Chapter 191 - Requirements To Become Three-Star Mage

Swoosh!

Just as the disciples were exclaiming in astonishment and causing a commotion, a powerful aura swept over them, which made it difficult for them to speak.

In an instant, the commotion quietened down and everyone looked toward the stage from where the aura was coming.

Adrienne retracted her aura and glanced over the crowd of disciples.

Max looked at her and thought in his heart, “She is indeed very powerful as well as beautiful.”

She seemed to have become even stronger and more beautiful than the last time he saw her.

“I wonder how many LPs I would receive if I had someone as strong as her.” He thought and couldn’t help but become excited.

However, he then sighed and shook his head, dispelling this thought. Given her strength and status, she wouldn’t even put him in her eyes.

“As the headmaster said, there will be a selection competition in four months, and the top ten participants will be allowed to take part in an inter-academy competition that will start six months after the selection competition.” Adrienne said and continued.

“Those who want to participate can go to Elders’ Hall and get themselves registered. Remember to work hard if you want to be one of the ten to represent our academy. Okay, that’s all.” She also went away, but her speed was nowhere close to the headmaster’s.

The middle-aged man smiled wryly, seeing this. This junior of his wasn’t the patient type. They still needed to talk to disciples a bit more, but she just left like that. He sighed and turned towards the disciples.

Many disciples were dissatisfied by her attitude, but they didn’t say anything since they were only inner disciples and couldn’t voice criticism against an elder, especially one who seemed to have high standing among the Elders.

The middle-aged Elder said, “If any of you have some questions regarding the selection or inter-academy competition, you can ask me now.”

Hearing this, the disciples immediately started to ask their questions.

“Elder, may we know what rewards will be given to the top ten participants in the selection competition?” One disciple asked. Many others nodded, as most of them were curious.

The Elder nodded, “The rewards vary based on the ranking of the participants. For example, from top six to top ten, participants will be rewarded with ten thousand low-grade mana stones and receive pointers from the Elder until the start of inter-academy competition.”

The disciple's heart thumped as they heard until then, ten thousand mana stones was a very large sum for them. On top of that, they will receive pointers from the elderly, which will help them a lot.

Although they had trained under an elder for one month but that was only basic training where they mostly focused on sparring.

The Elder then continued, "Those above the top six will get a total of twenty thousand mana stones and the low tier grade three 'Mana purifying liquid'. The top three will get an additional reward which hasn't been decided yet."

"Waah! The academy, famous for being miserly, is giving out such rewards. It's never been heard of before." A disciple almost screamed in disbelief.

Moreover, it's only for the selection competition. I wonder what rewards the participants in inter-academy will get." Another disciple added.

"I'm going to cultivate day and night and try to become one of the top rankers."

"You? With your measly initial stage two-star strength, you won't be able to rank in the top thousand, let alone top ten."

The disciples broke out into loud chatter. Even the elders were shocked by this and couldn't help but comment, "Such rewards, does the academy want to aim for the first rank in the rankings competition?"

The middle-aged man on the stage had a faint smile on his face as he watched the disciples getting excited.

However, hearing some disciples using words such as 'miser' and 'stingy' for the academy, he had a funny expression and could only shake his head.

Max also became excited after hearing the rewards and thought, "If I can rank in the top five, I'll receive twenty thousand mana stones. They might be enough to buy the required medicine for Flavia."

After some disciples asked more questions, they were allowed to return to their dorms to rest.

Max wanted to meet Flavia, but she was too embarrassed to talk to him after that small episode. Therefore, she went away.

Max could only sigh and return with Belen and company.

Seeing Max was now willing to participate now, Belen nodded in satisfaction.ovlxt.cOm

However, she also told him that it wasn't going to be easy to rank in the top five or even top ten because older inner disciples and core disciples would also participate.

The majority of them should have already reached peak two-star status, with the more talented ones already in three-star status. Moreover, their mastery of their spells will be a lot higher than his.

"It's fine, there is no harm in trying." Max said. He then recalled something and inquired, "What is that Mana purifying liquid that the Elder mentioned?"

Leticia and others also looked toward her since they also wanted to know about it.

"Oh, that is something countless mages who have 'exceeded the ten thousand mana units' dream about." Belen said mysteriously.

Max and others were confused by how she phrased the sentence.

Leticia asked, "What does that mean? Those who have more than ten thousand mana units are three-star mages right? Why are you calling them like that? "

"No." Belen shook her head and said, "Not everyone who has more than ten thousand mana can be considered a three-star mage."

Hearing this, Max and Rima nodded. They knew that there were some other requirements to becoming a three-star mage. However, Leticia and Haory frowned; they clearly didn't know what she was saying.

Belen wasn't surprised and continued, "Normally people think that if someone has more than ten thousand units of mana, they are a three-star mage. However, it isn't always true since it's merely one of the requirements to become a three-star mage..."

To become a three-star mage, one needed to fulfill some requirements. First and easiest was to have mana exceeding ten thousand units. However, by simply fulfilling this requirement didn't make you a three-star mage.

You'll have to fulfill two more requirements which weren't easy and they hindered many mages from reaching three-star realm.

Without completing them, one's strength won't increase and the excess mana would be hazardous to them instead.

The second requirement was the transformation of inner mana.

Normally, every novice or one-star mage's mana was transparent, and when they form their mana core successfully, its color would turn red.

Similarly, when one reached the three-star realm, the color of their man would turn orange.

However, this transformation wasn't as easy as it was when one become two-star mage.

After someone reached the peak of two-star realm, they needed consciously to purify and condense their mana to the limits until it eventually turned from red to faint orange.

If their affinity and the understanding of their mana (Elemental one if they had awaken their element) wasn't high enough, this step could take decades to complete.

However, Once every last bit of their mana had transformed into orange color, its power will multiply several folds.

This transition was because the one particle of orange colored Mana was several times more potent than red mana. This was also the reason why, a single three-star mage could wipe out an army of countless two-star mages.

[A/N: Now please remember this point. You won't ever see someone of lower realm beat someone of higher realm 'Using their spells.']

The third requirement was 'to strengthen' the Mana core and channels or pathways through which mana flows in body, using this 'improved Mana.'

However, this step was very painful and dangerous because the mana now was one level higher compared to mana core and mana channels.

Moreover, in the case of those who had awakened some destructive element like fire, lighting, and wind etc., it posed even more threat if their affinity wasn't high enough. That's why academies etc. test the affinity of the disciples prior to giving them admission.

Because of this, countless people who could complete the first two steps fails in the third and last step.

"Oh, now I understand why some of my relatives can't become three-star mages, even though they have reached the peak of two-star years ago." Leticia nodded in understanding.

"So, this Mana purifying liquid helps in the second step." Max realized.

"That's right. If someone were to use this liquid when purifying and condensing their mana, the process become two times faster. Therefore, it's always in high demand. But like others precious things, its supply is scarce making its price sky high." Belen nodded.

Hearing this Max's eyes twinkled and he asked "So, what's its market price?"

