Chapter 2301: Chapter 2302 Touching My Woman, did you agree

Translator: 549690339

1,000 years ago, among the countless thousands of continents in the universe, there was a major event that shocked thousands of continents.

That was, the powerful warriors of thousands of continents came out one after another, wanting to fight for the throne of the first continent for their own continent.

The first continent referred to the countless thousands of continents in the universe, choosing a continent as the ruler of these thousands of continents.

For example, a country had countless provinces, but only one province was the capital, and the capital was the largest jurisdiction of all the provinces.

Similarly, these countless provinces could be compared to the countless thousands of continents in the universe.

And as the capital of all the provinces, it could be compared to the throne of the first continent.

The first continent was a central platform that governed all the continents. To use the most common words, the first continent chose the capital of a country.

Hence, back then, the experts from thousands of continents came forward one after another, wanting to contribute to their own continent and help their own continent ascend to the throne of the first continent.

However, at this moment, the god of sorcerer came forward.

The moment the god of sorcerer came forward, she directly massacred the experts from the thousands of continents who came forward to fight for the throne of the first continent, directly pushing the Imperial Dragon continent onto the throne of the first continent!

If any of the experts from the thousands of continents dared to disobey, the god of sorcerer would annihilate them!

During that period of time, other than the experts from the imperial dragon continent, all the experts from the other continents were annihilated by the god of sorcerer.

Those who refused to submit were killed by the sorcerer God without a second word!
There was not the slightest bit of mercy!

At that time, this matter shocked all the continents, and even reached the ears of the gods from the God continent.

Calvin, Horace, Ella, Javier, Eva, and the others did not understand the specific meaning behind Berki's words, but they could hear from Berki's words just how powerful the sorcerer God was!

Calvin, Horace, Ella, Javier, and the others were completely dumbfounded.

And what Berky meant was...

Cloud paper was from another world! ?

However, from the conversation between cloud paper and Berky, since the two of them could speak in a tone of mutual respect, it meant that they weren't hostile to each other, right?

Thinking of this, Calvin, Horace, Ella, Javier, and the others all heaved a heavy sigh of relief.

But just as everyone was thinking about this, Boki suddenly laughed out loud and spoke impudently:

"Haha, Sorcerer God, at this moment, you should be thinking whether I, Boki, have already joined the hands of the mysterious man?"

"Then I'll tell you clearly now. That's right, I, BOKI, am now the mysterious man's subordinate. Waiting for your arrival on Death Island was also arranged by the mysterious man!"

"I just didn't expect you to discover my purpose and escape!"

"HMPH, but it doesn't matter. Without the Divine Lord's help, I still have a hundred times the potion that the mysterious man gave me!"

"My strength can be increased by a hundred times from the original foundation! In this way, you, sorcerer God, even if you are the legendary figure of the tens of thousands of continents who once had outstanding battle achievements, you are still no match for me!"

Boji spoke with a face full of confidence. As he spoke, he took out a bottle of medicine and was about to lower his head and drink it in front of everyone.

Seeing this, the hearts of everyone present trembled.

Even Yun Zhi narrowed his eyes slightly.

Her strength was indeed above Boji's.

But if Boji drank a hundredfold of the medicine, then she would at most be able to fight boji to a draw...

Even if they were to fight to a draw, she would still be heavily injured...

However, just as Yun Jian was about to fight Bo Ji...

A slender hand suddenly appeared above Bo Ji's head.

After that hand covered Bo Ji's head, it grabbed.

Bo Ji's head, which was still laughing wildly, was instantly crushed on the spot! Blood splattered everywhere!

Everyone who saw this scene was stunned on the spot!

However, just a second before Bo Ji's head was crushed on the spot, everyone heard a furious roar. That magnetic and pleasant male voice carried a coldness that could not be ignored:

"Did you get my permission to Touch My Woman?"

After the magnetic and mellow male voice, which was so rich that it was impossible to find another male voice in this world, was heard, accompanied by a "Chi Chi Chi" sound.

Everyone saw that after the long and slender palm covered boji's head, it actually crushed Boji's head in front of everyone present. It was exactly the same as when a mosquito was crushed to death, and the blood inside the mosquito's body splattered out!

Boji's head was like a mosquito being crushed to death, instantly turning into a pool of blood!

His body was still there, but his head instantly exploded into a pool of blood.

When this scene happened in front of everyone's eyes, it caused everyone's hearts to suddenly tremble.

This change happened suddenly. It was so fast that even boji himself never expected that someone would appear behind him.

Moreover, after this person covered the top of his head with his hand, he actually crushed his own head!

The speed of Boji's death was so fast that everyone present could not react in time.

The hearts of everyone present trembled violently.

For a moment, everyone present was so shocked that they almost suffocated.

The head of a living person was actually...

At that moment, everyone saw a handsome man who was half a head taller than boji suddenly appear behind Boji. He was wearing a black casual shirt.

After the handsome man crushed Boji's head in front of everyone present, he kicked away Boji's corpse that was blocking his way and walked towards the cloud paper.

Everyone present was completely shocked.

