

Chapter 31 - Sophia's Revenge

Xander's POV

My mom and sister had shown up and kicked Kane and me out of Sophia's room. We didn't want to leave her at all, but my mom was right. We needed a shower, and I had a pile of work to do. I know my dad was trying to help me out with my work, but he also still had Clark here and the council wanted to know how long it was until Sophia would be healed, so they could start their trial.

"Kane, go shower and meet me in my office when you're done."

"Will do, boss."

"Also, stop calling me boss. I don't know what will happen when we mate and mark Sophia, but in my eyes, we are equal, so please no more of that."

"I don't know if I can do that, but I will try to thank you for being so understanding about this."

"There is nothing to be understanding about. We are both her mates and we both love her, and you are the closest person to me. If it was anyone else, I don't think I could do it."

I made it to my room and got in a ten-minute shower and put on some clean clothes. My mom was right, we needed very much this. I feel better already. I wanted to show Sophia that she was part of the family and so was Kane. I think I want to remodel our floor and knock out the wall between my room and the two rooms next to mine and turn it more into a little house for us. I want to get started on this as soon as possible, but it was going to be hard to keep from Kane.

Once I made it to my office, I found my dad and Clark in there talking.

"Hello son, how is Sophia?"

“She is better. Her wolf is back and helping her heal. I hope that she can come home soon.”

“I would like to meet her really soon.” Clark said.

“She doesn’t even know you are here, and I don’t know how she will react. She doesn’t handle being around males she doesn’t know very well.”

“I understand that, but things will not change, and I really need to speak with her before she comes into her full powers.”

“Well, that won’t happen until she is marked and mated, and Kane and I have both discussed that and we will wait until she is absolutely ready, regardless of how long that takes.”

“The moon goddess has ways around that. I need to speak with her soon.”

“OK, let me talk with her tonight and you can meet her tomorrow.”

“Son, we also need to get an update to the council. They will not wait forever.”

“Do you think they will be opposed to a closed trial? The things that were done to her, she shouldn’t have to recount in front of anyone that wants to hear.”

“You are going to have to ask them, but I think if they say no, you’re going to have to really step in because she shouldn’t have to do that.”

Kane finally stepped into my office, looking as refreshed as I felt. My dad got up and went and gave him a hug. “Welcome to the family, but just so you know, you have always been a part of the family.” My dad told him.

“Thank you,” Kane said.

“Please no more sir, it’s either Ty or dad which ever you would prefer.”

This made Kane smile, and it really made me appreciate my dad even more. He didn't have to accept this, but he did with open arms.

"Kane, we need to let Clark speak with Sophia tomorrow." I told Kane.

"I don't know if she is ready. She has been through so much, and I don't want to add any stress to her."

"I understand, but she needs to learn the full truth of who she is, and the council is also breathing down my neck about getting the trial started." I said.

We continued talking about Sophia and ways we could approach the council about a closed trial. We all agreed, not giving them a choice and just trying to tell them it will be closed and that is final. I don't know how well it will work. They have laws regarding this, but I know with extreme circumstances, they will allow it to be different. I had to get Kane out of here so I could talk to dad about doing the remodel. I wanted his approval before I did anything.

We also discussed the few rogue sightings we have had. There have been a few random ones found within our borders, but nothing serious and they didn't attack. My warriors followed them, and they were just passing through. Probably looking for food and a place to sleep before they move on. This was a common occurrence, but we couldn't be too safe. You never know when they are planning on attacking. They don't need a reason; they are more wolves than human.

"Clark, do you know how your sister handled her mates and their mating and markings? I am sorry that is really personal, but we aren't sure how to approach it. I know she isn't ready, but when the time is right, we don't know what to do." Kane asked.

"Well, Kane, if you don't know how the mating process works, I think you have a bigger issue than the question you are asking." Clark said.

"Oh goddess, yes, I know how the mating process works! I just met with the two of her mates. Were they all together or separate, or do they have to be one or the other?"

“Well, that is something I never talked with my sister about or her mates because, frankly, I didn’t want to know, but I think when the time comes, you will know what is right for the three of you.”

“Thank you, sir.”

“Kane, why don’t you go check on Sophia and spend some time with her?”

“You don’t have to tell me twice!” He said before he took off and ran out the door!

I can’t believe that he asked that. I know he is nervous about how this will go down, but damn, neither of us are gay and it’s not like I am going to touch him or anything. It will be all about Sophia and I am sure we will have times when it is the three of us and times when there are just two of us.

“I am so sorry about his questions.” I apologized to Clark as soon as Kane left.

“No, worries. I would be worried about it as well if I were in his shoes.”

“Dad, I need to ask you about something, but I want it to be a surprise for Sophia and Kane.”

“Anything, son.”

Chapter 32 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

I don’t know how long Kane and I slept, but when I woke up, Xander was in the chair next to me, holding my hand, and he was sound asleep. I hated to wake either of them, but my bladder would not let me lay there much longer. I tried to wiggle from Kane’s grasp as gently as possible, but he just grabbed hold of me tighter and snuggled his head into my neck.

“Don’t move, baby girl, I’m really comfy.”

“I have to get up. I’m sorry.”

“No, you don’t.”

“Unless you want me to pee on you, yes, I do!”

I could feel my face redden as soon as I said that, but he let me go and I let go of Xanders’ hand, who instantly jumped up asking where I was going.

Kane grumbled to him about me using the bathroom.

After doing my business, I took a look at myself in the mirror for the first time. My bruises were fading, and I had deep gashes that were closed but would leave a scar.

How could anyone think I was beautiful?

“OH, but you’re the most beautiful wolf ever,” replied Stella.

“Stella, you have to say that!”

“I mean ya because you are me, but really we are and don’t worry, those scars will fade.”

I finally walked back out and Kane got out of my bed and a chair of his own.

“What would you like for dinner? Anything you want!”

I didn’t have to think twice as I shouted “PIZZA!”

They both just chuckled at me and Xander went to order it. I could get used to hearing them both laugh. They were so serious that when they laughed; it lit up the room.

“OK, pizza in 20 minutes. Sophia, we need to talk about a few things before dinner.”

I wasn't sure what was coming, but I had a feeling I wouldn't like it.

"Ok, what?"

"Well, two things. First is, my dad has a friend, and his sister was an emerald wolf, and he wants to meet you. I think maybe he can help you with some things. He will come to see you tomorrow."

"OK and what is the second?"

"Well, this one is a little harder. The council will be holding a trial for your old pack, and you are going to have to tell them everything. They want to do this next week. Kane and I will be with you every step of the way. You will not be alone."

I couldn't do it. I can't tell anyone what happened. I can't relive this. I was starting to have a panic attack. My breathing was getting faster, and it was like I couldn't get enough air. I was seeing black spots and I could hear my mates saying something, but it was so muffled. Suddenly, a pair of strong arms picked me up and cradled me like a baby. Telling me it would be OK and rubbing my back. Their smell was helping me calm down and so was their touch. Once I gained control over myself, I began to speak.

"I don't think I can do that. I can't relive it." I said.

"Without you they will go free, and they could take you again." Kane said from behind me.

"OK." That was all I could get out.

The pizza finally arrived, and we ate it in silence. Nobody wanted to talk after my episode. Xander turned the TV on to some dumb superhero movie. I wasn't interested. I just wanted to sleep, and it didn't take long for me to be out.

"AAAAHHHHHHH, it hurts, make it stop," I started screaming.

Both of the boys jumped up, looking at me like I was dying.

“What is wrong, baby girl?”

“It hurts, my whole body!” I screamed at them.

Before they could say anything else, my arm snapped and rearranged itself before it went back to normal, and I let out another scream.

“Beautiful, have you ever shifted into your wolf before?”

“NNNNNNNNNOOOOOOOOOOOO, goddess, make it stop.”

“Shit, she is shifting for the first time.” Someone said.

I was panting, trying to stop the pain. I continued to scream as my bones continued to break and rearrange themselves before going back to normal.

“Girl, you have to give me control. Let me do the work. This is going to happen, and it can either be the easy way or the hard way, and right now, it’s the hard way. Relax and let me take over,” Stella said.

“Baby girl, I know it hurts, but you have to relax and give your wolf control.”

“IIII ddddddooooonnnnnntttttt aaaaaahhhhhh, make it stop.”

“Just imagine yourself in your wolf form. Picture how beautiful she will be. Think about running through the forest with Jax and River. You can do this. I know it hurts, but it will all be over soon,” Xander said.

I had one of my boys on each side of me telling me I could do this. They were walking me through it and telling me what to think about. While it didn’t help the pain, it felt nice to know they were here for me.

“Girl, it is almost over. We got this. Give me a few more minutes.”

I was ready for this to end. I closed my eyes as tight as I could. I was so scared of seeing my wolf. I hoped she was as beautiful on the outside as I knew she was on the inside.

“Girl, we did it. Look at us. We are the most beautiful wolf that has ever lived!” Stella said excitedly.

I slowly opened my eyes and looked down at my paws and fur. It was snow white, but it had a strange green glow to it. It was the same emerald green as my eyes. I raised my head to look at my boys to see their reaction. Both of them had their mouths hanging open.

“Stella, you're glowing?” Kane asked.

“Yes, I am! I am an emerald wolf, and everyone will know what I am,” Stella said.

“How did you do that?” Kane asked.

“Do what?”

“Well, I have never seen a wolf be able to talk to humans.”

“Again, I am an emerald wolf. I can do many other things you will learn. I am going to give Sophia back control.”

As soon as she said that, I was lying on the bed completely naked. Xander was quick to take his shirt off and hand it to me. I quickly put it on. Goddess, the smell of it is amazing.

“Beautiful. How do you feel?”

“That was horrible, but it was also freeing. I am so glad to be able to do that, but I really wish someone would have told me how bad that was. Is it like that every time?”

“No, it will get easier every time you do it and before long you won't even feel it,” Kane said.

“I want to go home tomorrow. I feel great and I am so tired of being here.”

