

Chapter 51 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia's POV

I can't believe Stella punched him. "Stella, what the hell?"

"Sorry, he was being an asshole and needed to be put in his place. Nobody talks or treats us like that anymore."

"Stella, I love you, thank you."

"I know, I got you girl, now can we go shopping?"

"We don't have any money."

"Hold on."

What is she doing? She put a block up and is taking forever. I swear to the goddess if she is talking with Jax I will kill her myself.

"Done, go downstairs."

"What did you do?"

"If you will just go downstairs, you will see."

I went downstairs and at the bottom of the stairs, Kanes was waiting for me.

"Baby girl, I am sorry I didn't even think about giving you my card."

"Kane, I can't take this."

"You will. I won't take no for an answer. Also, you should go to the lingerie store and get me a few things."

"You want to wear women's lingerie?"

He leaned in and whispered in my ear, "No baby girl, I want to peel it off your body while I am pleasuring you."

His words had sent a pool of wetness down to my panties.

Two can play this game. I leaned in and whispered to him, “Kane, if you keep talking like that, we’re gonna have to go upstairs because my panties are getting wet.” I kissed him on the cheek and snatched the card out of his hand and walked away.

We all finally piled into the cars and took off.

“Sophia, are you ok?” Avery asked.

“Yes, sorry about that. I was having a moment.”

“Dear, we all have moments. Now was my son the cause of this or was it Kane? Well, hell, they are both my sons!”

“Oh, um, well, let’s not talk about that. I do have something I want to talk about and show you girls.”

“Of course Sophia, you can talk to us about anything but your sex life. Please leave that to just Sara. I don’t want to know anything about my brother!”

Everyone started laughing about that. This was a hard thing for me to talk about, but my therapist said talking with people I completely trust is a good thing and I trust these girls with my life.

“OK, so I started training today and Stella told me that we can heal my scars.”

“How is that possible?” Sara asked.

“Well, it’s a process, and I have tried a couple of times and I have managed to get some small ones to disappear. I was looking at dresses last night and I fell in love with some backless ones, but my scars bug me. I am hoping that I can heal them enough that I can wear one.”

“Sophia, you are beautiful with your scars, but I can understand how you feel.”

“I am going to show you guys and tell me you what you think.”

I showed them the scar I was going to try to heal. They all just stared at it while I closed my eyes and called Stella forward. I really focused on that scar and healing it and having new skin over it. Once I heard them gasping in surprise, I opened my eyes and they all just looked at me with surprise.

“Holy goddess Sophia, that was amazing,” Sara said.

“Sophia, you are getting a backless dress, and I don’t care what you think. I know you will have those scars healed in no time. That was the most amazing thing I’ve ever seen,” Luna Caroline said.

We had finally arrived at the mall and we all got out and headed inside. This place was a little overwhelming. I’ve never even been shopping and now here I am with my best friends. There were so many people and stores. I was a little lost.

“Come on dear, we will not leave you, I promise.” Luna Caroline said.

We walked into the first dress store and Avery immediately went to the evening dresses. She wanted a simple black dress that was short and off one shoulder and tight fitting. She was going to pair it with a pair of black heels and wear her hair down in soft curls. She could go in a potato sack and look great. I started to look at dresses and pulled a few out to look at more closely, but nothing was standing out to me. Luna Caroline came over with a hand full of dresses for me to try on. She had all sorts of different colors for me. She had white, black, silver, green, blue, pink and more.

“Luna Caroline, I don’t know if some of those will go with our colors.”

“Oh, I know, but if you like the dress, we can order it in any color you like.” She said as she pushed me back to the dressing room.

A sales lady wrote my name on the door and asked if I had the appropriate undergarments on. I must have given her a funny look because she asked if I had a strapless bra on and if I would be wearing a waste trimmer. I had no clue what she was talking about.

“Let me just go get you some.” She huffed at me and left. She came back and threw them in my face and pushed me in the room all the way and shut the door. She was a real peach.

I grabbed the first dress and started to put it on. It was a green fitted dress that tied around my neck. It made my small boobs look great, but I wasn't feeling this dress.

“Sophia, I want to see every dress that you put on. So hurry up and get out here.”

I opened the door and Luna Caroline must have thought the same thing as me as she just shook her head no. I turned around to go back in, when I heard the sales lady gasp as soon as she saw my back. My face was turning red because of it.

“Girl, she is human. Just ignore her.” Stella told me.

I decided to dig through the dress to see if any caught my eye. I didn't see much that I wanted to try on, but the silver dress was nice. I put it on. It was a thin silk material that clung to me in all the right places and had thin straps that were jeweled and had kinda bunched and hung around my boobs. I stepped out to show Luna Caroline.

“That dress is beautiful, but it is not Luna ceremony worthy, but I want to buy it for you. You will need it for other occasions.”

“You do not need to buy me a dress.”

“Don't argue with me and go place it on a hanger.”

“Can I ask what exactly you are looking for and maybe I can pull out some dresses for you?” The sales lady asked.

I told her that I was looking for a backless dress and the neckline didn't matter. I also told her that I really like some with lace on it.

She took off, and I just went and sat in the dressing room, waiting. I was having a great time. I could hear Avery come over. “Mom, look at this dress. I think it is perfect. Sophia, where are you? You have to look at this dress.”

I opened my door and Avery had on a black dress that hit just a little lower than her butt and had one shoulder strap and no strap on the other side. It was very form fitting. In fact, it looked like it was painted on her. It was tight. It was also black, like she wanted. It was perfect for her.

“You look hot in that dress. You wear that tonight and he won’t be able to keep his hands off you.” I said.

She walked over to me and gave me a hug saying “thank you, sister.” This made my heart swell. I never thought I would have a family, and she just called me a sister. That feeling was short-lived when I looked up and saw some girls from my old pack.

“They let the slave out.” Kate yelled over to me. I just froze in place. I couldn’t move or say anything. Luna Caroline turned to look at what I was looking at. She was mind linking a guard to get over here now.

“Do you miss us because we miss beating on you? I bet you're all healed up and I could put some new scars on that ugly body of yours. I can’t believe you actually found someone who would want you. Your disgusting piece of trash. You should have died and not our ranked members.”

Sara grabbed me and shoved me back into the dressing room and closed the door with herself in here with me. I felt like I couldn’t breathe. I was trying to gulp in as much air as I could, but it was no use. Sara tried touching me and I cowered back into the furthest corner. I could hear someone screaming out there, but it all sounded like they were under water. Sara came at me again to help, but I just screamed in fear, not recognizing her and letting fear overtake me. I let out another scream. I could hear her talking to me, but I had no clue what she was saying. I was still trying to catch my breath but couldn’t and started to see black spots. I tried counting like I had done before, but it wasn’t working. The black spots were getting more and more until that was all I saw.

“Baby girl, you need to wake up. Come back to us.”

“Beautiful, please wake up. I need to see your eyes, please.”

I could hear both of them, but I don't know how they got here. I was at the mall. Why am I laying on the floor? I snapped my eyes open and looked at both my mates, but then the whole day came back to me in one big rush. I pushed Xander's hand away and scooted closer to Kane. The look of hurt that flashed over Xander's face was not hard to miss. I didn't feel bad. I couldn't. He hurt me more than once today. I know something is going on, but he won't tell.

“Baby girl, let's go home. Don't worry, those girls are gone and will be dealt with by their Alpha. We have already contacted him.”

I didn't say anything but got up, holding his hand and following him out of the shop.

“I am so sorry, girls. I really didn't mean to ruin our fun. Plus, I still don't have my dress. Avery, you are buying that dress.”

“I already did. We will see you at home.”

We walked out to a car and someone I didn't know got in the front and, while Xander and Kane and I got in the back seat of the SUV. I instantly crawled into Kane's lap. I snuggled into him and started crying as the day's events started playing in my head. Kane started to rub his hand up and down my back and telling me it would be OK. That those girls wouldn't hurt me and that nobody ever would.

“I am so sorry. I don't know why they affected me so much. I know they can't hurt me anymore. It just brought everything back.”

“Beautiful, we would never let anything happen to you. It will be ok. We can bring the dress shop to you at the pack house.”

I lifted my head and just glared at him. I was so angry with the way he treated me today. He had no business acting like he cared right now. He sure as shit hasn't cared all day.

“Why do you care? You wouldn’t even talk to me today. You just yelled at me and told me you didn’t have time for me today. Why are you here?”

“Beautiful, I didn’t mean it like that.”

“Just shut it, Xander, I don’t want to hear it. Either I am your mate and your equal and you treat me with respect or you don’t. You don’t get to choose the days you want me around and the days you don’t. Until you decide what you want, do not talk to me.”

Chapter 52 - Sophia's Revenge

Xander’s POV

“What do you mean you don’t see it on the map?”

“Look, we’ve been living on a mountainside since Jules came back. I don’t know what happened when she came home, but almost immediately they started building houses on the mountainside and we moved a few months later.”

“This is the most up-to-date map we have. It has to be here.”

“I’m telling you, it’s not here.”

I was getting nowhere with this idiot. The girls finally left for shopping, and we have been arguing ever since. He says the mountain they live on isn’t on the map and this is the most current map we have.

“Since we can’t find it on the map, maybe you can tell us any important landmarks, or do you know how to get there?”

“Alpha, I can’t. I literally don’t know. We have several witches that live in our pack, and they keep placing spells on us, so we don’t remember how we got in or out. We always have one person with us that doesn’t have a spell on them to get us in and out.”

“Why didn’t you start with that? You could have saved us a lot of time?”

He just shrugged his shoulders at me. I hate teenagers. They don't know what the fuck they are talking about, and their communication sucks.

