

Schoolgirl 1101

Chapter 1101: His Pipe Dream to Keep Her

Ling Yichen and group were understanding about Yun Jian going to Min City. After all, she would be studying in the military school there upon graduating. It was necessary for her to go over and scope what the place was like beforehand.

Therefore, the group of friends looked understanding and knowing. It was just that Chen Xinyi pouted the moment Yun Jian finished.

“Jianjian, this is the last three days we’ll be in the same school. I can’t bear to part with you...” she confessed gloomily with a pout at Yun Jian.

“Come on, Min City isn’t far from Longmen City. And I heard that you’re qualified to apply to skip class in the military school there if you’re exceptionally capable!”

“Yun Jian’s so skilled. She could come back anytime once she applies for it! Haha! We can get together again by then!”

Ling Yichen patted Chen Xinyi’s shoulder and said effortlessly. To be honest, however, he was rather reluctant too.

Everyone here had spent a bit more than half a year with Yun Jian and had encountered various incidents and experiences along the way. Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen, especially, were naïve like the frogs in a well before they knew Yun Jian.

They were just like regular students in school and had not known more. After getting to know Yun Jian, however, they got to experience so many things people would never come across their whole life. It had been dangerous but the three of them would not trade it for anything.

“Okay, okay, it’s not like master’s going away forever! Eat up! We’re continuing with the revision after this!” Zhang Shaofeng was reluctant to part with Yun Jian too but like Ling Yichen, he could not bear to see Chen Xinyi cry and spoke up to comfort her.

The few of them then returned to full concentration in their studies.

...

Leaving Chen Xinyi’s house and parting with Ling Yichen and Zhang Jian, Yun Jian made her way home.

It was 6pm on a weekend today. The day was gradually getting longer at the end of spring, so the sun had yet to set and could still be seen with its dimming rays even when it was 7:30pm—meaning that it was bright as day when it was 6pm now.

Yun Jian strolled on the street.

“I actually saw Li Hang! Ahhh! This is like a dream!”

“My heart! I like him so much! I’m so excited—I actually got to see my idol in real life! It’s him in flesh and blood!”

...

Out of the blue, girls were heard squealing and screeching in front before Yun Jian saw the person who blocked her way as he was being surrounded by a large ecstatic mob.

Li Hang?

Yun Jian could recall it once she heard the name. She had a good memory, after all.

Li Hang was the actor who tried to pick her up when she went to Beiguang Model Agency to save Chen Xinyi previously. Looking at how he had acted, he was probably rather famous but Si Yi had broken his wrist before the man could try touching her.

Yun Jian did not have even a sliver of good feelings for this male celebrity named Li Hang. She turned around to leave but the voice of a man rang.

“Eh? Hey, it’s you!”

Yun Jian arched a brow. She had yet to make a move and could already catch from the corner of her eye that Li Hang, who was being thronged, was making his way to her.

The man’s bodyguards had shoved the crowd away and that caused him to spot Yun Jian here. When Li Hang saw her, he paused in a daze.

All these months, a slender silhouette visited his mind frequently. It was Yun Jian.

Back when Si Yi broke his wrist and caused him to take quite the long break, Li Hang kept a grudge and thought that the next time he saw Yun Jian, he was going to keep her entirely as his plaything. He would then catch Si Yi and break all his tendons before letting him watch and taste the despair of Li Hang making his woman his!

Li Hang had been looking for Yun Jian for a long time but was in vain.. Now that he spotted her here unexpectedly, he made a prompt dash to her.

Chapter 1102: Make You Bleed Dry and Die Here

Yun Jian had been aloof and proud, flicking her butterfly knife and kicking the security guards as well as slashing their clothes in the chest when the men tried to stop her at the entrance of Beiguang Model Agency back then. If that knife had slid farther in or pierced the skin, those security guards would have been killed on the spot!

The incredibly bewildering extent of Yun Jian’s skill was exactly what fueled one’s limitless fantasy. It even made Yun Jian look enigmatic.

