

Read Strongest Mage with the Lust system Chapter 121 Grouping (1)

Chapter 121 Grouping (1)

—Night time—

After Anna and Max returned to their room, Anna took a bath followed by Max. They then cultivated until night using mana stones. Although Max didn't want to do it as it won't provide him much benefit but Anna made him accompany her.

So he also tried but because he didn't have any cultivation technique, he wasn't able to cultivate. Therefore he only meditated.

After that Anna made dinner for them. They both ate while recounting their day to each other. Because Anna still haven't awakened her element, she is among the weaker outer disciples. So to increase her strength she has to focus on fighting skills.

She told him that, if any opponent in the same realm without using their elemental advantage were to fight her, she can easily defeat them in just a few moves because she has been focusing on skills rather than magic spells since young.

Skills and spells are often considered same but in reality they aren't. Skills are referred as the physical techniques which one can use without expanding their mana while magic spells use mana to operate.

Although magic spells are more powerful and destructive, physical skills are also considered an essential part of one's strength.

Physical skills are For example movement techniques, combat skills etc. When mastered to a certain level, they give an edge over your opponent in the same realm.

However due to the nature of magic, most people don't focus on these physical skills and only focus on magic spells as they gives their strength more boost than the skills where you need to train for extensive period of time.

However, after a long time, people realised that those who only rely on magic spells to get by are short lived compared those who have learnt physical skills.

For example if two One-star mages were to fight with same amount of Mana and similar magic spells, and if one among them has some physical skills, they would come out victorious.

Of course it was only true for mages weaker than three-star mage. However more than 80% people in this vast world, that is at least thousands of times bigger than earth, are weaker than three-star mages.

[A/N: Imagine this world's size is comparable to Jupiter]

After they ate dinner, both of them went and lay on the bed without any awkwardness unlike the day before.

Anna slept on other half of the bed but Max didn't sleep and instead opened his [Magic Spells] window and browsed through them.

He didn't look for any spell other than fire elemental spells. There were more than twenty fire elemental spells on the screen of different grades. There were 4 grade one spells, 3 grade two, 3 grade three and 2 grade four.

Surprisingly, the names of grade five, six, seven and eight spells were the same as those of lower graded spells however, there wasn't any grade nine fire elemental skill available.

"System, why are these lower grade spells are also in the higher grade and why isn't there a grade nine spell present?" Max asked the system.

[Host, the lower grade spells are the weak versions of the higher grade spells present. As for grade nine fire elemental spell, it's because only a supreme mage can create one and they don't share it with anyone other than their offsprings. So the creator of System wasn't able to put a grade nine spell here.] System replied in his mind.

"So if I unlock any one of these lower grade spells, I'll have to once again unlock their stronger versions when I need them to become stronger. If that's the case, shouldn't I directly unlock the higher grade ones?" Max asked.

[That won't benefit host in any way because host can't use higher grade spells before reaching the corresponding realm of strength.] System replied.

Hearing this, Max recalled that when Crimson monarch gave him his 'Crimson dragon spell', he also warned him not try to practice it before reaching at least four-star mage realm because he won't be able to use it and might explode.

"System, what do you mean by corresponding realm? What mage realm should I be in order to use a grade five spell?"

Although he asked this, he had a guess after seeing that there were one to grade nine and there were also nine mage realms, namely:

[one-star, two-star, three-star, four-star(Mortal boundary), five-star (marquis/Duke level), six-star (King mage), seven-star (Emperor mage), Monarch mage and finally Supreme mage. So these nine grade should corresponds to these nine mage realm.

[These grades corresponds to the mage realms, host.] System replied.

Max nodded, his conjecture was correct indeed. 'So these grades also should correspond to the current grades.'

After checking all spell names and unlocking prices, he sighed and closed the window. The cheapest spell that was a grade one, required ten thousand LPs to unlock.

'I won't be able to unlock any of them for a while. I should check out academy's library, they must have a decent fire elemental spell.' He decided.

Just as he wanted to sleep, Anna crawled toward him in her sleep and put her hand over his chest.

Max looked at her sleeping face and scooted closer to her and embraced her soft body.

"Un..." Anna made a light sound. Max thought she would wake up after feeling that he was hugging her and was about to let go. However, she put her head on his chest and continued sleeping peacefully.

Feeling her soft skin and smelling her enchanting scent, he was mesmerized. But he didn't do anything more and while hugging her, he also fell asleep.

—Next morning—

They both woke up in each other's embrace. Anna yawned and while rubbing her eyes, she looked up at him and said "Good morning Max."

"Good morning! How was your sleep?" He asked.

"Wonderful and yours?" Anna smiled.

"Mine too." As they had this small conversation, none of them felt awkward about the fact that they both were still in each other's embrace.

After a while, Anna finally said "You should get ready or you'll be for class."

"Yeah right." Then Max reluctantly stood up and went to freshen up and got ready. Meanwhile Anna prepared a breakfast for both of them. After Max came out, she also went and got ready before eating their breakfast together.

After that they went out. Anna once again headed toward the martial arena while Max headed toward the building where his class will be held.

When he reached the building, he was directed to an auditorium where many disciples were already sitting.

As he entered the auditorium, he instantly became focus of everyone's attention. After yesterday's performance where he easily beat Lacron who was as fast as lightening, most of them looked up to him while some wanted to surpass him.

However, Lacron flinched upon seeing him. He was afraid that Max would come after him. On the other hand, Bartan looked at him with a hint of murderous look in his eyes. Although he didn't have any personal enmity, his lord's enemy was his enemy.

Max wasn't bothered their gazes and scanned the auditorium from one end to another. When his gaze passed over the female disciples, many among would straighten their posture in order to look good. Haory looked at him with neutral gaze.

Flavia who was sitting in the back saw him looking around and when his eyes landed on her, she nodded at him. Max smiled and walked towards her and sat down beside her.

Chapter 122 Grouping (2)

While they greeted each other and did some small talk, rest of the disciples also arrived. After a while six elders in white also came and stood on the slightly raised platform before the whole class.

There were three female and three males among them. One of them was the elder who organised the fights yesterday and gave out library tokens. All of them looked slightly over thirty, however it was because of their cultivation, in reality they should be well over mid-thirties.

After seeing so many women, he realised that he hadn't seen a single ugly woman since he came to this world. Even in Maxwell's memories, he didn't find any women who could be considered ugly.

The elder from yesterday stepped forward and said "Disciples! These five elders and I will be taking charge of you inner disciples."

"Greetings elders!" Disciples said in unison while bowing their heads a little. Max also did the same.

The elders nodded before she continued "As I said yesterday, in your class, you've 320 disciples who will be divided in six sections."

She then pointed to another female elder who seemed a bit younger and said “Elder Laire will be taking charge of first section, I’ll be taking second section...” She then told which elder will be in charge of which section.

She then took out a large piece of paper and used her mana to hover it before the students. “Take a look at your names to find out which section are you in and report to your assigned elder.”

