Chapter 1211: Five Seconds to Get Out of My Sight

The crowd did not even know when the butterfly knife on Yun Jian's hand had appeared as she spoke. It had just appeared in her hand so suddenly. As she flicked it lightly, she had another hand grabbing Liu Mei's hair.

Yun Jian was at ease with the technique in toying with the knife. The familiar movement was as if she frequently played with the butterfly knife.

Regular people would definitely not be able to play the butterfly knife so smoothly like Yun Jian without some three to four years.

When Liu Mei recovered from the numbing pain of being stepped on by Yun Jian, she felt a butterfly knife spinning in front of her.

The next second, the butterfly knife went for her eye with the blade!

"Ah!" Liu Mei was not the only one who screamed with her eyes shut. The tourists in the long-distance bus around them, the bus drivers and the ticketing staff were all shocked and screamed—some had even covered their eyes—when they saw Yun Jian suddenly turning the blade and stabbing the butterfly knife toward Liu Mei's eye.

Because Yun Jian had a precedence of being brutal, all of them did not doubt if Yun Jian would actually dare deal the blow when she swung the butterfly knife down at Liu Mei's eye. All of them thought that there would be a gory scene.

Qin Yirou who was recovering in the bus heard the screeches as well but was stopped by Ge Junjian just as she got up. The man told her very gently, "Sit down. I'll go take a look."

He went down the bus with that.

At the same time, Yun Jian's butterfly knife stopped just 0.1cm before Liu Mei's eye. The latter seemed to have been terrified as she clenched her eyes shut. Since her scalp was pulled due to Yun Jian's hold and she could not move her face, she closed her eyes and felt the butterfly knife's blade come less than one centimeter away from her skin.

Liu Mei screeched from the fear, not at all realizing that Yun Jian had stopped moving her knife forward.

"Ah! I'm wrong! I shouldn't have pushed your mother but nobody asks you to look so pretty! It's not my fault! And you guys are dressed like bumpkins yet Lin's mother is on your side!"

Liu Mei made sure to put in a few words for herself even when she was begging for her life. It was obvious that she was not even remorseful in her plea.

Others around her could hear it clearly and thought that Liu Mei was stupid. Not only had she admitted her wrongdoing, she blurted the reason. It simply stripped her off the chance for others to think that she was forced into admission by Yun Jian's harsh treatment.

"Apologize to my mother," Yun Jian remained indifferent at what Liu Mei said but replied faintly.

"Sorry! I'm sorry!" Liu Mei was shaking out of fear with two hands covering her eyes, wailing from the fright.

Yun Jian stood up and let go of her hold on Liu Mei's hair before flicking her wrist and five more blades appeared in her hand.

Liu Mei who opened her eyes during then was dumbstruck when she saw the five blades appear in Yun Jian's hand out of the blue.

The others were flummoxed as well.

They then heard Yun Jian's melodious voice rang again as she spoke to Liu Mei, flicking the five blades in her hand as she did, "I'm giving you five seconds to get out of my sight or I'll kill you."

The claim was monotonous and unfeeling but it was enough to make people's heart drop.. Their instinct told them that she was not joking. This was for real!

Chapter 1212: Asking Her to Stay. The Vacation Plan

Yun Jian's aloof words in addition to her shocking skill caused Liu Mei to shudder before she scrambled toward the bus station's ticket inspection entrance. She did not even have time to bid goodbye to Yang Lin as she darted out of the place.

Yun Jian merely scoffed. Someone like Liu Mei would only dampen the atmosphere of the journey if she tagged along. Since she had left on her own, it went along Yun Jian's wish as well.

Yang Lin was also intimidated by Yun Jian's earlier skill. As he watched Liu Mei leave now, he dared not utter a single word.

Holding five flying knives in her hand, Yun Jian turned to look at Zhang Jin who was kicked a short distance away and asked coldly with a smirk, "You're not leaving, hmm?"

Yun Jian spun the five flying daggers in her hand easily as she spoke.

Once he thought of how Yun Jian had thrown the five flying knives to brush them past Liu Mei just now, much like a circus trick, Zhang Jin trembled in fear. Although he was already in his twenties, it was his first time encountering something like this as well.

