

Schoolgirl 2001

Chapter 2001: Martial Arts Club of the school next door

A normal person would have been paralyzed after jogging for 3,000 meters. After Yun Jian finished running, she took the bottle of water that Zhu Huili gave her and opened the cap to swallow the water.

After drinking it, Yun Jian didn't gasp for breath. Her chest only moved slightly as if she was gasping for breath. She didn't look like she was going to fall to the ground.

Xu Zhenglong and Wei Jingxuan were completely dumbfounded by what they saw.

At this moment, Zhu Huili, who had handed Yun Jian some water, turned around and glanced at Xu Zhenglong when she heard Xu Zhenglong say, "Could she have come from the military?" She could not help but say what she knew:

"How do you know that Yun Jian came from the military? She went to the military academy in High School!"

As she said this, Zhu Huili felt proud of Yun Jian.

"F * ck! She really came from the fucking military?" Xu Zhenglong had just said a random sentence, but after hearing Zhu Huili's words, Xu Zhenglong was stunned.

Xu Zhenglong had just lamented, but he never thought that Yun Jian was really...

"Let's go to the club." Yun Jian took the coat that he had just taken off from Zhu Huili's hand and led the way to the martial arts club.

When Mo Bufan heard what Zhu Huili said, he was also slightly stunned.

Yun Jian actually went to military school!

This was no wonder, her unfathomable skills!

"Hey, Hey, wait, little girl, did you really go to military school in high school? Tell me, is military school fun? Are there any differences between the students of military school and US who go to ordinary high schools?"

"I've always fantasized about going to a military academy myself! Then I can become an outstanding soldier! So great, so powerful! Wait, wait, wait! Quickly tell me... is your strength at the bottom of the military academy or what?"

Xu Zhenglong's interest was suddenly piqued. He chased after Yun Jian and ran for a long distance. He asked and asked, not feeling tired at all.

In a short while, Yun Jian and the others arrived at the fixed place of the martial arts club.

Every club in the university had its own fixed place. If a club president wanted to set up a club, he had to have a fixed and fixed place for the members to maintain their hobbies together. Only then could he set up a club.

Therefore, sometimes, if one wanted to set up a club, if one did not have the subsidy from the university, it would require financial resources to maintain a club well.

Mo Bufan's family was rich, and he loved martial arts. Originally, the martial arts club did not have a venue, so Mo Bufan rented a venue with his own money that could be used to practice martial arts. There were all kinds of martial arts facilities in the venue.

The venue was not in the university.

Therefore, Yun Jian and the others left the university and walked towards the martial arts club's venue.

It was already close to seven in the morning. University students who did not have classes in the morning were generally sleepy, but Mo Bufan asked the members of the martial arts club to gather at the martial arts club at 6:30 every day.

Therefore, no matter how sleepy they were, the members of the martial arts club had already gathered at the martial arts club's training grounds.

Zhu Huili didn't come along. She had an early class in the morning and had already returned to her dormitory. Before she left, she greeted Yun Jian.

At that time, Yun Jian had already taken the lead and walked into the martial arts club's venue.

However, what entered her eyes was the messy ground. Many things had been overturned. The trash in the trash can had been dumped on the ground. Some benches, tables, and chairs had been overturned.

At that time, the martial arts club was supposed to be filled with members of the martial arts club, but only one or two girls were still standing there.

When Yun Jian saw this, she frowned. "What's going on?"

When Yun Jian had just become the martial arts club's president, the members of the martial arts club did not welcome her. Although they did not say anything, all the members of the martial arts club gave her a look.

Hiding in the dark, they rolled their eyes at her.

At this moment, the two girls who were standing at the same spot were obviously shocked by what had happened not long ago. When they saw Yun Jian and Mo Bufan, it was as if they had seen a life-saving straw. They strode towards Yun Jian and Mo Bufan:

"The Martial Arts Club of Dragon City University next door has come to the bustling city again. They heard that our club has changed to a girl as the president. They made all kinds of sarcastic remarks and said a lot of unacceptable things!

"Just now, Zhou Juntao quarreled with the members of Dragon City University's martial arts club. The members of Dragon City University's martial arts club started to flip our tables and stools..."

"They even injured Zhou Juntao and sent him to the hospital now..."

Chapter 2002: prepare to receive the baptism of death

Jiangcheng was a university town. There were almost a dozen universities near Jiangcheng University Town. There were about 100,000 foreign students gathered here. It could be said that this was a very large number.

The martial arts club was not something that only existed in Jiangcheng University of Electronics and technology.

The Dragon City University that the girls mentioned had a martial arts club. In order to make their martial arts club sound more popular, the president of the Martial Arts Club of Dragon City University even named their martial arts club: Green Bull Gang.

This name sounded a little like the name of a gang, but it was not the case. The Green Bull Gang was different from a gang like the Falcon Palace. The Green Bull Gang was just a martial arts club of a regular university.

However, with the name of the Green Bull Gang, the members of the Martial Arts Club of Dragon City University felt that it was very impressive.

The Green Bull Gang and Mo Bufan's martial arts club were mortal enemies from last year's and the year before last's martial arts club competitions.

To put it bluntly, the relationship between them was either one of them dying or the other dying.

Initially, the Green Bull Gang had been quiet for two days. However, they did not expect that in just a few days, the president of the Green Bull Gang heard that Mo Bufan's martial arts club had changed to a girl as the president. He could not sit still and came to stir up trouble again.

Coincidentally, Mo Bufan and Yun Jian were not in the martial arts club. As a result, Zhou Juntao of the martial arts club had a strong personality. He had a conflict with the members of the Green Bull Gang and was injured and sent to the hospital.

Outside the emergency room of the hospital.

Zhou Juntao's head was injured and he had a slight concussion. He was sent to the ward and needed to be hospitalized to recuperate.

"F * ck those little brats of the Green Bull Gang. Do they really think they are the Green Bull Gang? I Can't take it anymore. I must avenge Juntao!"

