat up and took it off by herself, presenting him with two beautiful looking round and plump boobs. They were not too big but were not small either. They were completely white as if someone has poured milk on them with two crimson colour little buds, which were erect now.

Max directly went and groped her boobs with one hand each. He was unable to grope them in one hand. He started squeezing them and then brought his face close to one of them and licked her nipple and started to suck on it while he kept rubbing her other breast.

[Lust points +10]

'Oh? For groping and sucking on breasts I got 10 lust points. Not bad! but I should focus on what's important right now. I'll check them later.' Thinking that he ignored how many lust points he got.

"Ahh...Mmm..."

Lilly moaned a little louder when he suddenly started groping, licking and sucking them.

"They are so soft and fluffy. I love them." He unconsciously blurted out.

Hearing his comment, she blushed while she felt happy that he liked her breasts. Any woman would want a man to appreciate her body, her appearance and Lilly wasn't an exception to that.

Chapter 13 Unbearable Pain (R-18)

Max kissed and caressed her two jugs of milk. He then went down while kissing and caressing her torso, to which Lilly responded erotically.

He then poked his tongue in her navel and started caressing it slowly and used a little force so she could feel it.

"Unn...young master...not there...it...feels funny...it tingles...ahh...mm..." Lilly's body shivered and she completed her sentence in between her moans.

'It's her sensitive spot huh.' Max thought and continued playing with it using his tongue. He would occasionally blow on it and because her navel was wet with his saliva, she would feel chills in that area.

After teasing her for a while, He put his right hand under her gown and undies to explore her sacred area.

"Ohh!"

"Mmmh!..."

Max and Lilly exclaimed simultaneously. Max because when he didn't feel any pubic hair on her lower torso. Lilly on the other hand, Moaned when she felt his hand reaching out to her nether regions.

"Lilly!" Max called out in a low whisper.

Lilly who was lost in pleasure responded with a nod "Yes young master?"

"Did you clean your hair down here knowing that I would do this with you or...?" Max was speaking when she interrupted him while pouting which made her look cute.

"It's not what young master thinks it is. I like to keep myself clean and don't like any hair th-there." She then added in a weak voice "Does young master like girls who have hair around that...that place?"

Max shook his head and grinned "No! I like the girls who don't have any hair and keep their bodies clean. And most importantly I live my cute Lilly."

Hearing this a smile blossomed on her lips.

Max started to rub her 'vertical lips' gently. But he was again surprised when he felt sticky liquid on his fingers.

'She is already wet from the kissing and caressing earlier.' Max thought as a proud smile appeared on his face. He then started to rub her outer labia and clitoris, making her moan non-stop.

He pulled her gown together with her underwear down from her waist and took it off in one go and threw it away.

"Young master don't look." She panicked when she realised that she was lying naked in front of him.

Lilly was stunned silly at the moment who finally reacted and closed her legs tightly while she put her hands above her naked pussy to cover it. She was embarrassed to show her naked body to him.

Max, after seeing her naked body which was stunningly glamorous as if God himself has sculpted her figure, was mesmerised by her beauty.

She looked just like a fairy while laying there naked. Her jade white skin was glistening in his eyes. Her slender long legs coupled with her soft and plump breasts, her slim figure, her pink lips and beautiful eyes, everything made her look stunning.

Max just wanted to pounce on her and have sex with her crazily but he refrained from doing so because that would make her uncomfortable.

Although he successfully held himself back, His cock on the other hand was about to explode. A bulge in his loose robe was visible for her to see.

He kissed on her hands and then guided her hands out of the way to let him see his first, real-life pussy.

In his previous life, he only saw pussies in porn or sex manhuas as he never had a girlfriend. Now It was his first time to see it. He and his cock both were getting out of control.

As he moved her hands away and opened her legs, he was presented with her pink glamorous flower. He was mesmerised by it. He reflexively went down and kissed it.

"Haah...Mmm..."

Lilly moaned as he kissed her little flower.

He then went and kissed her lips and fondled her breasts to let her calm down and overcome her embarrassment a little. No matter what, it was also her first time and she was also very nervous.

After a few minutes, he rubbed her clitoris with his index and middle fingers. After making sure that her body was not much tensed anymore he let his index finger dive into her sacred cave.

"Ahhh!..."

Lilly let out a loud moan. Her pussy reflexively clenched on his finger. He could feel her pussy tightening around it as if it was resisting it from entering deeper.

Max stay put for a few moments then started moving his finger in and out of her pussy slowly. Her juices were overflowing.

After a while, he put one more finger. Lilly suddenly tightened her vagina again and shouted out.

"Young master...It feels weird. Something...something is coming out...ahh...oh...it's cominggg...." Her eyes glazed over in the sensation.

She then cummed uncontrollably, her sweet nectar flowed out like a dam being released. His hand was wet in her juices.

He disrobed himself and smeared her fluids on his rock hard cock to make it wet and rubbed it on her vaginal entrance a few times.

Lilly came to her senses and when she felt him rubbing his big and thick cock on her pussy. She screamed "Young...young master, It won't fit. It will kill me. It's hugeeee...Ahhh"

Her scream was cut short when without warning he pushed the tip of his cock into her virgin pussy.

"Ohh!"

Max exclaimed in pleasure after the tip of his cock went into her wet and warm pussy. He closed his eyes to feel it.

