Chapter 141 Killing The Bull

Max conjured a 300 mana point fireball and shot it at the the bull without hesitation, targeting its head.

The Bull saw the fireball coming at it and dodged it before continuing its charge. The fireball that was supposed to collide with its head, swept past it.

Max was a bit surprised seeing that the bull was intelligent compared to the ape and the spider. However, he already knew that the stronger a beast was, the more intelligence they would possess.

However, he smirked seeing it dodge his fireball and made it explode when it was near bull's injured abdomen.

Boom! ovlxt.com

Fireball exploded and the bull was thrown a few meters to the side by the shockwave.

Bellow

It bellowed in pain. The light from its horn was unable to protect its injured body properly due to insufficient mana.

Its already severe injuries became even worse after being hit by the shockwave and the wounds started bleeding once again.

After attacking the beast, Max moved back and covered his ears as now was Rima's turn to attack.

Echo

She used her sonic spell and attacked the bull.

However, this time, she didn't get desired results by her sonic attack. The beast wasn't affected and in fact was angered even more. It turned toward Rima and charged at her ferociously.

"What?" Rima was dumbfounded. She also improved in this weak and her spell was also a bit more powerful than before. Therefore, it was reasonable for her to be stunned when her spell didn't have any affect on the beast.

Seeing that beast was now charging at her , she hurriedly tried to dodge. However, it was too late as the beast was only two meters away from her.

“Belén!!” Max shouted and ran toward Rima.

Rupture

The ground broke apart and thick dark green vines came out at an astonishing speed and strangled the bull’s hind legs, trying to stop it.

Crunch! Crunch!

However, the bull’s strength was too horrendous and the vines started breaking apart. Even so the vines had given Max enough time to save her.

Swish!

He quickly grabbed her and moved out of its way.

Losing its target the bull stopped and tried to break the rest of the vines clasping its legs.

Swish! Swish!

More vines came out and wrapped around its front legs and then the rest of the body.

Bellow

Crack! Crack! Crack!

The bull bellowed and yanked its body. Half of the vines broke apart in one go. Belén’s face turned pale but she continued pouring out mana to restrict its movements.

Meanwhile, Leticia casted her wind bullets and attacked its wounds, making it lose more blood.

However, it was still not enough. Max quickly casted [Death rain]. Unlike before he used more than 1000 mana points in this cast.

More than one meter long, dozens of fiery arrows materialised fifty meters above the bull.

This was the limit of how powerful this spell could be.

Seeing countless fire arrows hovering above it, the bull was bellowed and used more of its strength and broke the vines rapidly.

The moment the last vine was about to break apart, Max brought his hand down.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Arrows fell down at frightening speed on the bull's body

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Many small but deadly explosion occurred and the area was set on fire.

Whoosh

Suddenly, the bull charged out from the fire toward him at its full.

The vines that were covering its body were still burning and there were many new wounds caused by the [Death Rain].

Its horns had stopped glowing, signifying that it had depleted its mana completely.

“Fuck!”

Max was caught off guard and couldn't dodge in time. Therefore, he raised his fist and reinforced it with his mana and punched at the bull's head with his peak physical strength of a Two-star mage.

BANG!

Crack~

A loud bang resounded as his fist and bull's head collided. The bull was forced two meters back.

Max was also forced back before he heard faint cracking sounds. He then felt excruciating pain hitting his nerves. He looked down and saw his knuckle bleeding. His knuckle bones and arm bone had cracked.

“Ughh!!” Due to the pain, cold sweat appeared on his forehead and he jumped back to create some distance from the bull while cursing inwardly ‘These damn beasts.’

He raised his healthy hand in the air and conjured two 300 mana point fireball and throw them at the bull which was also shaking its head after being hit by such force.

Boom!

Boom!

Both fireballs collided and exploded upon contact with the bull. It cried out in pain as its hide was torn and burnt by the fireballs.

After fire and smoke thinned out, the bull was still alive. "Let's see how much vitality you have." Max gritted his teeth feeling the pain in his hand. He once again conjured two fireballs and threw them at it angrily.

Bull was already injured previously and now its mana was also exhausted completely. Moreover, after being hit by wind bullets, death rain and then his fireballs, it was in pretty bad shape.

Boom

Boom

Once again, both fireballs exploded on its body. This time it finally gave its last cry of resignation and fell dead.

"Hah... Hah... Hah... It's finally dead." Max took a few deep breaths seeing that it had stopped moving.

He was surprised by the strength of a peak Two-star beast. If it wasn't already severely injured, they wouldn't have been its match at all.

Rima and Leticia had their eyes opened wide seeing how Max had killed it by throwing powerful attack after attack.

They were surprised because no initial stage Two-star mage could do the same since their mana reserves were large enough. They both had the same thought 'He improved again.'

"Ugh—"

Thud!

Max heard the sound of someone falling. When he turned to look at the source, he saw Belén leaning on her knees, blood leaking out from her mouth.

Chapter 142 Changing Shelter

Whoosh!

Max appeared by her side and supported her. Her face was completely pale. Max asked in a concerned voice "Are you alright?"

Belén smiled sweetly at him and gently shook her head “I’m fine. I just exhausted all of my mana trying to hold that bull back.”

She then took out a healing pill and gave it him “But you aren’t fine. Your hand bones are damaged. Quickly eat this pill.”

Max looked at her with a surprised look. He didn’t expect her to notice his injuries even when she wasn’t feeling good. He smiled at her and took the pill from her hands and fed it to her “You also need it.”

Belén didn’t reject and ate the pill. After that he took out a healing pill from his inventory and ate it.

Right after that, he felt a cool sensation spread throughout his body, healing his injuries and broken bones.

Seeing them being so intimate, Leticia became a bit sad. She was regretting not going to Max after that day. She also suspected that Belén’s improvements were thanks to him as she knew that Belén has become his mistress.

Rima noticed this and teasingly asked “Are you feeling jealous?”

Leticia came out of her thoughts hearing her voice and shook her head in panic “N-No.”

Rima patted her shoulder “You don’t have to lie to yourself. It’s normal to be jealous of the woman a man such as him cares for. Moreover, you also did that with him, so it’s more reasonable for you to be jealous. Even I’m envious of her. Hehe.”

Leticia sighed “There is no use of being jealous anymore when because of my naivety, I’ve lost him.”

Rima didn’t understand what she meant neither she asked. She shook her head and said “You can still go back to him you know. I’m sure he’ll accept you just like he did with Belén even though she wasn’t a virgin. However, you were and you gave your first to him. So he will definitely accept you. What kind of man wouldn’t want a youthful girl like you in there harem hehe~”

Saying this, she walked toward Max and Belén. Leticia stood there, looking at her back in a daze. Her last words sounded like devil’s words that tempted her very much.

After arriving beside them, Rima teasingly said “If you are done being so lovey-dovey, how about we take out the beast core and find another place to stay as this place isn’t safe anymore and more beast would surely come here after all the commotion we caused.”

Max nodded. It was true. He looked at Leticia who was also walking towards them and said “How about you take out the beast core like usual?”

“O-Okay.” Leticia nodded and hurriedly walked towards the bull’s dead body with her wind dagger in hand.

By the time Leticia took out its beast core, Max’s hand had recovered to normal, even though he couldn’t exert his full strength for the time being.

He put Haory on his back and stored the half brunt body of the bull in his inventory under the astonished gazes of everyone.