Some of the boys were so angry that they wanted to charge into the Green Bull Gang's territory alone.

"Wait." Yun Jian, who was standing in front of the members of the martial arts club, stopped the boy.

At this moment, the members of the martial arts club were all in a rage. They even had the intention to fight with the Green Bull Gang to get back at them.

Hearing Yun Jian's words, the boy frowned and said to Yun Jian,

“I never agreed to let you be the president. Now that Jun Tao is in such a state, don’t you want me to seek revenge from the Green Bull Gang? You are a woman. You are really not suitable to be a member of our martial arts club...”

Before the boy could finish his sentence, Yun Jian asked coldly, “Where is the Green Bull Gang?”

By the time the boy came back to his senses, the members of the martial arts club had already followed Yun Jian to the Green Bull Gang’s territory.

“This is the place. Damn it, the bunch of bastards from the Green Bull Gang must be hiding! I’ll go knock on the door!” Although the boy was angry, he was about to angrily walk over and knock on the locked door of the Green Bull Gang.

Yun Jian strode forward and stretched out her slender legs toward the door.

With a kick, she directly kicked the locked iron door away in front of everyone.

“Damn it!” Seeing Yun Jian kick away the locked iron door, whether it was Mo Bufan, Mo Bufan’s brothers Xu Zhenglong and Wei Jingxuan, or the members of the martial arts club., they all gasped in shock.

Inside the door, the members of the Green Bull Gang who had heard the president of the Green Bull Gang say that as long as they didn’t open the door, the members of the Martial Arts Club of Jiang City University of electronic technology wouldn’t be able to enter were shocked by the sound of Yun Jian kicking away the iron door.

When they turned around, they saw a pair of feet wearing white flat shoes that were first revealed in front of everyone’s eyes.

What entered their eyes was an 18-year-old girl who was 1.65 meters tall and had a face so exquisite and beautiful that it made people forget to breathe.

However, just as the members of the Green Bull Gang were shocked into a daze, they saw the girl in front of Mo Bufan, Xu Zhenglong, Wei Jingxuan, and all the members of the martial arts club, including the members of the Green Bull Gang.

Seeing her kick the iron door that was uprooted and kicked onto the ground once again, she directly kicked the iron door over a dozen meters and hit the head of a boy from the Green Bull Gang.

This boy happened to be the president of the Green Bull Gang, Wu Ren, who had beaten Zhou Juntao into the hospital.

Wu Ren was hit hard by the Iron Gate and could not get up for a long time.

“President!”

“President!”

The members of the Green Bull gang shouted in fear when they saw their club president being hit by the Iron Gate.

Yun Jian had originally guessed that this boy was most likely the president of the Green Bull Gang. However, when she heard how the members of the Green Bull Gang addressed the boy, she immediately confirmed it.

She calmly took two steps towards Wu Ren. Then, in front of all the members of the two martial arts clubs, she drew a red arc that made people subconsciously feel afraid.

She drew an arc and sneered at Wu Ren:

“The president of the Green Bull Gang, huh? I Don’t care how the President of our martial arts club dealt with this matter before. But today, the president of the Martial Arts Club is me. Since you dare to hurt the person that I protect, then you better...”.

“Prepare to be baptized by Death!”

Chapter 2003: no matter how powerful they were, they would all go to Hell

‘prepare to receive the baptism of death!’

The last sentence of Yun Jian resounded in every corner of the room, causing everyone’s hearts to Clench.

Everyone present was a university student.

Although they were not in the same school as Yun Jian, their ages were similar. They were only in their teens to early twenties. They were upright and youthful, full of vigor and passion.

Students at this age were usually impulsive. That was why Wu Ren accidentally injured Zhou Juntao and sent him to the hospital.

Of course, Wu Ren regretted it after he hit Zhou Juntao. He did not want to hurt Zhou Juntao.

The incident happened suddenly. Wu Ren watched Zhou Juntao being sent to the hospital. Because he was afraid that something big would happen, he did not go to the hospital with Zhou Juntao. Instead, he returned to his own Green Bull Gang.

Wu Ren had even thought of the confession that the school teachers or the police station would come to investigate after Zhou Juntao’s incident.

When he heard the voice of Mo Bufan’s martial arts club coming from outside the main entrance, Wu Ren immediately told his members of the Green Bull Gang that they were not allowed to open the door. If that happened, the members of Mo Bufan’s martial arts club would not be able to enter!

After all, Wu Ren had provoked them first and sent them to the hospital. He felt very guilty.

However, Wu Ren and the members of the Green Bull Gang thought that Mo Bufan’s martial arts club would leave if they couldn’t open the locked iron gate.

An eighteen-year-old young girl actually kicked open the iron gate in front of everyone!

How much strength did she need to do that! To Do That!

That was an iron gate! She actually sent the iron gate flying with one kick!

What was even more terrifying was that after the young girl entered the gate, she actually kicked up the iron gate that had been uprooted and kicked to the ground, sending the iron gate flying more than ten meters away. She ruthlessly and accurately smashed it onto Wu Ren's head.

Wu Ren was unable to recover from this smash for a long time.

The girl then poured out the words that shocked everyone present.

Moreover, what the girl meant was...

She was the new female president of the legendary Jiang Cheng University of Electronics and technology, who had replaced the genius martial arts youth Mo Bufan as president! ?

There were so many universities around the university city, and there weren't only one or two martial arts clubs. However, it was the first time that a girl had become the president of a martial arts club!

Therefore, when they found out that Yun Jian was the new president of the Martial Arts Club of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, the members of the Green Bull Gang were in disbelief.

Wu Ren was hit in the head by Yun Jian's iron door. Although there was no blood, his head shook. When Wu Ren reacted, he slapped open the iron door and stood up, covering his head. His anger instantly reached its peak.

"How dare you hit me with the Iron Gate! You are a girl, how dare you hit me with the Iron Gate! How dare you talk to me with such a tone! Don't you know that in previous competitions, your martial arts club was defeated by me, the Green Bull Gang!