That was how Li Hang got attracted to her mysterious energy and could not forget her. He thought that he must have lost his mind as he spent months not sleeping properly. Once he closed his eyes, he saw Yun Jian’s slender and shapely figure as well as her gorgeous face. She was enthralling and delicate.

Li Hang had never been one to hold his wants back, so he had sent people to search for Yun Jian a long time ago. Usually, the influence and power he had meant that it was easy to find a girl in Longmen City.

Despite that, his men's search for Yun Jian felt like the girl's whereabouts were intentionally erased during the process. It was as if she was not from earth as Li Hang failed to find her no matter what.

Now that he saw Yun Jian today, he was over the moon.

When Yun Jian saw Li Hang who rushed toward her, there was a glint in her squinted eyes before a mocking smirk flashed in appearance. She ignored the man to continue on her way.

Yun Jian's ignorance toward him was a huge blow to Li Hang. He glanced at the girls around him, knowing that all of them were screaming and jostling each other to rush up to him like they could care less about their safety at the sight of him. Yet Yun Jian was turning a blind eye at him?

Indignant, Li Hang ran to Yun Jian to stop her.

"Babe, why are you leaving once you see me? Heh, have you forgotten me? We've met in Beiguang previously!" To make himself look cooler, Li Hang flicked his short hair purposely.

It made the crowd of girls squeal immediately and boosted Li Hang's ego.

Although the man who appeared the last time had better looks and was in better shape than him, did that guy have so many fangirls like he did? It was not like Li Hang was trying to brag but if he ever needed it, any girl who stood here fawning over him would gladly spread her legs on the bed and beg him to take her!

Li Hang had slept with several of his fangirls in the past. A few of them had even gotten pregnant and were forced to abort it; one of them, specifically, lost her ability to carry another child due to the abortion procedure and was ultimately bribed into silence by Li Hang's manager.

What Li Hang just did caused the girls present to swoon but it did not affect Yun Jian the slightest. The man had been hopeful, assuming that she would be charmed by his charisma and suaveness then willingly sleep with him like his pretty fangirls in the past.

To Li Hang, his fans who were there, and his manager, all of them thought that Yun Jian would pass out from sheer excitement at the celebrity's initiated interaction but she had only glanced at him icily and told him—chilling and murderous, "You're in my way. Move."

The crowd found their breath catching at her words. How could she say that to the big celebrity Li Hang?

They then heard Yun Jian speak again, more savagely this time, "I'll make you bleed dry and die here if you don't move."

Chapter 1103: Come Over and Go to Hell

Yun Jian suddenly remembered how Chen Xinyi was lying so helplessly on the floor and staring at a certain spot in despair when she went to Beiguang Model Agency to save her. Her wrist had been slit and crimson blood was oozing out. It had been a gruesome sight yet it also pained one to see how tenacious the girl was.

Li Hang was an actor also from Beiguang Model Agency but the agency had closed down since it offended Yun Jian back then. The contract Li Hang was on with the company was naturally terminated due to this.

A hot celebrity like Li Hang meant that he was immediately recruited by another entertainment company despite that and he even booked better projects and jobs compared to when he was still with Beiguang.

Anyway, because Li Hang was from Beiguang Model Agency, Yun Jian felt like she was seeing Chen Xinyi who lay in her own pool of blood when she saw the man. It felt like the guy was one of the accomplices who were involved in Chen Xinyi's incident.

It rushed Yun Jian with the impulse of making Li Hang bleed to his death in front of her.

In spite of it, she would hold herself back if Li Hang made way as told. Unfortunately, the man was relentless today as the girl was all he could think about for months! The inability to find the one he wanted in the vast world was enraging.

Hearing what Yun Jian said, the fans who were around were stunned. If it had been any of them receiving Li Hang's attention like this, they would have been so ecstatic they would faint. Yet not only did Yun Jian not find delight, she threatened the hot celebrity.

Li Hang was surprised as well but he snapped out of it swiftly. He thought that Yun Jian was cracking a joke, so he chuckled and told her in feigned gentleness, "Babe, what you said doesn't match what you look. You're so pretty, a joke like that doesn't suit you at all!"

As he spoke, he flicked his head again to act cool.

