

Schoolgirl 1491

Chapter 1491: Do You Believe That It Was Me?

The other students were dumbfounded as there were not many people like Yun Jian.

Others would have been worried about being scared but her? She commented on the fake snake right away and even guessed that the manufacturer had probably closed down its business.

“Hahaha! As if you can see if the factory making the snake is out of business by how well this snake is made! Pft, what a joke! For real... You think you’re a fortuneteller?”

“Do you think you’re god? Or that you’re an oracle? This is hilarious! You’re killing me!”

One of the guys in class laughed gratingly. He did not like Yun Jian one bit because of her abilities.

The truth was that Yun Jian was too skilled that a guy could barely compete against her.

Most of the guys in class—aside from those who admired Yun Jian—did not like Yun Jian. After all, she was so capable that a guy could not fight her. As guys themselves, they surely had an opinion about that.

Majority of the guys did not like girls being more capable than them, so were these guys in class.

The guy who mocked Yun Jian had just spoken when another weaker voice of a guy rang, “Cough... This snake is my childhood toy and the manufacturer... did close down. Because the snake’s from my uncle’s factory. The factory’s been closed for over five years now...”

It was the guy who brought the fake snake to class. He was unwilling to admit to the fact but there was nothing he could do. It was the truth and he was not good in lying.

Once he said that, the guy who mocked Yun Jian just now paled, looking like he had a constipation.

Yun Jian threw the snake at the guy’s face right after he stepped up to state that the factory had closed. The guy gave a violent shudder when his fake snake was thrown back at him all of a sudden, obviously unable to remember in time that the snake was his and that it was fake when he had just caught it.

“Stop doing something so childish in the future. Your target is me this time. If it’d been a regular girl, will you guys be able to take responsibilities if she died from the shock?” Yun Jian scoffed. This was the type of people she looked down at the most.

There had been news reporting that students used a fake snake as a prank to scare their friend but the girl died from it.

Lin Shuya who had been at odds with Yun Jian and was even knocked out during the outdoor survival military training where the instructors scared the other students in the island with her fake corpse—the girl having no idea about it—glanced at Yun Jian coldly, still disdainful of her as usual.

“Right, I don’t know if all of you know about it but Officer Ge who was said to have been captured was saved. He was saved from the internationally infamous dungeon in the black market boss, Glenn’s lair!”

“It’s said that no one’s ever left the dungeon alive since it was built! Heh, someone actually brought others out of the dungeon this time! And it’s said to be a girl too! She’s crazy good!”

That reminded everyone that Yun Jian had forcefully asked Drillmaster Yu Shaoluo to take her to save Officer Ge back then because the latter was her father after all.

“Yun Jian, you must’ve gone to the—what? The territory of the European mafia boss, Glenn, too, right? You must know about the rumor that anyone who’s captured into Glenn’s dungeon in his lair won’t ever get to leave?”

“Heh, then do you know who that legendary woman who’s the first to leave the dungeon with others is?”

Someone who was struck with the realization that Yun Jian might know about it asked her.

“Hah, you’re asking her? She offended the instructors that time and insisted to follow them and caused troubles! She’s just doing all that on purpose! Creating troubles out of the blue! And you ask her if she knows about the incident?!”

There was a voice of objection that came immediately.

In spite of it, everyone had still looked at Yun Jian in anticipation. All of them were interested in the matter.

It had been decades since the dungeon was built and there were so many amazingly skilled people who were captured but no one had ever escaped successfully. Yet someone who did the jailbreak and took others out of there had appeared!

The class was curious to know, so they turned to Yun Jian.

Wearing a smirk, Yun Jian pressed her lips together before she spoke, “Do you guys believe me if I say that I’m the person who escaped the dungeon with others?”

Chapter 1492: Yun Jian’s the Legend

She was the one who escaped with others?

The whole class looked at Yun Jian abruptly. In that moment, everyone’s eyes was on her.

“Ha! The person who escaped the dungeon with others is you? You sure? You aren’t bluffing us, are you?” a student in class retorted right away in tangible shock.

Yun Jian smiled but said nothing else.

Just when her classmates thought that she was not going to speak again, they heard her saying, “There are two security locks in the dungeon that used the latest high-tech products. Who else could unlock these two locks if not me?”