"Moreover, the martial arts club is the territory of the boys. I don't know what methods you used to become the president of the martial arts club! Could it be that you are having an affair with Mo Bufan?

"Oh, or are you using the methods that you girls are used to, using your bodies to gain benefits? Or did you sleep with a certain school leader of Jiangcheng University of Electronics and technology and force the position of club president to be given to you?"?

"TSK TSK, have you forgotten that I've sent Zhou Juntao to the hospital? You still dare to come here and court death. You want me to send all of you to the hospital one by one, don't you?"

Mo Bufan's martial arts club had never been a match for Wu Ren's Green Bull Gang in the past martial arts competitions. This was an indisputable fact.

At the same time, the members of Mo Bufan's martial arts club hated to hear these words the most.

Wu Ren had used these extremely vicious words not long ago to force Zhou Juntao to fight Wu Ren. In the end, he was injured.

"Wu Ren! You're courting death!" A male student standing beside Mo Bufan heard Wu Ren's words. He was so angry that he clenched his fists and was about to rush towards Wu Ren.

However, the male student did not have the time to rush towards Wu Ren.

However, he only saw an afterimage that was faster and more agile than the male student had already arrived in front of Wu Ren at a speed that could not be seen by the naked eye.

Wu Ren was still using a mocking tone to mock the cloud paper, but in the next second, his expression changed. The cloud paper that was more than ten meters away from him was already in front of him!

Wu Ren was shocked. He stretched out his hand and wanted to counterattack.

However, the cloud paper in front of him suddenly grabbed at the air, and a butterfly knife appeared in his hand.

Then, a dazzling knife light flashed by in an instant.

Everyone saw Yun Jian holding the butterfly knife and cutting Wu Ren's body a few times. Wu Ren reached out to grab the butterfly knife in her hand.

Yun Jian was as calm as ever. She nimbly dodged to the left in front of everyone. While she dodged, she kicked Wu Ren's back to the ground. Then, she kicked Wu Ren like a rubber ball, with a fierce kick, she sent Wu Ren flying in front of the members of the Green Bull Gang.

This series of actions only took Yun Jian five seconds!

And at that time, a scene that made everyone dumbfounded happened!

Wu Ren, who was kicked in front of the members of the Green Bull Gang, was like a piece of rag that was pieced together. All of his clothes were shattered at the same time!

Except for his underwear, the clothes on Wu Ren's body were torn into pieces as if they were rags!

The few slashes she made just now!

That seemingly weak blade technique directly tore through Wu Ren's clothes!

This blade was as fast as a piece of Numb Wood!

If she had exerted a little force just now, the pieces wouldn't have been Wu Ren's clothes, but...

Everyone present didn't dare to think about it anymore. At that time, everyone, including the members of the Green Bull Gang, Mo Bufan, Mo Bufan's brothers, Xu Zheng long, and Wei Jingxuan, all had blank expressions on their faces.

However, at this moment, Yun Zhi sheathed her blade. In the next second, her cold words rang out once again. This time, it was different from before. This time, when Yun Zhi spoke, it gave people an inexplicable feeling of trepidation. They only heard her say.., it was to all the members of the Green Bull Gang:

"In the past, the martial arts club lost to you because they were useless. I have nothing to say. Now that the martial arts club has fallen into my hands, let me tell you, no matter how powerful your Green Bull Gang was in the past...

"I, Yun Jian, will send you to hell!"

Chapter 2004: Leave No trash behind and leave immediately

No matter how powerful the Green Bull Gang was, as long as the martial arts club of Jiang City University of electronic technology had her Yun Jian, the Green Bull Gang would only be an insignificant stumbling block!

The words of the Yun Jian resounded throughout the entire venue.

When the members of the Green Bull Gang heard this, their hearts twitched violently.

When Mo Bufan and the members of the martial arts club heard this, a sense of pride rose up from Nowhere!

It had to be said that when Mo Bufan stamped Zhang Zhen's name and transferred the martial arts club to Yun Jian, the members of the martial arts club were very unconvinced.

She was just a woman, could she really lead the martial arts club?

Everyone in the club was very protesting. Even Zhou Juntao, who had seen Yun Jian show off his skills and asked Mo Bufan to invite Yun Jian to join their martial arts club, was a little doubtful and worried.

But at this moment, after hearing what Yun Jian said and Yun Jian's way of venting his anger just now!

What she did just now was even more ruthless than sending Wu Ren to the hospital directly!

One had to know that boys at the age of youth were desperate for face!

As expected, Wu Ren's clothes were torn into pieces. After he had nothing to hide except his underwear, he shouted twice and rushed over to pick up the iron door, using it to cover his body.

"Don't look! Don't fucking look at me!" Wu Ren couldn't care less about the pain on his body anymore. He shouted twice.

At that time, Wu Ren's legs were crossed inside out, and he stood like a shy woman. Compared to Wu Ren, who had always been arrogant and domineering, this was like the difference between heaven and earth!

"Hahaha! hahaha! Wu Ren, did you fucking hear that? Our president said that no matter how powerful your Green Bull Gang was in the past, if you dare to show off in front of us again, Your Green Bull Gang will go to Hell!"

The boy who had impulsively told Yun Jian that she, a woman, was not suitable to be the president of their martial arts club, clutched his stomach and laughed loudly at Wu Ren.

"That's right! Wu Ren, weren't you quite arrogant in the past? ! The next time you see us, Take Your Green Bull Gang and get lost! If I don't teach you guys a lesson, do you really think you're that great? Do you think you're that great?"

"Well done, president! Long live the president! Well done, president! Long live the President!"

...

The members of the martial arts club who were originally not optimistic about Yun Jian began to cry out in surprise.

Unknowingly, everyone had already tacitly acknowledged Yun Jian's identity as the president of the martial arts club.

