

Strongest Mage with the Lust system

- Chapter 519: Pummeling A Four-Star Demon

Chapter 519: Pummeling A Four-Star Demon

Chaper 519 Pummeling A Four-Star Demon

Whoosh!

Emily and Rey weren't slow. As soon as they saw him move, they also moved back, warily watching the female demon who had appeared in the place where they were just now.

'She is fast,' Rey thought and then asked, "Team leader, I don't think we can handle them. We should—"

"Don't worry about it." Max interrupted him before he could complete his sentence.

Rey frowned in confusion, but quickly realized why Max interrupted him. He didn't want him to reveal their other teammates' existence to the demons and put their lives at risk.

The demoness looked at Max in slight surprise and said, "You have some keen senses. However..."

Whoosh!

She suddenly vanished and appeared in front of him, her hand grabbed toward his neck.

"...they aren't keen enough." She finished, revealing a smug smile.

"You are not wrong." Max said with a calm look on his face while pushing Ellie and her mother toward Emily.

'Mm?' The demoness frowned when she noticed this and just as her hand was about to touch his neck, her pupils constricted and she immediately retreated.

This baffled the rest of the demons. They couldn't understand why their leader retreated when she was about to grab him. Emily and Rey, on the other hand, sighed in relief. At the same time, they also couldn't help but feel disappointed because Max couldn't take her off guard and seriously injure her with his 'instant cast'. Now that she was already alert, it would be almost impossible to take her off guard.

When Max saw her retreat, the corners of his lips curled up in a grin. Then,

Swoosh!

A pair of almost transparent fire wings sprouted out of his back and he vanished from the place, appearing in front of the demoness, whose eyes widened in grim surprise.

As soon as he appeared in front of her, he threw his right fist at her stomach with all his might. Right before it connected, crimson fire blazed on it, covering more than half of his arm.

BANG!

The punch connected, and the fire burned away her dress near the point of impact. One could see his hand had almost gone through her abdomen. The demoness' eyes bulged out before she was thrown backwards, spitting out blood.

"Yes!" Rey cheered when he saw this, and Emily nodded while the demons looked stunned.

Just then, Max disappeared once again. When he appeared, he was behind the demoness, who was still flying back, her hands and feet forming a 'U' shape parallel to the ground. He then jumped up and kneed her back.

Crack!

The sound of bones cracking sounded as the demoness' body came to a halt. Max then raised his hand and punched at her head.

Although [Calidus Brachium] was no longer active, his physical strength enhanced with mana was more than enough to blow her head into pieces. Unfortunately, it wasn't so easy killing a four-star demon.

Right as his punch was about to land on the back of her head, she moved it to the side, successfully dodging the fatal strike. Then her hands—covered in a gray energy—snaked backward, clawing at him.

Max felt a strong sense of danger from them, so he hurriedly moved his body back, dodging it. At the same time, he kicked at her back, sending her flying in the other direction.

Because he had used [Phoenix wings] and [Calidus Brachium], a little less than half of his mana was consumed.

'I need to better my control of the [Pheonix wings]. It's using too much mana.' He thought as he disappeared and appeared behind the demoness, kicking her away. He could see, even after enduring the [Calidus Brachium], the demoness wasn't seriously injured. If he let up and let her recover, things might turn ugly. She was, after all, a four-star demon.

While Max continued to beat her up left and right and while the demons were still in the stunned state, Emily and Rey exchanged a glance, nodded and rushed toward the four demons.

Because they used their strongest attacks and the demons were off guard, they managed to injure two of the four demons seriously. They obviously wanted to finish them off but the other two demons reacted and saved their companions.

The duo didn't continue fighting and moved back beside Ellie and her mother. The demons glared at them but didn't dare to charge at them, afraid that Emily and Rey would take advantage and kill off their injured companions.

"Should we call for help? Young lady can't seem to handle that guy." One of the two uninjured demons asked his companion.

The demon hesitated. He was worried that the demoness would be angry if they asked for help, but seeing how she was manhandled by Max without any chance to retaliate, the demon gritted his teeth and nodded.

