

Schoolgirl 1421

Chapter 1421: Catching the Rinsing Cup and Surprising New Roommates

The dorm rooms were assigned to all the girls in the freshman year without taking into account their classes and six girls would share a room. The arrangement was made by the higher-ups in the school that even their homeroom teacher, Mr. Chu, did not have the right to interfere.

With the arrangement of the higher-ups, Yun Jian, Mu Ying and Lin Yuan did not share a room. Lin Yuan could not help complaining when she was greeted with the reality, "Huh? We're not in the same dorm?"

"I went to Mr. Chu to ask for a change of dorm but he said that he has no right to do it," Mu Ying said.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes.

If they were in a regular senior high school, the homeroom teacher had the right to change the dorm arrangement but it was inevitable that there was a slight difference since the military school was different from a regular school.

Yun Jian did not feel weird about it.

"Right, Yun Jian, which dorm room are you in?" Lin Yuan turned to ask Yun Jian softly while they were on their way to the dorm building.

"602," Yun Jian answered.

"Whoa! I'm in 603. No problem, we're very close to each other! We can't stay in the same room but lucky we're not that far away!" Lin Yuan cheered.

"Right, Mu Ying, what about you?" Lin Yuan then turned to ask Mu Ying.

"I'm the same as you, 603," Mu Ying replied.

There were only that many freshman girls in the school actually, forming a class of 30-40 people at most. It was just that luck played a part sometimes and they simply could not end up together in the dorm arrangement.

"Sigh, how nice if all three of us are in the same dorm!" Lin Yuan sighed.

"It's fine, I can go over anytime," Yun Jian commented lightly.

"Heh, Yun Jian, didn't the teacher say that it's stated in our school rules that students can't simply go over to someone else's room? That we can't just hang out in someone else's room?" Lin Yuan asked with a pout.

"I'll go over secretly then." Yun Jian grinned and headed to the dorm building one step in advance of Lin Yuan and Mu Ying.

Both Mu Ying and Lin Yuan smiled. They had not seen Yun Jian joke before and were stunned seeing her crack a grin now. They caught up to her shortly after.

Sixth floor of the girl's dormitory building.

Room 602.

Lin Yuan looked at Yun Jian longingly as she stood before Room 603 before she was pulled into the room by Mu Ying.

Yun Jian tilted her head with a smile and walked into Room 602 carrying her bag.

Her roommates were already in the room when she entered and were putting on the beddings on their own bed.

One of the girls who stood at the door smiled at her but said nothing when she saw Yun Jian walking in.

Yun Jian had her bag hanging on her shoulder as she walked into the dorm room when something was thrown from the upper bunkbed out of the blue.

“This is so annoying! I’ve already said that I don’t want to attend school at a stupid place like this! See, I didn’t even bring my teddy bear! I can’t sleep without it!”

A girl wearing a princess dress and was dressed up like a doll sat on the upper bunkbed. She was rummaging her bag and threw a rinsing cup from there in frustration when she did not see what she wanted in her bag.

It was just a coincidence that Yun Jian entered the room at that time.

“Hey! Someone’s coming in!” one of the girls cried when she saw Yun Jian entering and the rinsing cup falling toward her.

The other girls were slightly startled.

The moment Yun Jian sensed the danger, she caught the rinsing cup thrown from the upper bunkbed by the girl in the princess dress. She had caught it without even looking up.

Her skill stunned her roommates who were also students of the military school.

Chapter 1422: Getting to Know Her Roommates. Her Hot Temper

The girls in the room thought that the rinsing cup would hit Yun Jian since the girl who wore a princess dress had thrown it from the bed in rage and the strong force was only expected. Moreover, Yun Jian walked into the room without any sense of warning.

It would be strange if this student who just came did not get hit by the rinsing cup that was thrown so strongly.

In spite of it, the girls were greeted with Yun Jian catching the cup with just a raise of hand. When they caught up to the event, they were all shocked.

One of the girls could not help clapping and flashing Yun Jian a big thumbs up. “Oh my gosh, what’s your name? You’re so cool!”

The girl’s compliment did not flatter Yun Jian. In addition, she did not even wear a hint of triumph. She tossed the rinsing cup back to the upper bunkbed of the girl with the princess dress and turned to glance at the girl who flashed her a thumbs up, asking, “Any bed left?”

The beds were not fixed. Usually, it was a first come first serve basis. Whoever got the lower bunkbed meant that the better spot was theirs.

