

Schoolgirl 141

Chapter 141: Invincible Across The Globe. Where's She?

Gu Sha Mercenaries was an organization comprised of the best hired hitmen in the world, the leading among the ranking chart of assassination organizations.

Across the globe, other than the An Hun Group, the Gu Sha Mercenaries were invincible.

Even when Yuan Xuxiao used to mention the organization to his members, he had spoken about it with reverence.

When Yun Jian bolted in through the door, the humiliation it brought upon Yuan Xuxiao and his men were prepared to lash out at this brazen girl, but it shocked them when she proclaimed to be from the Gu Sha Mercenaries.

Yuan Xuxiao also knew that if an ordinary person had used the name of the Gu Sha Mercenaries in vain, the organization would make that person pay.

Hence, Yun Jian must be a member of Gu Sha if she dared say so. Unless she did not want to live anymore.

Gu Sha's intelligence was spread across the globe. They would be able to check even the tiniest, most trivial action.

If Yun Jian was like Xu Zetian, only a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries, perhaps Yuan Xuxiao would not be as intimidated. With members scattered around the world, people like Xu Zetian who was influential in Longmen City, but insignificant in Gu Sha Mercenaries, were everywhere.

In spite of it, Yuan Xuxiao had sharply caught onto Yun Jian's words.

She said, "Do you want war against Gu Sha Mercenaries?". It was evident that her status in the organization was extraordinary to be able to propel the entire agency to declare war against him!

Otherwise, a mere member of Gu Sha would never dare claim something so significant on behalf of the organization in such a bold tone.

Consequently, Yuan Xuxiao as well as the woman and his right-hand man standing beside him were stunned, frozen solid.

This girl in front of them who appeared to still be underage was actually a high-ranking member of the Gu Sha Mercenaries?

The news was shocking.

Of course, they did not know that Yun Jian was Gu Sha's boss. How would they have reacted if they knew...

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen who followed Yun Jian in were stupefied as well.

Gu Sha Mercenaries? They also knew about them! That was the globally renowned assassination agency!

Nonetheless, what the boys knew was that Yun Jian's identity was only an ordinary ninth grader.

Thinking about it, the boys frowned and observed quietly.

"Ah...? I kidnapped your friend? Pal, you can't say things so simply and as you please. I, Yuan Xuxiao, am forthright with my ways. I'm a gang member but I've never done anything despicable!" Yuan Xuxiao's attitude toward Yun Jian was amicable.

To the man, whether Yun Jian was actually a superior of Gu Sha, would not risk provoking and angering the organization.

Yun Jian snorted and went to the man's office table, lightly knocking on it with the pad of her finger.

"No?" Yun Jian scoffed. With a light hop, she sat on the table and crossed her left leg over her right in a leisurely manner. Looking at Yuan Xuxiao, she continued, "Car registration number A-50855 – Yuan Xuxiao, would you dare say that Nine Valleys Gang didn't take who's mine?"

Yuan Xuxiao was startled.

The registration plate number was indeed his gang's car, but he did not order the kidnapping of anyone!

The woman who stood beside Yuan Xuxiao jolted when she heard Yun Jian, her reaction caught by the latter. Yun Jian smirked and hopped off the table, stepping in front of the woman swiftly.

With a wave of a hand, a dagger suddenly appeared in her hold like a magic trick performance. Pushing the blade against the woman's neck, Yun Jian spoke airily amidst everyone's astonishment, "Looks like it's you who took my friend hmm... Where's she?"

Chapter 142: The Truth Of The Kidnap And The Foreboding Of Her Wrath

Staring at the dagger that suddenly materialized in Yun Jian's hand, everyone was confounded once more.

Yuan Xuxiao specifically had his heart lurched to his throat. He wanted to push Yun Jian away but he held himself back ultimately, telling her in a shaky voice, "P – pal! This must be a misunderstanding! Xiaoyu is my younger sister. She just came back from studying in Country Y. How could she possibly have a grudge against you or your friend? It's even more absurd for her to seize them. Can – can you drop the dagger first, ye – yeah?"

The woman was none other than Yuan Xuxiao's biological younger sister, Yuan Xiaoyu.

As the mafia boss to Longmen City's second biggest gang, Yuan Xuxiao whose stature was only second to Xu Zetian, was also a powerful person in the city. He had never actually caved in to someone like he was today.

Yun Jian was the first!

Somehow, Yuan Xuxiao sensed a feeling that the blade in her hand would ruthlessly cut his baby sister's neck if he had angered Yun Jian.

Yuan Xuxiao was known for his decisiveness and cut-throat character in the mafia world, but his only weakness was his sister Yuan Xiaoyu.

Having lost his father when he was a young boy while his mother abandoned both of them when she remarried, his younger sister was his only family when life was tough back then.