Yun Jian sounded incredibly audacious, stunning her classmates once more. They broke out into a commotion again when they snapped back to reality.

Some of the students asked doubtfully as they looked at Yun Jian, "Really? Why do you sound so convincing like you've really gone into the dungeon? Tell us about the structure..."

Similar sentiments were voiced out one after another but Yun Jian did not explain further.

"Hah! She's so pleased with herself again! She's really a shameless bragger! Does she really think she can do it all?!" Lin Shuya who had never liked Yun Jian scolded again.

As soon as she said that, though, Yun Jian was heard speaking, "I just want to let all of you know that studying in the military school means that there's a high chance you'll turn into one of these two groups of people in the future."

"One, a soldier; two, a Special Forces soldier. Whichever you end up as, you have to remember one thing if you're asked to become a spy."

"You must be able to do it all!"

Yun Jian took a pause here before she continued to say, "Decoding passwords and unlocking locks, blending in crowds, weapons and firearms, medical knowledge and treatments, assassination... You need to learn everything and be familiar using them!"

"If you can't do that, my advice is don't sign up to be a spy in the future because there's a 98% chance you'll be captured alive or killed!"

What Yun Jian was trying to say was simple. She just hoped that these people would act smarter in the future. Ge Junjian and his comrades had acted rashly without realizing exactly this point and ended up caught when they sneaked into Glenn's lair as spies.

If it were not for her, or that she had not saved them in time, Ge Junjian and the others who were caught would definitely be killed! There was no way they would last over three days!

Lin Wei had been the strongest out of the group but when Yun Jian made it inside the dungeon, he was already at the brink of death. It was obvious that he would be defeated in less than three days and by then, Ge Junjian and others would be killed as well!

That was why Yun Jian said what she did.

Her message stirred objections but there was also support from those who admired her.

A plump guy looked at Yun Jian and asked interestedly, "Yun Jian, how do you know it so well? Is it true? I've been fantasizing about being a spy! Heh, it's so cool!"

"Hah! All she knows is to brag! Yun Jian, stop talking like you've been a spy. On what ground are you educating us like you're more superior than us? Ugh, have some shame!" Lin Shuya complained.

Actually, what Yun Jian said was for those who would listen. To be honest, she would not care even if her classmates died in front of her.

“She’s the best! Without her, we couldn’t have escaped the dungeon at all!” Drillmaster Yu Shaoluo’s assertive voice rang from the classroom door.

From what he said... Yun Jian was the one who led them out of the dungeon? She was the legend who was the first person ever to escape the dungeon with others?

Chapter 1493: It’s Not My Habit to Shake Hands

What Yu Shaoluo said attracted attention. If words coming from Yun Jian alone were not convincing enough, an instructor’s words would carry that influence in the military school for sure. That was why the class went into a commotion again as soon as Yu Shaoluo spoke.

Even if Yun Jian was not the legend who led others in escaping the dungeon, she would not be far off from that! As for whether she was it or not, Drillmaster Yu would probably not make it explicitly clear judging by his response.

The students did not find what Yun Jian said to be credible but there were still those who were curious about the incident.

“Drillmaster Yu, i-is what you said real? Didn’t it shock the school last time? It’s said that Yun Jian offended the instructors and implicated our class...”

Drillmaster Yu was a friendlier instructor who usually would not admonish the students even when they asked him more direct and explicit questions. That was why the students asked what they wanted to when they saw him.

Right now, it was a tall and lean guy who was asking Yu Shaoluo the question.

“What? What do you mean offended the instructors? Pft! You kids! You guys really have a good imagination huh! I really... I don’t even know what to tell you!”

Yu Shaoluo was coughing from how hard he was laughing when he heard the students claim that Yun Jian had offended the instructors.

Yu Shaoluo tried to repress his laugh, keeping his impulse to guffaw in check and coughing into his fist, before he said, “Yun Jian’s accomplished a huge merit this time and I’m here to ask her to go and receive her prize.”

Yu Shaoluo spoke clearly.

Once he said that, the whole class went into stupor.

What? Receive her prize? What prize?