“There’s still a bed at the very corner. It’s an upper bunk...” the girl who flashed Yun Jian a thumbs up answered and continued to say, “You were so good just now. Tell us your name? Right, I should introduce myself first before I ask about someone else’s name. Heh, I’m Ning Caidie. I’m in Freshman Class (11) and I come from Xia City. I’m 16 years old this year.”

“We’ve introduced ourselves just now. There are already five of us in the room including you. We can introduce ourselves again!” a girl who stood beside Ning Caidie with an arm slung around the latter’s shoulder told Yun Jian.

She stuck her tongue out at Yun Jian and introduced herself to the latter in a bubbly manner, “I’m Meng Xiaolian and I’m from Min City itself. I’m 17 and I’m classmates with Caidie!”

Meng Xiaolian pulled Ning Caidie in closer by her shoulder as she spoke.

“I... I’m Han Nina. I’m 16 this year and I’m from Country Y. My mother is from Country Z and... my Chinese isn’t v-very... accurate. Please take care of me!” a girl who had been sitting at the corner popped her head out to greet Yun Jian shyly.

The girl had natural blonde wavy hair and a fair complexion. Her features were beautiful and delicate like a doll. What called for the most attention was that Han Nina’s eyes were blue. It was different from girls who wore color contact lenses as her eyes were naturally blue and she looked beautiful in them.

Yun Jian felt her new roommates’ friendliness after Han Nina greeted her. She tugged her bag hanging off her shoulder and grinned at the three girls, flashing her pearly whites. “I’m Yun Jian.”

It was obvious that these girls had no idea of Yun Jian’s accomplishments in the military training and Yun Jian had never seen them during the training either. They probably did not join it. After all, not all the students who studied in the military school were here to become the special forces or soldiers.

The military school trained professionals in the military medical field as well and plenty of girls applied to the military school for it. That was why it was not odd that these girls did not join the military training.

“Yun Jian, you have a nice name, haha!” Ning Caidie smiled at Yun Jian.

“Are you guys done?! You keep yapping and yapping! Can’t you see that I’m annoyed! Can you please shut your mouths?! I’m making a call!”

Just when Ning Caidie smiled at Yun Jian, the girl in a princess dress who sat on the upper bunkbed threw a toothbrush to vent her anger.

Chapter 1423: The School Anniversary and a Food Festival

Ning Caidie winced when she saw the girl on the upper bunkbed lashing out again and quickly pulled Yun Jian to the bathroom to whisper next to her ear, “She’s Cheng Jiaojie. I don’t know which class she’s in but she greeted us brusquely and has been throwing a tantrum sitting on her bed after she came in. Don’t know who ruffled her feathers either. She looks like she’s hard to get along with.”

“Oh... right, I heard that our other roommate will come a few days later because something happened at her home. Also, don't bother to talk to Cheng Jiaojie, she's...”

Ning Caidie did not go on.

After Yun Jian got out of the bathroom, she saw Cheng Jiaojie with her arm propped on her hip and another hand holding a cellphone as she shouted into it from her bed. Who knew who she had called...

“I don't want to be here! I don't want to become some stupid military doctor! I want to go home! Get the butler to drive me home!”

“What? Mom says no? I don't care! I don't care! I can't go home studying in a stupid school like this and I can't sleep hugging my teddy bear! I just want to go home!”

“I want you to get the butler to drive here and pick me up right now or I'll tell grandma and ask her to fire all of you!”

Whoever Cheng Jiaojie was, there was a very high possibility that she was a rich heiress from how she was dressed and how she was shouting at whoever it was at the other end of the line. She was definitely one with status.

Yun Jian took her bag and went to the upper bunkbed at the corner. Once she tossed her bag to the bed, she grabbed the railing of the upper bunkbed and did not even lift her foot to the ladder as she sprang up on a single leg and flipped herself up to the upper bunk that was around 1.4-1.5 meters from the floor. She then began to unpack her belongings.

Other than Yun Jian, not one girl in Room 602 was in the military school to train physically. The girls were here for the military medical course, which also meant that they were just like regular girls.

Therefore, they froze and gaped when they saw Yun Jian flipping herself up the upper bunkbed. Even Cheng Jiaojie who was throwing a tantrum dropped her jaw in shock.

“Whoa, goodness! Yun Jian, how are you so good? Aren't you here for medicine?” Ning Caidie walked over in surprise with Meng Xiaolian and both of them looked at Yun Jian in shock.

