

Schoolgirl 1441

Chapter 1441: Being Discovered at the Door

The second to go was Mu Ying—with a pistol held openly in her hand.

Those who had no idea would be perplexed about where her pistol came from but Lin Wei knew better. He saw Mu Ying snatching the pistol from a captive who had it hidden secretly when they were in the dungeon cell earlier; the girl had even knocked the captive out after snatching his gun.

No one had noticed what Mu Ying did because Yun Jian was too attention-grabbing at that time.

Lin Wei was the strongest out of his group but due to being challenged in the cell every day—battles that would kill him the moment he was distracted, he was currently a mess. He was injured everywhere and needed two other Special Forces soldiers to help prop him up when he walked.

Despite that, Lin Wei was the only one who saw Mu Ying snatching the pistol and had been shocked during then. He could barely stay alive in the dungeon cell but look at Yun Jian and Mu Ying! They were just girls from Min City Military School but one of them had killed the dungeon boss straightaway while another had snatched somebody's gun in the cell!

Lin Wei would not dare do it if it were him! It was already fortunate if he managed to stay alive in the dungeon cell, he could care less about other things!

That was why Yun Jian and Mu Ying managed to stun him.

Back to the reality—Yun Jian was leading the group while Mu Ying was the second to follow. Ge Junjian and An Zhengliang who were holding the guard captive grabbed the guard and swiftly followed them. Sis Black, Lin Wei, Wigger, and others covered the back.

The group moved toward the dungeon door according to the guard's hand signal.

They made several turns along the way. Perhaps the guard was scared of dying, so they had not bumped into others as they took the way he showed.

"We're here. The dungeon door is right there," Wigger who was at the back said in a low grunt when he saw the dungeon door despite how much he wanted to squeal in excitement. He held himself back.

It had been too many years! Wigger had been a righteous armed forces officer. After failing to assassinate Glenn and being locked in the dungeon, he had even felt like death was a better end than losing his freedom. He had already planned to die when his arm was incapacitated in the dungeon.

No one had ever escaped this place! The scary dude who was ten times more skilled than Martial King did not manage to do it either, what was more, them?!

Nevertheless, Wigger ultimately gave up on dying because his comrade who was locked into the dungeon with him had died for him, shouting at him before his death, "You've got to stay alive!"

The scary dude back then had only managed to run to the dungeon door and they had currently done the same!

Wigger was overwhelmed with emotions. At the same time, he was confident and acknowledged Yun Jian's ability. The girl was definitely no weaker than the scary dude! They might really be able to leave this place!

The group came to the dungeon door swiftly. There was a security lock hanging on it.

The security lock was much more complex than the one in the dungeon cell and regular people could not understand the program on it at all.

"Yun Jian, unlock it!" Sis Black asked excitedly as her heart squeezed in fervor.

"It's too late. They're here." Yun Jian squinted as she looked at the front.

Across from the dungeon, a big group of guards charged to them with machine guns in their hands.

"Gah! How did they find us?!" Sis Black's legs were shaking.

They immediately thought of how the scary dude was shot to death by the guard's machine gun strafing back then. The scene many years back was replaying itself!

Yun Jian would certainly need more time to unlock the security lock here compared to the one in the dungeon cell but the guards were already aiming their machine guns at all of them!

"The scary dude died like this back then... We're exposed! We're doomed! We're really doomed..." Wigger fell to the floor limply as he cried.

"These machine guns won't stop us from leaving with me around." Yun Jian smirked.

Forget the machine guns, she had managed to easily avoid it even when someone tried bombing her with a cannon. Yun Jian could care less about the machine guns.

What she said was simply the truth but it sounded significantly different to Sis Black, Wigger, Lin Wei, and others who heard her. How could someone still be alive being shot by the machine guns?! This was the first time they heard something like this.

Without a doubt, they were skeptical about what Yun Jian said that even Ge Junjian wore a worried look. After all, Yun Jian was not god. Any human would die from firing machine guns within seconds!

Chapter 1442: As if Seeing the God of Slaying

The guards said nothing and were going to shoot as they lifted the machine guns up.

Yun Jian stayed silent. She had long discovered that there was a surveillance camera above the dungeon door. The surveillance cameras were also installed on the way they took. It was just that the way they took was the only choice and they had to go through it.

In other words, Yun Jian knew that the guard had purposely led them here since just now.

The big group of guards had already propped the machine guns up by now.

"Mu Ying, take them into hiding!"

