Chapter 2291: Chapter 2292 recalling the past, the main god and Yan (2)

Translator: 549690339

When Baili Yan smelled the piece of red braised meat that her mother usually loved to eat, it was as if she had smelled some very stimulating food.

That feeling was as if she had smelled the smell of some kind of stimulant.

Moreover, this smell passed through her respiratory tract and directly reacted to her stomach. Then, it transmitted the uncomfortable feeling in her stomach to her brain.

Therefore, Baili Yan couldn't help but directly turn around and retch.

That feeling was as if she could vomit out everything she ate just now. It was extremely uncomfortable.

It wasn't until this uncomfortable feeling of vomiting passed that Baili Yan returned to normal. She didn't think too much about it. She just turned around and picked up her chopsticks, wanting to continue eating.

After picking up her chopsticks, Baili Yan first pushed back the piece of red braised meat that her mother had given to her. Then, she said, "Mother, I don't want to eat meat. Recently, when I eat meat, I feel like vomiting."

Baili Yan didn't think that it would have any effect on her if she suddenly became unable to eat meat. She just returned the piece of meat in her bowl to her mother who had just given her the meat.

She still had her head slightly lowered, her face gloomy and her mind unsettled.

Having her innocence taken away by the main god, Baili Yan clearly cared very much. However, she didn't dare to tell her parents about this matter.

Her grief was all hidden in the bottom of Baili Yan's heart.

After saying this, Baili Yan picked up her chopsticks and began to eat again, pretending as if nothing had happened, and she didn't feel that there was anything wrong with it.

But after taking two mouthfuls of food, Baili Yan felt as if all the gazes around her seemed to be focused on her. She raised her head and glanced at her surroundings.

What she saw was a group of people sitting around her, all looking at her with stunned expressions.

“Father, mother, what’s Wrong?” Baili Yan chewed on a mouthful of vegetarian dishes and asked her parents as if nothing had happened just now.

“Yan... Yan Yan, what are you doing? You... braised pork is your favorite. Why did you throw up just now... And you threw up just like when I was pregnant with you...”

“Yan Yan, you can’t be... pregnant, right...”

At the end of her sentence, Baili Yan’s mother’s eyes widened.

Obviously, even Baili Yan’s mother herself didn’t believe this statement.

Her daughter was innocent, how could she be pregnant?

Without waiting for Baili family head to express his opinion, after Baili Yan listened to her mother’s words, she seemed to have suffered a severe blow. She was so scared that her hands touched the bowl and chopsticks on her table in a panic. In a panic, she accidentally knocked the bowl and chopsticks over.

“Mother! How could I possibly... ! Mother, father, brother and sister, I’m a little unwell, I’ll go back first.” Baili Yan’s eyes blinked, looking to the side, she anxiously found an excuse and fled in panic.

“Little sister, are you scared by Mother? Haha, mother, don’t scare little sister. Little Sister is a pure and innocent girl, how could she be pregnant just because she said so!”

Bai Li Yan’s brother, Bai Li Feng, saw Bai Li Yan’s fleeing appearance and laughed out loud, arguing.

“That’s right!” Bai Li Yan’s brothers and sisters said.

Hearing this, everyone quickly forgot about what happened just now.

At this time, Bai Li Yan ran back to her room in a panic, closed the door, and locked the door. She crouched down in fear and held her stomach.

Not mentioning this matter, she completely forgot that she hadn’t had her period for two months.

Since that time, her period hadn’t come again.

Could it be that she was really pregnant... ?

When she was young, Baili Yan was still very young. She was so scared that she hugged her body and slowly slid to the ground.

What should she do...

Baili Yan didn't see it. She ran into the room in a panic. Outside the room, a tall and handsome man was walking toward her bedroom after she entered the room...

Chapter 2292: Chapter 2293 recollection of the past, the sovereign and Yan (3)

Translator: 549690339

In the following two months, the sovereign did not appear in front of Baili Yan.

This did not mean that the sovereign did not secretly come to see Baili Yan.

Ever since that day, the sovereign had felt Baili Yan's deep hatred towards him. That hateful gaze caused the sovereign's heart to clench in pain.

At this moment, inside the room, Baili Yan was hugging her knees and slowly sliding down to the ground.

Outside the room, the main god had already walked to the door of Baili Yan's room. He gently raised his hand, wanting to push open the door, but in the end, he withdrew his hand and turned around to leave.

That handsome figure, however, gave people an endless desolate feeling.

For the first time in his life, the main God felt regret.

His father had taught him that if he took a fancy to something, if he couldn't get it, then he would directly take it. Was that right or wrong?

...

Bai Li Yan didn't know that the Master God had come. She hugged her knees and sat on the cold ground for at least two hours.

After two hours, Bai Li Yan walked to her dressing table in a daze. She reached out to pick up the scissors on the dressing table and pressed them against her stomach.

She didn't want this child!

She was still so young, how could she...

But just as Baili Yan mustered up the courage to stab him, she suddenly thought of her little brother, who had just turned two years old.

