

Schoolgirl 1481

Chapter 1481: Consider Her Thrifty

The blade had just flown above his head—and into the wooden wall behind him!

The man was completely dumbstruck as he turned around in a daze to stare at the two blades penetrating the wooden wall blankly.

How many years of training would such excellent flying knife skill require? Did it really come from a teenage girl too?

“Looks like you aren’t happy with it. I guess I can only resolve what happened today with the extreme method.” Yun Jian gripped her fists with a smirk, looking like she was a grim reaper and terrifying those who looked.

Crack! Crack! As Yun Jian clenched her fists, her knuckles made crisp cracking noises.

The scene shocked Brother Xiong. Afraid that he would be implicated, he shouted at his lackeys behind him, “Apologize right now! Hurry! You useless pigs!”

Brother Xiong then scrambled up and bowed at Wang Cancan to apologize, “I’m sorry! I apologize! It’s our fault today! It’s all our fault! We’re wrong! We’re at fault! We should die! We deserve it!”

Brother Xiong said while he slapped himself once after another. His attention was constantly on Yun Jian, as if the latter would kill him.

“Scram,” Yun Jian told them flatly before she took off her jacket to let Lu Feiyan drape it around Wang Cancan.

“Oh! Sure! I’ll scam! We’ll all scam!” Seeing that Yun Jian was letting them off the hook, Brother Xiong and his men fled with the plan of escaping first and coming back to settle the score with her next time.

When Brother Xiong walked out of the door, he pointed at Duan Ming with the unspoken threat of “this is not done between us”.

Wang Cancan did not cry. She was a tough girl. However, she glared at Senior Duan Ming who was slumped at the door.

Her Senior Duan Ming, her beloved Senior Duan Ming, was actually someone like this!

The reason she had liked Duan Ming was because they were in the same junior high school and there was once when her table tennis ball accidentally fell into a drain during PE in school; Duan Ming was the only person who saw that she got into trouble and stepped up to help her retrieve the ball from the drain.

The guy had been honest, virtuous, and he studied well during then.

Wang Cancan quietly liked him until they got into senior high school. She had even asked around for the senior high school that Duan Ming had planned to get into and secretly enrolled for the same school.

What Wang Cancan did not expect and had never expected was that it was highly likely for a person's living environment to change the person's character.

Perhaps Duan Ming had been an honest and upright person but living in a family where even food was a problem, he would definitely do the job that would feed him—even if it was a bad deed—without any hesitation.

“Cancan, it's okay. It's fine now. Let's go,” Lu Feiyan draped the jacket on Wang Cancan whose big, round eyes were glaring at Duan Ming by the door as she hugged her and patted her back, coaxing her softly.

“I'll send you both back to school.” Yun Jian had already collected her dagger and blades that she had thrown earlier. The weapons could be reused and she did not have the habit of discarding them just after throwing them to wooden stools and tables.

She was, in a way, considered thrifty—ah... yes, thrifty.

Chapter 1482: Meeting Brother Xiong Again. His Crude Jokes

Yun Jian did not understand Wang Cancan's feelings nor did she know how to comfort someone. She left after sending both Wang Cancan and Lu Feiyan back to school.

Before she left, Lu Feiyan thanked her on behalf of Wang Cancan who was still in a daze, “Xiao Jian, if it weren't for you today... really, I wouldn't know what to do...”

“As long as everyone's fine,” Yun Jian replied.

“Mn! I'll help Cancan back to the dorm first. Drive slow when you go back, don't let the traffic police catch you!” Lu Feiyan told Yun Jian softly since the latter was driving underage.

“Mn.” Yun Jian nodded and went back to the Lamborghini sports car, leaving only after she watched Lu Feiyan enter the school ground holding Wang Cancan.

Yun Jian received a call on the way back. It was from Xu Zetian.

Yun Jian currently ran both the legal and illegal businesses. The legal one was her company, New Cruise, while the illegal one was her gang, Falcon Hall.

Xu Zetian and Zhang Zhifan were the representatives of Falcon Hall and New Cruise respectively. When Yun Jian was not around, the two of them were the ones running the organizations.