Yun Jian's reply was icy without any warmth in it. "You don't believe me, do you?"

Li Hang felt an intense force coming for him once he heard Yun Jian speak.

The next second, the crowd saw Yun Jian lift her leg and kick Li Hang's stomach, sending him to the ground. She sprinted forward after that and stomped on his abdomen ruthlessly.

"Ah! Our dear Hanghang!" The fangirls screeched when they saw their idol being stepped by Yun Jian and tried to rush to her. A two-second dash later, they were frightened into halting by a shiny little something in Yun Jian's hand.

The girl held a butterfly knife nobody knew where and how she got it and was flicking it with ease.

The fans were intimidated and paused in their track.

"You... How dare do you that to our Hanghang..." Li Hang's manager was shocked and wanted to get up to threaten Yun Jian but before she could say more, Yun Jian scoffed, "What don't I dare do?"

As she spoke, she flicked the butterfly knife once more and swung it across Li Hang's wrist. The cut was so deep that blood spurted from it. Simultaneously, Yun Jian moved her foot from the man's stomach to the wound on his wrist and pressed down on it.

Li Hang was in so much pain that he was thrashing on the ground. The others who watched Li Hang's blood gush out of his wrist paled in horror while the guy's bodyguards moved to stop Yun Jian.

It only prompted Yun Jian to crouch and perch the blade against Li Hang's neck as she growled softly, "Come here and I'll send him to hell right now!"

Chapter 1104: She's the Heroine in the Mall Attack

If those who were around had treated what Yun Jian said in the beginning as a joke and Li Hang took what she said just now as a joke as well, the girl made it come true.

Due to that, no one dared doubt her again.

Come on, they thought that the girl must only be kidding with the threat when she looked so sweet. In the end? Not only did she make the celebrity move out of her way—which he had refused to, she pulled out a knife from her pocket and cut his wrist.

That was not all! She stepped on his slit wrist. Goodness, that would kill him. Was she not scared of getting him killed? And it would be superstar Li Hang who was going to die!

The crowd was simply baffled.

Li Hang's bodyguards and his female manager who were going to rush up to protect him stood rooted in shock, too, not daring to move due to Yun Jian's intimidation.

Feeling like he was losing blood too fast and no one around him dared come to his rescue, Li Hang nearly wet his pants in fear. He was interested in Yun Jian, yes, but that was only when his life was not threatened.

Now that he could not even be sure if he would survive, he was extremely regretful. Li Hang had not expected Yun Jian to be this savage. The last time, Si Yi had already terrorized Li Hang when he broke his wrist. Now? Li Hang thought that Yun Jian would be easier to handle since she was a girl but she was actually more violent than Si Yi.

Once she struck, she was going for his life! If he lost all his blood, not even god could save him!

"I'm—I'm wrong, please let me go! Let me go! It's all my fault! I'm a dumb*ss for not knowing my place..."

With the speed he was losing blood, Li Hang was scared witless. He could care less about everything else as all he wanted was to save himself and stay alive! Even with the paparazzi and fans watching him there, he begged Yun Jian in a cowardly tone.

When he pleaded in such fear for his life, his fans, his manager and his bodyguards were all stunned.

Li Hang had a handsome face and got his break, thus his fan following, from acting a cool role in a movie. Right now, however, that cool, suave charisma he exuded in the movie was gone.

It felt like a blow of reality check to those around.

Yun Jian arched a brow. She, on the other hand, was not surprised at all.

Hearing Li Hang beg and before he could pass out from losing too much blood, she let go of her foot on the man's wrist and left another threat that terrified him. "If I see you again, I'm not slitting your wrist but your throat!"

Yun Jian did not go easy at all, so the crowd was still in a stupor as they watched her leave.

She left pretty quickly while Li Hang was still conscious and was being helped up carefully by his manager.

From then on, his image in his fans' mind plummeted.

Just as Li Hang was helped up to be sent to the hospital, one of the onlookers suddenly recalled something and gasped aloud looking at Yun Jian's disappearing back, "I—I remember now! She's the girl who grabbed the knife and killed those assailants who ran into the mall and hacked whoever they saw in the incident that shook Longmen City half a year ago!"

