Chapter 1391: Got the Certificate. Legal and Reasonable

Qin Yirou had long treated Si Yi like one of her own. To Qin Yirou, Si Yi was family. That was why she was genuinely confused when Liu Shan said that Yun Jian was acting inappropriately with an outsider.

Liu Shan nearly coughed blood when she heard Qin Yirou say that Si Yi was her approved son-in-law and that he was family. She had assumed that after what she said, Qin Yirou would notice her daughter being intimate with the guy only for her to say what she did...

"Yirou, no way? You've already decided on a son-in-law when your daughter's still so young?" Wen Min asked in disbelief as she did a double take on Si Yi.

Si Yi was handsome. He was fair and his eyes were sharp as if they could kill. He was a presence no one could overlook. Gorgeous was basically an adjective made for him.

Wen Min had just asked about it out of curiosity but since she had posed the question, she could not help continue asking in a joking tone, "Haha, it's not an arranged marriage since they were babies, is it?"

Wen Min's question prompted all the others to chat with Qin Yirou on said topic.

Qin Yirou chuckled with a hand over her mouth and answered Wen Min, "How's that possible? I'm all for the kids dating on their free will. See, Xiao Jian and A-Yi happen to like each other. It's not like I can stop them from getting together, right? A-Yi's a good kid!"

Qin Yirou was not extremely pedantic. To her, anything was fine as long as Yun Jian was happy.

Liu Shan was fuming hearing what Qin Yirou said. It did not cross her mind that Qin Yirou was so supportive of her daughter dating at a young age! She was still thinking of asking her son to try and woo Qin Yirou's accomplished daughter!

Si Yi had already sat down on the seat that Qin Yirou had given to him. When he turned his head, he had long recognized what ploy Liu Shan was trying to conspire. Moreover, he felt Ning Cheng's gaze on his Xiao Jian, like the former did not appreciate his life, since he stepped inside the restaurant.

Seeing that, Si Yi kept his hold on Yun Jian's hand after sitting down and pulled out a booklet from his pants pocket with another hand to place it on the round table. He turned the lazy Susan on the table to move the booklet to Qin Yirou.

"This is my marriage certificate with Xiao Jian, registered in Country R. We're actual husband and wife." He and Xiao Jian were living up to their titles now, so he did not mind letting more people know about it.

Si Yi spoke after he turned the lazy Susan with the booklet on it to Qin Yirou.

No one expected Si Yi to do that, so they froze with whatever they were doing when they heard his rich baritone voice.

"This... this is..." Liu Shan was stunned. She had thought that Si Yi and Yun Jian were only a couple but the guy had produced a marriage certificate right away.

“You... Aren’t you still not of age? This...” Liu Shan was not even aware that the marriage certificate was from Country R. All she could think of was that Yun Jian and Si Yi were married!

“It’s Country R’s marriage certificate. Xiao Jian and I are husband and wife, protected by law,” Si Yi cut Liu Shan off right away and in a way, was also telling Qin Yirou.

Everyone there thought that Qin Yirou would scold or beat Yun Jian and Si Yi up. After all, it was one thing to acknowledge that the two of them were together, but it was another thing to actually have registered their marriage. That would mean they were legally bound.

It came as a surprise when Qin Yirou clapped in thrill. Despite being in front of everyone, she spoke openly without feeling shy, “Great! You’ve registered yourselves! A-Yi, you’re awesome! It’d be legal and reasonable that Xiao Jian gives me a grandson or granddaughter as soon as possible then!”

Liu Shan who planned to have her son marry Yun Jian glowered immediately, looking as bad as she had been constipated for the whole year.

Chapter 1392: Alive and Well, Wanting to Seek Death

Qin Yirou had accidentally blurted her honest thought and that made Yun Jian blush instantly while Liu Shan glower at the same time. Ning Cheng was frozen on the spot as he looked from Yun Jian to Si Yi in disbelief.

She was already married? She was actually married?! He had no more chance now?

Ning Cheng did not even consider what kind of person he was or if he was worthy of Yun Jian. Most importantly, he had a girlfriend and said girlfriend must have left in spite right now because he stood her up.

While everyone was simply in too much shock, Si Yi arched a brow and smirked as his reply left very little to everyone’s imagination. “I’ll work hard.”

It was an answer to Qin Yirou’s earlier comment.

Hearing Si Yi’s indirect reply, Ning Cheng’s face fell and his expression darkened like he had tasted poop. Liu Shan looked equally affronted.

“Jianjian, we’re here!” Just when Yun Jian’s hanging head was about to touch the floor from how shy she was, three people entered the restaurant.

The person in front who yelled calling Yun Jian was none other than Chen Xinyi.