Xu Zetian had called to say that he had looked into matters pertaining to He Long and Qi Shangjin's gangs while Zhang Zhifan came on the way to report to Yun Jian regarding New Cruise's recent marketing direction.

“Dingding Bar. Wait for me at the same place,” Yun Jian told Xu Zetian and hung up, stepping on the accelerator and steering the sports car to Dingding Bar.

13 minutes later at Dingding Bar's entrance...

Dingding Bar was already rather crowded during the day as its business was great in Longmen City recently. There were a lot of patrons even during the day. By night, those who frequented clubs now came to Dingding Bar.

The other clubs were not doing so well sales wise recently while Dingding Bar's income was skyrocketing. This could only show that club goers now chose Dingding Bar.

Actually, there was another important factor why Dingding Bar's business was so good. It was because it was huge, as spacious as a quarter of a school. Usual bars were only the size of a few rooms combined but Dingding Bar was different, more than ten times larger than them.

It was a matter of big investment and big return.

The investment of Dingding Bar was high. It looked luxurious but it charged similar to regular bars, so patrons naturally swarmed the place. Some other business owners might have figured this out but they could not produce the fund for such an investment, so there was no way they could compete with Dingding Bar.

Yun Jian was already inside of the bar by now. She went past several booths and headed for the VIP room at the corner.

When she passed by a room with its door opened, it was noisy inside but she could clearly hear a conversation inside.

"F*ck! I don't even know why I got so unlucky today to run into that scary woman! F*cker, I'm not going to stop until I f*ck her!"

"Oh, Brother Xiong, who got you so mad? Listening to what you said, it's a girl? Why don't the few of us gang up and get even with her? We have hundreds of us here, no need to be scared that we won't get her taken care of!"

"I'm going to vent this frustration no doubt! If I see her again, I'm going to beat her up until she get on her knees and beg me to f*ck her!"

"Hahaha..."

Chapter 1483: You'll Die Horribly Otherwise

As Yun Jian glanced over, Brother Xiong's lackeys who had experienced her intimidating skill were swiftly appalled.

The other men who commented alongside Brother Xiong just now, though, had never seen her in action, so they whistled when they saw her standing at the door looking so pretty.

"Oooh, what a pretty young lady! Brother Xiong, you sure this is the scary girl with otherworldly skills who defeated all of you alone?"

One of the men walked over to Yun Jian with a whistle, asking after he checked Yun Jian out standing nearby.

“I’d love to get a pretty girl like this as my girlfriend. Brother Xiong, it’s no wonder you’d want to beat her up until she begs you to f*ck her, hahaha,” the man who whistled scrutinized Yun Jian’s perfect face a little bit longer before he said again.

Brother Xiong was quite scared of Yun Jian attacking them but come to think of it, they were in a club! This was the territory of gangsters like them!

Moreover, it was the gathering of Brother Xiong’s gang today. His gang leader had booked over ten rooms and the surrounding rooms were all filled with his brothers. That meant there were at least a few hundreds of them.

Should he, Brother Xiong, be scared of a pathetic girl like Yun Jian when he had a few hundred men with him?!

Hmph, by the looks of it, this girl should be on his beck and call today! How dare she asked him to kneel down, slap himself and apologize to Wang Cancan just now!

Brother Xiong swore that he was writing his name backward if he did not settle the score with her!

Yun Jian was just looking up into the room, not caring about their opinions and comments. Otherwise, her status as the top on the secret agent chart in her previous life alone was enough to overwhelm her when others gossiped and talked about her.

Back then, there were even people who said that Yun Jian knew the head of An Hun Group and the reason she could get to the top of the international secret agent ranking was because she spread her legs for An Hun Group’s boss.

Cough! Although she did get to know Si Yi after her rebirth, she had ascended to that throne completely by herself before she was reborn! She depended on no one!

There was a saying about how others’ mouths were on them, so no matter what they said, one only needed to focus on one’s self.

It was just that when Yun Jian walked away with the plan of ignoring Brother Xiong and his men, Brother Xiong’s shout boomed.

“Stand there! You—yes, you! Stand right there! We haven’t gotten even! And you want to leave? Dream on!”

