Chapter 131 Main Course (2)***

“M-Main course?” Leticia was confused. However, she quickly realised what he meant. This made her excited and at the same time a bit worried.

She had heard that the first time is always painful even with their stronger bodies than normal humans and this was the case this the average sized penises.

Her jaws were still hurting after giving him a blowjob. If his penis really entered her small hole, what would happen. Thinking this she shivered and clenched her pussy tight.

However she didn't want to waste this chance to do it with him and thinking about the pleasure she would feel, she nodded her head. “Y-Yes, I'm ready.”

“Good girl.” Max showed her a approving smile.

He then look around to realise that they would have to do it while standing.

He turned her around and made her put her hands on the tree. “Bend down a bit and raise your ass.”

Leticia obediently leaned on the tree, sticking her ass out. Max looked at her ass which was quivering slightly due to her being nervous.

He pulled her panty down, and her round and smooth ass appeared in front of his eyes. He reached out his hands and gave squeezed her ass cheeks tightly, making her let out a moan.

Feeling the tender and elastic skin of her ass, Max couldn't wait anymore and put his bulging cock between her ass cheeks at the entrance of her pussy.

“Mmh~” Leticia shuddered, feeling the tip of his dick that was going to enter her wet hole.

Not letting her wait too long, Max slowly pushed the tip inside her.

“Ahh... Mm~” Leticia cried out in pain while Max let out a pleasure-filled moan as his tip slowly went inside her tight and narrow hole. The feeling was incredible.

Leticia bit her lower lip but the pain didn't lessen. Although Max was too horny and wanted to fuck her wildly, he knew he had to be patient in situations like these. Especially, with virgins like her.

He stopped pushing his dick inside her right hole and moved his hand under her belly, and reached out towards her clitoris. He started rubbing and pinching it gently to make her feel pleasure. Meanwhile his other hand did the same with her nipples.

“Nng~ hah~ Oh~”

After a while, the pain lessened, and feeling the stimuli from her clit and nipples, she started moaning.

Seeing this Max grabbed her by the waist and with a forceful thrust, more than half of his cock slid inside her tight cave, breaking her hymen in the process.

Feeling her tight insides, Max felt the heavenly pleasure once again. He closed his eyes to thoroughly enjoy the sensation. However, he came out of his daze when he heard her scream.

“Ahhhhh!” Leticia screamed loudly feeling the tearing pain in her vagina. Her slender back arched upwards and she wanted to take out his huge cock right now because the pain was unbearable for her.

However, Max hurriedly wrapped his hand around her waist not letting her move and used his other hand to bring her face close to his and kissed her not to let her scream so loudly.

Although there was no one around here, if she screamed so loudly, some beast may hear it and come here and he didn't want anything to interrupt him right now. He stayed still while kissing her lips.

...

The woman in white heard the scream and raised her speed. She wooshed past trees after trees. After a few seconds, she reached the place where 'some disciples were in danger'.

She looked around but didn't see any signs of fighting. When her gaze found two naked bodies wrapped around each other and kissing, her eyes widened.

She reflexively hid behind the tree as her heartbeat quickened. 'How can someone do such things in such a dangerous place?'

She then realised that she was hiding 'Why am I hiding like a thief? I should go and punish these horny people for ruining my meal and making me worry for no reason.'

Thinking this she grew furious and walked out from behind the tree, however, this time she noticed that the boy had let the girl support herself by the tree and slowly moved his waist away from her hips.

As her eyes landed on his monstrous cock, she gulped hard and once again went back to hide behind the tree, watching them in a daze.

Max had noticed that someone has arrived a few tens of meters away from them. However, thinking that it must have been one of the other girls, he licked his lips. He wanted to fuck them too but didn't know how to make them approach him willingly.

Now that one of them was here, he would make sure that whoever it was, can't hold herself back from wanting to get fucked by him.

Noticing that Leticia wasn't feeling as much as pain before and her soft insides were throbbing and wrapping around his shaft, he let her go and grabbed her hips.

He slowly pulled out his cock and,

Thrust!

Rammed it inside her pussy once more.

"Ahh~ Ngh~"

She moaned as the mixture of pain and pleasure assaulted her body.

Fwop! Fwop! Fwop!

Max slowly increased his thrusting speed however, he was still making sure that only half of his dick went inside.

'It feels amazing doing it from behind.' Max thought as he kept thrusting.

"Nngh~ Ah~ Oh~."

Leticia kept making sensual moans. Her inside started tightening around his cock, making both of them feel intense pleasure.

"Here we go!" Thinking that it was time he put it completely inside her, he tightened his grip on her hips and trusted without holding back. His cock, in its entirety, slid inside her tight, wet and warm pussy.

"Ahhhh..."

Leticia who was moaning in pleasure until now, suddenly felt his huge cock reaching her womb while mercilessly grinding against her tight walls. Due to the sudden pain, she screamed.

Fwop! Fwop! Fwop!

However, Max didn't stop this time and continued his thrusts. He really missed this feeling for more than two months now and wasn't able to control himself anymore.

'Is he trying to kill her? Shouldn't he wait a bit for her to get ready?' The woman watching them gulped hearing her painful scream and seeing her pained expression.

"Mmhm~ Ngh~"

After a while when his cock had adjusted to her insides well, Leticia started feeling more pleasure than pain and moaned uncontrollably.

Seeing Leticia's expression changing from a pained one to an ecstatic one, the woman hiding behind the tree mumbled to herself "Does it really feel so good?"

However, she unbeknownst to her, her pussy had also started to have a tingling sensation and unknowingly, she brought her hand above her pussy, about to touch it.

Realising this, she stopped her hand and said "I'm not a vile woman like them. Tch, I shouldn't have come."

"Aah~ Mmph~ Ngh~"

"These horny bastards. I hope you die here." Hearing their constant moaning, she hatefully said before stomping her foot and going away.

Squelch! Sequel! Squelch!

Max continued thumping her hard and fast while Leticia kept letting out sensual moans.

Chapter 132 Danger

After more than twenty minutes of continuous thumping, Max felt he was about to cum. Without asking for her permission, he cummed inside her.

"Ohhh~ Hngh~."

Feeling his hot semen filling her insides, she came for the third time in these twenty minutes.

After a few seconds, he completely unloaded his balls inside her and took his little brother out, that was still hard, wanting to go inside its favourite place again.

Spurt~

Huff! Huff!

A mixture of both of their semen gushed out of her pussy after he took his cock out, and Leticia sat on her knees that didn't have any strength left in them, breathing heavily.

Max took out a jar of water from his inventory and drank it. He then took out another and gave it to her.

While Leticia drank water and rested, he opened his status screen to check how many LPs he has gained from having sex with a two-star mage who was also a virgin.

[ Name: Maxwell Garfield ]

[ Age: 18 ]

[ Strength: 50 ]

[ Agility: 50 ]

[ Stamina: 61 ]

[ Vitality: 50 ]

[ Intelligence: 50 ]

[ Mana: 1331 ]

[ Element: Fire ]

[ Lust Points: 4000 ]

'4000 huh? This can increase my mana by 400 points. Not too bad, I guess.' Max thought inwardly.