He was so cute, his little pink mouth, and he would even use words that were unclear to shout at her:

“Jiejie... Jiejie... Wu... Ba Ji Ba Ji...”

He was so small, so cute, he couldn't even say the word 'sister' clearly, so he called her Jiejie.

Would the child in her stomach be as cute as her own brother?

Baili Yan fell into a panic.

In the end, after a struggle, Baili Yan still planned to abort the child, but still... .. after some time, she would abort him and then make a decision.

She didn't like the sovereign, at least for now, she didn't feel anything.

What's more, he forced her!

Baili Yan was a very strong person. She was also very stubborn.

The more the main god forced her like this, the more she wanted to go against him. She absolutely wouldn't give birth to a child with him!

Thus, Baili Yan began to plan how she could abort the child.

...

Time passed very quickly. In the blink of an eye, another three months passed.

Baili Yan felt that her stomach was already a little bulging.

The God continent was not like Earth. Once pregnant, one could buy medicine to have an abortion. There was no abortion medicine here.

In other words, on the God continent, once a woman was pregnant, under normal circumstances, she would directly give birth to the child. No goddess would think of having an abortion.

There was also no hospital here that could perform an abortion.

Baili Yan was only a little girl in the past. Because she had never come into contact with these things, she thought that getting rid of a child was a very simple matter.

But she was wrong.

In the divine continent, once you get pregnant, you basically have to give birth.

Unless you directly take a knife and stab the child in your stomach to death. But stabbing a child to death not only hurt the child, but also yourself!

There are some things that you haven't come into contact with and don't understand at all. But when you encounter trouble and have to understand this matter, you will find that it is not only you who have encountered such a thing before, there are many people in this world who have already encountered the trouble that you have encountered at this moment.

For example, Baili Yan. Later on, she accidentally heard from a person that there was a mountain in the God continent. On the mountain, there was a kind of medicinal herb that was specially used for abortion.

Therefore, Baili Yan went to that mountain that day.

Unfortunately, that day, Baili Yan searched the entire mountain but didn't find any medicinal herbs. She held her stomach and sat on the edge of the cliff.

The thoughts in her heart drifted far away.

There was a moment when she had the urge to jump off the edge of the cliff or stab the unborn child in her stomach with a knife.

Baili Yan's life was very happy. Her parents, brothers and sisters were very good to her.

The people in the outside world also knew that Baili Yan was a very well-behaved little beauty.

Baili Yan didn't dare to imagine what the people outside would think of her if her pregnancy was exposed...

Baili Yan, who had created a well-behaved image since she was young, couldn't believe it. That kind of feeling of falling into hell after being praised to heaven.

Bai Li Yan shook her head in panic. Just as she was about to stand up, she stepped on nothing and her entire body fell down the cliff...

At the bottom of this cliff was god-destroying rock!

Even if a God fell down, he would die without a doubt!

Bai Li Yan was so scared that her face turned pale. However, when she was about to use her spiritual power to save herself, she suddenly stopped.

In the eyes of the world, people were born to be extremely outstanding. They couldn't accept that there was a stain in their life.

Some people would rather die than be accused of being indecent one day after they became famous.

For example, Baili Yan.

Baili Yan wanted to give up struggling.

She might as well directly fall into this bottomless abyss and fall into this god-exterminating rock.

If she died, everything would be over.

Baili Yan was a very strong woman. She couldn't accept that she was raped and still treated it as if nothing had happened.

Closing her eyes, Baili Yan was about to fall off the cliff.

However, before Baili Yan fell off the cliff, a slender hand grabbed her.

After a long time, she didn't feel the feeling of falling off the cliff. Baili Yan opened her eyes and saw an angry handsome face staring at her.

The owner of this handsome face stared at her for two seconds before angrily saying, "There's god-exterminating rock at the bottom of the cliff. Don't you want to live anymore?!"

The person who had come was none other than the sovereign.

Ever since he had forced Baili Yan, this was the first time the sovereign had shown his face in front of Baili Yan.

But for the past four months, the sovereign had come to the Baili family almost every day to see Baili Yan.

He hadn't missed a single day.

He just didn't dare to appear in front of Baili Yan, afraid that if Baili Yan saw him, she would be agitated.

Today, when he saw Baili Yan leave the Baili household and come to this mountain, the sovereign had been following behind Baili Yan the entire time.

He saw that she seemed to be looking for something, so he followed her all the way, thinking that at the bottom of this mountain was the god exterminating rock. He wanted to follow her and protect her.

But the sovereign had never imagined that Baili Yan would actually want to end her own life!

She actually dared! Die!

When he thought about how Baili Yan had closed her eyes just now, intending to directly fall off the cliff into the god exterminating rock and lose her life, the sovereign's heart tightened. He was so frightened that his face suddenly turned pale. He held Baili Yan's hand tightly, he roared out those words just now.

Seeing the main god who had suddenly appeared, Baili Yan was so frightened that she reflexively wanted to take a step back.