“Why wait for tomorrow? Let's go now!” Kane said.

Xander didn't wait for anything else. He threw a blanket around me and picked me up, and we headed out. I am not sure they let doc know, but I didn't care. I just wanted my own bed.

I had no clue what time it was when we made it to my bedroom. I didn't really care either. I have all day tomorrow to sleep. Xander carefully laid me down in bed and kissed my forehead. He walked away, giving Kane a chance to come over and gave me a kiss as well. They both told me to have a great night's sleep and that they would be right over there on the couch.

When I woke up the next morning, my boys were both still passed out on the couch. Kane was sprawled out on the recliner and Xander had his head on the other end with his feet resting on Kane's lap. It really was cute. I wish I could take a picture somehow. I think they might kill me for it, though.

I went and got into the shower. I turned the hot water all the way on and stepped in. The heat felt amazing on my body. I was still sore from everything, but it was better each day.

"Stella, you are so beautiful. I am, however, glad that we don't have to go through that again. That pain was intense."

"I know, but we survived, and it will be easier next time. I also can't wait to go for a run with our mates. I can't wait to see what Jax and River look like. If they are anything like their human, they will be so sexy I won't be able to not let them mount me.

"Speaking of which, when are you going to let those two mates of ours mount you?"

"Goddess Stella, again with this. I need some time. I am going to have a hard time letting a man touch me. I know they have only ever been good to me, and I know they love me, but I had things forced on me and I can't just get over that."

"I know, and I will give you some more time. But these things are going to have to happen."

I got out of the shower after a ridiculous amount of time in there, but it just felt so amazing. The heat and being clean and getting to wash my hair. I walked out into my room with only a towel, but I didn't expect them to be awake. I tried to make a run to my closet, but both of them were up and headed my way.

"Hey beautiful, can I help you with anything?" Xander said as he quickly came over to me.

"Yes, baby girl, we can help you with all of your needs!" Kane said, coming up to my other side.

I had a wolf on each side of me. Their eyes had turned black with lust. I wanted to be scared but wasn't yet. I knew they would both be gentle with me. Kane rubbed my arm up and down gently and whispered in my ear, "What do you need help with baby girl? I am here for all of your needs." Xander had started to kiss my neck gently at the same time. These actions caused me to let out a low moan as I closed my eyes, taking in the pleasure. Kane pushed himself up on my leg. I could feel his arousal, and he said, "look what you do to me baby girl." This made me freeze. This is the exact words that Blaine had used before each time he took me. I quickly broke out of their embrace and ran to the closet and shut the door.

"Sophia, please open the door. We are so sorry. Please, can we come in?"

I couldn't answer them. I was frozen in fear it had brought flash back on and all I could see were Blaine and Spencer's faces. I had made it to the corner and was huddled down with my knees brought up to my chest, crying. I couldn't snap out of it. All I could see was them tying me to the table and forcing their way into me. I started to scream "NO" when the closet door was slammed open, and both of my mates came rushing in.

"Beautiful, please calm down. We didn't mean it. I swear. Please take a deep breath. You have to calm down."

I couldn't, though. I couldn't get the feeling of their hands off me.

"Boys, we need to talk."

“Stella, is that you again?” Xander asked.

“Yes, and I have pushed Sophia to the back because right now she can’t do this. She doesn’t know this is happening and I hope when I give control back, she will be calmed down. Some of the vile things that those pieces of shits did to her cause some type of reaction when you said something, Kane.”

“OH goddess, I took it too far. She is going to hate me now.”

“No, she won’t. She hates herself that she can’t give you guys this right now, but she will, I promise you that. Please be patient with her. There are a few things you need to know. She was raped violently. One of them used to tell her, look what you do to me before he would push himself inside her. This is what brought this on. Kane, it was not your fault. You had no clue. Please don’t blame yourself, but they would beat her and then rape her. They would like to see her bleed; it got them off. She needs to be loved and needs things to be slow and gentle and at her pace. Please pay close attention and look for any signs that she is starting to panic.”

I don’t know what happened. I must have passed out because Xander had picked me up and was walking me to the bed.

“I am so sorry, you guys. I can’t just yet,” I told them as I continued to cry.

“You did absolutely nothing wrong, beautiful. We just saw you and were overtaken with lust by your beauty.” Xander said.

I noticed Kane didn’t say anything but just stood back watching our interaction. After Xander had pulled the blankets up and kissed my forehead, Kane stormed out of the room.

“Xander, what was that about?”

“It was something he said to you that made you panic like that. He feels guilty.”

Chapter 33 - Sophia's Revenge

Kane's POV

I was absolutely amazed when Sophia shifted for the first time. She was absolutely stunning. River was ecstatic in my head. He wanted to shift with her and go for a run, but it wasn't the time for that. It scared the shit out of me when she first yelled out in pain. She had no clue what was going on. Xander and I talked her through it, and she did it. Her wolf had a green glow about it, but she had snow-white fur. There wasn't a drop of any other color. I have never seen anything like it. She was absolutely beautiful.

When she shifted back to her human form, she was lying naked on her bed. Again, I was amazed by her. She was so beautiful. She had nice perky breast that I so badly wanted to reach down and swirl her nipple around my tongue. I wanted to hear her moan, and I wanted to see her come undone at my doing, but that would have to wait. She isn't ready, but I will wait an eternity for her. She is worth it. Xander quickly took his shirt off and put it over her, so she was covered. I knew he was as hard as I was from seeing her naked, but he was on the same page as me when it came to that.

She wanted to go home after that. She just wanted her own bed, and I couldn't blame her. Xander didn't waste time picking her up and taking her home. We both tucked her into her bed and went and laid on the couch. It didn't take long for her to go to sleep. I am sure she was exhausted from her first shift. Xander and I both fell asleep quickly. I woke up when I heard the shower click off. Xander had his feet on me while I was sprawled out on the recliner part of the couch. I shoved his feet off and told him to wake up.

When Sophia opened the door, her scent was amplified from her shower and the steam coming out of the bathroom. She was only in a towel and was headed to the closet.

"Hey beautiful, can I help you with anything?" Xander said as he quickly went over to Sophia.

“Yes, baby girl, we can help you with all of your needs!” I said, coming up to her other side.

Xander was on one side, and I was on the other. Lust had taken over, and I knew my eyes were black. I started to stroke her arm gently, and I really wasn't sure what Xander was doing, and I really didn't care. The way she looked right now in her towel, and droplets of water running down her body. I wanted to lick those water drops off her.

I leaned down and whispered in her ear again, “What do you need help with, baby girl? We are here for all of your needs?”

She didn't answer, but let out a little moan that went straight to my dick. I don't think it has ever been so hard in my life. I wanted her to know what she was doing to me. I wanted her to know that her body was amazing, and that we wanted to worship it. I pushed myself up against her thigh, rubbing my hard dick against it.

I leaned down and whispered to her again, “look at what you do to me baby girl.” She instantly froze at those words. Her entire body tensed. She quickly broke away from us and ran to the closet, shutting and locking the door.

“Sophia, please open the door. We are so sorry. Please, can we come in?” Xander said.

She didn't answer us. We could hear her crying in there. It was ripping my heart to pieces. I should never make her cry. River was in the back of my head whimpering.

She wasn't responding to us and she suddenly screamed out, “NO!” I am not sure if she was talking to us or if she was talking about something else. We didn't waste any time after she screamed that. We broke the door down and found her in the back corner with her knees up to her chest, crying. She may have been awake, but she was somewhere else. She wouldn't look at us and she would answer us.

“Beautiful, please calm down. We didn't mean it. I swear. Please take a deep breath. You have to calm down.”

She still didn't respond. She looked up at us finally, but it wasn't her, it was Stella.

"Boys, we need to talk."

"Stella, is that you again?" Xander asked.

"Yes, and I have pushed Sophia to the back because right now she can't do this. She doesn't know this is happening and I hope when I give control back, she will be calmed down. Some of the vile things that those pieces of shits did to her cause some type of reaction when you said something, Kane."

"OH goddess, I took it too far. She is going to hate me now."

"No, she won't. She hates herself that she can't give you guys this right now, but she will, I promise you that. Please be patient. Please push her, but there are a few things you need to know. She was raped violently. One of them used to tell her, look what you do to me, before he would push himself inside her. This is what brought this on. Kane, it was not your fault. You had no clue. Please don't blame yourself, but they would beat her and then rape her. They would like to see her bleed; it got them off. She needs to be loved and needs things to be slow and gentle and at her own pace. Please pay close attention and look for any signs that she is starting to panic."

After Stella receded back, Sophia was looking at us. She looked completely broken.

"I am so sorry, you guys. I can't just yet," she said.

"You did absolutely nothing wrong, beautiful. We just saw you and were overtaken with lust from your beauty." Xander said.

I couldn't go near her. I didn't want to cause her anymore stress. I stayed where I was, letting Xander handle things. He went and picked her up and took her to the bed and tucked her in and gave her a kiss on the forehead. She looked up at me, but I couldn't face her. I turned around and ran out of the room.

I ran straight to the gym, needing to get my anger out. I knew Luke would be there since training was just over.

“Luke, fighting ring now.”

“Kane, you need to come back to the room. Sophia is asking for you,” Xander mind linked me. I put a block up. I couldn’t talk to him right now. He must hate me.

“Hey man, everything ok?” Luke asked.

“No, it’s not, but right now I need a fight and you’re the only one who can handle me besides Xander, and I think he would kill me right now.”

I lunged at Luke and swung my fist at him as hard as I could. He ducked and swept my feet out from under me. I jumped up and went at him again. I managed to get a few hits on him, but he gave as good as he got. We went at it for about thirty minutes. I was bloody and sore, but Luke looked even worse.

“Hey man, I don’t know what is going on, but you know you can talk to me.” Luke said, stepping away from me.

I wasn’t talking, and I was over the fight. I shifted into River and ran out of the gym. I let him have full control. He was just as upset as I was. I can’t believe we lost control like that.