After fighting many battles in the training this past month and the ape in the morning, he realised that the most important thing he needed to do was to increase his mana because his mana reserves were too pathetic right now.

It only took three of his biggest fireballs to deplete his mana completely, while his new spell [Death Rain] was even more mana-consuming. It consumes half of his mana each time he casts it. Although he could reduce his mana consumption of the [Death Rain] if he mastered it, however, that would only lessen it by a small margin.

( A/N: Biggest fireball here means the biggest he can conjure right now, i.e. 300 mana point ones.)

He then used all his LPs to increase his Mana points by 400.

Swoosh!

Mana around him swirled and gushed inside his mana core. It only took a moment for the process to complete. He could feel his mana increased by one-third in his mana core.

[Mana: 1731]

Max was in awe of the system every time he increased his attributes because they would be increased the moment he adds his Lust points in them.

'If I were to cultivate like everyone else, it would take me weeks if not months to increase my mana by 400 points. Such an awesome system.' He thought, praising the inventor of this perverted system.

"Huh?" Leticia felt the subtle movement of mana around them and became vigilant, thinking that some beast might have sneaked upon them.

Seeing this, Max calmly said, "Don't worry. There is not any beast here. I did that just now."

"Oh, Okay. Wh-" She nodded and wanted to ask something when she saw his erect little brother, she looked away while blushing, not asking anything anymore.

She subconsciously touched her little sister that was still tingling and thought 'That was inside me just now.'

Her face became completely red as this thought crossed her mind. Because despite feeling the soreness in her pussy, she still wanted to do it again. 'Am I going to get addicted to the pleasure I experienced today?'

After a while, she calm down and slowly stood up, trying to walk up to her clothes on the ground a few steps away. However, just as she wanted to take a step, she felt that there wasn't any strength in her knees and wobbled.

Shua!

Max appeared by her side and supported her. He smiled, "You'll feel weakness for a while due to our intense workout just then so stay put."ovlxt.n&t

She felt embarrassed hearing this and covered her naked breasts and vagina with her hands and asked, "Can you pass my clothes to me?"

Max shook his head, "Not now. Look, this little guy here isn't completely satisfied yet." He pointed to his cock, which was still hard as before.

Leticia subconsciously looked down and asked, "A-Are you... going to do it again?"

Max nodded with a lewd smile on his face.

Seeing him nod, she panicked. "B-But I can't even stand properly now."

"You don't need to do anything." Max said and lifted her in his hands. He positioned her in way that her pussy was just above his penis.

"Ah—" Leticia was surprised by his sudden action and grabbed his neck, to avoid falling.

He then moved his waist and put his cock at the entrance of her pussy.

Thrust!

With a thrust, he put it inside her once again.

"Agh~ Ngh~."

Leticia moaned, not in pain but pleasure. Just a while ago she was in clouds and once again she was going to feel that ecstasy.

She grabbed his neck tightly as her two soft mounds stuck to his face.

Max nibbled and sucked on her pink nipples one by one while he kept thrusting inside and outside of her sacred cave, making her let out pleasure filled moans.

She was feeling so good that she even started to move her waist so that it would reach deeper.

Seeing this, Max happily obliged to her desires and increased the depth and pace of his piston movements.

Fwop! Fwop! Fwop!

Squelch! Squelch! Squelch!

Ah~ Oh~ Ngh~

Soon, the sound of their flesh slapping against each other, and their moans reverberated in the forest.

A few miles away from them in the forest, a hideous looking black giant spider opened its eight eyes. He then stood up on its a dozen legs and started running in their direction.

...

Meanwhile, Max once again cummed inside her pussy, filling it up. He then gently put her down to rest. She was completely drained of energy after cumming so many times.

Max wanted to do it a few times more but seeing her completely drained, he decided against it. They still had a month ahead of them and could do it anytime they wanted.

He opened his status screen once again and found out that this time he got 3000 thousand LPs.

Although they were a thousand points less than the first time, he already expected it. He could only pray that it won't get any lower when they had sex again.

He didn't wait and added them to his mana, increasing it by another three hundred points. He wasn't afraid of some kind of backlash since he had already reinforced his mana core to the limits.

'If I can do it with Rima and Belén too, I'll soon be able to reach the peak of the two-star realm or maybe breakthrough to the three-star realm in this month.' Thinking this, he became excited.

...Snap!

His excitement was instantly replaced by vigilance after hearing a snapping sound as if someone had stepped on a wooden branch. However, he knew that the woman who was watching the previously had already went away.

'Did she come back again?' Max thought while looking at the patch of bushes and trees around fifty meters in front of him.

Rustle! Rustle!

As the rustling of trees and bushes intensified, he knitted his brows because he realised that it wasn't a human but some beast.

Although he couldn't see what it was that was moving towards them because of the dense forest, he could deduce from the sound that it wasn't a human.

He quickly pulled up his pants and stood in front of Leticia while conjuring two 200 mana fireballs.

Chapter 133 Fighting Eight Eyed Spider

Rustle! Rustle!

Leticia was confused by his sudden action. However, before she could ask him anything, she also heard the rustling sounds coming from the forest, and it seemed like something was rapidly coming toward them.

*Whoosh*

Before Leticia could react, a two-meter tall black spider with eight eyes and a dozen long metal-like legs came into her view.

Max reacted the moment the spider showed itself and threw two fireballs at it, which he had already prepared.

"Ah-"

Leticia cried out in horror after seeing the dangerous-looking spider appear a fifty meters away from them.

Boom! Boom!

The spider was caught off guard, and both fireballs landed on its body, one on its eyes while the other on its belly, where a few of its legs were attached and exploded.

"Kerrrrr—"

The spider cried out painfully as four of its eyes and three legs were destroyed by the fireballs.

Seeing this scene, Leticia was dazed. She knew that his fireball spell was powerful, and he also has very high agility and strength. However, knowing that something was going to attack them beforehand, she could only be amazed by his super senses.

'Even though we both are initial stage two-star mages, I'm nothing compared to him.' She sighed inwardly before becoming excited. 'I can't believe I gave my first to such an amazing man.'

However, she didn't dwell in her excitement anymore and hurriedly stimulated her mana and began casting her spell.

Although she was physically drained of energy, her mana reserves were still at their maximum capacity.

"Kurrarrrr..."

The spider let out a high-pitched sound in anger. Max and Leticia felt their ears ringing. Although this sound attack wasn't anything comparable to Rima's sonic spell, it still affected their minds.

The spider moved its remaining nine legs rapidly and closed the fifty-meter distance. When Max collected his thoughts after being stunned for less than a second, the spider was already in front of him, attacking with two of its long black legs that were as sharp as lances.

"Fuck." Max cursed and quickly jumped back.

Bang-

The place where he was standing previously was pierced by its metal-like legs creating two small craters.

Max rejoiced that his agility was at 50 points and that he could utilise it to the limits.

Swish! Swish!

Seeing that its attack failed to kill the insect in front of it, the spider opened its mouth and spewed out a yellowish web toward him in order to restrict his movements before killing him.

Max knew that these spider type beasts were dangerous because of their web. If someone were caught in the web, they would be killed easily.