Belen looked at him in surprise. Not only she, but Rima and others were also surprised.

Leticia almost yelled "What? are you thinking of selling it when you receive it?"

Chapter 192 - Did You Miss Me? [Bonus Chapter]

Max shook his head and smiled "Not yet. I just want to know its price." ovlxt.c0m

Hearing this, they let out a breath. However, Max indeed thought of selling or exchanging for the medicine to heal Flavia.

He knew no matter how indifferent Flavia acted about her scarred face, deep down she was also like other girls who treasured her beauty.

If he helped her now, she should fall for him for sure. But how could he know that unknowingly, she had started to fall for him.

When in forest, whenever she felt lonely, she would remember him and the time she spent with him.

Even when he hugged her in front of everyone, she didn't feel any revulsion and instead felt warmth spread in her heart or she wouldn't have cried.

Belen, Rima and Leticia felt envious of the fact that he showed so much care for Flavia and couldn't help but think 'Will he do the same if I were in Flavia's situation?'

The answer they got made them feel relieved because it was 'Yes. He would.' They had seen it when they were in the forest that he indeed treasured them and would treat the same.

Even so, they felt envious as such was a woman's heart.

Belen sighed and said "Although the value of Mana purifying liquid is very high, it still can't compare to the medicine that can make someone recover their beauty. However, if you add some mana stones, then you should be able to buy it. However, again, I'm not completely sure of these things but I shouldn't be too far off."

“Okay. I understand.” Max nodded. Although she wasn’t sure, he understood that some miraculous medicine that can make them beautiful once again despite the scar or other problems would be priceless in every woman’s eyes and they would want it to keep it with them in case, they fell in similar situation like Flavia’s, chance of which were very high since this world required them to fight to survive.

As they were about to return to their dorms, Leticia and others had expressions that they wanted to ask or say something but were hesitating.

Haory noticed it and had a frown on her face as she bade farewell and went on her way.

After she was gone, Max looked at them and asked “Do you want to say something?”

“Yes!” All three of them replied simultaneously.

“Okay then, tell me what is it.” Max became curious.

Hearing this, they looked at each other and Belen and Rima said to Leticia “Since you are youngest among us, you go ahead and say what to want.”

Leticia looked at them speechlessly. She had some idea that they were going to say the same thing but these two made her say it. However, she didn’t retort and took a deep breath and got ready to tell what she wanted.

“I... no we, wanted to know that should... should we come to your dorm or you’ll come to ours?” She stuttered while asking this and her face became red as tomato in embarrassment.

“Oh!” Max exclaimed and a playful smile appeared on his face as he looked at Rima and Belen “So, you two also want to this?”

Belen and Rima also blushed and nodded while looking away. Seeing them act in such a cute manner, Max felt like kissing them right now but he held back since they were in a public place.

He then said “I’ll come to your dorms so you don’t need to come to mine okay.”

He said this because he wasn’t living alone and he didn’t want Anna to know about all these women, at least not yet.

After talking to them a bit more, he walked towards his dorm. ‘I wonder if she has already broken through to the two-star or not.’ He thought.

When he returned to his dorm room, he didn’t find Anna there.

‘Is she out for training?’ He thought and lay down on his bed which had her fragrant scent and soon fell asleep.

“Yawn!” He woke up after a few hours and yawned.

“Mm?” As he regained his senses, he felt a soft body hugging him. He opened his eyes and a smile appeared on his face.

Anna was hugging him as she lay beside him and was looking at him.

“You woke up?” She said and started to move away.

“Yes.” Max lazily said and hugged her back, not letting her go away.

As he felt her soft body and inhaled her fragrant scent, he felt relaxed and murmured “Hah! How much I missed this feeling!”

Hearing this, Anna’s cheeks started turning red and she burrow her head in his chest.

“Did you miss me?” She asked in a soft voice.

“Yes. I did. Did you?” He replied as his hand caressed her beautiful blonde hair.

“I... I also missed you.” She said and her eyes became misty remembering the nights where she had problem sleeping after he went away because she had developed the habit of sleeping while hugging him.

She then raised her head to look at him, “How was the outing experience? Were you in danger? Did you eat on time?”

Hearing her ask so many questions, he smiled and patiently told her how he lived for past month. Of course, he didn’t mention anything about what he did with Belen and others.

After hearing everything, Anna looked at him proudly “It seems my little Max has become a lot stronger in this past month.”

Max felt warmth in his heart seeing her become happy for him. He was even having second thoughts about asking her to be his woman. Because he didn’t want this loving relationship that they currently had to become bad.

There were two main reasons for him wanting to make her his woman even though she was his half-sister.

First one was because he didn't want her to struggle to become stronger and die when encountering some powerful enemy. Therefore, he wanted to help her.

Second one was because, although he had the instinct to protect and care for her that he inherited from Maxwell, he didn't have those familial feelings of siblings and her charm as a woman was fatal to him.

Moreover, in this world, there weren't any restriction to marry one's own cousin or even siblings if they loved each other.

After talking for a while, he asked "Did you break through?"

Chapter 193 - Thrashing A Disciplinary Disciple[1]

Hearing this, Anna's expression became dim and shook her head "No." She then smiled "I'm not far from breaking through, though. I think in a few more days, I'll be able to do it."

"Okay." Max nodded. Then he took out around 200 Mana stones and gave them to her "Here, use these and break through."

"No." Anna shook her head "You also need these to cultivate. I can't take them. So, please do so, okay." She said in a gentle voice while looking into his eyes.

Inwardly, she felt very happy that he cared so much for her and was willing to give all of his Mana stones to her.

Max smiled and was about to say something when Anna suddenly asked “Max, how come you still have Mana stones left? Didn’t you use them when you were in the forest? Or did you rob someone?”

Max looked at her in silence for a while. He was thinking whether to tell her about his ‘ability’ to cultivate without Mana stones or not.

“Anna...” Max finally decided to tell her since he wanted her to be his woman. However, before he could say anything, someone knocked on the door.

Knock! Knock!

“It’s disciplinary hall. We have received a complaint. Come out.” An arrogant voice sounded out.ovlxt.cOm

Hearing this, Max frowned. Why would disciplinary hall would come here? ‘Are they here because they know Anna is staying with me?’ He thought.

‘No, they don’t have so much time to care about an outer sector disciple living with an inner disciple.’ He shook his head.

Moreover, he wasn’t the only one who was doing this. Many other inner disciples were living with their woman who were outer sector disciple and academy didn’t have any rule prohibiting this like in the case of Core disciples.

Just then, Anna who was snuggling in his embrace, jumped out of the bed and her normally smiling face was filled with anger.

“Mm?” Max looked at her in puzzlement and realized that something wasn’t right and Anna seemed to know this.

“What is it, Anna?” He asked.