“Medicine?” Yun Jian raised a brow and shook her head gently. “No.”

“Whoa! So you're going to be a soldier in the future?” Ning Caidie continued to ask in surprise.

“Special Forces,” Yun Jian answered.

“That's so cool!” Ning Caidie cried again.

“Shut up! All of you shut up! Can I even talk on the phone?!” Cheng Jiaojie who was still in the middle of her tantrum shouted again.

The atmosphere tensed at once and everyone fell silent.

After the students had dropped their luggage and made their bed in the dorm rooms, they returned to their classes.

September 10th was officially the first day of school and the students did not have to study on this day.

Homeroom teacher Mr. Chu delivered a delightful news once the students came back to class.

“Class, it’s our school’s 50th anniversary on September 12th, which is the day after tomorrow. As celebration, the school is organizing a food festival on that day!”

“Since the notice is a little sudden and the sophomores and seniors already knew a long time ago, the freshmen get to leave school to buy food tomorrow in preparation for the food festival!”

“Our class can set up a stall and sell food you’ve made to other classes. The money made can then be used as our class fund! Work hard, everyone!”

Chapter 1424: Cease to Exist in History

The students rejoiced at an activity like this just as they started school, cheering and squealing right after Mr. Chu’s announcement.

The classes next door thought that something impressive had happened when they heard Yun Jian’s class screaming.

“Alright, alright, calm down, class—because I’m even more excited than you all are.” Mr. Chu, as a male teacher, loved cracking jokes.

The class laughed hearing what he said.

“Right, other than selling the delicacies you make during the food festival, you can go to the stalls of other classes and buy what they make too. Remember one thing, though, that’s to be safe!” Mr. Chu told the class and returned to the office.

The food festival was on September 12th and Qin Yirou’s birthday fell on September 13th. September 13th last year was also the day of Yun Jian’s rebirth.

Counting the time, it had almost been a year since she was rebirthed to this body. Yun Jian felt emotional for no reason. This year was the easiest year in her life as a secret agent. Her long lashes fluttered at the thought.

Yun Jian planned to go back to Longmen City to celebrate Qin Yirou’s birthday on the next day of the food festival, which was September 13th. She had also asked Ge Junjian to come along. Of course, Qin Yirou had no idea about it since Yun Jian had planned it as a surprise for her.

Yun Jian could forgo celebrating her own birthday but she thought that she wanted to celebrate each of Qin Yirou’s!

September 12th arrived in a blink of eyes. The students in Min City Military School did not have classes early this morning as the morning was spared for them to prepare the food they would sell during the food festival.

The students were good with their hands as they made delicious and appetizing food. Some of the food were drool worthy with just one glance.

The food festival officially began at 10am. The start of it also meant that the students could begin selling the food they had prepared.

There was an assortment of cakes, spicy hot pot skewers, sushi, drinks... Yun Jian had bought and ate plenty as Lin Yuan and Mu Ying tugged her around.

Right now, she held a big burger and asked Mu Ying as she ate, "Is Berserk Dragon still in Min City?"

The question caused Mu Ying who was drinking to choke and her cheeks were immediately dusted pink. "He's still here."

"Mn." Yun Jian nodded.

"Hey, Yun Jian!" It was then Yun Jian saw her new roommates, Ning Caidie, Meng Xiaolian and Han Nina who were selling cakes waving at her.

She knew that all three of them as well as Cheng Jiaojie were in Freshman Class (11). It was just that the three of them did not hang out with Cheng Jiaojie. The latter was sitting nearby as she fiddled with her phone with a scoff.

Ning Caidie pushed a piece of cake to Yun Jian when the latter came over. "Here, I made this with Xiaolian. Free for you! It's delicious, heh!"

Yun Jian accepted it without playing courteous.

Just as she accepted it, she saw a military helicopter coming to a hasty stop on the field at the other end of the food festival. The venue of the food festival was just around the field.

Yun Jian felt her eye twitch slightly when she saw the military helicopter before she saw Yu Shaoluo running over. The man did not look happy when his eyes met Yun Jian's.

"Yun Jian!" Yu Shaoluo's expression was frighteningly solemn as he ran over. He looked unprecedentedly anxious.

"Yun Jian, listen, calm down... Your dad... He represented Country Z and worked with a team of Interpol to catch the European black market boss yesterday and... he didn't come back..."

"According to those who managed to escape, he's gotten caught! It's possible that he's already..."