The reason Brother Xiong was so haughty all of a sudden was because over hundreds of their gang members were having a gathering here.

Could Yun Jian fight over a hundred people alone? Pft! Brother Xiong was not about to believe that!

Yun Jian arched a brow and turned around. She thought that Brother Xiong and his lackeys would have learned their lesson but it seemed that they were really stubborn.

“What?” Yun Jian crossed her arms. Her petite frame made her look frail but when she turned around, her piercing gaze felt like she could kill everyone there.

Brother Xiong jolted from the sharp gaze but he composed himself and feigned calmness as he told Yun Jian, "I want you to apologize to us! Hah, otherwise, I'll make sure you die horribly!"

The confidence that brimmed Brother Xiong's tone was as if it was a walk in the park for him to kill Yun Jian.

Chapter 1484: Could She Be From Falcon Hall?

"Hmm? Make me die horribly?" Yun Jian halted her steps as if she heard something funny. She looked up at Brother Xiong and his men and asked in a tone that was tinged with amusement.

"Humph! Don't think that I'm scared of a girl like you! I'm from Nine Valleys Gang! Our gang is having a gathering here today and there are over hundreds of us. You better hurry up and apologize if you know what's best for you. Otherwise..."

"Heh, I'll strip you naked and let my bros here indulge themselves. What do you think? Haha!"

Brother Xiong had been quite terrified of Yun Jian but seeing that he had an upper hand in the situation, his fear died down and he played his trump card openly, waiting for Yun Jian to beg him for mercy.

Brother Xiong assumed that Yun Jian would be frightened by what he said or that she would get on her knees promptly like he had earlier. He and his lackeys could do whatever they wanted to her by then.

In spite of it, that was not what happened. Yun Jian kept her arms crossed as she looked back at Brother Xiong and the men with mild interest.

So they were members of Nine Valleys Gang... Yun Jian's interest was piqued.

Nine Valleys Gang was the second best gang in Longmen City. Back when Dragon Head Gang, which was the current Falcon Hall, was still under Xu Zetian, Nine Valleys Gang had almost surpassed it. Since Yun Jian took over and renamed Dragon Head Gang to Falcon Hall, though, the gang leaped into becoming the biggest gang in Zhe Province.

What was Nine Valleys Gang like then? Perhaps its status was prominent in Longmen City but to Falcon Hall, it was like a speck of dust that they could care less about cleaning up.

Worse, it was only with Brother Xiong's mention of Nine Valleys Gang that Yun Jian suddenly remembered that Longmen City had a gang like this.

When Brother Xiong saw that Yun Jian stayed silent, he took a pause before he continued asking, "Why... why aren't you scared?"

"Why should I be scared?" Yun Jian entered the room instead, picking a leather couch to sit down, and rested her chin on her palm before asking Brother Xiong with a smirk.

Brother Xiong was disgruntled seeing how Yun Jian acted so leisurely like she was in her own house yet the sight of her delicate and supple face aroused him.

"Did you f*cking not hear him or not notice it? The surrounding rooms are all filled with our people from Nine Valleys Gang—over hundreds of them! Isn't a girl like you afraid?!"

“Besides, are you really not scared when Nine Valleys Gang is the second top gang in Longmen City? Hah, I don’t believe it!”

Brother Xiong purposely boasted about Nine Valleys Gang.

Regular girls would have already blanched hearing that he was a gangster but Yun Jian was acting as if she did not hear that Brother Xiong and his men were from Nine Valleys Gang!

“Nine Valleys Gang...” Yun Jian repeated softly.

Brother Xiong thought that Yun Jian was finally intimidated as she brought the name up, so he tipped his chin and said proudly, “Hah, that’s right! I’m from Nine Valleys Gang! Or should I say, all of us here are from Nine Valleys Gang! What now? Scared? Be good and take your clothes off then! Hah! If you please us and make us happy, I’ll let you go. Otherwise...”

Brother Xiong had only managed to say so much when Yun Jian squinted and interrupted with a smirk, “Nine Valleys Gang huh... I almost forget that Longmen City has this second-ranked gang. I wonder why you Nine Valleys Gang members have a gathering here in my Falcon Hall’s bar when you have your own bar?!”

