

Schoolgirl 1911

Chapter 1911: restored the sorcerer God's memories

The master was still the same as before. Nothing had changed.

Yun Jian straightened her back. She looked at the old man and gave him a knowing smile.

This smile came from the bottom of her heart.

There was gratitude in her smile, satisfaction with her current life, and many indescribable emotions.

Si Yi, who was standing at the side, saw that Yun Jian was actually smiling at the old man. Moreover, she had never shown this expression to herself before.

Si Yi walked over and grabbed the Yun Jian's little hand, wrapping it in his embrace. He glanced sideways at the old man and said to the Yun Jian, "Little Jian, ignore this crazy old man."

As he said that, he grabbed her little hand and walked out.

Seeing Si Yi grab the Yun Jian's little hand and leave, the smile on the old man's face gradually disappeared.

After drinking a mouthful of wine, the old man sighed and then turned to look at Huangyan:

"Yan, your tracking skills still need to be improved! Both of them have discovered that you've been tracking them!"

The old man's words sounded like he was criticizing desolate Yan in a very serious manner.

However, just as he finished his serious words, the old man suddenly said, "Next time it's your turn to follow the two of them, learn from my invincible tracking skills!"

Desolate Yan tugged at the corner of his lips, not wanting to expose the cute little old man, he replied, "Yes!"

After the old man finished speaking, he suddenly became solemn again. He looked at desolate Yan and said very seriously to desolate Yan, "Bring the witch God's little cutie out tonight. I have something to tell her."

"Yes!" Desolate Yan nodded after hearing that.

Si Yi brought the cloud note out of the main hall of the Divine Hall and went straight to his bedroom.

The bedroom of Si Yi's divine hall was very ancient and clean. It was not flashy and there were not many things in the room. One could count the number of items at a glance.

Just as he entered Si Yi's bedroom, the cloud note looked around curiously.

Just as he looked around a few times, the cloud note suddenly felt that someone was hugging him from behind.

He didn't need to think to know that it was definitely him.

After hugging Yun Jian, he gently placed Yun Jian's back against a classical table in the bedroom.

"Don't... Go, go to bed..." Yun Jian knew what Si Yi was going to do at a glance, and her face turned slightly red.

"It's right here, I like it." Si Yi wasn't shy at all. As soon as he said this, he immediately took action.

The scenery of the God continent was very beautiful. There were no changes in the four seasons. The scenery here was the same as it was in early spring all year round. The morning dew sprinkled down. It was fresh and carefree, giving people a mesmerizing beauty.

The God continent also had day and night. This was the same as Earth and the other continents.

Yun Jian really did not go out for the entire afternoon. At night, his legs had softened.

Later, when desolate Yan said that she wanted to take Yun Jian out for a walk, Si Yi let go of Yun Jian.

Yun Jian did not let him go with her.

Just as she left Si Yi's bedroom with Yun Jian, desolate Yan said to Yun Jian, "Master is looking for you."

As soon as she heard that master was looking for her, Yun Jian immediately went over.

The old man was still sitting in the hall of the Divine Hall. When he saw Yun Jian walk in from outside, he quickly stood up.

"Come, come, come! My dear disciple, come, come!" The old man waved at Yun Jian.

"Master, what business do you have with me?" Yun Jian asked.

Hearing this, the old man did not hold back anymore. He looked at Yun Jian and instantly restrained his old and naughty face.

His expression suddenly changed. The old man who looked like an old and naughty boy just now had disappeared without a trace.

Every now and then, Yun Jian knew that his master must have something important to say.

However, the old man looked at Yun Jian and cut straight to the point in a very solemn and solemn manner:

"Do you want to recover all the memories of when you were the sorcerer God? Do you want to remember the mysterious person who has been targeting you in the Dark?"

Chapter 1912: began to recollect. Divine Lord Sorcerer God (1)

Upon hearing her master's words, Yun Jian's eyes flashed with a profound light.

The next second, she nodded at her master with certainty and certainty. "I want to recover all the memories of the sorcerer God, and I must do so!"

"Then what if, by recovering the sorcerer God's memories, it is very likely to put you in danger or even die?" The old man looked straight at Yun Jian and said.

"He has already recovered all his memories, right?" Yun Zhi asked the old man.

He was naturally referring to Si Yi.

When the old man heard that Yun Zhi had already guessed it, he did not hide it anymore:

"That Stinky Brat has already recovered his memories. Today, I asked Desolate Yan to bring you out alone so that that stinky brat would not know that I want to help you recover your memories. Otherwise, he would definitely stop me!"

After the old man said that, he sighed again and said to the cloud note:

"I won't hide it from you. If you recover your memory today, you will definitely be involved in it again. That Brat doesn't want to let you recover your memory. He intends to bear all the responsibility alone."

"I'm not siding with that brat. I just feel that you have the right to choose to be with him or leave him to bear all the responsibility."

As the old man spoke, he added, "Recovering your memories will put your life in danger at any time. Disciple, you can choose your own future."