Rima couldn’t hold back his curiosity and asked “Is your spatial bag grade two?”

Max smiled “Yes something like that.” Grade two bags had more space inside them compared to grade one spatial bag which most of them had.

‘Inventory is quite convenient tool. I won’t need to buy any spatial bag like others when I have more things to store. However, how many things I can store in the inventory before it fills up?’ Max wondered.

He hadn’t asked this question to system yet as there was no need to yet. However, he was almost certain that he could store as many things he wants given how perverted it was.

Roar

Just as they were about to leave the cave, they heard a mighty Roar that sent shivers down their spine.

“Let’s go.” Max quickly ran in the other direction followed by Belén and others.

...Evening time...

They hadn’t found a safe place like the cave until now.

“Do we have to live in the open now?” Leticia complained in frustration.

After thinking for a while, Belén said “How about we live in the trees. I can make make cots using vines and it would be relatively safer than sleeping on the ground.”

“Ha! Belén why didn’t you say this. I think this is the best idea.” Rima agreed instantly and then winked at Belén “I’m glad you’re in our team. Don’t you think so Max?”

Belén looked at him, awaiting his response “Yeah. Without Belén I’m afraid this outing wouldn’t be as enjoyable and safe it is now.” Max said while looking into his eyes.

Belén blushed as her heart thumped feeling his gaze on her. She didn’t know why this was so. However, ever since they started their relationship, her personality became more shy in front of him.

She always wanted to look her best and perform her best as if she was saying that she wasn’t inferior to any other woman.

‘Cot on the trees huh? Wouldn’t that be difficult for her to sleep with him?’ Leticia thought, looking at Belén blushing. However she quickly shook her head ‘Why am I thinking like this? Do I really feel jealous of her?’

Hoary, who had woken up now saw them and confusedly asked “Where are we and what happened to that bull?”

“We killed it. However due to all the commotion we caused in that area, we had to leave.” Max told her what happened and put her down.

After that, they found trees that were tall but not too tall since flying beasts would easily notice them there.

Belén made five cots. Two were in the 5 meter range of each other while others had at least 10 meters between them. ovlxt.COM

None of them said anything since they knew about their relationship wasn’t any normal now.

After Max grilled bull’s meat and they filled their stomachs with mana rich food, everyone went and lay on their respective cots.

A/N: DON’T READ YET. It is unfinished... I’m working on it so please be patient. Thank you for your support.

Chapter 143 Unlocking A Spell (1)

Everyone went to their respective cots and cultivated for one-two hours, digesting the mana from the food they just ate.

After that they slept. First one to guard was Belén who had volunteered to do it.

Seeing that everyone was sleeping. Silently, She came to Max's cot and lay beside him, her boobs pressing onto Max's shoulder.

Feeling the softness on his shoulder, Max opened his eyes and smiled "You are here." *ovlxt.CO*m

"Mhm. D-Did you wait for long?" She asked in a weak voice.

Max put his hand around her waist and made her lie on top of him "Yes I did. Let's not waste any time now." He said and put his lips on her soft and juicy lips.

Belén closed her eyes and responded to his kisses while thinking 'Ah! So good. I'm getting addicted to doing these naughty things with him. I wish there weren't other and only us so that we could do it freely.'

Thinking like this, her pussy flinched in anticipation. However, she remembered one important thing, they could be seen doing it if any of them woke up.

"Hmm~ w-wait Max." She put her hands on his chest and broke the kissing, lifting her head up.

"Hmm? What is it?" Max asked, waiting patiently.

She Slowly looked toward other cots to see that everyone was sleeping. 'Ah!...' She almost yelled when she saw Rima looking at them with burning eyes.

She then quickly looked at him with a red face "L-Let me cover our cot so that no one can see or hear us."

Max also glanced at Rima who had closed her eyes but her fast breathing and red face was the proof that she was watching them and feeling hot.

He smiled at this. This was not the first time Rima has peeked at them having sex. He thought that she will not be able to hold back her urges and would soon come to him, however she didn't.

'How long can you resist?' Max smirked inwardly. He wanted to stop Belén from making a barrier but he still nodded after taking a glance at Haory.

After doing that she lay on his chest waiting for him to continue.

Without disappointing her, Max put his hands on her lust inducing, round and soft ass which seemed to have grown in size becoming almost comparable to Rima's, and squeezed it. His fingers dug deep into her flesh as if he had just squeezed a cushion.

He started squeezing it harder making her moan. Suddenly he put his hands under clothes and started squeezing her bare ass. Slowly his hand went on her slightly wet pussy and he started rubbing it.

“Nngh~” Belén moaned feeling his fingers touching her little sister.

With one hand he brought her face closer to his and kissed her, putting his tongue in mouth.

After a few minutes, Belén was completely wet. Therefore he stopped kissing and made her sit on his crotch as he undressed her.

Putting his hand on her big juicy mounds, he pinched her nipples and said “What are you waiting for? Take your favourite thing out now.”

Belén nodded and pulled his pants down, revealing his already hard junk. Without waiting for him to say anything, she leaned down and put it in her mouth. She knew how much he liked her blowjob. So would do it without him asking.

A group of five people was walking in the forest looking around. They were Bartan and his group.

“Bartan we should rest now. We have been walking for a week and it’s night now, we can encounter any beast. We can continue our search in the morning.” A woman who had a sword hanging on her waist suggested.

“Yeah, I need rest before we can kill anyone. I’m completely exhausted.” The short haired man said, agreeing with the woman’s words.

“Okay we’ll rest then.” Saying this Bartan took out tents that they were using in the valley. After setting them up, they went in their respective tents while Bartan guarded the area.

Meanwhile Max enjoyed Belén’s blowjob. “Okay you can stop now.” Max stopped her from moving her head.

Belén took his cock out and worriedly asked “Is it not good today? I can do better.” Normally he would cum in her mouth, but today he didn’t so she thought that maybe today he wasn’t satisfied with her mouth job.

“No it was as good as always. I just want to put it in now.” Max smiled and caressed her cheek.

Hearing this, she sighed in relief. She slowly stood up and sat atop him with her legs on the both sides of his waist.

She grabbed his cock and guided it to her wet hole and with her fingers, she slowly put the tip inside.

Max grabbed her waist and pulled her down, making his cock enter her completely inside her “Oh~ Ngh~” Belén moaned loudly, her warm and soft walls throbbed and clamped on his rode tightly making Max groan in delight.

Belén wanted to move but he kept holding her waist enjoying the tight sensation. He then let go and Belén started to move up and down on her own while moaning in pleasure.

After moving slowly for a few times, she put her hand on his chest, leaning slightly and increased the speed at which she moved her waist.

“Ha~ Ha~ Ngh~”

She moaned as her pussy kept clenching his cock every time it came inside not wanting to let go.

Max looked at moving up and down as her breasts jiggled with her every movement, enticing him to touch them.

He grabbed both of them and started squeezing tightly. They were so soft that he would want squeeze them more tightly, everytime he touched them. He started rubbing and pinching her nipples, which made her moans louder.

After moving for a few minutes, she stopped as her body jerked up and she cummed. Max felt her warm liquid on his dick.

He gave her a push making her fall on her back and sat up. Grabbing her waist, he smiled, lust burning in his eyes “You did a good job. Let me do it now.”