After staying still for a moment he leaned over and whispered in her ears "It will hurt for a few moments, bear it okay." Saying this he planted his lips on hers to stop her from making any loud sound and rammed his cock inside her pussy with a thrust.

[Note: As they live in a mansion. It has thick walls, therefore, rooms are 'almost' soundproof. So no one can hear them while they engage in their activities. I thought you guys would wonder so I put this note here. Lol!]

"Mmmm....!"

Lilly let out a muffled scream in his mouth as he was kissing her. He didn't move. He kissed her and with his left hand started stimulating her clitoris in the hope to divert her mind from the pain.

[Ding. First Successful penetration]

[Ding. +1000 Lust points]

"Huff...huff...huff...Gasp!"

Lilly's breathing was rough. She was feeling searing pain in her pussy. 'Young master said it would hurt but he didn't tell me it would hurt this much.' Lilly thought.

Little did she know that Max was also surprised at how much pain she was feeling. He heard from his friends and saw in movies that first times are usually painful for girls but they soon start to feel good. In Lilly's case, it was clearly not the same.

The reason being, Lilly never touched herself so her muscles were still stiff down there and when she trained to become a mage, mana strengthened her body at the same time, her vaginal muscles and hymen were also strengthened.

On top of that, his thing was also abnormally thick and huge. So when he forcefully broke her hymen and reached her cervix, she felt a lot of pain in the process.

After a few minutes, her breathing became normal and because Max didn't stop caressing her breasts and occasionally teased her clitoris, she also started to feel good.

"Lilly, Are you okay now?" Max asked her, concerned. He, in the heat of the moment, forgot to control himself and thought that she might be hurt because of it.

Chapter 14 It Was Incredible (R-18)

"Yeah, I'm fine now, Young master." Lilly said averting her eyes and looking to the side.

Hearing her say that and her cute reaction reassured him a little but he didn't start moving.

He leaned forward kissed her on the neck. Then he made her look into his eyes and went for a deep, passionate kiss. While he kept his hands busy by squeezing her breasts with his left hand, simultaneously he pinched one of her nipples.

Lilly quivered a little. Max continued his kiss. Lilly now started to feel good too. Until now Max was the one who was sucking her tongue and lips but now Lilly tried to do the same.

Unexpectedly, She felt it more when she actively did that and Max also seemed to like it.

A little while after she lost herself in pleasure, she felt his thing twitching inside her as her pain was now gone. She knew that her young master was not moving down there because he was waiting for her pain to subside.

As She had a basic understanding of sex because her fellow maids, when together sometime talk about their sexual experiences. Thus she knew that a male's penis would go in and out for a prolonged period to complete this process and feel good.

She broke the kiss and murmured in a low voice "Young master... It's not hurting anymore. You can start doing what you want." Her voice was barely audible but as Max's face was only an inch away from her heard clearly.

He showed her a bright smile and gave her another peck on the lips and said "Okay!"

Max who got the green signal to go ahead didn't wait for another moment as he was already rock hard inside her.

He slowly pulled out until only his glans were inside and then shoved in again. Like this, he started the piston movement at a slow speed.

"Ohh...ahh...umm..."

Lilly started moaning and Max also let out a few groans because he was feeling the pleasure he couldn't until now. It was a wonderful feeling. He could feel his melting inside her due to the unimaginable pleasure.

While thrusting his cock in and out of her pink flower, he had a contented smile on his face because finally, he had eaten the forbidden fruit of pleasure.

Lilly was also moaning in pleasure. She clearly could feel his thick cock exploring the depths of her pussy.

Until now she didn't believe that this activity which she thought was only for reproducing could give such pleasure. She had her eyes closed and she unconsciously started to squeeze his cock as if she didn't want it to go out of her.

"Ohhh..."

Max groaned in pleasure when her vagina started to wrap around his dick and put more pressure on it. When Her pussy which was already very tight now started squeezing him, he felt like he was going to cum right away.

He stopped moving and pulled his cock out. He started to kiss and squeezed her boobs aggressively because he was too excited to treat her fluffy buns gently.

"Ahh...nnnn....ohh...haah..."

Lilly's moans reverberated in the room which made Max even more excited knowing that she was also feeling it.

He then sat on his knees between her legs and held her hips a little high with his hands so that he could easily thrust into her.

He rubbed his dick on her wet pussy and then in one thrust, he shoved it inside her.

Lilly moaned loudly. Unlike before, he started ramming his dick inside her harder and faster.

"Ohhh...young...master...ahh...slow...ahhh..."

Lilly's moans became louder. She was going wild by his sudden increase of speed and he was going deeper in this position. Her saliva was dripping down from her mouth and her tongue was hanging out.

Shlick Shlick

Max didn't hear her plea and continued thrusting hard. The slapping sounds, when her hips and his thighs were colliding crazily, were reverberating in the room like heavenly music.

...

...

"Young masterrr... it's cominggg out again.." Lilly shouted amidst her moans.

Hearing that she was cumming, Max also let out his load inside her. They both orgasmed simultaneously. They were in that position for a few minutes and Their juices were overflowing.

"Haa...haa...haa.." Max and Lilly breathed heavily.

Max relinquished his hold on her and let her body fall on the soft bed. After cumming max pulled his cock out and their juices flooded out. He laid on his back beside her, breathing heavily.

