

Schoolgirl 1161

Chapter 1161: You're That Legendary Girl

Everyone shifted their gaze to Yun Jian, Si Yi and the other three right after what Lou Guodong said. Even when big, fat droplets were still falling from the sky and they were drenched in the rain, they did not care.

All they saw were Yun Jian and Si Yi's faces getting melted from the wash of the rain. A while later, even from the distance, they could feel that a thick layer of skin seemed to have shed from Yun Jian, Si Yi, Lan Su, Ya Dang, and Mo Sen's faces.

"Young madam, what's going on?" Ya Dang lifted a hand to wipe his face in front of the surprised crowd and managed to swipe away a thick layer of skin. He knew that he had a disguise on—he was just asking Yun Jian why the disguise would melt off.

"It's not waterproof," Yun Jian explained.

When it started raining just now, she knew that their disguise would most probably be washed off. The disguise makeup she had put on them was not waterproof, so it was only a matter of course that they would be exposed with the rain.

It was not like Yun Jian was insisting to wear the disguise initially. It was only to avoid attention being showered on them. It was simply unexpected that people still paid attention to them even when they looked uglier with the disguise. She felt powerless about it too.

"What's waterproof or not? Ugly, what are you talking about?" Lin Meiyang could not stand to hear Yun Jian anymore. She was still standing at her spot and had yet to see Yun Jian who had her head lowered.

Once she heard Yun Jian's melodious voice, she thought that god had given the girl a nice voice but not good looks. It would be great if she had her voice! She would then be a beauty who looked gorgeous and had a melodic voice.

Just as Lin Meiyang said that, she saw Yun Jian wiping her face with the rainwater and revealing an entirely different face from the previous one that was so mediocre that one could not recognize in a crowd.

It was an incredibly fresh looking face that was delicate and pretty. The small face revealed from the wash of the rain was nowhere close to alluring compared to the usual sensual beauties. However, it was this delicate and pretty face that was several times more beautiful and charming than those sensual faces.

Basically, Yun Jian whose disguise was washed away by the rain now became the focus of the place. In addition, she had an incredibly slender figure.

Lin Meiyang had been very jealous about Yun Jian having a slender figure despite looking ugly but the fact that she was ugly appeased both her and Fang Shaoqin.

This sudden rain, however, completely changed Yun Jian's face!

Everyone who was there was stupefied. They stood in the rain dumbly, not thinking about sheltering themselves in the tents, as they stared at Yun Jian.

“Oh my gosh! Is this some face changing magic? How did she become so pretty...”

“It’s n-not just her! That guy... and the two other guys and girl too... Their faces changed!”

“Whoa! Those three guys are so handsome!”

“The two girls are so beautiful too! What’s going on?”

The comments that broke out drained colors off Lin Meiyang and Fang Shaoqin’s faces.

Fang Shaoqin had thought that she found a girl uglier than her but... She was disappointed. Lin Meiyang, on the other hand, was in disbelief; she cried, “No—this is not possible! She must have worn a mask to look so pretty! She...”

Lin Meiyang had just shouted that when Wen Yan’s voice covered hers and sounded shocked.

“You—you’re the legendary girl who brought everyone out from the catacomb!”

Wen Yan’s eyes widened in shock as he looked at Yun Jian.

Chapter 1162: Scram or Die. No Right

If Lin Meiyang had suspected Yun Jian to have done something to make herself look pretty all of a sudden, what Wen Yan said now completely crushed her suggestion.

Everyone had put Wen Yan on the pedestal because he had seen the girl who dispelled the catacomb’s myth about people only entering and not exiting.

With the pouring rain now, Yun Jian and her company had revealed dashing appearances they originally had. After the reveal, however, Lin Meiyang accused Yun Jian of wearing a mask to look that pretty. People there were nearly misled by her words.

After all, could there really be such a beautiful girl in the world?

Yun Jian’s beauty gave one the illusion that she should not exist in the world yet Wen Yan’s words had directly denied what Lin Meiyang said. What caught everyone’s attention, though, was that Wen Yan had claimed that Yun Jian... was the legendary girl?

Goodness! How was that possible?

Finding out that Yun Jian was actually so pretty and then discovering that she was the legendary girl, Lin Meiyang looked more horrified than having eaten a frog. Her face was tensed and trembling, even the corners of her lips were quivering.