My Falcon Hall’s bar?

What Yun Jian said astonished Brother Xiong and his men.

Could Yun Jian—a young girl like her—be from Falcon Hall?

Huh?

Chapter 1485: Boss of Falcon Hall, Why Are You Here?

What Yun Jian said shocked Brother Xiong and his men. Before they could speak, she spoke again, “Thank you for reminding me that there’s still a Nine Valleys Gang in Longmen City but it won’t last past tomorrow.”

There could be no two kings in the same jungle. Yun Jian had never been limited to just Longmen City.

Back when Chen Xinyi was abducted, Yun Jian had gone to Yuan Xuxiao, the head of Nine Valleys Gang. It was because his younger sister, Yuan Xiaoyu, knew about the incident—more like she had planned it.

Yun Jian did not get even with her after that but it did not mean that she did not remember. It simply slipped her mind that there was still a gang, Nine Valleys Gang, in Longmen City. It was not too late that she was reminded now, though.

“What... what do you mean? Do you know the status of Nine Valleys Gang in Longmen City?! We’re second in Longmen City! Trust me when I say I’ll kill you!”

Brother Xiong and his men were surprised about Yun Jian’s mention of Falcon Hall as hers and tried to be skeptical about it. They guessed that she could be someone in Falcon Hall but upon contemplation, how could this girl who looked like she was only 16 years old be able to get into a gang like Falcon Hall?

Brother Xiong and his men had not wanted to join Nine Valleys Gang back then. It was because they could not get into Falcon Hall that they went to Nine Valleys Gang.

To these men, Falcon Hall was extremely strict with assessing its members. They must not steal or rob, and could not do anything illegal like collecting protection racket. Basically, to join Falcon Hall, one had to carry themselves properly and act lawfully.

This was not what a gangster should be doing.

Anyway, even if Yun Jian was a member of Falcon Hall, she must be an insignificant small fry. How could Falcon Hall possibly offend Nine Valleys Gang over someone petty?

Without even thinking about it, it was impossible. That was why Brother Xiong was not scared of what Yun Jian said and even assumed that it was nonsense.

Was she pretending to be from Falcon Hall to intimidate them so she could escape because she got scared of them?

The more Brother Xiong thought about it, the more he found it to make sense. He rubbed his hands together, thinking that it was even better to get his hands on Yun Jian when he did not get to enjoy himself with Wang Cancan earlier.

Just thinking about it excited him as he stalked toward Yun Jian rubbing his palms.

“Pretty girl, just submit yourself to me! It’s not like you’ll be missing anything after this...”

The moment he said that, Yun Jian got up with a change of gaze and kicked Brother Xiong off, telling the others as she watched them coldly, “Ask Yuan Xuxiao to piss himself over here! Is this how he’s taught his gang members to behave over this half a year?!”

Yuan Xuxiao was the boss of Nine Valleys Gang, the second top gang in Longmen City. Back when Yun Jian killed Wolf Blade who was ranked top ten on the assassin chart, he was around too.

“You... You really know our boss?” Brother Xiong asked in horror, holding a hand over his chest as he stared at Yun Jian dumbly despite having recovered from being kicked away.

Brother Xiong’s men were all dumbfounded as well. It was obvious that all of them were doomed if Yun Jian did know their gang leader. If she was his relative or his friend, they would end up even worse.

Brother Xiong was vaguely afraid.

In the meantime, somebody walked in from the door composedly. There was an entourage behind him.

“B-boss?” Those who were in the room were astonished when they saw Yuan Xuxiao walk into the room.

Speak of the devil!

“Boss... there’s a brazen girl here asking you to—to get your *ss to her... and she....”

Brother Xiong who heard that his boss had come scrambled to go to him, wanting to speak ill of Yun Jian in front of the latter.

Yuan Xuxiao was slightly taken aback hearing that someone asked for him so rudely and turned toward where Yun Jian was. Despite it being more than half a year, he could still recognize the girl in front of him...

She was the girl who killed Wolf Blade, the tenth on the assassin chart, all by herself! She was also...

Yuan Xuxiao paled in terror as he ran to Yun Jian and bowed, greeting her deferentially in front of everyone, "Boss of Falcon Hall? What brings you here..."

