

Schoolgirl 1151

Chapter 1151: Xiaochu Who Asks for It. Have a Go First “Shut up!” Yun Jian’s crisp command sounded right after Duan Tianyou spoke.

Frightened by her terse order, Duan Tianyou felt goosebumps wrack his body before he shuddered. He wanted to snap back at Yun Jian but after keeping his mouth open for some time, he could only manage, “Hah, you’re so young and you really think you’re a god? You didn’t save them in time and now?”

“We don’t even know where they’re taken to now, can you even find them?”

Duan Tianyou harped, blaming Yun Jian for not saving the girls just now when she was able to stop those bandits.

“Another word of crap from you and I’ll kill you this instant!” Yun Jian raised her leg directly and kicked Duan Tianyou’s chest, throwing him several meters away.

Duan Tianyou nearly spat blood when he was kicked unexpectedly. The pang of pain made him thrash on the floor before he could barely stand up but that had successfully stopped him from saying another word.

He initially thought that Yun Jian would not dare attack him but she was actually bold enough to do that! He could even feel her murderous intent toward him and could not help quivering from it.

At the same time, Zatana came out from his garage and told Yun Jian, “My tractor broke down. I can’t start it.”

Yun Jian looked down hearing what he said.

Since it was already nightfall with the moon up in the sky, the bright moonlight shone and illuminated the sandy ground.

Yun Jian could clearly see the tracks left on the ground.

“Then we’ll walk,” Yun Jian told Zatana. As she spoke, she kept her eyes on the ground.

There was close to no paved roads in Country A because majority of its territory was desert, so sandy grounds were the most common here.

Yun Jian observed the ground and pointed at a direction, telling them, “We’ll go this way!”

“Why that way? What if it’s the wrong...” Duan Tianyou had forgotten his lesson just after getting kicked. He was about to continue his riposte when he suddenly remembered how Yun Jian had beaten him up. With a shudder, he shut his mouth.

“The car tires left marks when they moved on the sand. We’ll be able to find them following the tracks,” Hu Qirui who was obviously smarter than Duan Tianyou explained promptly.

As they spoke, they had started running toward said direction.

“Those guys are still in Hasa Village. They won’t go far,” Yun Jian who walked in front said suddenly.

Not knowing how Yun Jian was so sure of what she said, the group with her was taken back. Considering her skills earlier, however, they followed along without a doubt.

...

A broken down straw hut in Hasa Village.

Elisha and Lin Xiaochu were individually tied on a chair each. Elisha seemed to be exceptionally calm while Lin Xiaochu kept wailing.

“Please let me go! I promise I won’t call the police if you let me go! O-or you can just have her. I won’t let anyone know!” Lin Xiaochu kept screeching.

The “her” she was referring to was Elisha.

Lin Xiaochu liked sleeping naked, so she only had her bra and underwear on for now. Her fair legs that were bare made the bandits go drooling.

“Guys, this girl mustn’t be a virgin looking at how she’s dressed.. Let’s have a go first! We’ll keep the other one for boss and have a go with her later!” One of the bandits cackled lustfully and even patted Lin Xiaochu’s thigh.

Chapter 1152: A Successful Rescue. The Arrival of the Male Lead

Five to six bandits were already removing their belts as they made their way toward Lin Xiaochu once that bandit had spoken. The bandit who stroked Lin Xiaochu’s thigh yanked her underwear right away and exposed her nether region.

“Ah! Go away! You disgusting Country A people! Get away!” Lin Xiaochu began to screech. For a moment, she was so horrified that she had forgotten to consider that these outlaws could speak Chinese.

“F*ck! We’re playing nice and you want us to go rough!” The bandit slapped Lin Xiaochu and her face swelled immediately.

There was already a bandit with his belt off who came up and pulled her bra away swiftly.

“Ah! Ah!” Ultimately, Lin Xiaochu’s endless cries were the only sound left...

It was a long night ahead.

...

Yun Jian and the others came to the vicinity of the straw hut following the tire marking.

“It’s that van!” Hu Qirui spoke up pointing at the van beside the straw hut.

“Let’s not alarm them.” Hu Qirui had just said that when Yun Jian walked over without any intention to conceal herself.

