

Schoolgirl 1581

Chapter 1581: The account of the person in was called SS

Hearing Hang Zijie's words, Yun Jian only slightly curved his lips and did not reply.

"Brother Zijie, I think she has most likely never touched a laptop before. At most, she has touched two laptops in school," the young girl said again.

"Duo duo, don't say that." Hang Zijie restrained the young girl's words.

This girl's name was Wang Duo. From her looks, she was about a year younger than Yun Jian and around 15 years old.

Hang Zijie and Wang Duo's families were not poor, especially Hang Zijie's family.

Just think about it. Since Hang Zijie could afford a laptop, it could be seen from this that Hang Zijie's family was definitely not too poor.

"I'm just telling the truth." Wang Duo glanced at Hang Zijie and said innocently.

"Oh right, Zihang, doesn't your brother know how to hack? I heard that two years ago, he used a computer to hack into the technical department of a large company and was reported to have been imprisoned for half a year. How is he doing now?"

The guy sitting next to Hang Zijie asked. As he asked, he also glanced at Yun Jian from the corner of his eye.

Boys at their prime had a common problem — they liked to show off in front of girls.

The boy sitting next to Hang Zijie was called Duan Chengxuan. He was tall and strong, with a lean body. His appearance was not bad, and he looked like a delicate and handsome teenager.

Seeing that his brother was so cooperative with him.., Hang Zijie smiled slightly and said, "My brother, he's just like that. Now that he's out of prison, he's going to work in a large company. He doesn't dare to defame the technology department of other companies anymore, lest he gets arrested and goes to jail again."

The topic of conversation among the young boys and girls was mainly about curiosity.

Whoever said something that was strange would be the most successful in showing off.

Take Hang Zijie for example. Not only did Hang Zijie think that his brother was a hacker, but others thought that it was unheard of and that was why he was amazing.

More importantly, he even felt that his brother had been in jail before and was different from others. This was something that was very worth showing off about.

"Your brother has been in prison before?" As expected, the moment Hang Zijie finished speaking, another girl beside him asked curiously.

Hang Zijie spoke to the other girls again before turning to glance at the cloud note.

However, there was no movement from the cloud note at all. He couldn't help but feel a little suspicious.

Why was she like the other girls? wasn't she curious and surprised? Shouldn't she chase after him and ask him all kinds of questions?

"Wow, I suddenly feel that hackers are so powerful. Brother Zijie, you should learn from your brother and learn all his hacking skills! It sounds so cool!" Wang duo said with admiration.

Yun Jian pursed his lips but still didn't make a sound.

"Yeah, I really want to know who is the most powerful hacker in the world," Duan Chengxuan, who was sitting next to him, added. His eyes were shining.

"I asked my brother about this question. My brother told me about it!" Hang Zijie said exaggeratedly.

"Who is it?" At this moment, all the young men and women looked over. Everyone wanted to know the answer to this question.

"Yunjian, do you know?" Hang Zijie saw that Yunjian simply closed his eyes. He was unwilling that Yunjian was not surprised by his words, so he asked another question.

"I don't know." Yun Jian directly replied with three words.

"My brother said that the person who is the best at hacking is called SS, but no one knows who she is. No one can find out her background. I think she should be a very powerful hermit expert!"

Hang Zijie said proudly. His words were showing off, as if the person he was talking about was him.

"Wow? Really? Is He that good?" The boys and girls beside him exclaimed.

"Of course! My Brother is good, right? He said he can't even compare to one-thousandth of that account called SS!

"And I heard that the account called SS once broke into the national defense systems of countless countries. His hacking skills were so cool that they exploded. He even directly disintegrated the armed systems of a big country in just a few minutes!

"I heard that the armed systems of that large country directly collapsed! No matter how those elites from the technical departments did it, they were unable to adjust it back! In the end, they still sent a message to SS requesting for SS to cancel the system attack on them. Only then did they manage to undo the system attack on SS!"

Chapter 1582: was bundled together, operating system

"This person called SS is so powerful..." people around immediately exclaimed, especially Wang Duo and Duan Chengxuan, who had just helped hang Zijie show off their brother's abilities. Now, they were covering their mouths and shouting exaggeratedly.

Girls or boys like Wang Duo and Duan Chengxuan liked to make a fuss whenever they encountered something.

Hacker was a new term that people came into contact with.

In the past, when the internet was not developed, hackers naturally did not exist.

Now, with the development of the Internet, the term hacker gradually appeared in people's eyes.

"Yes, in the world of hackers, the strength of SS has reached a level that no one can surpass. My Brother said that the few people with the best hacking skills once joined forces to try to break the SS system and find out the true face of SS. Guess what happened in the end?"

When Hang Zijie saw that Yun Jian had closed his eyes earlier and opened them now, he thought that Yun Jian must be interested in what he had to say, so he spoke even more energetically.

For a guy like Hang Zijie, to be able to show off in front of a beautiful girl and make the other party feel that he was very powerful was a very fulfilling thing.

However, Yun Jian only opened her eyes and did not say anything.

She even slightly raised her red lips and did not say anything.

"What happened next? Aiya, Brother Zijie, only you know the result here. Don't keep us guessing!"

When Wang Duo Heard Hang Zijie's words, she instantly felt very proud of her good relationship with Hang Zijie. She spoke in a slightly coquettish tone.