...

...

"It was incredible!" Max exclaimed. He was grinning from ear to ear. His long-awaited wish was finally complete.

He lost his virginity to a girl of his liking and on top of that, she was also a virgin. In his previous life, this feat would've been impossible as no one would leave a beauty like her alone. Even talking to her would've been next to impossible with his previous pathetic self.

Although for now, he was almost the same but because of his predecessor's good karma, he was able to claim Lilly for himself.

"How was it, Lilly?" Max turned his face to look at her. Somehow she was looking even more beautiful in his eyes now.

"It was very painful at the start but it felt really good in the end." She shyly spoke. Max was entranced by her bashful appearance. His rod was again hard.

He cupped her face and kissed on her lips. "Let's go for another round. Shall we?"

Without waiting for her reply, he grabbed her thin waist and made her sit on top of him.

"Ahhh!"

Lilly let out a surprised yelp but didn't resist and smiled coyly.

Max put his cock in her pussy easily. It felt good for both of them as it was still wet from their combined love juices.

Max grabbed her waist to move her up and down but after a few moments, he was unable to. But he didn't want to show her how weak he was thus he let her lie down and started pistoning again.

As they started their next round of lovemaking. Lilly's moans and the slapping sound of their flesh once again resounded in the room.

Chapter 15 Level Up

"Haah!...haa...haa.."

A skinny but handsome boy was breathing heavily while lying on top of a girl. Both were naked. The girl also has a top-notch figure, a beautiful face. A sweet smile was currently gracing her attractive face.

Similarly, The girl was a little out of breath but not like the boy who looked completely spent.

Yes. They were Max and Lilly who just finished their second round of steamy sex.

Max as weak he was, completely outdone himself in the heat of lust but now was about to pass out.

[Ding. +1000 Lust points]

"Hehe, I loved it, Lilly. Did you feel g..." In midst of his sentence he lost consciousness.

Lilly gazed at his blissful smile and was happy in her heart that she was able to make him happy. She let him sleep on top of her and embraced him with both of her hands.

"Yeah, I also loved it. Young master! Just like I love you..." She whispered and closed her eyes. Her heart was beating faster for some inexplicable reason and she was genuinely happy at this moment.

After sleeping for more than two hours, Max woke up. He woke up in a beauty's embrace. She was sleeping soundly with a smile on her lips.

Max gazed at her beautiful sleeping face for some time and mumbled to himself "Although you've had a life of slave than a maid. I'll take care of you as my first woman in this world. I'll make sure to keep you happy."

He moved his body away and lay on her side and covered her with a blanket.

Phew!

He let out a deep breath. After staying still for half an hour he calmed his excited heart. He then walked to the bathroom to take a bath as his body was too sweaty.

When he came out Lilly was awake too. Max smiled at her and kissed her.

"Go and take a bath. It's almost dinner time." Max said and sat on the bed.

Lilly nodded and limply walked to the bathroom. It seemed she was weak in the legs after their session.

"Let's see how many LPs I have now."

Max opened his status screen to check how many lust points he has accumulated. Lust points were his way to improve himself and become strong after all, he could not always leach off of his family.

[Name: Maxwell Garfield

Age: 18

Strength: 3

Agility: 1

Stamina: 2

Vitality: 5

Intelligence: 15

Mana: 1

Lust Points: 3365]

"Ohh?" He was pleasantly surprised by the number of his Lust points.

"How should I distribute them?" He pondered for a bit then started tapping on the screen. Ten lust points can be converted into one attribute point until it reaches the maximum of ten points. Thus, He levelled his all attributes up to 10 first.

The moment he got them to 10 he could hear faint crackling sounds and a sharp pain tore through his body. In a few seconds, he was drenched in cold sweat all over.

"Ahhhhhh!"

He shrieked in pain. It was intolerable for him. He grounded his teeth so tightly that it felt like they were going to shatter.

After a few more seconds, the pain subsided and he again fell unconscious.

Almost 20 minutes later he open his eyes. Lilly was sitting beside him, wearing an anxious expression. When he opened his eyes, she finally sighed a sigh of relief.

"Young master are you okay? What happened? Why did you scream and fall unconscious again? Should I bring some medicine for you?" In one breath she asked so many questions that Max didn't know whether to breathe or answer her questions first.

He waved his hand and got out of the bed. "I'm completely fine. As a matter of fact, I have never felt this better before." Max said while examining his body. Lilly blushed thinking that he was referring to 'that'.

His body was not skinny anymore and he was not feeling any weakness in his body. He assessed himself to be comparable to any normal human of his age. His body had developed a layer of muscles. He was even more handsome and fit. He could now feel a different type of energy flowing through him. It was mana.

Although there wasn't much change to his outer appearance if he were to wear to cover his body. But as he was still naked Lilly noticed this change clearly and was shocked by his sudden transformation.

"This... young master how did you improve all of a sudden?" Lilly couldn't help but ask. Although there were some medicine and high levelled magic that can improve a person in many ways in a short period of time. But his young master hadn't used either. So it was perplexing for her a little.

"Ohh... This?" Max wasn't sure if he should tell her about his system, so he thought of something and grinned "This is because of what we just did. It gave me quite a few benefits. I think we should do it again hehe."