"Oh my God! This is too terrifying! Who is this person! He actually... actually..."

Jie Wei and Eva stood on the fifth floor and watched the scene in front of them. When they saw Si Yi walking towards the cloud tablet, they were so scared that they did not know what words to use to describe him.

Such terror was the most suitable word to describe si yi.

Then, Si Yi walked directly to the cloud tablet in front of everyone, grabbed the cloud tablet's hand and walked out.

Everyone watched as Si Yi grabbed the cloud paper's hand and left.

Only Horace shouted at the departing figure of the cloud paper the moment before the cloud paper was taken away:

"Young Lady, Thank You!"

Although it wasn't the cloud paper that avenged him in the end, this handsome man who suddenly appeared clearly had a deep relationship with the cloud paper.

This handsome man had killed Boki for the sake of the cloud paper.

Thus, Horace looked at Yun Jian with grateful eyes as he left.

...

This war had already ended before it had even begun. Yun Jian blinked and took a long time to react.

And when she reacted, Yun Jian had already been pulled by Si Yi onto the bus back to Country Z.

On the way, Si Yi also repeated what the main God had said to her.

After hearing Si Yi's words, Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. She had already made up her mind.

Was It Puluo city in the Eastern Province of Country Z.

Yun Jian had to go.

She did not know when the mysterious person would open the passage to Puluo City from thousands of continents. She did not know the exact location of the passage.

However, Yun Jian had already decided that she would go to Puluo City. She would disguise herself as an ordinary person and look for the exact location where the passage would be opened!

No matter what, as long as there was a glimmer of hope to find the mysterious person, she would not give up.

She would definitely make the mysterious person pay the price!

Seeing the cloud note looking at the window outside the bus, Si Yi's deep eyes flashed. The next second, he placed his handsome hand in front of the cloud note.

Seeing that an egg had suddenly appeared in his hand, the cloud note stopped breathing and was suddenly stunned. "Where did it come from?"

"A little girl gave it to you just now. Eat It," Si Yi said.

Just now, when the cloud paper was distracted, a little girl ran to Si Yi and gave him an egg, then ran away.

It was a cute little girl.

At this moment, Si Yi carefully peeled the shell of the egg and handed it to the cloud paper. He did not plan to eat it himself, but to leave it for her.

Seeing this, Yun Jian's heart warmed.

No matter what the future holds, she will always have him.

Thinking of this, Yun Jian took the egg from Si Yi and put it to her mouth. She bit it and was about to lower her stomach.

However, when she smelled the taste of the egg, the feeling of vomiting that she had previously felt surfaced once again.

The next second, she bent down and could not help but retch again..

Translator: 549690339

Her abdomen, which was connected to her throat, seemed to be surging with a hot wave, returning the food she had swallowed from her abdomen.

Yun Jian had rarely experienced such a thing in the past. When the feeling of vomiting came, she almost reflexively bent down and retched.

There seemed to be something in her abdomen that was about to be vomited out, but when she bent down to vomit, nothing came out.

When Si Yi saw this, his pupils constricted. Then, he used his fastest speed to reach out and place his hand on Yun Jian's back. He patted it gently, but his handsome brows furrowed as he said,

“Little Jian, what's wrong! ?”

After making sure that the eggs were fine, si yi peeled the food for Yun Jian.

Such a low-level mistake was naturally not something Si Yi would make.

After the feeling of vomiting passed, yun jian frowned and stuffed the eggs back into Si Yi's hand. Then, she pursed her red lips and said,

“I don’t feel like eating meat recently. I must have eaten something bad. I’ll recover in two days.”

After Yun Jian said that, Si Yi frowned and placed his hand on Yun Jian’s forehead to check the temperature of Yun Jian’s body.

After making sure that he did not have a fever, Si Yi retracted his hand and said seriously, “When you get home, follow me to the hospital to see a doctor.”

Looking at how she was retching, Si Yi’s heart ached.

“Okay.” Yun Jian nodded.

Only in front of him would she give up all her strength and become a woman that he protected.

In one’s life, if you could find someone who was willing to give up his life to treat you, then you would be very lucky.

As for her, Yun Jian was undoubtedly very lucky.

In the vast and boundless universe, they were born on Earth together and met among the six billion people on Earth. How much luck did it take for her to meet such a perfect person who was willing to give up his life to treat her.

Si Yi half-hugged Yun Jian’s shoulder and let Yun Jian sleep on his shoulder.

When they returned to Longmen City, Si Yi took Yun Jian and went straight to Longmen City’s People’s Hospital.

In this era, cell phones were not popular yet, and it was even more impossible to register with a cell phone. A city’s People’s Hospital was the best hospital in the entire city, so there were many people queuing up at the People’s Hospital to register manually.

When it was not Yun Jian’s turn, Si Yi pulled her to walk around the hospital twice.

There were patients everywhere near the hospital. There were old people pushing wheelchairs outside the hospital to bask in the Sun, and there were also patients who took registration cards manually, waiting to register like Yun Jian and Si Yi.

Although Yun Jian was also a doctor, her medical skills were limited to major injuries.