She even forgot that behind her was the cliff and at the bottom of the cliff was the god-exterminating rock.

When the main god saw this, his anger was on the verge of erupting.

"You stupid woman, do you really want to die so badly? Fine! Do You Want to die? ! Since you want to die, then why don't you become the woman under me! "In any case, it's not the first time! "Get some benefits for your Baili family, and serve me well before you die!"

These words were definitely spoken by the sovereign when he was angry.

Baili Yan was actually frightened by the sovereign's appearance.

However, before Baili Yan could react, the sovereign had already grabbed her hand, and in a flash, he brought Baili Yan directly to the Divine Hall.

After bringing Baili Yan back to the Divine Hall's bedroom, the main God threw Baili Yan onto the bed. In a few seconds, he stripped Baili Yan of her clothes.

However, the moment the main God wanted to enter Baili Yan, his gaze fell on Baili Yan's originally thin, but now slightly arched lower abdomen...

Chapter 2294: Chapter 2295 recollection of the past, the Lord God and Yan (5)

When the Lord God saw Baili Yan's clearly protruding abdomen, he immediately stopped what he was about to force Baili Yan to do.

Baili Yan was also stunned.

She had never thought that the Lord God would bring her directly back to the Divine Hall, and even strip off the clothes she was wearing, intending to forcefully attack her...

However, it wasn't until the moment she was stripped of her clothes that Baili Yan finally reacted. At this moment, she wasn't wearing anything at all.

Not only that, since the last time the main god forced her, it had already been five months. During these five months, Baili Yan had been hesitating whether she should directly kill the child in her stomach.

But she couldn't be ruthless.

After five months, her stomach was obviously bigger. Baili Yan was more and more afraid that she would be found pregnant, so the clothes she wore became thicker and thicker. Even on a hot day, Baili Yan wore a thick cotton coat.

If this continued, when she was six months, seven months, that large protruding stomach could no longer be hidden.

That was why Baili Yan was anxious. Today, she heard that there was a kind of herb used for abortion on the nearby mountain. Baili Yan hurriedly ran to pick it.

However, she didn't expect to meet the main god. He was also inexplicably angry and brought her to the Divine Hall. He wanted to treat her the same as he did five months ago...

Of course, none of this was the main point. The main point was that she was currently pregnant.

She was five months pregnant. Wearing thick clothes wouldn't make her look pregnant. However, the main God had just stripped off all the clothes she was wearing in a fit of anger...

In this way, her clearly protruding round belly was completely exposed under his eyes.

At the moment the main god was in a daze, Baili Yan frantically swept the corner of the quilt over her belly and key parts, and glanced to the side, she very uncomfortably reached out to pick up the pile of clothes that the main God had stripped off.

However, before she could pick up the pile of clothes that had been stripped off by the main god, Baili Yan's slender wrist was grabbed by the main god.

At the same time, the main god's magnetic male voice suddenly rang out. There was even a trace of wild joy in his voice. "You're Pregnant?"

Although the main god didn't have the slightest bit of experience, he wasn't stupid. Baili Yan's protruding belly was different from being fat. That round belly that protruded out like a rubber ball was a symbol of pregnancy!

Seeing the main God's face full of joy and surprise, Baili Yan's face suddenly changed in fright. She clutched her belly, lowered her head, and rolled her eyes. She couldn't help but defend herself:

"No! I've been eating more recently, so I've become fat! What? I can't become fat?"

Baili Yan's words were very lacking in confidence, and she was very unfriendly to the main god.

After saying this, Baili Yan pushed the main god away. Then, she put on her clothes sparsely and was about to run out of the house.

She absolutely couldn't let him find out that she was pregnant! She would definitely secretly abort this child in her belly!

However, before Baili Yan could run out of the main God's bedroom, the main god grabbed her wrist and pressed it against the door.

"You're not pregnant? Then what were you doing on the mountain? Were you looking for medicinal herbs that could remove my child from my stomach?" The sovereign was both surprised and angry.

He was angry that she was pregnant and had kept it a secret for five months without telling him!

He was surprised that he was going to be a father...

Having her thoughts pierced, Baili Yan stubbornly tried to pull her hand away from the sovereign's hand.

But she found that she could do nothing.

Bai Li Yan used a face full of hatred to look at the main god, and then angrily said,

“Yes, that's right, I'm pregnant, but I'm not pregnant with your child. Why? Do you really think that I have to have you? I found another man to give birth to this... mm...”

Bai Li Yan had just said this when her mouth was covered.

The main God angrily gagged Bai Li Yan's red lips and kissed her for a long time.

When he let go of Bai Li Yan, Bai Li Yan couldn't even catch her breath.

The main God obviously didn't want to let Bai Li Yan off. He angrily pushed Bai Li Yan onto the bed and pressed her on top of him:

“You found another man after you and I? Fine, then I'll personally test your body to see if you found another man...”

Translator: 549690339

Baili Yan was eaten by the main god again.