"I choose... to recover my memories!" Yun Jian said without hesitation.

After hearing Yun Jian's words, the old man nodded in satisfaction. "Alright!"

Her answer made him very satisfied.

After saying this, the old man flipped his hand, and a bottle of medicine filled with immortal Qi appeared in his palm.

He gently tossed the medicine over to the Yun Jian, and after the Yun Jian caught the medicine, the old man suddenly returned to his original mischievous and mischievous appearance. He looked at the Yun Jian and said,

"This is a special memory medicine that I have specially made. It is called 'long live the most powerful, most handsome, and most powerful sovereign god'. Drink it, and you will immediately be able to regain your memories!"

The old man's narcissistic Kung Fu wasn't just for show. Even steel wouldn't be able to break it.

The corners of Yun Jian's lips twitched, but he still smiled knowingly at the old man. Then, he opened the lid of the potion and drank it all in one gulp.

...

Deep within her brain, a certain sealed memory spread through her entire body under the potion, unlocking the shackles.

That memory of being a sorcerer God surged towards her like a mountain that could topple the seas.

The Gears of her memories brought her back to thousands of years ago, when she was still in her prime.

Thousands of years ago.

As the daughter of the shaman clan, the god of shamans was the most powerful existence in the shaman clan. She led the shaman clan and guided the Imperial Dragon Continent from the lowest grade continents to gradually become the most powerful continent in all continents. No one could rival her.

Before all karma had begun, long before the god of shamans had even met divine lords.

That day, God of sorcerer had left the imperial dragon continent for several months. When she returned to the shaman clan, many of the girls of the shaman clan had been raped by a man, and the man of the Shaman clan had been killed by that man.

That was right. That man was the god of the God continent. At the same time, his strength was strong enough to activate the array formation from the God continent to the various continents.

God of Sorcerer chased the man all the way to the Tan family in the central continent. In front of the Tan family, he opened a passage to the God continent and came to the God continent, killing the man in the God continent.

The God was killed by thousands of young girls from the continent. The gods of the God continent invited the ruler of the God continent, the divine lord, to the scene.

That was the first time the sorcerer God met the divine lord.

She held the butterfly knife in her hand and stood among the gods stubbornly. She looked into his eyes without fear.

He would never forget her. At that time, her eyes had a light in them. She was so beautiful that she attracted his attention.

Chapter 1913: began to recall, divine lord sorcerer God (2)

“You are the ruler of the Divine Continent, Divine Lord?” This was the first time she looked at him and asked.

At that moment, the sorcerer God held the butterfly knife in his hand and stepped on the god who had defiled her female shaman and killed her male shaman. He looked up at him stubbornly and fearlessly and spoke.

“Yes.” The Divine Lord, who originally did not care about anyone, replied to her question in front of everyone.

“Lord Divine Lord! Our God continent is the ruler of all things! Every God is a supreme existence. Today, she was killed by a weak woman from thousands of continents. You must kill her and uphold justice for the gods of our God continent!”

An old man from the God continent glared at the sorcerer God and said to the divine lord.

After the old man finished speaking, the gods around him nodded in agreement.

“Yes, how can the gods of our God continent let her kill them!”

“Even if our gods did wrong, they deserve it! The people of the lowly continent deserve to be trampled under our feet!”

“That’s right, Lord Divine Lord, please kill her immediately!”

The surrounding gods’ voices were heard by Divine Lord.

But he did not move.

The surrounding gods only opened their mouths, but they did not dare to attack the sorcerer God themselves.

After all, the god that the sorcerer God had just killed was one of the five strongest people in the God continent!

One could imagine how strong this girl from the lowly continent was!

Perhaps only lord divine lord could subdue her in the God continent!

“Why did you kill him?” Divine Lord did not listen to the chatter around him. He looked at her and asked.

“He killed my clansmen and insulted my clan’s girl. He deserves to die.” Sorcerer God did not look at him. She stared at the ground and tightened her grip on the butterfly saber.

Divine Lord narrowed his eyes.

However, just as divine lord was about to speak, the group of gods standing around him suddenly spat out blood and fell to the ground, dead.

Upon seeing this, divine lord and sorcerer God frowned.

“Kekeke! The sovereign divine lord of the God continent? That old guy, the Master God, can’t take it anymore? He has long handed the God continent to a young kid like you!” A black-robed man appeared in the sky.

This person’s entire body was black, only revealing a pair of pitch-black eyes.

This person was the mysterious person.

“Who are you! ?” When the divine lord saw this, he frowned and looked over.

“Yi, this little girl’s willpower isn’t bad. She actually survived?” The mysterious person glanced at the sorcerer God, somewhat surprised.

The surrounding gods weren't weak, but in front of the mysterious person, they couldn't even withstand this move.

The Magus God did not die from the pressure the mysterious man had exerted on her. It was clear how strong she was!