Lilly got flustered and hurriedly waved her hands in panic "N-No young master. We can't do that now. It's time for your family dinner."

Max laughed at this. Most likely she didn't even know what her words implied but he was happy that she was behaving more like a friend with him.

"Yeah! Yeah! I know. I'm going to the training hall for a bit. You should rest here until you can walk properly. Haha." Max laughed and quickly get dressed and got out of the room.

He wanted to test and get used to his new strength a little lest he made everyone suspicious of him.

He strolled through the hallways with his hands behind his back. He had a little problem walking because of the sudden increase in his attributes which was why he was trying to get familiar with it.

Strength is something you accumulate gradually over a period of time. If you have a sudden boost just like he has now, you would most likely trip on your feet even while walking and won't be able to do normal activities.

Strongest Mage with the Lust system #Chapter 16 Training Hall - Read Strongest Mage with the Lust system Chapter 16 Training Hall

Chapter 16 Training Hall

Max strode toward the outer part of the Garfield Manor. As it was the residence of a Viscount, it was very big. It has a big and grandiose residence where the Garfield family lived, Quarters of Knights, Guards and Maids, gardens with trees of different kinds and many more facilities.

The training hall was one such facility. It was where knights and guards trained in the morning. Until the previous owner of the body hadn't known that his aptitude was too bad, he also used to train here.

Therefore it has been a few years since he last visited the place. He spent almost all of his time in the library reading books or in his garden taking care of the plants and flowers he planted.

Thus, Everyone was very surprised to see him see going into the training hall, moreover at this time.

"My lord!" A sound could be heard from outside of Viscount Ashton's study.

"Come in" An indifferent command sounded.

A middle-aged man who looked to be in his forties came inside. He was wearing black long pants and a white shirt with a black necktie. He bowed in front of Ashton Garfield in a submissive greeting.

"What is it, George?" He was the Butler of Garfield manor, George.

"My lord! Young master Maxwell was seen going in the training hall. I think young master wants to train himself." He said in a little excited tone which was unlike his character because he was usually strict and stern and didn't show any emotion on his face easily.

Ashton who was still busily looking at some documents suddenly stopped. "Really?"

He was pleased hearing this. His most beloved son, Max, had lost his confidence in himself when he came to know that his talent wasn't any good and stopped training altogether.

He as his father was always worried for his son. If only Max tried to work a little hard, he could help him become at least a two-star mage through his resources but Max didn't show any interest so he too was helpless.

So it was good news that he again visited the training hall.

"I just hope that he doesn't lose the will to become stronger. The world is not peaceful anymore." He mumbled to himself.

...

It was quite a big circular building which had a huge hall and various types of equipment were placed here and there.

When he entered the hall, the keeper of the hall who had the duty to take care of the training hall and was a two-star mage, came forward to greet him.

"Good evening young master. How come you are here at this time? Do you need something?" He greeted him curtly and inquired.

"Good evening elder. It's nothing. I just came to do some exercises. You continue doing your thing. Don't mind me." Max also greeted him and waved his hand as if he was some fly. He behaved this way because he could clearly see that he has no respect for him, so why should he show him.

When his so-called best friend made fun of his feelings by doing what he did just before he died. He instantly knew that all the time he treated him as his best friend, he never did the same.

His usual remarks which he used to dismiss as jokes were in fact his ridicule. He now decided to treat everyone based on how they would treat him. For example Lilly. She had shown him utmost care and a distinct feeling of love. Therefore he decided to treat her with love and care.

The elder was dumbfounded by this. It was because Max has never dared speak like this to anyone and would usually keep quiet and ignore even when someone mocked him, But he quickly collected himself and excused himself.

Looking at him swagger forward like he was the king of some kind the elder muttered under his breath "What attitude for a piece of trash!" he scoffed and busied himself and no longer paid any attention to him.

Max stretched his body for a few minutes to get better control of his movements and then went to lift some weight. He wanted to check his strength because a while back he wasn't even able to lift Lilly for a while when doing pleasure exercises.

There were different weights ranging from twenty pounds to two thousand pounds 'Can someone actually lift two thousand pounds?.' Max thought but he quickly shook his head with a very smile. Of course, they can lift more weight. Reason? This was not earth where mortals resided. This was a magical world and most likely everything possible here.

He straightened his back and squatted down to lift a fifty pound.

He lifted it with ease. He then proceeded to increase the weight and finally found his limit at one hundred and twenty pounds.

Phew!

He let out a deep breath. He was happy with the results as he thought it was quite good for an 18-year-old to be able to lift one hundred and twenty pounds. Moreover, he still had many lust points remaining. He can just increase his strength attribute some more if he needed.

He then tested his other attributes one by one. He did some speed drills to evaluate his agility, he ran at his full speed for a few minutes to check his stamina. As for his vitality, he could already feel himself a lot more healthy and energised than before. His skin which was sickly pale previously now had its paleness disappeared. His face also had a healthy glow.

After doing different kinds of exercises as tests, he finally concluded that now he was 'Normal'. Yeah normal! Although he was stronger, faster and healthier than when he woke up in this world, he was only comparable to a normal human being.

'For now, this is good. I should familiarise myself with my body first, after that I'll see slowly increase my attributes. Now... it's time to put all the remaining lust points into mana.' Max decided and opened his stat screen.