Chen Xinyi bobbed her head at Yun Jian before she ran over and grabbed the latter’s other free hand, telling her, “Jianjian, you’re back? I pulled Zhang Shaofeng and Lin Yichen to run over for you when you said that you’re here just now! The two of them actually said that they wanted to come after having ice-cream, pft! I threw the ice-cream in their hands off right away! Aren’t I the best?!”

Chen Xinyi knew that Yun Jian was coming back today, so she had asked where Yun Jian was on the phone earlier. Knowing that Yun Jian was in the restaurant and she was nearby, she grabbed Zhang Shaofeng and Lin Yichen to run their way here directly.

They had gotten into different senior high schools after they graduated junior high school. Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Lin Yichen were still attending school in Longmen City but Yun Jian had gone to Min City.

The trio had just completed their military training as well, so they were on a break even though there was supposed to be school right now.

Yun Jian had just snapped out of her bashfulness and looked up to meet eyes with Chen Xinyi's gaze that was screaming "Compliment me, compliment me!".

"You got darker," Yun Jian scanned the three of them and teased calmly.

"Oh, it's you, Xinyi. You guys are hanging out around here too? I haven't seen you in so long. Come visit me at home when you're free!" Qin Yirou who saw Chen Xinyi greeted.

In spite of it, Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen were dumbstruck by Yun Jian's harmless tease.

"Gosh, Jianjian, don't be so direct." Chen Xinyi covered her face and feigned a look of disbelief.

The others found their focus drifting to Yun Jian and Chen Xinyi's interaction. Liu Shan and Ning Cheng looked over as well.

"Right, Jianjian, I heard that there are three people in your military school who got into the elite class directly and you're one of them! Heh, what's the benefit of being in the elite class?"

The trio had paid extra attention to any news regarding the military school because Yun Jian had gone there. Yun Jian passing the military training's outdoor survival activity and successfully entering the elite class was already news that was passed around, so it was not unusual that they knew about it.

Yun Jian raised a brow. Turning to see how Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen were looking at her in a slightly anticipating gaze, she smiled. "Being in the elite class means that I'll have the chance to represent Country Z as a special forces soldier to attend the Hunting School."

Yun Jian squinted and added as an afterthought. "I have to go to the Hunting School."

"The Hunting School? What kind of place is that?" Liu Shan asked carelessly with a scowl.

After her question, the others turned to look at Yun Jian wearing doubt and curiosity on their faces.

The Hunting School? To hunt? Was it a school to hunt animals? There was actually a school like that? What school would it be?

Why was Yun Jian so adamant about going? Would she be there to learn how to hunt for wild animals?

The others were slightly dazed.

"Master, is the Hunting School you mentioned located in South America? The internationally famous training base for special forces? It's said that the elimination rate of the students is as high as 80% with an extremely high fatality rate! It's called a real training in hell for the special forces! Master, do you mean that school?!" Zhang Shaofeng asked after a slight pause.

The moment the words tumbled out of his mouth, the others were stupefied.

Most of them were regular civilians. Their children's grades, whose pay was higher, or who married a good husband and had decent in-laws were what they usually talked about.

They had thought that the Hunting School Yun Jian mentioned was only another regular school but no one had imagined it to be a training base for special forces—that was with an incredibly high fatality rate!

Just as they were shocked, they heard Yun Jian confirming it. "Mn."

This meant that the Hunting School Yun Jian insisted to go was the school that was a special forces training base with an extremely high fatality rate?

They were baffled.

Liu Shan and Ning Cheng initially thought that Yun Jian had applied to the military school because her ambition was to become a policewoman.

None of them expected that Yun Jian was actually... She was actually going to train in a place where one could easily die there?!

But... was she not a regular girl? How could she want to go to a place like that? Was being alive and well so bad that she wanted to seek death?

Chapter 1393: Send a Fighter Jet to Blow Her Up

"The training base of special forces? Student elimination rate as high as 80%? Extremely high fatality rate? You'll die? Are you for real? You want to go there? You... you're a girl!" Liu Shan could not help exclaiming when she heard what Zhang Shaofeng and Yun Jian said.

"You... you're actually going to that kind of place? What if you d-die?" Ning Cheng could not help gasping. When he mentioned death, he shuddered in obvious fear.

"Xiao Jian, you're going somewhere like that? Will you really die? I won't let you go to somewhere so dangerous!" The others were quick to calm down after their initial astonishment but that was not the case for Qin Yirou—Yun Jian was her daughter!

That was why she sprang up from the chair the moment she heard Yun Jian say that she was going to somewhere dangerous like that.

"Die? I'd love to meet someone who could kill me in this world." Yun Jian chortled.

She sounded absolutely brazen, like she regarded no one, but others who heard it only thought that she was incredibly foolish.