"Keke Keke! Interesting! Interesting! Then you can enjoy the maze I left for You!" The mysterious man waved his hand and disappeared in front of the divine lord and Magus God.

After the mysterious man disappeared, what was originally a forest suddenly turned into a bottomless abyss. There were cliffs and cliffs, and there was no one around.

When the divine lord saw this, he used his spiritual power, but he could not break free.

The mysterious man's spiritual power might not be above his, but the bottomless abyss that the mysterious man created used spiritual power that he could not crack.

The Divine Lord's brows tightened.

"That person is looking for you. This matter has nothing to do with me. Goodbye." When the sorcerer God saw this, he turned around and was about to walk to the other side of the bottomless abyss.

"Didn't you hear what he said? None of us can leave. Don't wander around. The bottom of the hundred thousand feet deep abyss is filled with god-exterminating rocks. As long as you fall, even a god's soul will be shattered!"

When the divine lord saw that the sorcerer God was about to turn around and wander around, he did not know what triggered him. He walked forward and grabbed her sleeve.

The sorcerer God was wearing a classic black plain clothes. After the battle with the god, her clothes had already been torn many times.

With a tug from the Divine Lord, the plain robe on his chest was pulled down to the side.

The sorcerer God had developed well and was very plump. Her chest had been a little swollen for the past few days, so she was not wearing any underwear.

With this tug, the full scenery was directly presented in front of him...

Chapter 1914: began to recall, divine lord sorcerer God (3)

The sorcerer God was wearing a black plain clothes that resembled an ancient straitjacket. The black straitjacket that was originally wrapped around the sorcerer God's body had already revealed the sorcerer God's exquisite figure.

With this tug, the divine lord could completely see everything inside.

The growth was indeed very good...

The Divine Lord was entranced.

The sorcerer God was also momentarily unable to react.

After the sorcerer God reacted, although she did not shout like the other women, she still blushed and quickly pulled her clothes back to their original positions.

The sorcerer God raised his hand and directly slapped the Divine Lord's handsome face, which was so handsome that it angered both man and God. "Shameless!"

The daughters of the sorcerer race paid the most attention to their own innocence, especially since the sorcerer race had a clan rule. Any daughter of the sorcerer race who lost her virginity before marriage would either marry the other party, kill the other party, or die.

The sorcerer God had never been treated like this by a man, so she blushed and slapped the divine lord.

As the ruler of the divine continent, the divine lord was also the ruler of all things. He had been respected and flattered by everyone since he was young, but he had never been slapped.

Furthermore, the other party... was a young girl!

The Divine Lord flipped his hand and grabbed the sorcerer God's wrist.

It was a gentleman's behavior to never lay a hand on a woman. He was not a gentleman.

As long as someone provoked him, regardless of whether it was a woman or a man, he would kill them without fail. This was the style of a divine lord.

The sorcerer God had just slapped him. According to the personality of a divine lord in the past, the sorcerer God's soul should have dissipated long ago.

However, after he grabbed her wrist, he only pulled her wrist and walked towards the cliff, the slope of the bottomless abyss.

"Please let go of my hand!" The sorcerer God's face was flushed red. Her body had never been seen by any man. Just now, not only did he look at her upper body, but now, he was also holding her wrist.

"Don't move. I'll bring you out of here," the divine Lord grabbed the sorcerer God's wrist and said involuntarily in a gentle voice.

At that moment, the two of them were standing on a narrow cliff that only allowed one person to pass through. The two of them were standing on this narrow passageway, and the sorcerer God could still step on it with both of his feet.

Divine Lord, who was looking at her, was standing on half of the passageway while the other half was hanging outside.

At the bottom of the 100,000-foot cliff was god-destroying rock.

God-destroying rock, as its name implied, was magma that could kill gods.

Even if a God accidentally fell into the god-destroying rock, he would be instantly turned into ashes.

This was the power of the god-destroying rock.

When the sorcerer Goddess saw that the divine lord was indeed taking her away, she did not make a fuss like the other little girls. Instead, she pursed her lips and did not speak.

The sorcerer Goddess leaned against the cliff. The Divine Lord grabbed her wrist and looked at her.

In fact, the Divine Lord's other hand was on the cliff, sensing how to solve the maze that the mysterious person had left for them.

As the ruler of the divine continent, the divine lord was naturally not an ordinary person.

After a while, the divine lord quickly said, "Here, our spiritual power is blocked and can not be used normally. But don't worry, you are dragged into this because of me. I will definitely bring you out safely!"

His words made her blink her eyes. For some reason, she felt her heart skip a beat.

"Hold me tight," he suddenly said to her.

"..." she had just changed her opinion of him when he said this. She was slightly stunned.

"There is a cave under the cliff. You hold me tight, and I will bring you into the cave," the Divine Lord explained.

After that, the divine lord paused and added, "It'll be done in a while. I Won't take advantage of you."

Since he had said so, she couldn't refuse.

Moreover, neither of them could use their spirit energy here.