The other demon glanced at the demoness before taking out his communication crystal and sending a message.

On the other side, Emily frowned and Rey revealed an anxious expression when they noticed this.

"That's bad. They are asking for help," Rey said.

Emily was silent for a moment and then said, "Hide behind me so they can't see you, and asked one of the teams to come over."

"Just one?" Rey asked. Although other teams had an early-stage four-star mage each, he was afraid that the number of the demon reinforcements would be higher than theirs.

"Yeah. Just one should be enough. Also, until more demons arrive, protect me and these two." Emily said. She glanced at Max before taking out the spirit fruits he gave her after they saved Belen and Leticia from the horned demons.

"You... are eating it now?" Rey asked in surprise. Normally, a peaceful environment was needed if someone wanted to consume a spirit fruit, but she was using it here, on the battlefield.

Emily didn't answer. She knew what she was doing was reckless and dangerous, but she had to do it. So, she ate the fruit and closed her eyes.

Rey was speechless. He looked at her and then the demons, who were also looking at them, and shivered. 'Fuck! What if they attack right now instead of waiting for their reinforcements?' He cursed in his heart. The demons didn't dare to attack previously because both sides were equal after the two demons got injured. However, with Emily focusing on digesting the fruit, he was the only one remaining. So, he wouldn't be surprised if the demons attacked now.

Gritting his teeth, he waved his hand and took out his sword, ready to engage them alone if need be.

The demons' already hideous faces turned more ugly when they saw her basically ignore them and try to level up.

"How dare she! She is looking down at us. Let's fuck them up." One of them couldn't control his anger.

The other demon was also angry but controlled himself and said, "Let's wait for the reinforcements. We don't know if they are trying to lure us to attack, so we fall into their trap."

"What trap?! She is clearly trying to level up." The first demon shouted, but didn't urge him to attack again.

On the other side, Rey became more nervous when he noticed the demons angry, but sighed in relief when they didn't attack in the end. He then quickly went behind Emily, took out his communication crystal and sent the message for help.

Chapter 520: We are Doomed

Chapter 520 We are Doomed

Although Max was focused on beating or rather trying to kill the demoness, he also paid attention to the other demons, Emily and co. Therefore, he noticed the moment demons and Rey sent the message for help and his expression turned grim.

'I need to kill her as soon as possible.' He thought.

Just then, the demoness' snickered, "Keke, you are thinking of killing me, aren't you? But... how will you? You can't do anything apart from injuring me and stopping me from attacking you."

When he heard this, the corner of his lips curled up into a grin, and he asked, "You really think so?"

'Hm?' The demoness suddenly felt an ominous feeling rising in her heart when she saw his expression. Immediately, she channeled all her demon energy to flash away from him.

Whoosh!

Unfortunately, Max was paying close attention to her every move, and he immediately followed by using [Pheonix Wings] once again. 'Those damned wings!' The demoness gritted her teeth and prepared to move away once again. However, before she could even channel her energy, she saw a sword appearing in Max's hand. It was thin, over three feet long, and a sky-blue colored sword—The thunder sword.

Although Max couldn't activate its true power because of his low cultivation base, just the sharpness of it was enough for him. He had killed many three-star demons with it in a single stroke, after all, and none of them was able to resist it in the slightest.

"Let's see if I can kill you now or not." Max declared, sending a downward kick at her abdomen.

Bang!

Puah~!

The demoness spat out a mouthful of blood and a wave of pain spread throughout her body from the abdomen. She, however, ignored it completely and forcibly used all her demon energy to dodge.

Swoosh!

As soon as she moved to the side, the thunder swords whistled down and slashed down on the ground where she was just now. This made Max frown. 'A four-star demon is really difficult to kill. If I didn't have the [Pheonix Wings], I wouldn't be a match for her let alone threaten her life.' He thought and immediately pulled the sword back and slashed at the demoness' neck at his fastest speed.

"Ahhhh! YOU CAN'T KILL ME!" The demoness shouted and rotated her demon core as fast as possible to circulate more of her demon energy to dodge.

Swoosh!