“It’s that bastard, Karon. Ever since I first met him, he had become obsessed with me. Today, when I was sparring in the arena, he came and offered to spar with me. Since he is already a two-star mage I thought it would be good to spar with him but he tried to touch me inappropriately. Therefore, I slapped him and beat him up. He threatened to make me pay for the humiliation he suffered and since he knows someone in the disciplinary hall so...” Anna explained.

Before she could complete her statement, she felt a powerful murderous aura radiate from Max.

“Good. Very good.” His eyes were flashing with intense killing intent. The one thing he hated most was, someone having bad intentions for his women or him.

Although, Anna wasn’t his woman yet, she was someone very special to him. She was among the few people who made him feel comfortable when he transmigrated to this world. Moreover, he had the instinct to protect her because of Maxwell.

Anna was surprised seeing him become angry. She had never seen him angry, let alone to the point where he would radiate such killing intent.

Shua!

Before she could say anything, Max had moved to the door and opened it.

...

Outside Max’s door...

Many other disciples from the nearby dorms had come out hearing the shout.

Two men were standing in front of Max's dorm room. In front stood the man in black robes which was the uniform of disciplinary hall. His expression was aloof and arrogant.

The man stood behind him, was wearing white robes of normal disciples and from the emblem on his chest, one could tell that he was an inner disciple.

However, his face looked funny. It was badly bruised and swollen and looked like a pig face. He was Karon, who was beaten up by Anna.

"What's the situation? Why is here a disciplinary hall disciple here?" Disciples started murmuring in confusion.

"Maybe it's because of this pig faced guy. The guy living here must have beaten him up." Someone guessed.

"Tch, after getting beaten up, he went to disciplinary hall to complain. What a coward!" Some disciples snickered in disdain.

Hearing this, Karon's already ugly face turned gloomy and he looked toward the disciplinary hall disciple.

"Humph!" The black robed man hurrumphed coldly and released his peak two-star aura which immediately quietened the disciples.

Most of the disciples here were only initial stage or middle stage two-star mages and being a disciple of the disciplinary hall, he was stronger than average peak two-star mages since only outstanding disciples of the academy could join the disciplinary hall.

“Go and knock again or I’ll just break this door.” The black robed man ordered Karon.

Karon nodded and went to knock on the door again.

Bang!

However, before he could knock, the door was banged open, and a handsome blue-haired youth appeared in front of him.

He was radiating intense killing intent which made him freeze.

Immediately after opening the door, Max saw Karon and recognized him as he had seen him before when Anna came from the mission.

Suu—

As Max was already angry and seeing the culprit in front of him, he immediately punched toward his chest.

“Wha—” Karon exclaimed in disbelief and however, he couldn’t even complete the word ‘what’ when the punch landed on him.

Crack!

Bang!

His ribs made crackling sound and he flew through the air toward the black robed man as blood burst out from his mouth.

“Mm?” The black robed man was dazed seeing this. He didn’t expect someone to be bold enough to fight or precisely attack even after knowing that disciplinary hall disciple was here.

However, seeing Karon flying toward him, he hurriedly raised his hands and two water hands materialized that caught him in mid-air.

He hurriedly checked his injuries and seeing that five or six of his ribs had broken and his internal organ also seemed to be injured, he took out a transparent bottle which had green liquid in it.

He had a painful expression on his face as he made him drink it.

Max stood there looking coldly at them, he didn't use his full strength or he would have died right there.

"Bastard, do you want to die?" The black robed man glared at him and unleashed his aura at full power.

Chapter 194 - Thrashing A Disciplinary Disciple[2]

After punching him, Max stood there looking at him coldly.

He couldn't help but feel a bit regretful because, he didn't use his full strength when punching him or he would be dead by now.

However, although he was very angry, he didn't lose his rationality. He knew that the rules of the academy weren't for show and he would be taken down if he killed someone inside the academy.

After giving Karon his precious medicine, the black robed man turned around and glared at Max, his eyes full of anger.

He shouted and unleashed his aura to suppress him, “Bastard, do you not want to live any longer? You dare attack and injure someone in front of me.”

Max wasn't affected by his measly peak two-star aura, and looked coldly at him.

Just as he wanted to speak. Hurried footsteps sounded out and Anna appeared beside him.

After seeing Karon lying on the ground unconscious, she quickly understood what had happened just now and couldn't help but be worried for Max.

Everyone's eyes twinkled upon seeing her.

“Wow! This guy is lucky to have such a beautiful girl in his room.” Someone from the crowd laughed seeing Anna.

Others also exclaimed.

The black robed man was also dazed for a moment seeing her. ‘If I play my cards well, I might be able to obtain her.’ Lust appeared in his eyes as he stared at Anna.

He quickly thought of something and burst out laughing.

“Mm?” Max frowned noticing this and felt anger rising in his heart even more.

“Initially I was here to only arrest this girl because of Karon's complaint. However, now that you have committed the crime of fighting in the academy and injuring an inner disciple severely, I, the disciplinary hall disciple, have the authority to arrest you and take you to the hall for the punishment. If you resist, I'm allowed to use force.” The black robed man said while looking at Max.

He decided to dispose off Max who, apparently was this beauty's boyfriend.

He had come with Karon because he was a relative of one of his senior disciples, in the disciplinary hall.

After getting beaten up by Anna, Karon went to find his cousin to get revenge on Anna. However, the black robed man encountered him and find out why he was here.

After hearing everything, although he was disdainful towards him, he volunteered to help him. His aim to impress his senior by helping his cousin. That's why he came here.

However, he didn't expect Max to injure Karon in front of him. Moreover, his injuries were quite serious.

As he was afraid that his senior brother will punish him if something happened to his cousin, he had to use his precious life potion to save him.

But after seeing Anna, he forgot the everything and felt glad that he came.

"Haha! You want to arrest us. I don't have any problem going with you, but do tell me what's her crime?" Max laughed in anger.

The black robed man frowned and said, "You are not qualified to ask me anything."

"I see." Max nodded.

Seeing him nod, the black robed man materialized two water hands that grabbed toward Anna and him.

Boom! Boom!

Suddenly, two fireballs shot out from Max and blasted the water hands apart.

“You! You want to stop me from doing my duty?” The black robed man became angry while he secretly rejoiced. If Max tried to stop him, he would have excuse to kill him right here.

Max didn't speak and threw a fireball at him.

Boom!

The black robed man laughed and used his water hand to block the fireball
“Since you aren't cooperating, you'll be responsible for what's happen—”

Shua!

“What?” The black robed man exclaimed as Max's fist landed squarely on his face. Max had controlled his strength, so that he won't end up blowing his head apart.

Bang!

The black robed man flew a few feet backwards and crashed into Karon who, had just regained his consciousness.

“What? He dares to beat up a disciplinary hall disciple?” Some of the disciples gathered here exclaimed.

“This is very strong. Just now he didn't even used any mana and even after that, his strength and speed are already higher than average middle stage two-star mages.” Some who were sensitive to mana commented.ovlxt.c0m

“No matter how strong he is, he will be severely punished by the disciplinary hall.”