The mysterious man couldn't use his spirit energy here either. This place created by the mysterious man should be another space.

Only then did the sorcerer God gently stretch out his hand and press his previous body against his chest, hugging him tightly.

Knowing that she was well-developed, he had unintentionally pulled open her clothes just now and saw it. When he thought of the scene he saw, the divine lord suddenly felt hot and his lower body tightened...

Chapter 1915: began to recollect. Divine Lord Sorcerer God (4)

Of course, the sorcerer God did not see the abnormality of the divine lord.

And at this moment, the sorcerer God was buried in front of the divine lord's chest, sniffing his faint and pure smell.

It smelled very good, a very fresh smell.

She had thought that men were a species with an overwhelming stench, but she did not expect that a man's smell could also be so good...

The divine lord no longer hesitated. He hugged her instead and fell backward.

The sorcerer God hugged him and fell down the cliff.

This action was very dangerous.

Especially now that the divine lord and the sorcerer God had lost their spirit energy.

Their bodies fell toward the god-exterminating rock below the cliff at the speed of light.

When they fell into the air, the divine lord hugged her with one hand and grabbed a rock protruding from a cliff that had been falling.

That hand actually carried the weight of the two people and stopped them from falling and hung them by the edge of the cliff.

God of sorcerer blinked in shock.

Whether it was the immortal cultivators of the various continents or the gods of the God continent, they all had one thing in common because they had cultivated spirit energy and lacked the intrinsic strength of their bodies. Without spirit energy, they were just ordinary Earthlings!

Some of them were even inferior to ordinary Earthlings.

As for him, even without his spirit energy, he was able to achieve this. This showed how strong his body was.

This made the sorcerer God very surprised.

By the time he reacted, the divine lord had already carried the sorcerer God into the cave.

After entering the cave, the Divine Lord let go of the sorcerer God as expected.

For the next three days, the divine lord and the sorcerer God spent the entire time in the cave.

The night was too cold, so the divine lord hugged the sorcerer God to keep her warm.

The sorcerer God refused at the beginning and gradually became addicted.

Three days was not long, but the sorcerer God could feel that he had feelings for him that he should not have.

Therefore, after the divine lord cracked the maze three days later and the two of them left this desolate place, the sorcerer God left without saying goodbye.

The divine lord could naturally feel her feelings for him. At that time, the Divine Lord had already developed feelings for the sorcerer God.

In the Divine Hall.

The Divine Lord's father, the old man of the main god, was sitting on the table. Seeing the Divine Lord's absent-mindedness for the past few days, he said to the Divine Lord,

“What are you thinking about! If you like it, then go and Chase it! Rascal! What did your father teach you? If you like it, then go and chase it. If you can’t chase it, you can just take it. I’m not afraid that she won’t agree with you.”

With that said, the old man of the main God took a bite of the chicken drumstick and drank a glass of wine.

“How are you going to chase her?”The Divine Lord looked askance at the old man of the main god with his sharp eyes and asked.

“In three years, the grand ceremony of the various continents will begin. At that time, you will bring the betrothal gifts and directly propose to her in front of the people attending the grand ceremony of the various continents. Won’t that be a success!”The old man of the main god chuckled, he drank another mouthful of wine.

For the next three years, the divine lord kept inviting the sorcerer God to meet him in the cave that he had previously mentioned. There were beds and daily necessities in the cave. It was the place where the two of them secretly met.

Three years passed very quickly. The grand ceremony of the various continents was the next day.

That night, the Divine Lord told the sorcerer God that he would propose to her at the grand ceremony tomorrow. He wanted her to definitely appear.

The sorcerer God refused. In the end, the divine lord was so angry that he said, “If you don’t come, I will destroy the thousands of continents.”Then, he left.

The next day, the sorcerer God really did not appear because she knew that he would not really destroy the thousands of continents.

He was not that kind of person.

At that time, at the grand ceremony, the king of the imperial dragon continent said, “Lord sorcerer God will not come.”In his anger, the divine lord killed the king of the Imperial Dragon Continent.

Then, he went to the cave they had agreed on to look for her.

The events that followed were fragments of memories that Yun Jian had already recovered from.

In the cave, he wanted to force her and bring her back to the God continent to get married, but the god continent was attacked by the black-robed men of the mysterious man’s faction.

In order to ensure the sorcerer God’s safety, the divine lord brought his four great protectors back to the God continent alone and kept her there.

But who knew that all of this was just a trap...

Chapter 1916: began to recall, divine lord sorcerer God (5)

The black-robed man was the mysterious man’s subordinate.

The mysterious man was the leader of this group of black-robed men.

That group of black-robed men dressed exactly like the mysterious man. They were all dressed in black robes, with only a pair of sharp eyes exposed. Other than that, it was impossible to see or distinguish their looks.

As for who the mysterious man was, it was even more impossible to know.

From the moment he appeared to deal with the Divine Lord and the sorcerer God, he had been dressed in this manner.