He then tapped on mana repeatedly and put more than half of the lust points into mana. When he tried to increase his other attributes by one or two points, he was startled as this required him to spend one hundred lust points just to increase one attribute point, therefore he decided to put all the remaining LPs into mana as it still needed only ten LP for one mana point.

In a few seconds, he was done. He could feel a mist-like substance swirling around him and entering his body out of nowhere. It was a nice and cool feeling. 'This is mana huh.' After no more mana was there he looked at his stat screen.

"Nice!" Max exclaimed after seeing his mana points increase by a lot. "With this much mana, I should be at least considered a novice mage right?" He pondered.

Chapter 17 Ridicule

As there was still some time until dinner, Max went to the library to learn more about mana and the requirements to become a novice mage, one-star mage, two-star mage etc.

He reached the library after walking for a few minutes. It was quite a big room that was used as a library. There were many shelves full of books. He went to the mage section which had most of the details known to the public.

He quickly skimmed through a few books and found what he was looking for. But he was surprised by a certain thing.

It was not because of what he read in the books but because he was able to read at all. He didn't have any memory of his predecessor thus it was perplexing that he could read their language.

'Now that I think about it, I shouldn't even understand what others were speaking but obviously, I can and speak this language too.' Max frowned and thought for a while but he couldn't find an answer. So he dismissed it as something related to his reincarnation.

...

Mage ranks were decided by many important factors. Having an adequate amount of mana was one of them. Although it is not something you can count. but same as water is also quantified in units.

Mana is the driving force of magic. Without enough mana, you can't hope to become a mage and can only become guards to some noble household or choose to be a non-magic class warrior or choose some blacksmith like occupation to make a living.

All in all, having mana is the most important thing to have if you want to be a strong mage.

A person was considered a novice mage when he or she has at least one hundred units of mana. Five hundred units of mana give you qualifications to be a one-star mage. one thousand units of mana, two-star mage. Ten thousand units make you eligible to be a three-star mage and so on.

'These mana units should be equivalent to my mana points.' Max thought and most likely this was the case.

'If this is the case, does that mean I'm more powerful than a novice mage?' He wondered pleasantly surprised by this thought. He had 308 mana points which meant he was only 192 away from being a one-star mage or at being eligible to.

"Let's go and have dinner with everyone. I will test my strength against Lilly tomorrow. I guess she is stronger than a one-star mage according to what she told me.

He then went out of the library and walked toward the dining hall.

...

When he reached the dining hall. There were Anna, Emily and two of his brother Noah and William with their wives Chloe and Eva sitting by their sides.

Seeing Max coming, Anna jovially waved her hand in greeting while blonde-haired cold beauty Emily slightly nodded her head. Max looked at the two of them in a daze for a second but quickly snapped out of it and waved his hand and smiled back in greeting.

"Oh, is that my worthless brother? It's very good to see you in high spirits just after you woke up from a deadly injury. It's very surprising though. I thought that for at least half a year I won't have to see this irritating face of yours." Suddenly his brother William spoke in a mocking tone.

Noah laughed and said, "It's true that useless people live a thousand years while heroes die early." Chloe his wife covered her mouth with one hand and giggled. While William and Eva also laughed.

Max looked at both of them calmly without saying anything but he had a cold look in his eyes.

Unlike Max, Anna erupted in anger after hearing their ridicule and pointed at Noah "Brother how can you say that to him. He is our brother. You shouldn't make fun of him just because he is weak. If you continue doing it I will tell father about it." Noah and Anna were from the same mother. Noah was 22 years old while Anna was 20.

Noah clicked his tongue in annoyance "What will you say to father? We only stated the truth. And why would you always cling to him, your talent will also be wasted if you keep him company."

"Yeah, Anna. You shouldn't stay close to the trash like him. Ha ha ha." William laughed.

"YOU..." Anna was boiling in anger to the point she couldn't speak.

"Enough! If you spout any nonsense I won't mind showing you how much of a trash you two are." Emily coldly interjected.

Max looked at his sisters who clearly cared about him. He felt warmth in his heart. It doesn't matter if he scumbags as brothers if he had someone who cared for him.

Noah and William laughed awkwardly and reluctantly stopped speaking. In front of Emily, they couldn't say much as she was already a two-star mage and they weren't worth much compared to her. However, an arrogant voice sounded out at this moment...

"Ohh, Why is my beloved little sister getting angry for a mere trash. What Noah and William said I very much agree to it." Max turned to see who was speaking in this way to Emily. It was Mark, eldest son of Ashton Garfield who same as Emily was a two-star mage.

Mark and Emily were from the same mother. He was a handsome man with blonde hair and a bulky body. He had two women in his left and right arms. They were his wives Lacey and Layla. Both of them had good figures and big buttocks which looked very sensual in the way they were moving when they walk. 'It seems he is into this type of girls huh.' Max inwardly licked his lips seeing their seductive figures. Although they weren't comparable to Lilly, Anna or Emily in beauty, they still were quite attractive.

"Do you want to fight me?" Emily glanced at him and spoke coldly.

"Hahaha, why would I want to fight my dear sister? But what they said was the truth, wasn't it?" Mark said with a smile but inwardly he was furious. 'This bitch. Just you wait. Soon enough I'll be the lord of the Garfield family. Then I'll show you that having superior talent doesn't mean shit.'