Max looked at the black robed man and snickered “If you want to frame someone, you should have power to do it.”

Cough!

The black robed man coughed and spit out some blood as he stood back up, his nose was broken and bleeding. His vision was a bit shaken.

Boom!

His mana exploded outwards as he glared at Max and said through gritted teeth “Bastard, I’ll kill you.”

“How about you try?” Max didn’t back down and also released his mana which was even more intense than him.

The black robed man was surprised. He didn’t think that a newly recruited disciple would already have reached peak two-star.

However, the murderous look in his eyes didn’t lessen and he started casting his spell.

One water hand started forming in front of him. The previous water hands were faint and didn’t contain much strength but this one seemed very strong and radiated a powerful aura.

Just as Max was also about to cast his spell and attack him, a dominant voice sounded out.

“What’s going on here?”

Whoosh!

A figure appeared in front of the dorm building and slowly walked inside. The aura released from it had surpassed both the black robed man and Max’s aura and reached an entirely new realm.

“A three-star mage!” Disciples exclaimed. The black robed man frowned. As far as he knew, there shouldn’t be any disciplinary hall member watching over this dorm building temporarily.

A/N: Please don’t forget to comment so that I can know if there’s something that’s need to be improved.

Chapter 195 - Fierce Beauty [Bonus Chapter]

Everyone was stunned to see it. This figure was a young woman who seemed to be only 24-25 years old.

In her spotless white dress, she looked like a fairy. She was gorgeous. Her skin was smooth and fair, and she had pink lips that weren’t seductive like Rima’s but looked very appetizing. Her black hair was draped over her shoulder like a flowing waterfall. Her beautiful brown eyes scanned the crowd.

Everyone was mesmerized upon looking at her. Max also found her to be very beautiful. Her beauty was on the same level as Anna or Flavia, but because she was a three-star mage, she attracted everyone more.

The black-robed man's expression became respectful as he saw who she was and stopped casting his spell.

He hurriedly stepped forward and bowed, "Senior Eliana."

"What's going on here?" She nodded slightly and asked.

The black-robed man hurriedly told her everything that had happened.

"Isn't there someone named Eliana among the top core disciples?" Someone murmured.

Hearing him, others instinctively looked towards her chest. Seeing the Emblem pinned on her chest, everyone was surprised and looked at her in awe.

Max also glanced at her chest and saw the core disciples' Emblem.

Just as he was about to move his eyes away, the black-robed man finished explaining the situation to her, and she glanced toward Max.ovlxt.cOm

Seeing that he was looking at her chest, she felt disgusted and became angry. She was about to lash out when suddenly she felt that his face was somewhat familiar.

Suddenly, a memory of one month ago surfaced in her mind, which caused her face to turn red, and she exclaimed.

"It's you?"

“Hmm?” Everyone, including Max, was surprised by this.

Immediately after, the crowd broke out in the discussion.

“What? Fairy Eliana knows this guy?”

“Who is he that even a core disciple such as her seems to know him?”

“He is a new disciple recruited around two months ago.” Someone replied.

Anna looked at Max with a surprised expression. Although she knew Max had a friend who was also a core disciple, she didn't expect him to know someone among the top core disciples.

Meanwhile, the black-robed guy's expression became ugly. If she knew him, he couldn't do anything to him. Not only he, but even the upper echelons of disciplinary hall won't want to offend her over such a small matter.

However, Max's following words made him feel a bit relieved.

“Do you know me?” Max asked curiously.

“You... How can I know you? I must have mistaken you for someone else.” She said while evading his gaze.

Max was confused by her reaction and glanced at her deeply. This made Eliana's face redden even more.

“What are you looking at?” She huffed in anger.

“Nothing.” Max smiled lightly and shook his head.

“Good.” She nodded, and her expression returned to normal. She then asked coldly, “Why are you resisting the proceedings of the disciplinary hall?”

Hearing this, the black-robed guy had a gloating expression. Everyone knew that most core disciples loved and respected the Cloud academy and would help if someone was causing unnecessary trouble.

“It’s because we are not in the wrong, and I’m capable of resisting him,” Max said calmly.

The black-robed guy’s expression became dark. His words suggested that he, a disciplinary hall’s disciple, was weak compared to him. How can it not infuriate him?

“Oh, you are in the wrong?” She glanced at the black-robed man, which made him stiffen up.

He hurriedly said, “No, senior. He is guilty. He attacked that guy when we arrived to arrest the girl beside him. Everyone here can testify to it.”

Hearing this, Eliana glanced at the disciples standing there. Whoever her gaze landed on, everyone nodded. “Yes, senior sister. We indeed witnessed him attacking that guy.”

“What do you have to say now?” Eliana asked him, her eyes twinkling. She also wanted to teach him a lesson for giving her such a bad memory.

Max was still calm. He looked into her eyes and smiled faintly. “How about you first ask him why he wanted to arrest Anna?”

“Why?” Eliana looked at the black-robed man.

The black-robed man glared hatefully at Max. He knew that their fake excuse would be found after she started to ask questions. However, he still gritted his teeth and said, "It's because she beat that guy, Karon, up, and he came to complain to me."

Eliana looked at Karon, standing beside the black-robed man, his face badly bruised, and then she glanced at Anna.

Her eyebrows furrowed, and she harrumphed coldly, "Being a two-star mage, you got beaten up by a one-star mage. Is the standard of our academy's disciples fallen so low?"

Karon's face darkened in shame after hearing this. Other disciples also revealed disdainful expressions looking at him.

Before anyone could say anything, Max's voice sounded, "Now, how about you ask this loser how or why he was beaten up?"

Eliana frowned. She felt like he was leading her. But she still looked at Karon. However, Karon looked down and didn't reply.

"Humph!" Eliana released her aura and focused on Karon, which caused his body to stiffen and his breathing to speed up.

In just a few seconds, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Eliana felt disgusted and looked toward Anna. "How about you tell me why you beat him up?"

"Yes, senior." Anna nodded and quickly explained how he offered to spar with her and tried to touch her inappropriately, after which she trashed him without giving him any chance to use his mana.

After hearing her side, Eliana's forehead was filled with dark lines, and she shouted, sending a wave of mana toward Karon, "You fucking trash! How dare you be so lecherous and then try to blame her."

"Ugh!"

Karon was hit with her wave and was sent flying, spitting out blood. After he crashed to the ground, he immediately fainted.

"Woah!" Disciples exclaimed, seeing this. No one had expected her to lash out like this.

Max was also surprised. He liked her decisiveness.

Chapter 196 - Woman In Need[1]

After flinging Karon away, she turned toward the black-robed man.

This made him shiver, thinking that she would do the same to him. It didn't matter if he was a peak two-star mage; if she waved her hand, he would also spit out blood.

Eliana asked coldly, "How dare you be so biased? Isn't it the disciplinary hall's duty to find out the facts before making any move? It's obvious that you didn't even try, or how difficult would it have been to find out that he was beaten up while sparring? Are you going to arrest everyone who injures their opponent in a spar, huh?"