River ran as hard as he could for as long as he could. I know I have to go back soon as we were supposed to meet with Clark, but I still don’t know how I am going to face her.

“Kane, you need to come back. We have to talk with Clark soon and Sophia needs you right now.”

“I know and I am on my way back now, but it’s going to take me a little bit.”

After about thirty minutes of running, River was exhausted, but we were coming up to the pack house. I shifted and found a pair of shorts and headed to Sophia’s room.

I stopped outside her door. I could hear her and Xander laughing. Her laugh was music to my ears. I could listen to that sound for the rest of my life. I knocked on the door and went in.

Sophia looked up at me and smiled, but her face quickly turned to one of concern.

“Kane, what the hell happened to your face? You’re beat to hell!”

“Baby girl, I needed to blow off some steam and, well, this is a side effect of that. Look, I am so sorry about earlier. If I would have known, I would never have done that. I am so so so so so sorry. How can I make it up to you?” I asked her.

“Oh, Kane, I know that. I am sorry. I am just not ready yet. One day things won’t get to me, but for now we are all learning, and we have to have patience with each other. Now, will you please come over here and hug me?”

I ran straight to her and scooped her up in my arms. I held on tight to her, never wanting to let go. She completed me and River. Her scent of lilies and chocolate calmed me. I just stood there holding her for a long time. Finally, I heard someone clearing their throat behind us.

“Sorry to interrupt, but we need to go to my office. We have Clark and my dad waiting for us.”

I put Sophia down and grabbed her hand as we walked out of the bedroom towards the office.

Chapter 34 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

After Kane ran off, I tried to make Xander go after him and make him come back. He told me that he would mind link him but that he may need some time for himself. I knew that feeling all too well. Xander got us some food, and we just watched some TV and got to know each other a little better. I got to know that his favorite color is green and that his favorite thing to do is train. He says that you can't train too much. The stronger you are, the better you can protect the pack. I couldn't agree more with that, and I talked with him about starting to train. He wasn't a huge fan of it, but after I explained, I wanted to be able to protect myself. He came around to the idea but said that only he and Kane would be training me.

I smell Kane outside the door. When the mate bond snapped into place, I could smell either one of my boys when they were within about 100 feet of me. I was waiting for him to knock once and then walk in because that is what he always does. He finally knocked and walked in. I looked up to greet him with a smile on my face.

"Kane, what the hell happened? You're beat to hell!"

"Baby girl, I needed to blow off some steam and, well, this is a side effect of that. Look, I am so sorry about earlier. If I had known, I would never have done that. I am so so so so so sorry. How can I make it up to you?"

"Oh, Kane, I know that. I am sorry. I am just not ready yet. One day things won't get to me, but for now we are all learning, and we have to have patience with each other. Now, will you please come over here and hug me?"

He ran straight to me and scooped me up in his arms. He held on so tight, and I was completely OK with that.

"I hate to break up you two up, but we have to go meet Clark and my dad in my office."

We walked to his office. I had one of them on each side of me. They were both holding my hand. I have never felt so protected as I do now. We were getting weird looks from everyone we passed. I had yet to be in his office, and I was curious about what it looked like.

When we got there, Kane opened the door, and we walked into a large space. It had a dark, cheery oak wood desk sitting right past the door. He had two chairs sitting in front of his desk. He also had a bookshelf behind his desk that had books and pictures on it. The walls were painted a light blue and had a dark gray carpet. He had a couch and a table and chairs for eight towards the back of the room. They led me to the table in the back and we all took a seat, one on each side of me. None of them said a thing as we waited for Alpha Ty and Clark.

Alpha Ty and Clark finally walked in and came and sat at the table. Clark was an older gentleman who was short and looked like he lived a hard life.

“Sophia, I would like you to meet my friend Clark.”

He came over and shook my hand and then went and sat back down.

“Well Sophia, I can confirm that you are an emerald wolf.” Clark said.

“What does that mean for me, Clark?”

“It means you need to start training now. Anytime there is an emerald wolf born and comes into power, it means there is sometime of change coming and you are the one who has to lead it.”

“So, nothing will happen until I come into my power?” I asked him.

“No, it will happen weather you have come into your powers or not.”

I just took a deep breath. I was not ready for that. I knew I had to me be mated and marked and I had to mark both my mates.

“I am not ready for that. I need some time.”

“I understand, but just know that you were here for a reason, and you can’t put it off very long.”

“I know and it will happen, but just give me a little time.”

“I also think that once you come into your powers, it would be best if you left me with to train. I trained my sister, and I can do the same for you.” Clark said.

“Over my dead body, is she going anywhere with you!” Xander yelled.

This meeting had not gone the way I had expected it to. Clark seemed to be a nice enough guy. He confirmed what we already knew: that I was an emerald wolf. He explained some of the things his sister went through, and they were similar to mine, but we both suffered at the hands of men. When she came into her full power, people were terrified of her, and her brother had to take her into hiding until it was time for her to use her power. He trained her, and she learned how to use all of her powers. This is why both of my mates were getting angry. He wanted me to come with him until it was time for me to use my powers. I wouldn't be going with him. Besides, my powers wouldn't come into effect until I was mated and marked by both of my mates.

“Stella, what do you think?”

“I think we need to mate right now. Let's kick Alpha Ty and Clark out and we strip and lay on that table. I am sure our boys won't be able to keep their hands off themselves.”

“STELLA! That is not what I meant, and you know it. Try again?”

“OK, I don't want to go with him. We are safer here than we would be anywhere else. We will stay with our mates.”

“I agree.”

I was done with this meeting. I stood up to make my thoughts perfectly clear. “Gentlemen, you seem to have forgotten my thoughts about this. Clark, I do appreciate your offer of protection, but I will not be leaving my mates. However, if you would like to stay here, I would take the help with training. If that is something you would be willing to do, I am sure we can get you some more permanent accommodation.”

“She is correct. We can get you set up with your own little cabin and you would have the freedom to come and go as you please. I know you like to be in your wolf's form more than not. I do just ask if you are going to leave pack lands to let us know.” Xander said.

“OK, I will stay and help with training but the cabin that is the furthest out and away from everyone.”

I got up to leave. I was done with this meeting, and I wanted to lie down for a while.

It didn't take long for my boys to follow me out of the room and down to my room. I got to my room and opened the door and turned to them. I placed a kiss on each of their cheeks and said, "I really just need to be alone. The trial starts in two days, and I just need to think about how I am going to do this. Please, just give me a little time. Maybe we can go downstairs for dinner. Come get me when it's time."

"We will just be in Kane's room if you need us. Just yell really loud and we will be here!" Xander said.

I turned and walked into my room and closed and locked the door. I think I will make use of that bathtub. I went into the bathroom and started the water in the tub and dug through the cupboards, looking for some bubble bath to add. I couldn't find any, but I did find a bath bomb. I've never used one, but it smelled great, and I was going to see what it was all about. I dropped it into the water. I could see little bubbles coming out of it and the water turning pink, the same color as the bath bomb. I stripped down and got into the water. It felt heavenly. This bath bomb was making my skin feel silky smooth.

"Stella, how am I going to do this trial? I don't know if I can face them. I am starting to heal and feel better. I know it hasn't been that long, but my mates make me feel so much love and so safe, but I don't know if it is enough to tell strangers every bad thing that happened to me."

"Oh girl, you can do this. You are strong, you are brave, and most importantly, are an emerald wolf! We have more power flowing through us than everyone combined in that room!"

Chapter 35 - Sophia's Revenge

Stella's POV

It was Friday, and the trial was set to start in one hour. Sophia refused breakfast, but I can't blame her, even if I was hungry. She had been having nightmares about today and our mates hadn't left our side. They promised they wouldn't, and they held true to that. I know she was worried about what they would think of her once they knew everything. I, however, wasn't worried. We had an hour before we had to be down there. The council agreed to a closed trial, which made my mates feel better about things.

"Girl, we need to talk."

"Stella, I know, and I can't right now. I can't face any of them."

"You don't have to. I am going to do it for you."

"I don't understand how you could. You weren't there."

"I am always there; you just didn't know it."

"The council knows a lot about what happened already. They have spoken with Doc and pack members from your old pack. They have also spoken with our mates and seen your medical records. We just have to hear from Luna Ann, Blaine and Spencer. After they are done speaking, I will tell our story. That's it."

"Would you do that for me?"

"I would do anything for you. I can either put a block up so you don't know what's going on or you can watch from the back of your mind."

"I need to watch. I need to know what they are going to lie about."

"OK, let's get ready and go reassure our boys that we are ok, and we can do this."

I walked downstairs with both my mates and each one was holding one of my hands. This was becoming a common thing, but we loved the feel of it.

I released both of their hands and took a big breath, and opened the doors. I quickly scanned the room. It was set up to have the council sitting on one side and whoever was speaking on the other side. Behind the council was everyone that was due to speak today. I spotted Luna Ann, and she was looking pretty bad. Next to her were Blaine and then Spencer. They both looked like they had the beating of a lifetime and all three were filthy. Then there was their Gamma Leo. He didn't look bad, but he looked extremely sad.

We walked in and sat on the opposite side of all of them. There were four council members. Two males and two females. The leader stood up and said, "Let's begin. We are here today to discuss the accusations against the ranked members of the Yellow Moon Pack. These have been brought to our attention by Alpha Xander and Beta Kane. I would like everyone to be respectable and have no interruptions while someone is speaking. First up is Luna Ann. Please come around and have a seat."

She got up, and that's when I noticed that she was shackled at the wrist and had a guard who kept his hand on her arm the entire time until she sat down and then he just stood behind her so she couldn't go anywhere.

"Luna Anne, can you please tell us how Sophia came to live in the pack house and her treatment while she was there?"