Yun Jian's father was naturally referring to Ge Junjian. There was a sob in Yu Shaoluo's voice as he spoke.

The other students were shocked to hear what he said.

The students of the military school were new to this and thought that something like what Yu Shaoluo had just spoken of was faraway and to be proud of. When they knew that Yun Jian's father was possibly sacrificed because of it, though, those who stood around Yun Jian could not help looking at her in sympathy.

They had thought that Yun Jian would start shrieking hysterically at the news like regular girls, "No! No! Nothing will happen to my dad!"

However, Yun Jian was calm and composed upon hearing it. She looked at Yu Shaoluo and told him coolly, “The European black market boss, is it? Take me there right now.”

Yu Shaoluo thought that she had lost her mind hearing what she said. Yun Jian was great—she was Team Monarch’s Slashing God, but she was only a child! Could she fight the European mafia alone no matter how good she was?

“Yun Jian, calm down. Listen to me, we’ll do our best to save your dad, you—”

Before Yu Shaoluo could finish his sentence, Yun Jian interrupted him right before all the other students, “The European mafia boss, it’s the old man, Glenn, isn’t it? I’ll make sure his European black market cease to exist in history if he dares lay a finger on my dad!”

Chapter 1425: It’s Not an Exaggeration to Call Her God

Everyone was surprised at what Yun Jian said. Whether it was the instructors who came after Yu Shaoluo later, Lin Yuan, Ning Caidie and Yun Jian’s other new roommates, or the other students who were here for the food festival, they were stunned by Yun Jian’s brazen claim.

No matter how astonished and baffled they were, they were not as shocked as Yu Shaoluo and his comrades. The boss of the European black market was really a man named Glenn!

Furthermore, Yu Shaoluo had just told Yun Jian that her father and a team of Interpol were catching the European black market boss but they were caught instead—and she had named the boss without any mistake!

Even if it were the boys who studied in the military school and paid closer attention to international affairs, they could hardly find out the name of the European black market boss.

Yun Jian was Team Monarch’s Slashing God but she was only a teenage girl aged 15-16 at the end of the day! No matter how good she was, how could she possibly know it?!

While everyone was still stunned, she had already made her way toward where the military helicopter was stopped at.

Yu Shaoluo was quick to react, walking over to stop Yun Jian when he saw that.

“Yun Jian, don’t get too emotional. I know that you’re capable but Glenn’s not an ordinary man! The Interpol has sent plenty of globally famous secret agents to spy on the European black market and many of them were sacrificed without being able to catch the man!”

“Not only will you not be able to save Old Ge, you might have to pay the price with your own life for acting so rashly!” Yu Shaoluo said shakily with reddened eyes.

As Special Forces who guarded the nation, they were faced with danger anytime. Yu Shaoluo had known Ge Junjian for a long time and hoped that the latter could come back alive more than anyone did.

He also knew that Yun Jian was now Ge Jun Jian’s daughter and the man loved this daughter of his more than his son!

Yu Shaoluo wanted to save Ge Junjian more than anyone else but he could not do that in exchange with Yun Jian's life!

The food festival's atmosphere dampened immediately.

Yun Jian knew that Yu Shaoluo had said that for the sake of her. If she had really been just a regular girl, it was certainly dangerous for her to just leave to save Ge Junjian. It was the reality. However, she was not an ordinary girl. She was not just Team Monarch's Slashing God either.

It was Qin Yirou's birthday tomorrow but something bad had happened to Ge Junjian. How was Yun Jian supposed to tell Qin Yirou about it? Was she going to watch something happen to Ge Junjian and do nothing to save him when she had the ability to do so?

She was unable to do that. She had to do something, if not for Qin Yirou!

"Who among you guys can save my dad if I do nothing? Give way!" Yun Jian did not explain much as she shoved Yu Shaoluo away and ran for the helicopter.

"Hey! Yun Jian!" Yu Shaoluo and the other instructors ran after her at that.

"W-what's... going on..." Ning Caidie asked in a daze.

"Pft, why's she poking her nose into it? She really thinks she's superman? Hah!" Cheng Jiaojie who was sitting on a stool and playing with her phone commented icily.

She did not like Min City Military School and hated everyone in the school because of it.

"She's not superman but god! She's someone no one can ever outdo!" Mu Ying turned to glare at Cheng Jiaojie and said flatly before she ran after Yun Jian as well.

"Will... s-something happen to them?" Lin Yuan was scared but she was going to follow them as she spoke.