"Pft!" Liu Shan laughed on the spot. She was unable to hold herself back and laughed out loud right after she heard Yun Jian's audacious claim.

The corners of her mouth twitched after that in her effort to force down the laugh before she told Yun Jian, conveniently forgetting that she was none the wiser, “You think you’re some kind of divinity? You really think you’re so amazing huh? Hahaha, you want to meet someone who could kill you in this world? Pft, are you kidding me?”

Qin Yirou had been worried about her daughter and she only grew more worried hearing what Liu Shan said.

“Xiao Jian... you can’t go. There’s no guarantee in this. I...” Qin Yirou was honestly worried and scared.

Her proudest achievement in this life was having her daughter and son. Both of them were equally important to her!

To Qin Yirou, nothing was more important than the safety of her children.

“Mom, I won’t ever do stupid things that’d get myself killed and I’ve never overestimated myself,” Yun Jian told Qin Yirou seriously. It was true that there had yet to be a presence in this world who could threaten her.

“Nothing will happen to Xiao Jian no matter where she goes with me around,” Si Yi spoke suddenly while Yun Jian explained to Qin Yirou.

Qin Yirou paused. She was just about to retort when Si Yi continued to say, “It’s just the Hunting School. I promise, if Xiao Jian misses even one strand of hair there, I’ll bomb it into a flat land.”

“Besides, I’ll be protecting Xiao Jian if anything happens. Even if someone has to die, I’d be the first to go before her!” Si Yi told Qin Yirou as he kept his gaze on Yun Jian.

Anyone in the restaurant could discern that his confession came from the bottom of his heart.

What Si Yi said moved Qin Yirou. She had done right in accepting him as her son-in-law!

Liu Shan was upset instead. She retorted Si Yi the moment she heard him, “Pft, bomb it into a flat land? You think you’re some armed forces? Could you even get your hands on the explosives? Hah!”

Before Liu Shan finished her sentence, Si Yi had already called Snow Eagle and spoke on the line right in front of everyone, “Find the shortest and fattest woman who’s working in the same shop in Country Z as my mother-in-law and send a fighter jet to blow her up.”

Everyone there was baffled after Si Yi spoke.

What? Wait, what?

They had thought that Si Yi was cracking a joke. No one was expecting that he was being serious!

Chapter 1394: He’s Never Rejected Her Decision

Liu Shan had thought that Si Yi was only running his mouth but... he was actually being serious?! And he openly said that... she was the shortest and fattest woman in the shop?

Women were vain, no matter old or young—so was Liu Shan.

When she heard Si Yi calling her the shortest and fattest woman in the shop, she was dumbstruck. As she reacted, the first thing she thought of was not Si Yi's threat of blowing her up but that... he called her the shortest and fattest woman in the shop!

"I... You..." Liu Shan was so baffled that she could not produce anything coherent.

The others managed to process what Si Yi said first.

"Young man, you're—you're not being serious, right?" Wen Min was a little taken aback because Si Yi's expression when he spoke did not show that he was faking it.

"A-Yi... oh, A-Yi, don't do anything rash..." Qin Yirou had understood Si Yi's family background from Dong Ruan and knew that he came from an unusual family. That was why she knew that what Si Yi said was true without a hint of lie.

When Liu Shan recovered from her indignation, she still did not believe what Si Yi said and even criticized Qin Yirou, "Yirou, this is the kind of son-in-law you approve? Trying to cause explosions with fighter jets? Hah, do I look like I'm dumb? Do I look like I don't know a thing..."

Si Yi's phone rang when Liu Shan said that. He pressed the answer button and Snow Eagle's voice was heard swiftly.

"Young master, I didn't send a fighter jet but I've already set a missile to the targeted building. Do I proceed with the remote bombing?"

The force of An Hun Group could match a country's! This was no nonsense.

When Snow Eagle was heard, everyone was dumbfounded. The guy called Si Yi... young master? It felt like it was real—no, it was real!

"You... You..." Liu Shan was thoroughly stunned as she stared at Si Yi in extreme shock.

"A-Yi, no!" Qin Yirou exclaimed to stop him.

The small fights and disagreements in the past could be covered up by Si Yi's forces but if he did ask Snow Eagle to trigger the missile to bomb Liu Shan's home, it was no longer a joke—it would involve the country.

Liu Shan who sat across was genuinely intimidated. She stared at Si Yi dazedly and was truly frightened that Si Yi was being serious. She begged the next second, "Don't! No! I'm wrong! I have a foul mouth!"

Whether it was real or not, Liu Shan would not be able to handle the possibility anyway.

"No need to fire the missile. Put it away," Yun Jian told Snow Eagle through Si Yi's phone.