"I was there! You guys have no idea, she didn't even bat an eye when she killed those people. She grabbed the ruffian's knife with only her two hands and stabbed them to death!"

Chapter 1105: Her Greatness. Not Back Together

The person's voice was shaky during his narration of Yun Jian murdering the assailants. When it went to everyone's ear, it felt bone-chilling and horrifying.

"T-the girl just now is the one in the mall attack half a year ago? The attack that caused an uproar in Longmen City?" someone asked with a frightened gape of mouth.

The person who mentioned the incident just now answered instantly, "Yes! It's true! I was there in the mall. You guys didn't know because you guys didn't see it. When the assailant rushed toward us, there was a woman who despicably pushed the girl's mother toward the attacker!"

"Hah, guess what happened? The girl had been fighting another assailant but when she saw her mother in danger, she killed that assailant right away and used her arm to block the knife that was swung at her mother!"

"Tch, her dainty arm was wounded and blood was dripping everywhere but she didn't even bat an eye about it, like she was an assassin or secret agent who feared no pain, and went up to kill the rest of the assailants!"

"We were petrified during then! Her merciless brute was unlike a teenage girl at all!"

The person recounted the incident in even more gusto when he saw everyone, even superstar Li Hang, listen to him. As the others heard what he said, they were stupefied. They now understood why Yun Jian said what she did and why she dared hurt Li Hang! She could already kill those attackers, why would she be afraid of hurting Li Hang?

Li Hang felt himself quivering. Lucky for him, his manager had put pressure on the wound on his wrist as soon as she possibly could and stopped the bleeding. Once the celebrity thought of Yun Jian's earlier ferocity, he felt chills running down his back.

The girl had actually killed someone before! She would actually kill someone! Li Hang was grateful that she had actually let him go just now.

Just as Li Hang was slightly relieved of his terror, someone else spoke up quickly to offer their own information since the incident was being mentioned again, "My father has a friend who works in the police station. With how big a commotion that incident's caused back then, it's said that the girl is quite influential in the military, something about being an Advanced Special Forces soldier! Her particular identity is kept confidential by the higher-ups, so her killing those assailants was considered a duty!”

With what the person disclosed, everyone there was thoroughly baffled.

That girl just now was in the military? She was so young yet she was already a soldier!

If they had known that Yun Jian was the famous Slashing God from Team Monarch, they would have frenziedly gone after her asking for her autograph now. The celebrity Li Hang was notable but the reputation of Yun Jian’s Slashing God in Team Monarch was even more celebrated in Longmen City than the entertainment artists because she was genuinely skilled.

...

As for now, the genuinely skilled Yun Jian had already gone back home—her and Si Yi’s home.

From there to Ge Junjian’s house, she only needed a three-minute walk.

Although the house was secretly built by Si Yi without Yun Jian’s knowledge, Ge Junjian knew it since the beginning. Considering Yun Jian not wanting to stay too far away from Qin Yirou, Si Yi had discussed it with Ge Junjian and had even asked the man for a piece of vacant land from his villa when Si Yi was building the house.

That was how they could go to Ge Junjian’s house through the side door and a shortcut. It was also due to Ge Junjian’s generous support that Si Yi could build his and Yun Jian’s villa so close to the man’s house. It was convenient for them to just walk over.

Yun Jian put away her bag and went to Ge Junjian’s place since Si Yi was not home at this hour anyway. Just as she came to Ge Junjian’s door, she saw Qin Yirou doing housework inside.

When the woman saw Yun Jian, she was a little stunned before asking, “Didn’t A-Yi come back together with you?”

There was no difference between Qin Yirou and a woman who looked forward to her son-in-law returning home.

Chapter 1106: Keep It if You Happen to Get Pregnant

Yun Jian could not help the twitch at her lips when she heard Qin Yirou’s question. She was her birth daughter, though? Why was the woman not fretting over her but Si Yi when she was the one who came home?

“He went out,” Yun Jian answered after a pause despite what she thought.

“I see”! Qin Yirou continued mopping the floor.