When he saw Yun Jian's dagger attach to Xiaoyu's neck, he was shuddering with his heart jumping against his ribcage.

Yuan Xiaoyu did not expect Yun Jian to threaten her with a blade. Her legs were staggering as she barely kept herself up from the paralyzing panic.

"Are you talking or not?" Ignoring Yuan Xuxiao, Yun Jian pressed Yuan Xiaoyu further both in her questioning and the blade against the latter's skin.

Yuan Xiaoyu could almost feel her pores against the iciness of the blade. She quivered and could not help crying out, "No, no, no, don't kill me, sob... Don't kill me! It's not me, it's not me! I didn't do it on purpose..."

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen had thought that Yun Jian had made a mistake, but now all of their eyes were back on Yun Jian and the seemingly harmless Yuan Xiaoyu.

"Xiaoyu, what did you say?" Yuan Xuxiao did not expect his younger sister to admit to the accusation. In his impression, his baby sister had always been a goody two shoes. It did not cross his mind that she would really kidnap someone from Yun Jian, so he stared at her in disbelief.

Yuan Xiaoyu pressed her lips together nervously. Shaking, she wailed abruptly.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes and smirked. She put down the dagger and had her arms crossed in front of herself as she looked at Yuan Xiaoyu who was now squatted on the floor. "You wanted to look for me, Yun Jian, right?"

Hearing the name, Yuan Xiaoyu looked up promptly with an even paler face, nodding with a quiver.

Under Yuan Xuxiao's mediation, Yuan Xiaoyu finally spoke the truth despite her reluctance.

Yuan Xiaoyu had no grudge against Yun Jian. The one who did was Shiniji, whose hands were incapacitated by Yun Jian when he lost to her in the knock-out battle previously.

As Country Y's national boxer, Shiniji's future was destroyed when his hands were rendered useless. He was wrathful. Coincidentally, Shiniji's younger sister was best friends and Yuan Xiaoyu roommate in Country Y's Gaoya University.

Basically, Yuan Xiaoyu had utilized her elder brother's gangster background to help Shiniji's younger sister in locating Yun Jian in order to take her revenge.

Yun Jian was not an easy target, Yuan Xiaoyu had known this. Therefore, she used Yun Jian's classmate who did not like the former, Lu Rongrong. She told her that she could teach Yun Jian a lesson, as long as she tricked her to leave the forest park.

Eventually, Lu Rongrong had not been able to trick Yun Jian to leave the forest park, Instead, she encountered Chen Xinyi, the friend who was the closest to Yun Jian, going to the washroom.

Lu Rongrong had Yuan Xiaoyu take Chen Xinyi away first, saying that Yun Jian would be subdued once they threatened her with Chen Xinyi as a hostage.

“Lu Rongrong.” Yun Jian scoffed, a strong murderous intent oozing from the corner of her lips.

She was smiling but it lowered the temperature in the room.

Those who were familiar with her would have known that this was a foretelling sign of her fury.

Chapter 143: Address Acquired. Gambling Addict Of A Father

Hearing those three syllables leave her lips in an eerie tone, everyone in the office shuddered.

In particular, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen, as they did not expect Lu Rongrong to be one of the culprits behind Chen Xinyi’s kidnapping.

“Where is she?” While everyone was preoccupied with their thoughts, Yun Jian had recovered her usual tone and asked Yuan Xiaoyu faintly, although one could still detect a hint of chilling intent from within.

The “she” she referred to was of course Chen Xinyi.

Yuan Xiaoyu dared not keep anything in the dark now, now understanding the severity of the matter. Yun Jian had made even her elder brother who she had always admired anxious.

Yuan Xiaoyu provided an address at once and looked up at Yuan Xuxiao before coming clean. “They wanted to kidnap the girl first, then send you a letter for you to meet at an agreed place alone. Afterward, they planned to catch you directly...”

Before Yuan Xiaoyu finished her words, Yun Jian turned to leave. What she wanted to hear was not her uninformative nonsense.

As Yun Jian left, she waved at Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen. The boys followed her at once.

“Stay here and don’t go anywhere. I’ll take care of you when I come back!” Yuan Xuxiao pointed at Yuan Xiaoyu’s head and left as well.

He was an intelligent man. He knew that if he did not redeem his younger sister’s grave mistake, Yun Jian as one of Gu Sha’s high-ranking members would never let her go. Hence, he took proactive action.

After all, offending a Gu Sha Mercenary he was one step closer to his death.

Four of them walked back to the center of the casino through the backdoor.

The gamblers were shouting and cheering even more fervently compared to their arrival, the hoots one wave louder than another.