In the beginning, Liu Mei and Zhang Jin had only planned to tag along the trip since Yang Lin would pay the tickets and all other fees for them. As Yun Jian threatened him now, Zhang Jin turned and fled.

Yun Jian who stood on the spot smirked before turning to ask Yang Lin who was hiding farther away. "Still not boarding?"

Yang Lin who panicked a little at Yun Jian's skill went up the bus as soon as he heard Yun Jian's voice.

It was impossible that Liu Mei and Zhang Jin suffered from serious injuries when they could flee so fast. There was no doubt that they were terrified but as long as nothing serious happened, no one could be bothered about what just took place.

After Yun Jian got into the bus, she scanned the passengers and pressed her lips together before saying, "They miss home so they're not going anymore. We'll enjoy ourselves."

Needless to say, "they" referred to Liu Mei and Zhang Jin who fled.

Yang Lin who followed Yun Jian up the bus winced when he heard what she said, thinking that they were obviously scared away by a terrifying person like her!

The journey proceeded smoothly in silence.

Ning City was not too far away from Longmen City since they were both areas within Zhe Province.

When the bus took them to Ning City's bus station, Yun Jian and others got out of it.

"Hey! Yun Jian, I'm here!" Ning Xia could be seen waving at Yun Jian from a far distance away. She was all smiles as she waved both hands looking hospitable.

Yun Jian had met Ning Xia last time in Hasa Village and they went to the catacomb together. Yun Jian had also saved Ning Xia in Hasa Village, so the latter was indescribably grateful to Yun Jian.

Not too long ago when Yun Jian decided to take Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya to the beach, Ning Xia had called Yun Jian shortly after that to invite Yun Jian to her house. Yun Jian had agreed at once then.

Knowing that Yun Jian and Lin Xiaochu did not get along, Ning Xia came alone today.

Once she saw Yun Jian, she darted over and greeted when she saw Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian, "Hi, aunty! Hi, uncle!"

She then went over to help Yun Jian with the luggage.

Ning Xia came from a wealthy family. Since Yun Jian had saved her the last time, she and her parents asked Yun Jian and family, as well as Mrs. Yang and family, to stay for dinner.

"The best seaside we have in Ning City is at Zhou Island but you need to take over 40 minutes of ship to go there. The hotels there are expensive too!"

"Stay at my place first for today. I'll bring you guys around at night and have seafood. The next day, we'll take the ship to Zhou Island and spend the day there before we come back in the evening!"

Ning Xia provided the best vacation plan and Yun Jian ultimately nodded at her ecstatic expression.. Qin Yirou and others approved with a smile as well.

Chapter 1213: She's the One Who Overpowered Them

If one did not know any local during travels, it would be frustrating because one would get conned. A stranger would not tell you much for no reason if you were to ask one, but it was also possible to meet a friendly and hospitable stranger.

It was not uncommon either if one were to meet someone with an ulterior motive, like wanting to profit by guiding you the way and asking you to eat at their restaurant.

Hence, a lot of hassles could be saved with the guide of a local like Ning Xia. The reason people were willing to go with tour groups was because they could not find tour spots. With Ning Xia's help, this would be convenient for Yun Jian and family, as well as Mrs. Yang and family.

After lunch, the group got ready to roam around.

Ning Xia's parents were government workers. Once they heard that Yun Jian who had saved Ning Xia when they were traveling in Country A was here for a vacation, they promptly took a few days off work and warmly invited Yun Jian and Mrs. Yang's families for lunch.

Ning Xia's mother was a graceful woman. As she chatted with Qin Yirou and Mrs. Yang over lunch, the three of them formed an agreement to go shopping together in the afternoon.

Ge Junjian did not follow along; instead, he stayed at Ning Xia's house to play chess with the latter's father as both of them enjoyed playing chess.

During lunar new year, Ge Junjian had played several rounds of chess with Si Yi. Without exaggeration, Ge Junjian was very supportive of Si Yi courting Yun Jian in the beginning because of Si Yi's decent chess playing skills.

Little Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya were brought along by Qin Yirou to go shopping, so Yun Jian, Yun Yi, Qing You, and Ning Xia were home together.

"Since we're free in the afternoon, I'll take you guys to the largest shopping paradise here. Heh, I've asked Senior Rui to coming along too, the more handsome one when we were back in Hasa Village."