"Why don't we break for lunch and afterwards let's see if Emily and Trevor can help us." My dad said.

We left my office and went to the dining hall and fixed our plates. We had just started to eat when I got several mind links at once. There were too many coming in to understand them, but they had been saying something about Sophia. Kane must have been getting some also because we both jumped up and took off to the cars. We jumped into an SUV, and I took off towards the mall as fast as I could. It was usually a 30 minute drive, but I made it in 20.

I put up a block to everyone but my mom to try to figure out what was going on. She finished telling me as we parked.

"Some of her old pack members saw her and they started yelling at her and threatening her. She had a panic attack and is now unconscious in the dressing room."

We got there, and the guards had the girls detained and my mom and Avery and Sara were all crying, trying to get Sophia to wake up. We kicked them out of the dressing room and we each took a knee on each side of her and tried waking her up. It took a few minutes, but she finally opened her beautiful eyes and it felt like my heart stopped and started beating again when she did.

"Baby girl, let's go home. Don't worry, those girls are gone and will be dealt with by their Alpha. We have already contacted him."

Kane helped her, and we both tried to take her hand, but she pulled her hand away from mine. I guess I deserved that. I've been a dick to her.

"I am so sorry, girls. I really didn't mean to ruin our fun. Plus, I still don't have my dress. Avery, you are buying that dress," Sophia said.

"I already did. We will see you at home."

We walked out to the car, and I had mind linked a guard to drive us home. She instantly crawled into Kane's lap and started to cry again. Kane started to rub his hand up and down her back and tell her it would be OK. That those girls wouldn't hurt her and that nobody ever would ever harm her.

"I am so sorry. I don't know why they affected me so much. I know they can't hurt me anymore. It just brought everything back.

"Beautiful, we would never let anything happen to you. It will be OK. We can bring the dress shop to you at the pack house."

She lifted her head and just glared at me. She was so angry with the way I treated her today.

"Why do you care? You wouldn't even talk to me today. You just yelled at me and told me you didn't have time for me. Why are you here?"

"Beautiful, I didn't mean it like that."

"Just shut it, Xander, I don't want to hear it. Either I am your mate and your equal and you treat me with respect, or you don't. You don't get to choose the days you want me around and the days you don't. Until you decide what you want, do not talk to me."

I just hung my head in shame and kept my mouth shut. I know I had no right to be saying anything right now, but I just wanted her to feel better. She was my mate also, and I can't even go near her right now because of my stupidity.

I didn't say anymore on the way home. Once we pulled in, I got out without another word and stormed off to my office. I sent Kane a mind link. "Take her to our room and back to my office now." I didn't have time to for any of this right now. I had to find my daughter and as much as I love Sophia, I have to leave her out for now. I can't bring this stress on her.

I stormed into my office and found my dad and Miles talking with Emily and Trevor. They were huddled over the map.

“Did you figure anything out?”

“Xander, why are you here?” asked my dad.

“We need to find them.”

“And we will, son. Right now, you need to go be with Sophia. She needs you.”

“No dad, my daughter needs me. Sophia can wait. I don’t have time to baby her.”

My dad jumped up and came over and got in my face. “Son, you don’t know that she is your daughter, but you know what you do know. You know that Sophia is your mate, and she is hurting right now. She was verbally attacked today to the point that she passed out. You need to pull your head out of your ass before you lose her. She is still fragile.”

“Dad, you don’t get it. This is my only chance at having a pup. This is something Sophia can’t give me and it’s something I want so badly.”

“Is it more important than your mate? The one who the moon goddess chose for you. The one who is your perfect half. I thought you loved her more than that, but I was wrong.” He spat at me as he walked out of my office. I growled at everyone else to get out. They did so fairly quickly, but Kane came barging into my office just as soon as they left.

“What the fuck is your problem?” Kane yelled at me.

“Everything is my problem. I don’t know what to do. I love Sophia just as much as you, but she can’t give us the one thing we’ve always wanted. Pups. I have a daughter out there and I can’t find her. How can I expect Sophia to want to be a part of her life? I can’t tell her.”

“So, you are just going to show up with a toddler that looks like you and be like surprise. You can’t give me kids, so I kidnapped the daughter I didn’t know about for us to raise. Also, she can’t give me a pup either, and you don’t see me acting like a fool. Get your shit together and go talk to her.”

“I don’t know how to tell her.”

“The truth. She knows about Jules. She may surprise you.”

He left my office after that, and he was right. I did need to talk with her, but I just wasn’t ready. I needed to find a way to apologize first because I’d screwed this up so badly. How many times will this poor girl forgive me? If I keep going, I will lose her for good.

Chapter 53 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

Kane took me to our room, but I didn’t want to be anywhere that had Xander’s scent. It just made it worse.

“Kane, why does he hate me? Am I that awful? I know I’m not as pretty as his past lovers, but I am his mate. Why can’t he love me like you do? You love me unconditionally and him whenever it’s convenient.”

“Baby girl, you are so much more than them and I promise you that he loves you all the time. He is just going through some stuff right now.”

“What is he going through that he gets the right to treat me like garbage?”

“That is his story to tell.”

“So you know?”

“Yes, I do, and I can’t talk about it.”

“You know what, get out. I don’t want to see either of you until someone tells me what’s going on.”

“Baby girl, don’t be like that. He is struggling right now. We both love you so much.”

“If you loved me, then you wouldn’t keep secrets and he wouldn’t treat me this way. Just go away. I want to be alone.”

He finally left me sitting on the couch.

“Stella, am I being unreasonable?”

“No, mates shouldn’t do what they are doing.”

I laid down on the couch and closed my eyes. I must have fallen asleep because I was dreaming about being back in my old pack and I was in the punishment room and was receiving a punishment and the two girls from today were in there laughing along with Xander. I finally woke up in a cold sweat and a pounding heart. I needed a shower, and I promised Avery I would help her get ready, but I knew nothing about hair and make-up.

I walked into my room and grabbed some clothes and headed to the guest bathroom. I need some space right now. I went in there and the room was really nice and simple. It had a king-sized bed, and everything was done in lush green and cream colors. The bathroom was identical to ours, just smaller. I walked in and took a quick shower and washed my hair.

After getting dressed and brushing my hair out, I made my way to Avery’s room. I knocked on the door and walked in. It was like girls world exploded in there. There was make-up and hair stuff all over her vanity, and her bed was covered in clothes.

“Avery, why do you have half your closet on your bed?”

“I don’t know what to wear!”

“You bought a dress just for tonight, so how about you wear that?”

“I don’t know.”

“Girl, you're impossible.”

She just shrugged her shoulders at me and continued to curl her hair. I just sat and watched, amazed. I knew nothing about any of this and I would like to learn a little. An hour later, she was finally done with her hair and make-up and now just needed to get dressed. She went into her bathroom and emerged ten minutes later looking like a goddess.

“Hot dam, girl, you look amazing. Trevor won’t be able to keep his hands off you.” I told her.

“What time are you meeting him?”

“Ten minutes ago. A girl has to be fashionably late. Come on and walk me down the stairs.”

She took my hand, and we walked downstairs. Trevor was waiting at the bottom and the second he laid his eyes on her, you could see he got nervous.

“Um, wow. You look, well, there are no words for you look, Avery.”

“Thank you, Trevor. Should we go?”

He grabbed her hand and kissed the back of it. Completely sweeping Avery off her feet. You could see it in the look on her face.

“You two have fun.” I told them as I headed back upstairs. I was ready to lie down alone.

I went into my room and grabbed my pillow and headed into the spare room. I shut the door and locked it. I went and turned on some movie and crawled under the covers. The movie turned out to actually be a little scary-so I turned on my latest binge-watching series.

“Beautiful, wake up! Please wake up. You’re having a nightmare.”

I could hear Xander talking, but was having a hard time waking up fully. I was suddenly picked up and that brought me out of my trance completely. I was breathing hard and again I was all sweaty. I can’t remember this dream, but from the way I feel, it wasn’t a good one.

I moved off Xander and went to the bathroom. I was all sticky and needed to rinse off. Xander was right behind me.

“Xander, I’m fine. Please go away.”

“No! I will not leave you alone right now.”

Oh boy, was that the wrong thing to say to me. I can feel Stella pushing forward and right now I'm not going to stop her. I closed my eyes to focus on her.

"I have already warned you once. You either need to shape up or will ship out and I don't know what happened to the loving, caring mate I had, but the mate I have now is an asshole and I don't want him. Until he can talk to us and be honest, he can go suck a dick!"

He didn't reply or stop me from getting in the shower. He just stood there watching me.

When I got out, he was gone. I slipped back into bed and fell back into a dreamless sleep this time.

I woke up alone, which had my heart aching a little, but it's what I wanted. It's the dang mate bond that is doing it to me.

After getting ready, I went downstairs for breakfast and then I was off to training.

I met Avery at breakfast, and she was all smiles.

"So, I'm guessing that your date went well?"

"Sister, it was better than OK. We have so much in common and, well, our goodnight kiss was the longest one I've ever had and also the best."

"Avery, that makes me so happy for you. I told you he wouldn't be able to keep his hands off you in that dress."

We finished eating, and I had yet to see or hear from my mates. I figured they would be here eating. They don't miss meals.

I walked out to the training area to meet Emily and Trevor. To my surprise, Luna Caroline was there. Kane was with me yesterday. I figured he would be here today. I tried to mind link him and Xander and they both had a block up.

“Sophia, I am excited for today. I want you to manipulate more things. Let’s start with those half-dead flowers. I want you to picture them alive and thriving.”

I closed my eyes and called Stella forward and focused on those flowers. Soon I heard Luna Caroline gasp. I opened up my eyes and could see the flowers now. They looked better than ever.