Yun Jian hollered when the guards were loading the machine guns and aiming them at Yun Jian and group. She then grabbed the guard who Ge Junjian and others had been holding hostage and sprinted toward the armed guards.

The scene nearly stupefied An Zhengliang, Wigger and others. Lin Wei's frown was deep as he shouted after Yun Jian, "Young lady, come back! You'll be killed!"

Was she trying to kill herself by running to the guards armed with machine guns alone?!

Lin Wei had done it purely out of concern for Yun Jian. When he put out a hand to catch the hem of Yun Jian's clothes, the latter's reaction was so fast that she sprinted away speedily even though she had grabbed and dragged along the guard they captured.

In a blink of eyes, Yun Jian was merely five to six meters away from the armed guards.

The guards had planned to shoot Ge Junjian and others before they shot Yun Jian but because Yun Jian's sprint was so fast that she had gotten to them, they shifted their aim toward Yun Jian instead of their initial direction at the others.

All the machine guns were now aimed at Yun Jian alone!

She had diverted the machine guns for Ge Junjian and others, taking the threat alone, but that meant that she would surely be killed! Even Ge Junjian who had always been confident in Yun Jian and knew about her identity shouted at her in horror, "Xiao Jian, come back! It's dangerous!"

Ge Junjian growled but before he could go after Yun Jian, he as well as An Zhengliang, Sis Black, and others who stood rooted witnessed a shocking scene...

Yun Jian did not even turn back. As she sprinted there, the armed guards had already loaded the machine guns, aimed them at her, and fired shots incessantly.

With the guard who showed them the way in her hands, Yun Jian put him in front of her like a human shield, so the firing bullets of the machine guns all shot him.

The guard's eyes were widened before his death. Since he could not speak, he had only made two muffled cries before he died in terror.

Yun Jian did not even stop as she dragged the guard's corpse along the way. The machine guns of the armed guards could actually fire through a human body, so the bullets had a buffer through the body of the guard in Yun Jian's hands before they reached her.

If it had been anyone there in Yun Jian's position right now, they would have died without a question! However, the split second buffer was enough for Yun Jian.

The moment the machine guns stopped firing, Yun Jian tossed the guard's corpse away and threw herself to the side before she sprang up.

She came to the guards and elbowed the neck of the one closest to her, breaking his neck directly. At the same time, she grabbed the machine gun from him and fired it at the rest of the guards around her without any hesitation.

She ran as she fired the shots, killing the guards effectively.

In spite of it, those who were still alive were still shooting at Yun Jian, causing her to counterattack while she avoided the bullets. The agility she showed was as if she was incredibly familiar with such onslaught of open fire. She was like a general who had survived countless battlefields!

When Yun Jian had killed the last guard, she threw the machine gun on the floor and walked back to her group. She was not stained with even a drop of blood but she smelled like guns and smoke.

The moment she turned to walk back, her high ponytail swished. The image felt illusory to the others, like they were seeing the return of the god of slaying!

Chapter 1443: I've Planned It All

The battle had only lasted three minutes. Yun Jian had done over hundreds of movements within that duration—each of it disallowed even one millimeter of miscalculation.

The others who stood rooted were baffled for all three minutes, even Mu Ying had a flash of astonishment in her eyes.

She was only around nine years old when she died but Yun Jian was still alive and she had continued training in the organization. After Mu Ying took over her current body, she trained with her parents since they came from a military family background. She had never stopped training and she was diligent. In addition to her experience in the assassin organization, she was significantly skilled as well.

It was just that there was still a heaven and earth difference compared to Yun Jian who grew up in the organization.

Mu Ying could not help being amazed by Yun Jian's ability. If she had been in the latter's place just now, she was certain she had no chance of succeeding!

Not only had Yun Jian succeeded, she did not sustain any injury. It was as if she could do the same thing with her eyes closed.

"Y-you...you—you... How did you..." Sis Black's eyes were bulging as she watched Yun Jian come back.

The scary dude had died from the guards' machine guns back then! That guy who was ten times more skilled than Martial King could not even avoid the open fire of the machine guns and was killed!

Despite that, Yun Jian, a kid who had just entered Min City Military School, had managed to avoid the bullets! It was astonishing and terrifying!

While Sis Black spoke to Yun Jian in a stammer, the latter had come to them.

"There'll be a new batch of guards coming here ten minutes later. I can't guarantee that those people will aim at me each time, so we have to leave this place right now," Yun Jian explained swiftly standing in front of the dungeon door while her fingers danced across the security lock.

