

Sacred King 2481

Chapter 2481

Yang Ruoxu frowned and said in a low voice, "Senior Brother Xiao, betraying your sect and joining the Demon Region is a serious crime. You can't say such things!" "Since I dare to say it, I naturally have absolute confidence!" Xiao Li sneered and stared at Su Zimo. He shouted, "Su Zimo, tell us, where did the child beside you come from!" "What are you trying to say?" Su Zimo asked expressionlessly. Seeing Su Zimo's reaction, Xiao Li was relieved and said, "It doesn't matter if you don't say it. I'll tell everyone! The child beside you is the child beside Araki Takeshi, the Patriarch of the Heaven Barren Sect of the Demon Region!" Su Zimo did not move. At that time, Lang Feng City was in chaos. Many Perfected Immortals were running for their lives under the pursuit of Wu Dao's true body. No one could have seen him return with Momo. Xiao Li's words did not cause much of a reaction in the crowd. Most of the academy disciples were at a loss. How did this child called Momo have anything to do with Araki Takeshi of the Demon Region? Seeing that no one had any reaction, Xiao Li hurriedly explained, "Back then, during the battle of Lang Feng City in the Jade Heaven Immortal Region, it was because the child beside Araki Takeshi was captured. At that time, Su Zimo also happened to be in Lang Feng City." Before that, Su Zimo had never had a servant by his side. But after he returned, there was an additional child by his side! "So, this Momo is the child beside Araki Takeshi of the Demon Region!" Many academy disciples rolled their eyes and did not think much of it. Everyone thought that Xiao Li was so confident because he had some strong evidence. They did not expect that he would forcefully combine these two matters and come up with a conclusion full of loopholes and nonsense. An academy disciple whispered, "The reason why Desolate Martial of the Fiend Region started a massacre in Lang Feng City was to save his Dao child. In the end, he left in a carefree manner after causing a huge ruckus and left his Dao child there?" "Maybe Araki Takeshi's memory is not good and he forgot to save his child. Senior Brother Su just happened to take advantage of the loophole ..." Another person said. "Pfft!" The cultivators beside him couldn't help but laugh when they heard this. One of the academy disciples pursed his lips and said, "If this Momo is really Araki Takeshi's child, why did Araki Takeshi not do anything after so many years?"

Another person also said, "With Araki Takeshi's character, if he knew about this, wouldn't he be like a mad dog and kill his way to our Divine Firmament Celestial Realm?" "Most importantly, if she is Araki Takeshi's child, why would this Momo be willing to follow Senior Brother Su? Could it be that she was influenced by Senior Brother Su?" "Pfft!" Someone could not help but laugh out loud. The cultivators beside them also tried their best to hold back their laughter until their faces turned red. In their eyes, Xiao Li's speculation was simply a joke. Su Zimo smiled but did not say anything. Seeing the reaction of the academy disciples, Xiao Li was a little flustered and embarrassed. He also knew that this matter was full of loopholes. But since he had already decided to target Su Zimo, he could only bite the bullet and continue. "Everyone, I'm not done yet." After such a tragic battle in Lang Feng City, it is very strange that Su Zimo could come back alive! "In fact, most of the people who died in Lang Feng City were Perfected Immortals. There were almost no casualties among the innocent people. Xiao Li did not wait for everyone to react and hurriedly continued. "There is only one possibility! Su Zimo has already submitted to Araki Takeshi and become a chess piece that Araki Takeshi buried in our academy!" So, Su Zimo can bring Araki Takeshi's child back. "This time, before the academy disciples could speak, Elder Chen could not bear to listen anymore. Elder Chen coughed lightly and said, "Xiao Li, do you have any evidence? If not, I think everyone should..." In Elder Chen's opinion, Xiao Li's speculation was simply too far-fetched. Xiao Li was stumped by Elder Chen's question and was helpless. He subconsciously looked at the Moonlight Sword Immortal beside him. "Isn't it easy to get evidence?" The Moonlight Sword Immortal's lips curled slightly. Her gaze swept past Momo, and a trace of cruelty appeared in the depths of her eyes. Without warning, she moved! "Hmm?" Su Zimo's expression changed. The Moonlight Sword Immortal's attack this time was not targeted at him, so his spirit perception did not react at all. Too fast! The Moonlight Sword Immortal's target was Momo! For a top-tier Perfected Immortal like the Moonlight Sword Immortal to attack a Heaven Immortal, Su Zimo could not react at all without the help of his spirit perception.

He hurriedly pulled Momo, wanting to dodge to the side. Unfortunately, he was still one step too late. Buzz! The Moonlight Sword Immortal came to Momo's side and reached out to grab Momo. However, at this moment, something strange happened. The token at Momo's waist suddenly released a strange brilliance, protecting Momo. The Moonlight Sword Immortal felt a piercing pain in her palm. She could not touch Momo! With a slight delay, Su Zimo took the opportunity to pull Momo back, seeking death. At the same time, Yang Ruoxu also descended, holding the Haoran Sword. His righteous aura was awe-inspiring, and his gaze was like a sword, blocking the Moonlight Sword Immortal in front of him! The Moonlight Sword Immortal frowned slightly. She actually failed? The light emitted by this Dao child just now could actually block the power of a Perfected Immortal! Crack crack crack! At this moment, cracks appeared on the token at Momo's waist, and the light dimmed. Although this token blocked the Moonlight Sword Immortal's attack, it could not withstand the Moonlight Sword Immortal's power and was thus destroyed. "Moonlight, what are you doing!" Yang Ruoxu questioned loudly. "Nothing." The Moonlight Sword Immortal's expression was indifferent. She waved her hand and said casually, "Since everyone wants evidence, I'm just going to imitate Su Zimo and search this Dao child's soul." "You want to search an innocent person's soul based on your wild guess?" Yang Ruoxu glared angrily. "Scram!" The Moonlight Sword Immortal's expression turned cold. "As the head of the true disciples, how dare you stop me from searching a Dao child's soul!" Yang Ruoxu did not back down. He asked, "If there's no evidence after the soul search, what will you do?" "If there's no evidence, then there's no evidence. Naturally, I guessed wrong." The Moonlight Sword Immortal sneered. "What? Do you want me to pay with my life for a lowly and lowly Dao child? Not to mention that I'm just searching his soul, even if I kill him directly, the Enforcement Elder won't say anything! "As the head of the true disciples, the Moonlight Sword Immortal's power and status far exceeded others. Indeed, no one would care if she punished a servant Dao child.

In the blink of an eye, the situation had developed to this stage. The two great true disciples were confronting each other with swords drawn! "Taotao, where are you?" At this moment, a voice called out from afar. The voice was pleasant and gentle, with a hint of anxiety and worry. Everyone looked toward the voice. In the distance, a plain-clothed woman was walking through the air. Many cultivators only took a glance from afar and felt their eyes light up. They could not take their eyes off her and were stunned.

Chapter 2482

This woman was very unfamiliar. She was dressed in plain clothes, but she seemed to have the spirit of heaven and earth. She exuded an elegant and noble aura. A gentle breeze blew past, and the woman's clothes fluttered, revealing her slender and graceful figure. It made one's heart race. There were many female cultivators in the academy, but compared to this plain-clothed woman, they were instantly at a disadvantage. Even Yan Bingying, who was known as the number one beauty in the inner sect, paled in comparison to this woman. "There's such a woman in the Divine Firmament Immortal Realm?" "I'm afraid only Senior Sister Mo Qing from the place of true inheritance can be compared to her." Many academy disciples sighed with emotion when they saw this plain-clothed woman. Someone sighed. "It's said that the four fairies are peerless beauties, but other than Senior Sister Mo Qing, we've never seen the other three." "But I think those three fairies have to be at least comparable to this Fellow Daoist to be worthy of their reputations." While everyone was sighing, this woman seemed to have noticed the crowd and walked over. Although there were many academy disciples present, there were not many who could recognize this woman. The Moonlight Sword Immortal was one of them. "Book Immortal Yun Zhu?" The Moonlight Sword Immortal frowned slightly and murmured, "What is she doing here?" "Senior Brother Moonlight, what did you just say?" Xiao Li's heart trembled, and he unconsciously raised his voice. He hurriedly asked, "Book Immortal? One of the four fairies, the Book Immortal?" Not many people had heard what the Moonlight Sword Immortal had said, but everyone in the academy had heard Xiao Li's shout clearly! The crowd instantly exploded, setting off a huge wave of noise! This plain-clothed woman was one of the four fairies, the Book Immortal! What kind of people were the four fairies? Many academy disciples, including the Painting Immortal Mo Qing, had never seen her before, let alone the other three fairies. They did not expect to see another one of the four fairies today, the Book Immortal Yun Zhu! The Moonlight Sword Immortal ignored Xiao Li. Instead, she revealed a smile and walked towards Yunzhu. She cupped her hands and said, "So it is Fairy Yunzhu who has graced us with her presence. Why didn't you inform me in advance so that I could welcome her personally?" Out of all the Academy disciples present, the only one who could speak to Book Immortal Yun Zhu was probably the Moonlight Sword Immortal.

