

Schoolgirl 1671

Chapter 1671: the award for the strongest student

Yun Jian ate with relish. It was not until Dilin and Ruoyin left for 30 minutes that the snack street regained its initial peace.

Along the way, the police came to investigate the situation. However, after knowing that no one was injured, they called the witness to register and did not make things difficult for Yun Jian.

Qi Mei was so scared by Yun Jian's shot that she fainted.

Qi Mei thought that Yun Jian's shot was aimed at her head, so she fainted from fear. Later, it was Wu Yaotian and the others who reluctantly carried Qi Mei back to school and only woke up when they reached school.

Although this matter was quite big in the local area, fortunately, it did not alarm the school.

Therefore, no one knew that Yun Jian and the others skipped school at night.

Yun Jian went back to her dormitory and fell asleep.

The next morning, Yun Jian woke up early.

She slept late last night, and Yun Jian was not fond of sleeping. As usual, she woke up earlier than all her classmates. She went to the playground to do morning exercises a few times. When she reached the classroom, most of her classmates had already started reading early.

The students of Min City Military Academy usually woke up at 5:30 a.m. . They would first read half an hour earlier, then do morning exercises for half an hour. When they finished their morning exercises at 6:30 a.m. , the students would go to the cafeteria to eat breakfast.

It was already very tiring to participate in half an hour of morning exercise every morning. Therefore, when they ate breakfast, the students in the school had a particularly big appetite.

In addition, in the Military Academy, there was a lot of exercise. Therefore, whether it was men or women, their appetite was usually greater than that of the students of other schools.

If they could exercise, of course they could eat. Moreover, even if the students of the military academy ate more than the students of other schools, they also maintained a slimmer or stronger figure than the students of other schools.

At this moment, Yun Jian was sitting in the cafeteria eating porridge with Lin Wan and Mu Ying.

Yun Jian ordered a bowl of porridge, three pumpkin pancakes, a steamed bun and an egg.

Compared to the average girl, Yun Jian's appetite was not small. At best, it could be considered an astonishing amount of food.

However, in the military academy, this kind of appetite was not much.

"Yun Jian, yesterday, you guys..."

Speaking of the matter of Yun Jian and the others playing truant yesterday, Lin Wan paused. She carefully looked around and then leaned her head towards Yun Jian, Lin Wan whispered in a voice that only Yun Jian, Mu Ying, and herself could hear:

“Yesterday, you played truant to have supper. Was it fun?”

Looking at Lin Wan’s Curious Baby Face, Yun Jian curled his lips. She did not answer him directly. Instead, she pursed her lips and said, “Next time we go together, won’t you know?”

“I’m a good girl!” Lin Wan shook her hands. She shook her head and moved her head away from the Yun Jian.

At this moment, a gentle and beautiful female voice came from the school’s broadcast.

The broadcast was placed in every blind spot in the school, so even if someone was sitting in the cafeteria, they could still hear the sound of the broadcast.

At this moment, the gentle and beautiful female voice in the broadcast was transmitted to almost every corner of the cafeteria:

“Congratulations to our school’s first year (Class 2) student, Yun Jian, for winning the ‘strongest female student’ award with principal Ma’s handwriting. We hereby announce and praise Yun Jian throughout the school in the broadcast.

“Next, please listen to the broadcast and come to the academic affairs office to receive the award.”

The moment the gentle and beautiful female voice in the broadcast finished speaking, the corner of Yun Jian’s mouth twitched.

Not only Yun Jian, all the students who heard the broadcast were dumbfounded.

The ‘strongest female student’ award certificate? What the hell was that?

When did this award certificate start to appear?

Why had it never appeared before?

And... ? ... why did that girl named Yun Jian have such an award certificate?

Chapter 1672: If you don’t leave now, tell the teacher

“Certificate? ‘strongest female student’? PFFT! And it was headmaster Ma who personally wrote it! Yun Jian, was it because your performance at the selection field last time was too astonishing that you won first place in the selection competition! So headmaster Ma gave you such a certificate!”

And it was announced by the entire school! Lin Wan covered her mouth, laughing at headmaster Ma’s funny behavior.

There were awards in every school.

But the usual awards were nothing more than 'three good students', 'activists', 'good children', and so on.

A little higher up, there were 'first-class Awards', 'second-class Awards', 'third-class awards', and so on.

At the very least, there were awards such as 'First Place', 'second place', and so on.

But what about the cloud note? She was fine. Principal Ma had directly written a certificate of 'strongest female student' for her.

The problem was that there had never been such a certificate since the Min City Military Academy was founded!

In other words, what the cloud note obtained was the Supreme Glory!

Therefore, after the announcement in the broadcast was spread out, all the students in the surroundings were discussing who was the cloud note that was crowned with the 'strongest female student' award or title.

Weren't the students in grade one (Class 2-RRB- grade one freshmen!

A grade one freshman was actually able to win principal Ma's favor!

The female voice in the broadcast repeated several times, but Yun Jian wasn't in a hurry. She only separated from Lin Wan and Mu Ying after eating breakfast.

