

Schoolgirl 1111

Chapter 1111: Loser, You Mean You

Chu Ning spoke and chuckled in amusement.

The Indomitables had not started as a group initially. Back when Chu Ning and friends first attended the military school, Gu Chisi and her lackeys happened to have a discord with them and got beaten up.

Initially, Chu Ning and others had thought that Gu Chisi and her clique would not dare act so rampantly after getting a good wallop but the girl summoned Duan Xinchun, a senior who was currently in sophomore and was going to become a junior, to help.

Duan Xinchun had spent close to two years in the military school and he was trained since a young age—it was even said that he had once gone under a Wushu master to learn martial arts, so he was tremendously skilled.

The six of Team Monarch fought him openly and were defeated. In the end, they combined forces and battled him but were still not his rival.

Since then, Gu Chisi and her lackeys gloated and established The Indomitables with the girl calling the shots. She had even made Duan Xinchun the president of The Indomitables and recruited people in school to join them.

It got pretty big but in fact, Gu Chisi had set up The Indomitables all because she saw that Chu Ning and others had Team Monarch. She thought that the team they formed sounded cool, so she made one as well.

“They’re just copycats and they followed us without even thinking. They should ask themselves if they’re even legit! Haha!”

It was like a duet between Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan as they recounted everything that happened when they were in school.

“Yun Jian’er, don’t you think so?” By the end of it, Chu Ning took a bite of her lean meat and asked Yun Jian who sat opposite of her with a giggle.

With a press of lips, Yun Jian replied with a faint smile. She did feel that The Indomitables was kind of farcical from what Chu Ning had said. It was like they were children playing house.

Despite that, Yun Jian continued to say after the soft smile, “Eat up.”

She was just going to send a mouthful of okras into her mouth when she arched a brow suddenly.

Thud! Thunk! Bang!

The noise of chairs and tables being shoved was heard from behind her. It went silent for a second before a grating voice of a girl spoke, “You Team Monarch bullied our Peng Jingwei from The Indomitables just now huh? Are you seeking your death? Or do you think The Indomitables hasn’t beaten you up enough?”

One ought to find a reasonable excuse when one wanted to pick a fight. Gu Chisi utilized the fact that Peng Jingwei was berated by Chu Xiangnan to come over and find fault with Team Monarch.

The military school students consisted mostly of boys and they were pretty well-trained. When they saw Gu Chisi surrounding Team Monarch with a group of people, they were not scared. Instead, they crowded toward them to watch the drama.

“F*ck! Did we? How did we bully that whoever? He was the senseless one to come and try to talk to our Yun Jian’er!” Enraged by Gu Chisi’s accusation, Chu Ning sprang up with a slap on the table.

“You Team Monarch are only losers! Defeated by us! Why would our people even want to talk to you?”

Gu Chisi could not see Yun Jian’s face as the latter had her back against her, but she was jealous looking at Yun Jian’s slender figure and promptly snapped back.

Right after Gu Chisi uttered “you Team Monarch are only losers”, Yun Jian who had her back against the girl flicked the spoon in her hand away and got up.

The steel spoon that Yun Jian had tossed flew a short distance away before penetrating the wooden dining table right in front of everyone.

It went into the wood! The spoon was actually thrown into the table! How strong must the girl’s wrist strength be?!

The onlookers were shocked.

Yun Jian then slowly turned around and made direct eye contact with Gu Chisi, wearing a small disdainful smirk, as she spoke up in an unnerving tone, “Losers? You mean The Indomitables?”

Chapter 1112: Let’s Fight. The Indomitables’ President

Yun Jian’s brazen words and bewildering skill intimidated Gu Chisi and her lackeys in The Indomitables, as well as the other students having lunch in the cafeteria.

Since Duan Xinchun had beaten the six members in Team Monarch and later formed The Indomitables, there had yet to be anyone in the military school who dared challenge them. Duan Xinchun had basically made a name for himself due to the battle and even if he was rarely in The Indomitables, the students were too scared to offend the gang.