A slender hand caught the corner of her clothes. Leng Hanzhe had come over and told everyone with his hand still on the hem of Lin Yuan's clothes, "Yun Jian will be fine. She can fly a helicopter and move freely in the Amazon jungle."

"It's not an exaggeration to call her a god."

What Leng Hanzhe who made a sudden appearance said dropped the jaws of Lin Yuan, Ning Caidie, Meng Xiaolian, and the other students who were standing nearby.

Yun Jian... could fly a helicopter? She could also move freely in a scary place like the Amazon rainforest?!

Cheng Jiaojie fell silent on the spot.

Chapter 1426: Somersaulting Into the Helicopter and Baffling the Instructors

There was a slight twitch on the corner of Leng Hanzhe's lips but he said nothing as he took in the astonishment of the others around.

Yes, Yun Jian was a god. Not only was she a legend of Min City Military School, she was also a legendary figure in the world! She was a terrifying figure and an unsettling presence!

Leng Hanzhe pressed his lips together and did not say more ultimately. Despite that, his fear for Yun Jian and what he thought were nothing anyone there could imagine.

Yun Jian was not just a regular student in Min City Military School. She was...

Yes, Leng Hanzhe did not forget all that had happened in the Amazon rainforest. Among the 30-40 people there, he was the only one who did not forget what happened that day.

He knew about Yun Jian's identity as well as... Yingying's.

There was a sudden relief upon finding out Mu Ying's identity. He was afraid that Yingying did not like him anymore but when he found out that the Mu Ying he liked when he was younger was not the same person as the Mu Ying now, he did not find it unacceptable. He breathed a sigh of relief instead.

His Yingying had never hated him. She had just changed into another person. As for his Yingying, she was probably no longer in this world...

"Eh, senior, why are you crying?" Lin Yuan was about to ask Leng Hanzhe to let go of his hand that was holding the corner of her clothes when she espied a tear track at his eyes.

"I—I'm fine. Haha, the wind is too strong here. The sand got into my eyes. That's all to this, stop worrying about it and go back to what you're doing. Yun Jian will be alright, trust me!" Leng Hanzhe said and let go of his grip on Lin Yuan's clothes as he walked away lifelessly.

Yun Jian was sprinting toward the military helicopter in lightning speed. As Yu Shaoluo and the other instructors chased after her from the back, they realized that her stride was not wide but her speed was significantly faster than all of them!

Yu Shaoluo knew that the situation was grim for Ge Junjian and he felt bad about it but he could not just let Yun Jian run to the helicopter.

The helicopter was to pick up Yu Shaoluo to save Ge Junjian but he would feel that he had done the latter wrong if Yun Jian went with him because it would be extremely dangerous!

Before Yun Jian studied in Min City Military School back then, Ge Junjian had asked Yu Shaoluo to keep an eye on Yun Jian and protect her.

Yu Shaoluo would be failing his promise if something did happen to Yun Jian!

Seeing that Yun Jian was bolting for the military helicopter parked at the field and they could not catch up to her, Yu Shaoluo shouted at the pilot in the helicopter, "Take off now! Don't let her get in the chopper!"

The pilot who was inside the helicopter was startled by the yell but reacted promptly, flying the helicopter up from where it was on the field at once.

Yun Jian was currently ten meters away from the helicopter. Yu Shaoluo and his comrades thought that she would not be able to get in since the pilot had flown the helicopter up but what happened next baffled all of them...

Yun Jian leaned her weight forward as she sprinted five meters like a bolt of light. When she was only five more meters away from the ascending helicopter, she sprang up from the ground.

The helicopter was already flying up to two meters in height. As she threw herself up and front, she managed to catch the lowest railing of the helicopter as it slowly left the ground. She lightly threw herself over and lithely somersaulted into the helicopter from the side with a step on a surface, getting in easily before the pilot could close the door.

When helicopters flew, the resulting force was strong, evident by the grass that shook violently if the helicopter took off from there. Even disregarding the resulting force, Yun Jian's action was still incredibly risky and difficult!

The instructors who had gone after her almost dropped their jaws in shock because of what she had done.

Chapter 1427: This Girl Is Amazing!

The drillmasters did not forget to keep running while they were astonished but the surprise on their faces could hardly be wiped away.

"She... she got into the chopper!" one of the drillmasters cried in alarm as he ran, looking dumbstruck.

The instructors here were impressive presences but none of them could do what Yun Jian just did! Rushing up to the helicopter while it was taking off? It was flirting with death!