"Okay!" Snow Eagle responded to Yun Jian faster than he did to Si Yi and hung up straightaway after that.

Young madam had spoken and Snow Eagle now dared to hang up on Si Yi! If this were before, Snow Eagle would never dare do it even if he were operating on extra courage.

Hearing the words “put it away”, Liu Shan felt like she had escaped death for some reason even though she did not believe that Si Yi would send a missile to blow her house up in the first place. She heaved a harsh sigh of relief on her seat.

Si Yi had never rejected Yun Jian’s decision, so the incident passed just like that.

With Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen here, Yun Jian told Qin Yirou that she was hanging out with them not too long into the meal. Si Yi stayed with Yun Jian all the time, holding the latter’s small hand in his larger one.

It caused Chen Xinyi to give them space as she dragged Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen away by their collars yet she could not help squinting to peek.

Chapter 1395: Look On Without Helping. Do as You Please

Si Yi had abandoned his work once again to come back to Longmen City this time. The reason was simple—Yun Jian wanted to go to the Amazon rainforest, but she did not call for him and had asked Berserk Dragon instead.

Hence, Si Yi had first gone to Gu Sha Mercenaries to scold Berserk Dragon before hurrying over to Yun Jian to stake his claim.

Yun Jian was staying here to wait for Mu Ying before they would depart to Amazon and the two of them were going to take their time during the trip.

It was actually Si Yi’s busiest period right now and he could not even afford to free up some time. He went back to An Hun Group after coming to meet Yun Jian and planned to meet her again in the Amazon jungle after this.

When Si Yi left, he took his marriage certificate with Yun Jian with him as well. Country R’s marriage certificate was a big booklet, unlike Country Z’s small one, but Si Yi brought it with him all the time, not once letting the booklet leave his side.

Speaking of which, Yun Jian was a little speechless. Recently, Si Yi seemed adamant about letting the whole world know that they had gotten married that he flaunted their Country R’s marriage certificate constantly and reveled in doing that.

If Ya Dang were to hear about this, he would probably tease Si Yi on the spot, “How have you become a young master like this?!”

Si Yi left in his private helicopter that day itself while Yun Jian met up with Mu Ying in Longmen City the next day.

It was just that Leng Hanzhe was right behind Mu Ying when she came. The guy insisted to come with Mu Ying and she was unable to get rid of him no matter what she did.

Yun Jian was not too surprised when she saw Leng Hanzhe.

Not only had Leng Hanzhe come along, he brought a friend with him. It seemed that he did not expect his friend to bring several more friends as well, consequently turning it into a group.

Yun Jian was not quite happy about it.

She was already displeased about Leng Hanzhe coming along but he brought a friend and this friend of his brought a group.

“This is my friend, Guo Xiao. He graduated from our military school and is our senior from the batch before us. He’s in university now studying under the police academy and will be one when he graduates then!” Leng Hanzhe introduced his friend.

Yun Jian blinked her eyes without much interest while Mu Ying folded her arms looking similarly unhappy.

“Go back. Stop following me and Yun Jian,” Mu Ying told Leng Hanzhe coldly after the latter introduced the entire group to the two of them.

It was obvious that Mu Ying did not want Leng Hanzhe to come with them either.

“What’s wrong with you? Hanzhe-ge’s purposely following you to protect you. It’s been so many years and it isn’t even a secret anymore that he likes you. What about you, though? How could you—”

A girl’s voice rang but before she could finish her sentence, Leng Hanzhe cut her off abruptly, “Leng Lingling, go back if you don’t want to go with us!”

Leng Hanzhe spoke icily.

The girl he had addressed as Leng Lingling harrumphed at what he said, intentionally being loud about it.

Leng Lingling was Leng Hanzhe’s younger sister. She had come along because she liked Leng Hanzhe’s friend, Guo Xiao.

“All of you, quiet!” Yun Jian suddenly snapped while a few of them talked noisily among each other.

All of them were shocked into pausing whatever they were doing or saying. They then heard her in a tone that forbade anyone from taking her lightly, “Whether you’re following us or going to Amazon, it’s your business. But if anything happens to you anywhere, I’ll remind you first—Mu Ying and I will only look on without helping, so do as you please!”

She had no obligation to be responsible for anyone’s life and safety.

Chapter 1396: She Can Really Fly a Helicopter

Yun Jian spoke frankly. She was not stopping them nor had she the right to stop them if they wanted to go; after all, their legs were on them. However, she was not responsible for their safety.

This group of people had never experienced how dangerous the Amazon rainforest was, but Yun Jian who had survived there for six months on bare hands in her past life knew very well that it was not a place fit for a human!

Even Yun Jian had just barely kept herself alive in Amazonia back then.