Part of the reason what Yun Jian had done shocked everyone in the cafeteria was not only because of her frightening skill but also... Why was the pretty girl so infuriated when she heard Gu Chisi say that Team Monarch were losers? She was not in Team Monarch—why was she acting like she was one of its members?

“Yun Jian’er, good job! We have your back!” Chu Ning cheered the moment she heard Yun Jian.

When Gu Chisi saw Yun Jian’s pretty face, her jealousy grew out of nowhere. When she recalled Peng Jingwei’s words earlier, especially, she had the impulse to get rid of Yun Jian once and for all.

Gu Chisi clenched her fists and glared at Yun Jian, speaking furiously after a two-second silence, “Heh, stop being dramatic. Team Monarch are losers—everyone witnessed it with their own eyes! Besides, what right does an outsider like you have to talk about us?”

Gu Chisi really wanted to curse at Yun Jian but she held herself back. Compared to giving Yun Jian a piece of her mind, she thought that her ladylike image was more important.

“You don’t believe me?” Yun Jian crossed her arms in front of herself and easily lifted a leg onto the cafeteria’s chair before hooking a slender index finger at Gu Chisi.

“Let’s fight if you don’t agree! I’ll have you trash know what real losers are today!” Yun Jian tilted a head as she spoke, her despising tone making everyone’s eye twitch.

By the time it registered in Gu Chisi’s mind, she nearly charged over to Yun Jian and ripped her into shreds. What did she say? She called them The Indomitables trash? Said they were useless?

Gu Chisi shook in anger and lost her composure. Just as she was about to pounce at Yun Jian, a guy came in through the cafeteria’s entrance behind her. He was quite good looking and had quite a well-proportioned figure. The guy’s features exuded a handsome sense as well.

Once this guy, probably around 17 or 18 years old, came in through the door, the girls nearby screamed and cheered ecstatically, “Duan Xinchun! Duan Xinchun! Duan Xinchun!”

Duan Xinchun was popular in the military school. Ever since he had beaten the six Team Monarch members alone, his reputation soared.

Once Gu Chisi heard that her savior was here, she quickly turned to run to Duan Xinchun and hug his arm, whining to him in a cutesy tone, “Chen-gege, someone’s bullying me. It’s her! It’s her!”

Duan Xinchun who heard Gu Chisi’s voice turned with a furrow of brows only to catch a coincidental glimpse of the girl who stood opposite of him with her arms crossed. He lost his frown instantly and his eyes sparkled once he saw Yun Jian.

What a beautiful girl!

Chapter 1113: The Drillmasters and Their Fight

Duan Xinchun was relatively cold in nature, like he did not care about anyone or anything. It was exactly due to his aloof character that Gu Chisi was so infatuated with him and liked him so much.

Although Gu Chisi and Duan Xinchun knew each other because their parents were best friends and good partners in the business field, Gu Chisi liking Duan Xinchun did not mean the latter liked her back. On the contrary, Duan Xinchun found Gu Chisi annoying; it was just that he did not verbalize it.

The moment Duan Xinchun saw Yun Jian, he felt his eyes light up.

Yun Jian glanced at Duan Xinchun with her arms crossed. There was a light smirk on the corner of her lips; her skin was fair and smooth—supple like a baby’s, and her face was pure and gorgeous.

There was basically no guy there who would not be attracted to Yun Jian, especially in the military school where guys were the majority and girls were scarce. Even an ugly girl would be put on pedestal, what was more, a delicate and pretty girl like Yun Jian.

Gu Chisi caught Duan Xinchun checking Yun Jian out and grew more enraged. She forced herself to not throw herself at Yun Jian and kill her with a stab but shook Duan Xinchun's arm and asked in an even more whiny and cute voice, "Chen-gege, she bullied your Chisi-meimei just now. Are you not taking revenge for your Chisi-meimei?"

The fact that Gu Chisi kept addressing herself as Chisi-meimei gave everyone in the cafeteria goosebumps. Yun Jian creased her brows discreetly as well.