All the Special Forces soldiers knew how to climb up the rope when it was thrown off a hovering helicopter. It was hard but regular Special Forces soldiers who were healthy and trained could do it.

On the other hand, there was basically no one who could get into the helicopter without using any rope when the helicopter's rotor blades would sweep a strong gust of wind beneath it as it took off. At the very least, these drillmasters here were unable to do it.

"Sh*t, she's amazing! Is she really just a student in Min City Military School?!" one of the instructors bemoaned.

Right after he spoke, Yun Jian had already knocked out the pilot in the helicopter and dropped the rope from it after she flew it to make a turn.

"Mu Ying, get in!" Yun Jian flew the helicopter to Mu Ying precisely as she returned to the pilot seat after dropping the rope.

Mu Ying sprinted and sprang up.

Yu Shaoluo and the other drillmasters saw the rope as well. They wanted to dash over and grab the rope to get into the helicopter themselves but Yun Jian had dropped the rope right in front of Mu Ying.

Once Mu Ying caught the rope, she climbed up into the helicopter within a few short breaths and withdrew the rope.

"Sorry, Drillmaster Yu. But he's my father and it's my mom's birthday tomorrow. I'll bring him back before that!"

This was all Yun Jian said before she flew off with the helicopter in familiar ease.

“My goodness! Holy sh*t! Can somebody tell me why this girl could fly a chopper?!” a plump instructor panted and cried in surprise with his hands propped on his hips.

They had done their best just now but they did not even manage to catch up to Yun Jian! It felt surreal to him.

Yun Jian was a young girl who had just started school. She was also Team Monarch’s Slashing God but that was the most she was. How could she actually be so shockingly skilled?!

“I f*cking understand why you guys are fighting to get her in your team before she even enters the school. A talent? This girl is a freaking genius! Who knows if you’d meet another one in centuries to come!” one of the instructors slapped his knee in exaggeration and yelled.

Yu Shaoluo scratched his head before he pulled out his phone to call the superior and apply for another helicopter to go after Yun Jian. He honestly could not stop Yun Jian since she had already done this; moreover, with Yun Jian’s skills... he might as well go all out too!

Country X.

There were over a dozen countries in Europe and Country X was one of them.

Glenn, the boss of the European black market, liked staying in Country X the most, so Yun Jian had flown the helicopter to Country X straightaway. The helicopter’s fuel was about empty too.

Yu Shaoluo, two other Special Forces soldiers, and a pilot were in another helicopter that stayed close tailing Yun Jian’s helicopter.

The more they flew, the more the pilot was astonished. “Sh*t, who’s this girl? She’s so stable with her flying! She avoided the air current and there’s not even a jolt from the turbulence all this while!”

“And to fly to Country X directly? It’s as if she knows that the European black market boss, Glenn, is here? F*ck, she’s amazing!” one of the Special Forces soldiers exclaimed.

Chapter 1428: They Flew Here Themselves

On the other hand, Yun Jian took the pilot seat. The pilot who was supposed to be flying the helicopter was tied up on the side. Yun Jian had not done anything to him. It was just so he could stay still.

“My goodness, young lady, how are you so good? You’ve got to teach me how to avoid the air currents when we go back! I’ve been flying for three years and I still can’t avoid the currents once I run into them with this chopper. The whole chopper just keeps jolting!”

The pilot did not even care that he was tied up but was eager to ask Yun Jian to teach him the techniques.

Yun Jian smirked, finding the pilot interesting. She touched down on an isolated area and had Mu Ying untie the pilot.

“There’s no more fuel in the chopper. You can ask for someone to get you back.” Yun Jian glanced at the pilot and gathered her things before walking to a quiet location.

She had various knives and blades but not firearms—she could snatch those, though.

Mu Ying went after Yun Jian seeing her leave. Just as they made a move, Yu Shaoluo who rushed here stopped them.

“Yun Jian, listen to me. Glenn is unlike those you’ve met prior to this. He has a powerful force behind him! We and the Interpol have sent secret agents and Special Forces to his lair tens of times over the years and all of them were exposed without exception!”

“They lost contact ultimately and we still can’t get in touch with them to this day!”

“I’m more anxious than you are about your father being caught but that wouldn’t do anything! Look, I agree for you to stay but we need to plan this carefully!”

“There’ll certainly be a rescue plan but we need to do this slowly. We—”

Yu Shaoluo was cut off by Yun Jian as she asked, “How many of you are there? Where are you based at? Take me there.”