But this time, the main god was careful not to hurt the child in Baili Yan's stomach.

Although Baili Yan didn't like the main god treating her like this, it was different from the first time. She was indeed moved by the main God's gentle treatment...

But Baili Yan was a very stubborn person. In Baili Yan's opinion, if he forced her, he forced her.

Even if... ... the second time made her feel comfortable, but Baili Yan just couldn't forget what the Master God had done to her.

He raped her!

...

Not long after, the Baili family found out that Baili Yan was pregnant.

The Master God also came to her door to ask to marry Baili Yan. He stood up without fear and directly admitted that the child in Baili Yan's stomach was his. It was he who forced Baili Yan to have sex with him.

The people of the Baili family dared to be angry at the main god but didn't dare to say anything. After all, the main God at this time was already the ruler of the God continent.

They could only agree to marry Baili Yan to the main god.

After Baili Yan married the main god, she gave birth to a child. That child was called a divine lord.

However, ever since Baili Yan married the main god, she had a gloomy expression. After the child was born, Baili Yan didn't fulfill her role as a mother.

Every time the Lord God had sex with her, Baili Yan did not scream or make a fuss. She allowed the Lord God to torment her, and she became a living puppet.

In the end, there was no joy, anger, sorrow, or joy.

With no other choice, the Lord God let Baili Yan go back to the Baili family.

Occasionally, he would send someone to bring the divine lord to the Baili family to meet his mother. The Lord God himself secretly went to the Baili family to meet Baili Yan. After that, he never appeared in front of Baili Yan again.

For the next few thousand years, the two of them had always been stubborn. They never met face to face again until the sovereign was injured by a mysterious person. The Divine Hall was destroyed, and the sovereign was brought to the Baili family by Si Yi.

Of course, before that, after the sovereign let Baili Yan return to the Baili family, he directly transformed his appearance into that of an old man in his fifties or sixties. He never changed back.

Without Baili Yan's company, he already planned to wear that little old man's appearance for the rest of his life.

It was just that later on, he didn't expect that after being injured, he would recover his original handsome face, which was 80% similar to Si Yi's.

...

This memory was already something that happened tens of thousands of years ago.

At this moment, his soul returned to reality.

Tens of thousands of years had passed. Previously, because of a moment of stubbornness and arrogance with the sovereign, Baili Yan no longer had the hatred that the sovereign forced her to have.

But Baili Yan just couldn't bring herself to accept his goodwill.

After being pulled by the sovereign once more, Baili Yan's waist was almost broken. She held onto her own waist, put on the buttons on the clothes she was wearing, and was about to walk out.

She hadn't even left when she was pulled back by the sovereign. "Yan, sleep a little longer."

"Sleep what? If you want to sleep, sleep on your own! You Get the hell out of the Baili Family!" Saying this, Baili Yan shook off the sovereign's hand and strode forward, wanting to drag the sovereign out of bed.

However, these words that should have been an insult came out of Baili Yan's mouth without any cursing tone.

Her voice was soft and weak, but in the main god's ears, it was as if she was acting coquettishly, which was very comfortable.

The main God grabbed Baili Yan's hand with a flip of his hand, and was about to do some inappropriate things with Baili Yan.

Outside the door, the voice of the Baili family's subordinate could be heard:

"Miss, Lord Divine Lord is here!"

Hearing this, Baili Yan pushed the main god away. "My Son is back! You Old Fart, get lost!"

Although these words were very cruel, when they came out of Baili Yan's mouth, it gave people a soft and tender feeling as if they were flirting.

"That's also my son!" The main god said cheerfully and got out of bed.

...

The subordinate who reported the Divine Lord's arrival waited at the door for a while before he saw Baili Yan walk out.

Just as the subordinate was about to turn around, he saw the master God, who looked 80% like Si Yi, walk out of Baili Yan's room.

When he saw the Master God, the subordinate was stunned.

The subordinate even rubbed his eyes to confirm that he hadn't seen wrongly.

This person...

This person was really the main god!

The grudge between the main god and Baili Yan, everyone in the divine continent knew about it.

But what happened today? Did the sun rise from the West?

The main god and Baili Yan actually walked out of the same room! ?

This was... reconciliation! ?

Translator: 549690339

This subordinate of the Baili family was completely dumbfounded. He was completely dumbstruck, and it took him a long time to react.

In the end, he didn't have time to think about what was going on. This subordinate turned around and caught up to Baili Yan and the main god, walking towards the Baili family's hall.

...

In the Baili family's Hall, Si Yi was standing in the middle.

Seeing Baili Yan and the sovereign walk over, Si Yi didn't waste any more time. He immediately said to Baili Yan, "Mother, you were in a hurry to find me. Did something big happen on the God Continent?"

Hearing Si Yi's words, Baili Yan's eyes moved, and she shook her head. "Nothing big happened on the God continent. It's just that something bad is going to happen on Earth."

"Why do you say that?" Si Yi frowned.