"Pft, who's bullying you? Gu Chisi, stop trying to paint yourself as the innocent party, okay? Tsk, disgusting!" Chu Ning retorted matter-of-factly.

Right after she spoke, Duan Xinchun loosened Gu Chisi's hold on him and went to Yun Jian. Gu Chisi smiled slightly at the sight; she knew that her Chen-gege would help her!

Despite what she thought, Duan Xinchun who stood in front of Yun Jian asked her in a feigned domineering sense tinged with a hint of coldness, "What's your name?"

With her arms crossed in front of her, Yun Jian took one look at Duan Xinchun, not losing to him in terms of their presence. "You don't have to know because I don't tell trash my name."

Everyone's breath caught at Yun Jian's answer.

Was she crazy? Did she know who the person standing in front of her was? He was Duan Xinchun—the legendary one who defeated six Team Monarch members alone and was even called the "Teen God of War"!

Duan Xinchun raised a brow at Yun Jian's words and side-eyed her in a self-assumed cool pose, replying faintly, "Heh, interesting."

He had just said that when someone pointed at the door and shouted, "Yikes, the drillmasters are here!"

The students looked toward the entrance following the exclamation. Yun Jian did the same, shifting her gaze to the cafeteria door, and saw a muscular man in his thirties leading several drillmasters into the cafeteria toward them.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes slightly.

The man who was leading the other drillmasters was Yu Shaoluo, one of Ge Junjian's comrades invited to dinner previously.

Yu Shaoluo was seen coming toward them with a few drillmasters. He looked at Yun Jian in delight just as he came over. "Why didn't you tell me you've come to the military school? We'd have dropped everything and come here to welcome you!"

Yu Shaoluo was one of the strictest drillmasters in school, so what he said baffled everyone.

Who was she? Why would the drillmasters have to welcome her when she came to school?

“Sir, Team Monarch’s personally taken her into our school but our school prohibits outsiders from entering. Shouldn’t Team Monarch be punished?” Gu Chisi prompted purposely when she saw that their instructors were here.

Yu Shaoluo snapped at her with a frown, “Punishment? She’s Slashing God from Team Monarch and will be attending our school next semester! She’s one of our own!”

Everyone else froze in shock.

What?!

She was the famous Slashing God in Team Monarch who the drillmasters had a fight over previously to have her in their team?

Chapter 1114: Well-Deserved, Best of the Best

Everyone was stunned. After all, they had thought that Yun Jian was so pretty with skin that was delicate and soft unlike a Special Forces soldier.

Girls who usually became Advanced Special Forces soldiers were either burnt from the sun or ugly like the legendary ugly but virtuous woman, Wuyan.

Yun Jian? From the moment everyone laid eyes on her, they thought that she must be a wealthy heiress who had never done a chore in her life. She did give off that feeling from the vibe and mannerism she exuded.

That was until Yu Shaoluo and the other drillmasters appeared, as well as the man’s courteous tone when he spoke to Yun Jian. It shocked everyone there—not to mention terrifying them.

A girl like Yun Jian who looked soft and frail on the outside was actually the famous Slashing God from Team Monarch! The Slashing God from Team Monarch who the drillmasters had fought over just to get her into their team!

Gu Chisi was trying to get Yu Shaoluo to properly punish Yun Jian using the reason that Chu Ning had brought her, an outsider, into their school with what she told the man just now. She did not expect that not only had she failed to make Yu Shaoluo censure Team Monarch, she was the one being berated instead!

As for those from The Indomitables, Duan Xinchun included, they were all stupefied and watched the whole scene in disbelief.

In comparison to Gu Chisi and The Indomitables, as well as the other students, who all looked like a bomb was dropped on them, Chu Ning and team looked unfazed and casual.

“Heh, our Yun Jian’er is that good!” Standing beside Yun Jian. Chu Ning said after turning for a glance at the former’s flawless pretty face. She even vaguely threw Gu Chisi a challenging look as she spoke; her gaze seemed like it was mocking the latter saying, “Got nothing to say now huh?”