As Ning Xia spoke, she stuck her tongue out at Yun Jian and added, "I know that you don't quite get along with Xiaochu and Duan Tianyou, so I didn't ask them out today."

This would directly prevent Yun Jian from having any upsetting encounter. Yun Jian nodded with a smile.

Ning Xia then took them to the large shopping square in Ning City.

The busiest giant shopping square in Ning City in 1999 was crowded. As they walked among the bustling place, Ning Xia took Yun Jian and others along to meet up with Hu Qirui.

Hu Qirui simply greeted Yun Jian, apparently having already known that she was coming. There was a man in his twenties next to Hu Qirui who was dressed fashionably but looked a little flippant.

“This is my bro, Xu Liao,” Hu Qirui slung an arm around Xu Liao and introduced him to Yun Jian and others.

Xu Liao looked at Yun Jian and Qing You with a grin before greeting them cheerily, “Hey girls, nice to meet you!”

He even ran a hand through his bangs when he spoke to act cool.

Yun Yi grabbed Qing You’s hand and spoke up to introduce themselves first to Hu Qirui and Xu Liao, “Hi, I’m Yun Yi and this is my girlfriend.”

Yun Yi was warning Xu Liao that the girl was his and the latter should stop eyeing her.

Despite that, it did not end there.

Xu Liao had thought that Yun Jian was only a frail little girl, so he acted cool by running a hand through his hair, wanting to show his coolest side to her. Just as he was about to boast, though, he heard Hu Qirui introducing Yun Jian to him from the back, “She’s Yun Jian.. She looks weak and soft but remember what I told you about encountering bandits in Country A’s inn the other day—she’s the one who overpowered them.”

Chapter 1214: A Weaponry Dealing and a Flirt by the Beach

“She’s the one who overpowered the bandits. Huh? Wha-what... It’s her... Rui, did you get it right? She’s the one who overpowered the bandits?!”

Xu Liao was stunned at first. He had been following Yun Jian’s gaze and was nearly shocked witless when he suddenly heard what Hu Qirui said from the back.

Suddenly being told that Yun Jian was the girl who Hu Qirui had made out to be utterly divine a few days ago, Xu Liao nearly passed out in shock. After all, he was very much astonished when Hu Qirui boasted about Yun Jian’s ability and when she flicked her knife to kill the bandits several days ago.

Now that he was suddenly made known that Yun Jian was the heroine and he had imagined her to be weak and helpless just moments ago, it was imaginable how much he was surprised at her capability.

“Heh, alright. Why don’t we go take a walk by the beach?” Ning Xia suggested abruptly and turned to explain to Yun Jian, “Our best beach is at Zhou Island, which we’ll take a ship there tomorrow morning. The seawater at the beach there is incredibly clean and you can go swimming in a swimsuit then!”

“We’ll take a walk by the sea today. We have a beach at the seaside here too but the seawater isn’t the cleanest. We’ll just have a look today and I’ll take you guys swimming at the clean beach tomorrow!”

Ning Xia had wanted to take the group to shop around Ning City’s shopping paradise but she immediately recalled that there was a stretch of seaside nearby upon arrival, so she quickly suggested it.

The group agreed to it easily without any objection. After all, any city had a shopping paradise; it was not exactly rare.

Since Yun Jian came from Longmen City, of course she would want to look at the sea.

Once Qing You heard that they were going to Ning City's seaside, her eyes glinted. She moved away from Yun Yi discreetly and watched Ning Xia, Hu Qirui and Xu Liao go forward first before she tugged Yun Jian and told her next to her ear, "Sister Jian, I received news previously that an international bigshot will be making a weaponry dealing at a certain beach in Ning City today. I wonder if it's the one we're going to..."

Qing You constantly paid attention to global news, so she usually knew the particulars of some secret weaponry dealings.

"It's fine. Let's go." Yun Jian looked unfazed.

While the two of them whispered to each other, Xu Liao who had been walking in front turned around when he saw that the two pretty girls were not catching up only to see them talking to each other.

"Heh, what are you whispering to each other? So mysterious huh?" Xu Liao asked curiously.

"It's nothing," Yun Jian replied coldly.