The students were clueless. They did not know that not only had Yun Jian accomplished a huge merit, she had helped the Interpol catch Glenn who had been brazen for years and caused the sacrifice of countless secret agents. She had also saved Ge Junjian and a large group of secret agents who had failed their task of sneaking into the territories of Glenn, the European mafia boss, and were locked in the dungeon.

It was not a single merit but an all-rounded one. A reward could barely reflect Yun Jian's accomplishment.

"Yun Jian, come with me to accept the reward," Yu Shaoluo said and looked at Yun Jian.

"I'm so impressed! She's just a girl but she's able to do this..."

Even those who had less favorable opinions about Yun Jian could not help being impressed now.

At the same time, Yun Jian was led to the office by Yu Shaoluo.

It was usually teachers who taught main subjects like grammar, math, and English who were in the office. The instructors and drillmasters had their own office that differed from these main subject teachers.

Right now, though, there were not just the main subject teachers in the office but higher-ups who were dressed in the military uniform.

As Yu Shaoluo led Yun Jian into the office, he pointed at the well-dressed middle-aged man nearby who looked like a superior.

"He's the principal of Min City Military School, Principal Ma," Yu Shaoluo introduced Principal Ma to Yun Jian then Yun Jian to Principal Ma.

Principal Ma smiled at Yun Jian with beaming eyes before walking over and extending a hand to her.

"Hahaha! What a delight that Min City Military School has such a talented junior! Young lady, let's shake hands, come on!"

Principal Ma told Yun Jian with a smile.

Yun Jian smiled back with a nod but said indifferently, "Sorry, it's not my habit to shake hands."

Who was Principal Ma? He was the principal of Min City Military School!

Regular people would be throwing themselves to pander to him when they met him yet this time, he had taken the initiative to extend a friendly hand to Yun Jian and Yun Jian had just rejected the honor like that?!

Chapter 1494: The Selection. A Good News

“Cough, cough! Haha, it’s fine, it’s fine! The young lady is cool!” Principal Ma grinned embarrassedly, looking quite young himself, as he looked at Yun Jian like he admired her a lot.

Principal Ma was a funny man. He was Min City Military School’s principal but he did not usually stay in school because not only was he a principal, he was also in the military.

Yun Jian refused to shake hands with the principal but that did not mean that she had ill feelings about him. Each person expressed their feelings in different ways; Yun Jian simply did not have the habit to shake hands nor did she like shaking hands with males.

That was the simple reason why she had rejected the handshake.

Principal Ma was a smart man. He did not feel awkward hearing what Yun Jian said but smiled at her. He took a pause before telling her, “It’s thanks to you this time. If it weren’t for you...”

Principal Ma wanted to say more to thank Yun Jian but the latter cut him off.

“It was just to save my dad, so you don’t have to thank me.” Yun Jian did not mean anything by saying this—she had really gone just to save Ge Junjian.

“Cough, cough! Haha! I understand. But uh... you’ve still contributed a great merit!”

This was the first time Principal Ma was chatting to a student so kindly. Even when Yun Jian was quite blunt, she meant no harm, so Principal Ma talked to her warmly.

The scene felt unbelievable to the teachers in the office. There were also drillmasters around but most of them were currently tuning in to the conversation between Principal Ma and Yun Jian.

“Cough, cough! Right, Yun Jian, Principal Ma actually has an urgent matter to talk to you about this time. It’s... Why don’t we talk about it elsewhere?” Yu Shaoluo spoke up when the atmosphere felt a little awkward.

“Mn, let’s speak outside,” Yun Jian replied with a nod, knowing that certain topics were unsuitable to be brought up in front of others, especially when there were teachers in the office.

Not many people came around here and students did not usually hang out here during breaks. The garden was actually closer to the teacher’s dormitory, so some teachers would go through the garden as a shortcut to reach the classrooms faster.

“Go ahead if you have something to tell me,” Yun Jian said lightly looking up at Principal Ma and Yu Shaoluo as she stood before them.

Normally, a student standing before the principal and drillmaster should be too scared to look up at the two latter figures, but when it came to Yun Jian, why did it look like she was the principal while Principal Ma and Yu Shaoluo were the students?

“Cough, cough. Xiao Yu, you go,” Principal Ma asked Yu Shaoluo to explain it for him.