"Xiao Jian! What if you failed when you acted so rashly just now?! I know that you're unusually skilled but I'll still worry when I see you take risks like this every time!"

Ge Junjian was already used to his role as Yun Jian's father, so the exclamation he did came from the bottom of his heart as he was genuinely worried for Yun Jian.

Everyone else looked at Yun Jian hearing what Ge Junjian said. They wanted to know what Yun Jian's answer was.

Yun Jian's fingers were still moving quickly in unlocking the security lock as she spoke, "Nothing will happen to me. Don't worry."

"It's already dangerous just looking at it. If even the slightest mistake happens, it'll kill you! Your mom and I both hope that you'll only act after you're certain that it's safe!" Ge Junjian told Yun Jian with a furrow of brows.

"Mn." Yun Jian nodded lightly. She then added. "I won't let myself take risks. What I did just now isn't my first time doing it. I'm used to the dangerous life and I'm sure I'll be fine. So there's no need to worry."

As Yun Jian spoke, the security lock of the dungeon door dropped with a clack.

The door was opened!

All of them brightened up in delight.

"Follow me. Don't run off," Yun Jian reminded casually.

"Yun Jian, I have a question for you. When we were discovered just as we came in Glenn's lair, did you walk out because you've already known that Glenn and his men were outside?" Yu Shaoluo who had been silent asked.

His sudden question surprised the group and they turned to Yun Jian.

The girl was quiet but replied just when everyone thought that she would not answer, "Yes, it's all within my plan. It's also my doing that Glenn and his men could find us. My goal is to get to the dungeon."

The group had a vague sense of premonition with the front half of what Yun Jian said but the latter half of her words shocked them.

Yun Jian orchestrated the event that they were discovered by Glenn and his men when they came to the mobster's lair?! When did she do it?! That was too fast?!

Chapter 1444: Like an Old Friend of Mine

They had thought that Yun Jian's ability was only mediocre when they were found out as they entered Glenn's lair. Even when Yun Jian knew about the backdoor of Glenn's lair and had taken them in within ten minutes, they were discovered soon after.

This was also the reason Sis Black remained skeptical and doubted Yun Jian's capabilities.

In spite of it, Yu Shaoluo asked if Yun Jian had walked out from under the stairs knowing that they were discovered by Glenn and purposely let Glenn and his men catch them to the dungeon.

Yun Jian claimed that not only was it all her plan, it was her intentional doing that Glenn could discover them. She had purposely let Glenn find them and capture them to the dungeon!

“Yun Jian, what do you mean? How could you let Glenn discover us and catch us?! The dungeon’s so dangerous yet you didn’t even discuss it with us and simply let Glenn catch us all!”

“Have you considered if we couldn’t leave after being caught? I can understand that you’re anxious to save your father but you can’t let all of us take the risk with you! Just now... All of us were nearly killed because of you just now!”

Realization struck Sis Black that it was all because of Yun Jian that they were caught and locked in the dungeon. Once she recalled the situation in there and remembered how the dead dungeon boss, Martial King, had used women to vent his sexual urges... she snapped at Yun Jian immediately out of the lingering fear.

“There’s no what-if in my world. Another word of nonsense from you and I’ll kill you right now so you can shut up forever,” Yun Jian said as she grabbed Mu Ying’s pistol and loaded it singlehandedly before pushing it against Sis Black’s temple as the latter kept nagging next to her.

Yun Jian’s eyes were not trained on Sis Black but the front with a slight frown.

Sis Black who was held at gunpoint by her temple shuddered. Yun Jian’s index finger was already on the trigger and the gun was loaded; if Yun Jian just pulled the trigger, she would end up... In addition to Yun Jian’s aggressiveness when she grabbed the machine gun from the enemy and killed all the guards without batting an eye, Sis Black felt like she was currently claimed by the grim reaper. It left her with a suffocating sense of fear.

“Hey, hey, Yun Jian, Yun Jian, don’t do this. Let’s talk it out! We talk it out!”

An Zhengliang went up to stop her as he looked at Ge Junjian pleadingly, hoping the latter would speak for him.

That was all he said when Yun Jian dropped the hand that was holding the pistol against Sis Black’s temple.

Sis Black breathed in relief.

Just when everyone thought that Yun Jian had relented because of Ge Junjian’s persuasion, they saw her smirk and let out an unnerving chuckle. “Here comes.”

“Huh? What comes?” Everyone was stupefied listening to Yun Jian.