Mark was now 26 years old and he became a two-star mage just a year ago. It clearly shows that his talent is worse than Emily who became a mage at the age of 22. This was the reason he hated his sister.

After a while, his father with three beautiful mature women arrived and sat in their respective seats. Everyone present including Max greeted them.

Today Max noticed each one of them. One of the women who was blonde, was the mother of Mark and Emily, Esther. She has a similar temperament to Emily but she had a different charm to her.

Another woman who wore a gentle expression on her face was the mother of Anna and Noah, Amelia. His silky black hair Cascaded down like a waterfall. Her face was devoid of any blemish. She was quite opposite of Esther.

The third woman had a petite figure with big breasts and she was beautiful too. But other than this she had no striking features was considered normal compared to other women of the house. Her name was Mina.

Chapter 18 No Longer A Trash

After everyone was seated, Maids instantly brought the food to the table and served them.

Ashton spoke after they had started eating "Max, I heard you went to the training hall a while back. Do you... perhaps want to start training again?"

Everyone was silent after he stopped speaking and looked toward Max with different thoughts running through their mind.

"Yes, father. I want to train again." Max said after thinking for a while. Although his initial plan was to live a leisurely life but after knowing more about this world he changed it. Now he wants to enjoy while becoming strong. He didn't want anyone to mock him for being weak as he wasn't able to tolerate it.

"Good... good!" Ashton heavily nodded with a smile on his face.

"How about I assign some special body trainers to teach you. That way even without magic your body will get stronger and in the future when your body has strengthened to some degree and is capable to hold mana, I'll arrange for some mana elixirs for you. It can help you to sense mana better and increase it. Then you can..."

Ashton excitedly gave out his suggestions but before he could continue Max interrupted him.

"Father that won't be necessary. I'm able to sense mana and I think I'm able to fight novice mages now." Max said calmly but no was calm after hearing him. All of them had surprised expressions.

Before anyone could speak William burst out laughing "Hahaha, Since when did you become so delusional Max? Sense mana? Fight novice mages? You don't even have an ounce of mana and your affinity with mana is absolutely zero. Who are you kidding? Ha ha ha." Noah and Mark also wore mocking expressions.

Mina, William's mother glared at him to stop him from speaking further. Although what William said was rude and hateful but this was also true.

Anna, Emily and Ashton had pained expressions on their faces thinking that he was finally unable to bear the mockery of his siblings and to console himself made this story in his mind.

Looking at their expressions Max smiled wryly. Most probably they won't believe anything he said to convince them so he extended his hand, open his palm and closed his eyes.

Mana started to swirl around his palm and in the next moment, a transparent ball of mana was on his palm. This was what he learned from the library before 'How to gather mana for novices'. He just followed what he read and here we are. but as he wasn't any familiar with mana or any spell, tens of mana points were consumed in this small action. His breathing became a little forceful and beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

Everyone was dumbfounded by this turn of events. Ashton, Emily, Anna and others rubbed their eyes to see if it was an illusion but the mana ball was still there on his palm rotating.

William who was mocking him just now and Noah and Mark stared their eyes open wide.

William muttered "How... how is this possible? Weren't you just a useless trash? How can you?..."

Ashton quickly collected himself and burst out laughing loudly, Mana around him became restless "Hahahaha! Good... good... very good... my son isn't useless anymore. Hahaha Hannah our son isn't useless anymore." Tears trickled down from his eyes. He had never been so happy, he was now.

Anna was smiling happily and Emily also had a subtle smile on her lips.

It took some time for Ashton to calm down. He then looked at Max and said "Good son. Tell me how do you want to train or anything you need. I'll provide whatever you need."

Max pondered for a while. He didn't know anything as to how he should train so said "I don't know how should I proceed ahead, father. Maybe I should start by gaining better control over mana."

"It's fine. You can ask Emily or Anna to teach you that as they will stay here for a few more days before going to their academy and I'll try to help you personally when I have time." Ashton waved his hand and said while looking at Emily who nodded her head silently.

Anna also nodded her head happily "I'll help you, Max."

Max smiled at her. Although she was two years older than him, she behaved like a child in front of him.

While they discussed, Mark was gnashing his teeth silently. He didn't look happy at all. He has constipated look on his face. Noah and William also seemed unhappy.

...

After dinner, Max returned to his room. Lilly was not here so she must have returned to maid quarters.

'I'll have to arrange for her to live with me.' Max thought.

He lay in his bed thinking about all that happened in the two days since he woke up in this body and Slowly he fell asleep.

He woke up late in the morning, refreshed. He yawned while stretching his body a little then walked into the bathroom. After a while, he came out and get dressed. He didn't wear his usual robes but choose to wear pants and a full-sleeved shirt or at least it resembled them but it was very comfortable to move around in them and looked very good on him.

While he was getting ready, Lilly came into his room after knocking.

"Good morning young master!" She greeted him and stood a few feet away from him.

Max looked at her to see her beautiful and adorable face which had a shy smile adorning it. She stood still fidgeting about.

Max was amused to see her all shy. He then spoke, "Good morning Lilly! Did you sleep well?"

Lilly was surprised by his random question but answered "Yes young master!"

"Good. and are you alright? I mean you don't have any pain or some other problem because of what we did yesterday?" Max asked walking toward her and whispering the last sentence in her ear and inhaling her scent.