“Okay! This is the case. Principal Ma has heard about what you did and in addition to your impressive performance all this while, he’s agreed to let you join the selection of Country Z’s Special Forces to the hunting school.”

“You must already know what kind of place the hunting school is and with the high casualty rate of the school, we don’t simply send anyone there.”

“Country Z’s Special Forces will have a selection before they’re chosen to go. There will be two classes with over a hundred Special Forces soldiers joining the selection. The top three will then officially represent Country Z to the hunting school.”

“Initially, you’ll have to enter the elite class and be observed to see if you qualify to join the selection but Principal Ma thinks you’re outstanding, so he plans to make an exception and let you join the selection this year.”

“As for whether you’ll be chosen to represent Country Z to the hunting school, it’ll depend on your own abilities.”

Chapter 1495: To the Concert. Changing Her Mind

What Yu Shaoluo said sounded simple. He meant that Principal Ma thought that Yun Jian was capable as she had even saved the group from the dungeon and helped the Interpol capture Glenn.

All she had done, including her performance during the military training previously as well as her physical abilities and performance standard, had already reached the qualification for someone to join the selection to the hunting school.

That was why Principal Ma recommended Yun Jian to go.

As a student, Yun Jian was not actually qualified to join the selection. After all, everyone knew what sort of place the hunting school was.

Of course, Yun Jian was not a regular person. That must be what Principal Ma had thought too as he endorsed her to join the selection.

Despite that, it did not mean that Yun Jian could go to the hunting school directly just because Principal Ma appreciated her talent. While the Special Forces soldiers would represent Country Z in going to train in the hunting school, decisions about who was going must be made.

The hunting school was scary but it was also the dream of countless Special Forces soldiers.

Principal Ma had done his best to send Yun Jian to the selection. What would happen after that would have to depend on Yun Jian’s individual capabilities.

“The selection is probably very strict. There’ll be a month long training during the selection and over a hundred Special Forces soldiers will gradually be eliminated within the period of time, leaving only three on the last day.”

“These three people will be the ones to represent Country Z to the hunting school, so are you joining, Yun Jian?” Yu Shaoluo turned to ask Yun Jian after briefing her the general rules.

He had always remembered it after Yun Jian said that she wanted to go to the hunting school. Now that there was a chance, he saved the spot for her.

“Yes,” Yun Jian said with a nod.

Needless to say, she was choosing to join given the opportunity.

Special Forces soldiers looked forward to and dreamed about the hunting school but to Yun Jian, it was just a platform where she could train herself, have practical battles, and pull her standard back to her peak in her previous life.

“Okay, the military school will let you go on leave and send you to the selection a month later. Get ready but you don’t have to bring too much stuff with you as things are all prepared for you there.”

“Mn.” Yun Jian nodded.

“Alright, you can go back. The selection is one month from now. I’ve already contacted Old Ge for everything else. I believe he’ll take care of them for you,” said Yu Shaoluo.

It was already the end of the first period of class by the time Yun Jian went back. The students had left their seats, some of them loitering at the corridor. The fluorescent lights were bright in the classroom but no one noticed that Yun Jian had already returned to her seat.

“Why didn’t Mu Ying come to school this evening?” Lin Yuan asked Yun Jian with a slight confused furrow of brows.

“Maybe she has family affairs to tend to.” Yun Jian nodded.

“Oh...” Lin Yuan nodded with realization. She then inched closer to Yun Jian and winked at her, saying, “Yun Jian, do you want to come to the concert with us this Saturday? It’s just me and a few girls I got to know from other classes. They’re the ones who invited me and I thought I’d call you and Mu Ying to go watch it together!”

“No, thanks,” Yun Jian rejected her in two words.

“Aww, Yun Jian, let’s go, come on. It’s just a few more girls from other classes. There’s no one else. Just come with us!” Lin Yuan swung Yun Jian’s hand the moment she heard that the latter was not going.

“I’m not interested,” Yun Jian said with a nod.

Just as she said that, her gaze landed on the concert flyer on Lin Yuan's desk. When Yun Jian saw the portrait on the flyer. She pointed at it and asked, "Whose concert is it?"