“Sophia, I think your healing power is very strong. Now I want to work on some defensive powers. Can you shift for us? We have a few guards coming to help.”

I went over behind a tree and called Stella forward and gave her control.

“Girl, we really don’t need practice. We were born to do this. Just release all control to me and sit back and be amazed.”

I gave her all the control and sat back and watched. Two guards came over and stopped as soon as they saw us.

“Luna Caroline, is everything OK?”

“Yes, I’ve called you over because your future Luna needs some practice, and I would like for you guys to attack her.”

“We cannot do that. If we value our lives, then we won’t be doing that.”

“I will handle the Alpha and Sophia here is ready. She will let me know if it is too much for her. Understand?”

“Yes ma’am.”

They both went and shifted and came back and just sat there waiting for more instructions. I am not sure what happened, but they both got snarls on their faces and started growling at us. Stella wasn’t scared, she was excited about this.

The first one lunged at us, and we just ducked, and they went flying over. It didn’t take long for the second one to come at us, but Stella stood her ground. Suddenly, the wind picked up, and it was strong, so strong that the wolf was pushed back before he went tumbling about 50 feet. We lost track of the other wolf because suddenly he was on our back, but Stella seemed to be in control and not afraid. She bucked her front legs up, shaking him off her and kicked him with her hind legs getting a good ten feet between us. I could feel the wind start to pick up and he rolled another ten feet away.

Emily stepped forward and waved her hands at the two guards and then told us all to go shift back.

I went over to my clothes and shifted back. “Stella, that was amazing. I didn’t know we could do any of that.”

“We’ve only just started showing our powers. We can do about anything imaginable.”

“Can you make our mates be nice?”

“Free will is something we can’t do.”

I cut our link and walked back over to everyone. Both guards looked sorry for what happened, even though I wasn’t hurt.

“Thank you two for helping. That will be all and not a word of this to anyone.” Luna Caroline said, dismissing them.

“Child, that was incredible. Has your wolf told you anything else about your powers?”

“She said she doesn’t need training. That she knows how to do it all.”

“Well, with your powers, you are correct, but as far as fighting in combat, you need training. I would like you to work with Clark. There is a reason he has lived for a long time.”

We headed back to the pack house, and I still wasn’t able to mind link either Kane or Xander.

“Luna Caroline, do you know where Kane and Xander are? I haven’t seen them all day and they both have a block up, so I can’t get through to them.”

“They went on a small mission. That is all I know. Alpha Ty wouldn’t tell me except that they would be back late tonight.”

“They left and didn’t tell me? What have I done to them to make them be like this? I don’t understand?”

“You didn’t do anything. They both love you. Sometimes they just have to do secret missions and can’t tell us.”

“Ya, but Alpha Ty told you goodbye at least. I haven’t seen either of my mates since yesterday.”

“Please try not to worry. Why don’t we have a movie night? My room. Snacks and movies all night.”

Chapter 54 - Sophia's Revenge

Xander’s POV

I decided that late tonight we would be leaving and trying to find out where my daughter was. Kane was off getting some warriors together. We just wanted to find them. I have worked with Emily and Trevor and they both agreed that they have a very strong cloaking spell on their location and that it’s possible that is why it’s not on the map. They think when they drew up the map, they already had placed the cloaking spell on it and so it’s not on the map either. My dad went through some old boxes and found some really old maps in there. We were able to locate two mountains that weren’t on my maps. We were going to check them both out and then go home.

Kane came back with the warriors that he selected. I had a talk with Luke and let him know what was going on and not let anyone else know.

“I am going to let Sophia know that we have to go on some type of mission and that we should be back tomorrow.”

“No, she is sleeping, and I don’t want her to know.”

“Excuse me, you’re not going to tell our mate goodbye. You may be an asshole, but that doesn’t mean I have to be.”

“Kane, don’t make me do it. I will use an Alpha command if you try to go.”

“You wouldn’t?”

“I would and not think twice about it.”

“I really fucking hate you right now!”

He had every reason to hate me. I even hate me. I am just not ready to tell her. Jax is talking to me less and less because I won’t go see Sophia or talk to her. I knew it was a mistake, but I didn’t know how to tell her. I know I told her kids didn’t matter to me, but they do. I can’t let her mother keep her. I don’t know if she is being taken care of. I know if Kane was in this position, he would be doing the same thing. I just hope that Sophia will forgive me one more time. After this, I will be the mate she deserves.

It was time to go, and I met everyone going out in the field we agreed on. We all had small backpacks with some food and a change of clothes, but we would be traveling in wolf form. I made Miles stay here. I only wanted to see if we could find it. That’s it.

After explaining our mission, we all shifted. Trevor came with us, and he climbed on my back. He wouldn’t have been able to keep up, and he tracked the maps for us.

We traveled for about five hours before we took a break. We all shifted back and had some snacks. We were about an hour from the base of the first mountain. Let’s get going everyone. I want to make it there soon. They all groaned, but got up and shifted back.

An hour later, we were standing on flat ground, but it should have been the base of the mountain.

“What the hell?” asked a warrior.

“There is a cloaking spell on this mountain. I can sense magic. I can remove it, but if I do, they will for sure know where, here.”

“No, don’t do that. I want to check the other mountain and see what is going on there.”

We all turned around and took off the way we came. We were about forty-five minutes into our trip back when I picked up an unfamiliar scent.

“Kane, do you smell that?” I mind linked him.

“Ya, we have company.”

We kept going the way we came but didn’t make it very far before three large grey wolves jumped out in front of us. They were slowly approaching us, even though we outnumbered them. They kept getting closer and then some more magically appeared.

“Trevor, can you do anything to help us? I don’t want a fight.”

“I am working on a cloaking spell. When I say go, mind link everyone to run.” He had leaned down and whispered to me.

“OK, run now, as fast as you can.”

I mind linked my guys and told them to run, that Trevor had put up a cloaking spell and to get back to safety as fast as we could. They all took off running, but nobody could see where they were, and we kept running into each other and that’s when one of their wolves reached out with his claws and swiped into the air. I don’t know if they could still see us or if he was hoping to get lucky, but they got Kane.

“Xan, his claws got me right in the neck. It burns, and it’s bleeding badly. We have to get out of here now.”

“Can you keep going?”

“I don’t know. I am dizzy, and this burns so badly.”

“Trevor, Kane is in trouble. They got him in the neck. What can you do?”

“It’s going to be risky, but I have to drop the cloaking spell and open up a portal. The problem is the portal is going to take us to the closest open portal, and I don’t know where that is.”

“Can your mom open a portal? I can mind link my mom to have her open one?”

“Yes, tell me when it’s done.”

“Mom, I need you to find Emily now and have her open a portal. Kane got hurt and we’re being chased. We need to get back right now.”

“I will go find her and let you know when it’s done.”

We ran for another ten minutes. “Kane, how are you doing?”

“I can’t do it much longer. I am having a hard time breathing and seeing black spots.”

“We’re working on it. Where are you?”

I got no response from him. Shit, this is bad. This is all my fault. If I just had some patience, my best friend would be OK, and my mate would be talking to me.

“Mom, is it ready? Kane, is not doing good?” MOM!"

“Yes, it’s ready and Doc will be here and so is Sophia.”

“Tell her to go away!”

“Trevor, it’s ready. What do we need to do?”

“Tell them I am dropping the cloaking spell and they will see a white light. They need to run into the white light, and it will shoot them at the other end of the portal.”

I sent my guys a mind link telling them this and told Trevor to drop the cloaking spell. The second he did that, a bright white light appeared about 100 feet in front of us. I turned to find Kane, and he was lying in a pool of blood, not moving. Trevor jumped off my back and I shifted back, and we ran to him.

My dad showed up there also to help lift him up. Between the three of us, we were able to pick him up, and we ran towards the white light. We had slightly lost the wolves that were chasing us, but they quickly ran towards the white light. We made it there just in time. As soon as we stepped in, we were pulled up into a vortex. It lasted all but three seconds and we hit the ground hard, piling on top of each other.

I stood up and looked around for Kane. He was lying unconscious on the ground about five feet from me. I ran over to him and threw my hands on his wound, trying to stop the bleeding. Doc and Sophia were right behind me.

“Xander, remove your hands, so I can see the extent of his wound.”

I removed my hands and he and Sophia kneeled down to him. Sophia beat him to it and placed her hands on his wound.

“Sophia, move your hands. I need to help him.”

She didn't move. She closed her eyes and just kept applying pressure. A light green glow started to come from her hands, but she didn't remove them. The green light went from a light glow to a bright one. I started to say something, but Trevor stopped me.

“She is healing him. She is powerful. Let her do her job.”

We all just stood there watching her. She was amazing. She continued to emit a light from her for about ten minutes until she finally let go. When she did, you could see that his neck was fully healed. You couldn't even see a scar. She stood up and faced me before she stumbled a few steps and fell to the ground, unconscious. I ran to her and scooped her up and just held her. I could feel her heartbeat and it was strong.

“She used a lot of power and energy. She will be fine, she just needs to rest.” Emily said.

“Why don’t we get both of our patients over to the hospital, so I can run some tests on them and make sure that they are ok,” Doc said.

I carried Sophia while my dad and Trevor took Kane. Once we got there, they were both placed on a gurney and taken to the back.

“Jax, what did we do?”

“We didn’t do anything?”

“We did. If I had listened to my dad and just waited a little longer, Kane wouldn’t be hurt and Sophia wouldn’t be unconscious. This is all our fault. I have to make this right with both of them or I will lose them both.”

“What do you suggest?”