The black-robed man didn't dare retort and immediately bowed as he said, "It was my carelessness sen—"

"Fuck off!" Eliana didn't let him finish and waved her hand. He was sent flying just like Karon and fainted.

She then turned to look at Anna and nodded with a smile. "You did great there." Anna was about to say something when Eliana looked toward Max and continued in a cold voice, "If any men try to do those lecherous things, kill them next time if you can. If not, then come find me; I'll take care of everything."

Max could feel that her last sentence was targeting him, which made him feel odd. Did she think that he was also that kind of man or what?

However, how would he know that he was already the biggest pervert in her mind?

A month ago, she was in the Cloud mountain range. While resting, she heard a girl scream and thought someone was in danger.

However, when she went to help, she witnessed a male and female indulging in sexual activities. She was very angry then but was too embarrassed to show herself.

Therefore, she returned and was sure they would die to some beast soon. After all, those who focus on carnal pleasure are weaker than others.

But now, she found that he was safe and living with another girl who was as beautiful as her. Moreover, she had to save 'this pervert,' which made her feel bad.

“Yes, thank you, senior.” Anna nodded excitedly. She didn’t expect a distinguished core disciple who has reached the three-star realm to look favorably at her.

“Mhm.” Eliana nodded and glanced faintly toward Max before leaving.

After she had gone away, the disciples present broke out in discussion. Most talked about her beauty and strength and forgot Max and Anna.

After this episode, Max sent her inside the room and went to exchange the beast cores in the resource hall.ovlxt.cOm

He urgently needed the mana stones to buy the foundation strengthening liquid.

He had a basic plan on how he would do the things next if nothing unexpected happened.

First, he would consolidate his foundation and then raise his mana to ten thousand units. After that, he would focus on training to shorten the casting time of his strongest spell [Calidus Brachium].

After that, he would start transforming his mana color to orange and try breaking through to the three-star realm before the selection competition.

He knew that quite a few inner and core disciples who had been in the academy for more than a few years had already reached the three-star realm just like Eliana.

Therefore, he needed to become a three-star mage if he wanted to compete against them to rank in the top five or ten.

Max quickly reached the resource hall. There was already a long line formed in front of the counter.

A few disciplinary hall disciples were stationed here too to ensure the smooth progress of everything and prevent the impatient and rebellious disciples from causing a commotion.

Max patiently stood in the line, and after two hours, it was finally his turn.

A woman, who looked to be in her thirties, was sitting at the counter. Max took out thirty beast cores, placed them in front of her, and said, "Elder, I would like to exchange these."

The woman glanced at him and was surprised to see him for a second. Although she was a middle-aged woman, she was still affected by his devilish features. She quickly recovered and nodded. "Okay."

After counting and scanning the cores, she had a slightly surprised expression and asked, "Aren't you a new disciple...?"

"Yes, I am. Why?" Max nodded and curiously asked.

"Oh!" The middle-aged woman exclaimed, "No, usually the beast cores new disciples bring are only from early stage two-star beasts since they can't handle stronger ones, but most of yours are from middle-staged ones. It seems you are also very strong."

Max's eyes lit up hearing this and he asked, "Elder, do the price of beast cores vary based on their strength?"

"Huh, didn't you know this?" The middle-aged woman was a bit surprised.

Max shook his head and smiled wryly. 'It seems I also need to spend some more to learn about these small things.'

Seeing him become embarrassed, the middle-aged woman smiled. "It's okay. There are many things that most new disciples aren't aware of."

She then explained, "Yes, the price of beast core varies according to the beasts' rank, strength, rarity, etc.

For example, the academy gives 100 Mana stones for one early-stage two-star beast core from a non-elemental beast. As for those from the middle-stage two-star beasts, they range between 150-200 Mana stones each.

Moreover, if they are from elemental beasts, their exchange rate ranges from 200-300 Mana stones.

As for these cores, twelve are from early-stage beasts, eighteen are from middle-stage, and six of them are from elemental beasts. Therefore, you can get a total of four thousand and seven hundred Mana stones."

The people on other counters and the disciplinary hall disciples were surprised to see her explain these things to a random disciple. They knew that this woman was very impatient and hot-headed. So, they glanced over curiously.

Seeing Max, the females were dazed while the males looked at him jealously.

"Four thousand and seven hundred?" The disciple standing behind Max exclaimed. This many Mana stones were equal to almost four years of monthly resources for inner disciples.

Max was happily surprised by this. He hadn't thought that he would be able to receive 1700 stones extra stones from the expected amount.

The middle-aged woman asked, "So, you want to exchange them for Mana stones or other resources?"

"May I know how much foundation strengthening liquid costs?" Max asked.

"One small bottle of low-tier grade two liquid cost three hundred, middle-tiered cost one thousand, while the high-tier one cost five thousand." The woman said.

Max's smile froze hearing the price. From his share of stones, he couldn't even buy middle-tier grade two liquid.

'It's okay. I still have around two hundred stones.' Max thought. He wanted to buy the middle-tier foundation strengthening liquid because Belen had told him that the middle-tiered one was more than five times more effective than the low-tiered one.

This means that it would take five times more time to achieve the desired result if he bought a low-tiered one.

The middle-aged woman saw his expression changing and immediately remembered that when new disciples go on the outing, they would go in groups of five. This means that his share would only be a little less than thousand stones.

"Hand—ahem! Disciple, do you want to buy the middle-tiered one?" She asked.

'Hmm?' Max was surprised at how she was going to call him and looked at her. The look in her eyes surprised him even more, and his eyes twinkled.

Chapter 197 - A Woman In Need [2]

Max was surprised by the look on her face. He immediately realized that this Elder was a woman in need.

Realizing this, a smile appeared on his face, and he moved his face near hers and said, "Yes, Elder, I want to buy the middle-tier foundation strengthening liquid. However, I don't have enough to buy it since my share is only a fraction of the total stones I'll receive after selling these cores."

The Elder was surprised to see him leaning closer to her, and after hearing him, a crafty light flashed in her eyes.

Max then whispered, "Can you please sell it at a lower price? I'll be very grateful. If Elder ever needs me to do anything, I won't reject and help you to the best of my abilities."

As he said this, he stressed the word anything, which made her heart beat faster and look at him in a new light.

"Since you brought so many cores in your first outing, it means that you have good potential. So, I'll give you a ten percent discount on grade two middle-tier foundation strengthening liquid." The Elder said.

Other people manning the counter looked at her weirdly but didn't say anything as every Elder of the resource hall has the authority to give discounts to the three disciples every month they deem talented.

"Woah! This guy is quite lucky to gain an Elder's approval." Some disciples commented.

"Well, it's extremely normal if you think about it. Who can hunt down so many middle-stage beasts in their first outing?"

"Keke, My group and I also slew a few middle-stage beasts; maybe I can also get some discount."

"..."

Afterward, Elder gave him a small crystal bottle containing foundation strengthening liquid and the remaining 3800 Mana stones.