Chapter 1496: Plainly Dressed, a Country Bumpkin

Lin Yuan was taken aback hearing Yun Jian change her mind so suddenly before she turned to ask the latter in confusion, "Yun Jian, didn't you say you aren't going? Why are you changing your mind now?"

A week of school life passed swiftly and it was Saturday in a blink of eyes.

It was sunny without any cloud on Saturday. Anyone who walked out could feel the heat. Perhaps it was because it was September, the heat had yet to wear off.

Yun Jian did not go back to Longmen City this week. She stayed in Min City.

Lin Yuan did not go home as well because she had a date with the girls from the other classes to watch the concert together, so all of them stayed in the school's dorm.

It was Saturday morning around 7-8am where the sun had risen for a while now.

At the girl's dorm...

Yun Jian's roommates had all gone home while Lin Yuan's room was right next to hers. Lin Yuan had slept with Yun Jian on Friday night claiming that it was too dark at night and she was scared to spend it alone in her room.

This morning, Yun Jian was dressed casually since she had just come back from her morning run. As she had sweated, she changed into something simple.

Lin Yuan who was done dressing up ran over when she saw that Yun Jian had gotten changed into something simple.

"Yun Jian, we're going to a concert! A concert! Are you just wearing this? What if we have the chance to shake hands with our idol? And you're just going there dressed so casually?"

Lin Yuan said as she hurried to Yun Jian's space to rummage her clothes only to discover that the latter's clothes were either frighteningly plain or despairingly simple.

"Oh my god, didn't you buy anything that you could wear out?" Lin Yuan whined hopelessly after she went through Yun Jian's clothes.

"This is good enough," Yun Jian said.

Lin Yuan met eyes with her helplessly and smiled before she rushed back to her room to get her own clothes, insisting that Yun Jian change into them.

Yun Jian refused ultimately, and Lin Yuan could only let her be since there was nothing she could do.

Min City's concert was held in Min City Stadium and there was about two hours before it began.

Lin Yuan was already standing at the stadium entrance with Yun Jian waiting for the others. The girls were nowhere to be seen despite it being a long time, that Lin Yuan and Yun Jian had even bought milk tea while they waited. It was until their legs had almost gone numb that they saw the girls walking over slowly.

There were a few guys beside the girls as they chatted merrily and were dressed incredibly fancy.

"You're already here? Why are you so early?" one of the girls who knew Lin Yuan came over and asked glancing at Lin Yuan.

"Uh... didn't you girls say that you won't ask the guys to come? Why..." Surprised, Lin Yuan asked instead.

"Hah, ignore them. Just do what you like," the girl who knew Lin Yuan told her.

"Okay then." Lin Yuan could only nod.

Since Yun Jian and Lin Yuan did not quite know the other girls, they introduced themselves to each other. Other than Lin Yuan, the other girls were dolled up with colorful clothes and thick makeup; they were only 16-17 years old but they were dressed maturely like they were 26-27 years old.

There was one girl among the group who seemed taken aback when she saw how plain Yun Jian was dressed before she told her, "The one having the concert today is international celebrity, Yao Lili, yet you're dressed like this! Do you even know what respect is?! Who is this? Who invited her? This girl is like a country bumpkin! Gosh..."

Chapter 1497: Entering Anyway Without the Ticket

The girl who talked to Yun Jian was dressed the most fashionably and had the thickest makeup caked on her as well. The reason she felt so superior was because she had gotten the tickets for this concert through connections.

The girl was Peng Caihui. Just because she was quite capable and her uncle worked in the crew so she managed to get over ten tickets for the international star, Yao Lili's concert a few days ago, she was exceptionally pompous.

Yao Lili was a famous celebrity who had global influence and was already a household name in 1999.

Peng Caihui had given the tickets to plenty of people but she just felt a lofty sense of superiority in front of others today. Not only was she dressed the most fashionably and eye-catching, she had her chin jutted proud and tall among everyone else.

That was because she felt that Yun Jian and everyone else around her would never get to come here or walk into the concert without her since she was the one who gave them the tickets.

Hence, Peng Caihui felt like she was the boss.

That was also why she felt like Yun Jian was not respecting her when she saw that the latter was dressed so casually. It simply put her off.

Moreover, Peng Caihui was not one to mince her words, so she blurted what she thought immediately.