"In the end, those top-notch hackers who had just joined hands were directly blocked by the SS operating system in less than 30 seconds. Even the computer screen went black!

"They are top-notch hackers! They are professionals. Logically speaking, they should be able to break the seal of the SS. In the end, the strength of the SS is many times stronger than them! They can't retaliate at all..."

As Hang Zijie spoke, he paid attention to the reactions of the girls around him. However, the girls around him widened their eyes in shock, and some of them even cried out.

His self-esteem was greatly satisfied.

"Oh right, my brother will be here in the afternoon. I can ask my brother to show you his hacking skills,"hang Zijie added.

Hearing this, the boys and girls around instantly felt their blood boil.

Only Yun Jian was sitting at the same spot. He narrowed his eyes and raised his red lips.

"What hacking? I don't even understand. All of you kids are really smart. The people in my generation can't understand these new things at all! Only you kids can learn it in one go!"

Qin Yirou glanced at the computer in hang Zijie's hand and sighed.

However, no one paid attention to her after she said that.

"Mom, if you want to study computers, I can teach you,"yun Jian said to Qin Yirou after listening to Qin Yirou's words.

“Sure, Mom has to follow the trend too, Haha.” Qin Yirou accepted Yun Jian’s words happily.

Qin Yirou was not the kind of person who was inflexible. She was willing to accept things of the new era, which was perhaps different from some parents.

“You have a laptop at home! ?”

“You know how to play with a computer! ?”

Unexpectedly, just as Yun Jian and Qin Yirou finished speaking, Hang Zijie and Wang Duo’s exclamations came from the side.

Duan Chengxuan and the other people around Yun Jian’s age also looked at Yun Jian.

Everyone was slightly surprised.

After all, in this era, there were not many people who could afford computers.

Hang Zijie’s family was one of the best in Pudong.

“There are three or four computers at home, but they are all useless. Aunty may be old, but she still wants to learn. After buying these computers, I don’t want to waste them.” Qin Yirou smiled at everyone.

Those computers were all bought by Yun Jian. Three or four computers were used to bind all the computer systems together, operate the programs, and perform top-notch hacking operations.

However, when the surrounding people heard Qin Yirou’s words, they were suddenly stunned.

Yun Jian had three or four computers at home! ?

So... rich..

Chapter 1583: was locked directly. The screen went black for three seconds (1,400 + words)

Qin Yirou’s unintentional words made Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, Duan Chengxuan, and the others a little surprised.

After all, among the group of people present, only Hang Zijie’s family could afford a laptop.

In this day and age, material life was not guaranteed, not to mention spending this money to buy a computer and enjoy life extravagantly.

Hang Zijie’s family background was one of the best in Pudong. It was not surprising that he could afford to buy a laptop, which was considered high-tech and extravagant in this era.

However, Yun Jian and Qin Yirou were dressed well today. Qin Yirou even chose the most expensive one of all her clothes to change into.

After all, she was here to see her sister, Qin Fangfang. Qin Yirou naturally could not lose face for Qin Fangfang’s family.

Therefore, when Hang Zijie and the others saw the way Qin Yirou and Yun Jian dressed, they could accept the fact that Yun Jian had three or four computers at home.

“Oh right, Brother Zijie... didn't you say that your brother was going to open an internet cafe in the future?” Wang Duo, who was at the side, glared at Yun Jian. She was a little unconvinced, so she opened her mouth to say something to hang Zijie.

“Open an internet cafe? How many computers would that cost? It would cost a lot of money, right...” a middle-aged woman in her forties heard Wang Duo's words and said in shock.

The people present were usually from the countryside, and their families were not rich.

This middle-aged woman knew the price of a computer. When Wang Duo said that Hang Zijie's brother was going to open an internet cafe, she could not help but say something.

Seeing that everyone was looking at him, Hang Zijie took a look at Yun Jian, who had closed his eyes again. He swallowed his saliva and continued to say in a slightly boastful tone, “My brother doesn't want to rely on the funds given by his parents to start a business. He wants to rely on his own strength...”

Before Hang Zijie could finish his words, a 25-year-old man with a rather handsome appearance walked in from the door of Zhu Hengxiang's house. He was about 1.79 meters tall and had a lean appearance.

This man looked 90% similar to hang Zijie. As soon as the man entered the front door, his good looks attracted the attention of a few girls sitting on the sofa beside Yun Jian.

“Wow! So handsome!”

“Oh my God, that man looks very similar to you. Hang Zijie, he is your hacker brother, right?”

Seeing Hang Zijie's brother, the girls sitting beside Yun Jian asked Hang Zijie excitedly.

“Brother!” Seeing the girls around him getting excited when they saw his brother, Hang Zijie was very proud. He stood up from the sofa and walked over to welcome him.

Yun Jian's eyes, which had just closed, opened slightly, but she still didn't make a sound.

“This is my brother, Hang Ziliang. My Brother's hacking skills are very impressive! I can show it to you now!” Glancing at Yun Jian who opened his eyes, Hang Zijie said more and more enthusiastically.

Sure enough, his brother was the best way to show off!

“Wow! A hacker! I always thought that hackers were people that we would never come into contact with! I didn't expect that I could actually see a real hacker!” Someone exclaimed in surprise.