With Yun Jian walking leading the pack, the quad had come to the center of the casino, planning to leave the building quietly, when an anguished begging sounded. “Please, I beg you, please don’t chop my hand. Don’t... don’t do it! I’ll go home, I’ll get more money from home...”

The hoarse yell belonged to a man. It was in despair, regret lacing his tone.

There were many who were unable to pay for their losses in the casino and had their limbs severed as payment. It happened more often than not here in the Prime Casino, the distinctive top casino in Longmen City.

Yun Jian walked past the area without stopping while Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen looked horrified.

“No, don’t chop, please, I beg you... Yun Jian? Yun Jian! Daughter, my daughter! She – she’s my daughter!” The voice that shouted hoarsely just now seemed to have caught a glimmer of hope out of the blue as he shouted at Yun Jian.

In the beginning, Yun Jian who heard the voice and actually felt that it was familiar. However, she did not pay attention.

When the voice called out to her in front of everyone, it was then that she reacted and looked up toward that direction. The sight of an unkempt man in his thirties or forties, with a beard that had not been shaved for some time, scrambled towards her.

Yun Jian was taken aback but she got a good look at the man.

He looked worse than the father of the original body’s memory, but it was clear that this person was one whom she had never met since her rebirth. In spite of it he was the one who had left nothing but troubles to the family. – He was the father to this body of hers, Yun Gang.

Yun Gang could care less about the reason his daughter was here in a casino. He scurried to hide behind Yun Jian, only peeking with his eyes, while cowering at his opponents. This man had won a game over Yun Gang and was about to chop his hand off because he could not settle the debt.

Zhang Shaofeng, Ling Yichen, and Yuan Xuxiao were all surprised that the middle-aged man was acknowledging a family member out of the blue, but when they saw that Yun Jian did not push the person away but instead had been distantly silent, they were shocked.

This grimy cowardly man in front of them was really her father?

How could this be?

Yun Jian’s dominance had even Yuan Xuxiao guessing what sort of parent could give birth to an amazing daughter like her, not expecting that she would have a gambling addict of a father!

Chapter 144: We’re Done. Brimming Resentment

“Jian... Xiao Jian, save me, save daddy – save daddy!” Yun Gang hid behind Yun Jian and wrenched the hem of her clothes looking at the man who was approaching him.

This man was the one who had won money from Yun Gang and was going to hack off his hand for not being able to pay. He was also one of Yuan Xuxiao’s underling, named Ye Feng, the person in charge of the Prime Casino.

Yun Gang had come today to gamble in the hopes of winning money to pay off his debts, not expecting that he would lose it all and almost lose his hands as well.

He had no idea of the affairs at home. Since he escaped and left behind the debt, he had never gone back to Xinjiang Town.

When Ye Feng saw Yun Gang running to hide behind Yun Jian, he was coming over to put an end to the case.

In spite of it, he saw his boss, Yuan Xuxiao, waving at him behind Yun Jian, gesturing for him to leave it, thus he stopped in his tracks.

“Let go.” Yun Jian’s nonchalant voice rang, which frightened them again.

She was speaking to Yun Gang. The man had been gripping the hem of her clothes due to his fear.

“Xiao – Xiao Jian, daddy is wrong, I’ve done wrong. Save me!” Thinking that Yun Jian was angered and not realizing that Ye Feng had stepped away, Yun Gang clenched Yun Jian’s clothes even more apprehensively as he pleaded shakily.

“I’ll say it again, let go. Otherwise, I’ll break your arms for you before someone else does!” There was zero fondness from Yun Jian to her so-called father.

She had never expected to encounter Yun Gang in a setting like this either.

She could forget about the troubles and mess that Yun Gang had caused at home but she did not think that this father of hers would adamantly continue to gamble in the casino.

If she had not asked Qin Yirou to leave Yun Gang, what state would she have been in?

Nothing would probably be left of Qin Yirou by now.

Yun Gang had never imagined his meek and soft daughter to speak to him in such a tone. Shocked, his hands let go subconsciously.

As everyone witnessed this scene, they could not help gasping.

“Let’s go.” Yun Jian told those behind her. Her gaze remained a sideward glance at Yun Gang as she said threateningly, “If you dare follow, I’ll chop off your legs right after I chop your arms as well! Do not ever approach my mom and elder brother from now on. Scram back to your home. I’ve repaid your debt. This is the last time. From now on, we have nothing to do with each other.”

Yun Jian’s words were indirectly ordering Yuan Xuxiao’s men to release Yun Gang.

Similarly, she had also expressed her stance. This was her last time cleaning up after the mess of the original body’s father.

After today, alive or dead, this man had nothing to do with her.

Yun Gang was startled. Blinking, he stared as Yun Jian walked out while escorted by some men. He had a sense that his daughter was not someone ordinary!