Flavia glanced at Max before searching for her name, she was in the second section. However, expression became a bit sad after not finding Max’s name among the names written in the second section.

She then searched for his name and found out that he was assigned to the fifth group under a male elder named, Jack.

Max also saw this and he couldn’t help but shake his head. If that elder put both of them in the same class that would have been best.

Seeing that Flavia was feeling a bit sad about it, he smiled. It seems the day wasn’t far...

He gently put his arm around her thin waist to test his luck. He was surprised how heavenly her slim waist felt in his arm.

Flavia yelped in surprise, she didn’t expect him to do something like this however, before she could say anything, Max said, making his voice as gentle as he possibly could “Don’t be sad. Like I said yesterday, I’m always here for you. Whenever you need me, you can come find me. Okay!”

Surprisingly, Apart from the initial quiver, Flavia didn’t say anything about the fact he had his arm around her waist and nodded while looking down “Okay.”

Because she was looking down, Max couldn’t see her face. If he could see it, he would find out that her face red like a peach. Her mind was focused on his hand that was holding her thin waist.

She hadn’t experienced what she was feeling right now before. No male had even touched her hand before (of course, except Max), let alone doing something as intimate as putting their arm around her waist. However, what surprised her was, she didn’t feel the rejection and discomfort she thought she would and what more she even liked it a bit which left her heart racing.

‘Why I am being like this around him? I should move his hand away and tell him not to do anything like this next time. But why I’m feeling embarrassed to see his face now. What is this feeling...’ These conflicted emotions made her frustrated. She wasn’t interested in romance even a bit like the girls of her age usually were.

She only wanted to improve her strength quickly and to not become her family's puppet and take revenge for her father's death. But she realised that whenever she was with him, the hatred she felt for her family and the disgust for Dalton and all her worries would lessen significantly.

She would even laugh sometimes which was incomprehensible for her. She would feel at peace and that's why she didn't want to separate from him.

However while she was feeling conflicted over what to do, Max took his hand back which wanted to feel the softness of her waist.

'Am I becoming more lustful because I haven't had sex for a while now?' Max thought while staring at his hand. He could even feel his 'little brother' become hard in excitement.

However his thoughts were interrupted by elder's voice.

"I assume all of you know which section are you in. Now those who are in the second section come with me." Saying this she walked out of the auditorium.

Flavia calmed down after Max took his hand back and the redness on her also lessened. She stood up, with her back facing Max and asked "Max, you won't forget your friend after not meeting for a while right?"

"Of course not." Max replied while shaking his. How could he forget her when he decided to make her his woman?

"Okay I'll be going now." She said and started walking down when she heard Max say "Okay, take care of yourself." Hearing this a beautiful smile appeared on her face as she felt happy.

The elder, Nena her name was, saw this and sighed.

After the second section had followed the elder Nena, rest of the sections also went out.

Fifth section in which Max was also headed out of the auditorium.

—In an open field—

Elder Jack, in charge of fifth section, brought them to an open area where many rocks of different sizes ranging from a fist size to a large boulder were scattered around.

He stood in front of fifty disciples and said "For one month I'll train you here and also teach you about outer world as much as you need to know. After that to give you some real experience, you will go out for adventure in the cloud mountain range below, where countless beasts reside. So to avoid death, you should train diligently"

After a pause he continued “Now, I want you guys to form ten groups of five disciples each. Note that this group will remain the same when you go down in the mountain range, so choose wisely.”

Everyone started forming group after elder Jack stopped speaking. Just as Max turned towards the disciples to ask if anyone was interested, he found a familiar figure standing in front of him.

“Can I join your group?” Haory asked. She was in the same group as him. So when elder told them to form groups she decided to ask him.

Max smiled “Of course, you can.” He also wanted to ask her because she was very strong and would prove to be useful when fighting in the mountain range.

“Okay, you can choose rest as you like.” She said and stood quietly beside him.

Max shook his head and noticed that around a dozen disciples were standing in front of him, looking at him with hopeful expression.

The thing to note was, almost all of them were girls. Seeing this, the male disciples in the section looked at him with envy and jealousy.

Chapter 123 Outing (1)

—One month later—

Max woke up in Anna’s embrace like usual. They treated it as something normal now. Unlike initial days where they would end up unintentionally in each other’s arms while sleeping, now they would hug each other before sleeping.

There was one time when Max returned late in the night because of training. He thought Anna would be sleeping but when he came back, she was waiting for him.

When he asked her why she didn’t sleep even though it was almost midnight, she pouted cutely and said while holding her hands towards him ‘I tried but without you being by my side, I couldn’t. Quickly eat your dinner and come here. I need to sleep.’ Max almost laughed seeing her act like a spoiled child.

“You finally woke up.” Anna who was staring at him while laying by his side said smiling.

“Hmm. Good morning” Max nodded while caressing her cheek.

Anna feigned anger and moved his hand away “I told you not to treat me like a child.” She then remembered something and said in a low voice “You should get up now, you are going to be late for your outing today.”

Max remembered that yesterday was the last day of their training and today will go for the 'adventure' in the mountain range elder Jack had mentioned.

Seeing that he was going to be late, he asked Anna with a small frown "Why didn't you wake me up earlier then?"

For the past month due to training he would exhaust himself daily and would sleep until late in the morning but Anna would wake him up on time because she considered this training period as the most valuable period. So it was strange now that she didn't wake him up.

Anna didn't look him in the eyes and her voice sounded a little sad as she said "Well, it's because you were too tired yesterday and it's going to be a while before you come back from the mountain range, so I thought I should let you sleep for a while more."

Max instantly understood what she meant after hearing her. Because he will be going down the mountain and would spend around a month fighting and hunting monsters there. So, she will be alone for a month and would miss him.

Moreover, she was also worried about his safety because many disciples would die during the outing period. So she wanted him to at least spend a bit more time in front of her eyes.

Realising this his gaze softened. He hugged her tightly and whispered in her ears "Don't worry, I'll be back soon and with elder Jack with us, we will be safe." Although he said this, he knew that only one elder won't be enough to keep an eye on 10 different groups.

She snuggled deeper in his arms and nodded "Un. But be extra careful okay. The beasts in the cloud mountain are stronger than average beasts because of the abundance of mana here. Don't let your guard down even for a moment."

"Okay my little princess." Max pinched her nose while laughing.

ov\xt.n&t

After that Max got ready and had breakfast with her. She also made more food for him and stored it in his spatial bag.

"Max I know you are strong but don't be careless okay. Please return s-" As Max was about to head out, she warned him again in a pleading voice. She didn't want something to happen to him.

When she went on outing the first time, even when they were in the lower fringes of the mountain range where only One-star and lower beasts reside, two of her teammates were killed and she was also injured after encountering an agility type beast. If not for her teammates using distress signal on time, they would have been killed too.

However before she could say anything more, she stopped because Max gave her a peck on her lips and said "Don't worry too much. I'll return safe and if haven't broken through to the Two-star realm by then, I'll help you. I'm going now. You too take care of yourself bye."