Hang Ziliang did not need to say anything to know what had happened. He smiled at the crowd without losing his poise and then greeted, “Hello, everyone!”

“Brother! Come over quickly! Show us your hacking skills!” Hang Zijie pulled hang Ziliang over to his laptop and said as he stuffed it into hang Ziliang's hands.

“What do you want to see?” Hang Ziliang did not beat around the bush. He sat down and said.

“Look, the kid over there is using a computer to play games. Do you have a way to make him black out?” A girl suggested.

Zhu Hengxiang's family was quite rich. There were several computers beside the living room, so it was not surprising for everyone.

At this moment, a little brother was sitting in front of the computer and playing games crazily.

"What's so difficult about that?" Hang Ziliang smiled slightly and started to operate the laptop in his hand.

He first downloaded a Trojan horse software and then operated it...

Hang Ziliang operated it for a full ten minutes before he opened the operating system.

Then, he began to use the system to search for the computer's ID address, use the port scanner to determine which ports the other party had opened, and analyze the operating system the other party used.

"Are you done?" Someone could not wait to see the results.

"Wait for me a little longer," Hang Ziliang said. As he spoke, there were fine beads of sweat on his forehead.

It had taken him half a year to hack the technical department of that company.

Just this program would take at least half an hour to an hour to complete.

"You can first check the other party's ID and address, lock it directly, and hack the other party's screen in three seconds." Just as Hang Ziliang's forehead was about to break out in cold sweat, a female voice rang out clearly.

Chapter 1584: I know a thing or two about my computer

When the female voice rang out, everyone around was shocked. Then, they followed the source of the female voice and looked over.

They saw Yun Jian lazily resting her hands on the back of her head. She leaned back on the sofa and gently pursed her lips as she said what she had just said.

"You..." Hang Ziliang temporarily put down the operation in her hands and looked at Yun Jian in surprise.

However, before Hang Ziliang could speak, Hang Ziliang's younger brother, Hang Zijie, had already said to Yun Jian in surprise, "Yun Jian, do you also know hacking skills!?"

Just as Hang Zijie finished speaking, the surrounding people turned their gazes to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian also knew hacking skills?

Hang Zijie's older brother, Hang Ziliang, had learned hacking skills for nearly ten years. He had started learning from the age of fifteen before he had such a result today.

As for Yun Jian? From her tone, it sounded like she knew hacking techniques. However, if she really knew hacking techniques, how old was she when she started learning it?

Five years old? Six years old?

PFFT! If Yun Jian really started learning hacking techniques at the age of five or six, even a fool would be able to strip!

Everyone was waiting for Yun Jian's explanation.

On the contrary, Qin Yirou was not that surprised. She knew that her daughter was the chairman of the new Start Company. She usually had a lot of contact with computers, so it was not strange for her to know some hacking techniques.

That's right, Qin Yirou thought that she knew hacking skills just because she knew how to play with computers. She did not know the difference between playing with computers and playing with hacking skills.

This could not be blamed on Qin Yirou. Women in this era generally would not come into contact with computers.

In other words, even if she had a computer at home, Qin Yirou would not know how to play with it.

Just as the people around were looking at her, Yun Jian was still sitting lazily in her original spot. She replied indifferently, "I know a little bit."

If those people on the international scene knew that SS actually had the cheek to say that she only knew a little about hacking in front of a large group of people, those people would probably be so angry that they would vomit blood.

What did she mean by knowing a little?

Yes, she knew a little about hacking. As soon as she started, she broke into the defense digital system of a large country. In the end, she even forced the other party to beg her for mercy and request to retreat from the attacking system.

"So you also know a thing or two about hacker operating techniques." Hang Ziliang's manipulation of the computer system in his hands was getting more and more shaky. At this moment, he might as well put down the laptop in his hands and said to Yun Jian.

Hang Ziliang was already sweating all over. He locked onto a computer and turned the other party's screen black. It would take at least half an hour to an hour of operation time.

But what Yun Jian said just now made Hang Ziliang a little surprised.

Three Seconds of operation and he could hack the screen over there. This... ? ... Is this for real?

To be able to hack the computer screen that the child was playing on in three seconds, only the legendary SS could do it, right?

The little sister sitting opposite him was probably bragging to him, right?

Hang Ziliang was a little displeased.

"Little sister, you're amazing. Why Don't you give us a demonstration?" Hang Ziliang exited all the system programs and handed the computer to Yun Jian.

Hang Ziliang looked as if he was saying to Yun Jian, 'If you can do it, then give it a try'.

But in reality, what Yun Jian said just now made Hang Ziliang a little disgusted.

No one liked to be supported by someone who was weak, especially when he, Hang Ziliang, was a man who stood tall and strong!

"There's no need to bring the computer over." Yun Jian's eyes moved slightly. She still put her hand behind her head and said to Hang Ziliang.

Hearing Yun Jian's words, Hang Ziliang could not help but twitch the corner of his mouth.

The people around, including Hang Ziliang, were secretly complaining in their hearts. Yun Jian definitely did not know anything and still pretended to know.

However, just when everyone thought that the cloud paper was pretending to know something, the cloud paper suddenly leaned forward. She reached out and pressed five keys on the computer that Hang Ziliang was about to pass over.

It only took three seconds.