Chapter 1486: Under Me. Why Not?

Yuan Xuxiao and everyone else there did not know that Dingding Bar was a property of Falcon Hall.

This was not a secret but it was a matter of course that no outsider knew about it when no one informed disclosed the fact.

As the boss of the second top gang in Longmen City, Yuan Xuxiao did not ask around about who Dingding Bar belonged to.

Dingding Bar's business was tremendous that it had already monopolized the clubbing business of the whole Longmen City. Outsiders were interested about the person behind the bar and even wanted to dig in further about the bar, but it was strange that no one had been able to find out about the founder of the bar.

That was why it was no surprise that Yuan Xuxiao was taken aback by the fact that Yun Jian was here. She was the boss of Falcon Hall; why would she be around?

How Yuan Xuxiao had addressed Yun Jian flabbergasted Brother Xiong and the others.

Boss of Falcon Hall? Who?

Was he calling... this gorgeous young girl whose delicate and fresh appearance was tinged by a hint of audacity?

As Brother Xiong and his men turned to look at Yun Jian, their jaws dropped visibly, going lower and lower until they were gaping.

"B-Boss... y-you mean that... s-she's—this little girl is Falcon Hall's b-boss?" Brother Xiong stared at Yun Jian, still gaping, before he asked Yuan Xuxiao in a frightened stammer.

Yun Jian was Falcon Hall's boss? This young girl who was not even 18 years old was the boss of Falcon Hall? Was this supposed to be a joke?

"Off you go! What do you mean this little girl? Nonsense! This is Falcon Hall's boss, Slaying Luo!" Yuan Xuxiao swatted Brother Xiong away hearing his question before he walked over to Yun Jian as if waiting for her answer.

Brother Xiong and his men blanched in horror as they were frozen on the spot. He had thought that Yun Jian was just a regular girl and even wanted to assault her, yet...

Yun Jian? Slaying Luo, the boss of Falcon Hall?

This young lady here was Falcon Hall's boss! She was really from Falcon Hall and they had actually offended Falcon Hall's boss!

Brother Xiong and his men were appalled like they had eaten a frog. The whole room was befuddled as they stared at Yun Jian who stood straight, looking petite but her presence feeling like it was blinding even when she stood before Yuan Xuxiao.

That was the Longmen City legend!

That was Falcon Hall's boss, Slaying Luo!

That was a 16 years old girl!

Even Yuan Xuxiao had to slightly bow down before Yun Jian. He had to give it to her in terms of presence.

Right now, the initially rowdy room in the bar was pin-drop silent as everyone gaped at Yun Jian—Yuan Xuxiao included.

What Yuan Xuxiao did not expect was that while Yun Jian had been intimidating when they first met, it had only been a little over half a year yet she had already led Falcon Hall, that was Dragon Head Gang which had been the top in Longmen City, to being the top gang in Zhe Province!

Despite Yuan Xuxiao's question at Yun Jian earlier, she had been standing before them without answering. The surrounding area was quiet as no one dared step up to say a word.

Yuan Xuxiao had been waiting for Yun Jian's answer. Time ticked by... Just when he thought that he would not get a reply from Yun Jian, the latter spoke suddenly, shocking everyone there with her response, "Dingding Bar is under me. Why can't I be here?"

Chapter 1487: What Does It Mean When She's Called Sister Jian?

Dingding Bar... belonged to her? This meant that Dingding Bar was under Falcon Hall?

Everyone's face fell, shocked by the news.

There was no one who did not know about Dingding Bar.

In Longmen City, Dingding Bar's business was growing by the day while the other bars were deteriorating. They were just waiting to close down ultimately.

When Dingding Bar was the only one with increasing business, this caused countless people in Longmen City to pay attention to the person behind the establishment. They wanted to see who was running Dingding Bar that it could triumph all the other bars in Longmen City and make such a clean profit when the other bars faced the threat of closing down.

Despite that, who would have thought that Dingding Bar belonged to Yun Jian? That the business was Falcon Hall's?

“Even Dingding Bar is under Falcon Hall?” Yuan Xuxiao was baffled, momentarily stunned, before he asked Yun Jian.