They had already walked out of the dungeon door and were standing right in front of it. Everyone there, saved for Mu Ying, was puzzled hearing what Yun Jian said.

Yun Jian tossed the pistol she snatched from Mu Ying back to the latter and went to a dead-end corner, speaking with a smirk, “Glenn, come out. Aren’t you tired from watching for so long?”

Glenn? Where was Glenn?

The others tensed up in horror at her words. Just hearing the name Glenn was enough to run shivers through them.

“Yun Jian, don’t scare us please! There’s no Glenn here! Why wouldn’t he come out if he’s really around? We’d have been discovered a long time ago in that case...” Sis Black felt that her judgement was correct this time and started talking.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

A regular looking old man in his fifties who was relatively short came out from the corner where Yun Jian was looking at. This man with a sense of dark, intimidating air was none other than Glenn!

Everyone jumped in fright. They then heard Glenn talking to Yun Jian.

“You haven’t been in the dungeon for half a day and you’ve already unlocked two security locks that use the best and the latest technology in this world. Young lady, you’re very much like an old friend of mine! She’s the top ranker of the international secret agent chart, Slaying God!”

Chapter 1445: Glenn’s Surprised Discovery and Si Yi’s Unexpected Appearance

As Glenn spoke, he looked at Yun Jian with a probing gaze. There was a smirk in his tone as if he had already known something exclusive.

It was simply unfortunate that Yun Jian did not play along.

When she was at the top of the international secret agent chart as Slaying God, she was never friends with Glenn. At most, it was Glenn who invited Yun Jian for a visit at his lair and stood behind her obsequiously like a bootlicking dog.

It was the reality. If Glenn were to know about Yun Jian’s identity, he would not even speak to her in this tone. He was just putting up an act right now.

Glenn’s appearance horrified everyone there. While An Zhengliang, Sis Black and the others were astonished that Yun Jian could actually see that Glenn was hiding in the corner, they were also baffled by what Glenn said.

Did he just say that Yun Jian was like the top ranker of the international secret agent chart, Slaying God?

That was a petrifying presence who they did not even dare come across as the Interpol!

Ge Junjian was the only one who knew that Glenn’s suspicion was right. Yun Jian was Slaying God!

“Glenn, you’re not exactly young anymore. Smile less and you might stay alive for a few more years. Stop going in circles. Come at me directly if you’ve got the guts!” Yun Jian raised her voice, provoking Glenn.

That was exactly what was happening. Yun Jian was saying that to provoke Glenn.

“You—” Glenn’s hackles were raised before he blinked and somehow felt that he seemed to have heard the same thing somewhere.

While he recalled where it was that he heard what Yun Jian said, Sis Black and a member of Interpol also from Country H like she was could be heard talking.

“What do we do? What should we do? How could she provoke Glenn? Doesn’t she know that we’re in his territory?! How could she be so arrogant just because she’s skilled? And she can’t even stand my critic?! I’m so pissed because of her, argh!”

It was spoken softly, hushed as if afraid of being heard by Glenn. Sis Black and the Interpol member who came from Country H just like she did were talking in their home country language.

People from Country H and Country Z looked alike. It was said that both countries shared the same ancestors back in the day. Despite that, Language H was unlike Chinese.

The reason Sis Black was using Language H to talk to the Interpol member who also came from Country H was because she did not want Yun Jian to understand what she said. Frankly, she assumed that Yun Jian did not know Language H, thus she spoke boldly in front of her.

Yun Jian raised a brow. She did not turn to Sis Black or regard her, pretending that she really did not understand Language H.

That caused Sis Black to grumble about Yun Jian to the Interpol member who also came from the same country in Language H even more openly.

While she ran her mouth in fervor, Glenn suddenly gasped. He looked at Yun Jian and asked loudly with widened eyes, “What did you say just now? Why does it sound exactly like what Slaying God told me back then?! You, are you...”

Glenn’s outburst made everyone’s eyes bulge as well.

At the same time, the loud rumble of a flying helicopter sounded above Glenn’s lair before a tall and handsome man jumped off the helicopter that was hovering seven to eight meters above the ground.

Those who were there perked up at the sudden appearance of the handsome man. The latter’s presence had also successfully interrupted Glenn from finishing his sentence.

Chapter 1446: Well Done. Starting a War

Si Yi absorbed the momentum and straightened up right after jumping off the helicopter from a height of seven to eight meters above the ground. He and the helicopter had appeared so suddenly that it astonished everyone there—excluding Yun Jian.