Some serious knife wounds, gunshot wounds, and other fatal injuries.

For some diseases, she did not deal with them too deeply, but she knew a little about how to use medicine.

When she was walking outside the hospital, she met an old man who was seriously ill. He stood by the flower bed and told stories to a group of children.

It was said that the group of children would come here to listen to the old man's stories after school.

And the old man would happily tell stories to the children all day long with a kind look on his face.

Yun Jian and Si Yi did not go up. They just stood in the distance and took a few glances. Later, they heard two tourists passing by talking to each other and saying that the old man had just been diagnosed with cancer. The hospital said that there was at most three months left.

The old man used to be a people's teacher. After he retired, he used his pension to help many poor children.

Now that the old man was sick, these children walked two to three hours from the town to the hospital every day just to listen to the old man's story and quietly accompany the old man through his final life.

Standing in the distance, looking at the old man and the children laughing, outsiders could not tell that the old man had cancer.

Yun Jian's lips were smeared with a red arc.

After waiting for half an hour, it was Yun Jian's turn to see the Doctor.

It was probably because there were not many patients in the hospital who were admitted to this department, so they did not wait long.

The female doctor took the equipment and took photos of Yun Jian's body. She checked him for quite a while.

In the end, in front of Yun Jian and Si Yi, the female doctor looked outside the door. Seeing that there was no one outside, she asked Yun Jian and Si Yi,

"You two are a couple, right... have you slept together?"

The female doctor was about twenty-five or twenty-six years old. When she asked this question, her face flushed.

It was obvious that the female doctor did not have the experience to ask this question.

As a doctor who treated patients, the female doctor had just graduated from university.

Doctors were not like nurses. People who were doctors spent a lot more time in university than nurses.

Some people only needed to study for four years, but some doctors spent a few more years in university than ordinary college students.

After all, it was not a joke if a doctor accidentally killed someone because he did not study well.

Therefore, he naturally read more books than some college students.

This led to the female doctor being twenty-five or twenty-six years old. In fact, she had only been working in a hospital for about a year.

Therefore, whenever the female doctor needed to ask something more private to treat her illness, she would feel a little shy and unable to say it out loud.

Yun Jian was also stunned when she was suddenly asked this question.

However, before she could finish being stunned, Si Yi grabbed Yun Jian's hand without any fear and said without any restraint, "Of course."

When he said these two words, Yun Jian could even hear a trace of pride in Si Yi's words.

"Cough, cough!" When she said this, even the female doctor coughed awkwardly, trying to ease the awkward atmosphere.

After coughing twice, the female doctor rubbed her forehead and said,

“Recently, the two of you... Cough, don’t share a room with each other. The little girl must have eaten something bad in her stomach, and she’s also a little weak... that’s why she’s vomiting. I’ll prescribe two doses of medicine for the little girl. Don’t ruin her body...”

When the female physician said this, she couldn’t help but rub her forehead again. She felt as if her forehead was about to burst.

When the female physician’s words entered Yun Jian’s ears, Yun Jian wasn’t stupid. He naturally understood what the female physician meant... ..

“Young man, you should restrain yourself. The little girl... Cough Cough, can’t take it...”

Did she mean that Si Yi’s physical strength was too strong?

Yun Jian’s face turned red when he heard that.

Si Yi was indeed very...

Ten times in one night, her waist was almost broken.

After the female doctor said that, she felt a little embarrassed. Fortunately, she lowered her head and used a pen to write a page on the medical record book.

It was very messy and outsiders could not understand it.

After she finished writing, the female doctor handed the medical record book to Yun Jian and Si Yi. She coughed and said, “That’s enough. Go and get the medicine. You should restrain yourself for the past month. The young lady is still developing!”

Si Yi:” ...”

Yun Jian pursed his lips slightly and took the medical record book that the female doctor handed over. He half-held Si Yi’s arm and left.

...

After Yun Jian and Si Yi left the place, they went straight home.

After returning home, Yun Jian also took the medicine that the female doctor had prescribed. She felt a little better, so she did not think too much about it.

At this time, Yun Jian had already returned to Longmen City. She did not care that the boss of Fox Hunter organization, Long XI, had originally planned to accompany her to the island of death. Why had he not appeared at that time.

It was probably because he had other matters to tie him down. This wasn't important to Yun Jian. At this moment, Yun Jian planned to mingle in Puluo city in eastern province and pay attention to the mysterious person's actions at all times.

She didn't plan to go to Jiang City University of Electronics and technology again. Even if she wanted to go, she would have to wait until everything was over.

Longmen City, Famous People's Hospital.

After a day of hard work, the female doctor was just about to take off her work clothes and change back into her original clothes when she suddenly remembered that in the afternoon when she saw Yun Jian, she seemed to have forgotten to massage her stomach to check if she was pregnant.

The couple was together and they even shared a room. At that time, she was shy when she heard about such things and had no experience, so she actually forgot to massage the little girl's stomach for a while!

An experienced doctor could check if a girl was pregnant by pressing her stomach.