“F*ck! Is she crazy? You just said not to alarm the bandits!” Duan Tianyou cried, unable to help himself, when he saw that Yun Jian did not listen to Hu Qirui.

“Shh, keep up!” Hu Qirui’s reflex was fast. Seeing that Yun Jian went over and knowing that she must have her own reason for doing so, he followed her without saying more.

Yun Jian had already come to the straw hut at that time.

The door of the straw hut was a worn down piece of wood. One could hear Lin Xiaochu’s low moans from inside the hut while one stood outside. The candle in the hut flickered.

Yun Jian knew what was happening inside there just by listening to the sound and lifted her leg to kick the wooden door open. Once she entered, she saw the bandits watch one of their accomplices have his way on top of Lin Xiaochu with satiated faces while they wore only shorts that covered their groin.

Lin Xiaochu had gone from the cries and shrieks earlier to sounding like there was a tinge of pleasure now.

When Yun Jian kicked the wooden door open, it astonished the outlaws in there. They did not expect her to be able to find her way here. The moment they saw her, they scrambled to the corner. They had not forgotten how she had killed the other guys just earlier!

Lin Xiaochu did not have anything covering her when the bandit above her moved away and that was what Hu Qirui and Duan Tianyou who hurried in after Yun Jian saw. Hu Qirui turned to leave once he caught it out of the corner of his eye while Duan Tianyou growled “Xiaochu!” at the sight but did not rush up to her because he was afraid of the outlaws.

Yun Jian acted like she saw nothing as she went over to Elisha directly and untied her from the rope restraining her. Other than having to watch a free live show just now, Elisha was not harmed at all, not even a single strand of hair.

Until Yun Jian took Elisha out of the hut, the outlaws did not dare make a sound. Since they assumed that Duan Tianyou was with Yun Jian, they did not do anything either when they saw him untying Lin Xiaochu.

Just as Yun Jian brought Elisha out of the straw hut, a shiny black Lamborghini sports car suddenly zoomed from a distance away and skidded to a stop with an emergency brake. One of the two people who came down from the car made Yun Jian smile slightly.

Country A was an impoverished country and Hasa Village was already a relatively developed place. Zatana and family were considered doing quite well, one of the best in the village, and could be seen as a wealthy household with the ownership of a tractor!

Elisha and Zatana were stunned by the shiny black Lamborghini sports car that had suddenly appeared. Hu Qirui and his friends who had also never seen a luxurious sports car like this were amazed as well.

It seemed like a limited edition Lamborghini! Whose car was it and why was it driven all the way here?

Chapter 1153: Kill Everyone Here

Zatana had just breathed in relief when he saw that his daughter was safe and unscathed before he was blinded by the Lamborghini sports car.

Hasa Village was so poor that Zatana who had a tractor at home was considered the village's richest man. This was why the shiny black Lamborghini sports car that sped into appearance amazed Zatana and Elisha.

While Hu Qirui and others had not reacted as dramatically, they had never seen such a luxurious super sports car before either. They had only seen it on newspaper in the past, so they could not help being stunned and stared at it when they saw it here.

As for Duan Tianyou, he was still yelling in the straw hut. He felt his heart bleeding because the bandits had taken turns to take advantage of the woman he liked.

Just as Zatana and Elisha, as well as Hu Qirui and his friends, saw two tall guys come out of the cool Lamborghini sports car, one of them came to Yun Jian while another stayed close behind this younger and better looking guy.

"There's no connection here. How did you find your way here?" Yun Jian asked softly as she stood before Si Yi, going to him first before he could come to her when she saw him.

When Si Yi saw Yun Jian coming to him on her own, he smiled and wrapped her into his arms right in front of Zatana and the others. His initially piercing eyes softened, like a wild falcon that reeled in its ferocity and showed its gentlest state at the sudden sight of something it liked.

Seeing the scene, the group who stood farther away and was obviously impressed by Si Yi's mysterious and commanding presence felt quite surprised when they saw his tenderness toward Yun Jian.

The young man gave off the vibe of an innate, superior leader who the others could only watch and not approach but once he met Yun Jian, that dominance was reeled in as his gaze on her was fond and loving like he was holding his favorite treasure.