Three seconds later, everyone present heard the child who was playing the game suddenly shout, "Ah! Why is my computer stuck? Mommy! Mommy! I want to play the computer! Quickly fix it!"

Chapter 1585: the computer explodes

"Mom! Mom! My computer is broken! I want to play games! I want to play games! Quickly fix it! I'm so angry!"

The little boy sitting in front of the computer was so angry that he smashed the keyboard and roared at the woman who had just played the game.

It was the most intolerable thing to be interrupted in the middle of playing games.

Especially for a child who had become a gamer, the thing he hated the most was when his computer suddenly went black in the middle of a game.

When the little boy roared, the adults next to him immediately ran over.

Obviously, this little boy was a baby in the hands of his family.

"Baby, What's wrong? What's Wrong?" The Little Boy's mother hurriedly ran over.

"Computer! The computer is stuck! Quickly fix it! I want to play!" Just as the little boy pointed at the computer screen and spoke to his mother, the computer screen had already recovered from the black screen.

"Oh my little baby, don't tell me you have a fever." The mother was so scared that she quickly pressed her lips against the little boy's forehead and used her lips to feel the temperature of the little boy's body.

Not far away, Yun Jian had just retracted his hand from the keyboard of the laptop.

The people sitting around maintained their usual dumbfounded expressions. They watched with their own eyes as Yun Jian typed five times on the keyboard of the laptop. In three seconds, the screen of the Little Boy's laptop went black.

Then, Yun Jian pressed twice on the laptop, and the computer of the little boy returned to normal.

"This... this... how can you use such a fast speed to find the other party's computer ID address and directly black out the screen?"?

"I've been on this path for so long, but I've never seen anyone whose hand speed can be compared to yours!" Hang Ziliang was scared silly. He looked at the cloud note in a daze and said these few words in a daze.

These two sentences that Hang Ziliang said were professional words, so the people around didn't really understand it.

As soon as Hang Ziliang said this, Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, Duan Chengxuan, and the others who were sitting around all took a deep breath.

"Brother, can you not do what she did just now?" Hang Zijie turned his head to look at his brother, whom he admired very much, and asked.

Could his brother not be able to hack a computer screen as quickly as Yun Jian?

Yun Jian's actions just now were simply too cool!

Just as Hang Zijie finished speaking, the surrounding people turned their eyes to Hang Ziliang.

Laymen might not understand, but Hang Ziliang was an expert. Moreover, Hang Ziliang was very powerful. He had once hacked the technical department of a large company!

Therefore, everyone present was waiting for Hang Ziliang's evaluation of Yun Jian.

"Brother Ziliang, you must be able to do what she did just now, right?" Wang Duo was not convinced after seeing Yun Jian's performance just now. Therefore, she looked at Hang Ziliang and said intimately.

The people around also thought so. Hang Ziliang was such a powerful figure. How could he not be better than a little girl like Yun Jian?

Seeing the people around him looking at him, Hang Ziliang gave a bitter laugh. Then, he shook his head at the crowd and did not struggle:

"It seems that I only know a little about hacker operating techniques. With that technique of hers just now, I think I will never be able to surpass it in my lifetime."

"I have heard about her operating techniques just now from my mentor. The difficulty factor is very high. Just now, she remotely controlled a computer to black out. This is still alright, but if it was a large-scale hacker-to-hacker war, the slightest carelessness might even ignite her own mainframe. The computer might even explode!"

Hang Zi Liang's words were imprinted in the hearts of everyone present. For a moment, the surroundings were extremely quiet.

The method used to operate the cloud note just now was actually so dangerous!

Chapter 1586: imprisoned Aunt Qin Fang

"Is... is it really that dangerous? It Can't be a lie!" Wang duo swallowed hard and spat out these words.

It was just controlling a computer. If it failed, would the computer explode?

This wasn't acting in a sci-fi Movie!

"Wang Duo, do you not believe my brother's words! ?" Hang Zijie regarded his brother, Hang Ziliang, as someone he worshipped. When he heard Wang duo question his brother's words, Hang Zijie immediately roared.

Wang Duo was yelled at by Hang Zijie. She curled her lips and didn't say anything.

Yun Jian sat on the sofa. She narrowed her eyes slightly and didn't say anything else.

"Strange, why isn't Your Aunt Back Yet? Why don't I call her to hurry her up?" Qin Yirou sat beside Yun Jian and asked suspiciously. Then, she flipped open her phone and dialed the number.

"Since aunt is sick, why does she still want to go out?" Yun Jian pointed out everything.

Qin Fangfang was sick, why did she still want to go out shopping with her husband, Sun Baiwen?

Shouldn't sick people stay at home or lie on the bed to rest.

Hearing Yun Jian's words, Qin Yirou's right eyelid twitched slightly. She hurriedly called Qin Fangfang's phone.

"Du du du — du Du du —"

At this moment, a ringtone came from the hall.

Qin Yirou turned around in surprise and saw Qin Fangfang's mother-in-law, Zhu Hengxiang, hurriedly taking out Qin Fangfang's phone from her pocket and pressing the hang-up button.

This time, Qin Yirou really felt that something was wrong. She quickly stood up and walked towards Zhu Hengxiang.

However, when she was about three meters away from Zhu Hengxiang, Qin Yirou stopped and asked Zhu Hengxiang, "Why is my sister's phone with you?"