Wu Ren did not want to acknowledge it, but he had to admit that he had resisted just now, but he could not even withstand a single move from Yun Jian!

This girl! She was too terrifying!

He was not a match for her at all! Perhaps even ten of him combined would not be able to contend against her!

At the thought of this, Wu Ren's face instantly turned deathly pale.

Where did Mo Bufan find this girl! This was too f * cking scary!

Wu Ren's cowardly look was enough for everyone present to mock him for a while. Zhou Juntao only had a slight concussion, which was not very serious. He only needed to rest for two days and did not need special treatment.

Therefore, the people from the martial arts club did not continue to attack Wu Ren. They only planned to inform the school and let Wu Ren's University punish him.

Wu Ren could not even protect himself. The members of the Green Bull Gang did not dare to say another word. The previously arrogant Green Bull Gang was now as quiet as a bunch of sheep waiting to be slaughtered.

At this moment, Yun Jian had already walked out of the door.

Actually, Yun Jian did not come today to avenge Zhou Juntao.

In the words of Yun Jian, Zhou Juntao was not as good as Wu Ren. He deserved to be beaten up and sent to the hospital!

This was a world that relied on strength to survive. If you were weak and bullied, if you waited for others to avenge you, then you deserved to be bullied!

The main goal of Yun Jian came was to swear an oath.

Since Yun Zhi took over the martial arts club, then no one could touch the martial arts club, because the martial arts club's backer was her!

Just as the martial arts club members were feeling proud of Yun Zhi's powerful strength, Yun Zhi, who was about to step on the steps to leave the Green Bull Gang, suddenly stopped and turned around in front of everyone.

When the Green Bull gang members saw this, they thought that Yun Zhi was going to attack the members of the Green Bull Gang again. They were so scared that they almost found a small corner to hide.

The members of the martial arts club were a little proud.

Even Xu Zhenglong and Wei Jingxuan, who were not members of the martial arts club, were affected by the atmosphere and felt a little proud.

At this moment, Yun Jian cast a sidelong glance at all the members of the martial arts club in front of everyone. She said with a cold face that did not allow any rebuttal,

“Tomorrow at 4:50, we will gather at the school’s large sports field. From tomorrow onwards, everyone will receive training. Let’s make it clear in advance that no trash will be left in our martial arts club! If you can’t take it, Leave Now!”

Chapter 2005: fraternity for college freshmen

The cloud paper was ruthless.

She was ruthless to herself as well as to others.

She was ruthless when she should be, and she wouldn’t stay a moment longer if she shouldn’t.

It was even more impossible for her to retain those who she wanted to leave.

Those who were willing to stay, and those who were unwilling, would leave on their own.

This was the principle of cloud paper’s conduct.

She hated people who quit midway the most.

If you did something, you had to do it from the beginning to the end. If you chose to leave halfway, she would rather the other party never choose to persist.

The overall strength of the martial arts club was too weak. There were only a few who were strong.

Therefore, when Wu Ren and the others bullied him, Zhou Juntao could only end up in the hospital.

Since the martial arts club was now in her hands, she would definitely not let such a thing happen.

Therefore, Yun Jian planned to train the members of the martial arts club.

Of course, Yun Jian had already made it clear that those who could not accept it would be fired.

Don’t wait until halfway through to back out.

Those who backed out halfway were more repulsive to Yun Jian than those who backed out right from the start.

When Mo Bufan heard Yun Jian’s words, he knew that Yun Jian was trying to help him improve the strength of the martial arts club.

Mo Bufan was delighted. Before the members of the martial arts club could react, he shouted in public,

“I swear to follow the new president to the death!”

When Mo Bufan shouted, the members of the martial arts club immediately reacted.

“I swear to follow the new president to the death!”

“I swear to follow the new president to the death!”

...

At this moment, the members of the martial arts club followed Mo Bufan and shouted wildly.

For a moment, the shouts resounded throughout the entire place.

After witnessing Yun Jian’s skills and seeing the previously arrogant and domineering Wu Ren, he was now as scared as a turtle. Everyone present had a momentary desire.

They also wanted to become stronger!

Not a single member of the Martial Arts Club retreated!

Even the female students had initially joined the martial arts club in order to get close to Mo Bufan. At this moment, they wanted to become as strong as Yun Jian!

Of course, there was no senior sister, Cai Huiling, who had a feud with Yun Jian at the entrance of the cafeteria when Yun Jian had just entered the university.

Cai Huiling had lost all her face. It had been quite a while since she had asked for leave to go home and did not come to school.

The current members of the martial arts club all regarded Yun Jian as a role model!

Seeing this, Yun Jian slightly curved her body and left her beautiful side to the crowd. The corner of her body rose again, leaving a sentence that made everyone present feel hot-blooded:

“Tomorrow morning, 4:50 AM. See you at the Big Sports Field.”

After saying that, Yun Jian turned her body and left the place first.

Until Yun Jian left, Xu Zhenglong, who was deeply attracted by Yun Jian, still looked at the place where Yun Jian disappeared with some shock and sighed:

“Oh my God! As expected of someone who went to a military academy in high school. He’s too F * cking amazing! This aura! Don’t be too strong!”

Xu Zhenglong’s words were filled with admiration.

As soon as he finished speaking, he shocked everyone in the martial arts club, as well as Wu Ren and the members of the Green Bull Gang.

“What! ? She went to a military academy in high school?”

“A girl like her can actually go to a military academy that a boy went to. She’s really amazing...”

“No wonder she’s so strong...”

Everyone said the same thing.

However, at that time, the members of the martial arts club and the Green Bull Gang didn't know one thing. Not only did Yun Jian go to a military academy, but she was also the number one person in Min City's military academy!

The King squad, Asura himself!

Zhu Huili's morning class was also considered the morning class of the club, so she left early in the morning.

Zhu Huili liked to draw, so she joined the art club before Yun Jian joined the martial arts club.

Yun Jian and Zhu Huili were in the same class, so they didn't have classes in the morning.