Si Yi held Yun Jian's hand unknowingly and told her in the gentlest tone, "Ya Dang sent me the location before you all came here and he told me what happened just now when I got to him."

Obviously, Si Yi had come following the tire tracks of the van too.

"Mn." Yun Jian gave a light nod while Si Yi had already pulled her into his embrace.

"Mo Sen, kill everyone here."

Si Yi looked up from Yun Jian and raked his eyes over Zatana and the rest. His gaze turned piercing all of a sudden as he looked at Zatana, Hu Qirui and others nearby like he was looking at dead men.

Was this guy crazy?

Zatana, Hu Qirui and his group thought that Si Yi was on their side since he was together with Yun Jian. They were not expecting what he just said!

Kill everyone here?

"Don't kill them. Kill the outlaws in that house," Yun Jian said grabbing Si Yi's cold hand.

Yun Jian had come here to acquire that sharp knife that was said to be able to cut through steel like it was tofu. If Zatana died, she would not even know where the knife was hidden at. Since it was Zatana's family heirloom, he must have kept it somewhere safe and secluded.

Yun Jian could not be blamed for being greedy. She did stop Si Yi for that knife.

"Anything you say," Si Yi replied softly hearing what Yun Jian said. He then gestured to Mo Sen who was behind him.

Mo Sen entered the straw hut with the cue while Lin Xiaochu who had gotten dressed walked out shakily from the place. Duan Tianyou was unwilling to help steady her since she reeked with the bandits' scent.

A while later, the outlaws could be heard shouting and begging in the hut before the sounds of blood splattering and bodies plopping limply to the floor were heard.

Zatana and others who stood outside paled. This man who had appeared out of the blue was even more merciless than Yun Jian!

Chapter 1154: The Catacomb Entrance Is Blocked

Intimidated by Si Yi's presence, they did not dare say a word.

Mo Sen came out of the straw hut after he went in and killed those outlaws. Similarly, he stayed silent but gave everyone there chills.

He went to Si Yi directly and told him with a poker face, "Young master, I've wiped out all of them."

He threw the blade that was stained with crimson blood on the ground with a clank right after what he said. The mere action made everyone there jump in fright.

It was as if killing the bandits in the house, killing these people who had been alive seconds prior, was nothing out of the ordinary.

"Mn," Si Yi hummed in reply and grabbed Yun Jian's hand to go to his Lamborghini sports car.

"Take care of the scene" was all Si Yi had left, short and simple.

As he guided Yun Jian toward the Lamborghini sports car, they were halfway there when Lin Xiaochu's voice came from behind.

"Ah! Ahh! She could have saved me, why didn't she save me just now? It's her... She's the one who caused me to..."

Lin Xiaochu screeched pointing at Yun Jian's back with incredibly complicated feelings. She had boyfriends before, so she was no longer a virgin, but to be assaulted by the bandits in front of so many people... and to be seen by her beloved Senior Rui too—how was she supposed to live after this?

It was all Yun Jian's fault! She was capable but she did not save her!

Lin Xiaochu did not care that Si Yi had just asked Mo Sen to kill the bandits in the hut—she did not even realize the fact that Mo Sen did it. All she could think of was to take revenge on Yun Jian!

Lin Xiaochu was halfway through her yelling when Duan Tianyou dashed up to her to cover her mouth. Si Yi had wanted to kill them just now! If Yun Jian had not stopped him in the beginning, they would have already been killed!

Although Duan Tianyou quite despised Lin Xiaochu who had been assaulted by the outlaws and did not want to touch her, he was more afraid of dying, so he rushed up to cover her mouth in stopping her from spewing more nonsense that would provoke Si Yi.

Si Yi had only paused for a brief moment before continuing to get in the car holding Yun Jian's hand and drove them back to the inn.

...

Since Si Yi came through the night, Ya Dang now had a reason to grab Lan Su to his room, where the latter did not reject him this time. Mo Sen slept in a room alone.

The next day, Yun Jian and group prepared to depart to the catacomb entrance. Just as they got up and were getting ready to leave, Zatana kept his promise and passed his family heirloom knife that he had spent the entire night awake and rushed to get it modified into a butterfly knife to Yun Jian.

In order to make the dagger into a butterfly knife, Zatana did not sleep a wink the whole night. It was evident that he was genuinely grateful for Yun Jian.