For example, although Yang Ruoxu and Xiao Li were also True Immortals, their fame was too small, and their combat strength could not be ranked among the True Immortals. Moreover, the two of them had never met Book Fairy Yun Zhu before, so they did not know each other at all. Yunzhu did not exchange pleasantries with the Moonlight Sword Immortal. She seemed a little anxious and went straight to the point. "Daoist Moonlight, have you seen Taotao?" "Taotao ..." The corners of the Moonlight Sword Immortal's eyes twitched as she listened. She had a nagging feeling that something was off. However, he could not react in time. He said in a low voice, "Fairy Yunzhu, don't be anxious. Who is this Taotao you're talking about? What does she look like?" Yunzhu said, "He's my Daoist child, about eight or nine years old. His name is Momo." The smile on the Moonlight Sword Immortal's face froze. Her mind buzzed and she became confused. Yunzhu's Taoist child, Taotao, was Momo? This is ... a coincidence, right? The crowd in the square gradually quietened down. Countless gazes turned and landed on the fair-skinned child beside Su Zimo. "Princess, I, I'm here." Momo called out timidly. Although her voice was weak, Yunzhu heard it clearly. She hurriedly turned around and saw that Momo was safe and sound. Only then did she heave a sigh of relief and smile. The Moonlight Sword Immortal looked embarrassed. She coughed softly and said, "Fairy Yunzhu, I think there might be some misunderstanding here ..." When Yunzhu saw Momo, she was overjoyed. As if she did not hear what the Moonlight Sword Immortal said, she moved and appeared beside Momo. "Who bullied you?" Yunzhu asked with a frown. Her gaze landed on Momo's waist token that was already broken. Her face darkened and she said coldly, "Who broke the waist token I gave you?" Everyone present could feel the anger in Book Immortal Yunzhu's heart. Moreover, everyone could see that this child called Momo was obviously someone by Book Immortal Yunzhu's side. She had nothing to do with Araki Takeshi of the Demon Domain at all! Many disciples of the Academy snickered secretly and revealed gloating expressions. Everyone looked at the Moonlight Sword Immortal with a trace of pity in their eyes. They were waiting to see how he would deal with this. Hearing Yunzhu's question, Momo pouted. She blinked her big, watery eyes and stretched out her small hand to point at the Moonlight Sword Immortal. "It's him!"

Yunzhu's eyes narrowed. "I'm not, I didn't ..." The Moonlight Sword Immortal hurriedly explained, "Fairy Yunzhu, I really don't know. He's your child. It's all a misunderstanding." Yunzhu took the token from Momo's waist and injected her inner core. Although the token was broken, the word 'Zhu' faintly appeared on it. "Misunderstanding? Look carefully, this is my personal waist token!" Yunzhu said coldly, "If Momo isn't my child, whose child is he?" "Princess." Momo had an aggrieved expression. She shook Yunzhu's arm gently and said with tears in her eyes, "That person just now said that I'm Araki Takeshi's child. He even said that I'm from the Demon Domain and called me lowly ..." "Momo, don't cry. Be good," Yunzhu hurriedly squatted down and cupped Momo's tender cheeks with both hands, comforting her gently. Momo was not tainted by karma or blood. Her aura was pure and anyone who saw her would unconsciously have a good impression of her. Furthermore, she looked obedient and innocent. Her aggrieved expression instantly aroused the sympathy of many cultivators. Everyone did not think much of the Moonlight Sword Immortal's accusation of Momo. After Yunzhu's appearance, everyone's judgment was confirmed. When they saw Momo's pitiful appearance, everyone felt their hearts ache for her. Even Elder Chen shook his head gently and sighed with a pained expression. "Sigh, such a good child is being bullied to this extent. She must have suffered a great grievance!" Princess Chi Hong and Liu Ping stood at the side, their eyes wide open as they stared in bewilderment. Although the two of them did not know Momo's true background, they knew that Momo was not Yunzhu's child. But now, the two of them almost believed the act of the adult and the child! "She has turned evil, she has turned evil!" Liu Ping looked at Momo as though he was meeting her for the first time and muttered softly. Su Zimo was also dumbfounded. When he saw Yunzhu appear, he instantly understood her intentions. Therefore, he was relieved and did not say anything, allowing Yunzhu to handle the matter. However, he did not expect that Yunzhu and Momo would do such a thing. Yunzhu had a carefree nature and liked to play occasionally. Momo was such an obedient child, but she actually joined in the act and cooperated quite well. Yunzhu stood up and looked at the Moonlight Sword Immortal with a cold gaze. "Moonlight, tell me. When did my child become Araki Takeshi's subordinate and when did she join the Demon Territory?"

"I ..." The Moonlight Sword Immortal was stumped by the question and looked embarrassed. Anxious, she broke out in a sweat.

Chapter 2483

Even in her wildest dreams, the Moonlight Sword Immortal would never have imagined that such a huge misunderstanding would occur in such a foolproof situation! If the other party was anyone else, he would not have bothered to explain. However, this was one of the four fairies, the Book Immortal, and the princess of the Zixuan Immortal Kingdom! More importantly, he was indeed in the wrong. If news of this got out, his reputation would be tarnished. Seeing the Moonlight Sword Immortal's ugly expression, Xiao Li hurriedly stepped forward to smooth things over. "It's mainly because I saw this Momo by Su Zimo's side. That's why there was such a misunderstanding." "Fairy Yunzhu, may I ask why your child is in our Qiankun Academy?" Xiao Li was still a little confused. "I heard that Su Zimo of your academy obtained a mutated immortal peach tree, so I asked Taotao to come to his side to cultivate with the help of this mutated immortal sapling. Is there a problem?"Yunzhu's expression was indifferent. She had already prepared an excuse."No, no problem."Xiao Li smiled awkwardly.Yun Zhu surveyed her surroundings and sneered, "I don't understand. The Dao child by my side is merely a low-level Heavenly Immortal who has never made enemies with anyone. Why would Heaven and Earth Academy mobilize so many people and even invite a Perfected Immortal to take action?"The Moonlight Sword Immortal's heart sank.If news of this got out that the Qiankun Academy bullied the child of the Book Immortal, Yunzhu, it would attract countless criticisms.The Moonlight Sword Immortal said in a low voice, "This has nothing to do with the academy ...""Oh?"Yunzhu did not wait for the Moonlight Sword Immortal to finish and interrupted. "So, this was your idea?"The Moonlight Sword Immortal's expression was ugly.After a moment of silence, he suddenly turned around and raised his palm. With a loud smack, he gave Xiao Li a huge slap!"Xiao Li, how many times have I told you that we must trust each other in the same sect?"The Moonlight Sword Immortal shouted, "Don't talk nonsense without evidence!"This slap came without any warning. Xiao Li was completely unprepared and was hit squarely on the face.The Moonlight Sword Immortal stared at Xiao Li and said coldly, "You'll have to deal with the mistake you made and the joke you made!"Xiao Li's heart was burning with rage, and his lungs were about to explode.This matter had been the Moonlight Sword Immortal's idea from the beginning to the end. Now, she was pushing the blame onto him and making him the scapegoat!

Furthermore, it was clearly the Moonlight Sword Immortal who attacked that Daoist child. What did it have to do with him?However, when Xiao Li saw the Moonlight Sword Immortal's cold and warning gaze, he felt a chill in his heart and his anger was quickly extinguished.Xiao Li lowered his head and came before Yun Zhu. He bowed and said, "Fellow Daoist Yun Zhu, I'm sorry. It was my fault this time. Please forgive me."Yunzhu sneered. She knew when to stop and did not pursue the matter.After all, this was the Heaven and Earth Academy. She couldn't appear too domineering and had to know her limits.If he didn't back down and was overbearing, it might backfire instead.At this moment, a crack suddenly appeared in midair.An old man appeared. His face was pale, and his gaze was gloomy. His entire body was emitting an aura that made people tremble in fear!Tearing through the void, this was a Celestial King level expert!The Second Elder of the Academy was in charge of law enforcement and was the most ruthless."Greetings, Second Elder."When the Moonlight Sword Immortal and many other Academy disciples saw him, they bowed and greeted him.Yunzhu's expression turned serious. She faced the Second Elder of the Academy and cupped her fists. "Greetings, Senior."The Second Elder of the Academy nodded slightly. His gaze shifted and landed on Xiao Li, the Moonlight Sword Immortal, and the rest. He said coldly, "The Patriarch already knows about today's matter. He instructed me to say a few words."First, Fang Qingyun colluded with outsiders and harmed his fellow disciples. Even death can't wipe out his crimes!"Second, Xiao Li slandered his fellow disciples. Within 10,000 years, he is not allowed to receive any cultivation resources from the Academy. He is not allowed to browse the Academy's cultivation techniques and secret techniques. He is not allowed to take half a step out of the Academy!"Xiao Li didn't dare to have any doubts. He just lowered his head and obeyed."Third, Moonlight Sword Immortal, go into seclusion and reflect. She is not allowed to come out before the Divine Firmament Immortal Meeting!"Upon hearing this, many Academy disciples sighed. Their gazes towards the Moonlight Sword Immortal became somewhat complicated.The Patriarch of the Academy's words could be considered to have determined today's matter.Not only was Fang Qingyun dead, but his reputation was also ruined!