Yun Jian walked unhurriedly towards the school's administrative office.

The morning was the most refreshing time of the day. At this time, the teachers had already gone to eat breakfast, so only a few students who were in charge of the administrative office remained.

Yun Jian had just arrived at the door of the academic affairs office when the female student standing in the door stopped him:

"The teachers are all going to the cafeteria to eat now. If you have anything to ask of the teachers, come back later."

This female student was the most trusted student under one of the teachers in the academic affairs office.

The teachers in the school usually had their most trusted student, and this female student was the most trusted student under one of the teachers in the academic affairs office.

Usually, if the teacher needed to sort out any information, the female student would always be called to the teacher's office to help.

Because she was doted on by the teacher, the female student was especially arrogant in front of the other students.

There would always be a few students in the school who were obedient like pugs in front of the teacher. They would be able to take on all kinds of chores and dirty work. They were deeply trusted by the teacher.

But in front of the students, they were unusually arrogant.

The female student who stopped Yun Jian was such a person.

There were no teachers in the academic affairs office now, so the female student felt that she was the one in charge in the academic affairs office now.

Therefore, before Yun Jian entered the academic affairs office, he was stopped by this female student and ordered Yun Jian to come back later.

"I am grade one (2) class Yun Jian. I heard the broadcast and came over to get the certificate." Yun Jian did not waste time with this female student and directly stated her purpose of coming.

"You are Yun Jian from grade one (Class 2)?" After the female student heard Yun Jian's words, she sized up Yun Jian from top to bottom.

This female student was a senior from grade three. Therefore, after hearing Yun Jian's words, the female student used a questioning gaze to look at Yun Jian a few more times.

A grade one freshman was actually able to get President Ma's favor! If this wasn't going through the back door, then what was! !

The female student looked at the Yun Jian with disdain. Originally, she only wanted the Yun Jian to look for the teacher in the academic affairs office later. Now that she heard that the Yun Jian was from grade one (2) class, she was even more unwilling to let the Yun Jian enter the academic affairs office.

"I already said that the teacher isn't in the academic affairs office right now. You are only taking a certificate. Why must you come and take it now? What if the things in the academic affairs office are missing because of you? Then can you afford to compensate?"

The female student did not let go and said aggressively to the Yun Jian.

Speaking up to this point, the female student even used the teacher's authority to threaten the Yun Jian. "If you don't leave now, I will tell the teacher!"

Chapter 1673: Something big happened and she was showing off

This female student who was doted on by the teachers and who was usually like a bootlicker to the teachers was called Wang Tingting.

Wang Tingting studied military medicine, which also represented her strength. She was no different from the girls in ordinary schools.

A portion of the people in Min City Military Academy trained their skills every day. In the future, they would either become soldiers or special forces soldiers.

Another portion studied military medicine. Most of the students studied military medicine were girls.

As a student studying military medicine, Wang Tingting usually did not have a deep understanding of strength.

Moreover, in Wang Tingting's impression, if a girl mixed with a boy and trained her skills, she would live like a boy. How could she be considered a girl?

Moreover, even if a girl joined the military, how capable could she be?

It was just to attract the attention of boys!

Wang Tingting was like an obedient girl in front of the teacher. She usually did not wear makeup and was ugly, but she knew how to suck up to the teacher. In front of the teacher, she would suck up to the teacher with all her might.

Wang Tingting was very proud to be treated as the teacher's favorite baby until now.

She was a typical example of putting on airs in front of the teacher and being arrogant in front of her classmates. She had the attitude of 'I have the teacher's support. Even if you don't like it, you have to obey me'.

Therefore, usually, the girls in Wang Tingting's own class were not willing to associate with her.

However, Wang Tingting liked to flirt and play with boys.

Yun Jian was not afraid of Wang Tingting threatening the teacher. She looked at Wang Tingting without changing her expression and said,

"The broadcast asked me to get the certificate, so move aside."

"I already said that the teacher is not in the academic affairs office now. You can enter if you want to? If you have the guts, Go and call the teacher back yourself! Otherwise, you can come and get the certificate later!" Wang Tingting blocked the entrance of the academic affairs office, she raised her head high and looked at the Yun Jian arrogantly.

"Wang Tingting, are you helping the teacher here again?" Just as Wang Tingting finished her words, a few boys walked over in groups of three or five.

These boys were obviously seniors from the third year of high school.

After the few boys walked over, Wang Tingting first flirted with a few boys, then she turned her head and pointed at the Yun Jian. She said to these boys,

"It's this woman. She Won't listen to me even if I say it! I've already told her to come and get the certificate later. Who will be responsible if the things in the teacher's office are lost? But she just won't Listen!"

Wang Tingting simply turned the truth upside down.

Yun Jian clearly listened to the broadcast and came to get the certificate, but Wang Tingting stopped her. Not only did she use the teacher to threaten her, she even accused the bad guy first.

It was clear that Wang Tingting had a good relationship with the boys who were walking around the school during recess.

Upon hearing Wang Tingting's words, the boys looked at Yun Jian with strange eyes.