Yun Jian was just puzzled about how he had, once again, followed her here. Despite the thought, she was still warmed at the fact that Si Yi was always there when she was caught in danger.

Glenn was also surprised at Si Yi’s sudden appearance before he checked the latter out.

Everyone was looking at Si Yi, the man who jumped out of a helicopter flying seven to eight meters above the ground directly.

Si Yi trained his hawk-like gaze at Glenn once he landed, causing the old man to shudder. Glenn had spent decades in the mafia world and black market but this was his first time quivering in reflex from the sharp gaze of a young man in his twenties.

Si Yi kept his penetrating gaze on Glenn as he opened his thin lips to speak, "You, the boss of the European black market, Glenn?"

Si Yi saw Yun Jian already but this time, he did not go to her straightaway. Instead, he kept his eyes on Glenn.

Initially, Glenn had thought that no one in this world could make him lose his composure again after it happened in front of Slaying God, the top ranker of the international secret agent chart. However, it was unexpected that not only had a young girl challenged him today, here was another young man intimidating him to a loss for words.

"Who I am isn't important. What's important is that because of what you've done, your status as the boss of the European black market is gone," Si Yi said coldly.

Yun Jian went up to Si Yi seeing that he did not come to her.

The others who were standing around were simply baffled. Who was this man? And who was he to say that Glenn's position as the European black market boss was gone?

While they wondered, Yun Jian had come to stand before Glenn. Si Yi shifted to the side a little and held her hand when she came over.

"W-who do you think you are?! On what ground are you claiming that my status is gone?!" Glenn yelled in skepticism.

"A-Yi... Xiao Jian..." Ge Junjian had also gone to Yun Jian and Si Yi, calling out softly looking at them.

"Old Ge, you know this guy?" Yu Shaoluo glanced at Si Yi and led the others over to them.

"This is my daughter's man!" Ge Junjian answered triumphantly.

With Si Yi around, he was not worried at all anymore. Si Yi and Yun Jian were both capable people!

Hearing that a gorgeous man like this was Yun Jian's partner, those who stood around Ge Junjian looked over. Sis Black was attracted the moment she laid eyes on Si Yi.

When Glenn saw that the group in front of him was no longer scared of him, he was enraged. In addition to what Si Yi said, it caused him to growl aloud, "Come out! Get them! Catch all of them!"

Glenn still had the mind to play with Yun Jian earlier but he was currently left with nothing but burning rage.

Glenn's men were hiding, waiting for his order before they stepped out with their machine guns. It was just that nothing happened after Glenn's shout.

"Where are my men? Where are all of them?! Come out right now!" Glenn was truly panicked this time.

No matter how skilled he was when he was younger, he was old now and he was not as capable as he had been. He was more or less a useless man without his strong and skilled guards!

"My men killed them. Well done, Glenn, for capturing my woman and my father-in-law! Are you planning to start a war with my An Hun Group?!"

Chapter 1447: Case Resolved. I Didn't See Anything

The words "An Hun Group" jolted everyone. All of them there were frightened frozen by the deadly name. Their eyes shot to the tall and lean handsome man.

What Si Yi said terrified all of them.

"An—An Hun Group?!" Even Glenn who was panicking about where his guards had gone to exclaimed.

Shock and terror overwhelmed Glenn in that split second.

This man was no ordinary man. He was the mob boss of the European black market. He was the symbol of power in the European mafia world!

Yu Shaoluo and his colleagues could not help being surprised when they saw Glenn exclaiming. This young man, who was also Ge Junjian's son-in-law, was related to An Hun Group? And he could send An Hun Group on a war with Glenn over something petty like this?

It meant that Si Yi was definitely not just a regular member in An Hun Group! In that case... Could Si Yi be...

"You! You're An Hun Group's leader! And she's Slaying God, the best on the international secret agent chart!" Glenn was smart, recognizing Si Yi and Yun Jian's identities right away.

"An Hun Group's leader? H-he... He's An Hun Group's leader?! And Yun Jian is Slaying God? The best in the international secret agent chart?! H-how is this possible?! This is totally impossible!" Sis Black widened her eyes in disbelief and shrieked. She had never thought of such possibility.

Ge Junjian's eyes bulged as well.

"Hah, what do you mean it's totally impossible? You think I don't know Slaying God? No other person could impersonate her action and each time she appears, she wears a different face!"

"As for An Hun Group, you think anyone from An Hun Group could just declare war against a certain organization? Only the head of An Hun Group could order the organization around! Hah! I'm not blind! I..."

