

Read Novel The Sweet Pursuit Chapter 3

The sweet pursuit Chapter 3-Su Xi was stunned for a moment.

The man spoke in a cold tone, "What are you following me for?" Are you a student of Jiang University?

On his way here, he spotted the girl following behind him, and as soon as he stopped, she pretended to stop and followed her all the way to the elevator.

Su Xi blushed a little, quickly recovered his innocence, and his tone was calm, "Is this your way home?" The path that everyone can take, why do you say that I follow you? A cool color flashed in the man's ink eyes, and he took a step back and motioned for Su Xi to go up.

Su Xi mocked his lips, "Forget it, lest you misunderstand."

After saying that, he turned around and walked towards the stairs.

The elevator door slowly closed behind her, blocking the man's slightly narrowed ink eyes.

Su Xi was afraid of meeting Ling Jiuze again, so he simply climbed the stairs and went to the ninth floor.

When she arrived at the conference room, the counselor was talking with the dean of the School of Economics and Management, and when he saw her, he gave her a look and asked her to wait first.

There were also a few students next to him who also came to hand in the information, and one of them looked over with a gloomy look and looked at Su Xi with bad intentions.

Su Xi pretended not to see it, took out his mobile phone, and played Sudoku for a while.

In less than five minutes, after the game was solved, there were footsteps approaching, "It's been a while since I came back, I've been abroad for so long,

it's time to come back!"

With the voice of the principal, two people walked into the conference room, one was Principal Fang, and the other ...

Su Xi couldn't help frowning, is it so coincidental?

Ling Jiuze also saw Su Xi, and his long eyes swept over her without stopping for a moment.

The dean hurriedly greeted him and greeted the principal.

Principal Fang introduced him, "This is the president of the Ling Group, who used to be a student of our school, by the way, several scholarships of our school are sponsored by President Ling. The dean's face immediately became more respectful, and after shaking hands with Ling Jiuze said with a smile, "Today I just asked the students to come over and submit the application materials for the scholarship, Mr. Ling, you see, these students have all won your scholarship." Ling

Jiuze glanced over, this time seemed to look at Su Xi more, and said with a light smile, "Jiang Dayi has always been full of talents!"

Su Xi looked at the man's handsome side face, his eyes turned slightly, others said that Ling Jiuze was a gentleman, last night he was indeed so domineering, full of aggression, but now the man is dignified and gentle, and he looks like the person sitting on TV.

Which is his true face?

Suddenly named by the dean, several students couldn't help but straighten their backs and look at Ling Jiuze with adoration or shyness.

Fang Cai's eyes turned at Su Xi's girl, suddenly took a step forward, and spoke crisply, "Since President Ling, who sponsored the scholarship, is here, I don't know if I should say it or not." The counselor frowned, not knowing what kind of moth Zhou Ting was going to make.

Principal Fang said with a smile, "This student has something to say.

Zhou Ting glanced at Su Xi and said negatively, "The scholarship set up by President Ling is to reward outstanding students of Jiang University, I think a person's excellence is not only in terms of study, but also in terms of conduct, right?"

"Of course!" Principal Fang nodded.

Zhou Ting took out her mobile phone and opened a post on the forum for everyone to see.

"Someone saw Su Xi get into a luxury car after school a few days ago, Su Xi's family is ordinary, I'm afraid she can't afford such a car, what is she going to do, I think everyone has to be able to think of it, is such a student also considered excellent?"

Except for Ling Jiuze, everyone's faces changed, and the counselor said in a low voice, "Zhou Ting, in front of President Ling, why are you saying this?"

Zhou Ting raised her eyebrows, "I want President Ling to know who the scholarships he sponsored have been given to, and whether the flowers have been wronged?" The dean's face had sunk, took the mobile phone and looked at it, many days ago post, only a few chapters of blurry photos, Su Xi and a middle-aged man who could not see his face got into a Mercedes-Benz S600.