Exiting the Prime Casino, Yuan Xuxiao lent his jeep to Yun Jian. The quad hopped on but Yun Jian stayed reserved, allowing Yuan Xuxiao to drive them to the place mentioned by Yuan Xiaoyu.

It was a barren outskirts with only a row of temporary factories constructed.

In a warehouse behind the factory, Shiniji whose hands were handicapped stood there belligerently with a sultry woman beside him.

“Is that wretched girl Yun Jian caught?” Shiniji spat.

“Not yet, soon, though!” The sultry woman said with a soft sigh.

“When that girl is caught, I’ll destroy her! Make her pay! I’ll break her meridians and sell her to the whorehouse, let her be sullied and played with. She can forget about living for the rest of her life!” Shiniji roared looking at his hands.

Chapter 145: Amazing Observation: The Tire Marks

“Of course, brother.” The sultry woman standing beside Shiniji nodded wearing a brutal smile.

The woman was Shiniji’s baby sister, Shilaji.

Shilaji looked down as a piercing and savage glint flashed across her eyes. She told Shiniji in a low tone, “The hitman we’ve hired this time is one of the top ten among the assassin ranking, Wolf Blade, also known as Stone Cold Killer. Hah, unless Yun Jian’s an assassin or secret agent ranked in the same chart... Thinking about leaving here alive? Haha, in her dreams!”

“Hahaha...” Shiniji barked a burst of hearty laughter, as if already envisioning the moment he had avenged himself and sent Yun Jian to hell.

A jeep drove into the rows of factory buildings and stopped at the entrance.

Yun Jian and the men in the car got down respectively.

“The place Xiaoyu mentioned is here.” Yuan Xuxiao was the last one to come down. Closing the door, he took several steps forward and observed the surroundings.

“There are so many factory houses here, how are we supposed to find her?” Zhang Shaofeng was anxious.

Since Chen Xinyi was kidnapped, each passing second and minute felt like an eternity to him. He usually liked bantering with Chen Xinyi and playing tricks on her, but Chen Xinyi was the only younger sister he had of his generation in the family. She was only his cousin but she felt like close family as they grew up together.

As an elder brother, he would never wish harm upon his baby sister.

“Right, Shaofeng, I’ve informed the police. They’ll be here soon to save Xinyi. I didn’t tell uncle and auntie lest they worry about Xinyi without the ability to do anything.” Ling Yichen waved his phone that had a text message written on it.

“Thank you.” Zhang Shaofeng thanked the boy for his consideration.

“Let’s go.” Yun Jian took two steps forward and suddenly halted to turn back and look at Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen. “Are you two coming? Shiniji resents me. He’s from Country Y. Zhang Shaofeng, you saw the other day, he’s someone who hid a pistol. If you two continue with me, what if something happens to you?”

Zhang Shaofeng was the disciple whom Yun Jian had personally taken in, he was her first disciple.

Following her, dangerous things were bound to happen, but the boy did not have the ability to protect himself yet. He had just started training.

Yun Jian had never liked unnecessary sacrifices. In addition, this was a personal affair.

“No, master, I’ll go for sure. Xinyi’s my sister! She’s in danger now, how could I flee at a critical moment like this as her elder brother?” Zhang Shaofeng declared his view steadfastly.

“Me too, let’s go together!” Not acting like a playboy anymore, Ling Yichen looked quite like a proper man.

Yun Jian grinner.

This was the spirit her disciple should possess.

“Then let’s go.” Yun Jian continued to move.

Yuan Xuxiao and the boys were puzzled.

“There are so many factories here. Do you know where they are specifically? Aren’t you afraid of alarming them?” As the mafia boss of Longmeng City’s second gang, Yuan Xuxiao asked as he was still equipped with much judgment.

“Yes.” Yun Jian squinted and suddenly pointed at the ground.

Factory sites during this era did not use cement to pave the ground. Instead, the ground was laid unevenly with sand and gravel.

There was an unusually distinct track of tires on the sand and gravel ground.

While the men were still figuring out what Yun Jian meant, she explained, “We’ll find them along this car tire marking.”

Yuan Xuxiao was stunned.

She had such detailed observation skills!

The man asked in doubt, “How do you know that the tire marks are from the car that kidnapped your friend? What if it’s from other cars?”

This was a question both Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen had as well.

Yun Jian turned to look at them with a squint and held up a finger to elaborate, “First, the tire marks were made not long ago. Second, that A-50855 Jeep of yours has tires with markings like this.”

She could distinguish that the tire marks were just made?!

Her knowledge was so vast and her observation was comprehensive!

The man and the boys were awestruck.

Chapter 146: Dead Meat. Assassin Wolf Blade

The three males no longer doubted Yun Jian after her conclusions.