The Moment Qin Yirou stood up, Yun Jian also walked over.

When Zhu Hengxiang heard this, she was so scared that she almost tripped.

In the past, when Zhu Hengxiang appeared in front of Qin Yirou, she would always act like an old lady. Her arrogance was so high that her nostrils almost reached the sky.

However, when they first met today, Zhu Hengxiang did not put on any airs.

“Didn’t she go out with Bai Wen? She will be back soon. She asked me to leave her phone...”

Zhu Hengxiang’s eyeballs spun even more violently. Just as she said this, a disheveled figure rushed out from the spiral staircase.

This person’s hair was messy, and his long hair swayed casually. There were red marks on his hands and feet that had been strangled by iron chains.

The moment this person appeared, the surrounding people were shocked, and Zhu Hengxiang’s expression changed drastically? Why did she come out! ! ? wasn’t she locked up properly! !

However, the person raised her head and revealed a face that was still considered young and well-maintained.

It was Qin Fangfang.

“Sister! Sister! She’s talking nonsense! She’s lying to you all! They’ve been keeping me in prison so that I won’t tell anyone about my family’s dirty laundry!

“Two months ago, I found out that Sun Baiwen, that son of a B * TCH, was having an affair! I want a divorce with Sun Baiwen! They were afraid that this matter would blow up too big and affect the aristocratic families like them too much, so they locked me up with iron chains, preventing me from leaving!

“Save me! Save Me!”

Qin Fangfang was very smart. After she was imprisoned by her mother-in-law, seeing that she couldn’t escape, she secretly untied the chains, but no one noticed.

This time, she heard Qin Yirou’s voice, so Qin Fangfang rushed out to ask for help.

“You... you’re talking nonsense! How could my Bai Wen Cheat? You’re clearly the one who doesn’t follow the rules of womanhood!” After being discovered, Zhu Hengxiang still refused to admit it.

“My Daughter! You’re a poisonous woman! A poisonous woman!” Zhang Meihua had already screamed and rushed towards Zhu Hengxiang.

Zhu Hengxiang was at a disadvantage in the argument. However, she immediately used the most vicious words to insult Qin Fangfang and stopped pretending:

“Bah! She is just a hen who doesn’t know how to lay eggs. So what if my son has a woman outside? It’s all because your daughter doesn’t know how to lay eggs! Someone in our Sun family has to continue the family fortune...”

The family scandal did not want Qin Fangfang to spread. That was the reason why she imprisoned Qin Fangfang.

Yun Jian’s heart tightened when he saw Qin Yirou crying when she saw Qin Fangfang like this.

In the next second, under everyone’s watchful eyes, Yun Jian rushed in front of Zhu Hengxiang who was fighting with Zhang Meihua without saying a word. He grabbed Zhu Hengxiang and threw her to the ground with a slap, then, he grabbed Zhu Hengxiang’s collar and lifted her up.

Yun Jian forced Zhu Hengxiang to look at him. She sneered and said, "Old Woman, you're Dead!"

Chapter 1587: One slash, and you will die

The people around were frightened by the sudden turn of events.

What was going on?

Why was Zhu Hengxiang's daughter-in-law, Qin Fangfang, imprisoned by Zhu Hengxiang? What was going on?

The people who came today were Zhu Hengxiang's relatives and friends. Zhu Hengxiang's relatives and friends even brought their children here. That was why Hang Zijie and Wang Duo, who were about the same age as Yun Jian, were here.

However, no one present had expected such a scene to happen.

Zhu Hengxiang had actually imprisoned her daughter-in-law?

Moreover, according to Zhu Hengxiang's daughter-in-law, Qin Fangfang, it was because Zhu Hengxiang's son, Sun Baiwen, had cheated on her. After Qin Fangfang found out about it, she filed for divorce.

Then, Zhu Hengxiang was afraid that the scandal would spread. After all, a wealthy family like Zhu Hengxiang could not tolerate the slightest scandal.

Therefore, Zhu Hengxiang imprisoned Qin Fangfang. Her purpose was to prevent her from getting a divorce.

Zhu Hengxiang's own son cheated on her, but she did not agree to the divorce between Qin Fangfang and her son. Instead, she even said that her son cheated on her. She scolded Qin Fangfang for being a hen that could not lay eggs, and that someone from the Sun family had to inherit the family property.

The surrounding people were terrified when they heard this. They were glad that they had nothing to do with the Sun family.

However, what surprised the surrounding people even more was not this, but...

Yun Zhi, who looked so thin and weak that she did not have any strength, actually walked over and slapped Zhu Heng Xiang to the ground?

The hacking skills that Yun Zhi displayed just now had already stunned Hang Ziliang, Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, Duan Chengxuan, and the others.

Now, Yun Zhi's move had simply made their eyes widen in surprise.

Wasn't she a frail little girl? How could she have such strength? !

Moreover, she even said to Zhu Hengxiang, "Old Woman, you're dead".

"Hey, Hey, hey, Hengxiang, what's going on? What does your son have an affair? What's going on? ! Your son usually looks like an honest and honest person, why would he have an affair? !"

An old woman who was very gossipy walked over. She frowned and asked as she walked over.

Qin Fangfang's husband, Sun Baiwen, was a more honest and honest person.

However, once a person had money, they would change.

Especially since Qin Fangfang had been married to Sun Baiwen for so many years, her stomach did not make any sound.