"Thank you," Yun Jian thanked him as well and accepted the butterfly knife.

"I hope you can treat our family heirloom that's been passed down for generations well!" Zatana told Yun Jian his only wish seriously.

"Mn." Yun Jian nodded.

The five of them then departed to the catacomb. On the way there, she put on disguises for Si Yi, Ya Dang, Lan Su, Mo Sen and herself. Civet was not the only one who knew how to do that; Yun Jian knew it too.

Since all five of them looked rather attractive, she had disguised all of them, herself included, into average looking youths.

The catacomb was not far from Hasa Village. When they came close to the ancient well that was the only entrance to the catacomb, they saw tents pitched around it. Their car was still driving ahead but they were stopped by a middle-aged man shortly.

"You guys want to go to the catacomb too, right? The entrance got blocked by the mountain rocks that collapsed when the flood caused a landslide three days ago.. It's said that a new entrance will be dug in ten days' time. Do you guys want to pitch a tent and wait together?"

Chapter 1155: Says a Kind Man. Let's Be Friends

“The entrance’s blocked? Yun Jian asked with a squint.

Yun Jian and her companions had disguised themselves to look like average people. She looked incredibly mediocre except for her slender figure that was left untouched. Yun Jian disguised herself as a girl with freckles and average features—the type that one would not be able to remember no matter how many times one saw her in the crowd. In spite of it, the piercing vibe on her remained.

“Yes.” The middle-aged man had stopped Yun Jian and group to tell them amicably out of a kind heart. After a pause, he introduced himself and explained in detail, “I’m Lou Guodong, an archaeologist.”

“Half a year ago, those who’ve entered the catacomb said that there’s not much treasure in there, so many of them have left. Right, I bet you guys have heard of the catacomb’s old rumor about just entering and never exiting?”

“The myth was debunked by a girl after that as she brought everyone who was in the catacomb out! Only a minority of them refused to leave.”

“But it’s said that there’s nothing there, no treasure whatsoever. Around two months ago, though, someone discovered a jade pendant down there and claimed that it’s from an ancient civilization! So people came here to seek treasure again.”

“It’s a pity that no one found anything ultimately and who’d have thought that there’d be a flood three days ago. The mountain rock collapsed as well and blocked the ancient well that was the catacomb’s entrance!”

“Those in there couldn’t come up and we can’t go in either. Don’t you guys worry, though, the engineers digging the place said that they could dig a new entrance in ten days, haha!”

The middle-aged man, an archaeologist named Lou Guodong, was obviously a kind, passionate soul. Even when Yun Jian and pals did not ask, he told them what happened here in detail.

What Lou Guodong did not know was that the person who debunked the catacomb’s myth about nobody leaving upon entry and led everyone in there out was Yun Jian.

Back when Yun Jian left Yulong Mainland, those who had been waiting for the stone door to open at the haven in the catacomb that was about the size of a large field followed her out when they saw that she acted like there was no treasure inside. All of them had thought that they had waited in vain; only a small amount of people remained there.

Just two months ago, someone discovered a jade pendant that was from an ancient civilization and was worth a lot of money! Hence, people from around the world who had initially lost the adventurous interest in the catacomb gushed to the destination once more.

Three days ago, however, an accident sealed up the old well that was the catacomb’s entrance.

That was why Lou Guodong and others pitched tents around the well in anticipation to go down the catacomb when the engineers dug up a new entrance.

Yun Jian understood what the man said. Since the entrance was blocked, they had no way down. They set up tents as well under Lou Guodong’s kind guidance.

The middle-aged man was truly a kind person. When it came to dinner time, he came over to invite Yun Jian and group. "Do you guys want to have the meal with us? We've just set the barbecue rack up. Let's eat together since we're already fated to meet here."

"Thank you," Yun Jian thanked the man for his kind gesture.

Si Yi held an arm around Yun Jian as they went over to where Lou Guodong's friends were.

There were a few young people in Lou Guodong's group of friends. Of course, there were his peers too. A young woman in her twenties who was dressed garishly but looked ugly went up to Yun Jian with a grin when she heard Lou Guodong introducing Yun Jian and friends.