"Come on, come on, I'm such a jerk! But it can't be such a coincidence, right?" The female doctor shook her head, but fortunately, she didn't think about it anymore.

At this moment, Yun Jian did not know that the female doctor had forgotten to press her stomach in a moment of confusion.

She had been eating relatively light these days. When she left the hospital, the female doctor had told her that she had eaten something bad in the past two days, so she had to eat as much light food as possible while eating. The most important task was to recover her stomach.

After returning to Longmen City for two days, Yun Jian wanted to go to Puluo City. She had made an agreement with Si Yi.

Because the mysterious person had been injured by Si Yi a few years ago, he could not come to Earth directly in the near future. Therefore, Yun Jian was in charge of heading to Puluo City, she secretly looked for the specific location where the mysterious person would open the passage connecting thousands of continents to puluo city.

Si Yi returned to the god continent to deal with some things that he had to deal with before returning to Earth to meet with Yun Jian.

However, before this, Si Yi left Yun Jian with a crystal ball that could be contacted from Earth to his body on the God continent at any time.

This crystal ball was only the size of a pinky finger. It was an ordinary crystal ball miniaturized version.

If Si Yi was on the god continent and Yun Jian could not contact him with his phone, then he would break this crystal ball and rush to her side at the first possible moment.

Country Z, East Province, Puluo City.

East province was very far from Zhejiang province.

And East Province's Puluo City was a first-tier city in country Z. whether it was in terms of transportation or development, it was very avant-garde.

Compared to Zhejiang province's Longmen City, Puluo City was a first-tier city in country Z. Longmen City was just an ordinary city. The two were on completely different levels.

For example, when the average monthly income of the people in Puluo city was around 6,000 to 7,000 yuan, the average monthly income of the people in Longmen city was only around 1,000 to 2,000 yuan.

This was the difference.

The difference between a first-tier city and an ordinary city.

Of course, in Puluo City, the monthly income was high, and the amount of money spent was also higher than Longmen City. The two were equal.

And in a large place like Puluo city, the most abundant people were probably the rich.

Just like that, the three richest families in puluo city, the Luo family, the Wei family, and the Hong family, the third-ranked Wei family's long-lost daughter, had been found!

Therefore, when the Wei family's master was happy, he held a feast at a five-star hotel in Puluo City, inviting the upper class people.

At this moment, at 6 pm sharp.

At the entrance of the five-star hotel.

Countless people from the upper class came in one after another to congratulate Master Wei who was standing at the entrance of the hotel.

The Wei family was ranked third among the three richest families in Puluo City! Their status was naturally not to be underestimated.

And Master Wei's youngest daughter, Wei Lin, was lost when she was eight years old. Master Wei looked for his youngest daughter, Wei Lin, for a whole decade! He had finally found the truly lost Wei family's youngest daughter, Wei Lin!

That was why he was holding a feast.

"Hahaha, everyone, please! Everyone, Please!"The Wei family's master, Wei Xiao, was cupping his hands toward the people who had come to celebrate and inviting them into the hotel.

The scene was extremely lively.

Only when all the guests had entered the venue did the main character appear.

At this moment, the Wei family's master, Wei Xiao's youngest daughter, Wei Lin, who had been lost for ten years before she was found, was brought to the venue.

The young girl who entered the scene was just eighteen years old. She was very beautiful. Her pair of big eyes that seemed to be able to speak blinked. Her skin was so smooth that a woman would not be able to move her eyes away. Coupled with her high nose bridge that was just right..., as well as her bright red little mouth...

When Wei Lin, the young daughter of Wei Xiao, who had been lost for ten years, was brought to the scene, the entire scene was silent!

Beautiful!

Too Beautiful!

Too Beautiful!

This eighteen-year-old young girl who entered the scene was so beautiful that everyone present forgot to breathe!

“Hahaha! Wei Xiao, you old thing can actually give birth to such a naturally beautiful daughter! Unbelievable!” A middle-aged man stared at the young girl for quite a while before speaking to Wei Xiao.

Wei Xiao only smiled and did not speak a word.

Meanwhile, the young girl had a timid look on her face the entire time, as if she had never attended such a gathering before.

The banquet ended.

The young girl was brought to the Wei family’s old master, Wei Xiao’s study room.

The moment this extremely timid young girl entered Wei Xiao’s study room, her previous timidity had completely disappeared.

That’s right, this young girl was none other than Yun Jian, who had come from Longmen City to Puluo City!

At this moment, Yun Zhi’s timid look from the banquet had faded away. Her sudden reversal into a king-like aura made Wei Xiao, the Wei family’s old master, Tremble. He looked to the side and did not look at Yun Zhi’s eyes, only then did he block the strong king-like light from Yun Zhi.

At that time, Yun Zhi was not as timid as she had been in the banquet. When Yun Zhi, who had faded away her fearful and timid look, met Wei Xiao’s eyes, a faint smile appeared on her face.

Then, she took two steps towards Wei Xiao and walked past him to the chair that should have been Wei Xiao’s. She sat down on the chair and crossed her legs.

Her lazy expression made Wei Xiao swallow his saliva, and he shivered.