Whether it was the wild beasts there or the swamps like they had seen back during the military training at the desert island, the petty issues they encountered in the desert island were nothing against the Amazon rainforest!

“What do you mean by this? Please, stop sounding like the earth will stop rotating without you, okay? Gosh... people are really getting overly confident nowadays, I don’t even know what they’re thinking...” Leng Lingling mocked after she recovered from her daze, startled by Yun Jian’s harsh comment.

She turned to look at Guo Xiao whom she admired and said, “Xiao-gege, isn’t Lingling right?”

Before Leng Lingling could get Guo Xiao’s answer, Leng Hanzhe growled at her with a glower, “Leng Lingling! Go home right this instant if you’re going to keep kicking up a fuss!”

As Leng Lingling’s biological elder brother, this was Leng Hanzhe’s second time shouting at her and Leng Lingling was angered.

From taking the land transport to the plane in going to Country G, Leng Hanzhe, Leng Lingling and their friends followed Yun Jian and Mu Ying all the way. Perhaps that could be rephrased—Leng Hanzhe and Leng Lingling did not even know the way; they were just keeping up with Yun Jian.

...

The Amazon jungle, also known as the Amazon rainforest, was located in the Amazon basin in South America. The rainforest spanned across eight countries and took up 20% of the world’s forest area. It was the largest tropical rainforest with the most species in the world.

Yun Jian usually departed from Country G when she went to the Amazon rainforest since Country G had helicopters that went straight to the entrance of the jungle. All eight countries were spread around the Amazon rainforest but Yun Jian was simply more used to going from Country G.

Leng Hanzhe and his group followed Yun Jian until they came to Country G where they would take the helicopter straight to the Amazon rainforest.

Country G was decently safe and orderly but there were still areas that had higher crime rates. The helicopters that went straight to Amazonia were rented from locals and they did not have a lot of the helicopters around, so one usually needed to be in line and wait for the helicopter here.

Yun Jian and Mu Ying stood waiting in line with Leng Hanzhe and group standing behind them.

“It’s so hot. It’s going to be our turn soon. Is the chopper here yet?” Leng Lingling fanned her face with her hand and asked lethargically.

“Hold on... It’s here, it’s here! It’s finally here!” one of the guys who were in the group replied.

A helicopter could be seen being transported over by a huge truck from a distance away.

“Hey, you guys need to wait for another two hours. The pilot flying this chopper got into a fight with someone armed just now. He got shot twice and got sent to the hospital. The next chopper will only be here two hours later,” a worker walked over with a wave at Yun Jian and group as he spoke in Chinese; he was from Country Z too.

“Huh? Two more hours?” Leng Lingling was dumbfounded.

“Is this chopper empty without anyone flying it?” Yun Jian asked.

The worker was taken aback by Yun Jian’s question before he smiled naturally. “Yeah.”

He then cracked a joke at Yun Jian. “Are you thinking to fly the helicopter to the Amazon jungle yourself, girl? Heh!”

“Give me the chopper. I’ll rent it,” Yun Jian said and fished out a card from her pocket to toss to the worker and walked to the helicopter.

“Are you crazy? The pilot’s not around and you’re renting the helicopter? Do you even know how to fly it?” Leng Lingling who stood at the back could not help mocking Yun Jian.

“Hey, girl! You can’t simply fly the chopper if you don’t know how to. Do you know the location of the Amazon jungle? You...” When the worker broke out of his surprise, he planned to catch up and stop Yun Jian who had already gone to the helicopter.

All they saw was Yun Jian going to the helicopter and hopping on the door easily before she walked to the pilot cabin and started the engine within three seconds. The rotor blades of the helicopter made a loud noise as they jolted and spun.

While everyone watched in shock, Yun Jian walked to the helicopter door and let down the rope as she called for Mu Ying, “Come on!”

She really knew how to fly a helicopter! This teenage girl could actually fly a helicopter!

Everyone was completely dumbstruck.

Chapter 1397: Join a Group Tour to Visit the Amazonia

Mu Ying went over and grabbed the rope that Yun Jian had let down from the hovering helicopter before she agilely climbed up from the ground to the side of the helicopter where the door was.

No matter how the worker had tried to stop Yun Jian due to his disbelief that she could fly a helicopter, what Yun Jian had just done and the fact that she really knew how to fly a helicopter had completely shocked him.

After Mu Ying climbed up the helicopter with the rope swiftly, she stood by the door and looked at Leng Hangzhe, Leng Lingling, Guo Xiao, and the others, finally locking her gaze on Leng Hanzhe.

The helicopter was already three meters away from the ground then. Unless Yun Jian or Mu Ying who were in the helicopter dropped the rope and Leng Hanzhe and his company were able to climb all the way up, there was no way all of them could get up the helicopter.