She knew this too?

Yu Shaoluo was shocked.

The boss of the European black market had to be uprooted to give peace to the people, so the Interpol had always kept a team in Country X just so they could catch the bad guys one day.

Yu Shaoluo had never told Yun Jian that there were people based in country X all this while, though. How did she find out?

“Lead the way,” Yun Jian said again.

This time, Yu Shaoluo did not hesitate. He and two more Special Forces soldiers took Yun Jian and Mu Ying to a bustling street in Country X.

The architecture in Country X was different than that in Country Z. Its culture or even fashion style was vastly different as well.

Yu Shaoluo took Yun Jian and Mu Ying as he went with two other Special Forces soldiers to a hidden alley and went through multiple streets before they came to a house.

The man who stood outside the house was dressed locally with Country X’s regular clothing and hurried to stand up when he saw Yu Shaoluo. “Old Yu?”

Yu Shaoluo made a gesture and took Yun Jian and the others into the house.

Once they were inside, Yun Jian saw several men and women who were dressed like the locals.

“Let me introduce them. These are police officers from all around the world,” Yu Shaoluo introduced the group of locally dressed people to Yun Jian.

“Old Yu, how could you introduce us simply? If...” one of them spoke up in dissatisfaction the moment he heard what Yu Shaoluo said.

Yu Shaoluo interrupted him right away, “We’re together. These two are students of Min City Military School.”

“What? You brought Min City Military School students here? Have you lost your mind? Do you not know what this place is?!” a foreign woman yelled at once.

She was also part of the armed forces and could speak Chinese. It was just that she was dressed exactly like a Country X woman right now, obviously having disguised as a Country X local.

“Yeah! Old Yu, you’re being careless this time!” someone chorused right after the woman.

“Uh... well... I didn’t bring them here. Both of them snatched our helicopter and flew here.” What Yu Shaoluo said next made the group of people who were criticizing him shut their mouths.

“What?! They flew the helicopter here themselves?! Are you kidding me!” a woman at the corner jolted in surprise from what Yu Shaoluo said.

Everyone else was similarly astonished.

Chapter 1429: You’re Unqualified to Criticize

“They flew here on their own? Goodness! Old Yu, don’t tell me that these two girls know how to fly a helicopter!” the man who took Yun Jian and company into the house just now walked around Yun Jian and Mu Ying several times and exclaimed after he removed the Country X clothing on him.

“I don’t know how to fly a helicopter. The one who knows is Yun Jian,” Mu Ying spoke up.

Mu Ying had no idea how to fly a helicopter at all. She was only around nine years old when she died in her previous life, so she had never come into contact with helicopters before.

After Mu Ying’s death, about 70% of kids in Yun Jian’s batch were eliminated and the remaining ones began to learn various heavy firearms including helicopters, fighter jets and whatnot.

Not all the children in the organization got to learn the destructive weapons since the start. It was after eliminating most of the weak ones that the aces were selected from the small portion of the strong ones.

This small group of aces was then who the organization focused in training. They had to learn various weapons, as big as planes, tanks and canons, and as small as knives, guns, and arrows.

As a secret agent, one had to immediately blend into the environment no matter where they were. Be it an underground secret agent or a secret agent loyally serving the country, one had to be able to do it.

There was also a clearly stated rule in the organization that those who were unable to learn all the heavy arms that the organization had arranged within an allocated amount of time would be killed. In the end, only three people survived out of the batch of over hundreds of children.

Coming back to the reality, what Mu Ying said successfully shifted everyone’s eyes to Yun Jian.

The man who took Yun Jian and the others into the house could not help gulping.

Yun Jian stood leisurely on the spot with a hand in her pants pocket as if the subject of everyone's discussion earlier was not her.

"Cough! Cough! This is not the matter to fret over now!" Yu Shaoluo mediated the situation and said, "We should be discussing how to sneak into Glenn's place and save Old Ge!"

"We've already sent so many batches of secret agents to Glenn's but what did we get back? None of them was able to escape Glenn! All of them were met with mishaps! We can't even contact any of them to this day! Old Yu, you should know the danger better than any of us!"

The one who spoke was the man who led Yun Jian and the others inside. He was a member of the Interpol, An Zhengliang. He was a righteous man who was good in collecting intelligence.

There was a hint of despair when An Zhengliang spoke. It was obvious that he hoped to save Ge Junjian but the current situation proved that it would be impossibly hard!