"Of course, she was a child when she was brought to the pack house. I believe ten years old. She had killed her parents. It was an awful sight. She tried to lie about it and say they were attacked, but there was no evidence of anyone else there. Our Beta took her to the cells until we could determine how much of a danger she was. My husband, the Alpha, decided that if we fed her wolfsbane, it would keep her calm and she wouldn't be a threat. She was given food, a room, and anything she desired. She did nothing but lie and hurt the other pack members. We thought that by punishing her she would straighten out, but it didn't help. She had no chores and was treated better than anyone in the house. Those so-called injuries she received were all self-inflicted. When this is over, I want everyone involved tried for my husband's death and also the beta and his daughter."

She had a smug look on her face, like she was going to get away with this. Xander and Kane had been holding my hand the entire time and thought that she would get away with it. I had news for that bitch. She was going to die today, and, by my hands, she would not get away with this.

“Luna Ann, we investigated that murder and while there was no evidence of who attacked them, we did ask you about the child and you and the Alpha told us she was gone. Are you now telling me that you had her this entire time? We also would like to know what type of punishments you and your husband gave her.”

“Um, I am not sure about that. You dealt with my husband. As for her punishments, it would be extra chores or grounded from the television.”

“We did, but you were present for every meeting. We tried to search for her, but you and the Alpha were insistent that your pack would handle it. Are you telling me that you had her the entire time, or you found her and didn’t notify us?”

“I’m really not sure. I don’t remember.” You could tell she was lying and didn’t know how to cover her tracks.

“That’s enough for now. Sophia, we would like you to recount your interactions with Luna Ann.” said a council member.

“I would actually like to wait until everyone has spoken. You will understand why when I speak.”

“I don’t see a problem with that,” said a council woman.

“Future Beta Spencer, please come forward.”

He was also shackled like Luna Ann, but he also had some around his ankles and a guard on each side.

“Spencer, you are accused of kidnapping Sophia, along with torture and rape. She was found by Alpha Xander and Beta Kane. Can you please explain what happened?”

“Of course, future Alpha Blaine and I had been out walking the borders between our packs when Sophia walked up to us. She came over and pushed herself up on Alpha Blaine and tried to kiss him. She started to beg us to take her back. She wanted us to tie her up and take her at the same time. We knew she always tried to sleep with either of us to gain rank in the pack. It had never worked before, as we were always in the pack house. But this time, we didn't have the watchful eye of our parents to make sure we stayed away. I am not going to lie. She is beautiful and, well, lust got the better of us. We took her back to my parents' cabin and anything we did to her, she asked us to. She said she liked the pain with the pleasure. She is just upset that she got caught by her mates and is trying to blame us for it."

That earned a growl from both of my mates. I could see that their wolves were close to the surface. I placed a hand on each of their legs and gave them a gentle squeeze to let them know that I was OK.

"Spencer, do you have anything else you want to say?"

"Yes, when this is over with, I want that bitch prosecuted for everything she has done. My dad and sister are dead because of her and her lies."

"Thank you, Spencer. You may go back to your seat."

"Future Alpha Blaine, can you please come up?"

He was the same as Spencer, shackled at the wrist and ankles and had a guard on each side of him. He wouldn't look at anyone. Even after he sat down, he continued to look down. Was he feeling remorse for what happened? Not that it would change the outcome.

"Future Alpha Blaine, you are charged with multiple accounts of rape, kidnapping, and torture. Can you please tell us your account of things?"

"Yes, everything that Spencer said was true. I don't have anything to add to that part of it. But for the other accusation of rape, it should be her on trial. She has once again lied and hurt an omega, and so she was sent up to my father's office for punishment. My father had told me that since I would be taking over the pack, I would need to start stepping in and handing out punishments so people would respect me and know that I don't put up with people treating each other badly. I followed him into his office, and she was sitting on the couch like nothing was wrong. My dad told her what she was accused of from the omega and gave her a chance to tell the truth to avoid punishment. Like normal, she lied and said it didn't happen and the omega was lying, but we had witnesses to back up the omega's story. My father said that I was in charge of her punishment, and he left the room. I thought maybe she could learn a lesson if she received an extra lashing, so she received eleven instead of ten. When I was done, she stripped out of her clothes and jumped on me. She managed to tackle me to the ground, grinding herself on me. She was begging me to fuck her. I kept telling her no, she wasn't my mate. I didn't want it. She didn't care, though. She hit me in the face and told me if I didn't sleep with her, she would tell everyone I raped her and that she would give herself injuries to make it look true. I was so afraid of being accused of rape like I am now that I ended up sleeping with her. She should be the one that is shackled. She has turned my whole pack upside down and we are the ones being treated like we did something wrong."

"Thank you, future Alpha Blaine. Please take your seat. I would like to take a ten-minute break and then we will hear from Sophia."

I got up and ran to the bathroom. The things they were saying were making me sick. I emptied the contents of my stomach and had both of my mates right behind me. They were holding my hair and rubbing circles on my back. When I was finished, I walked to the sink to clean up. I had to stay strong for Sophia, no matter how hard it was. I wasn't going to just tell them; I was going to show them. Nobody knew this, but I already had powers. They were a part of me. I have always been able to do this. I can project images like a TV.

Chapter 36 - Sophia's Revenge

Stella's POV

Listening to what they all had to say about us was horrible, but what I plan on doing to them is just as bad. I was going to go up to that table and hold my head high. I wouldn't be humiliated any longer.

"We just need to hear from Sophia and then we will break up again while the council members rule on an outcome for each accused wolf. Sophia, can you please come forward and tell us your account of what has been said?”

I went to stand up, trying to stay strong, when both of my mates stood up with me and each grabbed my hand. I turned and looked at both of them.

“Thank you, but I need to do this by myself. Please stay in your seats,” I said.

“Now, Sophia, you have heard what the three people accused have said, and now you can tell us your side of things.”

I put my head down. I was going to have to really focus on making this work. I finally raised my head and opened my eyes. I knew they were glowing from all the gasps in the room.

“I am not Sophia, I am her Wolfe Stella. I will be the one up here for her today. I know that she was fed wolfsbane and while that kept me away, I was still there. I have been there since the day she was born. I will not be telling you about what happened to us, but I will be showing you.”

“What is this shit?” Yelled Luna Ann.

“Please, they gave you respect when you were speaking. Now do the same for her.” Said one of the councilmen.

“She is lying. How can she show us? She has to be working with a witch. You can’t believe anything she is going to show you.”

She was nervous because she knew I was about to expose all of her lies.

“I am not lying about anything that you are about to see. I can’t produce fake images. I am an emerald wolf and this is one of my powers that I was born with.”

“Please continue, Stella.”

I focused really hard on the wall to the side of everyone so that they could all see. I started with the day my parents died. I showed them everything that happened that day and then three days later, when the Alpha and Beta came to see me. I showed them the room I was given and how they gave me nothing. I continued on and showed them the day of the worst punishment ever. The day the Alpha, Luna and Beta used a silver knife down my back for eating a piece of cake I didn't eat. I showed them the day that Blaine raped me when he said that I raped him. I continued on through the birthday party and when Spencer had caught me in the woods and what happened when he caught me and what he was going to do before Xander and Kane saved me.

I could hear people crying about everything they just witnessed. I stopped the projection so that I could take a few breaths before I continued. I looked at my mates, who both had tears running down their faces. I had to look away or I wouldn't be able to recount the kidnapping.

"Sophia, you don't have to continue. I think we have seen enough to make a ruling," said one of the council women, who was visibly crying as well.

"No, I need to show it all. You must know what those two men who are supposed to be leaders did."

I looked back at the wall and continued with my projection. I started with my walk in the woods and when I heard Blaine speak to me; I started to run but soon fell and was captured by them. I showed them stabbing a syringe of wolfsbane into my neck and since I blacked out; it jumped to me in the bedroom, naked. They came in and took me downstairs and tied me to the table and began to beat me. I continued to show them what they did over those three days. Everyone could hear my pleas for them to stop and my screaming. They could see that they got off on the pain they inflicted on me. Before I could get to the last day, one of the council women came to me and put her hand on my shoulder and said, "please stop this."

I looked up at her and saw that she had been crying this whole time. I didn't know what to do next. Everyone knew what happened. It was now out there. I knew Sophia was in the back of our mind crying. I knew she would struggle with this.

"Stella, I am so sorry that this has happened to you." someone said, but I wasn't sure who.

“The council should have made more of an effort to find you when your parents died. We had been in contact with your parents because they knew that you were special and wanted us to be aware in case something happened to them. We fail you on this and I hope that you can accept our sincerest apologies. The council is going to step into the next room while we deliberate, but please stay seated, as I don’t think this will take long.”

After they all got up, Luna Ann was quick to start yelling at me. “You little slut. I don’t know how you have fooled the council, but I will make sure that you pay for this. You will not get away with it. You seduced my son and our future beta and turned the truth into lies to benefit you. We gave you everything, and this is what you do to us. You are a worthless little bitch who deserves death. The pack members that killed your parents should have taken you out as well.” She yelled at me.

“Excuse me, the pack members that killed my parents?”

“I meant rogues. Don’t try to blame me for that, either.”

It took the council all of three minutes to come back into the room with their decision.

“I would like to say something before you give your ruling,” said Gamma Leo.

“Go ahead Gamma Leo.”

“While I never participated in the abuse of Sophia, I didn’t stop it either. I was never in the room while she was receiving her punishments, but I would hear Alpha, Luna, and Beta talking about them. I tried to get her medical help the day her parents died, but I was told no and the beta made my position very clear and so, from that point forward, I just turned a blind eye and for that I am sorry. I should have done something, anything, and that is the biggest regret of my life. If there is anything I can do to make that up to you, I will, Sophia.”

“Thank you for that, Gamma Leo. I know you are not on trial here, but you are correct. You should have done something, but we all should have. Again, we are so sorry, Sophia. Now the council finds all three of you guilty of the crimes charged against you. Due to the graphic nature of the abuse you have inflicted on Sophia, we have decided that she will be the one to sentence you to death. It will be in whatever form she chooses. Guards, please take the three of them back to their cells.”