Yun Jian was beautiful, but the boys also had a good relationship with Wang Tingting.

Yun Jian was here to receive the award, and he recalled what he had heard in the broadcast just now.

A few boys sized up the cloud-listening note from top to bottom. "Are you the cloud-listening note that was praised as the 'strongest female student' by headmaster Ma's handwriting?"

"It can't be? She looks so thin and small. I thought that the cloud-listening note was a female devil who weighed up to 200 pounds. How could it be her?"

A few boys sized up the cloud-listening note with great interest.

However, it didn't take long for the boys to move their eyes away.

"Yesterday, some students of our school skipped school and went to the Snack Street for supper. Something big happened," a boy suddenly said.

"What happened?" Wang Tingting was immediately energized when she heard that.

Especially in front of Yun Jian.

Wang Tingting felt that she could talk well with these boys, and these boys were very good at gossiping. Therefore, she felt that it was very impressive to know these boys.

At this moment, Wang Tingting wanted to brag in front of Yun Jian that these boys were knowledgeable, so she quickly opened her mouth to ask.

"Hey! You guys don't know that yesterday at the Snack Street, two mysterious people assassinated a female student of our school. Guess what happened? That female student snatched the pistol of the person who assassinated her..."

Chapter 1674: one round of face slapping, two rounds of swelling

When young boys and girls gathered together, the thing they liked to talk about the most was gossip.

The gossip that they heard from others was far more interesting than what happened to them.

The few boys wanted to brag about their ability to gossip in front of the cloud paper, so they opened their mouths.

In the end, they didn't expect Wang Tingting to be so cooperative. As a result, the few boys became even more enthusiastic.

Originally, bragging in front of the girls was a very fulfilling thing, not to mention in front of the very beautiful female students.

Therefore, the boys became more and more enthusiastic as they talked.

"Later, that female student suppressed the entire scene! I heard that she was very powerful! She was very arrogant! Yesterday, my brother also skipped school to have supper with his girlfriend. He saw it with his own eyes. The strength of that female student can only be described with two words, invincible in the world!”

One of the boys said that the water droplets were flying. The cloud paper was far away, so it was not splashed.

The few boys and Wang Tingting who were standing in front of the boy were splashed by the boy’s spit.

But at this moment, no one said anything.

“Wow, so powerful! Then do you know who that person is from our school?”Wang Tingting even showed a look of worship.

Speaking up to this point, Wang Tingting glanced at Yun Jian. While she was admiring the amazing person that the boys were talking about, she did not forget to glance at Yun Jian with a disdainful gaze:

“That person is truly amazing. What about you? I really don’t know how you obtained that ‘strongest female student’award.”.

“PFFT, could it be that you relied on your body to sleep?”

Wang Tingting’s last sentence was quite loud.

Yun Jian was very good-looking, but she was a freshman.

She was a freshman, and she didn’t have much experience in strength. Her body was thin and weak, and she was only good-looking.

Therefore, other than sleeping with her, how could she get the ‘strongest female student’award?

As soon as Wang Tingting said this, before Yun Jian made his move, the boy who said that his brother saw the amazing scene of the female student yesterday pointed at a nearby place and shouted in shock,

“Look, that’s my brother! I asked him to come over and tell you how powerful the girl he saw yesterday was! Hehe! I heard that she snatched the other party’s gun in an instant...”

As soon as the boy finished his sentence, the boy’s brother had already rushed over.

Before the boy could finish his sentence, the boy’s brother looked at Yun Jian as if he had seen his idol and shouted in shock,

“It’s You! It’s You! It’s actually you! Yesterday, it was you who flew out of the bench to block the bullets and even snatched the gun from the woman with the gun. You even told her that you couldn’t even protect your own weapon. What kind of sharpshooter are you? ! Classmate, you’re simply my idol!”

When the boy’s brother saw the cloud note, he was so excited that he couldn’t describe it with words.

Seeing this, the surrounding people were instantly dumbfounded.

What! ?

She was the female classmate who was rumored to have snatched the pistol from the enemy?

When Wang Tingting heard this, she felt a pain in her head and instantly had an illusion that she couldn't believe it.

She was the female classmate that everyone was talking about!

However, this wasn't the end.

Everyone was stunned when they saw an elderly figure walking over.

The moment he saw Yun Jian, this elderly man started running.

The people present fixed their eyes on him. Wasn't this man their Min City Military Academy's Principal Ma? ?

Why was principal Ma here as well?

Wang Tingting and the boys present were a little stunned.

Before they could recover from their shock, principal ma ran over to Yun Jian and spoke to him in a rather excited tone:

"Student Yun Jian, you didn't disappoint me! You got first place in the preliminaries! First place! hahaha!

"Of the 100 Special Forces soldiers who participated in the preliminaries, which one of them isn't the most powerful existence in Z Nation! And you, you actually got first place in the preliminaries!

"It's the first time that our Min City Military Academy has a student who won the first place in the selection competition. Moreover, your age is two rounds younger than the other two special forces soldiers who won the selection competition! The younger generation is awesome! The younger generation is awesome, hahaha!"