Honestly, whether it was her previous knowledge of reasoning or her adept skills, neither seemed they should belong to a young teenage girl.

In spite of it, Yun Jian's judgment had never erred.

Based solely on this point, the trio believed her unconditionally.

"Come if you believe me." Right as they pondered about it, Yun Jian said with a slight arch of the brow and a small smirk.

The trio nodded in unison.

Led by Yun Jian, the quad followed the deepest tire marks on the sandy gravel road until they had come to a corner factory house.

Shiniji, Shilaji, and Stone Cold Killer Wolf Blade, who they had hired, were all standing in the warehouse behind the factory.

Not too far away from them, Chen Xinyi who had black tape over her mouth was tied to a stool. She could only produce light hums as she tried to speak.

There was also a group of men standing beside Shiniji and Shilaji, most probably their lackeys.

"Why is that damned girl not here yet? Didn't you say that you've sent someone to inform her?" Shiniji's gaze was penetrating and venomous when he took a sideways glance at his younger sister.

He had no idea that Yun Jian was already here for him before she was informed.

"Brother, she won't have just ignored the message right? After all, is it worth it to send yourself on a suicide mission for your friend?" Shilaji pointed at Chen Xinyi who was restrained with a slight frown.

Chen Xinyi widened her eyes and suddenly shook her head.

She had been here listening to their conversation and she had seen Shiniji in the earlier knock-out battle. She knew that they had kidnapped her to lure Yun Jian over, and she knew that Jian Jian would definitely be here for her. Nonetheless, she was afraid of something bad happening to a real friend who she had finally made.

"Boss, since that girl isn't here yet, let us brothers have a go first?" A few foreigners standing beside Shiniji rubbed their hands together while they gazed at Chen Xinyi's pretty face with a broad grin.

A few of them had even pulled their pants obscenely.

“Go, go! Make it quick! As long as you don’t make a noise.” Shiniji only wanted revenge on Yun Jian. He was resentful, so he was also unhappy with her friend, Chen Xinyi.

When the men heard what he said, they rubbed their hands together eagerly as they made their way toward the girl with salacious grins.

Chen Xinyi’s eyes bulged. She understood what these foreigners had been saying as they were speaking in Mandarin.

She shook her head forcefully, as this was the first time she felt so hopeless and terrified. At that moment, she even thought of dying there and then.

Before the men could even get close to her, however, the door was kicked away flying with a clank.

With the sturdy door hurled away, Yun Jian was the first to step inside. Her long narrow eyes scanned the space sharply and announced, “How dare you capture my friend – Shiniji, you’re dead meat!”

She had let Shiniji go during the ring fight previously because of Xu Zetian.

Today, she must not be blamed since Shiniji remained obstinate!

“Heh heh heh...” Shiniji was caught off guard for a split second when Yun Jian barged in but he wore a sinister smile immediately. He was not afraid of the girl at all.

“Mr. Wolf Blade, please kill her!” Shiniji turned to Wolf Blade and spoke in a respectful tone.

It was then that everyone shifted their gaze toward the man who was thin as a skeleton.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes with her gaze directly zeroed in on the man.

Wolf Blade, Stone Cold Killer who ranked tenth in the assassin chart. This man had a sense of wildness like a wolf. He was scrawny but he was the best at ambush and assassination. Fighting one to one, Yun Jian who was ranked before him, might not even win against him.

“Shiniji, the person you want me to kill is this little girl? Are you underestimating me? I, Wolf Blade, rank top ten among the elite assassins of the world and you’re asking me to fight a girl!?” Wolf Blade looked at Yun Jian in disdain and sneered at Shiniji.

An assassin? Shiniji had actually hired a killer to overpower Yun Jian?

Hearing what Wolf Blade said, Zhang Shaofeng, Ling Yichen, and Yuan Xuxiao all paled at once.

Even when there was a gang leader like Yuan Xuxiao, he still could not help trembling when he heard the word assassin.

Chapter 147: Unqualified. A Born King

What caused them to blanch was not simply the fact that Wolf Blade was an assassin.

If he was only an average killer without proper training, they would not be as petrified. After all, Yun Jian was capable too. She had won against Shiniji with one single technique and could even snatch the pistol from him and incapacitate both his hands after that.

It was plain that Yun Jian was not an average girl too.

Nonetheless, Wolf Blade claimed to be the tenth elite in the assassin ranking.

Who among the top ten assassin and secret agent charts had not survived from bloodshed and bullets? These top twenty people, either one of them, could wreak havoc with just a stomp of their foot once they stepped out onto the battlefield.

Shiniji had actually hired Wolf Blade who was ranked tenth in the assassin chart! – For the sole reason of vengeance against Yun Jian!

Zhang Shaofeng and everyone else looked worriedly at Yun Jian. Their brows were pinched together in anxiety and fear.