He quickly conjured a fireball with fifty points and threw it at the incoming web.

Siiii~

The web was burnt with ease by his fireballs, and Max retreated to put some distance between them.

Clank! Clank! Clank!

The Spider didn't let him do as he wished and chased after him while attacking him with its legs.

Sometimes it would spew out webs trying to capture him, but Max would always but them down mid-air.

Meanwhile, Leticia has cast her [Wind bullets] spell, and three wind spherical end bullets hovered around her.

After she aimed properly, her wind bullets shot toward the giant spider at insane speed and struck three of its hind legs, producing clanking sounds as if they had struck metal.

“Krrur!”

The Spider’s legs got slightly injured by her wind bullets, and it became even more furious.

“What? My spell can only damage it this much.” Leticia was dumbfounded.

Max also was surprised as he knew that her wind bullets had high penetration power, but even then, they could only injure its legs a bit.

‘Are all beasts have such high defences?’ He wondered before shaking his head. Although beasts indeed have high defences compared to humans, not every beast has such high defences as this spider and the ape they encountered before.

He then suddenly realised something ‘This spider is vulnerable to my fire spells.’ If not, he couldn’t have injured it as much as he did with his fireballs even after he took it off guard.

Swish!

The spider shot out a web towards Leticia in anger, who was on the ground, completely defenceless.

Max shouted at Leticia while burning down the web with a fireball, “Focus on protecting yourself first and if you can, try distracting it from a distance.”

“O-Okay.” Leticia nodded. She knew that she would only be a burden in her current condition. She covered herself in the wind elemental mana, making her body lighter and stood and walked away, however, not before taking her clothes with her.

After hiding behind a tree, more than fifty meters away from the spider, she started throwing wind blades at the spider in order to distract it and give Max a chance to deal a heavy blow to it.

However, the spider seemed to have some intelligence, and it let her wind blades collide with its body as these wind blades weren’t even half as powerful as her wind bullets.

It continued attacking Max with its long and sharp legs while nimbly dodging his fireballs.

Max opened his status screen and checked his mana.

[Mana: 920/2031]

Seeing that he still had 900+ mana remaining, he took deep a breath and conjured a fifty mana point fireball, and after dodging its strike once more, he threw it at the spider's head.

Swish!

The spider quickly ducked its head down and stopped attacking him for a second.

Max took the opportunity and retreated. When the spider wanted to chase after him, he threw one more fireball at him, forcing it to dodge and halt its advance for another second.

Thanks to his high agility, he was able to move one hundred meters away from it, entering the forest.

*Kurr*

The spider cried, thinking that he was running away and gave chase, completely ignoring Leticia. It first wanted to kill Max, who injured it.

Just as he was a hundred meters away from the spider, he stopped and started casting his new spell [Death Rain] while consuming more than six hundred mana points in the process.

A few dozen half-meter-long fire arrows started materialising above him, radiating intense heat.

Pat! Pat! Pat! Pat!

The eight-eyed spider came running towards him, and seeing that he had stopped running, it raised its leg, intent on piercing him.

However, it suddenly stopped in its tracks after feeling the heat from above and raised its insect head to look at the source.

Its four undamaged eyes widened and became panic-stricken seeing dozens of half a meter long fire arrows hovering in the air pointing toward it.

"Let's see if you also have regeneration ability like that ape." A pale-faced Max smirked upon seeing the panic in its eyes.

However, he was also worried about the fact that maybe this spide would survive this attack. If it did, he and Leticia would definitely be killed by it because his mana would be gone after this spell, and Leticia alone couldn't kill it.

The spider looked at him with a murderous look and once again dashed toward him to kill him before the arrows could attack it.

Chapter 134 Bel's Moving Beds

However, Max didn't let it come close to him and quickly brought his hand down.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

All the arrows shot toward the spider and pierced its body with ease, and nailed it to the ground. Its head was also pierced; after squirming in pain for a while, it died. The fire from the arrows slowly burned its body.

Whoosh!

Leticia came running toward him with a worried expression. Seeing that the spider was on the ground, burning and Max, apart from his pale face, didn't seem injured, she sighed in relief.

She then went to support him. After putting his arm around her neck and holding his waist, she asked, "Are you alright? You didn't get injured, right?"

Max looking at the burning corpse of the spider smiled "No, I'm completely fine apart from exhausting all my mana."

He then glanced at her. She had worn her clothes again and was supporting him and chuckled "I see that you can walk around just fine now. Your recovery speed is quite good."

Leticia face turned red due to embarrassment and she didn't say anything. The truth was that she hadn't recovered after their 'intense workout' and her lower body still felt sore.

However, she had used her wind elemental mana to make it easier to walk around because she was worried about his safety and the spider was intent on killing him.

Seeing her embarrassed expression, Max didn't tease her anymore and slowly let go. "I'm fine. Let's take out its beast core and get out of here before some other beast arrives."

Leticia nodded and quickly retrieved her wind dagger before slicing the spider's head and taking out its beast core. It was slightly smaller than the one they got after killing the ape.

“This spider seemed to have just broken through to the two-star realm.” Leticia said after seeing the beast core worriedly.

Max was also taken aback. He didn’t expect this spider that seemed like it was equally if not more powerful than the Ape, had actually become a two-star beast not long ago.

He sucked in a cold breath and thought ‘Anna was right. The beasts here are many times more powerful than the beast in the magical beast forest. I’ll have to be more cautious and raise my strength quickly.’

...

After that, Max and Leticia found a quiet place far from the battle site and recovered their mana before returning to the cave.

Step! Step! Step!

Haory was sitting in the sand chair at the entrance of the cave. Hearing the footsteps, she glanced ahead and saw Max and Leticia walking toward her.

Both of them looked haggard. Seeing this Haory frowned and walked towards them, “What happened to you guys? How come you are in this condition?” She then added while looking at Leticia and asked “How come you take such a long time just to gather some firewood?”

Leticia blushed hearing her question and kept quiet. Max looked at Haory and calmly said, “While searching for some dry wood, we encountered a two-star beast. That’s why we are in this condition and it took us this much time.”

“Oh?” She exclaimed hearing that they encountered a two-star beast.

“You didn’t get injured, right?” Haory scanned them to see if they were injured.

She wasn’t too worried because she knew that with their speed, if they encountered a beast they couldn’t fight, they could easily escape, of course this wasn’t the case if the said beast happened to be agility type or bird type beast.

Seeing that there wasn’t any visible injury, she nodded “So you were able to escape safely. It’s good.”

Max shook his head and chuckled “No, we didn’t escape.”

“What do—” Haory was confused; however, before she could ask anything, Max took out the spider’s beast core.

“We killed it.” Saying this, he looked at her with a slight smile, waiting to see her reaction.

Haory stared at the crystalline orb on his palm for a few second before looking at him. Noticing that slight arrogant smile, she calmly nodded. “Good. We only need eight more to complete our minimum target.”

“ ... ”

Max was speechless. He expected her to be amazed by this. However, he didn't say anything because he knew this was her personality and said “That's right. Okay We'll go inside and rest.” He quickly excused himself.