The bigger blow was not just Yun Jian looking so gorgeous, Si Yi who stood beside her looked exceptionally handsome after removing the disguise as well.

It was unbelievable how such a beautiful young woman and a fine young man existed in this world!

In the beginning, Lin Meiyang had not only mocked Yun Jian and Si Yi's appearances, she taunted them about being "matching". She even boasted to Yun Jian about the legendary girl, claiming that she was pretty as a fairy, with the intention to tell Yun Jian that an ugly girl like her was an eyesore for existing in the world.

After finding out that Yun Jian was the legendary girl, Lin Meiyang currently felt like she was being slapped by an invisible hand—all the way to the ground from where she stood. However arrogant she was just now, however mortified she was now.

As for Fang Shaoqin who saw Yun Jian and wanted to be "friends" with her to show how much prettier she was earlier, she did not look any better.

Unlike everyone's shocked expression, Si Yi who caught their attention approached Yun Jian. Since the heavy rain had washed off the disguise of the five of them, he had pulled Yun Jian into his embrace with a large hand, keeping her there and shielding her from the storm with his sturdy chest.

"Don't stay in the rain. Let's go inside the tent," Si Yi said softly and held Yun Jian's hand to head for the tent while everyone else watched in envy.

Anyone who was not blind could see Si Yi's affection for the girl. He was pampering her endlessly!

Previously, Lin Meiyang felt that Si Yi looked average and did not match her standard, so his fondness for Yun Jian did not make her envious. Instead, she mocked them. Now that she saw what Si Yi actually looked like, it was not just others, Lin Meiyang herself was devastatingly envious.

"Are the two of you really a couple?" Lin Meiyang would die to become Yun Jian and snuggle Si Yi. She asked gritting her teeth and put herself between the pair and their way to the tent.

"Ya Dang, throw her out." Si Yi looked up suddenly with a piercing gaze and glanced at Lin Meiyang murderously.

Ya Dang came over instantly to do just that.

"You guys don't even make sense? This is our place!" Lin Meiyang huffed angrily.

Bang! Ya Dang pulled out a Desert Eagle from the gun holster at his hip and fired the pistol next to Lin Meiyang's feet right after she had spoken.

The gunshot shocked Lin Meiyang but it was Ya Dang who spoke after that, "Scram or die! You have no right to choose!"

Chapter 1163: Kill Her if You See Her Again

While Ya Dang did not shoot Lin Meiyang's head after what he said, he fired several shots next to her feet with the pistol. She turned and fled at once, not daring to have other thoughts.

"Kill her directly if you see her again." Si Yi told Ya Dang and entered the tent holding Yun Jian's hand.

The others who were standing around shuddered when they heard how dismissive Si Yi was about a human life, obviously frightened by what he said. It took them a long time to recover even after Si Yi and Yun Jian had gone into the tent.

“Good shots. That woman should be taught a lesson.” Lan Su came to Ya Dang; she had always kept a cool and aloof façade but was currently wearing a bashful smile.

When Ya Dang saw her smile, his heart nearly melted. He was going to tuck the Desert Eagle back to its holster when he heard what Lan Su said and grabbed the pistol again to look for Lin Meiyun.

“I’ll get rid of her right now!”

He was just threatening that woman and Lan Su came over to him to compliment him. Lan Su would definitely throw herself at him if he killed that woman.

Just as Ya Dang raised his gun again, Mo Sen held him back. He coughed softly before saying, “Ya Dang, young master and young madam didn’t say anything. Don’t act rashly.”

Mo Sen had never addressed either of them as brother despite being Ya Dang’s biological elder brother and was usually strict with the latter. Truth to be told, he was only doing that for Ya Dang’s sake.

“Pft...” Lan Su could not help chuckling at Mo Sen and Ya Dang’s interaction. A second later, she reeled in her grin and feigned indifference again to walk toward the river nearby.

“I’m going for a walk,” she told both of them and went there despite the rain.

“Where are you going? Stop heading out without an umbrella.” Ya Dang frowned and went back to the car to retrieve a black umbrella before going after Lan Su.

As for Mo Sen, he stood rooted with a shake of head and a chortle. He knew that Lan Su was not just a fling to Ya Dang, so he had already treated her like his sister-in-law.