In spite of it, Yun Jian did not look shocked after hearing Wolf Blade's self-introduction. She was calm and composed.

Then, she arched her pretty brow and pointed a long finger at Wolf Blade, speaking up in distaste, "You're the one who's unqualified to fight me. Killing you is basically soiling my hands!"

Yun Jian's words sounded like a suicide announcement to everyone in the warehouse.

A young girl like her dared provoke the internationally famed Stone Cold Killer, Wolf Blade!

"Tsk, tsk, you girl, are very interesting! You're bold despite your young age! It's a pity that you're the one my client's asked to kill, so today, you must die!" Wolf Blade studied Yun Jian once more as he spoke, clicking his tongue with a sense of eeriness.

His gaze on Yun Jian felt like he was looking at a dead person.

If Wolf Blade had regarded Yun Jian as nothing but an average girl, he could not help scrutinizing the girl again more. He sensed a similar aura of an assassin's identity from Yun Jian but he did not heed it.

After all, it was not like he would meet an assassin or a secret agent who was better than him internationally anywhere! In addition, this girl in front of him was only fifteen or sixteen years old!

"You guys stay farther away." Yun Jian shook her wrist, waving at Zhang Shaofeng, Ling Yichen, and Yuan Xuxiao behind her.

The dominance that she exuded now made them submit to her voluntarily. The trio did not say anything as they acted as she instructed. In their mind, they had subconsciously pushed Yun Jian's order to their top priority.

"Haha! Interesting, interesting!" Wolf Blade chuckled darkly, uttering chilling words in an incredibly casual tone as he walked toward Yun Jian, "I haven't met someone as exciting as you in a long time, little girl. I'd really like to dig your brain out to see what fun stuff that entertaining head of yours contains!"

Before everyone in the warehouse responded to his words, Wolf Blade had sprinted toward Yun Jian with his hand outstretched. The fingers of both his hands were positioned downward as he charged toward Yun Jian.

The fingernails were surprisingly five centimeters long, the pair of gaunt hands making him look like a ghost from hell.

Those watching in the warehouse could not help quivering.

Attacking and killing as they wished... As an assassin, he could stab a knife into your stomach when he was smiling jovially just a second ago. Assassins could risk anything to complete their missions, including their lives. Hence, their existence birthed fear from countless magnates, politicians, and international mafias.

The five-centimeter long fingernails looked like they were going to penetrate Yun Jian's heart in the next second.

The spectators watched in apprehension but Yun Jian, the protagonist of the scene, remained unmoved.

She stood her ground and began to recite instead, "Wolf Blade, entered An Hun Group at the age of three, grabbed a knife and killed at the age of eight, his debut mission at the age of fourteen, turned famous for the assassination of Country C's Prime Minister at the age of eighteen. Twenty-five years old this year, ranked top ten in the international assassin ranking, best in secret killing and ambush."

"With a portfolio like this, what right do you have to fight me!"

Each of Yun Jian's words stunned Wolf Blade.

This girl was so familiar with his identity!

The rest of the people in the warehouse looked aghast at Yun Jian as well.

How could she know the assassin chart so well... It was like she was the king of this field...

Chapter 148: The Battle Of Professionals, A One-Move Showdown

Wolf Blade was caught off guard. How could Yun Jian identify him as an assassin in An Hun Group?

Anyone who ranked the top ten on either the assassin and secret agent charts would have their confidential information completely sealed. It was not only their past achievements, it would be tough for an ordinary person to even find out their gender!

This was why Wolf Blade was dumbstruck.

Even when he was ranked tenth in the assassin ranking, it was impossible for him to find out about the records of the other assassins on the chart.

Wolf Blade was certain that he had never met Yun Jian before, and he can forget about Yun Jian having the time to investigate his record of service.

Wolf Blade's eyes widened suddenly as he stared at the youthful girl in front of him with a high ponytail before shaking his head.

He knew that there were two people in the field who could get their hands on the confidential data of both the top ten assassins and secret agents. Other than those two, there were no others!

One of them was An Hun Group's mastermind. It was impossible that the mastermind had spread his information as he was the boss of his organization.

As for another person... It was the top gun of the secret agent ranking, the best and the ace who possessed outrageous hacking skills, Slaying God!

Slaying God, a presence that terrorized anyone in the assassination field. She was a legend!

In spite of it, asking Wolf Blade to believe that this youthful girl before him was Slaying God herself, he would die rather than to acknowledge it.

He did not know about Slaying God's age nor gender, but he had never assumed the master of the secret agent world would appear at a small underdeveloped place like this.

It would be a joke!

Deducing that much, Wolf Blade then looked at Yun Jian in confidence again with an eerie chuckle, no longer in qualms.