Saying what he wanted, he went out of the dorm, leaving Anna stunned. She touched her lips dazedly while her heart was beating like drums.

Even though they were intimate with each other and none who saw them would think that they weren't lovers, it was first time Max had done something like this. However she quickly came out of her daze and ran towards the door to bid him farewell but he had already disappeared.

...

After living with Anna for over a month, Max realised that he didn't thought of her as his sister, even though because of the influence of Maxwell's memories, he was protective of her but that sibling feeling wasn't There.

Whenever she would come out after taking a bath, he would find her very sensual and his body would react to her as it would toward any other woman.

When they hugged each other at night, he would find it almost impossible to stop himself from doing something inappropriate with her.

Therefore, today he finally gave in to his feelings and kissed her as a way of expressing his feelings to her. When he came back, if she didn't act differently, he would completely turn their relationship into one of a man and woman. That's why he said that he will help her breakthrough to the next realm if she couldn't do it by herself.

Max reached the stony place where they trained for the past month. The main part of their training was battle.

They had to fight a total of nineteen times a day. Ten group battles, where every group had to fight nine other groups while ten individual fights.

Elder Jack's reasoning was simple, only battles could improve your fighting capabilities and make you realise your weaknesses and strengths. He would also give pointers to them when he felt they needed them.

Their daily training didn't stop after fighting. The groups that lost more than five times were required to move 100 rocks that weighed from 2000-10000 pounds from one place to another in one mile distance as punishment. As for the rewards for the top five groups, they would only receive a nod from him. However, they would be satisfied by it because they would be relieved as long as they didn't have to move the rocks.

Although it sounded simple, in reality it wasn't simple at all. A mage with their strength attribute at 50 could only lift 2000+ pounds with difficulty and none had their strength attribute at 50. Of course Max had however, as he wasn't able to utilise his attributes' full potential initially, he also found it impossible.

Therefore, the only way was to lift them using their mana to enhance their strength or use their magic spells to assist them. But using mana constantly for a mile's distance while carry such heavy weight was next to impossible for Two-star mages like them, most of whom were only in the initial stage of the realm like Max.

When one time he came late was because they lost more than five group battles because Haory and one other member of their group were injured, so they had to move the rocks as punishment.

Chapter 124 Outing (2)

Noticing Max's arrival, his teammates who were all girls excitedly waved their hands at him. Of course Haory didn't react like rest of them and merely nodded at him.

"Hello Max, how are you?" Rima, one of his teammates greeted him and grabbed his hand. She looked to be around 22 years old and was a fair skinned girl with shoulder length auburn hair, brown eyes, seductive pink lips. Big breasts that seemed to be of B cup size and big round perky ass.

Although she wasn't as beautiful as the woman he is always around, she was still a woman who would turn heads with her seductive body. Most importantly she had hots for him and always had that look in her eyes that expressed her lust towards him. That's why he chose her to be in his group.

"Hello Rima. I'm good." After reluctantly shifting his gaze away from her body, he nodded and greeted her back.

Other two girls, also greeted him excitedly. One was same age as Rima named Belén while other one was only 19 years old petite girl named Leticia, who always had a smile on her face.

Both of them were also beautiful. Leticia gave off young girl's attractiveness while Belén gave off a mature woman's charm despite her young age.

Haory, however, despite being simple looking was actually more attractive in Max's eyes but she didn't seem interested in him like these three women which made his interest in her spike even more.

However these three weren't only beautiful but also quite strong. Rima had Sound element and had a skill that can make her enemy stun for a few second. That was enough for her to finish them off with any non-elemental spell and her physical strength was also good.

Belén had plant element. Therefore she would be at her strongest in forested region and Cloud mountain range was covered in forest.

However it didn't mean that she was weak where there weren't any plant for her to use. For that kind of situations, she would carry plant seeds.

Last was Leticia, she had wind element. Although she wasn't comparable to Lecron, her strength wasn't to be taken lightly.

One more thing was that among thirty plus woman in the section five, only dozen or so were interested in him, rest were like Haory who only looked at him silently.

Max thought it should have been because they were the daughters of higher level nobles or something making them too proud to approach him like others.

Swoosh

With a sudden gust of wind, Elder Jack appeared in front of everyone.

"Greetings elder Jack." Everyone greeted him in unison.

Elder Jack nodded and looked at everyone. Then he said "I hope you are ready for this adventure."

"Yes elder." Half of the voices were actually excited while rest of them only half-heartedly followed suit. Max was in first half though. He always wanted to experience new things but because his strength wasn't enough before he had to stay put. What a man needs in his life? They are sex, food and exciting adventures right.

Although this almost cost him his life when he took Lilly with him to the magical beast forest after becoming a novice mage. It was only because of dumb luck that silver fox either couldn't sense them due to the disturbance in the forest or wasn't interested in them or he would've died a second time.

"Good! Now let me explain a few things to you disciples." Elder Jack nodded in satisfaction by the response before continuing "The objective of this outing is for you guys to get some real life experience and learn to survive in dangerous situation. You'll be taken to the periphery of the middle area of any of the mountain where, the strongest beasts you'll find are peak of the Two-star realm.

However, none of you have possibility of survival against such beast, that's why you'll be going in groups of five. However you are still advised to run when encountering a peak Two-star agility or flying type beast as they are most dangerous ones."

He then stopped speaking to let the information sink in before continuing "You'll stay in the mountain range for one month. Each of your group is required to hunt 10 Two-star beasts and bring back their beast core. In exchange, you'll receive 1000 mana stones, 100 for each core. If you can bring more, more mana stones will be reward to you in the same ratio. If not, your monthly resources will be cut by half until."

"Now two important things to remember." Elder Zhan said as he took out ten talismans made from beast skin and gave one to each group and continued "First, you can send distress signal with the talisman I just gave you in case you find yourself in a life-threatening situation. However that'll also be considered as you failing this trial and your monthly resources will be cut by half. Second, don't feel complacent after using the distress signal as it'll take some time for help to reach your place in these vast forested mountains. So try to keep yourselves alive until then."

After elder Jack completed his explanation. Most of them had frowns on their faces. It was needless to say that they were worried about their possible deaths. However elder Jack didn't wait for them anymore and whistled.

Whossh

With a whooshing sound a white hawk landed by his side.

"Everyone it's time to set off." Saying this he jumped up and landed on top of the hawk and sat down, waiting for the disciples to climb up.

Haory gave Max a look before calmly climbing up. Seeing her more disciples' started to climb. Leticia had worried expression and was grabbing Rima's arm anxiously. Elder Jack's words frightened her.

Rima smiled at her and said "Don't worry, we will be fine with Haory, Belén and Max in our group." After saying this she whispered "Don't you want to impress Max, if you behave like a child he won't like you."

Hearing this, Leticia looked at Max who was walking toward the hawk and nodded before running after him. Rima and Belén also exchanged looks before following behind.

After everyone climbed the hawk and sat down, it took to air. Max glanced at other groups. Those who saw him looking toward them nodded. After fighting each other, they realised that Max was one of the strongest even when he didn't use his Fireball that everyone seemed to fear by now.