And when the Divine Lord returned to the continent of gods, he discovered that the black-robed men that the mysterious man had sent to attack the continent of gods were all just a pretense.

The Mysterious Man's true goal was...

Her!

The moment the divine lord rushed to the Shaman Tribe, the mysterious man had already launched a sneak attack on the Shaman Tribe and engaged in a great battle with the sorcerer God.

In order to protect the Magus race, the Magus God had been defeated by the mysterious person and was on the verge of his soul dissipating.

Of course, such a powerful figure like the mysterious person had also suffered severe injuries after the battle with the Magus God. His soul should have dissipated.

In Yun Jian's memories, he could remember that the mysterious person's soul should have dissipated along with hers. In the end, he swallowed a bead and fled the scene.

The moment the divine lord arrived, it happened to be the moment the mysterious person fled the scene.

As for the sorcerer God, he fell to the ground the moment the divine lord arrived and was on the verge of disintegrating.

Before this, the sorcerer God had never dared to say the words "I love you" in front of the Divine Lord.

Even though they had been meeting in the stone cave for the past three years, secretly sneaking around behind someone's back, the sorcerer God had never shown her love for the Divine Lord.

She was afraid and did not dare to accept his love, but she could not do it without sneaking around with him.

This should be how love was supposed to be.

At the moment when she was about to close her eyes, the sorcerer God stretched out her beautiful hands and placed them on the divine Lord's handsome face. It was the first time she took the initiative to kiss him.

"I... AM about to die, but there is one thing I must... ahem, I must say..."

The sorcerer God placed his lips next to the Divine Lord's ear. She used all her strength to say the three words that she never dared to mention when she was alive. It had always been him who had single-handedly paid for her. She wanted to say but could not. "I love you..."

After these three words were said, the divine lord's slender, well-defined hand gently attached itself to her face.

A powerful spiritual force emerged from the Divine Lord's body.

"You..."the sorcerer Goddess was so weak that she could not speak. She silently stared at him with her eyes wide open.

However, she saw that the divine lord did not hesitate at all and directly injected all his spiritual force into her body.

If that happened, he would die!

The sorcerer God could no longer speak. She shook her head, but she did not even have the strength to raise her hand to stop him.

"If you die, how can I Live?"With that, he gave all his spiritual power to her, using all his spiritual power in exchange for her life.

As a god, the divine Lord's action could save her, but the price to pay was death! The consequences of having his soul scattered!

"Lord Sorcerer God! Lord sorcerer God, you can't be harmed! The Shaman Tribe still needs you!"

"Lord Sorcerer God! Lord sorcerer God! Lord sorcerer God!"

...

At that time, after the battle with the black-robed man, the heavily injured Shaman tribe members could not help but crawl up in pain. They knelt before the sorcerer God and wailed in pain.

"She will be fine."After the Divine Lord transferred all his spiritual power to her, he stood up.

Then, he used the last bit of spiritual power he had left to tear open the passage from the Imperial Dragon Continent to the ancient tomb on Earth and send her to Earth.

After Divine Lord did all this, he knelt on one leg and disappeared on the spot.

This was...

A sign of the fall of a God!

Divine Lord had fallen for her!

The last thing the sorcerer God saw when he was sent to earth was him smiling at her gently and saying silently, "You have to live well."

He sent her to Earth because he did not want the mysterious man to find her and then persecute her.

At least for a short period of time, before she could protect herself, she could not encounter any more danger.

Seeing this, the sorcerer goddess, who had disappeared in front of the witches and was sent to Earth, left behind a final sentence that was as firm as a blood oath:

“I will definitely return after a thousand years!”

After a thousand years, when she returned, she would not hesitate to scatter her soul to return with the mysterious person!

He had said before, if you die, how can I live on.

Then if he dies, how can she live on her own?

If the monarch dies, then life and death will follow the monarch, and they will go to the Netherworld together.

Chapter 1917: his little note, he took the initiative to woo her

That was why the sorcerer God had left behind the words, “I will definitely return in a thousand years.” That was why even if she did not remember her past life, as the god of brakes in her previous life, she had a deep obsession.

She wanted to survive! She wanted to become stronger!

All of this was just to kill the mysterious person!

As if he had just woken up from a dream, the memories in Yun Jian’s mind stopped at the moment when he disappeared from the imperial dragon continent for her, and she was sent out of the imperial dragon continent by him...

“AIYO, my little witch God Cutie, why are you still crying? Don’t Cry, Don’t cry. Wipe your tears away. If that Brat sees this, he might think that I’ve done something to you.”

The old man of the main God who was standing by the side saw the tears flowing down Yun Jian’s eyes. He hurriedly took three steps to the left and three steps to the right, walking in circles.

Fortunately, his little brat was not here. If his little brat was here, based on how much that Little Brat spoiled the little witch God Cutie, he would probably blow up his lair.

Desolate Yan, who was standing guard outside the house, suddenly felt a powerful aura. She knew that Lord Divine Lord was definitely here. She quickly gathered her head outside the house and came in, shouting at the old man of the main god.