Gu Chisi had always been a competitive girl. When she caught Chu Ning’s gaze, she fumed even more. Despite being shocked by Yun Jian’s identity just now, she refused to stay at the losing end. Simply put, she was not giving up until she reached a grave ending.

“Humph,” Gu Chisi first snorted before she scanned Yun Jian from head to toe, only to see her frail and thin figure like she was a weak and helpless girl.

With her beloved Chen-gege keeping his eyes on Yun Jian with an obviously admiring gaze, specifically, Gu Chisi was even more enraged.

“Sir, is she really the famous legendary Slashing God from Team Monarch? The other six members from Team Monarch were defeated by my Chen-gege singlehandedly!”

“Besides, girls are always weaker than guys in terms of strength. Look at how feeble she looks. Is she really Team Monarch’s Slashing God?”

Gu Chisi trained her gaze on Yu Shaoluo. Everyone there could hear her skepticism and anger toward Yun Jian. The man was taken aback but quickly recovered. He looked toward Yun Jian and told Gu Chisi in exceptional assertiveness, “Who else in this world if not her who could annihilate Flying Passage, the top gang in the black market of Province H in Country X?”

“Who else could summon Gu Sha Mercenaries and An Hun Group to work with Zhe Province’s military to take out Inferno Ring, the most terrorizing international assassin organization?”

“Yun Jian is a legend herself! In Country Z—no, even if it were among the elite youths in this world, she’s well deserving of being the best of the best!”

Chapter 1115: Knock You Down and Get You Dragged Out

Why was Team Monarch’s Slashing God so famous?

Those in the cafeteria knew about Team Monarch’s Slashing God and heard of her reputation but what they could find out about her was limited. Some of them had even only known about Slashing God because the drillmasters fought over her previously and got scolded by the chief instructor in the end.

Yun Jian’s previous achievements were not passed around in the military school in Min City and the students there were unable to find out about them. They only knew that Slashing God of Team Monarch was good but no one knew how good in particular she was.

Gu Chisi was the same. The Indomitables did not even know the extent of Slashing God’s abilities. That was why they challenged the other six members of Team Monarch.

As for Duan Xinchun, he looked aloof and cold—and he did not like Gu Chisi, but when the latter asked him to battle the six members of Team Monarch, he did not decline it. Not only had he gone along the request, he defeated the six of them directly without saving them any face.

Although Duan Xinchun did not step up to ridicule the six Team Monarch members after they lost to him, he made them the target of the school students' taunts and jeers while he maintained his cold character and acted like a cool guy of few words.

Duan Xinchun was rather capable, truthfully, so he liked putting up a front to make others think that he was an enigmatic presence. Without a doubt, his feigned sense of mystery was considerably successful before Yun Jian's appearance.

It was when Yu Shaoluo listed Yun Jian's legendary feats that Duan Xinchun's feigned nonchalant face froze. He did not imagine the girl he finally liked at first sight to annihilate a gang on her own—and had even gathered the two top assassin organizations in the world to wipe out the globally famed Inferno Ring!

Did a teenage girl really accomplish all these?

"What?! H-how's this possible... Sir, are you joking with us? I heard that Inferno Ring was taken down by Zhe Province's military. How could it be her..."

Gu Chisi was shocked by what Yu Shaoluo had just said and brought her hands up in disbelief as she stared at Yun Jian who stood nearby with terrorized eyes, only to see the latter squinting and meeting her eyes with a cold smirk.

When Yun Jian saw Gu Chisi looking over to her, she put on an unnerving smile that made the latter shudder.

Gu Chisi reeled in her gaze immediately and averted it to Yu Shaoluo, hoping to hear him say that he had mistaken the matter and the person so amazing was not actually Yun Jian.

Before Yu Shaoluo could open his mouth and make a sound, Yun Jian had spoken up first.

She was still standing nearby but had withdrawn her smile. She looked over to Gu Chisi with an icy gaze and spoke faintly, "Could it have been a trash like you instead if it wasn't me?"

Yun Jian's repartee in addition to her cool and pretty face made the students stare at her.