Once again, she successfully managed to evade, but her heart was filled with dread and fury. She couldn't believe she was on the verge of death when fighting against a three-star human. And the fact that she couldn't retaliate at all, even though she was stronger and had more energy than him in her core, made her gnash her teeth in humiliation and anger.

Whoosh!

Before she could even catch her breath or do anything, Max again appeared in front of her and slashed at her neck. He was frowning right now because her continued dodges made him agitated. He knew if he couldn't kill soon, he wouldn't be able to afterwards when her reinforcements arrived and that would worsen things.

The demoness forced her core to rotate once again, but that made her cough out a mouthful of blood and just a tiny bit of demon energy emerged, which then circulated. Unfortunately, it wasn't enough to move her battered body out of the sword's trajectory.

"NOOOO!" The demoness cried out in horror while her wriggling skin gathered around her neck before hardening.

Max frowned slightly when he noticed this, before a cold look flashed in his eyes. Although he didn't know how sharp the thunder sword was, given the fact that it was a monarch ranked sword, it shouldn't have any problem slashing her neck off even if her wriggling skin gave her a defense as strong as a peak three-star or even early-stage four-star defensive earthen spell or perhaps even stronger.

Swoosh!

The sword whistled and within a split second; it was merely a friction of an inch away from her neck. The demoness' face was covered in horror and despair while a glint of excitement and relief flashed in Max's eyes. However,

Swoosh!

Before his sword could slash through her neck, they heard a piercing sound whistled toward him.

When the demoness heard this, her eyes shone with hope.

Max knew her reinforcements had arrived and were trying to stop him from killing her. He, however, ignored everything and released his mana to enhance the speed of his sword, wanting to kill her off as quickly as possible.

"DON'T YOU DARE!" A blood chilling shout exploded in his ears before a wave of demon energy hit him and blasted him away.

Even as Max flew away, spitting out blood, he was smiling because right before the demon energy hit him; he had managed to slash her neck off, killing her.

He then channeled his mana and twisted his body to land on his feet. He didn't look at who had attacked him or how many demons had come; instead, he opened his status panel.

[Kill Points: 15,000 --> 68,000] His eyes shone when he saw his kill points had increased by 53,000. He didn't need to think much to know why he got so many points, even though he had only killed two demons.

'That three-star demon should've given me 3000 while the demoness should've 25,000, but since I had completed the mission and got the 2x point multiplier, they became 50,000.

Wasting no time, he ordered, 'System, put all the Kill points in the Mana.'

As soon as he said this, the kill points reduced to 0 while his mana count increased.

[Mana: 20,000/ (51,000 --> 57,800)]

'20,000...!' He muttered inwardly. Thanks to the 6800 mana units, he just added, he now had 20,000 units left to use. Before he had time to recover his mana, he needed to handle the situation with these. Of course, he could kill more demons, get kill points and covert them into mana, increasing his mana reserves. Taking a deep breath, he looked at the demon reinforcements who stood beside the demoness' corpse.

There were three demons—one male and two females. The one in the middle and the leader of the trio were the male demon. He looked to be in his late twenties while two female demonesses stood on his either side. Compared to the other demons, they were quite beautiful and didn't look any older than the male demon.

Currently, the demon was looking at the demoness' corpse with a blank look on his face. It seemed he could believe what he was seeing. The two demonesses, on the other hand, had narrowed their eyes and Max could also see a pleased glint flashing in them.

When Max looked at the man, his expression turned serious because he could feel a strong sense of danger from him, even more than what he felt from the demoness he just killed after so much effort.

'A mid-stage four-star demon...!' His expression turned even more solemn when he noticed his cultivation realm. 'We are doomed.'

The demon's expression gradually turned savage and blood veins filled his eyes. He lifted his head to glare at him and let out a deafening roar.

"HUMAN BASTARD! HOW DARE YOU KILL MY WIFE!"

As soon as he shouted, he disappeared, causing Max's expression to stiffen, and he hurriedly rotated his mana core and channeled as much mana as he could into activating his [Pheonix Wings] to flash away.