“I don’t know yet, but the first thing I have to do is tell Sophia the truth when she is awake.”

Chapter 55 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

I woke up lying in a hospital bed. I had Kane on one side and Xander on the other. They were both sound asleep and looked like hell. I wanted to wake Kane to see how he was, but he needs his rest.

“Stella, how long have we been out?”

“Two days. You used all of our energy when you healed Kane.”

“I am sorry. I didn’t mean to. We just had to save him. He looked so bad. He had lost so much blood and was as white as a ghost.”

“Girl, I never said I was mad about it.”

I rolled over so my back was to Xander. I was so mad at him; I couldn't even look at him. He is keeping something from me and, whatever this stupid mission is, Kane has almost got killed. I wanted to break his nose all over again or maybe throat punch him. I'm not sure. I closed my eyes again and welcomed sleep.

"Beautiful, are you going to wake up? I want to see your beautiful eyes. Please wake up."

I didn't reply to him, but I did open my eyes and looked at Kane. The second our eyes met, he broke out in a huge smile. He leaned in and kissed my forehead.

"Good morning, baby girl. How do you feel?"

"I am fine. How do you feel?"

"I am all good, thanks to you."

"Beautiful, do you want breakfast?"

I rolled over to look at Xander. I didn't want to deal with him yet, but I knew it was going to be now, as he was right in front of me. I could tell it was going to end badly.

"How about some food? You must be starving; you've been asleep for two days." He asked.

"I hate you! You have no right to talk to me like that right now. The only thing keeping us linked is the marks on our necks. You don't love me. You think of me as convenience. You need a Luna and here I am. You need a quick lay and here I am. You have some major problems, and you push me out and won't even talk to me and you treat me like garbage. So no, I don't want breakfast from you. I don't want anything from you. You can walk out that door and never come back, and I wouldn't care."

By the time I was done telling him this, I was sobbing as Stella was hurting and crying in my head. I rolled away from him again, looking at Kane, who had tears in his eyes. I tried to smile at him, but it failed me.

Xander came behind me and got into bed with me. “Kane, can you please give us a minute?”

“Sophia, I will be right outside if you need me.”

Xander pulled me closer to him. You couldn’t even get a piece of paper between us. It was like we were molded together. I continued to sob. I won’t let him treat me like that.

“Beautiful, I am so sorry. I can’t tell you how wrong I am about everything. I screwed up so badly and almost lost Kane, and I am losing you. I can’t lose you. You are my life. I do love you so much. I thought in my head that I was protecting you, but I was just hurting you instead.”

I didn’t say anything, I just laid there listening to him breathing and inhaling my scent. It was calming him down. I had to know what he was protecting me from.

“Xander, why? What did you think that I needed protecting from? Protecting in a way that you have made me have feelings about you that are not nice.”

“I can’t do this right now. Please, just give me a little more time. I am begging you.”

“No, I want an answer now.”

We just laid there not saying a word. Stella was still whimpering in the back of my head. She was thinking the worst, and she was still a little mad at me for what I said.

“The other day we had a few wolves that came into our territory, and we were able to capture them and bring them in for questioning. One of them was a kid. We took him upstairs and fed him. He asked for asylum in exchange for information.”

“This is what you were keeping from me.”

“I am not done. He had very valuable information for us but also dropped a couple of bombshells on us. His stepmother is Jules.”

“Why would he turn on his family, and are you sure we can trust him?”

“He hasn’t given us any bad information yet, and he has willingly done everything that we have asked of him. He turned on his family because his family hates him. They have no reason to. They send him on these missions in hopes that he doesn’t come back alive. He isn’t beat or anything like that, he’s just ignored and forced to go on missions instead of school. He says that his dad doesn’t want to hand the pack over to him.”

“So, what are these bombshells that he dropped?”

“Well, when Jules showed up after rejecting me. Oh goddess, I don’t know how to tell you this next part.”

“Like ripping off a band aide. Just get it over with.”

“She was pregnant, and I am ninety-nine percent sure the child is mine.”

“How are you so sure that the child is yours?”

“Pictures and timing.”

“You have pictures of her?”

“They’re on Miles’ phone.”

“Why didn’t you just tell me what held you back?”

“Because I know you want a pup of your own and Kane and I would do anything to give you that and there is nothing we can do about it and then to tell you that I have one with someone else. I didn’t want you to hate me for that.”

“Xander, I know you had a past before me and it wasn’t like this was some random she-wolf. She was your mate. You thought you would be spending the rest of your life with her. She meant something to you. I would never be angry about that. What I am angry with is the way you treated me. You treated me like I was nothing but a pest that was in the way. I have been treated horribly since my parents died and you are supposed to love me, not push me away. I will be there for you for everything. Well, unless you cheat, then I will just cut your dick off. I wish you had told me sooner. I could have helped. No more secrets, please.”

“I am so sorry, and I promise no more secrets. I love you.”

“Kane, come back in here.” I mind linked him.

Chapter 56 - Sophia's Revenge

Kane's POV

The doctor walked in after the three of us had fallen asleep on Sophia's bed and woke us up and sent us all home. We all went upstairs to our room and passed back out in bed together.

I woke up and found that Xander and Sophia had gone, but they left the bathroom door open, and they were in there. The steam was carrying Sophia's arousal all the way out here. I got up and went to the bathroom and found Sophia on her knees with Xander's dick in her mouth. Goddess, she was hot. I stripped down and got into the shower as well. She turned and smiled at me. She went back to sucking on Xander but reached around and started stroking me. Her hands were magical.

“Beautiful. Why don't we get out of here and go back to bed?”

She stood up and pulled me by my hand back to the bedroom while Xander followed. She pushed me down on the bed and bent over and started to suck my cock.

“Baby girl, your lips are like velvet. You feel so good wrapped around me.”

Xander had come up behind her and was rubbing her pussy. She was letting out the smallest moans and vibrating my dick as she did. I couldn't help it, but I started thrusting into her mouth and Xander had started to pound into her from behind.

“Baby girl, I am going to come, I want you to swallow it all down. Can you do that for me?”

She just shook her head as she continued to bounce her head up and down on me. “Oh, baby her, it comes.”

I grabbed the back of her head and held it still as I shot my load down her throat. I pulled out, and she looked up at me as she licked some cum off her lips that had fallen out.

“You look so beautiful, taking my cock in your mouth as Xander fills you up from behind. Come up on the bed and get on all fours.”

She did as I said, and I slid under her and started licking her pussy as Xander came back up behind her and slid his cock into her. She was instantly moaning and screaming.

“Beautiful, do you like it when I fuck you while Kane licks your pussy?”

“OH, I’m going to come, please harder. Fuck me harder.” She screamed out.

“Beautiful, let go and let me hear you scream.”

Once Xander said that her orgasm hit her, and she released a new batch of juices. They were dripping out of her pussy and right into my mouth, and they tasted amazing. I could eat her every day. I heard Xander let out a growl and knew that he was coming as well.

We all went and got in the shower again, but this time we were able to actually wash and get clean. After we got out and got dressed, Xander said he had paperwork he needed to do, and I was supposed to go help with training.

“Boys, I need to train in my human form. I was doing training yesterday and in wolf form and while I did great, I don’t have any defensive skills and my human form has no skills whatsoever.”

“Why were you training in your wolf's form yesterday? Why weren’t we told about this?”

“We don’t want to get into that Xander!” she said.

“OK, go to training with Kane, but please be careful.”

She jumped up and down and squealed with happiness. I had never seen anyone so happy to train, but she also has never trained like this before. We walked out to the training field together.

“Baby girl, maybe it would be a good idea to just watch today. You know, get the feel of things.”

“No, we’re training today. I want to do this. I need to do this. We had started this, remember, but you guys wouldn’t let me train with everyone else and I am going to be. I can’t wait.”

Her enthusiasm was a little contagious. I am excited about training now. We got out there finally, and I had everyone run five miles for a warmup. She wasn’t so enthusiastic after that. We started with basic sparring with partners. I paired her with another beginner, Nicki. There were perks to having her training. When she was doing something, and it needed corrected, I got to touch her to show her the correct stance. I really just wanted to throw her over my shoulder and go back upstairs. We moved on to hand to hand, fighting. I walked around, correcting a few other people and helping them with their stance or their form on hitting. I didn’t see what happened, but suddenly I heard someone yell out that they were so sorry. I turned to see Sophia getting up off the ground, holding her face. I ran over to her.

“Baby girl, are you ok?”

“I’m fine. I told you I needed this and also Nicki throws a hell of a punch.”

She removed her hand, and her cheek was split open, and her eye was already swelling. I knew it wouldn’t take long to heal, but I know that it still hurt.

“Let’s get you home and some ice on your face.”

“No, class isn’t done yet.”

“OK, back to it then.”

They returned to hand to hand and to say I was proud of her was an understatement. She could have chosen to go home and give up for the day, but she kept going. After two hours, we finally called it a day and headed inside. Sophia didn't fare too badly on her first day. She was a little bruised and bloody, but she gave it her all.

“Baby girl, I am so proud of you for today. You were amazing out there.”

“Well, I don't know that I was amazing, but it felt amazing and now I need a shower and maybe a full body massage. I wonder if I can find anyone to give me one.”

It was on. I didn't need any encouragement from her. I quickly picked her up and threw her over my shoulder and ran up the stairs. I didn't sit her down until we were in the bathroom. I reached in and turned the water on, and then turned around and started to kiss Sophia. I need her right now. All the teasing at training just had me ready to go. I trailed kisses down her neck and reached up and pulled her shirt up over her head and her bra quickly followed. I crouched down and pulled her shorts and underwear off, and pushed her into the shower. Once in there, I grabbed her arms and placed them against the shower wall and leaned in and whispered, “Baby girl, I want you to leave your hands there. Do not move them. Do you understand me?”