Chapter 144 Unlocking A Spell (2)

“You did a good job. It’s my turn now.” Max licked his lips seeing her lascivious body covered in drops of sweat that glistened on smooth fair skin like pearls and made her look even more sexy.

“Ahn~ Ngh~”

Belén moaned when he rubbed his cock on her soft vertical lips.

He then put it on her entrance and with a strong thrust, whole of his big and thick cock went inside her wet hole.

“Ahhh~ It’s too hard. Nmm~”

She moaned and her body trembled as a strong wave of pleasure hit her nerves when his thick cock filled her tight cave forcefully.

Her walls clenched on his shaft tightly as if trying to reciprocate the pleasure this heavenly rode had given her.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Max, who was already burning in the fire of lust, was unable hold himself back after hearing her sensual moans and started pounding her pussy hard and fast.

“Ahn~ ngh~ oh~ yes~”

Belén kept moaning and put her long slender legs around his waist trying to force him to keep his cock inside her longer. Meanwhile her eyes had become hazy I’m ecstasy.

Fwop! Fwop! Fwop!

While Max and Belén indulged in passionate sex, Rima was feeling restless as she looked toward their cot, covered in a barrier of leaves and flowers and was shaking.

‘Belén is having sex with him, ahh! How envious!’ She thought while imagining how his cock would be going and coming out of her pussy.

‘I also want to do it with him. However would he do it with a weak girl like me. I can’t compare to Belén in strength.’

Rima was lost in her thoughts. She was a daughter of a Viscount just like Max. However, the difference was that it was her mother who was Viscount while her father was only a two-star mage from a poor family.

However, because her mother liked him, she married him by giving him the promise to take care of his family as long as she was alive if he married her.

Her father agreed since he already knew that couldn’t break past Two-star realm and he won’t be getting such opportunity again.

Since young, Rima was taught that woman were the dominant once in society because they had higher potential to become stronger and that she needed to become strong in order to get what she wanted.

Her mother would often say that if she wasn't stronger than her father, he wouldn't have married her even though she was beautiful than most.

Rima's big sister didn't have much talent and married a Two-star mage who was a strength type mage. So, to not bring the fact that her talent was lower, she would always try to distract her by telling how her husband was good in bed and she would feel amazing daily.

Since then, the idea of having sex took birth in her mind. Unfortunately, she didn't find a suitable male to do it since she didn't want to marry yet because her ambitions.

When she came to the recruitment, she saw quite a few good men who were both handsome and strong like Max or Vincent.

Fortunately Max one of her potential partner asli join the academy she was going to and when they made groups, she approached him and he also let her become his teammate. However, because of her mother's teachings, she always thought that men only liked women who were strong and this thinking of her became solid when Max stopped having sex with Leticia and was attracted to Belén.

She thought, this was because Leticia was weaker than Belén and he chose the stronger between two. Since she was also weaker than Belén, she didn't make a move on him even though she was craving for sex.

If Max could hear her thoughts, he would die from laughing. Even though the men in this world mostly wanted to form relationship with the women who were strong or were from strong families just as on earth, most women wanted to date or marry a guy who was rich.

However he wasn't like the men in this world, he didn't care if the women was strong or weak, rich or poor. As long as she was ready to have sex with him or he liked her, they were welcome.

Same as Rima, Leticia was also awake. She was also sneaking peeks at the shaking cot, lost in her thoughts.

After two hours, the cot stopped shaking. By now both of them had gone to sleep since they didn't want to torture themselves by watching them having fun.

Belén was lying on her back, gasping for breaths. Her whole body was covered in sweat due to the intense session they just had. The mixture of their semen was dripping down from between her legs.

Max was lying beside her, looking at her generous breasts heaving up and down as she breathed.

Belén turned to look at him. His forehead had small beads of sweat, indicating that he also exhausted himself. However his cock was still hard as rock, pointing skywards.

Seeing this and feeling his hot gaze on her breasts, she blushed. Slowly, she reached out her delicate hand and started stroking his Little brother and curiously asked “Aren’t you satisfied yet?”

He had cum inside her four times in these two hours. In her opinion that should satisfy him since they were doing it on daily basis.

As for her, she was thoroughly satisfied. After initial days, she stopped counting how many times she would ejaculate during sex since she would cum at least three times while he would only one time.

Seeing that she was exhausted, he knew that she wouldn’t be able to enjoy it properly. He caressed her cheeks and teasingly said “I’m satisfied however if you aren’t, I can keep going.”

Feeling his caress, she became happy like a child but hearing the last part, she shook her head “I-I’m also thoroughly satisfied.”

Feeling his still hard penis in her hand, she thought ‘To keep up with him, I need to improve my stamina. That way I can last longer and enjoy more.’

He chuckled seeing her flustered face “Okay then, suck it clean.” He pointed to his cock that was wet with their juices.

Belén nodded and moved toward it as her breasts jiggled creating a beautiful scenery. She started licking and sucking on it.

Because her blowjob were so amazing that no man could control themselves, in just a few minutes, he felt his dick throb.

“Haah!”

He grabbed her head and pushed it down so that his cock would be inside her mouth in its entirety, he came.

After doing it with him so many times, she was familiar with his tendencies. Therefore, she didn't choke like first time.

Gulp!

After he finished cumming, she gulped down his thick milk and then once again cleaned his cock with her tongue.ovlxt.com

"Hah! Good job Belén." He patted her head, thinking 'Is there something in this world more enjoyable than a sexy woman? I think not.'

After that Belén used her plant magic to replace his cot with a new one since they had made it a mess.

"Okay go and cultivate now. I'll keep guard until then." He said. Belén nodded and happily went to her cot, her face brimming with happiness.

'Let's see if I have enough LPs to unlock a grade three spell now.' Max thought and opened his status screen.

Read Strongest Mage with the Lust system Chapter 145 Waterfall

Chapter 145 Waterfall

[Mana: 4200]

[Lust Points: 32000]

'So today I only got 12000 huh. Well, it's still better.' He thought.

Although Belén had something special about her which gave him more LPs compared to others, after having sex for a week with her, the LPs he received slowly started to lessen until they were the same as what he received from Leticia.ovlxt.com

'I think these aren't enough for that grade three spell.' Max thought. Initially he wanted to unlock a grade two fire elemental spell that could be unlocked in 32000 LPs.

However, when he was about to unlock that spell, the system suggested that since he was already a two-star mage, a grade two spell wouldn't provide him with much power boost and its power would only be a little higher than his [Death Rain] spell.

'According to the system, with my current strength, although I won't be able to use a grade three spell to its maximum potential, it'll be still powerful than a grade two spell. Let's unlock one now.' He thought and open the shop.

Clicking on [Magic Spells] he quickly found grade three fire elemental spells.

There were a total of three grade three spells:

1) Calidus Brachium

- Description: Surrounds user's fist with fire elemental mana to give user's punches extraordinary destructive power. Any enemy below four-star realm will be left half dead if spell is cast at its maximum limit.

- Mana consumption: 1500-35000 mana points.

- *Unlock: 40000 Lust points

2) Defensive Flame

- Description: The user will be surrounded by a fire barrier from from all directions. The fire barrier is able to defend against both physical and magic attacks. If the power of attacks exceeds the defensive capacity of the barrier, it will at most reduce the attack's power by two third(Only true if attack doesn't exceeds the initial stage four-star realm). It doesn't take much time to be cast making it useful in defending against any surprise or sudden attacks.