Yun Jian sat on the chair and crossed her legs. She narrowed her eyes and looked at Wei Xiao.

Wei Xiao then said, "After this is done, can you... can you really help me find my youngest daughter, Wei Lin?"

Wei Xiao asked this question very carefully, as if he was afraid that he would anger Yun Jian.

Wei Xiao did not know where the Yun Jian came from or what he did in the past.

He only knew that the identity behind the Yun Jian was very powerful.

"As long as you play your role well and do not reveal our cooperation to anyone during this period of time, I will definitely fulfill your request for you, my dear... Father?"

After the Yun Jian finished speaking, her eyes flashed sharply. She raised a beautiful arc and looked at Wei Xiao with a faint smile.

For some reason, the words of the Yun Jian caused Wei Xiao to be moved for a moment.

Therefore, Wei Xiao nodded his head heavily. "I won't tell anyone. Even my wife and children have already determined that you are the daughter that I have found after being lost for so many years!"

"As long as you can help me find my youngest daughter, Wei Lin, I will definitely hide it for you!"

Wei Xiao's words caused Yun Jian's eyes to move slightly and he smiled faintly without saying a word.

After coming out of Wei Xiao's study, Yun Jian walked down the stairs of the Wei family's villa.

That's right, she planned to use the identity of the Wei family's youngest daughter to sneak into Puluo City and keep an eye on the abnormalities in puluo city.

If there was any disturbance, she would personally step out. How could there be any accidents?

Just as she went downstairs, before she reached the bottom of the building, Yun Zhi saw a very beautiful woman dressed in pretty clothes blocking in front of her.

Seeing this, Yun Zhi did not intend to pay attention to her and walked to the side.

However, when this woman saw Yun Jian ignoring her, she got angry and rushed over to block Yun Jian. The woman said angrily to Yun Jian,

“Wei Lin! How can you look at the road! Can’t you see me or something! How come I’m your biological sister? You’ve been lost for so many years, and your temper has grown, or do you think you’re powerful?”

This woman was the biological sister of Wei Lin, Wei Min, who Yun Jian was pretending to be.

Wei Min was Wei Lin’s sister.

Wei Xiao had three children: his eldest son, Wei Ze, his second daughter, Wei Min, and his third daughter, Wei Lin.

Wei Xiao’s third daughter, Wei Lin, had been separated since she was eight years old, and it had been ten years since then.

Once ten years passed, a person’s appearance would undergo a drastic change.

Therefore, it was not surprising that Wei Xiao’s second daughter, Wei Min, could not tell whether the Yun Jian was real or fake.

At that time, the cloud note, which was blocked by Wei Min, blinked and ignored Wei Min. Instead, it went around Wei Min and walked toward the door.

Seeing that the cloud note ignored her, Wei Min shouted loudly at the back of the cloud note:

“Why did you come back! Such a rude girl is not my sister! Why Don’t you just die outside for the rest of your life! Why did you come back!”

Watching the cloud note walk out of the Wei family’s Gate, Wei Min clenched her fists with hatred. Her clenched fists were trembling violently. She looked as if she wanted to rush forward and tear the cloud note into pieces on the spot.

Seeing the cloud note ignore her and leave the Wei family, Wei Min recited a few words in her heart with hatred:

Why did you come back! When you were born, you took away my brother's love and my parents' love! Why did you come back now! Is it because I didn't throw you far enough back then! I actually left you a chance to find your way back home!

However, before Wei Min could finish thinking about this sentence in her heart, her brother Wei ze's voice sounded from behind her. "Sister, why are you standing here?"

Wei Min's looks were average, but her figure was not bad.

Their father, Wei Xiao, was short and looked very ordinary. Wei Min inherited her father's looks, so she was not considered good-looking.

However, Wei Min knew how to put on makeup, so she covered up most of her ugly face.

Wei Min's brother, Wei Ze, was very handsome. No one knew who he inherited it from. Wei Ze was a popular campus belle in the university!

"Brother! Wei Lin, she just saw me and left without saying goodbye. I called her but she ignored me. I'm... .. I really miss her as a sister. I've thought about her for ten years. I'm really happy that she's back ! But she.. .. She doesn't seem to want to see me... .."

Wei Min rolled her eyes and said to Wei ze with a pained expression.

This made Wei Ze, who originally had a glimmer of hope for his sister, who had been separated for more than ten years, turn gloomy.

Wei Ze did not say anything else.

Yun Jian stayed in the Wei family for three days. In general, the Wei family treated her well, eating well and wearing good clothes.

Three days later, Yun Jian was arranged to attend a university in a noble college in Puluo City.

This noble college in Puluo city included primary, secondary, high school, and university.

Here, as long as you had money, you could enter.

Those who entered this noble college in Puluo City were all rich children without exception.

There were one or two people who had excellent academic results but poor family conditions who were specially recruited into the school. However, under normal circumstances, such students would be isolated in the school.

On this day, the weather was clear and the sun was shining brightly. In the early morning, it gave people a very fresh and comfortable feeling.

Yun Jian carried his school bag on his side and went to the aristocratic college called the Royal Emperor College.