Judging by how the helicopter was hovering three meters away from the ground, it was apparent that Yun Jian did not plan to go with Leng Hanzhe and group.

“Hey, alright, fine. We know that you can fly a helicopter. Lower the chopper now, will you? Come on, hurry up! I’m getting burned from the hot sun. It’s too warm. Lower the chopper and let us get in.”

Leng Lingling did not think much about it even though she was astonished. Instead, she waved at Yun Jian to ask her to lower the helicopter for them to get in.

“We part here,” Yun Jian replied with three simple words and that was that.

Leng Lingling was startled before she broke out in curses as she shouted insults at Yun Jian.

Mu Ying kept her eyes on Leng Hanzhe, pressed her lips together, and said, “I’m not the Mu Ying in the past. I’ve told you about this before. I’m telling you again right now. Don’t come to me anymore. We’re not from the same world.”

Mu Ying had told Leng Hanzhe multiple times that the two of them no longer belonged in the same world and he should stop coming to her, but each time she brought it up, Leng Hanzhe would...

“How are we not from the same world? Yingying, nothing in this world can stop us from being together. I won’t give up! I won’t ever give up!”

Yun Jian had flown the helicopter over tens of meters away but Leng Hanzhe was still shouting to the sky from the ground, refusing to acknowledge defeat.

Mu Ying had repeatedly rejected Leng Hanzhe. It was not that she did not know Leng Hanzhe’s feelings for her, but she was not the real Mu Ying and she could not blend her identity to Mu Ying’s body like Yun Jian did.

Despite that, no matter what she did, she could not get rid of Leng Hanzhe and it burdened her with guilt.

Yun Jian and Mu Ying came to the border of the Amazon rainforest. Helicopters could enter the jungle, but this one they were flying in was rented and Yun Jian did not plan to fly it directly into the forest.

The helicopter was stopped at the entrance. They were surrounded by the jungle here, but the reason this place was called the entrance was because there were people camping out around the area as well as the workers who managed the helicopters being stationed here. One could even register at the scenic spot here as there were tour guides providing group tours to visit the Amazon rainforest.

Needless to say, the tour guides would only lead the visitors to the safe zone when one signed up for a group tour. It was impossible if one wanted to go deeper into the Amazon jungle.

When Yun Jian handed the helicopter over to the staff there, the man was shocked. Why was their helicopter being flown over here by a young girl? By the time he snapped out of his surprise, Yun Jian had left.

Just when Yun Jian came back to Mu Ying and planned to pack up their bags to enter the jungle, a crisp voice of a man sounded from behind her.

The guy stopped Yun Jian and Mu Ying just in time.

“Hey, young ladies, hello! So this is the situation, we want to follow the group tour to visit the Amazon rainforest but the group tour can only be formed with 20 people. We already have 17 people now and we’ll need just one more person if you both join us. Would you like to join us for the group tour?”

Chapter 1398: We’ll Join Your Group

“We’re not following any group tour,” Yun Jian rejected the guy decisively, saying without even a glance at his face.

The guy was startled by Yun Jian’s short and simple response but he was not deterred. Instead, he made his way around Yun Jian and Mu Ying to stand before them and spoke again looking at them, as if he was trying to persuade the two of them.

“It isn’t a bright idea for you two girls to enter the Amazon jungle alone, right? The Amazon forest isn’t the usual forests. There are wild beasts in there! It’s easy to get into troubles when you go alone!”

“I heard that a group went in two days ago and hasn’t come back out till now. It’s dangerous for you two girls to walk into the Amazon jungle without following a group tour. Why don’t you join us? We can look out for each other too!”

“Besides, we’re all from Country Z. Heh, it’s rare to meet fellow countrymen here..”

The guy said a lot but what he received in exchange was a single-worded rejection from Yun Jian—“No.”

“Ren Zongwei, you done? What’s the point of existing when you don’t even have the charisma to persuade two babes?” another guy spoke up from the side.

As he spoke, he made his way to Yun Jian and Mu Ying.

“Hi, I’m Shan Chengjie. We’re planning to form a group to visit the Amazon rainforest together. Ren Zongwei told you just now, we need three more people. There are six of us from Country Z in the group! Do you both want to come together?”

The guy who called himself Shan Chengjie was a handsome young man around 19 years old with a sunshine vibe to him.

It was obvious that Shan Chengjie and his friends were university students who traveled together to visit Amazonia. Upon a closer look, all of them were dressed top to toe in branded goods that even the watches on their wrists costed five thousand yuan and above.

Five thousand yuan was considered extremely expensive for the price of a watch in 1999.