The group then came to the seaside. There were people filling up the beach, and making it crowded.

Ning Xiao stuck a tongue out before turning to look at Yun Jian and tell others, "I know a beach nearby without too many visitors. It's not too far away, I'll take you guys there."

The current place was thronging with people, so the group accepted Ning Xia's suggestion and followed her to another beach.

The new place obviously did not have much crowd as only tens of people could be seen roaming around the beach.

Just as they came to the seaside and before they could get to the sandy beach, a few local thugs in their twenties who had been eyeing Yun Jian and Qing You for a while came over.

The leading thug's eyes went wide when he saw Yun Jian. The thugs here flirted and teased beautiful girls once they saw any.

The leading thug came to Yun Jian. He had his upper body bared while there was a tattoo he assumed it looked cool and manly on his chest.. Looking at Yun Jian, the thug flicked his hair and flirted with Yun Jian, "Hey, pretty girl, what's your name? I haven't seen you around before. Is it your first time here?"

Chapter 1215: A Coincidence—an Old Friend From Her Past Life

These thugs had been here for a while and teased many girls, so it was not a coincidence that the leader thug took his so-called bros over to tease Yun Jian when they saw her and her company today. He was specifically lingering here to tease beautiful women.

Seeing the unfamiliar man who exuded a thuggish vibe come over and tease his younger sister, Yun Yi frowned and put Qing You behind him before putting himself between the man and Yun Jian.

“Do make way, excuse me,” Yun Yi spoke with a furrow of brows, not wanting a confrontation.

“Who are you?” The leader thug showed both his fists and bumped them together to crack his knuckles audibly, pretending that he was good in fighting, as he looked at Yun Yi with a jut of chin.

After the thug feigned the appearance, he glanced at Yun Jian who stood behind Yun Yi out of the corner of his eye. He thought that his bump of fists just now and the knuckle-cracking were incredibly cool, so he wanted to see Yun Jian’s reaction.

The thug knew that he looked quite handsome, thinking that regular women would feel that he was powerful and authoritative when they saw his looks, bared upper body and the tattoo on his chest. When he then tried to pick them up, they would be willing to talk to him as long as they were women.

In spite of it, when the thug watched Yun Jian out of the corner of his eye and saw her being unfazed, not at all attracted by his feigned coolness, his ego was bruised. He wanted to do something to show off his ability when...

“Catch all of them and seal this side of the sea up!” A foreign language speaking voice of a man rang eerily all of a sudden.

Yun Jian squinted, realizing that the man was speaking in German. She had just narrowed her eyes when a group of people dressed up like they belonged to the black market rushed in from a distance away.

As these people ran over, they surrounded the place immediately and over a dozen people charged toward Yun Jian and group to try and restrain them.

There was a gleam in Qing You’s eyes. She did not expect that they had really ran into what she brought up in the beginning.

“Sister Jian, looks like this is their location for the weaponry dealing,” Qing You went closer to Yun Jian and told her softly.

Yun Jian had thought that they would not actually bump into something like this when there were so many seashores in Ning City but lo and behold, they had still managed to encounter it.

A while later, a dozen and more people sprinted over to tie Yun Jian and company up. Yun Jian did not struggle. There were other people around them who were tied up too; when they tried to scream, people from both sides of the weaponry dealing shut them up with a black tape over their mouths.

The thug and his bros who had been acting cool in front of Yun Jian were currently frightened. They had never seen such a scary scene. These were people from the black market! These were real mafia!

The reason Yun Jian did not struggle was because the parties involved in the weaponry dealing would release all the innocent folks once they completed the transaction. They had to seize the beach goers now because they were scared of the latter leaving and spreading words about it.

Once the dealing was done, it would be too late for those who wanted to disrupt the process to do it even if they received news about it.

Shortly, a party made their way out from Ning City's streets while another party came down from a cruise ship that appeared by the sea sometime later. Both parties officially began their weaponry dealing.

When both parties met, a younger man looking like he was in his twenties came down from the cruise ship. Yun Jian narrowed her eyes at the sight.

What a coincidence... It was him? All things considered, they were old friends in Yun Jian's past life.

Chapter 1216: You Brat Dare Lay a Finger on Me Now?

He was her greatest enemy but he was also her old friend.