Glenn knew that he could hardly escape death now. The top ranker of the international secret agent chart, Slaying God, and the head of An Hun Group were both here. It would actually be a miracle if he could stay alive!

The day Glenn rose to this current position of his, he knew that there would come a day like this!

It was just that before his death, he wanted to put Yun Jian and Si Yi in a tough spot. These Interpol officers, especially, had no idea! Hah! The most wanted criminals of theirs were actually these two people standing before them!

“Hahaha! I’m not making it easy for you since you’re destroying me! I, Glenn, might know nothing in this life but I’m gifted in recognizing someone! Every move and word from Slaying God matches this young lady completely. If she’s not Slaying God—bullsh*t! She—”

Glenn was talking but before he could finish his sentence, he was killed right away when Si Yi pulled out a silver pistol and fired a lethal shot. Glenn did not even have the chance to react to it.

The reason Glenn could rise up to becoming the boss of the European black market was because he had an excellent right-hand man named Kenerson. Kenerson’s capabilities could compare to the third person ranked on the international secret agent chart!

It was just that with what Si Yi was doing and An Hun Group not lacking a talent like Kenerson, anyone among An Hun’s four commanders could kill Kenerson within seconds.

That was why Glenn’s death today was guaranteed!

“Yun Jian, you...” Yu Shaoluo and others had yet to recover from the shock that Glenn had brought them.

While they were still dazed, Yun Jian and Si Yi moved speedily in tacit understanding and knocked them out, excluding Mu Ying and Ge Junjian.

Yun Jian had only stopped after making Yu Shaoluo, Sis Black and everyone else drink the Three Hours Eraser that Qing You had exclusively brewed. They could not remember this incident because Yun Jian still had to live in Country Z and the military school.

It would be the best the fewer people knew about her and Si Yi’s identities.

It was fortunate that Qing You’s exclusive potion, the Three Hours Eraser, could make one forget what happened in the last three hours without pain and left no side effect.

“Xiao Jian, what did you feed them?” Ge Junjian asked.

“Potion to forget. They won’t remember what happened in the last three hours,” Yun Jian explained.

Si Yi told Ge Junjian after Yun Jian spoke, “As a member of the International Police, you should be eager to eliminate the European black market’s boss and his influences. Now that it is completely uprooted, you can report back to the Interpol right away.”

Si Yi paused and smiled before he continued to tell Ge Junjian, “Consider this my first gift to you as my father-in-law. I just want Xiao Jian.”

Well, calling Ge Junjian father-in-law seemed to come easy for Si Yi. As he spoke, he tightened his hold on Yun Jian's hand right in front of Ge Junjian, causing the girl to blush.

"I didn't see anything. Ah, I think my eyesight is getting worse recently! Girl, let's go have a walk over there! It's cooler there!" Ge Junjian lied through his teeth, asking Mu Ying to go off to the side with him at the same time.

Chapter 1448: The Scary Haunted House. Yun Jian Says Okay

This was Yun Jian's first time finding out that Ge Junjian was a member of the International Police Organization. She had never investigated him in the past, so she had no idea.

These were confidential information, though. The military usually asked for such statuses not to be disclosed, not even to someone closest to them.

Yun Jian cracked a small smile watching Ge Junjian leave with Mu Ying.

The incident was ultimately reported to the International Police Organization by Ge Junjian and the outcome was that Ge Junjian and his group took all the credit.

It was what Si Yi and Yun Jian wanted anyway, especially Yun Jian. She did not want a new title in her daily life.

She did not want to experience something like becoming the center of attention in the whole school back when she had gotten first in the military training's outdoor survival activity again. That was why she let Ge Junjian and team take the credit.

As the only person who had successfully escaped the dungeon, though, she could hardly be forgotten by the Special Forces soldiers and foreign country nationals who were later rescued from there. All of them knew that there was a teenage girl who was the first person to have led others to freedom through a successful jailbreak.

All in all, the Interpol knew that An Hun Group had directly helped them eliminate a global threat this time but the organization had retreated swiftly after the kind deed.

Yu Shaoluo and the others were groggy, having not a single clue what had happened in the last three hours, but they actually stopped asking with Ge Junjian explaining it to them in passing.

That night, Yun Jian and Ge Junjian were sent back to Longmen City in Si Yi's helicopter. It was because the next day was Saturday; the food festival was on Friday while Qin Yirou's birthday was on Saturday.