"Hey, let me tell you. Are you going to a place called Death Island?" The main God snatched Baili Yan's right to speak and spoke to Si Yi.

When Si Yi heard this, his eyes darkened. "Yes!"

"Don't go to that damned place! That place was a trap set up by that mysterious person. He wanted you and the sorcerer God's little cutie to enter thousands of continents from Death Island and directly trap you and the sorcerer God's little cutie inside!

"You must know that the biggest obstacle for that mysterious person right now is you! And his next goal is to turn everyone on Earth into his slaves!

"After trapping you, he can attack Earth without any reservations!"

The main god spoke solemnly. These words didn't seem like a joke.

After hearing the main God's words, Si Yi frowned. "How did father know all of this?"

"Aiya, smelly brat, don't ask me how I found out first. My reaction is that I know! Moreover, that mysterious person won't be able to go to Earth for a while."

"But I know that he will soon forcefully open a passage from tens of thousands of continents to earth in puluo city in country Z's eastern province. In this way, the passage from tens of thousands of continents to Earth will become four!"

"However, I don't know the exact location of the passage in Puluo City in the eastern province of country Z yet, but I know that the mysterious person will send his subordinates to attack Puluo City.

"Therefore, after you and the Witch God's little cutie return to country Z, you must go to the local area and investigate the location where the mysterious person opened the passage. Also, follow that direction and you should be able to find the mysterious person's true hiding place!"

The main God's words reached Si Yi's ears.

Upon hearing this, Si Yi's eyes flashed with a profound light. In the next moment, he didn't listen to the main God's words anymore. He turned around and left the Baili family.

"Aiya, Stinky Brat, wait for me. This old man hasn't finished speaking yet!" Seeing this, the main god stood behind Si Yi and shouted. He shouted and wanted to chase after him, but was stopped by Baili Yan.

The main God's current appearance was only a little over twenty years old. This self-proclaimed "Old man" was truly shocking enough.

"So, you damned old man, stop fooling around in front of me! Go back to Your Divine Hall!" Baili Yan glanced at the main god, then walked back to her own room.

"No, no, no! Yan, My Divine Hall hasn't been repaired yet, right? Now, the Divine Hall has already become a ruin. If you don't take me in, I'll have to drink the northwest wind!"

Saying this, the main god laughed and shamelessly chased after Baili Yan's footsteps.

...

Death Island.

Yun Jian had already stayed here for almost three days.

After three days, Si Yi still hadn't come.

Everything on Death Island made Yun Jian feel that something was wrong, but Yun Jian didn't say anything.

Horace, Calvin, Ella, Felic, and the others didn't sense anything wrong. The group of people lived on Death Island. The villa built by Boji could be considered quite luxurious.

Berki and the others were afraid of cloud note, so they gave their villas to cloud note, Horace, and the others.

At 1:30 in the morning that night.

Cloud Note's eyes suddenly opened.

The next second, she got up and went to the other houses in the villa to wake Horace, Calvin, and the others.

"What's wrong with cloud note? It's in the middle of the night..." Calvin and the others still couldn't understand.

However, after they finished speaking, they saw Yun Jian put his hand to his lips, let out a soft “Shh”, and then said,

“Something is wrong with Death Island tonight. We have to leave overnight.”

Chapter 2297: Chapter 2298: biting off the drumstick, Yunjian’s stomach churned

Translator: 549690339

“Something’s wrong? Why is it wrong again? It’s the middle of the night, Yunjian, don’t scare me. I’m timid and scared!” After listening to Yunjian’s words, Ella felt a chill run down her spine, she was so scared that her expression changed slightly.

“Aren’t you fine? You’re so amazing that even the most awesome person on death island, boji, listens to you. Moreover, he’s so scared that he even gave us his villa! Haha! What else can happen? !”

“Yunjian, don’t be so paranoid. You should wash up and go to sleep early. We’ve been living here for three days and nothing has happened! “You woke us up in the middle of the night and told us this. It’s quite scary!” Felic stretched out his hand and yawned, he spoke.

As he spoke, Felic still looked as if he hadn’t woken up.

Felic, who was in his early twenties, was a very lazy young man.

Only Calvin and Horace’s eyes flickered when they heard what the cloud memo said. Both of them agreed with what the cloud memo said:

“Let’s leave Death Island immediately!”

Seeing that Calvin and Horace were no longer calm, AILA, who was a girl in her early twenties, also felt a little uneasy.

“It should be... Alright...” aila comforted herself. When she said this, AILA suddenly felt her heart clench.

Because from the original conversation between cloud note and Berge, although they didn’t understand what cloud note and Berge said, Calvin, Horace, or Ella weren’t stupid.

Naturally, they could hear from the conversation between cloud note and Berge that this place called Death Island seemed to be able to lead to another world!

If that was the case, then...

Thinking of this, a sense of fear flashed through everyone present, and even their hearts couldn't help but tremble.

While Felic, Ella, and the others were talking, Yun Jian had already equipped all of her weapons.