Chapter 1675: the principal was sucking up to him

As the principal of Min City Military Academy, Principal Ma was usually fierce. However, he was very warm-hearted to students who needed help.

It was just that Principal Ma was the principal of Min City Military Academy. Because he had an official position, he was not often in the school.

Therefore, most of the students saw principal Ma's serious face.

Wang Tingting and the few boys present were all seniors of the third year of high school. They had been in Min City Military Academy for more than two years and were now in their third year.

This was the first time they had seen principal ma show such an excited expression.

"Come, come, come! What are you still standing at the door for? Quickly go in! Quickly come in and have a cup of tea at the academic affairs office!" Without waiting for Wang Tingting's face to turn dark, principal Ma had already called Yunjian into the academic affairs office as if he was greeting a great leader.

Wang Tingting stood at the entrance of the administrative office. This was the first time she had encountered such a thing.

She didn't have the right to leave. The things that the teacher had ordered her to do had yet to be completed, and she didn't have the right to stay either. One had to know what kind of tone she had used to speak to Yun Jian just now.

She had even said that Yun Jian's 'strongest female student' award was obtained through sleep.

However, she had never expected that the female student who had stolen the pistol from the hands of the bad guys the day before would be the one that everyone was talking about!

Moreover, she was the one who had won the first place in the preliminaries and was the Godslayer of the famous King's team!

This reality made Wang Tingting, who had said bad things about Yun Jian just now, fall apart. Not only that, but at this moment, Wang Tingting felt that her face had been slapped beyond recognition.

At this moment, principal Ma had already invited Yun Jian into the academic affairs office. He personally pulled out a stool in front of Yun Jian's desk and made him sit down. Then, he eagerly ran over to pour a cup of tea and handed it over to Yun Jian with both hands.

"Come, come, come. Drink some water first. Be careful, it's hot. I'll get the certificate for You!" After principal Ma handed the Teacup to Yun Jian, he ran over to get the certificate.

Wang Tingting was dumbfounded by these scenes.

Wang Tingting loved to suck up to others. Usually, it was already very impressive to be able to suck up to a teacher.

To be able to suck up to the principal, in Wang Tingting's view, it was simply able to be arrogant to the heavens.

But how come when it comes to cloud paper, it's the principal who flatters her?

It's...

Wang Tingting Eyes Sink, she just want to go back to find just in front of the cloud paper show off a few more with their chat with the boys.

But suddenly found that these boys early in the MA principal polite please cloud into the house when the slip away.

Just now, they wanted to show off their knowledge in front of the pretty juniors.

The person who didn't know that the boys were showing off was Yun Jian himself!

Those boys naturally didn't have the face to stay here. They didn't even say hello and all ran away.

In the end, Wang Tingting gritted her teeth and also slipped away. She planned to wait for Yun Jian to leave before coming back to clean up the things that the teacher had instructed her to do.

Later on, she would use the excuse to tell the teacher that she had a stomachache, so she would first go to the toilet before coming back to clean up.

After sitting in the administrative office for a while, Yun Jian, who had been praised by Principal Ma, returned to the classroom.

According to Principal Ma, the time to head to the hunting school had not yet been set, and she was still waiting for the notice.

However, she was told to be prepared at all times. Once the notice was given, she would set off at any time.

Yun Jian replied to principal Ma and then returned to the classroom.

A week passed very quickly. In the blink of an eye, it was Friday.

Friday was not around. After Yun Jian returned to Longmen City, she felt that her home was a little lifeless. She was not used to it at the moment, but the night passed just like that.

The next morning, just as dawn broke, there was a knock on the main door.

Yun Jian did not even need to guess to know that the people knocking on the door were definitely ruoyin and Di Lin.

As expected, the moment the door opened, Yun Jian saw Ruoyin who had just knocked and left, and Di Lin who was standing behind ruoyin.

Di Lin still looked the same as before. He was dressed in black from head to toe and wore a black hoodie on his head, but it could not cover his handsome but slightly pale face.

"I'm here to pick up my woman," Di Lin went straight to the point.

The Red Arc of the cloud was slightly raised.

The blood doll had delivered itself to his doorstep.

Chapter 1676: was just a chess piece. Why would he come

"Let's go." Yun Jian waved his hand. She walked around ruoyin and Di Lin and took the lead.

Early in the morning, Qin Yirou went to work at the flower shop. Therefore, before Yun Jian brought Ruoyin and di Lin to look for Leng Mei, he went to the roadside to buy a few steamed buns and ate them as they walked.

Qin Yirou now went to bed early and got up early. It was not tiring for her to work at the flower shop. Other than taking care of the children, she was obviously much younger than when she worked hard in the past.

Logically speaking, after giving birth to such a capable daughter like Yun Jian, Qin Yirou should have been at home 20 to 30 years earlier than her peers.

However, Qin Yirou insisted on going to work.

That was because once a person lacked exercise, their constitution would deteriorate.