No one was surprised that the Academy dealt with Xiao Li. However, no one expected that the Moonlight Sword Immortal, as the true disciple of the Patriarch of the Academy and the number one Perfected Immortal of the Academy, would also be punished. Although it wasn't serious, it disgraced the Moonlight Sword Immortal in front of everyone. The Moonlight Sword Immortal glanced at Su Zimo expressionlessly. Without a word, she turned and left. There were too many emotions contained in his gaze. There was resentment, threats, warnings, and murderous intent! Su Zimo knew clearly that the Moonlight Sword Immortal would definitely not let this matter rest after suffering such a huge setback! If she found an opportunity, the Moonlight Sword Immortal would definitely make things difficult for him again! However, Su Zimo was fearless. His current strength was indeed inferior to the Moonlight Sword Immortal. However, as long as he was given time and space to grow, with his cultivation speed, he would soon surpass the Moonlight Sword Immortal! Moreover, even if the Moonlight Sword Immortal didn't find him, he would seek revenge on her! Back then on the Dragon Abyss Planet, he almost died in the hands of the Moonlight Sword Immortal. He had never forgotten this matter! The Second Elder of the Academy surveyed the surroundings and looked at the surrounding Academy disciples. He said in a low voice, "Today's matter, especially regarding Fang Qingyun, no one is allowed to spread it!" "Dirty linen should not be aired in public. That's how it should be," Elder Chen hurriedly echoed. Fang Qingyun was originally the number one in the Academy's inner sect and was predicted to be number 10 on the Heaven Roll. In the end, he colluded with outsiders and harmed his fellow disciples. This could be considered the biggest scandal of the Academy in recent years. If this matter were to spread, it would indeed have a significant impact on the Academy's reputation. Yunzhu's lips curled slightly. She disapproved of the Second Elder of the Academy's thoughts. With so many witnesses, it was impossible to hide this matter. As time passed, all sorts of rumors would naturally spread. The Second Elder of the Academy looked at Su Zimo, and his expression softened slightly. "Su Zimo, settle the matters here and then head to the Universal Palace. The Patriarch wants to see you." "The Patriarch wants to see me?" Su Zimo was a little surprised and asked, "Second Elder, may I ask why the Patriarch wants to see me?" "I'm not sure. You can ask at the Universal Palace yourself."

The Second Elder of the Academy said and turned to leave. "I'm leaving too." Yunzhu glanced at Su Zimo and held Momo's hand as she said in a seemingly casual manner. "Take care, Princess Yunzhu. I'll send you off." Su Zimo stepped forward and sped off into the distance with Yunzhu and Momo. Before long, they disappeared from everyone's sight. An Academy disciple looked at Su Zimo's back view and lamented, "Fang Qingyun prides himself on being unparalleled in scheming and strategizing. But compared to Senior Brother Su's methods, he's still a far cry." "That's right. Senior Brother Su is the one who can do whatever he wants with a flip of his hand!" "He killed the number one inner sect disciple and disgraced the Moonlight Sword Immortal. Yet, he was able to escape unscathed. Such methods are truly admirable." "I wonder what his relationship is with the Book Immortal, Yunzhu." As Su Zimo and the others left, the crowd dispersed as well. However, the discussion of today's matter would continue for a long time in the Academy. In the Academy's Secret Pavilion, Elder Xuan's gaze seemed to be able to penetrate countless spaces and witness the entire process. A complicated and indescribable emotion appeared in his eyes. After a long silence, he closed his eyes again. The Peak

Su Zimo, Yunzhu, and Momo flew above the Academy. After a while, seeing that there was no one around, they gradually slowed down. Su Zimo said, "Yunzhu, thank you." This time, Yunzhu's appearance not only helped him resolve a crisis, but also saved Momo's life twice with her waist token! "It's nothing." Yunzhu shook her head slightly and said with a smile, "However, in order to make it more realistic, I have to let Momo stay at my place for a few days. After that, I'll let her come to you." "Okay." Su Zimo nodded. After a short pause, Su Zimo was curious and could not help but ask, "How did you know that someone would use Momo's identity to make a fuss and give her a waist token in advance?" "Yes, princess, you're so smart." Momo also praised from the bottom of her heart. "How can I be so smart? I'm not the Patriarch of the Academy." Yunzhu smiled and looked deeply at Su Zimo. She said with a smile, "When I gave Momo the waist token, it was a spur of the moment idea. But mainly, I wanted to repay you for saving my life. At the same time, I wanted to rope in the legendary demon Araki Takeshi." "But later, I didn't expect that the waist token would really come in handy." Su Zimo smiled and said, "No matter what, I'm lucky to have your help this time." The three chatted along the way. Soon, they arrived near the Teleportation Formation of the Academy. "Okay." Yunzhu said, "You can go back. The Patriarch of the Academy must have summoned you for something. You don't have to see me off." "Okay." Su Zimo cupped his hands and said goodbye. Then, he rushed toward the Palace of Qiankun, the place of the true transmission of the Academy. Yunzhu held Momo's little hand and stepped into the Teleportation Formation. They returned directly to the Zixuan Celestial Kingdom and went all the way back to the library. A maid at the door greeted them and said, "Princess, you're back! Young Royal Prince Yunting is looking for you everywhere. It seems that something big has happened. He's upstairs right now." "What could have happened to him? There's no need to make a fuss." Yunzhu knew her younger brother too well. With a calm expression, she walked up the stairs and said casually, "Most likely, he made a breakthrough and became a Ninth Stage Heavenly Immortal. He's here to show off to me." In the blink of an eye, Yunzhu led Momo to the top floor of the library. When Yun Ting saw Yun Zhu's figure, he jumped up from the ground and went up to Yun Zhu. He patted his chest and said proudly, "Sister, I'm only a thousand years away from the Divine Firmament Immortal Gathering, and I'm already a Stage Nine Heaven Immortal!" Momo covered her mouth and snickered. "Hmm?" Yun Ting recognized Tao Yao's identity and pulled a long face, saying with a frown, "Why is it you again? Why aren't you staying by Su Zimo's side? Why are you always running to my sister?" "I brought him here. It's none of your business." With that, Yunzhu pushed Yun Ting away and led Momo back to her study. Yun Ting hurried after them, still keeping a straight face. He glared at Momo and asked fiercely, "What were you laughing at? Are you mocking me? Is your master's cultivation speed faster than mine?" "Not as fast as you." Momo shook her head, unafraid. "Young Master is only a Stage Six Heavenly Immortal." "Too weak!" Yun Ting pursed his lips and snorted disdainfully. Yunzhu glanced at Yun Ting and reminded him, "Little Brother, don't underestimate him. He's only a Stage Six Heavenly Immortal, but he's already on the Predicted Leaderboard and is ranked seventeenth!" "So what?" Yun Ting also saw the Predicted Leaderboard update and was not surprised. "I'm already a Stage Nine Heavenly Immortal. When the Predicted Leaderboard refreshes again, I'll replace Qin Gu and take first place!" Yunzhu said, "There's still a thousand years. Anything can happen. Besides, even if you fight Su Zimo now, it's hard to say who will win." "Sister!" Yun Ting couldn't help grumbling. "Why are you always attacking me and boosting Su Zimo's prestige? Those who don't know better would think that you're his sister!" "Hmph!" Yunzhu sneered. "That's attacking you? I haven't even said the real attacking words yet! If Yun Ting knew that the greatest opponent he'd ever seen was only one of Qin Gu's true bodies, he would probably be traumatized for the rest of his life. Yunzhu seemed to have thought of something and suddenly asked,

"By the way, what's the reaction from the Great Jin Immortal Empire after Juelei City was destroyed and Yuanzuo was killed?" "Nothing much."