At the gate of the Royal Emperor College, the vehicles that came and went to send the children to and from school were all high-end sports cars, limited edition supercars.

Yun Jian jogged directly from the Wei family to the school.

Therefore, when they arrived at the school gate, the Yun Jian that did not have a luxury car to transport them became a special case that attracted a lot of attention.

The Yun Jian did not care.

They entered the school normally, and after reporting to the class once, they were free to study.

The University of the Royal College was similar to an ordinary high school. The students of the university all sat in the same classroom, studying from morning to night.

However, compared to the ordinary high school, the students in the university were all rich children from rich families. Therefore, during class, the students would either sleep or play with their mobile phones.

Although the Royal College's University was different from the ordinary university and was similar to the way of studying in an ordinary high school, it was much more comfortable than the ordinary university.

Other than having to be like an ordinary high school student in class from morning to night, you could do whatever you wanted here.

Even the truant teacher wouldn't dare to say no to you.

After Yun Jian entered the school, he briefly introduced himself to the students in the class, but no one paid attention to him.

At that time, Yun Jian was arranged to sit in the back seat of the classroom.

The students in the classroom, both male and female, were rich second generation.

In 2003, mobile phones had begun to officially enter the market of Z country. At this time, games such as gluttonous snake in mobile phones began to emerge, and many people who had mobile phones were playing happily.

The students in the classroom were either playing with their mobile phones, sleeping, or playing games. It was full of upper-class life.

Yun Jian's classmate was a male classmate. At this time, this male classmate was fiddling with his mobile phone in distress. He was mumbling to himself, but he did not see Yun Jian at all:

"DAMN! This damn thing is broken again! I'll get my dad to throw you into the recycling factory later! I'll let you be bad!"

The male student fiddled with the turn-on button of his phone, but there was no sound.

When Yun Jian saw this, her eyes narrowed slightly. The next second, she said, "Give me your phone."

The male student who suddenly heard Yun Jian's words raised his head and looked at Yun Jian for two seconds. Then, he said in a daze, "You know how to fix it?"

"Yes." Two flat words sounded.

The male student was not pretentious. He threw the phone to Yun Jian.

The cloud paper picked up a black pen and used the tip of the pen to take apart all the parts of the male student's phone.

"Hey Hey Hey, you broke my phone. What should I do?" Seeing this, the male student was stunned and shouted.

"Don't be noisy." Two simple words that were enough to suppress the male student came out of the cloud paper's mouth.

Hearing this, the male student's heart suddenly froze, and he didn't say anything.

At that time, when the male student saw Yun Jian disassemble the cell phone parts, he reassembled them, and then put all the cell phone parts back into the cell phone.

That speed was so fast that it was as if she knew quite a bit about the internal parts of the cell phone...

However, just as the male student was shocked by Yun Jian's speed in assembling the cell phone, Yun Jian had already thrown the cell phone back into his hand that had successfully turned on. She said coldly, "It's done."

In just half a minute, she took apart the phone parts and assembled all the phone parts back together!

This speed and efficiency made the boy's eyes widen and his mouth widen. He was stunned on the spot.

"You... How did you do it? My phone hasn't been working for a few days. How did you take out all the parts in the phone and then completely install it back?"

"And my broken phone was actually turned on by you?"

After the male student recovered from his shock, he looked at Yun Jian with a shocked expression and said in a daze.

Just as the male student asked Yun Jian with a shocked expression, Yun Jian, who was sitting at the desk next to the male student, pursed her lips. She put her index finger to her lips and made a "Shh" gesture. Then, she said,

"As long as you promise me one thing, I will fix your phone in the future."

Of course, Yun Jian didn't fix this male student's phone for free. She could infer from his words and actions that this male student was from a very wealthy family.

However, the phone in the male student's hand was already very old. The model of the phone was also an old model from last year, and it had been used for a long time.

For a rich second generation to use a broken phone for such a long time, it was enough to prove one point.

His pocket money had been deducted by his family.

The point that Yun Jian had raised just now was almost straight to the heart of the male student. Therefore, after listening to Yun Jian's words, the male student who had pretended not to see Yun Jian at the beginning looked at Yun Jian with an excited face, then, he said with a face full of joy,

“Really? “Good, good, good. As long as it is within my ability, I will agree to you!
“Speaking of which, you’re a new student, right?”? “Heh, from now on, you’ll be studying at our Imperial College. Whoever dares to provoke you, just tell me. I’ll back you up!”

The male student’s face was filled with excitement.

Yun Jian’s red arc was slightly raised as he replied indifferently, “Yes.”

“Oh right, I haven’t asked what your name is yet.”From the beginning, the male student couldn’t be bothered to look at Yun Jian. Now, he was looking at Yun Jian squarely.

Imperial College was an aristocratic college. The female students here were all from wealthy families. Their families were rich, and they liked to dress up.

Therefore, no matter how ugly the girls in the college were, they wouldn’t be that ugly.

In short, there was no shortage of beautiful girls in the college.

Therefore, even though Yun Jian was naturally beautiful, this group of students who were used to seeing beautiful girls only looked at Yun Jian twice.