While walking through the corridor, Leticia discontentedly said, “What was that reaction? Why does she always feign indifference? Such a hypocrite, hmph.”

Max smiled wryly. He also felt that she being too reserved not letting anyone know what she really felt.

However, seeing them walk inside, Haory looked at his back and thought ‘It seems I still underestimated him.’

...

Rima and Belén we're still talking when they saw Max and Leticia entering the hall.

They also noticed that they looked haggard and wanted to ask what happens when they noticed Leticia walk weirdly. Although she tried to cover it, they still noticed the stiffness in her movements.

Both of them looked at each other before Belén mumbled in a low voice, “I didn't expect this girl to be the first among us to get him. It seems we also have to put some efforts.”

After that she asked Max about what happened and after Max told them that they encountered a two-star beast while gathering firewood and how they killed it. Both Rima and Belén we're shocked.

After talking for a few minutes, Max took out the dry wood they had picked while coming back and asked who will grill the meat this time.

Leticia, Rima and Belén looked at each other before shaking their heads. They didn't know how to do it. Three of them hailed from noble families like Max, they never bothered to learn how to cook food because they servants to do it.

Sigh!

Max sighed "It seems we'll have to call Haory to do it then." To this three of them nodded.

"So which of you will go and guard the entrance in her place while she make our dinner?" Three of them looked at each other and Belén stood up "I'll guard in her stead but you guys make it quick."

After that Haory came and grilled ape's meat. Following this they had dinner. Belén also came back to ate while Rima went out to guard the cave for four hours.

They sat on their flower bed in meditation for a while before going to sleep. Leticia was first to fall asleep since she was too exhausted.

Max also lay on his flower bed when he noticed that the arrangement of flower beds has been changed a little.

Belén's bed was now very close too him while Leticia and Haory's bed were moved in the other corner but they didn't noticed because everything was done silently.

Max smirked and acted as if he was sleeping while focusing on Belén, whose bed was coming near him by the second.

A few seconds later their beds merged under her control and now both were on the same bed.

She glanced at Max who seemed to be sleeping and continued expanding her mana. Green vines and pink petals started to cover the bed.

Chapter 135 Inside The Flower Some

In a few seconds, their bed was covered by a dome of vines and pink flower petals.

Belén sat beside him, looking at his handsome face with a passionate look. However, she was hesitating.

'How should I ask him to do it with me? Tch, Leticia had it easy.' She thought, feeling irritated.

However, her thoughts were interrupted when she felt his hand wrap around her waist and pulled her toward him.

"Ah~" She cried out in surprise and fell on top of him. Her D-cup size soft as cotton boobs pressing against his chest while her face was right above his face. If any of them moved, their lips would touch.

"Y-Yor weren't sleeping?" Belén asked, looking at him nervously.

Max looked into her reddish-black eyes and asked in a low voice, "Is this barrier soundproof?"

She was surprised by his question as he hadn't expected this to be his first question. She stopped being nervous and smiled "Yes. That's why I set it up."

"So you came fully prepared huh." Max smirked.

Belén nodded in embarrassment, making him smile. He put his hand behind her head and pulled it down. ovlxt.com

Their lips connected and Belén started sucking his lips greedily. Max was surprised by her aggressiveness before he also became aggressive and started sucking and nibbling her juicy lips.

Their kiss lasted for more than five minutes before Max controlled his raging lust and broke the kiss.

He caressed her glossy reddish-black same as her eye colour and asked "Are you expecting something from me?"

Belén understood what he meant and shook her head "No I'm not. I just want to do it with you."

"That's good then." Max smiled and started kissing her juicy lips once more.

"Mhm~" She wanted to say something, but the kiss suppressed her voice.

After thoroughly enjoying her lips, he put his tongue in her mouth. Belén welcomed it with her juicy tongue and in the next moment, their tongues were intertwined and started sucking aggressively.

Max realised that not only did she look mature, but was also experienced.

The movement of her lips and tongue wasn't awkward like Leticia or Lilly. This made their kisses even more sexy and enjoyable.

After a while, Max broke the kiss, leaving Belén gasping for air with a red face. However, it wasn't red because of embarrassment or anything, but because of the lust she was feeling.

Max changed positions and came on top of her. He cupped her breasts in both hands and started squeezing and kneading them.

"Aan~ Wait, Max un~."

Belén tried to stop him in between moans. Max looked at her weirdly, wondering why she wanted him to stop now.

She pointed at her clothes and said, "I'll take these clothes off because they aren't very comfortable right now."

Max gladly welcomed the idea and she quickly took off her clothes, including her underwear, presenting Max with her well-developed fair body with sensual curves in right places.

Max looked at her body, stunned. He didn't expect her to have such refined body that could make any men hard.

'If she has such a fantastic body, then Rima, whose sexiness can't be covered by her clothes, what kind of body will she have?'

Max wondered and then shook his head inwardly 'I'll first eat what's in front of me. She isn't out of my grasp anyway.' Throwing the useless thoughts away, he started to take his clothes off.

"Let me~" Belén said, sitting in front of him on her knees and started taking his upper clothes off while feeling his arm, biceps, chest muscles with her delicate fingers.

"You seem very experienced." Max smirked and started squeezing and kneading her boobs and nipples.

"Mm~ Yess! It's because I used to have a Mm~ lover." She nodded while nibbling her lips.

At first she didn't want to tell him about this afraid that he wouldn't want to have sex with her after knowing.

"No wonder. However, what do you mean by used to?" Max didn't stop just because she confirmed she wasn't a virgin and started pinching her erect nipples with his thumb and index fingers.

Hearing his question, sadness and hatred flashed in her eyes for a second, and she said in between moans, "It's because he left me for a rich vixen just because she could provide him with more resources."

"Hah~ What kind of man he was to leave a beauty with such an outstanding body like you?" Max said while flicking her nipples.

Hearing his praise, Belén smiled. "I'm glad you like my body."

After this short conversation he started sucking on her nipples and occasionally biting them with his front teeth lightly.

“Umm~ You are very good at this.” Belén moaned while extending her hands to take off his pants too.

Hearing her erotic moans, his lust surged. He moved her hands away and took off his pants and underwear in one go.

Gulp!

Belén gulped audibly, seeing his giant cock appear in front of her eyes. Her vagina started feeling itchy in anticipation.

‘It’s no wonder Leticia had to use her mana to walk properly. I’m afraid I’ll also be in the same situation after having this giant penis inside me.’ She thought remembering Leticia situation.

Because of his surging lust, Max didn’t ask her to give him a blowjob nor did he play with her pussy.

He pushed her down and put his dick on her wet entrance.

Slap! Slap! Slap!

“Ah~ Mm~”

He used his hard dick and slapped her pussy with it, making her moan.

When it became completely unbearable for him to hold back, he adjusted his cock on her entrance and,

Thrust!

With a thrust, half of his cock slid inside her.

“Ahh– Mmm!” Belén cried out after feeling pain in her pussy because of his size, sudden intrusion and the lack of proper lubrication.

“Oh!” Max moaned in delight feeling her insides gripping her dick. Although she wasn’t a virgin, her pussy had the same tightness.

He started moving his waist slowly, holding his urge back to fuck her hard because she was feeling pain.