“What! Damn! What a coincidence! Those who don’t know should think that I’m bullying his wife!” The old man of the main god panicked when he heard that.

The cloud note, who was standing in the same spot, blinked at that moment. She could not see the scene in front of her clearly because she could not help but shed tears.

She could only feel a familiar warm arm pulling her into an embrace behind her empty back.

Si Yi's brows tightened when he saw her crying.

The next second, Si Yi looked askance at the old sovereign and said to the old man, "Damned Old Man, what have you done to her?"

"No, no, no, son! Don't be angry, don't be angry! I'm... I'm just helping our little witch God's little cutie recover her memories, i..."

Just as the main god Old Man finished speaking, a ball of flame flew out from Si Yi's palm and directly hit the old man's pitiful hair.

"Awooo! awooo! awooo! awooo! Pain, pain, pain! My pitiful hair..."the old man was hit by the ball of flame and was frantically hopping back and forth on the spot.

In the end, the fire was extinguished, but there wasn't a single strand of hair left on his head.

"F * ck! Do I have a son like you? ! Old Man, do you think it's easy for me to go to Earth to buy hair tonic? !"The old man held his hair and jumped around.

Si Yi glanced at the old man from the corner of his eyes, then pulled Yun Zhi's little hand and left.

Si Yi's bedroom.

Si Yi had just pulled Yun Zhi back to his bedroom. Before the door could close, Yun Zhi hugged him.

Si Yi was not stupid. He naturally knew what the old man had done to Yun Jian.

"I'm fine."Si Yi's handsome face moved. He reached out and rubbed Yun Jian's head, hugging her tightly in his arms.

"Why? Why did you save me? If you had died back then..."Yun Jian did not dare to speak. She could not imagine a world without him.

"Because it was you,"Si Yi said without hesitation.

After Si Yi said this, Yun Jian stood on Tiptoe, wrapped his arms around his neck, and kissed him.

She didn't have anything to repay him, and she knew that he didn't lack anything.

He was the god of the God continent, the ruler of all things. He could have been so high and mighty that even the mysterious man wasn't his match.

He almost died because of her.

Yun Jian did not know how to repay this favor.

Moreover, he did not lack anything.

In that case, she could only use her body to repay him.

Si Yi, who was pushed onto the bed by Yun Jian, was flattered. When Yun Jian sat down, Si Yi could not believe that all of this was real...

His Little Jian actually took the initiative...

Chapter 1918: the lowly continent did not deserve to be here

In the past, Si Yi had always worked hard and enjoyed the cloud tablet.

But today, after the cloud tablet pushed Si Yi onto the bed, it took the initiative to be on top...

The night was already late. Even on the God continent, it was the night when the gods rested. Only the gentle breeze was left.

However, the divine lord of the Divine Hall's residence did not stop the lights for an entire night.

...

Yun Jian had been on it at the beginning, but he ran out of strength later on. Si Yi refused to let her go, so he pestered her to do it three more times.

Yun Jian began to regret that he had taken the initiative to provoke this great devil.

The next day, Yun Jian spent the entire day lying on the bed. His feet turned limp the moment they touched the ground.

Only on the third day could Yun Jian land.

That afternoon, desolate Yan came to look for the cloud note. Si Yi did not allow the cloud note to follow her at first.

Last time, it was desolate Yan who had helped that old man call her away.

She had even done such a thing behind his back.

However, the cloud note insisted on going, so Si Yi agreed.

At this moment, desolate Yan brought the cloud note to the God continent's market.

The God continent was inhabited by gods, and here, there were markets similar to those on other continents and earth.

Desolate Yan used the currency of the divine continent to buy some things. Just as she was about to bring the cloud tablet back to the Divine Hall, a shout stopped her:

"Desolate Yan? You actually came out to shop? I haven't seen you for half a year. I heard that you were in closed door cultivation? I missed you so much!"

Once this shout was heard, the cloud tablet could see desolate Yan's eyebrows sink.

Originally, desolate Yan had invited the cloud tablet to the market today to accompany her to buy some things that the old sovereign had instructed her to buy. She hadn't expected to meet an acquaintance.

“Let’s go.”When desolate Yan heard this, the person who did not make a sound said softly to Yun Jian and was about to leave with Yun Jian.

The Divine Hall was the place where the ruler of the God continent lived.

In the God continent, the person with the highest status was Lord Divine Lord.

Next was Lord Divine Lord.

In the God continent, other than Lord Divine Lord, who had the highest status, there were five elders who had the same status as Lord Divine Lord.

The strength of these five elders was on par with Lord Divine Lord. Their status and influence were also on par with Lord Divine Lord, and they were all subordinates of Lord Divine Lord.

And the man who had shouted at desolate Yan was the third disciple of the first elder of the five elders. His name was Xuan Zhen.

Xuan Zhen’s looks were average, and he was shorter than desolate Yan.