“Mmhhmm”

I trailed my hand down her side and back up and reached around, pinching her nipple, earning a moan from her.

“Do you like it when I play with your nipples?”

“Mmhmm.”

I released one of her nipples and trailed my hand down her stomach until it reached the top of her pussy. “Or do you prefer me to play with your pussy?”

“Mmhmm.”

I spread her legs a little more and brought my hand behind her and ran it along her lips before I separated her lips and started to rub light circles along her clit. “Do you like that? Does that make you feel good? Do you want to come on my hand, baby girl?” I could feel her getting wetter.

“Mmhhmm.”

“Use words, baby girl. I don’t understand what you said.”

“Yes, Kane.”

“Yes, what?”

“I want to come on your hand.”

I kept circling her clit, applying more and more pressure. She started to grind herself on my hand also. I stopped moving my hand, but she continued to grind herself on me and moaned in pleasure.

“Baby girl, make yourself come. Use my hand and make yourself come. I want your pussy juices running down my hand.”

She started to move faster and apply more pressure on my hand. It didn’t take long for her to come all over me. I pulled my hand away from her pussy and started to rub my cock along her pussy lips.

“Do you want me to fuck you? Do you want to feel my cock pounding into your wet pussy?”

“Yes.”

“Please, what?”

“Please fuck me Kane.”

I pulled her hips back and lined myself up with her and slammed into her. She let out a loud scream and pushed her ass into me. It didn’t take me long. She had me so worked up from watching her use my hand to make herself cum. I just let out a small growl as I shot my hot cum up inside her. I laid my head against her back as I tried to get my breathing under control.

“Baby girl, that was amazing, but Xander and I have a surprise for you, and we need to rush this shower now.”

“A surprise for me? What is it?”

“I can’t tell you, it’s a surprise.”

I got her all clean and out of the shower and we got dressed and I sent Xander a mind link that we were ready and to meet in our room.

He showed up about five minutes later.

“What the fuck happened to your face, Sophia?”

“Training.”

“I told you to be careful. Now you’re all bruised up.”

“Ya, but it looks badass. Besides, Kane thought it was hot. He thought I was amazing out there and came home and took me in the shower.”

This earned us both a growl and me a dirty look from Xander. She was winding him up, and she knew it.

“OK, I want my surprise now.”

We both grabbed a hand and led her to Alpha Ty and Luna Caroline’s room and knocked on the door. When we heard a come in and I opened the door.

“Beautiful, since your day at the mall got ruined, we brought the dress shop to you.”

There were so many racks of dress in their room and Luna Caroline, Avery and Sara were all standing there staring at us, waiting for some type of reaction.

Sophia turned around with tears in her eyes. “Thank you, guys. This means so much to me. I was having such a great time until those girls showed up. Now you two have to leave because you can’t see my dress or any dress that I am trying on, so be gone with you.”

Everyone in the room started laughing as we turned and left the room.

After we left, Xander started in on me about training. “Why did you let her get hurt?”

“She has to learn to defend herself. You know as much as I do that sometimes during training, we get hurt, but that is the best way to learn.”

“I know, but we are supposed to protect her and not let her get hurt. I don’t want her in battle ever.”

“Me neither, but what happens if one of us is not with her? She has to learn. It will also give her a major boost of confidence if she can learn some moves.”

Chapter 57 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

I can’t believe they did this. I never expected them to bring a dress shop to the pack house. There are hundreds of dresses here. I started walking around, looking through them and running my fingers over them.

“Sophia dear, pick out a few dresses to start with and you can take them to the bathroom,” Luna Caroline said.

“Hey, we have picked a few things you should try!” Avery told me.

“Avery, where are they and I will start with those.”

She just pointed to the bathroom, and I walked over and shut the door. They had like ten dresses in there.

“Stella, this is going to be all day. Give me strength.”

“Girl, you’re on your own for this. I need a nap.”

Oh, great, I am on my own for this. I grabbed the first dress on the pile and put it on and it was the ugliest thing I’ve ever seen. It was huge and poofy and had a neckline that came all the way up and had a bow above my ass. I went to the door and stepped out and as soon as they looked at me; they busted up laughing.

“So, this dress was a joke?”

“I’m sorry. We didn’t think you would put it on. Please go take it off, at least now we know what you don’t like!” Luna Caroline said.

I went back into the bathroom and looked in the mirror, and I looked ridiculous. I started laughing at it as well. I slipped it off and grabbed the next dress and looked at it, and it was actually a nice dress and not some joke this time. I stepped into the dress, and it was backless and white form fitting. It looked nice, but it wasn’t the dress. I stepped out to show them and they had said it was nice but not the dress. I went back in and went through the rest of the dresses they had there, but none of them were the one.

Three hours later, I was still looking at dresses and not finding anything. “I think I will just wear my sweats and a hoodie.” I said disappointedly.

“We will find you a dress. Don’t worry.” Sara said.

I continued to look through the dresses again and found some more to try on. I went into the bathroom, put the first one on, and stepped out. Again, not the dress, but it was still nice. Someone knocked on the door and waited for a come in, which Luna Caroline said.

In walked Kane, holding a dress bag. “Baby girl, have you found your dress yet?”

“No, I haven’t. It’s been a struggle. I can’t find what I want.”

“Here, go try this on.” He said as he handed me a dress bag.

“What is this?”

“You left your search on my laptop and I thought I would help.”

I dropped the dress and threw myself on him. Literally on him. He caught me and I wrapped my legs around his waist and my arms around his neck and gave him a kiss. We must have been in that position for a few minutes because someone cleared their throat behind me.

“Baby girl, go try your dress on and I am going to go. I don’t want to see it until the ceremony.”

He left, and I went and grabbed the dress and walked to the bathroom. I hung the bag up and unzipped it. It was the most beautiful dress I’ve ever seen. It was exactly what I was looking for. I pulled the dress out and slipped into it. It fit me like a glove. It was completely backless to the top of my butt crack and had lace sleeves down to my wrist. The lace was fine and delicate. The lace was also across the whole dress. The top had a slit all the way to my belly button but was covered with lace, and it showed just the right amount of cleavage. It was fitted to my waist, then had just a small amount of flare and a small train in the back. I don’t know where he found this, but it was perfect. I almost didn’t want to show them, but I could hear them getting impatient with me.

I opened the door and stepped out, and everyone looked at me.

“Is it that bad?” I asked.

“Oh, my goddess, that is the most amazing dress I have ever seen. It looks like it was made for you.” Avery said.

“This is the dress, don’t even bother looking at anything else.” Luna Caroline said.

I walked back to the bathroom and hung it back in the bag and got dressed and went back out.

“You know, Kane, could have saved us a lot of time by bringing that up earlier today.” I said.

“Well, he wanted to make sure you didn’t find something else first and pressure you into this dress.” Luna Caroline explained.

I was so excited to have found my dress, but it wouldn’t have been possible without Kane. I need to thank him, but I want to make it special, and I don’t know how to do that. I am going to have to ask.

“Hey girls, I want to do something special for Kane for this, but what? Anyone have any ideas?”

“Actually yes. He has a bunch of pictures of his childhood and family. You could turn that into a scrapbook.”

“I love that idea! Can you girls help me with it?”

I got a round of yes from all of them. Luna Caroline had said she would get everything we needed and to meet back here tomorrow after lunch.

“Avery, how is Trevor?” Sara asked.

“He is amazing.”

“I take it your date went well?”

“Better than well, but I can’t discuss this right now.”

We all just laughed because her mom was in the room.

“Alright ladies. We need to figure out the day of the ceremony. Do we want to get ready here or go to the salon?”

We all agreed to get ready here. It was easier.

“Girls, I’m going to get us some drinks. I’ll be back shortly.”

The second the door closed, Avery and Sara jumped at the chance to ask a few questions.

“Alright spill it girl! I’m dying to know what it’s like having two mates, but spare me details about my brother.”

“It’s pretty amazing. If one is gone, the other is always there. They both love me and make me feel that every day.”

“Enough with the boring love stuff. Do you do them at the same time?” Sara asked.

My face was so red when she asked that. How do I answer that? I can’t tell them I let them both have sex with me at the same time.

“Seriously, I am jealous. I wouldn’t mind trying two guys at once. There is nothing to be embarrassed about.” Avery said.

“Ok, yes, sometimes that happens.”

“Sophia, you and I are having a lunch date soon without Avery because I want details she doesn’t want to hear.”

They both burst out laughing and I had to join in as well. Luna Caroline walked in with some wine.

“What’s so funny, girls?”

We all just looked at each other and started laughing again.

“Mom, I promise you don’t want to know.”

“Let me just go on record and say I am too young to be a grandma, girls!”

She handed us all a glass of wine. I had never had any alcohol before. I smelled it and it didn’t smell bad but was a little bitter when I took a drink.

“Girls, as much as I would love this glass of wine, I can’t drink it,” Sara said, handing her glass to Luna Caroline.

“SHUT UP!” yelled Avery.

“Really?” Luna Caroline asked.

I was so confused as to why she couldn’t drink it.

“I’m confused, why can’t you have it, besides it’s not great!”

“She’s pregnant!” Avery said.

“Sara, that is wonderful! I’m so excited for you.” I told her as I went to her and gave her a hug.

I was really happy for her but a little jealous as that would never be me. I know Xander has a daughter that we will meet, and they are both open to adoption, but I want to carry my own pup. I want to feel them kick and I want to go through labor.

Someone started knocking at the door, interrupting our moment. Luna Caroline yelled, “come in” and Xander opened the door.