Gu Chisi was taken aback by Yun Jian's barbed retort. She had not liked her in the beginning, so she was only more enraged hearing what she said now.

"You—what are you feeling so superior about? Careful I'll make Chen-gege beat you up!"

Yun Jian cracked the bones on both her hands right after what Gu Chisi said and strode toward the girl, galvanizing words tumbling out of her lips.

"What a coincidence. The president of The Indomitables bullied my people.. If I don't knock you trash from The Indomitables down and get you dragged out today, I'll forgo my name as Slashing God!"

Chapter 1116: Coming Soon: Yun Jian's Partiality for Her Own People

As Yun Jian spoke, she had already gone toward Gu Chisi.

Did The Indomitables really think that they could get away scot-free when they bullied her people from Team Monarch?

Yun Jian had always been this way. They ought not blame her for being merciless.

Even if The Indomitables had not come for them today, just the fact that its president, Duan Xinchun, had beaten Chu Ning and the rest of Team Monarch up in front of the school and caused them to lose face was enough to make sure that Yun Jian would be relentless against them.

The six members of Team Monarch had never wanted Yun Jian to take revenge for them. Even when they had such a formidable teammate like Yun Jian, their immediate reaction after losing their pride in front of the school from being beaten up by The Indomitables’ Duan Xinchun was to train themselves diligently with the intention to win based on their own ability.

Nevertheless, this was different from Yun Jian taking the initiative to avenge for Chu Ning and the rest. Yun Jian had planned to do this a long time ago as well. Nobody should dare lay a finger on her people.

“You... What do you want?” Gu Chisi’s legs felt dead for a moment when she was frightened by Yun Jian’s sudden advance before she took a few steps back, almost spraining her ankle and falling, but she managed to catch her balance.

“Cut the crap. You The Indomitables can come at me together,” Yun Jian said brazenly standing on the spot with her arms crossed in front of her.

Did she just ask all the members in The Indomitables to... attack her in unison? There were 30-40 of them there in the cafeteria! Moreover, the students in the military school were unlike regular school students in their capability. Each of them was around Chu Xiangnan’s level and Yun Jian wanted to take 30-40 of them on alone?

Had she lost her mind?

“Hah! What? You want everyone in The Indomitables to fight just you? Sure, of course!” Gu Chisi had been a little scared of Yun Jian but she almost clapped and cheered now listening to what she said.

She had thought that Yun Jian wanted a duel with each member of The Indomitables but the girl was aggressive, asking to fight 30-40 of them by herself! Furthermore, The Indomitables had the strongest Chen-gege! Even if Yun Jian were made of steel and iron, she would definitely lose fighting so many of them alone!

Gu Chisi was about to direct the members of The Indomitables to fight Yun Jian when Duan Xinchun pressed on her shoulders.

Looking at the students, the drillmasters did not even stop them but continued to watch from the side. Usually, the instructors would have stepped up to stop the students when they openly challenged each other for duels and group fights. When the person in question was Yun Jian today, however, they stayed quiet.

“Not doing anything huh?” Yun Jian tugged the corner of her lips up into a small smile from where she stood and abruptly flattened it.

The next second, everyone there felt like she flickered in presence. It was truly only a matter of seconds. Duan Xinchun trailed after Yun Jian’s silhouette from his spot but by the time his eyes found Yun Jian again, he felt the girl kicking his stomach out of the blue.

Duan Xinchun was kicked to the floor with a thud. Yun Jian who retracted her leg mocked coldly, “Acting like a gentleman who doesn’t hit girls? Sorry, you not doing anything won’t change your fate of getting knocked down and carried out of the cafeteria today!”

Chapter 1117: It’s the Matter of Speed Between Aces

Yun Jian’s few words exposed Duan Xinchun’s hypocrisy and roused The Indomitables’ panic. Nonetheless, those who were present were not paying attention to what she said. The drillmasters who saw the scene just now straightened up abruptly as well.

“Oh my god!” Those who saw Yun Jian kicking Duan Xinchun within seconds were thoroughly terrified.