And everyone knew that Xuan Zhen was interested in desolate Yan. In the past, he had always pestered desolate yan. Desolate Yan had always ignored him, and whenever he saw him, he would take a detour.

Because the status of the great elder and the main god were on par, Xuan Zhen was the disciple of the great elder, and desolate Yan was the disciple of the main god.

Thus, Xuan Zhen had always felt that he and desolate Yan were a perfect match!

Seeing that desolate Yan was about to leave, Xuan Zhen hurriedly brought a group of men and women with him to surround desolate Yan and the cloud paper.

“Hey, Hey, Hey, don’t go. Yan Yan, are you unhappy to see me?”As he spoke, Xuan Zhen even brushed his bangs, giving desolate yan an adoring look.

Regardless of whether it was the gods of the God continent or the people of Earth, their actions and actions were the same.

Other than the gods of the god continent having spiritual energy.

“Get out of the way, a good dog doesn’t block the way!”Desolate Yan glanced at Xuan Zhen and said coldly.

“Senior brother Xuan Zhen, look, she doesn’t give you face at all. She thinks that she is the only disciple of the main god and is showing off! In fact, she doesn’t have any ability. What do you like about this kind of Woman!”

A woman standing beside Xuan Zhen looked at a woman in her early twenties and charmingly made a few poses. She cast a sidelong glance at desolate Yan and said to Xuan Zhen.

This woman was jealous of desolate Yan’s beauty, and because desolate Yan was the only disciple of the main god, she had always been jealous of desolate Yan.

At this moment, Yun Zhi, who was standing beside desolate Yan, turned her head slightly.

Her beautiful face immediately appeared in front of everyone, causing everyone present to take a deep breath.

When the woman, who had been disdainful of desolate Yan, saw this, she clenched her fists tightly and looked at the cloud note.

“She is not a god of our God continent!”

The woman had wanted to say something contemptuous to the cloud note, but when she felt the aura from the cloud note, which did not belong to the god of their God continent, she looked at the cloud note in surprise.

The next second, the woman glared at the cloud note and looked at her with a contemptuous expression:

“It’s actually someone from thousands of continents? Hehe! This kind of person from a lowly continent is not worthy of coming to our supreme God Continent!”

Chapter 1919: could it be that they were itching to be exterminated

The gods on the God continent were different from the thousands of people on the God continent.

Most of the spirit energy emitted by the gods on the God continent was powerful.

As for the spirit energy emitted by the gods on the God continent and the people on the God continent, as long as they were gods on the god continent, they could smell it.

According to the God on the God continent, the aura of the people on the God continent was mostly low, disgusting, and disgusting.

Yun Jian’s spiritual power was too strong, so the woman, Xuan Zhen, and the other gods didn’t realize that she wasn’t a god on the God continent.

The woman who spoke rudely to Yun Jian was called Jin Zhenxiu. Jin Zhenxiu was the disciple of the second elder and the second daughter of the Jin family on the God continent.

The Jin family was the third most powerful family in the God continent.

One family in the God continent was enough to wipe out the entire God continent.

The Jin family was also a well-known family even in the God continent.

Therefore, Jin Zhenxiu had always been arrogant.

Without a doubt, Xuan Zhen’s Xuan family was also one of the ten most powerful families in the God continent.

Xuan Zhen’s Xuan family was ranked second.

The other men and women who could walk together with Xuan Zhen, Jin Zhenxiu, and the others were definitely one of the top ten heaven-defying families in the God continent, or one of the disciples of the five elders.

Their status in the God continent was extremely noble.

And in the God continent, there was an unwritten rule. That was that they all thought that other than the God continent, the other thousands of continents were all low and lowly continents, like ants.

Therefore, when she felt the aura of a god that did not belong to the God continent from the cloud note, Jin Xiuzhen looked at the cloud note and directly mocked it.

“That kind of person from the lowly continent can actually be so beautiful?” Xuan Zhen was a playboy. It was because he saw Huang Yan’s beauty that he had been chasing her. Now that he saw the cloud note, he almost drooled.

“Little sister, What’s Your Name? which continent are you from? It doesn’t matter even if you’re from a lowly continent. Follow me and let your continent become the strongest existence among the thousands of continents. How about it?”

Xuan Zhen rubbed her hands and looked at Yun Jian, wanting to come forward.

“How dare you! Do you know who the person standing in front of You Is? !” When Desolate Yan saw this, she kicked Xuan Zhen in the abdomen and immediately said decisively.

“I know. She’s a commoner from the lowly continent. No one will remember her even if I step on an ant like her to death.” Jin Xiu Zhen giggled and said with a cold smile.

“Jin Xiu Zhen, you are going too far. So what if she’s from thousands of continents? The gods of our God continent are stronger than them, but we can’t bully the weak like this.”

Just as Jin Xiu Zhen finished speaking, a handsome-looking man beside her spoke.