Why? The reason was simple.

Yun Jian was a secret agent trained by An Hun Group's Lin Wei in her previous life. She had been abducted to the organization when she was five years old and forced to go through the deadly test.

Back then, there were at least a few hundred people who entered An Hun Group and went through the assassin trial together with Yun Jian. After that, a new batch of people would be sent to the organization every once in a while. At the same time, a group of weaker children would die and their corpses would be dragged out to be fed to the stray dogs at intervals.

As a secret agent, the brutal life that Yun Jian had experienced was something no outsider would be able to empathize with.

When she was in the organization, she and a few hundred children had to kill each other. It was a dog-eat-dog world where it was the survival of the fittest. There were at least thousands of children in total but there were only three among them, Yun Jian included, who managed to grow up, survive, and leave the organization!

Yun Jian was the best among them while all three of them were popular names on the international assassin and secret agent ranking.

Since they were children, they had stepped over countless corpses and did their best to stay alive. Basically, when one was in the organization, one could only accept their fate if others were to suddenly stab them to death when one was sleeping.

The survival of the fittest meant that those three people who were able to kill several thousand people and managed to survive until the end were undoubtedly the strongest of all!

Yes, one of the three people who survived out of the thousands of people was Yun Jian while the young man standing nearby who seemed like he was in his twenties was one of them as well!

There were only three people who stayed alive out of the thousands of people back then. Other than Yun Jian, this young man seemingly in his twenties was one of the best in the world as well. He was ranked third in the international secret agent chart with the moniker Berserk Dragon!

Berserk Dragon was an elite among the bests. His ability was top notch in the global ranking. This was why he was Yun Jian's greatest enemy and an old friend in her previous life.

In the organization, Berserk Dragon was her enemy. That was because those thousands of children were all Yun Jian's enemies in the gigantic assassin organization. It was either them or her who died!

After leaving the organization, though, Yun Jian's international career had no conflict of interest with Berserk Dragon. The latter had even helped her when she first joined the field.

Berserk Dragon was now going through the weaponry dealing with another party. Initially, the innocent civilians would all be fine and Yun Jian did not want to recognize or be recognized by Berserk Dragon either.

It was simply unexpected that the thug who tried teasing Yun Jian just now did not have a black tape covering his mouth but had not shouted earlier because he was in shock. Now that he recovered, he began pleading loudly.

"W-who are you people? We're just passing by—only passing by. Let us go! Please..."

The thug surrendered instantly and was incredibly loud with his pleas. The volume immediately attracted the two parties who would have let them go once the weaponry dealing was done while Berserk Dragon furrowed his brows.

Was the guy trying to attract outsiders and make people know that there was a weaponry dealing going on here?

"That group over there, kill them all," Berserk Dragon ordered. The thug's loud exclamation was now getting Yun Jian and company killed too.

"Ah! Don't kill us... Don't kill us..." Not only did the thug not realize that he was the one who provoked the trouble, he began to wail and screech.

If the thug had not shouted, Yun Jian and others would not even be noticed and would be freed when the weaponry dealing ended. However, the thug's shout attracted Berserk Dragon's attention right away.

Like Yun Jian, Berserk Dragon was an ace who crawled his way out of corpses. He was used to dead people and killing people. Killing a few more or fewer made no difference to him.

Berserk Dragon's underling who received his instruction pulled out a silencer gun from his pocket instantly. He was about to shoot the thug as well as Yun Jian and company who were just beside the thug when the girl's melodious yet brazen voice rang, "Berserk Dragon, we haven't met for years and you brat dare lay a finger on me?"

Chapter 1217: His Memory. A Shocking Change

Back when they were in An Hun Group, Yun Jian's ability was the strongest among the hundreds of people. Her brutality, her speed and her audacity were her strength.

How did Yun Jian survive by killing thousands of people when An Hun Group only had hundreds of people? The reason was simple. An Hun Group would get a new batch of people in each year while a group of weaker ones were killed by stronger ones each day.

If the newbies were too weak, they would be killed by the stronger ones not too long later. There were only hundreds of people who could stay alive each year. The new batch that came in and the batch that would die in the coming year resulted in one thing—there would always only be hundreds of people circulating in the organization while being alive.