Lilly blushed furiously upon hearing his question. Just in a second, her breathing became ragged and her face flushed red.

"It...It doesn't h-hurt and I don't have any other problems also." She said visibly flustered.

Max chuckled and didn't tease her anymore. "Let's go and have breakfast. Today we have to work hard." He smiled and led her outside.

They had breakfast together at the dining table because no one was there except for them. Lilly kept refusing but Max insisted.

After that Max tried finding Emily but couldn't and ended up coming across Anna.

"Max, What are you doing here?"

"I was looking for..." Anna didn't let him complete his sentence and spoke excitedly.

"Oh, I know you were looking for me to help you learn fighting and become adept at using mana right?"

Looking at her expression Max didn't want to make her sad so he nodded which made her happier. She grabbed his hand and led him to the training hall.

Chapter 19 Training With Anna

They shortly arrived in the training hall. There were many guards and knights practising and sparring with one another.

"Greetings Young miss, Greetings Young master!"

"Greetings Young miss, Greetings Young master!"

"Greetings Young miss..."

" Greetings..."

Noticing them coming in, every guard and knight greeted them. Their gaze toward Anna was filled with reverence which confused Max a little. If this was Emily he would understand but Anna was only a one-star mage.

Thinking this Max asked Lilly in a whisper about this. Lilly looked at him as if he was a fool which in turn made him slightly embarrassed.

"Young master, you might think that becoming a one-star mage is quite easy right?" Lilly asked as if she already knew his answer.

"Mhm...!" Max nodded.

Lilly shook her head and continued "In reality, It is very difficult. Especially for commoners like me and these guards and knights who don't have any resources or status to get into any reputable academy to learn magic. Even for nobles, it is considerably difficult to become a one-star mage without many precious resources, right guidance and most importantly talent."

"You can become a novice mage easily through meditation or some sort of special exercises to sense and accumulate mana or eating mana rich food for a longer period of time as you only need to have 100 units of mana which the human body can contain easily.

But to become a one-star mage not only do you have to accumulate 500 units of mana inside your body which is a difficult task as the human body doesn't have this capacity. Thus you also have to compress it enough to liquefy it or in its normal form if someone tries to accumulate in their body they will simply explode. After mana becomes liquid you have to consciously make it flow inside your body to strengthen your body so that it can contain more mana.

"This is why countless people remain novice mage their entire life and that is also why people respect those who can become a one-star mage and that too in their early twenties which indicates the talent of a person." After hearing this he nodded in understanding.

'Does the same process apply to me or not?' Max wondered. After all, he has the lust system by which he can get stronger but he didn't know whether it will help also him do the said process or he will have to do it himself.

"Max, you said you can fight a novice mage right? How about we spar a little so that I can see how much efficiently you use your and gauge your control over it so that I can guide you properly." Anna spoke which made him come out of his daze.

"I don't think that's necessary because I don't have any control over mana and it took quite an effort for me to gather it around my palm when I demonstrated yesterday." Max smiled bitterly.

"Oh... Max, do you the know most efficient way to get better at sensing and controlling mana?" Anna asked, she had a completely different expression than her usual childish and happy go lucky attitude.

"No" Max replied without hesitation as he simply had no idea.

"It's to fight. Fight while using your mana consciously to be precise. It doesn't matter how you use it, Be it in spells or with weapons etc. When you fight your control gradually becomes better and as you have a limited amount of mana you learn how to use it efficiently." She replied while waving her little fists around.

"Is that so?" Max pondered and found her reasoning to be right. No matter what to want to learn. The fastest way is always to try it yourself so that you can know where you are making mistakes etc.

"Okay let me find a suitable opponent then." Max nodded and was about to turn towards the knights when Anna grabbed his hand.

"You don't have to look for anyone. I'll fight with you." She winked at him playfully.

"You? aren't you a one-star mage?" Max asked her warily. Given her playful nature, she might accidentally injure him which he didn't want.

Anna pouted her small pink lips "So what? I'll be careful not to hurt you. Don't you believe me that much?"

Seeing her behaviour he sighed and nodded "Alright."

"Yay! That's my sweet little Max." She instantly became energetic.

Max looked at her up and down and said in his mind 'Compared to you I'm indeed little, especially in some places. cough! cough!'

"First of all, try feeling mana inside your body at all times and when you start attacking use mana to boost your speed by focusing it on your feet or on your fists, on the weapon to make the attack stronger. It is important to..." Anna slowly explained what he had to do and what he should keep in mind.

"Okay enough with the explanation. Come let's fight now." She gestured for him with her fingers to come forward.

"Huu.."

Max took a deep breath while sensing the mana flowing inside of him. He tried to concentrate it below his feet and dashed toward her.

'Eh~'

He let out a surprised gasp in his head. By using mana to boost his strength required him to constantly focus on it which made him feel a headache but in return, he was almost two times faster than what he normally was.

'It really is magical.' He thought and simultaneously focused his mana on his fists which made him feel dizzy. He threw his fist at her chest. His punch seemed quite powerful but Anna gently sidestepped and dodged it with ease. Due to the fast speed and the strength behind his punch, he couldn't stop himself and crashed into the ground face first. Fortunately, the ground wasn't cemented or he would have lost a few teeth.