“Would it be yours instead of mine otherwise?” Yun Jian merely smirked and pulled a stool from beside her to sit down on it, crossing her right leg over left and looking up at Yuan Xuxiao.

“No, I don’t mean it that way...” Yuan Xuxiao was taken aback and was going to explain himself when he saw Yun Jian who sat before him make a call and tell the person on the line, “Room 519. Come over and talk.”

Yuan Xuxiao could not hear what the person on the other end of the line said but he had a feeling that the person who was coming would absolutely be someone significant.

No one dared say a word in the room. Yuan Xuxiao himself was waiting for Yun Jian to speak as well.

Yun Jian looked up at him and told him, “Your men from Nine Valleys Gang offended me and I’m very upset. I’d like to wipe your gang out. What do you think about it?”

Yun Jian spoke breezily but it broke Yuan Xuxiao out in cold sweat.

“Uh... Boss of Falcon Hall, who offended you? I’ll weed him out and chase him out of Nine Valleys Gang, you—”

This was what Yuan Xuxiao had been the most scared of. The stronger Falcon Hall grew, the more dangerous Nine Valleys Gang’s position was. Over this half a year, he had been staying as much of a low profile as he could, afraid that he would run into Yun Jian’s Falcon Hall.

His worry had still happened barely with a forewarning. Just when he wanted to try and save his gang, Yun Jian interrupted him, “No need. I’m giving you only two choices. One, Nine Valleys Gang is wiped out. Two, join Falcon Hall.”

Yun Jian would never keep a tumorous growth in Longmen City as the place was Falcon Hall’s headquarters after all. She would undoubtedly clear all the other gangs existing in Longmen City!

“Uh...” Yuan Xuxiao hesitated.

As soon as he made the hum, though, Yun Jian spoke in time, “You have three days to consider.”

Yun Jian had only gotten halfway when two people came in from the outside. Both of them wore proper suits and felt energetic like they were in their twenties or thirties despite actually being in their forties. They were Zhang Zhifan and Xu Zetian.

The two men frequently spent time together nowadays, sparring and having tea when they were free or talking about Falcon Hall and New Cruise’s latest direction and goal. They were basically having the time of their lives.

Everyone in the room was reverent when they saw Zhang Zhifan entering. The man represented New Cruise in attending plenty conferences and automobile shows, as well as being the face in press releases and newspapers.

That was why those in the room were respectful when they saw him. Zhang Zhifan started from zero and got to this level in less than a year. He was the role model to many youths out there.

“Sister Jian, we’re here!” While everyone was staring at Zhang Zhifan in deference, the man walked to Yun Jian and dipped his head at her in front of everyone to greet her.

The term of address shocked the others.

Sister Jian? The CEO of New Cruise, Zhang Zhifan, called her Sister Jian? What could it mean?!

Someone whom the CEO of New Cruise had called Sister Jian... Could Yun Jian be... the director of New Cruise?!

Chapter 1488: Net Income. I’ll Follow You!

“Mn,” Yun Jian replied with a hum habitually.

Her response had only shocked the others even more.

“S-Slaying Luo... you—don’t tell me New Cruise is yours too?” Yuan Xuxiao stared at Yun Jian in horror and asked what was on everyone’s mind aloud.

The others paid attention once he verbalized the question. Yuan Xuxiao’s question was what everyone was thinking. That was why they looked over right away.

Right now, all the eyes in the room were focused on Yun Jian. Putting others aside, Brother Xiong’s eyes had been trained on Yun Jian since just now as if he was trying to bore a hole through her head.

It was simply because the shock that Yun Jian had brought them was too much.

Not only was she Falcon Hall’s boss and the founder of Dingding Bar, she was also New Cruise’s boss?

As soon as Yuan Xuxiao’s question left his tongue, Yun Jian smiled and nodded. “Yes, is there a problem?”

Was there a problem? Yes! A huge one!

Yuan Xuxiao nearly screamed on the spot.

It was already shocking back when Yun Jian killed Wolf Blade who was ranked tenth on the assassin chart and Yuan Xuxiao had kept it buried deep under his heart, not daring to disclose it. Now, Yun Jian was not just Falcon Hall’s head and founder of Dingding Bar, she was also... New Cruise’s director?