- Mana consumption: 1000-30000i mana points.

- *Unlock: 50000 Lust points

3) Flame vortex

- Description: Creates a fire vortex in front of the user that has high destructive power. Any beast or mage cought in vortex will be killed, however this spell takes a lot of time to cast.

- Mana consumption: 6000-40000 mana points.

- *Unlock: 70000 Lust points

'These spells are amazing!' Max exclaimed in his mind after reading their discription.

'But damn! Their unlocking costs are too high. Even if I want to unlock the least expensive among them, I still need forty thousand LPs and I've only 32000 LPs now.' He cursed.

'I'll have to earn more LPs quickly to unlock the spell and raise my mana count. I can't be too passive now that we have to stay in open like this. I don't know when some beast might attack us.' Thinking this he glanced towards Belén who was meditating to digest the nascent energy.

'When she is done cultivating, it'll be Leticia's turn to guard. I don't know if Belén would be willing to have s.e.x. with me knowing that Leticia is awake.'

He thought and then glanced toward Leticia 'Why didn't she come to me after that day? Was she after a serious relationship? Tch, it's so frustrating. I need them for LPs but I can't be in a serious relationship with everyone I have s.e.x. with right?'

—In the morning—

As they were having breakfast, a One-star flying beast stumbled upon them. Leticia killed it easily with her wind bullets.

After that, they decided to cultivate for a few more days since Haory hadn't fully recovered from her injuries.

When everyone was about to start cultivating Max stood up and said "You guys can rest and cultivate, I'm going to scout the area to see if there are any Two-star beasts nearby."

Then he smiled at Haory, Leticia and Rima "Is any of you ladies interested in accompanying me?"

Haory smiled and nodded. Just as she was about to get up, Leticia stood up and giggled "Hehe, Belén I'll go with him. I also want a little adventure."

Belén raised her brows at her before nodding while thinking 'So she finally made her mind, huh.'

Rima looked at Leticia and raised both of her thumbs in encouragement. 'I'll let you go this time.' She said inwardly.

Meanwhile a few ten miles away from them, Bartan and his group started searching for Max.

“Hey Bartan. In which direction should we go?” The short haired man asked.

Bartan thought for a while and said “This is the appropriate location that guy told us. To find them quickly, we should separate and go in different directions while one of us will stay here.”

He then continued “I’ll go in North direction. As for who will stay here and in which direction you will go, decide yourself. However, remember to return before nightfall whether you find them or not.”

“Hey going alone is too dangerous. If we encountered a Two-star beast, we will die.” One member of the group said. Others also nodded.

Bartan waved his hand and four talismans flew out, “Take these escaping talismans. If you encounter a beast and it notices you, use them. For two minutes, they will boost your speed on the same level as a three-star mage.”

He then ran in North direction. Since the mountain will get higher if one continued going Northwards, they will encounter more Two-star beasts.

But he still chose this direction because he expected Max who was fairly strong to go there to hunt more beasts. If he was still alive, he needed to kill him and if he was dead, he needed to confirm it.

“Tch, This dog of Dalton family is being too serious. He should have followed my plan to ambush him at the gathering point at the end of the month. That would have spared us some effort while simultaneously gaining their beast cores.” The short haired man said annoyed.

“Since you accepted the benefits he offered, you should do what he wants you to and stop complaining.” The only woman in the group said in a disdainful tone.

“You damned woman. I’ve told you not to talk to me in this tone. Do you really think I won’t kill you?” The short haired man shouted fiercely.

Boom!

Both of them unleashed their killing aura and their mana swirled fiercely around them.

From their aura alone, one could tell that they were on par with Haory in strength.

The short haired man’s fist turned hard as a rock and he punched at her with all his might.

The woman unsheathed her sword as electric sparks flickered on it. She slashed her sword at him at lightening fast speed.

Bang!

Fist and sword collided and both were forced back.

The man raised his fist to look at it and his expression changed slightly because his Rocky skin has a faint cut mark. The woman smirked seeing this

He became even more angry and in his anger, he once again raised his fist. This time his skin became thick and his hand seemed to turn stone as he shouted "Let's see if you can take this punch and still smile, you filthy whore."

"You really want to die!!" The woman's was angered when she was called whore and her black eye and sword sparkled with intense electricity as her aura skyrocketed, making short haired man flinch.

"Hey you two. Cut it out. You can kill each other after this mission is completed and we get our promised reward." One of the remaining two commented indifferently.

Both turned to look at him. Short haired man hesitated while the electric girl gave him a cold look before putting her sword back into the sheathe.

The short haired man's skin became normal. He looked at her and sneered "I'll take care of you after this."

"Tch, dumbass." The woman clicked her tongue and went in East direction.

The short haired man also stomped his foot and shot out in west direction where Max and others were.

Max and Leticia walked ran on tree branches without making any sound.

"Mm?" Max raised his brows suddenly.

Leticia who was following him closely became worried and asked "What is it Max? Is there any beast?"

"No, I think I heard water falling sound. Let's go check it out." He turned in the direction from where he heard the sound.

Leticia became excited upon hearing this and quickly followed.

After so many days, the water they brought with them was mostly used, with only a little drinking water remaining. To save water, she hadn't taken a nice bath for two days now and as a woman, she was unbearable for her. If they could find more water, that problem would be solved.

As they ran for a few miles, the sound of water falling became louder and Leticia could also hear it now.

Very quickly a more than 500 meter high came into their view.

"There's a waterfall there." Leticia became ecstatic and raised her speed.

Max smiled and followed. However suddenly his expression changed.

Chapter 146 Fiery Wolf

He quickly grabbed her waist with one hand to stop her from running ahead and put another on her mouth preventing her from making any sound.

"Mmff..." Leticia was startled being grabbed by him so suddenly and let out some muffled sounds.

"Quiet! There is a beast near the waterfall." Max warned in a low voice.

They were around two hundred meters away from the waterfall. Although they couldn't see it because there were many tall and thick trees blocking their sight, Max could still hear another sound of some animal drinking water apart from the sound of water falling thanks to his heightened senses and his cautious nature.

Hearing this Leticia held her breath and stopped making any sound.

Snarl

"Fuck!" Max cursed when he heard the beast snarling in their direction. He knew that they have been discovered.

He quickly carried Leticia in his arms and ran in opposite direction.

"Ah..." Leticia cried out at his sudden action. However, seeing his serious expression, she didn't say anything.

By now everyone in their group knew that he possessed extraordinary senses and could tell if there was any danger around them.

Whoosh

When he had ran only fifty meters away, he heard a whooshing sound behind them. The beast started chasing them and he could tell that it was faster than him.

“Damn it! It’s a agility type beast.” Max cursed. If it was any other type of beast, he was sure that they could escape. However, encountering a agility type beast, they were doomed.

When Leticia heard this, she was frightened out of her wits and grabbed him tightly, wishing that he would run faster.

Snarl!

Whoosh whoosh!

The snarling of the beast gradually seemed to come closer and closer and now she could also hear something running behind them.

Max didn’t have time to look back to see what kind of beast it was but Leticia who was being carried was free.

She peeked behind them and saw a fiery red furred wolf that had a horn in the middle of its forehead.

Seeing that she looking at it, the wolf increased its speed. In less than a minute, it was around 70-80 meter away from them. Its murderous aura swept over them.

“A-A fiery wolf.” Leticia felt chills running down her spine after identifying the beast. It was one of the stronger agility type Two-star beasts and would not let its prey escape easily.