There was a Chinese class in the afternoon.

There were very few classes in the university. At most, there were two classes a day, and they would rest on weekends.

A class lasted about two hours. As long as they could reach the classroom before the class started, it would be fine.

In the afternoon's Chinese class, there were also some students who skipped class. Yun Jian and Zhu Huili, on the other hand, started class on time and ended class on time.

The class started at 1:30 pm and ended at 3:30 pm. Yun Jian and Zhu Huili got up and were about to return to the dormitory when they were stopped by their class monitor.

It was more appropriate to say that all the students in the class were stopped by the class monitor.

The class monitor of the university usually handed over all the matters to the class monitor and rarely came to the classroom. The number of times that the students could see the class monitor in a semester could be counted on one hand.

If the students had something to do, they would usually look for the class monitor.

Yun Jian and the class monitor of Computer Science Class 13, who was in their freshman year, was a thin and tall male student who looked average.

The boy held a statistics form in his hand. After calling out to all the students in the class, he announced his plan:

"I applied to the school this morning to borrow the school's gymnasium venue. I plan to hold a small-scale freshmen mixer in the evening so that everyone can play games together and get to know each other. Is that Alright?"

Chapter 2006: someone touched and touched her

The male student was Yun Jian, the class monitor of Class 13, freshman computer science. His name was Lou Zhenlin.

Lou Zhenlin was tall and thin. His appearance was also very average. He was not ugly. After looking at him for a long time, he would not be disgusted. He was a good-looking person.

Jiangcheng University of electronic technology was mainly computer science. There were other majors to choose from. However, most of the students who came to Jiangcheng University of electronic technology chose computer science as their major.

Therefore, the number of applications for computer science was off the charts.

Therefore, there were many computer science classes in a grade.

And the cloud note just so happened to belong to the first year Computer Science Class 13.

The class activities in the university were organized by the class monitor and the class cadre. At that time, after listening to the class monitor Lou Zhenlin's words, some of the girls in the class became restless.

"Freshmen mixer? Class monitor, then can we bring our friends from other classes to join us? Just our class, how boring!"

"That's right, my boyfriend is a student from the neighboring school. It would be great if everyone could join the freshmen mixer together!"

"That's right! Class Monitor, you're the one making the decisions anyway!"

When Lou Zhenlin heard this, he tacitly agreed. "At 5:30 pm, the students from our own class will finish their dinner earlier and come over to organize the venue."

When the students heard this, they all nodded.

After Lou Zhenlin said this, he dismissed everyone.

The other students in the class were all quite obedient, except for the other two roommates in Yun Jian's dormitory, Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan.

Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan skipped class every day and almost never came to the classroom.

University was different from junior high and high school. University teachers did not remember people. They just called the time and left after class.

Miao Li and Xi Xiujuan asked people to call for them every day. Naturally, the teachers would not notice.

At 5:30 pm, Yun Jian and Zhu Huili arrived at the school gymnasium on time.

At this time, there were a few tables in the gymnasium. Lou Zhenlin, who was the class monitor, was organizing the students to blow up balloons.

When he saw Yun Jian and Zhu Huili coming over, he asked Yun Jian and Zhu Huili to help.

"Hu! Hu! Hu!" Zhu Huili's lung capacity was huge, and she blew one in a breath.

Yun Jian also blew a few.

At six o'clock in the evening, the freshmen mixer of Computer Science Class 13 officially began.

Apart from the students in the same class, nearly half of the students were from other classes or other schools.

In fact, the freshmen mixer was nothing more than for everyone to get to know each other and play games together. That was all.

"Ah! Look, look, it's the campus belle of Dongfang University! He's so handsome! He's even more handsome than the campus belle that our school recognized!"

"That's song Yu! Campus Belle Song!"

"Why would campus Belle Song Come Here? Ah! I'm really going to die of handsomeness!"

"Don't tell me, he's definitely here to look for our class Belle, Mo Lianhua. Let's not even think about it! In class, only Mo Lianhua Knows Campus Belle Song!"

...

The surrounding girls immediately started discussing Yun Yun.

Yun Jian was already ten days late for admission. Adding on the military training, she was twenty days later than the other students.

The class had already chosen the class Belle. It was a girl named Mo Lianhua.

At this moment, Mo Lianhua was praised by the surrounding people. She covered her face and pretended to be embarrassed.

However, at this moment, another female voice sounded:

"Hey, don't tell me. Before this, I thought that Mo Lianhua was the class belle of our class. However, compared to the female student who entered the school late, they are on a completely different level!"

"If you didn't tell me, I would have forgotten about it. It's really true!" Someone replied immediately.

For a moment, all the public opinion turned to Yun Jian's side.

Mo Lianhua, who was pretending to be shy, froze when she heard the words of the people around her.

Yun Jian was standing in the corner, blinking his eyes.

At that moment, Song Yu, who was known as the campus belle of Dongfang University next door, had already walked into the gate.

Song Yu looked around and walked toward Mo Lianhua.

"Ah Ah Ah, campus belle song is indeed walking toward Mo Lianhua! Mo Lianhua is so happy! !!"

"I'm so envious..."

The surrounding girls screamed again.

At this moment, Yun Jian was sitting in a corner, closing his eyes to rest.

However, just as Song Yu was about to reach Mo Lianhua, he stopped and suddenly asked, "Oh right, I heard that there's a girl called Yun Jian in your class. Who is she?"

Hearing that Song Yu actually asked, the girls who knew pointed at Yun Jian and answered, "She, she, she! It's her..."

The cloud paper who was suddenly called frowned slightly and opened his eyes.

Song Yu had already looked at the cloud paper. When he saw the appearance of the cloud paper, Song Yu was shocked.

So Beautiful!

In the afternoon, he heard that the martial arts club of Jiang City University of electronic technology had changed to a girl as the president. That girl even beat up the President of the Green Bull Gang. Song Yu thought that the girl should have a strong back and a strong waist.