When Gu Chisi saw her most respected and beloved Chen-gege getting kicked by Yun Jian, she tensed up like a wound spring and clenched her fists like she had just witnessed something incredibly horrible.

All of them were not shocked about Yun Jian kicking Duan Xinchun. They were well trained and occasionally got into fights too. Lifting their legs and kicking someone down to the floor was doable to the majority of them as well since it was not exactly a challenging action.

What shocked them and injected terror, making them widen their eyes in horror and panic, was Yun Jian’s speed!

There was at least over ten meters of distance from where Yun Jian was to Duan Xinchun. Yet, it certainly did not take more than three seconds for Yun Jian to sprint from her spot, going over more than ten meters, to kick Duan Xinchun!

She was so fast that it was untraceable with bare eyes!

Duan Xinchun who had defeated the six of Team Monarch alone had not even managed to react to Yun Jian standing in front of him before he was flung away by the kick.

What was the most important for a person—or perhaps a prodigy—who wanted to be good, or better than everyone else? It was speed!

For example, who was better when an ace met an ace, like a sharpshooter meeting another sharpshooter with both of them being elites and cream of the crop—the best of the best? There was no doubt that speed was the only thing that mattered when aces met. It was only a matter of speed to see who was better!

From the sharpshooter example, if both of them were to battle, just being faster by 0.1 second would be the deciding factor of their victory or even killing their opponent.

Yun Jian might not be too much stronger than Duan Xinchun and there were definitely others in the world who had more strength than her but why was she better than all of them?

She was all about speed! She was fast, precise, merciless, and brutal!

Being fast was what mattered. The speed she had showcased just now was so swift that one could not physically capture it.

It was also because of her intimidating speed that Duan Xinchun was unable to rival her as he could not even see where she was!

In spite of it, Duan Xinchun was an ace who quashed the six Team Monarch members! Even then, he had exerted all his might when he battled them back then.

What about Yun Jian? She had kicked him flying based on her surprising speed!

“Oh my god!” one of the drillmasters exclaimed while everyone else was dazed.

When they heard the drillmaster’s voice, they snapped their head to the faculty of instructors—only to see the drillmasters with Yu Shaoluo maintaining the same expression that was a widened mouth like an “O”, as they watched in disbelief.

Even the drillmasters were this flabbergasted! This only made the students more shocked.

Yu Shaoluo’s spoke up again, “Goodness! This is the first time I know that the human speed could reach such a level!”

The students grew more restless at their instructor’s confession, each of them gasping deeply.. How fast must Yun Jian be when their drillmasters were this surprised as well!

Chapter 1118: Her Level of Perception. Asking Her to Apologize

There was a reason why the drillmasters did not stop Yun Jian when they saw her challenging The Indomitables. After all, her reputation was evident. The few of them instructors just had a big fight to fight over her and had only stopped with the chief drillmaster’s intervention previously.

In spite of it, they had never seen Yun Jian except for Yu Shaoluo.

When they saw Yun Jian earlier, they were slightly skeptical as well. Her looks and her identity were honestly unconvincing.

That was why they did not stop her just now. Part of the reason was because they wanted to see how good she actually was. Truth to be told, Yun Jian did not disappoint the drillmasters whether it was her ability or tactic. Not only that, the instructors were completely taken aback.

Was she really only a teenage girl? That ridiculous speed was bewildering!

When Yun Jian retracted her leg on the other side, she did not look at Duan Xinchun but tilted her body slightly to side-eye the drillmasters behind her, pressing her lips into a smile. "Drillmasters, are you happy with what you see?"

The crowd there had thought that Yun Jian would continue attacking Duan Xinchun after the kick or demand that he stand up and fight her but nobody expected Yun Jian to turn toward the instructors behind her and say something like that. They were nonplussed.

The instructors, however, flinched and straightened up immediately.

When they saw Yun Jian getting into an argument with Duan Xinchun and others, they should have stopped them but they did not. It did not raise any suspicion from the students either.

The drillmasters had thought that no one in the cafeteria would figure out the reason and intention of them wanting to check out Yun Jian's skills but they had miscalculated.