Ten days was not exactly a pain to wait. Moreover, Yun Jian had Si Yi.

Each morning, noon and evening, Si Yi held her hand as they walked around the area. Although he sometimes did certain embarrassing things to her when no one was around, she secretly looked forward to it.

Ten days passed in a blink of eyes.

The engineering team was diligent. They promised ten days and they did move the last rock covering the well on the afternoon of the tenth day.

This meant that they could now enter the catacomb.

Lou Guodong did not underestimate or despise Yun Jian and group all this while. Once the well was reopened, he came over to tell them. With everything prepared and ready, Lou Guodong and his group planned to enter the catacomb with Yun Jian and her group. The latter did not refuse him.

When both groups were all set, a female voice rang, “Eh, it’s you guys?”

Yun Jian turned around and was greeted with several people—Ning Xia, Hu Qirui and their friends whom she had met previously in Hasa Village. Yun Jian had quite a decent impression of Ning Xia and Hu Qirui with the premise that they distanced themselves from Lin Xiaochu and Duan Tianyou.

“Mn,” Yun Jian replied seeing that it was Ning Xia who greeted her.

Hu Qirui was smart, asking Lou Guodong, “Hello, we’d like to go to the catacomb as well. Can we go with you?”

Hu Qirui knew that Lin Xiaochu and Duan Tianyou had a discord with Yun Jian, so he could only ask Lou Guodong and his group to be able to enter the catacomb with them amicably.

“Sure. Come along. There is strength in numbers!” Lou Guodong chuckled politely.

Yun Jian did not care. The purpose of the five of them differed from these people anyway.

Hence, the entourage came to the entrance of the well shortly.

Chapter 1164: The Only Ones Who Passed Through and Went In

Just as they came to the old well, Lin Xiaochu and Lin Meiyang were both horrified by the depth of the well.

“Ah, why is it so deep here? Will we get hurt going down from here? What do we do if we fall and hurt ourselves?” Lin Xiaochu stepped back in fear. She wanted to retreat to Hu Qirui’s side but the latter avoided her.

Gritting her teeth, Lin Xiaochu intended to turn and go to Duan Tianyou’s embrace. If it were in the past, the guy would have hugged her immediately but this time, he avoided her directly when she wanted to sidle up to him from the fear.

Once Duan Tianyou saw Lin Xiaochu, he remembered the scene of the bandits being above her ten days ago. To the guy, Lin Xiaochu was already tainted. No matter how much he liked her in the past, he would keep his distance from then on.

Lin Xiaochu who noticed Duan Tianyou’s action was filled with rage. So what if Yun Jian was skilled and killed a lot of people? She could have saved her back then!

Even when Lin Xiaochu had enjoyed herself having ... with the bandits that day, it caused her to lose her dignity. Even Duan Tianyou who had been crazy over her in the past was distancing himself from her.

Lin Xiaochu did not care how good Yun Jian was right now. She just wanted to teach her a lesson—best if she could make Yun Jian experience how it felt being taken rounds on!

“We’ll be going first.” Seeing how the group was stalling, Yun Jian was too impatient to wait and jumped into the well respectively with Si Yi and others without hesitation.

Yun Jian was the legendary girl, so she had already entered the tomb before and must have already been familiar with the layout beneath. Lou Guodong who realized that raised his voice, “Keep up if you want to follow. You can head back now if you don’t want to!”

He followed and jumped down after that.

Perhaps it was because of Lou Guodong's older age that he sounded convincing. After he spoke up, complaints like Lin Xiaochu's vanished instantly.

Yun Jian had already been here, so she was naturally familiar with the geography of the catacomb. As for Wen Yan, he had seen her before but that was when Yun Jian had led the group back from the tomb; he had never entered it.

Easily, Yun Jian led the group to the vacant plot of land that was as large as a soccer field once again. There were still a minority of people camping out here as it seemed that they were waiting for the stone door to open.

The spacious land in the cave surprised Lou Guodong and others. After all, they had never entered the catacomb and had never seen such a secluded and pleasant place before.

Way ahead of the land in the cave, it was the stone door and the rock cave next to it. It was said that the stone door would open if one waited here for a year and another world awaited behind it.