“M-Max it’s a fiery wolf. It won’t let us escape. Let’s go towards Belén and others. May-Maybe we can fight this beast off together.” She suggested while stuttering in fear.

Max frowned but didn’t say anything. This idea also crossed his mind but he instantly discarded it since he would only kill them if he brought this beast there.

People feared agility type beasts not because of their strength but because of their speed which made it hard to predict their movements.

Even if peak two star mage encountered a initial stage two star agility type beast, it was very different to kill it because he couldn’t land his attack on it while the beast could easily chip away the mage’s strength and gradually inflict more injuries killing him.

And if it was stronger than an initial stage Two-star beast, the chances of survival would plummet even further even if someone was in group.

Unfortunately for them, this wolf was also stronger than an initial stage Two-star beast.

Inhale

Max inhaled a deep breath and opened his status screen and increased his agility by 20 stat points.

Although he knew that it would cause some backlash in this situation, he had to do it for the sake of survival.

[Agility: 70]

Right after increasing his agility, his running speed became much faster. However,

'Ahh...' The veins in his legs bulged and a sharp pain coursed through his body and he almost staggered.

After running for a few tens meters, his veins burst and started bleeding. Despite that, he didn't dare to lower his running speed.

After running for a few minutes, he could feel that the beast was no longer able to shorten the distance between them and his high vitality had also started healing his leg injuries.

Phew

'I'm glad I didn't spend my LPs yesterday or I would've died now.' He exhaled and sighed in relief. Vlxt.CoM

'However, I can't keep running since my stamina is depleting faster now. I need to think of some way to lose it.' He thought.

After running at his limits, his stamina started decreasing quickly and his breathing became faster. Sweat drops also started to form on his forehead.

He looked down at Leticia in his arms. She had closed her eyes in fear. He knew that she couldn't help him in this situation.

He sighed and increased his intelligence by twenty points.

He chose to improve his intelligence attribute because that would improve his senses which he needed right now.

Although he had enough LPs to increase his mana by another 3000 points, they wouldn't help him in this situation.

A cool sensation entered his mind which made his head buzz for a few second before returning to normal. He could feel that all of his senses were sharper than before. He could even hear the breathing of the beast behind them.

He focused his mind and found out that it was still 80 meters away from them. If he stopped to attack it, it will take the beast only one or two second before it would reach and kill them.

Guessing its running path and speed, Max took a deep breath

“Haah...” With a low shout he conjured [Death rain] at its maximum capacity expanding 1000 mana points and exhausted another 500 more mana points to hasten the casting speed.

Shua

More than seventy fire arrows, more than one meter in length appeared above him just in a second, pointing towards the beast behind them.

His face paled slightly after suddenly losing more than one-third of his mana. However, he didn't hesitate and expanded 200 more mana points to make their speed faster and shot them at the wolf.

Although this sudden burst would cause his stamina to be consumed faster, he wanted to take it off guard. If he didn't do this, the wolf can easily dodge the attack, wasting his mana and stamina in vain.

Snarl

The moment, fire arrows materialised above him, wolf had noticed them and snarled in disdain. It twisted its body and forcibly changed its running trajectory to dodge them.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Pak! Pak! Pak! Pak!

The arrows which were originally fast, had their speed doubled after the injection of 200 extra mana points and fired at the beast. No matter how agile it was, it couldn't dodge all of the arrows and around twenty arrows still struck it body, piercing its skin.

“Wooo...” The beast cried in pain. Hearing it cry, Max became ecstatic but didn't relax and instead, increased his speed at its Maximum.

He knew that his attack could only buy him only a few seconds, after which the beast would put its all in chasing them in anger.

Snarl

Just as he expected, after being injured by his attack, the beast grew furious and snarled loudly. It once again chased after them faster than before.

However, in these few seconds, Max had gone more than three hundred meters away in the forest, out of its sight.

Even after losing it, Max didn't stop running. After running at his full speed that exceeded a Two-star realm mage's top speed, of course not of wind elemental mages, he arrived in a small valley.

A small stream of clear water was flowing in the middle. There weren't any big trees, only some small bushes. On both sides of the stream were many big and small sized rocks of various shapes.

Moreover, there wasn't a single beast in sight, which was not normal in this beast rich mountain and it made him frown a little.

Leticia had calmed down by now. Seeing the valley devoid of any vegetation, she exclaimed "It just like the area where we trained, only with the addition of this stream and a much more beautiful scenery."

Seeing that she had calmed down quite a bit, Max sighed in relief and put her down. His stamina had fallen below twenty points and he needed to rest now.

"Let's find a safe place to rest for a while." Max said and walked cautiously while scanning the area.

He quickly noticed some small holes that were around two feet in diameter. However, there wasn't any sign of a beast in them.

Even after walking around them for a while, no beast came out which made him sigh in relief.

He then noticed a naturally formed cave in the hill far from the holes, and in case any beast came out, they would be able to make a run for it.

He led her there to rest. Taking out a bedsheet from his inventory, he spread it on the ground and lay down while pulling her down by his side.

"This mountain is too dangerous. I wonder how many disciples would die here." Leticia said in a trembling voice.

Chapter 147 Leticia's Confession

Hearing her distraught voice, Max turned to look at her. He sighed upon noticing that her body was trembling and her face had become sickly pale.

He moved his hand and put it behind her back and gently embraced her. He didn't want her to despair like this. No matter what, they had sex and she can be considered his woman.

Therefore, he said in a soft voice "It's dangerous that's why academy send the disciples here so that they could temper themselves in life and death situations."

He then sighed and continued "Leticia, remember what Elder Jack taught us? He taught us not to panic in dangerous situations that you seem to have forgotten."

Leticia nodded slightly. She remembered elder Jack's lecture where he said 'If you are in a dangerous situation and you panic, then you are bound to make mistakes that can cost you your lives.

Even if you had the strength to come out of that situation alive, you will die since you won't be able to use your mind and strength properly. So the most important and first rule of survival is stay cool headed and not panic.'

She shifted and moved closer to him. She hugged him tightly and put her head on his chest as said "I-I know b-but that beast was too powerful and could kill us easily. I couldn't help but be frightened. Moreover, because I am weak, you had to carry me and had to injure yourself in order to escape. I'm sorry."

Max was a little surprised by her words because she was so frightened at that time that she didn't even open her eyes after seeing the wolf.

So he thought that she didn't notice when he increased his agility which resulted in him injuring his legs. However, apparently he was wrong.

Max patted her back and said comfortingly "I know. It's normal to be afraid. Even I was afraid but you shouldn't let your fear control you."

Seeing that he was trying to comfort her, she raised her head and looked at him with her clear eyes that were a bit watery now and said "Hmm I'll be careful next time."

She then continued as her grip tightened around him "I know this isn't the time to say this, but I'm sorry for not coming to you again after that day. I wasn't clear on what I wanted but now I know what I want.

I want to be with you. Since you already have other women who you love, I'm willing to be your mistress even if it's an illegitimate one."

Seeing the determined look in her eyes Max was a bit surprised.

After saying what she wanted, she took a deep breath. She felt as if the anxiety that was weighing down on her heart has vanished after confessing her feelings to him.

When Max didn't say anything even after a while, tears started falling down her eyes as she said "I'll understand if you don't want me since I'm not comparable to your other women. Even Belén is more experienced and better looking than me but i-i..."