Goodness! Did she have to be so amazing? She was only 16 years old!

What were other 16-year-olds doing? They were asking for allowance from their parents, enjoying the thrills and heartaches of their youth, dating, resorting to everything they could to get to know the person they liked.

What about Yun Jian?

“Tell me about the profit generated in the recent half of the year,” Yun Jian did not get up from her stool as she turned to ask Zhang Zhifan.

As she spoke, she rested her forehead on her slender fingers and closed her eyes to listen to Zhang Zhifan's report.

"The headquarters made a net income of 100 million yuan within this half of the year. In addition to affiliated companies, net income is recorded at around 50 million yuan, so that makes up a total of 150 million yuan. Since January, the net income is growing every month in about 5% per month..."

Zhang Zhifan reported to Yun Jian in front of everyone, not afraid to let the others know about it.

Each word from him flabbergasted the members of Nine Valleys Gang in the room. The company made 150 million yuan income in half a year and each month's growth was 5% from the last month's. How much money would that be if this went on down the years? And this was the net income!

"How much is Dingding Bar's income this month?" Yun Jian rubbed her forehead and asked Xu Zetian after Zhang Zhifan finished.

"Net income for this month is... 1 million yuan!" answered Xu Zetian.

Dingding Bar obviously did not make as much money as New Cruise but its net monthly income was already astonishing.

That was why Falcon Hall prohibited its members from robbing others or collecting protection rackets and stuff. It was because Yun Jian was rich! They did not need to do that!

This teenage girl had already possessed over hundred millions yuan of assets despite her young age. This was a shocking fact given the era.

"I don't need three days to consider it. Nine Valleys Gang will join Falcon Hall! I'll follow you from now on!" Yuan Xuxiao was a smart man as he announced immediately gripping his fists.

Chapter 1489: Offending the Drillmasters and Being Ostracized

This was the outcome Yun Jian wanted. Hearing what Yuan Xuxiao said, she pressed her lips into a smile.

"Welcome," Yun Jian said with a small smirk as she glanced up at Yuan Xuxiao from where she sat, not having the habit for handshakes.

She did not like bloodied fights, she liked absorbing a big group of people under her without any casualty.

It was exactly what happened. Yun Jian wasted no man in recruiting Yuan Xuxiao and his gang into hers.

"Since Nine Valleys Gang is joining Falcon Hall now, I ought to purge some trash before that." Yun Jian's hands were on the armrest of the chair as she held them lightly to stand up.

Her sharp eyes went to the side abruptly, her gaze trained on Brother Xiong and his men.

Brother Xiong was suddenly aware of how he had treated Yun Jian prior to this and shook his head at her, like he was pleading her not to kick them out of the gang.

"All of them, out of nine Valleys Gang," Yun Jian pointed at Brother Xiong and his men before she uttered softly and impassively.

“What? We—no... No...” Brother Xiong seemed to want to say more but Yun Jian had already turned and left.

Watching Yun Jian leave through the door and go farther, there was nothing Brother Xiong and his men could do. Their destiny was sealed at that moment. They would end up horribly for offending Yun Jian.

After Yun Jian left the room, she went to the VIP booth to talk to Zhang Zhifan and Xu Zetian regarding New Cruise and Falcon Hall’s recent direction before she returned home.

She spent another day at home and departed to Min City the next day.

Si Yi went back to An Hun Group as well, while Qing You was still in Longmen City with Yun Yi. Gu Nian stayed with her since she was still around.

Si Luo was envious that Qing You and Gu Nian could stay together. She wanted to stay and go to school with the both of them as well except each time she brought it up, Snow Eagle glowered darkly and dragged her away. There was no room for consideration at all.

As Yun Jian returned to Min City Military School, she stirred a commotion before she entered the school gate. This time, she was not famous for her excellent skills but got infamous for going against the instructors.

Yun Jian had ran to hijack the helicopter back then. The students saw her running over during the food festival but they did not see quite clearly the moment she managed to snatch it.