"Hi, I'm Fang Shaoqin. Let's be friends!" Fang Shaoqin said but thought that there was finally a girl who looked uglier than her!

She had only come up to greet Yun Jian because she felt that she looked so much prettier standing next to the latter.

Chapter 1156: She's Pretty as a Fairy

"Oh, ho, Shaoqin, wow. Finally, there's a girl who's more attractive than you! Hahaha!"

The woman who spoke like she was mocking Fang Shaoqin was seated not too far away from the latter and looked quite pretty, dressed fashionably in a pair of short jeans. The girl she mentioned about being more attractive than Fang Shaoqin was none other than Yun Jian but the adjective "attractive" was ironically saying that Yun Jian was uglier than Fang Shaoqin.

"Yanyan, how could you call a young girl that? It'll hurt her ego!" Fang Shaoqin nearly squealed in delight hearing what the fashionably dressed woman said but she kept it at a smile.

"Right, I don't know your name yet." It was only then Fang Shaoqin went to ask Yun Jian happily.

Yun Jian casted her eyes lower and did not answer, finding it too much effort to be bothered with the girl.

When Fang Shaoqin noticed Yun Jian's attitude toward her, she frowned and felt put off by the latter's indifference. Once she thought about how good she would feel when she stood next to Yun Jian, however, that she could prove herself that she was not the ugliest among the others, she let it go.

The disguise Lan Su wore looked average as well but she looked slightly better than Yun Jian, so Fang Shaoqin and Lin Meiyang only targeted Yun Jian.

As the group huddled together, Lou Guodong fetched Yun Jian and group several stools.

They were having a good time when this rather pretty woman who was addressed as Yanyan looked at a tall man who seemed quite dashing farther away and called him like she was scared the others could not hear her, "Wen Yan-gege! Wen Yan-gege! We're having dinner! Do you want to join us?"

The woman who Fang Shaoqin had addressed as Yanyan was named Lin Meiyang. After she called the man named Wen Yan, the latter came over promptly.

“Oh, this is a merry crowd!” Wen Yan stood by the side once he came over.

Lin Meiyuan was unlike Fang Shaoqin. Lin Meiyuan was beautiful and had wanted Yun Jian to respond to her when she said what she did earlier. She wanted Yun Jian to respond to her so she could ridicule her.

When Yun Jian ignored her, Lin Meiyuan had the intention to embarrass Yun Jian for daring to ignore her when she was so ugly!

As the man named Wen Yan came over, Lin Meiyuan even threw a victorious look at Yun Jian. Yun Jian only found it odd. What did Lin Meiyuan have to gloat about when this Wen Yan came over?

Just as she wondered, she heard exclamations from around her.

“Wow, it’s Wen Yan! Lin Meiyuan’s good. She got Wen Yan to come over just by one call!”

“Heh, I know, right? Do you know who this Wen Yan guy is? He saw the girl who debunked the catacomb’s myth about people going in and never getting out!”

“Wow, really? Has he really seen the legendary girl who brought everyone out of the catacomb back then?”

...

The crowd’s clamor attracted Yun Jian’s attention.

The legendary girl? Yun Jian narrowed her eyes before she realized that they were talking about her.

The fact that Yun Jian had led the group of people out of the catacomb said to only have people enter and never get out was rumored into what it was now. Even Wen Yan could boast about it just because he had seen Yun Jian back then.

If Yun Jian had not worn the disguise, he would certainly recognize her at first glance.

Yun Jian squinted and heard Lin Meiyuan say, “Right? The girl Wen Yan-gege mentioned is gorgeous!”

As she said that, Lin Meiyuan went to Yun Jian and told her mockingly, “Little girl, I heard that the legendary girl is around your age! Heh, but she’s pretty as a fairy!”

‘Nothing like an ugly girl like you!’

Chapter 1157: How Could There Be a Wolf Here?

Lin Meiyuan felt that her knowing Wen Yan was something to brag about because the latter had seen the legendary girl before.

“Oh,” Yun Jian replied softly and halfheartedly, quite peeved by what she heard.

Si Yi did not even care about Lin Meiyuan as he extended an arm to wrap Yun Jian into his embrace directly. He looked average as well after the disguise; although he still looked tall and lean, he was equally not attention catching.