When Max stored them in his inventory, he found that there was a paper slip among the Mana stones. He chuckled inwardly and kept it too.

He then walked out of the resource hall.

When he returned to the dorms, he saw Neer standing there.

Neer also noticed him and bowed, "Young master!"

Max smiled and helped him up. "You are a core disciple now. You should stop bowing to me." He laughed.

"No, young master. It's my way of showing you the respect you deserve." Neer said in a firm tone.

Max could only sigh at his stubborn attitude. At the same time, he was also pleased to see that even after becoming a core disciple, he didn't get arrogant.

"How was the outing, young master?" Neer asked.

"It was quite enjoyable." Max smiled and said. Neer was confused by his words but didn't ask further. He was happy that Max could return safe and sound.

"Let's go inside the room and talk." Max turned to walk toward his room.

"I'm sorry young master. I can't go inside right now." Neer shook his head and apologized.

"Hmm? Why?" Max asked.

After that, Neer told him that in this time, an Elder had taken him as her disciple, and he was busy training under her and only came to see him.

After that, he swiftly left, and Max went inside his room.

Anna had prepared food while he was away. After eating food, Max took out the dead body of the wolf leader and told her that they would eat its meat until it was finished.

Anna was delighted to see it and almost jumped in excitement. "Little Max, I'll be able to break through to the two-star realm in 2-3 days if I eat such Mana-rich food daily."

Max smiled at her being so excited, and took out a spatial bag and gave it to her.

“Hmm? What’s in it?” Anna said and curiously looked inside. Immediately after, she gave it back. “I told you not to give me your stones. You also need—”

“Shhh!” Max put his finger on her soft lips and stopped her from speaking.

Anna’s cheeks started to redden as she felt his finger on her lips and remembered the time when he kissed her before going on the outing.

Her eyes revealed a panicked look; her heart started beating faster as she evaded his gaze.

Seeing this, Max was tempted to kiss her, but he held back and said, “I’ve improved too quickly and need to consolidate my foundation. So, I don’t need them. Moreover, with my strength, I can easily earn more.”

“Yes.” Anna nodded like a chick and accepted them without saying anything.ovlxt.cOm

“Okay then. Let’s cultivate for a while now.” Max said and sat down on the ground cross-legged.

Anna took a deep breath and calmed her heart. However, deep down, she felt somewhat disappointed.

Max didn’t know her state of heart. He took out the crystal bottle from the inventory. It was only three-inch in size. As he opened it, the medicinal fragrance permeated the air.

“Huh?” Anna looked at the bottle in his hand and asked, “What is it, Max?”

“It’s the foundation strengthening liquid,” Max replied.

“Foundation strengthening liquid? Are you alright?” She worriedly asked.

“Everything’s fine. I’ve told you it’s because I’ve improved too quickly, and it made my foundation a bit weak. No need to worry.” Max casually said.

“Oh, okay.” She then sat beside him and started to cultivate using the Mana stones she had just received.

Max drank the liquid, closed his eyes, and started consolidating his Mana core.

As they immersed in cultivation, time passed quickly; soon, it was nighttime.

Huuu....

Max exhaled a long breath and opened his sapphire eyes.

‘It’s indeed good medicine. My core has returned to 80% of its peak in just a couple of hours. Now, I only need to strengthen it for a maximum of two or three days before I can raise my mana again.’ He thought excitedly.

He saw that Anna was still cultivating. After stretching his body a bit, he took out a paper slip.

It had an address and time written on it. Seeing this, a smile appeared on his face.

‘It’s almost time to pay the generous Elder back and see how many LPs a three-star mage can give me. Hehe.’

He glanced at Anna and left a note on the bed before walking toward the Elders' residences.

Chapter 198 - Jasmine

Elders' Residences were a few miles away from the disciples' dorms. After running at a little more than half of his top speed, Max arrived in front of a row of magnificent villas.

He encountered night patrol but seeing that he was an inner disciple, they didn't bother him.

After arriving in front of the Elders' residences, he again checked the address and quickly found the villa belonging to the Elder from the resource hall.

"What are you doing here at this time?" Two guards were standing in front of the entrance to the villa; seeing Max coming toward them, they asked coldly.

Max glanced at them and found that both were pretty female disciples. Seeing them, Max raised his brows.

According to how she behaved and asked him to come to her residence at night, he had thought of her as someone promiscuous.

In his knowledge, people like her wouldn't have servants of the same gender. He was the same. If he were given a choice between a male and a female servant, he would choose the female servant each time.

'Well, I can't judge everyone by the same standards.' He thought and said, "I'm here to meet the Elder. She had asked me to come and find her."

"Is that so?" One of the guards said and looked at him up and down with interest.

The other guard also looked at him for a while. Under their intense gazes, Max stood motionlessly and also checked them out.

Although they were average looking, it was by this world's standard. In Max's eyes, they were quite beautiful.

"Cough... You wait here while I ask the Elder if she is free." One of them said and went inside.

Max waited there while the other guard kept her eyes on him.

After a few minutes, the first guard came out and invited him to go inside.

Max nodded and entered the villa. After he had entered, the guards closed the gates and looked at each other in confusion. "Why would the Elder want to meet a man this late in the night?"

Max entered the villa and was greeted by a servant in a maid's dress. "Please come this way. Mistress is waiting for you in her room." She respectfully said and led the way.

Max nodded and walked after her. After coming in front of a room, she stopped and said, "Mistress is inside. Please enter." After saying this, she turned around and left.

Max took a deep breath and raised his hand to knock on the door when Elder's voice sounded from inside. "It's open. Come in."

"Okay." Max pushed opened the door and entered.

This room wasn't large, only double the size of his dorm room. In the middle was a bed on which sat a beautiful woman.

Max didn't want to move his gaze away after his eyes landed on her.

She was wearing a thin purple-colored bathrobe, and her slightly damp hair was draped over her shoulders.

She was sitting on the corner of the bed with one leg over the other, revealing her bare legs underneath just enough to entice a man.

Her right elbow was placed on her thigh as her palm supported her chin. Because she was leaning slightly forwards, Max could see a bit of her cleavage.ovlxt.c0m

Although she was well over her mid-thirties, she looked ten years younger. Despite all this, her mature charm attracted him the most.

"Have you looked enough?" She asked with a smile on her face.

"Nope." Max shook his head.

Hearing his reply, her smile widened, and a faint blush appeared on her cheeks. She was satisfied by his response.

She asked, "Do you know why I asked you to come here?"

“No.” Max shook his head without hesitation, which made her frown, but he then smiled and continued, “However, I’m willing to do whatever Elder asks me to repay you.”

“Is that so?” The Elder smiled and said, “If that’s the case, how about you give me a massage? After sitting at the counter distributing recourses all day, my body feels heavy.”

Max chuckled inwardly. ‘So, we’re going to start like this.’

He then patted his chest and said, “Although I’m not a masseuse, I’ll try my best to satisfy Elder.” Saying this, he walked over to her side.