After fighting until after he had exhausted his mana on daily basis, his control over his improved stat was finally 100%. He could even lift two thousand pound heavy rock on his shoulder.

His speed was almost as fast as someone with wind element. This why also reason why Leticia looked up to him. His mana control was also more refined because of which his mana consumption when casting his spells was lower than before.

Not to mention his monstrous stamina. When everyone was out of breath, his breathing wouldn't even quicken.

Seeing the a bit of respect, awe and fear in everyone's eyes, Max nodded in satisfaction and thought 'My efforts were worth it.' Now none would dare to call him trash because of his weak strength.

...

After half an our of flying, they arrived at a mountain that wasn't as humongous as main peak and was very far away.

Elder Jack pointed to the mountain waist where vegetation was scan and said "You are to gather here one month from now."

He then dropped each group in different locations and flew away.

Chapter 125 Overpowered Ape

Max's group was dropped in the middle of the forest. Because of the mountain's size, the land seemed almost flat.

However, they were surrounded by the forest and could be attack by beasts from all sides, Belén suggested that they should find some place that could provide them protection from two or three sides to stay.

Everyone find that suggestion good so they started searching for such place.

As they were searching around, before they could find a safe place to stay, they encountered a white furred ape, a two-star beast.

It was two meters in height with a strong looking bulky body. Its arms alone were two feet thick and were more than one meter long.

It had four canine teeth protruding out from its mouth, two from upper jaw and two from lower jaw. On its forehead, the furr colour was yellowish, in the shape of a flower. Its eyes were yellow in colour.

Just as the ape saw them, it roared towards them and picked up a nearby rock that was triple the size of a football with one arm and threw it at them at a very fast speed.

Whoosh

Bang

Leticia and others panicked seeing this because they won't be able to dodge it in time. Max looked at Haory who nodded and a one meter long sand spike shot out from the ground and shattered the rock in mid-air.

Roar

Thud! Thud!

Seeing its attack fail, the ape roared furiously and ran towards them with heavy steps.

"Everyone get ready to fight." Max shouted. Mana swirled around him and wrapped around his arm. After shouting he dashed toward the ape at his fastest speed.

Shua

In an instant, he appeared in front of the ape and punched with all his strength aiming at its the lower abdomen, taking it off guard.

Clank

As his mana empowered fist collided with the ape's abdomen, a metallic sound reverberated in the area.

The ape's advance was stopped by the force of the punch however, almost no harm was done to the beast which was surprising as his physical strength that was enhanced by his mana was more than 70 units.

Max felt pain on his knuckles and exclaimed "Such tough skin." The muscles of the the ape were almost as tough as steel. If he hadn't had full control over his body and strength, his arm would have snapped from the collision.

Although his punch wasn't able to injure it, it successfully enraged the beast. It roared and slammed down its fist, aiming at his head.

Bang

Max dodged the punch that slammed into the ground heavily, making a small crater on the mountain's surface and causing the earth around them to shake.

Seeing this, Max and others felt cold chills running down their spine. This ape was too overpowered. If that punch had connected, he would have been deadlier than dead.

'Fighting it in the close combat isn't plausible even with my strength.' Max thought and then shouted "Leticia come and keep it busy with me. Rima prepare to use your sonic breath on it" Max shouted before dodging another punch.

Leticia, who had been panicking until now calmed down seeing Max keeping the ape from attacking others and giving them time to prepare their spells.

After hearing his command, She dashed toward the ape while using her wind elemental mana that enhanced her speed to the same level as Max's and after arriving five meters away from the it, she attacked it with her wind slashes trying to attract its aggro to her.

As it was shifting it's attention to Leticia because her wind blade pricked its skin, Rima completed casting her spell and shouted "Move away."

Max and Leticia quickly jumped a few meters away from the ape and covered their ears with their hands because they know what will happen if they didn't.

Echo

A shrill sound was produced from Rima mouth. The soundwaves hit the yellow flowered ape and It froze in its place because the its brain nerves were affected by her sonic spell.

Max and others also felt their ears ringing even though she had focused her attack on the ape.

After stunning the ape, Rima shouted with a pale face "Belén, do it."

Belén had already prepared her spell and as she poured her mana out, a dozen thick vines appeared from the ground and coiled around ape's arms, legs and neck tightly while it wasn't moving.

After a few seconds the ape recovered from the sonic attack and found itself imprisoned by the vines that were tough as steel and flexible as rubber, making them very tough to destroy.

Roar

The ape struggled to break the vines, its veins bulged out on its arms and it grabbed the vines around its neck and stretched them to thier limits in a bid to destroy them.

Max looked at Haory and she understood what he wanted. She chanted her spell and sand around them started to gather in the air above her.

Snap Snap

While she was casting her [Black sand spear] spell, the vines around its neck snapped.

Then it proceeded to destroy the vines that bound its arms and feet. While it was snapping the vines one by one, Max had started casting his new spell that he got from the library.

[Death rain]

A few dozen half a meter long fiery arrows materialised above the ape, pointing down looking deadly.

Roarr

Just as the last vine around the ape's foot snapped, it roared toward the sky beating its chest producing loud thumping sounds. However it's eyes widened seeing many fire arrows hanging in the air above him, releasing intense heat.

A glint of fear appeared in its eyes. Although it was impervious to physical damage thanks to its steel hide, however that doesn't mean that it was also impervious to elemental damage. In fact it feared elemental attacks the most.

Just as it wanted to move from its current position, Max brought his hand down completing his spell.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Pierce! Pierce!

Tens of fire arrow whooshed down at frighteningly fast speed and crashed into the ape and area around him. The place where ape was standing erupted in flames.

ROAR!

A mighty Roar filled with pain and anger sounded from inside the fire and extinguished the fire.

The Ape appeared in front of everyone's eyes. It had its thick hand above its head, protecting it however, its white furr all over its body was charred black and its shoulders, forearms, chest, abdomen and thighs had many burnt holes where fire arrows must have struck. From those wounds, blood was gushing out non-stop, giving its body a shade of dark red colour.

Roar!

The Ape roared once more and the flower shaped mark on its forehead started shining with pale yellow light and slowly covered its whole body.

After a few seconds when the light disappeared, the wounds had stopped bleeding and were almost healed and its furr also recovered.

“What!?” Leticia and Rima exclaimed in disbelief. If it could recover like that, wouldn't it be invincible in the same realm?

Haah!

Just then they heard a soft shout and turned to look toward Haory with a pale face. However, seeing the attack she conjured, they sighed in relief.

Read Strongest Mage with the Lust system Chapter 126 Really?

Chapter 126 Really?

After getting Max's signal, she had started casting her new spell [Metallic Sand Spear] which she used only one time before during the training because of enormous mana consumption and time it takes for casting.

Therefore it wasn't possible for her to use this spell if she was fighting alone but she was not alone right now and had teammates to give her enough time to cast it.