As soon as they had escorted them out of the room, I gave Sophia back control. I was too weak to continue. I knew Sophia was weak as well. I depleted all of our energy, but she had more than me at the moment.

“Stella, thank you so much for everything today. I couldn’t have done that. I love you so much!”

“You are so welcome. I would do it again anytime we need to!”

Sophia POV

Before I could even stand up, both of my mates had surrounded me and pulled me into a hug. It was at that moment that I lost all control I had left and started sobbing. Xander was quick to pick me up and carry me to my room. Kane was right behind him. He placed me on the bed, telling me to rest.

“Please don’t leave me. I can’t be alone right now. I need both of you.”

They each crawled into bed with me, one on each side. Kane wrapped his arms around my waist and pulled me closer to him. Xander moved closer and put my head on his chest. He started to stroke my hair. I was still crying, but they were telling me how wonderful we were and how I would be able to put this behind me tomorrow and how brave and strong I was. It didn’t take long for me to fall asleep.

I woke up with Kane’s entire body wrapped around mine. His legs were over mine and his arms were tightly wrapped around my stomach and his head was in the crook of my neck. I couldn’t move even if I wanted to. However, Xander’s side of the bed was empty and cold. I wondered where he had gone, but before I could ask, Kane spoke “He had to meet with the council and we didn’t want you alone, so I stayed, but trust me, I got the best of end of that deal.”

I just continued to lie there basking in the feeling of being in Kane's arms. It felt amazing. I could really get used to this. "Kane, I need to get up."

"Nope, we're not moving."

"I need to pee, and I am starving."

"Fine, go to the bathroom and then we will go eat dinner."

We met Xander in the dining hall and ate dinner together. His parents and sister were there, but they weren't very talkative today. They just kept giving me looks of pity. I didn't want their pity, I just wanted them to accept me for who I was. I am guessing that Alpha Ty and Luna Caroline met with the council after I fell asleep and must have told Avery. I really just wanted to put it all behind me. We finished our meal in silence, and I excused myself to my room.

Xander and Kane were right behind me.

"Baby girl, we need to talk about tomorrow."

"I know, and I don't know if it is something I can do. I can't kill someone."

"Beautiful, you don't have too. We will do it for you."

"Girl, you are not doing this, but I am. I am doing this for us and I promise to make them suffer just the way you did."

"Stella, I can't be a part of that."

"You don't have to. I will be doing it and I will put up a block so you don't even know what is going on. It will be like you are taking a nap."

"Stella, will be doing it. She is going to put up a block, so I don't know what is going on. Please don't leave her and please don't let her lose control. She is angry and wants to make them suffer like I have."

“Beautiful, we have you and her. We will not let anything bad happen to her or you.”

The next day I woke up and showered and put on some leggings and a comfy shirt. I was supposed to meet the council before I served out the punishments. We walked downstairs and met them in the same conference room as yesterday. We walked in and all four of them were sitting there along with Gamma Leo.

“Sophia, please have a seat. We want to go over a few things before we leave.”

The three of us sat down and looked at them, waiting for whatever they had to say.

“We would like to apologize again about this. It should have never happened. We have to appoint a new Alpha for the Yellow Moon pack. The council would like to appoint Gamma Leo unless you would like to take it over. It’s the least we can offer you at this time.”

I was completely stunned. I didn’t want my own pack. I had enough going on in my life. I didn’t need to learn the ins and outs of an Alpha.

“I think that Alpha Leo will be great. I do, however, request that you make surprise visits to the pack to make sure things are going well.”

“Consider it done. We will be taking our leave now Sophia, and we wish you the best. Please reach out if you ever need anything.”

“Thank You.”

With that, they left and went home. I was left in the conference room with my two mates staring at me.

“Beautiful, it is time and just remember we have you the whole way. We will not let Stella lose control and will help her with whatever she needs.”

“I love you two!”

Chapter 37 - Sophia's Revenge

Trigger Warning

“Alright, boys, lead the way. I am ready to get our revenge on these assholes.”

“Stella, I am so glad that you are able to do this for Sophia, but remember we are here if you need us.” Xander said.

They led me down to the cells. It smelled horrible. It was dark and damp down here. We had spent plenty of time in a cell. Alpha Wayne liked to throw me down there any time someone from an outside pack came over.

“Where would you like to start, baby girl?”

“I want to start with Luna Ann. I have some questions for her.”

They went and got her from her cell and brought her to a torture room. They had a chair in the middle of the room and also shackles that hung from the ceiling. There was also a tray of instruments and different whips. Kane walked in with her. Her hands were shackled still, and she was already crying.

“How would you like her, baby girl? In the chair or her hands pinned above her head?”

“Hands above her head, please. She is going to feel some of the pain I went through.”

“Sophia, we cared for you. How can you do this to me?” She cried.

“Tell me who ordered the murder on my parents?”

She just laughed at me. She thought it was Sophia she was dealing with, but it wasn't. I walked over and grabbed a whip that was laced with wolfsbane and brought down across her shoulder and arm. She let out a cry when it touched her. I continued to do this until her arm was dripping with blood. The sight before me had been something I had wanted to do since the day my parents died.

“Now, let’s do this again. Who ordered the murder of my parents? And let me say this: if you don’t tell me, I am going to get another whip and this one will hurt even more.”

“Ok, fine. It was Beta Sam. Something about your dad sleeping with his mate.”

“My dad would never do that. He loved my mother.”

“Ya, well, they were having an affair for a long time.”

“I don’t believe you. Now tell me the real reason.” I said as I continued to bring the whip down on her.

“Stop please.” She cried out.

“Are you ready to tell me the truth?”

“Yes, it was because of you.”

“What do you mean it was because of me? I was ten years old.”

“They knew what you are and wanted extra protection for you. My husband and the Beta decided that they would sell you instead. In order to do that, we had to get rid of your parents and beat you into submission.”

“I was a child, and you took everything from me. You and your family took everything from me. Should I let someone do to you what your son did to me?”

“Please no, I am sorry about everything. If you let me live, I will make things right.”

“You will not live.” I screamed at her and started hitting her with the whip again.

After her body was good and bloody, I was done hearing her scream and was ready to finish her, but I still wanted her to feel some of the pain that I felt because this didn't even come close to what they did to me. She still didn't know she was dealing with me and not Sophia. I wanted it that way as well. I wanted her to think she did this to her and that she was being killed by the hands of Sophia. I walked back over to the table of instruments and put on a glove, and picked up the biggest silver knife I saw there. It had a jagged edge on it; it was sure to hurt.

I walked back to Luna Ann. "Tell me, do you remember the day you and the Alpha and beta took a silver knife to my back and slashed me until I was all but dead?"

"Sophia, yes, and I am so sorry about that. I promise you I will make it right."

"You are going to feel what I felt when I was a child and you did it to me. You were supposed to protect me, not hurt me."

I walked behind her and took the knife and tore her shirt in half so her back was completely exposed. I can remember every single thing they did to me, and she was only going to experience half of what they did, but she would feel it all until her last breath. I took the knife and stabbed it into her back, right where they did me. I leaned down so only she could hear me.

"Does this spot feel similar?"

She didn't say anything, but screamed out in pain.

"You know, I was a child and didn't scream as much as you. You are pathetic."

I started to drag the knife as slowly and deeply as I could along her back. She was screaming instantly. I finally made it all the way down her back from shoulder to hip. She had blood dripping on the floor by this time, but I wasn't done yet. I walked back over and grabbed one of the whips that had silver spikes on it.

“Do you remember how you used to watch the Alpha use a whip on me and when he was done, you would go kiss him and tell him how much you liked to watch?”

She didn't answer, she just continued to cry. I went behind her and started to hit her with the whip. She was once again screaming, but it was like music to my ears. She could finally know the pain I went through each and every day under her care. I made a full circle of her body using the whip on her. She was covered in slashes from it and had pissed her pants.

“You are a disgusting piece of garbage who deserves to last much longer than this, but I am tired of hearing you scream, and I must move on. I still have Spencer and your son to deal with.”

That got her attention. She brought her tear stricken face up and looked at me.

“Please leave my son alone. He didn't mean to do what he did. He needs to lead our pack,” she cried.

“Oh, he won't be leading anything when I am done with him.” I walked over and grabbed another knife and when I reached her, I brought it to her throat and slowly dragged the blade across it, watching as she gurgled on her own blood as she took her last few breaths.

I stepped back and looked at both of my mates. They held nothing but love in their eyes.

“Beautiful, you don't have to continue this. We can handle it for you.” Xander said.

“No, I need to finish it. Please remove her and bring me Spencer. I want him pinned up by his hands, please.”

“Xander took down Luna Ann and Kane, brought in Spencer and pinned his hands up.”

“Boys, I don’t think you want to be here for this. You can step outside. Leave the door open if you want, but I can promise you that I do plan on making him suffer like he did me every time he raped me.”

“We are not leaving you, baby girl.” They just went and stood in the back of the room.

Spencer just looked at me and didn’t say a word. I walked over to the table and picked up the whip with spikes again. This is what he used on me multiple times in that cabin, and now he was going to know how it felt.

“You know Spencer, when you used this whip on me, I was completely naked and spread completely open, so I think it is only fair that I do the same for you.”

I didn’t even have to ask. Both Xander and Kane came over and ripped his pants down and shackled his ankles.

“You know Sophia, you wanted what you got, and you liked it. If you were to untie me, we could have a relationship and I would make you my chosen mate.”

I wasn’t even going to respond. I just brought the whip down on his back multiple times. It only took him one whip, and he was screaming like a baby. I made sure that I covered every inch of his backside. When I got to the front, I put it down and walked back over to my little table. I found another knife and a pair of gloves to protect me from the silver.

“You know Spencer, you and Blaine took the one thing I could have given my mates, but now I can’t, and you won’t be able to do that either. I walked up to him and with the knife, I quickly grabbed his dick and pulled it until it was tight.