Since it was obvious that they were university students and for university students to come all the way to visit the Amazon rainforest, they had to be from wealthy families to do it.

In spite of it, these were not within Yun Jian’s considerations.

After Shan Chengjie and Ren Zongwei said that it was dangerous for Yun Jian and Mu Ying to depart to the jungle alone, Yun Jian was already starting to pack her bag. She ignored Shan Chengjie as she took a butterfly knife, two daggers and multiple blades out from her bag, making sure that they could function normally before keeping them again.

Ren Zongwei and Shan Chengjie were still going on about how it was dangerous for two girls like Yun Jian and Mu Ying to go to the forest alone and persuading them to join their tour group. Once they saw Yun Jian fiddling with the knives that she pulled out of her bag, they gasped and gulped.

“You... A girl like you has so many dangerous items!” Shan Chengjie was stunned.

Yun Jian had already picked up her bag by then as she called for Mu Ying to go to the entrance of the jungle with her, completely ignoring Shan Chengjie and Ren Zongwei’s reaction.

When they were about to walk through the entrance to the jungle, Yun Jian suddenly saw the tour guide’s introduction of the group tour in Country G’s language. She frowned a little at the sight of the text and held Mu Ying back abruptly before she turned to tell Shan Chengjie and Ren Zongwei, “We’ll join your group.”

Clueless, Mu Ying raised a brow at the sudden change.

Chapter 1399: Piranhas and the Consequence of Not Believing Her

Shan Chengjie and Ren Zongwei looked up and asked in unison right after Yun Jian spoke, “Really? You two will join us?”

Yun Jian’s attitude was too cold before this, so it had made Shan Chengjie and Ren Zongwei think that she would not join them. They both felt like they had heard it wrong when they heard what Yun Jian just said.

“Lead the way,” Yun Jian said with a nod.

Although Mu Ying did not understand why Yun Jian had decided to follow the group tour all of a sudden—since it would be a waste of time and inconvenient them, she did not ask Yun Jian.

As they joined Ren Zongwei and Shan Chengjie’s group, Yun Jian and Mu Ying met the other four Country Z nationals. Three of them were here together with the two guys while another woman who looked more mature came on her own and had just gotten to know Shan Chengjie and his friends when she joined the group tour.

This woman greeted Yun Jian and Mu Ying when she saw them, “New friends? Hey, I’m He Liqing. You can call me Qingqing-jie. No need to be shy.”

This woman who called herself He Liqing was obviously a pretty and gentle big sister. There was also a commanding sense despite her tenderness. At least, Yun Jian quite liked her.

“I’m Mu Ying,” Mu Ying told He Liqing briefly.

“Yun Jian.” Yun Jian’s self-introduction was even shorter.

“Welcome, girls...” A university girl who looked to be 18-19 years old and was in Shan Chengjie’s group greeted Yun Jian and Mu Ying.

The girl had thick makeup on and looked incredibly pretty. She did not look unwelcoming when she greeted Yun Jian and Mu Ying either. Yet if one scrutinized how welcoming the girl was about Yun Jian and Mu Ying’s addition, there was no display of that; it was visible that she was only welcoming them for the sake of it but she was inwardly indifferent.

The girl’s name was Liu Yun. Among the Country Z nationals, excluding Yun Jian and Mu Ying, He Liqing and Liu Yun were the only girls out of the guys.

Ultimately, the number of people was fulfilled and the group was ready to depart for the tour.

Yun Jian had asked Si Yi to bring along Berserk Dragon and come a day later than her and Mu Ying. Si Yi had already dismissed Berserk Dragon but Yun Jian’s request for him to bring the latter along and how much he listened to her caused him to satisfy her first no matter how jealous he was.

As they entered the Amazon rainforest, the surrounding scenery felt like a fairy tale as it was extremely beautiful. Among the group, there were several people who came with cameras, so they were slower as they snapped photos along the way.

“Whoa! There’s a river here. It’s so wide and spacious and the water’s so clear!” a foreigner exclaimed in English just then.

There were fish swimming in the river, so a few of the foreigners were already rolling up their sleeves and taking off their shoes in excitement to go catch the fish in the water.

“Let’s go play too!” Liu Yun took off her shoes ecstatically and ran to the river. As she stood in the shallow water, she struck a “yeah” pose to one of the guys with a camera.

The river was wide with fast flowing water. Liu Yun was striking poses standing there as she made the guy with the camera keep taking photos of her. When she slipped, her foot was cut by the stones. Just as she lifted her leg to check the state of her foot, she heard Yun Jian saying from afar, “There are piranhas in this river. You have to come back up right now.”