Unfortunately, there were already people who waited for a year but the stone door showed no sign of opening.

For now, the only way to go through without waiting was this rock cave. Nonetheless, there were plenty of attack mechanisms set in the cave that not even a fly could get in.

Back when Yun Jian led the group out of the catacomb, the rumors about the stone door and cave were no longer secrets.

Just as Yun Jian got here, she turned to tell Lou Guodong, "This is where we part."

Lou Guodong was puzzled. "Where are you guys going?"

Words regarding the legendary girl who had led a group of people out of the tomb had also passed the perilous cave did not get out back then, so Lou Guodong and the others were clueless about it.

Yun Jian smiled and headed for the stone cave with Si Yi and the others.

Lou Guodong froze in shock. "I've heard that even an internationally ranked assassin died in that cave. Don't tell me that you guys are planning to..."

Lou Guodong had just spoken up in surprise when Wen Yan who knew better said something that shocked everyone there, "That girl and the other three guys were the only ones who passed through the stone cave and went in back then!"

Chapter 1165: Someone From Another World

After what Wen Yan said, he raised his voice and sounded slightly dramatic as if he wanted to introduce what Yun Jian had done to the others, "I've heard that anyone who enters this cave will be pierced by hundreds of thousands of arrows! If one fails to avoid them, the arrows will penetrate them and not even the dead body could be found!"

“Back then, countless internationally ranked assassins and secret agents, as well as big shots, came here from all over the world to try and pass this cave but none of them succeeded!”

“That girl and three other guys were the only ones in the world who could go through the cave!”

Toward the end, Wen Yan looked fervent, like he was one of the legendary people who could go through the cave.

“Wen Yan-gege, is this cave so deadly?” Lin Meiyan could not help asking while the others were closely following Yun Jian and her group toward the rock cave.

From her tone, it was obvious that she did not quite believe what he said. It was just a cave. How could it be so intimidating that so many masters in the world could not go past it? Yet Yun Jian and her gang could?

Although the skill Yun Jian had shown previously was astonishing, Lin Meiyan was skeptical about the fact that only Yun Jian and the other three guys had passed the stone cave that the other international professionals could not.

“Wen Yan-gege, what you mention is only hearsay, yeah?” Lin Meiyan asked again.

“It is hearsay but I’m sure that all these are the truth!” Wen Yan affirmed confidently when he saw Yun Jian and her clique approaching the cave.

“It’s them. I’ve heard that there were four people who entered the cave. It’s just that I didn’t know who they were,” Lou Guodong stood out to confirm.

Right after what they said, Lin Meiyan’s eyes glowed as she led everyone else toward Yun Jian and the other four speedily. She shouted her name loudly at the same time, “Hey, Yun Jian!”

It was only when Yun Jian nearly arrived at the cave entrance that she stopped and turned slightly to look at the crowd who followed her, hearing Lin Meiyan call for her.

Lou Guodong was standing close as he told Yun Jian and group with a smile, “While I don’t know why you guys are going through the stone cave again, I wish you all a smooth journey!”

Lou Guodong was sincere with his words and Yun Jian beamed. The former had taken care of them during this period of time as an elder.

“We will,” Si Yi replied before Yun Jian could open her mouth and wrapped an arm around her.

“Hey! Are you guys planning to go on your own? You’re so skilled. Why can’t you take us along? We came together after all!” Lin Meiyan spoke again forgetting her lesson just earlier.

“We won’t be bringing anyone,” Yun Jian answered faintly after a glimpse at Lin Meiyan and planned to head for the cave.

“Pft! Won’t be bringing anyone? Is this a joke? In that case, what about that woman? Wen Yan-gege said that only the four of you passed through this cave. If you guys didn’t take her along, how could she go over?”

Lin Meiyan retorted as if she had heard the world’s funniest joke as she pointed at Lan Su.

Before she could go on, a stranger who had been waiting for a long time for the stone door to open spoke up after observing Lan Su for some time, “Aren’t you the woman who came out of the cave a few months ago? We didn’t see you entering and you were wearing period costume at that time. Could...”

“Could there really be another world behind the cave? And you’re someone from another world?”