As her mother-in-law, Zhu Hengxiang wished that Qin Fangfang, a hen who could not lay eggs, would get out of her house.

However, if Sun Baiwen was divorced from a wealthy family, not only would it be unpleasant to hear, but it would also affect the business.

The Sun family ran a car marketing company, and at the same time, they were working with others. Reputation was very important to the Sun family.

Therefore, even though they had imprisoned Qin Fangfang, Zhu Hengxiang wouldn't let go.

However, she didn't expect Qin Fangfang to seize the opportunity and escape from the room.

"I was really blind. Back then, I followed Sun Baiwen! I thought that although your sun family was rich, at least they would not look down on others! I was wrong about you! Sun Baiwen is a bastard! This marriage must be divorced!"

Qin Fangfang was a very powerful woman. She was innocent, bitter, and uncomfortable, but she did not show it on her face. Instead, she roared at Zhu Hengxiang and even rushed in front of her to give her a few slaps.

Because Zhu Hengxiang was suppressed by the cloud tablet, she could not move. She could only use vicious words to retaliate against Qin Fangfang.

For a moment, the emotions at the scene were extremely difficult to control.

"If you want to leave, then leave. Do you think that the Sun family is so easy to bully? Since you married into our Sun family, you have to live on no matter what! Isn't my son just trying to have an heir? What's wrong with him?!"

"If you can't have a child, he'll find a woman to have a child with. What's wrong with him? ! It's not like I'm asking you to give up the position of his wife! What era is it now?!"

"Do you have to be so calculative? ! So many people want to be the daughter-in-law of the Sun family. Just Be Content!"

Zhu Hengxiang's scolding voice became more and more unpleasant.

However, just when the people around were disturbed by this argument and did not dare to make a sound, afraid that they would be implicated, Yun Jian slapped Zhu Hengxiang again and threw her to the ground. She flipped her hand and a butterfly knife appeared in her hand.

The knife landed on the corner of Zhu Hengxiang's clothes under the horrified eyes of the people around her. It actually pierced through the corner of Zhu Hengxiang's clothes. However, with the rebound force from the ground, the knife bounced back into Yun Jian's hand.

Yun Jian held the butterfly knife. His face was expressionless, but his eyes were cold. He looked at Zhu Hengxiang like the god of death had descended. Under the eyes of the people around him, he calmly said something that made people's hair stand on end:

"I don't care if your son cheated on you or not. I only know that you have illegally imprisoned my aunt. Old Woman, if you dare to say another word of nonsense, I will kill you with one strike!"

Chapter 1588: Sun Baiwen, the mistress

Yun Jian had always been protective of her shortcomings.

What respect for the old and love for the young did not exist in her world.

She was not a good person or a saint.

What happened to Zhu Hengxiang and whether Zhu Hengxiang's son, Sun Baiwen, had cheated on her had nothing to do with her.

However, Zhu Hengxiang had imprisoned Qin Fangfang. Looking at the injuries all over Qin Fangfang's body, her wrists and ankles were branded with red marks that were obviously caused by the chains, Qin Yirou covered her chest in discomfort, unable to speak.

Even if it was not for Qin Fangfang, Yun Jian knew that if he did not make a move, Qin Yirou would definitely not pretend that she did not see it.

If Qin Yirou were to face a shrew like Zhu Hengxiang, she definitely would not have the upper hand. Therefore, Yun Jian naturally would not sit idly by.

In the distance, Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, Duan Chengxuan, and the people who were watching the show but did not dare to make a sound saw that Yun Jian actually carried a knife with him. They were so frightened that their faces changed!

She actually carried a knife with her! Was she prepared to fight at any time? !

Moreover, looking at her skilled appearance, it was obviously not the first time she had done this.

"Even if something like this happens, it's still an adult's matter. What's a child like her doing? ! And she's even swinging that broken knife. She thinks she can swing the knife twice. She's really amazing!"

Standing in the distance, Wang Duo, who was standing beside Hang Zijie, saw Yun Jian gently swing the butterfly knife twice. Her heart was filled with envy and jealousy.

If she knew how to swing a knife, then she would be the one being watched by everyone right now.

It was precisely because of her jealousy that Wang Duo said this sentence.

Wang Duo's words did not receive any response.

On the other side, the people around were already scared silly by the way Yun Jian took out the butterfly knife. It was none other than Zhu Hengxiang.

Zhu Hengxiang was an old woman who was afraid of death. She had never thought about death when she quarreled with Qin Fangfang.

Therefore, when she saw Yun Jian taking out the butterfly knife and poking the corner of her clothes with it, and then catching it with the force of the butterfly knife, Zhu Hengxiang was the closest to Yun Jian. Seeing this, she was so scared that her face changed color.

“You... How dare you! How dare you kill me in public! ? Call the police! Call the police for me! Call the police! Call the police to save her!”

Zhu Hengxiang lay on her side on the ground. She used her elbow to support herself on the ground and looked at Yun Jian in fear, asking for help from the people around her.

Perhaps Zhu Hengxiang had forgotten one thing. She had imprisoned Qin Fangfang for two months and had made her look like a ghost. What Zhu Hengxiang had done was illegal.

The surrounding people did not dare to move.