As the name suggests, this spell uses the tiny metal particles present in the sand to make it more powerful.

After she was done casting it, a 3.5 meter long and one feet thick spear with black Metallic sheen materialised above her. This spell was a middle-grade, mid tier spell. Because there were very few sand elemental disciples and elder Nena found her talent promising, she has given her the privilege to choose this one tier higher spell than what was permitted.

Last time Haory used this spell was when they fought against a group which had two earth elemental mages. They had made a thick earth barrier around them which even Max's biggest fireball (300 mana points), was only able to half destroy it.

But they could reinforce the barrier quickly because both of them combined had more mana and Max could only use three 300 mana point fireballs before his 1300 mana points would be emptied out.

(A/N: Please remember that when casting a spell, for example a 300 mana point fireball, the total consumption of mana is higher because the casting and controlling process also uses the mana. The same is applicable for each spell.)

At that time, Haory used this spell for the first time and it utterly decimated their turtle shell. If it wasn't because of elder Jack's intervention in time, those disciples would have been severely injured if not dead.

...ov/xt.n&t

The yellow flowered ape had just recovered and was about to attack them, when Haory used every last bit of her mana and shot the spear at the ape.

Whoosh!

The ape felt the intimidating pressure of the spear as it cut through the air and arrived in front of it before it could do anything.

Roar!

The ape roared defiantly and the yellow flower once again glowed with yellow light. All its muscles seemed to become crystallised.

Bang

Boom

Haory's huge black spear banged into ape's chest and pierced before both flew more than a hundred meters away and crashed into a boulder, destroying it.

Max, Leticia and others stared at this with wide eyes. Even though it wasn't their first time witnessing the black spears' might, it was still shocking.

Plop!

While they were being amazed by the power of the black spear, Haory fell on her knees and was about to fall on the ground.

Whoosh!

Max appeared beside her and gently held her waist, preventing her from falling. He knew that she will be weak after the attack as it happened the first time too.

“Are you okay?” He asked in a slightly concerned voice.

Haory nodded as she tried to move away from his hands “I’ve exhausted all of my mana and it’s still far from perfect. I wonder how powerful will it be when I can perfectly cast it. Ugh...” As she took a step away from him, she again felt like falling but Max once again held her.

Max was amazed by her spirit. Even after being on the brink of falling unconscious due to complete mana drain, she still acted like this.

“It should be enough to kill a peak three star mage.” Max commented. Haory nodded at him. She also thought the same.

“Belén, take care of her. I’ll go check if that ape is dead or not.” Max handed her over to Belén as she wasn’t feeling comfortable with his support.

“Let me go with you.” Leticia also followed Max as they walked towards the crashing site.

Rustle! Rustle!

As they reached there, they heard bushes rustling in front of them. When they looked in that direction, a bloodied ape was limping away in the forest, trying to escape.

“Huh? It’s still not dead.” Leticia frowned.

“Although it’s not dead yet, it not far away from dying.” Max said. He clearly saw the black spear penetrating its chest and all this blood was proof that the injuries it got were rather serious.

“We should go after it and kill it then.” Leticia excitedly ran after it.

Seeing this, Max glanced at Haory, Rima and Belén before following after Leticia. After catching up to her, he smilingly asked “What would you do if it calls other apes for help?”

“Huh?” Leticia froze for a moment before continuing to run in the direction ape had left and said “I’ll retreat if that’s the case.” She then glanced at him and winked playfully “And with you by my side, I’ll be safe.”

Max only smiled at her flirtatious acts and quietly followed after her while looking at her swaying body ‘Your time will soon come.’

The reason he came after her wasn’t because he wanted to protect her but because he wanted to know where this ape will go. (A/N:What did you think, hehe)

If it goes to other apes, he will retreat in a heartbeat. However there was a chance that this ape lived alone. If this was the case then its living place will be safest shelter for them to stay as normally no other beast comes into the territory of another beast.

If they just wandered around looking for a safe place, then there were high chance that they would encounter other beasts like they did this one and he didn't want to fight another Two-star beast before increasing his strength.

Although the ape was seriously injured, but because it was familiar with the terrain, they quickly lost sight of it.

Thankfully, there was blood trail that they followed and found a cave. Blood trail went inside it.

Seeing the cave Max became excited. If there wasn't any companion beast of the ape in the cave, they should easily be able to kill and claim the cave as their shelter.

Max turned toward Leticia to tell her that they should first check if there was any other beast in the cave but he saw her already skipping toward the cave without any worry.

He felt a headache seeing this, it was clear that she hadn't hunted any beast before. If she did, she wouldn't be so carefree just because the ape was already on its death bed.

He quickly ran toward her and lifted her in his arms before taking her a few meters away from the cave.

"Ah..." Leticia was startled when he suddenly lifted her while she was running. However, she didn't resist while her heart started beating rapidly.

After they were far enough, Max rebuked her in a displeased tone "What were you doing? What if there is another Two-star beast inside."

Leticia became sad after he chided her and her eyes became misty. "I'm sorry. I didn't think it through." She apologized while looking down at her feet.

Seeing this he helplessly shook his head and whispered in her ear "If you don't do anything rash, I'll reward you with a kiss."

"W-What?" She shouted, her face becoming red and unconsciously blurted out "Really?"

Chapter 127 You Forgot Something...

Seeing her reaction, Max chuckled "Of course, I'm not joking." Saying this, he looked at her thin red lips intently, making her blush.

“Okay, I’ll do what you say.” She nodded, feeling excited in her heart. She knew many women who wanted to get close to him because he was both strong and handsome, but none even received a second glance from him.

“Good. Now let’s go inside but be careful to hide your presence as much as you can. If it’s alone, we will attack if not, we will retreat. Understand?”

“Yes.” She nodded dazedly.

They carefully sneaked into the cave without making any sound. After two twists and turns, they arrived in front a spacious hall. It was around 100 meter square in size.

There was a stony platform about two feet higher than the ground. It was three meter long and wide, on it lay the injured ape.

Its chest had a deep wound however, it wasn’t bleeding as much as before and seemed to be healing because the yellow flower mark was still faintly glowing.

Just like human had spells to use magic to do different things, beasts also had some special traits just like this ape had his flower mark which could heal and make its body hard as crystal. But because the ape seemed to have exhausted its mana, the flower wasn’t able to make it recover instantly like before.

Apart from the ape, there wasn’t any beast. Leticia became excited. She just wanted to charge inside the hall and kill it but she refrained herself from doing anything without Max’s approval.

Max could see the impatience on her face. So he said “Let’s go and kill it.”

Saying this he walked inside the hall followed by Leticia who was already preparing her spell.

The ape noticed their presence and turned its head towards them. Its expression become bloodthirsty once again. It struggled to stand up but because it had lost a lot of blood and was drained of energy, it fell down.

Roar

It roared, however this time its Roar wasn’t as loud. But somehow, the yellow light intensified a bit, speeding its healing process.

Seeing that it was recovering faster, Max was about to use his biggest Fireball to kill it, but then he realised that it would also ruin this cave.