Not only was Yun Jian practiced in her skills, it came as a surprise to the instructors that her level of perception was equally high.

Suddenly being questioned by Yun Jian, a drillmaster who was tall, lean, and handsome but was completely burnt by the sun winced. "Uh... very good."

Yu Shaoluo spoke up to fend for themselves after that drillmaster answered, "Cough, cough. Fights are not allowed in the school. Yun Jian's just joking with you guys just now. This ends here."

With Yun Jian pointing them out, the students in the cafeteria would realize that the drillmasters had not stopped the fight in the first instant if they still did not do it now. Furthermore, Yu Shaoluo and the other instructors had obvious bias for Yun Jian.

Listening to Yu Shaoluo, The Indomitables dared not do any counterattack.

"Sir, how is that a joke? Chen-gege nearly spat blood from the kick!" Gu Chisi was indignant and huffed as she helped Duan Xinchun who almost spat blood from being kicked to the floor up.

"What do you want then?" Yu Shaoluo glared at Gu Chisi in a slight headache.

"I want her to apologize to us!" Gu Chisi did not even remember how her Chen-gege had humiliated the six members of Team Monarch. Forget an apology, Duan Xinchun did not even tell them a "sorry"!

Yet, Gu Chisi pointed a finger at Yun Jian and was confident that the drillmasters would force the latter to apologize to them.

Yun Jian made her way over as she said that.. No one saw her red lips that were ticking up and her gaze that was glinting sharply with murder.

Chapter 1119: I'll Send You to Grave Using Wushu as Well

Watching Yun Jian come to her in addition to the “Apologize? Sure.” that she said, the hint of smile on Gu Chisi’s face grew more apparent.

As she had expected, even Yun Jian did not dare act recklessly in front of the drillmasters. Here she was coming toward her obediently to apologize to them...

“First and foremost, you have to apologize to my Chen-gege. You took advantage of the situation just now. If you hadn’t done that, how could Chen-gege possibly fail to rival you?”

Gu Chisi who saw Yun Jian walking to her thought that the latter was definitely apologizing to The Indomitables, so she spoke up to remind her and emphasize that she should apologize to her Chen-gege.

That was not all. Gu Chisi thought that she could milk the situation as she not only wanted Yun Jian to apologize, she wanted to take the opportunity to tell everyone there that it was not Duan Xinchun from The Indomitables who was weaker than Yun Jian—it was Yun Jian who took advantage of the timing and ambushed him! That was why she won!

Once she thought that Yun Jian was going to apologize to her, she cracked a grin and waited but urged Yun Jian when she stayed silent, “Hurry up and apologize, you—”

Before she finished her sentence, Yun Jian cut her off. “Took advantage of the situation? You mean like this?”

The slap alongside Yun Jian’s words sent Gu Chisi to the floor with the cheek that was hit burning and throbbing in pain. The latter was dazed for a long moment from the slap.

Yun Jian went over and yanked Gu Chisi’s disheveled long hair expressionlessly, pulling the latter’s face close to herself, and smirked.

“H-how dare you hit me? Sir, she...” Gu Chisi was first slapped by Yun Jian and yanked close to Yun Jian’s face by her hair. Consumed by pain, she wanted to curse at Yun Jian but was met with Yun Jian’s murderous eyes.

Intimidated, Gu Chisi asked for help from the drillmasters. However, Yun Jian slapped her again, cutting her off from asking the instructors for help, just as her pleading voice sounded.

It was not just the students whose breaths caught in their throat from Yun Jian’s brutal actions, the drillmasters who stood farther away felt chills as well.

With the second slap dealt, Yun Jian was about to slap Gu Chisi for the third time when Duan Xinchun spoke from the side, “Chisi is my sister. Do me a favor and stop hitting her.”

Duan Xinchun looked at Yun Jian in admiration. Her sweet and delicate face was truly mesmerizing.

There were always people like this in the world who thought that they were some big shots and the other party would definitely do as they were told once they stepped up to ask for a favor.