It had been a while since the wedding and Ge Xuan had gone back to study abroad after attending it. With her fulfilling love life, Qin Yirou was looking better both in her complexion and expression.

“Xiao Jian, dinner’s ready. We’ll wait for A-Yi to start together,” Qin Yirou came to tell Yun Jian after she mopped the floor and wiped her wet hands.

“Sure.” Yun Jian nodded.

Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya were playing upstairs while Qin Yirou was done with her chores after mopping the floor, so she went up to Yun Jian.

“Hey, Xiao Jian, how are you and A-Yi doing now?” Qin Yirou took Yun Jian’s hand in hers and asked.

“We’re getting along pretty well.” There was a slight pause before Yun Jian answered.

It was three days before the Senior High School Entrance Examination but Qin Yirou was not worried about Yun Jian’s result like other mothers over their children’s at all. On the contrary, she did not even bring it up.

“A-Yi is someone you can trust to spend your life with. You should cherish him and don’t let him get away,” Qin Yirou advised and looked at Yun Jian in a gaze she had never worn in the past.

It dazed Yun Jian a little before she replied, “I know, mom.”

“A-Yi is 20 years old now. Young men will always have urges during their adolescence. Xiao Jian, don’t be stubborn... I think A-Yi is a good boy. Even if...”

“You two will definitely get married in the future anyway. If there’s any premarital you know... it’s okay—as long as you have protection.”

“It’s fine if you get pregnant accidentally too. Keep it. I’m free now. It’ll make the house lively with a baby!”

Qin Yirou thought that Si Yi had slept with Yun Jian a long time ago. Moreover, the two of them were staying under one roof where they were the only ones in the house too.

The woman had of course said that because she approved of Si Yi. Basically, Qin Yirou was already treating Si Yi like her son-in-law.

In spite of it, Yun Jian blushed red like an apple at Qin Yirou’s words. She did not expect her mother to tell her something like this. She could kill someone without batting an eye and stay calm in the face of emergencies but she was blushing at this topic.

When Qin Yirou saw that Yun Jian kept quiet, she tried harder and only stopped speaking when Si Yi came in. Ge Junjian was busy with military affairs and would not return home sometimes but Qin Yirou was understanding about it.

She stopped when she saw Si Yi and asked Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya to come downstairs so they could get seated at the table and have dinner.

Before Yun Jian went back to the villa she was staying at with Si Yi, Qin Yirou had even surreptitiously asked Si Yi out and talked to him for several minutes, not allowing Yun Jian to hear them. When they went back to their villa, Yun Jian turned to ask Si Yi, “What did my mom tell you just now?”

“You wanna know?” Si Yi asked with a cryptic smirk.

Yun Jian nodded and was instantly swept into Si Yi's embrace before the young man pressed his lips close to her ear with a tilt of body and spoke into it.

Yun Jian flushed red upon hearing what he said.. What Si Yi said was...

Chapter 1107: Here Comes The Indomitables

"To wear protection when we do it!"

Yun Jian was instantly flustered at what Qin Yirou had told Si Yi.

The young man smiled at the sight of her pink cheeks before holding her face and kissing her. It was only a peck, he did not do anything further. His Xiao Jian was still young.

...

Three days passed in a flash and it was finally the day of the Senior High School Entrance Examination.

It was an unusually hot day, probably the warmest since the new year, but the students pushed through the three days of exam determinedly.

Yun Jian was always the one to finish her test paper the earliest during the examination, not even double checking her papers once she completed them, while her peers kept checking theirs, worried that they had underperformed.

When the three days of examination ended, Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng, Ling Yichen, and Zhang Jian deflated and relaxed immediately from the staunch fight.

Once the examination came to an end, students packed all their belongings they had kept in school and went home.

The end of the Senior High School Entrance Examination also meant that Yun Jian and her peers had two weeks of summer break in advance from the other students. Of course, they had to return to school when the exam results were published before they officially ended three years of junior high school and they would then enter different senior high schools after that.

Parents came to school to help their children move stacks of books on that day while Si Yi drove to help Yun Jian with that during school dismissal. It was just a short window of free time he had as he was returning to An Hun Group the next day.