Yun Ting shrugged. Yunzhu frowned, deep in thought. "Princess, is there something wrong?" Momo asked softly when she saw Yunzhu's strange expression. Yunzhu pondered. "Your young master killed the Duke of Great Jin and hundreds of Heavenly Immortals. He even burned an entire city to the ground. That's practically a declaration of war." "Even if the other party is wary of Qiankun Academy's power, someone should stand up and speak up. They shouldn't be so calm. This is a little abnormal." Yun Ting said casually, "Yuanzuo has long lost his power. So what if he's dead? I don't think anyone will care." Yunzhu said, "No matter how weak Yuanzuo is, he still has the royal bloodline of Great Jin flowing in his body. How can an outsider kill him so casually?" Yun Ting chuckled. "Perhaps Great Jin is planning an even greater counterattack, the kind that will kill in one blow. It's like the calm before the storm!" "Is that so ..." Yunzhu fell into deep thought. After a while, Yunzhu raised her head and saw that Yun Ting was still there. She waved her hand and said, "Go back and cultivate. There's still a thousand years left. Don't slack off!" Yun Ting was speechless. After he cultivated to a Rank 9 Heavenly Immortal, the first thing he did was run to Yunzhu, hoping to get some encouragement. However, he ended up being snubbed. He came in high spirits but returned in disappointment. "She's my sister. Why is she always speaking up for outsiders? Hmph!" Yun Ting left the library and mumbled. Before long, his heart skipped a beat as he thought of a possibility and his eyes widened! "Could it be ... impossible, right?" Yun Ting clenched his fists subconsciously with a conflicted expression.... Heaven and Earth Academy. Following the map of the academy, Su Zimo finally arrived at the most mysterious place in the academy, the Heaven and Earth Palace! The Heaven and Earth Palace was located in the depths of the academy. There was a saying in the academy that without the Patriarch's permission, no one would be able to see the Heaven and Earth Palace even if they came here. Su Zimo looked at the palace not far away and narrowed his gaze. Compared to the other buildings in the academy, the palace was rather simple. However, the palace that was located in front of him seemed to form an indescribably mysterious aura with the world, the surrounding winds and the white clouds in the skies. The palace seemed to be located in a strange space. It seemed like an array formation or restriction but it was definitely not one of those two! The white clouds in the skies suddenly descended, forming a cloud bridge that led to the entrance of the palace. "Zimo, come on in." The Patriarch's voice sounded, gentle and benevolent. Su Zimo looked at the Heaven and Earth Palace before him and took a deep breath of air before stepping onto the cloud bridge. Peak.

Chapter 2485

In the Palace of Heaven and Earth, Celestial Qi swirled and rose. A figure sat cross-legged in front, faintly discernible. As Su Zimo stepped into the Palace of Heaven and Earth, the Celestial Qi in the palace gradually dissipated, revealing the tall and straight figure of the Patriarch of the College. "Greetings, Patriarch." Su Zimo came to a stop not far away and bowed. The Supreme Headmaster of the College opened his eyes. His eyes seemed to flash with the starry sky and the rolling world of mortals. His eyes emitted colorful light and he smiled, "What is it? As a registered disciple, you don't even want to call me master?" Su Zimo and the Patriarch of the College looked at each other, and their hearts were touched by an invisible force. The Patriarch of the College seemed to be scolding him, but there was no blame or dissatisfaction in his tone. Su Zimo also didn't feel any pressure. On the contrary, a trace of guilt rose in his heart. "Greetings, Master." Lowering his head slightly, Su Zimo bowed once more and called out. The Patriarch of the College said warmly, "It's okay. If you don't want to join my branch, when you enter the True First Level, you can choose from the other elders and Celestial Kings."With your talent, none of the elders and Celestial Kings will refuse."After a pause, the Patriarch of the College suddenly asked, "I didn't punish Yuehua for what happened today. Are you dissatisfied?" "I wouldn't dare." Su Zimo said honestly. The Patriarch of the College shook his head and chuckled. "You wouldn't dare. You're still dissatisfied." Su Zimo didn't say anything, which was a tacit admission. The Patriarch of the College said, "Yuehua is the first True Immortal of the College, after all. In the future, he will represent the College in the True Immortal Ranking List at the Continent of the Nine Clouds. I have to save some face for him." But don't worry, when you enter the True First Level and become a true disciple, I can make the decision to let you and Mo Qing become cultivation partners." "Ah?" Su Zimo was stunned with a look of shock. He didn't react for a moment. Why did the Patriarch suddenly talk about him and Senior Sister Mo Qing? The Patriarch of the College smiled and said, "For cultivators, having the chance to become cultivation partners is fate. It can't be forced. Yuehua has been pursuing Mo Qing for many years, but Mo Qing is clearly interested in you these years. I can see this. it."

Master, you may have misunderstood ... "Su wanted to explain. The Headmaster of the Academy smiled and said, "Don't worry. I will stand up for you in this matter." Su Zimo realized he couldn't explain this matter. Senior Sister Mo Qing had been living in seclusion for many years, rarely showing her face, let alone interacting with others. But over the years, Senior Apprentice Sister Mo Qing had often come to his cave residence. Naturally, it was easy to make the connection..... True Immortals, Immortals's, True Ling ""s..., Celestials, Of. If one were to say that the two of them were just ordinary fellow disciples, perhaps no one would believe it.. Su Zimo remained silent. He had already accepted Senior Sister Mo Qing's painting. She probably wouldn't come looking for him again. After a long time, the two of them didn't interact much. Everyone naturally understood. If he tried to explain now, it might make things worse. "Also, I heard about the battle in Thunder City." The Patriarch of the Academy said indifferently, "King Jin came looking for me. I just sent him away. This matter ends here." The Patriarch of the Academy said it casually, but Su Zimo was shocked. In fact, he had long expected that the Great Jin Celestial Nation wouldn't let the matter rest after causing such a huge commotion in Thunder City. However, he did not expect that this matter would actually alarm Prince Jin to personally appear! The Patriarch of the Academy said it casually, but Su Zimo knew that if the Patriarch of the Academy didn't help him stop King Jin, he would most likely be a dead man. The Patriarch of the Academy didn't say much about what happened between the two of them after King Jin arrived. However, he could imagine that the Patriarch of the Academy must have paid a price. Perhaps the two of them fought, or perhaps the Patriarch of the Academy compromised to send King Jin away and end this matter. It was no wonder that the Great Jin Celestial Kingdom was so quiet during this period of time. "Thank you, master!" Su Zimo bowed deeply to the Patriarch of the Academy. The Patriarch of the Academy didn't explain much, but he knew how dangerous and pressurizing it was. "Get up." The Patriarch of the Academy looked gratified. "Since I've taken you in, I naturally have to protect you."

"Fang Qingyun has already fallen in this Heaven Ranking competition. Qiankun Academy can only rely on you." "Don't worry, master!" Su Zimo said in a deep voice, "I'm determined to get the top of the Heaven Ranking!" The top of the Heaven Ranking was secondary. The main reason was that he and Yun Ting would eventually meet in the Heaven Ranking competition. A battle between the two of them was inevitable! Su Zimo wanted Yun Ting's Human Slayer Sword Art, and Yun Ting wanted his Heaven Slayer and Earth Slayer Sword Art! If there were no surprises, the winner would be the top of the Heaven Ranking. "Don't be careless." The Patriarch of the Academy shook his head slightly. "As far as I know, Yun Ting has already cultivated to the ninth level of Heaven Immortal. There are three levels between the two of you, and your Hell Suppressing Cauldron was taken away by Araki Takeshi ..." At this point, the Patriarch of the Academy paused for a moment. Su Zimo's expression didn't change. Although he didn't look up, he could feel the Patriarch of the Academy's gaze on him as if he was observing something. Yunzhu was right. She could deduce that the bronze square cauldron Qinglian's real body had once been the Hell Suppressing Cauldron. The Patriarch of the Academy could naturally guess it as well. However, the Sect Master of the Academy could not deduce the origin of the Martial Dao Body even though he could see through the mysteries of heaven. When they learned that the Hell Suppressing Cauldron had appeared in Araki Takeshi's hands, almost everyone subconsciously thought that Araki Takeshi had stolen it from him. This was the most logical explanation. Yunzhu could deduce the relationship between him and Araki Takeshi mainly because he had revealed a flaw in the Hell of Avici. However, the Patriarch of the Academy didn't know what had happened in the Hell of Avici, and couldn't deduce the origin of Wu Dao's real body. Naturally, his guess was wrong. The Patriarch of the Academy paused for a very short time and almost imperceptible. He continued, "Your Hell Suppressing Cauldron was taken away by Araki Takeshi. You can't defeat him without using your bloodline." "Hmm?" Su Zimo was shocked! When the Hell Suppressing Cauldron and Araki Takeshi were mentioned, he could still remain calm and collected. However, when he heard the words "without using your bloodline" from the Patriarch of the Academy, his mind couldn't help but fluctuate violently.