“Oh goddess, please don’t do that. I am so sorry. I don’t know what came over me. Please don’t cut that off. I will never heal.”

“You will never heal because you won’t leave this room alive.”

I slowly took the knife and started to cut off his dick. I tried to do it as slowly as I could. Once it was completely detached, I dropped it on the floor. He was screaming uncontrollably.

“I leaned in and whispered, “now you know how I feel each time you put that in me.” I was done with him. I reached around with my claws drawn and ripped his heart out.

I turned again to see my mates. While they both had love in their eyes, their faces said something else.

“Boys, I gave you a warning to leave, and you didn’t.”

“Beautiful, this changes nothing. We still love you. We know you have to do this your way and we support you.”

“Please bring me Blaine, and I will warn you, his will be worse than Spencer’s death.”

They didn’t say anything but removed Spencer’s body and brought in Blaine.

“You dumb bitch. I don’t know how you got them to believe you.”

“They believed me because it was true.”

He was pinned by his arms, and his ankles were pinned as well. They had also removed his pants for me.

“I knew you liked it. You want your mates to watch as I pleasure because they can’t?” Blaine spat out.

I didn’t have to say anything to him because both of my mates charged him and gave him a nice beating before I started. Kane hit hard enough that I heard his jaw snap.

“There baby girl, he shouldn’t say anything else to you.” Kane said.

I walked over and grabbed a cane. It was just like the one he used the first time he raped me. I didn’t even say anything, just started to hit him with it. He didn't make a sound the whole time. When I was satisfied that he had enough of that, I walked over and grabbed the whip with spikes in it and covered every inch of his body that had flesh showing. He screamed like the little bitch he was the whole time.

"Now you know half of the pain you put me through. Don't worry, you will know the rest soon enough."

He didn't say anything but kept crying.

"You remember that first time you raped me? Well, you are going to feel some of the pain that I felt that day." I told him as I walked back over to the table and put the glove back on and grabbed a serrated knife and walked back over to him.

"You will never know what it is like to have someone force themselves on you, but you will know what it's like to lose your dignity and when I am done with you won't have any manhood left."

"No, please don't do that."

"What take your man hood?"

"Yes, please don't."

###chapter 38

Sophia's POV

2 Months Later

It has been two months since I was able to get my revenge on three of the people that hurt me. The other people were already dead, so I couldn't get my revenge on them. It took Stella a while to come around and talk to me. She thought she had a full block up but didn't, and I could see everything. She thought I hated her. I didn't, but it took a while to convince her of that. It also took me a while to get over what we did to both Blaine and Spencer. I felt like I took it too far, but Stella didn't think so. She thought they got off easy compared to what we went through.

I have also continued to meet with Jennifer, the counselor. She has been a huge help to me. We have been moving at a slow pace, discussing my whole life and working through it, but it is helping. She says with my trauma, it could take years until I am fully better if I ever get better.

I have also been having regular dates with both my mates. I go with Kane on Monday and Xander on Wednesday and then, on Fridays, we all have a date. We also train together every morning. We get up at five am and start in the gym and then go outside to the training grounds so I can work with Stella. She seems to be a natural. I have gotten stronger and gained some weight. The training has also given me some confidence.

There are so many differences between the two. Xander is the quiet, dominating type and, while that scares me, he has always been gentle. He doesn't ever want to talk about him, but is more than willing to talk about me. He will ask me every day how therapy was. Kane is the polar opposite. He wants to talk all the time. I think there are some days when I don't have to say a word when I am with him. Our dates are also very different. Xander likes to go to small restaurants and keep things calm. Kane, however, is always up for some type of adventure. So far, he has talked me into the back of a motorcycle, a theme park, learning to rollerblade, and hiking up a mountain. While I look forward to our dates, sometimes I get a little nervous. Usually, our Friday night dates are just us having dinner in my room and watching movies. I had yet to take any steps outside of kissing either one of my mates.

I was up in my room and had just gotten out of the shower and was going to get ready for my date with Xander. I had no clue where we were going. He wouldn't tell me. He said it was a surprise. Suddenly, someone was knocking at my door. I figured it was Kane, but they didn't just enter, they kept knocking. I went to the door and opened it, and Sara was standing there holding a big box and a bag of something. Sara was gamma Lukes's mate. She has quickly become one of my closet friends and Avery.

"Hey Sara, what's up?"

"I am here to help you get ready. Xander sent me. Avery will be here soon."

“Why do I need help to get ready?”

“He said he has a surprise for you tonight and wants you to feel as beautiful as you are.”

Like clockwork, Avery walked in. She doesn't ever knock!

“Oh, my goddess, are you ready for this, Sophia?”

“Honestly, you guys have me a little nervous.”

They sat me down in the middle of the room, where I couldn't see anything they were doing. All I know is that they pulled and applied heat and sprayed my hair. Then Avery started on my face, and Sara was painting my nails. It had taken them about two hours to get me ready. I was really ready to see what they did.

“Stella, do you think we look like a clown? I can't tell because they won't let me see and it felt like they were putting paint on my face.”

“HAHAHA girl, you will look beautiful. These are your best friends. What do you expect? They're not going to make you look like a clown.”

“OK, Sophia, Xander wanted us to give you this box before you got dressed. Also, we had instructions to leave before you opened it. I just want to say I am proud of you. You have come so far and also you look absolutely stunning.” Avery said.

“Stop, you girls are going to make me cry.” I said.

“OK, OK, we're out of here now. Have a great night.” Sara said, as they left the room.

I took the box and went to my bed. I pulled the top off and there was a card and blue velvet box laying on top of tissue paper. I opened the card first. It was cream in color and nothing on the front of it. I opened it up, and it read:

Beautiful,

You have come so far, the past two months. I am so proud of you. You deserve all the happiness in the world. I can't wait to spend the rest of my life with you. Please wear what is in this box tonight.

Love, Xander.

I placed the blue box to the side and pulled the tissue paper aside. Below it was a beautiful dress. It was long and silky and emerald green to match my eyes. It was the most beautiful dress I have ever seen. This whole thing was too much, but I would wear it for him. Beneath the dress was a pair of black high heels. I grabbed the blue box and pulled the lid open. In the box sat a set of diamond earrings and the most beautiful tear drop necklace. Now I had tears in my eyes.

I went and put the dress on. It fits me like a glove. It hugged all my curves just right and showed just enough cleavage. The only problem was you could see the scars on my back, but this was something I had to face. I had to get used to people seeing them. There was another knock at my door when I was trying to undo the necklace. This time it was Kane, because he just came in.

"Oh, my goddess. I, wow, I mean wow, you look amazing." Kane said.

"Thank you. I take it you approve?"

"I more than approve. You look like a goddess in that dress. I am jealous that he is taking you out tonight and not me. I don't get to stare at you in that, and that is all I want to do."

My face was flushing from his compliments. I hadn't even looked in the mirror yet, so I don't even know what I look like. I kept fumbling with the necklace.

"Baby girl, let me help you with that."

He came over and undid the necklace and placed it around my neck and placed a kiss on my marking spot, sending shivers throughout my body.

"Here, you need to put the earrings in as well."

“I can’t. My ears aren’t pierced.”

“Well, now I know what we are doing on my next date. Please let me escort you down the stairs to your hot date.”

“Thank you, Kane.”

“Girl, we look hot. Did you see our mate when he walked in? He was practically drooling. He wants to take us to bed, and we need to let him. You are giving these guys blue balls and need to give into the pleasure. I promise it will be worth it.”

“I know, Stella. It will happen soon. I am getting more comfortable when they touch me.”

Kane walked me downstairs, where we met Xander at the bottom.

“Holy goddess. You are the most beautiful thing I have ever seen. You look ravishing tonight. Are you ready?” Xander said.

Kane bent down and placed a kiss on my cheek while handing me over to Xander. “Have the best time tonight, baby girl.”

“Xander, you look pretty good yourself.” I told him. He was wearing black slacks and a tight white button-up shirt.

He led me out to the car and opened the door for me and went around and got in.

“Where are we going tonight?”

“You will see. It is a surprise.”

He drove through the forest for a while and then took a back road for a while. He pulled up to a stop where there was a canopy set up. It had fairy lights set up throughout and a table in the center. He gets out of the car and comes and opens the door for me.

“Xander, this is beautiful. When did you have time to do this?”

“It’s something I have been working on for a while. Will you have this dance with me?” He asked as we got to the canopy and music started playing.

When we walked under it, music started to play, and he grabbed my hand and placed his other hand on my lower back and pulled me closer to him as he led me around dancing. I snuggled up close to him and inhaled his scent. Stella was in my head purring like a damn cat. She was so content to just stay like this for the rest of the night.

When the song was over, he took me over to the table and pulled my chair out for me. On the table were two plates covered so they would stay warm. There was also a single white rose and candles.

“Let’s eat Sophia,”

I pulled the cover off my plate and there sat pizza, my favorite. I busted up laughing. He planned the most romantic date I have ever been on, and he had pizza. I loved it. It was my favorite food.

“Why are you laughing? I thought this was your favorite?”

“It is absolutely my favorite. It’s just, this is so romantic, and you have done so much to set this up and then this dress and the jewelry and you give me greasy pizza to eat. It is the perfect date for me!”

“I am glad that you are enjoying it.”

We finished eating and talked for a while.

“Sophia, will you have another dance with me before we leave?”

“I would love to.”

Chapter 38 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia POV

We got back to the house, and I was still feeling really warm.

“Xander, I am really warm. I am going to the kitchen to drink some water. I will meet you upstairs.”

“OK, beautiful.”

I walked into the kitchen and got myself a glass of cold water and just stood in front of the fridge, letting the cold air hit me.

“Stella, why are we so warm?”

“I am sorry I can’t stop this from happening. It’s time, and we have waited as long as we could.”

“What are you talking about?”