Before the death of some elderly people, there was a common problem, which was that they could not walk.

Walking was considered exercise. Once a person did not exercise, they would quickly become useless.

Therefore, even if they were old people who were seriously ill, they must not forget to take them out for a walk. Even if they really could not walk, they must push more wheelchairs to take them out to bask in the Sun.

Even if they could not live for a long time, they could at least extend their lives for some time.

Qin Yirou had long realized this, so she could not stop exercising.

After buying a few steamed buns, Yun Jian walked lazily on the way to Qingyan's house. Ruoyin and Di Lin followed him without saying a word.

It was neither too close nor too far to go from home to Qingyan's suite.

Yun Yi usually had to make up for his lessons on Saturdays. The first high school's academic work was particularly tight, so it was usually endless on Saturdays and Sundays.

"We've walked so far. Are We There Yet? SS, you can't Trick Us!" Ruoyin couldn't help but shout after following Yun Jian for a while.

"I can't even afford to pay for a taxi now that your people have messed things up. Take your time. Also... Don't call me SS here. You Can Call Me Yun Jian." Yun Jian turned his head and grinned at Ruoyin, half-joking.

Yun Jian was referring to the fact that Blood Doll had interfered with the missions of the members of the ancient killing mercenary group many times recently.

Ruoyin was blocked by Yun Jian's words and glared at by her own leader. Therefore, Ruoyin could only swallow the words that she wanted to retaliate against Yun Jian.

"This is the place." Yun Jian led Ruoyin and Di Lin for half an hour before they finally reached the door of Qingyan's house.

When they reached the door, Yun Jian stretched his back.

HMM... it was really nice to take a walk in the morning.

Moreover, there were two small followers behind him. This feeling was not bad.

Yun Jian had the key to Qingyan's house. Therefore, she took out the key and opened it as soon as she reached the door.

As soon as the door opened, a graceful voice sounded from inside the house:

“Burn, Burn! hahaha! I won three times today, so tonight’s bowl, chopsticks, and our clothes are all yours!”

As soon as Yun Jian opened the door, this graceful voice sounded.

Yun Jian’s eyes slightly twitched.

When ruoyin and di Lin heard this female voice, they couldn’t help but twitch the corners of their mouths.

This female voice undoubtedly came from Leng Mei’s mouth.

As soon as this female voice fell, another tender voice sounded, “Grandpa, Grandpa! Let’s Go and save Grandpa!”

Inside the house, Leng Mei, Qing Lan, and Gu Nian were sitting around playing mahjong.

The three of them had nothing better to do, so they decided who would wash the dishes and wash the clothes by playing mahjong.

Leng Mei had already won three rounds in a row. She excitedly spread out the mahjong tiles and stood up.

The color TV beside her was still playing green glaze’s favorite gourd doll.

Yun Jian had seen this scene as soon as she entered the game. At this moment, even she couldn’t help but Twitch the corners of her mouth.

Leng Mei stood up excitedly and even made a “I won” gesture. However, just as she stood up and cheered for her victory,.

She suddenly saw a cloud of paper standing outside the gate...

As well as standing in the cloud, if the voice behind the emperor.

At the sight of the Emperor’s arrival, Leng Mei was so scared that her feet almost slipped. She steadied her feet and looked at the emperor’s arrival in surprise. “Chief... Chief, how did you come...”

Cold Charm has always thought that he is just the chief di Lin’s mistress, this time she was captured by cloud paper, Di Lin will only give up her chess piece.

But who told her why he was here!

Chapter 1677: collecting blood dolls to expand their influence

Ruoyin was dumbfounded when she saw Leng Mei wearing the Qingyan family’s rabbit slippers, a cute little bear pajamas, and that lazy and comfortable look.

When Leng Mei was in the organization of Blood Dolls, she always appeared to be aloof and aloof.

But what happened today?

When the leader knew that Leng Mei was captured by Yun Jian, he couldn't sleep well the whole night and didn't eat much during the day.

SS was famous for its ruthlessness. Who knew if Leng Mei would be directly killed if she was captured by Yun Jian.

However, it turned out that Ruoyin and di Lin had been wrong.

Not only was Leng Mei not dead, but she was also wearing bunny slippers and a bear pajamas. She was playing mahjong with Qingyan and Gu Nian!

After winning the Mahjong game, she even jumped up excitedly and told Qingyan and Gu Nian, who were in the SS team that she was being held captive, that the bowls, chopsticks, and clothes for the three of them at night were all yours!

Where was the danger?

The leader was afraid that something would happen to Leng Mei, so he directly gave the blood doll organization to Yun Jian!

But Leng Mei was hiding here and playing mahjong!

"... Ruoyin, you're here too?" Leng Mei looked at ruoyin. She gently put down the hand that she was so excited to raise, and then gulped. She looked at Di Lin and then at ruoyin, and her voice became softer and softer.

"Leng Mei, your life is so comfortable! Leader is worried about you. You haven't eaten or slept well for a few days!" Ruoyin said to Leng Mei after taking a strong dose of medicine.