Before she could complete what she was saying, Max suddenly cupped her baby face in his both hands and gently kissed her cherry lips.

Leticia opened her eyes wide in surprise before a relieved smile appeared on her face and she closed them, letting him do whatever he wanted.

However, Max didn't continue and moved his face away from hers and said "Who said I don't want you. As long as you are willing I'm very much happy to make you my woman but..."

Before Max could complete his sentence, Leticia interrupted him "But you don't love me and I shouldn't expect anything and that you can only treat me as your mistress who is there only for sex right?"

Max looked into her eyes and sighed "That's right."

Leticia's expression became a bit sad before returning to normal and she resolutely said "I've already said this before. I'm even willing to become even your illegitimate mistress and won't expect anything. As long as I can be with you, I'll be happy."

Max sighed inwardly. Her words reminded him of Lilly. She also said the same words to him but because the circumstances were different then he started loving her and accepted her as his woman.

Now that Leticia said the same things, he felt like he would wrong her if he treated her like Belén.

He then asked "Why are you so desperate to become my woman?"

Leticia was taken aback for a second and murmured in a low voice "Why am I being so desperate?"

She then said "I don't know the exact reason. Initially I wanted to become your woman because you were very strong and handsome, however after we had sex that day, I decided not to approach you since you told me that you can't be in a relationship with me."

“But after that day, when I saw that you were being intimate with Belén, I had that suffocating feeling. I couldn’t even Concentrate on cultivation and only you were on my mind. Now I know that I want to be with you regardless of anything.” She explained however she could.

After listening to her reason, he sighed and said “Alright, I’ll accept you as my mistress. However you have to swear an oath to always be loyal to me and not expose any of my secrets that you may find in future.”

He didn’t demand her to become his slave because unlike Belén, she didn’t know that he could make her stronger by having sex with her and was only obsessed with him.

Hearing this, Leticia quickly nodded and swore an oath.

“Good girl. Let me reward you now.” Max smiled and wiped away her tears and started kissing her lips slowly.

Although they were in danger just a while ago and there was no guarantee that they won’t be attacked in this cave by some other beast, he didn’t worry too much because his senses had become very sharp and he would know if there was any danger approaching them from a distance of more than two hundred metres away.

Moreover, he wanted to increase his LPs now to increase his Mana and unlock his spell.

He had a total of 32000 LPs before encountering that Wolf. However after increasing his agility and vitality, they were reduced to 28000 LPs.

He needed more LPs and the reason he asked if any of them wanted to accompany him before coming to scout the area was precisely because of this.

Now that she had taken initiative to confess her feelings, he wouldn’t hesitate to have sex now.oVlxt.CoM

Leticia’s previous emotions had calmed the moment his lips touched her lips.

However, her heartbeat was once again becoming faster as she realised that this time was unlike before, this time she was in relationship with him.

She let him kiss her lips and let him suck them as he wanted while she also started kissing him back.

After a few seconds, Max used his tongue and opened her small mouth. His tongue slithered inside and greedily started coiling around her delicate pink tongue and sucking it.

His hands reached on her breasts and he started feeling and squeezing them.

After a while, he stopped kissing her lips, and started kissing her cheeks, neck, her earlobes that had turned red in excitement while his hands gradually found their way on her buttocks.

Although, her buttocks weren't as big or seductive as Rima's or Belén's but they were still very meaty and round and moon with nice curves which were more than enough to incite lust inside a man.

After playing with her body for a while, he couldn't hold back his lust and his cock became as hard as rock and started pressing against his pants, trying to rip them off and come out.

He changed positions and came on top of her. Leticia lay on the bedsheet while looking at him with a red face and hazy eyes. Her breathing was rough and the place between her legs has become wet.

Max quickly took off her clothes including her silk undergarments before taking his pants off and setting his dragon free.

He put his hand on her slightly wet vagina and started caressing it slowly while kissing and sucking her boobs.

“Ah~ Hah~ Ngh~”

Moans started escaping her lips as waves of pleasure started assaulting her body. She reached out her small hand and gently grabbed his cock and started stroking it.

“Oh...” Max groaned in a low voice as he felt her soft hand on his cock.

Both played with each other's most treasured parts for a while.

Thanks to her handjob, Max was unable to hold and seeing that her pussy had also become dripping wet, he grabbed her legs and put them on his shoulders.

He slowly rubbed his cock on her small pink cave's entrance which made her flinch and moan.

Chapter 148 Encountering A Dark Demon Snake

After rubbing it a few times, he put his cock on her wet entrance and gave it a push.

“Ahn~”

Leticia moaned as his rode slowly pierced inside her.

“Ugh...” Max also groaned in delight as her tight walls squeezed his cock.

He looked at her naked petite body, with a healthy white skin colour, two mounds of soft meaty mass on her chest that weren't too big or too small but perfect size with two beautiful cherries adorning them, her cute face, small waist.

While her inexperienced vagina was recklessly squeezing his cock, giving him a different kind of pleasure. A inaudible sigh escaped his mouth.

He slowly moved his waist and his cock continued going inside her. He slowly caressed her entire body and brought his face beside her ear. oVlxt.CoM

After giving her earlobe a gentle bite, he whispered “Since we are in open and don't know when some beast might appear and attack us, I'm going to sped the things up a little. You make sure to enjoy as much as you can okay.”

Hearing this, Leticia nodded before realising what his words implied. She became worried since they weren't well hidden and some beast might really attack them.

She opened her mouth to say something but Max suddenly sealed her lips with his lips.

“Mmnff...” She let out a muffled moan and her eyes opened wide because Max had thrust inside her forcefully, his cock hitting her cervix.

He then stopped kissing her and grabbed her thin waist and started moving his waist hard and fast.

Since they were out in the open, he decided not to focus on enjoying himself and wanted to fuck her a few times before any beast came.

If it was any other time, his first priority would have been the pleasure but after being chased by the Wolf and feeling the threat of death he wanted to earn a few thousand LPs and unlock the grade three spell which would raise his strength significantly, as soon as possible.

Fwop! Fwop! Fwop!

“Ahn~ Ahh~ Ngh~”

He kept thrusting his cock between her wet and tight walls. Leticia was trying to suppress her moans to the best of her abilities because she didn't want to attract any beast by her loud moans but they still managed to escape her lips due to the immense pleasure she was feeling.

...

After two hours, Max had poured her insides with his milk five times. He was now breathing heavily with sweat dripping down his face.

Leticia was lying on her chest with her ass raised, his semen was dripping down from her pink flower that had become swollen now. She was gasping for air with her small pink tongue sticking out.

Although she was exhausted to the point of passing out after being fucked without a break for past two hours, the look on her face told that she was ecstatic.

From these five rounds, Max had gained a little more than 12,000 LPs, finally he had enough to unlock the spell worth 40,000 LPs but he needed to increase his mana too, so he wanted to do it a few more times.

He once again put his dragon between her vertical lips, ready to start another round.

Pssh...

However, just as he was about to thrust inside, his senses picked up a faint sound coming from the water stream. He instantly became alert and didn't continue.

He quickly put on his clothes and said in a low voice “Leticia, hurry up put on your clothes too.”

Leticia, who was readying herself for his penis to enter her once again, was startled.

However, she didn't ask anything and slowly started wearing her clothes. Since she decided to become his woman, she had to follow whatever he said.