Chapter 1166: Special Marking on That Person

The person had been standing here and watching Lan Su for a long time, feeling that she looked familiar. Afterward, he heard Lin Meiyang saying that Lan Su would never be able to go through the cave and Yun Jian would impossibly leave her behind since she was with her.

It was when Lin Meiyang brought up Lan Su asking how could she go over that the person suddenly recalled a girl around 16 years old coming out from the cave wearing all black several months ago. Back then, it had even stirred a panicked commotion among those who had stayed waiting for the stone door to open.

“What did you say? This woman—she came out from the cave?” Lin Meiyang and others were stunned as they stood frozen and stared at Lan Su in disbelief.

When the person saw that Lin Meiyang and the others were in doubt, he continued to say, “It’s true! I’ve been here for at least a year. Other than watching these four here entering and exiting the stone cave, I’ve not seen anyone going in.”

“Back when she came out from the cave dressed in complete black ancient dress, we were so shocked. Oh, right... I remember. It wasn’t just her. There’s another man in a black robe who came out from the cave too!”

“What’s strange is that she and the man in the black robe have never gone into the cave. We’ve stayed here for so long and we’ve never seen anyone who’s not come out from the cave after going in either.”

“It’s like they were from another world and came out through the cave...”

The man who spoke wore a pair of glasses and seemed like a gentleman. He did not look young, probably in his forties. That was why no one doubted what he said. Other than shock, there was not another expression on their faces.

Yun Jian initially did not have a good feeling about what this man with glasses said. After all, it would not benefit them if Lan Su’s identity was exposed. It was at the end of what this man with glasses said that Yun Jian realized with a start.

“A man wearing a black robe?” Yun Jian asked with a squint.

Seeing a pretty girl like Yun Jian raise a question to him, the man nodded and answered after a two-second silence, “Yeah, I remember that the man wore all black and showed only his eyes. He gave off an unsettling vibe and was very mysterious.”

As the man with glasses recounted, he could not help shaking his head like he was sighing. Nevertheless, it was evident that the man's words had successfully attracted Yun Jian's attention.

A man who wore a black robe and came from Yulong Mainland... Why did he sound so familiar like the mysterious person who the leader of Inferno Ring had mentioned previously?

Back when Yun Jian found out that the culprit behind her younger brother's death in their previous life was a mysterious person after wiping out Inferno Ring, she tried looking for the person. Until later, there were multiple assassination attempts on her.

All that happened felt as if someone was orchestrating them behind the curtain. With everything connected, the mysterious person had the largest motive.

Not too long ago, Yun Jian found out from Hu Batian whom she had killed that the person who had been manipulating Inferno Ring, who was also the mysterious person who had been doing all these, came from Yulong Mainland!

Then, she heard from this man with glasses today that other than Lan Su, there was another man donning a black robe coming out from the cave, who was also from Yulong Mainland.

She was 90% certain that the mysterious man was the man who this man with glasses was talking about!

With that in mind, Yun Jian turned to the man with glasses and asked almost immediately, "Do you still remember if the person has any special marking?"

Chapter 1167: Officially Entering the Cave

The man in glasses was in deep thoughts after what Yun Jian asked.

Since the appearance of the mysterious person was even longer than when Lan Su came out of the cave, the man with glasses had to rack his brain to recall if the former had any specific characteristic or marking.

"Hah, do you think you're filming some mystery drama? Stop acting so mysterious like it's real! People who didn't know better would have thought that you're filming!"

Seeing that Yun Jian had successfully attracted the crowd's attention, Lin Xiaochu once again recalled how the humiliation she had gone through previously was because Yun Jian did not save her in time. That was why she spoke up spitefully, intending to embarrass Yun Jian at this moment.

It was like Lin Meiyan had suddenly found assistance when she heard Lin Xiaochu. This girl hated Yun Jian as much too! She chorused after her, "Yeah! Making yourself seem so mysterious! Pft, what do you mean another world? What the heck!"

"This is a lawful society! An era where science matters! We're not filming a drama here! Act normal, will you? Stop behaving like you know everything!"

Lin Meiyan and Lin Xiaochu, both with the last name Lin, seemed like a family as they began attacking Yun Jian one after another.

Yun Jian merely narrowed her eyes but her gaze stayed on the man with the glasses, as if waiting for his answer.