However, just as Ruoyin said this, Di Lin looked at her from the corner of his eyes and glared at her.

Ruoyin, who wanted to exaggerate and tell Leng Mei what di Lin had done for her these days, immediately shut her mouth.

Oh My God, the leader's eyes are too scary. For the sake of his life, he should secretly find an opportunity to tell Leng Mei this slow woman!

Yun Zhi stood at the door. She watched di Lin walk through the door, then silently walked over and grabbed Leng Mei's hand, who was standing in front of the mahjong table, and dragged her out.

"Leader, how did you find this place..." just as Leng Mei said this, Di Lin dragged Leng Mei out with a gloomy face.

During this time, he didn't say a word.

"Blood doll, it's yours." When he dragged Leng Mei to the door, Di Lin turned his head to look at Yun Jian. After he said this, he dragged Leng Mei, who didn't know the truth, out.

"What? Why did blood doll organization..." why did it belong to Yun Jian? What did leader Promise Yun Jian? Leng Mei suddenly had a bad premonition.

However, just as Di Lin grabbed Leng Mei's wrist and was about to leave, Yun Jian's voice suddenly came from behind Di Lin:

"I'll keep the blood doll, but the position of leader of the Blood Doll Organization is still yours."

Hearing this, Di Lin stopped in his tracks.

"Leader! You gave the Blood Doll to her? Why! ? Could it be for me! ? ..."Leng Mei was the number one expert in the blood doll organization who was charming and cold, but her EQ was really not that good.

Leng Mei thought for a long time before she realized that Di Lin did all this for her?

Huh?

He did not love her, so why did he give up the entire organization for her?

Di Lin did not look at Leng Mei, but he tightened his grip on Leng Mei's wrist.

He looked up at Yun Jian.

What she meant was... .. She took the blood doll, but he and everyone in the organization did not have to leave.

It was just that the blood doll organization was working for her, that's all?

"Is that true?"Di Lin asked doubtfully.

He naturally didn't want to give the blood doll that his father had single-handedly knocked down to others.

But this time, he had no choice.

"When has the words of my sha Shen ever been false!"

Chapter 1678: was in trouble. She was about to die

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. She looked at Di Lin with her beautiful eyes and said solemnly.

From the beginning, her goal was not to take the blood doll.

It was... ! ... To have the blood doll, including everyone in the blood doll organization, turn into her people!

A powerful person did not mean to snatch a powerful company, but to have all the powerful people in the company turn into her subordinates and be used by her!

This was because the value of a company was not high. It was not the company that was valuable, but the group of powerful people in the company!

Di Lin now fully felt the terror of the cloud tablet.

According to the rumors in the underworld, SS was not only powerful, but also very good at calculating.

As expected of its reputation.

If you followed SS, you would have meat to eat!

These words were indeed not general.

“Assassinating you and obstructing the GU sha mercenary group’s mission. It was a black-robed man in a strange outfit who set a high reward in our organization. We are only doing things with money.”

Di Lin did not directly agree with Yun Jian, but he told him everything he knew. This could also be considered as showing his sincerity.

Yun Jian said that he was still the leader of the blood doll. However, the blood doll would be under the control of the SS from now on. This was something that Di Lin agreed to.

If Yun Jian was not SS, Di Lin would rather give him the blood doll than work for Yun Jian.

However, Yun Jian was SS. He would get meat if he followed SS!

Di Lin agreed to this!

“I can feel your sincerity. Then... Let’s have a good cooperation.” Yun Jian curled her lips and the corner of her mouth rose slightly.

“Let’s have a good cooperation.” Di Lin immediately reached a consensus with Yun Jian.

It was not without reason that smart people always liked to talk to smart people.

“Leader, I...” Leng Mei was grabbed by Di Lin’s wrist. She knew that everything today was for her, so she could not help but feel a little guilty.

“Let’s go home.” Di Lin turned around and held Leng Mei’s hand as they walked out.

“Leader, I’m sorry, I...” Leng Mei wanted to continue apologizing.

“Don’t Call Me Lord Leader in the future!” Di Lin tightened his grip on Leng Mei’s wrist. He suddenly stopped and growled at Leng Mei.

“But why...” Leng Mei asked in confusion.

“Silly you! Don’t Call Me Lord Leader if he asks you not to!” Even ruoyin couldn’t help worrying about Leng Mei’s Eq. She couldn’t help reminding her.

Leng Mei gulped and then shut her mouth.

It wasn’t until Leng Mei was caught by Di Lin and was about to disappear that Yun Jian saw Qing mei and Gu Nian running out of the house. Qing Mei stood at the door and waved at Leng Mei:

“Next time, come and play mahjong with him for a few hundred rounds! I don’t Believe I can’t Beat You!”

Yun Jian turned to look at Qing Mei and Gu Nian after Leng Mei and the other two left the place. She was slightly red. “Are you addicted to Mahjong? Do you want to go to Africa and play Mahjong under the warm sun?”

“No, no, no! Sister Jian, let’s go out for a walk, Haha!”Qing Yan held Gu Nian’s hand and rushed out.