Yun Jian’s words put a displeased frown on Liu Yun but she was the kind of girl who would not show her disgruntlement on her face. To be frank, she was the kind of person who cared a lot about her image. Even if she dislikes someone very much, she would not show it but would interact with the person coldly.

Yun Jian had spoken in English, so everyone there could hear and understand her.

“Piranhas? Where? I’m not done taking photos yet!” Liu Yun scrunched her brows and said with an icy tone but did not retort Yun Jian with any harsh words.

The foreigners, on the other hand, listened to Yun Jian and left the river.

Although Liu Yun did not retort Yun Jian loudly, she was incredibly cold to the latter.

The other foreigners who got up due to what Yun Jian said were doubtful as well because the tour guide had told them that it was unlikely, though not impossible, that there would be piranhas here.

It was then Liu Yun was heard screeching.

The others then saw a fish about 30 centimeters long open its mouth and clamp its sharp teeth down on Liu Yun's leg. It bit her like how a surgeon cut with their surgical blade; its bite was relentless on Liu Yun's leg. As the fish thrashed its body, it managed to bite a chunk of flesh off Liu Yun's leg right in front of everyone!

"Ahh!" Liu Yun's deafening cry came next.

Chapter 1400: Get Moving if You Want to Stay Alive

"Any hint of blood will trigger a frenzy attack from a large group of piranhas. You still have three seconds to get back on the riverbank. Not even god will be able to save you three seconds later," Yun Jian told Liu Yun as she calmly watched a piece of flesh being bitten off the latter's leg.

Piranhas usually attacked in groups. There was once a child who accidentally fell into a pond that kept piranhas and was bitten into a scary set of skeleton within minutes. It was not just hearsay but cold hard truth.

"Ah! No! Noo!" Liu Yun whose leg was bitten could care less about the pain as she sprang back onto the riverbank.

The piranha that was biting her kept its bite on her leg and refused to let go, only loosening its jaw when Liu Yun shook her leg with all her might.

Perhaps Liu Yun did not see it but the very second after she hopped out of the water, everyone on land saw the piranhas behind her pouncing like they were high on adrenaline. Some had even bitten Liu Yun's dress and torn it directly.

"Ah! Ahh! Will they come up on land?!" someone was already screaming, ready to bolt.

"Argh! Ouch!" Liu Yun fell to the ground as she could no longer move. Her leg throbbed in pain; there was already a chunk of flesh missing on her leg from being bitten by the piranha and it already looked terrifying. What was more, she was feeling it.

"Will... Will I die..." Liu Yun hugged her leg and wailed.

"Shut up!" While it became noisy as everyone was horrified and some wanted to go back following the way they came from, planning to give up on the trip altogether, Yun Jian's holler caused everyone there to quiet down both verbally and physically.

Even Liu Yun was shocked into silence as she held back from crying out in pain.

Yun Jian was the one who said that there were piranhas in the river and some of them had been skeptical about it.

“Yun Jian, h-how did you know that there are... p-piranhas in the river...” Shan Chengjie was already stuttering out of fear.

Yun Jian did not reply to his question directly but scanned everyone around her and answered icily in English where all of them could understand, “If you want to stay alive in the Amazon jungle, remember three things—don’t simply touch things, run around, or move about.”

“If all of you can’t even do these three things, I can let you know very clearly right now that you have two options left—leave, or die!”

Yun Jian’s gaze was sharp like a cutting knife and each word that tumbled out of her mouth was jolting.

Even the tour guide was intimidated by Yun Jian’s icy look.

“Didn’t people say that visiting the Amazon forest is safe with a guide?” a strong, muscular man stepped out to ask; he was a foreigner and was speaking in English.

“Hah,” Yun Jian suddenly chortled. The next second, her gaze turned sharp as she ran a hand in her bag and pulled out a blade precisely without even looking; she then tossed it forward to the muscular man.

“Argh! You!” The man was astonished.

By the time he could snap out of his surprise, the blade on Yun Jian’s hand had flown past him.

“T-that’s... a...” It was then someone gasped and cried in terror when he suddenly realized that there was a cobra that was pinned to a tree right behind the muscular man by the blade that Yun Jian had thrown.

Everyone who turned to look saw the same sight. It meant that if Yun Jian had not reacted in time just now, this cobra that had been hanging just behind the man would have...

While the group was frightened by Yun Jian’s skill, they could not help the delayed fear that crept in. They then heard Yun Jian snorting at the man, “Who else can you depend on if you can’t even protect yourself?”

She stood before the group and suddenly retrieved a bunch of blades from her bag and tossed them on the ground, telling the group, “I don’t team up with trash. From now on, I won’t save any one of you, so you have two options. Either you leave, sooner better than later, or... pick up the blades from the ground and get moving if you want to stay alive!”