“Oh! I remember! That mysterious man doesn’t have the little finger on his right hand! He covered himself fully at that time but when he raised his hand, I saw with my own eyes that he didn’t have the little finger on his right hand!” the man with glasses told Yun Jian quickly at the sudden recollection.

Yun Jian exchanged a look with Si Yi before she smiled and told the man with glasses, “Thank you.”

The five of them then headed toward the stone cave, ignoring Lin Xiaochu and Lin Meiyang entirely.

“Hey, you guys are just leaving like this? You...” Lin Meiyang was about to say more seeing that Yun Jian and her group did not even spare her a glance when the five of them had already arrived at the cave.

With Yun Jian leading, the five of them entered the cave respectively, vanishing before everyone else as they avoided the cave’s arrows swiftly and easily.

Their dexterity and agility made everyone widen their eyes.

“They... really went past it...” Lin Meiyang nearly screeched in horror when she saw the arrows flying upon their entry to the cave.

Even those who stood outside could feel that it was an impossible feat to go through the cave based on the shooting frequency of the arrows. Lin Meiyang was doused in fear.

If it had been her, she would probably be shot by multiple arrows when she froze in fear at the mere sight of those mechanisms even if Yun Jian were to lead her inside. She shuddered at the thought of the scene.

When the others saw the scene just now, there was a subtle change in their expression as well. Even the man with glasses sucked in a cold breath and told the rest of them, “I’ve been staying here for a long time. Those who thought that they could cross the cave were all shot dead by the flying arrows!”

“Those people had been alive yet their bodies were penetrated by at least a hundred arrows. It was too much for the body to take that their corpses exploded instantly!”

“These five young ones are truly capable! Those skills aren’t what a man should possess...”

The sigh of the man with glasses wracked goosebumps over Lin Meiyang and Lin Xiaochu that they quivered.. The rest of the group were shocked as well.

Chapter 1168: His Power Has Never Been Gone

Si Yi had already held Yun Jian’s hand to pass through the long stretch of dark tunnel in the stone cave first.

As a flash of bright light gleamed before them, the five of them had arrived in Yulong Mainland when they came back to themselves. Since they had been here, none of them was unfamiliar with the journey.

It was when they exited the stone tunnel and came to the new world that Lan Su told them, "We're here. I can cast all of us back to Wu Clan directly since it's a little far to go back there from here."

Lan Su paused after saying that and turned to Si Yi, Ya Dang and Mo Sen. "Before that, can Lord Divinity put on a disguise again?"

Lan Su added in explanation. "Lord Divinity, you come from Deity Continent that oversees the life and death of all lands. You're the god to us, so your appearance might cause the whole Yulong Mainland to stir. Please return with us in an average face!"

"What about the two of us?" Ya Dang went over to wrap an arm around Lan Su's waist and asked pointing at himself and Mo Sen.

"You both are Lord Divinity's men and come from Deity Continent too. I don't know why you're also on earth, so you have to disguise yourselves as well." Lan Su struggled slightly when Ya Dang held her waist.

Unmarried women and men who interacted too closely with each other would be spited upon here in Yulong Mainland. The concept of monogamy was far stricter here than in Country Z. If a person here had an extramarital affair, the cheater and the adulterer would be hung to death!

"This is Yulong Mainland! Have some respect!" Lan Su chided.

Even a passerby had the right to get involved if they saw unmarried men and women acting intimately.

"How? Where else of your body have I not touched before?" Ya Dang went closer to Lan Su and retorted.

Halfway through his sentence, Mo Sen had yanked Ya Dang over to another side. "Brat, behave!"

As Ya Dang's elder brother, Mo Sen still had some authority over him.

Lan Su was then heard explaining, "Only husband and wife could act intimately in public here in Yulong Mainland. Here, once you're bounded by marriage, two rings will appear automatically."

"The pair of rings will prove that the man and woman are married to each other, so it's allowed even if they're publicly affectionate."

What Lan Su said made Mo Sen arch a brow. Yun Jian who similarly had never heard of these turned to Lan Su as well.

"How does one bind each other to marriage here?" Si Yi who had not spoken a word asked suddenly after what Lan Su said.