Yun Jian carried a simple luggage the next day, storing a number of things she needed, and departed to Min City early in the morning. She was going alone as she had promised Chu Ning and others that she would spend her break with them.

Summer break had yet to begin for now. Yun Jian was the one who had a two-week break in advance, so Chu Ning and team were still in school. When Yun Jian went there, she called Chu Xiangnan who owned a cellphone directly.

Her teammates were still in school but once they heard that Yun Jian had arrived, they sent Chu Ning to pick her up at the gate of the military school.

Outsiders were not allowed to enter the military school but Chu Ning took a long time persuading the security guard at the entrance and he finally allowed Yun Jian to come in when he found out that she would be among the next batch of selected students.

“Phew, I finally got you in!” Chu Ning wiped the sweat on her forehead and led Yun Jian toward the school’s training ground. That was where the other five members of Team Monarch were training at.

Listening to Chu Ning, Yun Jian stared at her for a few seconds before she cracked a grin and sighed, “Someone’s gotten darker.”

It took Chu Ning a back before she came to realize that Yun Jian was talking about her and she swatted at Yun Jian’s shoulder, laughing, “Don’t expose me like that!”

She took her to the big field after that. Upon meeting the others in Team Monarch, the group sat under the fiery sun on the sizeable military school training field.

“We don’t have class at night. Yun Jian, where do you want to go? Want to walk around Min City’s streets? Or have a tour in our school first?” Chu Xiangnan asked with a grin.

“Stop interrupting me, stupid Chunan!” Chu Ning nagged at the guy with a giggle. This was her new nickname for Chu Xiangnan—“Chunan[1]”!

Yun Jian pressed her lips together in a light smile.

The team was bantering and chuckling when a mocking voice came from behind them.

“Oh, isn’t this our very famous Team Monarch? Haha! Where is the pretty girl from?”

Yun Jian turned around with her teammates and was greeted with the sight of a thuggish guy provoking Chu Ning and others, as well as attempting to tease her.

The guy winked at Yun Jian. “Young lady, them Team Monarch are all trash. I’m from The Indomitables, heh. Want to come hang out with me? Ignore these useless Team Monarch guys!”

Chapter 1108: She’s a Part of Team Monarch

The delinquent-looking guy was from The Indomitables, the group that Chu Ning and others had mentioned to Yun Jian when they went back to Longmen City previously.

This guy was only an errand runner in The Indomitables named Peng Jingwei. He and everyone else in The Indomitables were proud of being part of the group because they had someone exceptionally brilliant there.

Chu Ning had told Yun Jian about this amazing person from The Indomitables before as well, saying that all six of them could not fight this one person even when they worked together. All of them were defeated aside from Jiang Weiwei; even then, Jiang Weiwei nearly got injured as well.

Jiang Weiwei was not weak at all. She was ranked second in terms of ability in Team Monarch. Despite that, she could not rival that person from The Indomitables even when she fought alongside the other five of her teammates, so one could only imagine how skilled that person was.

It was also because of that capable teammate who subdued Team Monarch, a team that was put up the pedestal, that the members of The Indomitables got so insolent.

Peng Jingwei, for example, dared taunt Chu Ning and others when he was only an errand boy in The Indomitables. This was all because of that person from his group who beat six of the Team Monarch members alone.

The members of The Indomitables were incredibly pleased with themselves now.

Peng Jingwei got big-headed, thinking that coming from The Indomitables really made them indomitable, so he could not help going over to mock Team Monarch when he saw them sitting on the field. Spotting Yun Jian among the Team Monarch members was a surprise to him and he was stunned.

How could there be such a beautiful girl in this world?

She was unlike the girls and women who depended on makeup and fashionable outfits on the streets. Her beauty was natural.

Peng Jingwei was completely enthralled and felt compelled to flirt with her.

Logically, Chu Ning should be barking back at Peng Jingwei for what he said but she snorted a chuckle instead.

“Pft!” Chu Ning let a chortle escape her.