Coming back to the reality, not only had Yun Jian's aloof voice terrified the group of thugs, she had also frightened Berserk Dragon's underlings and another party for the weaponry dealing.

How could there be someone in this world who dared address Berserk Dragon like this? Did she know who he was? He was ranked third in the international secret agent ranking!

The top three in the international secret agent or assassin chart were definitely presences who would petrify one even if they had only stomped their foot. The top ten of the same charts would have to flee for their lives under circumstances where they were not confident to completely triumph the top three people even if they were to meet.

Even if Berserk Dragon was only among the top ten of the international secret agent or assassin chart, people here would have been horrified nonetheless. What was more, he was Berserk Dragon, one of the top three on the secret agent ranking!

That was an impressive global status!

Moreover, Berserk Dragon was one of the three people, alongside Slaying God who was ranked first in the international secret agent chart, to leave An Hun Group alive. He knew Slaying God, the top one on the international secret agent chart!

That was why everyone there was shocked by Yun Jian's action. She was such a young girl but she hollered at Berserk Dragon, the third ranked secret agent on the world ranking! She even called him a brat!

This young lady probably had never even seen Berserk Dragon yet she dared act so presumptuous! Was she trying to save herself?

Those around paled in fear.

It had been years since Berserk Dragon last heard the term of address. He narrowed his eyes as he looked over to Yun Jian and was greeted by a fair, fresh, delicate, beautiful face that one could hardly believe such gorgeous face existed in the world.

Even Berserk Dragon who was used to seeing beautiful women across the world could not help doing a double take.

The boss of the other party who was dealing in weaponry with Berserk Dragon, however, took a swift glance at Yun Jian and quickly recovered despite being amazed by Yun Jian's looks. He then glared at her before turning to grin at Berserk Dragon.

"Don't be angered. I'll get someone to kill her right now!"

The man waved as he spoke, already gesturing for his underling to give Yun Jian a deadly blow.

It was then Yun Jian suddenly removed the ropes tying her and stretched herself before she got up. While she looked languid doing it, no one caught the glint flashing across her eyes.

"She—How did she untie herself?" They had tied her securely just now! The lackey standing next to Yun Jian exclaimed.

At the same time, Berserk Dragon suddenly espied Qing You's face and thought she looked familiar. She was... someone around SG, was she not?

That, in addition to Yun Jian's brazen tone just now, overlapped with a certain person in Berserk Dragon's memory who was both bold and divinely skilled. Could she...

As Berserk Dragon thought of it, he pointed at Yun Jian. Gone was his austere front just now as he looked shocked and exclaimed at Yun Jian before everyone else, "SG?!"

Chapter 1218: Is She the One on the Chart?

What Berserk Dragon said shocked everyone there.

SG?! People were not shocked that she was called SG because the top one of the secret agent chart, Slaying God, was not addressed as SG to the outsiders.

The term SG was only a reserved nickname for those who were familiar with Slaying God. Only those who were close to Yun Jian in her previous life would call her SG familiarly.

Therefore, those who were there were not surprised at this. It was that...

Berserk Dragon was ranked third on the international secret agent chart. He came from An Hun Group like Slaying God, the legend in the secret agent world. Everyone present should be putting him on pedestal! If he were to stomp a foot down, it was enough to terrorize everyone here as he was the reputable Berserk Dragon!

Yet, he uttered the letters "SG" to Yun Jian in shock.

While those who were there did not know what the letters stood for, they could recognize from Berserk Dragon's expression that this teenage girl must not be someone simple.

"SG? What's SG?" the thug who nearly peed his pants just now shouted when he suddenly heard Berserk Dragon addressing Yun Jian, as if he had just found the chip for him to stay alive.

Because he did not know Berserk Dragon's identity, the thug boldly assumed that Yun Jian had an affair with Berserk Dragon. He struggled against the rope and made two vague hops toward the latter since he was unable to free himself as he was fully tied up.

He did make himself nearer to Berserk Dragon and wore a friendly grin, chuckling at the latter like he was taunting him and asked, "B-bro... are you interested in her? Okay, see, we're all innocent. Let us go and take her! We promise not to report it to the police..."