“Caihui, don’t be like this. We’re from the same school after all...” a girl standing next to Peng Caihui spoke up right away.

This girl was the one who knew Lin Yuan and she was quite friendly. Her name was Ye Qiao.

All of them there were freshmen. Ye Qiao was not the only one who could not stand hearing Peng Caihui say that to Yun Jian—Lin Yuan, too.

“How could you say that to my friend? You—” Lin Yuan wanted to say more when Peng Caihui rolled her eyes and swayed her hips to cut her off arrogantly.

“Pft, I’ve already said that, so what more do you want? Don’t forget that it’s all thanks to me you get to come to the concert! Would you have the tickets without me?”

This was the very reason Peng Caihui was so arrogant.

She had asked her uncle to get the tickets from the crew. Would Yun Jian and the other girls get to go without the tickets? Pft, what a joke! It was so hard to get a concert ticket—those who wanted to go would have known!

“You’re the one who gave us this?” Yun Jian who had stayed quiet yet was the center of the attention waved the concert ticket in her hand as she turned to glance at Peng Caihui.

“Hah, could it be you otherwise? So! You better be good. It’s embarrassing enough that you’re dressed like a bumpkin. Stay farther away from us when you go in with us later, or else...” Peng Caihui said after a pompous shake of her body.

She did not get to finish her sentence as Yun Jian threw the ticket that the teenagers thought one could hardly buy even with money to the floor.

“I’m giving it back to you then. I can still go in without this ticket.”

That woman had come to Min City for a concert using a celebrity’s name and Yun Jian was definitely going to attend said concert.

“Pft, she really thinks she can enter without the ticket? What big shot does she think she is?” Peng Caihui mocked instantly seeing Yun Jian walk away.

“I don’t want it too then. Have it to yourself! Humph!” Lin Yuan thrust her ticket into Peng Caihui’s hand and ran after Yun Jian.

Chapter 1498: watching the concert and entering the stadium

Yun Jian and Lin Wan's actions looked like idiots in the eyes of everyone present.

What was the use of them being angry? Did they really think that they could return the tickets to the concert to Peng Caihui and also enter the Downtown Stadium of Min City to watch the evening concert?

"Huihui, I think they are idiots! Didn't you see that there were guards blocking the entrance of the stadium? Look at which one of them didn't have the tickets to enter. The two of them didn't have the tickets and still wanted to go in? PFFT, don't laugh to death.

"Aiya, I'm really going to laugh to death!"

A girl standing next to Peng Caihui, who obviously wanted to curry favor with her, pointed at Yun Jian and Lin Wan's departing figures and laughed loudly.

"Huihui, you really went too far this time. We are all from the same school. In the future, we will see each other as often as we can. You..."

Ye Qiao saw Lin Wan chasing after Yun Jian's footsteps. She watched with some worry as she spoke to Peng Caihui at the same time.

However, just as she spoke to Peng Caihui, Peng Caihui fiercely interrupted ye Qiao's words:

"HMPH! What do you mean by 'not going too far'? This is my ticket to begin with! If you want to go with them, then go by yourself. Leave the ticket for me. You can go with Lin Wan by yourself."

Peng Caihui had made up her mind to think that she was amazing. She was also certain that ye Qiao would not really leave.

Sure enough, Ye Qiao only glanced at Lin Wan a few times with a worried expression. Then, she stood where she was and shouted at Lin Wan a few times. Seeing that Lin Wan did not listen, she stood where she was and stomped her feet. In the end, she was still afraid that she would not be able to enter the concert, she could only stand obediently beside Peng Caihui.

Seeing ye Qiao cast a worried glance at Yun Jian and Lin Wan, but ultimately didn't chase after them, Peng Caihui's sense of pride became even more obvious.

"Come, let's go and take a look at them. HMPH, I want to see if the two of them can enter!" Peng Caihui completely wanted to see Yun Jian and Lin Wan make a fool of themselves.

As she spoke, Peng Caihui brought the group of boys and girls around her as if they were watching a show. They walked towards Yun Jian, who was already standing in front of the stadium.

"Yun Jian, let's go back. It's as if we really care about her ticket. With her attitude... it's fine if we don't want to see it! It's not that big of a deal!"