She did not explain further. Instead, she gently waved her hand and said,

"Follow me closely!"

After saying that, she took the lead and walked out of the villa.

She went around the backyard of the villa and did not pass through the tent area where Burky and the others were stationed.

Yun Jian brought Calvin and the others quietly onto the yacht that they came from.

The yacht followed the route and soon sailed back.

When they left, they did not alarm anyone on Death Island.

Obviously, it was difficult for Calvin and the others to alarm anyone if they followed Yun Jian.

After a whole day of sailing, they left Death Island at 8 pm the next day and returned to the dock that they came from country s.

Seeing the dock where they came from, they couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief.

But thinking back, they didn't find anything wrong before. Yun Jian wanted them to leave Death Island with her. What was going on?

Thinking of this, Felic said again, "Actually, nothing happened. Yun Jian, why do you want us to leave Death Island?"

Felic's words did not get a response.

After the yacht was parked, everyone went to the dock. Not long after, a voice sounded.

Not long after, the group of 500 adventurers that were suppressed by cloud note appeared at the dock.

It turned out that they did not leave.

And the leaders were resolutely Jie Wei, Eva, and the others.

Jie Wei had failed to summon 500 adventurers to intercept cloud note and the others. After one of the adventurers was killed by cloud note, although he was afraid, he was unwilling to see cloud note and the others take the yacht to Death Island.

However, Jie Wei didn't leave. Instead, he led this group of 500 adventurers to stand guard here.

When they saw a yacht coming from afar, they all swarmed over.

They wouldn't know if they didn't look, but when they looked, they really were Yun Jian and the others!

Therefore, when he saw Yun Jian and the others, jie Wei directly asked, "Did you guys come back from Death Island?"

After saying that, he was afraid that Yun Jian would kill him like how he killed the adventurer. Jie Wei then said, "Don't misunderstand. We are not here to cause trouble for you. We just want to know about Death Island..."

Yun Jian ignored Jie Wei and the others' goodwill.

After a while, Yun Jian brought Calvin and the others to a hotel near the pier in s nation.

Jie Wei and the others wanted to know about Yun Jian and the others going to the death island, so they all stayed in the same hotel or a nearby hotel.

In the evening, Yun Jian had dinner with Calvin and the others at the dining table. She frowned slightly, feeling that something bad was going to happen.

Death Island was not that simple!

However, just as Yun Jian was thinking about this, she habitually picked up a chicken leg and put it into her mouth.

When she put it in her mouth, she suddenly felt nauseous. She threw up the chicken leg she had bitten off on the table and turned her head sideways to retch...

This bout of vomiting caught her off guard. Yun Jian leaned to the side and retched twice. Then, she reached out and pressed on her forehead.

“Yun Jian, what happened to you?” Seeing that Yun Jian suddenly leaned to the side and retched, Calvin quickly asked Yun Jian with a caring tone.

“I think I ate something bad. It’s nothing.” Yun Jian turned back and pursed her red lips.

Yun Jian didn’t think about this at the moment. Her heart was far away.

On Death Island, she felt a very unusual aura.

It was the aura of a conspiracy.

Although Yun Jian didn’t find any danger before this, she had always trusted her intuition. Therefore, she led Calvin and the others to leave Death Island overnight.

However, Yun Jian had a feeling that things wouldn’t be so simple.

“Then you have to take good care of your body. The health of US Girls is the most important thing! Everything else is Bullsh * t! Come, come, come. When you are not feeling well, you have to eat more nutritious vegetarian dishes! Eat More!”

After listening to Yun Jian’s words, Ella reached out for the chopsticks in Yun Jian’s hand in a friendly manner. She used the chopsticks to pick up some very simple vegetarian dishes on the table and placed them into Yun Jian’s bowl.

The vegetables, radishes, and cabbage were basically boiled in water with a little oil. The cooking was very light, and it was the taste of s nation’s traditional cuisine.

Yunjian did not feel that it was inappropriate for Ella to suddenly express her goodwill. She nodded and ate some light food.

She must have caught a cold.

The group of people finished eating in this restaurant and returned to the hotel.

When everyone returned to their own rooms to sleep, Yun Jian stopped them and warned them in an extremely soft voice:

“Don’t sleep too deeply tonight.”

She didn’t say anything else.

Due to Yun Jian's previous abilities, Horace, Calvin, and the others didn't say anything. They only nodded in agreement.

Night fell.

The wind blew.

It was a night in s nation.

After all, it was winter, and the weather was still very cold.

"Creak, Creak, Creak, Creak!"

The cloud paper closed its eyes and slept in the room. It felt that the window had been pried open with a tool for half an hour before it was finally opened.

From the moment the window lock outside was pried open with a tool, the cloud paper had already felt the sound.

The funny thing was that the person who pried open the window lock outside thought that he had not been discovered, so he pried open the window lock after half an hour.

With a crack, the window lock was finally pried open.

The window was also slightly opened.

A small smoke hole-like thing was stuffed in.