Returning home, Yun Jian did not wish Qin Yirou happy birthday in the morning. She asked her friend out with the plan to buy Qin Yirou's present in the afternoon. Ge Junjian did not wish Qin Yirou either, merely telling her that he was going to hang out with a long-time comrade of his.

Qin Yirou could not help being puzzled about everyone going out this early in the morning. She did not recall that it was her birthday today either. Never in her dream would she expect that these people were not going out for fun but had gone out to buy her birthday presents!

Yun Jian had asked Lu Feiyan out. Chen Xinyi had something to do, so she was unavailable.

Lu Feiyan was Yun Jian's first friend after her rebirth in Xinjiang Town. Calculating the days, their first meeting was actually today one year ago.

Previously, Lu Feiyan had been disappointed when she found out that she had finally gotten into a school in Longmen City yet Yun Jian had left for Min City.

Yun Jian waited for Lu Feiyan at the front of a café where they had agreed to meet. Around half a minute later, Lu Feiyan who carried a small backpack ran over in haste. There was another girl beside her.

"Phew! I was almost late, haha!" Lu Feiyan giggled before she scanned Yun Jian and told her, "Xiao Jian, you didn't turn dark even after one month of military training! You've got such nice skin!"

She laughed and introduced the friend next to her to Yun Jian. "This is a friend I've made in my new school. She's Wang Cancan. She's got good taste and can help you pick out your mom's birthday gift together!"

Lu Feiyan said and introduced Yun Jian after that.

Wang Cancan was a friendly girl. After she introduced herself to Yun Jian again, they chatted.

Wang Cancan looked rather feminine but she had a tough character and yearned for a life like the superman. She actually got along well with Yun Jian and was generous without being calculative.

"Let's go to Dynamall to shop for the present! It's a new mall and there are a lot of choices in there! There's also the most exciting and terrifying haunted house crew that's on national tour!"

"I've heard that braver ones like Fatty Wang and Er Gou in our class were scared witless. Heh, let's go check it out later if we have time after we buy the birthday gift, okay?" Wang Cancan asked Lu Feiyan and Yun Jian.

If they refused to, she would not bring it up again. She was not someone who would be petty about this.

With Wang Cancan's suggestion, Yun Jian recalled that Chen Xinyi had talked about the haunted house saying she wanted to go. She smiled and agreed right away, "Okay."

Chapter 1449: The Scariest Themed Haunted House

"Let's hurry there then! We'll catch a cab since Dynamall is kind of far from here!"

Wang Cancan was delightfully surprised. She squeezed her baby bear sling bag that matched Lu Feiyan's and told both Lu Feiyan and Yun Jian excitedly.

Lu Feiyan had a baby bear sling bag that was similar to Wang Cancan's on her as well. The sling bag was small and looked well-made. In addition, both of them wore skirts that matched the sling bags. With their decent proportions and the lovely bags, they looked as pretty as a picture.

Wang Cancan hailed a cab by the road and got into the backseat with Lu Feiyan and Yun Jian. She had no plans of isolating Yun Jian and whispering to Lu Feiyan. Although Lu Feiyan was in the center, Wang Cancan told Yun Jian, "There's no mistake in trusting my opinion! I'll pick a gift that your mom will like incredibly much for you today! Haha! See, these mini sling bags match our clothes, right? I chose them! Heh!"

Wang Cancan did not have any ulterior motive.

It had been a long time since Yun Jian met Lu Feiyan and the latter would surely have made new friends. When both of them met today, Lu Feiyan had brought along her senior high school friend, which inevitably put Yun Jian in an awkward spot.

There would always be one awkward person standing out among a group of three—and that person was Yun Jian.

Wang Cancan used to be alienated, so she genuinely could not get herself to do something like leaving Yun Jian out while she kept chatting with Lu Feiyan.

The three of them talked about their life in school on the way. Actually, it was more like Yun Jian listened while Wang Cancan and Lu Feiyan chatted; the two girls would talk and pop a question to Yun Jian here and there.

When Lu Feiyan told Wang Cancan about Yun Jian attending the military school, Wang Cancan's eyes on Yun Jian glowed. All she wanted was to become someone like the superwoman, so when she heard about Yun Jian schooling in a military school, she grabbed Yun Jian's hand despite Lu Feiyan being in the middle and exclaimed, "Yun Jian! I've always admired the soldiers who protect the country! Especially girls like you who choose to study in a military school! I think this needs determination and courage, and it's something worthy of respect!"