"Let's go back to the dormitory or go shopping. You can choose. Oh right, or we can go to Mu Ying's house to play with her. We can also see what she's doing at home since she hasn't come to school for so many days."

Lin Wan thought that Yun Jian was just angry when he walked towards the stadium.

After all, there were no tickets. It was more difficult to sneak into an international superstar concert like this.

“Mu Ying is very busy. Don’t disturb her. I have to go here.” Yun Jian simply told Jane what he wanted to say.

Mu Ying had been very busy recently. Because mad dragon was going back to the Gu Sha mercenary group, she had been staying with mad dragon for the past few days.

As for the concert this time, she was going.

“PFFT! hehehe! You still have to go! I’m dying of laughter! You Can’t get in without tickets!” At this moment, Peng Caihui’s voice came from behind.

“Peng Caihui, are you really bullying the little beauty like this? hehehe!” At this moment, a boy who was in Peng Caihui’s class laughed loudly. He even looked at Yun Jian with a different gaze.

Just when Peng Caihui and the others thought that Yun Jian would definitely not be able to enter the stadium, they saw Yun Jian standing at the other side of the entrance guard of the stadium. Then, he said something to the guard in front of everyone.

The next second, the guard nodded at Yun Jian and agreed to let Yun Jian enter the stadium.

Finally, Yun Jian waved at Lin Wan under everyone’s eyes. The two of them flashed into the stadium.

This scene directly shocked Peng Caihui and the others silly.

Chapter 1499: was going backstage to look for Yao Lili

Seeing Yun Jian walking into the stadium without a ticket, Peng Caihui and the others were dumbfounded.

Especially Peng Caihui and the girl who had mocked Yun Jian with Peng Caihui. The two of them were dumbfounded, as if they had seen something incredible.

“Why... Why did they go in? Didn’t they not have tickets?” The boy who had shouted for Yun Jian’s little beauty pointed at Yun Jian and Lin Wan’s departing figures with his slender fingers and asked Peng Caihui.

Peng Caihui naturally could not answer. How would she know what Yun Jian had said to the guard? Furthermore, Yun Jian and Lin Wan had walked into the stadium after saying that?

“How would I know! HMPH, if you can enter without a ticket, then return the ticket to me! I’m so angry!”

Once Peng Caihui got angry, she snorted at the crowd and threatened them with the tickets.

The group of people who came with Peng Caihui were all boys and girls from the Military Academy. Both of them were strong-willed people, but these few days, it was the concert of the international superstar Yao Lili. They really wanted to see the splendor of the International Superstar.

Therefore, when Peng Caihui threatened them, the people present naturally had to accept it first.

“Humph! She went in, we also went in!” Peng Caihui’s eyeballs glared fiercely at Yun Jian and Lin Wan who had already entered the stadium. After she angrily said this, she led everyone into the stadium with tickets.

On the other side, Yun Jian and Lin Wan had already entered the stadium.

The concert would be held in the stadium, and there were still two hours left.

Two hours later, the superstar Yao Lili had yet to arrive. Usually, the audience would enter the stadium two hours early. Because the stadium was too big and there were too many people, the audience had to enter at least two hours early, after all the audience members were seated, the superstar would go on stage.

Yun Jian and Lin Wan had just entered the stadium when Lin Wan asked Yun Jian in surprise, “Yun Jian, didn’t we not have tickets? Why did the security let us in?”

Just as Lin Wan finished asking, Yun Jian replied, “I said we were logistics personnel.”

“Logistics? US?” Lin Wan pointed at herself and asked in surprise.

“Yes.” Yun Jian nodded slightly.

Just as he finished answering Lin Wan, Peng Caihui’s voice came from behind, “Hey! Wait! Stop right there!”

“Ha, didn’t you hear what I said? I told you to stop!” Seeing that Yun Jian and Lin Wan completely ignored her., peng Caihui was angry. She gritted her teeth and shouted. Then, she ran up with a group of people and blocked Yun Jian’s way.

“How did you get in?” Peng Caihui glanced at Yun Jian and said in a tone that Yun Jian had to report to her.

“Why are you ignoring me? You are so rude! Hey! What are you doing over there?” Peng Caihui shouted when she saw Yun Jian ignoring her.