Therefore, he turned to Leticia and asked “Can you kill it without damaging the cave in the process?”

She seriously thought for a moment while staring at the ape and said “Yes, if I can attack the wound on its chest. However it will defend its weakest area even though it doesn’t have much energy.”

Max looked at the ape that was healing more and more each second and nodded “Okay, you prepare your attack, I’ll make sure it won’t resist when you attack it.”

Saying this he conjured up two 50 mana point fireballs and threw them at the ape’s legs where it was wounded by his [Death Rain].

Boom!

Roar!

The fireball exploded, injuring it again. The ape roared in pain. It grew furious and used its arms and leapt off the stone platform to go towards them.

Max didn’t let it come near them and threw two more fireballs and exploded them on its shoulders. Maybe because it was seriously injured and didn’t have much mana left, his fireballs could damage it.

Thud!

It fell down on its chest after its arms got injured. Max went towards it with the intention to kick it and make it lay on its back, exposing the chest wound.

Whoosh!

However, Seeing that Max was in its range, the ape swung its meter long thick arm at him.

Bang!

Max dodged it easily and then kicked its abdomen heavily after reinforcing the kick with mana.

Thud!

The ape flew a few meters away and landed on its back. Now it couldn’t move because its feet and arms, both were injured.

“Go ahead and kill it now.” He looked at Leticia who already had cast her spell. Three fist sized spherical orbs hovered around her.

This was her new spell that she got from the academy named [Wind bullets].

When casting this spell, a large quantity of wind condenses into a small sphere. These small wind spheres has great penetrating and destructive power although not as destructive as his exploding fireball.

However, she hasn't mastered it yet. When mastered, this spell would be strong enough to penetrate, the toughest defence of any peak Two-star beast and maybe even initial stage three-star beast.

Leticia nodded and pointed her finger towards the ape. The three orbs as if had their own mind, accurately flew at its chest and penetrated the wound and started destroying its inner organs.

Rawrr... Roarr... Roar...

The ape roared in pain and blood started pouring out of its chest as well as ears, nostrils and eyes. Gradually, its pained roars stopped when its heart was also destroyed.

The flower mark on its forehead that glowing until now, stopped glowing.

"Hah! It's finally dead." Leticia sighed with a pale face.

Although her new spell was powerful, it took much concentration to cast, which would exhaust her mental energy and make her feel as if her head was about to explode.

"Mm, Let's dig out its beast core." Max said while walking towards it.

Hearing this Leticia took out a pill and ate before running toward the carcass of the ape and said "Let me do it Max. I want to use my wind elemental dagger."

She then took out a half foot long silver dagger, showing it to him.

"Okay. Go ahead then." Max nodded easily since he didn't want to get stained with blood and sat down on the stone platform after washing the blood away with a bucket of water, that he had stored in his inventory.

Leticia looked at the carcass of the ape and after taking a deep breath, she stabbed the dagger in its forehead with a quick movement of her hand. The dagger was indeed sharp. It easily pierced the ape's forehead.

Max watched as she cut open the ape's head without feeling disgusted by the blood and gore.

After a few seconds, she took out a round crystal orb from its head. It was half the size of an adult's fist.

After taking it out she became excited. Cleaning it with a handkerchief she gave it to Max while giggling “Hehe, we only need nine more beast cores. Here you keep it with you.”

Max took it in his hand and thought that it felt just like a crystal ball. He then stored it into his inventory.

He then looked toward the dead body of the ape and all the blood around it. He went and stored the ape’s body in his inventory and used a small fireball to burn all the blood and flesh, making the place clean.

“Let’s go and bring Haory and others here. We will use this cave as our shelter for one month.” Max said and walked towards the exit.

Shua~

Leticia who was expecting her reward was dazed and grabbed his sleeve to stop him from leaving.

She looked at him shyly and said “Y-You are forgetting something?”

Chapter 128 Ecstatic Leticia

“Oh?” Max stopped and turned to look at her and asked “What is it?”

A faint blush appeared on Leticia’s face. While avoiding his gaze, she softly said “...M-My reward.”

Max looked at her for a good while. It would be a lie if he said he didn’t want to do something when other party was willing, after all, to raise his strength, he had to do it with other woman now that his Lilly wasn’t with him.

“Do you really want it?” He sighed inwardly and asked.

“Y-Yes. I want it.” Leticia nodded firmly while feeling her heart thumping loudly.

“Let me tell you something first—” Max started to tell her his one and only concern but Leticia cut him off.

“I know you must have someone you already like and I know I’m not comparable to her. Therefore I’m not expecting to become your wife or concubine. So you don’t need to worry about it.” Leticia said without hesitation. The girl she thought he liked was obviously Flavia who, everyone had seen him with.

“If that’s the case...” Saying this he put his arm around her waist and pulled her towards him, sticking her body to his.

“Kya~” Leticia yelped in surprise. She didn’t expect him to act as soon as she cleared his doubts.

Max could feel her not too big but soft and springy boobs pressing against his chest. He then used his other arm to gently raise her chin upward to look at him since he was almost a head taller than her.

Leticia obediently raised her head and looked into his mesmerizing sapphire eyes.

Max lowered his head and gently put his lips on hers. Leticia quivered In excitement, she felt her heart flutter in excitement.

He then slowly kissed her upper lip and then lower lip, savouring their sweetness.

Leticia didn’t remain passive as she also wanted to enjoy this feeling, so she also moved her lips. For a few minutes, they nibbled each others’ lips.

Now Max was getting more and more excited. He used his tongue to pry open her mouth and put it inside. Just as he did, he heard system’s sound.

Leticia felt his warm tongue slithering inside her mouth and fighting her tongue for domination. In a few seconds, his tongue subdued her juicy tongue and started sucking on it, turning the simple kiss into a deep french kiss.

Just then, Max started to hear system’s sound.

[+10 Lust Points]

[+10 Lust Points]

...

While kissing her, his not so little brother also became excited and poked her belly through their clothes. Leticia noticed this but she didn’t move away as she was feeling ecstatic while kissing him.

Max’s hand that was supporting her head now left that place and went on her ass. He squeezed and started rubbing her ass cheeks. Leticia didn’t resist one bit and continued kissing him.

Moreover, she was hoping that he would do something more than a kiss to her.

After a kiss that lasted them more than ten minutes, their lips parted.

“Hah! Hah!...” Leticia took deep breaths. Max also did the same. However his hands were still rubbing her back and ass and his little brother had become hard enough to penetrate a rock now.

His lust overwhelmed him. He was just about to rip her clothes and have sex with her right there when he heard a few footsteps from the entrances of the cave, coming closer.

‘Tch, they are already here.’ Max felt annoyed being interrupted at this moment. He unwillingly let her go but not before giving her ass a tight squeeze.

Leticia looked at him in confusion. She was sure, after feeling his hard thing poking her constantly, that Max would definitely do the forbidden thing with her.

So, she didn’t understand why did he stop. It was clear that she didn’t hear the footsteps from the entrance of the cave.