However, he never expected that this girl would be so beautiful!

Song Yu was mesmerized. He stared at the cloud note and couldn't take his eyes off it.

Mo Lianhua, who originally thought that Song Yu would walk towards her but was attracted by the cloud note, instantly felt that the cloud note had stolen her limelight. She clenched her fists.

At this moment, a little follower beside Mo Lianhua saw that Mo Lianhua was unhappy. In order to please Mo Lianhua, she suddenly stood up and pointed at the cloud note. She said in public:

"Oh, so her name is Yun Jian. Last week, I saw her get into a man's car. That car was an expensive Lamborghini! I didn't see the man clearly. He must be quite old!"

"Because her clothes didn't fit in with that sports car, I took a few more glances at her. That man seemed to be touching and touching her in the car..."

Chapter 2007: picking up three old friends

Song Yu was the campus belle of Dongfang University next door. In the hearts of the female students of Dongfang University, her position was not inferior to Mo Bufan's position at Jiangcheng University of electronic technology.

Song Yu had also heard this afternoon that the position of President of the Martial Arts Club of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, MO Bufan, had been taken away by a female student.

Young College students, both male and female, did not have much to do in university. They relied on their own studies and had a lot of free time.

Therefore, any slight movement could be spread out at a rocket-like speed.

Mo Bufan was the unspoken campus belle of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology. His martial arts club was his symbol.

And now, Mo Bufan had actually given up his martial arts club to someone else, and the other party was a girl!

This matter, not to mention being spread all over Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, even the students of the surrounding universities had already heard about it.

And this morning, after the news of Yun Jian bringing the members of the martial arts club to the Green Bull Gang's territory and beating up the president of the Green Bull Gang, Wu Ren, spread out,

It caused a huge wave!

Song Yu's connections were all over the place. He had long heard of this matter.

Today, he had been invited by Mo Lianhua to participate in the freshmen mixer of their first year Computer Science Class 13. Song Yu had originally wanted to walk towards Mo Lianhua after entering the gym.

But he suddenly remembered that the famous new president of the Martial Arts Club, the girl named Yun Jian, was also in first year Computer Science Class 13. So out of curiosity, he asked.

He thought that Yun Jian was fat and strong, but Song Yu never expected that she was so beautiful!

Mo Lianhua had been the school Belle since junior high school. In high school and university, the word 'flower' had always been used to praise beauty.

But just now, the spotlight had been stolen by this new student who had entered the school later!

She was not convinced!

Mo Lianhua was about to say something, but the little follower standing next to Mo Lianhua said something like that in order to please her.

After hearing what the lackey beside Mo Lianhua said, the noisy scene instantly quieted down.

Yun Zhi was dressed well, but she wasn't wearing a famous brand. She gave people the impression that her family wasn't poor, but it wasn't any better.

What the lackey beside Mo Lianhua said...

Wasn't she beating around the bush and saying that Yun Zhi was kept by an old man?

This made some of the boys who were originally interested in Yun Jian look at her with a different gaze.

"Nonsense! Are you talking about the mid-autumn Festival holiday last week? I went home with Yun Jian that day! Don't slander me!"

Although Zhu Huili was fat, at the crucial moment, she still stood up for Yun Jian and scolded Mo Lianhua's little sidekick.

"Didn't you separate from her at the gate? I saw her get into a Lamborghini sports car with my own eyes! The Man in the car seems to be quite old!"

Mo Lianhua's Lackey replied.

In fact, she didn't see what the man in the Lamborghini looked like. He wasn't young, she just saw Yun Jian get into a Lamborghini sports car.

Zhu Huili was a more honest and honest person. It was true that she had indeed separated from Yun Zhi at the entrance.

Therefore, after hearing what the little follower of Mo Lianhua said, Zhu Huili opened her mouth but could not say anything to refute.

She did not know what happened after that.

The little follower of Mo Lianhua immediately put on an expression that said, "You don't have anything to say now, do you?"

Yun Jian had not spoken a word since the beginning.

An outstanding person would always attract the attention of countless people. Even if you just sat there and did not move, someone would still come looking for you.

Just as Mo Lianhua's Lackey was feeling smug, Yun Jian, who was sitting in the distance, suddenly stood up.

Song Yu had yet to react to what his lackey had said when he saw Yun Jian ignore them. He only greeted Zhu Huili before walking out.

"The Fellowship Party has started. Where are you going?" Lou Zhenlin, the class monitor, did not like to gossip. He asked Yun Jianli when he saw Yun Jianli leaving.

Yun Jianli only left one sentence for everyone: "To pick up my three old friends."

Chapter 2008: was a black-and-white story

After she finished speaking, Yun Jian's figure had already disappeared in front of everyone's eyes.

She didn't say anything, didn't leave any explanation, and left Midway.

"Then you have to come back quickly! Our class mixer is about to begin!"

Class monitor Lou Zhenlin saw Yun Jian walk out of the gym. He placed his hands by his mouth and shouted towards the place where Yun Jian had left.

At that moment, Yun Jian had already walked far away.

"Class monitor, why are you bothering with that woman who sells her body for money? I think she might be the mistress of some old man!"

"I've already said it out loud, but she didn't dare to refute it because that's the truth! So she ran away in a Panic!"

Mo Lianhua's little follower looked in the direction where Yun Jian had left and said a few words angrily.

Mo Lianhua's lackey was called Pan Qian.

Pan Qian was Mo Lianhua's number one lackey. She usually stirred up trouble with Mo Lianhua and bullied a lot of girls.

At this moment, Mo Lianhua himself stood up and walked towards Song Yu. Then, he held Song Yu's hand in front of everyone.

"Yu, you didn't even greet me the moment you came!" As he said this, Mo Lianhua looked shy.

"I'm just curious about the new president of your school's Martial Arts Club, right?"

Song Yu, who had just left the scene, pretended not to notice Yun Jian and scratched his head. He let Mo Lianhua hold his hand and said.