"No matter where you're gotten my bio from, since you've known about my classified info, you'll have to die today regardless!"

As he spoke, Wolf Blade pressed his fingernails together and leaped toward Yun Jian.

Zhang Shaofeng and the others held their breaths despite their urge to scream.

Could Yun Jian really parry the attack of an international assassin?!

The answer was, of course, yes.

With a smirk, Yun Jian tilted sideways to face Wolf Blade and narrowed her bright eyes. She said in contempt, "Since you want to die, I shall fulfill your wish."

Her tone was nonchalant with no emotional change detected, but with her last word, she moved speedily, pulling a dazzling flash of lightning in front of everyone. – She was incredibly swift, her speed a few notches faster than Wolf Blade's!

"You!" Wolf Blade's eyes widened, but his many years of experience calmed him down in a flash.

He clenched his fingers into fists and changed his strategy to hurl punches at Yun Jian.

Yun Jian was still wearing a smile as she clenched her hands into fists as well and met Wolf Blade's punch with her own.

"Ho!" Wolf Blade bellowed.

"Swoop!" At the same time, the sound of a blade penetrating flesh was heard.

What greeted everyone's eyes was the two opponents punches that tied in a deadlock, when Yun Jian swung her fist simultaneously as Wolf Blade.

Yun Jian had her eyes furrowed slightly with a smile. When their fists clashed, her flexible leg chambered and kicked from behind Wolf Blade to his chest.

Different from everyone else's shoes, Yun Jian's seemingly ordinary white canvas shoes had a small knife on the tip.

As Yun Jian chambered her leg, the knife on the tip of her shoes stabbed right into Wolf Blade's heart.

When assassins battled, especially between professionals, one move was all it took to determine victory.

Zhang Shaofeng and the others had clearly seen Yun Jian's hand inserting the small knife at the tip of her white canvas shoes when her other hand collided with Wolf Blade's punch.

By the time her fist crashed against Wolf Blade's, the tip of her shoes had pierced into the latter's heart.

It was a series of impossibly accurate movements that were showcased to those who were watching.

The victory was evident.

"You!" Wolf Blade's eyes widened when he saw the girl's pretty beam so close to him. Ultimately, he spat a mouthful of blood.

"Slay..." Wolf Blade wanted to utter the words "Slaying God" but he realized that his body was falling backward. With a panicked gaze trained at Yun Jian, he collapsed and died with unclosed eyes.

The move that Yun Jian had performed just now, there was only one person in the entire world who could execute it so effortlessly. That person was the king in the secret agent field, Slaying God!

Chapter 149: Gasps! Shiniji, K.O.!

Knocking out the Stone Cold Killer, Wolf Blade, who ranked tenth in the international assassin chart with just one move in mere seconds?!

If Yun Jian's immediate victory over Shiniji previously was baffling, the spectators' jaws right now had dropped so low that they could fit an egg inside.

Who really was Yun Jian!

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen were stupefied. All the cells in their bodies were thumping in shock. Yuan Xuxiao's eyes that were not small to begin with bulged even wider.

As for Shiniji, he was shaking his head fervently as he stared at Yun Jian in disbelief, unable to accept what had happened. He retreated slowly muttering, "Impossible! It's impossible!"

Who else could subdue Yun Jian when the top tenth assassin of the global chart was not even her opponent, having been killed in one singular move?

"No! No! No!" Shiniji shrieked. His low register now sounding shrill. "Just you wait, Yun Jian, wait for me, Shiniji! I'll kill you the next time! I'll definitely kill you!"

Shiniji glared daggers at Yun Jian, spitting threatening and menacing words with an eerie voice.

"Do you think that I'll let you live till the next time?" Yun Jian wiped away the smirk she had been wearing as she slowly paced toward the man. Her tone gave rise to a genuine sense of fear.

She had let Shiniji go for Xu Zetian's sake the last time.

She was never a benevolent person.

Yun Jian was no fool. Shiniji wanted to kill her and had even dragged people whom she cared for into this affair. Happening once, it would only happen again.

How could she let a tick time bomb that could explode at any time continue living in this world?

“You... you want to kill me? No no no, I’m Country Y’s national boxer. Aren’t you afraid of becoming Country Y’s enemy if you kill me!” This was Shiniji’s trump card. That was the reason he was not fearful even when Wolf Blade was killed on the spot by Yun Jian.

He thought that Yun Jian dared not kill him.

“Do you think that I’ll be scared?” Yun Jian scoffed, her pretty lips curling up.

Shiniji panicked when he heard what she said. Truth be told, she was fearless.

Therefore, he turned to run, not even caring about his younger sister as he attempted to escape.

“Brother...” Shilaji was unable to react as she watched in shock as Shiniji ran toward the warehouse’s backdoor alone.