Chapter 58 - Sophia's Revenge

Xander’s POV

We dropped Sophia off at my parents’ room and went to my office so we could get some work done. I wanted to meet with Miles and maybe learn more about the pack he came from. I rushed in trying to find their pack and wasn’t prepared and it almost cost me my best friend.

The three of us were in my office, and Miles looked a little scared. He had heard about what happened and I think he felt a little at fault. It wasn’t his fault; it was mine.

“OK, Miles, I want to know about your pack. Everything you can think of.”

“Well, we are called the Blood Pack. We are smaller with about 300 wolves in total, but what makes us different is the fact that we have about 75 witches that live there. The witches all mate with wolves and have created some hybrids. Although they are still young, and they don’t know what they will be capable of yet.”

“Well, you’re just a bundle of good news,” joked Kane.

“I am sorry. I should have told you this first. My dad’s Beta isn’t a wolf, but a witch, and he is very powerful.”

“Kane, can you go get Emily and Trevor please? I think we are going to need their help with this.”

“Miles, you are not in any trouble. We just need to know everything about your pack. I would like to know what they want with our pack?”

“I know it started out because they just wanted to take control of your pack. They said you were too powerful and didn’t do anything to earn the power, but somehow, they met a girl from this pack who said your second chance mate was a rare wolf and now they want her and your pack. She wants you dead.”

“Well, she is right about one thing. My second chance mate is a rare wolf, but over my dead body, they will get my mate.”

Kane came back in with Emily and Trevor. They were curious as to what was going on, and I was about to let them know. I also think I should make the council aware. They are aware of Sophia, but I think they need to be aware of the threat that this pack is posing.

“Thank you, guys, for coming,” I told Emily and Trevor as I looked at them, but something on Trevor’s neck caught my eye. I knew he was my sister’s mate, but is that a hickey on his neck? I will kill him. He said he had a girlfriend.

“What the fuck is on your neck, Trevor?”

“I don’t think you want me to answer that.” He said with a smirk on his face.

“You are my sister’s mate and, from what I have been told, you have a girlfriend and only agreed to get to know Avery, and you show up here with a hickey on your fucking neck.”

“Look, I know how it looks, but your sister is amazing. I broke up with my girlfriend so that I could be faithful to Avery. I hadn’t been with my girlfriend very long. Besides, I would do anything for Avery. I think I love her.”

“OK, all I ask is that you love her and protect her.”

“With my life, sir.”

“OK, on to why I really wanted you here. We were talking with Miles and apparently, they have around 75 witches living within their pack, and they are also mating with each other and have created some hybrids. The Alpha has also made a witch his beta. We are hoping you can help us figure out who these witches are and how powerful they are.”

“Who is the witch they have named as their beta?” Emily asked.

“His name is Richard. I’ve met him a few times, and he is a quiet guy. He seems to always sit back and take everything in. He doesn’t do a lot.”

“Does this man have a shaved head and little beady eyes?”

“Yes, he is also short, barely five feet tall.”

“I can tell you that this man is a very powerful dark witch, and his intentions are not good. He is wanted by the witch’s council.”

“Wait, you have a witch’s council?” Kane asked.

“Yes, it’s very similar to yours. I really think that we may need to consult them. They are not going to be happy that we are working with you in the first place and even madder when they find out about them mating.”

“Do you think we could get a meeting with both them and our council?” I asked.

“Let me talk with them first. I am not sure how well this will go down. I will leave in the morning to gather them and talk with them. It will take me a little while to get this done. I have to go to each one in person and request a meeting and they will then talk and let me know when they will see me.”

“When can we expect you back?”

“Within two weeks’ time.”

“Thank you for all of your help. I know you are putting yourself at risk.”

“I have become fond of your pack and especially your mate. She is a powerful force, and I want to be around to see her in action.”

“OK, Miles, what else can you tell us about your old pack?”

“Well, they are ruthless and aren’t afraid to kill. I know they use magic like it’s going out of style. I wouldn’t underestimate anything about them.”

“Kane, I think we need to up our patrol leading up to the ceremony and I also think we need to up training and make training required for anyone from 17 and up. Trevor, are you willing to help with training? Teach anything you can about the witches?”

They both just nodded at me.

“Kane, I would like you to take night patrol tonight.”

“Are you trying to get rid of me?”

“Yes.”

“Well, at least you are honest about it.”

“I have to go. I have to give Sophia something.”

“What did you get her?”

“I am not telling you, it’s as much of a surprise for her as it is for you.”

He got up and left, and everyone else followed. I wanted to spend the evening alone with Sophia. I planned on worshipping every inch of her body. I left my office to go set things up for tonight. I was going to start with a candle-lit dinner and then her for dessert. I also had a gift for her.

Something I had been looking for since she told me the story about the necklace she got for her tenth birthday. I had the new Alpha in her old pack looking for it and he finally found it. I was going to give it back to her tonight.

I got everything ready and had the kitchen prepare a delicious dinner for us. I took a quick shower and dressed to impress. I had mink linked my mom to see if they were done and they were just hanging out, getting ready to go to dinner. I told her not to go down yet and I would be there for Sophia in a minute and not to tell her.

I went up and knocked on the door and waited for a come in before I opened the door.

“Well, my son sure cleans up nicely. What are you doing here?”

“I came to see if Sophia wanted to have dinner with me tonight?”

“Of course, I will have dinner with you,” she said as she walked over. Her eyes taking me in. When she got close, she leaned in and whispered, “can I have you for dinner?”

Her words were making me hard, and I knew that we wouldn't be eating first. I grabbed her hand and waved goodbye to everyone, and led her out of the room. I stopped her at our door and leaned down and gave her a kiss filled with so much love, I just hoped that she could feel it. I pulled away and opened the door, watching her face to see her reaction. The living space was filled with candles and flowers. The table had our dinner waiting on it. She had the biggest smile I had ever seen on her face.

“You did this for me?”

“Yes, you deserve this, and so much more. I want to give you the world, but for now, let's just start with this.” I said as I pulled the box out of my pocket.

“You didn't need to get me anything. You are enough. Don't waste your money on me.”

“I didn’t buy anything; I am just returning it to its rightful owner. I want you to wear what is in this box tonight and nothing else.”

She gave me a look that told me she was ready, and I could smell her arousal. She took the box from me and slowly opened it. Her eyes had unshed tears in them.

“How did you find this?”

“I had the Alpha from your old pack looking for it since you told us the story about it.”

She threw her arms around me with tears coming down her beautiful face. “Don’t cry beautiful.”

“These are happy tears. Will you please put it on me?”

She turned around and pulled her hair out of the way. I placed the necklace around her neck and clasped it together. She didn’t turn around but pulled her shirt up and reached around and undid her bra, letting it fall to the floor. I stepped back and just watched as she continued stripping for me. I was already hard, and this was making it worse. My pants were defiantly tight. She started to wiggle out of her pants and left her in her thong. She turned around and started to approach me, and that’s when I noticed her necklace was glowing. The eyes in it were glowing just like hers did.

“Sophia, your necklace is glowing.”

She looked down in confusion and then got a dazed look on her face. She must have been talking with Stella about the necklace.

“Stella says that it is because it has been returned to its rightful owner. It was made to protect us. Our parents knew what we were and had this made for us.”

“It is the most beautiful thing I’ve ever seen, and the most beautiful girl I’ve ever seen.”

She filled in the gap between us and started kissing my neck, hitting my marking spot, causing a shiver to run through me. I bent down and picked her up, and she wrapped her legs around me and continued to suck on my marking spot.

“Beautiful, do you trust me?”

“Of course, I trust you.”

“I want to try something and if it becomes too much, please tell me. The second you say stop, it will end, OK?”

“What do you want to tie me and have your way with me?”

“Yes, I want to tie your hands above your head and tie each leg to the foot of the bed so that you’re on full display for me. I want to run my hands up and down your beautiful legs and kiss every inch of your body before I dive into that wonderful pussy of yours. I want to feel you cum on my face before I shove my hard cock into your soaking wet pussy.”

She didn’t answer me, but with how she was grinding her wet pussy on me, I would say she was at least willing to try it. I walked her over to the bed and put her down and walked over to my nightstand and pulled out some rope and tied her hands up and attached it to the bed. I trailed my hand down her body, stopping to play with both of her nipples, causing her to let out a moan. I continued to trail my hands down and stopped at her thong. It was soaking wet. I pulled it down between her legs and flung it to the floor. I traced my hand down one leg and then tied it to the foot of the bed and then did the same with her other leg.

“Beautiful, the sight of you on this bed tied up and waiting for me is amazing. You look so sexy; I can see your arousal leaking from your pussy, and I can’t wait to lick it all up. Are you doing, OK?”

“Yes!” she said in a breathy voice. I could tell she was extremely turned on and I was going to push every one of her buttons tonight. I kissed one leg and came to her pussy and swiped my tongue across it and made my way down her other leg. I moved her body up and gave her breasts some attention as well. She was a moaning mess now, and her arousal was so strong that I could literally taste it in the air. I kissed my way down her body until I reached the top of her pussy. I looked up at her and her eyes were black with lust and need. I started at the top of her pussy and licked my way all the way down to her hole. She tried to arch her hips up, but it was hard to being tied down. I couldn't take it any longer and dove into her pussy like a starved man. I found her clit with my tongue and plunged a finger into her. She was moaning and trying to grind herself into me. I continued to lick her clit and started to thrust my finger into her harder.

“Xander, I'm going to cum. Please don't stop. Please.”

I inserted a second finger into her and started to suck harder on her clit. I was thrusting into her as hard as I could, and I could feel her getting ready to release as I could feel her walls contracting around me.