Hearing Duan Xinchun, it was already a favor to him that Yun Jian did not laugh on the spot. She loosened her grip, actually letting Gu Chisi go.

Duan Xinchun thought that Yun Jian was doing him a favor as she let go of her hand that was hitting Gu Chisi and was delighted. He felt that she must have feelings for him too!

While Duan Xinchun reveled in that thought, Yun Jian had gotten up slowly after letting go of Gu Chisi. She looked sideway at Duan Xinchun, the murderous intent of a secret agent evident.

With a sharp gaze, she looked at Duan Xinchun with a smirk and asked, "I heard that you were the one who beat six of my Team Monarch members with Wushu."

Yun Jian scoffed and continued to tell him, "I'll send you to grave today using Wushu as well then!"

Yun Jian knew Wushu too?!

The students as well as the drillmasters straightened up and froze in shock hearing what Yun Jian said.

Chapter 1120: Who Are You? Her Man

Wushu was unlike taekwondo, free combat or wrestling. It required long term perseverance. When one succeeded in learning Wushu, one's reaction speed and agility would be increased and these were crucial in battles. As for those who learned Wushu, they usually started training at a very young age.

That was why everyone was astonished when they heard that Yun Jian knew Wushu as well.

"Yun Jian'er, you know Wushu too?" Chu Ning who stood nearby asked in surprise after a momentary stare on Yun Jian.

"She's a genius! A prodigy! She knows Wushu! Hahaha, she's the daughter of my old pal now. My comrade's asked me to teach her well, so she's in my team next semester for sure!"

"None of you can fight with me for her! Haha!"

Yu Shaoluo quickly claimed when he grew ecstatic listening to what Yun Jian said.

His old pal slash comrade here referred to Ge Junjian.

The other drillmasters were unhappy with Yu Shaoluo's claim and were about to speak up to contest for Yun Jian when Gu Chisi's incongruous voice sounded. She was talking to Yu Shaoluo with a tinge of jealousy in her tone.

"Sir, does she really know Wushu just because she says she does? Not everyone could learn Wushu! My Chen-gege's master is an expert who lives in seclusion and took Chen-gege as his disciple back then because he saw Chen-gege's talent!"

"My Chen-gege is that master's only disciple! How could she possibly be as good as that? Besides, who knows if what she's learned is genuine Wushu?"

Gu Chisi was furious at being slapped by Yun Jian but considering the latter's ability, she dared not go forward to her rashly and could only boast arrogantly. By going Chen-gege here and Chen-gege there, it was apparent how proud Gu Chisi was right now.

The students there had even gasped while some exclaimed "whoa" audibly when they heard that Duan Xincheng's master was some masterly man who lived in seclusion. After all, a master in seclusion warranted endless fantasy in this era. Some people even felt that a master in seclusion was a presence relevant to an immortal.

Hearing the gasps and exclamations from her peers, Gu Chisi raised her chin in pleasure. Boasting about how good her Chen-gege was felt as if she was boasting about herself.

After what Gu Chisi said, Duan Xincheng kept his eyes on Yun Jian. He continued to say something that sounded incredibly manly after Gu Chisi.

"I don't want to fight you. It won't be nice if I hurt you."

Duan Xincheng's gaze dimmed a little as he spoke. His dark orbs on Yun Jian was extremely tender, like a teenage boy in love looking at his girlfriend. Those who had no idea of the situation might really think that he was romantically involved with Yun Jian.

"Then fight me!" Yun Jian pressed her lips together; before she could say that, it was a familiar and deep voice of a guy who spoke up from the door.

Si Yi was seen walking in from the cafeteria door with Mo Sen and Ya Dang escorting him closely.

Duan Xincheng arched a brow as he watched the handsome and tall Si Yi who had appeared out of the blue stand himself next to Yun Jian. A foreboding sense flooded his system. With a frown locked in place, Duan Xincheng asked the fine man in front of him, "Who are you?"

"Her man!" Si Yi's sharp eyes were gleaming like a hawk as he looked at Duan Xincheng while he pulled Yun Jian into his arms, declaring his right and place in front of everyone.