"Su Xi, how do you explain?" Zhou Ting looked at Su Xi defiantly.

There was no expression on Su Xi's delicate face, and his usually gentle eyebrows were like a bend of ice lake, "Who are you, why should I explain it to you?" Zhou

Ting was just about to speak, Ling Jiuze suddenly spoke, his tone was his usual ridicule and indifference, "In what age, students from prestigious schools would use this kind of catch-all to frame a person's reputation?"

Zhou Ting gritted her teeth and defended, "With photos, how can President Ling say that he is chasing the wind?"

Ling Jiuze sneered, "What do you see in the photo?" I'm talking for her now, are you going to say that there is something unseemly between us?

Su Xi's eyelids jumped suddenly.

Suddenly glad that Ling Jiuze didn't recognize her, he would say this sentence so righteously!

After Ling Jiuze finished speaking, he added, "This is the quality of excellent students in famous schools?"

He accentuated his tone on the word excellent, obviously ironic that Zhou Ting had just said "excellent".

Zhou Ting was overwhelmed by Ling Jiuze's momentum and was speechless.

Everyone's faces changed, Zhou Ting's face was embarrassed, and the others were no better, only Su Xi raised her eyebrows unexpectedly, she didn't expect Ling Jiuze to help her speak.

Principal Fang frowned and said in a deep voice, "President Ling is right, based on a few photos that can't see anything, such a post should not appear on the Jiangda forum." The counselor immediately said, "I'll ask people to delete the post right away." Zhou

Ting was unwilling, and what else to say, was glared back by the counselor.

Principal Fang turned his head to look at Ling Jiuze and said with a gentle smile, "I see that Dean Zhang has something to discuss in the conference room here, so let's go to my office." Ling

Jiuze bowed his head, "It's okay!"

"Over here, please!"

"Principal Fang, please!"

Principal Fang and Ling Jiuze left, and the counselor turned to look at Zhou Ting and said angrily, "Zhou Ting, you are too ignorant!"

Zhou Ting gritted her back teeth and did not speak, glared at Su Xi, and turned out of the conference room.

The counselor comforted Su Xi a few words, Su Xi didn't say anything else, handed in the materials, and left.

At the corner of the corridor, Zhou Ting stood there, staring at Su Xi coldly.

Su Xi walked over without squinting, the moment she passed by, she paused in her steps and spoke lightly, "If you like Qiao Yu, you will chase, with this kind of means that can't get on the table, it will see,"

She looked sideways, obviously a pure beautiful and soft face, with an icy coldness, "You are very low!" "

Zhou Ting straightened her body for a moment, and said with a dark face, "What do you say?"

Su Xi glanced at her and left without hurry.

Zhou Ting was furious, and she stepped up to catch up, but the girl who was with her grabbed her, "Tingting, calm down, this is an office building!"

Zhou Ting stood and looked at Su Xi's back with grim eyes, "I'll kill her sooner or later!" "

There was no class in the afternoon, and at noon, Su Xi took the bus back to the mid-level villa, and sitting in the car couldn't help but think of Ling Jiuze again.

The first time they met, the two went to bed without even getting to know each other, and the second time they met, she was first treated as a malicious follower, and then accused of being a mistress in public...

Su Xi pressed her forehead against the car window and raised her eyebrows lightly, he must be her nemesis!

An hour later, Ling Jiuze declined Principal Fang's banquet and left Jiangda by car.

The driver turned around and said, "Mr. Ling, the development meeting of the Jinshuiwan villa area in the afternoon is scheduled for three o'clock, and there is a period of rest in between, where are you going?" Ling

Jiuze looked at the documents in his hand, heard the word villa, suddenly thought of something, and said lightly, "Go to Qingyuan Villa."

"Yes!" The driver looks for the intersection to turn the corner.

Ling Jiuzhe's mobile phone suddenly rang, and after answering, Mingzuo's voice came from the mobile phone: "President Ling, the woman from last night found it!" "