Max, saw her confusion and while holding his lust back, pointed towards the exit of the hall and said “Others are here. They’ll reach this place in a moment.”

He then whispered “We will continue this when we are alone, of course if you want that is.”

Before Leticia could say anything, Haory, Rima and Belén walked from the corridor into the hall.

“Are you guys alright? What happened to the ape?” Rima asked while looking around and not seeing the ape.

“Yeah we are fine and the ape is dead.” Max said and took out ape’s dead body from his system inventory.

Seeing the ape’s dead body, they became excited because now they have one beast core and a body of two-star beast.

Belén was first to notice Leticia’s red face and her uneven breathing which didn’t seem like was because of fighting.

She then glanced at Max asked while smiling “So we are going to live in this cave righ?”

“Yeah we will live here.” Max nodded. After Belén had spoken Rima and Haory also stopped paying attention to ape’s dead body and also noticed Leticia’s unusual appearance.

Rima smiled at her knowingly which made her blush. Rima then looked at Max and licked her lips, thinking something. Haory, on the other hand, didn't show any reaction and simply focused on the interior of the cave.

He ignored their small interaction and looked at Belén and said. "Belén, how about you make something to sit down and rest for a while. I believe everyone is exhausted now."

Belén nodded and threw five seeds on the ground and casted a spell. Five green flowers sprouted from them and under her control, they grew to three feet height and then spread horizontally, making them look like a bed.

"Can it endure our weight?" Max asked. This bed made from thin green petals didn't seem that it could be used a bed.

Belén smiled and sat down on one of the flower bed, apart from swaying a little, there wasn't any changes to the bed's shape.

After that, everyone rested upon them to recover stamina before sitting in meditation to recover their mana.

When they had completely recovered, it was already noon. But because of the fight earlier and then cultivation, they were hungry. Therefore they grilled ape's mana rich meat as lunch.

"Mm, this meat has such pure mana. If I can eat it for one month, my mana reserves would improve by a lot." Leticia exclaimed after taking a bite of the meat. She had returned to her usual cheerful self.

"With our current strength, if we don't encounter more than one or stronger than initial stage Two-star beast, we can hunt them and eat their meat daily. However this ape should last us more than a week." Belén also commented.

Max was also amazed by after taking a bite. It was even more delicious than the meat he ate in the Garfield manor, even though they only grilled it without any condiments.

"Huh?" Max suddenly exclaimed in surprise because he heard another notification from the system.

[Ding. +1 Mana Point]

"What is it?" Rima asked while others also looked at him, worried that something might be wrong.

"It's nothing. I'm also surprised by how rich mana it contains." Max shook his head.

Rima and others nodded and focused on enjoying their meal. Haory looked at him for a few more seconds before also focusing on eating.

Read Strongest Mage with the Lust system Chapter 129 Shall We Continue

Chapter 129 Shall We Continue

As Max kept eating, the system notification telling him that his mana points is increased by one point kept sounding.

However, it wasn't too much of a surprise to him since he already knew that other than LPs, some magical medicine could also increase his attributes by a small margin, just like his vitality was improved when he ate the golden fruit that Emily had given him.

He then ignored the notification and focused on enjoying his meal. After finishing their meal, they rested for while.

Rima and Belén sat beside Leticia and kept talking for a while. Meanwhile Haory and Max had a short discussion.

"How should we proceed now? We can't stay in this cave for a month without doing anything right?" Haory asked.

"Of course not. What would be the benefit of this outing if we all remain here. Moreover, it's only a matter of time before this safe haven is also attacked by other beasts." Max nodded, agreeing to her words.

He then glanced at Leticia and others who were also looking at him while whispering amongst themselves and continued,

"However, I believe that we should cultivate here for a few days and raise our strength as much as we can by cultivating and eating this mana rich meat before going out to continue our hunt. That will increase our chances of survival even if were to encounter a peak Two-star beast."

Haory thought for a while and nodded "Right, that will be more beneficial." She then got up and walked towards her flower bed "I'll cultivate and digest to see how much of my mana can improve by a single meal."

Max also lay on his bed and opened his stat window to check his mana improvement.

[Mana: 1350]

'It only increased by 19 points.' Max sighed. However, he wasn't disappointed by this since he couldn't cultivate to digest more mana from the beast meat like others, so this improvement, he got on its own was satisfactory enough.

...

When it was evening Max and Haory told others about their plan and they happily agreed as they also knew that their chances of survival weren't high enough right now.

"We also can't be complacent about the fact that this was a beast's abode so other beast won't come. Therefore I suggest that one of us should guard the cave entrance at all times while rest of us sleep or cultivate." Haory suggested.

"Yeah, right. So should we decide the order in which we will guard to avoid the confusion later?" Leticia nodded and asked.

Following which they decided that each of them will guard the cave for four hours before other one will take his/her place.

The first one to guard became Haory. She nodded and went out.

"Its going to be dark soon, should we prepare the dinner?" Rima suggested.

"Okay, who will go out to gather some firewood, we can't let Max waste his mana for cooking dinner for us right?" Belén asked while looking at them.

Max glanced at them, it didn't look like any of them wanted to be the one to do the task. He sighed and stood up "I'll go, however, it might take a while before I return since there aren't any dry wood near the cave."

He turned around and walked towards the exit with a slight smirk on his face.

Seeing him volunteer and going away, Leticia quickly jumped up and said "Wait Max. It's dangerous outside, let me go with you."

"Okay, come along then." Max said as he kept walking.

Leticia ran and caught up to him. Rima and Belén looked at her jealously. "How lucky she is. I also need to find a chance to be alone with him." Rima mumbled.

Belén also nodded. They joined this group because they were attracted to him. Now that they found out that Max didn't reject Leticia, they also wanted to try their luck.

Rima looked at Belén and asked "Belén, do you know how does it feel, I mean sex?"

...

While Rima and Belén talked, Max and Leticia walked through the corridor. After taking two turns, they saw Haory sitting on a chair that she made from the sand.

She also noticed them asked “Where are you guys going?”

“To bring some firewood to prepare the dinner.” Max casually replied. Leticia also nodded.

“Okay be careful. There might be some other beast in this area.” Haory nodded.

Max nodded and quickly disappeared in the woods with Leticia. She looked in the direction they went for a few moments before focusing on the task at hand.

After walking for a few minutes, Max and Leticia arrived at a secluded place near a mountain slope. There was a big tree only a few meters away from it.

Leticia looked around wondered why they came here when there wasn't any dry tree in this area, when a sudden thought crossed her mind, making her look at his back anxiously.

Max stopped and turned to face her. Without saying anything he lifted her up by her waist and led her between the slope and the tree.

Cupping her face in his hands, he asked “Shall we continue where we stopped?”

Leticia's breathing intensified while her heart thumped loudly. She shyly nodded “Y-Yes.”

Seeing her nod, Max kissed her lips and started moving his hand up and down her body.

Leticia hugged him and responded to his deep and passionate kisses. Max then made her lean against the tree and while kissing her, one of his hands moved inside her robes and groped her breasts.