The reason Yun Jian had disguised all five of them to look like this was to prevent them from looking too eye-catching and thus attracting troubles. It was just unexpected that they had still received attention despite the ugly disguise.

Lin Meiyuan had just hooked up with Wen Yan not too long ago. Due to the fact that the guy had seen the legendary girl from before, the people here worshipped him like a god as they tried to find out whatever they could about the girl from him.

It was because of this that Lin Meiyuan felt proud that she knew Wen Yan. That was why she called the latter over when she saw him just now—to show off to Yun Jian that she knew someone like Wen Yan.

What Lin Meiyuan did not expect was Yun Jian's lukewarm response. It disgruntled her even more as she grumbled in her mind resentfully, 'How could someone ugly like you not act along and give me the reaction I want!'

As she thought about it, she grew more frustrated and was constantly filled with the urge to embarrass Yun Jian. With that in mind, Lin Meiyuan had a guess at the sight of Si Yi hugging Yun Jian.

"Are you two a couple?" Lin Meiyuan asked with a fake smile.

"She's mine." Si Yi made his possessiveness known when he heard Lin Meiyuan's question, keeping his gaze down on Yun Jian without even looking up.

If it had been before this, everyone around would have died from envy that a handsome guy like Si Yi was saying something like this to Yun Jian. It was different this time.

This time, Si Yi had a mediocre face. In addition to Yun Jian's ugly face, they did not make any impact when they were put in a crowd.

"What a great match you both make!" Lin Meiyuan held back her mockery and commented sarcastically. An ugly guy and an ugly girl—one could not have found someone more matching than the two of you together!

Yun Jian and Si Yi both ignored her. That only made Lin Meiyuan even more furious.

At the same time, she blinked and suddenly thought that Si Yi and Yun Jian must have ignored her because they felt that she was so much prettier than them. The idea nearly made her preen about her beauty.

It was during then the food on the barbecue rack was cooked and Lou Guodong distributed them to each person fairly. After the meal, he led a group of men toward the catacomb entrance, which was the ancient well, to help.

It would need a long time if they depended only on the engineering team to move the rocks blocking the well. Since Lou Guodong and the group he led had nothing to do and wanted to enter the catacomb as soon as possible, he brought the men to help.

Si Yi took Mo Sen and Ya Dang along to check out the situation there as well. Yun Jian and Lan Su did not follow them and were seated at the same spot.

Lin Meiyang was washing the pots and bowls they had just used with a group of women but felt indignant when she saw Yun Jian being free. It was simply unfair that someone ugly like Yun Jian could stay idle but someone beautiful like her had to work!

Lin Meiyang suddenly thought of a way to prank Yun Jian. Going over to fetch a hot cup of water, she was going to pretend to trip herself and splash it on Yun Jian when a woman farther away cried out, "Ah! T—that's a wolf! Oh my god! How could there be a wolf here?"

"Ah! I think... I think it's coming here!"

Chapter 1158: She Turned Ugly but Her Sense of Authority Remains

Although there were a lot of tents here, the place was not overflowed with them. Hence, when they looked toward the bushes from where they were, they could see a ferocious wolf growling and padding over, stalking incredibly slowly and softly.

"Ah! It's a wolf!" Lin Meiyang who had been engrossed with her beauty cried aloud before she stumbled back trembling.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes and stood up from the stool when the women around her began to retreat in fear and some had even ran to hide in the tent shaking like a leaf.

"A wolf! A wolf!"

The women there shrieked with pale faces.

Coincidentally, the men had gone to help at the old well with Lou Guodong. Everyone wanted to enter the catacomb as soon as they could, worried that somebody else would go just one step ahead of them and get to the treasure in the catacomb first—if there were any.

The women were the only ones left in the area where the tents were pitched.

"Ah! Why is this happening? All the men have gone to help. Why is there a wolf now?" Some women screeched as they ran toward where the men were, which was the dried well.

Even Wen Yan who was being put on the pedestal had gone to the well to help out now, so there was honestly no man left here.

The women's subconscious was that they were weaker than the men, so all of them were panicking like they were definitely dying in this situation.

"Ah! Is it... is it coming here?" Lin Meiyang was gripping Fang Shaoqin's clothes in fear, looking pale as sheet.