Not long after, dense smoke floated out of the small smoke hole-like thing.

With a sniff, the cloud paper could tell that the smoke blowing out of the smoke hole was a knockout drug.

This knockout drug could make people fall asleep, at least for a short period of time.

This knockout drug was very useful to ordinary people, but to her, it had no effect at all.

She had pried open the window lock for half an hour, and she still wanted to use this low-level knockout drug to knock her out.

The cloud paper curled its cold lips. In the next second, it smoothed out the curved lips and closed its eyes to pretend to be asleep.

When there was no sound in the room, the smoke hole was removed, and the smoke in the room dissipated. Only then did two people come in through the window.

“Is she asleep?”

“She must be! The ingredients in my knockout drug are enough to knock out a cow! Let’s not waste any more time. Let’s hurry up and find something. Once we find something, Let’s Go!”

...

Two sparse voices were heard.

These two sparse voices were a man and a woman.

Even if Yun Jian did not open his eyes, he could tell that the owner of this man and woman’s voices was none other than Jie Wei and Eva!

Jie Wei and Eva had never been to death island before, and Yun Jian and the others did not want to tell them what happened on Death Island after they returned.

Therefore, they had thought of stealing the sky-blue necklace from Yun Jian.

“Found it! It’s Here!”

“Then let’s go quickly! It’ll be bad if she wakes up!”

After searching for about ten minutes, Jie Wei and Eva finally found the sky-blue necklace. They happily walked out of the window, intending to climb out of the house of Yun Jian.

However, just as they walked towards the window...

Three throwing knives suddenly flew past Jie Wei and Eva on their left, upper, and right sides.

The three throwing knives hit the edge of the window that Jie Wei and Eva were about to leave, piercing straight into the snow-white wall.

This sudden change made Jie Wei and Eva tensed up.

Just as the two of them were panicking, the voice of the girl that they thought had been drugged sounded from behind them. There was a hint of a hair-raising meaning in her words:

“Since the two of you are here, why don’t you take a seat before you leave?”

The sound of the cloud note suddenly came from behind Jiewei and Eva.

Jiewei and Eva had rummaged through the cabinets for nearly ten minutes to find the sky-blue necklace after they were sure that the cloud note had been drugged.

There was not a single movement from the cloud note before and after. It was so quiet. If it was not really drugged, could it have been pretending?

That was why Jie Wei and Eva did not suspect that the cloud note would pretend to be asleep.

However, when Jie Wei and Eva took the sky-blue Necklace and were about to walk out of the window, the voice of the cloud note sounded like a ghost.

When the voice fell, Jie Wei and Eva were shocked. Even their faces turned purple.

“You, you, you, cloud note, you were not drugged! ! !” Jie Wei turned around and saw that under the moonlight, the cloud note had already gotten up from the bed and quietly came behind them. It did not make any noise the entire time, like a ghost.

Jie Wei’s eyes widened when he saw this scene. He stared at Yun Jian in disbelief for a few seconds, and his face instantly turned pale from fear.

“Why should I be drugged?” At that time, Yun Jian was holding a butterfly knife in her hand. She held the butterfly knife in her hand and lightly swung it twice. The way she played with the butterfly knife was fast and skilled.

The lights in the room were not turned on. They could only see Yun Jian’s face clearly through the moonlight that shone into the room.

At this moment, Yun Jian held the butterfly knife in his hand like a god of death. In the dark night, he was like an emissary from hell, which made Jiwei and Eva Shiver.

“Yun Jian, I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to stun you! I just want to take this sky-blue necklace, that’s all. Besides, this sky-blue necklace is no longer useful to you!

“You’ve already been to the Death Island, but you won’t tell us what’s on the Death Island. Then why don’t you give us the necklace and let us go to the Death Island!”

Looking at Yun Jian holding the butterfly knife, Jie Wei couldn't help but feel nervous.

Then, he blinked and held the sky-blue necklace tightly, as if he didn't want to give it back to Yun Jian even if he died.

"Coming." Just as Jie Wei was protecting the necklace and refusing to give the sky-blue necklace back to Yun Jian, Yun Jian's calm voice suddenly sounded.

"What?" Jie Wei and Eva were stunned when they heard what Yun Jian said. They didn't understand what Yun Jian meant at all.

Yun Jian narrowed his eyes. Suddenly, she held the butterfly knife and rushed toward Jie Wei and Eva.

The room was only this small. Jie Wei and Eva were standing three meters away from Yun Jian.

Seeing Yun Jian rushing towards them, she looked at the butterfly knife in Yun Jian's hand and recalled the scene where Yun Jian killed people at the dock.

Jie Wei was so scared that he hugged his head and squatted down. He cried out in fear, "I was wrong! I was wrong! I'll return the necklace to you! I'll return it to you!"

However, just as Jie Wei was so scared that he squatted down and apologized, and Eva was so scared that her whole body was trembling, the cloud paper flew past Jie Wei and Eva and directly jumped out of the window.