Seeing him come over, she quickly lay on her stomach and pointed at the table on the left side of the bed. “Use that oil. It helps in relaxing the body.”

Max nodded, picked up a crystal bottle with yellowish oil, and climbed onto the bed.

“Um, Elder. You would have to take off your bathrobe so that I can apply this oil and give you a good massage.” Max said.

“You can take it off yourself. I’m tired.” The Elder said as she rested her head on a pillow.

“Okay then.” Without hesitation, Max put his hands under her stomach, untied the lashes, and then raised her hands before pulling them away.

As he took it off, her naked body was revealed in front of him. Yes, naked. She wasn’t wearing any underwear. ‘This makes it a bit easier.’ He thought.

Since she was lying on her chest, her plump and perky ass was in front of him. Between her legs, he could even see her pink pussy.

This scene caused his blood to boil and his little brother to harden. Seeing her round and exquisite ass, he could barely hold back from giving it a tight squeeze.

“Are you only going to stare?” Just as he was trying to hold himself back, her teasing voice.

Although she was acting calm, her heart was beating rapidly. It had been a long time since she was lying naked in front of a man.

She was a widow whose husband had been killed by his enemies more than a decade ago.

When he died, she was still young and tried to find another man to marry, but none was to her liking.

Therefore, to satisfy her sexual needs, she had been in relationships with a few men; however, as time passed, her sex drive grew more and more, and her current partners left her since they were focused on becoming stronger and didn't have time or capabilities to satisfy her.

Now she was 36 years old, and it'd been over a year since she had been with any men.

That's why she was always in a bad mood. However, when she saw Max, her pussy that was waiting to be satisfied twitched. She felt something unusual about him.

Moreover, after their short talk, she guessed that although he was very young, he was similar to her. That's why she gave him that paper slip and asked him to come over at night.

Hearing her teasing voice, Max wasn't able to hold back anymore. However, he couldn't do whatever he wanted with her as she was a three-star mage, and didn't want to do something that might anger her.

He knew that even though there were rules prohibiting killing in the academy, it was only limited to disciples and not Elders. If he angered her, she might really kill him.

Therefore, he decided to try a less risky move. He leaned beside her ear and whispered, "Why don't we do what you really want?"

Chapter 199 - 199 You Aren't Allowed To Sleep Tonight

"W-What do you mean?" Hearing Max's words, her heart rate sped up, and she tried to act normal, but her voice still stuttered a bit.ovlxt.c0m

After seeing her reaction, he felt relieved. Thankfully, she also had similar thoughts and wasn't angered.

He smiled and gently bit on her earlobe.

"Ahh~"

Jasmine trembled slightly, and a moan escaped her lips. She hadn't expected him to be bold enough to do this.

Max whispered again, "You want me to do something like this, right? How about we skip this massage part and get to it."

Swoosh!

Suddenly, Jasmine turned over, which gave him a fright. He thought that this time she was angered, but now that he had already said this, he gritted his teeth and looked into her eyes.

Jasmine looked at him for a few seconds without saying anything.

All this while, Max felt like he was under immense pressure even though she wasn't releasing any aura or something like that.

(A/N: This is a different kind of pressure one instinctively feels in certain situations. For example, when you propose to your crush etc.)

Suddenly, Jasmine smiled and caressed his cheeks with her fingers. "I would've loved to do it right away. However, I'm really exhausted today, and you haven't passed the test yet, so give me a massage first. After that, I'll see what to do next."

"Okay." Max felt the pressure disappear after hearing this and nodded. As for the test she mentioned, he didn't think much about it since he had the confidence to make her addicted to his cock.

"Turn around then." He said and turned her body around, making her lay on her stomach once again.

He sat on her back, poured the yellowish liquid on his palms, and slowly started to massage her shoulders.

Mn~

As his hands came into contact with her skin, Jasmine moaned as she felt good. Meanwhile, Max was a bit surprised by the softness of her skin.

It was pleasurable to touch and was comparable to Belen and others even though she was more than thirty-five years old.

'Is it because she is a three-star mage?' Max thought.

He remembered Elder Jack saying that as one became stronger, they would have fewer problems such as sickness, skin aging, etc., than ordinary people.

He shrugged his shoulders and stopped thinking about this. It was good that it felt great, or it wouldn't have been fun.

He then focused on massaging her shoulders and feeling her skin. Slowly, he moved lower and started massaging her back. Occasionally, his fingers would go sideways and feel her boobs.

"Mm? Why are poking my ass? Control yourself." Jasmine said all of a sudden.

"Huh?" Max was surprised by her words and looked down to see that his cock had already become rock hard and was pressing against her soft ass.

"I can't really control it, especially after seeing and touching a sexy naked body like yours." Max chuckled and sat on her thighs, resting his little brother between her hips.

"Hehe, how am I sexy? I'm just an old woman." Jasmine giggled and ignored what he was doing. She even raised her ass a bit so that he would rub it a bit more.

Seeing this, Max knew that she was pleased that he praised her. Therefore, he raised his voice and said, "Who was that blind person that said you are old? You are still very young, and your body is a lot sexier than young girls. Especially this part.”

Slap!

He slapped her ass, expressing that he liked her ass.

Ahng~

Jasmine moaned and happily giggled. “What a sweet talker! It seems you’ve already preyed upon many girls with your good looks and sweet talk.”

“How can that be? I’m a man of principles and don’t do something like that.” Max said as his hands traveled even lower and started to massage her hips.

He poured some more oil on her buttocks and started to squeeze and grope them. Sometimes he would slap them, making them jiggle like a spring. Because of their elasticity, he felt good squeezing or slapping them.

Jasmine would laugh at his words and moan whenever he slapped her.

After a while, he dipped his fingers in oil and started massaging her pussy and asshole.

“Nngh~”

“You don’t need to massage that place.” Jasmine moaned and said in a panic.

“Who’s the masseuse here? You or me?” Max said and started stimulating her clit with his index finger while he slid his middle finger into her pussy.

“Ahn~ It’s you.” Jasmine moaned.

“That’s right. So, I’ll tell you where you need a massage or where not. Got that?” Max said and put started moving his fingers faster.

“Yesss!” Jasmine moaned, feeling the pleasure, and her pussy tightened around his finger.

“So tight!” Max exclaimed. He found that her pussy’s tightness was comparable to Belen’s when he first fucked her.

Hearing this, Jasmine clenched it even tighter. However, when she realized this, she was puzzled. ‘Why am I trying to please him? Is it because he is handsome? Or is it something else?’

Anghh~

However, she didn’t have time to think anything because the pleasure she was feeling was getting stronger and stronger as Max used everything he had learned after having sex with Belen and others this past month.

...

After massaging her back, ass, and pussy, Max suddenly stopped.

“What... why are you stopping? I’m not satisfied yet.” Jasmine said, breathing heavily.

Due to him constantly teasing her pussy and the fact that she was more sensitive down there because it had been a long time since someone touched her, she had climaxed twice in a row.