Meanwhile, Max focused his senses towards the stream. Although the sound just now was very faint, he knew that wasn't natural and that some beast was sneaking on them from the stream.

Opening his status screen and he quickly opened the shop interface and went into the [Magic spells] section.

[Lust points: 40400]

Inhale

Checking his LPs once again, he took a deep breath and unlocked the least expensive grade three spell [Calidus Brachium].

The reason he chose to unlock this spell was not only because he only had forty thousand LPs but also because it was what he needed right now.

Since his agility was very high and he could easily land his attack on his enemies, so he needed a spell like this that could make his punches highly destructive.

Just as he clicked on the unlock, he felt his head buzz as the information of the spell started pouring into his mind.

This process took a dozen seconds. He was afraid that whichever beast was in the stream would attack while he was in this slightly dizzy state. Fortunately, the beast didn't.

The complete discription of the [Calidus Brachium] appeared in his mind. Unlike the time when he learnt [Death Rain] from the academy library where he had to practice it before casting it, this time he felt as if he already knew how to cast this spell.

However he couldn't try casting it now because the minimum consumption of mana was 1500 points, more than one-third of his total mana which he couldn't afford to waste on trying his new spell out when some beast, most likely a Two-star one was waiting to attack them.

Moreover, the mana he used when attacking the fiery wolf still hadn't recovered completely and his stamina had only decreased since he didn't rest and exhausted himself more in these past two hours.

However, despite that he was still feeling a bit more confident of defeating most of the two-star beasts with his new spell.

He put his remaining 400 LPs in the stamina attribute, increasing it by another four points.

[Name: Maxwell Garfield]

[Age: 18]

[Strength: 50]

[Agility: 70]

[Stamina: 30/65]

[Vitality: 50]

[Intelligence: 70]

[Mana: 3100/4300]

[Element: Fire (Concentration:70%)]

[Lust Points: 0]

'With my current speed, senses and this new spell, I will probably be able to kill most of the Two-star beast here.' He clenched his fist in excitement.

'But the problem right now is my current mana reserves, I can't use this spell more than two times.' Max thought while looking at his mana that was only 3100 points 'I wish I had received more LPs from Leticia.'

Thinking this he looked at her and saw that she was putting her clothes on and thought 'I hope she will become stronger and continue giving me the huge amount of LPs I need.'

After thinking for a few seconds, he said "Leticia, I'm going to block this cave entrance by the rocks here. You start cultivating right now. I'm sure you'll be able to improve quickly."

Leticia didn't understand what he meant but realised that there was some danger outside when she recalled him taking his penis back when he clearly wanted to continue another round.

She became worried and wanted to say that she will fight alongside him but recalled the time when they encountered that spider. She wasn't able to move then and now was also the same situation. She reluctantly nodded and worriedly said "Please be careful."

Max smiled hearing the concern in her voice and went out. While focusing his attention towards the stream for any movement, he picked up a five feet tall rock from a hundred meters away from the cave and took it to the cave to block its entrance.

Even when he did this and his back was facing the stream, there was no movement in the stream, making him wonder 'Did I hear it wrong?'

Slither!

However, just as he was about to reach the cave and put the rock down, his expression changed drastically when he heard the slithering sound from the stream.

He quickly put the rock down and conjured two hundred mana point fireballs. Without turning around, he threw them behind him.

He knew that these fireballs won't be of much help but he just wanted to stop the beast from approaching him.

Boom! Boom!

"Sss..."

There were two explosions followed by the hissing sound of a snake.

He quickly turned around and saw a black scaled snake approximately three to four meters long and was a meter thick.

Its eyes were red and its long dark red tongue was out. From its upper jaw, two long fangs were protruding downwards and were covered in greyish poison. It looked very menacing.

Its scaly body has two burn marks that one wouldn't notice without paying special attention.

It was more than hundred metres away from him looking at him savagely.

"A Dark Demon Snake!" Max exclaimed.

He recognised it because he had read about it in the library when elder Jack asked them to.

'It must have ate all those small beasts from those holes.' Max quickly connected.

He smirked and while casting his new spell 'Let's see how powerful my new skill is.'

Chapter 149 Might Of A Grade Three Spell

Sizzle~

Max stimulated his fire elemental mana and moved it according to the instructions of [Calidus Brachium].

His mana swirled around his right fist in a complex pattern and slowly the fire sparks started to flicker.

He continued pouring his mana into it and more sparks flickered. However, the Dark Demon Snake, of course, wasn't going to wait until his spell was ready. It hissed and bared its fangs and came slithering towards him at a fast speed.

Bang!

Max kicked a small rock on the ground which flew through the air and hit its scaly body and broke into pieces without causing any damage.

“Hiss...”

Although, the rock attack didn't injure it, it successfully enraged The Dark Demon snake. It hissed balefully and halted its movements, black mist started rising from in between its dark scales.

Max frowned. This Dark Demon Snake was using its ability right off the bat.

He quickly moved away from the cave entrance and the snake turned its body toward him.

Seeing this Max sighed in relief. His previous attack was only to ensure that it wouldn't attack the cave.

oVlxt.CoM

If he hadn't provoked it like he did, the snake would have attacked the cave since it knew that there was another human inside it and that would have put him in a disadvantageous position because he would have to protect Leticia while fight it.

“Hiss...”

The snake hissed and the all the black mist converged in front of its mouth in the shape of five fist sized black balls.

After going more than 200 meters away from the cave, Max stopped.

He was still in the process of casting [Calidus Brachium] and it was going to take some more time since he hadn't cast it before and the mana consumption was also high so he had to do it slowly.

He turned around and when he saw those five black balls, his brows scrunched up as he exclaimed in his heart 'Middle grade two-star beast!'

The Dark Demon snakes don't have any distinct identifying mark like other beasts when in the two-star realm.

Therefore people can only find out whether it is in initial, middle, high or peak stage when it uses its dark poison balls.

It can use three of such black balls when it's in the initial stage of two-star, while in the middle stage two-star it can use upto five black balls, seven in high stage and ten in peak stage.

This was his first time fighting a middle stage two-star beast and moreover he was alone.

After knowing that it was stronger than other breast he had encountered until now, he raised his guard up and wanted to put more distance however,

“Hiss...”

Whoosh!

The Dark Demon Snake hissed and the five black balls shot towards Max from five different directions, like bullets.

Shua!

Max kicked the ground and quickly dodged all five black ball.

Ssss~

One of the black balls struck where he stood and the sound of ground melting was heard.

Meanwhile, the rest of the balls stopped just above the ground and turned towards Max who was now twenty meters in the right side.

Although he already knew that Dark Demon Snakes had high control and their dark poison balls would follow their targets until they hadn't struck them, but reading something and actually witnessing it was entirely different.

Because he also read that its attacks were deadly, he glanced at the area where one black had struck to see exactly how powerful it was and shivered.

The black ball that was only the size of a fist, actually melted and created a one meter wide and probably even deeper hole in the ground. Black smoke was coming out of it and a nauseating stench spread in the area.

Shua! Shua! Shua!

The black balls came at him once again. He raised his agility to its maximum started dodging the black balls and at the same time focusing on casting his spell.

His mind was completely focused on doing these two things and he forgot everything else.

If he lost focus even for a second, he would be hit by the dark poison balls and he didn't believe that his body was harder than the ground, and if he stopped pouring his mana into casting, all the mana he had used until now would be wasted and he would have to endure the backlash of stopping mid way.