Peng Jingwei could have said anything but he told Yun Jian that Team Monarch was trash? It was basically telling the boss of Team Monarch that her team was useless and she should leave with him.

Chu Ning pressed her lips together after the chuckle and turned to Yun Jian, telling her after a moment, “Ignore him! Trash calling others trash!”

Chu Ning and the others were already used to The Indomitables’ taunts. They could care less about them now but had privately trained giving their best, waiting to improve themselves and beat The Indomitables.

With what Chu Ning said and Yun Jian ignoring him, Peng Jingwei was agitated.

“Oh, please, you Team Monarch shouldn’t keep the beauty hanging with you all when you’re trash!” Peng Jingwei huffed and turned to Yun Jian with a flirty gaze.

“Cutie, it looks bad on you when you’re so pretty yet you hang out with these trash from Team Monarch! Come with me. I’m from The Indomitables, the best team in the military school!”

“Heh, what say you?” Peng Jingwei invited and wanted to tug Yun Jian with his incredibly tanned hand.

Yun Jian furrowed her brows in repulsion and turned herself away unnoticeably on the field to avoid Peng Jingwei’s unwanted touch. While the guy stared at her, she stood up and sneered, “If we Team Monarch are trash, you The Indomitables are worse than trash!”

The words “we Team Monarch” shocked Peng Jingwei.

W-what did she say? This beautiful girl, could she be...

Chapter 1109: Ragging Jingwei, Presenting The Indomitables

She was from Team Monarch?

Peng Jingwei's eyes bulged in surprise.

There were seven members in Team Monarch with six of them already attending the military school. Due to the fact that Peng Jingwei was frequently meeting the six of them, it slipped his mind that there was the strongest member, Slashing God, in Team Monarch.

To Peng Jingwei and his teammates, they subconsciously assumed that there were only six people in Team Monarch and these six people were nobody since The Indomitables' leader had completely thrashed them.

As for Yun Jian's appearance today, Peng Jingwei had automatically assumed her to be the relative of one of the six Team Monarch members who came to Min City for a holiday after the Senior High School Entrance Examination.

That was why he said what he did yet who would have expected the girl to just declare "we Team Monarch"? If she were from Team Monarch, did it mean that she was Slashing God, the best in the team? With that thin build of hers? Hah!

"You hear her? Don't compare us Team Monarch to you trashy The Indomitables! Hah, the name The Indomitables is so tacky too!"

"Go away! Sooner better than later! What's so good about you? What's there to be so arrogant about?" Chu Ning patted the grass sticking to her pants off her bottom and got up to go to Yun Jian, jeering at Peng Jingwei with an arm slung over Yun Jian's shoulders.

They had lost in terms of skill but they must not lose their confidence!

That was exactly what Chu Ning was embodying. She was fierce when she said that.

Just as she finished, Chu Xiangnan who was seated on the field stood up to go to Peng Jingwei as well.

Despite hitting puberty, Peng Jingwei was only a little over 1.6 meter, so Chu Xiangnan could easily look down at him with his height.

"P*ss off! F*ck, what about The Indomitables? I think you should just rename yourselves to The Trash!" Chu Xiangnan growled at Peng Jingwei right after Chu Ning. He even raised a clenched fist at him with his bones cracking in intimidation.

Peng Jingwei gulped in fright at Chu Xiangnan's gesture. He had acted so insolently because he was from The Indomitables and had the support of the team—he himself was rather useless. Therefore, he stumbled back at the intimidation and pointed at the few of them to threaten in an exaggerated tone, "J-just—Just you wait!"

He ran off immediately.

“Haha! Coward!” Perhaps it was because Yun Jian was around and Team Monarch was complete with seven members, Chu Xiangnan felt like he was much more confident and guffawed at the sight of Peng Jingwei fleeing.

He even raised a middle finger toward where the guy ran off to before he turned to Yun Jian and patted his chest with a laugh, asking, “What do you think, Yun Jian? Was I super manly just now?”

Chu Ning was quick to contest him. “I was better!”

The two of them then trained sparkling gazes at Yun Jian anticipating her comment.