However, it was quite disappointing. He thought about how such a beautiful woman was kept by an old man and kept under him every day...

Song Yu shook his head. As expected of a girl like Yun Jian, it was fine to have sex with her, but it was not suitable for them to spend the rest of their lives together.

Obviously, Yun Jian did not explain. Everyone thought that Yun Jian was really kept by an old man like Pan Qian said.

Only Zhu Huili still believed in Yun Jian, but she could not produce any evidence.

...

At that time, everyone was discussing Yun Jian as he walked out of the gymnasium and towards the school gate.

She had just received a text message saying that the three group leaders of the Gu Sha mercenary group had arrived in Jiang City and were already at the gate of Jiang City University of Electronics and technology.

Yun Jian walked over quickly and saw three familiar figures standing near the eight-character school monument of Jiang City University of Electronics and technology.

There were also some students entering and leaving the school.

It was very common to see foreigners in the university.

Because there were many foreign students in the university, as long as you walked in the university town, you could see a few foreigners passing by from time to time who could not understand the language of the country.

As the three leaders of the ancient killing mercenary group, Diane, Gui Yan, and Gui Lian were not so conspicuous.

When the intelligence team leader Diane saw Yun Jian walking over, she gave Yun Jian a big hug before using standard Chinese pronunciation. "Sister Jian, did you call us here for an urgent matter?"

"Yes." Yun Jian nodded. Then, she glanced around and looked at Diane and the other two. She spoke again:

“It’s not convenient here. We’ll meet at Hengtang Old Street at three o’clock tomorrow afternoon. You guys find a hotel to stay at first.”

“Okay!” Diane and the other two never asked why Yun Jian ordered them. They just followed his orders.

After that, the three of them turned around and left the place as if they had never been here before.

Yun Jian also turned around and returned to the gym in a short while.

She went to the school gate just to meet Diane and the other two.

At this moment, she couldn’t stay any longer, so she arranged a meeting place and Yun Jian returned to the gym.

Yun Jian was very low-key this time. When she returned to the gym, her classmates had already started playing games and were having a great time.

Yun Jian secretly returned to a small corner and did not plan to participate in any activities.

She had more important things to do. She had a stronger enemy to deal with. She was different from this group of carefree students.

However, before she quietly sat down next to Zhu Huili, Pan Qian, who had previously said that Yun Jian got into an old man’s car, saw Yun Jian at a glance. In front of everyone, she started to create something out of nothing and stir up trouble:

“Look, everyone, the cloud note from our class is back again! It even said that it was going to pick up three old friends. I think it’s going to pick up three old clients! What’s wrong? It’s back so soon?”?

“Could it be that the three old clients that you just picked up are all old men? You finished three rounds so quickly? TSK TSK... you’re really F * cking fast at earning money!”

Chapter 2009: Not to mention now, there was no more chance

Pan Qian was the kind of person who did not stir up trouble, but felt an itch in her heart.

Especially when there was something to stir up. The storm had already passed, but Pan Qian still wanted to stir up trouble.

Otherwise, Pan Qian would feel an itch in her heart.

In addition, Pan Qian was Mo Lianhua’s number one follower. Just now, Yun Jian attracted Song Yu’s attention, and Pan Qian had always been unhappy. She felt that her Mo Lianhua was the class Belle, and she was the best match for Song Yu.

Yun Jian actually wanted to attract Song Yu’s attention? Ptui! Just because she was the president of a martial arts club?

Then Pan Qian would destroy her reputation!

Because Pan Qian had spread rumors about Yun Jian, Yun Jian did not say anything. Therefore, Pan Qian thought that Yun Jian was afraid of her and did not dare to challenge her, so she became more arrogant.

Her words were so unpleasant that everyone frowned.

“Qianqian! How can you say that! Every profession is not easy. Everyone has their own difficulties. Even if you sell your body to make money, it is still a skill of others. You Can’t insult others like this...”

Mo Lianhua pretended to be pitiful. She took Song Yu’s hand and shrank back to Song Yu’s side. She gently reprimanded Pan Qian.

Those who did not know better would really think that Mo Lianhua was speaking up for Yun Jian.

“Sister Lianhua, you are still too kind. You Don’t know the dangers of society! A girl like her is really scheming!” Pan Qian patted Mo Lianhua’s hand and glared fiercely at Yun Jian from afar.

Wasn’t she just a poor person who did not dare to resist and did not have any power? She was willing to sell her body for money. She was shameless to the extreme!

However, just as Pan Qian was feeling proud that Yun Jian wouldn’t resist her, a quiet female voice sounded coldly:

“You can say it a few more times.”

This quiet female voice was like the Grim Reaper of hell, bringing a chill to the spine of everyone present.

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, Zhu Huili, and the class monitor, Lou Zhenlin, as well as all the first-year computer science class 13 students present, as well as those from other classes and other schools who came to join in the fun.., all of them felt their hearts tremble.

When they came to their senses, they were once again shocked and puzzled.

Yun Jian actually made Pan Qian say it a few more times? Was she crazy! ?

“Huh? Are you really stupid? You actually made me say it a few more times?” Pan Qian was also stunned for a moment. Then, she looked at Yun Jian with a face full of disdain.

Could it be that this fellow had been hit on the mark by her, and she had said it in front of all the students, so she could not accept it and began to spout nonsense?

Song Yu had already stopped paying attention to Yun Jian, but after hearing Yun Jian’s rambling words, he was attracted again.

She was really a mysterious girl. Of course, if Pan Qian had not said that, Song Yu would have abandoned Mo Lianhua and turned around to pursue Yun Jian.

Whether Yun Jian was a virgin or not, this was not important to Song Yu, because there were many young men and women at this age who stole forbidden fruits.

Most of the young men and women went there just for fun.

Song Yu himself had also slept with many girls.

But after hearing Pan Qian say that Yun Jian might be a mistress of some old man, Song Yu disliked it.