“Hey, pretty girl, that’s the backstage area for the concert. If you go over there, the staff will chase you out,” a boy said kindly.

“Yeah, Wanwan, call your friend. Don’t let your friend go in again. That’s the backstage area for the concert,” ye Qiao said to Yun Jian.

Just as she said that, she heard Yun Jian's voice. Yun Jian's words stunned everyone present:

"I'm going to look for that damn woman Yao Lili."

Chapter 1500: My Vision: Live to 100

Yao Lili? She's going to look for that dead woman, Yao Lili?

Yun Jian's words shocked everyone present.

"Do you know superstar Yao Lili?" The pretty boy who called Yun Jian said in surprise when he saw Yun Jian.

Yao Lili was an international superstar, and this was also the first time that Yao Lili had rushed to Z country from abroad to hold a concert. Therefore, the scene was quite sensational. Some fans even rushed to min city from far away provinces, just to see Yao Lili.

As soon as the boy spoke, the people around all turned their eyes to Yun Jian.

After all, for people like Yao Lili, who was an international superstar, even if they could see her at a concert, they would feel extremely honored.

As for Yun Jian...

She actually said that she was going to look for that damn woman, Yao Lili?

Could it be that she knew Yao Lili?

"It was a fluke that you snuck in without a ticket at the entrance just now, and now you're taking advantage of me?" The superstar Yao Lili was a foreigner. It was her first time in our Z country, and she even held such a large-scale concert. How could she know a country bumpkin like you!

"If Yao Lili knew you, I would say that she's my relative! Ha, she really treats herself like a human!"

Peng Caihui was a very jealous woman. As long as she targeted someone, she would do her best to target them. No matter what that person did, no matter if she did good or bad things, she hated them all.

"When that damn woman first came to Z country, you should still be in your mother's womb." Yun Jian ignored what Peng Caihui said before. She glanced sideways at Peng Caihui and left this sentence before walking backstage at the concert.

"Yun Jian, can we really enter the backstage of the concert?" Lin Wan asked very expectantly and cautiously.

Usually, there were staff members guarding the backstage of the concert. It was not that the staff did not allow them to enter.

"Of course... No." Yun Jian curved his lips slightly. Just when Lin Wan thought that she would definitely say that they could enter, she suddenly spoke.

The backstage of the concert was indeed guarded more strictly, so Yun Jian and Lin Wan were unable to enter.

Of course, Yun Jian did not force her to enter the backstage of the concert. If Yun Jian insisted on entering, she would probably be able to rush in even if the sky collapsed.

The reason why she was not entering the backstage of the concert was because Yao Lili was not there yet. Yun Jian was not stupid either. She naturally knew that celebrities usually appeared last.

It was not too late to sneak into the backstage after Yao Lili finished her concert.

At this moment, Yun Jian and Lin Wan randomly found a bench and sat down.

It was true that they needed tickets to enter the stadium, but as long as they entered the stadium, they could take their seats at will. Those who came late could only stand.

In other words, it was generally first come, first served.

Yun Jian and Lin Wan randomly found a seat and sat down. Peng Caihui also ran over with a group of people.

Then, Peng Caihui and the others sat next to Yun Jian.

The reason why Peng Caihui sat next to Yun Jian was to mock Yun Jian.

She felt that what happened just now was too infuriating, so she chased over to mock Yun Jian.

Seeing that there was no one on the surrounding benches, Peng Caihui sat in the front row of Yun Jian's seat. She turned her head to look at Yun Jian and said to Yun Jian in front of everyone,

"I told you, you can't get into the backstage of the concert. You also said that you know Yao Lili. If you knew Yao Lili, you wouldn't be able to get into the backstage of the Concert!"

Peng Caihui chased after Yun Jian to make him admit that he didn't know Yao Lili, or to give in to her.

After all, in front of so many classmates, especially when there were male classmates around, if Yun Jian gave in to her, it would make Peng Caihui feel even more powerful and full of self-esteem.

Peng Caihui felt that Yun Jian should have apologized to her at this moment.

But what she did not expect was that Yun Jian only left her one sentence: "Leave my sight, and you will live to be a hundred years old."

If not? Hearing Yun Jian's words, the surrounding boys and girls were stunned.