He continued moving across the area while dodging the black balls. Fortunately, the Dark Demon Snake wasn't moving in order to control its poison balls or Max would have been in big trouble.

After dodging for a while, his stamina had reduced from 30 points to 24 points. Thankfully the spell was completed now.

His whole fist was burning in intense crimson fire. However, he wasn't feeling any burning sensation since his mana was unable to harm him.

Phew!

Max exhaled his face turning pale after he had injected 1500 MP in casting. He turned towards the snake that was only fifty meters away from him.

All this time, he was gradually coming closer to the snake while dodging the dark poison ball so that he could attack the moment he finish casting his spell or in case the snake became impatient and tried to attack the cave.

Whoosh!

He once more dodged the balls and suddenly ran towards the beast at his full speed. It took only a moment for him to appear beside it.

The beast became alert and the speed of the black balls increased as they shot toward him, simultaneously it lashed out with its tail.

Max easily dodged its tail strike and punched at its head with all his might.

Watching his burning fist coming closer to its head, the snake tried to move its head away but it was too late.

BANG

A loud banging sound sounded out as his fire fist struck in the middle of the snake's head and pinned it to the ground. The ground under it also cracked in web like formation due to the destructive power of the punch.

The hard black scales on its head easily broke apart and the fire from his fist started burning its blood that was leaking out from the injuries.

Whoosh! Bang!

The black balls that were coming at him were strayed from their course and whooshed past him, colliding in the ground.

After punching the beast, Max felt its skull cracking which made him surprised.

From the discription of the spell, he knew that this [Calidus Brachium] was highly destructive spell. but he still didn't expect it to have such power when he cast it with only 1500 MP.

"Psshh..."

Black mist started oozing out of its body. Max quickly stepped back, thinking that it was going to attack him.

Bang! Bang!

The Dark Demon Snake started squirming while its tail started hitting the ground left and right. Each time its tail struck, ground would sunk and small cracks would appear.

Max knew that because its skull was damaged, it wasn't able to think properly.

He retreated a meters back conjured two 300 MP fireballs and threw them aiming for its injured head.

Boom! Boom!

Both fireballs exploded and killed the already half dead snake. However even after dying, its body squirmed for a while before becoming still.

"Huf... Huf... Finally dead." Max took deep breaths while trying not to fall down and smiled triumphantly.

Chapter 150 C-Can We Bathe Together...?

oVlxt.CoM

Leticia was sitting cross legged inside the cave, seemingly cultivating. However she wasn't focused on cultivating because she was afraid that facing the beast outside alone might be dangerous for him.

In her anxiety, she didn't even notice that her mana refinement speed was way faster than normal and the mana in her mana core was also increasing Slowly.

Bang!!

Suddenly, she heard a loud bang and her nerves tensed. Then a few more explosions sounded out making her even more anxious.

After that the all commotion calmed down and she didn't hear any sound for a few minutes.

Just as she wanted to go out to check what happened, she heard the rock shifting from the entrance of the cave.

Step! Step!

Then she heard his unsteady footsteps. She wanted to open her eyes however she then heard his voice.

"I'm fine. You continue to cultivate." Hearing this her anxious heart calmed down a little. Max once again moved the rock to block the cave entrance and sat down in meditation to recover his exhausted stamina and mana.

After three hours, Max opened his eyes. His stamina had recovered to 45 points while Mana had recovered to full.

He looked towards Leticia who was sitting with a peaceful expression on her face, still cultivating.

He focused his senses to hear if anything was outside but he didn't hear anything apart from the sound of water flowing in the stream.

He sighed in relief. He was afraid that some beast might come since he had made quite a bit commotion when fighting the Dark Demon Snake. Fortunately, no beast came.

After a while Leticia's eyelashes fluttered as she opened her eyes, her eyes flashing with surprise and delight.

Max asked "By your expression I'm guessing that you've improved quite a bit right?"

Leticia looked at him in surprise “Huh? Y-Yes. My mana reserves improved by a significant margin and its quality also seemed to have improved a bit. However, how do you know?”

“So, you haven’t realised yet.” Max smiled and continued “I’ve a special ability which can help improve the woman who I have sex with. However the requirement is to cultivate soon after having sex or you won’t get any benefit...”

Max explained. An astonished expression appeared on Leticia’s face and she exclaimed “It means that Belén had such progress because of your ability. No wonder!”

Max smiled wryly and nodded “Yes, you can say so.” He was surprised that after hearing about his ability, she only mentioned Belén’s improvements and not expressed her shock that he possessed such ability.

After they talked for a while and he once again warned her not to mention this in front of anyone. They got out of the cave.

The first thing Leticia noticed was the Dark Demon Snake’s corpse “A dark demon snake.” She exclaimed in shock.

She then looked at Max with a surprised gaze. The reason of her surprise was because the Dark Demon Snake is said to be stronger than an eight eyed spider that he killed a week ago with much difficulty but he still killed it.

Although this snake wasn’t as fast or strong, it was notorious for its superior control over its dark poison balls and could even kill mages that were stronger than it by a small stage.

However, after knowing that he could even make his partners stronger, she knew that he wasn’t a normal person and her gaze became one of pride. ‘This is the man I chose.’

She then looked at the stream flowing with clear water and asked “Max, can I take a bath before going back?”

“Of course you can. In fact I’m planning to bring Belén and others here too. It’s a good location to stay.” Max smiled.

She became happy upon hearing that they could live here but then became worried and asked “But isn’t this place dangerous since many beasts would come here to drink water?”

“No.” Max shook his head and said “Do you realise that this Valley is located near the area where the territory of two-star beasts begin? There even if some beasts came, they would mostly be one-star and very few Two-star beasts.”

He then continued “Moreover, we won’t have to search around for beasts to kill to get their beast cores if we live here and I believe that our current strength is enough to handle most of the middle stage two-star beasts and since this valley is in the lower area of two-star beasts’ territory, rarely any high stage or peak two-star beast would come here. Therefore it’s the best location to stay.”

“Hmm. Okay.” Leticia nodded and went towards the stream and turned towards him and shyly asked “C-Can we bathe together?”

Max looked her in for a second and smiled “Why not.” He then walked and took his clothes off and then helped her to take her clothes off.

Leticia looked at his little brother that was resting and her little sister flinched as if remembering something. She then hurriedly looked away.

Max smiled at her and lifted her in his arms and entered the stream that was less than two meters wide and only one meter deep. The water was very refreshing.

After a while they were sitting in the middle of the stream. Leticia was sitting on his lap with her back touching his chest and her head was leaning back on his shoulder. Max was embracing her from behind, smelling her feminine scent.

They had washed each other’s body before resting like this. Leticia who had her eyes closed felt his crotch hardening under her ass.

She moved her ass a little and his cock was now between her soft buttocks. Feeling his little brother in her tempting crack, it hardened even more. But he didn’t do anything and simply stayed in that position. It was giving him another kind of comfort.

However Leticia thought that he wasn’t doing anything because she was tired and whispered “I’m not tired. If you want, we can do it again right now.”

Hearing this, Max moved his hands upwards and grabbed her breasts. He pinched her nipples in his thumb and index fingers gently and then started kneading her breasts.

Although he simply wanted to enjoy the sensation of bathing with a woman in his embrace, but if he didn’t do anything even after she took initiative then he wasn’t a man.