The thug had wanted to pick up Yun Jian for his own but when he saw that Yun Jian and Berserk Dragon seemed to know each other, he looked at Berserk Dragon "understandingly", assuming that he knew what the latter thought about Yun Jian since they were both men.

After all, no one there would believe that Yun Jian's international status was higher than Berserk Dragon. She was so young!

As for Berserk Dragon's surprise at Yun Jian just now, the thug naturally assumed that it was the former's penchant for her.

Right after the thug spoke, he looked at Berserk Dragon in an incredibly servile manner, as if waiting for the latter to praise him and let him by the way.

The boss of the other party who was doing the weaponry dealing with Berserk Dragon immediately assumed the same as well, that Berserk Dragon was interested in Yun Jian.

"You... You're interested in this beauty, huh? We can hand this beautiful girl to..." The boss of the other party doing the weaponry dealing with Berserk Dragon told him as soon as he thought Berserk Dragon was interested in Yun Jian.

Before he could finish his sentence, though, Berserk Dragon who stood next to this boss slapped him to the ground promptly.

While everyone was still caught in the astonishment, Berserk Dragon pulled out a silver pistol from his hips and acted so fast that the thug had no time to react to it; he aimed the gun at the thug and fired a shot at the thug's thigh.

Although it was a silencer gun, one could still hear a soft hiss if one paid attention.

The next second, the thug who was tied up wailed with his life. Because he was tied up, however, he was unable to turn himself and was soaked in sweat shortly.

The moment before he passed out, he heard Berserk Dragon throw the silver gun on the ground and raise his voice with a scowl, "I'm interested in her? How dare you say that? Do you know who she is? I wouldn't dare have any interest in SG even if I f*cking have a hundred balls! One more word of nonsense and I'll kill all of you!"

Berserk Dragon's words felt alarming and thrilling to everyone there.

Was she... even better than Berserk Dragon? Could she be... the one on the secret agent chart?!

Chapter 1219: Because He Was Weak and Got Beaten up by Me

The boss and his underlings who were doing the weaponry dealing with Berserk Dragon were stunned by what the latter said.

Ning Xia, Hu Qirui, Xu Liao, and others were as well. If Yun Jian's skill of killing the bandits in Hasa Village was terrifyingly unnerving, her current impact drained blood off the faces of Ning Xia and others.

It was visible how powerful Berserk Dragon was but his reverence toward Yun Jian and everyone else's reaction were signs that Yun Jian definitely did not seem as simple as she looked.

Somehow, Qing You had also untied the ropes binding her. Yun Yi who had been learning from Yun Jian for a long time had long mastered the skill of untying himself too. The crowd did not even know when Qing You and Yun Yi had freed themselves.

Suddenly, someone who stood a distance away pointed a finger at Yun Jian as if recalling something and shouted, "SG! I remember now! It's the initials. Isn't that Slaying God who's ranked first in the secret agent chart?"

The person sounded vehement and his emotions were roaring as well. Looking at Yun Jian, he continued to speak aloud like he was scared the others had no idea—fear lacing his tone, "Are you S-Slaying... God?!"

He had shouted the last word in terror and his tone was tinged with surprise and disbelief.

He could not be blamed. If Yun Jian was really Slaying God who ranked first in the secret agent chart... how was it possible? This girl who popped out of nowhere was Slaying God who triumphed the secret agent ranking? How was this possible?!

One must know that Slaying God was stealthy and unnerving. Each time she showed herself, she wore a human face mask. Therefore, there was no more than a handful of people in the world who got to see Slaying God's true face.

Everyone else was bewildered once the person had spoken.

"What?! The se-secret agent ranking?" Ning Xia and her friends did not even know what that was but no matter how slow they were, it was impossible that they were unable to figure out what the chart meant.

Secret agents and assassins were characters in films. Why were these people questioning Yun Jian if she was the top of the secret agent ranking, Slaying God?

The top! Did that mean the best in the world?

Xu Liao did not expect that Yun Jian, the girl whom he was interested in at first glance and assumed to be meek and frail was actually Slaying God, the best on the international secret agent ranking.

While people began to talk and fear coursed through the atmosphere, Yun Jian's voice rang icily, completely unaffected by the commotion, "I'm not."

She was not Slaying God because that was her in her previous life. She did not even bat an eye lying through her teeth.