Squelch! Squelch! Squelch!

“Oh~ Ngh~ Yess~”

He maintained the pace and after thrusting for a few times, Belén started moaning in pleasure. Her moans making him even more excited.

Chapter 136 L-Lt's So Amazing...

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

Nngh~ oh~ ah~

Max increased his thrusting speed while Belén's moans also became more pleasure-filled.

She put her legs around his waist as if she didn't want him to take his dick out of her pussy.

Throb! Squeeze!

Her soft insides throbbed and squeezing his dick. Max groaned I'm pleasure, the extra squeezing was just too unbearable. If it wasn't for his high stamina, he felt that he would have cummed now.

He grabbed her waist and made her lay on her left side as he held her right leg in the air and continued thrusting.

“Ahh~ Haah~ Nngh~ I-It feels so amazing.” Belén moaned in ecstasy, feeling more stimulus in this position.

“Yeah, I also feel amazing. Your pussy is very delicious. Has!” Max said, moving his waist hard and fast.

Schlick! Schlick! Schlick!

“Ngh~ Yess~ Ah~.”

Inside the flower dome, the sound of his dick going in and out of her pussy and Belén's moans kept resounding loudly. If it was because of that she made it soundproofed, Haory and Leticia would have caught them in the act.

However, unbeknownst to them, Haory was sitting on her flower bed looking at the dome covering Max and Belén's bed.

It was swaying gently without a sound indicating that the people inside weren't simply sleeping but doing something inside.

A disgusting light flashed in her eyes and she thought, 'I didn't expect him to be so horny and Belén, she didn't seem like lustful woman too. But here they are, indulging the sexual activities on the first day of the outing. Shouldn't they focus on increasing their strength first and seek pleasure later?'

Haory was from an ordinary family that used to be a noble family in her grandfather's time. However, her father didn't focus on cultivation and indulged himself into the carnal pleasures.

Because of that he didn't focus on becoming strong and when his father died, he couldn't inherit the title of noble.

After their family's noble title was stripped they fell in poverty and had to bear many hardships.

Haory, despite having exceptional talent since she was little kid and later awakening a rare element, couldn't train properly due to the lack of resources.

The situation became worse when her father raped a Baron's concubine. The Baron in his anger ordered his family to be killed and take all the women as their sex slaves.

At that time, she was only a one-star mage, she could only escape from Baron's guards and knights' hunt because of her mother's sacrifice.

Fortunately, when she was wandering in the desert after escaping, she found a small naturally formed mana liquid pool and a corpse of an old lady. ovlxt.com

From her corpse she obtained her first spell [Sand manipulator hand]. She practice this spell in the desert for weeks and cultivated using the Mana liquid pool.

Mana liquid pools are formed by the condensation of pure mana over a long period of time if some requirements are met. So any mage could refine it easily and improve their mana reserves.

Haory's cultivation improved rapidly and she broke through to the two-star mage with after forming a good quality mana core.

This was the turning point of her life. Because she had become a two-star mage and had good performance in the recruitment, she was able to join the cloud academy despite losing against Max in the elimination round.

She thought that Max must be a hard working guy if he was this strong despite being younger than her.

However, seeing him doing the exact idiotic things her father did, made her have a bad impression of him and she started thinking that her decision to join him on this outing was wrong.

‘Sigh! It’s your life, do what you want. I won’t care as long as it doesn’t hinder us from hunting enough beasts to gather mana cores.’ She sighed.

After giving their swaying bed one last glance, she lay on her bed and closed her eyes and quickly fell asleep.

Meanwhile, inside the flower dome, after fucking from the side position, Max made Belén sit in doggy style.

He stroked his cock, grabbed her ass, his fingers digging into her fluffy flesh. He put rubbed his cock on her wet cave and pushed it inside.

“Ahn~”

She moaned as his thick cock entered her tight pussy once more.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

Max started thumping her again. With each thrust, Belén would moan loudly.

Suddenly, she curled up her toes and her body became stiff.

“Ahh~ It’s cominggg~”

With a loud moan she climaxed. Seeing this, Max stopped moving and look out his cock to let her enjoy this moment.

Cum gushed out of her pussy as she squirted while moaning in delight.

“Ha! Ha! You are amazing, Max. I haven’t enjoyed sex this much before.” She smiled, panting.

“Slap!”

“It’s good that you enjoyed it. Now let me enjoy too.” Max smiled and spanked her bouncy ass.

Ah~

Belén yelped. She grabbed his cock and rubbed it on her pussy, with a lewd smile, she said “We still have two more hours until Rima comes back and I go to guard the cave. You can do it as much as you want until then. My body is all yours.”

“If that’s the case, I’m gonna fuck your brains out in these two hours.”

Thrust!

Saying this, he thrust his cock inside her and started thumping her hard. After fucking her experienced pussy in doggy style for a while, he cummed inside her, filling her pussy with his thick cum.

After unloading it inside her, he took out his cum stained cock and slapped her ass again. He sat down and pointed at his dick “Here, suck it before we continue the second round.”

Belén turned around and looked at her new favourite thing covered in their juices. She hesitated a little before crawling toward him.

She grabbed his cock delicately as if afraid of hurting it and slowly lowered her head. She stuck her tongue out and licked the round tip gently.

She found the taste and smell of the mixture of their cum weird but not disgusting.

She then started moving her pink tongue licking his cock from the tip of his balls.

Initially the speed at which her tongue moved was slow as she wasn’t used to this weird taste but gradually, her speed became fast and quickly his cock was all cleaned up.

“Now, give me a nice blowjob before I fuck you again.” Max smiled, rubbing his penis on her lips.

Chapter 137 You Can Do It Anytime

Belén nodded. She opened her mouth and took one-third of his dick inside, and started sucking on it.

“Uggh!”

Max groaned in delight when her skilled tongue wrapped around his glans and sucked it. Her blowjob was unlike everyone else and maybe only Eva could compare to her in this regard.

‘So that’s why many people wanted married woman as their sex partners.’ He thought.

Seeing that Max was feeling good by her mouth, her pride inflated, and she started putting more effort into making him feel good.

She started moving her head so that his penis would come and go outside just like it does when he fucks her pussy, while simultaneously applying pressure on the head and shaft of his penis with her tongue and mouth.

“Nice~” Max’s body trembled, as he groaned in delight.

In his state of excitement, he grabbed her head and pushed his penis in completely in her mouth.

“Ugghhhh!”

Belén was caught off guard as his penis had entered her throat. The soft muscles of her throat clamped on his dick in a bid to swallow it but was unable to do so. Therefore she choked wanting to move her head back and take it out.

“Ohh~~”

Max moaned as the sudden wave of pleasure hit his body and he tightened his grip on her head, not letting go.

Schlick! Schlick!

He started moving his waist rapidly and started fucking her throat.

“Swallow it! Ughh!”

He shouted and cummed in her throat, filling it up.

“Hah... Hah... It’s awesome.” He exclaimed as he continued shooting out his cum inside her.

Gulp!

Seeing that he wanted to swallow it, Belén gulped down all of his semen and then,

“Cough! Cough!” She had a coughing fit.