I was met with silence from her. I had no clue what she was talking about. I was still standing in front of the fridge when I got a sharp pain in my stomach, causing me to double over for a second. I felt like I was getting hotter by the second. I continued to drink my water when I heard the door to the kitchen open. I ignored whoever walked in and kept drinking and then another pain hit me, but this time it was much worse. It made me drop my glass on the ground and scream out. Whoever was with me ran over.

“Excuse me, are you ok?” they asked, but as soon as I turned around their eyes went completely black with lust.

He was getting closer and closer to me. I can’t let this happen again. The training I was doing came to mind. I brought my knee up and slammed it into his balls as hard as I could and took off running and made it to the entryway when another pain hit me. This time, it was so intense that I dropped to the ground, screaming. I was so hot I thought I would explode like a volcano. Gamma Luke came running over and bending down asking me if I was OK, but I couldn’t talk. It hurt so badly.

“Shit, Sophia, you’re in heat. I am going to mind link Alpha Xander to come down and get you. Whatever you do, don’t move and don’t let anyone touch you. I have you.”

I could hear Gamma Luke fighting with someone, but the pain and heat were overtaking me, and I couldn't focus on anything. Suddenly, Xander's arms came around me and lifted me off the ground. His eyes were pitch black, and he was growling. Just his touch was enough to ease the pain slightly. He took the stairs two at a time, quickly getting to my room. He took me straight to the shower and turned the water on ice cold and stepped inside the shower. The cold water felt great on my body, but it wasn't what I wanted. I needed him and Kane right now.

"Stella, is this what you were talking about?"

"Yes, and I am sorry, but please just let our mates take care of us. They will make it better and you will enjoy it, I promise."

I couldn't even answer her. I pressed myself up against Xander and started to kiss him. This earned me a growl of approval. I started to rub myself against his leg, but my dress was in the way, so I pulled the thin straps down and let it fall to the bottom of the shower. I was now standing in my matching lace panties and bra. I didn't think his eyes could turn any blacker, but they did. His wolf was present. He wouldn't touch me but let me do anything I wanted to him.

"Xander, don't you want this? Please, I need to feel your hands on me."

"Beautiful, I won't do this until you're ready. I won't take advantage of you because you're in heat. We can get you through this, but it might be a long few days."

"Xander, Sophia needs this to happen. I had to give her a push, but I promise she wants this, and she will not hate you guys. There is a war coming, and she needs her powers, but she needs you and Kane to mate and mark her." Stella said.

"I can't do anything without Kane. We promised each other we wouldn't do this without the other one knowing."

I continued to rub my body all over him. We were still in the shower with the cold water running on us, but I think the heat rolling off me was keeping both of us warm. I started to kiss down Xander's neck when he slammed me up against the wall and his lips slammed down on mine. He was being aggressive with his kiss. His tongue was trying to gain access, and I happily let him. The bathroom door slammed open, and Kane stood outside the shower with completely black eyes. He reached in and turned the shower off and grabbed a towel and pulled me out of the shower. He started to dry me off, but that quickly changed to him kissing me and started to trail kisses down my face and to my neck. He reached around me and undid my bra and pulled it off. The cool air on my nipples made them hard. While he took my bra off, Xander was pulling my underwear down my legs and running his hand up and down my inner thighs. I was a moaning mess by this time.

“Baby girl, I can smell your arousal.”

“Kane, I think we need to move this to the bed.”

Kane picked me up, so I was straddling his waist. I could feel how hard he was under his pants. I couldn't help it, but I started to rub my pussy up and down on his hardness. He laid me down on the bed and spread my legs, so I was completely open to him. Xander came up to my head and started to kiss me again. He moved from my lips down my jaw to my neck.

“Beautiful, I want to watch you come. Kane is dying down there to taste your arousal, is that ok?” I couldn't answer him but shook my head.

Kane started kissing my inner thighs, working all the way to my pussy, and then started on the other side, working his way up. His tongue came out and licked all the way up my slit.

“Oh, goddess,” I moaned out.

Xander had stripped at some point and was stroking himself while watching. I had lost all focus because Kane had opened up my pussy lips and was slowly licking his way from the top to my hole and back up again. He slid a finger into my hole, and I arched my back and shoved my pussy up into his face. He circled my clit a few times with his tongue and then started to suck on it while moving his finger in and out of my hole.

“Oh goddess, Kane, I am going to come. Please don’t stop.” I screamed out.

Xander reached down and took one of my nipples into his mouth just as I came all over Kane’s face. I was breathing hard and trying to come back to earth after that.

“Baby girl, I could eat that for the rest of my life,” Kane said as he moved up my body.

He reached my breast and stopped to suck on one of my nipples, swirling his tongue around it and gently biting down on it. He continued with his actions on my nipples as taking turns between the two. Xander had started to kiss down my neck again and moved to my other nipple that Kane wasn’t occupying. Xander was running his hand lightly over my stomach and coming to a stop just above my pussy, and then bring it back up.

“Beautiful. I think it is my turn to taste you. If you taste as good as you smell, it will be the most amazing thing I have ever had.”

I couldn’t help but moan at the words he was saying. He kissed his way down my body while Kane had made it up to my neck and moved over to my mouth. He eased his tongue into my mouth. When he pulled away, he asked me, “Baby girl, do you like the taste of yourself on me?”

I managed to moan out a yes as Xander had made his way to my pussy. He had spread my lips open to him and was lapping at my clit greedily. It was just as good as Kane, but different. He thrust a finger into me, causing me to moan out loud. He covered his finger in my juices and started to press it into my asshole. “Baby girl, do you like Xander’s fingers in your ass?”

“Yyyesss!” Xander took another finger and put it in my other hole as well. He had was pumping his fingers into both of my holes at the same time. I reached around and started stroking Kane’s dick, causing him to moan. I couldn’t take it anymore and screamed out Xander’s name when I came.

“Beautiful. What do you want us to do now?”

“I want you both inside of me, please. I need to feel your hard cocks pumping in and out of me at the same time.” They both let out a loud growl of approval.

Kane picked me up and sat me on top of him.

“Baby girl, if you want this stop, please just say the words.”

“I do want it. I love both of you, and I know that you would never hurt me.”

Kane lined his hard dick up with my entranced and guided me down on him.

“Oh goddess! “Your so tight and wet.” He growled out.

Xander came up behind me and pushed me down, so I was lying on Kane. He pushed the tip of himself inside and of me and all I could do was moan. Kane and I didn’t move an inch while Xander was working his way into me.

Once he was all the way in, they took turns. One would pull out while the other slammed into me. It didn’t take long, and I could feel the buildup of an orgasm.

“Oh, goddess please harder please. I need you both right now.”

Chapter 39 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

I woke up the next morning with a warm body pressed against my back and arms wrapped around me, but in front of me the bed was cold. Xander long gone. I tried to wiggle out of Kane’s grip but as usual he pulled me closer and tightened his grip on me.

“Baby girl, it’s not time to get up yet.”

“Where is Xander?”

“His office, he is behind on work, so he went in early.”

“Oh.” I couldn’t help the disappointment in my voice.

“I need to use the bathroom. Please let me go.”

“Are you ok? You sound sad.”

“I’m fine.” I said, slipping out of bed and walking to the bathroom.

I turned the shower on and slipped under the hot water. It felt amazing on my body. I was definitely sore from last night, but I loved every second of it.

“Stella, why didn’t you give me more warning about last night?”

“I couldn’t. You would have fought me on it, and you need to be ready. Also, girl, our mates are amazing. We can do that every night of our lives. The way they handled us and made us feel is undescrivable.”

“I agree. It was perfect. I need to mark them also. Are you ready for that?”

She didn’t answer because Kane had stepped into the shower with me. He came up behind me and made his body flush with mine. He reached around and started to massage my breast. I couldn’t help the moan that came out. I laid my head back on his chest as he continued to massage my breast and making my nipples hard. I could feel his hard dick pressed against my back.

“Baby girl, just the sight of you has me hard. I need you again this morning.” He leaned down, sucking on his mark, sending electric sparks down to my groin area. The smell of my arousal was filling the shower, and I knew without turning around, Kane’s eyes would be black.

He quickly turned me around and slammed his lips to mine. His kiss was making my wetness start dripping out.

“Baby girl, I can smell your arousal and I need to taste it again.” He said as he started to trail kissed down my neck. Stopping to appreciate each breast and continue down my stomach until he reached the top of my pussy. He pushed my legs apart and let out a growl of approval. “Your so wet for me already.”

I couldn't form any words as he didn't waste time and drove his tongue straight into my hole. He worked his way up to my clit. He drove a finger into me while he continued to suck on my clit “Kane, I'm going to come don't stop!” I screamed out.

He continued his on his wicked ways on my pussy as I started to grind myself on his face. I started seeing stars and before I knew it; I was hit with an explosive orgasm. I yelled his name as I lost all control. He held me upright as I came back down from my high.

“I need your big hard dick in me now, please.” I didn't have to say it twice as he stood up and grabbed me under my ass, lifting me up and sticking his dick into me.

“OH Kane, you fill me so much I love it. Please fuck me hard.”

That's all it took for him to start pounding into me.

“Baby girl, your pussy is like velvet around me. It's not going to take me long.” He panted as he continued to pound into me. I could tell he was getting close as his movements became more frantic.

“Stella, are you ready? We're doing this now!”

I let Stella push forward and she let our canines extend and then we bit down into Kane's marking spot. He let out a loud roar when he came. I released my canines and licked his wound. The second he pulled out of me, I had his semen running down my legs.

“Baby girl, that was amazing. I was expecting you to mark me, but not yet. I am so happy that you did. Now let's get you washed.”

He washed my entire body and hair for me. I returned the favor and washed him.

“You have training and I want to talk with Xander.” I told him, and he gave me a pouty face.

“But I want to stay in bed all day with you.”

“We can’t and you know it.”

“Ok, fine, but I will see you for lunch.”

He got dressed and left the room. As soon as the door was shut, I heard him say, “I love you.”

Did he mind link me? I’ve never been able to do that.

“Baby girl, since we’re both marked, we can mind link, but it’s only me until you mark Xander and when you become Luna, you will be able to with the whole pack.”