“Swoosh!” Yun Jian jeered. She pulled out the knife on the tip of her shoes and tossed it at the direction that Shiniji was running in.

“Plop!” Despite the distance, Shiniji was stabbed in the heart by the knife that the girl had thrown. He succumbed and fell on the ground like a sack of potatoes.

Shiniji was dead!

Shilaji was startled. She slowly slid down to the ground, feeling paralyzed.

For all that she had done was for her elder brother! She had not expected her elder brother who loved her the most to abandon her and flee on his own!

Now, her brother was dead.

For a moment, Shilaji’s gaze was empty as she thoroughly lost her will to support her.

Yun Jian was not bothered with Shilaji as she marched toward Chen Xinyi and untied her briefly.

“Come over and help her.” Yun Jian turned to Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen.

It was only then that the two boys broke out of their trance and ran over to help hold Chen Xinyi.

Yun Jian looked terrifying when she had killed the enemy, but the boys were not frightened by her, only alarmed at most.

Chen Xinyi was not a timid girl but she was still shaken from the scene. Nonetheless, she was not appalled by or stayed away from Yun Jian’s actions.

Chapter 150: The Special Forces. Beating Up Lu Rongrong

Yun Jian had called Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen over to help Chen Xinyi, because she had no remaining energy to help the girl herself.

It was just one strike that took mere seconds for Yun Jian to kill Wolf Blade, but the singular move had nearly depleted all of her strength.

It was true that between professionals one move was all it took to decide the victory, but Yun Jian also knew that if she had not knocked Wolf Blade out in one move, the physical strength of this current body would not be able to support her to defeat Wolf Blade.

The man was top tenth in the assassin ranking after all, he was not an amateur.

Furthermore, the physical strength of this body was not even one-tenth of hers in the previous life. Yun Jian could only win with an absolute strike.

Wolf Blade had lost because his best technique was not as fast, as precise or as ruthless as Yun Jian's.

Moreover, Yun Jian had used all her energy up. She did not show signs of fatigue but she knew about her body well enough.

"Beep, beep, beep..."

The approaching police siren could be heard from the entrance.

Ling Yichen had called the police just now, so their arrival was expected.

In spite of it, the addition of two fresh corpses on the ground was not something that was previously mentioned to them.

"Don't worry, leave it to me. I'm familiar with the guys in the station," Yuan Xuxiao offered himself and said while looking at Yun Jian.

It was when Yun Jian looked away slightly and hummed a sound of agreement that Yuan Xuxiao released a breath of relief.

He was afraid that Yun Jian would not forgive his baby sister, Yuan Xiaoyu, for what she had done. However, hearing her hum of acknowledgment, the pressure within him dissolved instantly.

Yuan Xuxiao was a gang leader. He was naturally familiar with the police and they shared some connections too.

Ultimately, the incident was censored by Yuan Xuxiao. With his connections, the fact that Yun Jian had killed two people was not disclosed.

Actually, the police were exceptionally delighted when they collected the corpses.

Wolf Blade was a globally ranked assassin. At the same time, he was a global Level S wanted criminal.

The outcome of this incident had directly eliminated one of the wanted criminals whom the international police had constantly been pursuing.

In a way, the police here had received a large merit.

When the leader of the special forces, Ge Junjian, received news that Wolf Blade was killed in Longmen City, he wanted to investigate at once who had killed the notoriously skilled and sly Wolf Blade.

Ge Junjian was the leader of the country's special forces. He was ranked highly, so there were not many people or events that could attract his attention.

Nevertheless, the fact that Wolf Blade was killed in Longmen City had thoroughly gripped his interest.

Hence, Ge Junjian conducted a comprehensive search in secret and had even utilized the police forces, covering an extensive search to find the killer.

Yun Jian, of course, had no idea that she had caused a huge wave upon the police.

They were rushing back to the forest park, racing against time to make it back to the school's returning bus.

Yun Jian did not see Lu Rongrong on the bus. Their class was separated into two batches and was arranged to board different buses.

Once they arrived back at the school, Yun Jian waited for the other bus. Dragging Lu Rongrong down the vehicle and taught her a memorable lesson in front of the whole school.

A normal chastise was futile for someone like Lu Rongrong.

Yun Jian had bolted up the bus to pull the girl down. Once she did, she slapped her continuously while scolding, "You know what you did. If you dare do anything like that the next time, I'll have you dead, without a burial place too!"

A slap for each word, Lu Rongrong was beaten up wailing until she passed out with swollen cheeks. It was only then that Yun Jian left.

For some reason, Yun Jian's dominance inhibited the teachers to pull the girls apart. They had only reacted when Yun Jian left after beating up Lu Rongrong.