“Beautiful, give it to me. Let me see you cum on my face.”

“OOOOHHHH goddess, OOOHHH Xander.” She screamed as she squirted all over my face. I licked up every drop that she released and then kissed my way back up to her.

“Beautiful, that was the most amazing thing I've seen. You squirting all over my face has me ready to fuck you into next week.”

“Please fuck me, Xander. I need to feel you inside of me. I need to feel you stretching me and I want to cum around your hard cock.”

Chapter 59 - Sophia's Revenge

Kane's POV

Stupid Xander had made me do night patrol so that he could spend the night alone with Sophia. Asshole! I took a group of newer warriors with me so they could get the feel of things. They were so damn annoying, talking non-stop.

“Will you all shut up and focus? If your mind linking, you can't hear if anything is going on.”

I got a round of sorry betas and they stayed quiet after that. We were on our third lap of the night when I picked up a weird scent.

“Does anyone smell that?”

“Ya, it’s really sweet. What is it?” One of them asked.

“I’m not sure, but let’s be on high alert.” I linked back to them.

We continued on and I linked the rest of everyone out tonight to see if they had picked up anything and they hadn’t.

We never caught the scent again and didn’t find anyone, and our shift was about to end when someone literally appeared out of nowhere in front of us.

“I am here because we are looking for the emerald wolf and we know she is here. Hand her over and this will end now.” the mysterious person said.

I shifted back to human form and told my guys to stay as they were. They formed a V behind me so that it was easy to attack if need be.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about. You’ve made a mistake.”

“Oh, you dumb pup, I know she is here. You wear her mark and so does your stupid Alpha. You’ve been warned. She was never yours to begin with.”

Just like that, he was gone. I asked the guys to continue their rounds and to let me know if anything happened. I was going to talk to Xander.

I sent him a mind link telling him to meet me in his office, but got no reply. I’m sure he was still sleeping. I continued to link him all the way to our room. I didn’t want to wake Sophia. I didn’t want her to know yet.

I opened the door as quietly as I could and snuck into our room and found them sound asleep, tangled up together. Goddess, I wanted to crawl into that bed and go to sleep.

I walked over to Xander and shook him awake and sent him a mind link, so my voice didn't wake Sophia.

"We had a threat tonight about Sophia. We need to meet now."

He just nodded his head and slipped out from her, and I headed to his office.

He stormed in about ten minutes later and wasn't happy.

"What the fuck do you mean someone was in our territory and threatened Sophia?" Xander growled at me.

"My group had picked up a scent on the southwest border. It was sickly sweet. We couldn't find anyone. It was like this one area had it, but nowhere else. We made two laps in the area when suddenly someone just appeared out of thin air."

"What did they say?"

"That if we handed Sophia over, there would be no harm to anyone, but if we didn't, they would attack."

"Why do they want her?"

"They know she is an emerald wolf."

"How the fuck do they know that? Very few people know the truth."

"I don't know. I tried to deny that she was one, but he said that I was wearing an emerald wolf mark and so were you and that she never belonged to us, and they will be taking her."

"Like hell they will."

"I agree, but what are we going to do? We don't even know who they are."

"I'm going to call a meeting with my dad, mom, Trevor, and Clark. Sophia's safety is top priority."

“Agreed, but don’t you think we should tell her?”

“No!”

“I think we should. You’ve kept secrets before and look how it turned out.”

“I know, but I’m afraid she will turn herself over if she knows.”

“Fine, but she doesn’t leave either your side or mine ne exceptions.”

“Let’s go get an early breakfast and then call everyone to the office.”

We made it to breakfast and since it was early; we were the first ones there. No complaints from me. All the hot food we wanted. I loaded up two huge plates and went and sat down to eat. Xander was right behind me. We were just eating and not talking when Clarissa’s stupid friends came in. They fixed their plates and came to sit with us.

“Meg, why are you here?” I asked.

“What, I can’t sit by you now?”

“No, this is the ranked members’ table,” Xander said.

“Well, I thought since you both share a mate, maybe you want to share yourself with others. I mean, seriously, she can’t be that good that both of you are satisfied.”

Xander jumped up and grabbed her across the table. “Don’t fucking talk about our mate. You have no right.”

He released her, and she was rubbing her red neck.

“Clarissa was right. She is a whore. Who sleeps with two guys at the same time? Oh, that’s right, our so-called Luna. What you did to Clarissa should be a disgrace. You two and your filthy whore have no right to lead a pack.”

She didn't know yet, but her life was over. She crossed a line. This time, I grabbed her by the neck and dragged her to the cells and threw her in one.

"You can't do this to me!" she yelled.

"Oh, that's where you're wrong. Disrespect for your Luna and Alpha has severe consequences and I'll be back later to let you know what those are."

I turned and left while she started crying. I went back to the dining room and sat down to eat. By this time, the dining room was filling up. I just wanted to finish eating so I could go snuggle with my mate.

"What time do you want to meet at?"

"Ten."

"Good, I'm going to go to sleep for a few hours."

I left the dining room and headed to our bedroom. I jumped into the shower and started washing. I didn't want to be there long. I was exhausted and wanted to wrap my arms around my beautiful mate. I was just washing the last of the soap off me when I felt some hands wrap around me from behind.

"Why are you awake, baby girl?"

"Did you know that you sing really loudly in the shower?"

"Ya, I thought you would want a concert by yours, truly."

"I've got a better idea," she said as she slid her hands down my abs to my quickly hardening dick.

"Baby girl, you're playing with fire. If you keep doing that, then I will pin you to the wall and make you scream my name."

She didn't reply, but continued to stroke me. I just let her do her thing for a minute because I needed to have control. I grabbed her hands and brought them up and kissed both of them before I spun her around and pushed her against the wall. I leaned down and slammed my lips to her and kissed her. I let my hands travel down her body, stopping at her breast to tease her nipples.

After I was satisfied that they had had enough attention, I continued moving my hands down until I reached her pussy. It was already wet, and all I had done was run my fingers along her lips and I could feel it.

“Baby girl, your pussy is already so wet for me. I think I had better taste it.”

I lowered to my knees and spread her legs open for me. I ran my finger along the inside of her pussy, causing her to let a low moan. I pulled her lips apart and did the same with my tongue. This time, she threw her head back against the wall and let out a louder moan.

I dove my tongue right into her hole and lapped up all the juices I could before I moved up to her clit. I started to suck on it as I thrust a finger into her.

“Oh Goddess, you do that so good. Please don’t stop,” she said as she grabbed my hair to hold me in place. She started to rock her hips as she dragged her pussy across my face. It was like heaven to me. Watching her take her pleasure and do what she wanted.

She screamed out my name as she came all over me. I continued to lick up as much of her as I could. She was breathing hard, and her legs were a little wobbly, so I stood up and picked her up as she wrapped her legs around my waist.

I leaned in and gave her a kiss. “Baby girl, can you taste yourself on me? It’s my favorite flavor.”

“Kane, fuck me now.” She said in a breathy voice.

She needed to say no more, but this would continue outside of the shower. I walked with her wrapped around me out to the living room. We were soaking wet, but I could care less.

I got to the couch and bent her over the arm of the couch. I ran my dick up her slit, soaking it in her juices. I lined myself up at her entrance and was about to slam into her when the door opened and Xander walked in.

“Well, I see you never made it to bed.”

“Sorry she got in the shower with me and, well, you know.”

He walked to where Sophia and I were and he ran his hand down her back, stopping at her asshole.

“You know, beautiful, you are the sexiest thing I’ve seen. I wonder how you would look with both of us shoved inside of you.”

As he said that, he was playing with her asshole. This had brought a whole new type of moaning out of her. He reached down and coated his fingers in her juices for lube and started to thrust them into her. I had been teasing her entrance with the head of my dick and she was getting wetter and wetter the more I ran my dick through her pussy lips. She kept wiggling her ass, trying to get more of me in her.

“Please, someone fuck me. I can’t take it anymore.”

I slammed into her at that point. Xander had managed to get two fingers into her. I could feel her getting close, so I pulled completely out of her and let Xander step behind her.

She looked up at us with hate in her eyes. We had ruined her orgasm.

“I think we need to move to the bed and have more space.” I said.

Xander picked her up, and her pussy was grinding against him. “I think someone is mad at us. What do you think, Xander?”

“I agree, but good things happen to those who wait beautiful.”

She just growled at us. Xander threw her on the bed and pushed her legs open and dived headfirst into her pussy. I knew he was getting her ready for both of us to be in her.

She reached over and started stroking me, and I wanted more. I needed more. I straddled her and let her wrap her lips around me.

“Goddess Sophia, your lips are amazing. Do you like the taste of yourself on my dick?”

I didn’t expect much of an answer, but did get a moan. She released my dick because Xander had stopped doing what he was doing and didn’t let her cum again.

I laid down on the bed and she crawled over to me, and she sank down completely, taking my dick all the way in her in one movement. Xander came up behind her and pushed her forward, and slowly entered her asshole.

“Oh goddess, your big dicks stretch me completely. I’m going to cum.” She cried out.

We both started moving in sync with each other. Sophia let out a loud scream as her entire body shook with her orgasm. She was so close it didn’t take much. I was right behind her, but Xander wasn’t done yet. He pulled out of her and laid her down.

“Beautiful, come sit your ass on my cock.” She climbed up on him with my cum spilling out of her. She slowly lowered herself onto him. I wasn’t done with her yet. I was going to get one more orgasm from her.

“Baby girl, do you like it when your tight asshole gets fucked?”

“Mmhhmm.” was all she could get out.

I was playing with her nipples, making them hard and kissing her neck.