Jie Wei had yet to hug his head when he suddenly saw this scene. His eyes moved slightly, and in the next second, he was so scared that his face turned pale.

This was the fifth floor!

If the cloud tablet jumped out of the room, it would jump five floors high!

If it jumped from the height of five floors to the ground, it would be strange if a normal person didn't die!

Was she courting death with the cloud tablet! !

Jie Wei and Eva were so scared that they turned their heads to look at the window. Their faces instantly turned pale with fear, and they didn't seem to be able to regain their senses for a long time.

However, when they turned around and looked at the window, they thought that they would see the cloud tablet jump five floors high. If it didn't fall to its death, it would be crippled.

Jie Wei and Eva suddenly widened their eyes and forgot to breathe. All the cells in their bodies were frozen by the cloud tablet's next move. The two of them saw a scene that they would never forget for the rest of their lives —

However, a cloud note jumped out of the window. At a height of almost 15-16 meters, her slim body became more and more beautiful under the moonlight.

And her slim body landed at a speed of light and lightning in a straight line at a height of almost five stories.

An ordinary girl seemed to be carrying magic on her body. Just like a legendary figure, she jumped down from the five-story building and landed on the ground slowly!

This scene did not fit the reality, and it scared Jie Wei and Eva so much that their faces turned pale.

“How, how is this possible! She is not a God! Don't tell me that Yun Jian is a god!”

Jie Wei and Eva were so scared that their eyeballs almost fell out.

This wasn't a realistic scene! It completely overturned what Jie Wei and Eva were thinking!

However, just as the cloud paper landed on the ground.

The snow-white moon in the sky seemed to be dyed red by the blood light. The snow-white Moon actually turned into a crimson moon within everyone's sight!

“What, what is going on... what is going on...”Eva was so scared that she could no longer care about her image. She grabbed Javier's collar and shouted.

Eva's shout attracted Calvin, Horace, Ella, and the others who had been warned by Yun Jian not to sleep too deeply.

However, Calvin and the others ran downstairs and stood shoulder to shoulder with the cloud tablet.

Calvin and the others were shocked when they saw the strange red moon in the sky.

“Today is not a lunar or solar eclipse cycle. How come the Moon in the sky has turned red?”

Calvin stood beside the cloud tablet and his face darkened when he saw this scene.

This strange phenomenon made Calvin horrified.

The cloud paper narrowed its eyes slightly and didn't say anything.

In the next second, her red arc drew a cold arc.

At the moment when the cloud paper drew a cold arc, a wild and unbridled laughter suddenly sounded:

“Hahaha! I didn't expect that you would actually see through me and escape from Death Island! But it doesn't matter. Even if this isn't death island, sorcerer God, I can still find you!”

A fierce male voice sounded. In the next second, a man in a black robe appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

“Boji, that person is Boji!” Horace clenched his fist and shouted when he heard the male voice.

That person's voice was something Horace would never forget for the rest of his life!

That black-robed man was Boji! The leader of the group of people on Death Island who killed Horace's good friend twenty years ago!

Boji, who had been extremely afraid of Yun Jian, seemed to have changed. He looked at Yun Jian from a distance, laughed maniacally, and then tore off the black robe he was wearing.

Everyone was stunned.

What was going on? ! Hadn't boji already admitted defeat to Yun Jian? !

“I've long heard that after betraying the God continent ten thousand years ago and being banished from the God continent, there was no more news of him. He once killed countless innocent immortal cultivators on the God continent, and was known as the great murderer. He was ranked in the top ten on the God continent's power list.

“Seeing him today, he is indeed extraordinary.”

At this moment, Yun Jian's voice suddenly rang out.

She said these words to boji.

At that time, after hearing Yun Jian's words, Calvin and the others were fiercely stunned.

Calvin and the others already knew that there was another world in this world, but Calvin and the others didn't know what the other world was like.

But they could hear it from the words of the cloud note.

This Boki, in the other world, was a big shot that shocked everyone! ?

Although Jie Wei and Eva were confused and didn't know what the cloud note was referring to, they could tell that this boki who suddenly appeared was definitely not ordinary.

After Jie Wei and Eva heard it, their bodies suddenly trembled.

However, just as everyone was shocked by Boji's identity, Boji suddenly sneered at the cloud note in front of everyone.

However, the identity of the cloud note that was revealed from Boji's mouth caused everyone present to be terrified and forgot to breathe for a moment:

"Heh! No matter how famous I, BOJI, AM, I have to admit that I am still far inferior to you! As an immortal cultivator from a low-level continent like the Imperial Dragon Continent, you have the ability to destroy the world!

"In the dispute over who would be the number one continent in the myriad continents, you, the sorcerer God, were merely a mere woman. Yet, you suppressed all the continents, massacred all the experts who refused to admit defeat in the myriad continents, and pushed the imperial dragon continent to the throne of the number one continent in the myriad continents.

"Sorcerer God, I, Boji, would also like to get to know you, who is so powerful!"