The girl blinked and smiled before making a two-worded comment softly, “Very mischievous.”

Jiang Weiwei guffawed the moment she heard Yun Jian’s reply and everyone else, aside from the jokesters Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan, soon followed.

...

A trail nearby the forest in school.

A group of teenage boys and girls were sitting on the patch of grass obediently as they listened to a girl who was speaking from where she stood at a higher point. It was like a gang meeting of some sort.

Suddenly, someone barged into the gathering, causing the girl who stood higher up to berate, “Peng Jingwei! What are you doing? We, The Indomitables, should maintain our image at all time! What do you think you’re doing losing your cool like that? Do you still want to stay in the team?”

Chapter 1110: The Copycat—The Indomitables

Peng Jingwei paused abruptly once he was being shouted at by the girl who stood higher and slowed down to walk over. It was evident that the girl was influential in The Indomitables.

“Miss Chisi, I—I saw something surprising just now and wanted to hurry back to inform all of you. That’s why I walked so fast...” Peng Jingwei said.

He was interrupted by the girl named Chisi. “Alright, alright, spill it. What’s so surprising?”

The girl was Gu Chisi, the only daughter of a coal businessman in Min City and was quite famous in the military school. Her identity in addition to her innate sense of superiority caused those who were there with her to give in to her as they were peeved but dared not say a thing.

The reason they listened to her so well was not only because Gu Chisi was the vice president of The Indomitables, she was the younger sister of the leader, the president of The Indomitables.

Of course, Gu Chisi was not the president’s biological younger sister. She was the daughter of long-time friend of the president’s family. Simply put, she was the daughter of a friend of the president’s father in the business world.

As for the president of The Indomitables, the strong leader who Chu Ning mentioned to have defeated all six of them alone, he was Duan Xinchun.

The Indomitables was like a gang, or a cult, as its members sat on the field and listened to the vice president, Gu Chisi's speech.

It was after Gu Chisi cut him off that Peng Jingwei hurried to tell them what happened just now.

When he brought Yun Jian up, he did not think she was Team Monarch's Slashing God, so Gu Chisi and the other The Indomitables members did not relate the girl to Team Monarch either after listening to Peng Jingwei.

When Peng Jingwei went on to talk about Yun Jian's looks, he described her seriously, "She's so beautiful that... Tsk, I haven't seen such a beautiful girl in my life!"

He even reveled in his recollection for a bit.

Gu Chisi who was also a girl was indignant and asked with a tinge of jealousy, "Is she that beautiful? Compared to me?"

She was only huffing casually but Peng Jingwei who was caught reminiscing about Yun Jian's beauty blurted, "You're not even on the same level. Her beauty's really—"

Before he finished his sentence, Gu Chisi kicked him away. She fumed and led the group of members toward where Yun Jian was at once, grumbling on the way, "I'd like to see how pretty she is!"

...

Yun Jian did not even know that someone was leading several dozens of people to march toward her in rage.

The reality proved that a girl's jealousy was scary. Girls in their adolescence, especially, could escalate things into an unsalvageable stage because of one petty issue.

Right now, Yun Jian had gone to the military school's cafeteria with Chu Ning and others.

It was already noon and was time for lunch.

Cafeterias in senior high schools worked by ordering what one wanted and paying by the cafeteria card. Yun Jian was a guest, so her teammates rushed to buy her the meal.

Staring at the rice with four to five types of meat dishes and two to three types of vegetables dishes—courtesy of Chu Ning, Yun Jian paused. Regular students would order one type of meat dish and one type of vegetables dish for themselves at most.

"Hehe, let's eat!" Chu Ning called out holding her chopsticks before digging into her meal.

As they had lunch, Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan were still rambling about The Indomitables to Yun Jian.

"Yun Jian'er, you didn't know huh, the reason the group The Indomitables even formed was because of us, Team Monarch!"

"Hah, they didn't even have a name for the clique of people hanging out together but when they saw that we have a name, they jumped on the bandwagon and gave themselves a name too!"

“Pft, it’s hilarious. We, Team Monarch, are under an official troop and our name is registered in the military but The Indomitables isn’t even legit!”