After the male student said this, Yun Jian slightly pursed her lips and calmly replied, “Wei Lin.”

“Ha! My surname is Luo, Luo Jiachen.”This male student who called himself Luo Jiachen introduced himself to Yun Jian.

Luo Jiachen’s Luo family was the head of the three richest families in Puluo City.

The Luo family, Hong family, and Wei family were ranked in turn.

The Luo family had the highest status in Puluo City.

And Luo Jiachen was the most mischievous, playful, and irresponsible youngest son of the Luo family.

Yun Jian nodded.

“By the way, what did you say you wanted me to promise you?”Luo Jiachen only spoke after she got to know Yun Jian.

“You’ll know when the time comes.”Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. After she finished speaking, she didn’t speak anymore.

At 6:30 pm, the school ended early. Yun Jian packed her bag and walked towards the school gate.

However, when Yun Jian was halfway there, her eyes suddenly moved.

The next second, she turned around and walked towards the back of the school mountain.

In that instant, she felt the spiritual energy fluctuation at the back of the school mountain.

Yun Jian did not hide her aura as she arrived at the back of the school mountain.

She saw two groups of people standing at the back of the school mountain. These two groups of people were students from the Imperial College.

And at this moment, one of the students had already been subdued by the other group of students.

Yun Jian saw his "Elder sister" wei min and "Elder brother" Wei ze among the students of the winning side.

They were also the elder brother and elder sister of Wei Lin that Yun Jian was pretending to be.

"Hand over the things!"

However, he only saw Wei Min and Wei ze standing next to a very outstanding, handsome, grass-level male student who was compared to the other male students of the school. He was the target of the young girls.

This male student's gaze was very sharp and his face was cold. He shouted at one of the students who had been subdued.

And among the students who had been subdued, there was one who was fiercely protecting something. It looked like he had been struggling for a long time.

"F * ck! Break his legs! Let's see if he will hand it over!" Right at this moment.., a male student with red hair shouted in a furious voice. He picked up an iron rod from the side and directly smashed it towards the thigh of the student who was fiercely protecting the thing in his arms.

"Ah!" The student cried out in pain after being hit by the iron rod and almost fainted.

Yun Jian, who was hiding in the dark, narrowed her eyes.

However, just when Yun Jian was about to watch the show with her arms crossed and had no intention of hiding, the sharp-eyed boy suddenly looked in her direction and shouted at the same time, "Who is there!"

Hearing this, Yun Jian's eyes twitched.

This person was quite vigilant.

Hearing this, Yun Jian did not put on an act. She put down her arms and walked out.

When she saw Yun Jian, her sister in name, Wei Min, was shocked and her face darkened. Then, she shouted at Yun Jian in front of everyone,

"Wei Lin! Why are you here!"

Wei Lin was Yun Jian's current identity.

Hearing Wei Min's words, the group of students standing beside Wei Min gasped in shock.

Especially the boy who dyed his hair red. After hearing Wei Min's words, the red-haired boy rushed to the front of the Yun Jian and shouted in shock at Wei Min:

"Min 'er, this is your sister who was lost for ten years before she was found, Wei Lin?"

The red-haired boy's name was Hong Ling.

Hong Ling's Hong family was ranked second among the three big families in Puluo City.

And Hong Ling was the only son of the Hong family.

Therefore, he was usually very ruthless. The person who had raised the iron rod and directly smashed the thigh of the student who was protecting something in his arms was Hong Ling.

Wei Min's expression froze when Hong Ling pointed out that Yun Jian was her biological younger sister, Wei Lin, who had been lost for ten years. A look of displeasure flashed across her face.

However, in front of everyone, Wei Min clearly loved face.

Furthermore, Yun Jian saw that Wei Min was using a bashful gaze to size up the sharp gaze just now. From the beginning until the end, she had a cold expression on her face. She looked like a handsome boy who was highly sought after by young girls. After that, she said,

“That’s right! This is my sister, Wei Lin, who has been lost for ten years. My Sister has been lost for ten years. I don’t know what kind of suffering she has suffered outside! Is she being bullied?”!

“I heard that in the news reports, many girls are... will be spoiled... Lin ‘er, I’m really sad that I haven’t been by your side to protect you!”

Wei Min glared at Yun Jian and said these words.

In front of everyone, Wei Min was a sister who cared about her sister.

But her words were slandering Yun Jian, who had been taken away for ten years, and who knew if she had been ruined by a man before. Perhaps she was already a female cousin who was ridden by tens of thousands of people!

Hearing Wei Min’s words, everyone present looked at Yun Jian with a strange expression.

Even their brother Wei Ze, who had been missing for ten years and felt a trace of pity for his sister, instantly lost his good impression of Yun Jian.

Unlike the reactions of the surrounding people, Yun Jian’s gaze was sharp and cold from the beginning until the end. He looked like a boy who had been courted by a young girl and cast a sidelong glance at Yun Jian, revealing a trace of interest.

This girl did not feel afraid when she saw Hong Ling smash the leg of that ordinary student with an iron rod in front of everyone?