The Patriarch of the Academy was obviously hinting at something! Su Zimo also knew that such a fluctuation in his mind couldn't be hidden from the Patriarch of the Academy. He took a deep breath and looked up. The Patriarch of the Academy looked at Su Zimo, who was on guard, and smiled. "Don't be nervous. I've already sensed your Qinglian bloodline. "

Chapter 2486

At that moment, countless thoughts flashed through Su Zimo's mind as though a tsunami was raging in his mind. But in the end, he calmed himself down and tried his best to stay calm. "When did the Patriarch know?" Su Zimo asked. Unconsciously, he had changed the way he addressed the Patriarch of the Academy. The Patriarch of the Academy shook his head slightly and seemed to be helpless about Su Zimo's reaction. He said, "I sensed it when you first broke through hundreds of years after you entered the Academy." "But don't worry, I have already set up several prohibitions around your cave residence to help you hide the aura of the Creation Qinglian. No one can detect it." Su Zimo was silent. Although he didn't show it on his face, he was still alert. The Patriarch of the Academy's eyes seemed to contain infinite wisdom. He chuckled and said, "Do you really think that I didn't notice a Creation Qinglian constantly cultivating in the Academy?" "If so, I don't need to be the Patriarch." At this moment, Su Zimo had gradually calmed down from the initial shock. If the Patriarch of the Academy really had any evil intentions towards him, there were too many opportunities for him to do so. Even now, if the Patriarch of the Academy wanted his Qinglian Real Body, he could directly attack him. He had no power to resist. Moreover, the Patriarch of the Academy had saved his life and given him a Transmission Jade Talisman. This time, he helped him block the killing intent of King Jin. More importantly, if the Patriarch of the Academy really had any evil intentions towards him, there was no need for him to reveal it today. Now, the Patriarch of the Academy was willing to reveal it openly, which proved that he was magnanimous."It was a bit sudden, so I didn't get over it immediately. Please forgive me, Master."Su Zimo looked apologetic."It's okay."The Patriarch of the Academy smiled and said, "I told you this because I want you to relax. At least in the Academy, you don't have to be careful and tense every day.""Of course, you still have to be careful outside and don't expose your bloodline easily.""Yes."Su Zimo nodded."Alright."The Patriarch of the Academy said, "Go back and cultivate. Don't feel any psychological burden or pressure.""Disciple will take his leave."Su Zimo bowed and left.

After leaving the Palace of Heaven and Earth, Su Zimo walked in the direction of the Inner Sect. Only then did he realize that at some point in time, his green robe had been soaked in sweat.A breeze blew past, and a chill came from his body.Su Zimo let out a long sigh.No wonder it was said that the Patriarch of the Academy could deduce all things, see through the mysteries of heaven, and have unparalleled wisdom.Under the gaze of the Patriarch of the Academy, Su Zimo found that he had no secrets at all!Su Zimo laughed at himself.All these years, he had been very careful in the academy, as if he was treading on thin ice. He had tried his best to hide Qinglian's bloodline, but he did not expect that someone had already seen through it.At this moment, a figure came from not far away. In the blink of an eye, it was the Painting Fairy, Mo Qing."Senior Sister."Su Zimo greeted her.Mo Qing looked at Su Zimo and said, "I just heard that Senior Brother Yuehua deliberately made things difficult for you. Are you okay?""I'm fine. It's over."Su Zimo shook his head and smiled."That's good."Mo Qing looked at Su Zimo, as if she wanted to say something, but stopped.Su Zimo tried to ask, "Is there anything else, Senior Sister?""Did you, did you give that painting to Araki Takeshi?" Mo Qing hesitated and asked.Su Zimo was stunned for a moment, but he immediately reacted and said, "Yes, I gave it to him."Mo Qing asked, "What did he say? Did he draw it well?"Su Zimo coughed softly and said, "I came back after sending the painting. I don't know if he saw it.""Oh."Mo Qing nodded in response.Su Zimo said, "Senior Sister, if there's nothing else, I'll go back first."Mo Qing nodded and turned to leave.The two parted and didn't walk far before Su Zimo narrowed his eyes. He suddenly stopped and turned around to call Mo Qing."What's the matter?"Mo Qing asked.Su Zimo used his Divine Sense and asked, "There's something I don't know. When I participated in the Immortal Sect Selection, why did Senior Sister arrive in time?"

It was because of a letter in Duke Yuanzuo's memory. Now that he looked back at the Immortal Sect Selection, some things seemed too coincidental.Su Zimo originally thought that Senior Sister Mo Qing arrived because the ice butterfly sensed Die Yue's aura on him. It was the same situation as in Avici Hell.But in reality, Qiankun Academy and Coiling Dragon Mountain Range were very far away. It was impossible for the ice butterfly to sense it.Unless Senior Sister Mo Qing was nearby.But Senior Sister Mo Qing hadn't gone out in ten thousand years. How could she be near the Coiling Dragon Mountain Range?Su Zimo looked at Mo Qing and asked, "Did someone ask Senior Sister to go there?""Yes."Mo Qing nodded.Su Zimo's pupils contracted. He suppressed the violent fluctuations in his heart and continued to ask, "Did the Academy Patriarch ask Senior Sister to go there?""No."Mo Qing said, "It was the Academy's Eighth Elder."Su Zimo was stunned and a trace of confusion flashed in his eyes.After a pause, Su Zimo asked again, "Is the Academy's Eighth Elder good at deduction?""I don't know."Mo Qing shook her head and said, "The Academy's Eighth Elder is good at refining weapons. He's in charge of all the weapons in the Academy. How can he be good at deduction?""Only the successive Sect Masters have the opportunity to cultivate that kind of technique that can deduce all living things. No one else is qualified."Mo Qing thought for a while and said, "At that time, the Academy's Eighth Elder had just returned from outside. He saw me and told me about the Coiling Dragon Mountain Range and suggested that I go there." "I didn't want to care about it. But the Academy's Eighth Elder said that it was the Zither Immortal, Mengyao. And as the Painting Immortal, it was most appropriate for me to go there. So I went there." "I see." Su Zimo sighed as if relieved of a heavy burden. He murmured, "So I thought too much." His question seemed ordinary, but it was the key to the whole thing! If the Painting Immortal's appearance was facilitated by the Academy's Patriarch, then the mysterious letter that Commandery Prince Yuanzuo received was most likely from the Academy's Patriarch! The pursuit of Yuanzuo, the appearance of the Zither Immortal, the reaction of the Flying Celestial Sect, the Mountain and Sea Immortal Sect, Imperial Wind Temple, Yang Ruoxu's insistence, Senior Sister Mo Qing's appearance ...

All these variables were within the Academy's Patriarch's plan! Su Zimo believed that the Academy's Patriarch definitely had the ability to do so. But now, because of Mo Qing's explanation, his speculation was not valid. If the Academy's Patriarch wanted to do something to him, there was no need to involve an Academy Elder. Senior Sister Mo Qing's appearance was just a coincidence. The clues about the letter from Commandery Prince Yuanzuo were cut off. "Why are you asking this?" Mo Qing frowned and asked. "Nothing." Su Zimo smiled and said, "I'm just asking."

Chapter 2487

After Su Zimo bid farewell to Mo Qing, he returned to his cave abode and prepared to cultivate in seclusion again. There were still a thousand years before the Divine Firmament Immortal Gathering. Normally speaking, during this period, most high-level Heaven Immortals would choose to leave the mountain and go out to train. They would look for people to fight and try their best to squeeze into the predicted Heaven Leaderboard. Su Zimo was already ranked seventeenth on the Heaven Leaderboard. Even if he did not participate in other battles, he was already qualified to compete for the Heaven Leaderboard at the Divine Firmament Immortal Gathering. Therefore, in the remaining thousand years, he planned to cultivate and strive to reach another level. The Master of the Academy was right. As a Level Six Celestial Immortal, if he did not use the Green Lotus Bloodline, he had almost no chance of winning against Yun Ting. Over the years, he had been improving and obtaining many opportunities, but Yun Ting had not stopped either! Just by looking at the information about Yun Ting on the Heaven Leaderboard, he knew that Yun Ting had obtained as many opportunities as he had, or even more! Even if he could cultivate to the Seventh Stage, he should only have a 50% chance of winning against Yun Ting. Facing an opponent like Yun Ting, even if there was only a difference of one level, it would be a huge gap in the battle. Not to mention the difference of two or three levels. Su Zimo cultivated in seclusion in his cave abode and did not see outsiders. A few days later, Momo returned to the cave abode and continued to take care of all the trivial matters in the cave abode with Liu Ping. Over the past six months, many Heaven Immortals had come to the academy to challenge Su Zimo. Among them, there was no lack of experts who were predicted to be in the top twenty of the Heaven Leaderboard! The fastest way to enter the Heaven Leaderboard or improve one's ranking was to challenge an opponent on the Heaven Leaderboard. Su Zimo was ranked seventeenth on the Heaven Leaderboard. But his cultivation level was only at the sixth level of Mystic Essence. Compared to a top Heaven Immortal, there was a difference of three levels! In the eyes of many Heaven Immortals, this was an insurmountable gap. Moreover, there were too few predictions of Su Zimo's battle results on the Heaven Leaderboard. There were only two battles. Although the battle in Thunder City had caused a great impact, the results were too few. It also made many Celestial Immortals think that Su Zimo was only strong in appearance and was not as strong as the legends said.