That was why there were already students pointing fingers at her and whispering as soon as she got back to school and had yet to go in.

“Look, that girl’s the one who went against the drillmasters last week! She’s awesome! She was all the way up front alone and the group of instructors can’t even catch up to her from the back!”

“No sh*t, she’s so cool?!”

“I know, right? She’s not just cool, she’s amazing! She went against the drillmasters! That’s like suicide!”

Students who passed by gossiped about Yun Jian. They saw it when Yun Jian ran to hijack the helicopter but since the field was rather far away from the food festival’s venue and the handful of students who saw the scene where she took the helicopter were sworn to secrecy by the instructors, not many knew about it.

Yun Jian did not care about such rumors as she went straight to her class. Before she could step in, Lin Yuan pulled her to an empty spot in front and told her discreetly, “Don’t go in. They’re blaming you for going against the drillmasters and are so certain that you’d cause our class to be admonished! They even say they want to put dead roaches and fake snakes on your seat to scare you!”

Chapter 1490: Poorly Made. Risk of Closing Down

All the students thought that Yun Jian had offended the instructors. After all, she was only a student and she insisted to rush up to the helicopter even when the instructors had stopped her and she also made them run after her.

What was Yun Jian's action if not an offense to the drillmasters?

That was why the students thought that she would cause the whole class to be scolded as well. Moreover, Yun Jian had stood out so much during the military training as she had emerged first place in the outdoor survival activity.

The result impressed many people but it similarly made plenty of them resent her. Jealousy was something terrifying. Those who admired Yun Jian and were impressed by her wore their adoration on their sleeves but those who were jealous of her would never show it on their faces.

When something happened to Yun Jian—like this time when so many drillmasters chased after her, those who were jealous of her spun tales about how she had offended the instructors and implicated the whole class.

This way, the ones jealous of Yun Jian pulled the ones who were impressed by her to the same side and they planned to scare her using toys like dead cockroaches and fake snakes.

Lin Yuan who found out about it hurried out to inform Yun Jian. She was genuinely afraid of Yun Jian being scared, so she pulled her to the vacant corner as soon as she saw her at the classroom door.

"Hmm?" Yun Jian arched a brow and looked up at Lin Yuan before she made a hum and smirked. "Let's go back to class."

"Yun Jian, be... careful then. You've got to watch out! Don't be frightened!" Lin Yuan told Yun Jian with a frown.

Lin Yuan had only said that out of concern for Yun Jian.

"Mn." There was no way Yun Jian would be scared; she nodded and went back to class with Lin Yuan.

"She's coming, she's coming! Yun Jian's here! We've got to scare her witless later! Heh heh heh..."

The students in class had long been paying attention to Yun Jian, whispering among each other when they saw Yun Jian walking over after her short chat with Lin Yuan.

"Are the dead roaches and fake snakes on her seat yet?"

"Yes, yes. They're in her drawer. She'd be jumping in shock for sure! Hahaha!"

"Hmph, that's for offending the drillmasters and implicating us! This is how she ends up!"

"Speaking of which, what do we do if Yun Jian isn't scared of these toys since she's so skilled? I heard that she's killed a large wild boar on the first day of military training!"

"Pft! I think it's just a rumor. I refuse to believe it since I've never seen it anyway! Humph! Besides, how could there be girls who aren't afraid of these things? Just watch..."

It was then Yun Jian entered the classroom. The other students in there kept quiet immediately.

The students in class thought that Yun Jian had not heard their whispered gossips but she had, in fact, heard all of them clearly.

Lin Yuan looked at Yun Jian walk back to her seat in worry while the other students watched in anticipation as she went through her drawer.

The moment Yun Jian pulled her drawer open, she saw five to six cockroaches and a snake inside. The anticipated scream did not come as she pulled the fake snake out of her drawer and scrutinized it for several seconds.

The students saw her furrow her brows and comment lightly, "This snake is so poorly made that the snake's characteristics aren't even shown. The manufacturer should be facing the risk of closing down soon."

The class was shocked by what she said. They were waiting for her to squeal. Regular girls should be shrieking when they saw a fake snake like this but not only had Yun Jian not screamed, she commented on the toy's workmanship?!