“Max you should have given me a heads up before doing it.” She complained with a red face and his cum dripping down at the corner of her lips.

“Your mouth felt so good that I wasn’t able to control myself.” Max said in an slightly apologetic tone.

He then pushed her down and rubbed his cock on her already cum stained pussy and smirked “How about I make it up to you with this little guy?”

Seeing his 'Little brother' that was still as hard as before despite cumming two times in a row, she felt her pussy tingle, so she smiled "Okay I'll forgive you then."

Inwardly she was feeling happy right now because Max's actions clearly showed that he couldn't get enough of her body.

Although there was no love involved, she was still happy as long as she could become his sex partner.

There were four reasons for her to think like this. First was that he was so devilishly handsome that almost every woman would want to make him their companion.

The second and most important was that he was strong. So strong that he could single handedly kill a initial stage two-star beast.

Moreover, at the rate, he was improving showed that in future he was going to be an extraordinary man.

The third reason was that having sex with him felt so good that she wanted to do it all day.

Fourth reason was because she found out something that shocked and excited her very much.

She could feel her mana quality and quantity improving as she was having sex with him.

Others like Leticia couldn't notice this subtle improvement but she as a plant elemental mage has a very high sensitivity to the mana and could notice this.

Although she didn't know the reason for this, she was sure that if she cultivated after having sex with him, she could improve by leaps and bounds without needing any resources.

With so many qualities, how could she not want to become his sex partner or hopefully concubine.

If Max knew that she had already realised his secret by only having sex one time, he would be utterly shocked.

However, right now, he was busy teasing her pussy with his penis.

"Mm~ Max, don't tease me anymore and please put it inside~" She let out a sensual moan and said.

Hearing her almost begging voice he slapped her pussy and put it on her entrance and said "How can I decline when you beg me like this!"

Saying this, he shoved his bulging cock inside her very wet, warm, tight and welcoming tunnel.

“Ahn~ Soo good~”

Both moaned simultaneously and once again their intense sex session started.

Squelch! Squelch! Squelch!

Ah~ Mm~ Nngh~

...

They fucked until it was time for Rima to come back. In these two hours, Max cummed five times despite his extraordinary stamina. The reason was simple because the pleasure he got was so intense that he couldn't help himself.

While Belén was in even worse situation because her stamina wasn't comparable to his. ov1xt.com

She didn't even know him many times she ejaculated and was completely drained of energy.

However, because she wanted to satisfy him thoroughly, she let him fuck her however he liked.

When they were done, she had a daze expression on her face as she lay on the flower bed, naked. Her pussy was completely red and swollen and was dripping with his cum.

“Hah... Hah... Hah... Max, you are an amazing man. I'm afraid I can't move for a while.” Belén gasped.

Max smirked and slapped her pussy lightly “It's okay. You rest here I'll guard the cave after Rima comes back.”

‘Ah! Although he is a beast in bed, he is a gentleman too.’ She thought and nodded “Thank you, we'll swap our guarding timings then.”

She then slowly sat down and asked shyly “Are you satisfied with my body?”

Max who was putting his clothes, nodded and said “Yes, you've got an amazing body. I still want to fuck you a few more times though.”

Belén who was already on cloud nine after satisfying her long suppressed lust became even more ecstatic after hearing this.

She quickly said “You know, in future you can do it with me any time you want. I won’t refuse you.”

However, after saying this she suddenly became embarrassed. No matter how bold she was in bed, she had a slightly shy personality which she always forcibly suppressed.

Chapter 138 Bartan Making A Move

“Oh? So you want to become my sex partner.” Max’s smile widened.

“Y-Yes, if you allow, I’ll become your sex partner.” She replied while nervously looking down. She wasn’t sure if he would like this proposal of hers or not as he already has Leticia, a pure girl and might have more women.

Max walked and crouched in front of her, raising her chin by his hand, he made her look him into his eyes and said sternly “I can allow you if you swear loyalty to me and agree to become my slave. Are you willing?”

He didn’t want to add every women he had sex with to his harem. Although he enjoys fucking different pussies, he didn’t want to become responsible for them and who knows his secret of being able to make his partner stronger might get exposed.

He knew that women were dominant in this world and who knows some powerful mage would want to keep him as her sex slave after knowing this.

Therefore, he came up with the idea to make them swear loyalty and make them his slave like he did with Eva.

Although an oath wasn’t regarded any important by the people on earth, here it has high significance.

As people becomes stronger, they are required to keep their conscience clear to improve further and break through the mortal boundary. Therefore if anyone betrayed their oaths, their conscience would no longer be clear, which would lead to stagnation of their cultivation.

Even those who commit heinous crimes such as assassination, rape etc., wouldn’t swear a false oath lest they have given up on improving further.

“S-Slave?” Belén was dumbfounded. Although she could understand why he was saying this after finding out his secret of making his partner stronger, she couldn’t accept to become his slave, she was a noble by birth after all.

Seeing this, Max smiled and said “Don’t worry, if you agree to become my slave, I promise to make you stronger, and you’ll have your free will. Moreover, you aren’t required to become my slave for lifetime, ten years will do.”

‘So he can really make his partner stronger...’ Belén thought. She hesitantly said, “H-How about I tell you my decision tomorrow?”

“It’s okay. I understand that this isn’t an easy decision. You can take your time.” Max nodded.

After that he asked her to retract the dome covering their bed and separate them like before.

....

When Rima came back, Max told her that he would swap guarding timings with Belén because he wasn’t able to sleep.

Rima found this odd as they had already decided the sequence in which they would be guarding.

However, she didn’t say anything seeing Belén also nod and smiled knowingly.

Belén has cleaned herself and wore her clothes. She was sitting on her flower bed, meditating.

Max went out and sat on the sand chair Haory had constructed.

He didn’t offer Belén to become his slave just because he enjoyed having sex with her. The main reason was because the amount of LPs he got from her.

[ Name: Maxwell Garfield ]

[ Age: 18 ]

[ Strength: 50 ]

[ Agility: 50 ]

[ Stamina: 61 ]

[ Vitality: 50 ]

[ Intelligence: 50 ]

[ Mana: 2050 ]

[ Element: Fire ]

[ Lust Points: 20000]

“System, how come I get 20000 Lust points when I had intercourse with her only four times?” Max decided to ask the system after not finding a suitable explanation by himself.

Until now, the system has given him LPs if his partner was Virgin or was stronger than him, and even then, the amount of Lust points he would get from her would lessen in the subsequent intercourse.

However, Belén wasn't a virgin nor was she she too much stronger than Leticia but she still gave him more LPs than he what he got from Leticia and the number didn't lessen by much in the subsequent intercourses. This was very perplexing for him.

[Host, there can be two possible reasons for this. One is that the said partner is stronger than the Host, and the second is that her yin energy is more potent.]

'She isn't stronger than me, so that means her yin energy is stronger compared to others.' Max concluded after hearing system's explanation.

'Let's increase my mana count now. However, I've already increased it by seven hundred points today. I should increase it by only the amount my mana core can handle easily.' He thought and slowly started increasing his mana stats.

+10... +100... +200... +400

“Ugh!”