Wang Cancan's reaction made Yun Jian chuckle and she replied. Just as she started talking, though, the cab driver spoke up, "We're here at Dynamall. You can get off now."

After they paid and got out of the cab, Wang Cancan took Yun Jian and Lu Feiyan to a milk tea parlor in Dynamall to get some drinks first.

"I took a look. The haunted house is at Dynamall's basement. Should we go there first or pick your mom's present first?" Wang Cancan asked Yun Jian from where they were in the milk tea place.

"Let's go to the haunted house first, okay, Xiao Jian? Then we don't have to hold on to your mom's present when we're in there. It'd be bad if we break the gift because we get too scared. What do you think, Xiao Jian?" Lu Feiyan asked for Yun Jian's opinion.

"I don't mind." Yun Jian was not fussy.

Once she said that, a guy from a group of teenagers sitting next table at the milk tea parlor popped a head over to ask, "Eh, are you girls going to the haunted house at Dynamall's basement too? It's said to be super scary! It's the scariest hospital themed haunted house in Guinness World Records! The name of the haunted house is Sagawa Hospital!"

"There's a strict rule saying that girls have to be accompanied by guys. Three of you girls might be stopped if you go alone!" the guy purposely told Yun Jian, Lu Feiyan and Wang Cancan in a frightening tone.

Chapter 1450: Young One, Don't Act Calm

It was true that Sagawa Hospital was the scariest hospital themed haunted house in Guinness World Records. The guy was not making it up, but it was obvious that he was trying to pick up the three girls.

That was why he proposed immediately, "We're going to the basement haunted house too. Aren't you three girls scared to go alone? We can team up and go together?" the guy asked Yun Jian and the girls slyly.

Sagawa Hospital was making its stop in Longmen City for a week. It was only a week. After that, the crew would leave and go to the next location for the haunted house.

Since Sagawa Hospital was rather famous and it was only limited to one thousand visitors per day, there were a lot of people who traveled all the way just to experience the scariest hospital themed haunted house recorded in the Guinness World Records.

Therefore, it was not just people in Longmen City going to Sagawa Hospital. People from other provinces had come hearing its fame as well. The haunted house was basically sold out each day.

As soon as the guy finished speaking, Yun Jian replied in an icy voice, "No need."

Her answer stunned the guy.

"Uh..." He was not expecting her to reject him so directly.

"The milk teas are here, let's hold on to them as we go. I think there'll be a lot of people lining up in front of Sagawa Hospital. We can queue there and will probably finish the milk teas when it comes to our turn," Lu Feiyan who went to collect the milk teas came back from the counter and told Yun Jian and Wang Cancan.

She heard half of what the guy told Yun Jian and Wang Cancan too.

Yun Jian got up instantly while Wang Cancan glared at the guy who tried to pick them up before she left after Yun Jian and Lu Feiyan.

The guy's attempt had apparently failed miserably. He stroked the bridge of his nose and grinned innocently at his friends who sat around him.

Another guy who was clearly this guy's close friend wrapped an arm around the latter's shoulder after Yun Jian left and teased him laughing, "Zhou Dongxun, you'd fail picking up girls too, huh? Hahaha! All three girls didn't even spare you a glance! You're the most popular guy in our school, though, why haven't you got any charisma now?!"

"Pft! Stay out of it! Shut up, Lou! Besides, I'm sure we'll meet the three girls again later..." Zhou Dongxun blinked and said in anticipation.

Yun Jian, Lu Feiyan and Wang Cancan had already come to the basement.

Sagawa Hospital had built its temporary setup at the basement and the registration was at the same place. Visitors needed to get in line to enter.

Wang Cancan and Lu Feiyan were both thrilled and frightened when they lined up after buying the tickets.

Sipping on her milk tea, Wang Cancan told Yun Jian and Lu Feiyan, "Are you two scared? My heart just squeezes into itself once I think about us going into the haunted house later!"

Just as Wang Cancan said that, she paused seeing how nonchalant Yun Jian looked and could not help exclaiming, "Aren't you scared? Sagawa Hospital is the scariest hospital themed haunted house in history! I heard that a lot of people wetted themselves in there!"

"Scared? Why should I be scared?" Yun Jian was, instead, puzzled seeing how nervous and frightened Wang Cancan and Lu Feiyan were.

"Because this is a haunted house! Young girl, don't hold it in if you're scared. You ought to scream if you want to scream. Young ones shouldn't keep trying to act calm!" a woman in her forties could not help but say when she saw how calm Yun Jian was, thinking that the girl must only be pretending.