This sharp gaze had a cold expression on his face from the beginning to the end. The boy who was being pursued by the girls was called Luo Jiajun.

That’s right, Luo Jiajun was the biological brother of the male classmate Luo Jiachen that Yun Jian had met in the classroom.

And Luo Jiajun was not only the eldest son of the Luo family, who was the leader of the three great families. He was also the school Belle that all the girls in the school pursued.

At that time, Luo Jiajun looked at Yun Zhi with a slightly playful gaze.

At that moment, everyone present thought that after hearing Wei Min's words, Yun Zhi would be so moved that he would rush into Wei Min's embrace and cuddle up with her "Biological sister", Wei Min.

Or perhaps it was when he saw Hong Ling using an iron rod to smash that student's thigh, causing him to be so frightened that he would shout out loud like an ordinary female student.

However, everyone only saw Yun Zhi walking towards the student whose thigh had just been smashed.

When an ordinary female student saw such a dark scene, she would definitely shout out loud in fear.

When everyone saw Yun Zhi walking towards the student whose thigh had just been smashed, they thought that Yun Zhi would be like an ordinary female student who would even cherish the sight of an ant being trampled to death to cherish this student whose thigh had been smashed.

However, they only saw Yun Jian walking over without saying a word and stepping on the student's leg that had been crushed by an iron rod.

The injury was compounded.

The student was stomped on by Yun Jian and cried out in pain. The thing that she was protecting was also thrown out.

Yun Jian successfully caught the thing that the student threw out. Then, in front of everyone present, including Luo Jiajun, Hong Ling, Wei Ze, and Wei Min, who were all dumbfounded.., "I'll Take Your Thing."She said to the student whose thigh had been smashed:

"I'll Take Your Thing."

I thought that Yun Jian would walk up and pity the student whose legs had been broken by the iron rod like an ordinary girl, or he would look at the student whose legs had been broken by the iron rod with a terrified expression, he looked at them in disbelief that they would actually dare to do such a thing.

But who knew that Yun Jian would walk up and step on the thigh of the student whose legs had been broken by the iron rod without saying a word. This caused the student to feel so much pain that he almost fainted, and the thing he was holding was directly thrown out!

This sister of Wei Min's who had been separated from the Wei Ze family for ten years was finally found. When she saw the dark scene in the school, she was actually not afraid at all?

Not only that, she stepped on the student's thigh without any fear. She simply and violently snatched the thing that the student was protecting from him!

When Luo Jiajun saw this scene, he narrowed his eyes and looked at Yun Jian with a strange gaze.

This little daughter that the Wei family had just found was not ordinary! She was completely different from other young girls!

She had really successfully attracted his attention.

Wei Ze and Wei Min were completely dumbfounded.

They had never expected that their little sister, who had been separated for ten years, would be so timid that she would hide in her mother's arms when she saw a cockroach or mouse!

Not only did she dare to watch the scene of her legs being broken by the iron rod, but she also dared to walk over and step on the man's mangled legs, she forced him to return the thing he was protecting in his arms!

Ever since his sister, who had been missing for ten years, returned home, this was the first time Wei Ze had looked at Yun Jian with his eyes.

Wei Min was so frightened that her face suddenly changed.

Even someone like her, who often saw school fights and students beating each other until their heads were bleeding, would be terrified when she saw Yun Jian's actions just now.

And she actually did it so naturally!

"F * CK, Ze, your little sister, who has been lost for ten years, is quite fierce! "Too f * cking fierce. I just crippled that fellow's leg and tightly protected the thing in his arms. When she stepped on it, that fellow was in so much pain that he couldn't care about anything else!"! "Too F * cking fierce!"

When Hong Ling, who had just smashed that student with an iron rod, saw this scene, his shocked expression suddenly changed. The descendant walked up to Wei Ze and grabbed his shoulder, shouting at Wei ze in shock.

At this moment, Yun Jian took the thing that was thrown out from the student's hand and turned around to leave.

The thing that Yun Jian took was a fan.

However, it was different from an ordinary fan. There was a faint layer of spiritual energy on the surface of this fan.

Regardless of whether this fan came from thousands of continents or not, Yun Jian was certain that this fan was definitely related to thousands of continents!

Just as Yun Jian was about to turn around and leave, Wei Min's voice continued, "Lin 'er! Wait!"

Wei Min's shout sounded as if she really welcomed Yun Jian, her biological sister, back.

Hearing this, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes and stopped in his tracks.

"Lin 'er, since you're back, I'll introduce you to everyone!" Wei Min looked at Yun Jian with the expression of a loving elder sister and said.

Students who attended ordinary schools had their own circle of friends, not to mention students who attended an elite school.

People with a family background like Wei Min usually hung out with people of similar family backgrounds.

Moreover, in an elite school like this, people who lived alone would not be able to find friends, so the situation would be very awkward.

Therefore, after everyone heard Wei Min's words, they all waited for Yun Jian to integrate into the group.

However, after Yun Jian stopped, he turned his head slightly and coldly said something that everyone present did not expect:

"There's no need."