He broke the kiss and started kissing her neck while his hand cupped her breasts and started squeezing and kneading them.

Her boobs were very soft and smooth like jelly. Although they weren't too big, they were big enough to not be covered by one hand.

“Ngh! Mm!”

Leticia started feel aroused by his kisses, groping and squeezing. Faint moans of pleasure started escaping her lips. Max then moved his hand toward her lower abdomen and put it inside her clothes and then he moved it inside her panty which was slightly wet due to her being aroused.

Chapter 130 Main Course...

Feeling the slight wetness, he started rubbing her clitoris with his middle finger.

“Ngh~”

Leticia shivered as a loud moan escaped her lips. This was a completely new sensation to her. She felt strength leaving her knees, so she put her hands on his shoulders and leaned onto him to support herself.

Seeing that she was feeling it, he slid his middle finger inside her small wet cave.

“Mmph~”

She jerked up, throwing her head backwards and bit her lower lip, trying not to moan too loudly. But the moan still managed to escape her lips.

Max smiled at this and bit her earlobe, whispering, “You don’t need to hold back your moans. Let them out freely; no one will hear them out here.”

Hearing this, although Leticia felt embarrassed, she stopped trying to hold them back and moaned every time she felt his finger going in and coming out of her pussy.

Max then put his index finger inside too, and as he did so, a word came to his mind ‘Tight.’ Her pussy was very tight that he suspected her to be a virgin.

He started disrobing her with his other hand, revealing her smooth, healthy pale skin. Her not-so-big but beautiful breasts with erected pink buds appeared before his eyes as he took the last layer of clothing from her chest.

He groped and squeezed her bare boobs with one hand and started sucking and nibbling on her nipples.

Meanwhile, his fingers didn’t stop exploring her soft insides.

“Mm! Ngh! Ah!”

Leticia’s moans became louder and quicker as she was reaching climax.

“Nghhh~”

Her body jerked up. She moaned loudly as she climaxed, her loud moan reverberating in the forest. Her eyes became hazy in the pleasure of climaxing, and she hugged him tightly.

...

“Hmm? Is some disciple in danger?” A woman in her mid-twenties in the white uniform of Cloud academy was cooking a two-star bird-type monster more than five miles away from where Max and Leticia were indulging in their activities when she heard Leticia moan. However, the distance made it very faint and sounded like a yell. She heard it and frowned, thinking that someone was in trouble.

She then glanced at the bird being grilled above the fire and thought, ‘It’s not my duty to save them, and they can use their talismans if they are in trouble to call for help. I should enjoy my meal.’ Thinking this focused on grilling the bird again.

However, after a second, an annoyed expression appeared on her face. “What a hassle.”

Saying this, she stored the uncooked bird and ran in the direction the ‘cry’ came from. Her speed was more than double Lacron’s speed.

...

“Huf! Huff!”

Leticia took deep breaths while leaning on Max. Max took out his hand from her panty, and it was drenched in her cum now.

Whoosh!

A flame burned on his hand, evaporating her liquid. He then put out the fire and gently raised her face towards him, and kissed her lips once again. Leticia responded clumsily as she was feeling exhausted after cumming.

Max broke the kiss and smiled. “Did you feel good?”

Leticia blushed, remembering the weird moans and faces she was making just now. However, she still nodded. “Yes. I never felt this good, even when I touched myself before. It was amazing.”

“Good. How about you make me feel good now?” He smirked, pointing at his cock that was about to rip his pants any second now.

“H-How should I make you feel good?” She asked while staring at the bulge in his pants.

“Start by taking it out first,” Max said and he let her go.

“O-Okay!” Leticia nodded and reached out her hand and put it inside his pants.

“Gulp~” She gulped when her hand touched his thick rode. She gently grabbed it and took it out of his pants while thinking, ‘It’s very thick and warm.’

When it came in front of her eyes, she gasped. Although she hadn’t seen a penis before, she had heard that the average size of a penis is about 5-6 inches; however, seeing his cock that was more than 8 inches long and as thick as her wrist, she was surprised.

‘Can it enter my small hole?’ She wondered and felt slightly afraid.

Max noticed this and smiled wryly inwardly. Lilly had the same reaction as her. However, Eva was different; she was happy seeing this.

He put some force on her shoulders, making her sit on her knees, and caressed her cheeks. “Don’t worry. I’ll be gentle.”

Leticia nodded dazedly and looked at him, waiting for his instruction on what to do next. She only knew that boys feel good when putting it inside a girl’s vagina. However, Max clearly not wanted to put it inside yet.

“Suck on it while stroking it.” He said, putting it in front of her mouth.

“W-What?” Hearing him, she exclaimed loudly while looking at his penis. How can she put it inside her mouth?

“Oh? You don’t want to?” Max frowned slightly, making her panic.

‘He also made me feel pleasure. I should do the same for him, or he won’t like me anymore.’ She thought while hesitantly grabbing his shaft.

She then started stroking it and brought her face closer to his dick and put her lips on the glans.

After that, she opened her small mouth and gave it a lick. She didn’t find its taste as weird as she thought she would and started sucking all around glans while stroking his shaft.

[Ding...]

“Nice, keep doing this and don’t let your teeth come in contact with it.” Max said as he put his hands behind her head and pushed the tip inside her mouth, while ignoring the system notification and focusing on enjoying himself.

With the glans inside her mouth, she looked toward him and nodded. Seeing this, he remembered the porns where the pornstar would look like her while sucking a cock.

He became excited and pushed more of his dick inside her mouth.

“Mmff...” Leticia let out a muddled sound and had to open her mouth wide to let it enter inside. When more than half of it was inside, Max stopped pushing since it was already reaching her throat.

Following this, Leticia began moving her small pink tongue around the glans and his shaft, wrapping it around and sucking on it.

“Mm!” Max groaned lightly, feeling her soft tongue licking and sucking his cock. Although her movements were a bit clumsy, he felt a lot of pleasure.

Seeing that he was feeling pleasure, Leticia’s confidence grew, and she put more effort and increased the intensity of her blowjob and started moving her head backwards and forwards.

Max felt amazing when his dick would enter her warm throat. After a while, she took it inside her mouth in its entirety. It reached down her throat, and Max could feel her throat’s convulsions, making him moan in pleasure.

“Gulp it down!” Max suddenly said while grabbing her head tightly, climaxing inside her throat.

“Mmff... Asggh...” Leticia choked on his cum. After completely letting out every last drop inside her mouth, he took his cock out.

“Gulp’ Hah! Hah!”

Leticia gulped all of his white milk and gasped for air.

She was about to get angry but seeing his satisfied expression; she didn’t complain.

“Did... Did you also feel good, Max?” She asked while wiping some of his cum from the corners of her lips.

Max patted her head and nodded. “Yeah. You did a good job.”

“Hehe~” Leticia giggled, satisfied with his praise and enjoying his pat like a cat.

“Shall we start the main course now?” Max asked while helping her stand up.