"Run! Hurry and run! We'll run to where the well is. They're all over there!" a woman began to shout, thinking that they would be safe as long as they escaped to where the men were.

"It's too late." Just when these women were losing their mind in panic and wanted to flee to the men for protection, Yun Jian's nonchalant voice that was lacking of fear rang.

“What do you mean it’s too late? Are you wishing that we’d all die here? Why are you so cruel? Everyone, run!” Lin Meiyang vocalized her thought and suddenly shoved Fang Shaoqin away to lead the way to the well.

“Awoo!” the wolf howled.

What followed was Yun Jian’s unnerving smirk. With a small smile, she explained, “Wolves move in a pack. Do you think there’d be only one wolf?”

Just as she said that, dozens of wolves pounced from the bushes. Their eyes were trained on the women in front of them with some blocking the way toward the well.

“H-how’s there so many wolves? I—I don’t want to die. Wuwu...” The group of women hugged each other as they wailed, trembling in fear.

Lin Meiyang lost her bearing from the terror as well.

The pack of wolves closed in slowly. It was at the same time that Yun Jian suddenly pulled the sharp butterfly knife that she had just gotten from Zayana out of her pants pocket. She sighed with a smile before calmly telling Lan Su who was behind her, “They came just in time. I want to try out how good this knife is, heh. Lan Su, let’s go!”

“Got it!” Receiving the order, Lan Su flicked her wrist and retrieved two flying darts from both sides of her pants pockets. She was used to using darts, so she grabbed them in her hands to wield them like knives.

“Are y-you two thinking of...” Lin Meiyang screamed at the sight.

Did they—did they want to fight tens of these wolves with the weapons that looked like they did not guarantee any victory at all? Was this a joke?

Simultaneously, Lin Meiyang saw Yun Jian smirk. The tug of lips was an unsettling flash on the average freckled face. The next second, she saw Yun Jian let out a soft shout and charge forward with Lan Su.

What happened next shocked Lin Meiyang and the women who wanted nothing but to depend on the men and thoroughly flipped their worldview upside down...

Chapter 1159: Grim Reaper From Hell. Slaughtering Lives

The moment Lin Meiyang spoke, Yun Jian had already charged into the pack of wolves with Lan Su wielding their blades.

There were plenty of wild bushes in Country A and it was because of the lack of maintenance that caused wild animals to roam around. These wolves, for example, were carnivores which dominated the bushes.

As the dozens of wolves stared at the women predatorily, they growled low in starvation. One could sense, without much thought, that it must have been a long time since these wolves had eaten.

Starved wolves could pounce on their prey without a care for their lives and possessed astounding hunting will!

Yun Jian and Lan Su were just two frail women!

To Lin Meiyuan, she felt that Yun Jian and Lan Su were overestimating themselves to have some sort of divine power when they were both so ugly.

“They’re holding those wolves back. Let’s hurry and run!” The first thing that Lin Meiyuan thought of was to escape because she assumed an 80% chance of Yun Jian and Lan Su being dead when they dared rush up to the wolves.

It worked in her favor. It could give her more time to flee!

Just as Lin Meiyuan was going to turn and run off, however, she heard the gasp from a woman next to her, “Oh my god, she... she—she...”

Seeing that not one woman around her turn and flee out of the corner of her eye, Lin Meiyuan turned around doubtfully only to witness an unbelievable scene that upturned her beliefs.

Yun Jian was leading the advance as she sprinted and met three growling wolves.

“Awoo!” The three wolves had yet to reach Yun Jian but she had already swung her blade from right to left; the speed was so fast that the women present could not even follow it with their own eyes.

The wolves were already springing toward Yun Jian, trying to pounce at her and sink their teeth into her. The moment they were about to land on her, though, their abdomen were slashed by Yun Jian’s sharp butterfly knife.

It cut through the skin of the three wolves at the same time, causing their hearts to fall out following the gash and shatter. They died on the spot! There was not even a struggle.

This was the intimidation of the butterfly knife made by Zetana using his family heirloom and was currently held in Yun Jian’s hand!

Yun Jian smiled. She had just made a soft score and these three wolves had died before her. She quirked her lips up in satisfaction for the weapon she had just received. There was an evil hint in her smirk.