Berserk Dragon who stood nearby had distinctly felt that Yun Jian did not want to expose her identity.

“Cough! Cough! How’s it possible that she’s Slaying God who ranked first in the secret agent chart?” Berserk Dragon played along and lied with Yun Jian.

“Then why are you so agitated when you see her?” Someone risked their life to stand up and ask Berserk Dragon.

Everyone’s gaze was currently on the man but before he could say anything, Yun Jian’s icy voice rang again, “Because he was too weak and got beaten up by me before.”

Did she just call Berserk Dragon who ranked third on the international secret agent chart weak?!

The crowd was once again flummoxed by Yun Jian’s statement.

Just then, four tall silhouettes walked in from the outside of the shore without being stopped.. One of them eased away the frown he was wearing upon seeing Yun Jian and a grin grew on his infuriatingly perfect face as he walked toward her.

Chapter 1220: It’s Lin Wei. A Well Known Alias

No one noticed that the men who surrounded the shore in barricading it had fallen and Si Yi was walking over without any obstacle.

Those who were standing around the place refused to believe what Yun Jian said. Since she said that she was not Slaying God, how could she have beaten up Berserk Dragon who was ranked third on the international secret agent ranking?

While the crowd remained skeptical and could not believe the truth, Berserk Dragon who stood across Yun Jian suddenly coughed.

“Cough! SG, can you stop embarrassing me once you show up? Even though that was the reality.” As Berserk Dragon spoke, gone was that austere expression of his as it was replaced with a smile.

The handful of people who thought that Yun Jian had boasted froze in shock at Berserk Dragon’s admission.

Was... this for real?

Who was Berserk Dragon again? He was an elite secret agent who was ranked third in the secret agent chart! Yet he personally admitted that he could not beat Yun Jian?

Even when Yun Jian had denied the shocking identity as Slaying God, the fact that Berserk Dragon had just admitted to suffice to shock everyone there.

While the crowd wore the same shock on their faces, Si Yi had suddenly appeared and walked over to grab Yun Jian's hand as he threw Berserk Dragon a wary glance. It was only then he looked at Yun Jian, his cold gaze in scanning the vicinity just now transforming into the warm sun.

As Si Yi gazed at Yun Jian and left his slightly smiling side profile to the rest of the crowd, the tenderness reflected from his gaze was unstoppable. He looked at her and asked softly, "Xiao Jian, was it fun?"

The gentle greeting surprised everyone there.

This man who had suddenly appeared with a strangely piercing glint in his gaze could actually wear such fond stare when he saw Yun Jian.

"Mn." Yun Jian was not opposed to Si Yi's handholding; instead, she intertwined her fingers with his openly.

"Where are the guys guarding the surrounding? Isn't this side of the beach locked down? How could someone get in here? Where are they?" the boss who was supposed to do the weaponry dealing with Berserk Dragon suddenly grabbed the collar of his underling and roared furiously.

This seaside was already guarded and Si Yi could not have possibly come in by right.

"Killed them." Si Yi turned slightly. His flawless face could captivate even men for seconds. He uttered the two words casually while he had one hand holding Yun Jian's and another leisurely kept in his pants pocket.

There were three people standing behind him—Mo Sen, Snow Eagle and Lin Wei.

Snow Eagle had his arms propped on Mo Sen and Lin Wei's shoulders each, slinging his arms around the two of them, as they seemed to be whispering secrets to each other with their backs against everyone else.

"What? How dare you kill my men? You..." This boss seemed a little foolish, angrily wanting to get his men to catch Si Yi once he heard that the latter had killed his men.

It was at the same time that Snow Eagle, Mo Sen and Lin Wei finished whispering to each other and turned around.

Berserk Dragon espied Lin Wei then. The latter had his back facing the rest when Snow Eagle had an arm around his shoulder, so Berserk Dragon did not manage to catch a clear view of him. Now that he did, he paused for one second before gasping, "L, it's you?"

L was Lin Wei's single-lettered alias when he trained assassins in An Hun Group. His own name was not very well known but was still familiar in the field. That said, no one in the field did not know An Hun Group's L.

Hence, someone exclaimed right after Berserk Dragon spoke up, "What? L? He's... Lin Wei? One of the four commanders of An Hun Group, L?"