Although this made her breathing faster, she wasn’t satisfied. Therefore, she was immediately dissatisfied when he suddenly stopped.

“Don’t worry. I’ll make sure to satisfy you thoroughly.” Max said while taking off his clothes.

Seeing this, Jasmine didn’t say anything and even pushed him to undress quickly to get to it. By now, she had forgotten that she ever mentioned that he needed to pass her test or something like that.

After taking off his clothes, he made her raise her ass higher and put his cock, which was about to burst, on her pussy entrance.

Thwop!

After rubbing it a few times, he gave it a strong thrust, and little brother slid inside her until only his balls were out.

“Nnghh~ Sooo guuudd!”

Jasmine moaned loudly, and her inside wrapped around his rod as if feeling its thickness.

“Yeah!”

Max also groaned in pleasure and stayed like that for a moment, enjoying the soft and warm sensation of her pussy.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

He then started moving his waist. Initially, his thrusting speed was slow as he was familiarizing his little brother with his new home; after a while, he had raised his thrusting rate to the maximum, making Jasmine moan like crazy.

Ahn~ Nngh~ Hahh~

Soon, the room reverberated with their moans and the slapping sound of flesh.

...

“Ahnnggh~”

After getting fucked by his cock for more than a dozen minutes, her body suddenly jerked up, and she moaned loudly.

“Ughh!” Max had been holding back until now, and seeing that she was cumming, he also shot his load inside her pussy.

Huff Huff Huff

“It was amazing; I didn’t expect you to be so good,” Jasmine said while trying to catch her breath.

“Hehe, are you satisfied with just this? You aren’t allowed to sleep until little guy here isn’t satisfied completely.” Max laughed and put his still hard cock on her pussy.

Chapter 200 - 200 Ncredible

Huff... Huff... Huff...

“L-Let’s take a short break now, okay,” A voice said, exasperated.

Surprisingly, it was Max who spoke.

“Hah!... Who was the one that said he wouldn't let me sleep tonight?”
Jasmine mockingly said as she also took deep breaths.

Although she said this, she was surprised by the fact that he could last until now. It had been more than three hours since they started having sex, but he didn't seem like he couldn't continue anymore.

She was pleased about this fact and smiled. “Okay, let's rest a bit. My pussy has also become slightly numb after getting fucked so hard.”

Plop!

She then lay on the bed and started resting.

Max looked at her and smiled bitterly in his heart. ‘It seems that my stamina is a lot weaker than hers.’

After he had increased his stamina, he stopped facing stamina issues. He could even satisfy Belen and Leticia for hours in a row and still fight the beasts.

However, his stamina drained rapidly in these three hours because he tried his best to satisfy her. But she was like a succubus and didn't seem satisfied no matter how hard he fucked her.

But this situation was also to his liking. Because he had been having sex with Belen and others, his sex drive had increased significantly, and Belen and others couldn't keep up with him before feeling too exhausted to continue.

Now that he encountered someone like him, who was also a three-star mage, this made him very happy as he could fuck her however much he wanted and also gain a lot of LPs.

'Mm? Let's check how many LPs I've gotten until now from her.' Max remembered and opened his status window.

[Name: Maxwell Garfield]

[Age: 18 years]

[Strength: 50]

[Agility: 70]

[Stamina: 20/65]

[Vitality: 50]

[Intelligence: 70]oVLxt.comm

[Mana: 8900]

[Element: Fire (Concentration: 70%)]

[Lust Points: 95,000]

'What? It only increased by 47,000?' Max exclaimed in his heart in disbelief.

After 'wasting' thirty thousand LPs on the instant mana recovery pill, he had 33,000 LPs. After occasionally sex with Belen and others in the past week, his LPs barely increased by 15,000.

This was because he had become stronger than Belen and others, and their yin energy had thinned out after so many days of continuous sex.

That's why he wanted them to improve as soon as possible so that he would have a stable supply of LPs. However, he didn't expect such a windfall after returning to the academy.

Therefore, he thought he could gain at least ten thousand or something LPs if he had sex with her, who was in the three-star realm.

However, he only gained 47,000 even though he must have fucked her more than ten times.

'Fuck. Just how this system works?' Max cursed in his heart.

After a few seconds, he calmed down.

'Let's see this from a positive angle. In just a few hours, I gained forty-seven thousand LPs. These are still many times the amount I would have gotten from Belen and others.' He consoled himself.

He then looked towards the naked mature beauty lying on her back. Her generous chest would move up and down as he breathed in and out.

'The most important thing right now is that I satisfy her thoroughly and make her addicted to the taste of my cock.' He thought. He didn't want this thing to be a one-night stand, at least not until his women breakthrough into the three-star realm.

He then looked at his little brother, who was too tired to continue. Max had realized that this wasn't only because of the depletion of stamina but also because of low vitality.

'Let's increase them then.' Max smiled and started increasing his vitality and stamina.

[Vitality: 100]

[Stamina: 100]

[Ding. The host is advised not to increase his attribute above 100 points before reaching the next realm.]

Just as he increased his Vitality and stamina to hundred points and tried to raise them more, the system notification sounded.

'Mm? Why is that?' Max asked in confusion.

[It's because this is the maximum that a two-star mage can have, If the host wants to increase them, please break through to the next realm, so that host's body doesn't get adversely affected.] System replied.

'Oh, this means that in terms of vitality and stamina, I'm at the absolute peak of two-star.' Max became excited upon hearing this.

The fifty units limit was the peak for non-elemental mages in the two-star realm. However, those with the attributes could have more than fifty units in a specific attribute without using their element to enhance it.

For example, Leticia, initially, her speed without using the wind element was somewhat lower than Max with his agility points at 50.

However, as she trained more and became stronger, her agility gradually increased and was now past 50 points even when she didn't use her wind element to enhance it.

However, according to the system, when in the two-star realm, no matter how much she trained or reached the peak two-star realm, her NORMAL agility wouldn't be higher than 100 units.

‘Okay then, I won’t increase them.’ Max thought.

He then looked at his strength and agility. He wanted to raise them to the peak, too, but he knew that, unlike in the case of stamina and vitality, his body wouldn’t be able to endure the sudden increase, and he might explode like a balloon.

Even if nothing like that happened, he needed to get familiar with that new power first to use his body properly, which would take weeks, if not more, and he still had Jasmine waiting to be fucked.

“Hm? What was that?” Jasmine suddenly opened her eyes and looked around before looking at him.

“What is it?” Max asked in confusion.

“It’s nothing. I sensed a slight disturbance in mana. But it was just you taking some medicine to replenish your stamina. Hehe...” She teasingly said.

“What!” Max exclaimed as his expression changed. He didn’t expect her to notice the slight disturbance caused when the system increased his attributes.

He wouldn’t have been too surprised if it was when he increased his Mana. But to sense it when he only increased his stamina and vitality was just too incredible.

‘Do every three-star mage have such frightening senses?’ Max wondered.