He was a man, and he was also the campus belle of Dongfang University. Naturally, he could not be with a mistress.

Of course, Song Yu originally thought that at worst, he could secretly have sex with Yun Jian a few times. It would be enough for him to have a girlfriend like Mo Lianhua.

As for Song Yu, he could dump his girlfriend at any time, so it was fine even if she was not a virgin.

However, the woman who wanted to spend the rest of her life with him in the future had to be a virgin.

This idea was shared by many young men.

But Please Don't forget one thing: How Good Do You Think You Are? Are you a fragrant bun? Are second-hand goods like you really worthy of such a clean girl! Go and take a piss and clean yourself up!

Pan Qian, Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and everyone else thought that Yun Jian was stupid and started to talk nonsense.

Yun Jian, who was sitting in a small corner, suddenly stood up in front of everyone.

Pan Qian glanced at him with contempt, only to see Yun Jian's hands hanging down. She grabbed at the air with both hands.

Under the sunlight of the stadium, there were two butterfly knives that flashed with silver light. They were held in her left and right hands with the blades facing down.

Just like the female assassins in the movies, Yun Jian held the two butterfly knives. Her cold eyes darkened, and she slowly walked toward Pan Qian from the corner.

"Knife knife knife! Where did she get the knife in her hand? ! She actually has a knife hidden on her body!"

The surrounding people were so frightened that they cried out.

An ordinary female student actually had a knife hidden on her body!

However, before the crowd could react, Yun Jian was already about to approach Pan Qian. Her face, which was so cold that there was no trace of warmth at all, moved with a red arc as she coldly said,

"Because... if you don't say it now, you'll never have the chance to say it again in your life."

Chapter 2010: she was a legendary figure in the military region

Just Imagine, a female university student was attending a class-organized social gathering when two butterfly knives suddenly appeared in her hands.

The action of taking out the butterfly knives was like a female agent in a movie, appearing in her hands in an instant.

This was a shocking action!

At least everyone present was shocked.

The cold words from Yun Jian's mouth made everyone's expression change.

What she meant was... she wanted to kill Pan Qian!

"You, you, you, what do you want to Do? ! Isn't what I said the truth? ! You Can't take it and you want to kill me? Let me tell you, if you dare to come near me again, don't blame me for not being polite!"

Pan Qian was frightened by Yun Jian's actions and retreated one after another.

In the gymnasium, the scene that had just calmed down was once again noisy.

However, this time, the noisy scene was because of the two butterfly knives in Yun Jian's hands.

"Student Yun Jian, there are still so many people watching around. Don't get too emotional. Qianqian definitely doesn't have any bad intentions. I told everyone to stop talking about you. It's nothing. Even if you really are... It's nothing."

"Everyone, stop talking about her. Yu, help me say something. It's nothing to earn money with your body... It's all based on your own abilities. Yu, help me say something..."

Mo Lianhua saw Yun Jian walking towards Pan Qian with the butterfly knife in his hand. She couldn't help but feel flustered. She was afraid that Yun Jian's knife would accidentally hurt her. She quickly grabbed Song Yu's strong arm and hid behind Song Yu.

Mo Lianhua insisted on using Yun Jian's body to make money, which was the same as Pan Qian's words.

From the beginning, Pan Qian and Mo Lianhua's words were enough to make the surrounding people misunderstand.

If Yun Jian stood up to clear his name, not only would he not be able to clear his name, it would become the result of her desperately trying to clear her name, but no one would listen to her words.

Therefore, Yun Jian was too lazy to explain from the beginning.

As for now, Pan Qian's words were meant to destroy her. It was definitely not the same as at the beginning, it was just spreading rumors.

If she, Yun Jian, did not make a move, she would be a coward.

Song Yu was grabbed by Mo Lianhua's arm. He tilted his head and looked at Yun Jian.

Although Mo Lianhua was not bad looking, the closer he looked at Yun Jian, the more Song Yu felt that Yun Jian was exquisite.

If not for the fact that she was his mistress, he would definitely woo her and make her his girlfriend.

Unfortunately, she was only qualified to warm his bed now.

"Stop fooling around. It's the social gathering time for your class. The knife in your hand is not suitable for you. The blade will hurt your hand. It's not good if it bleeds. Be Good, give me the knife."

Song Yu followed Mo Lianhua as she held his hand. She took two steps towards Yun Jian, wanting to use an excuse to make Yun Jian give her the butterfly knife obediently.

At the same time, she could also touch Yun Jian's tender hand.

"Wow! Campus Belle song is worthy of being recognized as the number one campus Belle in Dongfang University. She's so gentle!"

"I'm so envious! If it were me, I would feel disgusted even if I touched a woman with her legs spread open and lying under a man!"

"Exactly!"

...

The boys and girls in the gymnasium began to chatter.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. She could see that Mo Lianhua and Pan Qian were looking at her with smug eyes.

"Yun Jian! Yun Jian! Look Who's Here!"

Just when everyone in the stadium was so certain, and Mo Lianhua and Pan Qian were looking at Yun Jian with the expression of having succeeded in their scheme, a male voice came from outside the gymnasium.

Everyone looked towards the entrance.

They saw Mo Bufan bringing six familiar figures into the stadium and walking towards them.

When he saw the six people, Yun Jian's eyes narrowed even more.

However, just as Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, Song Yu, and everyone else in the stadium were certain that Yun Jian was holding the butterfly knife and was just putting on an act, that she was just a woman who was selling her body under a man.

Mo Bufan brought the six people and walked towards Yun Jian. His shocked voice rang out, and he exclaimed in front of everyone:

"Good! Yun Jian, you're not good enough to be a brother! You actually didn't tell us earlier! Just now, I met them at the school gate! They said that they were here to look for you! I brought them here on the way, and only after chatting did I find out..."

"At first, I thought you only went to military school in high school! I didn't expect you to be the famous high-level special forces soldier two years ago, the god of death of the King's squad! You were once known as the legend of the invincible myth of the military!"