What's more, Su Zimo's ranking, in everyone's eyes, was a huge overstatement! In the evaluation given by Divine Firmament Palace, Su Zimo's strength could only be ranked in the sixties or seventies at most. The only reason he was able to enter the top 20 was because he had once dodged an assassination attempt by Shadowless. However, this could only mean that Su Zimo's escaping skills were not bad, but it could not be reflected in his combat strength. As for the battle between Su Zimo and Fang Qingyun in Heaven and Earth Academy, due to the academy's prohibition, outsiders didn't know the details. Many people only knew that Fang Qingyun had perished, but did not know that he had died at the hands of Su Zimo! Many factors added together made many Celestial Immortals think that Su Zimo was a 'soft persimmon' that was relatively easy to challenge on the Heaven Leaderboard. For half a year, Su Zimo had been in seclusion and refused to fight. No matter how people shouted and provoked him outside, he remained indifferent, as if he didn't see or hear them. This kind of reaction confirmed the speculation of everyone. Not only did the number of Celestial Immortals who came to challenge him not decrease, but there were more and more. Although there were benefits to entering the Heaven Leaderboard in advance and becoming famous in the world, there was also great pressure! Su Zimo was wholeheartedly cultivating and wanted to improve, so he was unwilling to pay attention to these challengers. And Momo and Liu Ping had received instructions from Su Zimo, so they naturally blocked all the challengers that came. In the blink of an eye, a year had passed. "This is the 677th challenger that he has rejected, right?" "It should be the 678th!" After Liu Ping and Momo rejected another challenger, they discussed in a low voice in the cave. Liu Ping said, "Senior Brother always avoids battles. It has a certain impact on his ranking on the Heaven Leaderboard." "Someone came to challenge him, but Su Zimo chose to avoid the battle. Naturally, Divine Firmament Palace's evaluation of him would be lowered. Momo nodded and said, "I also noticed that on the latest Heaven Leaderboard, Young Master has dropped a few places." Liu Ping raised his fist and said, "If you ask me, Senior Brother should pick a tough one among these challengers and teach him a lesson for everyone to see!" "It would also save this group of people from coming to challenge him every two to three days. It's so annoying."

At this moment, another figure arrived outside the cave. Momo could clearly see the situation outside the cave through the reflection crystal in the cave. Seeing the person, Momo could not help but praise, "This cultivator is really beautiful." "It's useless even if she's beautiful. Just send her away casually," Liu Ping said casually without even looking. Momo nodded and sent a voice transmission to the outside of the cave. "Fellow Daoist, I'm sorry. My young master is cultivating in seclusion and will not fight with you. Please leave." "I'm Xie Qingcheng. I'm not here to challenge you." The person smiled and said, "I'm here to pay a visit to Brother Su." Liu Ping pursed his lips and said, "Half of the challengers said that they were here to visit." The moment he said that, his expression changed and he reacted. "Xie Qingcheng?" Liu Ping hurriedly took a look at the reflection crystal and said, "It's indeed him." Back in the capital of the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom, Liu Ping had met this Duke Qingcheng. Although he was a man, he was more beautiful and handsome than most women. Liu Ping had a deep impression of him. Furthermore, the Scarlet Princess had a good relationship with him. A year ago, the Duke Qingcheng was also the first to discover the whereabouts of Feng Ziyi and Su Zimo. "Let's ask Senior Brother." Liu Ping did not dare to make a decision on this matter. He pulled Momo and ran towards Su Zimo's cultivation cave.... When Su Zimo heard that Xie Qingcheng had arrived, he did not hesitate and went to the outside of the cave to personally welcome Xie Qingcheng in. The two of them did not interact much. Xie Qingcheng had helped him a few times, and he still remembered it. Although this Duke of the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom was an idle duke with no power or influence, Su Zimo had a very good impression of him. The two of them sat down, and Momo served two cups of hot tea with a refreshing fragrance. Xie Qingcheng smiled and said, "Brother Su, the battle at Thunder City a year ago shook the Divine Firmament Realm. After I heard about it, I was also shocked." "It's nothing." Su Zimo said, "Yuan Zuo chased after me many times. I had to return the favor." "Brother Su returned the favor once and destroyed Yuan Zuo and his Thunder City."

Xie Qingcheng shook her head and chuckled. After pausing for a while, Xie Qingcheng said, "I heard that Brother Su has not been peaceful for the past year. There has been an endless stream of challengers." "There have been many challengers, but I have ignored them." Su Zimo smiled and did not mind. There were not many people in the same realm who could be considered a match for him. He did not even bother to look at the rest! Su Zimo thought of the two of them and asked, "By the way, Xu Shi, are Xu Xiaotian and his son still at your place? How are they?" "Pretty good." Xie Qingcheng said, "However, Xu Shi's talent is limited. He might not be able to become a Heaven Immortal in the future. Xu Xiaotian's talent is not bad, and his potential is not small." The two of them chatted for a while. Although Xie Qingcheng looked relaxed and chatted with Su Zimo, she seemed to have a lot on her mind. The second update was estimated to be at night.

"Brother Xie, what's on your mind?" Su Zimo asked. Xie Qingcheng smiled bitterly and said, "Brother Su, you have sharp eyes, and I can't hide it from you. This time, I do have something that I need your help with." "At the foot of Ash Cloud Mountain, you also wanted to talk about this, right?" Su Zimo smiled, not surprised. At the foot of Ash Cloud Mountain, he had promised Xie Qingcheng that if he had any problems in the future, he could come to him. Xie Qingcheng was moved, but he hesitated. After a year, Xie Qingcheng came again. If he wasn't wrong, it should be about the matter that he didn't say. "Yes." Xie Qingcheng didn't hide it and said, "I didn't say it at that time. First, I didn't make up my mind whether to participate or not. Second, this matter is too dangerous, and it has a certain requirement on the cultivator's battle strength." At that time, Brother Su had just left the mountain and was only a Stage Six Heavenly Immortal. I didn't know much about Brother Su's battle strength. Even if I invited Brother Su, I might not be able to help. Instead, I might drag you down." Xie Qingcheng smiled and said, "Later, the battle of Thunder City spread throughout the Divine Firmament. Only then did I know about Brother Su's means." "What is it? Brother Xie, tell me." Su Zimo asked. Xie Qingcheng said, "Brother Su, you should know about Xie Tianhong of Lingxia County. He died more than two thousand years ago, but his corpse was never found." Su Zimo thought, Xie Tianhong was killed by Wu Dao's true body with a slap. His corpse is under the Avici Hell. No one can find it. Xie Qingcheng continued, "Xie Tianhong was the Lingxia County's Duke. All these years, because his corpse was never found, the position of Lingxia County's Duke has always been empty." Last year, Father finally relented and decided to choose a new Duke of the Lingxia County from the other Dukes and Princesses. "There were more than a thousand ancient cities under Lingxia County, and tens of millions of miles of territory. The Duke of Lingxia County had great power and a noble status, far surpassing ordinary Dukes. Now that this position was empty, it would naturally cause a fight among the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom's bloodline. Xie Qingcheng took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "I don't want to miss this opportunity. I want to try!"

Su Zimo remained silent. Before this, Xie Qingcheng was just an idle duke. In the royal bloodline, she was at the bottom. She was dispensable and did not have much of a presence. However, it was also because of this that his situation was relatively peaceful. If he participated in this kind of struggle, his future would be filled with countless open and covert struggles, and a rain of blood! For a place like the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom, where the royal bloodline was abundant, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to stand out among the many princes and princesses! "Have you decided?" Su Zimo looked at Xie Qingcheng and asked solemnly. Xie Qingcheng nodded. She subconsciously clenched her fists and said, "I want to become a prince who rules over a region. I want to have power and status. Only then can I clear my mother's name!" Su Zimo had once heard Princess Chi Hong mention that Xie Qingcheng's mother did not have a good background. Therefore, his status among the Commandery Kings and Commandery Princesses was not high. "Alright, I'll help you." Seeing that Xie Qingcheng had made up her mind, Su Zimo did not hesitate and agreed immediately. "What are the requirements of the Commandery King of the Lingxia County?" Su Zimo asked again. Xie Qingcheng said, "My father will not let the Commandery Kings who have cultivated to the True Immortal Realm manage such a large territory. It is easy to distract them and affect their cultivation." "In other words, as long as they reach the Heavenly Immortal Realm, they will be qualified to compete for the position of Commandery King of the Lingxia County. However, their cultivation cannot be too low. First or Second Stage Heavenly Immortals are definitely not enough." Su Zimo scanned with his Divine Sense. Xie Qingcheng was a Seventh Stage Heavenly Immortal. Xie Qingcheng laughed self-deprecatingly and said, "I barely qualify." Su Zimo asked, "How will the Commandery King of the Lingxia County be selected this time?" "This time, my father placed the Commandery King's Seal of the Lingxia County in an ancient ruin." Xie Qingcheng said, "Then, the Commandery Kings who participate in the competition can each lead a hundred Heavenly Immortals into this ruin to seize the Commandery King's Seal." "These hundred Heavenly Immortals can be chosen at will. They don't have to be from the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom." "Oh?" Hearing this, Su Zimo's heart skipped a beat. He said, "In that case, among these hundred Heavenly Immortals, there will be experts on the Heaven List."