When Max had increased his mana by more than 400 points, he started feeling that his mana core couldn't handle more than this.

[Mana: 2500/2500]

'2500 mana points. I have one-fourth of the maximum quantity of mana that a two-star mage can have. With this much mana, If I were to fight that eight-eyed spider again, I believe it would be a lot easier for me to kill it.' He clenched his fist, feeling excited.

'Now I should refine this mana a few times and also reinforce my mana core to smooth injection of more mana.' Thinking this he closed his eyes and started refining his mana slowly while his senses were heightened to their full potential in case any beast came near the cave, he would be alerted.

...Meanwhile, inside the cave...ovlxt.COm

Belén was sitting crossed legged on her bed, cultivating. Mana was rippling faintly around her.

Phew!

She opened her eyes and exhaled deeply. A bright smile was on her face.

'I was right. My mana reserves have improved slightly and my mana quality also seem to improve by a negligible margin.'

'I believe if I were to have sex with him on daily basis, I can easily breakthrough into the three-star realm within two months.' She clenched her fists.

'What should I do? Do I have to accept his offer? I think it wouldn't be so bad if it's him. Moreover, he said that I'll have my free will and don't need to become his slave for lifetime.' She laid down and closed her eyes while thinking about what she should do.

***

...Far away from the Ape's cave, inside a valley...

Five tents were set up in a corner of the valley. A group of five people was sitting in a circle, munching on the beast meat.

This group was Bartan's group and Bartan was the group leader, sitting in the middle of them.

Swish!

Suddenly, a black shadow came out of the woods and landed in front of them. Slowly a man in black clothes appeared from within the shadow.

Everyone became wary and raised their defences, ready to attack anytime.

Bartan stopped eating and looked up. He waved his hand to not attack the man and asked calmly "Did you find out their location?"

"Yes Mr. Bartan. I've found out." The man in black nodded and then pointed in east direction.

"They are around 1000 miles from here in the east direction. As for their exact location, that I can't found out in the amount you offered."

"It's okay, we only need their approximate location. We can find them ourselves. Thank you for your assistance." Bartan said politely. He then took out 100 hundred mana from his spatial bag "Here is the promised 100 mana stones for your service."

Seeing the Mana stones, the man happily nodded and waved his hand, storing everything in his spatial bag.

“Since my work here is finished, I’ll take my leave.” Saying this, he turned into the shadow and vanished into the forest.

“Bartan, when we had found out their location, we should’ve killed him. There was no need to pay him with 100 mana stones.” A man with short hair said, seemingly unsatisfied with Bartan.

Bartan looked at him and scoffed, “What do you know. That was an inner disciple Adhara academy. Do you dare kill him? And even if we kill him, would we be alive for long after killing an inner disciple of Adhara academy?”

Hearing that the man was from Adhara academy, the short haired man’s expression became grim before he laughed awkwardly and shook his head.

Although Adhara academy was ranked only eighth, none of the academy tries to mess with them because there are rumours saying that the Adhara academy is affiliated with the ‘Shadow Killers’ organisation.

All academies has an unwritten rule stating that their disciples should not kill Adhara academy’s disciples if it isn’t a matter of life and death.

It was because Adhara academy accepts disciples with only dark and shadow element, resulting in the number of their disciples very low.

Therefore, they consider every disciple very precious and would track each disciple with some mysterious means to know their approximate location and insure their safety.

If any of their disciples gets killed, they would know the culprit, and usually, the culprit would be killed within a day. Therefore, no one in their right mind takes the initiative to mess with their disciples without a good reason.

“Let’s rest now. We will depart early morning to their location.” Bartan stood up and went inside his tent to sleep.

‘Boy, you shouldn’t have offended young master Dalton.’ He thought with a murderous look in his eyes.

Chapter 139 Lmprovement

Phew!

Max opened his eyes and let out a long breath. He had refined his 2500 mana points two times and reinforced his mana core. Now he can easily add more mana points.

Just like the heart and kidneys refines blood constantly in the human body to provide energy, mana also needs to be refined to improve its quality and affinity. That's why mages would meditate daily to refine their mana.

'I should add the rest of the LPs into my mana stats now.' Max thought and opened his status screen and started increasing his mana.

In a while, his mana once again increased by more than 1500 points.

[Mana: 4050]

'Finally I'm a middle stage two-star mage.' Be thought excited.

Because to become a three star mage, one needed to have 10000 mana points, when some exceeds 2500 mana point threshold, they are considered middle stage, after exceeding 5000 MP threshold, they are considered high stage and after having more than 7500 MPs, they are called peak stage two-star mage.

Step! Step! Step!

While he was celebrating his advancement, he heard someone slowly walking out of the cave. He turned around and saw that it was Belén.

"Is my four-hour guarding shift over?" Max asked, a bit surprised. He thought that there was still some time left.

'Maybe I was too focused on cultivating that I didn't notice the passage of time.' He thought to himself.

"No, there's still some time left." Belén shook her head and continued, "I came out a bit early to tell you my decision."

"Oh? Okay. Tell me then." Max focused his attention on her. He was sure that she must have felt her power increase after cultivating just now.

*Inhale!*

Belén took a deep breath and solemnly declared "I swear by everything that is considered holy to be loyal to you and not betray your trust. If you keep your promise to let me have my own free will and never force me to do anything that I don't want to do, I'm willing to be your slave for ten years."

After saying this, she looked into his eyes, waiting for his response.

Max smiled and stood up. He walked up to her and said "I promise never to force you to do anything that you don't want."

Hearing this Belén smiled and nodded. She wasn't completely sure if this decision of hers would prove to be beneficial in the long run or not.

However, She knew that if she tried to cultivate by herself with the resources she will be able to get from the academy, she could only reach peak of three star or initial stage four-star mage realm.

Therefore, she had to try her luck. Even if she couldn't break past mortal boundary, at least she can become four star mage while enjoying the benefits to becoming his mistress/sex partner.

Max sat down in the chair and pulled her to sit in his lap. While caressing her back, he slowly said "I'm sure you must have already noticed that I've the ability to make those who I have sex with, stronger."

Belén nodded. Then he continued "So, whenever we have sex, you should always cultivate right after to gain maximum benefits." Belén nodded seriously.

Slap!

He slapped her ass making her flinch as she was still feeling sore in her lower body and said sternly "However, make sure to never mention this secret to anyone, or you'll regret that."

"Mhm! Don't worry I won't expose your secret." She nodded her head. She knew that if this secret of his were to be exposed, he would be in endless trouble.

"Good. So should we do it one more time now?" Max chuckled as he cupped her ass and gave it a tight squeeze.

"Ahn~" Belén moaned and hurriedly shook her head. "N-No, I can't do it now. I'm still feeling sore all over."

'Maybe I should hold back a little while having sex. They don't have enough stamina to do it more than a few times.' He thought, remembering the situation Leticia was in during the day.

"I was joking. However, can you guard the cave when you aren't in peak condition right now?" He asked.

"Yes." Belén nodded and chanted a spell.

Rumble! Puff! Crunch!

Green vines started coming out of the ground and quickly spread in the two hundred meters around the cave.