Lan Su was quite surprised that Si Yi had spoken up but patiently explained after she recovered, "As long as one has a little spiritual power, one can summon the deed formation for marriage. Once the marriage deed is accomplished, it means that both people are married. It's like earthlings collecting their certificates of marriage but this is much more direct."

Spiritual power was what people in Yulong Mainland cultivated.

Lan Su continued to elaborate. "The marriage deed will usually only bind both people together with their consents. But if the man's spiritual power is stronger than the woman, or vice versa, they could forcefully bind the other person to marriage too."

Since she had already filled them in, she reminded them, "Right. If one is bounded by marriage here, even if they leave Yulong Mainland and go to the earth, the marriage deed is still effective."

Lan Su's last sentence successfully caught Si Yi's attention.

Yun Jian was leaning against Si Yi and could feel his warm chest from her back, so no one saw Si Yi's thin lips that quirked up when he heard the last of what Lan Su said.

He extended a palm with prominent joints at the same time. Where no one saw, there was a ball of spiritual power that condensed above his palm. It was so strong that it could destroy the whole Yulong Mainland. The ball of energy had only flashed in appearance, though.

That was right. Si Yi's spiritual power, all he was able to do, had never been gone!

Chapter 1169: The Hall of Wu Clan. Being Stopped and Mocked

As Yun Jian was snuggling Si Yi's chest, she did not see him smiling.

"We can depart now," Yun Jian said. She interrupted their discussion as she thought that what Lan Su said was not critical.

"Okay." Obediently, Lan Su closed her mouth and stopped talking.

The group was then casted back to Wu Clan by Lan Su.

Some time was needed to go from earth to Yulong Mainland's portal then to Wu Clan. Lan Su had a group to take along with her, so the trip was only slower. It took them two whole days.

To prevent a repeat of the last accident, Yun Jian had put skin masks on Si Yi, Ya Dang and Mo Sen these two days. The production of the three skin masks was more complicated than the disguise makeup previously and used much more materials; they costed a lot to make and were only for single uses.

Yun Jian had produced them anyway just so the disguise would not melt off when it rained like last time.

On the way back, Lan Su returned the sandalwood box to Yun Jian.

"Wizard Lord Wu, this is yours. Now that we're going back to Wu Clan, it belongs to you whether you're willing to help our clan return to its former peaking glory or not!"

Lan Su did not call Yun Jian by her name this time. Instead, she looked at her in an incredibly calm expression as she said what could be considered a sincere request.

There was a slight furrow of brows on Yun Jian. She had wanted to reject Lan Su but the latter's sincere expression made her soften her crease of brows and change her mind. "Alright!"

She took the sandalwood box from Lan Su's hand as she answered.

Lan Su changed back into the black ancient dress she had once worn on their journey back, leaving the three guys and Yun Jian to remain wearing their original modern attires.

“We’re here! This is Wu Clan!” Two days of traveling later, Lan Su finally brought the four of them to Wu Clan.

Yun Jian was currently standing before a massive ancient building that looked different from all the architecture left on earth despite the dynasties. Its massive scale and loftiness were able to fill one with awe even when Wu Clan had been deteriorating!

The hall of Wu Clan was covered in a layer of black both inside and outside. If researchers were to study the place, their eyes would probably bulge and fall all the way to outer space. This was because the hall of Wu Clan had been built since millennia ago and had never had any crack.

What was more important was that the structure was not built using any soil or cement existing on earth. It was easily distinguishable from its exterior that the materials did not belong to earth.

The first sight that greeted Yun Jian was the gigantic shattered crystal ball on the floor that no one cleaned up right at the front of the massive building that was the hall of Wu Clan. It was not true that no one cleaned up, though—it was that no one dared clean it up!

That was what the Wizard Lord Wu had left behind!

“Let’s head inside.” Lan Su stared at the shards of the shattered crystal ball before leading the way inside.

“Mn,” Yun Jian hummed softly in response.

The six of them then continued their way. Before they could come to the center of the hall, a group of people who were dressed similarly to Lan Su—all black ancient costumes—and looked to be around her age stopped her.

The person leading the group was a young woman who looked put together. She stood before Lan Su boldly. The girl was unlike Lan Su; she was born not too long ago while Lan Su had already lived up to thousands of year.

The girl and the rest of the teenagers behind her had never seen what Wizard Lord Wu looked like. Hence, when she saw Yun Jian, she was only astonished by her beauty.