"That's right." Xie Qingcheng nodded and said, "According to what I know, among the top ten on the Heaven List, there are a few who have come out of seclusion to help the other Commandery Kings seize the Lingxia County Seal." Su Zimo nodded secretly. The Flaming Sun Immortal King's arrangement obviously had a deeper meaning. He was not only interested in the personal strength of his descendants, but also the connections, connections, and influence of these descendants in the Divine Firmament Immortal Realm! Xie Qingcheng said, "According to what I know, the Heaven List has been announced. In the past year, many Heavenly Immortals have come out of seclusion to find an opportunity to enter the Heaven List." "And this Primordial Ruin is the best opportunity!" "This Primordial Ruin Seal Battle will be the best opportunity for many Heavenly Immortals to refresh their rankings and squeeze into the Heaven List." Su Zimo nodded and suddenly asked, "Will Yun Ting go?" "I don't think so." Xie Qingcheng smiled bitterly. "If someone can invite Commandery King Yun Ting to come out of seclusion, there will be no suspense in this battle for the Lingxia County Seal." Su Zimo nodded. He was now a Stage Six Heavenly Immortal. If he were to go against Yun Ting, his chances of winning were not high. After a pause, Su Zimo asked again, "By the way, where is the Primordial Ruin that you mentioned just now?" "It's a fragment of an ancient battlefield." Xie Qingcheng explained, "I heard that it might be an unprecedented battle that happened between heaven and earth in an ancient era. The battlefield was so huge that heaven and earth were shattered." "This Primordial Ruin is one of the small fragments. It is generally known as the Shura Battlefield." "Shura Battlefield?" Su Zimo raised his eyebrows slightly. Xie Qingcheng nodded and continued, "Although it's just a small fragment, there's a world inside. Moreover, there's a strange Blood Qi in this battlefield that has an obvious suppressive effect on many Divine Abilities and secret techniques of cultivators! ""Oh?" Su Zimo was a little surprised and asked, "What kind of Blood Qi can have such an effect?" ""I'm not sure." Xie Qingcheng said, "According to the information I've gathered, this Blood Qi can seal Divine Abilities and secret techniques of demon beasts." Su Zimo frowned slightly.

According to Xie Qingcheng, many of his trump cards could not be used in this Shura Battlefield. Xie Qingcheng continued, "As for why it's called the Shura Battlefield, it's because there are many Shura people in this battlefield. They are half-human and half-deity, brave and extremely powerful!" The Shura people! This race had a mysterious origin. Until now, no one had discovered their origin. Back then, Wu Dao's original body had suppressed one of them in the Shura Temple of the Grand Tie Wei Mountain. The Apex

The Sky Wolf had once told the Martial Dao Body some information about the Asura Tribe. According to Sky Wolf, the Shura Tribe were not humans, demons, ghosts, or gods, but they were born with great strength. They were ugly, but they were also ferocious fighters. Moreover, it was impossible to detect their cultivation level. They could only be judged by their appearance. If a Shura Tribe member reached the True Self Realm, they would have two heads and four arms. Three Heads and Six Arms was the Divine Ability of the Shura Tribe. However, it was modified and reinvented by the ancestors, and evolved into a peerless Divine Ability that could be cultivated by humans. Su Zimo asked, "How many Dukes are there in the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom this time?" ""Including me, there are eight Dukes and one Princess." Xie Qingcheng pondered for a while and said, "Brother Su, these eight Dukes are all stronger than me in the Flaming Sun Royal Family. ""How many people have you gathered?" Su Zimo asked again. At the mention of this, Xie Qingcheng smiled bitterly and said, "Not even twenty." Su Zimo was not surprised by this. A good bird chose a good tree to nest in. In the eyes of the Heavenly Immortals of the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom, Xie Qingcheng was not a wise ruler. She had no backing, no background, and no potential. Xie Qingcheng said, "Other than the Shura Tribe, there are also some Yakshas and other powerful beasts in the Shura Battlefield. ""Yakshas?" Su Zimo frowned slightly. He seemed to have seen the word Yaksha before in the Avici Hell. Xie Qingcheng explained, "It is said that they are a tribe from an ancient era, the Yakshas. They are extinct now. The creatures of the Yakshas are extremely ugly, like ghosts, so they are called Yakshas. " Su Zimo frowned and a thought flashed through his mind. Xie Qingcheng continued, "In fact, these creatures are already dead, but because of the special Blood Qi in the Shura Battlefield, they are reincarnated. ""These creatures have no sense of reason. They only know how to attack and kill. ""Moreover, the Blood Qi on the battlefield in Shura also has some influence on cultivators. If one's Dao Heart isn't strong enough, it's very likely that one will be invaded by the baleful blood energy and lose all reason, becoming a puppet controlled by the baleful blood energy. ""Due to the dangers of this trip, I don't have many people around me that I can use."

As a matter of fact, Xie Qingcheng had over a thousand celestial immortals under her command. However, there were not many cultivators who had truly reached the eighth or ninth stage. Some of them might not be willing to follow him into the battlefield of Shura. One had to know that in the Shura Battlefield, in addition to facing the mindless creatures like Shura, he also had to face the powerhouses on the Heaven List. Xie Qingcheng could not even gather a hundred Heaven Immortals, so she had no chance of winning against the other eight Dukes. "Since it's about seizing seals, it might not be useful even if we have more people." Su Zimo comforted him. "When will the battle in Shura begin?" "Three days later, in the King City of the Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom." "Alright, I'll look for you in three days." ...Three days later. Many cultivators gathered in the guest hall of the Qiankun Academy. There were about a thousand of them, and they all wore different clothes and had different auras. The sect badges on their waists also proved that these cultivators came from different sects. Almost all of them were ninth stage celestial immortals. Other than some cultivators from the major Immortal Dao clans, there were also Heaven Immortals from the three major Immortal Kingdoms and the other three major Immortal Sects. These cultivators from the Heaven-grade forces were all sitting at the front of the guest hall. "Will Su Zimo come out of seclusion?" "Heh, do you really think he's in seclusion? It's just an excuse!" "If you ask me, I think he's afraid of the battle." In the guest hall, many cultivators were discussing. It was noisy. Yan Bingying sat in the middle with a group of disciples of the academy. She felt a headache when she saw this scene. In the past year, more and more cultivators had come to challenge them. There were even some who did not want to leave if Su Zimo did not show up. "Everyone, please be quiet. My ranking is far below Senior Brother Su's." Yan Bingying frowned and said loudly, "If anyone wants to challenge Senior Brother Su, you have to go through me first." A man on Yan Bingying's left said with a smile, "Daoist Bingying, you don't have to do this. We just want to challenge Su Zimo from the academy."

This man was from the Flying Celestial Sect, and his Daoist name was Tian Zhe. Another celestial immortal from the Dajin Celestial Nation sneered, "Su Zimo from the academy is audacious. He dared to assassinate the Duke of the Dajin Celestial Nation. Why is he so scared that he doesn't dare to show up?" "Duke Yunting still sees him as an opponent. I don't think he's worthy at all!" The person who spoke was Fairy Baihua from the Zixuan Celestial Nation. Yan Bingying looked helpless. Others did not know Su Zimo's strength, but she had seen how Su Zimo suppressed Fang Qingyun, the top inner disciple! "Everyone, please go back. Senior Brother Su doesn't want to show up because he doesn't want to fight with you," Yan Bingying advised. Everyone in the main hall was unmoved. A disciple of the academy sent a voice transmission, "Senior Sister Yan, I don't think many of them are here to challenge Senior Brother Su. They are here for personal grudges." "That's not all." Yan Bingying shook her head slightly and said, "Some of them might be after Senior Brother Su's Jade Purity Jade Manual." At this moment, two young Dao children passed by the door and looked inside. A green-robed Dao child asked in surprise, "You guys haven't left yet?" "It's him!" One of them pointed at the green-robed Dao child and said, "He's from Su Zimo's cave abode!" The two Dao children were naturally Momo and Liu Ping. "Where's Su Zimo?" Heaven Immortal Tian Zhe of the Flying Immortal Sect stood up and asked in a deep voice, "Since the two of you came out, Su Zimo must have come out of seclusion as well!" "That's right." Liu Ping nodded and did not hide anything. Hearing those two words, there was a commotion. More than half of the cultivators in the main hall stood up, their battle intent surging and their eyes shining. Liu Ping quickly shook his head and said, "However, you guys are still one step too late. Senior Brother has already left to participate in the battle at Shura." "What's the battle at Shura?" "The Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom is going to choose a new County Lord of the Lingxia County. It's said that the competing County Lord can bring a hundred Heaven Immortals to the battle at Shura. Whoever can obtain the County Lord's seal will be the new County Lord of the Lingxia County." "I heard that there are many experts on the Heaven Roll in the battle at Shura this time. It's said that Zong Feiyu, who is ranked third on the Heaven Roll, was invited by Princess Yu Yan."