“I’m going to kill you! Zhu Hengxiang, I, Qin Fangfang, have been married to your family for so many years. Ever since Sun Baiwen was not as rich as he is now, I’ve been following him.

“But what about you guys! How dare you treat me like this! I, Qin Fangfang, can’t Take It! I want a divorce! But you guys are imprisoning me! Call the police, right? I don’t need you to call the police! I’ll call the police! I’m going to sue you guys for imprisoning me!”

Qin Fangfang gritted her teeth and forced herself not to cry. She wanted to use the most rational and legal means to protect herself.

But before that, she wanted to return the humiliation she had suffered on Zhu Hengxiang!

Qin Fangfang walked over and raised her hand. Just as she was about to slap Zhu Hengxiang in the face, an angry voice came from the main door, “Qin Fangfang! How dare you! How dare you fight against my mother!”

It was Sun Baiwen, Qin Fangfang’s honest-looking husband.

After Sun Baiwen finished shouting, he held a young woman in his hand and walked over to Qin Fangfang while shouting at her.

This young woman was Sun Baiwen’s cheating partner, commonly known as the mistress.

At this moment, the mistress, who was wearing fashionable clothes, was looking up and glancing at Qin Fangfang with a smug look.

It was as if she was provoking Qin Fangfang.

It was obvious that Sun Baiwen’s infidelity was a foregone conclusion.

Most importantly, he even dared to bring the mistress home!

Qin Fangfang was furious. Fortunately, Qin Yiruo hugged her and comforted her, not doing anything rash.

At this moment, Zhu Hengxiang suddenly got up from the ground. She stood up and immediately tried to pounce on Qin Fangfang and Qin Yirou. At the same time, she shouted, "Ah! Go to hell! Go to hell! B Tch! You dared to hit me just now!"

The surrounding people were shocked. Just when they thought that Qin Fangfang and Qin Yirou, who had not been noticed, would be pushed to the ground by Zhu Hengxiang, who had suddenly gotten up.

A figure flashed by and a foot suddenly came from the sky. Before Zhu Hengxiang could stand up, Yun Jian kicked her five meters away. She was paralyzed on the ground and could not get up for a while.

Zhu Hengxiang was in pain. Before the surrounding people could react, Yun Jian had already grabbed the butterfly knife and slowly walked toward Zhu Hengxiang.

"It seems that you are ready to go to Hell."

Chapter 1589: holding the butterfly knife and stabbing it into her thigh

Qin Yirou was comforting Qin Fangfang just now, but Zhu Hengxiang got up from the ground and reached out her old hands to push Qin Yirou and Qin Fangfang down.

When Yun Jian saw this, he was furious.

No one could lay a hand on Qin Yirou, no exceptions!

"You... how dare you lay a hand on my mother!" Obviously, Sun Baiwen still remembered Yun Jian, so he only shouted at Yun Jian and didn't dare to do anything practical to Yun Jian.

Back in Longmen City, when he found out that Yun Jian was the chairman of Xinqi Company, Sun Baiwen was terrified.

Yun Jian was Qin Fangfang's niece and also the chairman of Xinqi Company!

When he cheated on her for the first time, Sun Baiwen was faintly afraid.

Qin Fangfang's relatives couldn't threaten him at all. The only one who could threaten him was the chairman of Xinqi Company, Yun Jian.

Later, the mistress by his side, Song Ling, seduced him. Sun Baiwen was a normal man, and after so many years, Qin Fangfang's stomach didn't make a sound at all.

Sun Baiwen also had the heart to be a father, so he let nature take its course and hooked up with the mistress by the name of Song Ling.

Everything was so natural that in the end, Sun Baiwen even dared to go out with the mistress, Song Ling, in front of Qin Fangfang.

Sun Baiwen used to be a man who valued relationships, but when he became rich, everything changed.

Just now, his mother, Zhu Hengxiang, was the one who wanted to push Qin Fangfang and Qin Yirou to the ground. Yun Jian retaliated, but Sun Baiwen didn't even care about Qin Fangfang and roared at Yun Jian.

Qin Fangfang's heart was already broken. She lowered her head and stood where she was. If it wasn't for Qin Yirou supporting her, Qin Fangfang wouldn't even be able to stand properly.

What else could be more pathetic than having someone she had known for so many years stand in front of her with a mistress and yell at her?

The atmosphere at the scene was extremely gloomy.

In the distance, Hang Ziliang, Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, and the others didn't know whether to leave or stay. From the looks of it, they were standing in an awkward position.

Many of Zhu Hengxiang's relatives were standing around. Now that they saw the scandal of Zhu Hengxiang's family, they also didn't know whether to leave or stay. They were extremely embarrassed.

"Bai Wen, don't be angry. Let's call the police! Let the police arrest them!"

The mistress, Song Ling, was holding onto Sun Bai Wen's hand. Her big round breasts were almost touching the inside of Sun Bai Wen's arm. She felt embarrassed to speak to Sun Bai Wen.

"Yes, yes! Call the police! Call the police!" Sun Bai Wen said as he took out his phone from his pocket. He was about to make a call.

However, he saw Yun Jian walking toward Zhu Hengxiang with his long legs.

She walked to Zhu Hengxiang and grabbed her collar. She picked up the half-awake Zhu Hengxiang and patted her face with the butterfly knife.

"Call the police. I believe that my knife can stab into her head before you make the call."