Despite that, she trained her gaze on Lan Su after nonchalantly raking her eyes over Si Yi, Ya Dang and Mosen, and mocked, “Heh! I heard that you’re still looking for some Wizard Lord Wu. Wizard Lord Wu’s been dead for over a millennium.. She’d have come back a long time ago if she wanted to! Now, Wu Clan already has my aunt. The return of Wizard Lord Wu and whatever is just a myth!”

Chapter 1170: Wu Clan’s Clan Leader. The Return of Wizard Lord Wu

The girl stood before Lan Su brazenly with a tilted head. Her youthful face, looking to be around 16-17 years old, brimmed with arrogance.

“Shut up! Wu Qing, how dare a junior like you be this audacious? I’ll send you to hell right now!”

Lan Su nearly lost her cool when she heard the girl named Wu Qing. With a flip of wrist, two flying darts made up of spiritual energy appeared in her hands instantly.

“You—Hah, Lan Su, don’t you forget that my aunt is managing Wu Clan now. If you dare be rude to me, I’ll make my aunt expel you this instant!”

Wu Qing had a high status in Wu Clan because Wu Lan, her aunt on her father’s side, was the clan leader of Wu Clan.

The clan leader had always been the most authoritative in Wu Clan as everyone had to listen to the clan leader. Despite that, this was only when Wizard Lord Wu was not around.

There had only been one Wizard Lord Wu in Wu Clan all this while and she was also the only one to decide the fate of Wu Clan. The clan leader was the most authoritative in Wu Clan but Wizard Lord Wu had the right to kill even the clan leader right in front of everyone else if she wanted to!

That was Wizard Lord Wu’s right. She could change the clan leader anytime she wanted to! The reason Wizard Lord Wu was called a wizard lord was because she was the most powerful in Wu Clan, like a god. No one in the clan dared oppose to anything she said.

Nevertheless, this was all in the distant past. Many of the current Wu Clan juniors, like Wu Qing, had never seen Wizard Lord Wu. She and her junior clique had never seen Wizard Lord Wu all their lives, so they simply assumed that the latter was only a myth.

Furthermore, Wu Qing and friends even thought that it was the clan leader who held the most power in Wu Clan. Wizard Lord Wu? It was bullsh*t!

“Hah, Lan Su, don’t be so full of yourself and condescending just because you’re the prime guardian of the mythical Wizard Lord Wu who’s never shown her face!”

“It’s no longer the era of your Wizard Lord Wu now, okay? My aunt calls the shots in Wu Clan! She pampers me the most, so even if I want you killed right now—you’ll be killed!”

Wu Qing sounded entitled, pointing a finger at Lan Su, as she snapped scornfully.

Her peers around her fought to speak up after what she said, “Yeah! That rumored Wizard Lord Wu has never appeared. Who knows if she really exists!”

“It must be made up!”

“Hah!”

Listening to the voices that took her side, Wu Qing looked up at Lan Su in even more smugness. “Lan Su, I don’t know why my aunt is so reverent toward you but don’t forget your place. I—”

“F*ck, don’t think that I wouldn’t hit you just because you’re a kid. Badmouth her again and I’ll kill you right this instant!” Ya Dang could no longer hold himself back.

He stayed quiet earlier because Lan Su had stopped him but hearing how Wu Qing was insulting her repeatedly, he was so close to grabbing the latter and beating her up.

For some reason, Wu Qing was shocked by Ya Dang but she composed herself swiftly. She glanced at Ya Dang and was going to argue when a slightly more mature and assertive voice of a woman rang, “Qing-er...”

Wu Qing turned back immediately at the voice.

“Aunty!” Wu Qing was delighted at the woman’s sudden appearance. Now that her aunt was here, she could vent her frustration.

“Aunty, Lan Su brought these people from who knows where. Get these people who aren’t from our Wu Clan out of—”

Wu Qing skipped to Wu Lan and held her hand, waiting for the latter to avenge her anger, when she saw said aunt alongside the elders with her look at the girl in the odd clothes beside Lan Su.

Wu Qing and her friends then saw Wu Lan and the elders nearly falling to their knees as they gasped at Yun Jian, “W-wizard Lord Wu!”