“Baby girl, do you want to cum again?”

“Mmhhmm.”

I reached down between her and Xander and started to apply pressure to her clit. This had her moving her hips fast. Xander threw her off and moved between her legs, and slammed right back into her. He grabbed her legs and held them up and spread them open.

“Baby girl, your pussy is leaking my cum. It’s turning me on again.” She reached over and pulled me closer and started to suck on me as I started to play with her clit again.

I can see Xander is as close as she is. She started to moan, and it vibrated my dick in her mouth and it was all I needed to go over the edge again. We all released at the same time together.

We laid there, catching our breath. I pulled Sophia closer to me and pulled the blankets over us.

“Beautiful, I came up here to tell you something.”

“What’s that?” She said, sounding sleepy.

“We had someone breach our borders last night and threaten you. You need to stay with Kane or myself at all times.”

“Who was it?”

“We don’t know. We are going to meet with everyone at ten.”

“OK, thank you for telling me. I want to be there.”

Chapter 60 - Sophia's Revenge

Sophia’s POV

I quickly fell asleep after our little sexcapade. Kane had wrapped his arms around me, and he quickly fell asleep, too. Xander had to go to his office before our meeting. When I woke up, Kane was in the shower, so I got up and got in with him.

I missed training today, and I hated it. I didn’t want to miss any sessions. I needed to get stronger.

“Stella, we can’t miss training again.” I linked with my wolf.

“I’m not the one who needs it. You are.”

“Thanks for the vote of confidence.”

“Welcome!” she said, laughing.

I stepped into the shower with Kane. He was, of course, singing loudly. I didn’t know any of the songs he sang, but it was always country. I swear if this man wasn’t a werewolf, he would be a cowboy. Although he would look good in a pair of tight pants, I thought.

“Hey baby girl, did I wake you again?” He asked me.

“No, I just woke up and heard you in here and I need to wash from earlier and so I thought I would join you.”

He leaned in and gave me a kiss full of lust. He wrapped his arms around my waist and pulled me closer. I ran my hands up his chest and pushed him back.

“We don’t have time. We have that meeting soon.” I told him.

“You’re no fun. We could be late.” He said as he trailed kissed down my neck to his mark. I could stop it and let out a moan.

“See baby girl, let’s be late and I can make you moan some more.”

“No, let’s get washed and get out. I want to know more about who is after me.”

“Fine.” He said and let out a big sigh.

He grabbed my soap and put some in his hand, and started to wash my body. He took extra care of certain spots on my body. He then grabbed my shampoo and washed my hair and put conditioner in it.

“I can wash myself, you know.” I told him after he was done.

“I know, but I like taking care of you.”

“Well, let me take care of you now.”

He just smiled at me as I grabbed his soap and washed his body. I washed his hair next. Once he was all clean, I stepped out of the shower and wrapped a towel around my body and wrapped my hair up in one. Then headed to the bedroom.

When I got into the bedroom, I was hit with the most sickening sweet smell. I headed to our closet, and that is when I noticed the envelope on our bed with my name on it. I walked over and picked it up and the smell got worse.

I grabbed the envelope and headed back into the bathroom to see if Kane knew what was going on. When I got into the bathroom, he was just drying off.

“Kane, did someone come into our room while we were in the shower?” I asked him.

“No baby girl, why do you ask?”

“Because it smells weird in the bedroom, and I found this envelope on our bed.”

His eyes got huge, and he ran out into our bedroom and started smelling.

“Damn it, how are they doing this!” He yelled out.

“What are you talking about?” I asked him.

“It’s a witch, probably the same one from last night. Have you read the note?”

“No, not yet.”

“Well, open it up and let’s see what it says.”

Sophia,

I see our first attempt to get rid of you failed. Our original plan to kill you have been changed. We learned what you are. We've been working with someone that you belong to. You can either turn yourself over to us or we will take you and give you to him. If we have to take you, there will be bloodshed. Wouldn't want anything to happen to your other mate, would you?

Remember, Xander doesn't belong to you, and we will take him away from you. We will take our rightful place beside him. You don't deserve him.

Meet us at the lake at midnight on Friday.

XOXO

I don't know who was writing me these letters, but I needed to find out. I wasn't going to let anything happen to either one of them.

"Are you ok?" Kane asked me.

"I'm fine. I am just tired of this and am ready to truly be free and not having some physco after me."

"I know, baby girl, and we are going to get them; I promise."

"I know you won't."

"Let's get dressed and take this down to Xander and everyone else at the meeting."

I nodded my head and went to the closet, with Kane following me. We both quickly got dressed. I went back to the bathroom and brushed my hair and teeth and went back out and slipped some shoes on. I was dressed for comfort today with some leggings and a t-shirt.

Kane took my hand and we headed downstairs to Xander's office. When we got there, he was the only one in there. We were a little early still.

"You two are early."

Kane walked over and threw the letter down on his desk so he could look at it.

“What is this?” He asked.

“Sophia and I got in the shower and when she got out, someone had been in the room and left this on our bed.”

He opened it up and you could see that he was instantly pissed.

“Nobody will touch you.” Growled Xander.

“It had to have been the same witch as last night. Our room reeked of the same scent.” Kane said.

“How did you not notice someone in our room?” He growled out.

“We were in the shower together and all I could smell was Sophia until we went out into our room.”

Someone started knocking on the office door and Xander yelled at them to come in.

“Hello everyone.” Luna Caroline said as she walked in with Alpha Ty and Trevor and Emily.

“Son, have you guys found something new?”

“Yes, let’s sit at the table and Kane can explain what happened last night.”

We all walked over to the table, and I went to sit in my own chair, but Xander pulled me onto his lap and wrapped his arms around my waist and buried his head in my neck, inhaling my scent. I could feel him calm down some.

“To put it short, we ran into a witch last night who said to either hand over Sophia or they will forcefully take her and then this morning when Sophia and were in the shower together another witch was in the room and left this letter for her.”

I was turning red from him mentioning that we were in the shower together.

Everyone took turns reading the letter and after Luna Caroline finished reading it, she slammed her hands down on the table and stood up.

“Nobody will hurt a hair on your head Sophia!” Luna Caroline announced to all of us.

“Mom, calm down. We all agree.” Xander said with a smile on his face about his mom’s protectiveness over her.

“Any thoughts on who is behind this son?” Asked Alpha Ty.

“We know that Jules and her pack are behind this, but from the letter you got, I am guessing someone else is behind them and that we may possibly have two packs working together against us. Why don’t we sit down, and we can all discuss this and come up with a plan?” Xander said.

“Anyone got any ideas?” Xander asked.

“What if we just attacked them? We know where they will be.” Luna Caroline asked.

“I don’t know if that will work. They have witches with them. They will just disappear.” Trevor explained.

“Why don’t we just ignore them,” Alpha Ty said.

“No, they want me, and I will not let the pack put themselves in danger because of me. I will go meet them.” I said.

“Absolutely not,” Growled Xander and Kane.

“Shut it and listen to me. If they have witches helping, why can’t we? We have Trevor here.”

“Baby girl, I don’t want you out there at all. It’s not happening.”

“It is. You can all be with me; Trevor can put a masking spell on you so they can’t see you and you can surround me. I don’t know what other spells he could use, but maybe we should try.”

“I can defiantly help. I can do the masking spell for everyone that is there. I can also do a rooted spell on Sophia.”

“What is a rooted spell?” Alpha Ty asked, but we were all wondering.

“That is where Sophia will be rooted to wherever she is at. She won’t be able to move from her spot and nobody will be able to move her. I can give her about a four-foot circle around her that she can’t leave.” Trevor said.

“Let’s do it. Can we please practice beforehand?” I asked excitedly.

“Of course, we can go do it now.”

We all got up and went outside to see how this would work. My boys both came up to me, one on each side. They both grabbed my hand as we left the room.

“Beautiful, I don’t like this.” Xander said.

“You don’t have to like this. I am not putting anyone else at risk.”

Once outside, Trevor stepped up to us and explained the spell he would use.

“I will place the spell on you, and you won’t even know I’ve done it. We need to figure out a way to let you know it’s been done. Once it’s in place, you will not be able to move out of that area until I release you. If you’re ready, I will put one up now.”

I just nodded at him. He stepped up to me and started to speak in another language, and moved his hands around. He did this for a full 30 seconds and then looked up and said, “Ok walk over to that tree.”

I took about two steps before I hit an invisible force and couldn’t go any further.

“Someone try to go to her and see if you can get her out.” Trevor said.

Kane stepped up and grabbed my hand and tried to walk me out and he could keep walking, but again I hit the same invisible force and couldn't go further.

“See, this can work, but let me make sure Stella and I can use our powers.”

I closed my eyes and called Stella forward. I knew when I opened them; they were glowing. We focused on growing the surrounding grass. It shot up about a foot high.

“Girl, we can always use our powers. I'm not worried.” Stella mind linked me.

“I think this might work. Maybe we can work on this again tomorrow. Then it's Friday.” I said excitedly.

“Kane, we need to meet with Luke and the head warriors. We need to take some precautions here. I don't want to leave the house unguarded.”

We all went our separate ways. I told the boys I needed to talk with Avery about something. They both had to walk me to her room. I kissed them both goodbye and told them to go have their meeting and I would see them for dinner.

“Avery, I need a favor.”

“Anything girl, what's up?”

“I want to get a tattoo and I don't want anyone to know. Also, they are going to have to come here and hide from the boys. I want to surprise them on our ceremony day.”

“Yes! We have someone in the pack who does them. He is great and I can sneak him into my room, but we're going to have to clue my mom in so she can help us. Maybe I will get one too!”

“Please do! We can do this together!”