Yun Jian’s lips curled up again when she saw this.

Just then, her phone rang.

Yun Jian looked up and saw that it was Zhang Shaofeng calling. She looked up slightly and picked up the call.

Just as she picked up the call, the voice on the other end of the line was not Zhang Shaofeng, but Ling Yichen.

Ling Yichen spoke to Yun Jian in a desperate and trembling tone. Ling Yichen’s voice came from the other end of the line, and there were cries of pain and despair all around him:

“Yun Jian... Xinyi was pushed by someone and fell from the second floor of the school. The Doctor said that she might not be able to make it... come... see her one last time...”

Chapter 1679: called the hospital director to assist in the surgery

Ling Yichen’s words were filled with deep despair, grief, and trembling.

If one did not listen carefully, they would not be able to hear what he said.

Only someone who had met a family member or an important friend who had met with a major accident would show such emotions.

That kind of emotion could not be described with words.

It was a kind of despair and grief that took the lead. Because of the pain, he could not speak. His entire body was trembling. He was terrified, afraid, and felt that he had no future.

This was Ling Yichen’s current state.

Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi were Ling Yichen’s best friends.

Therefore, when Chen Xinyi’s accident happened, Ling Yichen was completely dumbfounded.

Even though he was close to Chen Xinyi, he was not as close as Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi.

The reason why Ling Yichen took Zhang Shaofeng’s cell phone to call Yun Jian was because after Zhang Shaofeng dialed Yun Jian’s number, he could not say a word.

How could Zhang Shaofeng say such a thing!

Even the doctor was certain that Xinyi could not make it!

After Yun Jian heard Ling Yichen’s words, his eyes, which were still lazy just a moment ago, suddenly became sharp.

“Where is it!”Yun Jian only asked these two words briefly.

“We are at Longmen City People’s Hospital...”Yun Jian hung up the phone as soon as Ling Yichen’s soft words rang.

Ling Yichen could not wait for Yun Jian’s reply, but what he waited for was the sound of the phone being hung up.

...

In less than ten minutes, Yun Jian arrived at the People’s Hospital of Longmen City from Qingyao’s house.

It was not close to the People’s Hospital of Longmen City from Qingyao’s house. Yun Jian intercepted a motorcycle midway and rushed to the People’s Hospital of Longmen City.

Before intercepting the motorcycle, Yun Jian even said to the owner of the motorcycle, “Come to the People’s Hospital to pick up the motorcycle.”.

Therefore, the owner of the motorbike chased him to the People’s Hospital before he got his bike back safely. Of course, this was something to be discussed later.

At this moment, Yun Jian drove the motorbike to the People’s Hospital and rushed into the People’s Hospital.

Outside the emergency room.

Zhang Shaofeng sat on the ground as if he was paralyzed. Ling Yichen was not in a good condition either.

There were a few adults sitting around him who lowered their heads without saying a word. They were undoubtedly Chen Xinyi’s parents and relatives.

When Yun Jian arrived, the door of the emergency room was already open. A doctor in White was reporting to Zhang Shaofeng, Ling Yichen, Chen Xinyi’s parents and family members who were paralyzed:

“The patient’s time of death was 9:40 a.m. on October 17,1999.”

The doctor was still reporting the data, but the family members who were standing at the entrance of the emergency room had completely collapsed.

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen were paralyzed. The two of them could not say a word.

“No! No, no, no! How could my daughter Die? She’s so young... .. how could she just leave like that ? Please ... Save her again! Save her! She’s still so young. She hasn’t even passed her prime. Doctor, Please! Please!”

Chen Xinyi’s mother was already on the verge of collapse. As she spoke, tears blurred her eyes and she immediately knelt down before the doctor.

Chen Xinyi’s relatives beside her were all ashen-faced.

What a good child... was she gone just like that?

Just as everyone was in despair and on the verge of collapse, wailing incessantly, the pain was so great that their hearts were constricting and tears were flowing incessantly.

In the midst of their daze, they saw a petite and slender figure flash past their eyes.

By the time everyone reacted, Yun Jian's petite figure was already standing in front of the expressionless doctor who reported the news of Chen Xinyi's death.

She reached out to grab the doctor's collar and spoke to him:

"She won't die! Get Out of my way!"

The Doctor did not give way and even said to Yun Jian, "I know your relatives are suffering, but a dead person can't be resurrected..."

"I am the 'hand of death' of your medical world. Call Your Director to assist me in my surgery! If you continue to waste my time, I will send you to your coffin!"

Chapter 1680: your wretched life, I accept it (1500 + words)

Just as Yun Jian said this, her hand was already holding a butterfly knife that was taken out of nowhere.

This butterfly knife was already agilely placed on the doctor's neck.

'hand of death'!

On this path, who didn't know of the medical world's 'hand of death'!

That was the living dead, the existence of flesh and Bones!

Even if it was a dead person who was carried into a coffin, as long as the 'hand of death' took action, every second would make this person jump up and down!

The rumored 'hand of Death' was simply not a person! It was a living Hua Tuo! A God from the heavens had descended to the mortal world!