Yun Jian lazily swung the butterfly knife in his hand. The knife swayed, almost brushing past Zhu Hengxiang's head.

Sun Baiwen was so scared that he quickly put down his phone.

In comparison, his old mother, Zhu Hengxiang, was still very important to him.

"Killing is against the law! You're still young and haven't learned well, yet you're still learning how to flirt and threaten people. Don't you feel ashamed of yourself?!"

Wang Duo, who was standing in the distance, saw Yun Jian's insolence and couldn't help but stand out and say what she thought was fair.

At this point, Hang Ziliang, Hang Zijie, Wang Duo, and a group of young men and women about the same age as Yun Jian.

Even Sun Baiwen was sure that Yun Jian didn't dare to make a move.

Just as everyone thought so, Yun Jian drew a red arc and in the next second, she raised her butterfly knife and stabbed it directly into Zhu Hengxiang's thigh in front of everyone.

"Ah! !!"

Zhu Heng Xiang, who was in a half-conscious state, screamed in pain and fainted.

She actually dared to attack! That would cost her life!

When everyone saw this, they were all frightened.

Chapter 1590: will you get pregnant if you sleep together

Everyone present was frightened by Yun Jian's actions. They all believed that Yun Jian definitely did not have the courage to lay a hand on Zhu Hengxiang.

Even if he hurt Zhu Hengxiang a little, she probably did not have the courage to do so.

After all, killing someone was against the law. Although Yun Jian did not kill Zhu Hengxiang, she had hurt Zhu Hengxiang. If there were no acquaintances in the police station, Yun Jian would not need to go to jail at his age, but he would not be any better off.

"You, you actually dared to lay your hands on my mother! Ah! I'm going to kill you!" After Sun Baiwen reacted, he wanted to rush towards Yun Jian.

The Mistress Song Ling, who was beside him, grabbed his hand and did not let him rush over.

To be honest, if Sun Baiwen was firm, the Mistress Song Ling's strength would not be able to stop him from rushing over.

However, Sun Baiwen was afraid of Yun Jian, who was holding the butterfly knife, so he was held back by Song Ling.

Seeing Sun Baiwen's cowardly expression, Yun Jian only smiled coldly.

This stab into Zhu Hengxiang's thigh was enough to make Zhu Hengxiang wish she was dead, but she would not die for a while.

Yun Jian controlled the strength and position perfectly. Zhu Hengxiang's thigh would not be hit by the knife, so she would not die.

Even if she was sent to the hospital three hours later, as long as the butterfly knife was not pulled out, she would not die.

However, the pain that Zhu Hengxiang would have to endure was also inevitable.

This butterfly knife was inserted into Zhu Hengxiang's thigh. Even if Zhu Hengxiang did not die, she would definitely be in excruciating pain.

Yun Jian was not to be blamed for being ruthless. Qin Fangfang had been imprisoned in her room for the past two months, and the pain she had suffered was no less than this.

Compared to the first time he saw Qin Fangfang, Yun Jian could clearly feel that Qin Fangfang had lost at least 20 Jin. She was now in a state of skin and bones.

Yun Jian's move earlier had still frightened Qin Fangfang, Qin yiruo, and Zhang Meihua.

"She, she, she... she actually dared to make a move..." compared to Sun Baiwen, Song Ling, and the others, Wang Duo was so scared that her face had turned pale.

“She’s not an ordinary person.” Hang Ziliang narrowed his eyes and stared at the cloud note. Just as Wang Duo, Hang Zijie, Duan Chengxuan, and the others were so scared that their faces turned pale, he softly said these words.

When the cloud note demonstrated its hacking skills in front of them, Hang Ziliang already felt that the cloud note was not an ordinary person, and this feeling was very strong.

Although Wang Duo was scared by the Cloud Note’s fierce look just now, she was still unconvinced, especially when the cloud note was always eye-catching.

Therefore, Wang Duo curled her lips and complained in a low voice, “She doesn’t have three legs, how can she not be an ordinary person...”

...

Inside the dark soul organization.

The dark soul organization was very big. If one walked across the dark soul organization and walked to the end of the dark soul organization, it would take them a day and a night!

Even if one were to drive, it would still take a few hours.

At this moment, in a villa of the dark soul organization, Si Luo was sitting on the spot in boredom. She was holding a bunch of fresh flowers that she had just picked from the outside. She gently inserted the flowers into the vase.

Ever since Xue Ying brought her back here, she had been watched by the female nanny standing at the entrance, preventing her from escaping.

Seeing the female nanny go to the toilet, Si Luo’s eyes slightly moved. She immediately stood up and her petite figure quickly ran out.

She wanted to leave this place! She did not want to live with him!

However, Si Luo had just rushed out of the door when she crashed into a firm chest.

Si Luo’s heart tightened. She raised her head in fear and saw Xue Ying’s dark face.

Without saying a word, Xue Ying grabbed her wrist and dragged si Luo into the house.

“Let me go. I want to live with sister Qing Yan and the others...” Si Luo was thrown onto the bed by Xue Ying. She looked at him with some trepidation and still said these words without mercy.

She still could not understand why he did not let her go.

She slept on the same bed with him every day. Could she be pregnant..

Just as Si Luo frowned and was about to get up to escape, Xue Ying suddenly grabbed her little face and kissed it..