While sitting in his lap, she looked into his mesmerising Sapphire eyes and smiled proudly “I can feel everything around these vines. If any beast comes into a 200-meter range from the cave, I’ll be able to sense it.”

“Such a convenient spell. However, can you sustain the mana consumption for four hours?” Max asked again.

“It’ll not be a problem. This spell doesn’t consume much mana. If these vines aren’t destroyed, I only need to provide a little bit of mana.” Belén explained with a smile.

“Okay then. You guard, I’ll sleep for a while.” He yawned and stood up while lifting her up and then put her down in the chair.

“Mm, have a good sleep.” Wished Belén.

Max returned to the hall. Everyone was sleeping. He also laid down on the his bed and fell asleep.

...

When he woke up in the morning, Everyone was already up. Haory was making breakfast while Rima was helping her. Belén was resting and Leticia was outside, guarding the cave.

“Oh, you finally woke. You seemed have exerted yourself a lot to sleep this deeply.” Rima’s playful voice sounded in his ears.

Belén blushed at her words while sneaking a peek at him. Haory frowned before continuing doing what she was doing.

Max didn’t react and only smiled at this. He went out of the cave to freshen up.

...

...After a week...

Sun was shining brightly in the sky, but because the mountain was covered in dense forest with tall tress, barely any sunlight was reaching the ground.

Haory was guarding the cave, sitting in the sand chair with a calm expression.

Max, Rima, Belén and Leticia were inside the cave, sitting on their flower bed in meditation.

In this week, everyone has improved quite a bit.

Haory's control over her new spell became more refined which deducted the casting time.

Others also improved their new spells and their mana also increased thanks to eating mana rich meat three times a day and rigorous cultivation.

However, apart from Max, it was Belén who improved more than anyone else. She had reached the middle stage of two-star realm with more than 2500 mana units in her mana core.

Everyone was shocked by her rapid improvements. When they came here, all of them had almost same amount of mana and were initial stage two-star mages.

This made Belén jubilant. She knew why she improved so much. It was because she would have sex with him at least one time daily and cultivate right after.

Max also collected another 20000 mana points. This number would have been even greater if he had sex with Leticia too. However, she didn't approach him again for some reason and Rima also didn't take initiative. ovlxt.COM

...Meanwhile, outside the cave...

Thud! Thud! Thud!

"Mm?" Haory became alert after hearing heavy footsteps coming toward the cave from the forest.

Chapter 140 Peak Two-Star Beast

*Bellow*

Just as Haory wanted to turn around to alert everyone, a loud bellow followed by rustling of trees sounded.

In the next moment, a white bull that was the size of an elephant with two sharp pointing horns appeared in her sight ovlxt.COM

Its eyes were red and it had deep claw wounds on its body, blood was gushing out of them.

It was clear that it just had a fight with some other beast and escaped here after getting injured.

Inside the cave Max frowned when he heard the sound and stood up. "Everyone, some beast is outside. Get ready to fight and follow me. Haory must be in trouble." After shouting he ran at his fastest speed toward the exit that was only around fifty meters away.

...Meanwhile, outside the cave...

The bull was already full of anger because of its injuries and the fact that it had to escape.

Thud! Thud!

Although it was injured, its speed was nothing a initial stage two-star beast could compare.

Haory was frightened by the pressure it exuded, however, she quickly calmed down and cast her spell [Sand manipulator hand]. The sand took the shape of a giant punch and struck the bull head-on.

Bang!

Bull's horns glowed and the sand punch was destroyed just as it came into contact with them.

Halt!

However, the bull was also stopped by the force of the punch.

*Bellow*

It bellowed in anger, its eyes turning a ominous shade of red. Its horns glowed and the glow covered its body as it charged at Haory.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

From the rubble of destroyed sand hand, many one meter long sharp spikes shot at the bull, targeting the wounds on its body.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The sand spikes crashed onto its body and were destroyed by the glowing light without doing much harm.

However, some of the spikes landed on its wounds making it cringe in pain. It increased its already frightening speed and appeared in front of Haory, attacking her with its horns.

If the horns struck her body, death was certain.

Seeing the death so close, Haory's mind retained unparalleled calmness and she cast another spell in an instant.

Rumble!

As she expanded her mana, Wall after wall of sand appeared in front of her to defend against the bull's strike. At the same time more spikes shot out from under her feet.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The bull destroyed every wall in front of it. The spikes were ignored by it as the glow was still enveloping its body. The spikes stabbed in its thick hide but couldn't damage it.

Bang!

Even though the bull was seriously injured, the sand walls that could have stopped most of the attacks from most of the initial stage two-star or even middle stages mages and beasts, crumbled when coming into contact with the bull's horns as if they were made of paper.

Ugh!!

Seeing that her defences weren't of any use and the horns about to pierce her body, she dodge the horns and was struck by the its head. She was thrown toward the cave at frightening speed, spitting out blood, her internal organs badly damaged.

When she saw that she would crash into the stone wall of the cave, she tried using her mana to cushion the impact but maybe because of her injury, she couldn't use it in time.

'I'm really going to die. Won't anyone come to save me?' A tear drop fell from her eyes. The image of Max appeared in her mind but she wasn't too optimistic about the fact that he could arrive in time and her consciousness was starting wavering now.

Whoosh!

Right before losing her consciousness, she felt two warm hands gently wrapping around her body, preventing her from crashing into the rocky wall.

'You... Came... ' She thought and a relieved smile appeared on her face as she fell unconscious.

Max saw her bloodied body and was amazed. It had been only a few seconds and she was already injured to this extent despite her strength.

He quickly took out two grade two healing pill and put it inside her mouth and used his mana to help her digest it.

Whoosh!

Leticia followed by Belén and Rima also came beside them.

However, their faces turned pale upon seeing the white bull glaring at them.

“Gulp! A p-peak two-star beast.” Belén gulped nervously.

Hearing this Max also frowned and scanned the beast. He understood why she was defeated in such a short time.

Their whole group could at most fight a middle stage two-star beast. High stage and peak stage beasts were simply out of the question.

“It’s indeed a peak two-star beast. But it’s already injured and most probably doesn’t have much mana left. We can fight it.” Max said, trying to boost their dwindling courage.

The bull has seen them and given the state it was in, it won’t let them go easily. Although Max and Leticia had high chance of escaping with their speed.

Belén, Rima and the unconscious Haory would definitely be killed and he didn’t want his comrades to die when they still had hopes of survival because,

[ Mana: 4200 ]

[ Lust Points: 20000 ]

‘I should be able to kill it since it is already injured.’ Seeing his status screen he felt more confident.

His mana was more than double when he fought the eight eyed spider, and although he wanted to save some LPs to unlock a fire spell, he could still increase his mana by another 2000 points if needed.

He looked at the unconscious Haory in his arms and put her down on the ground behind them.

“Rima, cast your sonic spell on it. Belén, use your vines and restrict its movements. Leticia use you wind bullets and target the wounds on its body, and most importantly, DON’T GET KILLED.” Max quickly shouted instructions seeing that bull was charging toward them.

Everyone nodded simultaneously. A peak two-star beast, even after being injured wasn’t something to be taken lightly.