“I love you too.” That is all I said back. I had a huge smile on my face. I had felt love from them, but to hear one of them say it was a whole new feeling. I could get used to this life.

“Stella, are ready to go do the same to our workaholic mate?”

“More than ready. Let’s break into his office and throw him on the floor and fuck his brains out!”

“I like the way you think. Let me get ready and we will go.”

I chose to wear a short, little white sundress and a pair of sandals. I had thoughts of Xander just pushing the dress up and sliding his dick right into me. The thoughts were making wet. I needed to get to him and do this.

I headed out my door when I got an ache in my chest. It didn’t last long, but it was a really weird feeling. I chose to ignore it since it was gone so fast. I flew down the stairs and ran straight into Luna Caroline, Avery and Sara.

“OH, my goddess, is that what I think it is!” Screeched Avery. She ran right over to me, examining my marks. “Oh, there, so beautiful! Did you mate them at the same time?” She screeched again.

My cheeks were as red as tomatoes by now.

“Avery Marie, you cannot ask those questions! Sophia congratulations! We were hoping to speak with you about your Luna ceremony.”

“I actually was heaaaadddd.” I had to stop because the pain in my chest was back, and it was bad. I couldn’t get a word out and I couldn’t take a breath.

“Sophia, are you ok?” asked Luna Caroline.

The pain had dulled enough that I could talk. “Yes, sorry. I have had this weird pain in my chest today. It’s better now. I was going to talk with Xander, can I find you later?”

“Yes, and are you sure you’re ok? Maybe we should take you to the hospital and have Doc check you out. You’re breathing hard still.”

“No, I’m good. Probably tired.”

“Ok well, if you need me, I am here.” She said, walking away.

I turned the corner and headed for his office. Before I could get there, I had another pain and this time it brought me to my knees.

“Stella, what’s wrong?”

“It’s mate, please don’t go to him,” she said.

“Mmmmmaaattttteeee?” I could even finish asking. Stella was just crying in my head. I had to get to Xander. His office wasn’t very far away. I could crawl.

I made it to his door and knocked, but didn't get a response. The pain was still there, but I had to get in there. Xander would help. I drew all my strength and opened the door, but what I saw next made me understand the pain.

"What are you doing, Xander?" I managed to get out.

"Get the fuck out of my office. You don't have my permission to be in here," he yelled and stormed toward me. He pushed me out and slammed the door in my face. The pain started back up immediately, and I fell to the floor screaming pain. Alpha Ty came running up and told me to hold tight that Luna Caroline would be there soon, and he slammed the door open, letting out an angry growl while slamming the door closed.

"Oh, sweet girl, let's get you to your room," Luna Caroline said as she helped me to my feet and walked me to my room. I was able to hold the tears back until I reached my room, walking in and closing the door behind me with her on the outside.

"Stella, why would he do this?"

"I don't know, but we will kill him."

"We can't we were marked by him."

"Fine, but we don't have to forgive him."

Chapter 40 - Sophia's Revenge

Xander's POV

Saying last night was amazing is an understatement. Kane and I had talked about how that first night would go and we decided to let Sophia guide us with what she wants, and boy did she guide us. I was getting hard just thinking about it. Jax wasn't helping, either. He kept flashing images of last night in my head. He was mad that we left her this morning, but I was behind on work, and I wanted to be with her for training.

“Jax, stop. We need to get work done.”

“I can’t help it. She was so beautiful last night; I want her again right now.”

“If we can get some work done, we can leave early and go see her.”

“Fine,” He rumbled and retreated to the back of my head.

I managed to get through a lot of paperwork. I reviewed the patrol changes Luke had sent me. I had gotten some requests from neighboring packs for an alliance, but I would need to discuss those with Kane and Luke. We were really selective about who we had an alliance with.

Someone started knocking on my door. It was already ten am, and I had effectively missed training. “Come in,” I hollered out, but they just continued to knock. Goddess, did they not hear me?

I got up and threw the door open. “WHAT?” I rumbled out, but I didn’t see anything. I poked my head out and was met with a powder being thrown in my face. It made me cough, which made me inhale it into my lungs.

“Jax, what the hell was that?”

“I don’t know, but it’s not good. Look who is in the doorway.”

“Clarissa, how did you get out?” I asked her.

She didn’t answer me, but pushed her way into my office, shutting the door behind her. I was feeling really fuzzy and weak.

“Jax, are you there?” He didn’t answer me. Whatever she threw in my face has made Jax disappear, and I wasn’t thinking straight.

“Just give it a little more time,” she said as she went and sat down on my desk, just staring at me.

The longer she stared at me, the more confused I got. I knew who I was, and that I had a mate, but the girl in front of me was also beautiful and I wanted her right now. I knew that it was wrong, but I couldn't stop myself. I walked over and kissed her like I had never kissed anyone before.

She pulled away with a beautiful smile on face and said, "I think you are ready. I have a few questions for you."

"Anything for you, beautiful!"

She jumped up from my chair and sat on my desk, and motioned for me to sit down in my chair.

"Now Xander who is Sophia?"

"She is my mate."

"I thought she was Kane's mate?"

"She is. We're both her mates."

"How did she get two mates?"

"She is an emerald wolf, and they always have two mates."

I found myself pushing my chair closer and closer until I was pushed up to the desk and running my hands up and down her exposed legs. I could smell her arousal and it was making me hard. I wanted my head buried between her legs.

"Have you marked your mate?"

"Yes, why?" I asked and stood up to start running kisses down her neck and started to pull her dress down, exposing a red lacey bra. I reached around and undid her bra and brought her large breast up to my mouth and sucked on her nipple, making it hard and moving to the other.

"Well, I think because she has two mates you should be able to also," she moaned out.

She spread her legs completely and pushed my head down between them. Not that I was complaining. I pushed her dress up and found her bare wet pussy waiting for me. I dived in like a man starved and licked up all her juices until she came all over my face.

“Xander, mate and mark me, we can run this pack together. We can get rid of Sophia and Kane, and it will be just the two of us. I stood up and unzipped my pants and shoved my dick into her balls deep. She threw her head back, moaning my name.

My office door suddenly came open and Sophia was standing on the other side. She looked completely broken. I was still so confused. I know that I hurt her, but I didn't seem to care, even though I know I should.

“What are you doing, Xander?” She managed to get out between ragged breaths.

Clarissa leaned into me and whispered, “Get her out of your fucking office or I will kill her.”

I didn't want to do it, but something compelled me to do it. I couldn't stop myself. I pulled myself and walked over to the door, not caring that my manhood was hanging out, and started yelling at her.

“Get the fuck out of my office. You don't have my permission to be in here.” I pushed her out into the hallway and slammed the door in her face.

Everything felt so wrong. I knew that was my mate, but I didn't care. All I wanted was the she wolf in front of me. I walked back over and slammed my dick right back into her.

“Alpha, your dick feels so good. Mark me before it's too late.”

I let my canines out and started to lean down to her neck, but I stalled for just a second. Something felt wrong about this.

“What the fuck are you doing, Xander?” Roared my dad.

He stormed over and grabbed me around the neck, and threw me to the ground. I looked up to see what that she wolf was doing, and she blew me a kiss and waved to me before throwing some kind of dust on herself and then just disappeared.

“Dad, what are you doing? You let her get away?” I yelled out.

My dad got up in my face and was screaming at me. “What am I doing? What are you doing? You have a mate, remember Sophia? You said you were going to accept the mate bond, and you were going to love her. I am so disappointed in you.” He spat at me before letting go.

Before I could even get up, Kane was on me yelling at me for doing this. I still didn’t understand what was so wrong. I don’t even know when he got here.

Like she said, Sophia had two mates. Why can’t I? Plus, I just want that girl to come back. I want to finish what we were doing. I know her, but I can’t remember it right now.

Kane effectively broke my nose and split my lip before getting off of me. “You disgust me. I can’t believe you would hurt her like that. You are a useless Alpha and I wish she could reject you, but it would kill her and so would me killing you, because that’s what I want to do right now.”

He turned and left me alone with my dad.

“Dad, where did she go?”

“Who, Clarissa?”

“Is that who was here? I’m so confused.”

“I think you need to go see the doctor, son.”

I just looked at him because I didn’t know what was going on. I had a beautiful she wolf in here and she was right. If Sophia could have two mates, then so could I.

“Son, the doctor now. Follow me.”

We walked to the pack hospital and my dad had Doc waiting for us.

“Alpha’s, how can I help you today?” Doc asked.

“I’m really not sure, doc. My dad insisted I come see you, but my nose and lip will heal.”

“Can we put him in a room and talk privately?”

“Of course.”

I walked into a room and sat on one of two chairs.

“Jax, are you there?” I mind linked him.

“Kinda, what is going on? I feel sick.”

“I don’t know. Something happened. A beautiful she wolf appeared in my office and I was having the best time with her. She wanted to be my mate and I’m ready to make her that when my dad barged in, and she was gone. She made so much sense. She said Sophia had two mates, so I could too.”

“Did you sleep with her?”

“Yes, and she was great. I was going in to mark her when dad came in and attacked me followed by Kane. She managed to get away before I could get them off me.”

“Hello, Jax, are you there?”

He never answered me, but Doc and my dad came back into the room.

“Xander, how do you feel?” Doc asked.

“I’m a little confused, but otherwise I’m good.”

“Can you tell me what happened?”

“I’m really not sure. A beautiful she wolf was just there, and I couldn’t help myself. She made so much sense when she said Sophia has two mates so I should too and so I mated her, and I was going to mark her, but dad came in and then Kane and now where here.”

“Ok, why don’t we have you get in bed, and I want to run some test just to make sure everything is good.”

I went and laid down while doc took my vitals and drew some blood work.

“I’m also going to give you a shot to help with the fuzziness.” Doc said.

“Ok, whatever. I’m just going to lie down, if you don’t mind.”

“Please feel free, Alpha Xander.”