Yu Shaoluo fell silent with what An Zhengliang said. He knew what the latter meant. There was barely any hope to rescue Ge Junjian judging by the current situation.

Yun Jian frowned and turned to leave.

"Hey, Yun Jian, where are you going?" Yu Shaoluo hurried to stop her and asked seeing that she was leaving.

"I'm going if you guys aren't," she answered faintly.

"What the heck? Have you gone crazy? That's a mafia! The black market! You think you're almighty? Are you even capable of entering? We're already troubled as it is, stop adding problems to us!"

The woman who spoke was the one standing in the corner just now.

Just as she finished speaking, Yun Jian suddenly flicked her hand and five blades flew toward the woman simultaneously.

In a speed that Yu Shaoluo could not even react to, Yun Jian then dashed from the door to the woman standing in the corner.

Five blades flew past the woman's head as well as the left and right of her shoulders and waist. They were so precise that they did not injure her at all.

The woman blanched in fear of the sudden attack. Before she could recover, a butterfly knife was perched against her neck. She was then greeted by the fragrance of a girl and the sight of Yun Jian who had come to her from the door that was much farther away within three seconds.

Yun Jian smirked and told the woman, "Someone who can't handle this attack from me has no right to criticize me. You're unqualified!"

Chapter 1430: Follow Me and Listen to Me

The phrase “you’re unqualified” felt like an invisible slap that nearly made the woman cough blood yet she could not deny that she did not manage to react in time to Yun Jian’s attack.

This meant that the Min City Military School student was more capable than her that she did not even have the chance to react when the girl struck!

“Sis Black, don’t underestimate her! You have no idea that I asked the pilot to fly the chopper up first just to stop her from getting onto it but she rushed over and hijacked it when it’s already in the air!”

“She’s already completed something so dangerous so easily, I think we can try rescuing Old Ge today with her here!”

“I’m in anyway, the worst is just dying! I can’t influence you to come or not since it’s your lives but as brothers, as my bros and my comrades, don’t stop us! I’m going with them!”

Yu Shaoluo had been contemplating with a furrow of brows since just now. Ultimately, he stopped being bothered and planned to just go all out.

Ge Junjian was like his elder brother and had helped him in multiple things. They later became comrades and were close with each other. Now that something had happened to Ge Junjian—something had happened to his elder brother, how could he just sit around and wait?!

“Yun Jian, let’s go!” Yu Shaoluo was willing to trust Yun Jian this one time, shouting at her with his fists clenched as he walked out.

The woman whom Yu Shaoluo had called Sis Black as her moniker was from Country H and could speak Chinese. She was not actually black and looked more like a Country Z national.

Sis Black was shocked by what Yu Shaoluo said Yun Jian could do. As she watched him take Yun Jian and Mu Ying to go to Glenn’s lair alone, she wanted to say something, “Hey, you...”

She paused in the end, not saying a thing.

“Let them go! Let them go! They know it’s a bottomless pit and they insist to jump in! I told him that we can’t do it now! Since when has Yu Shaoluo become so unwise?!”

An Zhengliang suddenly slapped the table and growled when he saw Yu Shaoluo stubbornly exiting the house with Yun Jian and Mu Ying.

An Zhengliang was the team leader of all the Interpol members here. While Yu Shaoluo was Min City Military School’s instructor, he had another identity as the member of the Interpol squad and was a part of An Zhengliang’s team.

“Chief, this...” Sis Black glanced at An Zhengliang with a complicated expression.

Ultimately, An Zhengliang tapped the table...

...

Yun Jian, Mu Ying and Yu Shaoluo had already left the house.

Yun Jian thought that she could make the group of people inside work with her since she was not almighty. The boss of the European black market, Glenn, was not an ordinary person.

Some people might be intimidated by her identity before the battle even began but the trick would not work on someone like Glenn!

Since these people were unwilling to help her, she would save Ge Junjian even if she was alone. No matter how formidable Glenn was, he was only a defeated rival of Yun Jian in the past.

“Yun Jian, how are we sneaking in? Are we splitting up or?” Yu Shaoluo asked Yun Jian.

“Follow me and listen to my instructions,” Yun Jian answered and took Yu Shaoluo and Mu Ying to Glenn’s base, which was Glenn’s territory in the black market.

Yun Jian’s words felt like a commanding order. Yu Shaoluo opened his mouth but said nothing ultimately and followed her.