“Li Nong, what are you saying? Whose side are you on? !” After hearing the man’s words, Jin Xiu Zhen roared at him and turned her gaze back to Yun Zhi.

Seeing Yun Zhi looking at her, Jin Xiu Zhen raised her head to look at Yun Zhi, she said, “What are you looking at? If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being from the lowly continent! Even if I stomp an ant like you to death, it won’t do anything! Because you’re from the lowly continent!”

Jin Xiuzhen emphasized the words “Lowly continent” very heavily.

“Jin family, Jin Zhengwen?” After hearing Jin Xiuzhen’s words, Yun Jian suddenly remembered something and said softly.

Hearing Yun Jian actually mention her father, who was also the head of the Jin family, Jin Xiuzhen was stunned and then said to Yun Jian,

“What? You know my father? Don’t think that I will let you off just because you know my father’s name, lowly...”

Just as Jin Xiuzhen said this, Yun Jian who was standing in front of everyone suddenly curved his lips. She sneered and said in front of everyone,

“Back then, I let that Guy Jin Zhengwen off. I didn’t expect his descendants to be so arrogant and despotic. Could it be that the Jin family is itching for trouble? Have they forgotten about the disaster of extermination?”

Chapter 1920: You Think You’re Worthy? What kind of joke is this

When Yun Jian was the sorcerer God, he did not come to the God continent only once.

The God continent was indeed a place that all the continents yearned for, as well as a place that was sacred and inviolable.

At the same time, the people who could open the passage to the God continent, even the gods of the God continent, only had less than ten people.

Therefore, the God continent was not only sacred in everyone’s eyes, but it was also a place that many experts of the various continents wanted to reach their entire lives.

Of course, this was only for the people of the various continents.

When Yun Jian was the sorcerer God, she could go whenever she wanted. Furthermore, she had been in an “Underground relationship” with divine lord for three years. Later on, she had visited the god continent more than once.

And the gods of the God continent had a common point that everyone knew.

That was, they thought that they were superior and that the people from the other thousands of continents were the lowest.

Therefore, when Yun Jian came to the God continent as the god of sorcerer, he was also despised by many gods.

The gods of the God continent had always been arrogant, like a peacock standing proudly.

And as long as there were thousands of people from the God continent, these gods would attack the people from the thousands of continents.

Although the gods of the God continent would not directly kill this person from the thousands of continents, they would make the people from the thousands of continents unable to stay here.

For example, the gods that passed by you would look at you with contempt, or they would point at you with their own companions and say, “This person is actually from the lowly continent.”

Of course, using words to curse was still considered better.

Because the god of sorcerer had once killed a god from the God’s continent, the gods from the God’s continent all viewed her as their mortal enemy.

According to the god from the God's continent, it didn't matter if the God who was killed by the god of sorcerer had killed a man from the shaman tribe, or if he had humiliated a girl from the Shaman Tribe.

To be killed and humiliated by their god was the honor of the people from the lowly continent!

However, as a person from thousands of continents, the sorcerer God was not allowed to kill the god from their God continent!

Therefore, when the sorcerer God came to the God continent again, other than the divine lord, Main God, and the five great elders, the strongest ten heaven-defying families of the God continent joined forces to deal with her.

The combined strength of the ten heaven-defying families of the God continent was so strong that even the combined strength of the five great elders and main God did not dare to provoke them.

In this world, only divine lords were fearless.

But what the gods of the God continent never expected was that the god continent's ten great heaven-defying families would join forces to deal with the sorcerer God.

This matter was already world-shaking in the God continent.

The ten great heaven-defying families joining forces to deal with the sorcerer God was enough to give the sorcerer God Face!

But what the gods never expected was that the ten great heaven-defying families, which should have had the upper hand, were fooled by the sorcerer God.

The ten great families, the ten most powerful families on the God continent, were almost destroyed by the sorcerer God!

In the end, the Patriarch of the ten great families on the God continent knelt in front of the sorcerer God to apologize and beg for mercy. He slapped himself hundreds of times, and the sorcerer God only let him go after the Lord God came forward to beg for their mercy.

At that time, this matter shocked the entire God continent.

The god of sorcerer had also become a terrifying figure that terrified the gods of the God continent upon hearing it!

Therefore, upon hearing the three words 'Jin Zhengwen', Yun Zhi recalled the Jin family, which was ranked third among the ten great families of the God continent, and thus said the words just now.

And upon hearing Yun Zhi's words, everyone was fiercely stunned.

Especially Jin Zhenxiu.

After hearing Yun Zhi's words, Jin Zhenxiu was completely stunned. After she recovered from her shock, she looked at Yun Zhi and said,

“What nonsense are you talking about? What disaster? My Jin family has always been powerful. We are the third most powerful family among the top ten families in the God continent! When has there ever been a disaster? !”!

“And by saying this, you mean you have once defeated my father. Just because you are from a lowly continent? Just because you are from a lowly continent? You? Are You Worthy! ? What kind of joke is this!”