Therefore, when he heard Yun Jian's self-declaration, the pupils of this doctor who was used to seeing life and death parting contracted, and he staggered.

Yun Jian directly revealed his identity, but he did not want to have any obstacles.

His death had been confirmed, which meant that Chen Xinyi had already undergone many resuscitations in the hands of these doctors.

The time wasted could make a person who could have come back to life die.

At this moment, it was different from the time when Qin Yirou's hand was injured.

A person's life was at stake. If she did not use the fastest speed to carry out resuscitation, even she would not be able to save Chen Xinyi!

Perhaps it was because Yun Jian's posture when he used the butterfly knife just now was comparable to that of a doctor who held a scalpel all year round and had amazing knife skills. Therefore, after the doctor heard Yun Jian's words, he went from being expressionless just now., until now, he was flying towards the director's office in shock.

Chen Xinyi's relatives and friends who were standing at the same spot had never heard of the nickname 'Hand of death'.

However, seeing the change in the doctor's expression just now, everyone placed their hopes on Yun Jian.

Finally, Yun Jian walked into the operating theater under the pleading of Chen Xinyi's mother.

...

Three hours later, with the assistance of the hospital director, Yun Jian completed the surgery that cut through the brain.

The surgery was completed smoothly, and Chen Xinyi was safe.

The brain was the most dangerous part of the human body, and the most important part of the human body could not be injured because the brain was the most important part of the human body.

It was okay if other parts of the body were injured, but if there was a problem with the brain that controlled the whole body, the danger could be imagined.

After Yun Jian came out of the operating theater and announced that Chen Xinyi was saved, the entire Longmen People's Hospital was shocked.

Chen Xinyi's parents were so grateful to Yun Jian that words could not be used to describe it.

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen, who were still paralyzed just a moment ago, also recovered.

Xinyi was still alive! As long as she was alive! As long as she was alive, anything could be recuperated!

"What the hell is going on!" After Yun Jian got rid of the crowd, he asked Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yi about their situation.

...

Half an hour later, Yun Jian arrived at the school gate of No. 1 High School alone.

No. 1 High School was a key high school in Longmen City. The students of No. 1 high school all attended classes on Saturdays. Only the Saturday night and the weekend dinner time were the weekend breaks.

Therefore, at this time, the students of No. 1 high school were still in school.

Chen Xinyi accidentally met the school bully of No. 1 High School. In order to avoid the pursuit of the ugliest girl of No. 1 High School, the school bully of No. 1 high school madly pursued Chen Xinyi as cannon fodder.

The ugliest girl of No. 1 High School was rich and had a strong family background. She was a very powerful person.

Therefore, the school bully of No. 1 High School was also entangled.

The ugliest girl in No. 1 High School thought that the campus Belle really liked Chen Xinyi, so this morning at school, the ugliest girl directly pushed Chen Xinyi down from the second floor while arguing with Chen Xinyi, and her head fell to the ground.

That's right, Yun Jian was here to avenge Chen Xinyi.

Without a doubt, Chen Xinyi became the scapegoat of that group of people.

Moreover, with that ugliest girl's family background, even if something happened to Chen Xinyi, that girl was still underage and would be fine.

At most, she would go to the police station for a while and be released.

When Yun Jian just entered the school gate, the Uncle Guard stopped her. In the end, Yun Jian jumped in from the two-meter-high gate.

But the Uncle Guard was so scared that he didn't dare to chase after her.

No. 1 High School, No. 2(Class 6) , the class of the school bully.

"Hehe, Cheng Jun, that Chen Xinyi from No. 1(Class 2) has been screwed by you. She might not even survive now. Aren't you afraid?"

A boy was asking another good-looking boy.

"PFFT, if you hadn't told me, I would have forgotten about her long ago. Hey! I didn't push her, what am I afraid of?"The boy called Cheng Jun said righteously.

At this moment, a small and beautiful figure appeared at the main entrance.

Everyone was amazed by Yun Jian's beauty as she walked in from the main entrance. At the same time, they didn't forget to talk among themselves.

However, they saw Yun Jian's eyes glancing over. She asked coldly, "Who's Your No. 1 High School's Campus Belle?"

"Him, it's him! Beauty, why are you looking for our No. 1 High School's Campus Belle? Don't Tell Me You're trying to woo him? hahaha!"

The boy who was talking to No. 1 High School Belle, Zhang Chengjun, immediately pointed at Zhang Chengjun and teased Yun Jian with a smile.

All the students in the class laughed when they heard this.

As soon as the boy finished his sentence, Zhang Chengjun brushed his bangs and was about to sigh about his charm.

However, Yun Jian's figure flashed and she quickly drew her knife. The butterfly knife flew out like the shadow of a sword. She instantly flashed in front of Zhang Chengjun and grabbed the butterfly knife in front of everyone, the knife directly pierced into Zhang Chengjun's thigh.

“Chen Xinyi is my friend. Today, you harmed her, so I want you to pay with your life! So I’ll accept your cheap life!”