"Not only that, there are a few in the top ten of the Heaven Roll!" "Su Zimo actually dares to join in the fun?" "It's quite a big commotion this time. From what I know, the Divine Firmament Palace will even send a few True Immortals to record the battle at Shura and update the Heaven Roll's rankings at any time." "Where can we see the real-time rankings? I want to see how much trouble this Su Zimo can cause. Who knows, he might be suppressed as soon as he enters!" "Is there a need to ask? The Qiankun Academy will definitely see it." Many cultivators turned their heads and looked at Yan Bingying and the other disciples of the academy. Yan Bingying snorted coldly. These cultivators had bad intentions and were waiting to see Senior Brother Su make a fool of himself. However, she did not chase them away and said in a deep voice, "Everyone, please move to the square in the inner yard. The Heaven Roll will be updated there in real-time."

Chapter 2490

Flaming Sun Immortal Kingdom. More than ten cultivators stood in front of the palace. They were all Heaven Immortals. "Princess Qingcheng, we're all here. Who are we waiting for?" A Stage Nine Heaven Immortal in the crowd asked. "There's no hurry. You'll know when the time comes." Xie Qingcheng smiled and kept them in suspense. Another Stage Eight Heaven Immortal hesitated for a moment and said in a low voice, "Princess Qingcheng, I heard that there are a few people who are predicted to be in the top ten of the Heaven Leaderboard this time. We have no chance of winning against them." "We're just participating. I heard that there are many treasures in the battlefield in Shura. We'll go in and try our luck. Maybe we'll get some inheritance," another person said. "It's said that Brother Yue Ying has just received a secret inheritance and his combat strength has increased greatly. With this battle in Shura, he has a chance to enter the Heaven Leaderboard." Several cultivators looked at a young man in the crowd at the same time. The young man called Yue Ying had a smug look in his eyes. He smiled and said, "It's just a chance. It's not certain yet." Xie Qingcheng saw that the crowd did not have any hope for him to get the seal. She smiled and said, "Everyone, don't be discouraged. With this expert that I invited, although we don't have many people, we're definitely not weak!" "What expert? Could he be on the Heaven Leaderboard?" Everyone's eyes lit up. Xie Qingcheng smiled and did not say anything. Not long after, a scholar in a green robe walked over. He seemed to be walking slowly, but in the blink of an eye, he arrived in front of Xie Qingcheng and greeted her. "This is ..." Some cultivators frowned and looked confused. One of the cultivators had been to the 10,000-year convention and recognized him. He said in a low voice, "Qiankun Academy, Su Zimo!" It's him! Everyone's eyes flashed with surprise. Although many of them had never seen Su Zimo before, they had heard of his name. The battle in Thunder City had a huge impact! Moreover, the Heaven Leaderboard had been released for more than a year. Although Su Zimo only had two battles, he was at the top and was easily remembered. Yue Ying frowned slightly. If it was someone else on the Heaven Leaderboard, he had nothing to say.

But in the past year, rumors about Su Zimo had spread everywhere. Many people said that his prediction of the Heaven List's ranking was exaggerated. In addition, Su Zimo had chosen to avoid all challengers in the past year, which further confirmed these rumors. "Let me introduce you." Xie Qingcheng said, "I'm sure all of you have heard of him before. This is Heaven and Earth Academy's predicted 24th place on the Heaven Ranking, Su Zimo!" For the past year, Su Zimo had avoided all challengers, causing his evaluation on the Prediction Heaven List to drop. His ranking dropped from 17th to 24th. Apart from |

Yue Yin, the rest of the cultivators cupped their fists.No matter what the rumors were, Su Zimo was someone on the Prediction Heaven Leaderboard after all. They couldn't even touch the edge of the Prediction Heaven Leaderboard!"This is Yue Ying. He also has the strength to enter the Heaven Ranking."Xie Qingcheng introduced the dozen or so Heaven Immortals behind her to Su Zimo.Su Zimo cupped his fists slightly and nodded as a greeting."Su Zimo of Heaven and Earth Academy, your name has been like thunder to my ears over the years. I've heard a lot about you!" | Yue Yin smiled and said, "I heard that Fellow Daoist Su has not dared to accept any challengers in the past year. I'm really surprised that you can participate in the Shura battlefield today." | Yue Yin seemed to be smiling and was extremely polite, but his words were filled with sarcasm.Su Zimo's expression was indifferent. He did not even look at this person.After all, he was someone on Xie Qingcheng's side. He could not be bothered." | Yue Yin!"Xie Qingcheng frowned slightly and reminded him in a low voice. | Yue Yin shrugged slightly and did not speak anymore.Originally, his status was the highest among this group of people.Now that Su Zimo had arrived and replaced his position, he was naturally unhappy."Yo!"At this moment, a chuckle came from not far away. "Isn't this Brother Qingcheng? Why? Are you also going to enter the Shura battlefield?"When Xie Qingcheng heard this voice, she could already guess who it was without looking back.She saw a group of cultivators rushing over. There were exactly 101 of them. The leader was a fat man in a yellow robe. He was Duke Yi Qiu of the Flaming Sun Celestial Kingdom, a Rank Eight Heaven Immortal!

"Hahahaha!"In the blink of an eye, Duke Yi Qiu led a group of Heaven Immortal experts to the front. When he saw the 18 cultivators on Xie Qingcheng's side, he could not help but laugh unscrupulously."My good brother, you've only gathered so few people and you still want to enter the Shura battlefield to seize the seal?"Duke Yi Qiu laughed and said, "If you ask me, you should hurry up and go home. With these few people, they will all die if they can't even see the Lingxia Seal!""Damn!"Duke Yi Qiu's eyes fell on Su Zimo. He widened his eyes and said with an exaggerated expression, "Are you serious? You've only recruited a dozen Heaven Immortals. There's even a Rank Six Heaven Immortal among them. Are they just to make up the numbers?" "Haha!"A burst of laughter came from the crowd behind Duke Yi Qiu.Among the Heaven Immortals behind Duke Yi Qiu, the one with the lowest cultivation level was a Rank Eight Heaven Immortal. The rest were Rank Nine Heaven Immortals.In the eyes of the crowd, even a Rank Seven Heaven Immortal was not qualified to participate in a battle of this level, let alone a Rank Six Heaven Immortal!Su Zimo's expression was calm.Xie Qingcheng and the others, on the other hand, had ugly expressions. They were naturally indignant to be looked down upon and ridiculed in such a manner.However, they did not dare to say anything as the other party had more people. | Yue Yin snorted and said, "Don't be fooled by his Rank Six Heaven Immortal. He's a genius expert ranked 24th on the predicted Heaven List, Su Zimo from Qiankun Academy!"When they heard the three words "Su Zimo", the laughter on the other side gradually stopped.Many cultivators looked at Su Zimo with a hint of suspicion and caution.Only the cold-looking man beside Duke Yi Qiu suddenly raised his head. Two rays of cold light shot out from his eyes and he did not hide the hostility in his eyes at all!"It's him!" | Yue Yin recognized this person and his heart skipped a beat.He was ranked 67th on the predicted Heaven List, Sword Immortal Bihan from Flying Celestial Sect!Sword Immortal Bihan spoke slowly, "The evaluation on the predicted Heaven List is very clear. This Su Zimo only has two battle records. The reason why he's ranked first is because he's good at escaping."A few more sneers rang out from the crowd, but they were much more restrained than the unbridled mockery from before.

No matter what, the battle in Thunder City was still an extremely powerful deterrent to most cultivators! Duke Yi Qiu purposely asked, "How is he compared to Fellow Daoist Bihan?" "If we're talking about escaping, I'll naturally admit defeat." Sword Immortal Bihan said, "If it's a normal battle, I'll consider him capable if he can take ten strikes from me!" Duke Yi Qiu clapped his hands and said loudly, "Brother Qingcheng, how about we let these two fight before entering the battlefield in Shura?" Xie Qingcheng took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in her heart. She said, "When we enter the battlefield in Shura, we'll naturally have the chance to fight." "Haha!" Duke Yi Qiu laughed loudly. "I knew that you wouldn't dare to! Your mother is a lowly servant who ascended from the lower realm. Even if half of your father's blood flows in your body, you can't change the lowly cowardice in your mother's bones! "