When the women farther away saw it, they looked worse than seeing a ghost. Lin Meiyuan was so shocked that she tensed straight and dared not make a move; her expression looked both horrified and appalled.

The girl had actually... she had actually killed three wolves in such a fast speed!

Before the women could think further, they saw Yun Jian kicked those three leading wolves.

As she raised and swung her blade, blood splattered everywhere Yun Jian went. The savage looking wolves could not even go near her as they were killed in one slash. Right now, Yun Jian was as if the grim reaper from hell as she mercilessly reaped life after life.

Lin Meiyuan and Fang Shaoqin who stood farther away nearly fell to their knees on the ground from how scared they were.

Was this a teenage girl? She was killing a wolf pack and remained unscathed! Even an adult man would have peed his pants when he saw a wolf pack like this!

Until later, when the men had rushed back the fastest they could after they heard the woman who ran there to cry for help saying that the women here were surrounded by a pack of wolves, this was the scene they witnessed—the wolves lay limp in pools of blood while the girl amidst them held a butterfly knife like the grim reaper from hell who had slaughtered these unworthy lives!

Chapter 1160: It's Raining. Your Faces

Yun Jian currently had a foot stepped on the wolf that had just died. She bent down to gently pull out the butterfly knife that had penetrated the wolf carcass and even crushed its bone.

With a smirk, she was visibly very happy with the sharpness of the butterfly knife. At the same time that she pulled out the blade, she lifted her leg and stepped both of them securely on the ground.

Lan Su had killed several wolves as well but not as many as Yun Jian or was she as intimidating as the latter in presence.

In spite of it, Lou Guodong, Wen Yan and the others who had ran back from the ancient well gasped aloud. Yun Jian's last action was evident that she was the one who killed the pack of wolves.

"Am I seeing it wrong? This girl—she... she killed tens of these... wolves? Oh my goodness! Is this a joke?"

"There are so many of them! Even if we managed to come back in time, we'd have to fight hard to defeat them... but she..."

She and another girl—just two young ladies—had killed tens of wolves together! It was... It was almost absurd!

People began to whisper and discuss among each other immediately as blood drained from their faces. As for the women, they were too frightened to dare speak another word. The pack of wolves was a huge shock to their system.

Si Yi who was coming back from the well with Ya Dang and Mo Sen was not worried about something bad happening at the campsite at all. A few dozens of wolves were ferocious but they posed no threat to his Xiao Jian at all.

As Yun Jian stood among the wolf carcasses, the blood of the wolves was everywhere. The gory scene would have shocked and upset the stomach of even a determined adult man, or made them secretly scared of blood, but Yun Jian did not look the slightest bit terrified despite the sight of so much blood and carcasses. It was like killing so many wolves, to her, was just an insignificant act.

The rest who were standing over here, be it man or woman, did not dare go near her.

While everyone was caught in a daze, a tall silhouette flashed before them. Si Yi had marched over the wolf carcasses to go over to Yun Jian and pull her into his arms, speaking to her softly, "I won't go far from now on. Whether it's killing a man or a wolf, I'll do it for you."

He held Yun Jian's delicate hand carefully as he spoke. The tenderness he wore formed a stark contrast against his aloofness when he interacted with others.

Listening to Si Yi's deep voice, the women who stood farther away were envious. If Si Yi had not looked so average, the women would probably be going gaga over him for acting like this.

Simultaneously, their attention was caught on Si Yi's words. "Whether it's killing a man or a wolf, I'll do it for you"?

Killing a man? The three words shocked the crowd who finally snapped back to reality. How could he say that so carelessly?

"Pft, stop showing off your lovey-dovey relationship when you're so ugly. What a match!" Both of them matched so well since they were both ugly! Lin Meiyuan mocked after she recovered from her fear and grew envious when she saw Yun Jian and Si Yi taking the limelight.

Right after she said that, fat droplets of rain fell from the sky.

"Huh, it's raining?" someone asked doubtfully as they caught the rain with their hand.

The rain gradually became heavier and the raindrops washed the faces of Yun Jian, Si Yi and their company...

"Yun Jian, why are your faces..." Lou Guodong spotted the slight change on Yun Jian and group's faces.. Once he asked, the others did not shelter themselves from the rain immediately but turned to the five of them.