"Pffffttt~ "

Anna burst out laughing and some guards who stopped to watch their spar chuckled lightly so as not to let anyone hear it.

Max spit out dirt and rose from the ground. He had a serious look on his face.

"Hahaha, Max you need to familiarise yourself with the speed and power which you have after using mana first. Otherwise, you won't be able to properly use your power." Anna advised after seeing his expression.

Following this, they continued their 'spar' until Max was completely out of breath and collapsed on the ground but he had a satisfied smile on his face. He was starting to get used to mana and was becoming more proficient in using it.

Chapter 20 Magic Academy

Max trained with Anna for a few days. He could now control mana inside his body like any other person which surprised Anna and Lilly a bit as it was a very fast improvement at the same time they were happy too.

Emily also came during their training to give him some tips. Max was now skilled enough to fight a novice mage on equal footing and sometimes can even overpower them thanks to his high mana.

"You've improved very fast little Max. You have to train daily and accumulate more fighting experience. If in the future you came across some dangerous situation, you should know how to fight or your life might forfeit." Anna advised.

"What do you mean Anna? Aren't you here to train with me? You won't let me slack off anyway." Although Anna was gentle and cheerful by nature, she was very strict when it came to training. In these past few days, she didn't even let him sleep late in the morning which he wanted so badly and pointed out his mistakes every so often that max felt he won't be able to do this anymore.

Anna smiled "Ohh is my little Max still want to train with me?" She asked in a teasing tone.

Max smiled but didn't respond. He was well aware of her nature after spending a few days with her. If he said something which she didn't like she would immediately make a sad face which he didn't want.

"You should know that we were here for your birthday celebration which we weren't celebrating because certain someone was being a little too much brave and got seriously injured." She looked at him with a grin on her seemingly innocent face and added "Now we have to return to the academy therefore my little brother you will have to train on your own."

"Ohh!" Max exclaimed in surprise. He couldn't help but felt a little sad knowing he won't be able to see Her and Emily. After waking up in this world he became very close to Lilly, Anna and Emily. They were his only ones and who gave a damn about him, that is of course, except for his father.

"When are you going?" He asked, his mood turned slightly sour but he quickly regained his composure.

Anna noticed the slight change in his mood and joked "We will go tomorrow. It will take a few days to reach the academies and we only have 4-5 days until we have to report back. What? Don't tell me you can't bear to part with me. If you want to, you can join my Academy where we will be in touch." She winked and put her arm around his shoulder which made her look a little awkward as she was not as tall as Max.

He knew she wanted to cheer him up so he smiled at her and seriously thought about her casual words.

"How can I join your Academy?" He abruptly asked.

Anna looked at his serious face and couldn't help but smile wryly. She sighed "Our Academy recruits students every two years and coincidentally after two more months it will recruit again. But it isn't easy to get into our Academy. Our Cloud Academy is one of the top five magic academies of our kingdom. Therefore its requirements are very stringent too." She paused for a second then continued.

"First, you must be a one-star mage or you won't even be able to take part in the recruitment test. Second, you must have at least second-grade talent or affinity with mana. After that, you will be required to pass a test that is different every time. If you fulfil all conditions you can join our Academy."

"That's the case." Max nodded and thought for a while.

"How do I know the grade of my affinity with mana?" He asked.

Anna and Lilly looked at him strangely but Anna chose to answer him "You can just ask father to evaluate it for you." She then added, "But max you know that your affinity with mana is not... too good."

Max chuckled at this "You want to say that I have zero affinity for mana right?"

Anna nodded reluctantly. She was afraid he would get hurt if she told him directly but she didn't want him to get his hopes high in vain.

Max didn't feel bad, he just smiled a little and said "That was the case before. It is not the same anymore or how would I have become strong enough to beat a novice mage."

The realisation struck her after hearing his words although she was dazed by his beautiful smile for a moment. It was right. Before He wasn't even able to accumulate mana inside his body, much less become as strong as he was now. It must be that his affinity has increased. Her eyes shone brightly realising this. She jumped on him excitedly like a little kid and gave him a tight hug.

"Hehehe, You are right little Max. Sorry I didn't think that. Now you should have a chance as long as you become a one-star mage in two months." She giggled but after finishing her last sentence her laughter came to a stop. She looked at him with worry "But Max it isn't easy to become a one-star mage in such a short time."

Max seeing her expression change many times in a short time couldn't help but pinch her cheeks lovingly "It's okay. I'll figure out a way to do it."

"Ugh..." Anna looked at him indignantly, rubbing her baby cheeks.

Max wasn't even worried about becoming a one-star mage. He could just have a few more juicy sessions with Lilly and he would have enough mana to level up but the problem was he didn't know if the system will help him liquefy mana to strengthen his body as Lilly explained to him.

...

In the night after dinner, Anna gathered Max and Emily to chat for a while as she also want to spend more time with her brother and sister before parting ways.

They chatted while drinking wine which after a few glasses made the mood cheerful. Anna started telling them about her experiences in the academy and made jokes by which even Emily laughed.

They casually chatted about many things. Max came to know that Although Emily and Anna were going together. They were in different academies. Emily was in the Royal Academy which was ranked second in the whole kingdom. Royal Academy was run by the royal family of the Green leaf kingdom and they only accepted truly talented students.
